1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. II. (1626) 26 Pale sudden feare vn-nerves his quaking thighs. 1697 Addison Ess. Georgics 8 In Dryden's Virgil The Precepts..are often so minute.. that they weaken and un-nerve his Verse. 1725 Pope Odyss. xv. 448 When a length of years unnerves the strong, Apollo comes. 1792 S. Rogers Pleas. Mem. II. 111 The spectre Poverty unnerv'd his frame. 1856 J. Gilbert Chr. Atonem. ix. (1859) 271 The sight of mercy so transcendent..has unnerved the power of determined obduracy. 1850 Merivale Rom. Emp. xxi. II. 453 This consciousness..unnerved his arm for the execution of the Herculean task. 1870 Bryant Iliad v. l. 175 The weariness of toil unnerves thy frame.
2. To deprive (the mind, etc., or a person) of firmness or courage; to render incapable of acting with ordinary firmness or energy.
1704 Moderat. Display'd v, A Modern Coward Principle design'd To stifle Justice, and unnerve the Mind. 1725 Pope Odyss. xii. 245 Fear seiz'd the mighty, and unnerv'd the brave. 1780 Cowper Progr. Err. 272 'Tis not alone the grape's enticing juice Unnerves the moral pow'rs, and mars their use. 1791 Newte Tour Eng. & Scot. 57 The horrid and incessant din..unnerves and overcomes the heart. 1844 Talfourd Athenian Captive i. 1, I speak of mortal sickness, and unnerve A soul of noble essence. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 125 The fear which it seems to have inspired completely unnerved the Romans.

Hence Unne·rving ppl. a.
1722 Hamilton Wallace v. (1810) 172 And sure while Scotia's enemies remain, Unnerving love should ever sue in vain. 1842 P. Whitehead Gymnasiad III. 53 He, alas! had felt th' unnerving Blow. 1821 Clare Vill. Minstr. (1823) I. 7 The mystic tribes of night's unnerving breeze. 1894 Crockett Raiders 354, I had that sense of being hunted, which comes so quickly and is so unnerving.

Unne·rved, ppl. a. [See prec.] Rendered nerveless or weak; unmanned.
1602 Shaks. Ham. II. ii. 466 With the whiffe and winde of his fell Sword Th' vnnerved Father falls. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharronida I. 398 Whilst her brother stands Unnerved with grief. 1718 Rowe tr. Lucan 33 Then Sons forsook their Sires unnerv'd and old. 1782 Cowper Retirem. 677 A mind unnerv'd, or indispos'd to bear The weight of subjects worthiest of her care. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xx. IV. 429 Her recent efforts..had left her spent and unnerved. 1894 S. Fiskr Holiday Stories (1900) 83 The situation was becoming terribly strained... Tom had given way under it, and was completely unnerved.

Unnes, variant of Unneathes adv. Obs.

Unne·st, v. (Un-[2] 5. Cf. Du. ontnesten.) Chiefly fig. (In first quot. intr.)
c 1374 Chaucer Troylus iv. 305 O soule, lurkynge in his wo, vnneste; Fle forth out of myn herte. c 1532 Du Wes Introd. Fr. in Palsgr. 941 To unneste, denister. c 1600 Chamberlyne Theolmas & Cl. (1658) 120 A lexis rising thanks his prudent care And as his Father lov'd him; all prepare T'unnest these Pyrates. ? 1658 J. M. in Cleveland Wks. (1687) 283 The Presbyterian he did un-nest, With the whole Kennel o' th' two-footed Beast. 1679 J. Somerville Mem. Somerville (1815) I. 222 The queen..encourages the souldiers ..to unnest from that hold the ancient enemies of her countrey. 1790 A. Wilson To J. Kennedy Poet. Wks. (1846) 16 As..seeming doubts when told oft take to wing, Permit me here some miseries to unnest, That long have harbour'd in my labouring breast. 1879 H. W. Warren Recr. Astron. iv. 58 The earth on its softly-spinning axle never jars enough to unnest a bird or wake a child.

Hence Unne·sted ppl. a.
1860 Patmore Faithf. for Ever i. 1, No more the unnested blackbird's shriek Startled the light-leaved wood.

Unne·stle, v. (Un-[2] 3 + Nestle v.[1] Cf. Du. ontnestelen.) Chiefly fig.
c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode ii. cix. (1869) 216 He vnnestleth the hye bridde, and overthroweth here feedinge. 1592 Bacon Confer. Pleasure (1890) 20 Leste anie man should think her intent was to unnestle lil neyghbors. 1658 Evelyn Fr. Gard. (1675) 101 There be a Green-Worm which devoure the young shoots.., and those are very hard to un-nestle. 1694 Motteux Rabelais v. ix. 43 Murther all the Kings.. in the world,..unnestle the Angels from their Cock-loft.

Hence Unne·stling vbl. sb.
1653 Urquhart Rabelais i. xxiv. 113 Unnestling of sparrowes, taking of quailes, and fishing for frogs.

Unnet, var. Unnut a. Obs. Unnet (uncompelled): Un-[1] 3. Unneth(s, etc., varr. Uneath(s.

Unne·tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1833 Tennyson Blackbird 7 The unnetted black-hearts ripen dark..against the garden wall. 1860 ' Ouida ' Tricotrin I. 20 Like the bloom to an unnetted peach.

Unneu·tral, a. (Un-[1] 7.)
1782 Earl Malmesbury Diaries & Corr. (1844) I. 486 It is in vain to remind her now..very unneutral her Armed Neutrality is. [Frequent in recent use.]

Unneu·tralized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
1758 Elaboratory Inld Open 136 A redundant portion of a[n] unneutralized acid. 1771 T. Percival Ess. (1777) I. 31 If they remain unneutralized in the first passages, they will powerfully promote putrefaction. 1848 A. S. Taylor Poisons 202 The action of sulphuric acid in an unneutralized or imperfectly neutralized condition. 1881 Tyndall Ess. Floating Matter 90 Two [shades] containing strong turnip-infusion and hay-infusion unneutralized.

†Unne·vened, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. ON. óneifnd-r, Da. unævnt.] Unnamed. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 727 Jat nas neuer lyn note, vnnevened hit worbe, jat art so gaynly a god & of goste mylde! †Unnew·sed, ppl. a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 8.) 1644 Quarles Sheph. Orac. x, Nuncius never uses To come unnew'd.

Unni·che, v. (Un-[2] 5.) 1771 Ess. fr. Batchelor (1773) I. 30 It is my ambition to un-nich Saint Charles, and place him in his proper rank. Unni·cher. (Un-[2] 8.) 1823 D'Israeli Cur. Lit. Ser. II. I. 344 The learned De Launoi had successfully attacked the legends of saints, and was called Ser. 1. Dénicheur de Saints—the 'Unnicher of Saints'. Unni·cked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) c 1480 Test. Ebor. (Surtees) III. 253, xij shaffe of clense arros un nykt. Ibid., xxxj shaffe of childre wave, clense and un nyked. Unni·ggard, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1591 Sylvester Du Bartas I. iv. 375 That sumptuous Canapy, The which th' unniggard hand of Majesty Poudred so thick with Shields so shining cleer. Unni·ggardly, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 614 Wherein there appears..no spark of arbitrary or inequitable disposition, but unreserved and unniggardly goodness. Unni·ght, v. (Un-[2] 3, 7.) 1594 Zepheria iv, The summe of life that Princes did vnnight. 1598 Florio, Disnaitare, to vnnight, to wax day. Unni·mbed, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1880 Smith's Dict. Chr. Antiq. II. 1400/2 On the tomb..she is unnimbed, while the Holy Child has the nimbus.

Unni·mble, a. (Un-[1] 7.)
1566 Drant Horace, Med. Worall A ij, When unnimble age Hath refte them of their warke. 1607 Markham Cavel. II. 48 A horse that is stoathfull or vnnimble in turning. 1682 Rycaut tr. Gracian's Critick 76 These..sluggishly moved their unnimble legs. 1703 Thoresby Let. to Ray (R.D.S.) Clinter, an unnimble stumbler.

Hence Unni·mbleness.
1607 Markham Cavel. II. 177 Some horses,..out of vnnimblenesse,..are..more apt to turne vpon one hand then vpon another.

Unni·mbly, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)
1607 Markham Cavel. II. 126 Which hee dooing at the first slouenlie, and vnnimbly, you shal..beat him about the buttocks. 1631 A. Townshend Albion's Tri. B, What mak's me so vnnimbly ryse, That did descend so fleete? 1665 Brathwait Comment Two Tales 170 Like another Omphada, she had unnimbly rushed down upon her four Quarters. 1704 Dict. Rust. s.v. Rules buying Horses, To tread unnimbly, shews a false Pace, that never continues.

†Unning, vbl. sb. Obs.—[1] [app. f. Unne v.; but perh. for inning, f. ON. inna to relate, tell.] Indication, sign.
13.. E. E. Allit. P. C. 213 He ossed hym by vnnynges þat þay vnder-nomen, þat he was flawen fro þe face of freiych drqztyn.

Unni·pped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1885 Browning Ladies Errand xx, Then..We can stand apart, Heart dispense with heart In the sun, with the flowers unnipped.

Unnitrogenized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 a.) 1869 Tanner Clin. Med. (ed. 2) 149 The nitrogenized and unnitrogenized substances.

Unnitt, variant of Unnut a. Obs.

†Unnobility. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 12.) a 1400 Pauline Ep. (Powell) 2 Cor. vi. 8 In alle þing gife we vsself as goddys mynysteris,..þurgh glorye and vnnoblylyte [L. ignobilitate] þurgh yile fame and good fame.

Unno·ble, a. (and sb.) Now rare. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. Ignoble a.]
1. Not noble or distinguished by rank or birth.
1382 Wyclif 1 Sam. ii. 30 Who so euere honourith me, Y shal glorifie hym; forsothe who dispisen me, shulen be vnnoble. — 1 Cor. iv. 10. 1489 Caxton Faytes of A. i. x. 29 The noble men hare a garement yuklye to them that were vnnoble. 1545 Brinklow Compl. 38 b, No noble or vnnoble man shall retayne any of the kyngs subiectys without lauful wagys. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. xlvii. 5 He setting all the world aside, had adopted to himself a fewne vnnoble persons. 1607 Cowell Interpr. s.v. Corruption of blood, If he were noble, or a gentleman before, he and his children are made vnnoble and vngentle in respect of the father. 1660 Waterhouse Arms & Arm. 179 They must be contented to stand included under the base and unnoble state of people. 1832 S. Austin tr. Tour Germ. Prince III. iv. So it is an almost universal weakness of the unnoble in England to parade an acquaintance with the noble. 1855 Singleton Virgil II. 478 Other unwedded maids In Latium be, and in Laurentine fields, Nor they unnoble in their pedigree.
b. absol. (chiefly pl.) or as sb.
1382 Wyclif Isaiah iii. 5 Ther shal striue the child azen the old man, and the vnnoble azen the noble. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 43 Noiper..of pore to be maad riche, ne gloriouse of þe vnnoble. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. II. xxxiii. 27 Artogayle ..imaginyd causes agayne hit nobles to put theym from theyr..dignyties, and in theyr places to sette & ordeyne vnnoble. 1581 Pettie tr. Guazzo's Civ. Conv. II. (1586) 92 He which despiseth the vnnoble, despiseth his first Fathers. 1602 Fulbecke 1st Pt. Parall. Introd. 3 The noble and vn-noble were put to death. 1688 R. Holme Armoury III. 69/2 It is the Duty of the unnoble to Honor and Salute a Gentleman.
sb. 1563 Foxe A. & M. 70 b/1 He had followers of his dolfish religion, both of the nobles, and vnnobles of Rome.
†2. a. Of or pertaining to one who is not of noble birth or rank. Obs.
c 1520 [see Unnobleness]. 1562 T. Hoby tr. Castiglione's Courtyer III. Hh ij b, So glorious a soule, that deserued.. renowme after death, as in lief it dwelled in an vnnoble body. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. ii, The perfections are such in the partie I love, as the feeling of them cannot come into any vnnoble hart.
†b. Of things: Undistinguished, unnoted, common, mean. Obs.
1382 Wyclif 1 Cor. i. 28 God chees the vnnoble thingis [L. ignobilia] and dispisable thingis of the world. 1589 Cooper Admon. 199 The..unnoble thinges of the world ..God hath chosen. 1590 Burbough Meth. Physick 211 The bloud being druken backe from the vnnoble members, it rusheth vp to the principall members. 1612 Drayton Poly-olb. v. 230 Since, holy Dauid's seat; which of especiall grace Doth lend that nobler name, to this vnnobler place. 1631 Widdowes Nat. Philos. 51 The more un-noble senses are Tasting, and Smelling.
3. Not noble in disposition; ignoble, mean, base:
a. Of persons.
1566 Gascoigne, etc. Jocasta ii. i, So, woulde the Gods, that in this noble realme should never long unnoble tyrant reigne. 1616 Breton Good & Bad Wks. (Grosart) II. 6/2 An vnnoble man is the griefe of Reason, when the title of honour is put vpon the subiect of disgrace. 1641 Earl Cork Lett. in Lismore Papers Ser. I. (1886) V. 195 Papers concerning the vnnoble Earle of Middlesex.
transf. 1607 Topsell Four-f. Beasts 321 Neither is there any Horsse, swift or slow, noble, or vnnoble, that can be guided without these [reins].
b. Of actions, character, etc.
1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. III. xi. 50, I leave offended Reputation, A most vnnoble swerving. 1628 Ford Lover's Mel. II. ii, My affections..are pure, Without all mixture of unnoble thoughts. 1680 Life Eubu. H. in Select. Hard. Misc. (1793) 37 If Lancaster had been of so unnoble a disposition. 1855 Singleton Virgil I. 152 Him, likewise,..If now..he fails, Conceal at home; nor his unnoble eld Forgive.

Hence Unno·bleness. c 1400 New Test. (Pauep) 2 Cor. vi. 8 þorɔ3 worschupe & vnnobelnesse, þorɔ3 diffamynge & good loos. c 1520 Barclay Fugurth (1557) 75 b, The lownes and vnnoblenes of Marius encreased to hym fauour specially of the commentie which were vnnoble blouds, as he was. 1569 J. Sanford tr. Agrippa's Van. Arres 127 b, That they whiche had not slayne some enimie, shoulde go girte with a halter in reproche of vnnobleness. 1628 Fletcher Loyal Subj. I. iii, You made this Vow, and whose unnobleness, Indeed forgetfulness of good— Ar. No more.
Unno·ble, v. (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1605 Heywood If you know not me F 3 b, The treasons of the father being noble, Vnnobles all your children. 1656 Jeanes Mixt. Schol. Div. 119 A foul incongruity..is for to..make vnnoble and pollute that flesh. †Unnoblety. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 12.) = prec. a 1400 Pauline Ep. (Powell) 2 Cor. xi. 21 Afryr þe vnnoblete I seye; as we hadde be syke in þis partye. †Unnoblye. Obs. (Un-[1] 12.) Low Ceisar. 1382 Wyclif 1 Cor. xv. 43 It is sowun in vnnoblye, it schal ryse in glorie. — 2 Cor. vi. 8 By glorie and vnnoblye; by yuel fame and good fame.

Unno·bly, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. Ignobly adv.)
1618 Fletcher Loyal Subj. v. vi, You do the most unnobly to be angry. a 1628 F. Grevil Alaham II. iii, True hearts, to doe vnnobly, haue no spirit. ? 1648 H. King Elegy Lucas & Lisle 314 Which ..Shall ..enhearse this blood unnobly spilt.

Unno·ck, v. rare—[0]. (Un-[2] 3; cf. Nock v.) 1530 Palsgr. 768/2, I unnocke a shafte, je descocche. Ibid., Who hath unnocked my shafte? †Unno·me, pa. pple. Obs. [Un-[1] 8; cf. Nim v.] Untaken. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 11872 Sut he percede þe ost,..& alius & vn-nome of scapede among echon. 13.. Guy Warw. (A.) 5154 Alle þai ben ded oher ouer-come: þer bleued non vn-nome. Unnoo·ked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) Having no nooks or corners. 1602 Marston Antonio's Rev. iv. iii, With innocent upreared armes to Heaven: With my unnookt simplicitie.

Unno·se, v. (Un-[2] 4.) Hence Unno·sed ppl. a.
1598 Florio, Smasato, without a nose, vn-nosed. 1603 — Montaigne II. vi. 219 That is now called to vn-nose himselfe. 1620 Shelton Quix. II. xiv. 89 Quoth the vn-nosed Squire. 1738 Common Sense II. 106 The persons who remain behind un-nos'd will immediately..clap on their original Noses. 1742 Jarvis Quixo. II. i. xiv, 'Indeed am I,' answered the unnosed squire.

Unno·table, a. and sb. (Un-[1] 7 b, 12.)
1528 Paynell Salerne's Regim. O ij b, Fyshe..bred in shalowe & vnnotable waters. 1611 Florio, Innotabile, vnnoteable, not to be noted. 1832 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. v, Nay, who knows.., but Philosophic herself might have aforetime noted the so unnotable. 1837 — Fr. Rev. II. iv. vi, Unnotable hum of sweet human gossip rises from this Village.
b. sb. One who is not notable.
1861 H. S. Cunningham Wheat & Tares 324 If you get anybody else better worth having to dinner, I'll come in my sedan..along with the other unnotables.

Unno·tched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)
†1. Not cut or trimmed. (Cf. Notch v. 1, Ochr v.) Obs.—[1]

1557 Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 159 All ruff of heare, my nayles vnnocht, as to such semeth best, That wander by theyr wittes.

2. Not marked with a notch; unnicked.

[1775 Ash.] 1811 Miss L. Hawkins C'eas & Gert'r. IV. 5 The unnotched paling, the walls cast with straw and stone.

1844 Noad Electricity (ed. 2) 392 Provided the intersecting curves proceeding from A abut upon the notched surface of the knife, and those from B upon the un-notched side.

1883 Lond. Intl. X.VI. 6 Reptant Anygobranchia with ..the lip of the shell unnotched.

Unno·ted, a. [Un-1 9.] Characterized by absence of musical notes. 1866 Meredith Vittoria xxiv, A song of three notes and a sort of unnoted clapping chorus.

Unno·ted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not noticed or observed; unmarked.

1563 Golding Cæsar III. (1565) 74 b, Bycause the thing was done in yᵉ sight of Cesar and all his army, insomuch that no dede..could escape vnnoted. 1600 Bodenham's Belvedere (1875) 59 Gnats are vnnoted where-soe're they flie But Eagles gaze vpon with euery eye. c 1620 Fletcher False One I. i, I'le be admitted for a wanton tale To some most private Cabinets, when your Priest-hood .. Shall wait without unnoted. 1725 Pope Odyss. I. 177 Where the free guest, unnoted, might release, If haply conscious, of his Father's fate. 1742 Young Nt. Th. II. 274 Unnoted, [conscience] notes each moment misapply'd. 1813 Byron Corsair I. xxvii, Secure, unnoted, Conrad's proud prize passed by. 1894 Mrs. Dyan Man's Keeping (1899) 135 Unnoted by him, that vision had faded much of late.

2. Not specially noted or observed; undistinguished, obscure.

1592 Soliman & Pers. I. ii. 73 Sweet Perseda, vnnoted though I be, Thy beauties shall make me knowne ere night. 1622 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. IX. (1626) 191 Phæsus ..fostered One, Lydgus, of vn-noted parents breed. 1725 Pope Odyss. V. 402 Un-wept, un-noted, and for ever dead! 1789 Burns Let. to Lady Winton Scottish Poet 26 Dec., Only add so many units more to the unnoted crowd that followed their leaders. 1862 Kilcoff Life Our Lord ii. 67 The devout ..Simeon..saw perchance before him no more than two unnoted worshippers. 1882 Wemyss Eccl. Masterpieces (1883) 69 It has run its fair course unnoted, and in silence passed away.

† Unno·teful, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] Unprofitable; useless. a 1300 E. E. Psalter lii. 4 Alle belded bai, sammen al Vnnoteful maked ere bai. c 1350 Will. Palerne 2 Ne vnnoteful ne vnfruitful, ne vnfruitsome. c 1400 Rom. Rose 1. xxxvii. (W. de W. 1494), All men are before oure lorde as noughte, & as vnnoteful and nought they are acounted to hym. Unno·teworthy, a. [Un-1 7.] 1887 Saintsbury Dryden I. 24 It is not unoteworthy that Lady Elizabeth was five and twenty.

Unno·ticeable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1775 Adair Amer. Ind. 287 They were afraid of being imprisoned, ..even for things unnoticeable in the eye of the law. 1810 Worsw. Prose Wks. (1876) II. 304 A light vapour unnoticeable but by a shepherd. 1859 Geo. Eliot A. Bede x, A long-neglected and unnoticeable rent in the bed-curtain.

Hence Unno·ticeably; Unno·ticeably adv. 1883 Harper's Mag. Sept. 566/1 Unnoticeableness..is, the character..of the dwellings. 1885 E. Garrett At Any Cost xv, One seal was broken! So cleanly, too, that she almost thought it might be mended unnoticeably.

Unno·ticed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

In common use from c 1750.

1720 Pr. James in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 91 To repose yourselves for some time somwhere in France where your usuall prudence will make you unnoticed. 1762 Sterne Tr. Shandy VI. v, Their sentiments lay in unnoticed openings,..which [etc.]. 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose xix, The strife..had been unnoticed by the stragglers around. 1892 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xxx, It was that little unnoticed impulse of natural kindness ..which saved her fortunes.

absol. 1842 Carlyle Heroes II. (1904) 77 See, the unnoticed becomes world-notable, the small has grown world-great.

Unno·ticing, ppl. a. [Un-1 5 d, 10.]

(a) 1982 Ellis Blower Geo. Rateman II. 42 Unnoticing the looks of surprize. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 78 She was thus employed, unnoticing the passage of time, when Mrs. Arlbery tapped at her door. 1904 Sladen Lovers' Tryst ix, They rode, through the delicious avenues of Shiba, unnoticing the temples.

(b) 1821 Scott Pirate i, He..lived as one of the family, unnoticed and unnoticing. a 1873 Lytton Parisians x, Ill, Lemercier stopped a gentleman who was about to pass him unnoticing.

Unno·tified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 508 The keeping of the rule of action .. in one manner and unorganized, unnotified, and consequently unnotified. 1871 Standard 27 Jan., It would be hypocrisy .. to gloss over this odious outrage of the unnotified bombardment of Paris.

Unnotify, v. (Un-2 2.) 1752 H. Walpole Let. to Mann 3 July, I notified to you the settlement of the ministry, and, contrary to late custom, have not to unnotify it again.

Unno·ting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1888 Morris Earthly Par. I. 1, 405 Her dizzied eyes ..wandered from unnoting face to face. Unnou·rishable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1607 Topsell Fourf. Beasts 719 Their flesh is not good for meate, but is bitter and vnnourishable. Unnourished, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1617 Jackson On Nt. T. Egerton 96 Having not this skill how to contend, Th' unnourish'd strife would quickly make an end. 1896 N. Amer. Rev. CLXIII. 715 As only the unnourished tree can battle.

Unnourishing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1658 Cheapman & H. Poole I. i. 125 A gentlewoman: But her unnourishing dowry must be tolde Out of her beauty. 1640 Br. Reynolds Passions xx, The minde being mollified and puffed up with windie and unnourishing comfort. 1826 Lamb Elia II. Pop. Fallacies xii, The ailment of this poor babe was thin, unnourishing. 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 216 Which ..sold to the poor only what, although unnourishing, was wholesome!

Unnourishment. (Un-1 12.) 1662 J. Chandler Pan Helioni's Orint. 44 A sickness, which the Rabbins call Bisnicar, which properly, is an unnourishment, or pining away of the Organ of the phantasie.

† Unnoy·and, -ing, ppl. a. Obs⁻¹ [Un-1 10.] Not causing offence or annoyance; harmless. Also † Unnoy·antness. Obs.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter vii. 5 Deme me lord..efter myn vnnoyandnes abouen me. Ibid. xl. 13 Me sothly for vnnoyandnes thou vptoke. a 1400 Relig. Pieces fr. Thornton MS. 61 The noyeand [creatures] pou made vs for to chastyy. The vnnoyeand to sustayne vs and fede. c 1475 Cath. Angl. (MS. A) 256/1 Vn Noying, innocens [etc.].

† Unnoy·ed, ppl. a. Obs.⁻¹ [Un-1 8.] Not disturbed. a 1470 Harding Chron. LXXXVII. xii, The Christen faith in thy lande [Ii] Lifde yed, That with the peace should haue be kept vnnoyed. † Unnoy·ous, a. Obs.⁻ᵃ [Un-1 7.] = Unnoyand ppl. a. 1483 Cath. Angl. 256/1 Vn Noyous, innocens...innocuus.

Unnumberable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Incapable of being numbered; innumerable.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter xxxviii. 6 How fa my dayes ere here, and how vnnoumberable in heuen. 1382 Wyclif Exod. x. 14 A brennynge wynd reride vp locusies, the whiche.. seeten in alle the coostis of Egipcliens vnnoumbrable. c 1440 Gesta Rom. lviii. 241 (Harl. MS.), Thorow this pryde bethe vnnumberable peple infecte and dede. 1513 Douglas Æneid vi. xi. 53 The fluide Lethe ..About the quhilk peple vnnumerable, Heis fast. 1756 Mrs. Calderwood in Collectn. Collect. (Maitl. Cl.) 144 The unnumberable wind-mills through Holland. 1774 tr. Helvetius' Child of Nature I. 53 Unnumberable are the unfortunate he has relieved. 1852 Bailey Festus (ed. 5) 173 With starry globes unnumberable, suns, Planets and moons.

Unnu·mbered, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, 5 b.]

1. Not numbered or reckoned up; uncounted.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xii. (Agnes) 224 Pe gret foy in hewine pat he saw, bat vnnoymerit mycht be. 1434 Misyn Mending of Life 1. 1. 1.

thereunto, he had readily assisted, the first year of this war. 1682 SCARLETT Exchanges 154 A prudent .. Drawer will judge himself unobliged to make any bills, but such as make the Value to be received of the Remitter.

2. Not made obligatory or necessary.

1855 FABER Growth in Holiness v. 79 Look at the phenomena of the Incarnation, what were they? Helpless, unnecessary and unobliged sufferings.

Unobli·ging, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) [1847 WEBSTER.] 1891 H. HERMAN His Angel 16 An unwilly, unobliging, ugly young brute. Unobli·gingness. [UN-1 12.] †Absence of obligatoriness. 1646 HAMMOND Tracts 63 You see the unobligingness of that interdict. Unobli·terable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1662 J. CHANDLER Van Helmont's Oriat. 263 The unobliterable or undefaceable substance of the soul. Unobli·teratable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1865 W. H. GILLESPIE Argt. Being & Attrib. God (1906) 253 The relation which does exist, and the existence of which is unobliterable.

Unobli·terated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1644 [H. PARKER] Jus Populi 43 Whilst [in the times of Adam] the peare relation of blood was fresh, and unobliterated. 1680 H. DODWELL Two Lett. (1691) 68 Those unobliterated impressions of Conscience and Modesty. 1738 G. LILLO Marina III. ii, Some traces there.., yet unobliterated, Of my long dead .. Pericles. 1835 LYTTON Rienzi x. viii, There was a red stain upon the pavement, unobliterated. 1894 Daily News 20 Mar. 3/4 The letter-carrier would either appropriate the stamp .. or he would deliver it unobliterated.

Unobno·xious, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.]

1. Not exposed or liable to something. Also ellipt.

† 1609 DONNE Elegy on Lady Marckham 35 For, graves our trophies are, and both deaths dust. So, unobnoxious now, she hath buried both. 1667 MILTON P. L. VI. 404 In fight they stood Unwearied, unobnoxious to be pain'd By wound. 1704 NORRIS Ideal World II. iii. 125 But neither the matter, nor yet the form of this division, .. are unobnoxious to just exception. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. v. 868 Some, apart, In quarters unobnoxious to such chance. 1862 F. HALL Hindu Philos. Syst. 50 The soul is immutable, and unobnoxious to error.

2. Not objectionable or offensive.

1678 Lively Oracles xii. § 9 (1684) 308 Surely the meanest unobnoxious laic..might..be trusted with the reading of those sacred books. 1802 H. MARTIN Helen of Glenross I. 201 Mr. Mulgrave, unobnoxious to any party, was advised to remain. 1858 Times 3 Dec. 8/6 The Roman Catholic priests are lowly, zealous men...We want the same class of men for our unobnoxious Christianity [in China].

Unobscured, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1646 J. HALL To Stanley 4 But then At first appearance dost display A bright and unobscured day. 1667 MILTON P. L. II. 265 How oft amidst Thick clouds and dark doth Heav'ns all-ruling Sire Choose to reside, his Glory unobscur'd. 1748 THOMSON Castl. Indol. II. viii, O who can speak the vigorous joys of health! Unclogged the body, unobscured the mind. 1764 Phil. Trans. LIV. 146 The unobscured part of the Sun. 1849 HERSCHEL Outlines of Astronomy x. 332 The cone of the shadow..permits their occultations to be completely observed both at ingress and egress, unobscured. 1879 St. George's Hosp. Rep. IX. 180 Gradual and progressive cough, unobscured by other symptoms.

Unobse·quious, a. (UN-1 7.) [1775 ASH.] 1810 BENTHAM Packing (1821) 203 Unobsequious Jurors dropped: or, in the..familiar phrase, cut. Unobse·quiousness. (UN-1 12, 5 b.) 1661 BOYLE Style of Script. 169 Their Succeeders..are afterwards both to assume all Unobsequiousness to their Incogitancy, Presumption. 1810 BENTHAM Packing x. § 1 Unobsequiousness found unavoidable by a veteran Advocate.

Unobse·rvable, a. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being observed; imperceptible, unnoticeable.

1651 HOBBES Leviath. II. xxix. 169 Which accidents..are not supernatural, but onely..unobservable. 1664 BOYLE Exp. touching Colours 114 Little and Singly Unobservable Images of the Lucid Body. a 1715 SOUTH Serm. IV. 163 Such small, such contemptible, and almost unobservable Hints have sometimes unraveled...the deepest-laid Villanies. 1895 BARING-GOULD Noémi xiii, He had to beware of putting his hand on fire that was unobservable by daylight.

† 2. Undeserving of notice or remark. Obs.

1665 J. WEBB Stone-Heng (1725) 16 It is not unobservable, that these Stones seem to have been .. more entire, than when Mr. Jones made his Survey. 1675 M. CLIFFORD Hum. Reason 40 It is not unobservable, that the Unity of the Church of God is compared [etc.].

Unobse·rvance. (UN-1 12, 5 b.)

1654 WHITLOCK Zootomia 415 The vast pains first require the more serious inquiry into, for the universality of their Power (and yet generall unobservance of it). 1681 J. KETTLEWELL Meas. Chr. Obed. II. iv. 166 The Law..against irreverence, against unobservance, against disobedience. 1788 D. GISON Serm. Pract. Subj. xiii. 382 We are awakened .. to lament our own unobservance and ingratitude. 1844 SOUTHEY Life A. Bell I. 182 The various instances of neglect .. on the part of the schoolmaster and ushers, and their unobservance of those rules [etc.]. 1893 F. F. MOORE Gray Eye or So I. 180 Nodding himself into a condition of unobservance.

Unobse·rvant, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.]

† 1. Unattentive in service. Obs.—[6]

1611 COTGR., Inofficieux, unofficious, unobservant, unseruiticable.

2. Not observant; not taking notice.

1661 GLANVILL Van. Dogm. xxiv. 247 The unobservant Multitude may have some general confuse'd apprehensions of [etc.]. 1775 ASH, Disobedient, .. unobservant of lawful authority. 1782 V. KNOX Ess. xc. (1819) II. 173 An unexperienced and unobservant man. 1816 SOUTHEY Poet's Pilgr. I. 34 No unobservant travellers they, but well Of what they there had learnt they knew to tell. 1824 SCOTT Tales. IV. [This] fear..made her behave with indifference, as if unobservant of his presence. 1888 F. HUME Mme. Midas I. v, Vandeloup looked idly at all this beauty with an unobservant eye.

absol. 1898 [MERRIMAN] Roden's Corner iv, The unobservant may pass it by without distinguishing it.

Hence Unobse·rvantly adv.

[1847 WEBSTER.] 1868 MRS. WHITNEY P. Strong xvii, I have not read the new style of novel and magazine writing unobservantly.

Unobse·rved, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Not observed; unperceived, unnoticed.

1612 COTGR. (title), The Vnobserved Dangers..of ignorant and unconsiderate Practisers of Physicke in England. 1624 MASSINGER Renegado v. ii, You shall find, If any look of mine be unobserved, I am not ignorant of a mistress' power. 1673 TEMPLE Obs. United Provs. Wks. 1720 I. 46 Most Natural Customs are the Effect of some unseen, or unobserved natural Causes, or Necessities. 1741 CHESTERF. Lett. 25 July, This quick and unobserved observation is of infinite advantage in life. 1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla III. 322 This was not unobserved by Edgar. 1836 MARRYAT Midsh. Easy xxxix, Finding themselves unobserved, ..they dropped gently alongside one of the double-masted lateen vessels. 1864 BOWEN Logic v. 243 By detecting hitherto unobserved similarities and conjunctions in time.

b. In complementary (quasi-adverbial) const.: Without being observed.

a 1616 BEAUM. & FL. Cust. Country II. i, He had liv'd unobserv'd By any man of mark. 1671 MILTON P. R. IV. 638 Her unobserv'd Home to his Mother's house private return'd. 1709 STEELE Tatler No. 57 Many..live in the constant Practice of baser Methods unobserved. 1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla V. 4 He was now waiting but to speak to her unobserved. 1817 FARADAY Chem. Manip. xiii. 285 The crucible furnace .. where the heat is not so liable to rise unobserved as in a close furnace. 1891 MARIE A. BROWN tr. Rumeberg's Nadeschda 35 The gentle maiden had .. stolen unobserved among the group.

Unobserved·ly, adv. [UN-1 11; cf. prec.)

1656 EARL ORRERY Parthen. III. i. 12 Nicomedes the more unobservedly to gaze on his new Conqueror, had retir'd himself into the throng. 1702 EB. PATRICK Comm. Judg. xx. 6 He went thither secretly and unobservedly, in the dusk of the evening. 1795 Phil. Trans. LXXXV. 174 A single instrument, having an excess of light, in which the irradiation may unobservedly extend further than in weaker telescopes. 1861 WRIGHT Ess. Archæol. vii. 207 Great numbers of ..tumuli have been destroyed unobservedly in the various processes of agriculture. 1884 Manch. Exam. 20 Aug. 5/2 A train came upon him unobservedly, and the poor fellow was literally cut to pieces.

Unobserver. (UN-1 12.) 1713 Guardian No. 60, How unheeded must the general character of it be, when given by one of these serene unobservers.

Unobserving, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1690 T. BURNET Theory Earth II. 47 Those [prophecies] that concern the end of the world are of this latter sort to unobserving men. 1749 FIELDING Tom Jones VIII. xii, There are people who find an inconvenience in this unobserving temper of mankind. 1792 CHARLOTTE SMITH Desmond I. 142 An observing or disinterested spectator of what was passing. 1815 Zeluca III. 106 Wholly unobserving of the earnest conversation of her companions. 1828 SCOTT Br. Lamm. xxxii, To an eye so unobserving as that of Buckiaw.

Unobstinate, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1656 [T J. SERGEANT] tr. T. White's Peripat. Inst. Auth. Design a 7, This the Order, and Brevity, and the invincible firmnesse, surely of some Consonance will obtain of an unobstinate person. 1669 J. SERGEANT Sure Footing 40 As is easy to be evinc't against an unobstinate Adversary. a 1859 DR QUINCEY Poath. Wks. (1891) I. 63 They were a plastic, yielding, unobstinate race. Unobstruct, v. (UN-2 3.) 1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharonnida III. v. 339 Which carelesse pride did unobstruct the way, Through which to liberty love's progress lay.

Unobstructed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharonnida III. iv. 361 Anger, like unobstructed love, breaks forth In flaming haste. Ibid. III. v. 516. a 1711 KEN Hymnarium Poet. Wks. 1721 II. 137 From thence o'er the celestial Vast, Eyes unobstructed cast. 1748 Hermippus Redivivus Lett. lxi. (1749) II. 117 Much caution is necessary to give a fine taste its full and unobstructed effect. 1808 MRS. C. KEMBLE Day after Wedding 6 You hope to glide along the stream of life, unobstructed by the shoals of misfortune. 1879 PARKINSON Optics (1880) 245 The eye having an unobstructed view through the hole.

Hence Unobstru·ctedly adv.

[1847 WEBSTER.] 1867 H. MACMILLAN in Macm. Mag. No. 99. 259/2 The sun to shine down unobstructedly. 1897 Outing XXX. 139/2 A huge triangle that led unobstructedly into the wide mouth of this baggy apex.

Unobstru·ctive, a. (UN-1 7.) 1712 BLACKMORE Creation II. 307 Why should he halt at either station? why Not forward run in unobstructive sky? 1855 Poultry Chron. III. 442/2 The unobstructive nature of the coops to the opportunity of inspection by spectators.

Unobtai·nable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.)

[1775 ASH.] 1860 FROUDE Hist. Eng. V. 129 Her own consent would have been unobtainable. 1876 'OUIDA' Winter City vii, Seeking some unobtainable enamel.

Unobtai·ned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. I. xi. § 3 As the will doth now worke upon that object by desire, which is as it were a motion towards the end as yet unobtayned. 1742 YOUNG Nt. Th. II. 503 Wisdom,..What is she, but the means of happiness? That unobtain'd, than folly more a fool.

Unobtru·sive, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.)

In common use from c 1800.

1743 YOUNG Nt. Th. IV. 625 Ye Quietists,..who mildly make An unobtrusive tender of your hearts. 1790 HAN. MORE Relig. Fash. World (1791) 131 Those secret habits of self-control, those interior and unobtrusive virtues. 1828 MACKINTOSH Char. Canning Wks. 1846 II. 457 His manner was simple and unobtrusive; his language always quite familiar. 1840 DICKENS Old C. Shop xiv, I trace the same current now, flowing through all his quiet and unobtrusive proceedings. 1890 'L. FALCONER' Mlle. Ixe vi, Captain Leslie kept unobtrusive, but attentive watch.

Hence Unobtru·siveness.

1797 JANE AUSTEN Sense & Sens. xlvi, She saw only an emotion .. in its unobtrusiveness entitled to praise. 1826 DISRAELI V. Grey III. viii, He is an object of observation from his very unobtrusiveness. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. II. 152/2 All walls, however decorated, .. must retire even behind the furniture by their unobtrusiveness.

Unobtru·sively, adv. (UN-1 11, 5 b.)

1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla I. 358 The most unobtrusively gay ..of almost every young creature I ever beheld. 1852 W. COLLINS Basil II. i, He was dressed as unobtrusively as possible, entirely in black. 1884 C. T. SAUNDERS in Law Times 25 Oct. 412/2 The abolition of primogeniture was .. unobtrusively proposed.

Uno·bvious, a. (UN-1 7.)

Frequently used by Boyle and Jer. Bentham.

1643 PRYNNE Popish K. Favourite 56 Some more speciall passages in Popish writers,..which because then unobvious and unknown to most, I had an intention to have published. 1661 BOYLE Style of Script. 45 Though some unobvious Stars of that bright sphere cannot be discerned without the help of a Telescope. 1676 GLANVILL Ess. iii. 44 The knowledge and application of some unobvious and unheeded Properties and Laws of natural things. 1718 Freethinker (1733) No. 155. 240 It is able to perceive the unobvious Distinctions between things, which bear a very near Resemblance to one another. 1798 T. GISBORNE Diary Lonsdale (1810) 109 Its efficient cause, therefore, must not be sought.. in any unobvious qualities. 1845 MILL Ess. II. 183 To trace back this philanthropic movement.. to its small and unobvious beginnings. 1890 Spectator 29 Oct., Mr. Orger's amendment..would appear to be as unobvious..as need be.

Unocca·sional, a. (UN-1 7.) 1724 WELTON Chr. Faith & Pract. 232 Scripture, the only rule to guide and direct a true unoccasional conscience by. Unocca·sioned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1586 Gyalle & Wycynlle Life (1868) 80 You might haue gathered, that unoccasioned, or not contryued, no man will resort vnto your Iowne house. 1747 WARBURTON Shakespeare's Wks. VIII. 360 note, This observation seems strangely abrupt and unoccasioned.

Uno·ccupancy. (UN-1 12.) 1833 T. HOOK Parson's Dau. I. i, The tear-like drippings from its various windows.. during the several years of its unoccupancy.

Uno·ccupied, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not occupied or engaged in some work or pursuit; idle.

c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 191 First men ordeyned .. to putte awey ydelnesse & to be not vnoccupied in goode manere for pe tyme. c 1440 Jacob's Well 231 Þou pat sittest stylle here in cherch, vnoccupyed & thynkest on pi mule. c 1490 CAXTON Rule St. Benet 22 Lete them be assigned to other occupacyons to doo, so that they be neuer vnoccupied in vertu. c 1529 CAPON in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. I. 190 So that your workemen shall not be un occupyed for wante of stone. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 137 A valiente nynde can not rest in one place or bee vnoccupyed. 1573 TUSSER Hush. (1878) 118 Prouide of thine owne to haue all things at hand, least worke and the workman vnoccupide stand. 1647 HEXHAM I, Vnoccupied, or doing nothing, onbesich. 1751 JOHNSON Rambler No. 141 P 2 Acting when his imagination was unoccupied, and his judgment unsettled. 1780 BURKE Econ. Reform Wks. III. 324 The council, or committees of council, were never a moment unoccupied, with affairs of trade. 1827 LYTTON Falkland 22, I am unoccupied by a single pursuit. 1898 'MERRIMAN' Roden's Corner xvii, She led a blameless, unoccupied, and apparently purposeless life.

2. Not put to use; left unemployed. (In later use only of time.)

1448–9 METHAM Amorynys & Cl. 2210 Tyme on-occupyd, qwan folk hane lytyl to do. 1486 Bk. St. Albans B v j, Þo saame lewnes þou shalt fastyn slackely as a bowstryng vnocupyede. 1523 (DOWERDALE] Old God (1534) B j, The sword..beyng through dust & long time vnoccupied,.. defiled with ruste. 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer IV. (1577) T v, They..fell into decay and loste theyr puissaunce and brightnesse, lyke yron vnooccupied. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla V. 354 Her time..Was long upon her unoccupied. 1829 SCOTT Anne of G. xxv, As if desirous that the hour should arrive which would put an end to a day unoccupied.

3. Of ground, etc.: Not occupied by inhabitants or indwellers; not put to use in this way; not frequented or filled up; empty.

c 1425 WYNTOUN Cron. IV. xix. 1780 There was vnoccuplit ..A land beyond ane arme of the se. 1560 BIBLE Judges v. 6 The hye wayes were vnoccupied, and the trauelers walked through bywayes. 1573 TUSSER Husb. (1878) 15 No dwellers, what profiteth house for to stand? What goodnes, vnoccupied, bringeth the land? 1691 RAY Creation I. (1692) 189 Doubtless, if we shall discover further to the very North-pole, we shall find all that Tract not to be wash, useless, or unoccupied. 1784 COWPER Task v. 557 The word That, finding an interminable space Unoccupied, has fill'd the void so well. 1807 Europ. Mag. LII. 111/1 This part of Lancashire is .. highly cultivated, not an inch of ground lies waste and unoccupied. 1884 in A. Cawston Street Improv. London (1893) 115 There are always a very large number of unoccupied houses even in towns where the building trade is very active.

b. Not taken up or appropriated.

1701 GREW Cosmol. II. iii. 43 The Phancy hath full Power to create them in the Sensoriums thereof, then unoccupy'd by External Impressions. 1830 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. IV. 107 She could not have chosen an occupation more completely unoccupied, or more loudly called for. 1832 Westm. Rev. Oct. 35 Cadenessa, highly favourable for leaving the ear unoccupied for any measure which may follow.

Uno·cular (yū·n-), a. [f. L. ūnocul-us one-eyed + -AR. Cf. UNIOCULAR a.] One-eyed.

1864 DR MORGAN in Graves Life Sir W. Hamilton (1889) III. 612 Accordingly I have always been strictly unocular.

Unode (yū·n-). Geom. A uniplanar node.

1869 CAYLEY Math. Papers (1893) VI. 362 If there is a unode, then this may be and is taken to be at D, and its uniplane may be taken to be $X = 0$. Ibid., There is never, besides the unode, a cone.

Unodorable, a. (Un-[1] 7.) Incapable of being smelled. 1674 Grew Disc. Mixture iii. § 17 As in any fixed unodorable or untastable Body. Unodorated, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-[1] 8 + Odorate v.) Undeserved. c 1200 Vices & Virtues 3 Aselcenesse .. ne hueð ofte idon eten oðermannes sare swink all un-of-earned. Ibid. 51, 59. Unoffendable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1839 Lady Lytton Chevely (ed. 2) II. i. 12 The most obsequious civility and unoffendable good-humour.

Unoffending, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1481 Cov. Leet Bk. 494 That, his highnes vnoffended, we here..may procede amonges our-self to the determination therin. 1598 Florio, Inoffeso, vnoffended, vntouch, vnwronged. 1633 Br. Hall Occas. Medit. iii. 124 The Bee stings..when she is provoked; these draw blood, unoffended, and sting for their owne pleasure. 1673 [R. Leigh] Transp. Reh. 84 Reverence .. might perhaps occasion more sport then a man..could brook unoffended. 1799 Jonson Irene v. ii, This gen'ral calm Is sure the smile of unoffended heav'n. 1782 V. Knox Ess. c. (1819) II. 218 It is the common people, ..unoffended and unoffending, who chiefly suffer in the evil consequences. 1829 Marryat Olla Podr. v. 74 They, with unoffended nostrils, were engaged in general conversation, though they dined individually.

Hence Unoffendingly adv.

1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. IV. v. xx. § 28 They were both of them, unoffendedly unoffendingly all the time on the earth.

Unoffending, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10, 5 b.)

1559 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 668, I..sall keip gude rewle and quietnes unoffending aganis the lawis or makand troubill. a 1600 Grim the Collier of Croydon (1662) 9 Some will count it Virtue in a woman Still to be bound to unoffending Silence. a 1625 Beaum. & Fl. Laws of Candy ii. i, My prayers pull daily blessings on thy head, My unoffending child. 1703 Pope Statius' Thebais v. 772 Yet why must unoffending Argos feel The vengeance due to this unlucky steel? 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 403 How should I rejoice..to rescue this one poor unoffending..animal from such tyranny! 1828 Scott F. M. Perth xix, Who.. could have thought of harming a creature so simple, and so unoffending? 1876 Bancroft Hist. U. S. II. xxx. 253 The councillors were famed for their unoffending respectability.

† Unoffensed, ppl. a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 8.) Unoffended. c 1400 Pallad. on Husb. v. 56 Constreyned they men colourid wel vchoone, Their witts cleer and vnoffensid sight.

† Unoffensive, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1612 R. Daborne Christian turn'd Turke 214 [Nature] sent him to the world, All vnoffensive, vnarm'd. 1642 Vicars God in Mount 66 Constrained thereby in a fair and unoffensive manner. 1674 J. Fell. Hammond Wks. I. 14 Notwithstanding his unoffensive and cautious return to those ill laid demands. 1768 Woman of Honor II. 158 That modest unoffensive turn you gave to your non-acceptance.

So Unoffensively adv.

1606 Br. W. Barlow Serm. 21 Sept., Ep. Ded. A j b, Discussing the point sincerely and, I trust, vnoffensively.

Unoffered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c.)

1516 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 103 Leynge in hym nothynge vnoffred for vs, but in all parties he suffered payne for our synne. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xxiii, I know too well their cunning (who leave no money unoffered that may buy mine honour). 1642 Chas. I Declar. Intentions Breakfast 7 Unfought with, and unoffered to, march away. 1658 Whole Duty of Man iii. § 18 Though the gift be already at the Altar, it must rather be left there unoffered, than (etc.). 1736 Wesley Wks. (1787) 477 To the end they might do so, no methods were left untried, no motives unoffered. 1747 P. Francis tr. Horace, Ep. I. xiii. 4 If he ask'd to read th' unoffer'd Lay. 1848 Buckley Iliad 5 Neither on account of a vow unperformed, nor of a hecatomb unoffered.

Unofficed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 or Un-[2] 8.) 1657 Br. H. King Elegy Poems (1664) 3 The now unofficed Servants crack their Staves.

Unofficered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. I. viii. 450 This treachery.. brought a world of confusion in those vn-officer'd Troopes. 1754 P. H. Hibernial iii. 25 Raw, unofficer'd..Militias. 1788 Robert Journ. Chest. & London 30 A..band of mountaineers, undisciplined, unofficered, and half-armed. 1852 Grote Greece II. lxx. 115 The unofficered Grecian army.

Unofficerlike, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.)

1893 Nelson in Nicolas Disp. (1845) V. 206 Such conduct is highly reprehensible and unofficerlike. 1832 Trelawny Adv. Younger Son vii, It's unofficer-like to get drunk before sunset. 1872 Routledge's Ev. Boy's Ann. Nov. 695 The unofficerlike want of method in his work.

Unofficial, a. and sb. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b, 12.)

1. Of things: Not having an official character or stamp.

1798 Monthly Rev. XXVI. 511 Impertinent and unofficial as it seems, it may have been intended to intimate [etc.]. 1866 Geo. Eliot R. Feld. Introd. 3 His sheep-dog following with a heedless unofficial air as of a close ally in idleness. 1884 Huxley in Life (1900) II. 80, I wrote to Evans an unofficial letter.

2. Of persons: Not holding an official position; not acting in an official capacity.

1829 Geo. P. Thomson Essays (1844) I. 124 Unofficial philosophers must be content to class (?) appearances as they rise. 1869 J. Martineau Ess. II. 97 The theories of these unofficial masters of philosophy.

b. sb. One who is not an official.

1889 Pall Mall G. 29 July 4/1 We have a letter this morning from St. Petersburg, the writer of which is a leader among the 'unofficials'.

Unofficially, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.)

1838 Corbett Hist. Gen. IV, iii. § 239 He did it unofficially, in letters to Lord Grey. 1860 Pauper Hist. Eng. VI. 275 The two Houses of Parliament were invited to be present unofficially at Whitehall.

Unofficious, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1612 Bloxio, Inofficioso, vnofficious, negligent. 1645 Milton Tetrach. Introd. Thus all occasions, are not unofficious to administer something which may conduce to explain..the assertion of this book. 1867 Ann. Rev. V. 171 The editor.. deserves public thanks for the unostentatious, unofficious propriety, with which his laudable task is performed.

Hence Unofficiousness.

1611 Cotgr., Inofficiosité, vnofficiousnesse, vnrespectfuenesse, or want of due respect.

† Unofsered, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-[1] 8.) = Unoffered ppl. a. 1.

a 1200 St. Marher. 16 Hwet so ich am, þurh godes grace ich hit do ant am wilseoue unofseret. a 1240 Lofsong in O. E. Hom. I. 215 Deowrðe clibben, þe..ofset us al þet þu dest þurh þine swete grace al unofserued. 1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 1256 Mi mede þer of is þat he me wole driue of is lond unofseured iwis.

Unoft, adv. (Un-[1] 11 b; cf. next.) 1864 Sir J. K. James Tasso x. xx, Since not Unoft it happens that the wise and strong Carve for themselves the best and happiest lot.

Unoften, adv. (Un-[1] 11 b.) Infrequently; seldom. (Only with negatives.)

1741 Harris Three Treat. II. (1765) 234 The Man of Gallantry not unoften has been found to think after the same manner. 1835 Lytton Rienzi I. iii, Nor was it unoften that the mere presence of a noble sufficed to scatter whole crowds. 1864 J. Brown Jeems 15 You get more patient,..and not unoften you come to a stand-still.

Unoil, v. (Un-[1] 3.) 1693 Dryden's Juvenal viii. (1697) 205 A tight Maid, e're he for Wine can ask, Guesses his Meaning, and unoils the Flask.

Unoiled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1599 Yonge Jacke Faune 138 His wounded ears complaints eternal fill, As unoil'd hinges, quercelously shrill. c 1799 J. Foster in Life & Corr. (1846) I. 97 The creak of unoiled wheels. 1851 H. D. Wolff Pict. Spain. Life 134 The dismal clanks, unoiled hinges creak. 1884 McLaren Spinning (ed. 2) 70 Much dust can be shaken out of the wool when it is unoiled.

Unoil'y, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1674 Grew Anat. Trunks II. iv. § 17 A third sort of Gum, is that which is Unoyle. 1682 Disc. Mixture App. § 1 Oyls..easily mingleable with any unoyly Liquor. Uno'id, a. (Un-[1] 7.) c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. iv. 9 The trunkes sadde, in humor that abounde, Vnolde, vnrende. Uno'ld, v. (Un-[1] 6a.) 1608 Sylvester Du Bartas II. iv. Schisme 697 There ripes the rare cheer-cheek Myrobalan, Minde-gladding Fruit, that can un-old a Man.

Uno'minously, adv. (Un-[1] 12.) 1849 Brand's Pop. Antiq. I. 98 The sun would not shine unseemlously on the day on which the saint was burnt. † Uno'ning, vbl. sb. Obs. (Un-[2] 3, 8.) Disunion, discord. 1340 Ayenb. 65 þe uerte is stryf, þe oþer chiddinge,..þe zixte breapinge, þe zeuende vnoynynge. Unopell, ppl. a. obsol. (Un-[1] 8.) = Unopened ppl. a. 1815 Scott Guy M. xx, The close-press'd leaves unopel for many an age. [Cf. Crabbe Library 147.]

Uno'penable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1832 Miss Mitford Village Sec. v. 36 Trying to lift the lid of the unopenable chest.

Uno'pened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. Un. unopened.]

1. Not opened; left, or remaining, closed or shut: a. Of letters, books, etc.

1600 E. Blount tr. Conestaggio 74 This Letter..remained still with them vnopened. 1700 Farquhar Constant Couple I. i, Angelica, send it [sic. a letter] back unopened! say you? 1711 Lady M. W. Montague Let. to W. Montague 26 Feb., If you write, be not displeased if I send it back unopened. 1766 Parli. Deb. (1813) XVI. 303 [They] went to statute books before unopened, ..and there made the amazing, astonishing discovery. 1838 H. Coleridge Northern Worthies (1852) I. 43 A sealed and unopened epistle. 1865 Dickens Mut. Fr. I. iii, A book..unopened on a shelf. 1888 Jacob Printer's Recob., Unopened edges, applied to books the edges of which have not been opened.

b. In other applications.

1627 May Lucan III. D 7, Before the yet vnopen'd doore he stay'd. 1742 Young Nt. Th. ix. 468 Like bales unopen'd to the sun. 1796 Withering Brit. Plants (ed. 3) III. 689 Unopened flower-buddings. 1843 R. J. Graves Syst. Clin. Med. lx. 102, I have frequently directed the blister to be left unopened. 1884 in A. Cawston Street Improv. London (1893) 117 The consequences of leaving cuts de sac even of a respectable kind unopened.

2. Not opened up for use.

1756 P. Browne Jamaica 13 Every settler inclined to reserve some unopened land. 1858 Ld. St. Leonards Handyside. Prop. Law xxiii. 179 If you were to sell part of your estate, reserving the unopened mines with a right of entry. 1890 Hallett 1000 Miles on Elephant 434 [To] throw open for British commerce the most magnificent, unopened, and valuable market in the world.

Uno'pening, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1732 Pope Ep. Bathurst 194 Benighted wanderers..Curse the saw'd candle, and unopening door. 1852 M. Arnold Empedocles II. 359 Still Thought and Mind Will hurry us..Over the unalled unopening Earth. Uno'perable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1692 Ashmole Theat. Chem. Prol. 9 They wrought unoperable Workes. Uno'perated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1802 Noble Wanderers I. 37 Native energy.. which, unoperated upon by adversity,..remains an inactive principle in the mind. Uno'perating, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1719 Waterland Vind. Christ's Div. 158 The perfect Nativity..of the Word: who had been, as it were, quiescent or un-operating from all Eternity, till [etc.]. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 507 Neither is it practicable..for us to frame an idea of such unoperating nature.

† Uno'perative, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1641 Milton Reform. II. 3 For if the life of Christ be hid to this world, much more is his Scepter unoperative, but in spirituall things. 1685 South Serm. (1727) I. 389 It..imports no more than an idle unoperative..desire of the end, without any consideration of the means. 1796 Burke Subl. & B. iv. xxiv, There lie the qualities of beauty either dead or unoperative. 1783— Rep. Ind. Com. Wks. II. 22 By which measure this provision of the Act has proved as unoperative as all the rest. 1829 Bentham Ch. Eng., Catech. Exam. 248 Mere unoperative existence.

Unope'rculate, a., -ated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 7, 8, 5 b.) 1847 Webster, Unoperculated, having no cover or operculum. 1884 Imp. Dict. IV. 510/2 Unoperculate. Unopi'nionated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1824 Medwin Conversat. Ld. Byron II. 140 No man was more unopinionated. † Unoporture, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) 1787 Bentham Def. Usury x. 99 The anti-jewish side of it stood in unopportune support in a passage of Aristotle. 1808 Mrs. J. West Infidel Father III. 235 Your excusing yourself from that unopportune engagement. † Unopportunely, adv. Obs. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b.) 1657 Earl Monm. tr. Pareus Prof. Disc. 37 They sent their Fleet to regain Sicily; but the counsel was too late and unopportunely taken. 1766 Colman & Garrick Clandestine Marriage II. 37, I have broke in upon you a little unopportunely, I believe. Unopposable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1667 Waterhouse Fire Lond. 60 Illiterate men Apostolic'd and made by him unopposable. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) IV. 151 The application is either opposable or unopposable.

Unopposed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. v. ii. 345 Impetuous rage, like whirlwinds unopposed. 1672 Dryden Conq. Granada iv. i, The people, like a headlong torrent goe;..But, unoppos'd, they either loose their force, Or (etc.). 1780 Burke Sp. at Bristol Wks. III. 415 For what end was that bill to linger beyond the usual period of an unopposed measure? 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxxviii, His talents for play..were generally successful when unopposed by the tricks of villany. 1841 Elphinstone Hist. India I. 507 The Mahometans pursued their success unopposed. 1859 G. Wilson Mem. E. Forbes ii. 45 Thus, unopposed but unencouraged, he laboured in Natural History. 1899 Mackail W. Morris I. 336 An unopposed candidate.

ellipt. 1893 Daily News 3 May 5/7 The Unopposed Committee of the House of Commons.

Unopposite, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 499 In point of affections, let the witness be, with reference to each party, altogether unopposite; ..equally a friend to both.

Unoppressed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

a 1572 Knox Hist. Ref. Wks. 1846 I. 357 As alsua the said town wyndis, brooke thair ancient lawis and liberteis unoppressed by men of wear. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. iv. ii. 445 Harmless nature, living unopprest With surfeits. Ibid. 453 Fair virgins..unopprest By dark suspicion. 1709 Brit. Apollo II. No. 20, 3/2 Vnu..Spirits, Vnoppressed, Glide freely on. 1781 Cowper Table-T. 272 The soul emancipated, unoppressed,..Learns much.

Unoppressive, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1648 W. Ashhurst Reasons agst. Agreement 13 They are to have nothing but in an unoppressive way. 1782 V. R. Martyn Geog. Mag. I. 355 [The Genoo laws] are unoppressive. 1790 Burke Fr. Rev. 53 You would have had an unoppressive but a productive revenue. 1874 Ruskin Fors Clav. xl. IV. 78 What was an act of distressing servitude has become an unoppressive act of love.

Unoppressively, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1656 Earl Orrery Parthen. III. iii. 152 A negative obedience is the farthest it [sc. paternal right] can unoppressively extend it self.

Unopulence. (Un-[1] 12.) 1796 Monthly Mag. II. 467 The unopulence of the pastor. 1830 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximized, Further Extr. Const. Code 11 But the proposed system—does it not hold up to view unopulence as an efficient cause of aptitude? Unopulent, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) a 1816 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximized, Introd. View (1830) 11 Unopulent classes excluded, and thus injured. 1829 Westm. Rev. Oct. 472 The poor (i.e. the unopulent, not the absolutely poor). Unorator, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1753 N. Torriano Gangr. Sore Throat Pref., However unoratorial my Expression.

† Unordai'n, a. Obs.—[1] [f. Un-[1] 7 + ordeyne Ordene a.] Not observing order or rule. So † Unordai'nly adv. Obs.—

a 1400 Pauline Ep. (Powell) Rom. I. 31 Þei [being]..vnwise, unordeyne [L. incompositos], without affeccioun. † a 1400 Spec. Vitæ [MS. Bodl. 446] fol. 126 b, A man þat wedded es Sluid..no dede vnordeynly wirke Agayne þe sacrament of holy kirke.

Unordain, v. (Un-[2] 3.) c 1440 Wycliffite Bible (1850) IV. 438 Ne be vnordeynede vs of suun weyn speche feynynge, þat vs ouertume fro the sothfastnesse of the gospel. 1709 J. Johnson Clergym. Vade M. ii. p. lxxi, Tho' Bishops ordain, they cannot unordain.

Unordained, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

† 1. Not regulated or controlled. Obs.—[1]

c 1340 Hampole Prose Tr. 13 þe delyte þat has noghte of vnordaynde styrryngge, and mekely has styrryngge in Criste.

2. Not ecclesiastically ordained.

1653 Baxter Chr. Concord 84 They are bound to choose a man unordained to this work. a 1670 — Dying Life vii. (1702) 151 There is a Duty in such a Case of Necessity, even on Persons unordain'd. 1804 Ann. Rev. II. 208 The distinction between ordained and unordained preachers. 1866 S. Wilberforce in R. G. Wilberforce Life (1882) III. 266 Brotherhoods of unordained men not in Holy Orders.

3. Not appointed or decreed.

1815 Worndw. Ode 65 Be it not unordained that solemn rites..Shall be performed at pregnant intervals.

Unordaining, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 13.)

In quot. rendering L. inordinatio disorder.

1382 Wyclif Wisd. xiv. 26 The defouling of soules,..the vnordeynyng of leccherie and of vnclennesse.

Unorder, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To recall an order for (something); to countermand.

c 1440 Alph. Tales 402 He gate take Formosius oute off his graffe & vnordrat hit bad giffen ordurs to. 1782 Miss Burney Cecilia VIII. iii, I think I must unorder the tea ..if I am to be responsible for any mischief from your drinking it. 1803 Nelson in Nicolas Disp. (1845) V. 65 If Lord Keith or any other man is to have her, I must un-order all these things. 1843 F. E. Paget Pageant 94 Mrs. Sawderley was not permitted to unorder her dress.

Unordered, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

† 1. Not belonging to a religious order; not properly ordained. Obs.

c 1386 Chaucer Parson's T. ¶ 85 Thow shalt considere.. wheither thou be..wedded or sengle, ordered or unordered, ..clerk or seculer. 1588 Allen Admon. 32 Creatings..new, hungrie, base, and vnordered Preistes. 1607 T. Rogers 39

Art. (1625) 200 They be vnordered Apostates, pretended, and sacrilegious ministers.

2. Not put in order; unarranged.

1477 NORTON Ord. Alch. (MS. Ashm. 1464) Proem, Of all the books vnordered of Alchimy The effectes be heere sett owt orderlie. 1504 ATKYNSON De Imitatione III. xiiii. 231 God..that lefte nothynge vnordred in all the world. 1549 CHEKE Hort. Sedit. (1569) G i b, What is vnordred plentie, but a wastfull spoyle? 1846 LEIG. SHELLEY Last Man III. 200 The consequence of their journey in their present unordered and chiefless array. 1877 MORLEY Crit. Misc. Ser. II. 183 This was not a mere casual reflection..taking a solitary ..position among those various and unordered ideas.

†3 Not observing due order; disorderly. Obs.

1572 ABP. PARKER Corr. (Parker Soc.) 429 [To] require of such unordered persons papistically set, not coming to prayers according to the laws. 1582 STANYHURST Æneis I. (Arb.) 22 Dare ye..Too raise such rakes iakes on seas, and danger vnordered? 1611 A. STAFFORD Niobe 101 To satisfie the vnordred appetites of the body, and vnlawfull desires of the soule.

4. Not ordered or commanded.

1891 Cent. Dict. 1906 Westm. Gaz. 23 May 4/1 The gay tweeds..remain unordered.

†Unordered, ppl. a.[2] Obs.[-1] (Un-[3] 6 b.) Disordered. 1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. I. (1906) 242 Their shipping rent, battered, and much unordered.

Unorderly, a. Now rare. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.]

1. Not in conformity with good order; irregular in respect of action or conduct.

1483 Acta Dom. Audit. 142[a]/2 The wrengwis and vnordourly leding of a processe apoune pe said land. 1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. I. xi. 26 b, The fountaine of al this whole mischiefe is an vnorderly counterfiting. 1587 HOLINSHED Chron. (ed. 2) III. 1254/1 Although it be somwhat..vnorderlie to treat of vnorderlie officers vnder such an vnorderlie king as Richard the third was. 1601 J. WHEELER Treat. Comm. 107 The vnorderlie setting foorth and publishing of the Emperours Mandate. 1642 Coll. Rights & Priv. Parl. 7 How unorderly were it for the satisfying of men, to runne into his displeasure. 1800 COLERIDGE Piccolom. iv. vii. 214 The Emperor perpetrated.. deeds most unorderly.

b. In stronger sense: Disorderly.

1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. clxxxv. 1147 Wee see why God hath pronounced that..they be..destitute of vnderstanding when their lyfe is loose and vnorderly. 1626 L. OWEN Running Legatee 16 The Anglichuns dissolute liuing, and vnorderly behauiour in the said Seminarie. 1761 Ann. Reg., Chron. 235/2 Small parties of the unorderly, undisciplined mob.

2. Not observing due order or arrangement; disordered, confused.

1578 THYNNE in Animadv. (1865) p. lix, To desplay my inwarde mynde, whiche..thus entreth into his vnorderly discourse. 1588 FRAUNCE Lawiers Log. t. ii. 7 b, Thereby to glue sentence of methodicall proceeding or vnorderly confusion. 1609 R. BARNES Fest. A. Sheph. 83 Thou in vnorderly heaping vp of things together confounds memory. 1656 HOBBES Liberty, Necess., & Chance 143 After much unorderly discourse he comes in with This is the doctrine [etc.].

Unorderly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.]

1. Not in good order; not according to a fixed order or arrangement; irregularly.

c 1470 HENRY Wallace x. 685 Wallace has seyn the Scottis vnordourly Follow thas. 1547 RECORDE Judic. Ur. 9 Nothynge done vnorderly cann be well understanded of the readers. 1576 BARNFIELD Hist. Man 1. 7 These bones are pe-formated, here, and there vnorderly, with a heart of small holes. 1603 FLORIO Montaigne III. viii. 558 Shes seemeth faultie and vnprofitable, being ill placed and vnorderly disposed. 1637–50 ROW Hist. Kirk (Wodrow Soc.) 46 Whatever member of the Assemblie does speak vnorderlie, and without leave asked..of the Moderator.

2. Not in an orderly or well-regulated manner; irregularly, improperly.

1471 Act. Audit. (1839) 16/1 The lordis..deliuers hat þe processis of þe breif of Richt..is vnlachfully and vnorderly procedit. 1559 AYLMER Harborowe G 4 b, Bade mente to bridle them..if they had prophecied vnorderly. 1596 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1906) II. 315 So that such disobedient and lawlesse persons may not live so unorderly. 1620 DONNE Pseudo-martyr 37 They make conventicles against bishopps, and accuse them vnorderly, and against the forme of Canons. a 1653 BINNING Usef. Case Conse. (1693) 17 Paul would have as much distance kept with a brother walking unorderly, as a pagan.

†Unordinal, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] Not reduced to order; unregulated. c 1380 WYCLIF Serm. Sel. Wks. I. 9 þat pere was a myche void place stabilid betwene hem, derke and vnordynel, þat letyd damped men to come to hem. Ibid. III. 128 Rist as pride..is unordynel wille of a monnis owene hyenesse, so envye..is unordynel wille of mon to his neghbore. Unordinarily, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. next.) 1574 Briefff Disc. Troub. Frankfordeg. For that we had proceaded vnordinarilie, that is..contrary to the olde discipline.

Unordinary, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1547 Edw. VI Jrnl. in Lit. Rem. (Roxb.) II. 213 Order was taken for al his servauntes..and the ordinary and unordinary were appointed. 1574 Briefff Disc. Trouble Frankfordeg 79 They made cauillation at the manner off doinge off things as an vnordinary manner. 1610 HEALEY St. Aug. Citie of God 646 A proper phrase to the Greeke tongue, but vnordinary in the Latine. 1690 LOCKE Hum. Und. III. xii. 8 90 I do not know how they can be excused from Murther, who kill monstrous Births (as we call them) because of an unordinary shape. 1730 T. BOSTON Mem. App. 45 A man of unordinary application to business. 1909 A. BLACKWOOD Jimbo i, A supreme ignorance of unordinary children.

†Unordinate, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.] = INORDINATE a. (in various senses).

c 1375 in Rel. Ant. I. 39 Unordynate love of worldly thinges. 1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. v. xxiii. (Bodl. MS.), An vnordinat voice and horrible pat glad(e) not noper comforte. c 1445 St. Mary of Egypt i. vi. in Anglia VIII. 239/10 Ydel worde or vnordynat lokynge or vnhonest hauynge of body. c 1450 Chast. Goddes Chydd. 22 This feuer tercian comyth somtyme of an unordynate hete. 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer II. (1577) I viij, Our Courtier ought not to professe to be a glutton nor a drunkerd, nor riotous & vnordinate in any yil condition. 1591 HARINGTON Orl. Fur. VIII. Notes 63 The unseasonably and carelesse actes that dishonest or vnordinat loue do prouoke euen the noblest vnto. 1610 S. RID Martin Mark-all B 1, A iust punishment for their presumptuous and vnordinate proceedings.

†Unordinately, adv. Obs. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b.)

c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 38 Ech body forseiip him while per bouȝt is bounden to love ony creature unordynatli. c 1425 St. Mary of Egipcus i. v. in Anglia VIII. 238/16 Pronounynge many wordes vnordynatly. c 1440 Jacob's Well 161 Whanne a man delyth wyth his wyf vnordynatly & vnkyndely. 1545 RAYNALD Byrth Mankynde 137 The sowar maye vnordinatly strewe..the seade on the earth. 1550 T. HOBY Trans. (1900) 57 Yf a mann drink unordinaliie of yt, yt makethe him dronke.

Unordinaned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1804 LARWOOD No Gun Boats 12 Better to give all than suffer their Gun Boats to remain in even an unriddered, unmasted, unordonanced existence. Unorganed, ppl. a. [Un-[2] 4, 6 + ORGAN sb.[1] 5.] Organically dissolved. 1624 QUARLES Job xix. 51 But man (vnorgan'd by the hand of Death) Dyes not, is but transplanted from beneath, Into a fairer soyle. Unorganic, a. (Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.) [1772–1840] 1800–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 508 The keeping of the rule of action..in one immense and unorganic mass.

Unorganizable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1868 K. H. QUICK Eng. Reformm. viii. 222 To cram the mind with isolated, or as Mr. Spencer calls them, unorganizable facts. 1902 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 10) XXXI. 515/2 The floor is covered by dead or dying unorganizable materials, without any layer of regenerative cells.

Unorganized, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8, 5 b.]

1. Not brought into an organic state.

1690 LOCKE Hum. Und. II. xxx. § 5 An uniform, unorganized body, consisting..all of similar parts. 1746 BERKELEY in Fraser Life (1871) viii. 316 To me it seems that stones are vegetables unorganized. 1792 R. J. SULIVAN View Nat. I. 467 If we find causes of uniformity in regard to organized beings, how many more must we find in regard to unorganized beings. 1829 T. CASTLE Introd. Bot. 225 That the epidermis is a fine, transparent, unorganized pellicle. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VI. 189 Ordinary unorganised or partly organised polypoid thrombi.

2. Not formed into an orderly or regulated whole. 1836 H. COLERIDGE North. Worthies (1852) I. 16 Confiding in the unorganised valour of the English nation, he..opposed a standing army. 1860 FROUDE Hist. Eng. V. 213 The sustained fire..threw their dense and unorganized masses into rapid confusion.

Hence Unorganizedness.

1664 H. MORE Apology 486 Which makes me..seem to allow of the Unorganizedness of the Æthereal Vehicle of the Soul.

Unoriental, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1820 BYRON Juan III. xxviii, A most unoriental roar of laughter. 1862 THORNBURY Turner I. 104 The Jerusalem is very unoriental.

Unoriginal, a. and sb. [Un-[1] 7, 12.]

1. Having no origin; uncreated.

1650 BULLEN P. L. x. 47 Plung'd in the womb Of unoriginal Night and Chaos wilde.

2. Not original; derivative; second-hand.

1774 GERARD Ess. Genius 42 Nothing appears in it uncommon or new; every thing is trite and unoriginal. 1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 57 The evidence may be termed unoriginal in so far as the narrating witness..speaks of some other person and not of himself. a 1849 POE Diddling Wks. 1865 IV. 265 He would return a purse..upon discovering that he had obtained it by an unoriginal diddle. 1897 W. P. KER Epic & Rom. 329 The Song of Roland' is comparatively late and unoriginal.

b. sb. One who lacks originality.

1847 MEDWIN Life Shelley II. 203 A cold, selfish, mathematical unoriginal, like Hobbes.

Unoriginality. (Un-[1] 12.)

1798 LAMB Let. in Final Mem. iv. 32, I love to anticipate charges of unoriginality. 1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) III. 434 The quality of unoriginality seems applicable to an article of evidence in either of two cases. a 1849 POE Longf., etc., Wks. 1865 III. 360 Of the originality of the thesis we have already spoken.

Unoriginate, a. and sb. [Un-[1] 7, 12, 5 b.] = next.

1719 J. JACKSON Let. to Auth. True Doctr. Trinity 216 Self-existent being (he says as unoriginate, is (you think) merely a Negative Character. 1795 Monthly Mem. (1796) 183 One spirit possessed of all possible perfections, self-existent, unoriginate, the first cause of the universe. 1855 PUSEY Doctr. Real Presence 236 God is unoriginate, and not generate. 1872 LIDDON Elem. Relig. ii. 53 A supreme all-producing Cause, Itself uncaused, unoriginate.

b. As sb. An unoriginated being.

1724 WATERLAND Athan. Creed 145 That..neither the Son nor Holy Ghost have any share in these Titles or Characters, to make Three Unoriginates. 1875 Encycl. Brit. II. 537/2 Arius denied of Christ that He was..part of the Unoriginate.

Hence Unoriginately adv., -ness.

1720 WATERLAND Eight Serm. Pref., It is only saying that he is so emphatically, or unoriginately. 1723 — Second Vind. 125 It was to admit of a higher and a lower Sense of the Word God; the higher supposed to have nothing above the other but Self-existence, or Unoriginateness.

Unoriginated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1696 PAYNE Let. to Dr. J. F.—13 The Father is the only self-existent, unoriginated Being. 1712 S. CLARKE Script. Doct. Holy Trinity II. 243 The Father (or First Person) Alone is Self-existent, Underived, Unoriginated, Independent. 1797 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 3) V. 730 Any two unoriginated powers acting upon one another at right angles. 1838 MRS. BROWNING Measure i, God, the Creator, with a pulseless hand Of unoriginated power, hath weighed The dust of earth. 1869 H. MACMILLAN Bible Teach. I. (1870) 16 The force of gravitation, which is not a mere mechanical agency, unoriginated and uncontrolled.

Hence Unoriginatedness.

1862 F. HALL Hindu Philos. Syst. 160 The unoriginatedness of souls.

Unorigina·tion. (Un-[1] 12.) 1755 AMORY Mem. (1769) I. 50 [To] worship three distinct divinities, subsisting, coordinate powers, separate independent unorigination.

Unorigina·tive, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1874 SAYCE Compar. Philol. iii. 114 Unlike the Aryans they [sc. the Etruscans] were unoriginative and receptive.

†Unorn, a. Obs. [OE. unorne, f. un- Un-[1] 7 + orne unusual, excessive (?).]

1. Of persons: Plain (in manners or appearance); humble, simple; mean, wretched.

c 1000 Battle of Maldon 256 Dunnere þa cwæð, ..unorne ceorl oder eall clypode. c 1200 ORMIN 4884 Forr Godess Sune..Warrþ an unnorne & wreccche mann. a 1225 Ancr. R. 402 Anre þet maneð noȝ meth hond hire ȝeode, beoð bisie two wunnen, ..and þeo beo ful unorne, oþer of feir elde. a 1250 Owl & Night. 1492 If hire louerd is forwurþe & vnorne at bedde and at borde. a 1300 K. Horn 330 Ne spek ihe nogt wiþ horn, Nis he nogt so unorn; Horn is faiier þane beo he. c 1400 Sawl Trop Hk. 7485 Episcropus tat schrewe vnorne Might not his word performe. a 1470 H. PARKER Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) iv. xxvii. 195/1 Suche ye shall be.., feble, unourne, & loth to be stynt. transcf. c 1412–20 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 876 Now age vnourne a-weye puttep fauour, þat floury youþe in his seson conquerde.

2. Of things: Poor or inferior in quality, amount, or appearance.

c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 85 Þenne he brohte hine uppen his weme, þet is unorne mare, þet bitacnet ure unorne fleis. c 1200 ORMIN 828, I þe weaste þær he wass Hiss fode wass unnorne. a 1225 Ancr. R. 108 Uorto leren ancren þet heo ne gruchie neuermore nor none mete, ne uor none drunche, ne beo hit nouȝ so unorne. a 1250 Owl & Night. 90 Mi seine is bold & nouht unorne. 1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. v. xiii. (Tollem. MS.), Yf þe nose lakkeþ, all þe toper del of þe face is be more unhone and unseemly.

Hence † Unorn·tly adv. Obs.

c 1200 ORMIN 3750 Patt te birrþ aȝȝ..lætenn swiþe unnornelliȝ & littell þi selffenn. Ibid. 4858. c 1300 Havelok 1141 Me wore leuere i wore lame, Panne men dide him ani shame, ..or onne handes leyde, Vn-ornelike.

Unornamental, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1747 G. WEST Resurrect. 355 The simple, unaffected, unornamental and unostentatious Manner, in which they deliver Truths so important. 1829 COBBETT Eng. Gard. v. § 198 Borage..is by no means unornamental in a flower garden. 1834 Gentl. Mag. CIV. i. 34 Two small arches of massy and unornamental stone-work.

Hence Unornamentally adv.

1889 Times 27 Dec. 11 These cans..are used ingeniously, if unornamentally, as building materials in the repair of roofs.

Unornamented, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1699 COLLIER Ess. Moral Subj. i. (1703) 236 'Tis more reputable..to prefer a homely, unornamented liberty to a splendid servitude. 1740 CIBBER Apol. xiv. 273 Nature, in her plain Dress, and unornamented. 1798 Brit. Critic XI. 3 A plain unornamented folio. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus III. iii, One of those plain and unornamented suits [of armour]. 1878 LECKY Eng. in 18th C. II. ix. 532 So in the pulpit they affect the most unornamented simplicity.

Unorthodox, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1657 W. RAND tr. Cassendi's Life Pirnc. I. 127 That he might not any longer persist in an un-orthodox Religion. a 1661 HOLYDAY Juvenal (1673) 24 There's a parity of reason for these unorthodox philosophers. 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 1/1 His Doctrine may seem unorthodox and paradoxical to many. 1830 LYELL Princ. Geol. I. 48 Buffon was invited by the College..to send in an explanation..of his unorthodox opinions. 1863 MRS. WOOD Verner's Pride xlix, If he were a respectable gipsy he'd confess himself to the churchyard, and not walk in unorthodox places. 1888 FARRAR Early Chr. II. 533 To throw any doubt upon it was to brave the charge of being arrogant or unorthodox.

Unorthodoxy. (Un-[1] 12.)

a 1704 T. BROWN Laconics Wks. 1711 IV. 7 Calvin made Roast-meat of Servetus at Geneva, for his Unorthodoxy. 1860 FROUDE Hist. Eng. VI. 130 If they dreaded a Spanish sovereign, they hated unorthodoxy more. 1879 M. PATTISON Milton 118 Insinuations of unorthodoxy such as are ever rife in clerical controversy.

Unorthographically, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1687 J. BARNES Hist. Edw. III, 568 Whose Names I had rather omit, than set them down, as I find them, unorthographically.

Unossified, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1726 MONRO Anat. 59 The separation of the unossified Parts. 1778 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 2) I. 344/2 A portion of the cranium then [sc. in new-born infants] unossified. 1828 RYAN Man. Midwifery 12 Owing to its bones being separate and unossified. 1878 A. H. GREENE, Obst. Med. xx. 722 The occipital condyles appear to have been similarly unossified.

Unostensible, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) [1775 ASH.] 1851 MERIVALE Rom. Emp. xxv. III. 121 The real though unostensible leader of the republic.

Unostenta·tious, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1747 [see UNORNAMENTAL a.]. 1782 V. KNOX Ess. iii. (1819) I. 18 They induce idleness..not to neglect the reality as attainable only by a painful and unostentatious application. 1845 SCOTT Bolton Abbey 14 Thy most obscure and occasious, plain and unostentatious. 1874 GREEN Short Hist. vii. § 1 His personal habits were simple and unostentatious.

Hence Unostentatiousness. (Worc., 1846, citing Allen.)

Unostenta·tiously, adv. (Un-[1] 11; cf. prec.) 1795 V. KNOX Chr. Phil. § 39 I. 281 He is silently and unostentatiously happy. 1844 H. H. WILSON Brit. India II. 228 The preparations were conducted as unostentatiously as possible. 1891 DRIVER Introd. Lit. O. T. 428 How a religious spirit may be carried unostentatiously into the conduct of daily life.

†Unoutspea·kable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Unutterable.

1535 COVERDALE 2 Cor. ix. 15 Thanks be vnto God for his vnoutspeakable gifte. a 1564 Becon Policy War Wks. 1564 I. 129 What was ye cause of that theyr greuous miserye and vnouteyspeakable calamite?

†Unoven, v. Obs. (Un-[3] 5.) 1611 Florio, Disfornáre, to vnfurnace, to vnouen. 1653 Urquhart Rabelais I. xxii. 95 Gargantua..played..at unoven the iron.

Unovercloded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) a 1658 Lovelace Lucasta Posth. (1659) 71 I'm un-ore-clowded too! free from the mist! Unovercomable, a. (Un-[1] 8.) c 1445 Pecock Donet 160 Pat pe peple were..so obstynat and so vnouercomable and vnapendressable! herdid. 1508 Dunbar Poems vii. 44 Welcum thou campioun, in feght vnoureumable.

Unovercome, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) OE. unofercumen occurs as a gloss on L. indigestus. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxii. (Laurence) 374 Thane decius ..Pane commawndit..to dyng hym fast: bot vnourcumpne he can ay last. 1382 Wyclif Judith Prol., The vnouercomen of alle men sbe ouercam, and the vnouerpassable sbe ouerpassede. 1434 Misyn Mending Life 123 Truly pei is luf vnouercomyn qwhen with no nodyr desyr it may be ouercomyn. c 1540 Barclay Jugurth (1557) 33 b, Ye vnouercome of your ennemies, maisters, and emperours, ouer the most part of the worlde. 1579-80 North Plutarch (1676) 507 Though now they lead me bound, yet do I remain free vnouercome. c 1611 Chapman Iliad xvi. 92 O would to Jove..That not..any one of all the Greeks..might live unovercome.

Unoverleaped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1849 M. Arnold To Republican Friend, contin. 7 This Earth, whereon we dream, Is..o'ershadow'd by the high Uno'erleap'd Mountains of Necessity. Unoverpassable, a. (See Unovercome ppl. a. quot. 1382.) Unoverspeaken, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1629 T. Adams Serm. Wks. 984 The sunne is vpon his backe, behind him, and his shadow is still vn-ouertaken before him.

Unoverthrown, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 394 Tha thocht aneuer to defend sweir swin into sic throng, and kelp thame vnouirthrawin. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xxii, Yet shewed it most the perfection of the beautie, which could remaine unoverthrowne by such enimies. 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. I. (1626) 8 Which, by such a force, vn-overthrowne, oppos'd, The higher-swelling Water quite deuoures. 1852 Clough Poems, etc. (1869) I. 348 In the proposition to ancient tenets and habits the old character remains upright, unoverthrown and unsubdued.

†Unovertrowable: see Overtrowable a.

Unowed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] †Unowned.

1595 Shaks. John iv. iii. 147 And England now is left To tug and scamble, and to part by th' teeth The vn-owed interest of proud swelling state.

Unown, v. (Un-[2] 3.) trans. To disown. a 1657 R. Loveday Lett. (1663) 12 What comes it [to] to lease my self away!..Tis to unown my self, is disclaime My will, my head, my hands, all that I am.

Unowned, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not possessed as property; destitute of an owner or possessor.

1611 Cotgr., Vuayres...things which bee left, abandoned, escheated, or vnowned. 1635 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Banished Virg. 57 The Law declareth things unowned to be his that first comes to the enjoying of them. 1681 O. Heywood Diaries, etc. (1881) II. 229 They would cry it at the crosse with some other unowned goods. 1829 Southey N. More I. 194 Not the dogs at Lisbon and Constantinople, unowned, unbroken to any useful purpose. 1884 Pall Mall G. 12 Jan. 5/1 Unowned wires, he admitted, must be dealt with.

transf. 1634 Milton Comus 407 Lest som ill greeting touch attempt the person Of our unowned sister [=330 our lost sister].

2. Unacknowledged; unadmitted.

1715 Gay Epist. to Earl of Burlington 40 Here unown'd infants find their daily food; For should the maiden mother nurse her son, 'Twould spoil her mien, and shame her unowned beauty. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) II. xliv. 321, I know not my own heart, if I have any of that lavent or unowned inclination. 1793 W. Roberts Looker-on No. 48 (1794) I. 202 Is not this unowned by the delicacy of its real author. 1865 Miss Yonge Dove in Eagle's Nest vii, The poor little unowned bride had more to undergo than her imagination had conceived. 1897 Pulsford-Binny Blotted Out 63 Her unowned child..had blossomed into one of the most famous actresses of the day.

Unoxidated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1805 R. W. Dickson Pract. Agric. I. 446 A portion of oil, or of the basis of it in an unoxydated state being diffused through their composition.

Unoxidized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 5 b.)

Also, in recent use (1894), unoxidizable.

1827 Edin. Rev. XLV. 300 Partial productions of these pure unoxydized bases. 1829 Miller Elem. Chem., Org. 22 The amount of unoxidized sulphur in an organic compound.

Unoxygenated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1790 R. Kerr tr. Lavoisier's Elem. Chem. II. 187 We cannot procure them in their unoxygenated state. 1798 Abernethy in Phil. Trans. LXXXVIII. 108 Neither could I..so accustom the animal to the circulation of unoxygenated blood, as to lengthen the term of its existence. 1875 tr. Schmidt's Desc. & Darwinism (ed. 2) 20 The un-oxygenated constituents of the blood. 1886 Huxley in Life (1900) II. 148 The sort of uphill exercise which routs out all the unoxygenated crannies of my organism.

Unpa·cable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1544 Bale Chron. Sir J. Oldcastle 13 b, The vnpacable furye of Antichrist thus kyndled agaynst him. Unpa·ced, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1897 Daily News 17 Feb. 11/3 The principal item is a series tandem match, unpaced,..for £100.

Unpa·ffinable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1629 T. Adams Serm. Wks. 804 O the vnpaffinable mudnesse, that this worlds muskie puts those into, who will dance after his Pipe. 1902 C. Mather Magn. Chr. IV. x. 217/2 He had an unpaffinable Dissatisfaction at himself.

Unpacific, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1774 E. Lawrence in Recreat. & Stud. (1882) 26 The ear left alone..in the midst of all the flats, and shoals, and breakers..of this unpacific ocean! 1782 Warton Hist. Kidlington 72 Many such works of our disunited and unpacific ancestors were undoubtedly destroyed..in the early martial ages. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. v. 1 The Court is marches unpacific, at the head of his militant Parish.

†Unpaci·ficable, a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1608 Torshell Serpents 136 The enemy within..sporteth her selse in the consumption of those vitall parts, which wast and weare away by yeelding to her vnpacificable teeth.

Unpa·cified, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vnpacified, impacatus. c 1612 Chapman Iliad xviii. 299 Twelve youths..I'll sacrifice.. to thee unpacified. a 1660 Charnock Attrib. God (1834) I. 283 The approach is to God as gracious, not to God as unpacified.

Hence Unpa·cifiedly adv.

1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) V. xlii. 373 She was going to speak with an aspect unpacifiedly angry.

Unpa·ck, v. [Un-[2] 3, 5. Cf. Du. ontpakken.]

1. trans. To undo or open up (a pack, bale, etc.) and remove or release the contents.

1472-5 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 155/2 Then it be leeffull to the Collectours..to doo vnpacke the Pakkes and Fardels. 1535 Act 27 Hen. VIII, c. 14 § 1 Whiche packes so conveied..to suche portes..to be shipped be never there vnpacked. 1611 Cotgr., Desempacquet, to vnloose a packe. 1739 J. Elton in Hanway Trav. (1762) I. i. v. 21 The custom-house officers are not to break open and unpack their bales. 1798 S. & Hn. Lee Canterb. T. II. 478 On the deck sat Lady Emily, unpacking a little basket of fruit. 1838 Dickens O. Twist xxiii, The beadle, stooping to unpack his bundle. 1873 Black Pr. Thule 34 Go away..and unpack your portmanteau.

fig. 1602 Shaks. Ham. ii. ii. 624 This is most braue, That I..Must (like a Whore) vnpacke my heart with words. 1874 Ruskin Hortus Inclusus (1887) 15 The difficulty I had in unpacking my mind.

2. To take (something) out of a pack or packing.

1598 Hakluyt Voy. I. 210 That none of our said subjects shall vnlade..nor vnpacke..no kind of wares. 1669 Boyle Certain Physiol. Ess. (ed. 2) Absol. Rest Bodies 25 When..he had unpacked (i.e. a great parcel of glasses) and rang'd them. 1754 Ld. Hardwicke in Harris Life (1847) III. xii. 28 As company is to come soon,..your mother is very busy in unpacking her house [=furniture]. 1810 W. Selwyn Law Nisi Prius (ed. 2) II. 29 Not having any directions from him respecting the goods, [defendant] caused them to be unpacked. 1825 Ld. G. Cavendish in Biog. J. Gibson (1911) 62 It has been unpacked, and placed on a temporary pedestal. 1894 A. Robertson Nuggets 38 He unpacked the gold and laid it..on the counter.

fig. 1596 Nashe Saffron Walden K 4 The strange vn-trafliqu't phrases by him now vented and vnpackt. 1821 Lamb Elia i. Imperfect Sympathies, He brings his total wealth into company, and gravely unpacks it. 1841 H. Miller O. R. Sandst. vi. 107 The strata..have been unpacked and arranged by the uptilting agent.

b. transf. To take (a person) out of a conveyance, dress, etc.

1690 Crowne Eng. Friar iii, The elderly Ladies have been unpack'd a good while since. 1837 Dickens Pickw. xxii, A red-haired man..had unpacked himself from a cab at the same moment. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 21 May 3/2 My poor cousin, in what a state of..collapse must you have been when Myrtle unpacked you on your return!

c. refl. or pass. To get one's furniture, luggage, etc., unpacked.

1791 H. Walpole Let. to Miss Berry 27 Oct., I..thought it would be very uncomfortable to you, till you had unpacked yourselves, seen some few persons, adjusted your family, etc. 1812 Lady Granville Lett. (1894) I. 40 The Bessboroughs have been unpacked about a couple of hours.

3. To remove a pack or load from (a horse, carriage, etc.).

1570 Levins Manip. 5 To Unpacke, exarcinare. 1598 Florio Shereto, to vnpacke, to vnsaddle a cariers horse. 1835 W. Irving Tour Prairies 27 His first care was to unpack his horses, and put them in safe quarters. 1853 Douglas Milit. Bridges (ed. 3) 66 To unpack the carriage [carrying a pontoon].

4. absol. To perform the work of unpacking.

1837 W. Irving Capt. Bonneville II. 22 Two-thirds trappers,.. and one-third camp-keepers; who cook, pack, and unpack. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 696 As her commander..asked me on board to lunch, I had to unpack again.

Hence Unpa·cking vbl. sb.

1472-5 Rolls of Parlt. VI. 155/2 Without vnpakking or sight of such Clothes. 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 261/1, I was present at the unpacking of the machine. 1837 [Mrs. Maitland] Lett. fr. Madras (1842) 97 People never seem to be able to lay their private hands upon them till after they have finished all their unpacking. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 272 It was a bundle of bark cloth: I anxiously watched its unpacking.

attrib. 1829 in Willis & Clark Cambridge (1886) III. 103 Unpacking Rooms connected with the several Museums.

Unpa·cked, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. ongepact.]

1. Not made up in, or put into, a pack.

1495 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. I. 220, xxv sekkis of vnpakkit wol. 1622 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 270 To imbale four or five fardells yett unpacked. 1889 Miss M. Jones Games Patience 40 Any other unpacked card has a chance of being moved, but not so the King.

2. Not taken out of a pack or parcel.

a 1721 Prior Ex. Opinion P 13 Loads of fil Pictures, and worse Books..lye unpacked and unthought of when they come into the Country.

Unpa·cked, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[1] 8 + Packed ppl. a.[2]) 1810 Bentham Packing (1821) 188 To persuade either a Jury, even though unpacked, or his fellow Judges.

Unpa·cker. [E. Unpack v.] One who unpacks.

1804 Mar. Edgeworth Emmel iii, By the awkwardness of the unpacker, the stamie's thumb was broken. 1859 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. (ed. 8) 46 Pole-men, peg-men, and unpackers of tents.

Unpa·dlocked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] or Un- + 8.) 1681 Penny Post No. 5, That and the Press being unpadlock'd, are two incompatable things to the Liberty of the Subject! 1846 C. Dickens Battle of Life 60 One of the fire-proof boxes, unpadlocked and opened. Unpa·gan, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1614 Sylvester Bethulia's Rescue II. 452 The Lord Marshall.. Transporteth speedy, neer Bethulia's side, Th' un-pagan Pagan. Unpa·ganize, v. (Un-[2] 6 c b.) 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. iv. 191 Contents, The paganizing of that, which was intended for the unpaganizing of the world. 1801 Hel. M. Williams Sk. Fr. Rep. I. vi. 47 Christianity had long spread its doctrines throughout the Roman empire before the world was quite unpaganized. Unpa·ged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1874 Boase & Courtney Bibl. Cornub. I. 238/1 Postscript, 6 pages unpaged. 1898 Sotheby's Sale Catal. 6 Oct. 41 The rare unpaged leaf 'to the Christen reader'.

Unpaid, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Of persons: To whom payment has been made; not receiving payment.

1475 Barnoux Bruce I. 257 Quhethir he his lordis neid sald let, And pay fryst that he awcht,..Or leve onpayit his wyff. 1464 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 83, I trow I xall be fayn to contente hem or ellys they xall be unpayyd. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 313 A number of the souldyours.. whome king Peter promised to pay, came home agayne vnpayde. 1586 Sir A. Poulet in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. III. 10 Yf they shall say that they are unpayd of their wages. 1627 Drayton Battle of Agincourt xliii, The Church to pawne, would see her Challice layde, E'r shee would leaue one Pyoner vnpayde. a 1658 Lovelace Poems (1904) 125 Whilst thy unpay'd Musicians, Crickets, sing. 1798 Pope Dunc. II. 110 That suit, an unpay'd tailor snatch'd away! 1769 Burke Obs. 'Tyres. St. Nat.' 8 If her armies are three years unpaid. 1837 M'Culloch Acc. Brit. Empire II. 646 The risks arising from the frequent defaults of the unpaid overseers. 1891 Daily News 17 June 5/1 Unpaid children..went to their work at six o'clock in the morning.

b. With for. (Cf. 3.)

1611 Shaks. Cymb. v. v. 307 Wilt thou vndoo the worth thou art vnpaid for By tasting of our wrath? 1618 J. Taylor (Water P.) Fennitiad 1 Vnpaid for his pains. 1723 Jauster Taylor..Vnask'd (vnpaid for) me both lodg'd and fed.

c. The (Great) Unpaid, the class of unpaid magistrates or justices.

1826 Edin. Rev. 441 We beg to be acquitted of all intention of affronting, or attacking the Great Unpaid. 1826 Examiner 727/2 The miserable canting spirit which actuates the 'Unpaid'.

2. Not handed over or given in payment; not discharged or cleared off by payment.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) IV. 117 Lisia..wente into Peers, for be tribute was unpayde. 1424 Paston Lett. I. 16 'If the fees and the wages of the seid William..unpayed draweth a gret some to hys pouere degree. 1491 Act 7 Hen. VII, c. 20 § 5 As often as it shall happen the seid annuall rent..to be behynd and unpayd in part or in all. 1507 Rec. St. Mary at Hill 25 Yff it happ yt said yerly ferme of v marke..to be behynd..by a monithe vnpaid. 1547 in Feuillerat Revels Edward VI (1914) 26 The sum..as by the bookes..doihe apere more at large, is vnpayd. 1606 Arraignm. & Execution Late Traitors (Hindley II) 7 That his wife might have her iointure..his sisters their legacies in his hand unpaid. 1661 Morgan Sph. Gentry iv. iii. 47 The party whose portion shall appear to be unpayed. 1764 Goldsm. Hist. Eng. in Lett. (1772) II. 20 Alexander.. was indebted to him a large sum, which was still unpaid. 1848 Thackeray Van. Fair iii, A long arrear of unpaid wages. 1898 J. Davinson Inverurie & Garioch 349 The fines remaining unpaid.

fig. 1421 Hoccleve Min. Poems 169/817 His brothres reward had nat been vnpayed, Nad promesse of the Emperour him bownde To pardon. 1667 Milton P. L. v. 779 How we may best..Receive him coming to receive from us Knee-tribute yet unpaid. †1720 Congreve To Sir G. Kneller, Fame due to vast desert is kept in store, Unpay'd, till the deserver is no more. 1791 Cowper Iliad I. 112 The seer..spake, Nor vow nor hecatomb unpaid on us He charges.

b. Of debts or bills: Undischarged.

1483 Act 1 Ric. III, c. 2 Many worshipful Men..live in great Penury..; their Debts unpaid, and their Children unpreferred. 1492-3 Rec. St. Mary at Hill 194 Olde dettes that have be lette vnpayde by the cherch wardenys. 1661 R. Knox Hist. Ceylon vii. 149 The Interest never runs up higher, tho the Debt lye seven years unpaid. 1754 in Natrne Peerage Evidence (1874) 32 A just true and lawful debt wholly resting unpaid. 1781 Cowper Retirem. 559 Anticipated rents, and bills unpaid. 1887 Gunter Mr. Barnes xiii. 96 She remembers she has unpaid bills.

c. Not rendered or discharged.

1611 Shaks. Cymb. III. v. 48 She pray'd me to excuse her keeping close, Whereunto I obey'd, yet feare the fault Hath dulte leaue vnpaide to you Which dayly she was bound to proffer. 1717 Pope Elegy Mem. Unfort. Lady 48 What can alone.. Thy fate unpitty'd, and thy rites unpaid? 1725 — Odyss. XIV. 213 With him all unpaid the youthful strangers staid, Nor found the hospitable rites unpay'd.

3. Not paid for. Also without prep.

1465 Paston Lett. II. 233 [If] the blak hose be payid for, he wyll send the roset un-payd for. 1552 in Feuillerat Revels Edw. VI (1914) 124 The like charges of the said lorde..beinge yet behinde and vnpaid for. 1612 Shaks. Cymb. III. iii. 24 Rustling in vnpayd-for Silke. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored To Rdr. 11 The Drapers cloth on their backs,..and all unpaid for. 1897 Dixon Conscript T. VIII. 433 A show unpaid for, paying to be seen. 1886 C. E. Pascoe Lond. of To-day xliii. (ed. 3) 379 Letters posted unpaid are charged double postage. 1895 Ld. Farrer in Westm. Gaz. 19 Feb. 2/3, I did not know before I joined the Council how good and how remunerative unpaid work can be.

Hence Unpai·dish a. (from sense 1 c).

1829 E. Elliott Village Patriarch III. ix, Mark his unpaidish sneer, his lordly frown.

Unpai·n, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1548 Raynald Byrth Mankynde 69 These pylles be of such efficacy and strength, yt it alleuiateth and vnpayseth the byrth.

Unpai·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 200 No defoulynge berof [sc. marriage] may askape unpeyned. 1599 B. Jonson Cynthia's Rev. v. iii, But there's not one of these who are unpain'd, Or by themselves unpunished. 1667 Milton P. L. vi. 455 'Too unequal work we find Against unequal armes to fight in paine, Against unpaind, impassive. a 1758 Ramsay To G. Drummond xi, And here the Fair may walk unpain'd, Her flowing silks and shoes unstain'd. 1804 Europ. Mag. XLV. 61/1 Leaning o'er lovely dead he leaves With unpain'd soul, 1826 A. A. Watts First Kiss 87 A bliss too pure For evil spirits to behold unpained.

Unpai·nful, a. [Un-[1] 7.]

†1. Not subject to pain. Obs.—[1]

c 1425 Lucidarie (Fr. Schmitt 1909) 21 Afin his owne kynde, he was unpayneful & undeedyly.

2. Not causing or involving pain or discomfort.

1570 Levins Manip. 186 Vnpayful, immolestus. 1628 Feltham Resolves ii. lxxxii. 236 If we owe a Retribution for vnpainefull Courtesies. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. ii. iv. § 4 That being generally call'd ..soft, which changes the Situation of its parts upon an easie and unpainful touch. 1713 Guardian No. 82, Those who make an honest man a visit .. to make his following year unpainful. 1758 J. S. Le Dran's Observ. Surg. (1771) 95 The small Remainder of the Tumour was unpainful. 1823 J. Wilson Marg. Lyndsay iv. 67 That unpainful sympathy which is all the poor can afford or expect. 1851 Hawthorne Twice-told T. II. vi. 99 A sympathy with the young and gay; an unpainful interest in the business of others.

3. Marked or characterized by absence of pain.

1861 Mrs. Jenkin Who breaks—pays II. 261 The first unpainful feeling I have had for three quarters of a year.

Unpai·ning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1828 Tennyson Lover's Tr. 6 Sea Would I hail him Dull, the wild brier had driven Its knotted thorns thro' my unpaining brows.

Unpai·nt, v. [Un-[2] 4.]

1. trans. To free from paint.

1611 Cotgr., Desarder, to vnpaint; to wash, take, or wype off, painting. 1844 P. Parley's Ann. V. 265 Nothing now remained but to unpaint the young urchin; and so Sally.. scrubbed till she was tired.

2. To paint out; to obliterate (something painted).

a 1717 Parnell Piety 53 Unpaint the Love, that hov'ring over Beds, From gilt'ring Pinions guilty Pleasure sheds. 1755 Johnson Dict., To Goldsmith, to unpaint. 1866 Visct. Strangford Select (1869) II. 320 An unobtrusive little coronet which my wife has had painted..upon the panels of her carriage, and which I defy all the powers on earth.. to induce her to unpaint.

Unpai·ntable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1849 Kingsley Misc. (1859) II. 255 Farewell to unpaintable Lynmouth. 1893 Guardian 16 Aug. 1291 When he began to try to paint the unpaintable.

Hence Unpaintabi·lity, -ableness.

1884 Athenæum 16 Aug. 218/1 The artists who complain of the 'unpaintableness' of current attire. 1888 Pall Mall G. 4 Oct. 5/2 The unpaintability of Mr. Gladstone.

Unpai·nted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 206 Rased or vnpaynted tables. 1604 S. Harrison Arches of Triumph B 3 I would not care if these vnpainted Pictures were more Costly to me, so that [etc.]. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. i. x. 45 An unpainted Buckler was a signe of..a common Souldier. 1762 Goldsm. Cit. W. xxix, More ugly than an unpainted actress. 1771 R. Cumberland West Indian Epil. 24 Unpainted cheeks with blush of health did glow. 1818 Shelley Let. to Peacock 8 Nov., Strange-looking unpainted window-shutters. 1855 Dickens Bleak-Tree i. The rooms..were all of unpaired wood.

Unpai·red, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8. Cf. Da. upaarret, Sw. oparad, Du. ongepaard, G. ungepaart.] Not united or arranged in pairs; not forming one of a pair.

1648 Hexham II, Onpaer, Vn-even, or Vnpaired. 1748 Richardson Clarissa IV. 50 All this vast difference in sentiments shews how unpair'd our minds are. 1812 Crabbe Tales iv. 5 Others, ill match'd, with minds unpair'd, repent. 1882 Günther Fishes 40 The Fins are divided into vertical or unpaired, and into horizontal or paired fins. 1883 Martin & Moale Veterin. Dissect. 133 A single unpaired air sac will be seen just beneath the anterior portion of the sternum.

†Unpai·red, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[1] 8.) Unimpaired, uninjured. c 1400 Destr. Troy 13148 But thurgh wilys & wit he wan of his daunger. Vnpairit of his person priuely he state.

†Unpai·sed, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-[1] 8 + Peise v.) Not properly weighed or balanced; defective or excessive in weight.

1390 Gower Conf. Prol. 64* He that bath his word unpeysed. 1561 Norton & Sackv. Gorboduc i. i. Porrex the younger so vnpaised in state, Perhappes in courage will be raised also. 1581 Studley tr. Seneca, Herc. Œt. i. 191 b, And couple I brooke it, Toxeus, to see thy death with woe? That wert vnwayde in years, and eake in pits [read pith; L. sanguine] vnpayse de. 1602 Marston Ant. & Mel. ii. iii. 1 Seize on reuenge, grasp the sterne bended front Of frowning vengeance, with vnpaised clutch.

Unpa·laced, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 8.) 1859 J. S. Mill Diss. & Disc. I. 23 Let the State endowments be once withdrawn from the Church of England, her mitred and unpalaced prelates will indulge in no such delusion.

Unpa·latable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Not agreeable to the palate. Also in fig. context.

1682 Dryden Medal 148 The Man..Might laugh again, to see a Jury chaw The prickles of unpalatable Law. 1700 T. Brown Amusem. viii. Wks. 1720 III. 76 Our Doctor..cloys his Auditors with that unpalatable Ragoust. 1748 Anson's Voy. ii. viii. 218 We found them [sc. pearl oysters] extremely tough and unpalatable. 1799 J. Robertson Agric. Perth 205 The grass is coarse, unpalatable to cattle. 1846 Soyer Cookery 380 It would..cause the fillets to eat tough and altogether unpalatable. 1871 Darwin Desc. Man ii. xi. I. 416 It would be highly advantageous to a caterpillar to be..recognised as unpalatable by all birds.

2. Unpleasant, distasteful, disagreeable.

1711 tr. Werenfelsius' Disc. Logomachys 201 These things, my Son, may at first seem, to your Age, unpalatable and hard. 1749 Smollett Regic. iv. ii, Candid friendship that disdains to hide Unpalatable truth! 1829 Scott Anne of G. xxvii, The Duke's eye lowered gloomily on the deliverer of this unpalatable message. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xx. IV. 467 The King commanded himself sufficiently to return thanks for this unpalatable counsel.

Hence Unpa·latableness.

1805 Saunders Min. Waters 82 Perhaps the unpalatableness of this drink has occasioned it to be in worse credit than it deserves.

Unpa·le, v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To strip of pales or palings.

1779 H. Walpole Let. to Cole 3 Jan., I hope you have not been untiled or unpaled by the tempest on New-year's morning.

Unpa·led, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.] Not furnished with a paling.

1607 in Essex Rev. XV. (1906) 45 The ch[urch]yar[d] fence vnpaled on the S. side. 1648 Hexham II, Onbeluynt, Vnhedged, Vnpaled, or Open.

Unpa·led, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Not made pale.

1831 James Phil. Augustus I. vi, The fire of his eye was unquenched, the rose of his cheek unpaled. 1885 'C. E. Carnock' Proofs. Gr. Sunday Hymns, vii, In a sunshine all unpaled, and against the upper regions of the air, splendidly blue.

Unpalisa·doed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1642 Prince Rupert's Sp. to King 4 These graffes of dildos lashing my arse and their vamures unpalisado'd. 1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes III. iv. 91 His mouth was upon the West side like to be unpalisado'd for ever.

Unpa·lled, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.] Not pelled or jaded.

a 1790 Nugent in Dodsley Coll. Poems II. 287 By pain unbitter'd, and unpall'd by fear. 1809 Edin. Rev. XV. 112 Where the taste is unpalled by satiety of what is better. 1859 W. H. Gregory Egypt II. 230 His appetite..is unpalled as much at the conclusion as at the commencement of the feast.

Unpa·lled, ppl. a.[2] Cant. [Un-[2] 8+Pal sb.[1]] (See quot.) 1812 J. H. Vaux Flash Dict. s.v., A thief whose associates are all apprehended, or taken from him by other means, is said to be unpalled. Unpa·lliable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Incapable of being palliated. 1673 Br. S. Parker Reproof Rch. Transp. 374 A manifest and unpalliable breach..of loyalty.

Unpa·lliated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1798 Southey in Robberds Mem. W. Taylor (1843) I. 232 The only person who has ever..advised, and at times reproved, him, in unpalliated terms. 1827 Scott Napoleon xiii, There was never a more unpalliated case of ..arbitrary spoliation. 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 255 Jonah leaves his own character unexplained, its severity rebuked by God, unexcused and unpalliated.

Unpa·lpable, a. Now rare. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] Impalpable.

1598 Elyot Addit., Asomatos, vnpalpable, or that can not be felt. 1576 G. Baker tr. Gesner's Jewell of Health 109 b, The same bring to a fine powder in a brasse morter as in a maner unpalpable. 1584 R. Scot Discov. Witchcr. iv. ii. (1886) 48 The opinion of them that hold a spirit to be unpalpable. 1611 Cotgr., Insensible,..vnpalpable, vnfeelable. 1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Sallet, An Ingredient never to be omitted..provided it be not minutely beaten to an almost unpalpable Dust. 1796 Mrs. Whitney Sights & Ins. xxvii, We sat in the baptism of the fair, unpalpable spray.

Unpa·lped, a. [Un-[1] 9.] Not furnished with palps or feelers. 1884 Sedgwick & Heathcote tr. Claus' Zool. 470 The unpaired maxilla of the second pair (of mandibles).

Unpa·lsied, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1798 Monthly Mag. V. 367 'No God,' with lips unpalsied they declare. 1850 Tennyson In Mem. cxxvii, The love that rose on stronger wings, Unpalsied when he met with Death. Unpampe·red, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1794 W. Roberts Looker-on No. 90 (1794) III. 448 Unpampered by servile compliance. 1844 Dickens Mart. Chuz. xiv, Unspoiled, unpampered in her joys or griefs. Unpa·nel, v. [Un-[2] 4. trans. To unsaddle. 1620 Shelton Quix. iii. xli. 235 Good betide him that freed vs from the paines of vnpannelling the gray Asse!..yet if hee were here, I would not permit any other to vnpannell him. a 1739 Jarvis Quix. I. iii. xi, If he were here, I would not consent to his being unpannelled. Unpa·nelled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1883 Baring-Gould John Herring xxxix, The unpanelled walls were plastered white. Unpa·nged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1612 Two Noble K. i. i, But when could greefe Cull forth, as unpanged judgement can, fit'st time For best solicitation. Unpa·nniered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1818 J. Wilson Isle of Palms, etc. 354 Th' unpannier'd ass slowly retires From the brown tents. 1869 Browning Ring & Bk. IX. 61 Even the poor ass, unpannivered and elate Stands. Unpa·noplied, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1827 Pollok Course T. VII. 422 Innumerous armies rose, unhannered all, Unpanoplied, unpraised. Unpanti·ng, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1721 Southerne Spartan Dame III. ii, I sent this steel with tidings to his heart, Nor parted thence, till..I left the unpanting villain on the earth. Unpantofle, v. (Un-[2] 4.) 1643 in Hart. Misc. (Math.) V. 335 They, whose part in a comedy allows them a robe and sceptre; who..as soon as they come to their exit, are un-pantoffled, and return to their own stature.

Unpa·per, v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To remove paper from; esp. to strip of a paper covering.

1714 C. Johnson Country Lasses ii. ii, The Holland curtains..up with 'em—unpaper the screens, the sconces, and the andirons. 1769 J. Skeat Art Cookery 23 The fat of venison..is apt to waste, so that it is always necessary to paper it;..just before you want to take it up, unpaper it. 1802 H. Martin Helen of Glenrose I. 54 Dolly employed herself, unpapering and uncovering chairs and carpets. 1828 P. Cunningham N. S. Wales (ed. 3) II. 269 A coterie of these nymphs were unpapering their curls.

Unpa·pered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1852 N. Hawthorne in Bridge Pers. Recollect. (1892) 125 The boxes..are not all papered, but neither are they all unpapered. 1872 Kingsley At Last x, The walls were of cedar and other valuable woods, which good taste left still unpapered.

Unpa·pering, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 13.) 1847 Le Fanu T. O'Brien 326 Trimming of ruffles and unpapering of gold lace.

Unpar, obs. form of Impair.

Unpa·radise, v. [Un-[2] 5, 6 b.]

1. trans. To turn out of, expel from, Paradise. Also fig.

1592 Daniel Compl. Rosamond 456 Now did I finde my selfe vnparadis'd, From those pure fields. 1605 G. Ellis Lamentation Lost Sheep G j b, With shame-sick Adam haue I hid my head, Vnparadis'd, from my Angell-like state. c 1640 Milton Draft of F. v. Poet. Wks. (Globe) 12 Adam Unparadized. 1839 F. Barham Adamus Exul 47 Widowed, desolate, And quite unparadised in heart. 1846 Lockhart in Ch. of Scot. Pulpit II. 156 The old serpent, who deceived and unparadised our first parents. 1898 Caswall Poems 170 Archangels guard the gates with flaming swords,..who at an earlier day Did man unparadise.

2. To deprive of the character of Paradise.

1647 Fuller Wounded Conse. 28 Thus a wounded conscience is able to unparadise Paradise it selfe. 1742 Young Nt. Th. I. 287 That ghastly thought would drink up all your joy, And quite unparadise the realms of light. 1788 V. Knox Winter Even. III. vii. 41 This it was which unparadised an Eden. 1827 Montgomery Pelican Isl. vi. 254 The serpent..Whose guile unparadised the world. 1896 C. M. Davies Unorth. Lond. 370 Were man to enter Heaven as he now is, it would be unparadised for him at once.

Hence Unparadised ppl. a.

1872 O. W. Holmes Poet Breakf.-t. i. 24 Nature is never wholly unkind. Economical as she was in my unparadised Eden,..still the damask roses sweetened the June breezes.

Unparadox, v. (Un-[2] 5.) 1654 Whitlock Zootomia 322 The hardest Task is to persuade the erroneous obstinate ..Woman-Hater, that..any confirmations from History can un-paradox the worth..of that Sex.

Unpa·ragoned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1611 Chapman Widowes T. III. i, At hand, sir, with your unparagon'd sister: please you take your chair of honour, sir? 1611 Shaks. Cymb. II. ii. 17 Rubies unparagon'd. 1640 tr. Verdere's Rom. of Rom. III. xliv. 204 The unparagoned Knight of the Sun. 1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. I. 182 His little dog Viper, unparagoned of terriers. 1874 M. & Fr. Collins Vill. Comedy xxii, Even Rough feels poetical as he sees the wondrous towers and spires unparagoned.

†Unpa·ragonized, ppl. a. Obs.— [Un-[1] 8.] = prec.

1603 Florio Montaigne II. Ded., Give me leave (peerelesse, and in all good gifts vnparagonized Ladies).

†Unpa·ralable, obs. var. Unparallelable a.

a 1639 W. Whateley Prototypes I. xii. (1640) 97 Here was an obedience incomparable and unparalable, no man ever did the like except our Lord Jesus Christ.

†Unpa·ralled, obs. var. Unparallelled ppl. a.

1637 A. Stafford Just Apol. in Fem. Glory (1860) p. xlvi, They are unparall'd Scoldes. 1640 tr. Verdere's Rom. of Rom. III. vi. 20 The two little unparalled Worlds, that so graced her bosome.

Unpa·rallel, a. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.]

1. Not parallel or correspondent.

1652 Th. Pestill in Benlowes Theoph. C 1, To That, Unparallel, This comes so neer, That 't is a Glimpse of Heav'n to leade Thee here. 1674 Hickman Quinquart. Lt'ist. (ed. 2) 105 In this also the Parallel is unparallel. 1757 Edwards Orig. Sin ii. ii. (1807) II. 237 How unlike and unparallel is this? 1826 Lamb Elia II. Wedding, Certainly there is a jealousy in unparallel subjects.

†2. = Unparalleled ppl. a. Obs.

1665 J. Spencer Prodigies (ed. 2) 188 The black and terrible Monitors of that unparallel Destruction which ensued. 1666 J. Smith Old Age 115 They had had so many..experiences of his unparallel strength.

Hence Unparallelness.

1779 S. Sewall Diary 4 Oct., I ride to Byfield Meeting-house; hear Mr. Peyson's Son of the Unparallelness of Josiah.

Unpa·rallelable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1640 Bp. Hall Episc. III. ix. 54 The unparallelable glory of this Church, and Nation. 1676 Doctrine of Devils 50 His transcendent, unimitable, unparallelable Miracles. 1793 J. Savage Lett. Antients cxxi. 303 An Amour, which..I looked upon unparallelable. 1743 J. Glas Treat. Lord's Supper ii. Wks. 1761 IV. 38 He expressed his unparallelable goodwill to all his elect. 1823 Sir R. Wilson Priv. Diary (1861) I. 342 The artillery in unparalleled and unparallelable order. a 1843 Southey Doctor xxii. (1848) 537 Which cannot with propriety be distinguished by any other name than one derived from its unparalleled and unparallelable author.

Unpa·ralleled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 5 b.)

In very common use from c 1610.

1594 Drayton Leg. Matilda xvi, The most judicial[l] eyes Did glue the gole impartially to me; So did I stand vnparaled and free. 1608 Machin Dumbe Knt. i. i, Most thou not think, Shee is the mirror of her beautiues sexe, Vnparalled, and uncompanioned? 1662 Stillingfl. Orig. Sacr. III. i. § 2 Those many unparalleled miracles, which were wrought among them. 1713 Warder True Amasons (title-p.), Their, unparalleled Love to their Queen. 1770 Jenius Lett. xlii. (1788) 231 note, The..Judge..had the unparalleled impudence to tell [etc.]. 1814 Scott Diary 16 Aug. in Lockhart, Monuments..otherwise unparalleled in Britain. 1837 Bucker Civilis. I. vii. 254 Progress..made in the face of these unparalleled disasters.

Hence Unparalleledly adv., -edness.

1667 Waterhouse Fire Lond. 5 His intercurrent judgements of Fire between this first and that last president of unparalleledness. 1678 Smith Sermons Diary in Life (1852) 40 The freedom, sovereignty, and unparalleledness of his love. 1854 Blackw. Mag. LXXV. 448 It is unparalleledly impudent.

Unpara·lyzed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1846 Worcester (citing Goode). 1889 Athenæum 15 June 752/1 An unparalyzed system of misgovernment. 1893 W. R. Gowers Dis. Nerv. Syst. (ed. 2) II. 399 The eyelids blink when the finger comes from the unparalyzed side. Unpa·rboiled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1616 Rich Cabinet 16 An vnparboyl'd pastie of tainted venison. Unpa·rcelled, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1840 Browning Sordello vi. 219 But, portioned duly out, the Future vied Never with the unparcelled Present. 1844 Kinglake Eothen xii. 175 You find yourself..proving the mettle of your mare upon the broad and dreary downs, because you feel congenially with the yet unparcelled earth.

Unparched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) Thynne Animadv. (1875) 49 Chaucer of purpose addethe that woorde 'Greene' to explane 'vnserial'l', whiche signyfiethe vnsered, vnparched. 1648 Hexham II, Onverdroogheit, .. unparched. Unparching, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1828 Milman Saviour xi. 237 Th' uncousuming fire Innoxious rang'd th' unparching edifice.

Unpar·don, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. Matt. xviii. 34–35 note, How God is said..to demand the debt which he had forgiven, and to pardon it again.

Unpar·donable, a. (adv.). (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1525 Ld. Berners Froiss. II. cliii. 168 b/2 If they be [broken]..ye ryn in the churches sentence, and to be excommunycate on payne vnpardonable. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. i. xiii. 36 b. An vnpardonable crime. 1649 Clarendon Hist. Reb. I. § 66 The Earl..thought the very suspecting him to be an injury vnpardonable. 1676 Glanvill Seasonable Reflect. 28 We may conclude safely from the Doctrine of the Apostle, that they are incursible and unpardonable. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 322 P[2] The most unpardonable Malefactor in the World. 1827 Lytton Pelham iv, A most unpardonable fault. 1882 Miss Braddon Mt. Royal I. ii. 51 There was nothing unpardonable in Miss Bridgeman's plainness.

b. As adv. Unpardonably.

1662 Hickeringill Apol. Distressed Innoc. Wks. 1716 I. 316 He is unpardonable credulous that will lend an Ear to your noise of the Gospel.

Unpar·donableness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. prec.) 1646 Hammond Tracts 20 The unpardonableness of it is acknowledged. 1677 Gilpin Demonol. ii. ix. 392 The note of unpardonableness, is indeed affixed to sins under several Denominations. c 1714 M. Henry Baptism Wks. 1853 I. 496/2 A mistaken apprehension of the unpardonableness of sin committed after baptism. 1849 Ruskin Sev. Lamps ii. § 2. 28 It would be well if moralists less frequently confused the greatness of a sin with its unpardonableness. 1885 Athenæum 26 Dec. 852 The unpardonableness of the offence.

Unpar·donably, adv. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b.) 1645 Milton Tetrach. 22 Those mighty syllables..which take upon them to joyn heavn and hell together unpardonably till death parton. 1821 Hazlitt Table Talk Czar & Gertr. I. 111 We have both deviated most grievously and unpardonably from our duty. 1866 Freeman Hist. Ess. (1871) 9 English people—more unpardonably still—reject it.

Unpar·doned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1565 Allen Def. Purg. xvii. 284 There was no sin so smaule vnpardoned, but [etc.]. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 310 Are you sure so many thousands are all unpardoned? 1692 tr. B. Jonson's Leges Comiti. x. Like the old Lapithites, with the goblets of wine, down thongst offended, vnpardon'd will rank. 1796 Mrs. E. Parsons Hyst. Warning II, [If] informed I was unpardoned, portionless and dependent. 1817 Byron Manfred ii. ii, He slew That which he loved,..And died unpardon'd. 1858 Froude Hist. Eng. IV. 261 The unpardoned..affront which Henry had offered to the Spanish nation.

Unpar·doning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1644 Milton Divorce Introd. A 4 b, His unpiti permissions, his venial and unvenial dispences, wherwith the Law of God pardoning and unpardoning hath shamefully branded. 1700 Dryden Pal. & Arc. ii. 344 Curse on th' unpardoning Prince, whom Tears can direct To no Remorse. 1725 Pope Odyss. xx. 351 Whom Pallas with unpaid'ning fury fir'd. 1810 Monthly Mag. XXIX. 209 A rash, unruly, Unpardoning soul. 1894 Outing XXIV, 23/2, 'I have been so hard, so unforgiving, so unpardoning,' she said.

Unpared, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Of fruit: Not having the skin pared off.

c 1305 Pilate 232 in E. E. P. (1862) 117 Pe gayler him tok an appel; he seide hit was vnpar'd Vnpared an appel take, an heȝ man oper a knist. 14.. Burlesques ii. in Rel. Ant. I. 89 Adam, Adam, why eat thou the vnpared appel? 1530 Palsgr. 652/2 Can you nat eate a peere onpared? 1658 Evelyn Fr. Gard. (1675) 190 The fruits being pared or unpared, according to..your curiosity.

2. Of nails: Uncut, untrimmed.

1547 Boorde Introd. Knowl. 117 Who shall let me, the deuyls nayles vnpared? 1598 Dallington Meth. Travn. X iij, Wearing long vnpared nayles. 1635 Quarles Embl. iii. vi. 146 If the peevish Infant fights, and flies, With unpar'd weapons, at his mother's eyes. 1793 Francis tr. Hor. Epode v. 60 Her unpar'd Thumbs Canidia gnaws.

† Unpa·regal, -pe·regal, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7.) Unequal.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. iii. pr. i. (1868) 63 So þat I trowe nat now þat I be vnparygal to the stroke of fortune. 1605 Manwood Dutch Courtezan iv. i, Afore the Lord God, my knaverie growes unperegall; Tis time to take a nap.

† Unpa·rel, v. Obs.[-1] (Un-[2] 4.) trans. To divest of apparel. 1603 H. Crosse Vertues Commw. N 1, Perhaps thou wilt say against, I brought him not to beggery: did I lame him? did I vnparell him?

Unpa·rented, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 and Un-[2] 8.)

1. Deprived of the status of a parent.

1650 B. Discolliminium 38 Our Politicall Parents..are now unparented or civilly dead.

2. Deprived or destitute of a parent or parents.

1668 Wilkins Real Char. ii. viii. 295 Orphan is unparented. 1885 American X. 333 The unparented suggestion that each newcomer should add a stone to the growing pile. 1897 Fortn. Rev. 1 Feb. 225 A family of five children, three brothers and two sisters, unparented.

Un-Parliamized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1898 Mrs. Gore Hackington III. 160 The envy with which the still un-Parliamized Lady Erere surveyed the boudoir furniture.

Unparliament, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1643 Prynne Sov. Power Parl. iv. 24 Such a grand difference is there now..between the Irish Rebels,..who may do what they please..; and the English (now un-Parliamented) Parliament. 1648 E. Symmons Vind. Chas. I, 382 They were once a true Parliament ..; but now they swarm so much in evils..that they have plainly un-parliamented themselves.

Unparliamentary, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1620 Jas. I Sp. in grat. Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. 68/6, I am come here to shew you your errors, and, as I may term them, unparliamentary proceedings in this Parliament. 1679 Hobbes Behemoth 89 All Unparliamentary raising of Money upon the Subjects. 1702 Swift Contests Nobles & Commn. v. That unparliamentary abuse of setting individuals upon their shoulders who were hated by God and man. 1810 Sporting Mag. XXXV. 302 The Speaker stated..that..a member had used unparliamentary language. 1876 Jevons Logic Prim. 18 A speech is unparliamentary when it does not agree with the rules of parliamentary debate.

Hence Unparliamentarily adv., -ariness.

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. iv. § 82 The Unparliamentariness of their Remonstrance. 1727 Boyer Dict. Royal II. s. v., Unparliamentarily. a 1797 H. Walpole Mem. Geo. II (1847) II. ii. 55 The use that had been made of the sacred name of the King, so often and so unparliamentarily.

Unpar·rel, v. Naut. (Un-[2] 4.)

1627 Capt. Smith Seaman's Gram. ix. 41 For more haste unparrell the mizen yard and lanch it and the saile ouer her Lee quarter. [1694 Motteux Rabelais v. x, We..for more haste unparrell'd the Misen yard, and lanch'd it and the Sail over her Lee-quarter.] 1708 Phillips (ed. Kersey), To Unparrel a Yard, (in Sea-Language) is to take off the Frames call'd Parrels, that go round about the Masts.

† Unpa·rreled, obs. var. Unparalleled ppl. a. 1639 W. H. Zarain Age (Motley Corr. (1889) I. 232 [Kingsley] seems a good fellow, and entirely unparsonical. 1889 T. Russell Marsh Hay III. 1, A manner which was unparsonical, not to say secular. † Unpar·t, v. Obs.[-1] (Un-[2] 9.) trans. To take apart. 1556 MS. Rawl. D. 780 fol. 73 Not only vpon..framyng of one syde of the same brydge.. but also aswell in vnparyng the frame ayen.

Unpar·table, a. (Un-[1] 7 b. Cf. Impartible.[1]) c 1420 Wycliffite bible Luke, Prol. i, Bi the entringe of the generacioun of vndepartable [v.r. unpartable] God. c 1555 Harpsfield Divorce Hen. VIII (Camden) 248 This only consent..is thought to unholdi..this unpartable conversacion and living together. 1587 Golding De Mornay xv. 272 That the Soule is a life by it selfe, a life all in one, vnpartable. 1612 Cotgr., Indivisible,..inseperable, vnpartable.

Hence Unpartableness.

1547 Hexham I. s.v. 1656 Blount, Individuality, inseparableness, unpartableness.

Unparta·ken, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1807 Anna Seward Lett. (1811) VI. 379 The single solitary Wight, who, in every one of these pleasant cities, possesses his separate and unpartaken department. Unparta·king, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1606 Daniel Queen's Arcadia iv. i, And now hath sorrow no worse plague I see, Then free and vnpartaking companie.

Unpar·tial, a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1561 Norton & Sackv. Gorboduc i. ii, When discent on one alone Makes single and vnparted reigne to light. 1589 Golding De Mornay xv. 280 The one vniuersall capable mind is and worketh whole and vnparted in euery man. 1613 Chapman Masque Inns Court Plays 1873 III. 116 Twinne as of one age, so to one desire May both their bloods giue an vnparted fire. 1648 Hexham II, Ongedeelt, Vnparted, or Vnshared. 1718 Prior Solomon I. 188 The Object..Becomes mixt Blackness, or unmixt Light.

Unpar·tial, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1. † a. Impartial, unbiassed, fair. Obs. Very common from c 1590 to c 1660.

1579 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Love B ij b, Then must the Judge sit vnparcial in judgement place. 1593 Shirley's Arcadia v. (1929) 201, I weyed the matter, with most impartiall and farthest reach of reason. 1637 Heywood Royall King 29 Rending withall a full satisfactory reason to any unpartiall reader, why they are there. a 1662 Sanderson in Walton Life (1796) 496 Upon the clear evidence of truth and reason, after a serious and unpartial examination of the grounds.

b. Free from inclination or fondness.

1844 Thackeray B. Lyndon xv, The widow was not unpartial to me.

2. Unrestricted, ample. rare[-1].

1787 Bentham Def. Usury xiii. 137 On the most unpartial and extensive signification.

Hence Unpartialness.

a 1639 W. Whateley Prototypes II. xxxii. (1640) 127 O ignorant..creatures that we be, let us beg more wisdome and unpartialness to our selves at Gods hand. 1661 Feltham Resolves II. xxvii. 237 Even in the unpartialness of War.

† Unpartia·lity. Obs. (Un-[1] 12, 5 b.) 1579 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Love B ij, In vnformedness of hart and vnpartialitye of minde. 1635 Heywood Hierarchy IV. 232 Ovid speaking of the unpartialitie of the fatall Sisters.

† Unpa·rtially, adv. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b.) Impartially. (Common 1610–50.)

1596 W. Rawley in Gascoigne Steele Gl. Wks. 1910 II. 139 This Glasse of Steele unpartially doth shewe Abuses all, to such as in it looke. 1599 Sandys Europæ Spec. (1629) 248 The truth..which I have sincerely and unpartially endeavored to deliver. 1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. III. i. § 3 About this time Doomes-day-book was made,..unpartially done with rigorous severity. a 1662 Sanderson Cases Consc. ix. (1678) 172 Advisedly and unpartially to weigh the benefits.

† Unpa·rtible, a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) = Unpartable. c 1511 tr. Eng. Bk. Miner. Introd. (Arb.) 32/2 We beleue in god the father, in god the sonne, and in god the holy gooste. The whycke be vnpartyble and one very god. Unpar·ticipant, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1866 Carlyle Remin. i. 262, I strictly unparticipant, sitting silently apart till it was done.

Unparti·cipate, a. (Un-[1] 7.) Not participant. 1824 J. H. Wiffen tr. Tasso's Jerusalem Delivered ii. xii. And what if some be unparticipate In this new crime?

Unparti·cipated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1698 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. iv. 557 In all which several Ranks of being they supposed One First Universal, and Unparticipated,..and Unparticipated, or Participated Ones. 1781 Cowper Friendship 125 Some..are indeed a bog, that bears Your unparticipated cares Unmov'd and without quaking. a 1826 H. K. White Time 563 Spirit, rear Thy flag on high!—Invincible, and throned In unparticipated might. 1821 Byron Cain i. i, Creating worlds, to make eternity Less burthensome to His immense existence And unparticipated solitude!

Unparti·cipating, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1795 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 1.18 An unparticipating propensity. 1817 — Biog. Lit. xv. II. 16 It is throughout as if a superior spirit.. were placing the whole before our view; himself meanwhile unparticipating in the passions. 1832 Carlyle Sart. Res. i. iii, He was a man so still and altogether unparticipating, that to question him..was a thing of more than usual delicacy. Unparti·cipative, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1889 Whittier Fr. Wks. III. 292 Deep down under the squalid exterior, unparticipative in the..recklessness of the criminal, there is another self. Unparti·cular, a. (Un-[1] 7). 1828 L. Hunt Byron & Contemp. 93 Written by as unparticular a fellow as one should wish to see with a pair of scissors in his hand.

Unparti·cularized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1823 Lentham Not Paul 67 Time as well as place being left thus unparticularized. Unparti·cularizing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1835 Willis Pencillings I. xii. 90 The same lost unexamining, unparticularizing feeling which I cannot overcome in this place. † Unpa·rtied, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 8.) Unassisted, unsupported. 1641 Sir E. Dering Sp. on Relig. 63 They..fought not to be bound up unheard, and unparried. † Unpa·rtingly, adv. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 11.) With close adherence. 1435 Alisyn Fire of Love 44 þat, vnnite spisyd.., to trewth vnpartyngly we draw. Unpartoo·k, pa. pple. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1836 Mrs. Browning Rom. Margret iv, I that (dream), by that ladye, is certes unpartook. Unpa·rty. (Un-[1] 12 b.) 1711 Peace in Divinity (title-p.), A Grave Author of Middle and Unparty Principles. Unpa·ss, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1605 Daniel Queen's Arcadia 69 Clo. Yes, sure, My prouise already is made for it. Ist. It is true, I trust you are so wise T'unpasse the same against the your owne good.

Unpa·ssable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.]

1. = Impassable a. Now dial.

Very common in 17th and 18th centuries.

1553 Brende Q. Curtius 132 In the daye time the countrye is wild and vnpassable, when they can neither finde certaine ways nor ways to go in. 1579–80 North Plutarch (1595) 314 The riuer..is vnpassable for any shallow it hath. 1649 F. Roberts Clavis Bibl. 500 Waters, very deep and unpassable. a 1698 Temple Ess. Heroick Virt. Wks. 1720 I. 196 Vast and unpassable Mountains or Desarts. 1719 De Foe Crusoe I. (Globe) 263 A Grove of Trees,..so thick, that it was unpassable. 1796 J. Moser Hermit of Caucasus I. 192 The caverns were reindered slippery, and nearly unpassable. 1828–32 Webster s.v., Unpassable roads. 1876–86 in Yks. and Somerset glossaries.

† b. As adv. Impassably. Obs.[-1]

1632 Lithgow Trav. IX. 390 The North side..beeing vnpassable stepps.

2. Incapable of being transcended or exceeded.

1570 Dee Math. Pref. 34 They can not presuppose..certaine vnpassable boundes. 1656 Jeanes Pulm. Christ 256 The Scotists..say farther, that the degree of Christ's grace was vnpassable even by Gods absolute power. a 1683 Oldham Wks. (1686) 109 Tis I..Who must new Worlds in Vice descry, And fix the pillars of unpassable iniquity.

3. Of money: Incapable of being passed or circulated.

1664 in Aberdeen N. & Q. (1910) III. 109/2 Ther was some unpassable money in the poore box. 1696 J. Cary Ess. Copp 20 The Trade of England was apparently slackened since the Small Money was made unpassable. 1745 De Foe's Eng. Tradesm. (1841) I. xx. 168 A considerable quantity of false and unpassable money. 1828–32 Webster s.v., Unpassable notes or coins.

Hence Unpa·ssableness.

1657 R. Ligon Barbadoes 75 The unpassableness of the ways. 1674 Evelyn Navig. & Comm. 34 Grave Authors, speake of the unpassableness of the Ocean. 1691 T. H[ale] Acc. New Invent. 26 Its unpassableness, not to the Water, but to the Worm.

Unpa·ssageable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1592 R. D. Hypnerotomachia 94 I the ruggednesse of the vnpassageable mountaine Caucasus.

Unpa·ssed, unpa·st, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 5 d.) 1541 Aberdeen Reg. XVII. (Jam.), To returne hame on past to the tryst. 1597 Morley Introd. Mus. To Rdr., Like vnto a great Sea, which the further I entred into, the more I sawe before mee vnpast. 1647 Cowley Mistress 115 Unpast Alps stop mee, but I'le cut through all, And march, the Moses Hannibal. [1775 Ash, Unpassed, Unpast.] 1849 Cock Ch. of Feathers III. x. 477 The strong unpassed wall between them and that defenceless town. 1884 Knowledge 4 July 6 Barriers as yet unpassed, and probably impassable.

† Unpa·ssen, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 5 b.) = prec. 1624 in Cust. Smith Virginia Pref. 2 Who loues to liue at home, yet looke abroad, And know both passen and unpassen road.

† Unpa·ssible, a.[1] Obs. (Un-[1] 7.) Unpassable. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xv. iii. (1495) Fiv/2 In many places in ye vtermeste endes [of Assyria] for dystemperaie places y' londe is vnpassyble. [1775 Ash.]

† Unpa·ssible, a.[2] Obs. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.] = Impassible a.

Freq. as an attribute of the Deity.

c 1450 Mirour Saluacioun (Roxb.) 140 The gude mens [bodies shall rise] fulle faire with out end vnpassible. 1523 tr. Erasmus' Conn. Credo 23, I believe in God the father almyghty vnuysyble and vnpassyble. 1587 Golding De Mornay iii. 35 First substances, vnchaungeable and vnpassible. 1623 Lisle Anc. Mon. (1638) 6 Christs body.. neuer dieth henceforth; but is eternal, and vnpassible.

Unpa·sing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10, 5 d + Passing ppl. a. 1, 3.)

1592 Sc. Acts, Jas. VI (1814) III. 531/1 The haill estaittis ...to remane in this toun vmpassing furth of the samyne. 1889 H. Haliburton Scotland's Sede 219 An unpassing present of passionless repose. 1903 W. Sharp in Life (1910) 357 It deals in a new way with a subject of unpassing interest.

Unpa·ssionate, a. Now rare. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Common from c 1600 to c 1660.

1. Not influenced or swayed by passion or strong feeling; calm, self-possessed: a. Of persons, disposition, etc.

1593 Sidney's Arcadia (1598) 439 That well appeased gesture, vnpassionate nature bestoweth vpon mankind. 1604 T. Wright Passions ii. i. 56 That which an vnpassionate mind detested, a passionate soule most effectually pursueth. 1673 Cave Prim. Chr. ii. i. 5 We are to be of a meek and unpassionate mind. 1747 Carte Hist. Eng. I. 188 True wisdom ... is ever cool and unpassionate when she takes a resolution. 1852 M. Arnold Summer Night 80 Ye Heavens, whose pure dark regions .. though so great Are yet untroubled and unpassionate.

b. Of actions, feelings, etc.

a 1600 Hooker Eccl. Pol. vi. v. § 4 A calm, unpassionate, and just assignation of dreadful punishment. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 532 Gods vnpassionate and vnaltering anger. 1683 E. Hooker Pref. Pordage's Mystic Div. 48 A prettie and unpassionate replie, that a Steward once made to his angri Lord. 1692 C. Mather Magn. Chr. ii. ix. 29/1 He did with a very Vnpassionate Aspect and Carriage then say, Friends, I thank you all.

†2. Unprejudiced, impartial. Obs.

1602 T. Fitzherbert Apol. 6 But whether it be reason.. I leave it to the judgment of any indifferent & vnpassionate man. a 1648 Digby Priv. Mem. (1827) 243, I am sure you will say, who are yet an indifferent and unpassionate judge, that [etc.].

†Unpa·ssionated, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] = prec. 1612 Florio, Spassionato, vnpassionated, sans passion. 1661 Glanvill Van. Dogm. 100 A set of misconceits, which are ..absurd to an unpassionated reason.

Unpa·ssionately, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. Unpassionate a.) 1648 Biton Bas. iv. 24 Make us unpassionately to see the light of Reason. 1661 Cowley Cromwell Wks. 1906 II. 366 Truely and unpassionately reflecting upon the advantages of his person. 1707 Reflex. upon Ridicule (1717) I. 44 Those who unpassionately hear him, regard his Mystery as importunate Trifles.

Unpa·ssionateness. (Un-1 12.) 1611 Cotgr., Impassibilité, ...vnpassionatenesse. 1655 M. Casaubon Enthus. iii. (1656) 159 Stoicks and Cynicks ..who..chose to beg, and to be trampled upon.., to make good their possession of unpassionatnese. 1673 O. Walker Educ. 205 If your election be..made..with indifferency, unpassionateness, and sincerity.

Unpa·ssioned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] = Unpassionate a.

a 1628 J. Davies (Heref.) Witte's Piler. Wks. (Grosart) II. 48/2 O you vnpassiond peacefull Harts That with me liue secure in meane estate. 1678 Temple Let. Wks. 1720 II. 515 As unpassioned, and as uninteressed Concernment in the..Service of my Master..as any Man can have. a 1764 Mrs. Carter in Mem. (1808) II. 159 With calm severity, unpassion'd Age Detects the specious fallacies of Youth.

Unpa·ssive, a. [Un-1 7.] † a. = Impassive a. 1. Obs. b. Active.

1602 Warner Alb. Eng. xiii, lxxix. 326 Sufficeth vs to know he is..vnpassive, vnmaterial, vncompounded, Infinite. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 568 The principal of those [habits] are faith, and hope, and charity,..unpassive compliance, readiness to please, and easiness to be pleased.

Unpast, variant of Unpassed ppl. a.

Unpa·ste, v. (Un-2 3.) 1598 Florio, Spastare, to vnpaste, to take away the paste or crust of any thing. 1668 R. Steele Husbandman's Calling i. 9 Item, Spent each day..in dressing, painting,..and three hours more at Night in unpasting and undressing again. Unpa·stor, v. (Un-2 5 b.) 1685 Fuller Ch. Hist. viii. iii. § 12 Preferring rather willingly to un-Pastor..themselves than to retain the place, without the power.

Unpa·storal, a. (Un-1 7.)

1782 Warton Rowley Eng. 95 This very unpathetic and unpastoral idea..; that 'the portcullis of the castle of his heart was fallen'. 1820 Scott Monast. xxviii, The swain cursed the nymph's bad humour with very unpastoral phrase and emphasis. 1865 Ruskin Sesame 45 The most unpastoral [character] is, instead of feeding, to want to be fed.

Unpa·sturable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1796 W. H. Marshall Planting II. 38 Plantations of Alders should..be confined to swampy, low, unpasturable places.

Unpa·stured, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not led to pasture; unfed.

1548 Elyot Impastus, vnfed, vnpastured, hungry. 1647 Hexham 1, Vnpastured, ongewayd. a 1800 Cowper Death of Damon 113 Go, go, my lambs, unpastur'd as ye are. 1821 Shelley Adonais xxvii, Why didst thou..Dare the unpastured dragon in his den?

2. Not employed for pasture.

1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. iii. ii. 49 It is the unpastured sea hungering for calm. 1872 Blackie Lays Highl. 3 Wandering..o'er the wide unpastured sea.

Unpa·tched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. I. 206 The ragged condition of those unpatched shoes. 1875 [see Un-1 8].

Unpa·tented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1719 W. Wood Surv. Trade 160 Any Land..that is unpatented, or not granted to some particular Person. 1809 Mawhin Gil Blas viii. ix. 8 Invested with full powers to make the world his oyster, and leave nothing but the shell to his unpatented competitors. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. IV. 23/1 Unpatented Inventions. 1903 Westm. Gaz. 27 Aug. 2/2 The various patented and unpatented medicines of the present day.

Unpa·thed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1611 Shaks. Wint. T. iv. iv. 578 A wild dedication of your selues To vnpath'd Waters, vndream'd Shores. 1628 Feltham Resolves ii. xxxvi. 111 The lonelinesse of vnpathed Desarts. 1671 Marten Voy. Spitsbergen in Acc. Sev. Late Voy. ii. (1694) 30 She always keeps her strait way through these vnpathed Waves. 1814 Scott Rev. Mar. 442 The gulleys.. were sent across these unpathed waters. 1897 Baring-Gould Guavas xiv, He..strode over the unpathed moor.

Unpathe·tic, a. (Un-1 7.)

[1775 Ash.] 1782 [see Unpastoral a.]. 1818 T. L. Peacock Nightmare Abbey iv, We are all..puppets of a blind and unpathetic necessity. 1903 Times Lit. Supp. 16 Jan. 16/1 The not unpathetic image of a big..ape.

Unpa·thwayed, a. (Un-1 9.) 1805 Worksw. Waggoner vi. 24 While the wolves.. Along the unpathwayed pathless.

† Unpa·tience. Obs. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Lack of patience; impatience.

1380 Lay Folks Catech. (Lamb. MS.) 740 Be grucchyngge and vnpaciens and blasfemynge of god. c 1440 Jacob's Well 94 Pe sexte fote depe of wose in wrethe is vnpacyence. Ibid., Vnpacyence is foll of malyce. 1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 361 b/2 Neuertheles was neuer sene in her signe of vnpacyence but alwey swete wordes. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Brasm. Par. Gal. i. 3 b, Lest any thynke that these my wordes are spoken either of backbytynge or vnpacience. 1643 J. Steer tr. Exp. Chyrurg. ix. 43 By reason of the Childs unpatience I could not make the Medicine stay.

† Unpa·tiency. Obs. rare. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] = prec.

1535 Coverdale Judith viii. 24 They that..put them selues forth with vnpaciency and murmurynge against God. 1558 Knox First Blast (Arb.) 14, I might adduce histories, prouing..some for vnpaciencie to haue murthered them selues.

Unpa·tient, a. Now dial. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Impatient.

c 1425 Wycliff Sel. Wks. II. 268 Pes bat ben vnpacient bat Goddis lawe rijtid hem. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 167 Ful vnpacient of pees,..and wlatful of sleupe. a 1495 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 22 If pe be vnobedient and vnpacient to my commandyngs. c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) iv. 948 Nothinge ragid he, nor vnpacient. 1560 Pt. Kington Expos. Aggeus (1562) 37 The unpacient bearing of [God's scourge]..when it comes. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia i. xii, Though he were very unpatient of long deliberations. 1607 Beaum. & Fl. Woman-Hater iii. i, Gond. Then blunder better bin a devill. Orlan. Why my unpatient Lord? 1651 Fuller's Abel Rediv., Calvin (1867) I. 321 The commissioners, unpatient of delay, assembled the people together. a 1704 T. Brown Exc. Women Wks. 1721 IV. 157, I see..you are unpatient to object against me. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. xiv, The men are..so fiery and unpatient. 1886–96 in Lanc. and Durham glossaries.

† Unpa·tiently, adv. Obs. [Un-1 11, 5 b.] Impatiently.

c 1425 Orolog. Sapient. i. in Anglia X. 335/23 Þat þou take not vnpacientlye bat diuerse graciose visitacione. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) i. cxi. 136/1 The sayd Sirryens..bare fill vnpacyently that they were brought in bondage. 1548 Cranmer Catech. 93 When such young babes do not lye softly..they crie vnpatientlye. 1576 Fleming Panopl. Epist. 186 It was manifest..that their minds were exceedingly molested, and tooke their repulse very unpatiently. 1620 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God xix. iv. 759 Cato ..would not haue done it but that he tooke Cæsar's victory so vnpatiently.

† Unpa·tientness. Obs. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Impatience.

1548 Cranmer Catech. 140 b, Their unpatientnes is encreased by much aduersitie. 1587 Fleming Contin. Holinshed III. 1391 Parries exclamation of outrage and vnpatientnesse.

Unpatria·rchal, a. (Un-1 7.) 1859 W. H. Gregory Egypt I. 274 Jabbering and mumbling for a full hour in a most unpolitic, unpatriarchal manner. Unpa·trimoniled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1782 Eliz. Blower Geo. Bateman I. 100 It is the misfortune of the unpatrimoniled, that they can only shew their feelings in words. Unpa·triot, v. (Un-2 6 b.) 1738 Common Sense II. 209, I fairly deliver him up to Freeman and Company to unpatriot and revile as much as they please.

Unpatrio·tic, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

[1775 Ash.] 1828 Carlyle Misc. (1840) I. 362 The French wits of the period were as unpatriotic. 1883 Lytton My Novel xii. xxv, A captain..undertook a long defence of army and navy, from the unpatriotic aspersions of the preceding speakers.

Unpatrio·tically, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1783 Earl Malmesbury Diaries & Corr. II. 34 The clamour, which was very unpatriotically indeed attempted to be raised about it in Parliament. 1850 Carlyle Latter d. Pamph. i. 23 Of America it would ill beseem any Englishman..to speak unpatriotically, if many of us even felt so. 1861 Trollope Tales All Countries vii. 273 Unpatriotically acquiescent as to England's aristocratic propensities.

Unpatriotism. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) 1887 Blackfriars Mag. Jan. 215 In the desire..lay the germ of unpatriotism, a forgetting that they were Englishmen at all. [Freq. from c 1905.] Unpatroned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1741 Warburton Div. Legat. II. Pref. p. xiv, This Disadvantage.. gave his first Volume, unpatroned and unfriended as it was, so very kind a Reception.

Unpa·tronized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1620 J. Beale Ded. in Hieron's Serm., etc. I. ¶ 2 The author of this present volume..left not only some members of it unpatronis'd, but the whole frame without a gennall sustainer. 1661 Rawley Resuscitatio (ed. 2) Ded. 4, This unpatronizd Booke. 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 120 P 11 Unpatronized and unsupported, he cleared himself by the openness of innocence. 1829 Scott Wav. ii, The young unpatronized officer in the army with a rapidity far surpassing the usual pace of unpatronized professional merit. 1865 Mill Repr. Govt. vii. 158 Those who are desirous of voting for unpatronized persons of merit.

Unpa·tterned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Unexampled, unequalled. Now arch.

1621 Fletcher Thierry & Theod. iii. i, To bring forth a second to your self, Was only worthy of my Virgin loss; And should I prize you less, unpattern'd Sir, Then being exemplify'd? 1641 Prynne Disc. Pref. Tyr. i. 35 The unpatterned complicency both of the Judges, and Court of Star-Chamber. 1657 Br. H. King Poems (1843) 48 What debt of service I do truly ow To your unpattern'd self. 1899 Academy 28 Oct. 499/2 Old Sam Butler, most singular and unpatterned of satirists.

2. Not decorated with a pattern.

1884 Bazaar 19 Dec. 658/1 The only rule seems to be that the fabric must be unpatterned.

Unpau·nch, v. (Un-2 3.) = Paunch v.[2] a. 1598 Florio, Sniscerato, vnbowelled, vnpanched. 1603 — Montaigne i. xlviii. 159 To save themselves from the extreamitie of the cold, many advised to kil and vnpanch their horses, and enter into their panches. 1621 Mabbe tr. Alemun's Guzman d'Alf. i. 59 The old woman was vnpanching the belly of an old rotten sheepe.

Unpau·perized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1846 Worcester (citing Q. Rev.). 1896 W. D. Howells Impressions & Experiences 135 It could not have been said that she was wholly unpauperised before she took it [sc. money].

Unpau·sing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1837 Lytton Athens II. 371 Restless and unpausing energy. 1857 Dufferin Lett. High Lat. (ed. 9) 334 Raging and bubbling up..; the unpausing wave sweeps on. 1898 G. Wyndham Poems Shakespeare 266 The pause in the first line..is heavily pointed to prepare for the unpausing outburst of the last two.

Hence Unpau·singly adv.

1891 Athenæum 4 July 36/2 The brisk and stirring kind [of story] that may be read unpausingly.

Unpa·ve, v. [Un-2 4.] trans. To lift or remove the paving of (a street, etc.).

1598 Florio, Dimattonare, to vnpaue, to vnbrick. 1623 tr. Pavine's Theat. Hon. v. i. 44 During that yeare, the Primatiall Church..had the Altars vnpaued..and the Belles vn-slung. 1686 Lond. Gaz. No. 2147/2 They have unpaved the Streets. 1769 Falconer Dict. Marine (1780) s.v. Water-spout, 'This whirlwind[s]..general effects on houses were.. forcing up the floors, and unpaving the rooms. 1827 Hood Don't you smell fire? iv, Here's a nice easy bit in the street, That M'Adam has lately unpaved! 1859 Sala Tw. round Clock (1861) 28, I might take one house and unroof it, one street and unpave it.

Unpa·ved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel., (1546) P v, O Rome, I wepe not to see thy streetes vnpaued,..nor that the battylmentes fall downe. 1585 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. ii. xviii. 51 b, A great and large place vnpaued. 1627 Hakewill Apol. ii. vii. 123 The streetes of the city lying then vnpaued. 1741 tr. D'Argen's Chinese Lett. xiii. 82 If most of its Streets were not crooked, narrow, rugged, and generally unpaved. 1805 Ann. Rev. III. 78 In Philadelphia the privies are unpaved. 1833 M. Scott Tom Cringle xvi, We marched up through a hot, sandy, unpaved street. 1884 Manch. Exam. 14 Nov. 5/6 The roads were all unpaved earth roads.

fig. 1823 Byron Juan x. ii, The mode in which Sir Isaac Newton could disclose Through the then unpaved stars the turnpike road.

b. In allusive use: (cf. Stoned ppl. a. 4).

1611 Shaks. Cymb. ii. iii. 34 It is a voyce in her eares which Horse-haires, and Calues-guts, nor the voyce of vnpaued Eunuch to boot, can neuer attone.

Unpavi·lioned, a. (Un-1 9.)

[1775 Ash.] 1819 Shelley Prometh. Unb. iv. 284 As the bare, green hill..Laughs with a thousand drops of sunny water To the unpavilioned sky. 1839 G. Darley Nepenthe i. 5 High on his unpavilioned throne The heaven's hot tyrant sat alone.

Unpaw·n, v. (Un-2 3.)

1598 Florio, Disimpegnare, to vnpaune, to redeeme. 1636 Davenant Wits Wks. (1673) 169 We can't unpawn the Oaths We left at the Bar for the last Reckoning. 1680 Lond. Gaz. No. 1496/4 The Murderer..having unpawn'd and changed his Cloaths.

Unpaw·ned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1638 R. Baillie Lett. & Jrnls. (1841) I. 58 Would it not grieved them to see the subjects suffer by the relying upon unpauned trust? 1639 Massinger Unnat. Combat iii. i, 'Tis well I have one suit! Unpawn'd in those dayes. 1748 Poem Dunc. i. 116 He roll'd his eyes that witness'd huge dismay, Where yet unpawn'd, much learned lumber lay. 1909 Stacpoole Fools of Silence ii, The cigarettes and the unpawned banjo.

† Unpay·, v.[1] Obs. [Un-1 14, 5 d.]

1. trans. To displease.

1340 Ayenb. 50 Glotounye..is a vice þet þe dyeuel is moche myde ypayd, and moche onpayd god.

2. To leave unpaid; not to pay.

1515 Reg. Privy Seal Scotl. I. 409/1 At every viage..he freis and unpayeing oir custumes may discharge and quarge [etc.]. 1540 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 173 To..pond the persons for the rest of the taxt..of thame that hes vnpayit the samen. 1697 Dela Pryme Diary 16 Oct., Mr. Elways did ..grant unto his tenants..all their land to be tithe free, which they have unpay'd until this time.

† Unpay·, v.[2] Obs.[1] [Un-2 3.] trans. To undo, make good.

1597 Shaks. 2 Hen. IV, ii. 1. 133 Pay her the debt you owe her, and vnpay the villany you haue done her.

Unpay·able, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being paid: a. Of debts, etc.

1463 G. Ashby Prisoner's Reff. 44, I am put to vnpayable det. 1611 Cotgr., Insoluable, vnpayable, vnlikely to be payed. 1656 Earl Orrery Parthen. iii. iv. 269, I finde my scores of gratitude are as vnpayable to the Brother, as those of adoration are to the Sister. a 1716 South Serm. (1744) X. 295 The debt of a thousand talents due to him from her, yet by reason of this her great poverty..utterly unpayable. 1899 Mackail W. Morris ii. 27 The price is unpayable.

b. Of persons.

1856 Lever Martins of Cro' M. xxxi. 325 Our Club [would] become only an asylum for unpayable tailors. 1868 Carlyle in Mrs. C.'s Lett. (1883) I. 24 A poor creditor, unpayable, overheard Mrs. A. whispering, 'Let us keep' [etc.].

2. Incapable of paying; unremunerative.

1880 G. Sutherland Tales Goldfields 30 The goldfields were unpayable. 1896 in Morris Austral-Eng. (1898) 187 Unpayable Lines... Of these [railways] 33.. do not pay working expenses.

Unpay´ing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1682 Dryden Epil. to King & Queen 26 We've none so great but their unpaying Masters. 1843 Syd. Smith Amer. Debts ii. P 3. I am astonished that the honest States of America do not draw a cordon sanitaire round their unpaying brethren. 1894 D. Campbell Coleridge vi. 121 Which he spent much of his time inditing in the form of letters to his unpaying correspondents!

Unpay´ment. (Un-1 12.) a 1578 Lindesay (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 351, I know no cause quhairfoir, bot that he discordit with his persone fior wopayment of his tiendis.

Unpea´ce. Now arch. [Un-1 12, prob. after unfrith. (Un-1 3). Cf. MDu. onpays, obs. Du. onpaais, Flem. onpeys (Kilian).] Absence of peace; dissension, strife.

a 1300 Cursor M. 414 He..sette pam in haly palais, par neuer mai be of pride unpais. Ibid. 13306 To man pai wroght neuer vn-pes. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. I. 250 Men ben now redi to heren of unpees, batailis, and strives. 1420-22 Lydg. Thebes iii. 4260 Fell Ethyocies, Rote of vnreste and cause of vnpes. a 1470 Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) v. xvii. 219/1 He had them absteyne them fro all tokenes of unpacyence, of unpees, and of cruelties.

1876 Morris Sigurd ii. 89 Where unpeace and troubles and the griefs of the soul abide. 1906 Mary Cholmondeley Prisoners vi, There is an unpeace which passes understanding also.

Unpea´ceable, a. Now rare. [Un-1 7 b. Cf. Unpeacible a.]

1. Not disposed to peace; contentious, turbulent.

c 1250 M. Nisbet Jas. iii. 8 Naman may chastice the toung, for it is ane vnpeceable [Wycliff unpesible] evile. 1570 Drant Serm. E vj b, What warres.. hath this foule and vnpeaceable woman brought to passe? 1608 Dod & Cleaver Expos. Prov. ix-x. 86 If our hearts.. begin to grow turbulent and unpeaceable. 1682 Sec. Plea Nonconf. 66 The Arrians were Calumniators of the Orthodox, and so are the Papists, and unpeaceable Lutherans. 1860 Ruskin Unto this Last i. (1862) 25 An unpeaceable and often irrational person.

2. Characterized by want of peace or quiet.

a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 101 The lord Scales and his companye.. together in vnpeaceable fury, set on their enemies. 1635 Brathwait Arcad. Pr. 55 We..live both in these factious and unpeaceable times. 1649 Milton Eikon. xviii. 165 Suttle and unpeaceable designes. 1702 Echard Eccl. Hist. III. vi. 408 His scandalous, irregular and unpeaceable Practices. 1770 Langhorne Plutarch V. 219 His unpeaceable and unsalutary conduct.

Hence Unpea´ceableness. (Common c 1655–c 1690.)

c 1475 Cath. Angl. 277/2 Vn Pesseablnes, impaciencia, inquietude, proteruitas. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 246, I would not have unpeaceableness and division to be encouraged. 1690 T. Burnet Theory Earth II. 193 The disorders of our passions.. and the unpeaceableness of the world.

Unpea´ceably, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.)

1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 121 The most able may not unpeaceably or intemperately contradict it. 1717 De Foe Mem. Cl. Scot. iii. 16 It was alledged by the Persons that were thus taken up.. that they had not acted unpeaceably or undutifully to his Majesty in any thing.

†Unpea´ced, ppl. a. Obs.—1 [Un-2 8.] Deprived of peace; disquieted. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione iii. xlvii. 117 If pou sette pyj pes wiþ eny persone for þin owne feleng & lyvynge togidres, þou shalt be unstable & unpesed.

Unpea´cful, a. (Un-1 7.)

1611 Florio, Inpacifico, vnquiet, vnpeacefull. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 80 Man or wife who hates in wedloc is perpetually unsociable, unpeacefull, or uncuteous. 1647 Cowley Hist. Hvth iii, Ease of unpeaceful thoughts. 1734 Thomson Liberty iv. 678 Immature, and red with glorious wounds, Unpeaceful death their choice. 1797 Lamb 'Ann! how am I changed!' 54 The not unpeaceful evening of a day Made black by morning storms. 1898 Westcott Prelude vi. 76 Lofty elms..Bestowed composure on a neighbourhood Unpeaceful in itself. 1831 Arnold Let. in Stanley Life (1858) I. 240 The violence of political quarrels seeming to be something shocking because it was so unpeaceful.

†Unpea´cible, a. In 4–5 vnpesible, -peisyble, -peysible. [Un-1 7.] = Unpeaceable a.

1382 Wyclif Jas. iii. 8 The tunge..is an vnquyet, or vnpesible, yuel thing. 1388 — 1 Thess. v. 14 Britheren,..repeue ye vnpesible men. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xiii. xxvi. (Tollem. MS.), A cryynge sese and an unpesible is peril ouse. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) App. i, Jas. iii. 8 Tunge no man may make tame, fal of vnpeisyble yuel. c 1430 Life St. Katherine (1884) 52 Lest he schold be accused..as wykked and vnpeysible. 1482 Rolls of Parl. VI. 200/2 Many.. been of such evill disposition and unpesible, that the Maier ..may not gyde..the people.

Hence † Unpea´cibly adv. Obs.—1

a 1400 Wycliffite Bible 2 Thess. iii. 12 We han herd summe among you for to wandre inquyet,..or inpesibli [o.rr. vnpesiblely, vnpesibly; L. inquiete].

Unpe´cca´ble, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.) Impeccable. 1818 Bentham Ch. Eng. 333 Still, though never sinning, he was not yet unpeccable.

Unpeda´ntic, a. (Un-1 7.)

1796 Burney Mem. Metastasio II. 316 This essay is sufficient to manifest..the solid, unpedantic cultivation of your happy talents. 1829 Lytton Devereux I. iv, He would speak of courts and kings in an easy and unpedantic strain. 1840 Mill Dissert. & Disc. (1859) II. 41 [The Americans'] cast of mind is altogether unpedantic and practical.

Unpe´destal, v. (Un-2 5.) Hence Unpe´destalled. ppl. a.

1821 Peter Speedwell, Witch of Glen Llyn II. 38 Force me not to unpedestal you from the proud height to which my adoring fancy has raised you. 1839 Lady Lytton Cheveley (ed. 2) I. xii. 278 He did not think..there was any danger of George Sand's un-pedestaling the..Despinasses of the olden time. 1881 T. Hardy Laodicean II. His well-curved youthful form looked like an unpedestaled Dionysus.

Unpe´digreed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1827 Pollok Course T. viii. 90 Unscutcheoned all, Uncrowned, unplumed, unhelmed, unpedigreed. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. IV. 246/2 The Yorkshire cow, or .. unpedigreed shorthorn.

Unpee´led, ppl. a. (Un-2 9.)

In Shaks. L. L. L. ii. 88 the Quarto has unpeeled for unpeopled of the Folio.

1599 A. M. tr. Gabelhouer's Bk. Physicke 360/2 Take vnpeeled Barlye,..and Misleden of Abiete,..with his leaues. 1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Apricock-tree, Those [apricots] that are over-ripe, whether peeled or unpeeled. 1750 G. Hughes Barbados 182 If this unripe fruit (of the Papaw) when unpeeled is boiled. 1814 Southey Roderick xviii. 127 He.. held a natural cross Of rudest form, unpeel'd, even as it grew On the near oak that morn. 1887 Moloney Forestry W. Africa 361 Peeled Colocynth, and Mogador or Unpeeled Colocynth.

Unpe´rable, a. (Un-1 7 b + Peer v.†) 1604 Webster Malcontent iii. 1, O unpeerable invention! rare!

Unpee´red, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Unequalled, unrivalled.

1604 Marston Antonio's Rev. i. 1, What a topplese mount Of unpeer'd mischiefe have these hands cast up! 1636 Heywood Challenge i. 1, Most unpeer'd Lady, that, not for ten Worlds. 1795 Macneil Scotland's Scaith v. xii, Roslin's banks, unpeered by one, Save the muses' Hawthornden. 1885 Bailey Mystic, etc. 152 Where's the castle, that on yonder mountain piled Held the prince unpeered in honour?

Unpeg, v. (Un-2 4 b.)

1604 Shaks. Ham. iii. iv. 193 Vnpegge the Basket on the houses top: Let the Birds flye. 1611 Cotgr., Declaverer, to vnboult, vnpinne, vnpeg; loose from. 1853 W. C. Baldwin Afr. Hunting ii. 51 He at length charged against the side of the tent, and unpegged one of the ropes.

Unpegged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1697 View Penal Laws 253 Neither shall any suffer his swine to run in any such Grounds or Woods unringed or unpegged.

Unpeiayble, a. Unpeacible a. Obs.

Unpen, v. [Un-2 5. Cf. OE. onpennian, and Unpend v.] trans. To let out of, release from, a pen or enclosure.

a 1592 Greene Jas. IV, iv. iii, The lamb is vnpent, the fox shal preuaile. 1706 Blackstone Comm. II. 395 If one obstructs another's antient windows,..fouls his water, or unpens or lets it out, &c. 1817 J. F. Pennie Repos! Mirror. II. 10 Young David from the fold His..playful lambs unpen'd. 1820 Clare Poems (ed. 3) 127 The shepherd..Unpens and frees the captive sheep.

fig. 1818 Keats Endym. III. 2 There are..who unpen Their baaing vanities, to browse away [etc.].

Unpen´nal, a. (Un-1 7.) 1641 Clarendon Ess. Divine & Moral Tracts (1727) 213 It [sc. the Law] may render me more potent to do hurt and injury, by making that damage and injury unpenal to me. Unpe´ndant, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1624 Middleton Game at Chess III. i. How dares your Pawn unpenanced..Appear in this assembly? Unpe´ncilled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1648 Feltham Resolves II. xxiii. 76 There is no disposition, but hath a varnish vizon, as well as an vnpencill'd face.

†Unpend, v. Obs.—1 [Un-2 3.] = Unpen v. 1565 Golding Ovid's Met. I. 4 b, Poure out your force,..your headles echo vnpende, And from your open sprynges your streames with flowyng waters send.

†Unpe´netrable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Impenetrable.

c 1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's (1923) 17 As yt were with an vnpenytrable scochyn wardid and defendyd. 1581 J. Bell, Haddon's Answ. Osor. 187 b, God according to his unpenetrable counsell doth determine all thinges. 1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Pennilesse Pilgr. Wks. I. 129/2 The Foundation and Walls are vnpenetrable, the Rampiers impregnable. 1734 Hamilton Orient to the Humble xxxiv. 152 To them an unpenetrable rock, an unaccessible desert.

Unpe´netrated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1781 Pennant Hist. Quadrup. I. 261 In some of those remote parts..unpenetrated yet by Europeans. 1821 Cobbett Rural Rid. ii. viii, An American Backwoodsman, who had to fell unpenetrated forests. 1868 Milman St. Paul's 160 The unpenetrated darkness of futurity.

Unpe´nrating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1768) I. 217 This, frequently, the unpenetrating world calls Humanity.

Unpe´nitent, a. ? Obs. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

1546 Coverdale Treatise on Lord's Supper A v b, The vnpenitent herte of the persone whych receyueth it [sc. the sacrament]. 1562 Bilkington Expos. Abdyas 228 It [sc. absolution] is no more profitable thanne..the communion is too an hypocrite or unpenitente sinner. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. III. xlii. 275 The Apostles had not the Power..to grant it [sc. Baptism] to the Un-penitent. 1801 Southey Curse Parentage II. iv, Fearless, unpenitent, unblest, Without a prayer they sank to rest.

Unpe´nned, ppl. a.[Un-1 8.] Unwritten. 1587 Turbervile Trag. T. A iv b, My books..I send,..Though reason willes it rather left vnpenned. 1594 R. Wilson Cobler's Proph. ii. 1, 145 Loath was I that vnpend one iote of this should goe.

Unpe´nned, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unpen v.] Let out of a pen. 1596 W. Smith Chloris viii, But I.. My vnpend flocke vnto the mountaines leda. Unpe´nniled, a. (Un-1 9.) 1822 Lamb Elia i. Praise Chimney-Sweepers, This is saloop—.. the delight, and..the envy, of the unpennied sweep. 1848 Cloquet Amours de Vey. I. 132 To introduce at assemblies. To the unpennied cadets our cousins with excellent fortunes.

Unpe´nsioned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1728 Pope Dunciad III. 330 Gay dies unpension'd with a hundred friends. 1732 — Hor. Sat. II. i. 116 Could.. I not strip the gilding off a knave, Unplac'd, unpension'd..? 1771 Ann. Reg., Chron. 203/1, I come here unplaced, unpensioned, to give my vote voluntarily. 1817 Byron Mazeppa iv, So sung his poets, all but one, Who, being unpension'd, made a satire. 1891 Daily News 15 July 3/1 Some of the unpensioned survivors of the Crimean and of the Indian Mutiny campaigns.

Unpe´nsioning, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1883 Dickens Bleak Ho. xl, An ungrateful and unpensioning country.

Unpe´nt, ppl. a. (Un-2 8.)

1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. i. 688 We make there our liquid lair, Voyaging cloudlike and unpent Through the boundless element. 1861 Ld. Lytton & Lane Tannhäuser 52 Nor e'er Bade unpent passion wildly start Through the forced portals of thy heart. 1885-94 R. Bridges Eros & Psyche March xv, The hour When beauty, from its fleshy bud unpent, Plants like the coral of a summer flower.

Unpeo´ple, v. [Un-2 4.]

1. trans. To divest or empty of people; to depopulate.

a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) K vj b, Bycause thou hast vnpeopled the lawes and stretes of workemen and officers, and hast peopled it all about with infinite vacabundes. 1594 Kyd Cornelia iv. i. 116 [Caesar] hath vnpeopled most part of the earth. 1641 Milton Reform. II. 60 They have unpeopl'd the Kingdome by expulsion of so many thousands. 1685 N. Cotton Comp. Lett. Amer. i. 2 There is no such Torrid Zone where the heat is so noxious as to unpeople any part of the Earth. 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ., Paris, Thirty-five years..have unpeopled her dominions of the slaves of love. 1820 Byron Mar. Fal. iii. 492 'Tis mine to sound the knell, and strike the blow, Which shall unpeople many palaces. 1865 W. G. Palgrave Arabia II. 320 Systematic ill government can do more to unpeople a land than..the Black Death.

transf. 1712 Blackmore Creation vii. 40 That costly banquets..May crown thy table,..Ransack the hills,..The lake unpeople, and despoil the flood. 1781 Westm. Mag. IX. 263 Now, to unpeople ev'ry brook, The long-neglected mesh repairs.

b. fig. To divest or strip of something.

1823 Chalmers Serm. I. iv. 114 When the business of devotion is thus unpeopled of all its externals.

2. To divest of the status of a people.

1653 O. Sedgwick Doubting Believer 255 It is an unadvised folly in the suspension of Gods favour, to unsome our selves, and unpeople our selves.

Unpeo´pled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Not peopled; uninhabited; without people.

In some contexts perhaps influenced by Unpeople v. a 1586 C'tess Pembroke Ps. lxxviii. xiv, He made them waste their weary yeares Roaming in vain in that unpeopled place. 1627 Speed England xiv. 8 ? This land so small.. and so vnpeopled and vnprofitable. 1667 Milton P. L. III. 497 The Paradise of Fools, to few unknown Long after, now unpeopl'd, and untrod. 1737 Glover Leonidas iv. 638 What suff'rings to compensate..for unpeopled realms, And all this waste of nature? 1774 Goldsm. Nat. Hist. VII. 131 The crocodile..found in unpeopled countries. 1816 Wilson City of Plague III. i. 122 He loves the silence Of an unpeopled reign. 1839 Carlyle Chartism iv, Ireland will be hurt into a black unpeopled field of ashes. 1887 Bowen Æneid VI. 269 The unpeopled realm of Death.

Unpe´ppered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1648 Herrick II. Ungeshepherd, Vnpeppred, or without pepper. 1814 Colman Vagaries Vind. (1818) 203 Ye Novel-Readers!—such as relish most Plain Nature's feast, unpepper'd with a Ghost. 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. II. 16/1 A plate of unpeppered cucumbers.

Unperceivable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Imperceptible.

a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. II. viii. (W. de W. 1494), Thorugh a pryue vnperceyuable worchyng of the holy ghost. c 1400 Love Bonaventure Mirr. (1908) 206 In a moment, that is in an vnperceyuable short tyme. 1603 Florio Montaigne II. xii. 284 Who knowes not how vnperceivable the neighbourhood betweene folly with the liveliest elevations of a free minde is. 1617 Moryson Itin. III. 45 Their motion, being made in time vnperceivable by vs. 1709 Berkeley Tr. Vision § 72 The particles of the..vapours, which are themselves unperceivable. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 619 The chain of causes and effects..divides into so many unperceivable threads. 1801 Monthly Mag. XII. 422 One of those French reputations, which, when weighed in the European scale, is almost unperceivable. a 1882 T. H. Green Prolegs. Ethics 347 That God is as unimaginable as he is unperceivable.

Hence Unperceivableness.

1611 Florio, Inpercettibilita, vnperceiuablenesse.

Unperceivably, adv. [Un-1 11, 5 b: cf. prec.] Imperceptibly.

a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. II. viii. (W. de W. 1494), How it is wondrely & vnperceyuably changed.. vnto the fayrnes of an angell. 1603 Florio Montaigne III. iv. 500, I vnperceiuable remouued those doleful humours from hir. 1695 Br. Rochester Disc. Clergy 39 With the Scripture.. their Memories will unperceivably be filled. 1723 Guardian No. 56, [They] rolled their trains unperceivably beneath their habits.

Unperceived, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Without being perceived or noticed. Occas. const. by or of.

c 1350 Will. Palerne 1576 þat noþer clerk nor knist..Schal passe vnperceyued & pertilliche of-sout. c 1400 Destr. Troy 8653 Achilles grippit a greit speire,..Vnpersayit of the prince pridich hym to. 1533 More Apol. III. Wks. 84/2 They would ..haue their false follies passe and repasse all vnperceiued. 1593 Shaks. Lucrece 1010 The crow may..vnperceiv'd fly with the filth away. 1667 Milton P. L. XI. 824 Hee alone ..took his way, Not vnperceiv'd of Adam. 1725 Pope Odyss. XXII. 194 Behind the felon unperciv'd they past. 1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 17 Unperceived of Harry, he displayed the bills to the company. 1834 Tait's Mag. I. 189/2 The intrenchment being cast up unperceived, in the middle of the night. 1875 Lowell Plaus (ed. 2) III. 67 Chance words..which fall unperceived on the reader's mind.

2. Not perceived; unobserved.

c 1500 Three Kings' Sons 84 Departid this yonge gentilman..so secretly that he was vnperceyued. 1581 Mulcaster Positions xxxiii. 120 Galene also maketh the litle vnperceiued, or for the smallnesse contemned, to be mother of all illes. 1665 Boyle Occas. Refl. iv. ix, Moisture..convey'd but by little and little.., and by unperceivd Passages, and yet..able to impart Fertility. 1768 Boswell Corsica p. xii, Even the succession of Chiefs has been unperceived. 1790 Coleridge Progr. Vice 7 By unperceiv'd degrees she tempts to stray, Till far from Virtue's path she leads the feet away. 1842 Is. Williams Baptistery 43 Time marks not Death with unperceived tread Steal on behind. 1898 Lucy B. Walford Archdeacon II. ii, St. Andrews was unperceived, and drew back.. disconcerted.

Hence Unperceivedly adv.

1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter ii. 18 That they may not too unperceivedly catch us, let me a little bare their hooke. 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. App. 352 Sometimes in filtration, some of the thinner parts of the oyl have unperceivedly passed through the paper. 1713 Derham Physico-Theol. III. iv. 78 Descending (though unperceivedly) gently down.. to the Sea.

Unperceiving, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 2a.) 1723 Waterland Sec. Vindic. Christ's Divinity xxiii. 448 To make you at length sensible of Two Things, about which you have been hitherto very slow and unperceiving. 1803 Monthly Mag. XIV. 490 For an idea to exist in an unperceiving thing is a contradiction. Unperceivingness. (Un-[1] 12; or f. prec.) 1685 Renwick Serm., etc. (1776) 144 What unperceivingness of temper is this? †Unperceptable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) = next. 1693 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xxiv. 19 The small un-level lying of every Sheet, though unperceptable in a small number of Sheets.

†Unperceptible, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) Imperceptible; unperceivable.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. ix. ii. (Bodl. MS.), Nobing is more vnceerteyne panne tyme, nobing more vnperceptible. 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 1086 The diversitie of good things and evill is very small, and unperceptible by the sense. 1653 H. More Antid. Athi. II. i. § 2 Matter..unperceptible to any of our Senses. 1682 — Contn. Remark. Stor. 10 A tugging..for his Sword by an invisible Hand. By which, I suppose, is meant an unperceptible hand.

Unperceptive, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1668 H. More Div. Dial. II. v. 197 You seem to forget that the strokes of Nature levell not at particulars. For sie is an unperceptive Principle. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 171 His Affections..are now become so unperceptive of any thing but the..relishes of the Animal Nature. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 298 Those who have asserted that ..a perceptive being can be produced by combination of unperceptive principles. 1882 St. James' Gaz. 30 March 3/2 He cut it out, good man, being unperceptive of the consequences.

Unperch, v. (Un-[2] 5.) trans. To dislodge from a perch. Also fig.

1599 Lily Euphues (Arb.) 114 For honest recreation..vse hawting or hauking, either rowse the Deere, or vnperach the Phesant. 1646 Crashaw Steps to Temple 27 Which when I lose, or may at once my Tongue Lose this same busie speaking art Vnperach, her vocall Arteries mastering. a 1659 Osborne Observ. Turks Wks. (1673) 286 If he but offers to tune his note contrary to the true Dialect of State, he is straight unperched. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. I. 320 Divines, who never fail to endeavour to unperche that good old Fox's well-meaning Book from its Post and Chair in our Churches. 1734 Watts Relig. Yun. 287 When..walking through a Grove,..we unperch'd a Squirrel and a Lark. 1846 Landor Exam. Shakes. Wks. II. 267/2 They never have unperched me from my calling.

Hence Unperching vbl. sb.

1589 Warner Alb. Eng. Prose Add. 261 The vnpearching of other, should be fore-preachings to vs.

Unperched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 3.) 1732 M. Green The Grotto 116 Moping like sick linnet..Unperch'd, averse to fly or sing.

Unperegal, var. Unparegal a. Obs.

Unperfect, a. Now rare. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1. Of persons: Imperfect in respect of nature, conduct, or function.

a 1340 Hampole Ps. cxxxviii. 15 Thou sagbe mercifully my men, that ere vnperfyt. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 45 Pei weren sijt unperfit, and Petir after bat Crist was risun.., synnede many weyes. 1400 Rauf Coilyar 1 Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 29 Certes .. it seemeth that yee be unperfect. c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. xiv. 560 Vnperfit men cumbrid in her freelnes..ouġten chese ful ofte the..surer good to hem bifore the vnsurer good. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Para. Heb. 11 As the vnperfitter priesthood geueth place vnto the perfitter. 1594 Carew Huarte's Exam. Wits xiv. 252 A man vnperfect and void of the faculty of nature. 1617 Morlyson Itin. II. 79 The wisest Counsels..are vncertaine, and the wisest men vnperfect. a 1642 F. Gervil Sidney (1652) 12 What marvail can it be, if these Iacobs and Esaus strive.. as well before as after they come out of such erring and unperfect wombes? 1766 A. Nicol Poems 14 O, Heavens! deliver me..From one that's thriftless, nasty, unperfeit.

b. Inexpert, unskilled; not properly trained or practised; not thoroughly up in one's part.

c 1440 Gesta Rom. xliii. 170 (Harl. MS.), They wer..vnperfite of the craft, or vncunnynge in the mystery. c 1470 Henry Wallace IV. 736 Rycht vnperfyt I am of Venus play. 1545 Ascham Toxoph. (Arb.) 20, I beyng an vnperfyte shoter. 1577–82 Breton Floorish upon Fancie To Yng. Gentlemen, I was..in a place vnknowne..vnperfect to returne the waye I went. c 1600 Shaks. Sonn. xxiii. 1 As an vnperfect actor on the stage, Who with his feare is put besides his part.

2. Not brought to perfection or completeness; left unfinished, incomplete, or defective; not full in number, etc.: a. Of material things.

1382 Wyclif Ps. cxxxviii. 16 Myn vnparfit thing seyen bin eyen. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. 1 (Bodl. MS.), In some treee be [burnouse] is vnsufficiaunt and vnperfecte. c 1449 Pecock Repr. II. ix. 193 The sympler and vnperfiter and lasse representing ymage. 1483 Act 1 Ric. III, c. 8 Preamble, Wollen clothes..unperfite and deceyvably made. 1533 Coverdale Wisd. iv. 5 The vnparfecte branchues shalbe broken. a 1568 Ascham Scholem. (Arb.) 142 Plautus and Terence, with a litle rude vnperfit pamflet of the elder Cato. 1604 T. Wright Passione Ep. Ded., The vncorrected copie..of three..was most vnperfit. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 246 Mushroomes..are likewise an unperfect Plant. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing 8 Some Trades are..sooner sold off, which renders the remainder of the un-sold Exercises unperfect. 1858 H. Bushnell Nat. & Supernat. xi. (1864) 342 The world..was made, including man, as a thing necessarily unperfect.

b. Of qualities, concepts, etc.

c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 302 A fool..bryngip in a newe ordre pat is bobe heuy & vnperfijt. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) V. 53 He dede oon dede pat semede of vnperfijt witte. c 1475 Partenay 5925 The pope assoilled hym ther benyngly, When [he] declared hade hys dedes vnperfight. 1535 Coverdale 1 Cor. xiii. 9 Our knowlege is vnparfecte, and our prophecienge is vnparfecte. 1551 T. Wilson Logike II 111, All halfe arguments, is an argument vnperfect. 1607 Hieron Wks. I. 150 Nurses..doe babble with them in their owne stammering and vnperfite language. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World III. xii. 145 Taking vpon themselves the maintenance of the Sonne..which Agrippa had left vnperfect. 1656 Sanderson Serm. (1689) 537 The sence hangeth unperfect unless we take in the former verse.

†Unperfect, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To render imperfect.

1548 Geste Pr. Masse C vii, To renew the sayde sacryfyce is vtterye to vnperfyt, & disable it quite. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. v, The dressing of her haire and apparell..left to a neglected chaunce, which yet couldc no more unperfect her perfections, than a Die..could loose his squarenesse.

Unperfected, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 5 b.)

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vii. 491 By reason of which..trewes the hostes were deseuered, and the ende of ye warre vnparfyted. c 1542 Surrey in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 29 A mark, the which (vnparfect, for time) Some may approche, but neuer none shall hit. 1645 K. Long tr. Barclay's Argenis v. x. 363 The businesse yet stands well; the alliance unperfected; Argenis unmarried. 1657 W. Rand tr. Gassendi's Life Peiresc ii. 192 He never willingly left anything unperfected. 1716–20 Lett. Pr. Mist's Pr. (1722) I. 308 These.. are but half Gentlemen,..debased, unperfected things. 1864 Reader No. 86. 219/2 An unperfected sketch. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xii, Shall any germ of good in man's soul perish imperfected?

†Unperfection. Obs. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] Imperfection.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 402 When unperfeccioun is putt upon God. 1388 — Eccles. xxxviii. 31 He schal ȝyue lite wisdom in to the ȝoornyng of wyslees; bi his wakyng he schal ouure vnperfeccion. c 1535 Nisbet N. T. (S.T.S.) III. 344 Christ..now dealis with us daylye, suffering our vnperfectionis. †Unperfective, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) 1904 Norris Ideal World ii. vii. 32 A pure and unmingled darkness, being..so very unperfective of our natures. Ibid. xii. 476 The knowledge of an unperfective object.

†Unperfectly, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 11, 5 b.] Imperfectly.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. viii. xxix. (Bodl. MS.), Wiannne it [ec. light] comeb into faite matere it is inperfitelich [1495 vnperfyghtly] ifonge & schedeb hym perinne vnperfitelich and semeb derke withoute. c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. xiv. 564 It is no nede forto seie ther of my thing vnperfill and vnfully and therfore vnsatisfil here. 1483 Act 1 Rich. III, c. 8 Preamble, Wollen Clothes..unperfilly made and deceyvably wrought. 1552 Latimer Serm. Lord's Prayer vi. (1562) 49 b, We believe vnperfectly, we loue vnperfectly, we suffer vnperfectly..; and so al thinges that we do, ar done imperfectly. 1561 Daus tr. Bullinger on Apoc. 579 Besydes this, we se here vnperfitly. 1639 Gentilis Servitis Inquis. (1655) 20 Yet was it not put to execution according to the Emperours mind, but onely unperfectly.

Unperfectness. Now rare. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] Imperfection.

a. a 1325 Prose Ps. cxxxviii. 15 Pyn eyen sen myn vnparfitnes. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 5 Art, sciens and lawe al were i-failie,..but pe mercy of God had i-ordyned vs of letres in remedie of vnparfitnesse of manhede. c 1449 Pecock Repr. III. xi. 349 As he which offe and miche synned, and as he which knewe his vnperfitnes. a 1568 Ascham Scholem. (Arb.) 144 Cicero him selfe doth complaine of this vnperfitnes, but more plainly Quintilian.

b. 1543 Necessary Doctrine v. ii, These workes..for as moch as they be done in the faith of Christe,..theyr vnperfectnes is supplied. 1548 Cranmer Catech. 220 b, Although he doth oftentimes overcome sinne, yet this is a great vnperfectnes, yt he doubte of his salvacion. 1625 Donne Serm. 669 If there had not been unbelieve, weakness, unperfectnesse in that Faith. 1661 Rust Origen's Opin. 72 Seeing what..was likely to be the lot of some of them from the necessary imperfectness of their Nature. 1900 Mary Kingsley Mem. in G. H. Kingsley Sp. & Trav. vii. 193 In the very unperfectness of that specimen.

Unperflated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8) 1822–7 Good Study Med. (1829) II. 203 Confined and unperflated barracks.

Unperforate, a. (Un-[1] 7.) = next. 1713 Cheselden Anat. (1722) 224 The Edges of this growing together, it continued unperforate.

Unperforated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 5 b.)

1676 H. More Remarks 133 It will be hard then to find any evasion if the inward Vessel ascend not as it does when the bottom is unperforated. 1726 Monro Anat. 113 The posterior unperforated Part of the Lamella. 1833 J. Holland Manuf. Metal II. 156 An unperforated iron plate. 1884 Bower & Scott De Chaumont's Pharm. 328 Very oblique, fibrously thickened (unperforated †) end-surfaces.

Unperformable, a. (Un-[2] 7 b, 5 b.) 1674 O. Walker, etc. Paraphr. Ep. St. Paul (1675) 7 An unperformable supposition. 1818 Bentham Ch. Eng. 238 The unperformable obligation actually taken upon themselves by the Sponsors. †Unperformance. Obs. [Un-[1] 12.] Non-performance.

1608 Hieron Defence III. 238 Kneeling .. is altogether accidentall and uncertayne, and so, by consequence, liable to an unperformance.

Unperformed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1442 Rolls of Parli. V. 57/2 It may be founden .. that parcell therof [sc. a will] .. remayneth unperfourneede and not executed. 1483 Ibid. VI. 261/2 So that the said last Wille..shall reste unperfourmed. 1573 Daus tr. Bullinger on Apoc. 101 b, He shall most fully accomplish such thynges as we see as yet vnperformed. 1591 Harington Orl. Fur. xxvi. xxxv. 208/2 Merlin,..by his passing wit, Set here (as yet) their vnperformed deeds. c 1611 Chapman Iliad I. 59 If unperformed vows He blames in us. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 308 That condition which is of necessity to the end, though some accidentals be unperformed. 1750 Chesterf. Let. 8 Jan., They have done feats..unperformed by others. 1849 FitzGerald Lett. (1889) I. 107 A large bill for service unperformed. 1870 Bryant Iliad I. 11 Yet is the enterprise for which we came still unperformed.

Unperforming, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 12.) 1645 Milton Tetrach. 31 No fals dealing, or unperforming should be thrust upon men without redress, if the covnant bee so divine.

Unperforming, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1670 Dryden Cong. Granada I. Epil., Yet, though he much has failed, he begs, to-day, You will excuse his unperforming play. 1706 Watts Horæ Lyricæ II. 205 Ye vulgar charms of eyes and ears, Ye unperforming promisers! 1742 Melmoth Fitzosborne Lett. (1749) 153 You..have placed in strong contraste their successful industry, with our unperforming ignorance. 1765 Goldsm. Ess. ii. Wks. (Globe) 288/2 The public has been so often imposed upon by the unperforming promises of others. 1824 Lamb Elia II. Capt. Jackson, You..leaded under the potency of his unperforming Bacchanalian encouragements.

Unperfumed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1706 Phillips (ed. Kersey), Inodorous, that is without Scent,..unperfumed. 1784 Cowper Task III. 732 Are not wholesome airs, though unperfum'd By roses,..To be preferr'd to smoke? 1860 Farrar Orig. Lang. i. 1 Uttering things simple, and unperfumed.

Unperilous, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1621 in Kempe Losely MSS. (1836) 455 [A] not unpleasant wayre, though not unperilous. 1628 Feltham Resolves II. xii. 23 The secure depths, in the most unperilious Channell. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude v. 234 What I had we been .. If in the season of unperilous choice..We had been followed! 1847 Emily Brontë Wuthering Heights xxxiii, Temperate mode of living, and unperilous occupations.

Unperishable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke iii. 33 b, He that hath throughly conceiued the fyer of charitee & loue vnperishable. 1664 Ingelo Sentiv. & Ur. ii. vi. 366 The unperishable nature of the Soul. 1677 Yarranton Eng. Improv. 23 The Moneys will be lent .. upon unperishable commodities. 1712 Spect. No. 537 ¶ A contemplation on the unperishable part of his nature. 1793 Smeaton Eddystone L. § 93 The stone here .. was .. unperishable by the effects of weather. 1824 Godwin Hist. Common. I. 44 The Senate .. has an unperishable advantage over a popular assembly. 1858 Birch Anc. Pottery II. 396 The glyptic and graphic arts only exist in their later forms as executed on unperishable materials.

Hence Unperishableness.

1648 Jenkyn Blind Guide 48 This position..of a simple and absolute unperishablenesse. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 679 The spirituality and unperishableness of the soul.

Unperished, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1400 Destr. Troy 2460 He cast to course what shuld come after, Shuld neyse pupos vnperishit be put to a yssu. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. v. xi. 3016 We ask..ȝour help at oure cete And we may als vnperist be. 1531 Elyot Gov. III. vi, He presumed, that feythe beinge observed unperished, shulde please all mighty god above all thinges. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 331 Any beastes whose skynnes they desyre to saue vnperyshed. 1624 Capt. Smith Virginia v. 168 He hid though..in the water, they found vnperished. 1652 T. Heywell Gate Oppenent. 39 The sweet smelling spices of his lovely life .. will imbalme him, and keep him unperisht in your thoughts many years. 1720 Pope Iliad XXIII. 402 You aged trunk .., Or hardy fir, unperish'd with the rains. 1897 Ruskin Pol. Econ. Art 146 You can help some genius yet unperished.

Unperishing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. III. vi. 158 b, Ordeyned to heauenly incorruption and an vnperishing crowne. 1709 Shaftes. Charac. II. 370 Mighty Being!..Unperishing in Grace, and of undecaying Youth! 1789 Cowper Annus Memorabilis 15 Deeds of unperishing renown. c 1800 Coleridge On a Cataract 1 Unperishing youth! Thou leapest from forth The cell of thy hidden nativity. 1852 Billings Baronial Antiq. Scot., Dunblane II. 1 The Romans have left unperishing memorials of their far-reaching energy.

Unperiwigged, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1779 R. Graves Euphrosine (1789) II. 120 Would'st thou enraptured nature's charm behold,..Un-painted and un-periwig'd survey?

Unperjured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

a 1700 Dryden (J.), Thou can's not die unperjur'd, And leave an unaccomplish'd love behind. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 384 They or he remain unperjured, all the others perjured. 1827 Pollok Course T. v. 523 Days When, on the glittering dews of orient pile, Shone sunshine hopes, unfailed, unperjured then.

Unpermanency. (Un-[1] 12, 5 b; cf. next.) 1864 R. F. Burton Mission to Gelele II. 197 The unpermanency of the half-breed, and the frequency of sterile marriages amongst mulattos.

Unpermanent, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1639 [. Taylor (Water P.) Wks. (1650) 6 All the world may well be call'd a Boat, Tost on the troubious waues of discontent, All subject vnto change vnpermanent. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. IV. xiii. 56 Because it was so short and unpermanent the Prophecy seems to take no express notice of it. 1748 Richardson Clarissa III. 362 Who would not, ..to preserve so many essentials, give up so light, so unpermanent a pleasure? 1788 D. Gilson Serm. Pract. Subj. i. 9 The splendors he..pursued, have been found both unreal and unpermanent. 1864–8 Ruskin Select. Mission, Loc 5 Not one moment Of Time is lost, nor one event of Space unpermanent.

Unpermeable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1827 Montgomery Pelican Isl. III. 159 Where unpermeable foliage made Midnight at noon.

Unpermissible, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1872 Athenæum 14 Jan. 57 The presence of man is held to be unpermissible.

Unpermitted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. i. Eden 306 Now Heav'ns eternall all-fore-seeing King .. Thought good .. That he [sc. man] should never taste fruits un-permitted. 1777 Potter Æschylus, Seven Chiefs 180 Murd'rous is the rage that fires Thee To deeds of death, to unpermitted blood. 1810 H. P. Forster Ess. Princ. Sanskrit Gram. Introd. p.

xii, My friend,..I trust, will excuse this unpermitted mention of his name. 1851 Carlyle Sterling i. xv, A rash, false, unwise and unpermitted step.

Unpermixed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) c 1545 G. Wishart Conf. Faith in Misc. Wodrow Soc. (1844) 14 Christ..hauynge two natures unpermyxte. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 1097/2 Where I have intreated of one person, and of both natures in Christ unpermixed. Unpermixed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1811 Lamb Tragedy Shaks. Wks. 1908 i. 136 The painful anxiety about the act, the natural longing to prevent it while it yet seems unperpetrated.

Unperplex, v. (Un-2 3.)

a 1631 Donne Poems, Extasie 29 This Extasie doth unperplex (We said) and tell us what we love. 1665 J. Sergeant Sure Footing 205, I believe you are in some wonderment..; I shall endeavour to unperplex you. a 1711 Ken Edmund Poet. Wks. 1721 II. 452 With judgment unperplex'd (she) Reviews the Text. 1728 Young Love Fame v. 263 Bless'd with health, with business unperplex'd. 1824 Campbell, Theodric 192 Hers was the brow, in trials unperplexed, That cheered the sad. 1838 Mrs. Browning To M. R. Mitford 20 Thou art unperplext,..To preach a sermon on so known a text!

2. Not involved or intricate.

1653 Walton Angler i. 31 That good, plain, unperplext Catechism, that is printed with the old service book. c 1698 Locke Cond. Unds. § 39 Simple, unperplexed proposition belonging to the matter in hand. 1754 A. Murphy Grey's-Inn Jrnl. No. 104, My Arrangement has been grammatically just, unperplexed and clear. 1812 Wordsw. Waterfowl 13 Progress intricate Yet unperplexed, as if one spirit swayed Their indefatigable flight. 1854 Posey Lect. Daniel 317 The unperplexed simple pleading.

Unpersecuted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. i Since I dare not wish to pass this life unpersecuted of slanderous tongues. Unpersecutive, a. (Un-1 7.) 1664 H. More Apology 540 Whose errours..are ..themselves of a peaceable and unpersecutive Temper. Unpeservance. (Un-1 7.) c 1449 Pecock Repr. ii. vii. 177 Vnstable vnconstance and variiance and vnperseiterance. Unpersonable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1632 Holland Cyropædia 46 A man for his body not unpersonable, and in regard of his minde, seeming no ignoble and base peasant.

Unpersonal, a. and sb. [Un-1 7, 12, 5 b.]

†a. = Impersonal adj., sb. 1. b. Not personal. 1530 Palsgr. 83 Of verbes..some be personal, and some be unpersonals. Ibid. 614 This verbe..is ever used as an unpersonal. 1891 Cent. Dict. s. Impersonal, not personal; not intended to apply to the person addressed, as a remark.

Unpersonality. (Un-1 12.) 1881 S. Lanier English Novel (1883) 91 As the third feature of the unpersonality revealed in this play, consider the fact that [etc.].

Unpersonified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1825 Coleridge Aids Refl. 82 An obscure impersonation of what the Atheist receives unpersonified under the name of Fate or Nature. Unperspicuous, a. (Un-1 7 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1804 Ranken Hist. France iii. iv. III. 312 Their unclassical, often barbarous, and unperspicuous Latin. 1834 Southey in Corr. w. C. Bowles (1881) 294 It not that evidence .. of its existence is fancy, its richness of diction, unperspicuous as it is. Unperspirable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) a 1735 Arbuthnot (J.), Bile is the most unperspirable of animal fluids. Unperspiring, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1881 T. Maclagan Rheumatism 5 In acute gout the skin is dry and unperspiring.

Unpersuadable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

†1. Not removable by persuasion. Obs.—1

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia i. xv, Who (finding his sisters unperswadable melancholy..) had for a time left her court.

2. Not susceptible to persuasion; obstinate. a.

1612 Florio, Inpersuadibile, unperswadable. 1647 Trapp Comm. Col. iii. 6 Unperswadable, uncounsellable persons, that regard not good courses. 1668 Howe Bless. Righteous xii. 219 They..are utterly unperswadable towards God. 1748 Richardson Clarissa i. 48 A mind, till now, not thought either unpersuadable or ungenerous! 1817 T. L. Peacock Melincourt xxi, After a certain period of life..men in general become perfectly unpersuadable to all practical purposes. 1821 Lamb Prodigal Gt. xviii. vii. V. 149 Deploring that sad mistake; but unpersuadable to stand, and try amendment of it.

absol. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. Matt. iii. 12 He will burn the unbelievers and unpersuadable as chaff.

Hence Unpersuadableness.

1615 Byfield Expos. Colos. iii. 6 They will not be persuaded by the..servants of God; and so they are children of unpersuadableness. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. Acts xxi, 14 His resolution and unpersuadableness. 1748 Richardson Clarissa II. 57 Resentment and unpersuadableness are not natural to you. 1786 A. Gib Sacr. Contempt. 306 Children of disobedience, of unpersuadableness.

Unpersuaded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1531 More Confut. agst. Tyrb. III. xix. Wks. 1242/1 If you had assented in woordes and in your mynde departed unperswaded. 1570 Dee Math. Pref. 10 Who can remaine..vnpersuaded, to loue..the excellent Science of Arithmetike? 1709 Stanhope Paraphr. IV. 62 The present stupidity of this unpersuaded Man. 1777 Dodd Lect. to Johnson 23 May in Boswell, Not a soul could be left unconvinced and unpersuaded. 1818 Shelley Rosal. & Helen 648 His very gestures touched to tears The unpersuaded tyrant, never So moved before. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. I. 540 Myriads of Jewish Christians remained secretly unpersuaded.

Hence Unpersuadedness.

1617 Ainsworth Annot. Ps. lviii. 5 The serpent Python..noteth..the impersuadedness which this Psalme showeth to be naturally in that beast.

†Unpersuasibleness, -sua-sion. Obs. (Un-1 12.) a 1084 Leighton Com. 1 Pet. ii. 7 The word here us'd for disobedience, signifies properly unpersuasion: ..We are Children of disobedience, or unpersuasibleness.

Unpersuasive, a. (Un-1 7.)

1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) V. 207, I traversed the room, and bit my unpersuasive lips..for vexation. 1783 Blair Lect. II. 122 That argumentative manner, bordering on the dry and unpersuasive, which is..the character of English Sermons. 1847 F. W. Newman Hist. Hebrew Mon. ix. 328 In his own town of Anathoth,..his [sc. Jeremiah's] extreme youth would make him unpersuasive to his neighbours. 1905 Holman-Hunt Pre-Raphaelitism II. 429 Actuality, without which all painting is characterless and unpersuasive.

Hence Unpersuasively adv.

1885 Pusey Daily Lent Preference 347 So not unpersuasively might it be said in this passage. 1865 Grosart Lambs all Safe 106, I have indeed written poorly and vnpersuasively.

†Unpertaining, ppl. a. Obs.—1 (Un-1 10.) c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. xiii. 552 Vsis and expendiligis vnpertayning to tho religiouns and to her personis.

†Unpertinent, a. Obs. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 388 In general crede ben conteyned many trewpis pat us nedip not to dispute, but bileve hem as unpertinent. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 92 To warn men pe fiu vnpertinent pingis pat pis feynid, and wylle oper vices vnpertinent to pe mariage. c 1445 Pecock Donet 206 Maters vnpertinent to pe maters of pi preising and preiyng. 1579 Fulke Heskins' Parl. 430 This controuersie ..is vnpertinent to this matter. 1598 Florio, Impertinente, vnpertinent, not fit, not belonging.

Hence †Unpertinently adv. Obs.—1

c 1449 Pecock Repr. iv. iv. 441 Ellis this clausul..hadde be seid vnpertynently and vnhanglingli fro the maters of the clausulis foleinge.

Unperturbed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1420–22 Lydg. Thebes ii. 1714 That he..Myght allone regnen in quiete;..Vnperturbed of Polymyte his brother. 1611 Cotgr., Impassible,..vnpassionate, vnperturbed. 1671 R. MacWard True Drop 189 What in the ordinary and unperturbed condition of things would be accounted.. an usurpation. 1674 Boyle Excell. Theol. ii. iii. 150 The great plenty of unperturbed light that is reflected from snow. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xxvi, The King..unperturbed by the..violent gestures of the Duke. 1876 Geo. Eliot Dan. Der. vi, His own love seemed a guarantee of hers, since it was one with the unperturbed delight in her image.

Hence Unperturbedness.

1676 Hale Contempl. ii. (1677) 149 Nothing so much gratifies an ill Tongue, as when it finds an angry hearer: nor nothing so much disappoints and vexeth it as Calmness and Unperturbedness. 1867 Legge Confucius 265 A calm unperturbedness may be attained.

Unperused, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1553 in Strype Eccl. Mem. (1721) III. App. iii. 6 His letters, which..we have sent you here unperused [1775 Ash.] 1869 Bacon Adv. Learn. ii. xxiii. § 6 He burned Sertorius papers unperused. Unperva'ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1852 H. Rogers Ecl. Faith 388 That the Old Testament is unprevaded by any distinct traces of a spiritualism of a future life.

Unperverse, a. (Un-1 7.) 1828 Browning King & Bk. VII. 545 Either you have prayed him unperverse, Or I have talked him back into his wits. Unpervert, v. (Un-2 3.) 1653 Walton Ch. Hist. x. iv. § 64 His wife could never be unpervented by him, or persisted in her Judaism. 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ., Paris, I declare I had the credit all over Paris of unpverting Madame de V.

Unperverted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 203 So long as God upholdeth the order and course of Nature unperverted. 1674 Coke & Davis England's Independency (title-p.), Those who are yet unperverted to the Court or Church of Rome. 1762 J. Scott Poet. Wks. 4 Pleasing vestiges .. Of unperverted Nature's golden reign. 1838 Keble Serm. lx. (1848) 238 What unperverted conscience can fail to see the offence? 1871 Fraser Life of Berkeley lx. 352 He was unperverted by controversial theology.

Unpestered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1588 T. P. tr. Orders Span. Fleet in Hart. Misc. (1744) I. 114 That all soldiers have their room clean, and unpestered of chests, and other things. 1598 Barret Theor. Warres 103 It is a place of armes, and is to bee left free and vnpestered for onely the battell when it is to be set. 1824 Macfarlane Gallovid. Encycl. (1876) 233 Unpestered, sequestered, Deep hidden I remain.

Unpetitioned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1675 Crowne Calisto iv, I hou hast pleas'd me so, My favors unpetitioned I'll bestow. Unpetrified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. ii. v. 91 All Corall is not hard, and in many concreted plants some parts remaine unpetrified. 1732 Thomson Liberty iii. 208 Their generous hearts, Unpetrify'd by Self, so naked lay..that [etc.]. Unpetrify, v. (Un-1 3.) 1815 Hist. J. Decastro iv. 22 This unpetrified the waiter, who seized a poker to drive her out of the house. 1828 Robertson Let. in Brooke Life (1865) I. 40 We all agreed that the distance of eighteen miles had a marvellous effect in unpetrifying us.

Unpetticoated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1846 Browning Lett. (1899) II. 321 Flush [the dog] hates all unpetticoated people. 1848 A. Himmert in Todd Irish Nennius Notes p. lvii, The unpetticoated government of their Milesian wives.

†Unpeyslie ; see Unpreaclie a. Obs.

Unphilanthropic, a. (Un-1 7.) 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. ii. iv, I have heard affirmed..by not unphilanthropic persons, that [etc.]. Unphilosopher. (Un-1 12.) 1829 Carlyle Misc. (1840) II. 219 The English Unphilosopher believes it without demonstration. Unphilosophic, a. (Un-1 12.) 1776 Phil. Trans. LXXXV. 189 Those censures, which unphilosophic severity may throw on him. 1824 De Quincey Autob. Sk. Wks. 1853 I. 349 It would be unphilosophic to say, that [etc.].

Unphilosophical, a. (Un-1 7.)

1649 Milton Eikon. xi. 57 Straining her wise dictates to un-philosophicall purposes. 1656 Cowley Davideis i, Note x, One of the most unphilosophical opinions in all Aristotle. 1696 J. Edwards Exist. & Provid. God I. 51 This is unphilosophical, and therefore we may justly look upon the argument drawn from it as no too. 1771 Encycl. Brit. I. 655/1 The very supposition..must be unphilosophical, whimsical, and absurd. 1847 Helps Friends in C. i. i. 5 A man more fierce and unphilosophical in the pursuit of it I never saw. 1862 Goulburn Educ. World 30 Surely this statement is both unphilosophical and unscriptural.

absol. 1877 Laing Bacon's Philos. Exam. 15 The minds of the unphilosophical.

Hence Unphilosophicalness.

1687 Norris Coll. Misc. (1699) 169 The unphilosophicalness of this their Hypothesis.

Unphilosophically, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1674 R. Godfrey Inf. & Ab. Physic 179, I should not easily have believed that any Physician had been..so unphilosophically bred, as to ascribe the cure of Diseases to the Devil. 1705 Clarke Unch. Obligat. Nat. Relig. (1716) 278 These latter indeed, explained themselves very weakly and unphilosophically. 1778 Phil. Trans. LXVIII. 814 An experiment thus loosely and unphilosophically made. 1830 Mackintosh Eth. Philos. Wks. 1846 I. 203 Believing unphilosophically, as well as dangerously, that there can be any measure..so useful [etc.]. 1854 James Ticonderoga III. 43 Sometimes..Woodchuck would talk, neither unphilosophically, nor unlearnedly,..upon a life to come.

Unphilo'sophize, v. (Un-2 3.) 1713 Pope Let. to Caryll 14 Aug., Our passions, our interests, flow in upon us, and unphilosophize us into mere mortals. Unphilosophized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1828–32 Webster s.v., Unphilosophized revelation. 1900 F. H. Stoddard Evol. Eng. Novel 156 The honest, unbiassed, unphilosophized portrayal of life-conditions. Unphlebotomized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1772 Ash.] 1791 [see Unfilled ppl. a.[1]].

Unphone'tic, a. (Un-1 7.)

1857 Ld. Campbell Chief Justices III. xlviii. 153 A word of two syllables without any unphonetic consonants. 1899 Encycl. Brit. IX. 634/2 French orthography is now quite as traditional and unphonetic as English. 1888 [see next.]

Hence Unphone'tiness.

1888 Sweet Hist. Eng. Sounds 68 Unphoneticness is mainly the result of the retention of originally phonetic spellings after they have become unphonetic through sound-change.

Unphra'sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1663 Sir G. Mackenzie Religious Stoic 145 He furnish'd only to the other Prophets the nater and subject unphrased. 1891 Meredith One of our Conq. xxxiii, That was the thought, unrevolved, unphrased, but unconscious.

Unphy'sical, a. (Un-1 7.)

1593 Nashe Christ's T. V iij b, In another corner, enhabiteth a Phisition and a Coniurer, who..can coniure vp an vnphisical drabbe at all times. 1763 Museum Rust. I. 364 It will not contribute to the encrease..of the root, in the unphysical or over heavy manner in which I have seen it done. 1874 Tyndall Fragm. Sci. (1879) II. ix. 151 His notions of motion were entirely unphysical. 1885 Century Mag. XXIX. 953 Probably no unphysical argument addressed to genuine dynamiters would be likely to have any powerful effect.

So Unphy'sically adv.

1782 Eliz. Blower Gen. Bateman I. 230, I cannot believe you would act so unphysically as to walk out clad so loosely.

Unphy'sicked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1599 Sir T. More iii. ii. 253 This is one age for poets..; And, as great subjects of ther pen decay, Even so vnphisickt they doe melt away. 1641 Howell Poem Royal (1650) 8 Pale limbs, unphysick'd, health, due appetite, Which no sauce else but Hunger may excite. 1691 Dorset in Aubrey's Lett., etc. (1813) i. 20, I enjoy at present so firm and an unphysick'd health, that I hope to do somewhat before I die.

Unphylo'logical, a. (Un-1 7) [1775 Ash.] 1829 Agassiz Liss. Classification 288 An entirely unphysiological principle. 1898 P. Manson Trop. Diseases xii. 202 Impaired by disease, or by trying unphysiological conditions.

Unpi'ck, v. Also 4–5 -pike, -pyke. [Un-2 9.]

†1. trans. To pick (a lock); to undo (a door) in this way. Also fig. Obs.

1412 Langl. P. Pl. B. XIII. 368 Alle laste I saste it, Or pryuiliche his purse sloke, vnpiked his lokkes. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 347 Ek fulofte he goth a nyht..And with his craft the dore unpiketh. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 1103 (MS. Reg. 17, D v) r, He dremethe theves come in, And on his coffres knokke,..And dome of hem unpyke withe a soteile gyune. 1433 Lydg. St. Edmund iii. 1201 Another [thief] besy..To vnpyke lykys. a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Kent ii. (1662) 76 Cunning his hands, who could unpick the Cabinets in the Popes Conclave.

2. To undo the sewing of (a garment, etc.); to take out (stitches). Also in fig. context.

[1775 Ash.] 1809 Malkin Gil Blas x. x. P 14, I unpicked his pillow, where I found..fifty crowns. 1842 Mrs. Browning Grk. Chr. Poets iii. Wks. (1904) 612 Was it not enough.. that he was turned once, like her own cast imperial mantle, ..but that he must be unpicked again by Eudocia..? 1856 Miss Yonge Daisy Chain i. vii, Ethel sat down..and began to assist in unpicking the merino.

absol. 1890 N. & Q. 7 July 1/2 While we boys 'unpicked', the bigger girls would sew the patchwork covers.

Unpi'ckable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1612 Beaum. & Fl. Coxcomb ii. ii, Not a door open now, but double barr'd;..and their locks unpickable. 1862 Catal. Internat. Exhib. II. No. 4218 Two-soldered unpickable locks. 1869 Mrs. Whitney We Girls xii, She put her principles into her unpickable pocket.

Unpi'cked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not picked out or selected; not freed from what is of inferior quality.

1587 Fulbrynham Baldwin's Mor. Philos. To Rdr. (1600) B i b, Some curious or scornful person finding it vnpicked, emptie, barren of eloquence. 1641 Milton Prel. Episc. 3 Whatsoever time, or the heedlesse hand of blind chance, hath drawne down..in her huge dragnet, whether Fish, or Seaweed, Shells, or Shrubbs, unpick't, unchosen. 1765 Museum

Rust. IV. 384 A small sample of each kind of seed, certified ..to have been taken indifferently and unpicked out of the gross quantity gathered. 1830 M. Donovan Dom. Econ. I. 277 An inferior quality of wine will be afforded by unpicked clusters. 1889 in Moloney Forestry W. Africa 131 in a rough state unpicked, but simply roughly..sifted, it sells for £45 to £60 per ton.

2. Not gathered or culled.

1597 Shaks. 2 Hen. IV, II. iv. 397 Now comes in the sweetest Morself of the night, and wee must hence, and leaue it vnpickt. 1612 Parkes Curtain-Drawer 4 Then Tobacco was an Indian, vnpickt and vnpiped, now made the common luy-bush of luxury.

3. Not unfastened or opened; not rifled or robbed. Also in fig. context.

1598 Greene Jas. IV, I. ii, I cannot abide..a fat capon vncaru'd, a full purse vnpickt. a 1704 T. Brown Laconics Wks. 1711 IV. 2 How is it possible..for a Woman to keep her Cabinet unpick'd, when every Rascal has got a Key to 't?

† 4. Without incision. Obs.

1605 J. Mosan Wirsung's Gen. Pract. Phys. 420 Bathing in sweet water is very profitable. So are also boxing cups set vnpickt vpon the sides, whereby to extract all windiness.

Unpicket, v. (Un-¹ 3.) 1839 Alison Hist. Eur. VII. iii. 101 Before..the horses in many places [could be] unpicketted, the British dragoons were upon them. Unpicketed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1850 Tristram Gl. Sahara xvi. 270 A large courtyard, where picketed horses, unpicketed mules, ..jostled in hopeless confusion. Unpicketed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8) 1620 Venner Via Recta vii. 132 The pickles..Cucumbers preserued in a pickle..are much better then those that are eaten..vnpickled. 1757 W. Thompson R. N. Advoc. 9 Pickled, unpickled, and undrained Casks rolled away together.

Unpictorial, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1860 I. Taylor Spir. Heb. Poetry (1873) 80 Giving to the aerial aspect of Palestine that clear, sharp, and unpictorial visibility which is now its characteristic. 1884 Ath Cent. May 813 The idea..was the most unpictorial kind.

Hence Unpictorially adv.

a 1854 Hawthorne Amer. Note-bks. (1879) II. 168 He dresses very..unpictorially. 1887 Hissey Holiday on Road 308 Outlined unpictorially sharp against the sky.

Unpiturahl lity. (Un-¹ 22.) 1887 Duke of Argyll in Mem. (1906) II. 523 The multiplicity of motions..resulting, to my mind, in the same 'unpiturability'.

Unpicturable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.)

1789-91 Sir W. Hamilton Lect. (1859) I. xxxv. 312 Objects so different as the images of sense and the unpicturable notions of intelligence. 1888 J. Martineau Stud. Relig. II. 337 By a mixture of the two, an insertion of unpicturable power between the successive picturable things.

Unpictured, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1875 Browning Aristoph. Apol. 83 The hero of each painted monster—so Suggesting the unpictured perfect shape.

Unpicture·sque, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1791 W. Gilpin Forest Scenery I. 54 The walnut is not an unpicturesque tree. 1824 Craig Lect. Drawing, etc. v. 301 It might be supposed that stone lying in regular layers, would be unpicturesque. 1870 Lowell, Among my Bks. Ser. I. (1873) 229 Looked at on the outside, New England history is dry and unpicturesque.

Hence Unpicturesquely adv., -ness.

1840 Poe Domain Arnheim Wks. 1864 I. 394 Our disorder may seem order—our unpicturesqueness picturesque. 1876 'Annie Thomas' Blotted out viii, My hair has been unpicturesquely out of order.

Unpiced, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8, 3.) 1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 231 b/2 His vestmentes..the ware..so long that it was broken & unpeced.

Unpierceable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.)

1600 Fairfax Tasso xx. lxvi, Is he then vnpearceable..That neither force nor fire he needes regard? 1611 Cotgr., Impenetrable,..vnpierceable. 1801 Southey Thalaba II. viii, O'er the two remaining lives A cloud unpierceable had risen. 1849 Mangan Poems (1903) 76 Conal's unpierceable shirt of mail.

Unpierced, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1593 B. Barnes Poems (Grosart) 95 Thine hart of Adamant, which none can wound; Thine eye of Adamant, vnpierced found. 1609 Chapman Bussy d'Ambois v. ii, Counsels (as your entrails) Should be unpierc'd and sound kept. 1633 F. Fletcher Purple Isl. VI. xxix, Such is this famous Prince, such his unpierced beam. 1744 Thomson Autumn 882 Where, unpierc'd by Frost, the Cavern sweats. 1759 Phil. Trans. LI. 277 The leaves on each side of the foil were pierced, while the foil itself remained unpierced. 1862 Lytton Str. Story II. 192 My dark guess into the Shadowland unpierced by Philosophy. 1864 J. H. Foley in Willis & Clark Cambridge (1886) III. 223 An arch, unpierced,..making..a shallow recess.

Unpiercing, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 512 Our unpiercing optics reaching a very little way into the chain of events around us. Unpiety. Obs.—¹ [Un-¹ 12, 5 b.] Impiety. 1675 Baxter Cath. Theol. II. 192 Some [children] the Parents apostatizing educate in Heresie or unpiety themselves. Unpigmented, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1889 Lubbock Ling. Anal. Zool. XX. 124 It is, however, easy to imagine that in unpigmented animals, the light might act directly on the nervous system 1898 P. Manson Trop. Diseases ii. 49 The earlier unpigmented phase [of the malaria parasite]. † Unpiked, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-¹ 8: see Picked, ppl. a. 2.] Untrimmed. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 80 b, He brought them foorth vnkembed, and vnpiked..bare foote and bare-leggued.

Unpile, v. [Un-² 3, 5.] trans. To demolish (a pile or heap); to remove from a pile. Also absol.

1611 Cotgr., Desamasser, to vnheape, vnpile. 1792 Comm. Jrnl. XLVII. 363/1 The Expense of piling, unpiling, &c. &c. as is practised in His Majesty's Yards. 1847 Infantry Man. (1854) 27 Unpile Arms. At the word Unpile, the whole advance their right feet. 1871 Miss Yonge Cameos II. 282 The English began to unpile the fearful heaps of dead.

Unpilfered, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1844 Lowell Prometheus 298 That spirit which doth ever brood..on the unpilfered nest Of man's deep heart. Unpillaged, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1753 Glover Boadicia I. 1, Did not Prasutagus..On your insatiate emperor bestow Half of his rich possessions, vainly deeming, The rest might pass unpillaged to his children? Unpillared, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 and Un-² 8.) Not furnished with, deprived of, pillars. 1706 Watts Horæ Lyricæ I. 77 Thou bulky globe..That hangs unpillar'd in an empty space! 1728 Pope Dunciad, III. 107 See, the Cirque falls, th' unpillar'd Temple nods.

† Unpil·led, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [Un-¹ 8 + Pill v.[1]] 1. Unpeeled.

1538 Inv. W. Gebon of Sutterton, Linc. (MS.), Hempe vnpilled and flaxe vnswyngled. 1562 Phaer Æneid C c iv, An vnshapen bunchy speare with barke unpilde. 1639 T. de Gray Expert Farrier 232 Beate the garlicke unpilled in a stone morter.

2. Not robbed or plundered.

1597 Dee General & Rare Mem. 4 Their Marchantlike Ships ..may, in our Seas.., pas quietly vnpilled, vnspoyled, and vntaken by Pyrates. 1580 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 308 The remanent guidis..left unpilleit within the samin schip.

Unpilled, ppl. a.[2] (Un-¹ 8 + Pill v.[2]) 1791 Hobbes Suiuas. 140 No Doctor feed, no regimen advised, Unpill'd, unpoultic'd, unphlebotomiz'd!

Unpillowed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1634 Milton Comus 555 Perhaps..'gainst the rugged bark of some broad Elm [she] Leans her unpillow'd head. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. xii. lxxii, We there, on grassy tufted tapestries..Leaning unpillow'd heads, view Nature's ants and bees. 1858 Geo. Eliot Span. Gipsy 177 In carved dark-colored hair, unpillowed, sleeps..a small man.

Unpilloried, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1794 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 122 Launching our frail and unpilloted bark on a rough sea of anxieties. 1820 Shelley Witch Atl. lxiii, We, the weak mariners of that wide lake, Our course unpilloted and starless make O'er its wide surface. 1853 C. Bronte Villette xxxv, You see me void of affection and religion,..unpiloted by principle or faith.

Unpin, v. [Un-² 3, 4.]

1. trans. To withdraw the pin or bolt of (a door); to unbolt.

c 3. Cœur de L. 4212 On schal dwelle the clos withinne, The gate to unschente and unpynne, And sylyly to unschette the lok. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xi. 108 Þe porter vnpynned þe gate. Ibid. xx. 328. c 1400 Beryn 484 'Away, dogg, with evil deth,' quod he, þat was within, And made hym al redy, the dore to vnpyn.. c 1547 Surrey Æneid II. 328 Sinon ..Let fourth the Grekes enclosed in the womb, The closures eke of pine by stealth vnpind. 1596 Drayton Legends iv. 82 Peace, the good Porter, readie still at hand It doth unpin, 1753 Richardson Cl. Faithless xxxiv, I'le quake..unpinned the other coach-door!..and trundled himself into the mand. 1826 Scott Woodst. xiii, Joan unpinned the door, to demand who was without.

absol. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xviii. 261 Prynces of þis place, vnpynneth & vnlouketh!

2. To remove pins or pegs from; to unfasten or detach in this way. Also fig.

1611 Cotgr., Declaveter, to vnboult, vnpinne, vnpeg; loose from. 1633 G. Herbert Temple, Constancie i, Whom neither force nor fawning can Unpin, or wrench from giving all their due. 1673 R. Head Canting Acad. 76 Unpinning a wheel [he] took it off. a 1699 J. Beaumont Psyche xvi. xvii, Unclasp my Joints; unlace my nerves; and try My finest tendrest membranes to unpin. 1901 Warwick Mem. Reign Chas. I, 6 They have in a great measure unpinned the firmness of the government. 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 500 When the upper part of the frame..is unpinned and removed.

transf. 1674 Grew Anat. Plants (1682) 228 [The atoms of] any fixed unodorable, or untastable Body..being not able to make any Smell or Taste, unless they were first dissolved; that is to say, unpin'd one from another.

3. To undo the dress of (a woman) by the removal of pins. Also absol.

1604 Shaks. Oth. IV. iii. 35 Æmilia. Shall I go fetch your Night-gowne? Desdemona. No, vn-pin me here. c 1680 Roxb. Ball. (1891) VII. 459 Prithee begin; don't delay, but unpin. 1755 Fielding Tom Jones xviii, iii, Mrs. Bridget, who had the honour to pin and unpin the Lady Bellaston. 1815 Hist. J. Decastro III. 331 Come and unpin me, O my dearest husband!

fig. 1641 Milton Animadv. 9 The peremptory Analysis.. will be so hardy as once more to unpinne your spruce fastidious oratory, to rumple her laces [etc.].

4. To remove a pin or pins from (an article of dress, etc.); to detach by removing or releasing a pin or pins. Also in fig. context.

1605 Eromdelle Fr. Gard. O 8 b, Go to, take of my cloathes vnpine that, vntie this, vnlace that. 1630 Gravin God's Tribunall 33 A day..when all masks shall be vnpinned, and all disguises taken off. 1662 Gurnall Chr. in Arm. III. xxx 256 Unpinne this story, take off that gaudy phrase, and nothing is left in the discourse. 1709 Steele Tatler No. 36 P 3 She..began to unpin her hood. 1740 Richardson Pamela II. 21 He began to unpin my Handkerchief. 1769 Lady Mary Coke Jrnl. 8 Feb. (1892) III. 29 My Maids had pin'd up the train of my Sack to my back, and had forgot to unpin it. 1849 C. Bronte Shirley xxv, Who gave you this little brooch? Let me unpin it and look at it. 1860 Emily Eden Semi-attached Couple vi, Sarah unpinned a gigantic bunch of camellias. 1887 Fenn Master of Ceremn. i, Unpinning a piece of paper that guarded the gay silks and wools

b. intr. To become unpinned.

1716 Lady Montagu Town Eccl., Tuesday 74 Reaching the kettle made her gown unpin.

Unpinched, ppl.a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1648 Hexham, Onverseghen, ..vnpinched. 1854 Mrs. Carlyle in Froude Life in London (1884) II. 164 Habits of unpinched housekeeping. Unpindarical, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1729 Young Merchant Pref., Nothing is so unpindarical as following Pindar on the foot.

† Unpinned, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-¹ 8.] Unpained; unpunished.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 69 Þenche we ure gilteс er þe dom cume,..þat god ne finde þanne on us no gilt unpined. c 1200 Ormin 1367 Cristess Godcuundnesse wass All cwicc & all unpinned. c 1290 St. Edmund Conf. 184 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 436 Ne nolde þat no lime un-pined scholde beo.

Unpinion, v. [Un-² 4.] trans. To deprive of pinions. 1593 Nashe Christ's T. G j, My wings her..disobedience hath now cleane vnpinioned and broken. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 170 The Soul..is not only broken and wounded in her Wings, but utterly unpinioned, she has dropt her Feathers. Unpinioned, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) Not furnished with pinions. 1615 Brathwait Strappado (1878) 26 Vnpinion'd Muses (such as here could flie) Further than vnplum'd birds now presse as high As Eagles.

Unpinioned, ppl. a.[2] (Un-¹ 8.)

1. Not having the pinions cut.

1622 F. Markham Bk. War v. x. 199 His power must be ..vnrestrained, that flying with vnpinion'd wings it may seeme to be hid within the Skie of the greatest Actions.

2. Not bound or tied.

1775 Adair Amer. Ind. 394 When they were taking him unpinioned..to the place of torture.

Unpinked, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1596 Shaks. Tam. Shr. IV. i. 136 Gabrels pumpes were all vnpinkt i' th heele.

Unpinned, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] Not fastened with a pin or pins.

1390 Gower Conf. I. 293 He berth eveře his mowth unpinned, So that his lippes ben unloke. 1568 Depositions xvi, 12 May (MS. Cant. Cath. Lib.), The said wif with her peticote vnpynned. 1625 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion vi. 18 Her waiting Gentlewoman had..her Gorget unpinned.

Unpi·ned, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) Not put into a pipe. 1612 [see Unpiped ppl. a. 2] Unpi·rated, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1840 De Quincey Spl. v. 1. (1860) 194 We have lying before us..the unpirated edition of Hartknoch. Unpi·tched, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) Not smeared or dirtied with pitch. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Travels 105 In this Riuer are some long, deepe prams, sowed together with hemps and cord (but vnpitcht or calkt). 1648 Hexham II, Onbepecht, Vnpitcht, or Vndefiled with pitch.

† Unpi·teous, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 8, 5 b.]

1. Impious, wicked. Also absol.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. I. met. i. (1868) 4 But now..myn vnpitouse [Camb. MS. vnpiteous] lif [L. impia vita] drawe þ aloug vnagreable dwellynges in me. 1382 Wyclif Prov. xxviii. 2 The vnpitouse [L. impiis] fleeth, no man pursuende. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 61 Se schal not..tak to hond to sey fals witnes for þe vnpitous.

2. Pitiless, unmerciful.

1390 Gower Conf. III. 206 As the rages of the See Ben unpitous in the tempeste. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 2371 It is ful hard To lakke mercy and ben vnpitous. 1447 Bokenham Seyntys (Roxb.) 15 Have mercy lord jhesu up on me And lese not my soule with unpeious men. a 1586 Sidney Ps. (1823) xl. vi, Lett them with shame be cloied,.. Who so unpitious be. 1612 T. James Corrupt. Scripk. III. 8 Whilst the vnpitious man defoulteth a righteouſ man himselfe. 1725 Pope Odyss. xx. 253 The tyrant, not the father of the skies! Unpiteous of the race thy will began.

Unpi·teously, adv. [Un-¹ 11.]

† 1. Impiously, wickedly. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Prov. xii. 2 Who forsothe trostith in his thoýts, vnpitouslyl [L. impie] doth. — 2 Pet. ii. 6 Puttinge ensaumple of hem that weren to doynge yuel, or vnpitously.

2. Pitilessly; unmercifully.

1390 Gower Conf. (1901) II. 470 He yit neuere unpitously Ayein the ligge of his loue.. Thingaunce crueltie soghte. 1500 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) II. xvii. 130 Ye darre yt the deuyll casteth subtyly, & ryght unpytuously. 1513 Bradshaw St. Werburge 1. 3405 Whiche danes..Punyshed vnpitiously all this reigne With a wonfull plage of great crudeltie. a 1856 Sir W. Hamilton (Imp. Dict.), Oxford..so unpiteously cramming her alumni with the shells alone.

† Unpi·teousness. Obs. [Un-¹ 12.]

1. Impiety, wickedness.

1382 Wyclif Lev. xix. 7 If eny..etith of it, he shal be cursid, and gilti of vnpitownesse [L. impietatis]. — Ps. v. 11 After the multitude of the vnpitousnesis [v.r. vnpiteuousnesis; L. impietatum] of hem, put hem awei.

2. Pitilessness; unmercifulness.

c 1384 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 474 Lesus Crist dampne þowe for traytouris and monquelleris for þoure unpityousnes. 1447 Bokenham Seyntys (Roxb.) 108 O unpetousnesse, o unryhtful Domys, and o pervers entent.

So † Unpiteousty, impiety. Obs.—¹

1382 Wyclif Eccles. xlvi. 23 He..enunciede his vois..to don awey the vnpitouste [L. impietatem] of the folc.

Unpitiable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.)

1646 Dr. Hall Devout Soul xii. 42 The unpitiable, interminable, unmitigable tortures of those..never-dying souls. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) VII. 34 Such as sad accident, or unpitiable presumption, threw in their way. 1844 in Life A. Foisbianque (1874) 259 An elderly gentleman with the military mania is as unpitiable a case as any of the same years in the measles. 1873 Geo. Eliot in Cross Life (1885) III. 193, I..am at that unpitiable stage of illness which is counterbalanced by extra petting.

Unpitiably, adv. (Un-¹ 11, 5 b.) 1821 Scott Le Sage Biogr. Mem. (1834) I. 419 Carambola is employed in reading to slumber the Member of the Council.., who unpitiably awakens at every instant when his reader stops.

Unpi·ted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xxix, With unpityed teares idly protesting, he had rather die. 1601 2nd Pt. Ret. fr. Parnass. Prol. 85 To you we seeke to shewe a schollers state, His scorned fortunes, his vnpitied fate. 1692 G. Stanhope in Dryden's Juvenal VIII. (1697) 197 Think what Rewards upon the Good attend, And how those fall unpitied who offend. 1735 Berkeley Querist § 335 Whether there be a more wretched, and..a more unpitied case, than for men to make precedents for their own undoing? 1781 Cowper Retirem. 512 The unpitied victim of ill-judg'd expence. 1819 Crabbe T. of Hall XII. 505 While all beheld her just, unpitied pain, Grown in neglect! 1891 Farrar Darkness & Dawn xxxi, A herd of wretches clothed in rags, ill-fed, untended, unpitied.

So Unpitiedly adv.

1628 Feltham Resolves II. 296, I beg no more, then may keepe mee vncontemnedly, and vnpittiedly-honest.

Unpi·tiful, a. [Un-1 7.] Pitiless.
c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. vi. 516 Vnpiteful qwestmongers and forswoorn iurees. c 1450 Barclay Ship. Gd. Manners (1570) D. vj, Vnpitifull art thou and cruell tormentour Which thine owne proper minde thus drowneest in errour. a 1563 Bale in Marbeck Bk. of Notes (1581) 75 The vnpitifull murderers are also the same bloudthirstie Prelates. 1651 tr. De-las-Cenerus' Don Fenise iv. 77 The vnpitifull hardnesse of these rockes where I was abandoned. 1698-9 Burton's Diary (1828) III. 479 Where they have power, they are the unpitifullest people in the world.

Unpi·tifully, adv. [Un-1 11.] Pitilessly.
1598 Shaks. Merry W. iv. ii. 215 He beate him most vnpitifully, me thought. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1720) III. 217 Never were Barbarian Pirates..so unpittifully insulted.

Unpi·tifulness. [Un-1 12.] Absence of pity.
1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 90 b. Periury, vnquyetnes, obduracion or vnpitefulnes. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xviii, The unpitifulness of his owne neere-threatning death. 1679 G. R. tr. Bergerac's Trad. Worlds ii. 32 [The] unpitifulness of one violent Creature against another.

Unpitous, -ness, -ty: see Unpitrous a., etc.

† Unpi·ty. Obs. [Un-1 12.]
1. Impiety, wickedness.
a 1340 Hampole Psalter lxxii. 6 Hilde þai er in wickidnes & in paire inpite [var. vnpete]. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 62 Wam þu fynd wickid þu schall condempne of vnpite.
2. Lack of pity.
1447 Bokenham Seyntys (Roxb.) 72 O cruel tyrannth ful of unpyte. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) i. cxliv. 155/2 Of leesynges, of coueitise,..of unpyte, of euyll mynde. 1653 H. Whistler Epistle Inf. Baptisme Pref., For preservation of, Freedom of holy Right herein, against Advances of Opposit unpity.

Unpi·tying, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1605 Drayton Heroical Eps., Matilda to K. John 12 As though thy hard unpitying hand had sent me Some new deuised torture to torment me. 1646 Crashaw Carmen Deo Nostro, Weepe xxvii, So sigh tormented sweets, oppress'd With proud unpitying fires. 1777 Potter Æschylus, Prom. Bd. 10 Yet unpitying My ruder and unpitying ruthlessness. 1796 Mrs. M. Robinson Angelina i. 59 Instances.. where the purest sentiments have been contaminated..by unpitying and unpitying parents! 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. i. 25 The proud, haughty, unpitying expression to be read there. 1870 T. Eastwood Hist. Bifford i. vi. 73 All these evils fall with an unpitying hand on the devoted heads of their correspondents.

Unpi·tyingly, adv. (Un-1 11.)
1741 Richardson Pamela IV. 229 [She] listens eagerly to Stories told to the Disadvantage of Individuals of her own Sex: Will unpityingly propagate such Stories. 1817 Lady Morgan France i. (1818) I. 9 The smallest infringement of the dreadful code was unpityingly punished. 1895 Forum (U.S.) Oct. 210 The effects..would operate in a socialistic state even more rigidly, more unpityingly and more openly than they do now.

† Unpi·zzled, a. Obs. rare. (Un-2 5.)
1592 Lyndsay Satyre 1056 Bot thay, lyke rams, sudlie in thair rage, Vnpyszalt, rinnis amang the sillie sowis. 1552 — Monarche 4707.

† Unpla·cable, a. Obs. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)
1553 Bale Vocacyon 48 b, A perpetuall and vnplacable enemye. 1594 † Greene Selimus Prologue 10 You shall behold him character in blood The image of an unplacable King. a 1619 Fotherby Atheom. i. xiii. § 3 (1622) 141 An vnplacable hatred. 1676 Br. N. French Unkinde Deserter Pref., A hard-hearted man, and our implacable enemy.

Unpla·ce, v. Now rare. (Un-2 5.] trans. To displace. Hence Unpla·cing vbl. sb.
1554 in Gairdner Hist. Eng. Ch. 16th c. (1903) xvii. 240 The unplacing of so many godly laws set forth touching the true religion of Christ. 1597 Breton Arb. Amorous Deuices Wks. (Grosart) I. 5/2 If God pose shalbe vnplac'd. 1623 Cockeram, Dislocate, to vnplace. 1876 R. A. Arnold in Contemp. Rev. June 31 No writhing..can unplace them.

Unpla·ced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1. Not assigned to, or set in, a definite place.
1512 Northumbld. Househ. Bk. (1770) 423 The Steward and Chaplaine must sit down in the Hall, and call unto them the Gentlemen if there be any unplaced above. 1591 Sylvester Du Bartas i. i. 529 Th' unplac'd Climates of that deep disorder. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. i. 77 Augustus gift unplaced lay, none would it undertake. 1849 G. R. Gliddon Otia Ægyptiaca 39 My own List of Unplaced Kings..who preceded the xviith. Dynasty. 1861 Hulme tr. Maguin-Tandon i. v. 34 Languages either unplaced or Indo-European (so called).
b. Racing. (See Place v. 5 d.)
1881 Racing Analysis I. 366 Aeronaut..also ran unplaced at 135 and 196. 1883 Sat. Rev. 24 Nov. 665/2 Last year..Hackness started first favourite for the Liverpool Cup, and was unplaced.
2. Not appointed to a place or office.
1598 in Strype Ann. Ref. (1709) I. App. iv. 4 All such as governed..and now remain unplaced and uncalled to Credit. 1575 Gascoigne Glasse of Gouernment i. ii, It is not like that he should have returned from thence unplaced. 1732, 1771 [see Unpensioned]. 1823 J. Wilson Mary, Lyndsay xiii. 345 Young preachers, yet unplaced. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. ii. 1. 241 The other fifteen were to be unplaced nobilmen and gentlemen of ample fortune.

Unpla·cid, a. (Un-1 7.) 1848 J. H. Newman Loss & Gain iii. vii. 335 His face had that worn, or, rather, unplacid appearance, which [etc.].

Unpla·gued, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1550 Crowley Last Trumpet 50 Then thincke Godsmartyres could not leaue These] unplaged. 1560 Becon New Catech. Wks. 136/1 I. 542 He shal not escape vnplaged, neither in this world nor in the world to come. 1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. v. iv 19 Ladies that have their toes Vnplag'd with Cornes. 1833 De Quincey Rev. Greece Wks. 1889 XI. 143 The inestimable advantage of being unplagued with a Turkish population.

Unpla·in, a. (Un-1 7.)
1390 Gower Conf. I. 77 Who that is to trowthe unplein. 1500 Dunbar Poems lxvi. 11 The figurit speiche, with facetis tua, The pleasand toungis, with hartis unplane. c 1530 L. Cox Rhet. (1899) 86 It was a great folye to put in the wordes which made a playne matter to be vnplaine. 1538 Elyot, Sachrouses, vnplayne, where a manne can not goo, excepte he do leape.
Hence Unpla·inness.
1619 Sir J. Semple Sacrilege Handled 56 Paul then is wrong quarrelled for his vnplainenesse.

Unplain, a. (Un-2 3). 1611 Florio, Displanato, to vnplaine. 1638 N. Whiting Albino & Bellama 720 Though enildoms court her, her disdains Nonsuits their service, and her brow unplains. † Unplained, ppl. a.[1] Obs. rare. (Un-1 8-9 Plain 8.) Unlamented. 1591 Spenser Daphn. 79 That thou are bent To die alone, vnpitied, vnplained.

Unplained, ppl. a.[2] (Un-1 8; cf. Plain a.[1]) Not made plain. 1598 Barret Theor. Warres iv. i. 58 They will breake out disarray,—when they come to any straight or vnplained way.

Unplai·t, v. (Un-2 3.)
c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. ii. pr. viii. (1868) 61 It is a wondyr þat I desyre to telle, and forthi vnnethe may I vnpleyten [L. explicare] my sentence with wordes. c 1586 Cypas Pembroke Ps. civ. vii, Oile, whose juyce unplaites the folded brow. 1638 N. Whiting Albino & B. 76 Dull-aged Saturne..his waightie head did bow, And with a smile unplaited every fold. 1866 Gentl. Mag. Oct. 487 She unplaited her hair and threw it back..over her shoulders. 1867 Miss Bowden Fathers of Desert 160 Paul unplaited all the fifteen ells, and then plaited them together again.
Hence Unplai·ting vbl. sb.
1611 Cotgr., Duplissure, an vnfolding, vnplaiting. 1902 Barnes Grundy Thames Camp iv, This seemed a sensible idea, but why the unplaiting of her hair?

Unplai·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1639 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida iv. t. 229 Where her richest ornament (Although with art unpleited) Nature in A lovely landscape wore. 1702 Addison Dial. Medals ii. (1726) 36 Rude from her forehead fell th' unplaited hair. 1877 De Cosson Cradle of Blue Nile II. 73 Their hair, which they wear unplaited, is short and woolly.

Unplan, v. (Un-2 3.) 1629 Burton Hist. Music II. 490 The drama,..first planned, and partly written, by..Dr. Kenrick, and then..un-planned, and re-written, by Kolt.

Unpla·ned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1810 Crabbe Borough xviii. 362 That floor, once oak, now pieced with fir unplaned. 1879 Miss Bird Rocky Mounts. 43 Two unplaned wooden shelves.

Unpla·nished, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing ii. ¶ 2 Brass well Planish't will be stiffer.. at half the thickness than unplanish't Brass will at the whole.

Unpla·nk, v. (Un-2 4.)
1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes iii. xii. 74 Having no notice the place was unplank and laid open. c 1660 J. Gwynne Milit. Mem. (1822) 33 One man might..cut down an arch of the bridge, or unplank it, and so make it inaccessible. 1834 J. S. Macaulay Field Fortif. 246 While the repair of the third bay was in progress, the remaining bay was partly unplanked.

Unpla·nked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1648 Hexham II, Ongeborderd, vnboarded, or vnplanckt. 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! xx, The upper-deck beams were left open and unplanked.

Unpla·nt, v. (Un-2 3, 4. Cf. Du. ontplanten.) 1569 Hawkins 3rd Voy. (1878) 77 The vice Roy..sent.. commaundement to vnplant all things suspicious. 1575 Vernon's Dict. Lat.-Eng. (1584), Explanto, to vnplant, or pull vp. 1624 Capt. Smith Virginia iv. 163 Being enioyned by our Commission not to vnplant nor wrong the Saluages. a 1658 Lovelace Poems (1904) 155 He..Vnplanted had this Plantane plant.

Unpla·ntable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1683 Pres. St. Jamaica 2 It's imagined, if this Island were divided into eight parts,.. [three parts are] Barren or unplantable. 1788 Clarkson Impol. Slave Trade 110 The rocky, unplantable parts.

Unpla·nted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. ON. óplantaðr.]
1. Not set in the ground; growing without having been planted. Also fig.
In first quot. rendering L. implantatus*, a misreading of implanatus 'deceived'.
1382 Wyclif Eccles. xxxiv. 11 Who is vnplantid, shal abound shrewdenesse. 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme 735 No more..can the wine well..endure after it is cut to be long kept vnplanted. 1639 Waller Battle Summer Isl. i. 5 Figs there unplanted through the fields do grow. a 1750 A. Hill Hesiod (1822) 3 Unplanted grove rise round his shelter'd seat.
2. a. Of countries, etc.: Not occupied or colonized; not developed by cultivation.
1612 Capt. Smith Proc. Virginia 104 But God that would not it [sc. Virginia] should bee unplanted, sent Sir Thomas Gates..to preserue us. 1660 F. Brooke tr. Le Blanc's Trans. 254 The country remaining unplanted by any forainers. 1719 De Foe Crusoe ii. (Globe) 436 To be lock'd up in an unplanted Island. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. iv. 572 The future sires of our unplanted states.
b. Of ground: Not set with plants. Also fig.
To 1800 Hist. Nat. Rev. (1650) XIX. 298, I..left for thee my downy bed, Unplanted yet with thorns. 1805 Monthly Mag. XX. 110 [Land] unsown, unplanted, untilled.
3. Not put in position.
1613 G. Sandys Trans. 38 At the East end..lies a number of great Ordnance vnplanted.
4. Sc. Not provided with a minister.
a 1651 Calderwood Hist. Kirk (1843) II. 186 It was ordeaned..that Mr. George Hay..preache in the unplanted kirke of Carrick.

Unpla·nt-like, a. (Un-1 7 c.) 1837 Edinburgh Bot. Register XXIII. pl. 1942 That there must be something of an animal nature infused into this most unplant-like production. Unpla·ster, v. (Un-2 3.) 1598 Florio, Sgommare, to vnpaint, or vnplaster. 1671 Trechsirlid Cap. Grey Hairs (1688) 58 As if you had undertaken the publick unplastering of a painted Face.

Unpla·stered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1648 Hexham II, Ongemortert, Vnplastered. 1669 Woodhead St. Teresa ii. viii. 77 The Portall..being ill floored, and the Walls unplastered. 1804 Southey Let. to Coleridge 11 June, And so unplastered it [sc. a room] is likely to remain another winter. 1886 W J. Tucker E. Europe 411 Its dark-grey unplastered walls.

Unpla·stic, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1787 Generous Attachment IV. 231 Those [articles] which the stubborn Mr. Archer..endeavoured to hammer out of the unplastic disposition of the relentless Sir James. 1883 C. C. Perkins Italian Sculpture iii. i. 244 Statues of Apollo, Mercury, Minerva and Peace.. thoroughly unplastic in action and conception. 1894 Illustr. Lond. News 24 Mar. 364/3 The idea of harsh unplastic feeling. Unpla·t, v. (Un-2 3.) 1591 Percivall Sp. Dict., Destrauar, to vnplat, to vndoo. 1607 Markham Cavel. vi. vi. 36 Then you shall vnplat both his maine and taile. Unplato·nically, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1668 H. More Div. Dial. i. 288 [Hat also, O Sophron, is very perversly and unPlatonically done of Cuphophron. † Unplau·sable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b. Cf. next.] Unpraiseworthy. 1670 G. H. Hist. Cardinals iii. iii. 326 No body will rob himself..of his hopes ..for an unplausable person.

Unplau·sible, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)
1575 Fenton Gold. Epist. (1582) 232 It shall not be..the more vnplausible to the reader. 1604 Bacon Apol. Wks. 1879 I. 236 This proceeding..was a thing towards the people very unplausible. a 1677 Barrow Serm. Wks. 1687 III. xiv. 531 We never..should..embrace his institution, consisting of such unplausible Propositions, and precepts. 1757 Hume Hist. Eng. II. 198 He must have had some reasons, and perhaps not unplausible ones, for this affirmation. 1860 Mill Lett. (1910) I. 236 Nothing can be at first sight more entirely unplausible than his theory. 1891 F. W. Newman Early Hist. Coll. Newman 47 Your assumption is to me arbitrary and unplausible.

Unplau·sibly, adv. (Un-1 11, 5 b. Cf. prec.)
1733 W. Crawford Infidelity (1836) 217 Some may allege, and not unplausibly, that [etc.]. 1795 Burke Regic. Peace iv. Wks. IX. 56 Men would reason not unplausibly, that it would be better [etc.]. 1820 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 238 Others, again, and not unplausibly, contend [etc.]. 1860 M. Hopkins Hawaii 85 Cook's two ships..appeared to them, not unplausibly, islands, the masts being trees.

Unplau·sive, a. Obs. (Un-1 7.) 1666 Sharke Tr. & Cr. iii. iii. 43 'Tis like heele question me, Why such vnplausive eyes are bent? why turn'd on him?

Unplay·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.] Incapable of being played.
1833 Lytton Godolphin xxxv, Having an unplayable hand and a bad partner. 1839 Dublin Univ. Magazine Pl's Wks. p. xxvii, These..form the real attraction of their 'plays,' altogether unplayable now. 1881 Sat. Rev. 2 July 14/2 The two slow bowlers seemed quite unplayable. 1884 Lillywhite's Cricket Comp. 39 The wicket was unplayable. 1902 Cornish Naturalist Thames 33 After that, I must trust to the strength of the gut, for the fish would be unplayable.

Unplay·ed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1850 Bohn Hand-bk. of Games (1867) 161 The highest card unplayed of a suit. 1892 Pall Mall Mag. Otto's Violin iv. 47 note, An unplayed violin does not improve.

Unplea·dable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)
† 1. Improper for legal pleadings. Obs.—1
1569 J. Sanford tr. Agrippa's Van. Artes 85 b, The yeere diuided in xii monethes with the vartetie of pleadable and unpleadable dayes.
2. Incapable of being pleaded or urged.
a 1716 South Serm. (1744) VII. 202 All ignorance, that is merely negative.., is utterly inconsistent with [this], and makes [it] absolutely unpleadable. 1869 Bloomfield Ring & Bk. iv. 1443 A flight..unpleadable in court!

Unplea·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1682 Otway Venice Preserved iv. 55 Doom'd to die! condemn'd unheard! unpleaded!

Unplea·sable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. iv. xx. 170 Let parentes shew themselves so hard and vnpleasable to their children,.. that [etc.]. 1604 T. Wright Passions i. viii. 31 To pleasure the unpleasable appetites, and lusts of the flesh. 1786 Burgoyne Heiress ii. ii, What a change have I made to please my unpleasable daughter!

Unplea·sant, a. (Un-1 7.]
1. Not pleasant, displeasing: a. To the senses.
1538 Elyot, Rancidus,..vsuasiery, or vnpleasant. 1551 Turner Herbal i. 109 The colour is vnpleasanter and blacker. 1595 Gascoigne Making of Verse § 5 Wordes of many syllables do cloye a verse and make it unpleasant. 1588 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. iii. i. 69 b, An euill fauoured and vnpleasant harmonie. 1611 Florio, Inameno, vnpleasant to the view. 1667 Dryden Drama. Poesy Ess. (ed. Ker) I. 69 Does not the eye pass from an unpleasant object to a pleasant in a much shorter time than is required to this? 1725 De Foe Voy. round World (1840) 253 Innumerable rills..falling from the cliffs, making a barbarous and unpleasant sound. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 223 The aspect of Mrs. Mittin..was..unpleasant to him. 1879 Lubbock Sci. Lect. ii. 32 Flies prefer unpleasant smells, such as those of decaying meat. 1892 Photogr. Ann. II. 103 A dilute solution..changes the colour of the image to a not unpleasant brown.
Comb. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey II. 109 A most unpleasant-looking piece of water, marshy and full of reeds.
b. To the mind or feelings.
1535 Coverdale Eccles. xxii. 6 Euen so is the..doctryne of wyszdome euer vnpleasaunt vnto fooles. a 1568 Ascham Scholem. ii. (Arb.) 132 Precepies in all Authors..without applying vnto them the Imitation of examples, be..barrayn, vnfruitfull and vnpleasant. 1598 Shaks. Merch. V. iii. ii. 254 The vnpleasant'st words That ever blotted paper. a 1679 Hobbes Rhet. i. xi. (1681) 28 Unpleasant are those things, which proceed from Necessity, as Cares, Studys, Contentions. c 1750 Mrs. Tullibardine in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 126 Tho' your Majesty permits me to wryte even on ane unpleasant subject. 1762 Goldsm. Nosh 200 Time a man of pleasure feels the most unpleasant life in the world. 1839 Thirlwall Greece III. xxvi. 419 To execute a commission which would have required them to deliver many unpleasant truths. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) I. 466 All of us ..had an unpleasant feeling at hearing them say this.

2. Unentertaining, unfacetious.

1712 Spect. No. 408 ¶ 4 It would be no unpleasant Notion, to consider the several Species of Brutes, into which we may imagine that Tyrants might be changed. 1768 Junius Lett. (1850) II. 220 In his assertions, there is something really not unpleasant. ..It puts me in mind of the consulship which Caligula intended for his horse.

3. Unamiable.

1654 [see Unpleasing ppl. a. b].

Hence Unplea·santish a.

1827 Hood Parthian Glance 28, I can't but..pronounce 'Heads or tails' with a child, an unpleasantish game. 1844 — Etching Moralized 229 'Tis a rather unpleasantish job.

Unplea·santly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. 34 Let him, that hath, gyue hym some thyng, not lourynglyand vnpleasantly, ..but euen as one that reketh al he hath commen. 1551 Br. Gardiner Explic., Christes Presence 70 b, If flesshe did appeare, we should be vnpleasantly disposed to the communion of it. 1697 Garth Anat. Peristis v. 56 A White Corin, without taking off the Skin, sheweth not unpleasantly how the Seeds are fastned. 1718 Digby in Pope Wks. (1751) VIII. 34 We don't live unpleasantly in primitive simplicity and good-humour. 1818 Byron Juan v. cxxx, You've pass'd your youth not so unpleasantly. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. iv, The lane was becoming unpleasantly slippery.

Comb. 1804 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Gt. Cry To Pitt, Machinery which has contracted a most unpleasantly-looking rust.

Unplea·santness. [Un-[1] 12.] The quality of being unpleasant. (Also with a and pl.)

1548 Elyot, Inincumditas, vnpleasantnesse. 1594 O. B. Quest. Profit. Concern. K 3 b, I stand in very little neede..to haue these vnpleasantnesses renued or made lasting vnto me. 1596 Barrough Meth. Physick VIII. 461 So great inconuenience and vnpleasantnesse of taste. 1601 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 1156 The Mathematical rudiments which children be taught, at the beginning trouble them..; but this unpleasantnesse continueth not alwaies with them. 1636 J. Swan Spec. M. vi. § 3 (1643) 201 Sea-water, by passing through divers windings..of the earth, is deprived of all unpleasantnesse. a 1665 Goodwin Filled with the Spirit (1670) 394 Which would occasion a great disparagement and unpleasantness in the World. 1808 L. Murray Engl. Gram. I. 455 Here there is some degree of harshness and unpleasantness [in the rhythm]. 1830 Wordsw. in C. Wordsw. Mem. (1851) II. 226 Another unpleasantness arose from the same cause. 1852 Dickens Bleak Ho. xlvi, I have made some advances out of pocket to accommodate these unpleasantnesses.

Unplea·santry. [Un-[1] 12.] Unpleasantness.

1830 'Jon Bee' in Hoc. S. Foote IV. p. xlii, It would have been well..if this were all the unpleasantry to which he subjected himself. 1844 Alr. Smith Adv. Mr. Ledbury xvi, Had he allowed himself to be depressed by every unpleasantry, he would have had a sad time of it. 1847 De Quincey in Tait's Mag. XIV. 520 Without any 'unpleasantries' occurring. Ibid. Note, 'Unpleasantries'..is a new word, launched a very few years back in some commercial towns. 1883 Burton & Cameron Gold Coast I. i. 16 A very low barometer, which suggested unpleasantries.

Unplea·sed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not pleased; displeased. Now rare.

c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. xxv. 96 As ofte tymes as I fele me unpleisid & greved. 1520 Caxton Chron. Eng. IV. 33/1 It was no merueyle all though he were vnpleased. 1593 Shaks. Rich. II, III. iii. 193 Me rather had, my Heart might feele your Loue, Then my vnpleas'd Eye see your Courtesie. 1613 Chapman Rev. Busny d'Ambois III. F 3 b, Hee that vnpleas'd to hold his place, will place. 1692 Washington tr. Milton's Def. Pop. ii. Wks. 1851 VIII. 65 God, was extreamly unpleas'd with them for asking a King. 1733 Henvey Mem. Geo. (1848) I. 198 A sort of unpleased smile. 1762 Cowper Mtns Mazeppa 64 The phlegm of sullen elves, Who, Extend no care beyond themselves, Unpleasing and unpleas'd. 1831 Wordsw. Avon 14 Never..may the good Shrink from thy name, pure Rill, with unpleased ears. 1901 Christ Church Monument 204 Glances of frank admiration which Lou looked not unpleased to see.

†2. Unpaid. Obs.[-1]

1604 Middleton Father Hubbard's T. F 3, I am not worth ..three farthings: beside my Lodging vnpleasde.

Unplea·sing, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10, 5 b.] Not pleasing; displeasing, unpleasant: a. To the senses.

c 1480 Henryson Test. Cres. 338, I mak Thy voice sa cleir, vnpleasand, hoir, and hace. 1595 Shaks. John III. i. 49 If thou.. wert grim, Vgly,.. Full of vnpleasing blots and sightlesse staines. 1617 Woodall Surg. Maite (1639) 344 It hath an unpleasing taste. 1670 Baxter Cure Church-Div. 169 Some of them will not take such unpleasing medicines. 1770 Sir J. Reynolds Disc. iii. (1778) 83 [Such] a figure..may still have a certain union of the various parts, which may contribute to make them on the whole, not unpleasing. 1797 Dallaway Constantinople v. 86 A man of rank, remarkably unpleasing in his countenance and figure. 1817 Stephens in Shaw Gen. Zool. X. ii. 476 Each leap being accompanied by anote that is far from unpleasing. 1867 Lady Herbert Cordelia L. i. 15 Instruments which sounded unpleasing to English ears.

b. To the mind or feelings.

1533 Bellenden Livy iv. ii. (S.T.S.) II. 57 3e wald defend sic thingis vnder coloure of 3oure rigorus & vnpleasand lawis. 1588 Shaks. L. L. L. v. ii. 912 Cuckow, Cuckow: O word of fear, Vnpleasing to a married ear. 1606 Gunpowder Plot in Harl. Misc. (Malh.) III. 5, I thought it would not be unpleasing unto thee to join them together in the press. 1654 Gataker Disc. Apol. 43 These Digressions ..will not be unpleasing to a Reader of no overnyed and unpleasant Disposition. 1735 Johnson Lobo's Abyssinia, Descr. xv. 140 To put the unpleasing Remembrance of our past Labours out of our Minds. 1818 Scott Br. Lammm. ix, The first thing which recalled him to those unpleasing circumstances. 1885 Manch. Exam. 6 July 4/6 The appointment in itself must be unpleasing to the English Government.

Unplea·singly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

1597 Morley Introd. Mus. 82, I thinke it goeth but vnpleasingly to the eare. 1623 Bingham Xenophon 27 Young man you looke like a Philosopher, and speake not vnpleasingly. 1633 Br. Hall Occas. Medit. 319 This flowre is but unpleasingly fulsome for scent. 1852 Munoz Antipodes III. viii. 251 The Van Diemonians, as they unpleasingly call themselves. 1862 Calverley Verses & Transl. (ed. 2) 36 A happy child,..Not unpleasingly apparelled In a tightish suit of blue.

Unplea·singness. (Un-[1] 12.)

1611 Cotgr., Mauplaisance, vnpleasantnesse, vnpleasingnesse. 1652 Heylin Cosmogr. I. 123 The misery and unpleasingness of his present condition. 1673 O. Walker Educ. 228 A corrective to the harshness and unpleasingness of the other. 1727 Bailey (vol. II) s.v. Unpleasantness.

†Unplea·sive, a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 7.) 1644 Br. Hall Rem. Wks. (1660) 108 Grief is never but an unpleasive passion; the rest have more life and contentment in them.

Unplea·surable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 373 Many of our waking hours pass irksome and insipid, unprofitable to others, and unpleasurable to ourselves. 1796 Charlotte Smith Marchmont IV. 182 Unpleasurable sensations. 1860 Ruskin Mod. Paint. V. ix. xi. § 22 Let no technical labour be wasted on things useless or unpleasurable. 1879 Mrs. A. W. Hunt Basilion II. xvi. 268 The visit, though a melancholy one, would not be wholly unpleasurable to Lord.

Unplea·surably, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1826–7 De Quincey Lessing Wks. 1859 XIII. 300 The comic interest..would at once disarm the inherent meanness in the subject, of all power to affect us unpleasurably. Unpleasure. (Un-[1] 12.) 1814 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 639, I don't like to use any words that might give you unpleasure. 1839 J. Hodgson in Raine Mem. (1858) II. 411 Walked about half a mile with great unpleasure. Unplea·t, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1614 J. Davies (Heref.) Eclogue 17 Droope not for that (man) but vnplease thy browes. 1648 Hexham II, Het haer ontvlechten, to unplear or untie ones Haire.

Unplea·ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1612 W. Parker Cursetine Dr. (1876) 54 Let not the seruant with vnpleated browes and presented innocency abuse the trust committed to his charge. 1648 Hexham II, Ongeployt, Vnfoulded, or Vnpleated. 1689 Daily News 22 Oct. 6/1 These are necessarily in unpleated material, in order to give firmness to the whole.

Unple·ged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1605 Chapman All Fools v. ii. 68 Val. He be their pledge. For. Not yet Valerio? This hee must drinke unpledgd. 1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Thirsty Musc. 12 129/2 If a Drunkard be vnpledged a kan. 1741–2 Gray Agrippina 21 They are aware Of th' unpleg'd bowl. 1823 S. Rogers Italy 160 For deeds of violence..came the unpledged bowl, The stab of the stiletto. 1834 Moore Mem. (1860) VII. 24 Sir Robert Peel..is unpledged to any one for his next turn at the Charter House.

Unple·nished, ppl. a. Chiefly Sc. (Un-[1] 8.)

1535 Sc. Acts, Jas. V (1814) II. 346/2 Ane grete part of be Realme..has been fir mony yeris..vnplenisit. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 532 Mony sted vnpleneist lyand waist. 1857 J. Hamilton Lessons fr. Gt. Biog. 290 In a lonely unplenished room.

Unple·t, ppl. a. Sc. [Un-[1] 8 b.] Unplaited. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. ii. 1, 49 The tane half of hir haire vnplet.

†Unpley·ed, ppl. a. Sc. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 8.) Not assailed at law. 1445 Sc. Acts, Jas. II (1814) II. 33/2 All & sindrie landis..as bis fadir brouht pain vndemandit and unpleyit of ony man befor ony Juge.

Uplia·ble, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1. Unyielding, obstinate, stubborn.

c 1400 Wycliffite Bible Heb. x. 23 We..holde the confessioun of oure hope vnbowynge [v.r. vnpliable; L. inflexibilem]. 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 187 Their stiffenesse and unpliable disposition, the roughnesse also of their skinne, argueth their dry nature. 1627 I. Bargrave Serm. 4 Wee are all as oxen unpliable to the yoake. 1652 Urquhart Rabelais 520 Such...sinners as should prove unpliable to the stamp of his wholesome admonitions. 1774 Reid Aristotle's Logic iv. § 3 It is somewhat unpliable to rules. 1885 S. Cox Expositions I. 101 He saw a new heaven and a new earth,..free from all that renders it hostile or unpliable to the spirit of man.

2. Unbending, inelastic, stiff. Also fig.

1622 F. Markham Bk. War I. x. 38 Buckram..is too stiffe and unpliable. 1747 Cooke in Hanway Trav. iv. lvi. (1762) I. 260 The paper was very hard and unpliable. 1759 Phil. Trans. LI. 290 [Wires] so unpliable and brittle, as to be rendered quite useless. 1773 Johnson 8 Oct. in Boswell Tour Hebrides, She had no notion of a joke,..had a mighty unpliable understanding. 1806 Forsyth Beauties Scott. IV. 31 The spruce..has unpliable branches. 1825 Scott Betrothed iii, A broad countenance, with heavy and unpliable features.

Hence Unpli·ableness.

1658 Strathwatt Arcad. Pr. 99, I feele very usually such a stiffnesse, or unpliableness in my selfe. c 1720 Gibson Diet Horses i. (1731) 11 From an Unpliableness or Straitness of the Ligaments. 1754 Hume Hist. England I. 158 That the commons,..by their unpliableness and independance, were insensibly changing. 1787 Best Angling (ed. 2) 9 The line by reason of their unpliableness must be much endangered.

Upli·ancy. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.)

1737 Bracken Farriery Impr. (1757) II. 106 The Stiffness and Unpliancy of our Limbs. 1831 Carlyle Misc. Ess., Schiller, In all other provinces exhibiting a certain inaptitude, an elephantine unpliancy. 1842 Prichard Nat. Hist. Man 494 The aboriginal American is at once in the incapacity of infancy and unpliancy of old age.

Upli·ant, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1. Not bending readily or easily; stiff.

1624 Wotton Archit. 89 The Chissell..being so hard an Instrument, and working vpon so vnpliant stuffe. 1720 Welton Suffer. Son of God II. xxvi. 465 Like Iron, which is..unpliant, when it is not throughly softened by the Forge. 1735 Somerville Chase III. 120 His stiff unpliant Limbs Rooted in Earth, unmov'd..he stands. 1791 Cowper Odyss. xxi. 208 Thou wast not born to bend The unpliant bow, or to direct the shaft. 1828 Good Study Med. (ed. 2) IV. 330 We..render the dejected muscles torpid and unpliant. 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. x. VI. 610 The beautiful but too regular face, or the hard, but not entirely unpliant form.

2. Unyielding, obstinate, stubborn.

1659 Evelyn Char. Eng. 40 Ill Courtiers, unpliant, morose, and of vulgar address. 1674 Govt. Tongue 178 Men are..prone in all companies to arraign such an unpliant Person, as if he were an enemy to mankind. 1710 Tatler No. 214 ¶ 1 These are Persons of a stubborn, unpliant Morality. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 591 The love of rectitude becomes a preciseness and rigidity unpliant to the common occasions of life. 1821 Joanna Baillie Metr. Leg., Lady G. B. ii, The dull unpliant dame refused. 1822 Good Study Med. IV. 195 Parodynia Implastica. Unpliant Labour.

3. Not easily adapted or managed.

1717 Addison Ovid's Met. iii. Notes, The short speeches ..which make the Latin very natural, cannot appear so well in our language, which is more stubborn and unpliant. 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 173 ¶ 12 By him who..enters late into the gay world with all the inattention and estab lished habits.

Upli·antly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) [Johnson s.v. Rigidly.]

Upli·ght, sb. Obs. or dial. [Un-[1] 4 b.] Evil plight; danger, risk.

Cf. mod. Whitby dial. unplight, a state of disorder.

c 1330 Assump. Virg. (B.M. MS.) 194 3if I any pinge haue mys wrouht,..I it wole amende with my myst, That my soule haue no vnplyst.

†Unpli·ght, upli·te, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 3: see Plight v.[1]] trans. To unfold; fig. to evolve.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. met. iv. (1868) 167 Yif he pryng soule ne vnplitip no ping, pat is to seiu ne dolp no ping by hys prope moeuynges. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode III. lvi. (1869) 164 The Scripture ȝ vndide, and vnplytede it, and redde it. 1511 Guyforde's Pilgrs. (Camden) 50 Ther was delyuered to hym yet booke of Isaie ye prophete, and as he vnplight the booke he founde the place [etc.].

†Upli·table, a. Obs.[-1] (Un-[1] 7 b.) pliable Plight v.[1]; intended to render L. inexplicabilis.) c 1420 Chaucer's Boeth. i. pr. iv. (1896) 9 Wham..ther ne is nan establissed, greuos and vnplitable [v.r. inplitable] coempcion.

Un·plo·tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1598 J. Dickenson Greene in Conc. (1878) 123 Leauing no deuice vnplotted, no deceipt vnpractised to make gratious her greuelesse selfe.

Unplo·ughed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8, 8 c. Cf. Du. ongeploegd, M.LG. ungeploget, MSw. oplöghder (Sw. oplöjd), Da. upløjet, Norw. upløgd.]

1. Not turned up by the plough. Also with up.

1580 Lupton Siveyla 25 What is it to sowe seede vppon the grasse or greene swarde, unplowed or undigged? 1613 W. Browne Brit. Past. i. ii. 328 Like to that smell, which oft our sense descries Within a field which long unploweed lyes. 1649 Lovelace The Scrutinie iii, Like skilfull Minerallists that sound For Treasure in un-plow'd-up ground. 1765 A. Dickson Treat. Agric. (ed. 2) 42 Allow two fields to lie unploweed;..they will produce very different plants. 1832 Scotch Farm Rep. 4 in Husb. III. (L.U.K.), The ridge freshly turned up then covers the unploughed ground. 1891 Malden Tillage 106 To throw the split-furrows on to the unploughed land.

transf. 1839 Hallam Hist. Lit. II. 287 The daring adventurer that violates their unploughed waters. 1859 Maury Phys. Geog. II. 38 This unploughed sea would be an oft-used thoroughfare. 1864 Bryant New & Old 21 Brows unploughed by care.

2. Of books: Not trimmed with the plough.

1886 W. George's Catal. No. 129. 1 Cloth and boarded books are always edges unplowed (if so issued.)

Unplo·ughing, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 8, 3.) 1940 Tull Horse-hoeing Husb. (1822) xiii. 166 The second is a sort of unploughing, for it turns the turf the same side uppermost as before it was ploughed at all.

Uplu·cked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c. Cf. Du. ongeplukt, older Da. uplukket, Sw. oplockad.) 1568 Scottis Poet (1860) 8 The third part of the people.. war not left vnplukit away, be sic ane..manslayar. 1620 G. Fletcher Christ's Tri. i. lviii, And you sweete flow'rs,.. Your selues vnplucket would to his funerals hie. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida i. iii. 75 His hands bereft His hoary head of all that time had left Unplucked before. 1819 Crabbe T. of Hall VIII. 860 The green cold moss above it grown, Unplucked of all but maiden hand. 1878 Browning Poets Croisic vii, Unplucked grace Of soul, ungathered beauty. 1889 Clark Russell Marooned vi. (1890) 27 The bird came to the table..somewhat prickly with unplucked quills.

Uplu·g, v. (Un-[2] 4.)

[1775 Ash.] 1840 R. H. Dana Bef. Mast xxx, By unplugging the holes, we let the scap-suds off the decks. 1876 Preece & Sivewright Telegraphy 270 The whole of the resistance in each arm..should be unplugged.

Uplu·mb, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1828 Carlyle in Froude Life (1882) II. 27 She watches over her joiners..with an eye like any hawk's, from which nothing crooked, unplumb or otherwise irregular can hide itself. Uplu·mb, v. (Un-[2] 4.) trans. To take out of lead coffins. 1796 Burke Let. to Noble Lord Wks. VIII. 6 They unplumb the dead for bullets to assassinate the living. [1845 Ford Handbk. Spain I. iii, 389 Nor have the dead been unplumbed to furnish missiles of death against the living.]

Unplu·mbed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Unsounded, unfathomed.

1623 W. C[rashaw] Fatal Vesper B 4 b, The height whereof mans vnderstanding cannot aspire vnto, nor the vnplummeled [sic] depth thereof sinke vnto. c 1850 M. Arnold Isolation iv, The unplumb'd, salt, estranging sea. 1892 Stevenson Across the Plains 216 Justice is not done to..the unplumbed childishness of man's imagination.

Uplu·me, v. (Un-[2] 4. Cf. Du. ontpluimen.)

1. trans. To strip of plumes or feathers. Also in fig. context.

1587 Greene Carde of Fancie (1593) I 3 b, He would vnplume thee of all his feathers, that like Æsops Crow thou mightest receive the reward of thy rashnesse. 1608 L. MACHIN Dumbe Knt. I, Envies sword, Which like a rasor shall unplume thy crest. 1673 Lady's Call. 1. ii § 28 Should we have the like distinction observed, I fear many of our gaiest birds would be unplumed. 1744 H. BROOKE Love & Van. 95 She..Exalts the meek..; Of Pride unplumes the lofty crest. 1824 CHARLOTTE SMITH Conversations, etc. II. 202 The nest is robbed, and she a second time unplumes herself for the accommodation of her young. 1841 LADY F. HASTINGS Poems 212 When Time's allotted course is done, His wings unplumed, his hour-glass run.

2. fig. To deprive of distinction, prestige, etc.

1626 T. H[AWKINS] Caussin's Holy Crt. 82 Ladyes of court vnplume him, other women..flich from him. 1641 J. SHUTE Sarah & Hagar (1649) 55 God can soon unplume us, and take away that wherein we swelleth us so. 1725 POPE Odyss. XIX. 104 Her lov'd Lord [may] unplume thy tow'ring pride. 1744 E. MOORE Fables xiv. 301 The partner of thy scorn'd embrace, Shall play the wanton in thy face, Each spark unplume thy little pride.

Hence Unplu·ming vbl. sb.

1592 NASHE P. Pennilesse E 2 b, We delight..in the vnpluming of pullerie, and quartering of Caltues and Oxen.

Unplu·med, a. [Un-1 8. Cf. Dun. ongeplumed.] Not furnished with plumes or feathers.

[1598 FLORIO, Sprenato, vnfeathered vnplumed.] 1601 HOLLAND Pliny I. 338 They will..kill young pigeons whiles they be calow and unplumed. 1638 DAVENANT Madagascar 3 Their Arrowes were unplum'd, Their Bowes unstrung. 1777 POTTER Æschylus, Agamemnon 217 Like vulturs, which, their unplumed offspring lost, Whirl many a rapid flight. 1804 Europ. Mag. XLV. 413/2 Whether it was..plain or coloured, plumed or unplumed, covered or uncovered. 1871 H. KING Dente's Met. vi. 946 Not with their birth Those pinions came..young Cupids Arrows grew unplumed. fig. 1818 MILMAN Samor VII. 267 Had it seem'd love, her very pride had quell'd The unplum'd phantasy.

Unplummed, obs. var. UNPLUMBED ppl. a.

Unplu·ndered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. Dun. ongeplundard, Sw. oplundrad.) 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. IX. v. § 9, I count it a blessing that providence hath preserved such a treasure unplundered. 1855 SINGLETON Virgil II. 460 Then I..The pitiable corse, and arms Unplundered, to the sepulchre will bear. 1865 J. CAMERON Malayan India 263 To waste your time cutting the throat of a dead man while his house is unplundered.

Unplunge, v. (Un-2 3.) a 1645 HEYWOOD Fort. by Land & Sea III. iii, Any meanes that can unplunge me from this gulf of trouble.

Unply, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To unfold, unfurl.

c 1330 Arth. & Merl. 5063 (Kölbing), Pese Sarrazins þo gun vnplie Her baners & after heiße. 13.. K. Alis. 3000 (Laud MS.), A clerk gan be lettre vnplye. 1830 JAMES De L'Orme xxviii, A pistole for every fold he unplied in the rich white silk.

Unpo·cket, v. (Un-2 5.)

1611 FLORIO, Sgegliaffare,..to vnpouch or vnpocket. 1844 TUPPER Heart xi. 104 Mutual participation in profit and loss..the bookseller pocketing the first, and the author unpocketing the second. 1894 A. MORRISON Mean Streets 136 Sam unpocketed a greasy paper.

Hence Unpo·cketed ppl. a.

1797 MRS. M. ROBINSON Walsingham I. 102 A thousand times..did my eyes glance..at my unpocketed guinea.

Unpoe·tic, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. next.)

† 1612 CONNET Death O. Anne Poems (1617) 126 Do not..for an Epithite that fails, Bite off your Unpoetick Nails. 1786 MISS SEWARD in Mrs. Delany's Life & Corr. (1862) III. 395, I have seen nothing of him since he sunk into his very unpoetic union. 1812 J. WILSON Isle of Palms, etc. 371 Light Fauns, That the good owner's unpoetic soul Could not..Imagine. 1863 'OUIDA' Held in Bondage vi, There is something unpoetic, and coarse..about blood and bruises. Comh. 1865 G. MACDONALD A. Forbes xxxix, The most unpoetic-looking Mr. Cupples.

Unpoe·tical, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. prec.)

a 1746 HOLDSWORTH Remarks Virgil (1768) 270 RUEUS's interpreting..is very unpoetical. 1776 MICKLE Camoens' Lusiad Introd. 149 A literal and unpoetical paraphrase of the Lusiad. 1812 Examiner 4 May 284/1 The unpoetical lucubrations of Lord Coke. 1861 PALEY Æschylus (ed. 2) Persians 547 The superlative is here tame and unpoetical.

Unpoe·tically, adv.

Virgil DRYDEN Virgil Notes 633 How unpoetically and baldly had this been translated! Thou shalt Marcellus be! 1756 J. WARTON Ess. Pope I. 7 How coldly and unpoetically Pope has copied the subsequent appeal to the nymphs. 1786 MRS. DELANY Life & Corr. (1862) II. 358 My poor muse has been asleep these thirty years, during which time I have been very unpoetically..employed!

Unpo·etized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1831 SCOTT Jrnl. 26 Nov., I got home about midnight, but remain unpoetised and unspeculated. Unpointed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1833 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 149 Gif he thollis ony bestis to cum in the kyrkyerd frathinfurth vnpundyt. 1539 Reg. Privy Seal Scot. II. 472/2 The said Johnne to be..unpoindit and unutinlit for ony actioun civile bigune.

Unpoi·nted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

† 1. Not furnished with tagged points or laces. Obs.

1574 HELLOWES tr. Guevara's Fam. Ep. (1577) 254 His shirt ragged, his doublet lose and vnpointed.

2. a. Not punctuated.

1593 MARLOWE Edw. II, v. iv, But read it thus, and thats an other sence:..Vnpointed as it is, thus shall it goe. 1642 PRYNNE Antip. 267 This ambiguous sentence unpointed, they take for a sufficient warrant, and most pittifully murtheret the innocent King. 1653 FULLER Ch. Hist. III. 107 He returned unto them a Riddling Answer, altogether unpointed.

b. Not provided with vowel-points or similar marks.

1640 SIR E. DERING Cartwright (1641) 30 Three words in Greek, wherof one was unpointed. 1659 DR. WALTON Consid. Considered 178 There is no such uncertainty in the Text unpointed, as is pretended by them. 1778 DR. LOWTH Transl. Isaiah Notes 236 It is upon a rasure in a third; and left unpointed at first, as suspected, in a fourth. 1845 Proc. Philol. Soc. II. 172 An A written in certain cases, but more generally in unpointed texts only percepible in the pronunciation. 1877 CAIRD Philos. Kant 203 Like the reader of unpointed Hebrew, who supplies for himself the vowels.

3. Not furnished with a point; lacking point or finish.

1632 B. JONSON Magn. Lady IV. iii, Pro. Which, ending here, would have shown dull, flat, and unpointed; without any sharpe conclusion. 1681 DRYDEN Abs. & Achit. II. 502 But thou in Clumsy verse, unlickt, unpointed, Hast shamefully defil'd the Lord's Anointed. 1887 BOWEN Æneid VI. 760 (He) leans on a lance unpointed and bright.

4. Not pointed at.

a 1555 J. PHILPOT Apol. (1559) A 5 b, That the simple people maye beware of their Pharisaical venome,..suffre them not to passe by you vnpointed at. 1642 HOWELL For. Trav. (Arb.) 13 Yet one's..personall conversation will still find out something new and unpointed at by any other.

Unpoi·nting, vbl. sb. [Un-1 13.] Omission of punctuation. 1612 T. JAMES Corrupt. Script. v. 10 The transposition..of words, or vnpointing of Books,..doe so farre alter the sense, and obscure the Author. Unpoi·nting, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1814 Monthly Mag. XXXVII. 240 She too stands mute, th' unpointing fingers fail.

Unpoi·se, v. (Un-2 3.)

1700 S. PARKER Six Phil. Essays 50 Instead of poizing, I look upon such a mass as rather fitted to unpoize and break the mysticke Chains upon which the body of the earth hangs. 1800 COLERIDGE Tri. Loyalty 372 The violent pull..Unpois'd me and I fell. 1824 SYD. SMITH Wks. (1859) II. 285/2 The balance of justice is unpoised.

Unpoi·sed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Unbalanced.

c 1600 W. FOWLER Wks. (S.T.S.) I. 260, Vnpoized hambers strikes vntimely howres. 1735 THOMSON Liberty II. 150 Oft on the brink Of ruin..Totter'd the rash Democracy; unpois'd, 1827 HOOD Mids. Fairies lxi, Languid fish, unpoi'd, grow sick and yawn. 1903 W. H. HUDSON Rousseau 7 The restless, flighty, unpoised Jean Jacques.

Unpoi·son, v. (Un-2 6 b.)

1598 FLORIO, Svelenire,..to vnpoison, to vnrankle. c 1620 in Farr S. P. Ser. (1845) 99 When sin heftiends us, his time we should dread The mighty one, that sin unpoisoned hath. 1644 G. PLATTES in Hartlib's Legacy (1655) 174 Their minds are so poysoned, that there is no other way to unpoison them, but to win their belief. c 1685 SOUTH Serm. (1717) V. 43 Such a Counsel could not, but in a short time, have Unpoisoned their perverted Minds. 1868 BROWNING Ring & Bk. v. 1038, I was shaken wide awake, Doctored and drenched, somewhat unpoisoned so. 1896 in Westm. Gaz. 17 Sept. 5/1 His mind has been poisoned and 'unpoisoned', and he is now..open to receive information.

Unpoi·sonable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. lxxix. 226 It fell out to be part of Mithridates misery, that hee had made himselfe vnpoisonable.

Unpoi·soned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1821 LAMB Elia I. Old Benchers I. 7, So may the sparrows..unpoisoned, hop about your walks! 1859 R. F. BURTON Centr. Afr. in Jrnl. Geog. Soc. XXIX. 197 Bows and arrows, the latter unpoisoned, but..cruelly barbed.

Unpoi·sonous, a. (Un-1 7.) a 1843 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VII. 306/2 The Unpoisonous,..the Fang-less Poisonous, and..the Fanged Poisonous Snakes. Unpo·lar, a. (Un-1 7.) 1856 TYNDALL Fragm. Sci. (1879) I. 374 A simple unpolar force.

Unpo·larized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1827-8 HERSCHEL in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) IV. 524 The unpolarized portion [of light] will continue to be half transmitted. 1856 SCOFFERN in Orr's Circ. Sci., Pract. Chem. 96 When the..rays be polarized or unpolarized. 1872 B. STEWART Heat (ed. 2) § 179 If the vibrations have no reference to any particular plane, then the wave is unpolarized.

Unpoli·sced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] a 1797 H. WALPOLE Mem. Geo. III (1845) III. vii. 220 In a vast capital,—free, ungoverned, unpolisced, and indifferent to everything but its pleasures and factions!

Unpo·licied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1596 SHAKS. Merch. of V. IV. i. 312 Oh could'st thou speake, That I might heare thee call great Cæsar, Asse, vnpolicied. 1654 WHITLOCK Zootomia 448 The unpolicied Schollar. 1738 WARBURTON Div. Legat. I. 75 (Modern savages) being yet unpolicied, and in a State of Nature.

Unpo·lish, v. (Un-2 3.)

a 1697 AUBREY Lives (1898) I. 216 Denham was unpolished with the small pox: otherwise a fine complexion. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1768) V. 261 How anger unpolishes the most polite! 1823 MOORE Mem. (1853) IV. 69 His chimney pieces, by Bacciffini, spoiled from over-polish; hopes to be able to un-polish them again.

Unpo·lishable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1687 J. REYNOLDS Death's Vis. Pref. (1713) 3 'Tis true such Matter is Restive, Refractory and Unpolishable Enough. a 1797 H. WALPOLE Mem. Geo. II (1822) I. 170 The duke's outside was unpolished, his inside unpolishable. 1836 LANDOR Pericles & Asp. Wks. 2.86 II. 416 A coarse grained, unpolishable people. 1863 HAWTHORNE Old Home (1879) 244 The unpolishable ruggedness of the native character.

Unpo·lished, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, 5 b.]

1. Not made smooth or bright by polishing.

1382 WYCLIF Deut. xxvii. 6 An auter..of stonus vnfournmed and vnpolishid. c 1475 Cath. Angl. 293/1 (A.), Vn Pulysched ..,impolitus. 1552 HULOET, Vnpolished, and not perfitly wrought, rudus. 1605 BACON Adv. Learn. II. xvii, § 13 The better sort of Rules have been not vnfitly compared to glasses of steele vnpullished. 1662 J. BARGRAVE Pope Alex. VII (1867) 122 Another thin piece of jasper stone, unpolished. 1731 JOHNSON Rambler No. 166 ¶ 3 Fortitude, and probity..are cast aside like unpolished gems. 1825 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art I. 5 of the tool to be unpolished. 1874 J. GEIKIE Gt. Ice Age vii. 73 Rough, unpolished angular fragments have tumbled..from cliffs. transf. 1635 SWAN Spec. M. iii. § 2 (1643) 48 Both of them [sc. the heavens] remained as it were unpolished or unfinished until the fourth day.

2. Inelegant or rude in respect of style, language, etc.; not carefully finished.

c 1489 SKELTON Death Earl Northumbld. 127 My wordes vnpullyshet be, nakide and playne. 1575 LANEHAM Lett. (1871) 15 The thing which heer I report in vnpolisht proez. 1585 DANIEL Paulus Iovius Pref., Wks. (Grosart) IV. 4 In like manner..have I adventured to have those my vnpolished labors on the Piller of your worthines. 1635 in Verney Mem. (1907) I. 99 Not daring to present any unpolished lines to such a judicious reader. 1673 Phil. Trans. VIII. 5178 Of which many pregnant Instances..are registred in these un-polish't Volumes. a 1704 T. BROWN Satire Ancients Wks. 1720 I. 26 To hear..Horace [called] an Author unpolished, languid, and without force. 1782 HARRIS Philol. Eng. III. xi. 468 At a time when the Language of England and France were barbarous and unpolished. 1839 HALLAM Hist. Lit. I. v, § 16 Budæus..is hard and unpolished. 1891 FARRAR Darkness & Dawn xxii, It cannot be Chrysippus; the Greek is too modern, and too unpolished.

3. Left rude or imperfect.

1596 Edward III, I. i. 76 His lame vnpolisht shifts are come to light. 1647 CLARENDON Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 227 To reduce our unpolished speculations and conceptions into a prompt and ready practice.

4. Not refined in manners or ways of living; marked or characterized by lack of culture.

1593 SHAKS. 2 Hen. VI, III. ii. 271 The Commons, rude vnpolisht Hindes. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. I. § 4 The spirit of Craft and Subtilty in some, and the Unpolished Integrity of others. 1672 DRYDEN Def. Epilogue P 28 They were unlucky to have been bred in an unpolished age. 1703 J. SAVAGE Lett. Antients xxxvii. 99, I have had an unpolish'd Education..in Barbarous Nations. 1776 GIBBON Decl. & F. ix. (1788) I. 277 The unpolished wives of the barbarians. c 1815 JANE AUSTEN Persuas. ix, Their parents' inferior, retired, and unpolished way of living. 1853 LYNCH Self-Improv. v. 112 An unpolished man need not be an illmannered one.

Hence Unpo·lishedness.

1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. VII. § 279 That roughness and unpolishedness of his nature. 1652 J. WRIGHT tr. Camus' Nat. Paradox v. 90 Those hearts, which may bee said to bee of Iron for their state unpolishedness.

Unpoli·te, a. [Un-1 8, 5 b.]

† 1. Unpolished; unrefined. Obs. rare.

1646 G. DANIEL Poems Wks. (Grosart) I. 94 What but vnpolite flormes, and flancies raw, Can such a time produce? 1796 WALDRON Descr. Isle of Man (1744) 93 However unpolite and savage..the Natives of Man may be. 1797 SWIFT Further Acc. E. Curll P 1 A faithful, though unpolite historian of Grubstreet.

2. Lacking in politeness; impolite: a. Of actions, conduct, etc.

1709 Tatler No. 140 P 8 [He calls] my cousin Jenny Distaff, Madam Distaff; which is very unpolite. 1753 RICHARDSON Grandison (1781) I. xxiii. 164 His unpolite behaviour to the dear creature. 1838 DICKENS O. Twist ix, As an apology to the company for his unpolite behaviour.

b. Of persons.

1712 Spect. No. 508 P 4 The Spirit of Love..is very often..lost, by some little Accidents which the Careless and Unpolite never attend to. 1747 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) I. 205 An unpolite and disobliging brother. 1802-12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) IV. 427 Will not be so unpolite..as to suffer this..suspicion to pass the bounds of his own lips. 1872 SMILES Charac. ix. 238 The unpolite impulsive man will..rather lose his friend than his joke.

† 3. Unfashionable, inelegant. Obs.

1740 COBBE Apol. I. 1 In these unpolite Amusements he has laugh'd like a Rake. 1741 WATTS Improv. Mind I. xvii, How ever they may be now fancied to sound unpolite or unfashionable. 1753 Songs Costume (Percy Soc.) 234 Next a coat of embroidery for foreigners come; 'Twou'd be quite unpolite to have one wrought at home.

Unpoli·tely, adv. (Un-1 11, 5 b; cf. prec.)

1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) II. 72, I acted very unpolitely. 1897 DICKENS Little Dorrit II. xxiii, Arthur asked his pardon, if he had stared at him unpolitely.

Unpoli·teness, [Un-1 12, 5 b.]

† 1. Lack of culture or refinement. Obs.

1702 ECHARD Eccl. Hist. 20 People of great Courage.. and of no less Plainess and Unpoliteness. 1728 MORGAN Algiers I. iii. 49 A People so prone to Unpoliteness as were the natural Africans.

2. Want of politeness.

1707 Refl. upon Ridicule (1717) I. 28 Unpoliteness is a Vice that gives the World a Right to complain of us. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) III. 287, I have just carried unpoliteness far enough to make her afraid of me. 1858 CARLYLE in FROUDE Life in London (1884) II. 197 The shocking unpoliteness of breaking an express promise. 1880 Athenæum 5 June 725 Their own unpoliteness and ill temper.

† 3. Inelegance. Obs.

1725 BLACKWALL Sacr. Class. (1727) I. 80 Sad outcries are made of the unpoliteness of the style.

Unpo·litic, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) Impolitic.

a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. V, 65 He imagined that all mischiefes, whiche chaunced in the common wealth should bee imputed and assigned to his vnpolitike doyng. 1591 G. FETCHER Russe Commw. (Hakl. Soc.) 44 It might seeme.. to bee no bad nor unpolitique way for conteyning of so large a commonwealth. 1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. I. § 150 The Circumstances and Proceedings..were very Unpolitick, and even Destructive to the Services intended. 1664 H. MORE Myst. Iniq. vi. 17 It had been the most unpolitick action..to offer them any strange God to worship. 1721 AMHERST Terræ Fil. No. 45 (1726) 240 In this odd, unpolitic manner, did I conduct myself. 1749 CAMPE Hist. Eng. I. 268 The great slaughter..put their affairs into a condition, which rendered it very unpolitick to provoke new enemies.

Unpoli·tical, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

1643 CARYL Sacr. Covt. 22 Some have thought it unpolitical to set a foote this Covenant. 1778 W. H. MAR-SHALL Minutes Agric., Digest 37 Feeding Farming-servants at their master's expence is unpolitical. 1792 A. YOUNG Trav. France 564 A proof that the measures of the National Assembly have been ill-judged, ill-advised, and unpolitical. 1824 Thinker VI. 63 This condition of things authorizes the political nations, to answer the call of the unpolitical populations for aid.

† Unpo·litically, adv. [UN-1 11, 5 b.] Impolitely.

1589 WARNER Alb. Eng. II. 160 A sport [sc. riding on horseback] lately used of our English youthes, but now.. vnpolitickly..discontinued. a 1677 BARROW Serm. (1686) II. 407 We..deal as unpoliticklly, as the members of the body should act unnaturally, in subtracting mutual assistance. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa II. 64 Mr. Solmes..had told Her, that..I acted very unpolitically.

† Unpo·liticness. Obs. [UN-1 12, 5 b.] Impoliticness. 1664 H. MORE Apology 532 It would lose the appellation of Veracity, and deserve the style of Unpolitickness. Unpo·larded, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] 1820 J. G. STRUTT Sylva Brit. 16 The Beggar's Oak is a fine sample of the real Park Oak, unpruned, unpollarded. 1891 E. R. PENNELL Stream Pleas. 124 The cut, with its unpollarded willows,..was like a bit of a French canal.

Unpo·lled, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Uncut, unshorn.

1647 HEXHAM 1, Vnpowled, ongeschoren. 1727 BAILEY (vol. II), Unpolled, the hair being uncut.

† 2. Untold, uncounted. Obs.

1647 FANSHAW Poems 209 Though richer then unpoll'd Arabian wealth, and Indies Gold.

3. Not brought to, or recorded at, the poll; not having voted at an election.

1818 TODD, Unpolled, not registered as a voter. 1824 HOOK Sayings & Doings I. 134 There were upwards of a thousand freeholders unpolled. 1837 DICKENS Pickw. xxii, Fourteen unpolled votes. 1893 Westm. Gaz. 1 Jan. 6/1 There has always in this constituency been a wide margin of unpolled voters.

† Unpo·llished, ppl. a. Obs.[Irreg. f. OF. impolluz, -uz.] Unpolluted. 1489 CAXTON Blanchardyn v. 23 That by vyolent opressyon that mayteur..shall enioye youre youghthe vnpolussued.

Unpollu·table, a. (UN-1 7.) 1711 G. HICKES Two Treat. Chr. Priesth. (1847) II. 77 After it is consecrated, it becomes..an unpollutable altar.

Unpollu·ted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 5 b. No.)

1602 SHAKS. Ham. v. i. 262 From her faire and vnpolluted flesh, May Violets spring. 1653 W. RAMESEY Astrol. Restored Ep. Ded. 2 Among the..graver sort of people in all Ages, this Science (being unpolluted and unsophisticated) hath been still had in much high esteem. 1732 BERKELEY Alciphr. III. § 1 Honour is a noble unpolluted source of virtue. 1771 SMOLLETT Humph. Cl. (1815) 262 A man must tread with great circumspection to get safe housed with unpolluted shoes. 1812 J. WILSON Isle of Palms I. 21 A woman's unpolluted soul! 1865 DICKENS Mut. Fr. III, viii, The young river..unpolluted by the defilements that lie in wait for it on its course.

Unpollu·ting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam IX. xviii, The shafts of falsehood unpolluting flew.

Unpo·llux, v. [UN-3 6 b.] fig. To castrate. 1654 GAYTON Pleas. Notes III. viii, The story of the Castor [=be.ver] unpolluxing himself is very well applyed. Unpo·mpous, a. (UN-1 7.) 1656 W. DU GARD tr. Comenius' Gate Lat. Unl. 297 Jesus of Nazareth (rejected by the Jews for his unpompous life).

Unpo·pe, v. (UN-2 6 b.)

1563 FOXE A & M. 12 1 Benedictus vnderstanding them to be set against him..vnpoped him self. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. XI. v. § 74 Rome will never so farr un-Pope it self, as to part with her pretended Supremacy. 1677 W. HUGHES Man of Sin II. xii. 212 They took the boldness to un-pope four of their Infallibilities. 1868 BROWNING Ring & Bk. x. 73 He is unpoped, and all he did I damn. 1880 — Pietro 403 We're Pope—once Pope, you can't unpope us!

Unpopular, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Not possessed of popular favour.

1640 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. I. § 8 That Meeting being, upon very unpopular..reasons, immediately Dissolved. 1652 Nicholas Papers (Camden) 295 Those who put his Majesty on such unpopular and unpleasing things. 1731 CHESTERF. Let. 16 Jan. in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 245 The disagreeable and unpopular situation we are at present in. 1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xviii. IV. 163 James was unpopular because he was a Papist. 1863 H. COX Institu. III. iii. 628 An unpopular government.

Unpopularity. [UN-1 12; cf. prec.] The quality or fact of being unpopular.

1735 LD. LYTTELTON Lett. Persian (ed. 3) I. 214 You are afraid of the Unpopularity of the Sound. 1781 JOHNSON L. P., Dryden Wks. 1787 II. 412 The original impropriety, and the subsequent unpopularity of his subject. 1812 COLERIDGE Friend 355 The last War..had yet causes of unpopularity peculiar to itself. 1878 LECKY Eng. in 18th C. I. iii. 432 The Government was now too weak to bear the strain of additional unpopularity.

Unpopularize, v. [UN-2 6 c.] trans. To make unpopular.

1831 Examiner 185/1 The Citizen King is completely unpopularized. 1884 Nonconf. & Indep. 24 July 723/3 Spontaneous emigration..unpopularised a noble cause.

Unpopulate, v. [UN-2 4.] trans. To depopulate.

1868 COGAINE Trappolin IV. ii, It is a frequent thing..To have the Plague..rage and even unpopulate places. 1880 Cornh. Mag. Dec. 673 The growth of manufactures..had been unpopulating the country to swell the towns.

Unpopulated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1885 Manch. Exam. 4 Apr. 4/6 The march of the European invader into the unpopulated regions.

Unpopulous, a. (UN-1 7.)

[1775 ASH.] 1847 SCOTT Chron. Canongate iv, Some sequestered and unpopulous district. 1887 Field 24 Dec. 915/2 In so remote and unpopulous a part of the country.

Unpopulousness. (UN-1 12: cf. prec.) 1599 SANDYS Europe Spec. (1632) 208 The unpopulousnesse..makes that no one Country is defence for the other. Unpo·rtous, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1822-7 GOOD Study Med. (1829) IV. 25 We behold the etherial fluids..transmitted..by substances still more solid and unporous. 1841 Florist's Jrnl. (1846) II. 121 Whenever we find the close and unporous.

† Unpo·rtable, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Too burdensome or grievous to be borne; unbearable, intolerable.

1382 WYCLIF Matt. xxiii. 4 Greuouse chargis, and vnportable, or that mon nat be born. 1424 Paston Lett. I. 17 To here grete and unportable dredes..in here spirites. c 1470 G. ASHBY Active Policy 172 Ther hath be in late daies..To myche folk unportable punicion. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 299 b, All the great & unportable paynes whiche it was thy blessed wyl to suffre. 1540 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. 173 That I may be delyvered from the cure, and to me the unportable burden in governance of this House. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. 491 These important and vnportable matters did no whit moue him.

2. Extremely large.

1536-7 Act Hen. VIII, in Bolton Stat. Irel. (1621) 178 Whose Majestie..hath with the expence of an vnportable summe of his own treasure, defended vs.

3. Too heavy to carry.

a 1618 RALEIGH Inuent. Shipping 9 Had their Cables of Iron chains held any great length, they had been unportable. 1728 E. SMITH Compl. Housew. Pref., [It] would fill an unportable volume. 1782 W. F. MARTYN Geog. Mag. II. 78 Which pieces are so large and unportable, that..a cart or wheel-barrow is necessary.

Unporte·ntous, a. (UN-1 7.) 1813 T. BUSBY Lucretius II. vii. 538 Clouds unportentous of the future storm. Unportioned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1744 YOUNG Nt. Th. VII. 1167 Has virtue charms?—I grant her heavenly fair; But if unportion'd; all will in'trest wed. 1747 FRANCIS tr. Horace, Ep. I. xvii. 69 My Sister lies unportion'd on my Hands. 1828-32 WEBSTER s.v., An unportioned daughter. Unportmanteaned, ppl. a. (UN-1 9.) 1819 WIRSWILE in Todhunter Acc. Writ. (1876) II. 33 We..wended our way dolorous and discontented,..untravelled and unportmanteaned. Unpo·rtrated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1612 CHALLAN Heraldry 1. 39 Leigh represents high unportraicted bearing to bee good. Unportray·able, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1873 M. COLLINS Squire Silchester II. xi, 131 A mighty dusky unportrayable figure, stalking over the furrows. Unportunate, a. Obs. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) Importunate. a 1533 LD. BERNERS Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1535) p. iii, Among so many vnportunate wyndes and vnstable waters thei is great necessitee of good ores. 1603 HOLLAND tr. Plutarch's Mor. 57 For they..are troublesome and unportunate hearers. Unpo·rtuous, a. rare[UN-1 7 + L. portus harbour. Cf. L. importuosus.] Harbourless. 1797 BURKE Regic. Peace iii. 1 25 Had the West of Ireland been an unportuous coast, the French naval power would have been undone.

† Unpoose·ss, v. Obs. rare. [UN-2 3.] trans. To dispossess.

c 1449 PECOCK Repr. III. xvi. 380 Preestis..mowen iustli be vnpossessyd (that is to seie, mowen iustli be put out of possession of the same goldis). a 1542 WYATT in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 84 The hole that is geuen ouer, I vnpossest, so hangeth in balance Of warre.

Unpossessed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not possessed or owned; unoccupied.

1594 DANIEL Compl. of Rosamond cxii, Seeing how many seeke to vndermine The vnpossest of any. 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 105 The riuer was yet vnpossessed by the enemie. 1664 H. POWER Exp. Philos. 92 If you let in the outward ayr into the cavity unpossessed by the menstruum. 1792 DR FOX Voy. round World (1840) 28 If he leaves the country unpossessed, he leaves it free for any other nation to come in. 1748 Anson's Voy. I. vi. 64 (Patagonia) is unpossessed by the Spaniards. 1833 WORDSW. Itin. Poems, Iona 12 A grace by thee unsought and unpossest.

† 2. Not preoccupied; unprejudiced. Obs.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xv, When a while that instrument had made a brave proclamation to all unpossessed minds of attention. 1664 J. SPRCGER Fulg. Prophet. 61 All the Heralds of Heaven had the badg of some divine Signs, whereby unpossest minds might easily distinguish them from Impostors. 1685 TEMPLE Ess., Gardening (1690) 11 The want of Demonstration or Satisfaction, to any thinking and unpossessed Man.

3. Not having possession of something.

1795 V. KNOX Chr. Philos. § 22 note, The mind, unpossessed of virtue. 1840 GEN. P. THOMPSON Exerc. (1842) V. 69 A witness..absolutely unpossessed of all idea of obligation to speak the truth. 1899 F. T. Bullen Way Navy 25 Many of them quite unpossessed of any knowledge of our most thrilling episode.

Hence Unpoose·sseedness.

1819 COLERIDGE in Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 229 How truly Shakspearian is the opening of Macbeth's character given in the unpossessedness of Banquo's mind.

Unpoose·ssing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10, 5 d.)

1605 SHAKS. Lear II. i. 69 Thou vnpossessing Bastard, dost thou thinke [etc.]. 1757 MRS. GRIFFITH Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) II. 191 With a taste and relish for them all, yet unpossessing any of them.

Unpossibility. (UN-1 12, 5 b; cf. next.)

1621 AINSWORTH Annot. Pentat., Exod. xix. 8 The unpossibility of the Law, which is weake through the flesh. 1623 COCKERAM II, Vnpossibilitie of believe, Incredulitie. a 1849 POE King Pest Wks. 1865 II. 372 It would be a matter of utter unpossibility. 1866 FLORENCE MARRYAT For Ever & Ever II. 194 Why, it would be an impossibility, Sir.

Unpo·ssible, a. Now only dial. [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Impossible. (Very common c 1400-1660.)

1362 LANGL. P. Pl. A. xi. 225 Poul prouijt it is vnpossible riche men in heuene. c 1400 Lanfranc's Cirurg. 153 per is no ping vnpossible to stalworpe nature. 1453 in Wars Eng. in France (1864) II. 488 It is unpossible unto us so sone to purvey for the saide scourges. 1473 FORTESCUE W.Rs. (1869) 535 The forsayd minor is now clerely proved unpossible. 1523 LD. BERNERS tr. Froiss. I. cxlv. 173 The frenchemen coude natte passe no way, wythout they wolde haue gone through the marshes, the whiche was vnpossyble. 1570 T. WILSON Demosth. Orat., Life 127 Vnpossible it is for anye one to deceyue him. 1610 FLETCHER Faithful Shepherdess ii. 1, Whose grief..to anothers eye May seem unpossible of remedy. 1697 BURGHOPE Disc. Relig. Assemb. 169 There's nothing requir'd of us,—which is unpossible. 1773 GOLDSM. Stoops to Cong. ii. 1, By the laws, your worship, that's perfectly impossible. 1825 BROCKETT N. C. Words, Unpossible, for impossible. The word is frequent with the vulgar in the North. 1844- in Sc. and dialect use (Eng. Dial. Dict.). 1866 FLO. MARRYAT For Ever & Ever II. 194 That is an unpossible thing, Sir.

absol. 1582 MULCASTER Positions iv. 77 Nothing giuen to the vnpossible, where possibilitie must take place.

Hence † Unpo·ssibleness; † Unpo·ssibly adv.

1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer iv. Ss ii, The vnpossibleness of yᵉ matter. 1588 OSBORNE Adm. Son Wks. (1673) 175 Therefore not unpossibly the cause why the Devil was so earnest..to make them commit it [sc. a sin]. 1669 — Misc. Ess. Paradoxes 176, I confesse the Party may not unpossibly be very Rich.

Unpo·sted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1860 W. H. RUSSELL Diary India I. 4 A few younger men, unposted, who expected to be attached to Queen's regiments. Unpostponable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1834 J. WILSON Lett. in Mem. (1859) 304 Whatever was not altogether imperative and unpostponable. 1890 GUNTER Miss Nobody xvii, Important and unpostponable business. Unpo·t, v. (UN-2 5.) 1754 JUSTICE Scots Gard. Director 127 As for the Small Plants.., I do not choose to unpot them until Michaelmas.

Unpo·table, a. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.] Undrinkable.

1848 S. WELLS WILLIAMS Mid. Kingd. I. 14 The water..is brackish and unpotable. 1902 Act 2 Edw. VII, c. 7 § 8 The applicant..will..render the spirits unpotable..during use.

Unpou·liticed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1791 [see UNPILLED ppl. a.].

Unpo·wdered, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not sprinkled with salt.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 360/2 On-powderyd, on-saltyd, insaltitus. † 1619 HIERON Wks. II. 484 As an vnpowdered masse of flesh..is enough to poyson with the stench. Ibid. 492 Those particulars..will, like so many vnpowdered morsels mixed in with others, make the whole lump to become vnsauory.

2. Not whitened with hair-powder.

1751 JOHNSON Rambler No. 190 P 6 My hair unpowdered, and my hat uncocked. 1847 LYTTON Lucretia I. i, The dark hair which he wore unpowdered. 1898 R. S. HICHENS Londoners vii, Various footmen, powdered and unpowdered.

Unpow·er, n. Obs exc. dial. [UN-1 11. Cf. NON-POWER.] Want of power; inability; weakness; helplessness.

c 1380 WYCLIF Serm. Sel. Wks. I. 371 Pe dreede hap no peyne, but unpower for to synne. 1402 Jack Upland in Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 36 Þ'hrn puttest thou on Christ.. unkunning, unpower, and evill will. c 1440 Gesta Rom. lii. 233 [erfor do not afin the worlde, ne abide not age, vnpower, or blyndnesse. a 1470 H. PARKER Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) ii. xiv. G iiij b, Yf it be soo that yᵉ other be the .. the man that he mode it to not.. vnbynde hym from that othe.. but nede or unpower excuse hym. 1847— in southwestern dial. glossaries.

† Unpow·er, v. Obs. [UN-2 4.] trans. To deprive of power. 1643 W. GREENHILL A Ax at Root 8 Nimrod, Lord did..un-church them, un-power them, un-saint them. 1657 REEVE God's Plea 287 Why are they ministers, if they unpower, cassate their own function?

Unpow·erful, a. rare. (UN-1 7.)

1621 R. FLOWIO, Impotenza, vnmightie, vnpowerfull. 1656 COWLEY Davideis I. 48 He..envy'd him a Kings unpowerful Hate. 1777 J. RICHARDSON Dissert. East. Nations 21 A distinct body of harmless and unpowerful people.

Hence Unpow·erfulness.

1629 DANCIP Ann. 2 4 It lies merely in their owne vnpowerfulnesse, that they doe not overthrow his..Empire.

† Unpra·ctic, a. Obs. [UN-1 7.] Not practical. 1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharonnida IV. ii. 55 A speedy, though unpractic sympathy.

Unpra·cticable, a. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.] Impracticable. (COMMON 1650-1700.)

1647 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. III. § 176 Such Objections..as rendered it [sc. the proposition] Ridiculous and Unpracticable. 1673 Remarques Humours Town 52 They have made Love, unpracticable to the World. 1692 BENTLEY Boyle Lect. 16 Such unpracticable conditions as these. 1702 Eng. Theophrast. 135 Many things that seem'd unpracticable to their Thoughts.

Hence Unpra·cticableness.

1667 OWEN Evangel. Christ. Consid. 30 The unpracticableness of such an Indulgence. 1680 H. DOPWELL Two Lett. (1691) 180 That unpracticableness wherewith they are changed. 1894 N. W. Congregationalist (U.S.) 5 Jan., There is a certain amount of unpracticableness about this.

Unpra·ctical, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.)

1637 BP. REYNOLDS Serm. (1638) 26 To foment their jealousies and censures..by novell, speeious, and unpractical Curiosities. 1668 HALE Pref. to Rolle's Abridgm. 5 Some of their Laws grew..obsolete, some unpractical, some obscure. 1849 C. BRONTE Shirley vii, Caroline was feeling ..what an unpractical life she led. 1890 R. 'BOLDEWOOD' Col. Reformer (1891) 152 An unpractical, unsuccessful enthusiast.

Hence Unpractica·lity; Unpra·ctically adv.;

Unpra·cticalness.

1875 HOWELLS Foregone Concl. (1889) 313 That poor fellow with his whole stock of helplessness, dreamery and unpracticality. 1880 Athenæum 18 Dec. 812/3 The delightful unpracticality of good Mrs. Brooke. 1881 Trans. Obstet. Soc. Lond. XXII. 3 Where we cannot foresee any immediate effect on practice, that is, so far as we can see, "unpractically. 1880 VERNON LEE Stud. Italy ii. iii. 49 To this charming "unpracticalness..must be added the fact that [etc.].

† Unpra·ctisable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b; cf. PRACTISABLE a.) 1594 in Halliwell Lett. Sci. Subjects (1841) 36 Converted to sundrie other uses..which have hetherto byn supposed to be unpractyzable. 1644 G. Plattes in Hartlib's Legacy (1651) 29 It is neither impossible, strange, nor unpracticable.

Unpra·ctise, v. (Un-7 3.) 1727 Art of Speaking in Publick v. (ed. 2) 67 If you find it comes only from an ill Habit you have got,..you ought to take up a resolution of unpractising it.

Unpra·ctised, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not familiarized or skilled by practice; inexperienced, inexpert.

1551 Robinson tr. More's Utopia 1. (1895) 49 Your newe made and vnpractysed soldiours. 1562 A. Brooke Romeus & Jul. 1416 A white mauis wit vnpractised doth stand him in no steede. 1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. I. i. 12 But I am..skillesse as vnpractis'd Infancie. 1672 Marvell Reh. Transp. I. 207 To harden their unpractis'd modesty. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. viii. 380 Of so little consequence are the most destructive arms in untutored and unpractised hands. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude v. 589 In his youth..in that raw unpractised time. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vi. II. 143 The most unpractised eye at once perceived that they were taller..than their successors. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 109 The unpractised operator is far less likely to do harm with the forceps than with version.

b. Const. in.

1655 Boyle Occas. Refl. III. xx. 131 These are..altogether unpractis'd in that Civility. 1687 Dryden Hind & P. III. 614 The latter brood, who just began to fly, Sick-feathered and unpractis'd in the sky. 1759 Hume Hist. England I. 56 Albany..was totally unpractised in their language. 1844 Upton Physiogliphics Pref. p. ii, A person unpractised in authorship. 1900 Longm. Mag. Mar. 466 Supposing that I speak to anyone who is unpractised in the art.

2. Not practised; unemployed, untried.

1549 Commemoration of Justifiable Graces of God B ij, The old prouerbe..is not lefte vnpractised by the sayde Antichrist. c 1584 An Abstract, Certaine Acts Parl. (title-p.), Certaine Canons, Constitutions, and Synodals provincial..for the most part heretofore vnknowen and vnpractized. 1612 Beaum. & Fl. Maid's Trag. ii. 1, I..must try Some vnpractis'd way to grieve and die. 1686 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. I. 184 An unsafe and hetherto unpractised way in procedure. 1753 Hanway Trav. xiv. x. (1762) II. 382 The barbarities were left unpractised. 1848 Ackrman Introd. Study Anc. & Mod. Coins v. 90 This description of artifice seems to have been..unpractised among the Romans.

† b. Untraversed, unfamiliar. Obs.

1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. I. (1626) 4 Ships..Then plow'd th' vnpractis'd bosom of the Flood. 1778 Br. Lowth Transl. Isaiah Notes 287 A journey..through desert and unpractised countries.

Hence Unpra·ctisedness.

1648 Earle Microcosm. (Arb.) 61 He ascribes all honestie to an vnpractis'dnesse in the World. 1672 Flamsteed in Rigaud Corr. Sci. Men (1841) II. 130 My unpractisedness in such observations at the first essays.

Unpragma·tical, a. (Un-7.) 1673 Cave Prim. Chr. ii. i. 6 Whoever would govern his life aright must be modest and unpragmatical.

Unprai·sable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. That cannot be praised.

1483 Cath. Angl. 290/1 Vn Prayasyble, illaudabilis. 1892 A. Lang Lett. Dead Authors 178 Thou splendid warrior with the world at odds, Unpraised, unpraisable, beyond thy merit.

†2. Incapable of being appraised or valued; above valuation. Obs.

1546 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 173 b, Thou shalt haue inestimable or vnprayasable rychesse. 1598 Srow Surv. 325 Vessels of gold, and siluer vnpraiseable, and many pretious stones.

Unprai·se, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To dispraise.

c 1375 Cursor M. 27585 (Fairf.), We agh ilkman our-self vpraise & in our heri vs vnpraise [Cott. dispraise]. a 1500 Praise of Women in Lyd. Poems I. 275 To unpreyse womene, yt were a shame. 1728 Young Love Fame vii. 45 Cannot thrice ten hundred years unpraise The bolt-stous boy, and blast his guilty bays? 1729 Savage Wanderer I. 945 Shou'd some nobler Bard their Worth unpraise, Deserting Morals, that adorn his Lays.

Unprai·sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1390 Gower Conf. I. 229 If reson be wel peised, Ther mai no vertu ben unpreised. 1422 Yong tr. Secretis Secret. 130 Of the dyuersyte..of maneris wych ben praisde and vnpraysyde. 1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vnpraysed, illaudatus. 1590 Spenser F. Q. II. x. 5 The land..was saluage wilderness, Vapoupled, vnmanured, vnprou'd, vnpraysed. 1634 Milton Comus 723 Th' all-giver would be unthank'd, would be unprais'd. 1700 Dryden Cymon & Iph. 469 Unprais'd by me, tho' Heav'n sometime may bless An impious Act with undeserv'd Success. 1784 Cowper Task v. 539 There is yet a liberty..by senators unpraised. 1887 Pollok Course T. VII. 422 Innumerous armies rose, unbannered all, Unpaneoplied, unpraised. 1856 R. A. Vaughan Mystics IX. iii. II. 151 How many women..are far surpassing St. Theresa in their self-sacrifice and patience, unseen and unpraised of men. 1892 [see Unpraisable 1].

Unprai·seful, a. (Un-1 7.) 1868 Lynch Rivulet CLII. ii, Not..with unpraiseful prayer We live below.

Unpra·iseworthy, a. (Un-1 7.)

1589 Fleming Virg. Georg. iv. 59 Th' other king ill-fauoured is..And vnpraiseworthy drags his large brode belly all along. 1876 Lowell Among my Bks. Ser. II. 45 We do not mean to say that this minute exegesis is useless or unpraiseworthy.

Unpray·, v. (Un-2 4.)

1611 Cotgr., Desprier, to vnpray,..recall prayers. 1662 Gurnall Chr. in Arm. III. xiii. 102, I pray'd with so little faith, that I..unprayed my own prayer. 1676 Halr Contempl. I. 128 The freeness and purity of his obedience..made him, as it were, un-pray what he had before prayed. 1842 Fraser Smyrian Lake, etc. 289 And he unprayed his curse, his passion sunk. 1862 Chr. G. Rossetti Poems (1904) 435/1 My sins unpray My prayer.

Unpray·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.) †Inexorable. 1382 Wyclif Isam. iii. 42 Wee wicken dieden, and to wrathe terreden; therfore thou art vnpreiable [L. inexorabilis].

Unpray·ed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Of persons: a. Not entreated or besought; unasked; uninvited. Also with to.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus iv. 513 Syn pat thow slest so fele ..Ayeins hir wil vnpryed day and nyghte, De me..this seruyse. c 1400 Love Bonavent. Mirr. (1908) 116 In that oure lord mekely vnpreide wente bodilly to hele the sike seruaunt. c 1440 Gesta Rom. lxv. 290 (Add. MS.), The lyon, the Apa, and the Serpent, yelded hym mede, because he drew hem out of the pitte vnpraied. 1536 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 407 Whatsoever man..goeth in to anny such house..unpraied or bidden. 1600 Fairfax Tasso xvi. xiv, To my suitors old what I demaid, That gaue I thee.. vnpraid. 1681 H. More in Glanvill's Saducismus i. Postscr. 51 The holy Angels..which..reinforce the prayers of good and holy men..unprayed to themselves. 1849 M. Arnold Sohrab & Rustum 5 Who, weighing that life well Fortune presents unpray'd, Declines her ministry.

†b. Not moved by prayer. Obs.—1

1567 Drant Horace, Ep. A iiiij, If thou wouldest set Achilles oute,..Let him be swift, chafing, vnprayed, inflamde to vengeance sore.

2. Not prayed for; without being prayed for.

1533 More Apol. xxviii. Wks. 894/1 Yf they lene nothing vnpraied for that mai perteine to the pacificacion of this diuision. 1703 De Foe More Reform. 50 What Capital offence Could bar thee from the Priests Benevolence, That they..should..let thee live unbless'd, unpray'd for Die.

Unprea·ch, v. (Un-2 3.)

1692 Br. Stratford Charge, 5 May 22 Can they think, that he does in good earnest believe what he preaching, when he unpreaches the same action in his life? 1902 Dr Fox Trueborn Eng. ii. 256 The Clergy..Unpreach'd their Non-resisting Cant, and Pray'd To Heaven for Help. 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! xviii, To show the white feather in the hour of need, is to unpreach in one minute all that he had been preaching his life long.

Unprea·ched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iii. xii, This unpreached, inarticulate,.. forever-enduring Gospel.

Unprea·ching, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.]

1. Omitting or neglecting to preach; characterized by absence of preaching.

1549 Latimer 6th Serm. bef. Edw. VI (Arb.) 167 The deuill ..hath set vppe a state of vnpreachynge prelacye in this Realme..He hath made vnpreachynge prelates. 1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. iii. 60 Woe therefore to the idle and Idol pastor, to the dumme dogge, to the vnpreaching minister! 1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Sculler Wks. iii. 20/1 Who dares say that like a drone or moath, Like an vnpreaching Priest he liues by Sloth? 1660 Peyvne Unbish. Vind. (ed. 2) 95 Idle, proud, ambicious, unpreaching Prelates. 1732 Neal Hist. Purit. I. 372 There are severe expressions against the unpreaching clergy. 1828 J. T. Rutt Burton's Diary III. 203 Praising that Bishop at the expense of unpreaching prelates. 1850 Marsden Early Purit. iv. 124 Her successor on the throne..discouraged preaching..We became an unpreaching church.

†2. spec. Not undertaking the duty of preaching; merely reading the services of the Church. Obs.

1574 Whitgift Def. Answ. 482 Bycause a chylde may reade the booke, doth it therefore mainteyne an vnpreaching ministerie? 1588 J. Udall Demonstr. Discipline (Arb.) 38 If vnpreaching ministers cannot be made without the manifest breach of the commandement of God. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. xxxii. § 3 That..we..maintaine an vnpreaching ministerie, is neither adiudeslly nor truly spoken. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. v. xi. 402 Sacraments received from ignorant and unpreaching Ministers. 1710 R. Brideoke Vind. Ch. Eng. 161 There were several unpreaching Ministers, whose..Business it was to read the publick Prayers.

Unprecari·ous, a. (Un-1 7.)

1772 Blackmore Creation ii. 532 The Stars..grace the high expanse, Unslight Pole, their own beams, and unprecarious light. 1745 Young Nt. Th. viii. 968 Bliss there is none, but unprecarious bliss. 1843 Tizard Brewing 5 Even were brewing as simple and unprecarious as some are willing to imagine.

Unpreca·tioned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1694 Francis Northern Mem. 128 Because unprecationed how to distinguish the Elements..she frequently encounters the boiling Water.

Unpreced·ent, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1846 Worcester (citing J. Johnson). 1884 Law Times 6 Sept. 320/2 Hostile acts unprecedented by declaration of war.

Unpreced·ental, a. [Un-1 7.] = next. 1768 Capt. Cook in Rev. Soc. Antiqu., Lett. (1908) 18 This, I believe to be the reason for the unprecedental reception we met with here.

Unpre·cedented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

In frequent use from c 1760.

a 1623 in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 101 To forbid the Judges against Bills of Exchange..is a thing unprecedented in this Kingdom. 1650 Weldon Crt. Jas. I, 37 Which was a strange Judgement, and unprecedented. 1707 Hearne Collect. II. 24 Ye Delegates..declar'd the D^rs sentence pronounc'd against him by himself, as Assessor, to be unjust and unprecedented.

b. 1716 Addison Freeholder No. 16 ¶ 5 Nor did the Legislature do any thing in this that was unprecedented. 1743 Bulkeley & Cummins Voy. S. Seas p. xiv, An audacious and unprecedented Action. 1831 Hr. Martineau Soc. Amer. II. 147 Some startling circumstance..which I was assured was unprecedented. 1874 Green Short Hist. viii. § 3. 487 A speech of unprecedented boldness.

Hence Unpre·cedentedly adv., -ness.

1678 Marvell Growth Popery 46 There was but one Reason given herein for declining the granting Money, and that is the Unprecedentedness. 1825 T. Tooke Currency 56 The late disastrous, and unprecedentedly numerous failures. 1884 Manch. Examr. 27 Nov. 5/4 The number of students attending was no doubt unprecedentedly great.

Unprecedential, a. [Un-1 7.] = prec.

a 1700 Evelyn Diary 19 July 1641, It was condemned as unprecedential, and not justifiable. 1846 Worcester (citing Rc. Rev.).

Unpre·cedently, adv. (Un-1 12.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa I. 242 The imaginary prerogative he was so unprecedently fond of asserting. Unpreci·pitable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1782 Phil. Trans. LXXII. 76 Now this compound of calx of silver, and silver in its metallic form, may well be unprecipitable by iron.

Unpreci·pitated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. App. 314 The aqua fortis preserving none [of the silver] unprecipitated. 1698 Collier Immor. Stage i. 28 His Incidents are often surprising, and his Plots unprecipitated. 1850 L. Hunt Autobiog. viii. (1860) 159 The horse suddenly came to a stand,.. and I was agreeably surprised to find myself..unprecipitated over his head.

Unpreci·se, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

[1775 Ash.] 1782 Warton Rowley Eng. 47 Chatterton gave a vague unprecise explanation. 1820 Monthly Rev. XCI. 219 The antiquated and unprecise division of emotions into sublime and beautiful. 1858 Carlyle Fredk. Gt. VIII. iv. II. 322 Here is the unprecise but indubitable fact.

Unpreci·sely, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.) 1869 Rossetti Mem. Shelley p. xciii, Lord Eldon either spoke loosely or was reported unprecisely. Unpreci·cidible, a. (Un-1 7.) 1825 Coleridge Lett., Conv., etc. (1836) II. 187 Demands on such quantity of time, as bodily pain and disqualification, with unprecidible interruption, have enabled me to make use of. Unpre·dicable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1865 Masson Rec. Brit. Philos. 392 Under the name of Faith..Hamilton affirmed..much which he declared to be utterly unpredicable in the name of Reason. Unpredi·ct, v. (Un-2 7.) 1671 Milton P. R. III. 395 Means I must use thou say's t, prediction else Will unpredict and fail me of the Throne.

Unpredi·ctable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

In frequent use from c 1880.

1829 M. Raymond Eza. (1889) II. 405 The constant tendency of discovery [is] to reduce to order classes of facts, once thought irregular and unpredictable. 1874 J. Sully Sensation & Intuition 113 The many chances of some unpredictable accident.

Unpre·faced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1801 Bloomfield Rural T. (1802) 51 [He] straight began..Th' unprefac'd History of his early years. 1859 Hooker in Darwin Life & Lett. (1887) II. 242 The three volumes, unprefaced by this, would have chased any Naturalist.

Unprefe·rred, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

†1. Not advanced or promoted.

1483 Act 1 Rich. III, c. 2 § 1 Mony worshipfull men..were compelled..to lyff in greate penurie,..their dettes unpaied and their childeryn unpreferred. 1596 Hawkins Vertogrus x. 123 I.e., would not see them unpreferred to honoures. 1572 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1835) 270, I will yt Alice my wyf & ..my doughters being vnmarried & vnpreferred shall haue their full portions of my goods. 1607 Dekker Northward-Ho iv. Wks. 1873 III. 45 A poore vnpreferd scholler. 1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. IX. vi. § 36 Of which order fourteen only could be found..which were unmarried, unpreferred to cures. 1697 Collier Ess. Hist. Relig. I. 25 There is no such way to make a Scholar, as to keep him under while he is young, or unpreferred.

2. Not regarded with preference.

1884 Imperial Dict. s.v.

†Unpre·gnable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Impregnable.

a. 1386 Rolls of Parlt. III. 225/2 The Mairaltes..were it never so unpreinable. 1481 Caxton Godfrey cxxxii. 196 A dongeon..upon an hylle..whiche the turkes holde so strongly that it is unpreinable. 1560 Daus Sleidane's Comm. xii The Castell, which for the situation was vnpreinable.

b. 1545 Elyot, Inexpugnabilis, vnpreignable. 1561 Daus tr. Bullinger on Apoc. 536 Therefore was there neuer any thing..so mightie or vnpregnable, which the inuincible power of God can not bring to naught. 1572 Trevor Longinus' Surv. World E iv b, Semiramis..enuironed it w^t an vnpregnable wal. 1632 Sherwood s.v.

Unpre·gnant, a. (Un-1 7.)

1602 Shaks. Ham. II. iii. 394 Yet I..peake Like John a dreames, vnpregnant of my cause, And can say nothing. 1603 — Meas. for M. IV. iv. 1 This deede vnshapes me quite, makes me vnpregnant And dull to all proceedings. 1868 Lond. Rev. 8 Aug. 166/2 His work has never been unpregnant in illustration of his mind. 1878 N. Amer. Rev. CXXVI. 48 No such interest can arise when the misfortune is unpregnant.

Unpreju·dged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1888 Times 31 Aug. 3/1 The question of sovereignty remained unprejudged.

†Unpreju·dicate, a. Obs. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Unprejudiced. (Common in 17th c.)

1609 Holy's Let. to T. H. Printer to Rdr. 115 For the better satisfaction of the unpreiudicate Reader. 1650 H. More Observ. in Enthus. Tr., etc. (1656) 78 His humility and purity of mind and unprejudicate reason. 1679 J. Goodman Penit. Pard. i. 1 21 Discourses..plain and intelligible to such unprejudicate minds.

Hence Unpreju·dicately adv., -ness.

a 1662 Sanderson Cases Conse. iii. (1678) 74 Doubts and difficulties meet to be..unprejudicately weighed against those other probabilities. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. II. 416 All the difficulty is to get to that state of Unprejudicateness. 1682 E. Hooker Pref. Pordage's Mystic Div., Poiser. III Shold you please to lai the..Ear of conscientious unprejudicateness as close to the voice of those Mysteries as I did.

†Unpreju·dicated, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] = prec. 1633 Peynne Histrio-m. and Ep. Ded., Imploring..your unprejudicated affections too. 1644 Jessop Angel of Eph. 63 Let the impartial and unprejudicated Reader peruse his words. 1660 Stillingfl. Irenic. ii. vi. § 9 That evidence..which will command assent from an unprejudicated mind. †Unpreju·dicating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1602 Carew Cornwall 69 Who (as I conceive) looked hereinto with an indifferent and unprejudicating eye. Unpre·judice. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) c 1800 Coleridge in Sotheby's Sapis Catalogue 20 Nov. (1899) 16 Religious Musings, which you will read with a Poets eye, with the same unprejudices. 1871 Lowell Study Wind. 92 Carlyle..has now been so long before the world that we may feel toward him something of the unprejudice of posterity.

Unpre·judiced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not affected prejudicially.

1613 Heywood 2 Edward IV, M 4 b, On whom I vow, Leaning King Lewis vnpreiudiced in peace, To spend the whole measure of my kindled rage.

2. Free from prejudice: a. Of persons, the mind, eye, etc.

1637–50 Row Hist. Kirk (Wodrow Soc.) 437 Let the unprejudiced reader judge whether [etc.]. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. 728 To the full Conviction of all Minds Unprejudiced, and Unprepossessed with false Principles. 1710 Steele Spect. No. 4 P 5, I have the high Satisfaction of beholding all Nature with an unprejudiced Eye. 1794 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. II. 72 It is clear to unprejudiced reason, that experiments in philosophy should unremittingly be made. 1842 Borrow Bible in Spain xlix, Surely it is not the part of unprejudiced people to disparage that of which they are ignorant. 1885 J. Payn Talk of Town II. 259 William Henry's affidavit will acquit you of all blame in this matter in the eyes of unprejudiced persons.

absol. 1739 Gordon (title), An Appeal to the Unprejudiced Concerning the present Discontents Occasioned by the late Convention with Spain. 1753 T. Edwards New Transl. Psalms 19 These few instances may be sufficient to convince the unprejudiced, that [etc.].

b. Of opinions, inquiries, etc.

a 1670 South Serm. (1715) IV, 291 Some such Principle of Reason..universally granted by the unprejudiced Apprehensions of Mankind. 1709 Addison Tatler No. 101 P 2 To consider Things in so unprejudiced a manner, that [etc.]. 1770 A. Young Six Months' Tour North (1771) I. Pref. p. xiii, I was forced to make more than one honest farmer half drunk, before I could get sober, unprejudiced intelligence. 1809 Med. Jrnl. XXI. 307 An unprejudiced perusal of these cases. 1839 De la Beche Rep. Geol. Cornw., etc. iv, 101 Fair and unprejudiced discussion. 1896 Olmsted Slave States 702 Reliable and unprejudiced information.

Hence Unpre'judicedly adv., -ness.

1674 Boyle Excell. Theol. ii. v. 230 By having the reasons it presents perspicuously proposed, and unprejudicedly entertained. 1685 H. More Paraclit. Prophet. ii. 46 Who ever reasin considerately and unprejudicedly the 23. Chapter, ..cannot but be fully assured. 1889 Amer. Naturalist Oct. 897 Let us consider this evidence as unprejudicedly..as we can. 1692 H. More Brief Reply Pref. a ij, My impartialness and unprejudicedness. 1796 Clara Affect. (1796) 10 Hearing the Reason of the Case with Patience and Unprejudicedness.

Unprejudi'ciable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1673 O. Walker Educ. 37 In denying all, or most of his desires, though the things be reasonable, or unprejudiciable. Unprejudi'cial, a. (Un-1 7.) 1641 Vind. Smectymnuus ix. 104 Not only unprejudicial to the honour of Episcopacy, but behoveful to the Church. 1657 J. Sergeant Schismatick 156 A base word, capable of a different (and so unprejudicial) signification. Unprejudi'cialness. (Un-1 12.) 1642 J. Goodwin Anti-Cavalierism 10 The unprejudicialnesse or inoffensiveness of it to Saints kingly Throane and dignity. Unpre'late, n. (Un-2 6 b.) a 1670 Hackett Abp. Williams II. (1693) 120 The Archbishop thought not himself absolute, till this man was unprelated. Unprela'tic, a. (Un-1 7.) = next. 1880 F. G. Lee Ch. under Q. Eliz. I. 215 In a fierce dispute..the language uttered and written was both unprelatic and violent.

Unprela'tical, a. (Un-1 7.)

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. III. § 198 The archbishop of York,..by such Unprelatical, Ignominious Arguments, in plain terms advised him, to pass that Act. a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Leicester. ii. (1662) 129 Some highly commended the Zeal of the Bishop,..whilst others condemned this in him, as an unprelatical act. 1857 Trollope Barchester T. v. A new sofa had been introduced,..most unprelatical and almost irreligious. 1858 Bushnell Nat. & Supernat. x. (1864) 329 Vindicator of..a free unprelatical religion.

Unpreme'ditable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ., Pragmanti, A capital one of wind..comes against you ..with such unpremeditable puffs.

Unpreme'ditate, ppl. a. Now arch. (Un-1 8 b, 5 b.] = next.

1551 Robinson More's Utopia (1895) 2 As his talke cold not be fine and eloquent,..but sodein and unpremeditate. 1600 Tate in Gutch Coll. Curr. I, 7 Either unpremeditate, and in hot blood, or else upon..grounded malice. 1651 Life Father Sarpi 174 His answers how unpremeditate soever. 1702 Toleration 70 There is something more excellent that men may hatch by unpremeditate Discourse. 1845 Southey Tale Paraguay III. xxxvi, The voice..Is one which ..Utters all unpremeditate, at will, A modulated squence.

Unpreme'ditated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1591 Shaks. 1 Hen. VI, I. ii. 88 Asks me what question thou canst possible, And I will answer unpremeditated. 1619 A. Newman Pleas. Vis. 2 His vnpremeditated words. 1699 Bentley Phal. 237 Both Comedies and Tragedies for some time were unpremeditated and extemporal. 1768–74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1852) II. 44 Those unpremeditated addresses to Heaven called ejaculations. 1814 Scott Waav. xxvi, The hint..respecting Flora was not unpremeditated. 1878 Stubbs Const. Hist. xviii. III. 9 The scene in Westminster Hall..was no unpremeditated pageant.

Hence Unpreme'ditatedness.

1802–13 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 295 There is no such absolute incompatibility..between recollectedness and unpremeditatedness. 1883 H. Drummond Nat. Law in Spir. W. 280 The suddenness and unpremeditatedness of Prayer.

Unpreme'ditatedly, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1776 G. Semple Building in Water 4 The cost did not exceed..100 guineas, as I had unpremeditatedly mentioned to Mr. Prior. 1826 Disraeli V. Grey iv. 1, He could unpremeditatedly clothe his conceptions in language characteristic of the style of any particular author. 1884 Contemp. Rev. Feb. 250 There is not one of his writings which does not do for us..as it were by the way and unpremeditatedly, what [etc.].

†Unpreme'ditately, adv. Obs. [Un-1 12; cf. Unpremeditate ppl. a.] = prec.

1671 F. Philips Reg. Necess. Ep. Ded., Answers not seldom suddainly and unpremeditately given. 1685 Boyle Of High Veneration 1 Divines..who..talk of Him and his Attributes as freely and as unpremeditately, as..of a Geometrical Figure. a 1721 in W. Ayre Life Pope (1745) I. 140, I, who always speak unpremeditately.

Unpremedita'tion. (Un-1 12, 5 b.)

1807 Ann. Rev. V. 237 It has the vivacity of unpremeditation. 1884 W. Besant Dorothy Forster xxxvi, Asking each other..what means this naked plea of unpremeditation.

†Unpreo'ccupated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1666 J. Sergeant Let. Hanbo 26 To all unprejudic't and unpreoccupated Understandings.

Unpreo'ccupied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

Frequent in recent use (1896–).

[1775 Ash.] 1827 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 408 Every reader whose imagination supplies an unpreoccupied, unrefracting medium to the Apostolic assertion. 1885 B. Harte Snowbound 193 Lee, the only unpreoccupied..spirit in the party.

†Unpre'parate, ppl. a. Obs.—1 (Un-1 8 b.) Unprepared. 1576 Turberv. Venerie 224 Let the scamony be unpreparate, the which you shall mingle amongst all those iuyces.

Unpreparation. rare. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Unpreparedness.

1627 Bp. Hall Holy Observ. § 77 Our cowardlinesse, our vnpreparation, his aduantage. 1646 — Balm Gil. 330 Thy unpreparation shall make him dreadfull. 1883 Standard 9 Jan. 2 The state of unpreparation may be imagined.

Unprepa're, v. rare. [Un-2 3 or Un-1 14.]

1. trans. To undo the preparation of.

1598 Florio, Sparecchiare, to vngarnish, to vnprepare, to vndecke.

2. To make unprepared; to unfit.

1645 Milton Tetrach. 36 Nothing more unhallows a man, more unprepares him to the service of God in any duty. 1788 Wesley Wks. (1872) VI. 154 No business..can hinder any man..unless it be such as unprepares him for heaven. 1852 Lever M. Tiernay iii, The gloom of the place..equally unprepared me for what was to come.

Unprepa'red, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Of persons: Not in a state of preparation; not ready (for defence, reply, etc.).

1549 Cheke Hurt Sedit. (1569) G ij b, Although ye thinke your selues able to match with a few vnprepared Gentlemen, and put them from their houses. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 79 Where so euer they fownde any of owre men vnprepared, they slewe them. 1606 Daniel Funeral Poem Earl Devon. Wks. (1601) 11 Hie hath cause to disappoint his foe, And many times surpris'd him vnprepared. 1667 Milton P. L. viii, 197 What is more,..renders us in things that most concerne Vnpractis'd, vnprepar'd, and still to seek. 1695 Tryon Dreams 1. 3 Such discourses seem very ..extravagant to their unprepared Apprehensions. 1760 Goldsm. Cit. W. iv, We were overtaken by a heavy shower of rain. I was unprepared; but they..had large coats. 1828 Byron Ch. Her. iv. xxxvii, Lest the truth should shine Too brightly on the unprepared mind. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. v. I. 662 Cornish was arrested..and was brought altogether unprepared to the bar of the Old Bailey. 1889 Gretton Memory's Harbs. 165 His Lordship requested one of the clergymen..to preach the sermon. Naturally they one and all declined, as unprepared.

absol. a 1543 S. Gondolphie Quatrains ii. 11 The unpreparé'd this grace do find, Ye cool and do refresh the mind.

b. Const. for, or to with inf.

1549 Cheke Hurt Sedit. (1569) F ij, Exeter..being..vnfurnished, vnprepared, for so long a siege. 1678 Proph. & Predict. Jas. Usher (Hindley, 111) 11 Look that you be not found unprepared for. 1742 Hamilton Wallace viii. (1816) 135 Wallace..Surpris'd the English, unprepar'd for fight. 1794 S. Williams Hist. Vermont 174 That they might not be wholly unprepared to begin their course. 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose xvii, Being taken by surprise, they were totally unprepared for resistance. 1858 Dickens Mut. Fr. I. xv, I am rather unprepared to see you.

c. spec. Not prepared for death.

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iii. ii. 65 'Tis a vile thing to dye, When men are vnprepar'd. c 1600 Chalkhill Thealma & Cl. 1215 Death at no time finds goodness unprepared. 1611 Beaum. & Fl. Maid's Trag. v. i, Stir not; if thou dost, I'le take thee unprepar'd, thy fears upon thee, That make thy sins look double. 1665 Boyle S. Occon. Rel. ii. xi, Upon a Death Bed,..that very Thought might justly prove Dismal to an unprepar'd Man. 1796 Southey Joan of Arc x. (1853) 124 Hurried the confessor To shrive them, lest with unprepared souls They to their death might go. 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. xii. 215 The slaughter of hundreds..of human beings totally unprepared.

transf. 1897 B. Camm Benedict. Mart. in Eng. I. 31 Carried off by sudden and unprepared death before the priest could be summoned.

†2. Const. of. Not provided with. Obs.—1

1732 J. Louthian Form of Process (1752) 45 If the Prisoner, through Ignorance, come unprepared of Lawyers.

3. Not made ready; left, introduced, taken, etc., without special preparation.

1598 Shaks. John II. i. 560 This vnlook'd for vnprepared pompe. a 1751 Bolingbroke Study Hist. ii. (1752) I. 41 The events we are witnesses of..appear to us very often original, unprepared, single, and un-relative. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Cecilia V. 297 Her sight, thus unprepared,..might be too affecting for his weak frame. 1838 G. F. Graham Mus. Comp. 23/2 Monteverde began to introduce unprepared sevenths and ninths. 1858 Greenhey Gunnery 376 An ordinary temperament, taken from a number promiscuously. 1874 Pusey Lent. Serm. 8 We take refuge in the thought, that these were not sudden unprepared apostasies.

Unpreparedly, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.)

1606 Bp. Hall Medit. & Vows i. lvi. 63 If hee die suddainly, yet hee dies not vnpreparedly. 1684 J. Goodman Old Relig. ii. vi. 319 It seems far the more pardonable to come, though somewhat unpreparedly, than not to come because of unpreparedness. 1782 S. J. Pratt Emma Corbett (ed. 4) I. 194 She hath an affecting trick of..shedding tears, which burst upon one so unpreparedly, that [etc.]. 1825 J. Neal Brs. Jonathan II. 134 We are like the young waterfowl,..launched upon their natural..element, unpreparedly. 1857 Geo. P. Thompson Audi Alt. I. xxxiv. 131 There is such a thing as going into danger with a full knowledge of where the danger lies, and there is doing it blindly and unpreparedly.

Unprepa'redness. (Un-1 12.)

1627 in Foster Eng. Factories India (1909) III. 169 Any advantage possible to bee taken (by theire unpreparednes). 1640 Habington Edw. IV, 77 There could bee no excuse but in the unpreparednesse of his mind. 1684 [see prec.]. a 1716 Blackall Wks. (1723) I. 20 Our Unpreparedness for the Duty will not excuse the Omission of it. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. 416 They had, for..his unpreparedness for it [sc. his fate], but too much grounds for apprehension with regard to his future happiness. 1824 Bentham Tk. Fallacies Wks. 1843 II. 411/1 Supposing the unpreparedness real, the reasonable and practical inference is—say nothing. 1873 Spencer Stud. Sociol. ix. (1877) 223 The French..suffered catastrophes from this and other kinds of unpreparedness.

Unpreponderating, ppl. a. (Un-1 12.) 1818 Ranken Hist. France v. i. V. 204 Henry..proposed to throw his weight into the unpreponderating scale.

Unpresupposed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1648 Boyle Seraph. Love (1659) 15 That with compos'd and unpresupposed thoughts you may judge of the Object. I propose to you. 1659 South Serm. (1679) 72 The Unpresupposed on the one hand, and the well disposed on the other. 1705 Stanhope Paraph. I. 39 The Miracle upon Lazarus..which put the unpresupposed Multitudes upon celebrating the Glories of this Mighty Prophet. 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ. (1773) I. 67 Being pretty much unpresupposed, there must have been grounds for what struck me the moment I cast my eyes over the parterre. 1818 Foster Ess. (1844) I. 468 A mind of..strong intelligence.., entirely unpresupposed with any theory or system.

Hence Unpresupposedly adv.

1748 Richardson Clarissa III. 211 Had she been left unpresupposedly to herself, she would have shewn favour to me.

Unpresupposing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1826 Tuckey Narr. Exped. R. Zaire iii. (1818) 108 The facts..were by no means unpresupposing. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey I. 154 The marsh used to bear the unpresupposing name of Borboros, or 'Mud'. 1889 W. S. Gilbert Gondoliers II. 39 It's extraordinary what unpresupposing people one can love if one gives one's mind to it.

Unpreo'sterous, a. (Un-1 7.) a 1618 Sylvester Elegiac Epistle 79 That Hand alone,..Un-partiall ever, Unpreposterous; How ever Other it may seem to us. Unpresagefu'l, a. (Un-2 7.) 1888 Swinburne Tristram of Lyonesse, etc. 144 Unwittingly, with unpreageful eyes.

Unpre'sbyterated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1650 Jeanes Want of Ch. Gent. (title-p.), Whether or no the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper may be lawfully administred in an unPresbyterated Church, that is, a Church destitute of Ruling Elders. 1656 G. Collier Ans. 15 Quest. 10 While this church is unpresbyterated.

Unpre'scient, a. (Un-1 7.)

1866 Lytton Last Tales Miletus, Secret Way 15 Having heard all with not unprescient fears. 1874 Lewes Probl. Life & Mind I. 229 A blind impulse unprescient of means and end.

Unprescri'bed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1642 Bp. Hall Let. from Tower 4, I have grated upon no mans conscience by the pressure..of the late Oath, or any unprescribed Ceremonie. 1690 C. Nesse O. & N. Test. I. 72 He left nothing unprescribed, that..mans foolish brain might find out room to foist anything into his service. 1768 R. Wood Ess. Genius Homer (1775) 170 A certain proportion of voluntary attention in one sex, and of unprescribed reserve in the other.

Unpresentable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1828 Q. Rev. XXXVIII. 204 Another worse evil, the name of which, in his days, was not unpresentable, 'in prose or rhyme'. 1857 J. G. Wood Objects Sea Shore 55 A pair of snowy white trowsers were covered with the sable fluid, and rendered entirely unpresentable. 1891 T. Hardy Ethelberta xlviii, She still felt so distressed and unpresentable that she resolved not to allow Lord Mountclere to see her.

Hence Unpresentabi'lity, -ableness.

1862 Rossetti in Fraser's Mag. July 73 For years past it has..candidly admitted its own unpresentableness. 1882 Sarah Tytler Bride's Pass ii, His unpresentability when fresh from some of his functions. 1886 Ruskin Præterita I. x. 230 My own shyness and unpresentableness were farther stiffened..by a patriotic and Protestant conceit.

Unpresented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

(a) 1523 in W. H. Turner Select. Rec. Oxford (1880) 42 All the trespassors..have byn permitted to passe unpresented. 1548 in Strype Eccl. Mem. (1721) II. App. Q. 57 We also..advertise you, that for no Favour ye go about to excuse or leave unpresented, those that..have offended. 1620 Quarles Div. Poems, Feast for Worms ix. ix, No crime unsilted, no sinne unpresented, Can lurke unseene. 1732 J. Louthian Form of Process (1752) 85 You shall present no Person for Hatred, Malice, or Ill-will; nor leave any thing unpresented for Fear, Favour or Affection.

(b) 1657 Baynes in Burton's Diary (1828) II. 278 There are many things yet unpresented in the Petition. c 1732 in A. Thomson T. Boston of Ettrick (1852) 251 [He] was..scrupulous of anything new or unpresented, until he was thoroughly satisfied of its necessity. 1895 Petrie Egypt. Tales Ser. I. Introd. x It is strange that..the oldest literature ..should yet have remained unpresented to English readers.

(c) 1864 G. A. Sala in Daily Tel. 25 Feb., I went back to New York unavoidably unpresented (to the President). 1899 W. C. Hazlitt 4 Generations II. 221 The Queen and the Court,..their almost affecting solicitude for the health even of the Unpresented.

Unpreservable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1841 E. Forbes in Geikie Mem. x. (1861) 277, I am..drawing all the unpreservable animals..that fall in my way. Unpreserved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1648 Hexham II, Onbeleeft, Vnpreserved, or Vnsaved. [1775 Ash.] 1859 Atkinson Walks & Talks 380 As good a day's fly-fishing as in almost any unpreserved stream in the kingdom.

Unpressed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not pressed or squeezed; not subjected to pressure.

1552 Acc. Ld. High Trens. Scot. X. 123 There ellins, thre quarters, unprest klak. 1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. III. xiii. 130 Have I my pillow left unpressed in Rome,..to be abus'd By one that lookes on Feeders? 1615 G. SANDYS Trav. 65 A beastly kind of unpressed cheese. 1718 PRIOR Solomon I. 346 Unpress'd their Vintage, and unsilt their Land. 1794 MESS. RADCLIFFE Myst. Udolpho I. The forest-walk, where flowers unpress'd, Bow not their tall heads. 1812 CARY Dante, Purg. VI. 90 What boots it, that thy reins Justinian's hand Refitted, if thy saddle be unpressed? 1879 E. ARNOLD Lt. Asia IV. 90 On our bed there lay An unpressed pillow.

b. Not obtained by pressing.

1630 QUARLES Div. Poems 309 Our tender Vine Should cheare thy palate with her unpress wine. 1708 J. PHILIPS Cyder I. 414 Snails, that creep O'er the ripe Fruitage,..and unprest Cyder drink. 1802 LAMB J. Woodvil III. Because your poet-born bath an internal wine,..unpressed in mortal wine-presses.

2. Not pressed into service; unconstrained.

1603 J. DAVIES Microcosmus Wks. (Grosart) I. 188 Our Kings might warre with Tenants of their owne, Who would unprest haue yet bin prest for shame To follow their Liege-land-lords. 1871 H. KING Ovid's Met. XIII. 43 The first to arms who sprang Unpressed, by no informer dragged to war.

†Unpre·st, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 7.] Not ready, willing, or well-disposed. 13.. St. Erkenwolde 285 Nas I a paynym vnpreste þat neuer thi pilte knewe? 1568 T. HOWELL Newe Sonets (1879) 131 When Pen is wanton, And wise wanton, Cupid combing thee vnto adrest. Unpresu·med, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1742 RICHARDSON Pamela I. p. xx, It adorn'd her with such unpresum'd Increase of Loveliness.

Unpresu·ming, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1770 ANSWERER Pleas. Humour iv. 16 An unpresuming guest. 1779 MOORE View of Soc. France, etc. I. 28 Unpresuming in argument, and..as well bred as those who have no other pretension. 1793 V. KNOX Lett. to Yng. Nobleman Wks. 1824 V. 91 To the entire exclusion of modest unpresuming men. 1830 W. L. BOWLES Ken I. p. xviii, The descendant of the great though unpresuming Locke. 1866 LIDDON Bampton Lect. i. (1875) 7 The most unpresuming of the titles of the Messiah.

Hence Unpresu·mingness.

a 1859 DE QUINCEY in H. A. Page Life (1877) II. xix. 199 Two sound qualities are at the root of these unpleasant phenomena—modesty or unpresumingness in the first place.

Unpresumptuous, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1704 ANSWERER Embassy Hanover x, Henceforth, I'll urge my unpresumptuous Prayer. 1784 COWPER Task v. 746 A propriety that none can feel, But who..Can lift to heaven an unpresumptuous eye. †1813 LAMB Christ's Hospital Wks. 1818 I. 162 The common sense of that unpretending assemblage of boys. 1822 WORDSW. Eccles. Sonn., Conch. 3 The Word with unpresumptuous faith explored.

Unpresumptuously, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) 1846 WOESTER (Ching Thacher). 1850 W. ANDERSON Regnerr. 262 Such a state of mind..is sometimes..attained to unpresumptuously and legitimately. Unpretended, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1611 FLORIO, Impretenso, unpretended. 1649 JER. TAYLOR Gt. Exemp. Disc. xx. § 21 It is to be supposed he hath no great account to make for unpretended injuries.

Unpretending, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1697 COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. I. 101 Ought they not to be somewhat Frugal, and Unpretending in their Appearance? 1730 POPE Let. in Johnson 1. 70 Unknown, Feeling himself honest, true, & unpretending to more than was his own. 1795-6 WORDSW. Borderers II. 933 The unpretending ground we mortals tread. 1827 SCOTT Chron. Canongate Introd., Mere dignity of mind and the sense of propriety, assisted by unpretending good sense and temper. 1869 J. LANG Wand. India 7 She..has brought up a large family in the most respectable and unpretending style. 1885 MRS. ALEXANDER A'Deaf I, Channing with the unpretending refinement of her surroundings. 1891 FARRAR Darkn. & Dawn xliv, His house..was so unpretending as to excite the wonder of those who saw it.

Unpreto·ndingly, adv. (Un-¹ 11; cf. prec.)

1. Without pretence; genuinely.

1828 MOORE in Mem. V. 204 It is impossible for a royal personage to be more naturally and unpretendingly unaffected.

2. Without pretension; unassumingly.

1855 COL. WISEMAN Fabiola 359 Miriam would follow up, humbly and unpretendingly,..the instructions given by the holy Dionysius. 1869 W. COLLINS Q. of Hearts I. iv. 99 These narratives were written plainly and unpretendingly.

Unpretendingness. [Un-¹ 12.] Absence of pretension; unassumingness.

1727 BOYER Dict. Royal 11, Unpretendingness, modestie. 1768 Women of Honor II. 1. 23 There was in her..so sweet an unpretendingness..as astonished and captivated me. 1832 S. AUSTIN tr. Tour Germ. Prince III. xi, 315 She is goodness, cordiality, and unpretendingness itself. 1863 COWDEN CLARKE Shakes. Char. xvii. 437 One of the most agreeable [scenes] in the whole play, by reason of its familiar domestic unpretendingness.

Unpretentious, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1859 E. FITZGERALD in Shorter Borrow & His Circle (1913) 359 They are all perfectly quiet, sensible, and unpretentious girls. 1874 MICKLETHWAITE Mod. Par. Churches 175 Unpretentious village towers. 1887 Spectator 26 Mar. 422/2 The story is quite simple and unpretentious.

Hence Unpreto·ntiously adv., -ness.

1865 GEO. ELIOT Romola II. iii, Life were that fortune..tasily and unpretentiously. 1867 Sat. Rev. 23 Aug. 228/1 Its entire unpretentiousness of style..and unimaginative narrative.

Unpretti·ness. [Un-¹ 12; cf. next.] 1675 S. SEWALL Diary 29 Apr., My Father..goes to live there, notwithstanding the littleness and unpretti·ness of the house. 1723 RICHARDSON Grandison (1781) III. vii. 49 She says, it is not pretty in a young Lady to sigh: But where is the unpretti·ness of it?

Unpretty, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1768 MME. D'ARBLAY Let. 15 Oct., His English is blundering, but not unpretty. 1828 MISS MITFORD Village Ser. III. 40 Too refined for the youths of her own station, and too unpretty to attract those above them. 1846 SIR WALTER Hills of Shalestone xxviii. 308 [She] shewed the white ivory between her not unpretty parted [lips].

Unprevailing, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 10.]

1. Ineffective, unsuccessful.

1602 SHAKS. Ham. I. iii. 107 King. We pray you throw to earth This unprevailing woe, and think of us As of a Father. 1693 LOCKE Educ. § 78 If she had left off sooner.. she had spoil'd the Child for ever, and, by her unprevailing Blows, only confirm'd her Refractoriness. 1726-30 Lett. Pr. Hist's Trial. (1722) I. 292 Beauty draws but by a Hair, and that's but weak and unprevailing. a 1806 HORSLEY Serm. xxvii. (1816) II. 344 The bare unprevailing wish that we were what we necessarily understand we ought to be. 1843 SHELLEY Q. Mab VII. 248 The unprevailing malice of my Fue.

b. Quasi-adv. Ineffectively, vainly.

1632 LITHGOW Trav. VII. 326 We were..assayled by the Cursaers..; yet vnprevailing, for we were well prouided with good Munition. 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam I. xiv, Wile baffled wile, and strength encountered strength, Thus long, but unprevailing.

2. Not prevalent or usual.

1829 MILL Liberty 97 It is only desired to restrain the employment of them against the prevailing opinion: against the unprevailing they may..be used without general disapproval.

Unprevalent, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1690 BOYLE Christian Virtuoso Pref. A 3, The formerly unprevalent Desires of those that would have it appear in Public. 1880 RAMSAY in Daily News 26 Aug. 5/7 In 1855 the old idea was still not unprevalent. †Unprevaricate, a. Obs. rare. (Un-¹ 9.) Not perverted. 1632 CHARLETON Darkn. Atheism Dispelled 27 To that unprevaricate judgment, that shall maturely perpend the contents. Unprevaricating, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1792 V. KNOX Serm. viii. 286 The unprevaricating dictates of a clear conscience.

Unprevertible, a. (Un-¹ 7, § b.)

1616 Rich Cabinet 31 A cuckold is an unpreventable destiny. a 1670 HACKET Abp. Williams I. (1693) 21 Nineteen Parts of a great Incorporation should be Condemn'd, for the Frowardness, and that unprevertable by all the Power we had of the twentieth Part. 1787 BENTHAM Def. Usury iii. 29 There are so many unpreventable ways of letting it run out at the bung-hole. 1816 — Offic. Apt. Maximised, Extr. Const. Code (1830) 55 Of this repugnance ..the obstacles unprevertable. 1895 Voice (N.Y.) 5 Sept. 1/2 One of those terrible, unforeseen, and apparently unpreventable accidents.

Hence Unprevertableness.

1881 Athen. 1 July 342 The element of unprevertableness or inescapableness.

Unpreventably, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) a 1639 W. WHATELEY Prototypes I. xxi. (1640) 260 Though death should present itself to you naked,..and that it view unpreventably. 1816 BENTHAM Chrestom. Wks. 1843 VIII. 82 Constantly and unpreventably it actually is so.

Unprevented, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1585 GREENE Planetomachia H 4, Hee that seeketh to haste his purpose unpreuented. 1602 CAMPION Art Engl. Poesie iv. 1 The more secure, the more the stroke we feele Of vnpreuented harms. 1667 MILTON P. L. III. 231 Shall grace not find means, that..Comes unprevented, unimpor'd, unsought? 1735 THOMSON Liberty III. 499 The meanly-patient death, That waits a tyrant's unprevented stroke.

Unpreventible, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1676 Doctrine of Devils 120 This seems unpreventible where this Doctrine is entertained. 1885 DUCANE Punishm. Crime 124 The evils of the bulk system were..unpreventible.

Unprevisible, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1667 WATERHOUSE Fire Lond. 96 So dangerous a thing is that, which the consequence calls unprevenive wisdom. Unpricable, a. (Un-¹ 7.) Inestimable. a 1642 BP. MOUNTAGU Acts & Mon. (1642) 30 This unpricable benefit conferred upon man.

Unpriced, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

1. Beyond price; priceless.

1887 WHITTIER Last Walk in Autumn xvi, He, who to the lettered wealth Of ages adds the love unpriced. 1858 NEALE Bernard de M. 27 Thine ageless walls are bonded With amethyst unpriced.

2. Not having the price affixed.

1888 Athenæum 15 Sept. 355/3 The books offered for sale are unpriced.

Unpricked, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

1. Not marked with pricks or dots; †spec. (of a Hebrew text), unpointed.

1588 J. MELLIS Briefe Instr. P iij b, Diuers parcels more may remaine vnpricked in the Leager, which ought not to bee put in the Iournall. 1690 C. NESSE O. & N. Test. I. 426 The Septuagint, who in their unprick'd Bibles did read [etc.]. 1695 J. EDWARDS Perfect. Script. III. 493 These Interpreters in their unpricked Bibles mistook [the Hebrew text].

2. Not subjected to pricking; unpunctured.

1611 COTGR. s.v. Plumer, To pill, or vnphrisk, a chestnut.. which..few can doe easily, or with vnphrisk fingers. 1882 J. PARKER Apost. Life I. 74 If your heart be left unpricked, ..the word has been in vain.

†3. Not turned sour. Obs.

c 1645 HOWELL Lett. (1650) I. 58, I have sent you a Runlet of it..; and, if it com safe and unprick'd, I pray bestow som Bottles upon the Lady (you know).

Unprickled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) a 1711 KEN Hymnolobo Wks. 1721 III. 318 Sweet Rosebuds on unprickled Bushes blew. 1748 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Fish, The Smooth, or unprickled Hound-Fish. Unprickly, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1660 Catal. Plant. Cantab. Index 23 Unprickly Sowthistle, Sonchus lævis. 1798 Phil. Trans. L. 513 Smooth or unprickly Sowthistle. Unprided, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8, 6 b.) 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. xxxiii. 104 Pittifull! that we should rather mischiefe our selves, then be content to be vnpridled.

Unprie·d, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 c.) 1757 Hist. 2 Mod. Advent. II. 191, I left no Corner unpryed into, to find out a Lady to my Taste.

Unpri·est, v. [Un-² 6 b, 4. Cf. Du. ontpriesteren.]

1. trans. To deprive (a person) of the character or office of priest.

1550 BALE Eng. Votaries II. 63 b, If he were a secular prest, or one vnprested by them, he should clerely lose his benefyce. 1581 J. BELL Haddon's Answ. Osor. 285 One Stephen was made Pope, who..doth first vnpriest, and afterwardes newpriest agayne all such as Consti. before him had priested. 1641 R. BROOKE Eng. Episc. 74, I finde..some others unpriested by Councells because ordained by Presbyters alone. 1691 GRASCOMBE Reply Vind. Disc. 11 To take away our Orders, and Unpriest and Unbishop us. 1713 CALAMY Life Baxter (ed. 2) xvii. 466 No Secular Power could Unbishop and Unpriest, or disable them. A Clergyman's Authority (said they) is from God. 1839 J. ROGERS Antipophyr. xvii. § 2. 340 Thousands of men may have.. brought disorder and nullity into the kirk, unpriesting the priesthood. 1868 BROWNING King & Bk. VI. 1870 Unpriest me,..Remove me from the midst, no longer priest.

2. To deprive, or make free, of priests.

1844 MOZLEY Ess. (1878) II. 33 This ideal of a Church of course utterly unpriested it, and a priest, accordingly, Arnold could not tolerate.

Unpri·sted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) Not furnished with a priest.

1548 GEST Pr. Masse E iii b, Paul spoke the selue same wordes vnto the vnprested Corinthians. 1596 BELL Surv. Popery III. x. 406 S. Paul..did communicate the vnpriested Corinthians vnder both kinds. 1858 ALLINGHAM 50 Mod. Poems (1865) 46 Though living unpriested and dying unshriven.

Unpri·stly, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1537 LATIMER Serm. & Rem. (Parker Soc.) 390 That unpristly priest, whose damsel was brought to bed slate. 1546 BALE Eng. Votaries I. 66 Kynge Edgare..rebuked the prestes..for..their vnpresttye aparellynges. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xiii. 1 The two vnjust Intruders on the Crowne:..the one by vnpriestly forces, the other by vnpriestly fraud. 1790 PENNANT London 19 The people, enraged at his unpriestly conduct, would have torn him to pieces. 1837 J. H. NEWMAN Proph. Office Ch. 403 The Asmoneans, who, besides their unpriestly character, were many of them stained with crimes.

Unpri·stly, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) 1554 BONNER Articles A iij, Whether they..vse common games or playes, or behaue themselfes other wise vnpriestly and vnseemly. Unpri·me, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1879 Encycl. Brit. IX. 839/1 Unprime for seals part with their overhair very reluctantly. Unpri·med, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1802 THORNBURY Turner I. 215 Turner had the greatest horror of the pictures being lined, having commenced it with sized colours on unprimed cloth. 1881 LE CONTE Sight 234 The position[s].. shown by the unprimed and the primed vinculum respectively.

Unpri·mitive, a. (Un-¹ 7, § b.)

1708 COLLIER Eccl. Hist. v. 48 [To] acquiesce under so unprimitive, and uncharitable a Practice. 1746 J. CHAPMAN Popery 2 The unscriptural, unprimitive Crudities of the Romish Principles. 1899 FILLEUL (title), A Sacerdotal Ministry in the Christian Church: Unscriptural, Unprimitive, and High Treason against Christ.

Unpri·nce, v. (Un-² 6 b.)

1602 CHETTLE Hoffman II. (1631) C 4, You were better vnknighted then vnprinced. a 1661 FULLER Worthies, Warwickshire (1662) 122 Queen Mary..would not Unprince herself to Obey his Holiness.

Unpri·ncelike, a. and adv. (Un-¹ 7 c, 11 b.)

1579 J. STUBBES Gaping Gulf F 4 b, Thus vnmanlike, vnprincelike, secrete,..french kind of woene [= wooing]. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. VII. xii. § 2. 347 With shamelesse and vnprincelike lust, he abused a Lady of great estate. 1659 FULLER Holy War I. xv. 23 Alexius..most unprincelike brake his word.

Unpri·ncelines. (Un-¹ 12; cf. next.) 1860 FORSTER Gr. Rebellion 97 Never was Kirk so rebellious, in flaming up..against the sovereign's unprinceliness and tongedness.

Unpri·ncely, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1536 [?] ANNE BOLEYN Lett. (1714) 38 Your unprincely and cruel usage of me. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia v. 1 [I] not Constant suffering that your unprincely dealing hath purchased unto you. 1611 [see UNPRIESTLY 2.] 1612 SHERLEY Trav. Persia 29 As farre from..vanity as from all vnprincely signes, or acts. 1649 MILTON Eikon. ix. 78 Not forgetting the unprincely usage, and..the abolishing of Parliaments. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) II. 12 Nor would the unprincely wretch marry her till [etc.]. 1821 JOANNA BAILLIE Metr. Leg. Wallace lxix, A base unprincely compact. 1881 TENNYSON Cup I. i, Some unprincely violence to a woman.

Unpri·ncely, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) a 1548 HALL Chron. Hen. IV 7 b, He most tirannously and vnprincely said that [etc.]. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. 486/2 If Princes can bee thus vnprincely degenerous. Unpri·nceness, v. (Un-² 6 b.) 1663 R. STAPYLTON Slighted Maid II 22, I have Unlorded my self and Unprincess'd thee, Granchild Fritilla.

Unpri·ncipal, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1541 R. COPLAND Guydon's Quest. Chirurgy c ij, Howe many prynycypal membres be there, and howe many vnprynycypal? Unpri·nciple, v. (Un-² 6 b.) 1713 Gentl. Instructed II. 108 The Press has not only effeminated the Mind, but Unprincipl'd the Understanding. 1760-72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) I. 87 When I behold so many scoundrels..I reflect, that they have been principled, or rather unprincipled, by such tutors as Mr. Vindex.

Unpri·ncipled, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

1. Not instructed or grounded in something.

1654 MILTON Comus 367, I do not think my sister so to seek, Or so unprincipl'd in vertues book. 1644 — Educ. 3 Others betake them to State affairs, with souls so unprincipl'd in vertue, and true generous breeding, that [etc.].

2. Of persons, etc.: Not possessed of fixed, sound, or honourable principles of conduct.

1644 MILTON Judgm. Bucer 26 God..will also give them.. to inform themselves rightly in the greatest and principl'd age. 1681 FLAVEL Meth. Grace v. 102 An unprincipled professor must be squeezed by some weight of affliction, ere he will yield one tear. 1771 GOLDSM. Hist. Eng. I. 353 Every office..was bestowed on these unprincipled strangers. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla V. 506 [It] opened to his unprincipled mind a scheme yet more flagitious. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. vi. II. 112 Several men not less unprincipled than Sunderland. 1898 E. JENKINS Haverholme 30 A couple of unprincipled rascals.

absol. 1834 Tait's Mag. May 222/2 These clamours of the wealthy, the timid, or the unprincipled.

3. Based upon, exhibiting, want of principles.

1782 V. Knox Ess. cxx. (1819) II. 9 There are, indeed, many who are esteemed good sort of persons, but whose goodness is unprincipled. 1797 Burke Regic. Peace ii. ▼22 Whilst the monarchies subsisted, this unprincipled cession was what the influence of the elder branch..never dared to attempt on the younger. 1841 Thackeray Gt. Hoggarty Diam. vii, I thought this rather cruel and unprincipled conduct. 1871 Freeman Hist. Fed. Gov. Ser. I. xi. 331 The admission of Philip the Good was quite..unprincipled.

Hence Unprincipledness.

a 1812 Buckminster Serm. (1827) 362 Their strange union ..of exquisite sensibility and practical unprincipledness. 1865 Pall Mall G. 12 Dec. 2 A settled unprincipledness has been eating its way into the public opinion of Europe.

Unprint, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1842 S. R. Maitland Notes ii. 81 Whatever he may say now, he cannot unprint his Vindication of Fox.

Unprintable, a. and sb. [Un-[1] 7 b, 12.]

1. adj. Not fit to be printed. (Common c 1893--.) 1871 St. Paul's Mag. Aug. 457 Articles that were utterly unprintable. 1898 Punch 9 July 10/1 What the groom says is unprintable!

2. sb. pl. Trousers; = Unmentionable sb.

1850 W. W. Reade Liberty Hall I. iii. 32 Arrayed in black coat, tie, studs, waistcoat, unprintables.

Unprinted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1532 More Confut. Tyndale Wks. 627/2 When he cometh to my second bole, [he] goeth fro the first Chapiter to the third, as though the prynter had left the second vnprinted. 1551 Recorde Pathw. Knowl. ii. Pref., The other bookes, whiche now are lefte vnprinted. 1609 Boys Expos. Princ. Script. 93 This may teach..all superiours who prescribe lawes vnto other, to beware first an vnprinted law themselves. a 1683 Oldham Wks. (1686) 112 Wit should be open, ..Not lurk in sly unprinted privacy. 1729 T. Innes Crit. Essay (1879) 117 The most ancient now extant even of the unprinted Irish historians. 1796 Lamb Let. to Coleridge in Final Mem. ii. 211 You have scarce enough unprinted to make a second volume with Lloyd. 1860 Tyndall Glac. ii. xiv. 299 The paper..might have remained unprinted, had not another publication..called it forth. 1884 A. R. Penrington Wellif. viii. 247 He expresses himself still more strongly in his unprinted writings.

Unprison, v. [Un-[2] 5.] trans. To free from prison.

1390 Gower Conf. III. 202 Therbellis king of Bulgarie.. Justinian hath unprisoned. 1598 Florio, Discarcerare, to vnprison. 1633 Heywood Eng. Traveller ii 3 Now is the Goats deliuerie; Through this backe gate Shift for your selues, I heere vnprison all. 1635 To C'less Huntington Donne's Wks. 1912 I. 418 Fire rose, and each from other but unty'd, Them selves unprison'd were and purify'd. 1827 Montgomery Pelican Isl. i. 119 Then the wind Unprisoned, blew its trumpet loud.

Unprisonable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1878 M. & F. Collins Vill. Comedy i. xx 261 The agile and unprisonable spirit of man. Unprisoned, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8.) Not put in prison. a 1844 Campbell Napoleon & Sailor 10 They suffer'd him ..Unprison'd on the shore to roam. Unprisoned, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[2] 8 or f. Unprison v.) Released from prison. 1840 Dickens Old C. Shop iii, Perhaps not one of the unprisoned souls had been able [etc.]. †Unprivation. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 12.) Continuance (of existence). a 1528 F. Grevil Calica, 'Down in the Depth' iii, With glory scourging all the Sp'rits infernall, And vncreated Hell with vnprivation.

Unprivileged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1590 Swinburne Testaments 112 Such disposition..maie be lawfulle and properlie said to be a testament, whether the same be..priuileged or vnpriuileged. 1592 Warner Alb. Eng. viii. xxxiv. 149 But of vnpriuileged blood yet hadde he store to spill. 1702 Rowe Tamerl. i. i. 100 The Boast and Master-piece of the great Maker, That wears in vain th' Impression of his Image Unprivileged from thee, 1791 Macintosh Vindic. Gallicae 252 They are a small body, united to the mass.., and returning to it, undistinguished and unprivileged, the majority of their children. 1818 Hallam Mid. Ages (1819) I. 443 The arrangement..had still left several kinds of artisans unincorporated, and consequently unprivileged. 1881 L. Wallace Ben-Hur vi. ii, To dwell with none but lepers; to be utterly unprivileged.

Unprizable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

1. Not to be prized; of little worth.

1601 Shaks. Twel. N. v. i. 58 A bawbling Vessell was the Captaine of, For shallow draught and bulke vnprizable.

†2. Beyond all price; inestimable. Obs.

1604 T. Wright Passions v. iv. 246 Some gifts are..so vnprizable, that a man is never able perfitly to recompence them. 1616 Breton Good & Bad Wks. (Grosart) 12/2 A Quiet Woman is..a iewel vnprizable and a rare vnweakable. 1634 W. Tirwhyt tr. Balzac's Lett. (vol. I) 258 She is rich, but my liberty is unprizable.

Unprized, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Unpriced; of which the price has not been fixed. Obs.

1445 Extr. Aberdeen Reg. (1844) I. 14 That thai sell na flesche vnprisis,..vnder the payne of tynsal of the flesche.

2. Not prized or valued.

c 1600 Donne Elegy iii. 6 Women are like the Arts, forc'd unto none, Open to all searchers, unpriz'd, if unknowne. 1615 G. Wither Fidelia 707 Though my faith must now despised be, Vnpriz'd, vnvalued at the lowest rate. 1648 Herrick n. Dogdevel, Vnpaled, or Vnrated. 1821 Worksw. Italian Itinerant 82 Seemingly a Thing despised; Even by the sun and air unprized.

†3. ? Priceless. Obs. (Probably = prec.)

1605 Shaks. Lear i. i. 262 Not all the Dukes of watrish Burgundy Can buy this vnpriz'd precious Maid of me.

†Unpro·chable, a. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] Unapproachable. 1544 Betham Precepts War i. cxvii. F viij, The vnprocheable humanitie of Cesar.

†Unpro·bable, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] a. Incapable of proof. b. Improbable, unlikely.

1532 More Confut. Tyndale Wks. 429/1 When Tyndall hath proued hys vnprobable case, that women may consecrate the body of Christ. 1588 Frauncr Lawiers Logic Ded. ¶ 3 The probable assertion comprized in your last two Epithetes. 1602 T. Fitzherbert Apol. 4 The one [point], no doubt in their owne opinions vncertayne, and in ours altogether vnprobable, if not vnpossible. 1652 Gaule Magastrom. 108 Is not, then, the latter..supposition still more vnprobable? 1684 Boyle Porousn. Anim. & Solid Bod. vi. 104, I thought it not very unprobable that the great heat ..might close..some of the Crystalline Fragments.

†Unpro·bably, adv. [Un-[1] 11, 5 b.]

1. Without good reason.

1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 62 The Iew not vnprobably thinketh that mixtures..were forbidden. 1721 Strype Eccl. Mem. I. i. 373 Being able to diminish, by the authority of wise and knowing men, things unjustly and unprobably crept in.

2. Without probability; improbably.

1606 Choice, Chance, etc. (1881) 53 Pardon me..If I speak vnprobably and Let me say what I think.

Unpro·bated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vnprobated, improbatus.

Unpro·bed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1827 Pollok Course T. vi. 148 The frothy orator..leaving still the heart unprobed. 1866 C. J. Vaughan Plain Words xii. 2 He knows the misery..of having any unprobed, unexplored secrets between the heart and its God. 1879 Browning Ivan Ivanovitch 31 Each village death-begirt By wall and wall of pine—unprobed undreamed abyss.

Unproblematic, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1683 E. Hooker Pref. Pordage's Mystic Div. 107 It being altogether unproblematic and without the less'st shadow of scrupl. Unproblematical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1799 E. Du Bois Piece Family Disg. I. 60 Which he [neglected], for this plain and unproblematical reason. Unpro·cessed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1539 Reg. Privy Seal Scot. II. 472/2 The said Johnne to be ..unprocessit, unpoyndit, and unrubbit for ony actioun civile bigane.

Unproclai·med, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1648 Hexham II, Onverkondight, unproclaimed. 1667 Milton P. L., xi. 220 Against the Syrian King, who,..Assassin-like had leveld Warr, Warr unproclam'd. 1795-1802 Wordsw. Excurs. i. 42 Else surely this Man had not left His graces unrevealed and unproclaimed. 1844 De Quincey Greece under Rom. Wks. 1858 VIII. 335 Armistices..., truces, or unproclaimed suspensions of war. 1878 B. Taylor Deukalion iii. ii, The..Heir Who, unproclaimed, awaits his lordship.

Unpro·creant, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1870 Lowell Among my Bks. Ser. I. (1873) 190 A knowledge..which comes of mere learning is sapless and unprocreant. Unpro·created, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1630 Drumm. of Hawth. Flowers of Sion, Hymne of Fairest Faire 126 O most holie One, Vnprocreat'd [ed. 1711 unprocreate] Father, euer-procreat'd Sonne.

Unpro·curable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1607 Hieron Wks. I. 351 The dignity of this estate..was vnprocurable, saue only by this infinit price. 1654 Boyle in T. Birch Life B.'s Wks. 1772 I. p. liv, A barbarous country, where..chemical instruments were..unprocurable. 1864 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. xvii. v. IV. 268 Draught-cattle seem absolutely unprocurable. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) III. 29 Not of an Eleusinian pig, but of some unprocurable animal.

Unpro·cured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1534 More Conf. agst. Trib. II. Wks. 2177/2 [To] fall in the dyspleasure of God, or leaue Goddes pleasure vnprocured. a 1600 Hooker Serm. Pride ▼10, I bless thee..for thy goodness,..not in regard of my merits,..but of thy mere unprocured benignity. 1655 Jer. Taylor Unum Necess. vii § 3, 464 The meer ineffective, unprocured desirings or listings after evil things.

Unpro·curing, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 13.) 1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. i. 135 A man ought to venture his life, for the keeping of a friend,..for the vn-procuring of an enemie. Unpro·ceedable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1820-1 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 497 While the witnesses are alive and produceable,..when they are dead, or otherwise unproduceable. 1834 De Quincey Anton. Sh. Wks. 1854 II. 313 Everybody agrees in our days to think this accomplishment..unproduceable, unless existing in an exquisite state of culture. Unpro·ceably, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1865 Miss Yonge Clever Woman II. 206 To have an unprocureably eccentric melancholy bride.

Unpro·ceed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8, 5 b.]

1. Not brought into existence; uncreated.

1674 Boyle Ground's Corpusc. Philos. 9 For their sakes that would have matter to be unproduced. 1772 Blackmore Creation p. iv, Those who believe an innate Idea of a Divine Being, unproduced by any Operation of the Mind. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) I. 499 The rules of ju-tice are apprehended immutable and unproduced, because you cannot draw them directly from any object before you.

2. Not extended or lengthened.

1768 Phil. Trans. LX. 250 A new equation, all whose roots shall fall upon the line OT unproduced. 1888 Minchin Unipl. Kinemat. 83 Supposing that the lines..intersect each other at a point, O, in their unproduced lengths.

Hence Unpro·ceedness.

1862 F. Hall Hindu Philos. Syst. 37 Unproducedness thereby does not belong to them.

Unpro·ductive, a. (Un-[1] 7.]

1. Not productive: a. Const. of.

1756 Burke Subl. & B. I. xix, The u-e of the passions.. cannot be..unproductive to ourselves of that noble..union of science and admiration. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 130 The enjoyment distilling from this source is sure and sincere,..and unproductive of future inconvenience. 1828 Hawthorne Fanshawe iii, A few months passed..unproductive of events that [etc.]. 1839 Carlyle Chartism x, Most paralytic, uninstructive: unproductive of any comfort to one!

b. Without const., or in attributive use.

1784 Cowper Task ii. 124 The gloomy scenes Where beauty oft and letter'd worth consume Life in the unproductive shades of death. 1791 Newte Tour Eng. & Scot. 383 Shall ..the poor..[be doomed] to unproductive labour, in order to gratify barbarian ignorance and pride? 1815 Scott Guy M. xv, Sampson picked up some other scholars..whose lessons were proportionally unproductive. 1849 Cobden Speeches 4 Unproductive services like your fighting establishments..in a time of peace. 1872 Burton Hist. Scot. lxxii. VII. 73 The king..does not see the u-e of their attempting to hold a meeting—in Scotland it would be dangerous, in England unproductive.

2. Not materially productive; not yielding crops, minerals, etc.

1766 Parl. Deb. (1813) XVI. 309/2 The harvest had failed, and was unproductive. 1796 Withering Brit. Plants (ed. 3) II. 389 A female plant..produced small unproductive seeds. 1865 Ure's Civ. Sci., Inorg. Nat. 222 Unproductive portions of the fields. 1877 Raymond Statist. Mines & M. 192 They are unproductive as yet in minerals.

Hence Unproductively adv., -ness.

c 1825 Jane Austen Persuas. xx, The anxious interval wore away *unproductively. 1813 Sir H. Davy Agric. Chem. 177 Any particular ingredient which is the cause of their *unproductiveness. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey II. 343 The unhealthiness and unproductiveness of marshes.

Unproductivity. (Un-[1] 12.) 1888 19th Cent. June 896 The unproductivity of the soil. Unprofa·nable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) a 1641 Br. Mountagu Acts & Mon. (1642) 178 Nor did the Romanes..hold any thing so sacred, sanctified and unpropfanable, as Sibyll's Oracles. 1869 Mrs. Whitney We Girls xii, The sanctity..would be as unprofanable as ever. Unprofa·ne, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1598 Florio Passim. Epist. 196 Passing..through Ægypt, there to conferre with the unprophane priestes, and learned Astronomers. 1646 Mayne Serm. Unity 58 How seemingly holy,..how unprofane seever his behaviour be.

Unprofa·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1650 R. Stapylton Strada's Low C. Wars v. 125 The greatest wonder was..that..a few men..should before midnight, when they began but in the evening, have nothing at all left entire or unprofaned. 1699 Gauden Tears Ch. iii. iv. 274 They easily preserved the doctrine of Christian Religion uncorrupted, the Mysteries unprophaned. 1774 Beattie Minstrel ii. xliv, May your influence unprofaned To god-like worth the generous bosom raise! 1818 Byron Ch. Har. iv. lxvi, Surely that stream was unprofaned by slaughters. 1864 Blackmore Perlycross 435 Resting placidly, unprofaned, untouched.

Unprofe·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1490 Paston Lett. II. 30 The poure hous of Bromholm, in whiche arn divers vertuous yongge men, monkes clad and unprofessyd. a 1490 in Myrc Par. Pr. (1902) 61 Alle þat leyne hand on preste or cleke..off religione professed or vnprofess-ud. 1608 Scott Vanity Years Ch. iii. iv, As yet a novice unprofess'd. 1809-14 Wordsw. Excurs. viii. 309 Whose mind could..beguile A solitude, unchosen, unprofessed.

Unprofe·ssing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa (2811) V. 158 The unprofessing Mrs. Moore.

Unprofe·ssional, a. and sb. [Un-[1] 7, 12.]

1806 Med. Trnl. XV. 299 The solution unfortunately having become a very common medicine with unprofessional people. 1847 De Quincey Spart. Mil. War Wks. 1853 III. 59 No authority could overrule the concurrent testimony of all symptoms, and of all unprofessional opinions. 1895 Westm. Gaz. 31 July 8/1 As a wicket-keeper he has had no unprofessional superior. 1899 Ibid. 17 June 3/2 He had not intended any disrespect to the Court, or to do anything unprofessional.

sb. 1863 Reade Hard Cash II. 244 The unexpected turn the evidence had taken..cleared Mr. Hardie with the unprofessionals.

Unprofe·ssionally, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1840 Willis Loiterings III. 75 Your physician and dentist are distinguished persons, who meet you in Society, and call on you unprofessionally.

Unproficiency. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] † Lack of moral or spiritual progress.

1625 Br. Hall Contempl., O. T. iv. iii. Wks. 870 As on the contrary, carelessness caries vs to a more unprofficiency vnder the best meanes of God. 1665 Boyle Occas. Refl. iv. ix. 59 'Tis no mean sign of Proficiency in Piety, to be apt to deplore ones unproficiency. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. Pref. 4 The unproficiency of the World under such extraordinary advantages.

Unproficient, a. and sb. (Un-[1] 7, 12.)

a 1653 Binning Serm. (1735) 464/2 This makes us such Unproficients in Mortification, so that scarce any Sin is killed.

Unpro·fit. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. MDu. onprofijt, M.L.G. unprofit.)

1382 Wyclif Luke xvii. 18 Forsoth reprouyng of the maundement bifore goynge is maad, for the vnsadnesse and vnprofyt of it. a 1440 Wycliffite Bible Eccl. i. 1 marg., Kunnyng getun bi mannus weye is vnprofit and diseseful. c 1450 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode i. iii. (1869) 38 Who so hath on this garmenet be doeth his proffy with that clothere doon here vnprofyt and here harm. 1483 Cath. Angl. 292/2 Vn Profett, ..incomodilas. 1598 Florio, Disutile, .. vnprofit. 1840 Browning Sordello v. 327 Through his youth's daybreak of unprofit, quite To his noon's labour.

†Unpro·fit, v. Obs. (Un-[2] 3.) 14.. Latin-Eng. Voc. (MS. Harl. 2257), Incommodo, vnprofite. 1541 R. Copland Galy'n's Terap. 2 C iv, A clere and notable vntemperatnes, ..which is the greatest cause..that maye vnprofyte and anoye in the vlceres.

Unpro·fitable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

a 1325 Prose Psalter xiii. 4 Alle boweden, to-gider hij ben vnprofitable. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 263 Envie..to man-kinde unprofitable. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Prince. 2268 Swiche an eschamnes [is] but vnprofitable. c 1425 Cursor. London (Kingsford, 1905) 42 Demyng hym sylf.. vtterly vnprofitable to the Rewme and good gouernaunces off the Rewme. 1526 Tindale Heb. xiii. 17 That is an vnprofitable thynge for you. 1577 Googe tr. Heresbach's Husb. 139 So that the Master be not deceiued with an olde unprofitable flocke. 1630 Capt. Smith Trav. & Adv. xv. 27 Any beast unprofitable for service they kill. 1654 S. Clarke Eccl. Hist. (ed. 2) i. 25 Such men as labor for shortlived honour are but like froth, which though it be uppermost, yet is unprofitablest. 1735 Johnson Lobo's Abyssinia. Voy. i. 7 To expose ourselves..to a Death almost certain and unprofitable. 1826 F. Reynolds Life & Times II. 377 This arduous, unprofitable, and ungracious office. 1878 Lecky Eng. in 18th C. II. vii. 302 Prizes offered .. for reclaiming unprofitable bogs.

absol. 1838 Penny Cycl. XI. 345/2 To distinguish good from evil, .the profitable from the unprofitable.

†b. As adv. Unprofitably. Obs.—1

c 1425 Orolog. Sapiend. v. in Anglia X. 360/12 Pat I hadde so vnprofitabil spendid pe tyme.

Unpro·fitableness. (Un-1 12, 5 b; cf. prec.)

1526 Tindale Heb. vii. 18 The commaundment .. is disanulled, be cause of his weakines and vnprofitablenes. 1641 Fryssen and Pt. Antip. (title-p.), Tortures, the .. unprofitablenesse, and mischievousnesse of Lordly Prelates, both to King, State, Church. 1673 Lady's Call. ii. ii. § 54 Servants, whose unprofitableness usually increases together with their number. 1765 Museum Rust. IV. 265 The unprofitableness arising from their keeping men and horses for that work alone. 1837 Hallam Hist. Lit. i. vi. § 30 Their yellow leaves, their thousand folio pages, do not more repel us than the unprofitableness of their substance. 1878 Manning Mission H. Ghost iv. 116 Learn, then, .your unprofitableness before Him.

Unpro·fitably, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1395 Purvey Remonstr. (1842) 25 The comoun puple is.. vnprofitabli occupied. c 1425 Eng. Comp. Ireland 142 Such that .. al thynge vnprofytably wasteden, to harme of peesmen. 1508 Fisher Wks. (1876) 75 Every worde spoken vnprofytably and in vayne. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. iv. xix. 162 b, Thinke is not vnprofitable appointed by the prouidence of God. 1611 B. Jonson Catiline i. i, I should not now vnprofitably spend my selfe in words. a 1677 Barrow Serm. Wks. 1687 I. xxxi. 451 To prevent this being unnecessarily and unprofitably deprived of our goods. 1737 Glover Leonidas iv. 237 Unprofitably wasting precious hours In vain discussion. 1819 Shelley Cenci ii. ii. 149 Thus unprofitably I clasp the phantom of unfelt delights. 1856 De Quincey Confess. Wks. I. 115 Impressing .. a new movement upon dialogues that loitered painfully, or see-sawed unprofitably.

Unpro·fited, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1601 Shaks. Twel. N. i. iv. 22 Be clamorous, and leape all feilds unshunned, Rather than make unprofited returne. 1796 Coleridge Destiny of Nations 381 Why, uninjured and unprofited, Should multitudes against their brethren rush? 1813 T. Busby Lucretius II. vi. Comm. p. xxii, Never to permit a circumstance of importance to pass unprofited or as a moral lesson. 1820 W. Jay Prayers 296 How unprofited have we been under the richest means of religious prosperity.

Unpro·fiting, vbl. sb. (Un-1 13.) 1867 H. Bushnell Mor. Uses Dark Th. (1869) 268 The key we start upon there is lower, by the whole unprofiting of a misspent life.

Unpro·fiting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1616 B. Jonson Epigr. i. xc, The vnprofiting fools, Vworthy such a mistris. 1693 Fleetwood Serm. 28 Another sort of unprofiting Hearers, are represented, .by the Seed that fell among the Thorns. 1880 Victorian Rev. I. 602 Finding themselves in a hopeless and unprofiting minority.

Unprofound, a. (Un-1 7.) 1839 De Quincey Postb. Wks. (1891) I. 26 The joy of an infant, or joy-generation, without significance to an unprofound and common mind.

Unprofu·se, a. (Un-1 7.) 1727 Thomson To Mem. Newton 68 O unprofuse magnificence divine!

Unprogre·ssive, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

[1775 Ash.] 1851 H. W. Torrens Trans. Asiat. Soc. Bengal 40 Such a description of unprogressive civilization. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey I. 141 Their mode of life, .left them .unintersected and unprogressive. 1882 Trollope Lockhaby Hall 60 Years After 153 Cries of unprogressive dotage ere the dotard fall asleep!

Hence Unprogre·ssively adv., -ness.

1800 Coleridge in C. K. Paul Gutkwin (1876) II. 13 Life is too melancholy a thing to be made a general for the doctrine of unprogressiveness to remain popular. 1869 Farrar Fam. Speech iv. (1870) 159 Tribes, .in every stage of nomad unprogressiveness or squalid savagery. 1881 Echo 28 June 3/6 The Bulgarians of the Principality would be only too content to live quietly, stolidly, and unprogressively.

Unproh·ibited, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1641 Milton Animadv. 52 Lest his conversation unprohibited, or unbranded, might breed a pestilential murrein into the other sheepe. 1679 C. Nesse Antiq. agst. Popery 21 To abstain from unprohibited ceremonies as well as from unprohibited meats.

Unproje·cted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1653 Cromwell Sp. in Hard. Misc. (1810) VI. 63 Your call .is of God, and it hath been unprojected, unthought of by you and us. a 1715 South Serm. IV. 367 Heresies .. have been often taken up at first by meer Accident, or upon some slight, trivial, unprojected Occasion. 1806 Foster Ess. (1844) I. 9 Some great, and as yet .. unprojected, plan for the relief of their pressing physical wants.

Unproje·cting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1647 Clarendon Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 387 He is quiet and unprojecting, and even unconcerned to help himself. 1787 Bentham Def. Usury xiii. 179 Birmingham and Sheffield are pitched upon by you as examples, the one of a projecting town, the other of an unprojecting one.

Unproli·fic, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. ix. (1677) 210 Inundation .. drowns oftentimes many sorts of Insects, and renders their .Eggs unprolifick. 1724 Gay Captives Epil., [The dame] bringt her unprolifick Spouse a Son. 1784 Cowper Task vi. 738 Tis by touch Of unprolific winter. 1854 Poultry Chron. I. 62/2 Frequently a great part of the eggs are unprolific. 1859 Denkin Midin, Sky 60 An unprolific part of Draco below Polaris.

Upromi·se, v. (Un-2 3.)

1598 Florio, Sbromettere, to vnpromise, to breake promise. 1605 Chapman All Fools ii. i. 70 Promises are no letters; with that tongue Thy promise past, unpromise it again. 1632 Ravenscroft Cit. turned Gentl. iv. i, 64 Luc. But you have promis'd I should be his Wife. Yond. If I promised you, I unpromise you.

Unpromised, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1595 Spenser F. Q. v. v. 46 Say, and do all, that may thereto preuaile: Leaue nought vnpromised, that may him persuade. a 1689 Mrs. Behn Fair Jilt in Novels (1905) 102 He is unenjoyed, unpromised; and so am I.

Upromising, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1. Not offering promise of excellence or success.

1663 J. Spencer Prodigies 82 God often accomplisheth his biggest ends by means unpromising. 1721 Lond. Gaz. No. 5999/2 The Vintage Season, .though very backward and unpromising, .. has .. begun. 1786 tr. Buckford's Vathek 167 The Caliph, to whom these complaints were but unpromising auguries. 1827 Scott Surg. Dan. i, So you will often find, .. under an unpromising and blunt exterior, professional skill and enthusiasm. 1872 Freeman Norm. Conq. V. xix. 418 Hermann .. began vigorously to build a church in the unpromising spot.

†2. Unpropossessing. Obs.

1632 Massinger & Field Fatal Dowry iv. i, Liladam. What d'ee take me for? Pontalier. A long thing with a most unpromising face. 1669 Clarendon Ess. Tracts (1727) 101 The beauty of the mind doth frequently reconcile..all men to the most unpromising countenances.

Unpro·misingness.

1658 Earl Orrery Parthen. i. 11. 135, I doe now in some sort rejoyce at the unpromisingnesse of my Condition. 1727 Bailey (vol. II), Inauspiciousness, unpromisingness.

Unpro·misingly, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.) 1848 Dickens Dombey xiii, Looking over his white cravat, as unpromisingly as Mr. Dombey himself could have looked. Unpromi·table, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1836 Carlyle Corr. w. Emerson (1883) I. 103, I suppose there is no more unpromotable, unappointable man now living in England than I. Unpromo·table, a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1801 W. Taylor in Robberds Mem. (1843) I. 381 You must turn over the Critical to us unpromoted politicians.

Unpro·mpted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. iv. iv. 32 To ask The way: for neate his youth's unprompted fear Expects not there. c 1700 Congreve To Cynthia Wks. 1730 III. 291 And my tongue talks, unprompted by my heart. 1761 Glover Medea iv. i, Pow'rful have been the charms Uncill'd, unprompted, but by love alone. 1810 Crabbe Borough x. 100 Then may you call in aid the moderate glass, But let it slowly and unprompted pass. 1850 Tyndall Glac. i. 169 A respect for him, which little unprompted deed of his augmented.

Unpromptly, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. ii. vi, The Mutineer denuties vanish, not unpromptly.

Unpro·mulgated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 474 Every law unpromulgated is, moreover, an Act of tyranny. 1836 J. Gilbert Chr. Atonem. ix. 387 The unpromulgated law of nature.

Unpromulged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1832 Austin Jurisp. Lect. Foreign., xiii, Unwritten law, or unpromulged law, is law which flows immediately from some subordinate source. Unpro·ne, a. (Un-1 7.) 1611 Coryat's Crudities e 1, Vlysses had a wife to lust vnprone. 1883 Wright Scientific Impostors 9 The vain deceit which Philosophy was not unprone to keep company with.

Unpronounce, v. (Un-2 3.) 1745 Matrimony, pro & con. 3 Could his loath'd Fair-One unpronounce I will, Not Worlds shou'd buy him to a Thing so ill.

Unpronou·nceable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1831 Scott Ct. Rob. ii, Foreigners bearing unpronounceable names. 1863 Miss Braddon Aurora Floyd xviii, Hock, the name of which was in fourteen unpronounceable syllables. 1888 Doyle Micah Clarke xviii, A score of unpronounceable lights in the Styrian Alps.

Unpronou·nced, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Unuttered, unspoken.

[1586 in Bk. Univ. Kirk Scotl. (1839) 298 We hold the said proces and sentence as unled, undeclyt or pronuncit.] 1611 Cotgr. s. Cet, Those [words] which begin, .with H vnpronounced. 1628 Milton Vac. Exerc. 4 Hail native Language, that..mad'st imperfect words with childish trips, Half unpronounc'd, slide through my infant-lips. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 35 He wanted her to seize his meaning unpronounced.

2. Not prominent or distinct.

1863 Dana Man. Geol. 748 Although the grand systems in Zoology are unpronounced, there are still faint indications of them generally observable.

Unpropi·tious, a. (Un-2 8.)

1611 Cotgr., Destourpier, to vnpropi; to take the tressles from. 1676 Hobbes Iliad ii. 137 [They] strait unpropt their Ships. 1717 Entertainer No. 5, 29 Nor can they be assured that Jupiter Almighty .. may not more unpropt the Throne, than guard it. 1897 P. Warning Tales Old Régime 114 'Ardy, jest unprop West!' Hardy obeyed, and lifted the cadaver to the centre of the chamber.

Unpropo·rtionable, a. [Un-1 7.] Unbiassed. 1640-1 Ld. Digby Parl. Chr. 9 Feb. 17 To preserve an equall and unpropense judgment.

Unpropo·rtionable, a. Now rare. [Un-1 7, 5 b.]

†1. = Improper a. 1. Obs.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 269 We seen now bi a myror, in fe 13i, and unpropre, but we shulen se after in bis pe firste troyne face to face. 14.. Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 589 Inproprium, unpropre. 1594 Blundevil Exerc. i. xxii. (1597) 23 b, The vnpropper [compound musical proportion] is, when to 3 numbers given, 2 other seuerall numbers are ioyned [etc.]. a 1629 Fortescue Athenn. i. i. 8 § (1662) 8 So that Demonstrations are here vnpropper and vnprofitable. 1661 Cameron Counterpoint ii. 122 The last close being to be made in the greater or sharp third, is unpropper.

†b. spec. Of language. Obs.

c 1449 Pecock Repr. i. v. 27 Bi vnpropre maner of speche and bi figure. Ibid., In this present purpos of grounding and of the vnpropir speking vsed ther upon. 1550 Veron God's Judgmt B (title), An abused and an vnpropre speache. a 1568 Ascham Schoolm. (1863) 89 To trahe his Scholler to a lodginge, in cutting out .. ouer old and vnpropper words. 1607 Markham Cavel. ii. xix. 203 Speaking of these lofte eyes, hee calles them Carieting horses; an epithiton most vnpropper.

2. = Improper a. 2. Now dial.

1581 Mulcaster Positions xxxix. 221 Ignorance .. will cause them selues to be their owne Gnatoes, a most vnpropper part, to be seene vpon a stage, when [etc.]. 1605 Camden Rem. 14 It will not be vnpropper I hope to this purpose if I raise out of the epistles of.. Busleuspius. a 1659 Osborne Pico & Vindex Wks. (1673) 373 An endeavour no less indecent for men of Honour, than unproper for a Tyrant. 1678 Moxon Mech. Exerc. vi. 102 The use of which .. is unproper for me to meddle with in this place. 1723 Johnson (ed. 4), Unproper, .unfit, not right. 1869- in various dialect glossaries, etc.

3. = Improper a. 3. rare.

1868 Mrs. Whitney P. Strong ix, As foolish and happy and unproper as one pleases.

†4. = Improper a. 4. Obs.

1604 Shaks. Oth. iv. i. 69 Millions .. nightly lye in those vnproper beds, Which they dare sweare peculiar.

†Unpro·perly, adv. Obs. [Un-1 11, 5 b.] Improperly. (Freq. c 1560–c 1650.)

a. In respect of the use of words.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conac. 8129 Elor if endelesnes any end moght hald, pan war it endlesnes vnproperly cald. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. v. xxxii. (Bodl. MS.), It is vnproperliche seide pat oper bestes haue backes. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 55 Pai ar called emroydes, bot neberiet vnproperly. a 1450 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) i. xiii. 45/2 They take that Dulia full largely, and full unproperly. 1553 T. Wilson Rhet. 93 Long talke, and small matter, are spoken vnproperly, for we cannot measure either talke or matter by length or breadth. 1579 Fulke Heskins' Parl. 100 This worde sacrifice, is either taken properly, or vnproperly, and figuratiuely. 1636 M. Walbancke in Ann. Dubrensia (1877) 5 You to whom I may not unproperly give the denomination of an Hero. 1678 Moxon Mech. Exerc. v. 95 They..say.. 'Lay a kerf in that piece of Stuff'; and sometimes, (but most unproperly,) 'Cut, or Slit that piece of Stuff'.

b. In other contexts.

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. ii. 153 Those thinges ye were done in his nature of man, are vnproperly, & yet not without reason, geuen to hys Godhed. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 463 Iustification is sometimes Dues vnproperly attributed to workes. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage i. viii. 41 A part of the Iuria Turcus (unproperly ascribed to Caucasus). 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing ii. 72 They commonly, but unproperly, imploy Joyners to make them.

†Unpro·perness. Obs. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Lack of propriety or appropriateness.

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. iv. xix. 148 b, So that a godly sense be kept, although there be some vnproprenesse in the speaking. 1581 Pettie tr. Guazzo's Civ. Conv. i. (1586) 29 b, You shal offende Iupiter with this vnproprenesse, then with the vnusualnesse of words. 1652 Sparke Prim. Devot. 217 Their insufficiency .. and unproperness for such imployment. 1692 Teyon Gd. House-m. i. (ed. 2) 8 The unproperness and contrariety of these Prescriptions to the end intended.

Unpropertied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1793 Anna Seward Lett. (1811) III. 217 The protecting influence of represented property, extending to the unproperied. 1794 Ibid. 369 The ignorant and unproperied mass of people. 1886 W. Graham Soc. Problem 335 Since under it there is no safety for the unproperied man. [Freq. in recent use.]

Unpropheisable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1883 Lowell Rich. III, Latest Lit. Ess. (1892) 122 Like those pulses of pale flame with which the sky throbs at unprophesiable intervals.

Unprophe·tic, a. (Un-1 7.)

1725 Pope Odyss. xxii. 13 Wretch that he was, of unprophetic soul! 1728 Savage Bastard 7 Thus unprophetic, lately misinspir'd, I sung. 1821 Shelley Ginevra 124 Unprophetic of the coming hours, The matin winds..awaken The earth. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. ii. viii, Alas, ye unprophetic.. 1888 Thomson Opening Indian & Col. Exh. iii, Unprophetic rulers they.

Unprophe·tical, a. (Un-1 7.) 1743 Ellis Knowl. Div. Things 254 How unprophetical would it be, to say they should some time know what they already knew? Unpropheti·cally, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1861 T. Wright in Pol. Poems II. p. xxvii, Elmham warns the king (not unprophetically) of the .. uncertain character of human life. †Unpropi·ce, a. Obs.[Un-1 7.] Unpropitious. a 1529 Skelton Bk. 3 Fooles Wks. 184 L. 200 Shee is debyles, colde, vnpropyce, vnnaturall, and vndysscurrente. Unpropi·tiable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1891 Academy 28 Mar. 206/1 That unpropitiable avenger who waits on secular misconduct.

Unpropi·tious, a. (Un-1 7.)

1600 Pooley To Another Friend 12 Beneath the pond'rous Weight Of angry Stars, and unpropitious Fate. 1702 Addison Dial. Medals iii. (1726) 65 Ye sue the unpropitious maid in vain. 1776 Mickle Camoen's Lusiad Introd. 149 In the unpropitious age of Queen Elizabeth. 1849 Helps Friends in C. I. 39 The whole life appears to be shut up in the one unpropitious affection. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) III. 425 Sleep and exercise are unpropitious to learning.

Hence Unpropi·tiousness.

1844 W. H. Smyth Cycle Celestial Obj. II. 6 Had this been done, every notion of stellar unpropitiousness and malevolence must have vanished.

Unpropitiously, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1602 Marston Ant. & Mell. ii. I, Mygge is not altogether unpropitiously shap't. There's a word: unpropitiously! I thinke I shall speake unpropitiously as well as any courtier in Italy. Unpropo·rtion. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Disproportion. 1844 Kinglake Eothen xvii. 165 You stare at the wide unproportion between this slender Company and the boundless plains of Tartary.

†Unpropo·rtionable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Disproportionate. Also const. to, or (rarely) with. (Common in 17th c.)

1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. 1. 672 Too much increase and unproportionable growth .. procureth the change and ruine of commonwealthes. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 39 The roofe is not to be thought vnproportionable. 1650 Fuller Pisgah v. xi. 163 To give a thing and take a thing is unproportionable with his [sc. God's] proceedings. 1697 C. Leslie Snake in Grass (ed. 2) Advert., The Preface was an Eye-Sore; because of its Length, unproportionable to the Book. 1704 N. N. tr. Boccalini's Advts. from Parnass. III. 255 Some of her limbs swell to an unproportionable Bulk. 1766 Compl. Farmer s.v. Surveying, If you protract ..., you will put your closes into unproportionable shapes.

Hence † Unpropˈrtionableness. Obs.

1653 Gauden Hierasp. 74 This unproportionableness of the Creators dealing with man. 1659 — Tears Ch. 586 The unproportionableness of any other Church-government than a right Episcopacy to the temper of England.

† Unpropˈrtionably, adv. Obs. [Un-1 11; cf. prec.] Disproportionately.

1558–9 Abp. Parker Corr. (Parker Soc.) 62 And now for the upholding of two or three years more of life, to heap unproportionably, I count it madness. 1594 R. Ashley tr. Loys le Roy 2 Being duely tempered for generation, and unproportionably distempered for corruption. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 360 A Chameleon is a Creature about the Bignesse of an Ordinary Lizard, but unproportionably bigge. 1641 J. Jackson True Evang. T. iii. 166 The Gospell too bids us 'not bee unequally yoaked,' but what is it to be unproportionably yoaked, if this bee not? 1790 Phil. Trans. LXXX. 355 Perhaps nature..may permit a particular species of animal to become so unproportionably numerous. 1819 W. S. Rose Lett. fr. N. Italy II. 172 There is, perhaps, no offence which is so unproportionably punished.

Unpropˈrtional, a. (Un-1 2.) 1714 Dereham Prelim. Disc. to Astro-Theol. (1726) p. xiii, Which are Motions [of the moon, etc.] so unproportional,..that [they] are sufficient to subvert the whole Hypothesis. Unpropˈrtionˈlly. (Un-1 12.) 1828 Bentham Ch. Eng., Catech. Exam. 273 Uncertainty, unproportionality, abstractiveness, and degradingness. Unpropˈrtionˈlness, adv. (Un-1 12.) 1820 Hogg Tales & Sk. (1836) II. 204 The next three volumes were..unproportionally thick.

Unpropˈrtionate, a. Now rare. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Disproportionate, unproportioned.

1581 Mulcaster Positions xxx. 109 The whole bodie..is anoyed with vnproportionate heat. 1601 Daniel Civ. Wars vi. xxviii, No swelling member, vnproportionate, Growne out of forme. 1651 H. More Second Lash in Enthus. Tri., etc. (1656) 184 Where is the unproportionate, disproportionate, unproper? 1679 J. Goodman Penit. Pard. iii. v. 336 That the powers and objects are mis-matched and unproportionate to each other. 1897 Advance (Chicago) 21 Jan. 77 Unsound, unproportionate teachings.

So Unpropˈrtionately adv., -ness.

1495 Trevisa's Barth. De P. R. vii. xx. p iij b/2 A man is byrefte..of his syght somtyme..for vnproporcyonat[n]es of the blacke of the eye to y^e spyryte of syghte. 1897 Trans. Amer. Pediatric Soc. IX. 2 The parents are..progressing by degrees and sometimes unproportionately.

Unpropˈrtioned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 5 b.)

*c*1586 C'ress Pembroke Ps. cxxxv. vii, What unproportion'd odds To these, these idols gold and silver beare? 1599 Daniel Civ. Wars ix. xlix, Huge vnproportion'd mountaines. 1602 Shaks. Ham. i. iii. 60 Giue thy thoughts no tongue, Nor any vnproportion'd thought his Act. 1650 Bulwer Anthropomet. 186 Crook-back't men..are justly accounted unproportioned. 1712 Atterbury Serm. (1737) IV. 216 Such a mock worship,..how unproportioned it is to the Divine Nature. 1799 J. Robertson Agric. Perth 231 A multitude of soldiers, unproportioned to the extent or fertility of Scotland. 1848 Tennyson Lover's Tale i. 187 That porch, So unproportion'd to the dwelling-place.

Unpropˈrsed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) *a*1700 Dryden (J.), The means are unpropos'd. 1884 Imp. Dict. IV. 513 The motion or candidate is as yet unproposed.

Unpropˈped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1616 W. Browne Brit. Past. ii. v. 342, I have beheld A widow vine stand, in a naked field,..Unpropt, unsuccoured, by stake or tree. 1695 Orway Alcibiades v. i, When sincere me to my wishes calls, I'll shake him off, and then unpropt he falls. 1700 Dryden Meleager & Atalanta 132 The Nerves no more sustain The Bulk; the Bulk unprop'd, falls headlong on the Plain. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 396 The ceremony of an oath in pure state, unpropped by that support. 1827 Pollok Course T. ii. 740 He..tried to stand Alone, unpropped, to be obliged to none.

Unpropscribable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1817 Lady Morgan France iii. (1818) I. 310 The unproscribable influence of fashion and beauty. Unpropscribed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1840 Tytler Hist. Scot. (1864) III. 294 Not a baron who espoused the cause of the queen would have been left unproscribed.

Unpropsecuted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.

1655 Moufet & Bennet Health's Improv. xvi. 139 Tasting of every..part of mans body, not leaving the nails unprosecuted. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. v. vi. 164 To make him leave his Endeavours unprosecuted. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 97 The example is bad, when a man supposed to be guilty is seen to remain unprosecuted.

Unpropsˈelyte, v. (Un-1 3.) 1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. x. iv. § 63 It happily unproselyted some incliinable to his Opinions. Unpropsoˈdian, a. (Un-1 7.) 1836 Moore Mem. (1836) VII. 160 Such an unprosodian school as Dublin College then was. Unpropsˈected, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1882 U.S. Rep. Pract. Bkr. 79 An unprospected part of the channel. Unpropsˈperable, a. (Un-1 7.) 1690 C. Nesse O. & N. Test. i. 298 Solitariness..is an unprofitable and unprosperable thing. Unpropsˈperity. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) *a*1628 F. Greville Sidney (1652) 33 [He] left the success to his will, that governs the blinde prosperities and unprosperities of Chance. Ibid. 173 A perspective into vice, and the unprosperities of it. *a*1843 Southey Doctor cxcvii. (1848) 525 The thriftless man..finds some satisfaction in imputing his unprosperity to the Stars. † Unpropˈsperly, adv. Obs.[1] [Un-1 11.] Unprosperously. 1608 P. Golding Sleidane's Eplit. Frossard 62 The matter had falne out so vnprosperly before.

Unpropˈserous, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

*a*1578 Lindesay (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 257 The king heirand of his vnprosperous iourney. 1586 Hooker Answ. Travers' Supplic. § 8 Which unprosperous beginning of a thing..did..disgrace that order in their conceit. 1631 Gouge God's Arrows iii. § 57. 289 No marvell therefore that the warre..was unprosperous. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. v. i, Endeavours, which..are oft-times so unprosperous. 1776 Adam Smith W. N. i. x. ii. (1869) I. 139 That unprosperous race of men, commonly called men of letters. 1861 M. Arnold Pop. Educ. France 185 Not that primary instruction is unprosperous in the Canton of Vaud. 1884 Pearson in Law Rep. 26 Chanc. Div. 676 The tenant for life received nothing from the unprosperous year, 1881.

Unpropˈserously, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.)

1630 Camden's Hist. Eliz. ii. 117 Two famous Pilots..sought as vnprosperously to discouer a neere way to East-India. 1650 Jer. Taylor Holy Living ii. § 6. 153 When a Prince fights justly, and yet unprosperously. 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. ii. 1. 20 It is possible to be safely made, though many..have but unprosperously attempted it. 1848 Thackeray Fair. Fair lvii, Her life, begun not unprosperously, had come down to..a long ignoble bondage. 1876 Miss Yonge Womankind xxxii, Love affairs come early and unprosperously.

Unpropˈserousness. (Un-1 12.)

*a*1660 Hammond Serm. Wks. 1683 IV. 492 The unprosperousness of the arm of flesh. 1698 Fryer Acc. E. India & P. 88 The True Cause of the Unprosperousness of the Ancient Undertakers. 1741 Richardson Pamela III. 117 After a Series of Unprosperousness in all they undertook.

Unpro·stitute, ppl. a. (Un-1 8; cf. next.) 1606 Birnie Kirk-burniall (1833) 98 Under these three conditions (to wit, of amplitude, oviracy, and vnprostitude [sic] chastity to any other vse). 1681 Whole Duty Nations 24 Retaining their Honour untouch'd, .. and presenting to the Honour of Christianity a Supremacy unprostitute.

Unpro·stituted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1721 Ambrose Verse Fil. No. 41 (1726) 213 Some future unprostituted, ungarbled history of a rebellion. 1753 Gray's Inn Jrnl. No. 29 (1756) I. 190 That unprostituted, dignified Independence, which will always do Honour to the Man. 1782 Rolliad, Preth. Odes xiv. 56 With unprostituted pen, ..unmov'd by gain, I'll call thee.. most chaste of men.

Unpro·cted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

*a*1593 Marlowe Ovid's Elegies ii. ii. 12 Nor is her husband wise, what needes defence When vn-protected ther is no expence? 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. i. § 4 Such evils..as men either destitute of grace diuine may commit, or vnprotected from aboue, indure. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. 57 A defenceless unprotected woman. 1791 Mrs. Radcliffe Rom. Forest 7 The idea of leaving his habitation unprotected. 1844 Noad Electricity (ed. 2) 429 It is necessary to observe, that the lamps were unprotected. 1879 Lubbock Sci. Lect. ii. 41 It might be an advantage to a flower which was quite unprotected, to open early for the bees.

Hence Unpro·ctedly adv., -ness.

1823 Blackw. Mag. XIV. 461 Seeing their friends massacred unprotectedly all round them. 1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. i. 23 His unprotectedness, his utter defencelessness. 1893 Meredith Amazing Marriage xlvi, Lady Arpington's mention of Henrietta's unprotectedness.

Unpro·testant, a. (Un-1 7.)

1841 Wiseman Remarks Lett. fr. Palmer 53 How moderate, how un-Protestant, is the language of St. Epiphanius! 1881 W. R. Smith Old Test. in Jews. Ch. i. 7 This point of view is, however, thoroughly unprotestant.

Unpro·testantize, v. (Un-2 6 c.)

1833 R. H. Froude Rem. (1838) I. 332, I wish you could get to know something of S. and W., and un—ise, un-Protestantize, un-Miltonize them. 1842 G. S. Faber Prov. Lett. (1844) II. 291 We must unprotestantise the National Church. 1895 Bulwark Sept. 98/1 Mr. Gladstone and Lord Salisbury ..have vied with each other in unprotestantising the Church of England.

Hence Unpro·testantizing vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

1841 British Critic July 45 The unprotestantizing..of the national Church. 1847 H. Miller First Impr. Eng. xiii. 244 The unprotestantizing leaven introduced into the mass of the English Establishment.

Unpro·testantlike, a. (Un-1 7c.) 1641 Milton Animadv. 35 Not caring otherwise to answer this un-Protestantlike Objection. Unpro·tru·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1777 Pennant Brit. Zool. (ed. 4) IV. 9 Doctor Baster ..counted the 148 38 under the leads, besides those remained in the body unprotruded. 1812 Examiner 24 Aug. 541/2 You left scarcely one of his faults unprotruded on inspection. Unpro·tru·sive, a. (Un-1 7.) 1895 Coleridge Aids Refl. 148 note, The unprotrusive and unindicated Convolutes of the Brain.

Unpro·ud, a. (Un-1 7.)

1570 Levins Manip. 217 Vnproude, inglorius. 1666 J. Sergeant Let. 7 hanks 20 'Tis your weak and unproud conscience. 1820 L. Hunt Indicator No. 18 (1822) 123 They spoke to me more familiarly than usual, and yet somehow or other, didn't seem so kind nor so un-proud. 1900 Academy 28 July 75 He is not unconscious nor unproud of this freedom.

Unpro·vable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. Incapable of being proved.

*c*1440 Wyntoun Cron. ix. xix. 2000 Effyr hat he had beyn ..in exile Be fensheid fals suspicion, And all wnprowabil be resson. 1553 Grimalde Cicero's Offices ii. (1556) 65 So we, dissenting from them, do saie again some thinges be vnprouable, some vnprouable. 1691 Dr. Hall Difficult. Peperie 35 A Religion, that depends wholly vpon nice and poore vncertainties, and vnprouable supposals. 1677 Gilpin Demonol. ii. vii. 325 Though Satan's injections of Noninfection be altogether unprovable. 1882 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximisers, Indic. (1830) 79 By an unpunishable and unprovable, though solemn act of insincerity. 1883 Myers Ess., Mod., Mazzini (1885) 60 Unprovable speculations about the firmament.

† 2. Incapable of succeeding. Obs.[1]

1653 Blithe Eng. Improver Impr. xxiv. 156 Avoid the getting of Eaten, Bitten, Rough, and Brushy, all being unproveable sets.

Hence Unpro·vabˈility, -ableness.

*a*1882 Barratt Phys. Metaphysic (1889) 23 The unprovableility of the hypothesis. 1883 Contemp. Rev. Nov. 617 There is always a great deal of vagueness, and..of unprovableness, in charges of immorality against a whole race.

† Unpro·ve, v. Obs. [Un-2 3, 7. Cf. MDu. onbproeven.]

1. trans. To disprove; to deny or reject.

13.. Gesp. Mical. 591 His folk vnprouss him king, And kingdom claymes he. *c*1440 Promp. Parv. 366/2 Onprevyn, or imprevyn,..improbo. *c*1449 Pecock Repr. i. xviii. 104 Thei schuldn suffice forto vnprove this iiij^e opinioun here, as thei vnproven the ij^e opinioun there.

2. intr. To disapprove.

1548 Gardiner in Pocock Rec. Reform. (1870) I. 104 His holiness,..neither approving ne unproving, said, he had seut it to the cardinal.

Hence † Unpro·ving vbl. sb. Obs.

*c*1449 Pecock Repr. iv. iii. 430 Thus miche is ynowg for vnprouyng of the seid skile.

Unpro·ved, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

† 1. Not put to proof or trial; untried. Obs.

*c*1440 Failed. on Hush i. 236 Prene eek thonpreued greyne afore e-chauunge. *c*1445 Pecock Donet y X wote weel 1at ..scant yuous oon leef schulde stonde vnprovid or colowrabiliy vnrebukid. 1550 Baldwin Mor. Philos. K. iiij, Prone not thy frende wyth damnage, nor vse thou hym vnproued. 1561 B. Googh Pallingenius' Zodiac Life i. A ij b, Willing to trede vnproued pathes that haue not yet ben gon. 1590 Spenser F. Q. i. vii. 47 For to find a fresh vnproued knight.

2. Not demonstrated to be true or genuine.

1532 More Confut. Tindale Wks. 609/2 Both is his purpose on his part vnproued, & the contrarye to bym proued. 1533 Frith Answ. More G 8, His mastership hathe leite one thinge vnproued. 1628 Donne Serm. (1640) 291 The proofe lies on their side; and it rests yet vnproved. 1693 Dryden Juvenal vi. 313 Prov'd, or unprov'd, the Crime, the Villain dies. 1843 J. H. Newman Miracles 63 A fact is not disproved, because the testimony is..insufficient, it is only unproved. 1866 Geo. Eliot F. Holt xvii, The essence of bribery is that it should be legally proved; there is not such a thing..as unproved bribery. 1874 Mahaffy Social Life Greece 335 However unproved or doubtful this ancient creed.

Hence Unpro·vedness.

*a*1400–50 Alexander 1019 For barnes in bar hignes it baldis been meklli, Oft with vnprouednes in presse to pas out of lyfe.

Unpro·ven, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b.] = prec. 2.

1853 Westm. Rev. April 475 We do not expect the preacher to prove anything before unproven. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) III. 149 Plato does not like to make an assertion which is unproven.

Unprovi·de, v. (Un-2 3. Cf. Disprovide v.)

1530 Palsgr. 768/2, I unprevyde, Ye desponnyeys. 1604 Shaks. Oth. iv. i. 218 He not expostulate with her? Must her body and beauty unprovide my mind aginne. 1793 A. Murphy Tacitus I. 339 Increasing honours, he had no doubt, would unprovide his mind, and..produce the genuine features of his character.

Unprovˈided, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, 5 b.]

1. Not furnished, supplied, or equipped (with something): a. Const. of (now rare or Obs.) or with.

1523 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. cccxxi. 498 The countre was voyde, and vnprouyded of men of warre. 1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. May 114 The shepheards God so wel them guided, That of nought they were vnprouided. 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme v. xvii. 205 The countrie farme being for the most part vnprouided of the benefits and easements of water. 1673 [R. Leigh] Transp. Reh. 45 It being a thing wholly unlikely that the white Antagon should be unprouided of such excellent authors. 1720 Swift Rates of Clergymen Wks. 1755 II. ii. 22 Courts are seldom unprovided of persons under this character. 1735 Berkeley in Fraser Life (1871) vii. 241 Those places where they are unprovided with churches. 1785 T. Balguy Charge 14 Men whose understandings are..unprovided of the principles of knowledge. 1844 Kinglake Eothen viii, Assailants..unprovided with regular means of attack. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) III. 102 The actual disease is unprovided by nature with a sting.

b. Without const. Also for (a person, etc.).

(a) a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xii, And whose good haps do leave him unprovided, Condoling cause of friendship he will borrow. 1603 G. Powel Papist's Reas. for Toleration 127 Wherefore they those left the Jesuites marvelously vnprouided and so beggerly. 1627 Capt. Smith Seaman's Gram. xii. 57 Neither should her Guiroome be vnprouided: not manned like a Merchant-man. 1760–72 H. Brooks Fool of Quality (1809) II. 78 Since you will go, you must not go unprovided. 1818 Scott Br. Lamm. xxv, We are totally and literally unprovided [sic. wth provisions]. 1833 Macaulay Ess., War Succession in Spain 172 The arsenals were deserted. The magazines were unprovided.

(b) 1530 Palsgr. 768/2 He shalbe hertely welcome, but I am yet unprovyded for him. 1603 Bruton Mad World Wks. (Grosart) II. 101/2 He..led me into his house, the doore open, as unfearefull of theeves, as vnprouided for strangers. 1725 De Foe Voy. round World (1840) 333 As for going by water, that they were unprovided for.

c. Not provided for. (Cf. 4.)

1640 Habington Edw. II[1], 33 The inconvenience of raising a widdow to his bed, who could bring nothing with her but her poverty, and an unprovided issue. 1892 Child Ballads IV. 391/2 The bower of an unprovided seamstress.

2. Not in a state of preparation or readiness; unprepared (to resist attack, make reply, etc.).

1525 Ld. Berners Froiss. II. xxxiii. 41/2 So that when oure enemyes come, let them nat fynde vs vnprouided. 1598 Chr. Prayers in Priv. Prayers (1851) 447 Take me not unawares and unprovided to thy judgment-seat. 1599 Shaks. Hen. V, iv. i. 183 If they dye vnprouided. 1615 Brathwait Strappado, etc. (1878) 324 Alas, faire queene, why should you thus assault the vnprouided fortresse of mine harr? 1647 Cotterell Davila's Hist. France I. 43 The armed men..appearing on a sudden..the King being found unprouided, and the Court disarmed. 1722 De Foe Plague (1756) 140 The unprovided Condition that..the People were in at the first coming of the Calamity. 1805 Southey Madoc in Aut. II. 231 So saying, I left The astonish'd men, whose unprovided minds Fail'd them. 1872 Smiles Cent. II. i. 377 You are unprovided where to fly, How to excuse or to conceal.

3. Against which provision has not (or cannot) be made; unforeseen.

1514 Barclay Cyt. & Uplondyshm. (Percy Soc.) 9 Nought is more noysom..Than sodayne tempeste, and unprouyded colde. 1536 Goodly Primer, Litany R iv b, Sodeyn & vn-provided dethe. 1627 C. Magsoughagan tr. Ann. Clonmacnois 75 The Emperor dyed of a sudaine and unprovided death. 1660 Trial Regic. 60 You must give your direct Answer, Guilty, or Not guilty. You cannot say, it is sudden, or unprovided. You spend time in vain. 1739 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. VIII. 263 Her Death,..by the holy life she led, was not unprovided. 1827 F. Lewis in Parl. Debates 1361 Very heavy expenses..under the head called 'unprovided services,' which ought to comprise nothing except what could not possibly be foreseen. 1841 Alison Hist. Eur. IX. lxxii. 702 The unprovided expenditure of the year.

4. Not provided for. (Cf. 1 c.)

1575 Gascoigne Glasse of Govt. ii. v, If ever I live to enherit Phylocaulus, then Eccho shall not be unprovided for. 1697 Clarendon Hist. Reb. I. § 5 The necessary Subsistence of the household was unprovided for. 1676 Temple Let. to Sir W. Williamson Wks. 1720 II. 413 They cannot, upon that Pretence, be pressed to Things..wholly unprovided for by the very Letter of the Treaty. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 239 Many officers..were then unprovided for. 1839 John Bull 15 Sept., The income upon which he and the unprovided for members of his family exist. 1897 Outing XXX. 376/2 Unprovided-for tasks are best decided by drawing lots.

5. Not furnished, supplied, or made ready.

1621 Fletcher Isl. Princess I. ad fin., That's all That's unprovided,..The rest wee'l council as we goe. 1726 Leon Alberti's Archit. I. 21 b, You will have occasion for a great number of things..and..if but one is unprovided, it may stop or spoil the whole Work.

Hence Unprovi·dedly adv., -ness.

1567 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 52 He mycht *unprovidittle oppres..that innocent intimat. 1652 Urquhart Jewel 112 Another young Lady..so unprovidedly was surprised. a 1652 Brome Covent Garden Weeded ii. ii, My unsetledness and *unprovidednesse..may well excuse us all. 1861 [Mrs. A. J. Penny] Romance Dull Life xi. 296 From the fear of unprovidedness during the last three years this great house.

Unpro·videnced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1651 Fuller Worthies 1. (1662) 57 If those must be accounted unfortunate (which I in the true meaning of the word must interpret unprovidenced) who leave Poverty behind them in their Children.

† Unpro·vident, a. Obs. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Improvident; incautious.

1572 Buchanan Detection of Mary (1727) 71 Are Hous..prouydit for ane 3oung Gentilman unprouydent be 3outh. c 1600 Shaks. Sonn. x, Deny that thou bear'st love to any, Who for thy selfe art so unprouident. 1619 J. King Serm. etc. 39 Hath it made you proud,..and improvident, and unprovident against your enemies? 1658 J. Webb Cleopatra viii. ii. 55 Must the unfortunate Alcamenes be ignorant, whence this unprovident ruine comes?

Unprovi·dential, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1813 T. Busby Lucretius II. vi. Comm. p. x, Lucretius, reasoning from the unprovidential casualties of thunder, denies that it springs from the hand of Jupiter. 1837 Lytton Athens I. 21 [He] reclaimed his barbarous subjects from a wandering and unprovidential life. † Unprovi·dently, adv. Obs. (Un-1 11, 5 b.) 1611 Florio, Improvidamente, unprouidently. 1805 Forsyth Beauties of Scott. III. 354 Forests..unprovidently and wastefully destroyed. Unprovi·ng, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1640 By. Hall Episc. iii. § 2 Since this one litigious, and unproving text is the onely place in the whole New Testament, that can beare any presence for the lay-Presbytery. 1641 — Def. Humble Remonstr. 118 Your unproving illustrations, and unregardable testimonies.

† Unprovi·sed, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-1 8, 5 b.] Unforeseen; unconsidered.

c 1480 Henryson Fables, Fox & Wolf 162 This sudduand deith and unprouysit end Hade fals Tod. 1533 Bellenden Livy I. ii. (S.T.S.) I. 19 He wald nocht opin ane haisty and unprovisit mater.

Hence † Unprovi·sedly adv. Obs.

1513 Douglas Æneid vii. iii. 41 With his bois trump as he Went unprowysitlie blawand by the se. 1567 Sc. Acts, Jas. VI (1814) III. 27/2 Proceiding to ane presendit marriage with him suddandlie, and vnprouisitlie thairefter.

Unprovision. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) a 1658 Mede Wks (1672) 231 Whatsoever..among the Beasts of the field..is, by unprovision, of all others the most wretched and miserable.

Unprovi·sioned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1796 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 189, I shall be again afloat on the wide sea, unpilloted and unprovisioned. 1827 Pollok Course T. II. 412 Choosing, thus unshipped, Uncompassed, unprovisioned,..To swim a sea of breadth immeasurable. Unprovo·kable, a. (Un-1 7, b.) 1803 Bentham Mem. & Corr. Wks. 1843 X. 405 Better ..would it be if your..principals were as placable, or rather as unprovokable.

Unprovo·cative, a. (Un-1 7.)

Frequent in recent use.

1821 Lamb Elia i. Grace before Meat, At a poor man's table, or at the simple and unprovocative repast of children. 1893 Scribner's Mag. June 747/2 As he placidly walked along, unprovocative of even passing curiosity.

Unprovo·ke, v. (Un-1 3.) 1605 Shaks. Hamlet ii. iii. 32 Lecherie, Sir, it procokes, and vnprouokes: it prouokes the desire, but it takes away the performance.

Unprovo·ked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1585 Asp. Sandys Serm. xv. 264 The voluntarie and unprouoked operation of the spirite. 1631 Bp. Hall Augustinus Vind. Synesiorum To Rdr. 2, 3, When..the Sneesymnuans,..unprovoked, unthought of,..flye in my face, as men wrongfully accused. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 427 P 2 This Heroine had..out-done the whole Sisterhood of Gossips, in ..unprovoked Malice. 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy ii. xii, These unprovoked strokes at my uncle Toby's (hobby-horse). 1819 Scott Ivanhoe xii, To discover..who have been my unprovoked enemies. 1849 C. Bronte Shirley xxiii, In answer to unprovoked insult.

Hence Unprovo·kedly adv., -ness.

1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. i. v. 95 Gelen..somewhere 'unprovokedly and causelessly enough derides Moses. 1781 T. Davies Mem. Garrick (ed. 3) I. 43 He was rudely and unprovokedly attacked by a boisterous man. 1864 Carlyle Frederic Gt. xvi. xii. IV. 455 His conduct..has nothing of bad, at least of unprovokedly bad. 1868 Faber Creator & Creature ii. i, God's..tenderness..His extraordinary unprovokedness.

Unprovo·king, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1710 Fleetwood Serm. 7 To..dash against the Stones the innocent and unprovoking Children. 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy ii. xii, But to hurt a brother..so unprovoking,—and so unresenting;—'tis base. 1821 Corbett Rur. Rides (1885) I. 38 It is no very unprovoking reflection.

† Unpru·dence. [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Imprudence.

1382 Wyclif Prov. xiv. 8 The vnprudence of foolis [is] erring. 1533 Bellenden Livy II. xvi. (S.T.S.) I. 193, I drede pat sum thug be done by vnprudence or folie of my pepll. 1652 Gaule Magastrom. 237 Whether you shall become poor by..luxuriousnesse, unprudence.

† Unpru·dent, a. Obs. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Imprudent; unwise.

1382 Wyclif Mark vii. 18 So and ye ben vnprudent, or vnwyse. 1395 Purvey Remonstr. (1851) 119 In this vnprudent gyftinge [of the Sacrament]. 1412-20 Lydg. Chron. Troy I. 3650 For to provide pat ben graceles, Ful vnprudent and wilful rekeles. 1612 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xi. 555/2 Peirs,..to establish his interest in the vnprudent Prince,..filled the Court with buffons.

Unprude·ntial, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

1650 Milton Eikon. (ed. 2) xxviii. 224 [This] were the most unwise and unprudential act as to civil goverment. 1685 D. Granville Lett. (Surtees, No. 37) 198, I thought it not unprudential to do. a 1852 Bentham Deontol. (1834) II. 102 Of evil contingent on prudential or unprudential conduct.

† Unpru·dently, adv. Obs.[1] (Un-1 11, 5 b; cf. Unprudent.) 1412-20 Lydg. Chron. Troy II. 1474, I wondre gretly ..What auenture..Vnprudently meveth now pi kyng Vn-to me to make swiche a sonde. Unpru·ned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 + Prune v.[2]] Not stripped with the hook. 1820 Keats Eve St. Agnes xxxvii, A dove..with sick unpruned wing.

Unpru·ned, ppl. a.[2] [Un-1 8 + Prune v.[2]] Not trimmed by cutting or lopping.

1593 Shaks. Rich. II, iii. iv. 45 Her Fruit-trees all vnpruned, Hedges ruined. 1642 Burton Anat. Melancholy ii. i. ii. 673 If they [sc. women] be not curbed in time, as an vnpropped tree. 1649 Ogilby tr. Virg., Bucol. ii. (1684) 12 On th' Elm my unpruned Vines neglected are. 1743 Francis tr. Horace Epist. xvi. 23 Where..Vines unpruned bear blushing Clusters yield. 1801 Southey Thalaba xii. xviii, The unpruned taper flares a longer flame. 1863 Hawthorne Our Old Home II. 24 The hedges grow in unpruned luxuriance. 1889 Graphic 21 Jan. 49/2 An idea prevails that birds are not so likely to spoil an unpruned tree.

b. In fig. uses.

1588 Shaks. L. L. L. iv. iii. 28 After his, vnpolished, vneducated, vnpruned, vntrained..fashion. 1619 Middleton Lady Barton II. 269 He..should wait upon him at..a respectful and unpying distance. 1803 Poems of Ithamelle II. 215 The unpraying few that composed her humble circle.

Unpsycholo·gical, a. (Un-1 7.) 1888 Athenæum 8 Aug. 170/2 Hence the first main division into unpsychological and psychological ethical theories. Unpu·blic, a. (Un-1 7) 1643 W. Greenhill Axe at Root A iv, Wee hope your spirits are all unselvished, that none are now unpublique. 1650 Jer. Taylor Holy Living ii. § 3. 90 Virgins must be retired and unpublick.

Unpu·blishable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1815 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 644 Making a MS. collection of all my poems—publishable and unpublishable. 1842 Lytton Zanoni I. i, His unpublished—his unpublishable and impertinable opera of the 'Siren'. 1891 Smiles J. Murray I. 441 Irving says..that Moore showed him the Byron recollections, and that they were quite unpublishable.

Hence Unpu·blishably adv.

1860 De Morgan in Macm. Mag. I. 223 Their ways of conducting themselves were unpublishably singular.

Unpu·blished, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not made generally known or accessible, esp. in print.

1607 Markham Cavel. (title-p.), The discovery of the subtill trade..of horse-coursers:..Secrets before vnpublished. 1641 T. Bunker Theory Earth 1. 261 The ancient glosses and catena upon Scripture..are many of them either lost or unpublisht. 1731 Hist. Litteraria III. 259 Authors.. whose Writings still remain unpublished in the Libraries of Rome, Venice, and Paris. 1828 P. Buchan (title), Ancient Ballads and Songs of the North of Scotland hitherto unpublished. 1862 Numism. Chron. II. 104 Unpublished Greek Imperial Coins.

2. Not divulged or disclosed.

1605 Shaks. Lear iv. iv. 16 All blest Secrets, All you vnpublish'd Vertues of the earth Spring with my teares. a 1820 Bryant The Past 30 Labours of good to man, Unpublished charity, unbroken faith. 1886 Mrs. Hungerford Mental Struggle vii, 'Nobody can help me,' declares the as yet unpublished sister.

Unpu·cker, v. (Un-1 3.) [1775 Ash.] 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. i. iii, Let but Teufelsdröckh open his mouth, Heuschrecke's also unpuckered itself into a free doorway. 1852 — Frederk. Gt. xvi. xii. III. 260 Bellicose..unpuckers his stern brow again. Unpu·ckered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] c 1830 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 7) III. 38/1 Ruminants, in which the cæcum is moderate in size and unpuckered. 1862 Cornhill Interpret. Exhib., Brit. II. No. 2747, A plain unpuckered surface. Unpu·dled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1628 Sylvester Maidens Blush 1437 When the Ægyptians could no more perceive Nile's over-flood, nor any mud to leave; But pure, unpuddled on the sand to slide. 1842 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. V. 128/1 The whole surface of the hill is to be left unpuddled. Unpu·ff, v. (Un-1 3.) 1591 Sylvester Du Bartas I. iv. 226 We might unpuff our Heart, and band our Knee. 1658 Florio, Disenfiare, to vnswel, to vnpuffe, to alay, to asswage. Unpu·ffed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1603 Sylvester tr. Iv. iv. Decay 452 Pure in Religion, Wise in Counselling,..Unpuft in Sun-shine, un-appall'd in Storms. † Unpuissant, a. Obs.[1] (Un-1 7, 5 b.) = Impuissant a. c 1597 Bacon Let. in Resuscitatio ii. (1657) 92 A Letter, carrying so empty an offer of so unpuissant a service.

Unpu·lled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. xii. 230 Ek plauntis fair excuse To stonde vnpuld, that they be seke. c 1450 Two Cookery Bks. 99 Cast x. or xii. oynons hole vnpulled, and lete hem seth togidre. c 1536 Bellenden Chron. Scot. (1821) I. p. ix, The lillyis, and the violet, Unpullit, sone ar with the wind outrest. 1551 Cranmer Answ. Cres. ty & Sophist. Cavillation To Rdr. A iij b, What auaileth it..so long as ill chief rootes remayne vnpulled vp? 1608 H. Clapham Errour Left Hand 72 Some doubts, which yet (as stumps) remaine behind vnpulled vp. 1641 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars ii. 95 If some few [houses] remained unpulled down. 1694 Dryden Love Triumph. iii. i, 'Tis indeed a Fruit; Seen and desir'd of all, while yet unpull'd. 1765 Museum Rust. V. 120 Ground as much over-run with seagrass as any part else of the pasture which had been unpulled! 1895 Westm. Gaz. 15 June 3/2 The greatest of devils must be in that carriage [= a cable-tram], making it crawl along unpulled, unpushed.

Unpu·lleyed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1839 Landor Andrea of Hungary 16 But intellect..unpulled and adrift, Burns its dull heart away in smouldering scorn. Unpu·lped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1806 A. Hunter Culinæ (ed. 3) 59 Some part of the vegetables may be left unpulped. Unpu·lverize, v. (Un-1 6 c.) 1733 Tull Horse-Hoeing Husb. xxv. 417 Crushing has such a contrary Effect from squeezing, that if this Roller should be us'd when the Land is moist, it would be very pernicious, by unpulverizing it. Unpu·lverized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1829 Mag. Natur. Econ. IV. 214 A lump of unpulverised magnesia. 1883 Daily News 30 July 4/8 If he took French leave and went off..leaving.. the Government undetected, the Opposition unpulverised. Unpu·nbaled, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1821 Disraeli Young Duke iii. xiii, Arundel Dacre was proverbially unpumpable.

Unpu·mped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1633 T. James Voy. 98 The Ship to be left vnpumpt. 1669 Boyle Contin. New Exp. xiiv. 154 Air that yet remain'd unpump'd out. 1872 Ruskin Fors Clavigera xxxiii. 7 A real pump in a pump room,..instead of the unpumped Tweed.

Unpu·nctated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1870 H. A. Nicholson Man. Zool. I. 247 Spirifer idae..Shell punctated or unpunctated. Unpunctilious, a. (Un-1 7.) 1753 Richardson Grandison (1781) III. xxiii. 237 Lovers, said she, are the weakest people in the world; and people of punctilio the most un-punctilious.

Unpu·nctual, a. (Un-1 7.)

1740 Pope Let. to Swift Wks. 1751 IX. 333, I am a very unpunctual correspondent, tho' no unpunctual agent or friend. 1828 Lytton Pelham II. xii, Very young men are seldom unpunctual at dinner. 1841 Lady Lyttelton Corr. (1912) xii. 316 They are immensely unpunctual, and make the poor Queen wait for dinner. 1884 Expositor June 467, I am not unpunctual, as you know.

Unpunctua·lity. (Un-1 12, 5 b; cf. prec.)

1828-32 Webster. 1841 Emerson Ess. Ser. I. vii. 230 The discomfort of unpunctuality..is of no nation. 1888 Stanley Western. Abbeys 71 He came to the Abbey with an ostentatious punctuality.

Unpu·nctuated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1866 Mrs. Stowe Lit. Foxes 46 That little unpunctuated scrap of life's poetry. 1890 R. Holderwood Col. Reformer (1891) 161 His unpolished, unpunctuated direction of speech.

Unpunctua·ting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1866 De Morgan Budget of Paradoxes (1872) 139 Of this unpunctuating paradoxer I shall give an account in his own way. Unpu·ncturable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1891 Daily News 28 Nov. 6/1 An 'unpucturable' tyre,..is constructed that the pressure of the air closes up holes. 1901 G. Paston Little Mem. 18th Cent. 201 An equally unpuncturable power of self-delusion.

Unpu·nishable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1532 Dial. on Laws Eng. II. 4 b, He is vnpunyshable of waste by the lawe. 1584 R. Scot Discov. Witchcr. iii. viii. (1886) 40 An impossible purpose is unpunishable. 1648 Fairfax, etc. Remonstr. 49 While your own proceedings admit themselves unpunishable. 1662 Evans tr. Grotius (title-p.), In the Third [Book] is declared, What in War is Lawful, that is Unpunishable. a 1700 Dryden tr. Ovid's Art of Love 38 Th' unpunishable Pleasures of the Kind. a 1797 H. Walpole Geo. II (1847) I. ii. 334 It is the cause of sovereigns that their crimes should be unpunishable. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Yustic. Evid. (1827) I. 554 Mendacity ..remains altogether unpunishable. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. v. I, Inertia alone is at once unpunishable and uncongueriable.

Hence Unpu·nishably adv.

1649 Milton Eikon. xxviii. 230 It were yet absurd to think that the Anointment of God should..give them privilege, who punish others, to sin themselves unpunishably. 1829 Bentham Justice & Cod. Petit. 27 The now written, and above described unpunishably mendacious, pleadings.

Unpu·nished, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1340 Hampole Psalter xxxiii. 16 He I at does ill, wen he not to be vnpunyst. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VII. 185 Whos see after his deth none myste oppresse sleyyng unpunsched. c 1440 Alph. Tales 276 So he had levur lefe pe blame vnpunysshid. 1484 Caxton Fables of Æsop vi. xv. N viij b, Men ought not to leue hym vnpunyysshed. 1512 Helyas in Thoms Prose Rom. (1858) III. 75 A good dede is never unrewarded nor an evyll unpunished. 1573 L. Lloyd Marrow of Hist. (1653) 136 They suffered theft to be unpunished. 1623 J. Taylor (Water P.) Warres. Swit Wks. (1630) 174/1 Few or none escapeth unpunished if their faults be knowne. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. ii. xxx. 183 Crimes.. which unpunished, seem Authorised. 1712 Blackmore Creation vii. 71 His sword unpunish'd criminals defy. 1766 Gibbon Decl. & F. vi. (1788) I. 163 The crime went not unpunished. 1827 Pollok Course T. ii. 533 An individual sovereignty, that none Created might, unpunished, bind or touch. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) I. 319 The impious..ought not to go unpunished.

Hence Unpu·nishedly adv.

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. Pref. A iiij b, They doe so ..licentiously as vnpunishedly fome agaynst vs. 1611 Florio, Impunitamente, unpunisheddy.

Unpunishing, ppl. a. (Un-1 13.) a 1340 HAMPOLE Pr. xciii. 1 yal bete til þain selfe vnyessynge of syn. a 1652 HEYLIN Laud (1668) 354 The unpunishing of the first Tumult. Unpu'nishing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1644 MILTON Divorce II. iii. 41 Nay this is ... to incarnat sin into the unpunishing and wild pleas'd will of God. Unpunishingly, adv. [Un-1 11.] †With impunity. 1499 Promp. Parv. (Pynson), Onponysshingly, impunite. †Unpunishment. Obs.-1 (Un-1 12.) a 1555 PHILPOT Exam. & Writ. (Parker Soc.) 335 Yet ethnoms they be so hauwtiff with power, riches and unpunishment. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongestraftheydt, Vnpunishment, or Impunity.

Unpurchas(e)able, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1611 FLORIO, Inacquisiteuole, vnpurchasable. 1792 W. ROBERTS Looker-on No. 18 (1794) I. 238 The unpurchasable beauties and chaste decorations of rural scenery. a 1834 COLERIDGE Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 170 To others, they are not only not easy and cheap, but unpurchaseable and impossible too. 1880 MCCARTHY Own Times IV. 215 The country gentleman, whose own vote .. was unpurchasable by any money bribe.

Unpurchased, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1545 Test. Ebor. (Surtees) VI. 236 Where as I covenante withe hym .. to leave hym lande in yerlie value xlv .. and have unpurchased xxx value of it. a 1568 J. Reynard's Deliv. in Harl. Misc. (1808) I. 187 Nor [is] any treasure of the earth .. left unpurchased. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Reft. IV. iii, As she is rich in Natures bounty, [she] appear'd .. satisfy'd with the unpurchas'd Treasures she possesses. 1736 THOMSON Liberty v. 613 Justice, like the liberal light of Heaven, Unpurchas'd shines on all. 1781 COWPER Hope 343 But oh the strife,...and debate, The tidings of unpurchased heaven create! 1824 SCOTT Cr. Cob. xxviii, Let him keep unpurchased the crown, for which he has paid..a price which it is not worth. 1893 F. ADAMS New Egypt 75 The poor unpurchased and, so far, unpolluted free-lance.

†Unpure, a. Obs. [Un-1 7, 5 b. Cf. MDu. onpuur, MLG. unpûr, MSw. opur.]

1. Morally impure.

a 1375 Leg Folks Mass Bk. App. iv. 226 Of sunnes we beþ vnpure. 1393 LANGL. P. Pl. C. i. 126 (Ilchester MS.), For þay were prestes vnpure. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. xxxvi. 106 Hov vnpure all oure workes are we weyle not. 1509 BARCLAY Shyp of Folys 98 Nyght chaste thou lechyst, but thynge vnpure and vyle. 1550 BALE Eng. Votaries II. F iij, Thus was the churche fylled wyth vnpure ministers. 1604 T. WRIGHT Passions v. 237, I hope such vnpure minds will amend their impure errors. 1644 DIGBY Bremoral 210 Of so vnpure constitutions, as that we can present no object but sin. 1742 in Wesley Jrnl. (1749) 41 Dost thou believe, thy heart must be thus unpure?

2. Not physically pure or clean.

a 1500 Ratis Raving l. 156 Quhilk is stinkand aire vnpure. 1548 Act 2 & 3 Edw. VI c. 10 § 1 Malte unpure and unseasonable. 1576 NEWTON Lemnie's Complex. 9 b, When the pestilence is not sufficiently...conocted and attenuate, vnpure Spirites proceede out of them. 1652 WITTIE Primrose's Pop. Errs IV. iii. 213 The mixture of pure, and unpure, that is to say, of different parts in..the same mixt body.

3. Not genuine or true.

1590 BURGHOLD Meth. Physick 246 If one feuer do excede the other, then it is called an vnpure hemitrice.

Hence †Unpure'ly adv., †ness. Obs.

1550 BALE Eng. Votaries II. A ij b They .. teache the veryte of God vnpurely. 1548 UDALL Erasm. Par. Luke ii. 20 b, For what point of vnpureness could suche a woman haue in bearyng childe, as ..had conceiued by the onely power and vertue of God. 1573 T. CARTWRIGHT Replye to Answ. Whitgift 13 Christe..shall couer all oure vnpureness and not impute it vnto vs.

†Unpured, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] Unpurified. 1398 TREVISA Bartol. De P. R. xvii. 1 (Bodl. MS.), þeiin þe fedinge pured is itempred fro þe vnpured, as it is in þe gutteres of a beeste. c 1400 MAUNDEV. (1919) 200 Þei fynen the pured gold & casten awey the vnpured. 1579 LANGHAM Gard. Health 519 Put them in dishes with vnpured honey.

Unpurgeable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1876 SWINBURNE Erechtheus 299 A stain of blood unpurgeable with tears.

Unpurged, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not cleansed or freed from baser elements or admixture.

1555 EDEN Decades (Arb.) 268 Ginger Mechino ..is sould vncleansed or vnpurged. 1602 SHAKS. Ful. C. II. i. 266 The Rhewmy, and vnpurged Ayre. a 1661 HOLYDAY Persius (1673) 306 This from th' unpurged earth made us desire To strain out veins of gold by purging fire. 1667 MILTON P. L. v. 419 Whence hath this place received so fair spots, unpurg'd Vapours not yet into her substance turn'd. 1788 V. KNOX Winter Even. II. iv. x. 61 Instruments sweeter than the unpurged ear ever heard. 1874 FARRAR Christ I. 118 Which to the dull unpurged ear was but inarticulate thunder.

2. Not freed or cleared from wrong-doing, accusation, etc.

1530 RASTELL New Bk. Purgatory III. viii. f 4 b, That the soule vnpurged maye do some meane & lowe seruyce to god in heuen. 1586 J. HOOKER Hist. Irel. in Holinshed II. 90/1 The prisoner desired in the council, that because he stood vnpurged, long he late vnburied. 1642 MILTON Apol. Smect. 11 So long as I should suffer my honest estimation to lye unpurg'd from these insolent suspicions. 1653 JER. TAYLOR Serm. for Year I. xix. 250 Hell is wide open ..to every unpurged person. 1738 WESLEY Ps. VI. iii, Who dies unpurg'd for ever dies.

3. Not removed or cleared away.

a 1617 HIERON Wks. (1620) II. 415 That there is some secret euill in vs, which is vnpurged and vnreformed. 1682 FLAVEL Fount 39 The unpurged relicts of unbelief. 1825 T. MITCHELL Acharn. of Aristoph. 874 A man who had yet the unpurged pollution of a mother's blood upon him. 1884 Chr. Commw. 14 Feb. 415/2 The Church,...corrupted by the unpurged influences of the great Apostacy.

Unpurified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1574 T. CARTWRIGHT Full Declar. a 2 b, That vnreuenged, and vnpurified shedinge off gilltesse bloud. 1617 MORYSON Itin. I. 10 Vnpurified siluer as it comes from the Mines. 1667 Decay Chr. Piety II. 37 Our sinful Nation..is indeed now come out [of the furnace], but so unpurified, that [etc.]. a 1779 WARBURTON Dim. Leg. V. Notes, Wks. 1788 III. 576 This Incive Watchman of the Church militant will let nothing escape him,..nor leave any thing unpurified that has once passed through my hands. 1791 COWPER Yardley Oak 72 The conscience, yet Unpurified by an authentic act Of amnesty. 1832 G. R. PORTER Porcelain & Gl. 275 The presence of iron in the unpurified sea-sand and ashes of which it is composed.

Unpurifying, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1868 'SHIRLEY' (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. vii, 319 The discipline which teaches humility is not unpurifying.

Unpu'rposed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1570 DEE Math. Pref. 15 Of second vnpurposed frute,.. arrising by Geometrie. 1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. IV. xiv. 84 Do it at once, Or the precised Receipt Comes as all But accidents vnpurpos'd. 1645 MILTON Tetrach. 32 The restorement of a freeborn man from an vnpurpos'd, and unworthy bondage to a rightfull liberty. 1827 POLLOK Course T. v. 362 The bird..when forth he walked, Unpurposed. 1885 W. J. SENDALL Calverley's Rem. 53 The work which he has left behind him .. is, as to much of it, unpurposed and fragmentary.

†Unpurposedly, adv. Obs.-1 [Un-1 11; cf. prec.] Not purposely. a 1639 W. WHATELEY Prototypes I. xix. (1640) 185 Had they unpurposedly fallen to wanton embraces. Unpu'rpose-like, a. (Un-1 7 c.) [1825 JAM.] 1856 LEVER Martins of Cro' M. 22 The unpurpose-like vacuity, the intense vulgarity of his Guardian friends.

Unpu'rse, v. [Un-2 5, 4, 3.]

1. trans. To take (money) out of a purse; to disburse.

1390 GOWER Conf. II. 146 The time is oftes cursed, That evere was the gold unpursed, The which was leid upon the hok. 1570 LEVINS Manip. 191 To vnburse and vnpurse, expendere, insumere. 1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong, Grand d'esboursement d'argent, a great vnpursing of money. 1611 TOURNEUR Ath. Trag. v. 1 (Stage direct.), Unpurses the gold.

2. To rob of one's purse.

1827 POLLOK Course T. VIII. 382 The uncivil robber, who unpursed The traveller on the highway.

3. To relax from a pursed state. Also intr.

1871 BROWNING Pr. Hohenst. 45 Now I permit your plump lips to unpurse. c 1880 R. BRIDGES in A. D. Coleridge Eton in Forties (1896) 174 Unpursed his mouth, empty his mighty chest, His run is o'er.

Unpursu'ed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1469 Sc. Acts, Jas. III (1814) II. 95/1 Pe obligationes..sall prescrife & be of nain avail þe said fourij þeris beand ronnyng & vnpersewit þe le law. 1531 Reg. Privy Seal Scot. II. 134/2 The saidis personis .. to be .. unaccusit, unfollowit, unpersewit,..for quhatsumever action or cryme. 1667 MILTON P. L. VI. 1 All night the dreadless Angel unpursu'd Through Heav'ns wide Champain held his way. 1675 HOBBES Odyssey (1677) 289 To the ship we unpursued pass. 1782 J. SCOTT Poet. Wks. 235 Pale fear, who unpursued still flies. 1820 SCOTT Ivanhoe II. xxvi, This youth..Guided my steps not unpursued. 1861 CLARK F. BROMLEY Woman's Wand. West. World 268 They made a precipitate..retreat, but were unpursued.

Unpuzzeyed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

†1. Of persons: Unprovided, unfurnished, unsupplied (with something): a. Const. of.

a 1300 Cursor M. 5444 'Now leue sun ioseph,' he said, 'O þe es [= am] i noght vnpurueiad'. c 1375 Leg Folks Mass Bk. 424 (Royal MS.), If þou of ane be vn-purueayde. 1472 Paston Lett. III. 4 It is soo that my brother is on purveyed off monye. a 1548 HALL Chron., Edw. IV. 197 You may thinke that kyng Edward was not..so vnpurueyed of counsail, to forsake thys beneficiall alliaunce. 1596 SPENSER F. Q. VII. vi. 14 All the heauenly crew Of happy wights, now vnpuruiaide of light, Were much afraid.

† b. Without const. Also = not provided for.

1491 CAXTON Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) I. cxlii. 153 b/x That yf I wexed an almes gyuer, god sholde neuer leue me unpurueyed. a 1500 Assimb. Ladies 382 Than we began to dresse us in our gynes, That folk shuld see we were nat unpurvayd. 1509 BARCLAY Shyp of Folys 50 For one small faute, ..out is he cast bare and vnpurueyde. c 1530 Court of Love 561 And ye that ben unpurveyed, praye her eke Comforte you soon.

†2. Unprepared; not in readiness (to resist attack, etc.). Obs.

1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) VII. 111 In þe nyst .. Englische men..disperbled and chased þe enemyes unpurveied. c 1425 Orolog. Sapient. v. in Anglia X. 350/7 Take me not so vnpurveyed fro þis lipte of life. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1906) 146 The .v. maidenes that were folys, that slepte and were vnpurueyed. a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VIII, 32 It was forsene that the kyng nor his people should be taken vnpurueyed. 1586 DAY Engl. Secretorie II. 114 It seemeth a matter incident to his accompt..that..he be not vnpurueyed in his owne person.

†3. Unforeseen; unexpected(ly). Obs.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. II. pr. i. (3868) 30 Til þat she confounde wip vnsuffreable sorwe hem þat she hap left in despeir vnpurueyed [L. imperata]. c 1425 WYNTOUN Cron. II. xvi. 1351 He slew of þaim a great party As he come on vnpurvaʒd, Vthwarlyast wer þai. 1456 SIR G. HAY Gov. Princes Wks. (S.T.S.) II. 111 Ryche sa of ane unkynde ʒere ..men may better purvay na it was unknawin vn-purvayde of before. 1483 CAXTON Gold. Leg. 359 b/a As they fled they..mette the holy body sodenly unpurueyed.

4. Of things: Not furnished beforehand.

c 1548 HALL Chron., Edw. IV, 243 He.. left nothyng apertaynyng to the warre, vnpurueyed or vnlooked for.

Unpu'shed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1895 [see UNPULLED].

Unput, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

Chiefly with adv. and preps.

c 1470 HENRY Wallace VI. 624 Dede corssys that lay wnput in graiff. 1491 Sc. Acts, Jas. IV (1814) II. 225/2 The tenementis..sall remane vnput furth or removit. 1509 HAWES Past. Pleas. XXIX. (Percy Soc.) 143 Towarde Rome a great circuite aboute, There was no fyre that was un-put-out, 1565 in Hay Fleming Reform. Scotl. (1910) 611 Certane tymmer and glas unput in the memorial. 1600 SURFLET Countrie Farme I. iii. 4 One tyle in the roofe, being left vnrepaired and vnput in againe, causeth others also to fall. 1665 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. (1677) 56 This holy Fire .. continued un-put out for many Generations. 1732 J. LOUTHAN Form of Process 267 Which Acts are yet remains unput to due Execution anent the forenamed Persons. 1843 MRS. BROWNING Lett. R. H. Horne (1877) I. 65 She has .. a natural exaltation, perfectly unaffected and un-put-on. 1897 FLANDRAU Harvard Episodes 9 Bradley suddenly answered the unput questions by suggesting ways and means.

Unpu'trefied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1579 W. FULKE Heskins' Parl. 353 It was kept many yeres ..vnputrified. 1626 BACON Sylva § 341 So wee see that Meat and Drinke will last longer, Vnputrified, or Vnsowred, in Winter, than in Summer. 1663 BOYLE Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. i. 25 An embrio..preserved vnputrified for several years. 1735 ARBUTHNOT Aliments 180 No Animal unputrify'd, being burnt, yields any alkaline Salt. 1799 KIRWAN Geol. Ess. 60 The rhinoceros was found intire and unputrified. 1843 CARLYLE Past & Pr. III. x, All human things do require ..to have some Soul in them,..were it only to keep the Body unputrified.

Unpu'trid, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1657 B. W. tr. Bauderon's Expert Phisic. 72 An unputrid Synochus hath no small Analogy with an Ephemera. Unpythago'rically, adv. (Un-1 11.) a 1687 H. MORE Conject. Cabbal. (1712) 133 By all which terms is meant nothing else but Cybele or Vesta, but how Unpythagorically, any one may discern.

†Unqua'rable, a. Obs.-1 [Un-1 7 b + QUARE v.] Indubitable, certain. 1657 J. WATTS Vind. Ch. Eng. 58 An unquestionable and unquarrable Rule. Unqua'fied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1812 BYRON 'If sometimes' iii, If not the goblet pass unquaff'd, It is not drain'd to banish care.

Unqu'iled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1582 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. cxcix. 1237 Let vs..praye him to giue vs power to holde out vnquailed. 1613 W. BROWNE Brit. Past. I. iv, So Griefe..In longest journeys hath the strongest strength, And is at hand supprest, unquail'd at length. 1839 COLERIDGE Lectures Ch. & State (ed. 2) 145 The lion-hearted Luther with unquailed spirit.

Unqua'ling, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1836 WHITTIER Mem. T. Shipley 49 The unquailing eye of innocence. 1853 ROCK Ch. of Fathers III. ix. 227 His heart was unquailing when he met his foemen. 1881 R. W. CHURCH Bacon I. 25 Elizabeth's..unquailing spirit at the time of the Spanish invasion.

Hence Unqua'lingly adv.

1845 [JANE ROBINSON] Whitehall lxviii, [He] fixed his eyes steadily and unqualingly upon him.

Unqua'int, a. [Un-1 7.] †Uncunning, ignorant. a 1340 HAMPOLE Pauter ciii. 26 Waytynges of paim..occupyes vnquayne men anence þaire saule. Ibid. cxl. 4 It is þe manere of vnquaynt men..to excuse þain wip falshed. †Unqua'nted, ppl. a. Obs.-1 [Un-1 8.] Unfamiliar. 1587 W. FOWLER Wks. (S.T.S.) I. 26, I who was not moche acquent with such vnquented sight. Unqua'kerish, a. (Un-1 7.) 1822 LAMB Elia (1900) III. 61 It is a visiting, unquiet, unquakerish season. Unqua'kerlike, a. (Un-1 7 c.) 1852 SAVAGE R. Medlicott I. iii, A fair..girl, with a most unquakerlike expression of mirth in her eye. Unqua'kerly, a. (Un-1 7.) 1846 B. BARTON Select. (1849) 41 The bell, with the somewhat unquakerly inscription of 'Mr. Barton's bell'. Unqua'king, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1816 WILSON City of Plague II. iii. 99 That awful happiness That walks unquaking through the shades of death. 1881 RUSKIN Bible Amiens iv. § 10 On the unquaking and fruitful earth.

Unqua'lifiable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

With recent quots. cf. mod.F. inqualifiable.

a 1734 NORTH Lives (1742) 271 He would not put the Seals to any Commissions to Persons unqualifiable. 1871 Union Rev. 78 This unqualifiable proceeding. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 28 June 2/1 The march played over and over..with quite unqualifiable iteration.

Unqualification. [Un-1 12.] 1657 W. MONICE Coena quasi Koiwy xvi. ath Qualifications (I should think them rather unqualifications). 1708 HEARNE Collect. (O.H.S.) II. 106 He..express's his unqualification for y^e Place.

Unqua'lified, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not qualified or fitted; not having the necessary qualifications.

1556 LAUDER Tractate 364 Quhow God salt 3ow correct, Geue 3e vnqualifeit birds Elect. 1631 Star Chamb. Cases (Camden) 73 Allen, being a Vicar in Sudbury and beneficed and unqualifyed, accepted of another living. 1673 S'too him Bayes 22 The bishop would not have unqualify'd people read the scriptures. 1780 HARRIS Philol. Eng. I. iv. (1781) 17 As Translators are infinite, and many of them (to borrow a phrase from Sportsmen) unqualified Persons. 1836 JAS. GRANT Random Recoll. Ho. Lords ix. 192 He was always the unqualified denouncer of State prosecutions of the press. 1891 E. KINGLAKE Australian at Home 46 It is no use steing a quack...Why did you employ him? You know he is unqualified.

b. Const. for, or to with inf.

1667 Decay Chr. Piety xix. 409 Till he have thus denudated himself, it is utterly unqualified for these Agonies. 1689 S. JOHNSON Remarks Sherlock's Bk. 41 A Person may be unqualified by Law, to execute a Commission. 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. v. 113 Capable of naturally becoming qualified for States of life, for which they were once wholly unqualified. 1781 GIBBON Decl. & F. xviii. (1787) II. 109 Dominions which they were unqualified to govern. 1849 HARRIS Life Ld. Hardwicke I. 504 A minister..unqualified for his situation.

2. Not endowed with specific qualities.

1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 200 If he neither derived them from..unqualified Matter,..nor yet from..an irrational and maleficent soul.

3. Not modified, limited, or restricted.

1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla I. 76 [He] could scarce refrain from a smile at this unqualified opening. 1897 PASCOFF Philip II, I. (1857) 145 His ardour did not precipitate him into any unqualified declaration of his passion. 1898 BOSW. SMITH Carthage 7 The unsparing and unqualified denunciations of Tyre and Sidon..in Joel and Amos.

Unqua·lifedly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] Without qualification.

1862 R. H. PATTERSON Ess. Hist. & Art 107 M. Guizot.. inculcates much too unqualifiedly the preservation of repose in statuary. 1873 MORLEY Rousseau II. 178 An exercise of sovereignty which might be atheistic, mahometan, or anything else unqualifiedly monstrous.

Unqua·lifedness. (Un-[1] 12.)

1666 BOYLE Hydrostatical Paradoxes Pref. A 7b. The unqualifiedness of most Readers, to examine Mathematical things. 1674 A. G. Quest. Oath Allegiance To Rdr. p. iii. My own unqualifiedness extreamly discouraging me from doing it. 1720 S. PARKER Biblioth. Bibl. 65 The inadvertency and unqualifiedness of Copyers.

Unqua·lify, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To make unqualified; to disqualify. (Common c 1675–1750.)

1695 SPEDSTOWE Divine Vengeance 164 Earthly things defile the heart with..corrupt affections, which do unqualifie it for the reception of..precious promises. 1694 S. JOHNSON Notes Past. Let. Bp. Burnet 1. 73 The Duke of York had unqualified himself for that High Office. 1709 ADDISON Tatler No. 103 ¶ 16 These particularities..in dress and behaviour..oftentimes..unqualify them from doing any Good in the World. 1794 MRS. A. M. BENNETT Ellen III. 72 His ill health..unqualified him to be a public [tutor]. 1836 T. ERSKINE Baxter's Saint's R. Pref. p. xxxiv, [To] unqualify the mind for present exertion. 1883 C. H. SPURGEON in Daily News 2 Feb. (1892) 6/1 If you think my years would unqualify me for your pulpit.

Hence Unqualifying ppl. a.

1737 Common Sense I. 30 The most unqualifying Circumstances for any Employment, where Bribery and Corruption can possibly enter.

Unqua·lifyingly, adv. (Un-[1] 12.) 1841 S. WARREN Ten Thous. v. 1. Unqualifyingly submitting to every one of the requisitions. Unqua·lified, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 8.) 1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. III. xi. 44 Madam, speake to them, Hee's unqualified with very shame. Unqua·lity-like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1784 E. BAGE Barham Downs I. 200 An inaccountable unqualitylike fit of the spleen. Unqua·ntified, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1864 BOWEN Logic vi. 262 The same naked or unquantified Subject and Predicate. 1865 MILL Exam. Hamilton xxii. 443 Forms..in which unquantified conclusions can be drawn from unquantified premises. Unqua·rreliable, a. (Un-[1] 7b.) 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. vi. x. 323 There arising unto examination so such satisfactory and unquarrellable reasons. 1698 in Sir H. Parnell Debtors Decisions (1792) 1 It necessarily followed, that the sentence should be final, and unquarrellable. Unqua·rrelled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1606 in De Foe Hist. Ch. Scot. II. Add. (1727) 224 By a just Sentence of a lawful Judge, standing unquarrelled and unreduc'd. Unqua·rrelsome, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1836 SIR H. TAYLOR Statesman xv. 101 A statesman should be..the most unquarrelsome of men. Unqua·rried, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1788 D. GILSON Serm. 9 The fragment of an useful Column, has more honour than the whole unquarried rock. 1901 Daily News 21 Feb. 6/3 It was the work of a poetic pioneer in the unquarried rocks of daily life. Unqua·rtered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1829 BOWER Scotd vi. 25 He..Flings on the flames whole bodies of bulls unquartered to blaze. Unqua·shed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1647 N. BACON Disc. Goot. Eng. x. xlviii. 131 Preserving the particular subservient jurisdictions of the kingdoms, entire and unquashed.

Unque·n, v. [Un-[2] 6 b, 4.]

1. trans. To deprive of, depose from, the rank or position of queen.

1579 J. STUBBES Gaping Gulf D ij, Is it not more then probable..that the next prince..wyl drawe it [sc. England] also..under the law Salique, and so quite vnqueen the desolate sister? 1623 SHAKS. Cor. III, iv. 171 Embalme me, Then lay me forth (although vnqueen'd) yet like A Queene. 1673 Season. Disc. Maintain. Establ. Relig. 9 Nor was she unqueen'd enough by all this. 1821 To the King 9 We must un-queen your wife, because she is immoral. 1883 H. COLERIDGE Poems I. 38 Old times unqueen thee, and old loves endear thee. 1873 Athenæum 22 Feb. 240/2 The divorce which was to unqueen Catherine of Arragon.

2. To remove the queen from (a hive).

1884 Bee-keeping 43 Unqueen your diseased stock, cutting out all queen-cells ten days after.

Hence Unque·ned ppl. a.

1820 SCOTT Abbot xxiii, Go thou..and render the usual service of the meal to this unqueened Queen. 1826 SOUTHEY Vind. Eccl. Angl. 388 The un-queened, un-sexed, un-Lutheranized, Christina.

Unque·nlike, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) a 1683 OLDHAM Wks. (1686) 13 Unqueenlike pity man'd her Royal Pow'r.

Unque·nly, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1825 SWINBURNE Chastelard iv. 1. 164 Methinks I am growing unqueenly. 1884 Truth 13 Mar. 383/1 Her..modest bearing and unqueenly ways.

Unque·lled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. engequelt, ON. ukvaldr.)

†a 1400 Morte Arth. 3821 Qwhylles he es qwykke and in qwerte unquelydye with handis. 1605 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. iii. Law 1307 Thou shalt dye quiet, thou shalt live unquell'd. 1654 FANSHAWE Love for Love's Sake, That so famous Queen For unquell'd valour. 1797 THOMSON Summer 569 Tiny Meadows..Undismayed Against the Mower's Sythe. a 1800 COWPER Iliad (ed. 2) v. 121 Diomede unquell'd By that keen shaft, retreated. 1813 BYRON Giaour xxxii, A spirit yet unquell'd and high.

† Unque·me, a. Obs. [OE. uncwéme (Un-[1] 7): cf. unáquemt (Un-[1] 3), MSw. ogvämi, MDa. ukvem.]

1. Displeasing.

c 1200 Vercelli MS. fol. 79 a, For þære þæssinne þiss sio ure onsægdnes Gode uncweme. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 9 Ure lif we ledeð richliche toȝenes ure louerd...ȝif we forbered al þat þat him is uncweme. c 1200 ORMIN 4629 All þatt follsheþ unchenleȝe All þa Drihhtin uncweme.

2. Unfit, unsuitable; awkward.

a 1300 Cursor M. 12411 Pis tre..þat first vnquemest was to see Nu es it quem als it mai be. 1611 COTGR., Malassiriés, vnwieldie, awkward, vnwheeme.

3. Uncomfortable, uneasy.

a 1300 Cursor M. 2259 Þe self angels sal quake vnqueme For dute of him þat all sal deme.

So † Unque·mble, a., -ably adv., Unque·mefully adv., Unque·mely [cf. MSw. ogvämelika] adv. Also Unque·me ᵽ. [Un-[2] 3], to trouble, unsettle. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 3566 þe heued biginnes for to scak, His hend vnquemli for to quak. Ibid. 22551 Vnquemfulli þan sal þai quak, þat al þe erth it sal toscak. c 1400 Destr. Troy 2693 þou qwene, þat vnqwemyt has on sum qwaint wise, The angur thee is, Echis, entured on bonde! Ibid. 13681 þen fortune his fall fell aspies, Vnqwemys his qwate, & þe qwele turnys. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 366/2 On-qwemable, inplacabilis. Ibid., On-qwemably, inplacabiliter.

Unque·nchable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] Incapable of being quenched; inextinguishable: a. Of fire. (Also fig.) 1382 WYCLIF Matt. iii. 12 Chaffis he shal brenne with fyr vnquenchable. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. lxiii. 147 þei þat..brennen in an unquenchable fire of charite. 1535 COVERDALE Luke iii. 17 He..shal burne the chaffe with vnquenchable fyre. 1568 CAUFIELD Answ. Martial's Treat. Cruz To Rdr. 2 To burne in hell wyth flames vnquenchable. 1627 HAKEWILL Apol. iv. xiv. § 4. 462 That [fire] burneth eternally without feeding, and is vnquenchable. 1652 VAUGHAN Mount of Olives Wks. 1914 I. 165 Those furious and unquenchable burnings of hell (which the Scripture calls the lake of fire, &c.). 1741–2 GRAY Agrippina 128 The spark Unquenchable, that glows within their breasts. 1791 COWPER Iliad xvii. 109 Fierce as Vulcan's fire Unquenchable. 1811 LAMB Genius of Hogarth Wks. 1908 I. 106 Her unquenchable spark is not utterly out. 1825 MACAULAY Ess., Milton ¶ 50 Those mighty principles..have kindled an unquenchable fire in the hearts of the oppressed. 1860 BRYANT Iliad xvii. II. 119 The eager enemy hurled the blazing brands.., and wrapped the stern in flames Unquenchable.

b. Of thirst, hunger, or greed.

1567 JEWEL Reply Harding 735 The Pope..beinge diseased with an vnquenchable thirst of monie. 1579 HOLINSHED Hist. Scot. I. 60/2 He was giuen to such vnquenchable couetyse that nothing might suffice hym. a 1619 FOTHERBY Atheom. II. ii. § 5. 204 Thus vnquenchable is the thirst of ambition. 1743 DE FOE Col. Jack (1840) 186 by these things he was in an unquenchable thirst in me. 1795 SOUTHEY Maid of Orleans II. 71 Often impatiently to quench their thirst Unquenchable, large draughts of molten gold They drink insatiate. 1857 ROBERTSON Serm. Ser. III. xix. 273 The more unquenchable for the high and divine thirst, the sooner will he find that out. 1901 TROWBRIDGE Lett. Mother to Eliz. x. 51 Her thirst for information is apparently unquenchable.

c. In other contexts. (Common in recent use.)

a 1586 SIDNEY Defence of Earl of Leicester Wks. 1923 III. 65 An evident proof of an unquencheable malice. 1671 MILTON Samson 1422 The people on thir Holy-days Impetuous, insolent, unquenchable. 1805 WORDSW. Prelude I. 284 Firm devotion, zeal unquenchable. 1859 MILL Liberty iv. 164 Polygamy..seems to excite unquenchable animosity when practised by persons who speak English. 1883 Harper's Mag. Apr. 656/2 There is just the same unquenchable interest here.

Hence Unque·nchableness.

1627 H. BURTON Baiting Pope's Bull 63 Wee pray God, that wee neuer come to feele the fierie vnquenchablenesse of it. 1629 in Hakewill Apol. (1630) Advts. Yy 4 b, Visiting him [sc. a bled man] I was amazed to see the vnquenchablenesse of this fire.

Unque·nchably, adv. (Un-[1] 11.)

1652 GAULE Magastrom. 288 He..hath brought..his bookes to be burnt (by which himselfe might have burned unquenchably). a 1713 KER Hymn. Poet. Wks. 1721 II. 104 In pure Love Jesus on the Cross expir'd, That Sinners might unquenchably be fir'd. 1805 SCOTT Last Minstrel II. xvii, That lamp shall burn unquenchably, Until the eternal doom shall be. 1826 MRS. BROWNING Aurr. Leigh II. 86 All true poets have an unquenchably Lake Shakespeare and the gods.

Unque·nched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Unextinguished; unsuppressed: a. Of fire or light. Also fig.

c 1200 ORMIN 10491 Inntill þatt fir batt bærnenn shall A buttenn ende unquenchenneȝ. †a 1400 MS. Cantab. Ff. ii. 38 fol. 26 (Halliw.) I tycken the worldes fyre un-queynte. 1596 SPENSER F.Q. I. iv. v. 4 Vulcan..This precious ornament.. wrought in Lemno with vnquenched fire. a 1626 BACON Prayer Wks. 1879 I. 340 My heart..hath been an unquenched coal upon thine altar. 1703 ROWE Fair Penit. II. D 4, If any spark Of this Heav'n remain unquench'd within her Breast. 1764 GOLDSM. Trav. 222 Their level life is but a smouldering fire, Unquench'd by want. 1812 BYRON Ch. Har. II. lxxv, Who but would deem their bosoms burn'd anew With this unquenched beam, lost Liberty! 1836 Lyra Apost. (1849) 180 On high th' unquenched stars Blaze. 1882 FARRAR Early Chr. I. 286 Even amid the moral aberrations of heathenism it was granted to some..to keep that light unquenched.

b. Of feelings, qualities, etc.

1590 MARLOWE 2nd Pt. Tamburl. v. iii, His teare-thyrsty and vnquenched hate. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia III. (1598) 367 Being deprived of her vnquenched desire. a 1625 FLETCHER Woman's Prize IV. iv, My vnquench'd charity shall tell you thus much, (Though you deserve it well) you shall not beg. 1762 FALCONER Shipwr. III. 268 On the youthful mind th' impression cast Of ancient glory..: There all unquench'd by cruel fortune's ire, It glows. 1799 COLERIDGE Osorio v. 100 The Tyger, that with unquench'd cruelty, Still thirsts for blood. 1817 BYRON Lament of Tasso v, All unquench'd is still my better part. 1890 R. BOLDERWOOD Col. Reformer (1891) 15 The Reverend Jabez Bunkum, unquenched philanthropy.

† 2. Of lime: Unslaked. Obs.

c 1500 Melusine 142 Barels full of vnquynched lyme. c 1550 H. LLOYD Treas. Health U j b, Make an oyntment..of Aloes and vnquenchyd lime with comon oyle. 1608 TOPSELL Serpents 43 Vnquenched Lyme, mixeth with Honnie and oyle. 1660 SHARSOCK Vegetables 129, I..sometimes have added vnquenched lime into the infusions.

† Unque·rt, sb. Obs. [Un-[1] + QUERT, QUART sb.] Disquiet, annoyance, trouble, hurt.

a 1300 Cursor M. 1788 Þe leon suam beside þe hert, Til oþer did na beist vn-quert. a 1300 E. E. Psalter xxx. 13 To forgeines for vnquert Am I guue. a 1400 Minor Poems fr. Vernon MS. I. 250/1212 þis fals folk of Religioun..þen as riche in vnquerte As þeos opure. c 1400 Deryn 2557 The man þat wroȝt me this vnquert. c 1475 Golagros & Gaw. 675 Than thair hors with thair hochis sic harmis couth hint, As crasit in vnquart quakand thai stand.

† Unque·rt, a. Obs. [Un-[1] + QUERT a.]

1. Disquieted, distressed.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter x. 2 þair bowe..þai schot to make un-quert, In mirknes rightwise of herte.

2. Unquiet, troublesome, wicked.

13.. in Hervig Archiv Stud. Neu. Spr. LXXXI. 310/95 þis Pharesens weore vnquert, þey kenne not heor owne hert. c 1425 Cast. Persev. 3354 in Macro Plays 177 þe Jeves þat were vnquert dressyd þee drynke. c 1470 HARDING Chron. ccx. ii, This wormes mete, this carryon full vnquerte, Than some tyme thought in worlde it had no pere.

Unque·stionable, a. and sb. [Un-[1] 7 b, 12.]

1. Having an assured character or position; unexceptionable.

1603 DANIEL Def. Rhime G 3, The Generall Custome, and vse of Ryme..hauing beene so long..held vnquestionable. 1648 WILKINS Math. Magic I. xviii. 131 Attested by the experience of divers unquestionable witnesses. a 1687 PETTY Pol. Arith. I. (1690) 29 For what summ the Keepers of the Bank are unquestionable Security. 1796 MORSE Amer. Geog. II. 51 [it] would be incredible, were it not attested by the most unquestionable authors. 1828 LYTTON Pelham I. xvii, The rope was of the most unquestionable thickness. 1846 MRS. A. MARSH Father Darcy II. xiv. 237 His ability is great, his principles unquestionable.

2. Incapable of being doubted or disputed; indisputable, indubitable, certain.

1631 GOUGE God's Arrows III. § 93. 353 The Crowne..by just and unquestionable title descended on her. 1695 J. EDWARDS Perfect. Script. 349 The learned professor..renders it unquestionable that Moses..was the author. 1797 BERKELEY Th. Vision § 150 The contrary being held an unquestionable truth. 1782 MARTYN Georg. Mag. I. 225 Authentic facts, and unquestionable evidence. 1850 RR. MARTINEAU Hist. Peace v. 161 (1877) III. 256 The evil was unquestionable. 1879 S. C. BARTLETT Egypt to Pal. xxi. 453 This is one of the unquestionable antiquities, the fountain of Elisha.

b. sb. An unquestionable fact or truth.

1662 GLANVILL Van. Dogm. 231 The love of God and our neighbour, those Evangelical unquestionables. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 1 Feb. 1/3 One of the unquestionables is, that the German Government cannot dare to challenge the hostility of Russia.

3. a. Not submitting to question; impatient.

1600 SHAKS. A. Y. L. III. ii. 393 Orl. What were his markes? Ros. A leane cheeke, which you haue not:..an vnquestionable spirit, which you haue not.

b. Not liable to question.

1649 MILTON Tenure Kings 19 What hath a native King to plead,..why he..should think to scape unquestionable, as a thing divine?

Hence Unquestionabi·lity, -ableness.

1797 BAILEY (vol. II), Indisputableness, unquestionableness. 1843 CARLYLE Past & Pr. II. vi, Our Religion is..agreat heaven-high Unquestionability. 1873 HAMERTON Intell. Life III. viii. 112 The modern linguist can never force himself behind that stately unquestionableness which shields the Classical scholar.

Unque·stionably, a. [Un-[1] 11, 5 b.] Without or beyond question; indisputably, indubitably.

Chiefly in loose construction, qualifying the clause or sentence, as in (a).

(a) 1644 VICARS God in Mount 167 Such a Magistrate unquestionably is this present Lord Major. 1661 COWLEY Cromwell Wks. (1906) 365 It was bold unquestionably for a man..so outrageously to murder his Master. 1795 Reporter's Trans. I. 18 Europe is unquestionably not a little indebted to him. 1800 Asiat. Ann. Reg., Char. 7/2 Unquestionably a person of great prudence. 1884 F. TEMPLE Relat. Relig. & Sci. viii. 228 Newton's investigations were unquestionably guided..in reliance on the truth of the uniformity of nature.

(b) 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. XI. ii. § 100 Wherein they conceived themselves to be before unquestionably estated. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 362 It might be made unquestionably evident. 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. vii, How unquestionably little..the pleasures and profits of it are at the best. 1740 CHIBER Apol. 318 Whose Repentance I have been unquestionably informd, appear'd [sic.]. 1846 HUXLEY in Life (1900) I. 98 It is an unquestionably dull day. 1894 ILLINGWORTH Personality iii. 60 Man finds the world outside him to be intensely, unquestionably real.

† Unque·stionate, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b.] = next. 1423 JAS. I Kingis Q. cxxv, The maister portare, callit patience, ..frely let vs in, vnquestionate.

Unque·stioned, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Of persons: Not subjected to questioning; uninterrogated.

1601 SHAKS. All's Well II. i. 211 More should I question thee..From whence thou cam'st, how tendred on, but rest Vnquestion'd welcome. 1655 FULLER Nicholas Ferrar (Camden) II. 295 It looks strangly that he passeth to and fro with that liberty he doth vnquestioned. 1742 RICHARDSON Pamela IV. 144, I could wish..that, even in Jest, my Mamma's Daughter might pass unquestioned. 1810 SCOTT Lady of L. I. xxix, That fellest foe might join the feast, And from his deadliest foeman's door Unquestioned turn. 1868 MORRIS Earthly Par., All. Race 45 Wherethrough, unquestioned of his race or name, He entered.

absol. 1898 B. GREGORY Side Lights Conft. Meth. 525 Permitting the great Questioner to be the great Unquestioned.

2. Not inquired into; unexamined.

1662 SHARSOCK Meas. for M. I. i. 36 Our haste from hence is of so quicke condition, That it..leaues vnquestion'd Matters of needfull value.

3. Not called in question; undisputed.

c 1620 ROWLEY, etc. Birth of Merlin I. ii. 6 His safety being unquestion'd. 1653 W. RAMESEY Astrol. Restored 3

The case [is]..clear and unquestioned amongst rational men. 1712 Addison Spect. No. 469 ¶ 5 The stated and unquestioned Fee of his Office. 1781 Cowper Expost. 645 To praise him is to serve him, and fulfil .. his unquestion'd will. 1809 Crabbe Tales IX. 62 He must be one with manners like her own, His life unquestion'd, his opinion known. 1882 Manch. Exam. 4 Feb. 4/7 She has put forward her largest claims, and.. they pass unquestioned.

b. Quasi-adv. Without question.

1734 Thomson Liberty IV. 862 On Aid, unquestion'd, liberal Aid was given.

Hence Unque·stionedly adv.

1644 Digby Nat. Bodies xxxiii. § 5. 287 The memory, till then, keepeth quietly and unquestionedly for the true object, what either the thought or chance..had patched up.

Unque·stioning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

Both adj. and adv. (see next) are common from c 1860.

1828-32 Webster (citing J. M. Mason). 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. xxi. 356 Unquestioning obedience to the authority of his superiors. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. ii. The unquestioning activity of a spinning insect. 1875 E. White Life in Christ IV. xxvii. 470 Schools which have.. accepted with unquestioning faith, the everlasting duration of the soul.

Hence Unque·stioningly adv., -ness.

1857 Susanna Winkworth tr. Life Tauler 90 Inclined to follow..blindly and unquestioningly their spiritual masters. 1876 Mrs. Whitney Sights & Ins. III. 98 His eyes were as steadfast as hers; but they had not her unquestioningness.

Unqui·bbled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1860 Pusey Anc. Danish Ball. II. 266 He swave a clear unquibbled oath.

Unqui·ck, a. rare. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. MDa. and Norw. ukvik.]

1. Lifeless, dead.

c 1449 Pecock Repr. II. Ix. 193 Ech lyuyng man is verier.. ymage of Crist..than is eny vnquyk stok or stoon. Ibid., The making..of sucke vnquyke gay ymagis.

2. Not lively or active.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 208 Pat þou be not in eny of hem [sc. matters] so sluggy, vnquyke and heuy. a 1560 Phaer Æneid. IX. (1562) Ee iij b, We wear our lyues in spending stele, ..nor age vnquicke enfebleth ought our mynds.

Unqui·ck, v. [Un-[2] + Quick v.[1]] intr. To lose vivacity. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars III. lxii, His sences droope, his steedy eye[s] vnquicke, And much he ayles.

Unqui·ckened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1610 Healey St. Aug. City of God 489 Bodyes than haue a liuing soule (though as yet vnquickened by the spirit). 1639 Bp. Reynolds Lord's Supper xvii, A bodily and unquickened service. 1712 Blackmore Creation VI. 290 Which numerous, but unquicken'd progeny, ..Inwrapt within each other lie. 1755 H. Walpole Let. (1846) III. 125 You may imagine our land-spirit will not be unquickened neither. 1868 Boyd Less. Middle Age 382 Shakspere..probably wrote, with pulse unquickened, the wildest bursts of Othello. 1876 Miss Yonge Womanhood xi. 83 It is constant use of the powers that is needed, not only dead acquirement unquickened by exertion.

Unqui·escent, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1859 F. Mahony Rel. Father Prout 383 The human breast..Throbs thus unawed, Untamed and unquiescent.

Unqui·et, sb. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] Absence or want of quiet; disquiet, disturbance.

1551 in Froude Hist. Eng. (1860) V. 328 Occasions of disorder and unquiet in the realm. 1592 Kyd Sp. Trag. III. xv. 23 Nor dies Kesenego, although he sleepe awhile; For in vnquiet quietnes is faind. 1613 Sherley Trav. Persia 106 [It] did aggrauate both the griefe of my minde and unquiet of my bodie. 1668 Pepys Diary 10 Jan., The unquiet which her ripping up of old faults will give me. 1746 Eliza Heywood Female Spect. No. 23 (1748) IV. 258 The cause of his own unquiet, and of that of one so dear to him. 1862 'Shirley' (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. i. 48 The unquiet and unrest of the day are gradually subsided as the evening descends. 1887 Spectator 1 Oct. 1300 The unquiet of the sea.

Unqui·et, a. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.]

1. Marked by unrest, disturbance, or disorder.

1523 [Coverdale] Old God & New (1534) A j, In this so vnquiet & troblous estate of comen weales. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. IV, 32 b, The end of the vnquiet tyme of kyng Henry the fourth. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 68 Their vnquiet Country,..lying twixt two great Kings, is a prey many times to the Turke or Persian. 1674 Essex Papers (Camden) I. 191, I have..written at large..concerning y^e unquiet motions which have of late bin in this City. 1743 Johnson's Debates (1787) II. 340 Measures which could produce no other effect than that of making their reign unquiet. 1796 Mrs. M. Robinson Angelina III. 36 That I should not fear to sleep alone in the very apartments which were supposed to be unquiet. 1826 Miss Mitford Village Ser. II. 126 Some relics of those picturesque but unquiet days. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. ii. I. 253 Temple himself, as was his wont in unquiet times, retired to his garden.

2. Not disposed to be quiet or inactive; restless, active, stirring (esp. so as to cause trouble).

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 2 b, This worlde..is and euer shall be vnquiet. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 442 Vnquiet and troublesome persons. a 1648 Ld. Herbert Hen. VIII (1683) 327 The more unquiet sort being..worn out and spent, the rest..came to a composition with the Emperor. 1697 Walsh Dryden's Virg. Past. Pref. ¶ 1 We.. can scarcely pass..a whole Day not ruffled by some unquiet Passion. 1701 Swift Contests Nobles & Comm. iv, Those hot, unquiet spirits, who disturb assemblies. 1719 — Abstr. Hist. Eng. Wks. 1841 I. 545 Those perpetual troubles and vexations given to his kingdom by that unquiet people. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. iii. I. 253 The restless, unquiet, and vindictive seaman now sate in the councils. 1877 Smiles Charac. vii. 202 France has been the unquiet spirit among the nations of Europe.

b. In a state of physical unrest or commotion. Also in fig. context.

1535 Coverdale 2 Esdras xvi. 12 Y^e see aryseth up.., and the floudes of it are vnquiete. 1627 J. Taylor (Water P.) Navy of Land Ships Wks. (1630) 87/1 The tossing of the billow, and vnquiet surges of the sea. 1644 Milton Educ. 2 To the sot and turmoild..in fadomles and unquiet deeps of controversie. 1797 Mortimer Husb. 398 In case the Liquor [sc. cider in a cask] be unquiet. 1793 Smeaton Eddystone L. § 293 They found the sea so unquiet about the rocks, that [etc.]. 1863 Kane Grinnell Exp. xlix. (1856) 466 On every side..are the unquiet grinding floes. 1863 Conington Hor., Odes IV. xii. 1 The gales of Thrace, that hush the unquiet Sea.

c. Not still or silent.

1655 Stanley Hist. Philos. III. 45, I sent away the women lest they should be so unquiet.

3. Uneasy, perturbed, anxious: a. Of persons, the mind, look, etc.

1535 Coverdale Ps. xli. 5 O my soule,..why art thou so vnquiete within me? 1582 N. Lichefield tr. Castanheda's Cong. E. Ind. I. ix. 25 Being unquiet and greatly greueued at their falshood. a 1628 Sir J. Beaumont Bosw. Field, etc. (1629) 71 Whose counsels make men draw vnquiet breath. c 1698 Locke Cond. Underst. § 6 (1754) 28 The mind.. hastens to some hypothesis to bottom it on; till then it is unquiet and unsettled. 1719 De Foe Crusoe I. (Globe) 187, I slept unquiet. 1740 Richardson Pamela II. 185 As the Hours grew on..my silly Heart was the unquieter. 1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. II. 73 A countenance visibly unquiet and confused. 1832 James Phil. Augustus I. viii, Walking up and down the hall, with an unquiet and somewhat irritated air. 1871 Palgrave Lyr. Poems 98 On the eve of the marriage morrow The bride is unquiet by night.

b. Of states or conditions.

1576 Fleming Panopl. Epist. 199 The vnquiet estate of a tyrant. 1619 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 610 Gungida betwixt two stoules had vnquiet sitting, paying tribute [etc.]. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reft. v. viii, The unquiet Pleasure that the sight of the Stars gives to this Child. 1679 Establ. Test 2 That insecurity ..makes ..their dayes unquiet. 1772 W. Buchan Dom. Med. 574 His sleep is unquiet with frightful dreams. 1802 Wordsw. Excurs. I. 873 Nine long years, She liuggered in unquiet widowhood. 1844 Lytton in Life & Lett. (1883) I. 135, I cried myself into an unquiet doze.

Unqui·et, v. [Un-[2] 3. Cf. Inquiet v.] trans. To disturb the quiet of; to disquiet.

Common c 1525-c 1625; also occurring in recent use.

1382 Wyclif Acts XV. 19 For which thing I deme hem..for to be not vnquyetid, or disesid. 1407 Exam. Wyc. of Thorpe (MS. Rawl. C. 208) fol. 21, My conscience schulde euer be herwiþ oure mesure vnquyetid. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 15 b, These irefull thoughtes..neuer ceaseth to vnquiet and trouble the same. 1540 Act 32 Hen. VIII, c. 38 § 1 The usurped power of the Bishop of Rome, hathe ..unquieted..the subjectis of the same. 1576 Lambarde Peramb. Kent 322 They gaue him both othes and hostages to depart the Realme, and neuer after to vnquiet it. 1602 Warner Alb. Eng. XIX. lxxiii. 504 Thus erring Rome ..will our christian World vnquieate. 1648 Gage West Ind. xii. 80 Who thought it safer sleeping in a whole skinne, then to be inquieted by fighting.

Hence Unqui·eted ppl. a., Unqui·eting vbl. sb.

1538 in Lett. Illustrious Ladies (1846) III. 39, I was then half unquieted..all day. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. IV, 20 To the great displeasure and long vnquieting of kyng Henry and his partakers. 1562 T. Wilson Rhet. (ed. 2) 72 b, The gentleman..departed with an vnquieted minde.

† Unquietation. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] 1604 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1848) II. 253 Na vtheris..sall trubill this burgh, or mak ony vnquietatioun or perturbatioun in the same.

Unqui·etly, adv. [Un-[1] 11, 5 b.] Without being or keeping quiet; restlessly; esp. with disquiet or discomfort (of body or mind); uneasily.

c 1510 Barclay Mirr. Gd. Manners (1570) G iij, Least his giftes..augment envy And cause him liue after much more vnquietly. 1585 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Inconstanter, To be alway mouynge vnconstantly and vnquietly. 1592 Chettle Kind-harts Dr. (1841) 33 My quiet ghost (vnquietly disturbed). 1605 Shaks. Lear III. i. 2 Kent. Who's there besides foule weather? Gen. One minded like the weather, most vnquietly. 1640 Br. Hall Chr. Moder. I. xi. 109 When he was asked, what man lived most unquietly. 1671 Salmon Syn. Med. I. xxxviii. 86 They sleep little, and that unquietly. 1718 J. Chapelow Pt. way Rich (1717) 79 The one bears the Trouble very unquietly. 1797 Coleridge Christabel I. 323 If she move unquietly in sleep]. 1800 Med. Jrnl. III. 520 He slept very unquietly, and the pain..extended up towards his shoulders. 1881 Atlantic Monthly XLIX. 51 Nell started, as from a dream, and then laughed slightly, but unquietly.

Unqui·etness. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.]

1. A source of trouble or disquiet.

1514 Barclay Eglogues II. (1570) B i b, When thou wouldest slepe..,There is thine vnquietnes. 1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. 340 Some are troubled with one vnquietness, and som with another. 1654 R. Baker tr. Balzac's Lett. (vol. II) 13 If he have no other unquietness but what he is like to have from me.

2. An unquiet condition or state of things; a state of trouble or discord.

1523 [Coverdale] Old God & New (1534) A j, In this greate unquietnes of comen weales. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 216 The state of the prouince..tendeth to greate vnquyetnes. 1603 in Buccleuch MSS. (Hist. MSS. Comm.) I. 48 Tumultuous behaviour..whereby great unquietness did grow. 1694 Essex Papers (Camden) 262, I hope there will be nothing to disturbe y^e peace there, or bring any unquietnesse here. 1860 Br. S. Wilberforce Adtr. Cand. Ordination 217 This evil of unquietness, religious strife, and discord.

3. The condition or fact of being restless or turbulent in conduct.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 90 b, Treason, fraude,.. periury, vnquyetnes, obduracion,..with suche other. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 53 Isopes frogges to whom for their vnquietnesse Iupiter sent a hearon. 1647 N. Bacon Disc. Govt. Eng. I. lvi. 160 The unquietnesse of some of the English brought the King to some thoughts of arbitrary rule. 1681 H. Neville Plato Rediv. 19 He cannot be denyed to be a great motive of the Peoples unquietness. 1724 Wreton Chr. Faith & Pract. 188 Men's unquietness and wavering in their principles. 1829 Lytton Disowned 116 The unquietness and agitation of man's character.

UNRAILED.

b. Physical restlessness.

1670 Evelyn Sylva (ed. 2) 24 Stubbed Oak is the fittest Timber for the Case of a Sider Mill..the best enduring the unquietnesse of a ponderous Rolling-stone. 1896 Miss Yonge Daisy Chain I. i, An unquietness at the ends of her shoes, betraying the restlessness of the digits therein contained.

4. The condition of being disquieted or disturbed. 1548 Elyot, Inquietudo, ..care, vnquietnesse, ..lacke of reste. 1553 Brende Q. Curtius VI. 110 b, With a bashed countenance (wel declaring the vnquietnes of his minde). 1589 Cooper Admon. 243 To the great hindrance..& vnquietnes of the church of God. 1658 R. Baker tr. Balzac's Lett. III. 19 My unquietnesse would have continued still, if you had not taken the paines to calme it. 1646 T. Ford Lusus Fort. 93 Seeking rest in it's unquietnesse, but finding none. 1683 Apol. Fest. Prince vi. 93 Her great unquietness of Spirit. 1792 Echard Eccl. Hist. III. viii. 469 Being overprest with a Load of Grief and Guilt, he resolv'd to put an End to his Unquietness. a 1806 H. K. White Time 628 Time..Will wait him to repose ..Far from the unquietness of life. 1885 Kingsley Misc. (1859) I. 54 The Queen's continual unquietness will grow to contentment.

† Unqui·etous, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.] Unquiet. 1553 Bale Vocacyon 37 The vnquietouse harte of the Captaine. 1641 Cheke's Hurt Sedition To Rdr. b, An unquietous kind of men.

Unqui·etude. (Un-[1] 12, 5 b.) a 1639 Wotton in Relig. (1651) 318 That a rod or barre of iron..will bearway a kind of unquietude and discontentment till it attain the former position. Unqui·leted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1885 A. N. Palmer Anc. Tenures in Merchet N. Wales 27 All the unquilleted fields that lie within the quilleted area.

Unquirit, v. (Un-[1] 4.) 1621 Florio, Disculture, to vnquilt, to vnhill. 1634 Milton Comus 614 Correction (Birch), He with his bare Wand can unquilt thy Joynts, And crumble every Sinew.

† Unqui·t, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b, c.]

1. Unrequited; not repaid.

a 1300 Cursor M. 21431 þe dai es gan, þe deit vn-quitte, þe bodi most beleue for it. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Prince 4177 Seruice vnquyt and murdre .. Biforе al-mighty god auxen vengeaunce. c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 308 That rebuke that he gaf me xal not be unquyt. 1500-20 Dunbar Poems XV. 41 Suppois the servand be lang vnquit, Thy lord suntyme reward will it. Ibid. xlvii. 67 Vnquyt I do no thing. a 1542 Wyatt in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 04 Thinke not alone vnder the sunne Vnquit to cause thy louers plaine.

2. Not quited or left.

1603 B. Jonson Sejanus v. v, We must pray you hold your Guards Vnquit, when Morning comes.

† Unquite, ppl. a. Obs. rare. [Un-[1] 8 b, c.] a. Unrequited. b. Unredeemed. c 1450 Merlin's Prophecy 89 Pus her schall no good dede be vnquyte. 1496 Reg. Cupar Abbey I. 251 That the saidis landis remayne with us and our successouris vnquite-owt be the lard of Burlie.

Unqui·tted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8; cf. Unquit ppl. a. 2.) 1713 C'tess Winchelsea Misc. Poems 243 Some rough Blast too far above conceighs, Or to unquitted Earth confines your weak Essays.

Unqui·vering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

a 1821 J. Grahame Sabbath Walks (1827) 82 The breast And wing unquivering of the wheeling lark. 1844 Ld. Houghton Mem. Masy Scenes 195 He who..with unquivering heart and hand can meet Ever distress. 1864 Sala in Daily Tel. 14 Dec., The same Indian..,with unquivering lip and unfaltering eye.

Unquizzable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1829 Marryat F. Mildmay xv, Each, was dressed out in..most exact and unquizzable uniform.

† Unquod, obs. variant of Unked a.

a 1470 Harding Chron. To Rdr., It wer an vnquod thyng, if we..changue, that old menne haue write. 1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke I. 22 He..declared at large the cause of y^e his vnquod & strange greeting.

Unquo·table, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

Hence, in recent use, unquotability.

a 1843 Southey Doctor CCXLII. (1848) 663 An epigram.. unquotable at length. 1862 J. H. Burton Bk. Hunter 114 Words..unquotable in this nineteenth century.

Unquo·ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1825 Q. Rev. XXXIII. 85 It is not easy to conceive that they could have existed as Scripture, unquoted, till the close of the fifth century. 1892 Le Gallienne Retrosp. Rev. (1896) I. 133 Not forgetting the unquoted 'Ewe of St. Mark'.

Unquoth, obs. or dial. var. Uncouth a.

1567 Drant Horace, Ep. II. ii. H iv, Thou must abandon vnquoth words. 1583 Stubbes Anat. Abus. II. f 5 b, These names..are so vnquoth and strange to my eares, that [etc.]. 1615 W. Hull Mirr. Maiestie 112 An vnquoth sight and nouelty was..seene in heauen. 1684 Meriton Yorksh. Dial. 64 An unquoth Dog hes monny barkers at. 1873 Swaledale Gloss. 27.

† Unra·ced, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [Un-[1] 8 + Race v.[1]] Not torn up. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. IV. pr. i. (1868) 110 Yif þe þinges þat I haue concluded a litel here byforne ben kept hoole & vnraced [ed. 1560 vnraced; L. inconvulsa]. † Unra·ced, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [Un-[1] 8 + Race v.[3]] Unrased. c 1621 Chapman Iliad XII. 5 Nor could the brode dike of the Greeks, nor that strong wall they made To guard their fleete, be long vnrac't.

Unra·cked, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8; cf. Rack v.[5]] Not drawn from the lees.

1602 Warner Alb. Eng. XIII. lxxviii. 329 Euen horror would from Tyrants, shame from harlots flow vnrack't. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 306 Pour the lees of the racked vessel into the unracked vessel.

Unra·cked, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8; cf. Rack v.[3]]

1. Not exhausted by exactions.

1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. iv. fl. 440 Each in his own unracked inheritance Where born expired.

2. Not stretched or strained.

1887 Browning Parleyings, C. Avison IX, Because he.. spread out phrase unracked By modulations fit to make each hair Stiffen upon his wig.

Unra·cy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) a 1859 De Quincey Posth. Wks. (1893) II. 151 Christianity in a soil so shallow and unracy as the Græco-Latin, could not [etc.]. Unrai·led, ppl. a.

Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1900 J. P. Struthers in Life (1918) 267 He went down the little unrailed stair. Unra'ny, a. (Un-1 7.) 1865 W. G. Palgrave Arabia I. 354 In this unrainy climate the roads are very seldom paved.

Unrai'sed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not raised, in various senses of the verb.

1593 Lo. Berkeley Proiec. I. cccxxxviii. 290 So yt by their neglygence the Siege shuldie not be unreysed. 1599 Shaks. Hen. V, Prol. 9 The flat unraysed Spirits, that hath dar'd, On this vnworthy Scaffold, to bring forth So great an Object. 1604 Dryden To Sir G. Kneller 55 Flat Faces,..Such as in Bantam's Embassy were seen, Unrais'd, unrounded. 1697 D. F. Chur. Dr. S. Annesley 6 When Griefs come threatning on, or Comfort flows, He was undepress'd by these, unrais'd by those. 1800–24 Wordsw. Excurs. IV. 959 Go, demand Of mighty Nature, if 'twas ever meant That we should pry far off, yet be unraised. 1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. II. 132 The poem ..is for the greater part written in language, as unraised and as much any perhaps in the two volumes. 1873 Herschel Pop. Lect. I. § 7. 6 The raised portion still stands up above the unraised.

Unra'ke, v. [Un-2 3 + Rake v.1 5.] trans. To uncover or expose by raking. Also absol.

a 1400 MS. Cantab. Ff. i. 6, fol. 72 (Halliw.), Eke as chaboklyle casteth rydyll bryght, With rody lighte, as cole that is unrake. 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xiii. 508 This againe vnraked the burning coales of enuie..against the said Lord Duke. 1655 Vaughan Silex Scint. 60 When thou unrak'st thy fire, those spirits will bring New flames. Ibid. When thy Nap's over, stir thy fire, unrake In that dead age. 1861 L. S. Noble Icebergs 91 At every dip of the oars it was like unraking the sparkling embers.

Unra'ked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. MDa. uraget, MSw. orakadher.) 1598 Shaks. Merry W. v. v. 48 Where fires thou find'st vnrak'd, and hearths vnswept, There pinch [etc.]. 1659 Milton Hirelings 128 [The] Lord of all things .. doubtles will command the people to make good his promises of maintenance more abundantly, vnrak'd, vnrid for. 1682 J. Reid Scots Gard'ner (1907) 38 Delve and mix [manure] together, to lye all winter un-raked. 1828–32 Webster s.v., Land unraked. 1854 Whitter Maud Muller 64 Till the rain on the unraked clover fell.

Unra'tled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) c 1644 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. II. iii. 255 Death..in's march prevents The unition of unrallied regiments. 1662 Hickeringill Apol. Distr. Incas. Wks. 1716 I. 273 Pompey blasphemously rav'd after his fatal and unrallied Overthrow. a 1829 Hogg Dream Confirmed in C. L. (1896) IV. 34/2 His ideas were as yet unrallied. Unra'ncid, a. (Un-1 7.) 1884 McLaren Sphinxing 46 [In] the power of remaining fresh and unrancid olive [oil] is pre-eminent. 1888 J. Martineau Hist. Christianity x. 231 Unrancid oil. Unra'nged, ppl. a.[1] (Un-1 8; cf. Range v.[1]) 1633 Ford 'Tis Pity I. i, Thou has mov'd a Majesty above, With thy unranged (almost) blasphemy. 1851 C. L. Smith tr. Tasso IX. xxii. 280 The Soldan rushes on, the foremost he, Upon the guards' unranged and startled pow'r. †Unra'nged, ppl. a.[2] Obs. (Un-1 8; cf. Range v.[2]) 1611 Cotgr., Pain de baille, vnranged bread; or, a course bread whereinto there is much bran. 1694 Motteux Urquhart's Rabelais Pref. p. lxxx, That course, unrauing'd Bread, or some of the great brown Houshold Loaf was good enough for such Shepherds.

Unra'nk, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To throw out of rank.

1671 Cotgr., Desarrengement, an vnranking, disordering, disarraying. Ibid., Desfiler,..to vnranke, disorder; put off a file. 1740 tr. Verdere's Rom. of Rom. III. xii. 282 [They] charged the Christians through and through, till they made them left a ranke [and] vnrank.

Unra'nsacked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. ON. drannsakadr, MSw. oransakadher.) 1529 More Dyalogue II. Wks. 187/1, I will for none hast leue any corner of the matter vnransaked, as far as we can any doubte find thereto. 1555 Watterman Fardle Facions II. viii. 178 Leaning no element vnsearched to get a gowlden for their glotenous gorge. 1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 651 His soldiers..left neither house nor corner thereof vnransacked. 1784 Cowper Let. to Newton Wks. 1837 XV. 177, I shall not leave my books vnransacked. 1842 [Jane Robinson] Whitehall xiv, Such carcases as he imagined were yet unransacked. 1895 R. Ellis in Class. Rev. Feb. 47/2 A still unransacked mine of quite new materials.

Unra'nsomed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1554 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 415 If the said silver plate be..vnransomid or redemid of the owners. 1599 Sandys Europe Spec. (1605) X 4 b, They are charitable among them selves, leaving no poore vnrelieved, no prisoner vnransomed. a 1625 Fletcher Woman Lover II. iv, 1 Gent. Do you grieve, we are come off? Dem. Vnransom'd, was it? 2 Gent. It was, Sir. 1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. III. vi. 96 Giving me an unransomed Liberty. 1791 Cowper Iliad xxiv. 151 The Gods..that he still detains hand this fleet..Vnransom'd Hector. 1813 Scott Rokeby IV. vi, Safe and unransom'd [he] sent them home. 1877–9 Ruskin St. Mark's Rest vii. § 80 The Norman chief sent them home unransomed.

Unra'ptured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1742 Young Nt. Th. IV. 261 Such contemplations..should mount The mind still higher; nor ever glance on man, Unraptured, uninflamed. 1746 Warton Ode to Fancy 114 Teach him to scorn with frigid art Feebly to touch th' unraptured heart. 1819 Campbell To Rainbow 36 Nor ever shall the Muse's eye Unrapture, unrapt, gaze. Unra'refied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1660 Boyle New Exp. Phys. Mech. xviii. 124 If that whole space had been full of unrarefied Air. Unra'sh, a. (Un-1 7.) 1659 Clarendon Ess. Tracts (1727) 120 The temperate unrash and dispassionate man, ..by being unmoved himself, discerns all advantages whilst he gives none.

Unra'table, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1692 Leather 7 For common use..vnratable value, and vnmatchable goodnesse. 1766 Burrow Rep. II. 1060 It would be most unreasonable that this Property which was always rateable before should..be rendered unratable. 1856 Olmsted Slave States 160, I found that, more than any people I had ever seen, they were unrateable by dress, taste, forms, and expenditures.

Unra'ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1648 Herrick H. Ongelweet, Vnprised, or Vnrated. 1703 Act 2–3 Anne c. 18 § 15 The Values of any vnrated Goods imported. 1704 Ibid. c. 4 § 8 Vnrated Drugs..which are imported within the Days and Times last mentioned. 1778 Ann. Reg., Chron. 145/2 Duties due on certain unrated goods. 1896 Daily News 23 Apr. 5/5 The burdens upon rated and unrated property.

Unra'tified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. 500 Some therefore haue imagined, that these Instruments might happily then be mentioned and drawne, and yet die vnratified, though the copies stand recorded. 1652 Row Let. in Hist. Kirk (Wodrow Soc.) 538 Our Commissioner of the Generall Assemble..excommunicating most precious men transgressing vnratified Acts. 1896 Froude Hist. Eng. II. 194 The parliament reviewed the Annates Act, which had been left unratified. 1899 Pall Mall G. 27 June 1/2 The Egyptian Convention is still unratified.

†Unra'tionable, a. Obs.—1 [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Irrational. a 1500 in Ratis Raving, etc. 6 Sic folkes suld erar be callyt bestes vnrationable, than man rasonable. Unra'vaged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1706 Burke Let. to Noble Lord Wks. VIII. 27 These obscene harpies..leave nothing unrent, unrifled, unravaged. 1888 N. James's Gaz. 11 Feb. 7/1 Few collections ..can be more interesting, than underground and unravaged Egypt.

Unra'vel, v. [Un-2 3. Cf. Du. ontrafelen, †ontravelen.]

1. trans. To take out of a ravelled, tangled, or intertwined condition; to disentangle; also, to pull down, to undo (a woven fabric).

Freq. in fig. context: see quots. under (a).

(a) 1603 Dekker Wonderfull Yeare Wks. (Grosart) I. 131 She..vnraueld the bottome of her fraileties at length. 1639 Fuller Holy War IV. i. 266 Frederick..vnraueled the web of John Brens victory, even to the very hemme thereof. 1709 Swift Tritical Ess. Wks. 1755 II. i. 144 We shall be forced to ..unravel in the night what we spun in the day. 1792 Robertson Corr. (1844) IV. 3 The web has been too long weaving to be unravelled in an instant. 1856 Kingsley in N. Brit. Rev. XXVI. 78 To unravel patiently the tangled web of good and evil. 1878 Browning La Saisiaz 81, I, link by link, unravel any tangle of the chain.

(b) 1688 Boyle Final Causes Nat. Things IV. 172 Those curious oval prisons in which they [sc. silkworms] enclose themselves, and which are unreveled into silk. 1727 [Morgan] Philos. Quack (1856) 54 He was obliged to unravel the sail. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 352 As often happens in trying to unravel an entangled thread, while they loosen the knot in one place they draw it tighter in another. 1871 A. Maudie Mem. Midwifery (ed. 2) 46 So intimate is the union in later months, that it is impossible to unravel the meshes. 1883 Martin & Moale Vertebr. Dissect. 143 Unravel the small intestine, cutting it away from the mesentery.

transf. 1860 Tyndall Glac. II. i. 227 By prisms we can unravel the white light into pure red, orange, yellow [etc.].

†2. fig. To reverse, undo, annul. Obs.

1624–7 Cleveland Char. Lond. Diurn. 2 It differs..as a black Witch doth from a white one, whose office is to unravell her inchantments. 1667 Dryden & Davenant Tempest IV. iv, All my designs Are ruin'd and unravell'd by this blow. 1673 Lady's Call. I. iv. § 10, I wish they would .. unravel that injurious mirth by a penitential sadness. 1710 Palmer Proverbs 382 One season let slip, breaks the series of our conduct, unravels the order of life. 1762 H. Walpole Vertue's Anecd. Paint. (1765) I. 57 Though at last He wofully unravelled most of the pursuits of his early age. 1766 Blackstone Comm. II. 248 After the land had descended to his issue, they would not unravel the matter again, and suffer his estate to be shaken.

3. To free from intricacy or obscurity; to make plain or obvious; to reveal or disclose.

1662 Fuller Pisgah Prospect II. rule ii. § 22 A religion that would ..unravel all the intrigues of hearts. 1674 Jeake Arith. (1696) 529 Simple Disjunct Proportions have at large ..been unravelled in the foregoing Part. 1709 Steele Tatler No. 238 ▪ 2 With these Passages, [he] was breaking his Brains Day and Night to ..unravel their Sense. 1789 Belsham Ess. II. xxxii. 207 Without attempting to unravel all the intricacies of scholastic theology. 1827 Lytton Pelham I. 23, I unravelled the intricacies which knit servility with arrogance. 1862 Burton Bk. Hunter 377 To unravel the mystery of these primitive sculptures. 1884 A. R. Pennington Wielf'ri 18 Unravelling difficult questions of theology.

refl. 1792 Paine Rights of Man 108 In a few days..the plot unravelled itself. 1863 Stanley Jew. Ch. I. xiii. 295 As the story unravels itself.

4. intr. To come undone; to become unknit or disentangled. Freq. fig.

1650 T. Vaughan Anthroposophia 55 When the Harmony is broken..the vitall Twist..Disbands and unravels. 1656 T. Watson One Thing Necessary 53 Our life doth unravell apace. 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. 566 As if to leave the Church of Rome were at last ready to unloose a mere canting Paganism. 1744 Young Nt. Th. VI. 158 In an eternity, what scenes shall strike!..What webs of wonder shall unravel, there! 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 489 My vehicle did not begin to unravel like a torn stocking. 1825 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art II. 532 The stuff unravels in thickness..,and will not unravel when it is cut. 1840 Shelley Prometh. Unb. II. i. 23 As the burning threads Of woven cloud unravel in pale air.

Hence Unra'vel ppl. a.

1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. IV. v. 193 Whose serious souls are busied to compose Unravelled thoughts into a method. a 1740 J. Hughes Ode to Creator ix, Proceed my muse! Time's wasting thread pursue, And see at last the unravell'd clue. 1762 Falconer Shipwr. III. 41 The mine the unravell'd prospect to display. 1814 Byron Lara I. xvi, Vain thought! that hour of ne'er unravell'd gloom Came not again. 1889 Sala Too round Clock (1891) 268 The genuine Skye [terrier]..like an unravelled ball of worsted.

Unravellable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1846 Worcester (citing Phil. Mag.). 1881 Duffield Don Quixote I. p. xlvi, The putative Shelton renders an obvious printer's error..,and so makes unravellable nonsense of a phrase. 1885 H. O. Forbes Wanat. E. Archip. 308 The unravellable matted wisp.

Unra'veller. [f. prec.] One who unravels.

a 1704 T. Brown Wks. (1715) III. 263 Mythologists are indeed..mighty Unravellers of the Fables of the old Ethnicks. 1764 P. Hiffernan Earl of Warwick I. i, Time.., th' unravieller of all The great events which actuate this world. 1814 Miss Mitford in L'Estrange Life (1870) I. 189 An unraveller of state cyphers. 1889 Athenæum 20 Apr. 502/1 The 'improved' telephone is..dragged in to serve the purposes of fiction as an unraveller of crime.

Unra'velling, vbl. sb. [f. as prec.] The action of disentangling, etc.

1697 Dekker Nat.'s Camper (1842) 32 When..the bottome of my patriomy came within reach pound of vnrauelling. 1668 Dryden Dram. Poesy Ess. (Ker) I. 45 The Catastrophe, which..the French [call] le denouement, and we the discovery or unravelling of the plot. 1737 Guardian No. 36, Are not..all their pompous distinctions only so many unravellings of double meanings? 1742 West Let. in Gray's Poems (1775) 142 No unravelling of your web, dear Sir! only pursue it a little further. 1801 S. & H. Lee Canterb. T. IV. 455 A mystery, the unravelling of which ..engaged all my attention. 1868 Tyndall Fragm. Sci. (1871) 102 The mental exercise ..involved in the unravelling of a language.

Unra'velling, ppl. a. [f. Unravel v. 4.] Becoming unwound. 1827 Montgomery Pelican Island III. 77 The unravelling clew not for a moment lost Hold of the silent hand that drew it out.

Unra'vement. [f. Unravel v.] The process of unravelling.

1776 Mickle Camoens' Lusiad Introd. 131 Collateral Episodes ..assist ..to facilitate and produce the Unravelment, or Catastrophe. 1779 Hamilton Wks. (1886) VII. 96 [The unravelment of the plot. 1853 Gentl. Mag. VI. 244/2, I felt it as the unravelment of fate. 1880 Burton Reign Q. Anne II. 319 His tedious work with the unravelment of all these difficulties.

Unra'vished, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

(a) 1622 Wither Fidelerte G iv, I would not permit an eare To attend vnrauisht heere.

(b) 1628 Feltham Resolves II. xxxvii. 114 Had not Dinah had so good a one [sc. face], she had come home vnrauished. 1717 Pope Iliad IX. 480 My beauteous captives thither I'll convey, And all the rest of my unravish'd prize Shall grace Ulis Grecian Urn 1, Thou still unravish'd bride of quietness!

Unra'vishing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1781 Warton Hist. Eng. Poetry III. 171 The more sober and unravishing accessaries.

Unray', v.[1] Now dial. [Un-2 4.] trans. and refl. To divest of clothes; to undress, strip.

1485 Rutland Papers (Camden) 16 The King shalbe vnraied and vnclothed by his Chamberlayn. 1510 Benaven. Merr. (Fynson) xiv, E iv b, Now take we here gode hede howe that high lorde of magesste unrayeth hym and doeth of his clothes. c 1550 Cheke Matt. xxvii. 28 Vnraieng of him, [they] put on him a scarlet mantil. 1599 Hakluyt Voy. II. ii. 57 One of the Spaniards vnraied himselfe, and lept into the water. 1611 Cotgr., Denshiller, to vncloath, vndresse, vnray. 1825– in s.w. dialect glossaries.

absol. 1867 W. F. Rock Jim an' Nell lxxix, Zum..chap 'll help thee to unray.

Unray', v.[2] (Un-2 4; cf. Ray sb.[1]) 1824 J. Telfer Border Ball. 133 The letters shone With such effulgence, that they half-unray'd Some minor names. †Unray'ed, ppl. a.[1] Sc. Obs. (Un-1 8 = Unarrayed ppl. a. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. III. ii. 322 (Cott.), Dai..set bar wachis for to se Qwhen vnray'd al was in. †Unray'ed, ppl. a.[2] (Un-1 + Rayed ppl. a.[1]) 1830 Tennyson Arab. Nin. 91 Dark-blue the deep sphere overhead, Distinct with vivid stars unrayed [1842 inlaid], Grew darker. Unra'zed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1586 J. Mush in J. Morris Troubl. Cath. Forefathers III. (1877) 363 Not one Religious house standeth, not one altar unrased and undefiled. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. II. 201 They left scarce one village..unrased and unrifled. 1674–5 A. Capel in Essex's Let. 3 Feb. (1770) 58 It will be a precedent very dangerous to the government here, that .. these very things [ordered to be erased] in after times shall appear unrazed.

Unra'zored, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Unshaven.

1634 Milton Comus 290 As smooth as Hebe's their unrazor'd lips. 1774 Westm. Mag. II. 9 Apollo, the unrazored Macaroni God. 1845 Ld. Campbell Chancellors xiv. II. 153 By his flowing locks and unrazored lip [he] had captivated her affections. 1888 Westminster xx, My unrazored chin passed without comment.

Unrea'chable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

Freq. from c 1865. Also, in recent use, unreachableness.

1593 Sidney's Arcadia v. (1622) 456 As their course never alters, so is there nothing done by the unreachable ruler of them, but hath an euerlasting reason for it. 1802 Southey in Robberds Mem. (1843) I. 436, I would not remove to an unreachable distance from Herefordshire. 1846 Ruskin Mod. Paint. II. iii. v. § 13 The apparent, though unreachable, nearness and promise of them.

Hence Unrea'chably adv.

1881 Palgrave Vis. Eng. 247 The..brimming jars In fiendish mock borne past their dungeon bars, Upheld unreachably high.

Unrea'ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

c 1621 Chapman Iliad XXI. 251 As he would try If all the Gods inhabiting the broad unreached sky Could daunt his spirit. 1679 Dryden & Mulgrave Ess. Sat. 279 Now labour ..to climb That lofty hill, unreach'd by former time. 1713 Cypress Winchester Misc. Poems 19 Between which two Extreams true Pleasure lies, O'er-run by Fools, unreach'd at by the Wise. 1818 Byron Ch. Harold IV. cxxii, The unreach'd Paradise of our despair. 1898 Whittier Seeking of Waterfall 100 Evermore the end shall tell The unreached ideal guided well.

Unrea'd, v. (Un-2 3.)

1533 More Debell. Salem Wks. 1085/1 Can I both gather up all bys bookes & go hyde them, & also make them that haue red them, gore vnreade them again, or forget what they haue redde? 1797 Monthly Rev. XXIII. 321 Can his countrymen unread Freret, Boulanger, and Voltaire, or unlearn the sophisms which they have impressed?

Unrea'd, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b.]

1. Not read; unperused.

1456 Sir G. Hayle Law Arms (S.T.S.) 63 [He] held the letter in his hand unread. a 1553 Udall Roister D. iii. ii, Yea a woman? and your letter so long unredde. 1596 Spenser F. Q. iv. xii. 2 Then blame me not, if I leave er'd in count Of Gods, of Nymphs, of rivers yet vnred. 1693 Dryden's Juvenal vii. (1697) 173 His Muse had starv'd, had not a Piece unread, And by a Player bought, supply'd her Bread. 1728 Pope Dunciad iii. 103 Hor grey-hair'd Synods damning books unread. 1796 Miss D'Arblay Camilla ii. 389 She therefore determined that..she would..deliver the unread letter to Sir Hugh. 1838 Lytton Leila i. ii, An open manuscript..lay unread before the Moor. 1879 Froude Cæsar xxvii. 469 He burnt unread the correspondence of Pompey and Scipio.

2. Not instructed by reading. Also absol.

1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. i. iii. 24 The Wise and Fooke, the Artist and vn-read,..seeme all affin'd, and kin. 1689 Dryden Hind & P. iii. 409 And blest, uncertain whose the narrower span, The clown unread, and half-read gentleman. a 1743 Savage To John Powell 47 To unread Squires, illiterately gay; Among the learn'd, as learned full as they. 1811 Byron Hints fr. Horace 237 Unread,..Fool'd, pilfaged, dunn'd, he wastes his term away. 1865 St. James's Mag. Oct. 354 The Great Unread. 1884 Graphic 4 Oct. 358/1 The Khedive himself is far from unlearned and unread.

b. Const. in (a matter or subject).

1602 Warner Alb. Eng. xx. iii. 234 Such as be vnreade In that sweete Promise. 1790 Burke Fr. Rev. 185 Not being wholly unread in the authors. 1816 Coleridge Lay Serm. 374 A fact that none but the unread in history will deny. 1865 Meredith R. Fleming viii, Algernon was unread in the hearts of women.

Unrea'dable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. Too dull or distasteful to read.

1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. Wks. 1843 VI. 441 Take up a history of an old French lawsuit, the evidence is absolutely unreadable. 1837 Hallam Const. Hist. ii. iv. § 70 Making the entire work unreadable by the most patient..of mankind. 1867 Darwin in F. Darwin Life & Lett. (1887) III. 96 After the horrid, tedious, dull work of my present huge, and I fear unreadable, book.

2. Illegible through careless or indistinct writing.

1830 Miss Mitford Village Ser. iv. 182 Oh such letters! ..and in such a hand! so pretty and so unreadable! 1861 Wynter Soc. Bees 13 An immense number of letters..with directions perfectly unreadable to ordinary persons.

transf. 1839 Carlyle Chartism iii, The emblem of darkness, of unreadable confusion.

3. Inaccessible to any reader.

1852 C. B. Mansfield Paraguay, etc. (1856) 66 Whether I go down by steamer to Monte Video..or whether I go into the interior of San Paulo..is at present written in the Unreadable Book.

Hence Unreadabi'lity, Unrea'dableness.

1856 Vaughan Mystics II. viii. vii. 74 Reason will not attempt to rescue him from condign sentence of unreadableness. 1872 Lowell Among my Bks. Ser. i. (1873) 338 Kloopstock himself is..an Immortality of unreadableness. a 1872 De Morgan Budget Paradox. (1872) 123 It is a climax of unsaleability, unreadability, and inutility.

Unrea'dily, adv. (Un-1 11.)

1599 Hakluyt Voy. II. i. 117 Men being first inforced to write their actes..in barkes of trees, or otherwise perchance as vnreadily. 1755 Johnson, Awkwardly, clumsily; unreadily; inelegantly. 1804 Mitford Inquiry 75 Instruments like the harpsichord,..incapable or unreadily capable of variety in loudness. 1871 Proctor Light Science 138 It is astonishing how unreadily two sea-currents exchange their temperatures.

Unrea'diness. (Un-1 12; cf. Unready a 1.)

1596 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 131 We shold expell all sloutth & vnredyynes in doyng our duteye to god. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 154 The Frenchemen hauing perfyte vnderstanding of the infirmitie and vnreadinesse..of Englande. 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. viii. xliv. § 39. 366 Accusing him with sloath and vnreadinesse of Armes. 1669 Boyle Occas. Refl. To Sophronia, My Unreadiness to Publish these very long neglected Papers. a 1761 Law Comp. Weary Pilgr. (1809) 26 Every unreadiness to do good ..makes us schismaticks. 1861 Hughes Tom Brown at Oxf. ii, He couldn't realise the fact of his unreadiness in a boat. 1887 Spectator 5 Nov. 1494 Our unreadiness as to a sufficient supply of arms.

Unrea'ding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1829 Edin. Rev. L. 138 There is but one chance of making this unreading cast readers. 1852 H. Rogers Ess. (1874) I. vii. 348 The unreading 'philosophers who avoided books'. 1879 F. Harrison Choice of Bks. iv. (1886) 81 The idle and unreading world.

Unrea'dy, a.[1] [Un-1 7.]

1. Not in a state of readiness or preparation: a. Without count.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 1990 If a man bat unredy es, Be tane with dede in his wykednes. 1382 Wyclif 2 Cor. ix. 4 Lest when Macedonyes schulen come with me, and schulen fynde you vnredy, we schamen (etc.). c 1450 tr. De Imitatione i. xxiii. 31 Lyue so bat dede finde be neuer unredy. c 1560 Jack Juggler B ii b, And as you see for the most part our witts be best When wee be takyne most vnrediest. 1570 Foxe A. & M. (ed. 2) 65/2 Some other there were vnready and not so well prepared. 1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos Wks. (Grosart) I. 56/2 Our force lies dispersed at the Plow, Vnready, rude, and oft rebellious too. 1671 Clarendon Hist. Reb. xi. § 330 Fairfax was..not in readiness to march; yet reported to be much more unready than he was. 1790 A. Wilson Death Poet. Wks. (1846) 64 And, if unready, we are caught by Death, He throws us howling to the gulph beneath. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xix. IV. 268 His enemies, while still unready, learned with dismay that he had taken the field in person.

absol. 1838 G. Johnston Brit. Zoophytes 102 Should the prey prove too tough, woe! to the unready!.

b. Const. to with inf.

a 1300 Cursor M. 25478 Vnworthi am i..And al vnredi for to rise On domesdai be-for iustise. 1510-20 Everyman in Hazl. Dodsley I. 104 Full unready I am such reckoning to give. 1590 Spenser F. Q. i. v. 45 False Duessa..found the Faery knight Departed thence, albe his woundes wide Not throughly healed, vnreadie were to ride. 1615 W. Lawson Country Housew. Gard. (1626) 29 Want of strength may make them vnready to receiue sap. 1707 S. Sewall Diary 15 Dec., I express'd my self unready to vote for it. 1871 R. H. Hutton Ess. v. I. 125 If it be a righteous life and will ..that sirs human nature thus deeply, and finds us..unready to adapt ourselves to it.

c. Const. for, † of, or with.

1617 Woodall Surgeon's Mate (1639) 191 He is an unworthy Chirurgion, which is at any time unready with such needfull instruments. 1704 Spectator 71 Unready, vii. Sceptre of Peace and for Defence unready. 1737 Whiston Josephus, Antiq. v. iii. § 2 The Israelites grew so indolent, and unready of taking pains. a 1865 Keble Lett. (1870) 165 Very unready with any plan for the future. 1865 Ruskin Arrows of Chace (1880) II. 72, I am not usually unready for a controversy.

2. Not prepared or made ready.

c 1386 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 40 Perfore make þi tresoure in Godd, for..þis tresoure mai not perishe, to be unredi whanne þou hast nede. a 1500 Ratis Raving 1. 109 It is wnreddy payment That þow has fristit out or lent. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 187 It is an eivill man of warre that wil have his weapen vnreadie when he should occupie it. a 1548 Hall Chron., Edw. V, 12 b And so all thyng was vnredy, when this message came. 1632 Holland Cyropædia 125 When he vieweth your forces, he will thinke his owne to be yet vnready. 1721 Strype Eccl. Mem. II. xx. 405 The money was vnready when Cæsar had present need thereof.

† b. Sc. Not easy or plain. Obs.

1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) I. 440 Nocht ane..wist weill quhair away for till wend, The gait wes sa vnreddy and miskend.

3. Undressed; in deshabille. Obs. or dial.

In common use from c 1595 to 1640.

1591 Shaks. 1 Hen. VI, ii. 3 [stage-dir.] The French leape ore the walles in their shirts. Enter..Bastard, Alanson, Reignier, halfe ready, and halfe vnready. Alan. How now my Lords what all vnready so late? 1594 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. i. III. 198 The Queene,..though she were unready,..hasted down a paire of stairs to meet him. 1678 Ying. Man's Call. 364 She desired to go..to dress her head, which by the violence of the wind was made all unreacy. 1823–in Suffolk and Lincoln glossaries.

4. Not quick or prompt; hesitating, slow; † not responding readily to command.

1594 T. Bedingfield tr. Machiavelli's Florentine Hist. vi. (1595) 149 These newes grieued the Earle exceedingly, because he thought his army not fully paid, would be vnreadie. 1607-12 Bacon Ess., Youth & Age (Arh.) 260 Like an vnready horse that will neither stopp nor tourne. 1672 Sir T. Browne Let. Friend § 22 To become more narrowminded..and tenacious, unready to part with anything. 1708 Rowe Royal Convert 1, There needs no more; For I would spare thee the unready tale. 1824 Miss Mitford Village Ser. i. 124 So alive and eloquent in conversation, that I feel more than ever puzzled and unready. 1855 Mrs. Gaskell North & S. vii, "Mr. Thornton, I believe," said Margaret, after a half-instant's pause, during which his unready words would not come. 1857 in Mrs. Gaskell C. Brontë (ed. 2) I. 138 She had become unnervous, excitable, and either incapable of speech, or talked rapidly.

Comb. 1670 Cotton Espernon II. 409 One of the most unwieldy, and unready footed Animals, that is to say, a Mule.

Hence † Unrea'dy v. trans., to undress. Obs.[—1]

1593 Sidney's Arcadia III. (1598) 365 After his wife was departed to bed, Kalandrino, as long as bee remained with his daughter, to giue his wife time of vnreadying her selfe.

Unrea'dy, a.[2] [Later form of Unready a., after prec. Cf. Unredie b.] = Redeless a. (but usually regarded as = prec. 1 or 4).

Only as an epithet of Ethelred II (died 1016): cf. Polydore Vergil Angl. Hist. (1534) vii. 242 qui pigritia omnia facibat'. 1580 Sidney Chron. 154 Ethelredus, commonly called Unready. 1643 Baker Chron. (1653) 18 Ethelred,..by reason of his backwardnesse in Action, was commonly called the Unready. 1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. II. 136. 1867 Freeman Norm. Conq. I. 289 A prince, who..has received no nobler historical surname than that of the Unready. Ibid. 327 The Unready King showed occasional glimpses of vigour.

Unre'al, a. (Un-1 7.)

1605 Shaks. Mach. III. iv. 107 Hence horrible shadow, Vnreal mockery hence. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 60 Only for the fals keeping of a most unreal nullity, a mariage that hath no affinity with Gods intention. 1667—P. L. x. 472 Th' unreal, vast, unbounded deep Of horrible confusion. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 13 ¶ You should..teach the Men not to be any longer dazzled by false Charms and unreal Beauty. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Epist. ii. i. 289 He gives a desperate Trial of his Art,..Who with unreal Terrours fills my Breast. 1820 Southey Kehama iv. iv, Musing so long he lay, that all things seem Unreal to his sense, even like a dream. 1842 Manning Serm. x. (1848) 139 Surrounding ourselves with an unreal world of hopes, and fears. 1871 Lowell Study Windows 155 Those who have most loudly advertised their passion for seclusion..have been mostly sentimentalists, unreal men.

spec. 1838 G. F. Graham Mus. Comp. 17/2 What are called passing notes, or unreal notes, and which are said not to form any real part of the melody or the harmony. 1883 A Sidgwick Fallacies 42 The distinction between Real and what may be called Unreal. Ibid., The name 'Unreal' as here applied to propositions, is somewhat wider than what is usually meant by 'verbal'.

Unre'alism. (Un-1 12.) 1859 Sat. Rev. 29 Jan. 118/2 The ideal unrealism of statesmanship which invented Mr. Gladstone's mission. 1875 Lowell in N. Amer. Rev. CXX. 387 It is only a world of unrealism. Unrealistic, a. (Un-1 7.) 1865 Kingsley Lett. (1878) II. 215 The very unrealistic turn of mind which I have in common with this generation.

Unrea'lity. (Un-1 12.)

1751 Warburton Pope's Wks. III. 42 They conclude in the most extravagant and senseless inferences; such as the unreality of matter; the reality of space. 1798 Lamb Rev. Grey, iv, Past associations revive with the music—blended with a sense of unreality. 1850 Carlyle Latter-d. Pamph. vi. 8 Unreality is death, to Parliaments and to all things. 1880 E. White Cert. Relig. 45 They are seen in a glory mist which throws a certain unreality over their outline.

b. With an and pl.

1817 Southey Fragm. Th. on Son's Death Wks. (1909) 744/1 They are not, though, Mere unrealities. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iv. i, 'Lie unrealities, beaten into dust, flew gradually off. 1863 E. V. Neale Anal. Th. & Nat. 31 If time is not to become an unreality to us.

Unre'alizable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Incapable of being realized, in various senses.

1840 Carlyle Heroes iv. (1841) 247 We may rejoice that he could not realise it; that it remained, after two centuries of effort, unrealisable. 1860 J. Young Prov. Reason 81 Power which is truly infinite, must be for ever..unrealizable in its utmost extent. 1883 St. James's Gaz. 1 Dec. 7/2 The great financial establishments..are believed to be still overloaded with unrealizable stock.

Unre'alize, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To make unreal; to deprive of reality.

1804 Southey Let. in Life (1850) II. 259 The least breath stirring would have shaken the whole vision, and at once unrealised it. 1854 H. Miller Sch. & Schm. xv. 331 The painted canvass, and the..too palpable acting, serve but to unrealize what I saw, and to remind me that I was merely in a theatre. 1875 Lowell Spenser Prose Wks. 1890 IV. 337 His fancy, habitually moving about in worlds not realized, unrealized everything at a touch.

Hence Unre'alizer; Unre'alizing ppl. a.

1814 Southey Roderick x. 60 The flame..cast upon the leaves A floating, grey, unrealizing gleam. 1845 Mozley Ess. (1878) II. 127 How little do we feel the past! On flows Time, the great unrealiser. a 1859 Lockhart Peninsula War Postn. & &c. (1893) II. 204 This postulate of fiction..would have operated with an unrealizing effect upon all that followed.

Unre'alized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1803 Mem in Blood (1804) 82 What real good are we to expect from this new scheme to which we so foolishly attach unrealized riches. 1852 H. Rogers Ecl. Faith 290 There is such a thing in the human mind as unrealised truth, both intellectual and spiritual. 1876 Miss. Whitney Sights & Ins. xxx, Behind us a southwest wind was driving the mists, all unrealized by us, from off the mountain faces.

Unre'ally, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1855 Pusey Doctr. Real Presence Note E. 65 Some distinct case, in which proper terms..are, without any hint or notice, to be understood unreally. Unrea'lmed, ppl. a. (Un-3 8, 4 + Realm.) 1845 Bailey Festus (ed. 2) 386 That unrealmed tyrant drew his mortal dart. And drave it through himself. Unre'alness. (Un-1 12; cf. Unreal a.) 1834 Lytton Pilgr. Rhine v, The unrealness of literary fame.

Unrea'ped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1577 Hellowes Guevara's Chron. 143 Losse of their corne, both respt and vnrespt. a 1620 Beaum. & Fl. Cust. Country iv. i, My first love here begun, rests here unreapt yet. 1670 Milton Hist. Eng. ii. 39 In that place which only they had left unrepd of all thir Harvest. 1737 Glover Leonidas iv. 370 There the corn lent by its golden burthen sheds unrenap'd Its plenteous seed. 1795 Southey Joan of Arc iii. 7 The autumnal rains had beaten to the earth The unreap'd harvest. 1817 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. II. 480 Those moths ..betake themselves to the unreaped fields. 1834 M. Scott Cruise Midge (1859) 289 Half of my beard has been left unreaped by that villanous razor of Brail's.

Unrea'son, sb. [Un-1 12.]

† 1. Unreasonable action or intention; injustice, impropriety. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 3747 He has me don oft vn-reson And [o]w me reft mi benison. 13–[Hom. Hyen. (Verm. MS.) in Archiv Neu. Spr. LVII. 303 Wip muchel wrong and vnresoun Dost pow me þis tresoun. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle iv. xx. (Caxton) 62 It seemeth me vnreson..that he that nought ne oweth shal payen for the dettour þe seluen. c 1500 Priests of Peblis 141 And that 3e think vnressoun or wrang, Wee al and sundrie sings the samin sang. 1597 Skene De Verb. Sign. s.v. Tort, Tort, et non reason, vn-reason, wrang, and vnlaw. 1609 [see Unlaw sb. 1].

† 2. Abbot (of). Unreason[1], a mock personage elected as the leading character in certain popular revellings formerly in Scottish use. Obs.

1496 Acc. L.d. High Treas. Scot. I. 270 To Gilberte Brade, ..for spilling of his hous in Striuilling be the Abbot of Vnresoun, xii. 1555 Sc. Acts Parlt., Mary (1814) II. 500/1 It is..cordant thair in all tymes cumming na maner of persone be chosin, Robert Hude nor Lytill Johne, Abbot of vnresoune, Quenis of Maij nor vtherwyse. a 1572 Knox Hist. Ref. Wks. 1846 I. 40 The same Frear maid are vther sermoun of the Abbote Unreasoune, unto whome..he compared the prelatis of that age. [1820 Scott Abbot xiv, and note.]

3. Absence of reason; indisposition or inability to act or think rationally or reasonably. (Common from c 1850.)

1827 Carlyle Misc. (1840) I. 47 Other forms of Unreason have taken its place. 1847 Helps Friends in C. i. vii. 115 Many a woman is brought up in innocence and self-will from these causes that he has given. 1861 M. Arnold Pop. Educ. France 174 A system which, to the loud blasts of unreasonable and intolerance, sends forth no certain counterblast. 1883 Pattison Mem. (1885) 2 All my energy was directed..to free myself from the bondage of unreason.

b. That which is contrary to, or devoid of, reason.

1847 Helps Friends in C. i. vii. 114 Women may talk the greatest unreason out of doors, and nobody kindly informs them that it is unreason. 1865 J. Grote Explor. Philos. i. 210 That unreason or nonsense which it is the business of the higher part to convert into knowledge.

Unrea'son, v. [Un-2 4, 3.]

1. trans. (and refl.). To deprive of reason.

a 1656 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. (1677) 343 We shall have such Solutions as must make us first unreason and unman our selves, before we can subscribe to them. 1755 SMOLLETT Quix. I. i. L 2 The unreasonable usage..so unreasons my reason, that I have reason to complain of your beauty. 1829 T. HOOK Bank to Barnes 40 Were I to tease on, it would nearly unreason your reason.

2. To disprove, reiute.

1661 R. L'ESTRANGE State Divinity 25 Their Reasons I have un-Reason'd already. a 1716 SOUTH Serm. (1744) XI. 257 However a man may reason himself to unreason the equity of God's proceedings; yet [etc.].

Unrea·sonabl·ity. (UN-1 22; cf. next.) 14·· in E. E. P. (1862) 143 Arystotelle..sayethe that euery man nedethe To be wise of the vnreasonablytie That comethe of the sensuallte.

Unrea·sonable, a. (adv.). [UN-1 7 b.]

1. Not endowed with reason; irrational.

c 1340 HAMPOLE Pr. Conscr. 599 He..fares als an unresonabel beste, pat his awen wille folowes. 1382 WYCLIF 2 Peter ii. 12 Thes sothelt [hen] as vnresonable bestes. c 1400 Destr. Troy 4428 A Kold beast vnreasonable. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 287 But vnresonable creatures..prayse god, in that they do as god hathe..ordeyned them to do. 1509 BARCLAY Ship of Fools 110 Other creatures that ar vnresonable Goeth on all fours. 1569 J. SANFORD tr. C. Agrippa's Vann. Artes 69 b, All the Pagans..doo affirme, that resonable soules goo into vnreasonable bodies. 1615 W. BEDWELL Moham. Impost. ii. § 89 We shall leade our life..as beasts and vnreasonable creatures do. 1665 MARVELL Rehearsal Transpros. 265 Nay, go to your Raven and Stag, those longest livers of all the unreasonable brethren. 1675 BROOKS Gold. Key 231 All the creatures, both reasonable and unreasonable, do in some sort set forth the praises of Christ. 1798 SOUTHEY Soldier's Fun. 35 Whilst his fellow-man..Must as the unreasonable beast drag on A life of labour. 1851 READE Christer & H. lxxviii, There were buffaloes, lizards,..leopards; any unreasonable beast but the right one.

transf. 1592 SHAKS. Rom. & Jul. III. iii. 111 Thy wild acts denote The vnreasonable Furie of a beast.

2. Not acting in accordance with reason or good sense; not reasonable in conduct, demands, expectations, etc.

c 1375 Cursor M. 6614 (Fairf.), Quen hai pis sagh, quia sob wil sagh Pa vnresonable folk pugt na play. c 1400 Comm. Luke i. 22 (MS. Rodl. 143), pe pople of iewes semeb lyk to dumb sacrale, wheche pulle is so vnresonable bat it may not ayne reason of his dedis. 1483 CAXTON G. de la Tour vi b, This wise kynge..was to them full kind and feloq, & also to al his comyns he was vnresonable. 1496 Act 12 Hen. VII, c. vii, Divers unresonable and detestable persones..wilfully committed murdre. c 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VI, 126 Least that beyng nedy and innocente people, should be..turmented with the vnreasonable men of warre. 1596 SHAKS. Merch. V. v. i. 203 What man is there so much vnreasonable, If you had pleas'd to haue defended it With any terms of Zeale. 1669 STURMY Mariner's Mag. I. i. 3 [This] will give the most reasonable men satisfaction; for the unreasonable, I care not a fig for them. c 1670 HOBBES Dial. Com. Laws (1681) 10 When the greatest part of them are so unreasonable as they are. 1740 LD. HARDWICKE in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 275, I hope therefore that I shall not be thought unreasonable in preferring this Petition to the King. 1829 SCOTT Anne of G. xxxiv, He was capricious, unreasonable, peremptory, and incomprehensible. 1876 MOZLEY Univ. Serm. x. (ed. 2) 205 They are not so unreasonable as to expect that they can like persons without knowing them.

3. Not in accordance with reason; not based upon sound reason or good sense.

c 1350 HAVELOK Pasiior lxxvii, 76 Nvrishyage of vnresonabil thoghtis. 1737 LANGL. P. Pl. B. vi. 153 For it is an vnresonable Religioun pat hath riste nouste of certeyne. c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 221 O, holy prophete! gyve me mercy! Of my synnes vnresonable. 1539 MORE Debell. Salem Wks. 983/1 To shew that the same spiritual law, which this man would proue vnreasonable, is not in dede proued vnreasonable. 1580 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 96 b, Whether that he ought to haue vnreasonable condicyon or vnworthye for them. 1660 Trial Regic. 54, I do hold the Prisoner's Plea vain, and unreasonable. 1688 BUNYAN Yerns. Sinner Saved (1886) 50 It would be the unreasonbest thing in the world to render hatter for love. 1711 ADDISON Spect. No. 164 P 1 He contracted an unreasonable Aversion towards his Son. 1760 STERNE Tr. Shandy iii. xxxi, I think it a very unreasonable demand. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. vi. II. 159 The panic was not unreasonable. 1889 MRS. ALEXANDER At Bay iv, A vague, unreasonable anxiety about Elsie haunted him.

† b. Inequitable, unfair; unjustifiable. Obs.

1a 1400 Morte Arth. 3453, I rede thow trekkyne and reherse vn-resonable dedis. 1535 LD. BERNERS Froiss. II. cxc. [clxxxvi.] 582 We haue to laye to his charge divers articyles vnreasonable whiche requyre iudgement of punisyon. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. II. xxvi. 140 That..which thou thinkest unreasonable to be done by another to thy-selfe.

4. Going beyond what is reasonable or equitable; excessive in amount or degree.

c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 233 Lordis many tymes don wrongis to pore men by..vnreasonable mercymentis & vnresonable taxis. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 201 Pharao..oppressyth the pepull of Israell with bondage and wyth vnreasynabull werkes. c 1460 FORTESCUE Abs. & Lim. Mon. xiv. (1885) 144 Yff this ordre be kept,..suytours..shall [not] be importunite or brocage optayne any vnreasonable desires. 1542 BINNYMAN Compl. Scotland (1872) 73 But the forkyd persecutors haue vnreasonable riches..in their bandys. 1583 STUBBES Anat. Abus. II. C8, Is not this too vnreasonable, to take a crowne..for writing six or seuen lines? 1617 MORYSON Itin. I. 220 No Christian may enter this place..except he will giue an vnreasonable reward. 1680 PEPYS Lett. (Camden) 79 Ye unreasonable prices set upon Bibles. 1725 DE FOE Voy. round World (1840) 195 Almost any reasonable quantity might have been sold there; but the truth is, we had an unreasonable quantity. 1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla III. 416 She could never again consent to interfere in his unreasonable requests. 1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xix. IV. 373 He had sold a most unreasonable time for a judgment. 1893 Law Times XCIV. 60/2 The [income] tax falls with undue severity upon one class, and with unreasonable lightness upon others.

† b. As adv. Excessively, extremely. Obs.

1581 PETTIE Guazzo's Civ. Conv. II. (1586) 115 There are some, who coueting to be counted unreasonable honest, frowne [etc.]. 1583 STUBBES Anat. Abus. II. F 3, Thus..they make shodes vnreasonable deere.

Unrea·sonableness. (UN-1 12.)

1. The quality (in things or actions) of being unreasonable or at variance with reason.

1532 Dial. on Laws Eng. (ed. 2) II. xlviii. 122 It were a greate vnreasonablenes in the law if it shulde prohibit hym [etc.]. 1560 DAUS tr. Sleidane's Comm. 305 Considering the vnreasonablenes of this thinge. 1643 VAGG Last Sheepe 24 The vnreasonablenesse of this assertion. 1691 RAY Creation 1. (1692) 78 The folly and unreasonableness of this ..ungrounded Figment. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. ix. 388 The Commodore..seeing the unreasonableness of this procedure, from the inability of the forts to have done otherwise. 1778 MISS BURNEY Evelina xlvi, The folly and unreasonableness of this speech. 1830 GEN. P. THOMPSON Exerc. (1842) I. 248 There are depths of unreasonableness, which surpass all human folly. 1886 Law Times Rep. LIII. 560/2 The agreement is invalidated by the unreasonableness of the restriction.

† b. Unfairness, injustice. Obs.

a 1533 LD. BERNERS Huon xviii. 48 Ye..haue well herde the grete vnreasonablenes that the kynge do too one of oure peres. Ibid., Ye knowe wher as suche extorcyon and vnreasonablenes is vsed.

2. Immoderateness; excessiveness.

1665 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. (1677) 282 The Ambassadour..acquainted his Master with the unreasonableness of the Turks insolence. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. xxxi, The unreasonableness of her claims was forgotten.

3. The quality (in persons) of being unreasonable in action, demands, etc.

1542 UDALL Erasm. Apoph. 184 Here mays a manne doubte whether of these twoo thynges he ought rather to marualil at, the rashes lyberalitee in geuyng, or els the vnreasonablenes of the philosopher, in askyng. 1598 R. BERNARD tr. Terence, Andria v. i, You would (now at last) giue ouer to cumber me with your vnreasonablenesse. 1703 MRS. CENTLIVRE Beau's Duel v. 1, Did ever man of your hairs ask such questions? I vow! I blush at your unreasonableness. 1736 BUTLER Anal. I. vi. 156 This is vanity, conceit and unreasonableness. 1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xv. III. 595 The difficulties by which the government was beset on all sides, the malignity of its enemies, the unreasonableness of its friends. 1879 L. STEPHEN Hours in Library Ser. III. 322 The grand unreasonableness of the average Englishman.

† 3. Lack of reason; irrationality. Obs.

1598 BLONDE Institution, vnreasonablenes, rashnes. 1647 H. MORE Song of Soul I. ii. 88 But what with judgement doth them both compare? Is't reason or unreasonableness, I pray.

Unrea·sonably, a. (UN-1 11.)

1. In a manner at variance with reason; without due observance of reason or good judgement.

c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 12 Sif pei conefien vnresonabliche pe housis..of here neiseburis. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 109 By whyche..thow shuldest hate no creature vnreasonably. 1535 COVERDALE 2 Maccc. xiv. 23 Nicanor, whyle he abode at Ierusalem, ordred himself not vnreasonably. 1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. I. 10 To passe ouer all the rest, which are much more vnreasonably foolish, Plato himself.. vainly erreth in his round globe. 1641 R. BROOKE Eng. Episc. 1. 27 Else Reason doth unreasonably determine not to Marry. 1670 CLARENDON Contempl. Fr. Tracts (1727) 757 They only consider..how unreasonably men deal with them. 1799 Law Serious C. x. 143 Do but suppose a man acting unreasonably. 1823 SCOTT Quentin D. xviii, Said Quentin, not unreasonably offended at the turn thus given to his gallantry. 1881 BENHAM in Macm. Mag. XLV. 115/2 The Essay..was, not unreasonably, regarded as the most objectionable in time.

2. In an unreasonable extent; excessively, immoderately.

a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1906) 53 There be..other that be lykerous of moche mete and drinke, takyng unresonably therof. 1470–85 MALORY Arthur viii. i. 213, I am come hyder to prayc you..to gyve me thy sefies and they shalle not be vnresonably asked. 1512 Act 4 Hen. VIII, c. 6 § 2 If..the same Collectours..unresonably delay or tary the said Marchaunts. 1568 GRAFTON Chron. II. 402 When they..would ryde, they found horses vnreasonably lean. 1607 SHAKS. Cor. I. iii. 84 Fye, you confine your selfe most vnreasonably. 1697 WALSH Life V. P 20 in Dryden Virgil, Venus grows..unreasonably confident. 1723 ATTERBURY Serm. (1726) I. ix. 314 To grant that to others, which we our selves perhaps..might be willing enough, unreasonably willing, to obtain from them. 1782 Phil. Trans. LXX. 352 Under all these disadvantages in the machine (if not unreasonably ill made) the rod ef will ascend to d. 1840 ALISON Hist. Eng. III. VII. 109 A nation..unreasonably jealous of its military expenditure. 1884 Law Rep. 25 Ch. Div. 492 To discourage unreasonably early marriages.

†Unrea·sonal, a. Obs.[1] (UN-1 7.) 1653 E. CHISENHALE Lath. Hist. 129 Therefore for the Doctor, to deny us to be a Church,..seems to me strange and unreasonall.

Unrea·soned, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not gifted with reason; devoid of reason.

1582 STANYHURST Æneid IV, (Arb.) 115 Might not I my lief tyme..Spend lyk an vnreasoned wild beaste? 1805 EUGENIA DE ACTON Nuns of Desert II. 230 A wretch..so totally unreasoned as to say [etc.].

2. Not evolved or developed by reasoning.

1790 BURKE Fr. Rev. 286 The citizens are interested from old prejudices and unreasoned habits. 1854 FERRIER Inst. Metaph. Introd. 3 An unreasoned philosophy, even though true, carries no guarantee of its truth. 1880 Irvine's Mag. May 658 Our unreasoned confidence that every vision of truth is in itself a glorious vision.

Unrea·soning, obl. adj. (UN-1 19.) a 1871 DE MORGAN Budget Paradox. (1872) 237 He is..the silliest head at unreasoning; if of all who have tried in our day to attach their names to an error. 1889 'MARK TWAIN' Yankee at Crt. K. Arthur xiii, It was the stubborn unreasoning of the time.

Unrea·soning, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

(a) 1751 G. WEST Education lxii, The unreasoning vulgar willingly obey. 1800 COLERIDGE Piccolom. iv. vii, I cannot traffic in the trade of words With that unreasoning sex. 1865 PUSEY Truth Eng. Ch. 13 The authors..were mostly unsystematic, disjointed, unreasoning. 1883 19th Cent. May 773 That somewhat unreasoning personage who is called the British Public.

(b) 1812 L. HUNT in Examiner 11 May 289/2 The caprices of an unreasoning resentment. 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. xiv. I. VI. 357 An unthinking and unreasoning impulse of the inward being. 1878 E. WHITE Life in Christ (ed. 3) iv. xxvii. 437 There is no influence to which men yield so easily as to unreasoning fear.

Hence Unrea·soningly adv.

1848 MUS. GASKELL Mary Barton xxxii, Job Legh pressed out of court, and Jem followed unreasoningly. 1865 N. Amer. Rev. March 194 Most fathers, schoolmen, and divines..have done so most unanimously and most unreasoningly.

Unrea·sty, a. (UN-1 7.) 1853 G. J. CAYLEY Las Alforjas II. 88 The first unreasty sample [of ham] we have met with since Seville. Unrea·ve, v. Now dial. [UN-1 3 + REAVE v. 8] trans. To unravel. 1593 BILSON Govt. Christ's Ch. p. v, The warpe and webbe of the late Presbyterie..hath so enfolded some mens wits, that they cannot vnreave their cogitations from admiring their newe founde Consistories. 1594 SPENSER Amoretti xxiii, Penelope..Deuiz'd a Web..in which the worke that she all day did make, the same at night she did againe vnreaue. 1898 R. BLACKMORE Wild, Wgs. N. Riding Yorks 466 Unreave, to unwind. † Unrea·ved, ppl. a. Obs.[1] (UN-1 8 + dial. reave to strip (a roof or house).] Not stripped of its roof. 1646 BP. HALL Balm of Gilead i. § 9 Couldst thou think that a Cottage, not too strongly built, and standing so bleak in the very mouth of the Windes, could..hold tight, and unreaved?

Unrea·ted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

† 1. Unblunted; undulled. Obs.

1579–80 NORTH Plutarch (1595) 241 He shewed the people the cruell fight of fensues at vnrebated swords. 1692 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Heavens Blessing Wks. III. 118/2 Saint George (being armed at all points but especially) with an vnrebated courage. 1681 J. SCOTT Chr. Life iii. § 1. 74 They are full of sharp and unrebated Desires. 1745 WESLEY Wks. (1872) VIII. 195 Those dogs of hell are let loose to prey upon your soul, with their whole unrebated strength.

2. Not subject to rebate or deduction.

1894 Q. Rev. Jan. 208 Thus the unrebated income-tax becomes a special tax on labour.

Unrebel, v. (UN-2 6 b.) 1642 HOWELL Twelve Treat. (1661) 24 The Treatie began, which the Scot would not conform himself to do, unless he were first unrebell'd and made Rectus in Curia. Unrebe·llious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1570 LEVINS Manip. 226 Unrebellious, inpertinax. 1879 MORLEY Burke 205 A composed spirit..an unrebellious temper.

Unrebu·keable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1530 TINDALE Prol. Philippians Wks. (1572) 52/2 He him seife had liued in such false righteousnes, and holinesse Vnrebukeable. 1537 BIBLE 1 Tim. vi. 14 That thou..be without spotte & vnrebukeable. c 1585 [R. BROWNE] Answ. Cartwright 80 There were those that..were vnrebukeable. 1619 W. SCLATER Exp. 1 Thess. 173 Pinie to Traian gives testimonie of Christian inoffensiue life; except in matter of the Superstition (as he calls it) they were vnrebukeable. 1650 S. CLARKE Eccl. Hist. 465 Justitiaries, and such as were unrebukeable in their lives. 1868 LYNCH Rivulet CXXI. 7, Not unrebukable am I, Not spotless Thy command have kept.

Hence Unrebu·keably adv.

a 1639 HARSNET Repent. (1640) 182 Paul..lived before his Conversion as unrebukeably as any civill person doth.

Unrebu·ked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

c 1445 PECOCK Donet 7 Sonnyis oon leef schulde stonde vnprovid or colowrably vnrebukid. 1547 BECON in Certain Hom. P iv b, He wouldie rather suffer death..then to suffer whordom to be vnrebuked, euen in a King. 1697 C. LESLIE Snake in Grass (ed. 2) 107 Tho' they have let no suppos'd contempt of their own Books go unrebuked. 1857 SUSANNA WINKWORTH tr. Life Tauler xvi. 306 When one finds this evil inclination in a man,..and he remains unrebuked, all this is the world. 1879 MORRIS Earthly Par. II. III. 401 All unrebuked he let her soft eyes claim Kindness from his.

Unrebu·ttable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1869 JAMES in Law Rep. 7 Equity 537 The strong and unrebuttable presumption.

Unrebu·tted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not repulsed or driven back. Obs.

c 1450 Hero Walland III. 131 Vnrabouyd [1570 unrebutt] be sothroun was in wer. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid iv. xiii. 48 That onrebutit knycht Endlang the wallys put thame to the flycht.

2. Not disproved or refuted.

1884 Law Times Rep. L. 215/2 The evidence is clear and unrebutted thereto.]

Unrecallable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1611 COTGR., Irrevocable, Irreuocable, vnrecallable. 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. lxxxix. 257 That which is done, is vnrecallable. 1798 SOUTHEY Wife of Fergus 39 The unrecallable vow That made me his.

Unreca·lled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1601 R. CHESTER Love's Mart., K. Arthur (1878) 43 Merlin..told him vnrecalled Time did stay [=await], To haste him from his pleasure thence away. a 1648 LD. HERBERT Occas. Poems, To late Wishes, The doom of fate, whose unrecall'd decree You date, bring, execute. 1679 T. JENISON in R. Jenison Papists Plot 18 As long as your Oath stands unrecalled. 1742 YOUNG Nt. Th. ix. 260 While she seems, nodding o'er her charge, to..give us up to silence, unrecall'd, Unmarkt. 1883 LD. MONCREIFF Law Rep. 9 App. Cases 317/2 While [the conveyance]..remained unrecalled it was absolute.

Unrecalling, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1593 SHAKS. Lucr. 993 And euer let his vnrecalling crime Haue time to waile th abusing of his time. Unreca·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1826 Q. Rev. XXXIII. 356 After living in the unrecanted profession of The Confession of Faith. Unrece·ding, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1820 JANE PORTER Scottish Chiefs xxxviii, Why, then, this unreceding determination to invade us? 1881 Scribner's Mag. XXII. 810 A steady and unreceding advance. Unreceipted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1881 Cambridge Trifles 3 Files of bills, receipted or unreceipted.

Unrecei·vable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. Incapable of being received.

1611 Cotgr., Inadmissible, vnadmittable, vnreceivable, vnacceptable. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 132 There is a receipt.. whereby any man.. may render his testimony unreceivable. 1877 M. Arnold Last Ess. on Ch. p. xxx, Those who had thrown it aside because what was presented to them under its name was so unreceivable.

† 2. Unfit to receive one. Obs.—1

1634 Herbert Trans. 128 If that Kingdome have a purgatory, so a conspiracie of..scalding sand, the burning sun, and vnreceiueable Cottages, can make one.

Unrecei·ved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1540 Act 32 Hen. VIII, c. 5 The residue of the said dett.. remaynyng unleved or unreceyvid by the said former execution. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lvii. § 5 Where the signes..of his grace are not either through contempt vnreceiued, or receiued with contempt. 1651 G. W. Cowel's Inst. 66 It is much questioned whether Tenant for life..hath any right..to profits and fruits unreceived. 1725 Bradley Lett. Wks. 1872 IV. 112 Stock, and dividends unreceived make up the sum. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) V. xx. 235 Miss Howe's answer to my last unreceived. 1825 Coleridge Aids Refl. 196 The right though unreceived Owner of the House.

Unrecei·ving, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1566 in Three 15th Cent. Chron. (Camden) 138 To quyat yᵉ matter yᵉ churche dores wer fayn to be closyd, and yᵉ parychyns to departe unreseyvynge for that day. Unrecepta·nt, a. (Un-7.) 1851 Ruskin Mod. Paint. I. ii. v. § 5 To maintain themselves obstinately unreceptant of the good.

Unrece·ptive, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

1778 Hartley Pref. to Swedenborg's Heav. & Hell p. xlviii, The self-hardened..render themselves unreceptive of mercy. 1865 M. Pattison Ess. (1889) I. 349 To sharpen the attention of a defiant and unreceptive mind such as Wolf. 1877 T. H. A. Page De Quincey II. xix. 147 That wholly unreceptive..mood which cannot even temporarily condescend to sympathy.

Unrecepti·vity. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) 1849 Alford Gk. Test. I. 524 Instances of unreceptivity of spiritual meaning.

Unreci·procal, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1845 J. J. Sylvester in Lond., etc. Phil. Mag. XVIII. 138 The unreciprocal implication of systems of equations. Unreci·procated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1850 Patmore Faithful for Ever 100 This poor, complaining wraith Of unreciprocated faith. 1889 Rider Haggard Jess iv Now was the liking unreciprocated.

Unreci·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1587 Churchyard Worth. Wales (1876) 10 An act so noble ..shall not passe my pen vnrecited. 1662 Boyle Examen vi. 72, I have left unrecited several..undesired Expressions. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 126 Did you.. meet with any adventure..yet unrecited?

Unre·cked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1808 Scott Marm. I. xvii, Unmark'd, at least unreck'd, the taunt. 1862 Ellicot Destiny of Creatures 1 (1864) 5 These animals..die unrecked of and unheeded. Unre·cking, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1868 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy 290 Unrecking of time-woven subtleties. 1873 Mrs. Whitney Other Girls xxx, An utter..nce of hard unrecking distinctness. Unre·ckingness. (Un-1 12.) 1873 Mrs. Whitney Other Girls xxx, The hard unrecklingness was only the reflex of a tenderness quick, not dead. Unre·ckon, v. (Un-2 3.) 1561 Eden Art Navig. ii, The daynes of the Moone bayng known, then unrekenyng or disrekenyng backwarde, we shall knowe the dayes. 1598 Florio, Discontare, to vnreckon, to abate in reckoning.

Unre·ckonable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1851 Hawthorne Ho. Seven Gables iv, An uncle..might ..make her the ultimate heiress of his unreckonable riches. 1880 A. Raleigh Way to City 267 It is even more so by unreckonable degrees.

Unre·ckoned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c. Cf. MDu. ongerekent (Du. ongerekend), MHG. ungerechent (G. ungerechnet), ON. óreiknaðr, Sw. oräknad, Da. uregnet.)

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 2462 Na syn þan unrekend sal be. c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 166 Suche a carpynge is unknowe, Onrekenyd in my regne. 1464 Manu. & Househ. Exp. (Roxb.) 161 Affiyr the same rekenyge Keverstonys men..askyd more wichche wyll ha this weyd, vj. s. viij. d. 1551 Br. Gardiner On Sacram. 75 The foure substances, wheiche this auctor..numbreth of Christ, might haue bene left vnreckened by tale. 1599 Daniel Musoph. (1602) A iiij, Who doth touch the Elements of that vaine, Is held but vain; and his vnreckned pen The title but of Leuitie doth graine. 1628 Gaule Pract. The. (1629) 100 These were his Names, Many and Great; yet is Jesus (the Name above all names) vnreckoned. 1630 Davenp. Don Sebastian iii. 1, Add that falsehood To a long Bill that yet remains unreckon'd. 1875 Lowell Under Old Elm 135 The casual gleanings of unreckoned years. 1879 Baring-Gould Germany II. 283 The theory may be wrong,..the calculation put out by unreckoned elements.

b. With for.

1680 C. Nesse Ch. Hist. 452 God left not his cruelty long unreckon'd for. 1894 Mrs Dyan Man's Keeping (1899) 47 This unreckoned-for encounter..was a bitter pang.

Unreclai·mable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being reclaimed or reformed; incorrigible: a. Of actions, qualities, etc.

1597 tr. Bullinger's Decades 238 r. The Iewes..for their vnreclaymeable affiaunce in the lawe are vtterly reiected. 1607 Topsell Four-f. Beasts 305 He..faileth into some furious and vnreclaimable euill qualities. 1652 Sclater Civ. Magistracy (1653) 8, Men, who are full of savage and unreclaimable desires.

b. Of persons. Also const. from.

a 1656 Br. Hall Serm. 2 Pet. i. 10 Wks. 1863 V. 687 That dreadful place of torment, which is the unavoidable portion of careless and unreclaimable sinners. 1680 C. Nesse Ch. Hist. 193 He finds her unreclaimable from her wickedness.

Blackall Wks. (1723) I. 258 He is not unreconcileable to us until we become unreclaimable. 1717 Fleetwood Burdett's Let. 11 'Tis the Proceeding of the..tenderest Fathers ..with their Sons, when so enormously ungracious, wicked, and unreclaimable.

absol. 1685 J. Scott Chr. Life II. iv. § 1 To pour out the Vials of his Wrath upon the obstinate and unreclaimable.

† 2. Untameable, uncontrollable. Obs.

1609 Holland Amm. Marcell. 401 This kind of men so quicke and hasty, so vnruly and vnreclaimable. 1621 Cotgr., Bœuf bran,..a kind of wild Oxe..vnreclaimable, and onely good for the shambles.

3. Not liable to be claimed back.

1777 Potter Æschylus, Supplicants 107 That we might be permitted here to dwell Free, irreclaimable, inviolate.

Hence Unreclai·mably adv.

1645 Bp. Hall Peace Maker vii. 57 Those..who doe pertinaciously, and unreclaimably maintaine Doctrines destructive to the foundation of Christian Religion. 1652 Heylin Cosmogr. III. 200 Unreclaimably addicted to their antient Judaism.

Unreclai·med, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, 5 b.]

1. † a. Not summoned to return. Obs.—1

c 1470 Harding Chron. cxxii. ii, He then his lawe and peace alwaye proclaymed..And so held on to London vnreclaymed.

b. Not demanded back.

1748 Earl Nugent To Mankind xviii, Wise nature mocks th' wrangling herd; For unreclaim'd, and untransfer'd, Her pow'rs and rights remain.

2. Not reclaimed from error or wrong-doing; not reduced to order or good ways; unreformed.

1602 Shaks. Ham. iii. i. 94 The flash and out-breake of a fiery minde, A sauageness in vnreclaimed bloud of generall assault. 1611 Speed Theat. Gt. Brit. iv. i. 138/1 Their manners vnreclaimed, and barbarisme.., doe witnesse no such chillisie sowen, to bee in that plot. 1757 W. Wilkie Epigon. ix. 281 Yet, unreclaim'd, from such atrocious deeds, To more and worse your desp'rate rage proceeds. 1827 Pollok Course T. ii. 483 In tormenting, pained; Unawed by wrath, by mercy unreclaimed. 1830 Mackintosh Progr. Eth. Philos. Wks. 1846 I. 256 They retain whatever was admirable in their unreclaimed state.

3. Untamed; unsubdued.

1618 Latham Falconry Contents, Of the Ostringer, and.. Goshawks reclaimed with other Fowles of the eyrie, as they are vnreclaimed and wilde. 1631 Chapman Cæsar & Pompey Plays 1873 III. 193 Antony: [of Cato]. Vnreclaimed man! 1693 Dryden Ovid's Met. xiii. Acis 81 Bullocks, vnreclaim'd to bear the Yoke.

4. Uncultivated, wild.

1782 Cowper Expost. 468 This island, spot of unreclaim'd rude earth. 1832 Planting 23 (L.U.K.), [Such] unreclaimed lands..can seldom be prepared as above. 1896 Olmsted Stone States 157 Land of this description..in its unreclaimed state.

Hence Unreclai·medness.

1612 Cotgr., Sauuagely, sauagenesse, wildnesse, vnreclaimednesse. 1646 S. Bolton Arrainign. Err. 28 Vnreclaimednesse under any sin whatever will bring in errour.

Unreclai·ming, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. III. iv. 187 Love Dragged to his altars..And slain amid men's unreclaiming tears. Unreclai·ming, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1777 Potter Æschylus, Prom. Bd. 7 Therefore the joyless station of this rock Unsleeping, unreclining, shalt thou keep.

Unrecogni·tion. (Un-1 12, 5 b.)

1869 Mrs. Whitney Hitherto ix, Everybody who has a goading ambition has knowledge..of a cold exasperating unrecognition. 1875 Howells Foregone Concl. (1882) 299 She kept her eyes upon him with a dreamy unrecognition.

Unre·cognizable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. II. 83 When a number of successive lines can be rendered..unrecognizable as verse,.. by simply transcribing them as prose. 1847 Lo. Lindsay Chr. Art I. p. cxlii, He returned so disfigured.., that he was unrecognisable save by his voice.

Hence Unrecognizableness; -ably adv.

1899 Stevenson Tales & Fantasies 49 The mist had almost unrecognisably exaggerated their forms. 1883 H. Drummond Nat. Law in Spir. W. 303 One of the most recognisable characteristics of life is its unrecognisableness.

Unre·cognized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1813 Shelley Q. Mab vi. 189 Not a thought, ..Nor the events enchaining every will, ..pass Unrecognized, or unforeseen by thee. 1861 [Mrs. A. J. Penny] Romance Dull Life xxxvii. 265 She felt she was still in unrecognised disgrace.

Unre·cognizing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

a 1814 Wittness III. iii. in Wem Brit. Theatre I. 35 A kinsman proudly rich, Whose haughty and unrecognizing eye Had never glanc'd on him. 1858 Sears Athan. ii. x. 233 He walked to Emmaus with the two unrecognizing disciples. 1890 R. Bolderwood Miner's Right xxxviii, He gazed for one moment at me with strange, unrecognising air.

Hence Unre·cognizingly adv.

1891 Cotes 2 Girls on Barge 76 The Essingtons had passed us, unrecognisingly.

Unrecolle·cted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1723 Watts Philos. Nat. (1734) 127 Our unrecollected and useless Dreams. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 276 Unrecollected, when occasion comes for recollecting it, it will be tantamount to silence.

absol. 1892 J. H. Newman Diffic. Anglic. 235 Such a soul, so selfish, so unrecollected.

Unrecommen·dable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1830 Miss Mitford Village Ser. iv. 237, I should have objected to it..as being utterly uncommendable by one rational person to another.

Unrecommen·ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

c 1550 Cheke Let. in Athenæum 28 Aug. (1909) 237/2, I would rather that you would, unproved and unrecommended, do well. 1704 Moderat. Disph. v, A Notion undefin'd in Vertues Schools, Unrecommended by her sacred Rules. 1792 A Young Trav. France 190 Unknown and unrecommended at Nice, I expected nothing but what could be shot flying in any town.

Unre·compensable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

† Incapable of being remedied.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 203 b, Surely this offence is..of man vnrecompensable. 1560 Becon New Cetech. Wks. 1564 I. 304 Your miserye and wretchednesse was so greate and vnrecompensable, that from it.. no creature..coulde delyuer me. 1587 Fleming Contn. Holinshed III. 1329/2 The heinous and vnrecompensable defamation of the course of iustice.

Unre·compensed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1469 Paston Lett. II. 379 Yif ye any thyng do..to the pleasir of my Lordes, it will neither be unremembrid ne unrecompensid. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 310 He shall returne..not vnrecompensed with iust rewards. 1582 A. Hall Iliad v. 5 Thinkst thou it fit I leaue the maide, and empte go my waves Vnrecompensde. 1621 Fletcher Wild Goose Chace iv. iii, Heaven will not see so true a love unrecompenc'd. a 1763 Shenstone Ess. Wks. 1777 II. 29 To retire at last unrecompensed..was beyond all power of resolution. 1822 Lamb Elia i. Bachelor's Compl., The display of married happiness..is throughout pure, unrecompensed, unqualified insult. 1840–2 Worsw. Mem. Tour Italy iii. 10 Yet not uncompensed are they who learn [etc.].

† Unrecomptless, a. [Un-1 7, 15.] Incapable of being related or reckoned. 1593 Lodge Misc. Pieces (Hunter. Cl.) 14 Fell fraught with vnrecomptles sweete Of your faire face that stole mine eie.

Unre·concilable, a. Now rare. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades iv. ii. 574/1 That vnreconcileable and hardie hart. 1618 Fenton's Guicciard. (ed. 3) 344 The Pope shewing signes of a person vnreconcileable against Alphonso. 1646 Hammond Tracts 25 Whether it be reconcileable or unreconcileable with a good conscience. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. 2 Tim. iii. 3 Men that will not live in peace, but are unreconcileable. a 1716 [see Unreclaimable a. 1 b]. 1896 Advance (Chicago) 2 Apr. 475/2 Teachings..absolutely unreconcilable with the teachings of the New Testament.

Hence Unreconcilableness; -ably adv.

1650 Vind. Hammond's Addr. iii. § 7 The vnreconcileablenesse of those two opinions (the one with the other). c 1620 Br. Hall Contempl., O. T. xv. vii, How much lesse shall the God of mercies bee vnreconcileably displeased with his sinne. 1653 H. More Antid. Atheism i. ii. (1655) 6 The minde of man..will fully and unreconcileably disagree.

Unre·conciled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 5 b.)

c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 152 Wretched were that persone that..wolde be vnreconcyled and dyscevered from that holy wyve. 1523 Bradshaw St. Werburge i. 872 Dredynge sore the iustyce of god almyght For his fathers demerytes vnreconsyled On hym to fall. 1564 Dorman Proofe Cert. Art. Relig. 33 b, He..was forced to leaue the two places at a leiye vnreconciled. 1604 Shaks. Oth. v. ii. 27 Any Crime Vnreconcil'd as yet to Heauen, and Grace. 1671 Mrs. Behn Fore'd Marr. i. ii, As those unreconciled to Heaven Would bear the pangs of death. 1721 G. Hickes Two Treat. Chr. Priesth. (1847) II. 48 The offering of unreconciled Christians. 1769 Burke Obs. 'Late St. Nat.' 90 The unreconciled principles of the original discord of parties. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam i. xxvii, He changed from starry shape..To a dire Snake, with man and beast unreconciled. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets xii. 420 Yet the spirit and the flesh still remained in unreconciled antagonism.

† Unreconci·liable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Unreconcilable.

1589 T. White Serm. Paules Cross 47 Deuiding his [sc. Christ's] Bodie by vnreconciliable meanes our selues. 1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. v. i. 47 Let me lament..that our Starres Vnreconciliable, should diuide our equalnesse to this. 1628 tr. Mathieu's Powerf. Favorite 87 From this instant their minds became vnreconciliable.

† Unreconciliate, ppl. a. Sc. Obs.[1] [Un-1 8 b.] Unreconciled. 1588 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 283 Sa lang as the said deidlie feid..standis vnreconciliat. Unreconnoitred, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1899 Westm. Gaz. 13 Dec. 5/1 Country unreconnoitred is unknown in a military sense.

Unreconstru·cted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8; cf. Reconstruction 1 b.)

1869 Nation 25 March 221/2 Butler's Committee on Reconstruction reported in favor of extending..the time during which an 'unreconstructed' Southerner may retain his Government employment. 1877 Longf. in Life (1891) III. 277 A letter from Mr. —, of Washington, a fierce and 'unreconstructed' rebel.

Unrecoverable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1874 M. Collins Transmigr. III. xviii. 271 That delicious unrecordable nonsense which some people fancy can only be talked once in a life-time.

Unrecorded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. 187 Had Salomon neuer beene, or had his fall been vnrecorded. 1662 Stillingfl. Orig. Sacra II. i. § 2 Supposing that God had left the matters of Divine revelation unrecorded at all. 1671 Milton P. R. i. 16 Deeds..in secret done, And unrecorded left through many an Age. 1725 Pope Odyss. iv. 276 Antilochus, a name Not unrecorded in the rolls of fame. 1847 Keble Serm. Pref. p. lxviii, The more established theory of silent unrecorded Tradition. 1881 P. Brooks Canada of Lord 133 A thousand unrecorded patriots helped to make Washington.

Unrecor·ding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1849 Tennyson 'You might have won the Poet's name' 7 A life that moves to gracious ends Thro' troops of unrecording friends. † Unrecounselled, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-1 8.) Unreconciled. 1533 Bellenden Livy iii. xix. (S.T.S.) II. 26 He declarit him Inemye and as 3it vnreconsellit to pis man. 1566 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 407 The said unrecounsailit biild and inymitie. Unrecounted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1613 Shaks. Hen. VIII, iii. ii. 48 Marry this is yet but yong, and may be left To some eares vnrecounted.

Unreco·verable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

† 1. That cannot be recovered; completely lost.

14.. Brut 319 Set thilk Northren wynd..lost good wiponte nombre vnrecoueralle. 1448 Exch. Acct. Reg. (1844) I. 401 Al sumes..bath recouerable and unrecouerable. a 1500

Chaucer's Dreme 1753 This hasty farme had bene a feast, And now is unrecoverable. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. v. To lament the losse of such a jewell, so much the more, as that skilful men in that arte assured it was unrecoverable. 1627 Morvson Itin. I. 278 The unrecoverable losse of time. 1650 Baxter Saints' R. III. ii. 281 Oh my unconceivable unrecoverable loss!

2. From which no recovery is possible; past remedy or cure.

1561 Daus tr. Bullinger on Apoc. 533 The most certaine, unrecoverable, and most weighte destruction of Rome. 1584 R. Scot Discov. Witchcr. xiii. xxiv. (1886) 287 To make an unrecoverable wound in your belike. 1608 Macbin Dumbe Knt. III, I doe not think this ill Is yet so big as unrecoverable. 1644 Vicars God in Mount I An unrecoverable cursed estate of damnation. 1888 Amer. Jrnl. Psychol. Feb. 333 Loss of memory is so commonly associated with unrecoverable cases.

† Unreco·verably, adv. Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Irrecoverably.

c 1445 Pecock Donet (1921) 160 ȝitt þi þe not vnrecouerabli [unrecȝdressable, þouȝ to so redresse haplily longli sum labour. 1578 Walsingham in Nicolas Life & T. Sir C. Hatton (1847) 60 We shall estrange Scotland from us unrecoverably. 1628 T. Spencer Logick 125 Thereby we finde, that this condition befalls them secretly, certainly, unrecoverably. a 1652 Brome Damoiselle III. ii, [He is] most unrecoverably mad! 1690 Baxter Kingd. Christ iv. (1691) 49 They are unrecoverably Extinct.

† Unreco·vered, ppl. a.[1] [Un-1 8.] 1. From which no recovery is or has been made.

c 1611 Chapman Iliad IX. 247 Consider these affairs in time,..And have the grace to turn from Greece fate's unrecover'd hour. 1612 Drayton Poly-olb. II. 74 Too late (alas) we find The softness of thy sword..To be the onely cause of vnrecover'd sorrow. 1642 J. Taylor (Water P.) Siege Jerus. Wks. 12 Then fell they to an vnrecovered wane.

2. Not recovered or regained.

a 1692 Pollexfen Disc. Trade (1697) 4 The other half Million..we may be sure they did not give us, or left us recovered, but took it from us. 1855 M. Arnold Balder Dead III. 235 They bind us..To leave for ever Balder in the grave, An unrecover'd prisoner. 1897 Daily News 21 Jan. 5 A telegram..states that the body of Fowler is unrecovered.

3. Not having recovered (from something).

1737 Parnell Poems 94 Lychenor following with a downward Blow, Reach'd in the Lake his unrecover'd Foe. 1860 Froude Hist. Eng. VI. 235 With a stomach unrecovered from the sea..he sate down..to a public dinner, or public supper. 1880 Emma Marshall Troubl. Times iv. 288 being yet on my bed, unrecovered of that fore-mentioned illness.

† Unreco·vered, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [Un-1 8.] Not covered up, obvious. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades iv. 1. 534/2 The vnfigured and vnrecovered promises..in the Psalmes.

Unre·creating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) a 1861 T. Winthrop Life in Open Air xii. (1863) 90 A feeble, restless, unrecreating slumber. Unrecrui·table, a. (Un-1 7 b. Cf. Unrecruitible a.) [1772 Ash.] 1884 Imp. Dict. IV. 514/2 Unrecruitable health, strength, &c.

Unrecrui·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1649 J. Arnway Tabbit 33 To avoide the next storme which His unrecruited Army is might not encounter. a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Cheshire I. (1662) 287 Had the Royalists pursued this Single Enemy, (as yet unrecruited with additional strength,) they had finally worsted him. 1772 Burgoyne Cruelties v. 20 So by unrecruited waste, His glorious stock long since had been consum'd. 1829 Macm. Mag. IV. 47 Lest the ranks of the ministry should be unrecruited by candidates from this first class of intelligence. 1891 E. Kinglake Australians at Home 27 The ranks of larrikins do not go unrecruited from among the sons of the more respectable poor.

† Unrecrui·tible, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] Incapable of getting recruits. 1654 Milton Eikon. iv. Their empty and unrecruitible [ed. 1738 unrecruitable] Colonells of twenty men in a company. Unre·ctifiable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) a 1678 Stanley Hist. Philos. (1687) ix. 541/2 Such a person must be unlearned, and unrectifiable.

Unre·ctified, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not corrected or amended.

1638 Rider Horace, Odes III. xiv, You youths,..Forbeare all languages unrectifi'd. 1662 Hibbert Body Divinity I. 306 Many things were left unrectified, which..they did not see. 1686 Jeffreys in Howell State Trials (1811) XI. 691/2 That one mistake in point of law might not go unrectified. 1837 Wordsw. Mem. Tour Italy I. 329 Diligence uninspired, Unrectified, unguided..By godlike insight. 1895 W. H. Hudson Spencer's Philos. 171 The unrectified egotistic emotions of the dweller in cave and wilderness.

2. Not purified or refined.

1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. ii. 36 Unrectified spirit of man's blood. 1694 Salmon Bate's Dispens. 144/1 The Oil..stinks so abominably, that it is scarce possible to be used alone, especially unrectified. 1706 Compl. Farmer s.v. Purging, Unrectified oil of amber. 1840 Hood Kilmansegg, Misery ix, Drops of unrectified spirit distill'd From the limbeck of Pride and Vanity.

Unrecumbent, a. (Un-1 7.) 1784 Cowper Task v. 29 The cattle..seem half petrified to sleep In unrecumbent sadness. † Unrecuperable, a. Obs.[-1] [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] = Unrecoverable a. 1450-40 Lydg. Bochas I. xxv. (1494) f [i]/r For comforties and vnrecuparable [1558 unrecurable] Are thilke hepyd sorowes. c 1535 Elyot Lat. in Gov. (1883) p. cxvi, To my importable charges and unrecuperable decay of my lyving.

† Unrecur·rable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] = Unrecoverable a.

c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 313 Thus oure lawys dystroyd myth be, And to us alle unrecurably! 1465 Paston Let. II. 162 A mere matter a newe cost and many smale growe to a grei summe, and summe matter unrecurably. 1546 Bale Eng. Votaries I. 77 b, An unrecourable dyshonoure it were unto yow. 1597 G. Harvey Trimming Nashe Wks. (Grosart) III. 24 If this remedie helpe not, surely thou art vnrecurable.

† Unrecured, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8, 5 b.] Not alleviated or remedied. 1430-40 Lydgate Bochas I. x. (1494) d.j b/s My sorowes let se If any sorowe or mysscheef vnrecuryd May counturpeyse to that I haue enduryd. † Unrecur·ring, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] [Un-1 10.] Not admitting of recovery. 1588 Shaks. Tit. A. III. i. 90, I found her..Seeking to hide herselfe as doth the Deare That hath receiude some vnrecuring wound. Unrede, verb. (Un-1 7.) a 1300 Cursor M. 24471 þi face es wan as ros vnrede.

† Unre·de. Obs. [OE. unrǽd (f. un- Un-1 4 a, b + rǽd Rede sb.[1]), = OFris. unrêd, WFris. on-, ûnrie(d), MDu. onraet (Du. -raad), OHG. (MHG.) unrât (G. unrath), ON. úráð (MSw. oradh, Sw. ordå, MDa. urad, Da. and Norw. uraad).] Lack of counsel or wisdom; evil counsel; folly.

c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. iv. xii. 210 Scipia..self sǽde..þæt hit wære se mæsta unred & se mæsta þeowdom. c 1200 O. E. Chron. (MS. D) an. 1048, Ac hit þuhte unred eallum folce. c 1205 Lay. 8011 Wale, wale, vnred [c 1275 onread], mani cnihtʒ þu makest ded. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1906, xii. 3ȝt or ysaac was dead Iacobes sunes deden un-red. c 1275 Sinners Beware 303 in O. E. Misc. 82 He regredeþ þanne heye, þe wrecches and þe vnsleye, þat luuede þe vnredes.

b. As the epithet given to King Ethelred II: see Unready a.[2]

c 1200 Leges Edw. in Lambarde Archaionomia fol. 138 b, Æðiredus unrade,..Edmundus yredside. Yc 1275 Lives & Rels. of Engleyre (Rolls) 96 Cesti Eilred aucune genz apelent Eilred Unred; e assez proprement.

Unrede, variant of Unride a.

Unredeemable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1584 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 672 Heretabill tennendreis unredimabill. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia III. (1598) 363 Zelmane grieue [shall] become her marriage bed,..before I will leaue a marke in my selfe of an vnredeemeable trespasse. 1611 Cotgr., Irrachetable, vnredeemable; not to be bought ..at any price. 1813 L. Hunt in Examiner 17 Jan. 17/2 Men, who would have left us, unredeemed and unredeemable, the habitual slaves of every species of despotism. 1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. III. iv. xv. § 9 This absence of colour from rocks..was in their eyes an unredeemable defect.

Unredeemed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

† 1. Untretrieved, unremedied. Obs.[-1]

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (1531) 264 b, That no circumstance sholde be lefte vnredemed that myght let thy salnacyon.

2. Not spiritually redeemed; unsaved.

1548 Geste Pr. Masse I viij b, Ther shuld be made..prayer for the dead to..release them wyth al (as otherwyse vnredemed and payned). 1652 Jer. Taylor Three Serm. (1653) 82 The state of a carnal, unredeemed, unregenerate person. 1760 Law Spir. Prayer I. 76 Our redemption is this new birth; if this is not done,..we are still unredeemed. 1850 Hawthorne Scarlet L. xviii, Breathing the wild, free atmosphere of an unredeemed, unchristianized, lawless region.

absol. 1827 Pollok Course T. VIII. 796 He stood With eye, of all the unredeemed, most sad.

3. Not recovered, ransomed, or released, by purchase or otherwise. (In quot. 1896 = Irredeemed.)

1554 [see Unransomed]. 1592 N. Roscarrock Pseldm. Verses in Bossewell Armorie, Caparisons ther fixed hang, ..With armors fully furnished, and gauntlets vnredeemed. 1648 Herrick II, Oxgeloat, Vnredeemed, or Vnreleased. 1845 McCulloch Taxation I. i. 99 note, The land-tax redeemed amounts to 737,285*l.* a-year, and the unredeemed to 1,069,904*l.* a-year. 1856 Kingsley Misc. (1859) II. 3 [Lands] yet unredeemed from the wild beast and the wild hunter. 1896 Daily News 5/3 The most elaborate [wheel] being sent by the other 'unredeemed' Italian city of Trieste.

b. spec. Not recovered from pawn.

1859 Sala Two. round Clock (1861) 180 The articles sold..are all pawnbrokers' pledges unredeemed. 1887 E. F. Poynter Mirage of Life II. 30 Teapot and candlesticks both had..been pledged and unredeemed.

4. Not remedied or relieved (by some good quality or feature); unmitigated; absolutely bad.

1805 W. Roscoe Leo X, II. 22 A man so totally unredeemed by a single virtue. 1843 Carlyle Past & Fr. III. xii, The unredeemed ugliness is that of a slothful People. 1862 'Shirley' (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. vi. 320 The villain of the piece, who is..an unredeemed and impossible blackguard. 1896 H. G. Wells Wheels of Chance viii, He was not an unredeemed rogue, taking advantage of a mistake.

5. Not performed or realized.

1812 L. Hunt in Examiner 7 Dec. 770/2 Your promise has remained unredeemed. 1862 Goulburn Pers. Relig. II. ix, The great gulf of unredeemed possibilities.

Hence Unredee·medly adv.

1885 Athenæum 28 Feb. 276/3 If she had..one touch of refinement,..instead of being unredeemedly vulgar.

† Unre·dely, adv. Obs.[-1] [Un-1 11; cf. next and OE. unrǽdlíce, ON. úráðligr.] Without restraint.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 173 He bit here unbette sennes.. bigraden hem shameliche, and biten hem unradeliche.

† Unre·dily, adv. Obs. [Un-1 11, or f. Unredy a. Cf. prec.] Without counsel or consideration; imprudently, unwisely, inadvisedly.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. lv. (Tollem. MS.), Ancciuses mesnie þat yt is ful violent herbe, and schall be take redily and warily; for he greueþ and soone sleþ, yf it is unredily [L. indiscrete] take to any person. c 1445 Pecock Donet 142 Perfore hem silf in þis mater þei biwambien so redeyly and so vnredily. a 1449 — Repr. II. xx. 274 Al this vndirstonde not y of the Bible aloon, as summe ouer vnredili ..vndirstonden.

† Unredou·bting, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 10.] Not anticipative of misapprehension. 1685 J. Sergeant Sure Footing 49 That the Rule of Faith must be apt to justify unpreferring and unredoubting persons..is found most exactly in Tradition. Unredre·ssable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1607 S. Collins Serm. (1608) 8 If it be had come any later, the sutll had beene almost vnredressable. 1658 J. Sergeant Sure Footing 41 That Principle which is the necessary Parent of such ruinous and unredressable disorders. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. I. Pref. 65 He thereupon grew unredressable and irreconcilable with the whole order.

Unredre·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1563 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 244 All attemptatis committit vpoun the subjectis of Scotland and unredressit for. 1590 Spenser F. Q. IV. viii. 41 That vnto death had doen him vnredrest, Had not the noble Prince his readie stroke represt. 1617 Camden Third Bk. of Ayres xviii. 1 So may I dye vnredrest, Ere my long loue be possest. 1639 Fuller Holy War II. xxv. 76 Wearied with delayes, [he] retreated back with his grievances unredressed. 1721 Amherst Terræ Filii No. 6 (1726) 50 The king's friends remain still unredress'd, and the king's honour unrepair'd to this day. 1806 Ann. Rev. IV. 886 An important public paper..which makes many allegations of grievance, still true, and still unredressed. 1877 Mrs. Oliphant Makers Flor. ix. 230 Wickedness unwarned and wrong unredressed.

Unredu·ceable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1851 Ruskin Stones Ven. I. p. x, I determined to separate the text and the unreducable plates.

Unredu·ced, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

† 1. Sc. Not annulled or repealed. Obs.

1572-3 Reg. Privy Council Scot. II. 185 The saidis first charter and confirmatioun following thairupoun standing unreducit. 1606 [see Unquarrelled]. a 1639 Spottiswood Hist. Ch. Scot. vii. (1655) 307 The sentence of forfeiture..stood unreduced.

2. Unsubdued; not taken by force.

1689 Apot. Fail. Walker's Acc. 20 Whether some Men are not satisfy'd..Ireland be entirely lost,..and remain unreduced for some years, rather than Dissentients be employ'd in retrieving it. 1884 Leeds Merc. (Weekly Suppl.) 15 Nov. 6/2 Stirling Castle, the chief place of strength..,still remained unreduced.

3. Med. Not restored to a normal state.

1749 T. Gataker Le Dran's Operat. Surg. 101 When an intestine is gangrened and remains unreduced. 1782 Monro Anat. 39 The annihilation..of the head of a bone..,after an unreduced fracture. 1837 Quain Elem. Anat. (ed. 4) 57 Those cases of unreduced dislocations where the tendons slide over bones. 1857 T. Watson Lect. Physic (ed. 4) I. 35 The dislocation remaining unreduced.

4. Not dissolved or comminuted.

1782 Phil. Trans. LXXIII. 63 Dr. Priestley having..dissolved mercury in the nitrous acid..constantly found a considerable proportion of it unreduced. 1815 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art II. 609 Those [lands] which contain a large proportion of unreduced vegetable matter. 1882 J. Dunbar Pract. Pepper-worker 24 The stags must..be..drawn out into fibre without having the smallest particle of rag unreduced to half-stuff.

5. Not brought down to simple terms; not applied to some use.

1798 Hutton Course Math. I. 251 The rule may be applied at once to an unreduced equation. 1829 Pollok Course T. VIII. 213 The bigot theologian, in minute Distinctions skilled, and doctrines unreduced To practice.

6. Unlessened, undiminished.

1830 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximised, Further Extr. Const. Code 15 The emptional mode; according to which, mention is made of the greatest sum he will give for it, if unreduced. 1885 in Longm. Mag. Mar. (1900) 434 To enable them to maintain their existence, with unreduced vitality, against the severities of the climate.

Unredu·cible, a. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Irreducible.

1643 Milton Divorce 44 By Laws commanding over the unreducible antipathies of nature. 1736 Phil. Trans. XXXIX. 333 This Rupture was..fixed and unreducible. 1768 Woman of Honor II. 159 Those have laughed at it in theory on judging it unreducible to practice. 1858 H. Bushnell Nat. & Supernat. xii. (1862) 276 There is nothing eccentric that..will not fall into the general aim of the plan..; no fantastic matter that is unreducible. 1861 Sir W. Fairbairn Iron 14 An invention..to smelt otherwise useless and unreducible ores.

Hence Unredu·cibleness.

1694 South Serm. (1698) III. 271 Their Strangeness and Unreducibleness to the common Methods and observations of Nature.

† Unredu·ct, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] [Un-1 8 b.] Unreduced. 1608 Middleton Ham. Lowe III. i, Thought vnreduct to Art, is but an Embrion in the truest sence.

† Unre·dy, a. Obs. [Un-1 7. Cf. Unready a.[2]] Not well advised; incautious, rash, foolish.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) II. 91 Eyher manere summynge is as vnredy as oher. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xiii. 216 An vnredy reue þi residue shal spene..in a myntewhile. c 1449 Pecock Repr. Prol. 3 Ech such vngroundid and vnredy and out haste.

Unre·edified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1519 in Somerset. & Dorset. N. & Q. (1893) III. 244 Every half yere that the said scolehouse shall be unbuylded or unreedefyed. 1534 Act 26 Hen. VIII, c. 8 § 1 By reason of whiche burnings..many voide grounds..[are] remayninge now at this daye unreedyfied. 1541 Act 32 Hen. VIII, c. 19 § 1 Houses of habitation..whiche nowe are fallen downe decayed and at this tyme remayne unreedified.

Unreel, v. [Un-2 3.]

1. trans. To unwind from a reel or skein.

Chiefly fig. Quot. 1605 is echoed by several later writers, as in quot. 1652.

1567 Golding Ovid's Met. x. 122, I Beseech yee of Eurydice vnreele the destinye. 1598 Florio, Sgominare,..to vnreele yarne. 1605 Sylvester Du Bartas II. iii. 111. Lawe 1377 Vn-winde the bottom of old Times again, Of Ages past vn-reel the snarled skain. 1606 J. Raynolds Dolarney's Prim. (1880) 77 Ye fates vnreele my lou's sad destinie. 1652 Berlowes Theoph. xix. lxxvi, Unwinde Times hall again, Unreel through ages is snarl'd skain. 1889 Engineer 15 Nov. 413 A measured mile course was laid off by unreeling from an anchored stake buoy one mile of fine wire.

2. intr. To become unwound.

1886 Tribune Bk. Sports 163 (Cent.), The line will unreel faster than it is needed. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 13 Jan. 2/1 They shall mark the Empire's line unreel From Cairo to the Cape.

Unre·lable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1621 Cotgr., Indévidable, vnwindable, vnreelable. 1863 All Year Round IX July 467/2 That the moth, in escaping from the cocoon...cuts it, and renders it unreelable. 1887 Encycl. Brit. XXII. 60/2 Unreelable cocoons, i.e., those which are pierced, torn, or cut.

Unree·ve, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To withdraw (a rope, etc.) from being reeved.

1600 in Hakluyt Voy. III. 847 Wee vnriued our sheates, tackes, hallers, and other ropes. c 1625 Nomencl. Nowalis (Harl. MS.) s.v. Reeve, When wee would haue that Roape pulled out of the Block, &c. wee say vnreeue that Roape, or the Brases, Lifts, Sheats, &c. are vnreeued. 1692 Capt. Smith's Seaman's Gram. 1. 82 To pull a Rope out of a Block is called unreeving the Rope. 1730 Capt. W. Wrigglesworth MS. Log-bk. of the 'Lyell' 1 Aug., All our unreev'd Rigging is a shore. [1775 Ash, Unreeving.] 1892 Kipling Life's Handicap 182 The reeving and unreeving of the bed-tapes.

Hence Unree·ved, ppl. a.[1], Unree·ving vbl. sb. 1730 Capt. W. Wrigglesworth MS. Log-bk. of the 'Lyell' 14 Aug., All our unreev'd Rigging is a shore. [1775 Ash, Unreeving.] 1892 Kipling Life's Handicap 182 The reeving and unreeving of the bed-tapes.

Unree·ved, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[1] 8.) 1793 Smeaton Edystone L. Expl. Plate 18 The greater sheaves, before left unreeved. †Unrefe·llable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1593 Bilson Govt. Christ's Ch. 268 Which to all ...is an argument vnrefellable. 1622 F. Markham Bk. War iii. ix. 116 Doubtlesse I could hold.. almost an unrefellable disputation therein. Unrefe·ring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1652 Fuller Ch. Hist. III. ix. § 5 He.. began the innocent Order of the Garter, unreferring to any of his former achievements. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Mem., etc. I. 207 There is about them..so unreferring a recoil into themselves, that [etc.]. Unrefi·ne, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1792 W. Roberts Letters No. 27 (1794) I. 392 How I wish you could a little unrefine yourself. 1869 H. Bushnell Wom. S. v. 101 Where away goes the refinement of the polls, when the polls have unrefined the refiner?

Unrefi·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not refined, in manners, feelings, or speech.

1595 W. Clerke Polimanteia, etc. R iij, With Chausers praise, with Lydgate, ..and such like, whose vnrefined tongues ..wrote simple and purelie as the times weare. 1704 Swift T. Tub, ix, The Vulgar dictates of unrefined Reason. 1756 Burke Vind. Nat. Soc. Wks. I. 62 In these early and unrefined ages. 1807 G. Chalmers Caledonia I. ii. vi. 309 In this unrefined state, the Scoto-Irish long continued. 1861 Whyte Melville Market Harb. 60 A confirmed bachelor, ..somewhat rough and unrefined and unpolished.

2. Not freed from gross or inferior matter.

c 1610 Rates of Marchandizes F 1 b, Camphire refined the pound. Camphire vnrefined. 1611 Cotgr., Borras Pierreux, vnrefined Borax, as it comes out of the rocke, or mine. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharm. i. v. 64 Like gold yet unrefined. 1703 Dampier Voy. III. 55 Which makes it whiter and finer than our Muscovada, as we call our unrefin'd Sugar. 1791 Newte Tour Eng. & Scot. 108 Rocksalt in the raw and unrefined state. 1868 G. Dipp Pol. Surv. 190 Brazil sends us..raw cotton and unrefined sugar. 1900 Jrnl. Soc. Dyers xvi. 10 Unrefined natural indigo.

Hence Unrefi·nedness.

1607 Walkington Opt. Glass 18 The vnrefinednesse of the spirits doe seeme to affect the soule.

Unrefi·nement. (Un-[1] 12.) 1886 Linskill Haven under Hill i, Nor did [her speech]..strike you with any jarring sense of unrefinement. Unrefi·ning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1759 Franklin Exc. Wks. I. 190 A plain, unrefining reader would think that..the issue could not but be happy.

Unrefle·cted, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8, 8 c.]

1. Not reflected on or upon; not thought over.

1670 Clarendon Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 372, I suffered those papers..to lie neglected and unreflected upon, during ..my too great prosperity. 1700-1 Lett. Affair's Jrnl. (1722) II. 71 That..their every Action..should pass unconsured and unreflected on. 1755 Chesterf. in World No. 172. 66 All these unreflected and unexamined opinions of our cobler.

2. Not returned by reflection.

[1775 Ash.] 1810 Scott Lady of L. v. x, The sun's last glance was glinted back,..The next, all unreflected, shone On bracken green. 1869 Tyndall in Fortn. Rev. 1 Feb. 245 In two directions we should have the solar light reflected; in two others unreflected.

Unrefle·cting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1665 J. Sergeant Sure Footing 49 Unreflecting and undoubting persons. 1704 J. Trapp Abra-Mulé ii. 1. 498 Ill Success Renders a Sultan odious in the Eyes Of th' unreflecting Vulgar. 1769 Junius Lett. iii. (1788) 44, I place them to the account of an honest, unreflecting indignation. 1848 R. I. Wilberforce Doctr. Incarnation v. 128 The unreflecting simplicity of that early faith. 1891 Meredith One of our Conq. xxviii, She did not reflect;..she was unreflecting, feeling only a beyond and hidden.

absol. 1748 Richardson Clarissa II. 281 The censures of the busy and the unreflecting.

Hence Unrefle·ctingly adv., -ness.

1816 Coleridge Lay Serm. (Bohn) 308 The habitual unreflectingness, which may be susceptible of more or less palliation. 1866 Geo. Eliot F. Holt v, Quite unreflectingly, he drew forth a pair of spectacles.

Unrefle·ctive, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

Also, in recent use, unreflectively.

1834 Faraday Exp. Res. (1839) 466 The observant, but unreflective infant. 1874 Sayce Princ. Compar. Philol. iii. 95 The unreflective fetichism of the savage.

Unrefo·rmable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being reformed or amended.

1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. cxvi. 721 They continued stubborne and vnreformable still. a 1600 Hooker Eccl. Pol. VII. v. § 8 The proud, tyrannical, and unreformable dealings of her bishops. 1624 Br. Hall True Peace Maker Wks. (1625) 542 The vnreformable drunkard. 1648 Owen Righteous Zeal Encouraged (1649) 14 To swim against the streame of an vnreformable multitude. 1791 Cowper Corresp. (1824) II. 274 Endeavouring to reform the unreformable great. 1848 Phillimore Introd. Stud. Rom. Law 32 If I may coin a word to express an evil it is so hard to describe, the unreformable Court of Chancery.

2. Incapable of being re-cast or altered.

1624 Bacon Lett. I. 4 You had that sane one onely immoueable and vnreformable rule of faith..recited in your hearing. 1649 Bounds Publ. Obed. 47 Unalterable and unreformable as a divine text. 1837 J. H. Newman Proph. Office Ch. 267 This rule..is sole, unalterable, unreformable.

Unreforma·tion. (Un-[1] 12.) a 1656 Br. Hall Wks. (1863) V. 632 Yea, have not too many amongst us added to their unreformation an impudence in sinning?

Unrefo·rmed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8, 5 b.]

1. Of faults, etc.: Not amended or made good.

1598 Cromwell in Merriman Life & Lett. (1902) I. 328, I trust that no defaulte..is lefte vnrefourmed. 1542 Hen. VIII Declar. A iv b, The kyng of Scottis dedes..could not.. be passed ouer vnreformed. 1693 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year I. xii. 87 Every vicious habit, or unreformed sin. 1679 Moxon Mech. Exerc. viii. 145 Upon penalty..for every default Ten Shillings, and Ten Shillings every week it continues unreformed. 1694 S. Bethal Providences of God 94 There being no such Traitors to the Strength of a Land.. as are unreformed Provocations.

2. Not reformed or made better; unimproved:

a. Of persons, the heart, etc.

1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. xxvii. 223 If wee..in the meane while leaue our heartes vnreformed. 1644 Hammond Of Conscience 4 Never to lye downe..vnreformed, vnreformed in any such sinne. 1672 Milton P. R. III. 439 Who freed,..Unhumbl'd, unrepentant, unreform'd, Headlong would follow. 1727 De Foe Mem. Ch. Scot. II. 27 The Church formally absolv'd him, and yet secretly believed him to be unreformed. 18.. Moore (title), Musings of an Unreformed Peer. 1872 Geo. Eliot Middlem. lxi, The unreformed provincial mind distrusted London.

b. Of practices, institutions, etc.

1612 Act 9 Jac. I, in Bolton Stat. Trel. (1621) 425 Your gracious disposition..towards the settling of this unreformed kingdom. 1792 Burke Let. to Dundas Wks. 1812 V. 199 It is better to allow the evil, in order to correct it, than..to leave it under an illegal, and therefore an unreformed existence. 1840 Arnold in Life (1844) II. 189 If a system goes on long unreformed, it is not then reformed, but destroyed. 1849 Mill Diss. & Disc. (1859) II. 352 The majority of even the unreformed House of Commons. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 1 Mar. 2/1 Then I would rather that the Church should remain unreformed.

3. Not affected by the Reformation.

1788 Burke Sp. agst. W. Hastings Wks. XIV. 20 [You] have seen in the unreformed countries of Europe churches filled with persons, who take sanctuary in them. 1892 Mayor Ep. James p. xviii, The churches of Western Christendom, reformed and unreformed.

Hence Unrefo·rmedness.

1607 Walkington Wks. I. 248 Denouncing the heauy vengeance of God vpon vnreformednesse. 1655 S. Ashe Funeral Serm. Gataker 13 During the time of his impenitency and unreformednesse. 1677 I. Mather Prevail. Prayer (1864) 244 That which aggrauates your Vnreformednesse, is, that in the Time of our Trouble [etc.]. 1888 Contemp. Rev. Sept. 345 One who, in that day of its unreformedness, did not regard the constitution of the Royal Academy as absolutely perfect.

Unrefra·cted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 5 b.)

a 1676 Hale Orig. Mankind (1677) 302 To distribute this Light..which unrefracted might have been too..violent to the other parts of Nature. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Refraction, The perpendicular Ray..will pass unrefracted to K. 1822 Coleridge Destiny of Nations 463 Whether thy Love with unrefracted ray Beam on the Prophet's purged eye. 1862 R. H. Patterson Ess. Hist. & Art 83 The purity and brilliance of unrefracted light.

Unrefra·cting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1827 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 408 An unpreoccupied, unrefracting medium. 1863 J. C. Morison St. Bernard iii. v. 369 Looking through the pure unrefracting ether as we do at the stars.

Unrefra·ngible, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1828 E. Irving Last Days 174 A wild, incontinent, unrefrained and unrefrainable disposition. Unrefrai·ned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) c 1550 Rolland Crt. Venus I. 825 With cruell mind thair vnrefreint In this degre [he] Ransack worlds inlurious. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia iii. (1598) 354 Delay, the racke of vnrefrain'd desire. 1648 Hexham II, s.v. Ontoomigh. 1828 (see prec.).

Unrefre·shed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1736 Arbuthnot Rules Diet 384 Unrefresh'd by Sleep. 1769 Falconer Dict. Marine (1780) s.v. Water-spout, A tract of land, ..unrefreshed by the wind. 1791 Cowper Odyss. IV. 955 Unrefresh'd with either food or wine. 1797 Coleridge Remorse I. ii, I am old and heartless I..Hectic and unrefreshed with rest. 1881 Chr. Rossetti Later Life 4 So unrefreshed by foregone weariness.

Unrefre·shful, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose xvi, The vnaids .. were .. unrefreshful to my body. 1858 Farrar Eric 361 Even his sleep seemed unrefreshful when (due waking) brought no change in his condition.

Unrefre·shing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1814 Scott Wav. xxxvii, His slumbers were broken and unrefreshing. 1870 Miss Bridgman R. Lynne II. v. 115 He fell into a troubled and unrefreshing sleep.

Unrefre·shingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11 cf. prec.) 1889 Scribner's Mag. Aug. 164/2 It was unrefreshingly hot, and just about black water scarcely ebbing at all.

Unrefu·t, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) Undespoiled. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Kolb) I. 292 His dochteris vua..Ist iustrie to Cesar that he left, Into thair rycht for to kepe thame vnrefut. Unrefu·lgent, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1879 Stevenson Edinburgh 32 The unrefulgent sun going down. Unrefu·nding, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) [1797 Boyer Dict. Royal 11 s.v. refund, qui ne rend jamais.] 1744 Young Nt. Th. vii. 831 When horror universal shall descend..On that enormous, unrefunding tomb, How just this verse!

Unrefu·sable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1692 Sewel, Onontseggeyk, Vnrefusable, that which will take no denial. 1704 Norris Ideal World II. i. 37 Upon this fair and unrefusable supposition. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iii. xii, The most unrefusable demand I. 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys xxvi, Skylie..said this with her most unrefusable expression.

Hence Unrefu·sably adv.

1710 Norris Char. Prud. iii. 131 Happiness abstractly considered, which is necessarily and unrefusably lovely.

Unrefu·sed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1548 in Compl. Scott. (1872) 242 Because nothyng should be left..of your part vnrefused. 1648 Hexham II, s.v. Ongewoegerd.

Unrefu·sing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. x, Thinking..that beauty, carefully set forth, wold soone prove a signe of an unrefusing harborough. 1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 374 What power had those instruments sweete music, more sweete and vnrefusing conuersation ouer my heart? 1728 Thomson Spring 38 There, unrefusing to the harness'd yoke They lend their Shoulder.

Unrefutable, a. Now rare. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1594 Nashe Christ's T. (ed. 2) To Rdr., Henceforth..for an vnrefutable principle I will hold it. 1629 Massinger Picture iv. ii, As I must grant, it being irrefutable in reason. 1899 Herschel Pop. Lect. Sci. iii. § 54 (1866) 140 That positive and unrefutable demonstration.

Unrefu·ted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1589 Greene Menaphon (Arb.) 38 In nature this is an vnrefuted principle, that [etc.]. 1846 Lewes Hist. Philos. IV. 85 So long must Berkeley remain unrefuted by any theory of perception. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) III. 507 This argument of ours remains unrefuted.

Unregai·nable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1649 J. H. Motion to Parl. Adv. Learn. 22 The time is unregainable. 1866 Carlyle Reminis. (1881) I. 167 The wild struggles..towards the unattainable, the unregainable.

Unre·gal, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. vi. 35 King Henry..seeing no issue of his long disquietnesse, and vnregall vsages. 1846 Worcester (citing Lit. Rev.). 1880 F. G. Lee Ch. under Q. Eliz. II. 240 With unregal meanness, she sent Lord Hundson..to 'draw him out' as regards religion. 1894 Persian Pict. 114 We stopped before an unregal gateway.

Unregard, sb. (Un-[1] 12.) a 1596 Br. Hall Rem. Wks. (1660) 256 When he saw a woman bowing her self forward too low in her devotion, [the cynic] could chide her for her unregard to those deities, which beheld her on all sides. 1876 Gt. Words 687 Worth yet shall..Outlive the death of unregard.

† Unrega·rd, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To disregard.

1545 Raynald Byrth Mankynde Prol. Civ, Sholde men.. denye or vnregard the blessyd sacrament? 1600 Rowlands Lett. Humours Blood 4 Carelesse of wronges, and vnregarding right. 1627 Br. Hall Passion Serm. 431 Not onely [hast thou]..smitten me, vnregarded me, but, as it were, forgotten—yea, forsaken—me.

† Unrega·rdable, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7 b.] Not deserving regard or consideration. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World viii. vi. 618 Neither is it vnregardable, that the Tyrants..were not all of them good men of waire. 1642 Br. Hall Def. Humble Remonstr. 118 A way then with those your unproving illustrations, and unregardable testimonies. Unrega·rdant, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1824 Southey Roderick x. 69 With fix'd eyes intent Yet unregardant of the countenance Wherein they dwelt.

Unrega·rded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. I. Pref., Beyng in dede but one man alone, and vnregarded, but out of whoes mouthe came truthe. 1614 Raleigh Hist. World III. (title-p.) When Israel was .. an vnregarded Nation. 1670 R. Coke Disc. Trade 62 A poor and unregarded Village. 1726 Pope Odyss. xvii. 62 Time steals away with unregarded wing. 1767 Wilkes Corr. (1805) III. 100 That so many other publications..full of the most deadly venom, should pass totally unregarded. 1813 Byron Corsair ii. v, Each bears a prize of unregarded charms. 1883 Ruskin Fors Clav. xc. 172 In the dormitory..on an unregarded shutter.. she cuts her notche.

b. Const. by or † of.

1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. xii. 78 We surmise him to be unregarded of God. 1612 W. Parkes Curtaine-Dr. (1876) 17 The lawes of nature,..vassayled, obliterate and vnregarded by him. 1728 R. Morris Ess. Anc. Archit. 13 Architecture is so vnregarded by our modern Builders. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude XIII. 278 Good..loveth us, When we are unregarded by the world. 1884 tr. Lotze's Metaph. 464 Many external stimuli, therefore, are unregarded by us.

Hence Unrega·rdedly adv.

1585 Boyle Salubr. Air 12 Bodies..wont to be unregardedly compris'd under the confus'd name of Earths.

Unrega·rdful, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1598 Florio, Inconsiderato, rash, vnregardfull, incon-siderate. 1822 J. Henry Camp. agst. Quebec 183 Unregardful of the dogs, we awaited the management of the flight. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. vii. 184 This is design unregardful of facts. 1879 Farrar St. Paul I. 338 The sea which four times wrecked him with its unregardful storms.

Unrega·rding, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

c 1585 T. Proctor Triumph of Truth (1866) 5 Who vnregarding of him self, forgets his Parents cares. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia iii. (1922) II. 52 The debate betwixt Basilius shinnes and the vnregarding fourmes. 1662 Jer. Taylor Doctor III. v. rule 8 § 29 Their not complying .. is only then a sin when it is done with unregarding circumstances. 1720 Pope Iliad, xxx. 202 The Hun.. viewing first his foes with scornful eyes,..Shook careless on, with unregarding pride. 1732 J. Whaley Poems 27 Unregarding of his useful Pains, The surly Carter wounds his [sc. a horse's] stretching Veins. 1851 Kingsley Yeast xvii, His employer ..walked before him silent and unregarding.

Unrege·neracy. (Un-[1] 12, 5 b; cf. next.)

1622 W. Whately Gods Hush. 118 A man in his vtter vnregeneracy is dead in sinne. 1688 J. Bunyan Jerus. Sinner Saved (1886) 49 Paul was the most outrageous of all the apostles, in the time of his unregeneracy. 1818 G. S.

Faber Horæ Mosaicæ II. 293 He derives no benefit from the external sign, remaining still...in a state of unregeneracy. 1870 Athenæum 19 Nov. 652 Ned went to Astley's in the blackest state of unregeneracy.

Unrege'nerate, a. and sb. (Un-1 7, 12, and 5 b.)

1612 T. Taylor Comm. Titus i. 22 What properties haue vnregenerate men, which are not more beseeming...heasts than men? 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 225 No man hath any sign given him ..by which to judge of the unregenerate Elect. a 1740 Waterland Inquiry Communion Wks. 1823 IX. 483 In or by their natural, unregenerate state. 1795 Coleridge Rollian Harp 55 These shapings of the unregenerate mind. 1829 Hallam Hist. Lit. III. ii. § 31 The human virtues..of unregenerate men. 1876 Canon Mozley Univ. Serm. xiii. (1877) 237 Instances of what unregenerate human nature can attain to.

absol. 1655 Jer. Taylor Unum Necess. vii. § 2. 460 As in the unregenerate there might be some good.

fig. 1876 Geo. Eliot Dan. Der. xxxvii, I was unregenerate then [in matters of art].

b. sb. An unregenerate person.

c 1629 Dr. Hall St. Paul's Combat Wks. 1634 II. 441 Those careless unregenerates. 1627 — Salomon's Song Paraphr. ii. 251 All the assemblies of aliens and unregenerates.

Unrege'nerate, v. (Un-2 3.) 1861 Lob. Lytton & Fane Tannhäuser 9 Suffered for a space..To range the wide world, and assay their powers To unregenerate redeem'd mankind.

Unrege'nerated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1579 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Love B iij b, They are vnilluminated, vnregenerate. 1792 V. Knox Serm. (1799) III. 49 Man in his corrupt and unregenerate state. 1826 Scott Woodst. xiv, I..have fought prizes when I was unregenerated.

Hence Unrege'neratedness, 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. Pref. 5 In a state of Unregeneratedness, and utterly devoid of the Life of God.

Unrege'nerating, ppl. a. (Un-1 7.) 1687 Reeve God's Plea 145 Were ever so many Pulpits despised? were there ever so many unregenerating sermons?

Unregenera'tion. (Un-1 12, 5 b.)

1654 Fowle Justification vi. ii. 176 All men, which are in state of infidelity and unregeneration. 1662 Hibbert Body Divinity i. 119 Conforming us to the nature of the devil; pleading mans unregeneration. a 1812 H. Martyn to Sergeant (1820) 224 The wickedness and unbelief of his heart. 1870 Miss Bridgman R. Lynne II. xiii. 270 Cheerfulness of disposition she considered a..sign of unregeneration.

Unregimented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1684 List Military Tiles, &c. A general and compleat List Military..(Excepting the Un-Regimented Companies). a 1725 Ld. Whitworth Acc. Russia (1758) 102 Unregimented Soldiers and free companies in the lesser garrisons of Ingria. 1890 Carlyle Letter. Pamphl. i. 45 These outcast soldiers of his, unregimented roving banditti.

Unre'gistered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not entered in a register; unrecorded.

1604 E. G[rimstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies iv. iv. 216 That which came for Merchants and private men being registred, and much that came vnregistred. 1606 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. iii. xiii. 119 Besides what hotter hours Vnregistred in vulgar Fame, you haue Luxuriously pickt out. 1679 C. Nesse Antichrist 235 By those few [witnesses] we may conjecture many more that are unregistred. 1716 Lond. Gaz. No. 5467/1 The unregistered [part of the effects] is valued at half as much more. 1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. IV. 440 Its animal productions shall no longer remain unregistered and undescribed. 1872 Letters Jesuit 9 Sept. 576/1 Unregistered letters and book packets.

2. Not made to register or correspond.

1816 Singer Hist. Cards 133 It is printed upon vellum... and the right margin is quite as irregular or unregistered as in the Dutch Specimen.

Unregre'tful, a. (Un-1 7.) 1873 T. W. Higginson Oldport Days vii. 196 [She] grew up into a well-behaved mediocrity, unregretful of the show-tent. Unregre'tfully, adv. (Un-1 12.) 1862 [Shirley] (J. Skelton) Hugo Crit. xi. 453, I remember, not unregretfully, the simple rustic procession. Unregre'ttfulness. (Un-1 12) 1876 L. Tollemache in Fortn. Rev. Jan. 117 To this unregretfulness..they owed much of [their] lighthearted joyousness. Unregre'ttable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1768 Women of Honor II. 120 A very unregrettable sacrifice of..an object of vanity.

Unregre'tted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1676 Row Contin. Blair's Autobiog. xii. (1848) 453 He died unregretted by good men. 1781 Cowper Retirem. 167 A few..unregretted, are soon snatch'd away From scenes of sorrow. 1782 V. Knox Ess. clxviii, Those [works] of the frothy declaimer are daily dropping unregretted into the gulph of oblivion. 1843 Ruskin Mod. Paint. I. ii. iii. i. § 3 All has passed unregretted or unseen. 1851 Meredith One of our Cong. xxv, Since she had taken a step..unregretted, if fatal.

Unregre'tting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1800 P. L. Courier Pleas. Solitude iii. 39 Wet..unregretting, other joys resign.

Unre'gular, a. Chiefly dial. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

1609 Douland Ornitheparcus Microl. 29 It hath his Finall regular place in Dodre, or his vnregular in alaunire. 1828– in dialect glossaries, etc. 1884 Mark Twain' Huck. Finn xxviii, It's so kind of strange and unregular, I never see nothing like it.

Unre'gulated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 5 b.)

1721 Amherst Terræ Filii No. 1 (1726) 5 The universities, ..in their present unregulated state. 1791 Boswell, Johnson an. 1744 P. 3 His unregulated but a warm and vigorous, though unregulated mind. 1808 Scott in Lockhart I. i. 35 These studies were totally unregulated. 1872 B. Taylor Faust (1875) I. Notes 284 An indolent unregulated habit of life.

Unre'lentable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1513 Douglas Æneis XI. vii. 79 Of wa hail the remanis Bene punyst sore with unrelentabill pain.

Unre'lented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1412 Gow. Lett. Ad. 378 All thees moo, whose names be vndreweton besyde many moo vnrehersyd. 1562 T. Wilson Rhet. (ed. 2) 76 b, The holie mother Church willeth me to leaue nothing vnrehearsed. 1613 Sherley Trav. Persia 92 A discourse proued true, by many examples which he would leaue vnrehearsed. 1629 Sir W. Mure True Crucifixe 670 Exposd to paine, to horrors vnrehearsed. a 1800 Cowper Odyss. (ed. 2) xiv. 236, I could exhaust..the circling year Complete, my woes retracing, and at last Leave unrehearsed large portion of the toil. 1827 Pollok Course T. x. 32 New scenes of bliss..unrehearsed by mortal tongue.

2. Not previously practised.

1845 E. Holmes Mozart 289 The unrehearsed overture was then commenced. 1875 C. L. Kenney Alem. Baiff 44 An alarm of fire brought some unrehearsed effect in the incantation scene.

†Unrei'gn, v. Obs.[-1] [Un-1 14.] intr. To fail to reign. a 1434 Misyn Mending Life 122 As qwo say: syn in vs may vnrene [L. non regnare], bot it may not vnke.

Unrei'n, v. (Un-2 4 b.)

1603 Daniel Panegy. Congrat. lix, An Imperiall lust, that being vnrein'd, Will hardly be resisted any where. 1694 Addison Eng. Poets Wks. 1721 I. 41 How negligently graceful he unreins His verse, and writes in loose familiar strains! 1702 De Foe Reform. Manners i. 15 Tell us why he..Unreins no Vengeance, lets no Thunders fly, When Villains prosper. a 1707 Tickell Colin & Lucy 273 Codrington and Steele, their verse unrein, And form an easy, unaffected strain. 1891 Bentley's Misc. Aug. 147 If a soldier's life..can atone for the sad consequences of unreining an ungovernable temper.

Unreinted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1609 Daniel Civ. Wars vi. vi, Whil'st this wilde vnrained multitude..Ransacke the Cittie. 1628 Feltham Resolves ii. viii. 28 When the Minde is madded with vn-reined passions. 1667 Milton P. L. vii. 17 Least from this flying Steed unrein'd,..Dismounted, on th'Aërian Field I fall. 1751 J. Brown Shaftesb. Charac. 312 The delirious flights of an unreined imagination. 1825 Longf. Burial of Minnisink vii, Leading the war-horse of their chief..Unchurbed, unreined, and riddlestrawless. 1878 Blackie Æschylus I. 10 We cannot but condemn the spirit of unreined independence. 1851 C. L. Smith tr. Tasso vi. xvii, Unreined by aught of fear, thy message here expound.

Unrejected, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1757 Dyer Fleece ii. 81 There the tender eye May view..the lame, employ'd, And unrejected age. 1778 Chatham in Ann. Reg., Chron. App. 247/2 His conversations..are..to my feeling too offensive to be unrejected. 1879 Cornhill Mag. xl. 170 Unrejected, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1814 Byron Lara i, Vain, Not unrejoiced to see him once again, Warm was his welcome. 1816 Wordsw. Morning Gen. Thanksgiving i, Thou, impartial Sun,..Not unrejoiced I see thee climb the sky.

Unrejoi'cing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1726 Thomson Winter (ed. 2) 267 In Russia's..Moors, Where Winter keeps his unrejoicing Court. 1745 Warton Pleas. Mel. 230 Amid Siberia's unrejoicing wilds. a 1824 Horsley Hos. iii. iii. in New Brit. Theatre IV. 161 Within the castle walls, Let not one un-rejoicing soul be found. 1876 Ruskin Fors Clav. lxxii. 388 The unrejoicing manner of travel adopted by the..modern tourist.

†Unre'ke, v. Obs. [Un-2 3 + Rekke v.[3]] trans. To uncover, display.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2817 Louerd, ic am wanmoi, vn-reken Of wurdes. a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. xxxvi. 100 Al unreken is my ro, Loverd Crist, wher shal y say? 13.. Cursor M. 12847 (Göt.) Paim bleu maani vnrekind [Coitt. brem, Edinb. bremli] blast, Pair maist raf.

Hence †Unre'kenly adv. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 15786 Wit maces and wit neues smert vn-rekenil on him [pai] ran.

Unrela'ping, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1740 Cheyne Regimen 27 To..establish in perpetual and unrelapsing Order and Purity, free and lapsed intelligent Beings. Unrela'table, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 276 The vnrelatable acquaintance of his youth.

Unrela'ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 5 b.)

1. Not connected by blood; not akin.

a 1661 Fuller Worthies, London II. (1662) 207 But let others unrelated unto him write his Character. a 1677 Barrow Serm. (1686) III. 36 Tis not the example..of a stranger, of one indifferent, or unrelated to us. 1705 De Foe Tore Dis. x. 219 Of foreign Breed, of unrelated Race,..A spurious Birth of intermingl'd Blood. a 1752 Warburton Serm. Wks. 1788 V. 79 They..despised the rest of the sons of Adam, who ..were deemed to be naturally unrelated to them. 1879 Maine Hist. Inst. iii. 65 The tribesmen of an alien and unrelated tribe. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. II. 218 Seven emperors..for the most part entirely unrelated to one another.

2. Not standing in relationship or connexion.

1668 H. More Div. Dial. i. xxxv. 136 If they were so unrelated indeed in the..apprehension of them,..then I confess the Inference might be sound. 1701 Norris Ideal World i. ii. 92 For things to be only conditionally related.. is really to be unrelated to, and separated from one another. 1785 Burke Corr. (1844) III. 42 Detached and unrelated offences. 1817 R. Jameson Cuvier's Ess. Theory Earth (ed. 3) p. vii, Petrifactions are no longer viewed..as things isolated and unrelated to the rocks. 1860 Tyndall Glac. i. 6 A theory..which..apparently referred a great number of unrelated phenomena to a common cause.

3. Not recounted or told.

1764 Museum Rust. IV. 32 Some peculiar circumstance in the soil,..or some unrelated circumstance in the culture. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla x. xiii, A reciprocal confidence that left nothing untold, not an action unrelated.

Hence Unrela'tedness.

1854 Sylvester Coll. Math. Papers (1908) II. 32 The number of singularities (including absolute unrelatedness and entire coincidence within the purview of the term).

Unrela'ting, ppl. a. (Un-2 10.) 1697 Norris Treat. Sev. Subj. (1698) 245, I would fain know, whether any of these Misconducts of Life be..more unrelating to our grand Concern [etc.]. Unrela'tional, a. (Un-1 7.) 1865 H. Bushnell Vicar. Sacr. iii. v, A state unrelational with God. 1869 H. Spencer Princ. Psychol. (1872) I. 181 The extremely unrelational states of different orders.

Unre'lative, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

a 1751 Bolingbroke Study Hist. ii. (1752) I. 14 The events ..appear to us very often..single, and unrelative, if I may use such an expression for want of a better in English. 1757 Chesterf. Lett. (1774) II. 372 A propos, (an expression which is commonly used to introduce whatever is unrelative to it). 1796 Burney Hist. Mus. I. 62 If the mutations were too sudden and unrelative. 1819 Busby Hist. Music II. 122 The sudden and unrelative modulation from F to E♭.

Unre'latively, adv. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) a 1751 Bolingbroke Study Hist. ii. (1752) I. 46 They saw the events they took singly, and unrelatively, or relatively alone to some immediate object. Unrela'xable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1860 Ruskin Mod. Paint. V. 36 These pre-Raphaelite laws..are unrelaxed yet, and unrelaxable for ever.

Unrela'xed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1508 Reg. Privy Seal Scot. I. 258/1 Throw the said Androis being..our soueraine lordis rebell and at his horne unrelaxit thairfra. 1569 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 687 [He was] put to the horne,..quhairat he hes remainit lyke na he dois yit continuwalie scayne unrelaxit. 1589 Ibid. IV. 358. 1737 Glover Leonidas VIII. 612 The hosts Maintain in strong and unrelax'd array The conflict undecided. 1766 in Hansard Parl. Debates (1813) XVI. 286 To maintain, unrelaxed and unremitted, the fundamentals of the constitution. 1810 Southey Kehama II. xiii, At the length he raised His brow yet unrelax'd. 1825 Scott Betrothed iv, One wide-spread scene of..unrelaxed pursuit. 1862 Lytton Str. Story II. 172 Unrelaxed, unmitigable indignation.

Unrela'xing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1781 J. Moore View Soc. It. xlvi. II. 4 A man of unrelaxing wisdom. 1796 Burke Letter to Noble Lord Wks. VIII. 40 To support with unrelaxing vigilance every right,..every franchise, in this my adopted country. 1820 Southey Thalaba x. 233 His unrelaxing brow. 1822 Keble Serm. i. (1848) 5 The most blameless and unrelaxing diligence. 1890 R. Bolderwood' Col. Reformer (1891) 75 The unrelaxing grip of the law.

Hence Unrela'xingly adv.

[1847 Webster.] 1858 Westm. Rev. Oct. 310 He is unrelaxingly wedded to the conception of the Empireas it was.

Unrelea'sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

c 1400 Rom. Rose 2799 In sorwe and thought..Ayee vnreleased wo to make, Whether they depe or wake. 1619 in Foster Eng. Factories India (1906) I. 80 The fruicts..you may..perceave by your goods detencion these six months in customehouse, and yett unreleased. 1679 Oldham Sat. Jesuits iii. (1681) 55 Souls in Purgatory unreleas.

Unrelentable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) Incapable of relenting or giving way. 1611 Cotgr., Inflexible,..vnrelentable, hardhearted. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. I. 113 The Popish Clergy..render their respective Countries..Reformation-proof and Unrelentable to any redress. Unrelentance. (Un-1 12.) 1637 Jackson Serm. Lk. xiii. 5, 61 This unrelentance presupposeth some other fouler sin then rebellion. Unre'lented, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Unrelaxed. 1676 Life Father l'aul Sarpi in Brent's Counc. Trent 9 This unrelented way of reading and writing..is a kind of intemperance. 1846 Worcester (citing Scott). 1876 Whitby Gloss. 206 Unrees,..unthawed and unrelented.

Unrele'nting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10, 5 b.)

1. Not softening or yielding; esp. not giving way to feelings of kindness or compassion.

(a) 1588 Shaks. Tit. A. ii. iii. 141 Be your hart to them, As vnrelenting flint to drops of raine. 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. v. (1626) 93 The blade from vnrelenting stone rebounds. 1749 Smollett Regicide iv. 1, Him hath he unrelenting dagger torn From my parental arms. 1870 Bayard Iliad v. 1. 148 The unrelenting edge Cleft at its root the tongue.

(b) 1590 Marlowe and Pt. Tamburl. v. iii, If the vnrelenting ears Of death and hell be shut against my praiers. 1593 Shaks. 3 Hen. VI, ii. 1. 58 The irefull Arme Of vn-relenting Clifford. 1634 Cowley Elegy R. Clerke 27 Who hath such hard, such unrelenting Eyes, As would not weep when so much Vertue dyes? 1727 Pope Iliad xv. 178 These woods,..The youth address'd to unrelenting ears. 1774 Monthly Misc. June 309 Thy (sc. Death's) unrelenting hand..snatch'd Chaucer from our arms. 1813 Byron Br. Abydos II. xxvii, Woe to thee, rash and unrelenting chief! 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. India I. 257 To save him from falling alive into the power of his unrelenting foes. 1853 Miss Yonge Heir of Redclyffe xxxii, I don't think you can be very unrelenting when you see how sheered he is.

(c) 1608 Yorksh. Trag. x. 7 In the bandes of vnrelenting lawes. 1649 Stanley Poems, Despair, I will no more Vainly implore The unrelenting Destinies. 1697 Dryden Æneis vi. 763 These are the relentless ministers of Fate. 1809–11 Combe Syntax xv. 26 The car Of furious, unrelenting War Leaves the dire track of streaming gore. 1813 Lamb Recoll. Christ's Hosp. Wks. 1908 I. 186 The heavy unrelenting arm of this temporal power.

b. Not slackening or relaxing in respect of severity, harshness, or determination.

(a) 1609 Daniel Civ. Wars iv. lxxxiii, [His] vnrelenting paines do neuer cease. 1656 Cowley Pindar. Odes i. vi, Unrelenting torments prove The heavy Necessary effects of Voluntary Faults. 1743 Francis tr. Hor. Epode xvii. 44 You glow with unrelenting Fire, Till by the rapid Heat calcin'd, Vagrant I drive before the Wind. 1798 Burns 'Now Spring has clad' 15 Love, wi' unrelenting beam, Has scorch'd my fountains dry. 1816 Shelley Let. in Sothern's Cabal. No. 12 (1899) 51 Precipitous mountains, the abodes of unrelenting frost. 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. India III. 377 The unrelenting pressure of the revenue system.

(b) 1614 Jackson Creed iii. xiii. § 12 Vnrelenting persecutors in traiterous plots. 1689 Cotton Poems Sev. Occas. 648 Bow-men of unrelenting Minds, Whose Shafts are Feathered with the Winds. 1715 Atterb. Serm. (1734) I. 119 An Act..of deliberate and unrelenting Malice. 1788 Gibbon Decl. & F. xlii. IV. 245 The slaughter still raged with unrelenting fury. 1821 Lamb Eliia 1. Old Benchers In. T., The long-resolved..puttings off of unrelenting bachelorhood.

1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xiii. III. 316 With unwearied, unscrupulous and unrelenting ambition.

2. Not slackening or slowing down.

1817 SCOTT Harold v. x, With unrelenting pace, From grave to cradle [he] ran the evil race.

Hence Unrelentingly adv., Unrelentingness.

1637 JACKSON Serm. Lk. xiii. 5, 61 It is one thing to be rebellious, another to be †unrelentingly rebellious. 1777 POTTER Æschylus, Furies 409 Cloath'd in terrors we appear, Unrelentingly severe. 1812 L. HUNT in Examiner 4 May 275/1 [He] is ..unrelentingly orthodox. 1869 TOZER Highl. Turkey II. 49 The Albanian soldiery..unrelentingly pursued their object. 1727 BAILEY (vol. II), Impenitentiness, ..unrelentingness. 1834 DE QUINCEY Autob. Sk. Wks. 1853 I. 359 Such in its unrelentingness was the persecution. 1861 GEO. ELIOT Silas M. viii, He had constantly suffered annoyance from witnessing his father's sudden fits of unrelentingness.

†Unrele·ntless, a. Obs. [UN-1 5 a.] Relentless. 1606 MARSTON Parasit. iv. C 4, Thinke how unrelentes you were to her but supposed fault. Unrele·ntor. [UN-1 12.] One who is relentless. 1818 KEATS Endym. iv. 600 He'll be shent, Pale unrelentor, When he shall hear the wedding lutes a playing.

†Unrele·vant, a. Obs.[1] [UN-1 7, 5 b.] Irrelevant. 1650 in DAVIDSON Inverurie & Earld. Garioch (1878) 313 The excuses always be[ing] found unrelevant.

Unreliability. [UN-1 12.]

1860 WORCESTER (citing N. B. Rev.). 1867 H. BUSHNELL Moral Uses Dark Th. (1869) 393 There must be surprises, incalculable sometimes, infinite unreliabilities, ..else [etc.]. 1883 Harper's Mag. Mar. 496/1 The unreliability of epitaphs ..is proverbial.

Unreli·able, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

In common use from c 1800.

1840 DE QUINCEY in Blackw. Mag. XLVIII. 516 Alcibiades ..was too unsteady, and (according to Mr. Coleridge's coinage) 'unreliable'. 1869 MAURY Phys. Geog. xiv. 232 Wind and weather in this part..are very unreliable and changeable. 1874 W. R. GREG Roche Abbey 63 This calculation is..not only unreliable, but purely deceptive.

Hence Unreli·ableness.

1862 F. HALL Hindu Philos. Syst. 86 They are involved in the suspicion of unreliableness. 1872 SPURGEON Treas. Dav. Ps. lxxii. 4 The unreliableness of mere feelings shown.

Unrelie·vable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.)

a 1585 SIDNEY Arcadia i. x, My ruin being but by one unrelieveable. 1648 BOYLE Seraph. Love v. (1659) 39 No degree of Distress is unrelievable by his power. 1676 TEMPLE Let. Wks. 1720 II. 420 Finding the Swedes weak, divided, and unrelievable by France. 1820 BENTHAM Mem. Wks. 1843 X. 517 Communicate not to a friend..vexations of yours unrelievable by him. 1898 Daily News 29 July 2/6 No operative procedure should be suggested..until the case had been..found to be unrelievable by other means.

Hence Unrelie·vableness.

1654 'PALÆMON' Friendship 12 The unrelievablenesse of our bad condition.

Unrelie·ved, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not freed from some obligation.

1533 BELLENDEN Livy v. xii. (S.T.S.) I 189 The senate..wald nocht suffir him to be..vnrelevit of he vote be him made to apollo.

2. Not provided with relief; not aided or assisted.

1599 [see UNRANSOMED]. 1609 DRAYTON Leg. T. Cromwell 23 It better should him please, Starve out of sight to perish here vnknowne, Then vnrelieu'd bee pitied of his owne. 1656 COWLEY Davideis iv. 446 If unrelieved seven days by Israels aid, This bargain for ore-rated Life is made. 1694 F. BRAGGE Dist. Paradise vii. 269 The thefts..of such, whose unrelieved poverty forced to be industrious. 1795 J. ROBERTS Spinster 335 To leave the afflictions..of their..fellow-creatures neglected and unrelieved. 1757 W. WILKIE Epigoniad II. 49 Has..unrelieved the stranger left my door? 1897 RUSKIN Pol. Econ. Art 95 I have none of their distresses should be unrelieved. 1885 C. E. PASCOE Lond. of To-day xxxii. 283 Many sufferers..are altogether unrelieved for want of funds.

3. Not freed from depressing or monotonous character; not diversified or varied (by something).

1762 GIBBON Misc. Wks. (1814) IV. 397 Torments the more horrible in his..solitary state, unrelieved by the hope of glory. 1828 Q. Rev. XXXVIII. 219 An unrelieved series of miseries and crimes. 1857 ROBERTSON Serm. Ser. III. viii. 112 Sacrifice alone, bare and unrelieved, is..dead. 1888 FLOYER Unexpl. Bidechistan 248 An oval lake of rough boulders, quite flat, and unrelieved by tree or shrub.

Hence Unrelie·vedly adv.

1876 MEREDITH Beauch. Career xv, The poor are everlastingly, unrelievedly, in the abysses of the great sea. 1899 MACKAIL Life Morris II. 4 Modern glass, some of it unpainted, the rest..unrelievedly hideous.

Unreligioned, ppl. a. (UN-2 8.) 1674 PENN Chr.-Quaker I. xxv. 126 Thus is this Man Unwaved, Unreligion'd, Unbottom'd as to his former State. 1796 J. ROBERTS Spinster (UN-1 12, 5 b.) Irreligiosity. 1382 WYCLIF 1 Esdras i. 42 Of his vnclennesse and vnreligioste [1388 vnreligiouste; Vulg. irreligiositas], it is written in the boc.

Unreligious, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.]

1. Irreligious.

1382 WYCLIF 1 Esdras i. 24 Who so euere weren vnreligious agen the Lord. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione i. xxiv. 34 Pan shal ..euery vnreligious man sorowe. c 1500 Melusine xiii. 314 The monkes.., whiche were of euyl, inordinate, & vnreligious lyuyng. 1548 HALL, etc. Erasm. Par. John xi. 74 Nothyng is more vnreligyouse than Jewish religion, whiche consisteth in visible things. 1577 FULKE Answ. True Christian 12 These vnreligious and vngodly opinions of God. 1606 DEKKER Double P.P. Wks. (Grosart) II. 169 Hee dare presse To th' Eaves of Bishops Pallaces: Where, harsh and vn-religious notes Hee singes against their Reuerend Coates. 1814 WORDSW. Excurs. IV. 607 If unreligious, lethim be at once, Among ten thousand innocents, enrolled A pupil.

2. Non-religious; not connected with religion.

1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. XIV. v. VI. 508 The popular poetry ..became profane, unreligious, at length in some parts irreligious. 1897 R. H. HUTTON Ess. I. 88 The difficulties involved in the conception of Creation being, however, totally unreligious. 1898 Educat Rev. XV. 392 In the general movement.., education has become quite unreligious.

Hence Unreli·giously adv., Unreli·giousness.

c 1535 in BILLS Orig. Let. Ser. II. 563 Whom, after myn opynyon, war better to be at large and dymyssed from ther bondage then so vnrelygiously to remayne ayenst ther conscyens. 1579 FULKE Heshius' Part. 30 Although there be great rashnesse in some, and vnreligiousnesse in more. 1847 EMERSON Poems, Blight 38 We invade them impiously for gain; We devastate them unreligiously.

Unrelinquishably, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1643 MILTON Divorce 28 To clogge a rational creature to his endles sorrow unrelinquishably.

Unrelinquished, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1781 COWPER Conversat. 673 While at heart sin unrelinquish'd lies. 1866 FOSTER Ess. (1844) I. 16 Their ..unrepented and unrelinquished sins. 1881 MRS. OLIPHANT H. Joscelyn II. 304 That familiar unrelinquished name.

Unre·lishable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1606 G. W[OODCOCKE] Hist. Iustine Pref., A tun of Wine, which..is made vnrelishable by being mingled with some other compound. 1727 BAILEY (vol. II), Disgustful, unrelishable.

Unre·lished, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1593 DRAYTON Ecl. ii. 10 My Rymes seeme harsh to thy vnrelish'd taste. 1863 MRS. WHITNEY Faith Gartney's Girlh. vii, Sleepless nights,..and forgotten, or unrelished meals.

Unre·lishing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1611 FLORIO, Insulso, vnsauoriie.. vnrelishing, tastelesse. 1633 T. ADAMS Exp. 2 Peter i. 2 Idle, profane, and unrelishing compliments. 1676 GLANVIL Seasonable Reflect. 14 All things [in the other world]..are uneasie and unrelishing at the best. †Unre·lishness. Obs.[1] [UN-1 12.] Lack of relish. 1615 A. NICCHOLES Harv. & Witting vii. (1620) 19 The vnrealishnesse of that which is lawful, desire of that which is restrained.

Unrelu·ctant, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.)

1737 GLOVER Leonidas i. 233 Death, receive My unreluctant hand, and lead me on. 1774 Trinket 188 The consent is..granted with an unreluctant frankness. 1820 SHELLEY Ode Liberty xi, The eager hours and unreluctant years. 1854 MILMAN Lat. Chr. III. iii. I. 316 An orthodox Empire would not repose in unreluctant submission under an Arian.

Unrelu·ctantly, adv. (UN-1 11.)

1655 EARL ORRERY Parthen. II. iii. 272 The Armenians have unreluctantly submitted to our Government. 1768-74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 289 It will sometimes carry them through self-denials unreluctantly upon proper occasions. 1799 HAN. MORE Rem. Educ. (ed. 4) I. p. xiv, Unreluctantly yielding themselves to be carried down the tide of popular practices. 1849 C. BRONTE Shirley xxix, She resigns herself to me unreluctantly. 1874 H. ROGERS Orig. bibli. ii. 60 They unreluctantly received such as spontaneously sought their communion.

Unremaining, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam i. 1, Like a brief dream of unremaining glory. 1818 — Rosal. & Helen 997 My dream of unremaining gladness.

Unrema·rkable, a. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Unworthy of remark or note.

1611 COTGR., Vnremarquable, vnremarkable,..no way to be noted. 1632 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. XI. Notes 397 Nor is this vnremarkable,..that the Kings-fisher being dead and hung vp by the Neb, turnes alwaies her belly to the wind. 1643 SIR T. BROWNE Relig. Med. 55 It is not unremarkable what Philo first observed, That [etc.].

†b. Incapable of being observed. Obs.[-1]

1644 DIGBY Nat. Bodies v. § 2. 34 Our vnderstanding to make a compleate notion, must adde something else to this fleeting and vnremarkable superfices that may bring it vnto our acquaintance.

2. Not notable or striking.

1850 KINGSLEY A. Locke xxvii, As we may see by the histories of every remarkable, and many an unremarkable, man. 1853 [J.] CAYLEY Lex Aforsjea I. 155 We..saw Arafat, an unremarkable white town, on a slight eminence. 1879 St. George's Hosp. Rep. IX. 520 An unremarkable sprinkling of other workers.

Unrema·rked, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 8 c.)

[1775 ASH.] 1793 Mineral II. 129 The extreme attention of Edwin to her daughter, was not unremarked by Jaqueline. 1830 HERSCHEL Study Nat. Phil. 348 It cannot be supposed, that all the indications of nature continually passed unremarked. 1871 FRASER Life of Berkeley x. 382 Some hitherto unremarked features of the Berkeleian philosophy. (b) 1856 CRAIK English of Shaks. Pref., Not leaving any passage unremarked upon which seemed..obscure.

†Unreme·diable, a. Obs. Also 5 Sc. vnremediable, 6 onremediabil. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.] Irremediable.

1382 WYCLIF Tobit x. 4 Thanne wepte his modir with vnremediable teris. c 1480 HENRYSON Want of Wyse Men 63 (Bann. MS.), Sic sturtfull stering in to godis neis it stinkis; Bot he haif rew, all is vnremedable. 1549 Compl. Scot. I Ther cruel inuasions aperis to be onremediabil. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. x. (1912) 213 An unremediable mischiefe already committed. 1645 BR. HALL Remedy Discontents 125 The miseries of an unremediable disappointment. 1695 S. LOBB Let. Dr. Bates 21 An antecedent desert of hell, and a sinfulness so deserving (tho' not by an unremediable guilt).

Unre·medied, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

Also in 16th c. unreme·died, Sc. unreme·dit.

1563 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 250 Salang as this inobedience is unremedit. 1595 SPENSER Colin Clout 9 The authors.. And workers of my vnremedied woe. 1644 MILTON Divorce (ed. 2) A 3 b, The unremedied lonelinesse of this remedy. 1768 BLACKSTONE Comm. III. 385 Should [these defects]..continue unremedied and unsupplied. 1791 COWPER Odyss. II. 272 Wars will continue and disorder foul Unremedied. 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel 523 note, God is often said to 'awake' for His people, when He notices that which He had before left unremedied.

Unremember, v. [UN-1 14.] trans. To fail (or omit) to remember. 1484 in Lett. Rich. III & Hen. VII (Rolls) I. 78 Whiche [fidelity] we shalle not unremembre. 1616 W. HAIG in J. Russell Haigs vii. (1881) 159 Unremembering so kendispeckle a thing wherein they were put.

Unremerciable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1803 Ann. Rev. I. 68 The topography of a country wherein every place has an unremerciable name. 1858 CARLYLE Frederk. Gt. II. iii. I. 89 The smallest flint-spark, in a world all black and unremerciable, will be welcome. 1889 SAINTSBURY Hist. Elizab. Lit. viii. 292 Vast heaps of things altogether unremerciable.

Unreme·mbered, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not borne in mind; allowed to drop out of mind; forgot.

With early examples cf. UNREMEMBER v.

c 1400 Pseud. St. Bartholomew xiii. 77 Innumerable were schewid tokynnys of myracles, but..they be almoyste vnremembred. 1422 YONG tr. Secreta Secret. 203 For als mochle as good newe ensamples sholde not ben vnremembrid for leynge of tho that ame to come. 1484 HUTTON Let. in Campbell Chancellors (1856) II. 172 Towards yourself leave not the causes of my presumptions unremembered. 1607 HIERON Wks. I. 260 This feare causeth them..to be willing to let any of it [sc. comfort of God's promises] fall to the ground vnremembred. 1641 MILTON Reform. II. 69 Nor must their sincere..proceeding hitherto, be unremembered. 1734 A. HILL On Death Dennis 9 The furious petulence, the jealous stare,..Veil'd in thy grave shall unremember'd the. 1798 WORDSW. Tintern Abbey 31 Feelings too Of unremembered pleasure. 1826 SOUTHEY Lay of Laureate lxxvi, Where in elder time Earth's unremember'd conquerors held the sway. 1843 G. J. GENESTON Nat. Hist. E. Borders I. 29 A skirmish of unremembered date.

†b. (Left) unrecorded or unmentioned. Obs.

c 1477 CAXTON Jason 52 Hit is not to be vnremembrid that thenuie of..Peleus grewe so terribly that he..coude haue no rese. c 1513 FABYAN Chron. I. 1, Whiche if any suche wonder had ben there wroughte, should nat haue ben vnremembred [by] the wryters. 1570 FOXE A. & M. (ed. 2) 79/2 Which doubtles shoulde not haue been vnremembred, if he had done then in Rome. 1603 G. OWEN Pembrokeshire (1892) 219 For the better memorye of these..members, not to suffer them vnremembered in this my Discripcion of their Country. c 1650 P. SMITH Life Willet in Fuller Abel Redi. (1651) 565, I thought good..to adde some remarkable things then vnremembred or undiscovered.

†2. Of persons: Unmindful, forgetful. Obs.

1467 Paston Lett. II. 306 He thynkyth indoubted that William Worcetre shuld not be unremembred of this. a 1528 BR. FOX in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. II. II. 6, I am not unremembred of my duetye towardes the Kyng. 1536 E. LEE Ibid. Ser. III. II. 326, I trust your Highnes is not unremembred, that [etc.].

Unreme·mbering, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1540 Sc. Acts Parlt., Jas. V (1814) II. 363/2 That he will mocht be vnremembrand and vnglate for..seruice done to him. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis VI. 1020 That, unremembring of its former Pain, The Soul may suffer mortal Flesh again. 1882 J. HAWTHORNE Fort. Fool I. xvii, It would become human like ourselves, and lose its thoughtless and unremembering happiness.

Unreme·mbrance. (UN-1 12.) c 1449 PECOCK Repr. IV. ix. 474 The vnknowing and the vnremembraunce of these thre..notabilitees. 1785 WATTS Logic I. iv. § 2 There are some Words which are negative in their original Language, but seem positive to an Englishman,..as Amnesty, an Unremembrance or general Pardon. Unreminded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1881 M. C. HAY Missing II. 274, I never could allow him to be unreminded that [etc.]. †Unremi·ssible, a. Obs. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1593 NASHE Christ's T. 30 There is the Tabernacle of the Lord,..there if we shold drawe our blacke, it were abhomination vnremissible. 1603 FLORIO Montaigne III. v. 511 It is a capitall crime, and vnremissible offence.

Unremitted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not pardoned or cancelled.

1646 HAMMOND Tracts 27 Sin unretracted..doth certainly stand upon the sinnes score unremitted.

2. Not allowed to slacken or fall off; maintained at the same pitch or force; continuous.

Very common from c 1760.

1722-7 BOYER Dict. Royal II, Unremitted, (incessant), continual. 1744 ARENSIDE Pleas. Imag. I. 430 Against the ..stubborn hill To urge bold Virtue's unremitted nerve. 1782 C. JOHNSTON Hist. J. Juniper I. 13 Her endeavours ..had been unremitted. 1820 SCOTT Monast. xi, Assiduity and unremitted attention. 1842 H. ROGERS Introd. Burke's Works. I. 56 The fatigues of such years of unremitted toil.

3. Of persons: Unremitting.

1796 MORSE Amer. Geog. I. 329 Several men of abilities.. were unremitted in their endeavours. 1833 SIR W. HAMILTON Discuss. (1853) 588 The pastor..ought to be..unremitted in his superintendence of the masters.

Hence Unremi·ttedly adv.

1786 tr. Beckford's Vathek 22 His wives..unremittedly supplied him with water. 1792 in J. Morse Amer. Geog. (1796) I. 570 Through which aperture the water unremittedly drops. 1889 Engineer 10 May 408 An advantage which Swansea has been striving for unremittedly, and will gain this autumn.

Unremittent, a. (UN-1 7.) 1871 PALGRAVE Lyr. Poems 28 The lark sentering in the crystalline morn His unremittent gush of silver rain. 1895 Athenæum 16 Feb. 224/2 An atmosphere of unremittent work. Unremittently, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1895 Athenæum 26 Oct. 576/3 Mr. Manns has laboured..unremittently in the interests of native art.

Unremitting, ppl. a. [UN-1 10.] Never relaxing or slackening; continuing with the same force: incessant: a. Of activity, etc.

1728 THOMSON Spring 700 Inspiring God! who boundless Spirit all, And unremitting Energy,..agitates the Whole. 1768 BOSWELL Corsica II. (ed. 2) 79 With unremitting constancy [he] endeavoured to restore the liberties of his country. 1819 RUSBY Hist. Music II. 256 We find in the music a continued and unremitting echo to the sense of the language. 1833 T. HOOK Parson's Daw. I. i, [They] lived in the most unremitting hostility towards each other. 1871 MACDUFF Mem. Patmos v. 56 Engaged in unremitting toil.

b. Of persons. Also quasi-adv.

1736 THOMSON Liberty IV. 711 Fleet on fleet Of barbarous pirates unremitting Tore The miserable coast. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla IV. 238 [She] was..unremitting in boasting how well she had..kept them in order. 1827 J. Scott Paris Revisit. (ed. 4) 359 He..was unremitting in his exertions. 1876 Bancroft Hist. U.S. I. xiii. 420 He was unremitting in argument and entreaty to prevent the taking of their lives.

Hence Unremittingness.

1812 Shelley Proposals Pr. Wks. 1888 I. 283 Considering the unremittingness of its pressure. 1865 M. Arnold Ess. in Crit. vi. (1875) 243 The very intensity and unremittingness of his appeal.

Unremittingly, adv. [Un- 1 11.] Without remission; incessantly, continually.

1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV. 184 I watched her unremittingly. 1824 Dibdin Libr. Comp. 608 Having secretly and unremittingly formed his style. 1878 A. H. Markham Gk. Prosem Sca i. 6 Officers and men were unremittingly engaged in the various duties.

Unremonstrant, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1865 Meredith R. Fleming xxxix, As mute and unremonstrant as a fallen tree.

Unremonstrated, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8a.) 1828 Bentham Ch. Eng. Catech. Exam. 151 Such connivance should be left unremonstrated against. 1860 Dickens Lett.(1880) III. 193 You are..far too able a man to be left unremonstrated with by an admiring reader.

Unremorseful, a. (Un- 1 7.)

c 1611 Chapman Iliad IX. 597 O unremorseful man!..thee a..cruel spirit the Gods for plague have given. 1616 R. Niccols Sir T. Overbury's Vis. B 1 b, Vnremorseful fate Did worke the falls of those two Princes dead. Ibid. C 2, Monsters..vnremorseful of my forepast woes. 1868 Lynch Rivulet lxxxviii. v, By unremorseful joys, O, woo Our hearts to holy efforts still. 1876 Stedman Victorian Poets 316 Sebald and Cintima have murdered the latter's aged husband, and are unremorseful in their guilty love.

Unremorsefully, adv. (Un- 1 11.) 1846 Hawthorne Old Manse ii. 31 Thus making his own actual serpent..the type of each man's..unrelenting, unremorseful, and striking his sting so unremorsefully into the sorest spot. † Unremorseless, a. Obs.[1] (Un- 1 5a.) Remorseless. 1634 Cowley Elegy R. Clerke 10 His mellifluous breath Could not at all charme unremorseless Death. Unremote, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1837 Whittock Bk. Trades (1842) 239 (Fruiterer) The 'unremote' period when many of our most familiar garden products were introduced.

Unremovable, a. [Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.]

† 1. Incapable of being moved; immovable; steady, firm, constant. Obs.

a 1500 in Ratis Raving, etc. 21 The erde remanis euermare vnremouable. 1579 Fulke Heskins' Parl. 476 It still remaineth vnremouable, that a signe and the thing signified, be distinct things. c 1595 Capt. Wyatt Dudley's Voy. (Hakl. Soc.) 2 Layeinge the Spanyeldes in his march with such unremovable resolucions in his proceedings. c 1642 Bedell Erasmus in Fuller Abel Rediv. (1867) I. 91 He was of an unremovable constancy. 1670 Walton Lives, Wotton 7 contracted with him an unremovable affection.

2. = Irremovable a. I. Now rare.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. v, He manifested himself an unremoveable suiter to her daughter. 1614 Br. Hall Contempl., O.T. viii. v, Their neernesse of abode was an unremoveable barre of peace. a 1686 Cowley Pref. Poems (1688) 25 Unnecessary terms, that are unlawful to them by unremovable doubts of conscience. a 1740 Waterland Sec. Def. Wks. 1823 III. 90 This..left the charge fixed and unremovable upon the Pagans. 1752 Carte Hist. Eng. III. 27 The lord Arcekine, his constant and unremoveable guardian. 1802 Sk. Paris II. xlvii. 123 The pretended unremoveable rights.

Hence Unremovableness.

1611 Cotgr., Constance,..vnremouableness. 1634 Br. Hall Contempl., Resurrection 3 They brag of the sureness of the place, and unremoveablenesse of that load.

Unremovably, adv. (Un- 1 11, 5 b: cf. prec.] Irremovably.

1604 Sir T. Coningsby in 14th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. II. 4 Vous unremovablelly yll you remoulle him not. 1617 Hieron Wks. 1620 II. 256 That one may then be settled in a right way..., as that we may..goe on sincerely, and vnremouably to the end. 1646 Hammond Tracts 102 So heavy an arreare of sinne lying unremovably upon every ones score.

Unremved, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8, 5 b.]

1. Not removed or done away with.

1455 Rolls of Parlt. V. 290/2 Which doubte..unremoved, is not unlike to set..division. 1674 R. Godfrey Inj. & Ab. Physic 4 So long as the spurious Ferment in both Stomach and Blood is unremoved. 1680 C. Nesse Church Hist. 363 This rubb and remora is still unremoved. 1821 Crabbe Tales III. 290 Gwyn something felt..was wrong; He wish'd to know, for he believed the thing, If unremoved, would other evil bring. 1860 Westcott Introd. Study Gosp. iii. 153 Their external distinctions for literature was unremoved..by their special work. 1901 N. Amer. Rev. Feb. 256 The unremoved deteriorating influences.

b. Not removed or shifted in place.

a 1450 in MS. Rawl. D. 912 fol. 86, Let it by iij dayes onremeyd. c 1490 Paston Lett. III. 398 Ye must send me wryghtyng..hough longe..[the plaster] shold abyd on hys kne unremeyvd. 1563 Hyll Art Garden. (1574) 127 If they [sc. rape] growe to thicke, then remoue..them,..whereby the other vnremoued may growe the bigger in the roote. 1623 W. Browne Brit. Past. I. iv. 529 As yonder mill..Yet by the head-strong torrent from his beame Is unremov'd. 1632 Lithgow Trav. I. 32 [They] placed it in a high broad way, where it standeth vnremoued to this day. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 472 Being sown very thin, where they stand unremoved in the Ground for two Years. 1784 Phil. Trans. LXXIV. 428 They continued unremoved in their several places. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. vii. vi, A hundred and eighty bodies of Swiss lie piled there, naked, unremoved till the second day. 1889 21st Rep. Dep. Keeper Irel. 16 Other testamentary Records, unremoved to this Department.

c. Fixed in place; firmly stationed.

1551 Recorde Pathway (1602) 70 b viij, Then sette I one foote of the compass vnremoued in B. 1591 Harington Orl. Fur. iv. lxix, So great a sound, As seemed..to remove the unremoved ground. 1667 Milton P. L. iv. 987 Satan..diuted stood, Like Tenerift or Atlas unremov'd. 1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. iv. 380 Making shiver Thought's stagnant chaos, unremoved for ever. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets x. 325 The mountain stands for ever unremoved.

† 2. Firm, steadfast, constant. Obs.

1589 Rare Trt. Love & Fort. ii. M 4, The unremoved love I bere my lady. 1600 G. Woodcock Hist. Iustine xv. 64 With an vnremouued courage, neither arrogant in happinesse, nor alred in distresse. 1627 Drayton Elegies, To Lady L. S. 52 Your stable heart..With vnremoued constancie is still The same it was. 1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. ii. viii. 216 An unremoved resolve of sharing in his despair.

Unremunerated, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 Ash.] (Freq. in recent use.)

Unremunerating, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.) 1855 [J. R. Leifchild] Cornwall 247 If a mine..just meets its working expenses at a low and unremunerating standard.

Unremunerative, a. (Un- 1 7.)

Hence, in recent use, unremuneratively, -ness.

1884 Poultry Chron. I. 265/2 Evidence that the raising of poultry was by no means the unremunerative folly idlers supposed it to be. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey II. 120 A girl is considered an expense and unremunerative.

† Unremyndable, a. Obs. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1661 J. Boys Æneas vi. 17 How gladly would they..see blest light again? Fates thwart: an unremayndable sound..doth them surround.

† Unrende(d, obs. varr. Unrent ppl. a.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. iv. 9 The trunkes sadde, in humor that abounde, Vnolde, vnrende. 1648 J. Gregory Notes & Obs. 117 The suspension of these waters..I no more marvaile at then that the thicke Clouds..should hang in the Aire unrended under them.

Unrendable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.) 1860 Ruskin Mod. Paint. V. vi. x. § 8 The best beauty of flowers being wholly inimitable, and their sweetest service unrenderable by art. 1889 Athenæum 10 Aug. 187/3 A rendering of Sappho's unrendered ode to Aphrodite.

Unrendered, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1851 Mayhew Lond. Labour I. 199 Cakes, made of flour and 'unrendered' (unmelted) lard. 1865 Grosart Palmer's Mem. Introd. 15 The suggestive and invaluable treatise of M. Reimnus still lies unrendered.

Unrenewable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.) 1548 Gest. Pr. Masse B ij, Christes body (whose creatyon is vnrenuable).

Unrenewed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1579 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Love B iij b, They are vnrenewed, vngodded, vnsaint. 1658 R. Baxter Apol. Quakers (1703) 93 Acting in their own natural and unrenewed Wills. 1683 J. Corbet Free Actions ii. xvi. 24 Whatsoever an unrenewed person doth, hath necessarily..a disconformity to Gods Law. 1764 J. Witherspoon Practt. Treat. Regeneration ii. § 2 All unrenewed persons..place their supreme happiness in something that is not God. 1828-32 Webster s.v., The lease is unrenewed. 1865 Gladstone Farewell Address Ionic Tribe. 61 The spirit of the unrenewed world. a 1866 D. Duncan Disc. (1867) vii. 144 Prayer is not an exercise congenial to the unrenewed soul.

Unrenounceable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1851 [see next]. Unrenounced, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1772 Ash.] 1851 Mrs. Browning Casa Guidi Wind. ii. 117 The people rose up in the dust..and shouted..'Live the People,' who remained and must, The unrenounced and unrenounceable. Unrenounced, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. IV. v. xiv. § 25 Age after age may only prolong the unrenovated ruin.

Unrenowned, ppl. a. Also 6 -nowmed. (Un- 1 8. Cf. Irrenowmed.)

1579 Lenten Manip. 50 Vnrenowned, incelebrin. 1594 Marlowe & Nashe Dido iv. iii, The dreames..that did beset my bed,..Commaunds me leaue these vnrenowmed reames. 1827 Pollok Course T. ix. 470 Nor renowned among the most renowned..stood the bard. a 1831 Moir Sonn. v, Nor unremembered, nor with an empler tide, Thou windest through the glens of Woodhouselee.

Unre·nt, a. (Un- 1 7.)

1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. vi. 40 Were not, that the Prince did him appease, He had not left one limbe of him vnrent. 1797 Pope, Trans. Art of Sinking 200 Distended with the waters in 'em pent, The clouds hang deep in air, but hang unrent. 1796 Burke Let. Noble Lord Wks. VIII. 21 These obscene harpies..are nothing more than unrent, untiled. 1816 Byron Siege of Cor. xxvii, The hills that shake, although unrent. 1868 Carlyle Fredk. Gt. v. v. I. 377 Daily had some loop fallen,..but daily was he there to pick it up again, and keep the web unrent. 1879 R. T. Smith Basil Gt. ix. 113 The garment without seam..preserved unrent even by the soldiers.

Unre·ntable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1826 Galt Last of Lairds v. 40 An untenanted and unrentable portion of the Laird's domain.

Unrepaid, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. i. viii. 416 To leave so liberall a gualt vnrepay'd. 1697 Cersch in Dryden's Juvenal xiii. xvii. 334 Thy Loss continues, unrepaid by Pain. 1738 Wesley Hymn, To Thee, O Father of Mankind iii, Nor shall thisbe unrepaid. 1750 Johnson Rambler No. 54 P 10 We recollect..a thousand favours unrepaid. 1846 Scott Woodst. xxviii, That my affection was not unrepaid. 1890 R. Boldrewood Col. Reformer (1891) 316 The very substantial aid in cash..still unrepaid.

Unrepair [Un- 1 12, 5 b.] Lack of repair; disrepair, irrepair.

1873 in Daily News 5 Mar. 2/4 He might send them to sea in a condition of unrepair, both as to equipment and hull. 1886 American XIII. 57 Everywhere the combined efforts of ill-construction and unrepair are visible.

Unrepairable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.)

1611 Cotgr., Irreuparable, vnrecouurable, vnrepairable. 1637 Morvson Itin. II. 192 The losse of them would be for many yeeres vnrepairable. 1680 Rushw. Hist. Coll. II. 301 These great Abuses are..increased to the publick Nuisance, and likely to..become unrepairable.

Unrepaired, ppl. a.[1] [Un- 1 8.] Not repaired.

1523 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. cccccxxix. (1812) 762 When the frenche kynge went out of that countrey it was vnrepayred..for all was brent and beaten downe. c 1556 W. Cloptoh in Halliwell Shakes. (1889) II. 171 Bentlye hath lefte the said manour place in great ruyne, and unrepayryd. 1617 Carpion 3rd Bk. Apres ix. 11 Great sorrows vnrepayred Admit no meane in mourning. a 1637 B. Jonson Underwoods, Execration Vulcan 196 Paul's steeple..., though a divine Loos, remains yet as unrepair'd as mine. 1693 Tate Dryden's Juvenal xv. 5 Where, Thebes, thy Hundred Gates lie unrepair'd. 1721 [see Unredressed]. 1805 Southey Madoc i. xii. 32 As the floods of spring had broken down Their barrier, so its breaches unrepair'd Were left. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. v. v, Robbers scour the Highways, which wear down unrepaired.

Unrepaired, ppl. a.[2] [Un- 1 8 c.] Not reserted to. 1615 T. Adams Lycanthropy 33 The Temples unrepaired and unrepaired to—neyther adorned nor frequented. † Unre·parable, a. Obs. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.) 1612 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. § 55. 503/1 His French affaires had sustained vnreparable impeachments. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 90 We grant divorce..not for lesse then many tedious and unreparable yeares of desertion. Unrepa·rtable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1592 R. D. Hypneratomachia 8 b, Compassed with fowlded haires of vnrepartable curiousnes.

Unrepa·ssable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.)

1600 J. Fory tr. Leo's Africa Introd. 35 A report, that the streights of Magellan were unrepassable. 1611 Cotgr., Irrepassable, vnrepassable, ouer which no returne can be made. 1734 Watts Relig. Tow. 110 Narrow Limits indeed! and when once pass'd, they are unrepassable. 1794 H. Boyd Ind. Observer No. 49 P 3 The Gulph of Sorrow of the unrepassable river.

Unrepay·able, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1881 Shairp Aspects of Poetry 322 A debt still unrepaid, perhaps now unrepayable. Unrepay·ing, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1866 Chamb. Jrnl. Dec. 785 Another almost as unrepaying a branch of literary labour. 1868 R. L. Poole in Contemp. Rev. Jan. 112 As we study the dry and unrepaying pages of the Ritual.

Unrepe·lable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.)

1601 Dent Pathw. Heaven 376 His decree is vnrepealable. 1656 Jeanes Faith. Christ 180 An irreversible, and unrepealable promise of an omnipotent God. a 1711 Ken Hymns Evang. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 151 Unrepealable and dreadful Doom. 1730 Waterland Suppl. to Nat. Chr. Sacr. iii. 21 That Love of God,..which is unrepealable, abiding for ever. 1784 Cowper Task v. 610 Unrepealable enduring death. 1803 Jane Porter Thaddeus xv, These words fell like an unrepealable sentence on the heart of Thaddeus. 1826 Lowndes Election in Nov. Prose Wks. 1890 V. 38 Truth is the unrepealable thing.

Hence Unrepealabi·lity, -ableness.

1652 W. Dugdale Mavan-ayha (1652) 24 The un-repealeness of this judgment, it can never be revers'd. 1820-30 Coleridge in Life Rem. (1838) III. 25 The unrepealability of their decisions.

Unrepeled, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1479 in Eng. Gilds (1870) 417, I shall..meyntene all laudable ordinances..vnreuokid and vnrepelid. 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 1196 Sey'n dan old ordained laws, and yet withall leave behind unrepealed and uncondemned the doctrines and books of Parmenides. 1649 Milton Tenure Kings 13 Which Edict of his remines yet unrepeald in the Code of Justinian. 1726 Blackmore Creation 1. 268 Could they [sc. moist elements] dispense to lie below the land, With nature's law, and unrepeal'd command. 1771 Junius Lett. xlviii. (1788) 264 The resolutions..stand upon your Journals, uncontroverted and unrepealed. 1819 G. S Faber Dispensations (1823) I. 180 That the original sentence continued wholly unaltered and unrepealed. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xiii, An unrepealed decree of the senate.

Unrepea·table, a. [Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. Too coarse to be re-uttered.

1843 Mozley Ess. (1878) I. 84 The most disgusting and unrepeatable indecencies went on. 1889 W. H. Gregory Egypt II. 47 Droll but somewhat unrepeatable anecdotes. 1897 Punch 19 Mar. 136/2 An account of his most infamous exploits in unrepeatable language.

2. Incapable of being done or made again.

1880 Littledale Plain Reas. lxxv. 157 The..unrepeatable privilege and glory of being the first to unlock the doors of the kingdom. 1902 G. H. Howison Limits of Evol. 362 The absolutely singular and unrepeatable personality of each soul.

Unrepea·ted, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not re-uttered or recounted.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xxix, To leave that unrepeated, which I finde my daughters have told you. 1644 Milton Eikon. Pref. B ij, The further mention of his deeds..perhaps for the present age might have slept with him unrepeated. a 1839 Praed Poems (1864) I. 236 Believe not that those uttered words In the far winds have fleeted..Uncherished, unrepeated.

2. Not renewed.

1786 Francis the Philanthropist II. 3 'If you are serious in your bets..I'll hold ye both, gentlemen.'..The bets were unrepeated. 1821 Scott Kenilw. xix, Roderick ii. xix, First shriek! an unrepeated female shriek!

Unrepe·llable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1665 J. Gadbury London's Delin. Predicted i. 3 Which..,by an (almost) uncontrollable and unrepellable sliccity, dries up and destroys the Natural Powers.

Unrepe·lled, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1795 Coleridge Plot Discov. 27 Dreadful encroachments yet unrepelled. 1828 Shelley Rosal. & Helen 205 They saw With linked hands, for unrepelled Had Helen taken Rosalind's. 1850 Brownson Christmas Eve xxi, I caught At the flying Robe, and unrepelled Was lanped again in its folds.

Unrepe·nt, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1833 Carlyle Ct. Cagliostro Misc. Ess. 1872 V. 119 He..wanders necessitous hither and thither; repents, unrepents; knows not what to do. Unrepe·ntable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.) 1827 Pollok Course T. x. 421 Unrepented deeds, Now unrepentable for evermore.

Unrepe·ntance. (Un- 1 12, 5 b.)

c 1410 Wycliffite Bible I John v. 7 marg., Fynal unrepentaunce, bi which a man dieth in deedly synne. 1563 Form Common Prayer B iv, Thy paceyence beyuge..ouercome at the lastes, wyth oure obstynate vnrepentaunce. 1579 W. Fulke Heskins' Parl. 482 With vnreuerence and vnrepentance, they presume against..so high a mysterie. 1623 Br. Hall Contempl., O.T. xix. x, Hee might have averted it by his prayers: their unrepentance disabled him. 1661 COWLEY Cromwell Ess., etc. (1906) 372 Though the outward unrepentance of his death afford but small materials for the work of Charity. 1690 H. WHARTON Serm. (1700) 383 By continuing in a state of unrepentance. 1860 BP. S. WILBERFORCE Addr. Cand. Ordination 45 To all..who do not, by actual unrepentance and unbelief, bar His gracious working. 1882a BESANT All Sorts II. 275 My brother is hardened in his unrepentance.

Unrepe·ntant, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.)

c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 108 Purghe his wyckede and unrepentant herte. 1395 PURVEY Remonstr. (1851) 129 The cursé shulde remove hem fro Godds bord, if he purgyd hem unrepentaunt. c 1440 Jacob's Well 9 In þis cursyng, who-so deye unrepentaunt, schal haue a dredeful ende! 1548 CRANMER Catech. 222 b, Unrepentante synners and wilebelevers. 1588 Marprel. Epist. (Arb.) 45 The soule of the vnrepentant papist. 1632 High Commission Cases (Camden) 23 The body of the unrepentant sinner. 1672 MILTON P. R. III. 429 Should I of these the liberty regard, Who..unrepentant, unrestored, Headlong would follow. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby III. xiv, Among the feasters walked near Sorrow, and unrepentant Fear. 1856 FROUDE Hist. Eng. I. 338 The two offenders were hopelessly unrepentant. 1869 DIXLEY Univ. Serm. II. (1877) 34 False goodness is..an unrepentant type of evil.

absol. 1581 A. GOLDING Test. 12 Patriarchs 59 The Lorde, who either taketh away his benefites from the wicked,..or els reseruth them to their vnrepentance, to their endlesse punishment. 1617 J. BARBIER Fanua Lang. 4 The sinnes of the vnrepentant.

Hence Unrepe·ntantly adv., -ness.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 366/2 Un-repentawntly, inpenitenter. 1637 TRAPP Comm. Matth. xxvi. 75 Stephen Gardiner..both stinkingly and unrepentantly died. 1869 Lyndesay's Wks. 440 marg., Princes that, unrepentantly, live amiss. 1561 DAUS tr. Bullinger on Apoc. (1573) 126 b, The vnrepentantnesse and lasciuiousnes of them. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. lxix. 29 This is the last curse...that foloweth the unrepentantnesse, of which he spake.

Unrepe·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 5 c.)

[a 1500 in Reliq. Antiq. etc. 3 The synis that he has done, wecon/sesyt of or repentyd.] 1649 OGILBY tr. Virgil's Æneis VI. (1684) 155 Crimes of their last Hour unrepented were. 1659 GAUDEN Slight Healers (1660) 45 What peace can there be or true healing, while..the deepest wounds..are unpunished and unrepented? 1749 LAW Serious C. xxii. 460 The guilt of unrepented sins. 1795 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc IX. 38 Sent before the Eternal Judge, With all their unrepented crimes upon them. 1806 [see UNREFLINQUISHED]. 1829 G. S. FABER Diffic. Romanism (ed. 2) I. 168 An act of unrepented idolatry. 1838 R. MACMILLAN Bible Teach. xii. 243 Humbling discoveries..of secret, unsuspected, unrepented sins.

b. With of († on, † for).

1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. v. lxxii. § 13 Heapes of grieuous transgressions..vnrepented of. 1629 RUTHERFORD Let. to Lady Kenmure 15 Jan., Fear of God's anger for old, unrepented-of sins. 1645 E. CALAMY Indictm. Eng. 23 This sin alone unrepented on will shut a man out of heaven. 1646 FULLER Worthies of Comm. xvi. (1662) 122 Some unrepented-for sinne. a 1716 BLACKALL Wks. (1723) I. 77 His known, allow'd, unrepented-of Breach of that one Law. 1824 MISS L. M. HAWKINS Annaline III. 209 Where sin unrepented of cannot enter. 1889 M. HOUSTON Sylvanus Redivivus 164 The burden of unrepented-of sins.

Unrepe·nting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xiv, Wicked woman,..whose unrepenting harte can find no way to amend treason, but by treason. 1655 [see TAYLOR Holy Dying Works. v. § 2] Unrepenting or habitual sinners. 1678 CUDWORTH Intell. Syst. 156 It goes on in one Constant, Unrepenting Tenor, from Generation to Generation. 1700 DRYDEN Theod. & Hon. 168 In unrepenting Sin she dy'd. 1730 A. PETERS Rules Good Deportm. Ch. Officers 127 To their last Hour of unrepenting Death. 1790 GIBBON Misc. Wks. (1814) III. 396 The unrepenting tyrant had accomplished the measure of his sins. 1827 POLLOK Course IV. 496 The sword of Justice, red With..unrepenting wrath. 1839 HALLAM Hist. Lit. III. ii. § 25 A Jesuit wrote a book to prove that unrepenting Protestants could not be saved.

Hence Unrepe·ntingly adv., -ness.

1615 HIERON Wks. I. 606 Such is the stablenesse of His counsell,..the vnrepentingnesse of His conferring sauing grace. 1789 CHARLOTTE SMITH Ethelinde (1814) V. 333 Though he now unrepentingly was gone where all his crimes were registered.

Unrepi·ned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 8 c.) 1626 BP. HALL Contempl., O.T. XXI. iii, To continue those [taxes] he found unrepined at.

Unrepi·ning, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1637 BP. HALL Rem. Prophaneness II. § 21 (1662) 80 What unrepining subjection to the rod? 1654 Nicholas Papers (Camden) II. 128 That I may be able to keepe him in the present free-and unrepyning humor. 1739 GLOVER Hosier's Ghost 65 Unrepining at thy glory, Thy successful arms we hail. 1815 SCOTT Guy M. xxxix, She would sit up..to nurse me with the most unrepining patience. 1850 MRS. JAMESON Leg. Monast. Ord. 402 She endured all unrepining.

Hence Unrepi·ningly adv.

1626 WOTTON Let. in Rem. (1652) 507 His indisputable will must be done, and unrepingly received by his own Creatures. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa II. 237 [As] the will of Providence..leads, let me patiently and unrepiningly follow. 1876 BANCROFT Hist. U.S. I. ix. 277 He unrepiningly went to meet imposverishment..for the welfare of Massachusetts.

Unrepla·ceable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1801 SOUTHEY Lett. (1856) I. 153 Humphry Davy is an unreplaceable companion. 1866 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. IV. v. xx. § 41 The head of the Lake of Geneva being..unreplaceable if destroyed. 1894 Blackw. Mag. Oct. 463 He was, like Napoleon, unreplaceable.

Unrepla·ced, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1883 LD. LYTTON Life & Lett. Lytton II. 56 There is a charm in sympathetic female companionship unapproached, and unreplaced, by any friendship.

Unreple·nished, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1562a BACON in D'Ewes Jrnl. (1682) 60/1 Few came to Service, and the Church so [was] unreplenished. 1614 GORGES Lucan VII. 280 The townes are vnreplenished. The champian vnihabited. 1660a BOYLE New Exp. Phys. Mech. xviii. 126 Some Air..kept the Mercury out of the unreplenish'd space. 1817 SHELLEY Pr. Athan. I. 59 Though his life..Was failing like an unreplenished stream. 1854 J. S. C. ABBOTT Napoleon (1855) I. 478 Gradually the unreplenished piles burnt out.

† Unrepli·able, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.] Unanswerable.

1653 R. BAILLIE Discuss. Vind. (1655) 7 Arguments of no lesse than steel, and that unsleached and shining, evident and unrepliable. 1663 GRIFFITH Serm. Four Admirable Beasts 23 His wise, unpreventable and unrepliable answers. 1716 M. DAVIES Athen. Brit. II. To Rdr. 41 The Unreplyable A[rch]b[ishop] Tenison's Tract of Idolatry.

† Unrepli·ably, adv. Obs. (UN-1 11.) 1648 N. HOMES in J. Cotton Congregat. Ch. Cleared 2, You will meet with ..divers precious Saints..evidently and unreplyably vindicated. 1715 M. DAVIES Athen. Brit. I. Pref. 34 Topicks..answer'd unreplyably innumerable times. Unreplied, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 8 c.) 1845 SCOTT Talism. vii, The Scottish barons..were not used to bear his scorn unobserved or unreplied to. 1846 LEVER Martins of Cro' M. xviii, Three [letters] of hers had been left unreplied to! Unreply·ing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1791 COWPER Iliad V. 87 He spake; but Hector unreplying fled Impetuous. 1812 CARY Dante, Parad. I. 126 Oft-times, but ill accords the form To the design of art, through sluggishness Of unreplying matter. 1892 Pall Mall G. 26 Apr. 7/1 The voiceless lips of the unreplying dead.

Unrepo·rtable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. § 37 Which brought ..his Kingdome to vnreportable calamities. 1871 L. STEPHEN Playgr. Europe III. 124 A volley of unreportable language from the Chamouni guides. 1882 Harper's Mag. Jan. 208/1 Stirring stories some of them, but as unreportable as the..metaphors in which they were portrayed.

Unrepo·rted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1622 MALYNES Anc. Law-Merch. 284 This finesse of Silver hid and unreported in the bullion. 1846 MITFORD Hist. Greece III. 65 On some turnin the popularmind,..unreported by antient writers, they were imprisoned. 1850 THACKERAY Pendennis lxii, In consequence of that unreported conversation. 1884 Marshall's Tennis Cuts 21 Some unreported club or local handicap.

Unrepo·sed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1827 POLLOK Course T. VII. 581 Great Ocean I stronger of creation's sons, unreposed, untired. Unrepo·sefu1, a. (UN-1 7.) 1888 Harper's Bazar. July 118 The passions, and the foible of that unreposeful time. Unrepo·sing, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1817 SHELLEY Rev. Islam II. i, 'The murmur of the unreposing brooks. 1868 MILNER Mem. Macaulay 29 The ballad's..whole excellence is in..unreposing, unflagging, vigorous, stirring life. Unrepreha·nded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) a 1614 DONNE Biathanatos (1644) 195 Some of the Patriarches lived unreprehended in Polygamie. 1739 R. BULL tr. Dedekindus' Grobianus 40 Unreprehended there, supine, you lie. Unrepresentable, a. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1840 Penny Cycl. XVI. 20/2 Unrepresentable by any kind of musical instrument at present known. 1890 H. BUSSHOTT God in Christ 156 The Unapproachable, and, as far as all measures of.. conception are concerned, the Unrepresentable God. Unrepresentative, a. (UN-1 7.) 1832 A. W. FONBLANQUE Eng. under Reform (1837) II. 296 An unrepresentative House of Representation. 1884 Pall Mall G. 18 July 10/2 An irresponsible and unrepresentative House of Lords.

Unrepresented, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1. Not represented by a member of a legislative body.

1681 Jedburgh Town Council Records 29 Sept. (MS.), That the Burgs may not be unrepresented by Magistrates, Councillors and others. c 1778 Conquerors 13 No subjects can be tax'd unrepresented. 1787 HAWKINS Life Johnson 502 The far greater number of the subjects of England..are unrepresented in parliament. 1829 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. I. I. 135 Very few unrepresented towns had yet grown into importance. 1884 Manch. Exam. 10 Sept. 5/3 The country ..would [not] be indifferent to the claims of the unrepresented two millions.

2. Not represented by an instance, individual, etc.

1854 Poultry Chron. I. 350/2, 13 classes, were entirely unrepresented in the entries! 1885 Mag. of Art June 350 The exhibition at the Grosvenor Gallery, with Mr. Whistler at Suffolk Street, Mr. Burne Jones unrepresented,..is [etc.].

3. Not yet produced upon the stage.

1888 Daily Telegr. 13 Feb. (Encycl. Dict.), A single performance of hitherto unrepresented works.

† Unrepre·sisable, a. Obs. (UN-1 7 b.) Irrepressible. 1607 MARSHAM Cato. 1. 5 Diuers Dogs..bee so vnrepressable in the violence of their furies, that [etc.].

Unrepre·ssed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. XXXV. 221 His bearing with such blasphemie so as it hath full scope vnrepressed. 1603 EUGENIA DE ACTON Ess. I. 8 The fervour of a youthful mind,..if unrepressed by the precepts of..prudence. 1830 TENNYSON Arab. Nts. 74 Life, anguish, death, immortal love, Ceasing not, mingled, unrepressed. 1861 TRENCH Comm. Ep. Churches Asia 50 Every disorder..which has remained unrepressed.

Unrepre·ssible, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) Irrepressible. 1804 EUGENIA DE ACTON Tale without Title II. 158. 1846 WORCESTER (citing Dr. Barton).

Unrepri·vable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1593 NASHE Christ's T. 36 b, The best remedy of thyne vnreprieuable perusese destiny was death. 1595 SHAKS. John V. vii. 48 There the poyson Is, as a fiend, confin'd to tyrannize, On unreprieuable condemned blood. a 1625 FLETCHER Elder Brother II. 1 Thou unreprieveable Dunce! ..dost thou tell me I should?

Hence Unrepri·vably adv.

1594 NASHE Unfort. Trav. Ded., Vnreprieably perisheth that bookes whatsoever to wast paper, which [etc.]. 1596— Saffron Walden F ii, His bedred stuffe..else would haue laine vnreprieably spittled at the Chandlers.

Unrepri·ved, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1667 MILTON P. L. II. 185 There to converse with everlasting groans, Unrepsited, unpitied, unreprieved. 1735 SOMERVILLE Chace III. 213 But unrepriev'd he [sc. a captive fox] dies. 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. I. 423 The slow years Which thou must spend in torture, unreprieved.

Unrepri·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1872 W. MINTO Eng. Lit. I. i. 82 One of his unreprinted papers. 1885 Athenæum 5 Sept. 305/3 It was ..intended to confine it to unreprinted pieces.

† Unreproa·chable, a. Obs. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.) 1603 HOLLAND Plutarch's Mor. 244 The purenesse of our life and innocencie unreprochable. 1625 DONNE Serm. (1626) 40 These bills must be well testified, with vnreprochable witnesses. a 1721 KEN Hymn. Poet. Wks. 1721 II. 143 Whether God hears the Pray'rs of Saints or not,..God unreprochable remains. 1737 WHISTON Josephus, Hist. I. ix. § 4 An unreprochable witness. 1768 BLACKSTONE Comm. III. xxii. 347 Where the defendant bore a fair and unreprochable character.

Unreproa·ched, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1648 Eikon Bas. viii. 49 Sir John Hotham unreproached, untreated, uncursed by any language or secret imprecation of Mine. 1753 FOOTE English.m. in Paris II, Full fifteen years, in wedlock's sacred bands, have I liv'd unreproached. a 1821 BUCKMINSTER Serm. (1827) 262 He passed through the world unreproached. He now sees, that his innocence.. was unreproached, because unknown or despised.

Unreproa·chful, a. (UN-1 7.)

c 1530 GAY in Roxb. Wks., Adder (1577) I. 99 Friendly Congreve, unreproachful man! 1837 LYTTON Athens II. 574 An anxious, earnest unreproachful devotion of conjugal love. 1838 MRS. BROWNING Seraphim II. 362 With these forgiving hands upasing Their unreproachful wounds. 1869 LYTTON Orval 56 Nay, not till..all the love I render back With unreproachful tears.

Unreproa·chfully, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1671 CLARENDON Hist. Reb. x. § 171 He could never have been rid of him again so unreproachfully, as by his changing his own countenance.

Unreproa·ching, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1742 RICHARDSON Pamela XX. (1785) III. 103 Nay, [she would have] reproach'd you more, by her unreproaching obligingness. 1766 GOLDSM. Deserted V. xxii, That books were sweet unreproaching companions to the miserable. 1858 FARRAR Eric 25 An unreproaching conscience. 1876 GEO. ELIOT Dan. Der. lxiv, The unreproaching voice of birds.

Hence Unreproa·chingly adv.

1753 RICHARDSON Grandison (1781) V. xli. 257 How unreproachingly may we call each other by that sacred name!

Unreprodu·cible, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.)

1880 GOLDW. SMITH Cowper VI. 92 It belongs to an unreproducible past. 1893 Nation (N. Y.) 28 May 371/2 Desperate efforts to produce unreproducible effects. 1899 KIPLING Stalky 225 An unreproducible sniff..rounded the retort. [Freq. in recent use.]

Unrepro·vable, a. Now rare. [UN-1 7 b, 5 b.] Irreprovable, irreproachable. (Common c 1550–1680.)

1382 WYCLIF Tobit x. 13 Monestende hir..to gouerne the hous, to ziue hirself vnreprefable. c 1386 CHAUCER L. G. W. 691 Cleopatra, Vnreprouable on to myn wyfhod ay, The same wolde I fele, lyf or deth. a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VI, 227 In life and conuersacion vnreprouable. 1582 Marr. Haddon's Answ. (1587) 11 Whose workes and deedes we may accompt without exception unreprouable. 1612 G. SANDYS Trav. 135 She was..of life vnreproueable. 1638 PAGITT Christianographie II. 4 Historiographers, and other vnreprouable Authors. 1648 Eikon Bas. 306 Sore a 14 Ye guardian Angels,..lead her gently hence innocent and unreprovable to a better Place. 1791 COWPER Iliad IX. 650 Thy wrath was unreprovable and just. 1832 RUSKIN Stones Ven. I. xxvii. § 17 His work is absolutely unreprovable.

Hence Unrepro·vableness, -ably adv.

1634 SANDERSON Serm., Ad Mag. iii. (1632) II. 286 See to it..that you walk orderly and unreprovably your selves. 1680a W. CLAGETT Disc., Anatom. 24 The unreprovableness of the Spiritual man in assenting to the mysteries of the Gospel.

Unrepro·ved, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

a 1400–50 Alexander 3092 For-þi 3our werke ay be wit 3e wirke vnreproued [v.r. vnreprefyit]. c 1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's (1923) 13 He..yn his techynge vnreproued was fownde. c 1450–1500 LYDG. Troiet 152 That we bygan we knyghtly han achieuyd Vpon our foon, with worship vnreproud. 1578 WHETSTONE Promos & Cass. II. iii. 1, God graunt I scape this blacke day unreprov'd. 1590 SPENSER F. Q. II. vii. 16 The antique world..with plaid thankes, and vnreproued truth, The gifts of soueraigne bountie did embrace. 1615 G. SANDYS Trav. 14 Yet haue the Christians their Churches, and vnreproued exercise of religion. 1667 MILTON P. L. x. 1086 With vnreproued sight attraction unreprov'd. 1703 DE FOE More Reform. 8 Let them expose thy Errors to the Town, Thou shalt go unreprov'd, 'till they repent. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 28 Man..riots at large and unreproved. 1820 SCOTT Monast. iv, The servants mingled,..unreproved and with freedom, in whatever conversation was going forward. 1861 LD. ACTON in Gasquet Lect. A. & Circle (1906) 165 Newman's view of the Council of Trent should not go unreproved.

Unrepro·ving, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1748 THOMSON Cast. Indol. I. xxviii, Here dwells kind ease, and unreproving joy. a 1850 MRS. BROWNING Woman's Shortcomings II, She..Hears bold words, unreproving. Unrepublican, a. (UN-1 7.) 1878 N. Amer. Rev. CXXVI. 13 Erasmus's description of what he calls the unrepublican bird [sc. the eagle]. 1885 Atlantic Monthly April 450 The importation of uneducated, un-American, un-republican workmen.

† Unrepugnable, a. Obs. (UN-1 7 b, 5 b.) c 1440 Gesta Rom. xxvii. 102 (Harl. MS.), Thow most sey iij. trewe poyntes, þat shul be vnrepugnable. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. VIII. ii. § 21. 389/2 So mighty and almost vnrepugnable an enemie.

Unrepugnant, a. (UN-1 7.)

1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. III. ix. § 1 When [Scripture gives] Positiue [laws], which way to make Lawes vnrepugnant vnto them. 1644 CHAS. I Answ. to Bristol & Dorset 3 Seuerall and farre different conceptions I yet none vnrepugnant to reason. 1823 SCOTT Quentin D. xviii, The unrepugnant acquiescence of Hayraddin in their change of route.

Unrepu·lsable, a. (Un-† 7 b.). 1814 Jane Austen Mansf. Park xxxiv, Fanny...was trying...to repulse Mr. Crawford, and avoid both his looks and inquiries; and he, unrepulsable, was persisting in both. Unrepu·lsing, ppl. a. (Un-† 10). 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) IV. 254, I kissed her unrepulsing hand. Unrepu·lsive, a. (Un-† 7). 1838 Willis Pencillings I. iii. 26 We sat down once more to clean cloths and unrepulsive food.

Unrepu·table, a. (Un-† 7 b, 5 b.) 1698 Collier Immor. Stage vi. 240 The Athenians.. thought a Comedy so unreputable a Performance, that [etc.] 1703 J. Savage Lett. Atticus cxiii. 277 It is...unreputable to change our Friends often. 1724 Britan No. 26 (1742) 115 Let Fools..of unreputable Praise be proud.

Unrepu·ted, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) 1596 Edward III, ii. 1. 436 An unreputed mote, flying in the Sunne, Presents a greater substance than it is. Unrepu·ter, n. (Un-† 3.) 1552 Hooper Lett. Wks. (Parker Soc.) p. xx, When that I perceived my request for jurisdiction made before unto you, upon further deliberation I thought it good to unrequest that again.

Unreque·sted, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) 1576 R. Peterson G. della Casa's Galateo 60 To offer aduyse vnrequested. 1587 Golding De Mornay xxxiv. 634 How vnindifferent are these people, which will needes both beleeue and be beleeued of all men without witnesse and vnrequested [F. sans enquoiste]. 1609 W. M. Man in Moon G 4 b, How he would...proffer, vnrequested, many seruile ceremonies. 1641 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Warres v. 99 Though unrequested by the Entries beside, the soueraignties of France was demanded on Charles. 1709 Mrs. Centlivre Gamester iv, Valere has...exposed my unrequested bounty. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1771) V. vii. 136 Without this no Person would have..much Assistance in Distress from his Neighbour, than..unrequested Goodness [would] incline him to bestow.

Unrequired, ppl. a. [Un-† 8.] 1. Of persons: Not requested or asked; without being asked.

1412-20 Lydg. Chron. Troy i. 2405 But more frely, with herte full entuned, Liste vnrequired on my vo to reue. 1514 Barclay Cyt. & Uplondyshman (Percy Soc.) 13 And unrequyred presentynge them, sayde she, O Lorde, these also my veray chyldren be! 1562 T. Hoby tr. Castiglione's Courtyer ii. (1577) H iv b, They can not but..before a greate man enter into talk vnrequired. 1594 T. Beddingfield tr. Machiavelli's Florentine Hist. (1595) 172 Many times also vnrequired he did lend to those Gentlemen. 1634 Br. Hall Contempl. N. T.iv. xxxii. 1 Wherefore shall we willingly undergoe it, when it is laid upon him; not so free as that he shall lay it upon himselfe, unrequired. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) III. 13 How artfully does he (unrequired) put the questions the conditions?

2. Of things: Unasked for, unsought; not demanded or called for.

c 1510 Barclay Mirr. Gd. Manners (1570) G v, Desire thou none office nor cure...If it unrequired be geuen vnto thee,..do not the same despise. 1559 in Tytler Hist. Scot. (1864) III. 396 As I have found this your good mind unrequired,..I am bold to desire you..to continue in the same. 1687 Boyle Martyrd. Theodora x. 179 A young Lady, in whose Sex, Courage is..an unrequired, if not an altogether improper, Virtue. 1818 Scott Rob Roy xxxix, His unrequired presence prevented me from speaking freely to Syddall.

3. Not requisite; unnecessary.

1849 J. Brooke Y. Eyre xxxv, He would make me sensible that it was a superfluity, unrequired by him. 1849 Eastwick Dry Leaves 163 The caution was unrequired.

Unrequisite, a. (Un-† 7, 5 b.) 1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. iii. xi. § 16 Much may be requisite into the scripture transferred not, and much which it hath taught, become unrequisite. 1697 J. Norris (Heref.) Miscrocosmos Wks. (Grosart) I. 31/2 To foll Of fearefull thoughts, and cares vnrequisite. 1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) xvi 15 is not unrequisite that some Englishman accompany the goods. 1827 Keatinge Travels I. 278 Without allowing the meats to cool by unrequisite delay.

Unrequi·table, a. (Un-† 7 b, 5 b.) 1584 W. Warner Syrinx (1597) O1, Vnrequitable are the duts, wherein we are indebted to our Mothers. 1617 Donne Serm. Wks. 1839 VI. 3 These are persons which are unrequitable, though they be beliefed to loue. 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. v. xxi. 269 An unrequitable evil may ensue. 1683 Kennett Erasm. on Polly 17 An unrequitable obligation.

Unrequi·tal. (Un-† 12, 5 b.) 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys xxx, Old love sleeps, if it do not die. It has..its pains and its unrequital. 1867 Spectator 6 Apr., 386 Glorious in their unrequital.

Unrequi·ted, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) a 1542 Wyatt in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 33 Complaint for true loue vnrequited. 1622 J. Hagthorpe in Farr S. P. Jas. I (1848) 347 If from a friend some trifle we receiue,..We think ourselues ingratefull if we leaue These vnrequited. 1634 Br. Hall Contempl. N. T. iv. iii, Who can ever say, Lord, this favour I did to the least of thine, unrequited? 1741-2 Gray Agrippina 76 Benefits, too great To be repaid, still heavy on the soul, are unrequited wrongs. 1793 J. Tweddell Rem. (1815) 48 Productive..of unrequited bloodshed. 1824 Wordsw. Excurs. vi. 109 Being erased in brain By unrequited love. 1897 J. H. Newman Serm. Var. Occas. xii. 261 The times of patience,..of humble, unrequited service. 1893 [see Unrequiter].

Hence Unrequi·tedly adv., Unrequi·tedness.

1648 Boyle Seraph. Love xiv. (1659) 94 So far from enabling us by them, to Requite his Love,..it encreases the Unrequitedness of it. 1869 Miss Brougham Not wisely but too well I. 108 Falling in love violently, and as it now appeared unrequitedly, with a man her superior in station.

Unrequitement. (Un-† 12.) 1890 Talmage Manger to Throne 45 Less wrath at this unrequitement of the mercy.. shown him. Unrequiter. (Un-† 12.) 1893 A. Kinnear Molly a Man-of-War 94 The story of an unrequited love, and a sight of the photograph of the unrequiter. Unrescinded, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) 1776 in Records of Sheriffs (S.H.S.) 273 So long as this Act stands unrescinded. Unre·scued, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1846 Worcester (citing Ec. Rev.). † Unrese·mblable, a. (Un-† 7 b.) 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. iv. 285 Thereby debasing both themselves and God, not glorifying Him according to His spiritual and unresemblable nature. † Unrese·mbliant, a. [Un-† 7.] Dissimilar. 1653 F. G. tr. Scuderi's Artamenes (1655) IV. vii. 111. 191 One and the same Passion produced in them effects very unresemblant.

Unrese·mbling, ppl. a. (Un-† 10, 5 d.) 1598 Florio, Dissimile,..vnlike, vnresembling. 1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. i. viii. 383 He had once seene some features not vnresembling his. 1683 Dryden Ded. to Plutarch's Lives 26 Malice will make a picture more unresembling than ignorance. 1702 S. Parker tr. Cicero's De Finibus iv, 262 Some of your Unresembling Similitudes! 1799 Lamb Lett. to Southey 2 March, Following, at unresembling distance, Sterne, and greater Cervantes.

Hence Unrese·mblingly adv.

1662 Ormonde in Carte Life (1735) III. 23, I have the honour, how unworthily and how unresemblingly soever, to represent the Majesty of my Great Master. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reff. i. 162 Not unresemblingly deals God with us.

Unrese·rted, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) 1705 Vanbrugh Mistake iii. i, You must not think so daring an affront to my family can go long unresented. 1711 Addison Spect. No. 99 P 7 One may tell another he..Drinks, Blasphemes, and may pass unresented. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. 47 It is still a worse imputation, that she should pass over so mortal an injury unresented. 1811 Miss L. M. Hawkins C'tess & Gertr. 239 He had suffered to pass, unnoticed and unresented, her former ill-humour. 1886 A. Weir Hist. Basis Mod. Europe iii, 115 To suffer unresented the contemptuous demeanour of his unprofitable superiors.

Unrese·ntful, a. (Un-† 7.) 1773 Melmoth tr. Cicero (1777) I. 254 The same philosophers, who contended for this innoxious and unresentful character of the Deity. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude v. 414 A race of real children;..Not unresentful where self-justified. 1862 † Shirley (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. x. 441 He bore the pang..with proud confidence and unresentful regret.

Hence Unrese·ntfully adv., -fulness.

1862 Lowell Biglow P. Ser. ii. Poet. Wks. (1912) 320 Goodnature..becomes a positive crime when it leads us to look unresentfully on peculation. 1899 G. Tyrrell in Petre Life (1920) 376 Abounding in sympathy, unresentfulness,.. loyalty, fidelity.

Unrese·nting, ppl. a. (Un-† 10.) 1716 Collier tr. Gregory of Nazianzus 57 'Twas this [patience] which made..Stephen unresenting when ston'd to death. 1747 Sterne Tr. Shandy iv. 221 Not to have a brother of such gentle manners,—,so unresenting;—'tis base. 1810 Coleridge Friend 358 To remain in nominal Peace and unresenting Passiveness with an insolent neighbour. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. iii, Godfrey..left the room, followed humbly by the unresenting Snuff.

Unrese·rve. [Un-† 12.] Absence of reserve; frankness.

1751 J. Duncombe in Richardson's Corr. (1804) II. 273 He has rather more openness and unreserve than his brother. 1777 Wraxall Court of Berlin (1799) I. 99, I was as much penetrated with her condescension and unreserve, as I was charmed by her..love of knowledge. 1826 Disraeli Viv. Grey v. xi, " May I really speak with freedom ? ". " With the most perfect unreserve and confidence,' answered Vivian. 1862 Lytton Str. Story I. 80 You have done well to confide in me with so generous an unreserve.

Unrese·rved, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) 1. Unrestricted, unlimited, absolute.

1539 Hen. VIII in Wyatt's Wks. (1826) II. 468 He will send to my Lady Regent..full and unreserved power..to..conclude the same upon reasonable conditions. a 1729 Rogers 10 Serm. (1735) 311 An entire unreserved Obedience to his Commands. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 422 We may have an unreserved trust in His mercy. 1771 Tomline Lett. lix. (1788) 321 A determination so entire and unreserved. 1818 Scott Hrt. Midl. xiv, A friend,..whose attachment deserved her full and unreserved confidence. 1898 Froude Hist. Eng. III. 260 Her name is mentioned ..with unreserved respect.

2. Free from reserve; frank, open.

1713 Pope Lett. (1735) I. 199 That we have lived many Years together in an unreserved Conversation. 1751 Earl Orrery Remarks Swift ii. 15 Her manners were so easy, polite, easy, and unreserved. 1827 R. Peel Let. to Croker 3 Oct., In consequence of unreserved communications with you, you were in possession of my opinions. 1884 American VIII. 27 Mr. Bright was more unreserved in his language. absol. 1756 Cowper Wks. (1837) XV. 278 The character of the open and unreserved, who thinks it a breach of friendship to conceal any thing from his intimates.

Unrese·rvedly, adv. [Un-† 11.] 1. Without reservation or limitation; absolutely.

1652 Boyle Pyr. Reph. 224 The entrance into Covenant, and acceptation of the terms of it (though not sincerely and unreservedly). 1687 Boyle Martyrd. Theodora xi. 201, I should have been very much, if not unreservedly, guided by your wishes. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 399 We may trust unreservedly to the words..of the perfect wise man. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xxvi, My own person I have this morning placed unreservedly in your power. 1890 Hanover Reminis. ii. Everything was left unreservedly to her, except in case of a second marriage.

2. Without reserve; openly, frankly.

1718 Addison Let. to Swift 20 Mar., To tell you unreservedly, I have been unwilling [etc.]. 1747 Richardson Clarissa (1812) I. 48 This I may the more unreservedly say to you. 1817 Ponsonby in Park. Deb. 286/2 When the bill came before them, he should state his sentiments unreservedly. 1867 Mrs. H. Wood Orville College xxiii, Full of her griefs and grievances, she spoke out unreservedly.

Unrese·rvedness. [Un-† 12.] The quality of being unreserved.

1648 Boyle Seraph. Love (1659) 23 The tenderness and unreservedness of his Love. 1713 Pope Lett. (1735) I. 203 I am conscious I write with more unreservedness than ever Man wrote, or perhaps talk'd to another. 1742 Richardson Pamela IV. 226 An Unreservedness of Air and Behaviour, that I had not before seen so becoming. 1821 in Picton Lpool Munic. Rec. (1886) II. 391, I will do so with all unreservedness, but I hope with all due civility. 1844 Stanley Arnold I. Pref. p. viii, The familiarity and unreservedness of epistolary intercourse. 1882 Macm. Mag. XLV. 304 The freedom..of his speech, its buoyancy and unreservedness.

† Unre·sident, sb. Obs.[1] (Un-† 12.) = Non-resident sb. 2. 1683 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. I. 65 Publique houses to credit no Vnresident for above 20s. † Unre·sident, a. Obs.[1] (Un-† 7.) 1694 Reg. Penny Council Scot. II. 532 Nor yit ar the unresident personnis admoneist.

Unresi·gned, ppl. a. (Un-† 8.) a 1641 D. Baker Holy Practises (1657) 11 Contrarie to the proprietarious or vnresigned will of our corrupt nature. 1893 F. Adams New Egypt 19 Pertinant and unresigned with his own, but..submissive to dictation when it came.

† Unresi·stable, a. Obs. [Un-† 7 b, 5 b.] Irresistible. (Common c 1590–1660.)

1581 Sidney Apol. Poetrie (Arb.) 67 Many of such writings, as come vnder the banner of vnresistable loue. 1620 B. Jonson Alch. iii, iv, He will winne you by vnresistable tricke.. Inough to buy a baronie. 1614 Lithgow Trav. E 2 b, It pleased him..to send downe an vnresistable tempest. 1672 Temple Ess., Govt. (1680) 88 The unresistable force and conquests of some Nations over others.

Unresistably, adv. (Un-† 11, 5 b.) a 1591 H. Smith Six Serm. (1612) A 4 b, Till..Gods fust iudgements [came] as the whirle-winde suddenly, vnresistably. † Unresistance. Obs. (Un-† 12 b.) 1648 Hunton Vind. Treat. Monarchy iv. 27 Being authoritative, they authorize the Instrument, and give him an unresistance. a 1656 Br. Hall Soliloquies § 66 How do they [sc. dumb creatures] bear our stripes with a trembling unresistance! Unresistant, a. (Un-† 7.) 1830 Mangan Poems (1903) 28 The blast..soon a tempest,..Will swoop down on its unresistant prey. 1884 Cent. Mag. XXIX. 7 He draws her, unresistant, to him.

Unresi·sted, ppl. a. [Un-† 8, 5 b.] 1. Not resisted; not meeting with resistance; † irresistible.

1596 Hilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 66 b, Leest preaunemte other heryngs theyr infamy vnresysted, despyse theyr holy prechynge. c 1586 C'tess Pembroke Psalm lxxi. ii, Show thy unresisted power, Working now thy wonted will. 1593 Shake. Lucr. 282 As corne grows by weeds, so in me Inordinall feare Is almost choakt by vnresisted lust. a 1614 Donne Biathanatos (1644) 128 That for the spirituall good of another, a man should expose his own life, is an unresisted doctrine. 1652 Baxter Bapt. Appeal. 19 Our God..rather then Schism shall go unresisted, will [etc.]. 1705 Addison The Campaign 197 To Donavert, with unresisted force, The gay victorious army bends its course. 1789 Mrs. Piozzi Journ. Prance II. 270 Black Death,..out which the unresisted wind sweeps. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xviii. IV. 119 The white flag, which..had ranged the Channel unresisted. 1882 Meredith Tragic Com. i, An unresisted ladykiller is probably less aware that [etc.].

† 2. Uninterrupted. Obs.[1]

1603 Florio Montaigne iii. iii. 498 It hath three bayewindowes, of a farre-extending, ritch and vnresisted prospect.

Hence Unresi·stedly adv.

1673 Boyle Ess. Effic. Effluviums vi. 33 These pass unresistedly thorow the pores of all sort of Bodies, saue even Glass it self. 1845 E. Warburton Crescent & Cross I. 351 The influence of that discipline..was now sending them unresistedly to encounter..privation in the depths of Africa. 1889 Welch Text Bk. Moral Ar. 50 The purely hypothetical case of a vessel rolling unresistedly in still water.

Unresi·stible, a. Now rare. [Un-† 7, 5 b.] Irresistible.

1608 Great Frost in Arber's Garner I. 90 The swift, violent, and unresistible land currents. a 1631 Donne So Serm. (1640) 358 Which proceeds from uncontestable sense, and an unresistible remorse. Ibid. 984. 1653 Holcroft tr. Procopius, Vandal Wars ii. 38 To think the enemy unresistible because of his victory. 1760 Sterne Tr. Shandy iii. xxxviii, A mighty and unresistible call within me. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn lxvi, The Church..' by the unresistible might of weakness shook the world '.

Hence Unresi·stibleness, -ibly adv.

1644 Hunton Vind. Treat. Monarchy v. 45 He is like to goe alone in this wild untroden path of defending an unresistibleness on such supposals. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N. T. Jas. i. 13 God..tempteth no man to it (much less forceth them to it, or unresistibly..makes them sin).

Unresi·sting, ppl. a. (Un-† 10.) 1692 R. Long tr. Barclay's Argenis ii. xi. 98 The River.. gently mingled itselfe with the unresisting Sea. 1693 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year I. xx. 270 The bondage of concquered, wounded, unresisting people. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 229 As it were, [falling] through an unresisting Medium. 1740 Thomson Spring 240 The Shore You gayly drag your unresisting Prize. 1786 tr. Beckford's Vathek 116 That unresisting languor, so frequently fatal to the female heart. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xiii. III. 282 The Jacobites, silent and unresisting, became prisoners. 1894 J. Geikie Gt. Ice Age xxi. 270 The rocky crust of the earth must needs have been as unresisting as putty.

Hence Unresi·stingly adv., -ness.

1797 Mrs. Radcliffe Italian vi, Ellena followed unresistingly up a path. 1844 Kinglake Eothen xxvi, They, unresistingly left their property to the hands of the spoilers. 1883 Knowledge 20 July 34/2 Groaningly it may be, but still unresistingly. 1900 Mrs. H. Ward Eleanor vi, Her attitude by its and unresistingness appealed to Lucy.

† Unre·snably, adv. Obs. [Un-† 11 + Renably adv.] Unreasonably. 1461 Paston Lett. (1904) IV. 16 An evyll rewlyd fleawschep..ferd ryth fowle with the Undyr Scheryfe, and onresnably as I herd sey.

Unre·solute, a. (Un-† 7, 5 b.) 1579 Fenton Guicciard. 36 Mens wits wandering, and their mindes vnresolute. 1581 E. Campion in Confer. iii. (1584) O 3, I am not vnresolute. 1600 Holland Livy I. xiv. 21 Whilest the Cavallirie stood vnresolute as it were, in a mammering whither to flie or fight. a 1628 F. Greville Alaham iii. iv, Chorus ii, Those Scenes still tedious are, those Acts too long, Where thy unresolute Images be strong.

Unresolvable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1611 Florio, Irresoluble, unresolvable. 1624 Wotton Elem. Archit. 18 The Triangle which hath the fewest sides and corners, is..vnresoluable into any other regular Forme then it selfe. 1694 South Serm. (1698) III. 306 Men of Parts.., after all their Study,..are forced to give them over as Things Vnresolvable. 1744 Young Nt. Th. VII. 608 Call; and with endless questions be distrest, All unresolvable, if earth is All. 1850 McCosh Div. Govt. (1852) 260 Others..have distinctly recognised the importance of the will as an unresolvable and independent faculty. 1870 Ruskin Lect. Art (1875) 181 Your telescope..reveals nebula beyond nebula, far and farther,..unresolvable. 1874 Wilshire Anc. Prints ii. 12 Various examples which..link the time of surety to that of unresolvable doubt.

Unresolve, sb. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) 1679 Mrs. Behn Feign'd Curtizan III. i, Come, lay by all sullen unresolves! 1895 Outing XXVI. 345/1 Her heart was torn, her mind a chaos of unresolve.

Unresolve, v. (Un-2 3, 7.)

1675 Howe Living Temple 109 That the same thing is not ..resolved and unresolved a thousand times in a day. 1707 Reflex. upon Ridicule 331 Adriastus resolves and unresolves in the same Moment. 1746 W. Horsley Poet (1748) I. 188 He..consider'd, resolv'd, and unresolv'd, all in the same Moment. 1805-6 Cary Dante, Inf. II. 39 As one who unresolves What he hath late resolved.

Unresolved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 5 b.)

1. Of questions, etc.: Undetermined, undecided, unsolved.

1597 Holinshed Chron. II. 445/2 For to confesse..myne ignorance, or rather vnresolued doubt herein, I can not satisfie my selfe with any thing that I haue red. 1621 First Bk. Discipl. 10 Because...Articles thereanent remaine yet vnresolved, and referred to further consideration. 1652 Hawkins Cosmogr. I. 152 It is unresolved who this Samothes was. 1692 Ray Disc. iii. x. (1693) 348 So I leave this Question unresolved. 1754 Edwards Freed. Will II. iv. 48 [He] leaves all the Difficulty unresolved and the Question unanswered. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. I. 101 Doubt on such a subject once mooted might not be left unresolved. 1886 Ord's Circ. Sci., Pract. Chem. 327 The reason of this is an unresolved enigma.

2. a. Uncertain or undetermined how to act; irresolute. Also transf. (quot. 1611).

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iv. iv. 436 To our Shores Throng many doubtfull hollow-hearted friends, Vnarm'd, and vnresolu'd to beat them backe. 1611 Tourneur Ath. Trag. II. i With A kinde of vnresolved and vnwilling pace. 1693 H. Cogan tr. Pinto's Trav. xvi. 52 Being unresolved what course to take. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 151 To be Doubtful and Unresolved in a business of such vast moment. 1725 De Foe Voy. round World (1840) 96 A crew of unresolved divided rogues. 1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. VI. (1778) II. 236 He ..was still unresolved, when the violence of the viceroy.. moved him to quit his residence. 1821 Scott Pirate xxxiv, Several were unresolved upon engaging in a conflict.

absol. a 1659 Osborne Wks. (1673) 675 Nor did the readiness of the Scots to arm portend less in the ears of the unresolved, than a possibility of Conquest.

b. Uncertain in opinion; undecided.

1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lxii. § 18 S. Augustines doubtfulnes..should not be mentioned by them which presume to define peremptorily of that whereinto he was content to professe himselfe vnresolved. 1649 F. Roberts Clavis Bibl. 259 Authors seem much unresolved herein. 1673 [R. Leigh] Transp. Reh. 142 Yet they is so difficult and my guttles unresolv'd. 1707 Curios. in Hush. & Gard. 235 Boyle..is very much unresolved, and knows not what to think of these ..Vegetations. 1784 Cowper Task vi. 160 Unresolv'd Which hue she most approv'd. 1824 W. W. Robinson Mattie, a Stray III. 220 She [was] unresolved as to what was best and just—for others, as well as for herself!

† c. Const. of. Obs.

1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. II. vi. § 32 Either displeased at the Collect read,..or unresolved of the fitness of the Gold pendent about the Patients Neck. 1697 Dryden Æneis IX. 1078 So Turnus..unresolved of flight, Moves tardy back.

† 3. Not formed of set purpose. Obs.—1

1649 Jer. Taylor Gt. Exemp. II. viii. 68 If the backsliding be but the interruption of the fire sanctify by a single act, or an unconfirmed, unresolved, unmalicious habite.

4. Not broken up or dissolved.

(a) c 1801 Busby Dict. Music s.v. Canon, There are various kinds of canons: as the..resolved, the unresolved, the finite, and the infinite canon. 1827 [Mss. Maitland] Lett. fr. Madras (1843) 56 Imagine a succession of unresolved discords, selected at random. 1869 Ouseley Counterp. xvi. 127 The unprepared and unresolved seventh..produced by its inversion.

(b) 1843 R. J. Graves Syst. Clin. Med. xxi. 252 The hepatisation [of the lung] remains unresolved. 1850 Nichol Archit. Heav. 54 The cluster in Hercules..never appeared devoid of unresolved light about its central regions. 1898 Allbutt's Syst. Med. V. 89 Fibroid disease of the lung.. secondary to pleuritic effusion or unresolved pneumonia, &c.

Hence Unresolvedly adv.

1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 182, I gaue my answers vnresoluedly.

Unresolvedness. [f. prec.] Irresolution.

1628 Le Grys tr. Barclay's Argenis 274 This vnresoluednesse of minde. 1642 H. More Min. Poems Wks. (Grosart) 174/1 Grave matrons will wax wanton and betray Their unresolv'dnesse in their wonted grace. 1694 Kettlewell, Comp. Penitent 131 Remove from me perplexing doubts, and unresolvedness about my Duty. 1734 J. Edwards Serm. Wks. 1821 VII. 415 Many grow old, in an unresolvedness whether to embrace Christianity or not. 1888 Pall Mall G. 24 Feb., The apparent unresolvedness of many of the English electors.

Unresolving, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1697 Congreve Mourn. Bride I. vi, In long suspense she stands, Shifting the prize in unresolving hands. 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 120/2 Behold I sweet ruin! the unhappy scene, Now on my pen I unresolving lean. Unresoun'ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1755 Young Centaur vi, Is it not also far too much for human gratitude to leave unpreclaimed, unresounded, unadored? Unresoun'ding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1841 Mangan Poems (1903) 293 Forth flow the moments,..And, on their unresounding stream Departs away [etc.]. 1854 Faber Growth in Holiness xiii. 223 The shore of that unresounding sea.

† Unrespe'ct, sb. Obs. [Un-1 12.] Lack of respect; disrespect.

1615 Sylvester Tobacco Battered 822 Those, that on Earth will still..Offend their Friends, with a Most vn-Respect. a 1656 Br. Hall Rem. Wks. (1660) 251 A palpable unrespect to the blessed Angels of God.

Unrespect, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Unregarded. 1854 S. Dowell Judith i. 4 As one Who in a temple passes unrespect Between the kneeling suppliant and the saint.

Unrespectable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1765 Langhorne in Collins' Wks. 164 The small Marino, which however unrespectable with regard to power or extent of territory, has at least fond..1789 J. White Earl Strongbow II. 94 The unrespectable pride of being descended from some ancient..ruffian. 1820 Mss. J. West Infidel Father I. 41 With some pretty appellative..it did not look unrespectable, the bottom of it better. 1840 Kingsley A. Locke xx. 151 Let those of the respectable press who are without sin, cast the first stone at the unrespectable. 1889 J. J. Thomas Pronuncia'ty 187 The handful of malcontents whose unrespectable grievance he holds up to public sympathy.

Unrespected, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

† 1. Unregarded, unnoticed. Obs.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. xxviii, The last grone of his brother was the only answere he could get to his unrespected eloquence. 1596 B. Griffin Fidessa xxxvii, Whil'st I..doe die in heauie plight, Wayling alone my unrespected loue. a 1628 F. Greville 5 Years K. James (1643) 40 There being none to look after him, it would passe unregarded, or unrespected. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 149 Women..wrap themselues in a large receiuing sheet;..they passe and repasse vnkeuered and vnrespected.

2. Not held in respect or regard.

1595 Daniel Civ. Wars II. xx, Which wounds with griefe poore vnrespected zeale. 1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God XVI. i. 572 Through the second inundation of impiety.. Gods religion wholy vnrespected. 1647 Trapp Comm. 1 John iii. 1 Princes vnknown are unrespected. 1735 Pope Ep. Lady 125 From loveless youth to unrespected age, No Passion gratify'd except her Rage. 1784 Cowper Task I. 197 Till sabbath rites Have dwindled into unrespected forms. 1829 Scott Anne of G. xxxiv, I am, as you say, an unrespected exile. 1895 W. G. Palgrave Arabia II. 66 A retreat..where he led a tranquil nor unrespected life.

† 3. Not carefully considered. Obs.

1601 Pasquil & Kath. iv. 128 The man is such a man, That he is matchlesse! Oh, I shall prophane His name with vnrespected vtterance.

Unrespectful, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) Lacking in respect; disrespectful.

1612 Cotgr., Insificieux, vnofficious,..vnrespectfull, vnkind. 1622 Br. Mountagu Diatribæ 284 As vnrespectfull, vndutifull and sawcy a censure as the former. 1872 J. L. Sanford Estimates Eng. Kings 383 The unrespectful and invidious patronage of relatives.

Unrespectfully, adv. (Un-1 11; cf. prec.) a 1648 Ld. Herbert Hen. VIII (1683) 99 He..behaved himself so unrespectfully to the Cardinal, that he was cast into Prison. 1709 Steyne Ann. Ref. iii. 248 How oddly and unrespectfully he was used by some of his Bristol ill-wishers.

Unrespecting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10, 5 b.) 1592 Daniel Delia xlix, Celestiall fires, and vnrespecting powers! That degne not view the glory of your might. 1868 Milman St. Paul's 377 The tomb were respected, until the unrespecting fire.

Unrespective, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.)

† 1. Inattentive, heedless. Obs.

1594 Daniel Cleopatra III. i, When dissolute impiety possest Th' vnrespective minds of such a people. 1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iv. ii. 29, I will conuerse with ..vnrespective Boyes: none loue me, That looke into me with considerate eyes. 1633 Br. Hall Hard Texts, O.T. 239 A true hearted loving neighbour is better than an overlie and unrespective brother. [1822 Scott Nigel Introd. Ep., Bargaining for the objects of my curiosity with an unrespective shop-lad.]

2. Making no distinction; undiscriminating.

1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. II. iii. 71 Nor the remainder Viands We do not throw in unrespective siue. 1648 Br. Hall Select Th. xxxiv. 109 To cast the eyes of their condemnation meerly upon the absolute will of an unrespective Power. a 1656 Hales Gold. Rem. III. (1673) 53 These general and unrespective judgments of God, by famine, or sword, or the like. 1850 S. Dowell Remon I, She was not born To..bear Rude licence of the unrespective waves. 1866 J. B. Rose tr. Virg. Ecl. & Georg. 107 But onward, onward,..Doth unrespective Time..in silence move.

† 3. Disrespectful, rude. Obs.

1611 Cotgr., Irrespectueux, vnrespective, inofficious, rude. a 1622 Br. M. Smith Serm. (1632) 23 Nothing [is] more vncertain then the minds of the multitude..: humorous, clamorous, vnrespective. a 1643 J. Shute Judgem. & Mercy (1645) 197 So in David towards Saul;..not one unrespective word comes from him.

† 4. Not deserving of respect. Obs.—1

1626 Donne Serm. 825 Which to lesse reverend and unrespective Persons we should be lesse willing to do.

Hence Unrespectively adv., -ness.

1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xxiii. § 172 This great victory made the English..carelessness..and the Scots thereatout ..were "vnrespectiuelie regarded. 1633 Br. Hall Hard Texts, N. T. 152 Were he so..I would haue forborne to speake unreverently and unrespectively to him. 1696 Teapp Comm. Heb. vii. 23 All our learning also is soon refuted with one black Theta, which..snappeth us unrespectively without distinction. 1611 Cotgr., Insificieté, vnofficiousnesse, "vnrespectiuenesse, or want of due respect. a 1628 F. Greville Sidney vi. (1652) 75 Finding unrespectiveness in himself..not respected by this Princely Spirit.

† Unrespectless, a. (Un-1 5 a.) Unrespective. 1624 Rowlands Foeles Bolt E 3 b, Can I regard this unrespectless dealing, If one be longing sicke, is this call'd healing?

Unrespirable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1807 Aikin Dict. Chem. II. 94/2 Foul or unrespirable air. 1836 Brande Chem. 390 Ammonia is..acrid, and of course unrespirable. 1839 Ure Dict. Arts 991 The pit..is rendered unsafe..by the unrespirable gases.

Unrespited, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1593 Nashe Christ's Teares 30 The Marble flore of it they made slippery, with theyr vnrespited..blood-shed. 1667 Milton P. L. II. 187 There to converse with everlasting groans, Unrepited. 1708 J. Philips Cyder II. 618 Horror thus, And wild Uproar, and Desolation, reign'd Unrepited.

Unresponding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1858 Lytton What will He do? I. xiv, He pressed Lionel's unresponding hand.

Unresponsable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b; cf. Unresponsible a.) a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Essex I. (1662) 346 Of whom when still alive, he justly..demanded reparations, though since his unresponsable memory can make us no satisfaction.

† Unresponsal, a. Obs. rare. [Un-1 7, 5 b.]

1. = Unresponsible 1.

1579 Sc. Acts, Jas. VI (1814) III. 145/2 In calss the committar of pe wrang be vnresponsall, he sall for the first falt be put in pe stokkis. 1579 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 431 Williame Forbes,..a brocklin and unresponsall man.

2. = Unresponsible 2.

a 1670 Hacket Abp. Williams I. (1692) 106 A Tithe or a Crop of Hay or Corn, which are ready to be carried away by force, by unresponsal Men.

Unresponsible, a. [Un-1 7, 5 b.]

† 1. Lacking substance or standing. Obs.

1629 Jedburgh Trans. Council Records 28 Nov. (MS.), That no person..set any of their houses or buiths to unresponsible persons. 1710 Ess. Hist. Last Ministry 67 The losses sustain'd by employing Unresponsible Persons in the Collection of Taxes.

2. Irresponsible.

1653 [implied in unresponsibleness; see below]. 1786 Burke Charges agst. W. Hastings v. ix, Thereby..changing him from a minister of the Company..to a dependant upon an unresponsible power. 1797 Paley Moral Philos. & Ethics & Pol. II. 59 note, A power unbalanced and unresponsible, and therefore..not made for man. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evidt. (1827) II. 333 Because the judges are unexperienced, uninformed, numerous, irresponsible. 1862 Grote Greece II. lxxxi. X. 600 Vesting in Dionysius a single-handed power..above the laws—unlimited and irresponsible.

Hence Unresponsibleness.

1653 G. Ashley Paradoxes 439 That irresponsibleness to any other..that independence or absolute liberty in their will.

Unresponsive, a. [Un-1 7, 5 b.]

1. Unable to reply.

1668 Wilkins Real Char. 341 To render a man Vnresponsive, is to Confound, Poze, Puzzle, Non-plus.

2. Not responsive; irresponsive.

[1775 Ash.] 1816 Scott Old Mort. xxxviii, The hand..turned cold within her grasp, and lay..unresponsive to her caresses. 1871 Macduff Mem. Patmos xviii. 242 All now dull, pulseless, unresponsive as the insensate stone. 1886 Hall Caine Son of Hagar I. iv, Hugh took the proffered hand with unresponsive coldness.

Hence Unresponsively adv., -ness.

1881 E. F. Poynter Among the Hills II. 114 She divined the blank unresponsiveness with which her questions would be met. 1898 "Meredith" Rodel's Corner xxv. 286 Dorothy saw this in a glance, and her face hardened unresponsively.

Unrest, sb. [Un-1 4, 12. Cf. WFrs. on-, ûnrêst, MLG., MHG. unreste; MDu. onraste (Du. onrast), MLG., MHG. unraste (G. unrast); MDu. onruste (Du. onrust), MLG. unruste (LG. unrust, unrüst, unrost), and Wanrest.] Absence of rest; disturbance, turmoil, trouble.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter lxxxiv. 8 Pe vnrest of pis life. Ibid. cxviii. 165 Charitee putti away..vnrest of thoght. c 1394 Chaucer Troylus IV. 879 That cause is of his sorwe and pis vnreste. 14.. Rule Syon Monast. iiii. in Collect. Topogr. (1834) I. 31 In the dortour..none schal..make any noise of vnreste, aboute makyng of bedes, or other thyng. c 1440 Gesta Rom. xlvii. 196 (Harl. MS.), Wher so euer..eny discorde or vnrest was regnynge. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. VII. 417 Which tourned hym to great dishonoure and his lordes to great vnrest. 1559 Mirr. Magg. (1563) iv, Firth streande the teares, recordes of his vnrest. 1638 W. Sclater Serm. Experimentall 50 A sweet soliloquie of David with his soul, checking it..for the disquiet, and unrest it passionately had plunged it in of him. 1686 Devrant tr. Lucretius III. 273 If the foolish race of man, Cou'd find as well the cause of this unrest, And all this burden lodg'd within the breast. 1815 Byron Parisina v, And mutters she in her unrest A name. 1849 Robertson Serm. Ser. I. i. (1866) 10 The unrest and the agony that lie hid in the heart of man. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets i. 18 To the anarchy and unrest of transition succeeda the demand for constitutional order.

b. In pl. Somewhat rare.

1477 Earl Rivers (Caxton) Dictes (1877) 37 Of thought comth the wakynges and vnrestis. 1513 Douglas Æneid XIII. ii. 74 Be all wais noysum and unrestis, And all that horribill was. c 1612 Chapman Iliad VIII. 405 Both Goddesses..contriving still afflicted Troy's unrests. 1628 Wither Brit. Remnant. iv. 1957 Not, thereby, many other mens unrests Occasion they alone.

† Unrest, v. Obs. [Un-2 3.] trans. To disturb, trouble.

1382 Wyclif 1 Sam. xxvi. 14 Who art thou that criest, and vnrestist the kyng? c 1430 Life St. Kath. (1884) 49 A Cyte.., whom noon adversite troubleth..ne noon heuynesse vnresteth. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. vi. 174 Good is hem to sie, For they the swarm vnrestih.

Unrestable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1662 J. Chandler Van Helmont's Oriat. 74 This therefore is the unrestable appointment of the water, that by proceeding continually upwards and downwards, it [etc.].

Unre·sted, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.] a. Not laid to rest. b. Not refreshed by rest.

a. 1607 Chapman Bussy d'Ambois v. iv. 154 My unrested soul. 1612 — Rev. Bussy d'Ambois iv. v. 82 Th' unrested spirit of your slaughter'd brother. b. [1775 Ash.] 1846 Worcester (citing Irving.). Also in recent use (1908).

Unre·sted, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[2] 8.] Turbulent out of the rest. 1760–2 Smollett Launcelot Greaves xix, Sir Launcelot, perceiving his rival's spear unrested, had just time to throw up the point of his own.

Unre·stful, a. [Un-[1] 7. App. not in use between 16th and 19th century: cf. Restful a.]

1. Restless, stirring, unquiet. (Freq. c 1875–.)

1382 Wyclif Isaiah lv. 15 A fole vnsaciable, or vnrestful, and of an other tunge. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 104 þei are..vnschamful to axe..vnrestful tul þei tak, vnkynd wan þei han tane. a 1420 Wycliffite Bible Prov. vii. 13 marg., With wowing cheer; that is, vnrestful, and with out schame. c 1475 Cath. Angl. (A) 305/1 Vn Restfulle, inquietus. 1533 More Dobell. Salem Wks. 961/2 That good peaceible folke..should not for suche inquiete & vnrestfull wretches without some ruffle lose in pence long. 1553 Preiner in Lib. & Doc. Edw. VI (1844) 174 We are..besieged of cruel and unrestful enemies. 1565 Abp. Parker Corr. (Parker Soc.) 237 The talk..is much increased, and unrestful they be, and I alone they say are in fault. 1839 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. v. ix, So wags..this unrestful World, day after day. 1891 Spectator 7 Mar. 340/2 This unrestful and fussy energy.

† 2. Disturbed, troubled. Obs.

a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. II. xxvii. (W. de W. 1494), It bereth downe the thoughtes and maketh hem vnrestful. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love ii. vi. 82 Lorde, þou art my takar, þat malicius prikkyngis of my fraward enmys me make not vnrestful.

3. Marked by absence of rest or quiet.

14.. Rule Sym Monest. iii. 18 in Collect. Top.&gr. (1834) I. 31 Suche as gretly rowte or make any unrestful noyse in ther sleppe..schal be purveyd a nother place, wher they may slepe withoute unrestyng of other. c 1445 Pecock Donet 94 Þous al his life he shal be laborious, vnrestful. 1548 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 242 The bedes of a prince beeyng in greate debte is an unrestefull thyng. 1548 Bodrugan Epit. King's Title (1873) 254 What properties procedeth of warre, but outrageous cruelnesse, consumyng anger, vnrestful quietness. 1600 Look About You i. A 3, I drouzie age keepe not thy stiffened joynts On thy vnrestfull bed. 1884 Pall Mall G. 9 Dec. 11/2 There is on every face a craving, unrestful expression.

Hence Unre·stfully adv.

1483 Cath. Angl. 305/1 Vn Restfully, inquiete, inoportune.

Unre·stfulness. [Un-[1] 12; cf. prec.]

1382 Wyclif Luke xi. 8 If he schal contynue knockynge,..for his vnrestefulnesse he schal rise, and ȝyue to hym. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. xxxiii. 102 Of inordinate loue..growe yll vnrestfulnes of herte. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) II. 234 b/2 The holy fader..axed hym, yf..he sholde prayg god for hym; that he wolde releue hym from this unrestfulnesse. c 1557 Abp. Parker Ps. lv. 15, I would me fletche..to wilderness: More there to dwell, than here wyth such in such unrestfulnes. 1579 E. K. Gloss. to Spenser's Sheph. Cal. March (Emblem), Loue..vexeth the body..wil vnrestfulnesse all night.

Unre·sting, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.)

1582 Stanyhurst Æneis iv. (Arb.) 114 The poore vnresting Dido could catch no such happye Season too be quiet. 1604 A. Scoloker Daiphantus F 4 The wandring soule Seeking for rest in his vnresting spirit. a 1692 Brome Exp. Moor iv. iv, What is she? I am Heroscruck Tis some unresting shadow. 1748 Thomson Cast. Indol. ii. lxxxi, But ay the ruthless driver goads them on,..Nor ever find they rest from their unresting fone. 1812 Byron Ch. Har. i. lxxxvii, Life-abhorring gloom Wrote on his faded brow curst Cain's unresting doom. 1856 H. Dixon Post & Paddock x. 168 Those ballads, which they sing with such unresting diligence. 1870 M. D. Conway Earthw. Pilgr. xxi. 256 This unresting life of the enquiring soul.

Hence Unre·stingly adv.; Unre·stingness.

1831 Carlyle Sartor Res. i. x, The silent Arachnes that weave unrestingly in our imagination. 1839 De Quincey Roman Meals Wks. (1854) III. 269 note, The German imagination has been most struck by the duration of the man's life,..the English, by the unrestingness..,his incapacity of repose.

Unre·stless, a. (Un-[1] 8 a.) 1513 Douglas Æneid iv. x. 13 The unreslest fyr spirit: Of this wnhappy Phenician Dido. 1894 in Heslop Northumberland Gloss. s.v. † Unre·stly, adv. Obs.— [Un-[1] 12.] Not restfully. 1561 Hollybush Hom. Apoth. 6 b, If one slepeth vnrestly, let him eat lettice.

Unre·stored, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

c 1445 Pecock Donet 87 His ordinance þat man..schulde be restorid into salucion, þous aunqel..was left vnrestorid. 1473 Acta Auditorum (1839) 25/2 To restore again the sainyn (cattle) in sa fer as is vnrestorit. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems xxix. 64 I quha sall weild the wrang possessioun,..Quhilk vnrestorit helpis no confessioun? c 1586 Cytes Pembroke Ps. cxl., iv, Flames shall fling them low, Ay unrestor'd to drown in deepest woe. 1606 Shakes. Ant. & Cl. iii. v. 27 Then does he say, he lents me Some shipping unrestor'd. a 1649 Drumm. of Hawth. Hist. Jas. V, Wks. (1711) 81 Whose father was banished for Treason..and died unrestored. 1712 Young Ul. Th. ii. 64 If unrestor'd by this, despair your cure. 1818 Byron Ch. Har. iv. xi, The Bucentaur lies rotting unrestored. 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 556 The Jews He brought back, Edom He left unrestored. 1896 C. K. Paul Memories 129 The old unrestored choir of St. Paul's Cathedral.

Unrestoring, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1811 W. Taylor in Robberds Mem. (1843) II. 333 The corse, the spectre, the veiling pall, the unrestoring tomb. 1823 Lamb Elia ii. Old Margate Hoy, Ships, and sunless treasures swallowed up in the unrestoring depths.

Unrestrainable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1430–40 Lydg. Bochas III. xx. (1561) 86/1 Their colorike fumes, yᵉ fury vnrestraynable. 1608 Bp. J. King Serm. 5 Nov. 34 In the timely execution of your Lawes, and..coercion of their vnrestrainable audaciousnesse. 1609 Holland Amm. Marcell. 187 Like as out of a cloud the sparkes.., with an vnrestrainable course, reach to the diamper of couurey towes. a 1712 Ken Edmund Poet. Wks. 1721 II. 111 Wonder not that a Virgin makes this Court, Of Love the unrestrainable Effort. 1815 Abernethy Surg. Obs. (ed. 2) 125 note, An unrestrainable hæmorrhagic tendency. 1863 Mouat Andaman Islanders 227 An unrestrainable fit of laughter.

Hence Unrestrainably adv.

1615 Sandys Trav. 148 A few..did poison his sonne, whom he knewe to be vnrestrainably lasciuious. 1849 Ruskin Seven Lamps i. § 12. 23 There is occasionally a burst upwards and blossoming unrestrainably to the sky.

Unrestrained, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not kept in check or under control; allowed free course or vent.

a 1600 Hooker Remedie agst. Sorrow (1612) 3 Naturall compassion..caused them..to poure forth vnrestrained teares. 1712 Berkeley Pass. Obed. Wks. 1871 III. 131 So unrestrained [are] the passions of men. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 256 Her tears now flowed fast from unrestrained delight. 1828 Lytton Pelham II. xxv, They all rose in a mirth sufficiently unrestrained to be any thing but patrician. 1879 McCarthy Own Times II. xxiii. 172 He was attacked with all the bitterness of a..very unrestrained animosity.

b. Not restricted or limited.

1620 [see Unwinded[2]] 1649 C. Ferrer Arrendon Hist. Reb. II. § 41 The being..an unrestrained Intercourse between the King's Camp and Edenborough. 1670 — Ess. Tracts (1727) 284 The spacious fields of their unlimited and unrestrained contemplation. 1776 Adam Smith W. N. v. i. ii. (1904) II. 414 The emulation which an unrestrained competition never fails to excite. 1806 Surr Winter in London III. 219 The unrestrained intermixture of ranks..is a remarkable trait of your national manners. 1836 Kane Arct. Expl. I. xxviii. 364 The men..had frequent and unrestrained intercourse with them. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VII. 376 The 'unantagonised' or 'unrestrained' influence exerted by the cerebellum.

c. Not limited in application.

1827 Jarman Powell's Devises II. 117 They admitted that the general words, if unrestrained, would carry the reversion.

2. Not subjected (or subject) to restraint in respect of action or conduct.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia ii. xxix, Zelmanes..unrestrained party, the minde & eie, had their free course to the delicate Philoclea. 1593 Shaks. Rich. II, v. iii. 7 There..he dayly doth frequent, With vnrestrained loose Companions. 1628 T. Spencer Logick 34 The vnrestrained, and free choyse of the will. 1691 Hartlieb Virtues 68 He that is guilty of the Excess, is said to be..unrestrained and let loose to all Debauchery. 1751 Earl Orrery Remarks Swift (1752) 67 With heads and hearts elated by affluence, and unrestrained by foresight or discretion. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 122 What will not power effect, when unrestrained by conscience? 1825 Scott Betrothed ii, 'The revellers were unrestrained by the stricter rules of good-breeding. 1864 Trevelyan Campbell. Wand. (1866) 349 The free and unrestrained life of an English lady. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 351 He walks about the room,..and in many respects is unrestrained in his movements.

absol. 1905 Glover Lucretius (ed. 5) iv. 713 The unrestrain'd and free Will fly from danger.

b. In appositive use: Without restraint; unrestrainedly.

1596 Edward III, iii. ii. 52 Slaughter and mischlefe walke within your streets, And, vnrestrained, make hauock as they passe. 1810 Byron Corsair I. lxxxix, While o'er the parent clime prowls Murder unrestrain'd. 1848 Thackeray Van. Fair xxxv, The girls indulged unrestrained in their grief. 1867 E. F. Bowden Fathers of Desert 374 Vice stalks abroad unrestrained.

3. Free from restraint of manner; easy, natural.

1856 Froude Hist. Eng. I. ii. 159 His letters..are simple, easy, and unrestrained. 1876 T. Hardy Ethelberta xliii, Whose manner..had little in common with Sol's warm and unrestrained bearing.

Hence Unrestrainedness.

[1775 Ash.] 1889 Pop. Sci. Monthly July 296 No men on earth ever have had liberty in the sense of unrestrainedness of action.

Unrestrainedly, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] Without restraint.

1655 Earl Orrery Parthen. ii. III. 287 Shee shedd hirs [sc. tears] the more vnrestrain'dly. Ibid. II. vii. 653 Sureina permitted Parthenissa unrestrainedly to visit him. 1852 Thackeray Esmond i. ix, He..yawned unrestrainedly. 1862 H. Aimé Carv. of Carrhom II. 57 She and her child wept unrestrainedly. 1876 Miss Yonge Womanhind v. 32 She will see enough of them unrestrainedly to understand their dispositions.

Unrestrainer. (Un-[1] 12.)

1804 Ann. Reg. II. 233 The spirit of antijacobinism was as yet so strongly bent on the restoration of royal unrestrainer. 1867 Mill Subj. Women (1869) 66 His conduct..in the unrestraint of home. 1889 Encycl. Brit. X VIII. 146/1 A simple and fine and light stroke,..and unrestraint in the flow of writing.

Unrestricted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1766 Smollett Travels xvii, His military power and unrestricted authority. 1785 H. Walpole Mod. Gardening Wks. 1798 II. 537 They extended their branches unrestricted. 1807 Wordsw. White Doe iv. 60 Happy as others of her kind, That..Range unrestricted as the wind. 1854 Röhner Mus. Composition iii. 297 Unrestricted Canon is founded upon a single subject which, [etc.]. 1884 Contemp. Rev. Oct. 525 The unrestricted intermeddling of the State.

Hence Unrestricted·ly adv.; -stri·ctedness.

1844 W. H. Maxwell Wand. Highl. I. 195 To him, every discovery..is unrestrictedly unfolded. 1846 G. S. Faber Lett. Tractar. Secess. 42 The unrestrictedness of his own liberty and power. 1851 Whyte Melville Good for Nothing I. 293 A process..than the weaker sex seldom leave unrestrictedly to their servants.

Unrestrictive, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.) 1817 H. T. Colebrooke Algebra, etc. 290 The foregoing rule..is unrestrictive. 1869 Cowden Clarke Shaks. Characters. 504 Intemperant, unrestrictive teaching, and a desire to amend.

Unre·sty, a. Obs. exc. Sc. dial. [Un-[1] 4, 7. Cf. Wfris. on-, ûnrestich, MDu. onrustich (Du. onrustig), MLG. unrust-, unrostich.] Unquiet; full of unrest.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter cxl. 10 Kepe me fra lettynges of vnristy men. c 1374 Chaucer Troylus v. 1355, I dar not pleyne more, But humbely..Yow wryte ich myne vnresty sorwes sore. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 116 Boote fonde I non In myn vnresty bed lenger to lye. † a 1500 Lydgate's Ballad in Thynne Chaucer (1530) 374/2 Unto vnresty bothe rest and remedye Fruiteful to al tho that in her assye. 1606 S. Gardiner Bk. Angling 137 Worldly cares maketh a man very vnrestie with himself.

Unresu·ltive, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1833 Mrs. Browning Prometh. Bound 451, I discern An empty wish,—and unresultive work. Unretained, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1822 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 720 The taste for unconnected, and for that reason unretained single thoughts. Unretaliated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1683 Tryon Way to Health 63 Men..turn the natural use of things into Wantonness, which cannot pass unretaliated. 1805 Foster Ess. (1806) I. 62 The overawed timidity and unretaliated injuries of the unfortunate beings within his power. 1832 Scott Cast. Dang. xix, Obliged to submit to national insults, unretaliated and unrevenged.

Unreta·rded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1625 T. Adams Lycanthropy 7 What Paul speakes of his unretarded executions of Christs message. 1636 B. Jonson Discov. Wks. (Rldg.) 747/1 Which they will utter unretarded without any shamefastness. 1793 V. Knox Let. to Yng. Nobleman Wks. 1824 V. 109 Then go on in your virtuous progress, unretarded by those, who hold in your virtuous solicitude. 1820 E. Kean in 9th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. 488/2 Friends such as will come uninvited, [and] go unretarded.

Unre·tched, ppl. a. rare[1]. (Un-[1] 8 c.) Not stretched out. 1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 33 When our Author tells us..of a new longer than Ages, and a being unretcht out.

Unrete·ntive, a. (Un-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1748 Chesterf. Lett. (1774) I. 336 Discovering to them such an unretentive weakness as must convince them that you will tell it to twenty others. 1782 Baker Biog. Dramatica I. 238/2 So unretentive was his memory. 1825 Coleridge Aids Refl. 363 You are not so unretentive a Scholar as to have forgotten the poiesis et aesis of your Virgil. 1891 [J. B. Hunt] Poems Early Years 165 What further may have chanc'd my sleepy brain, In unretentive dulness, noted not.

Unre·tinued, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1855 Singleton Virgil I. 308 To be left Forlorn unto herself ale seemeth, aye, Unretinued. Unretired, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1648 Herrick 11, Ongewhen, Unretyred, or Unretreated. 1766 W. Gordon Gen. Counting-ho. 36 Bills unretired at the dates they are payable. Unretorted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1658 Barnwell's Apol. Ded. A 4 Else I strewedly fear, lest many..fall away to that side, where we are assaulted with unretorted weapons. Unretou·ched, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1880 Swinburne Stud. Shakes. 218 Possibly we have a survival of some lines' length, not unretouched by Fletcher. Unretractable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1627 Jackson Creed vi. x, § 1 That God..did set the course of nature a-going with an irresistible and unretractable swinge. 1900 Osmond Romantic Triumph 76 An unretractable right to France.

Unretra·cted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1646 Hammond Tracts 27 Any such act of sin unretracted by repentance. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. II. 66 Malevolence shewn..in a single Outrage unretracted. 1739 Wks. Learned I. 73 Content to leave the Calumnies of Faustus and Spinozism unretracted. 1834 Mackintosh Revolution of 1688 ix. 257 To consider the silence of the King as a virtual assent to their unretracted condition. 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. iv. VI. 502 The monkish faith satire maintained its unretracted protest against the Church.

Unretrea·ting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1791 Cowper Iliad v. 590 The powers of Troy..the Grecians dense Expected, unretreating, void of fear. 1828 J. Robertson Poems 78 As light is mixed in the unretreating air. † Unretrie·vable, a. Obs. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1705 Stanhope Paraphr. I. 241 The unretrievable Misery of those who will not suffer themselves to be rescued from Destruction. Unretrie·ving (ly), adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1844 Mrs. Browning Cry of Children 115 They..Are worn as if with age, yet unretrievingly The harvest of its memories cannot reap. Unretrograde, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1817 Malthus Popul. (ed. 5) II. 231 A regular and unretrograde increase. Unretted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1839 Ure Dict. Arts 490 Unretted flax. 1856 Farmer's Mag. Nov. 379 Either green or unretted straw.

Unretu·rnable, a. [Un- 7 b, 5 b]

† 1. Admitting of no return. Obs.

Chiefly as a rendering of L. irreversabilis.

1513 Douglas Æneid vi. i. 60 The naimcouth hous, that Labointhus hait, Full of wrinkillit vnreturnable dissait. Ibid. vii. 4 The fludis bank..,Quhais passage is vnreturnable went. 1671 Cotgr., irremeable, vnreturnable, or, from which one cannot goe backe. 1648 Herrick 11, Ouweierkerlick, vnreturnable [Kil. irremeabilis].

2. Incapable of being returned.

1740 Richardson Pamela (1742) III. 343, I am even oppress'd with unreturnable Obligations. 1788 Mrs. Hughes Henry & Isabella III. 151 The unexpected, and as he esteemed it, unreturnable proof of friendship he had given him. 1795 Jemima II. 195 Having such unreturnable benefits to thank him for. 1884 Marshall's Tennis Cuts 114 He can..place it in the opposite corner at such a pace that the stroke is practically unreturnable.

Hence Unretu·rnably adv.

1513 Douglas Æneid v. x. 81 Laboynthus..a thousand alychis wrocht, For to dissave all wncouth tharin brocht, To wavir and er thar vnreturnably. 1788 Mrs. Hughes Henry & Isabella II. 72 Where there is a certain equality.. of advantages, so as to leave neither parties unreturnably obliged to the other.

Unreturned, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Not having returned or come back.

1589 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 428 The Chancellair.. being yit unreturned out of Lauder. 1600 FAIRFAX Tasso xv. xxvi, They whom storme hath forced that way sence, Are drowned all, or vnreturn'd from thence. 1802 Noble Wanderers I. 131 Selkirks still unreturned, and very suspicious gained strength. 1883 W. WATSON Sonn., Soudanese 13 Thousands that weep their warriors unreturn'd.

2. That is not reciprocated or responded to.

a 1643 S. GODOLPHIN Constancy i, Love unreturn'd, howe'er the flame Seem great and pure, may [etc.]. 1710 ADDISON Tatler No. 250 P 10 Supercilious Looks, unreturned Smil s. 1766 GOLDSM. Hermit xvii, Dost thou ..grieve for friendship unreturned? 1820 SCOTT Monast. xx, I.. will brook no insult unreturned. 1896 M'Clure's Mag. VI. 492 The proud and unreturned gaze of the dead who have died in their glory.

Unreturning, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.)

a 1628 F. GREVIL Sidney (1652) 159 Yet these unreturning steps seemed well worth the observing. 1826 BYRON Ch. Har. III. xxvii, And Ardennes. Grieving.. Over the unreturning brave. 1856 WHITTIER Panorama 507 Ghosts of unreturning sails. 1897 Outing XXIX. 440/2 We grew weary of waiting for the unreturning hounds.

Unreturningly, adv. (UN-[1] 11; cf. prec.) 1818 SHELLEY Rosal. & Helen 608 Like a vile weed Which the sea casts unreturningly. 1845-6 TRENCH Hals. Lect. Ser. II. ii. 175 That sepulchre, to which it had seen its sons..unreturningly descend. Unrevea'lable, a. (UN-[1] 5, b.) 1611 COTGR., Irreveiland, vnreuealable, not to be reuealed. †1826 COLERIDGE Ne Plus Ultra II The Dragon foul and fell—The unrevealable, And hidden one. 1846 G. MOORE Power of Soul (ed. 2) 9 These proposers of an unreasonable charity.

Unreveal'ed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8, 5 b.)

1529 MORE Dyalogue I. Wks. 167/2 If there were any thing ..that in the church sometyme was doubted and reputed for vnreuealed and vnknown. 1543-4 Act 35 Hen. VIII, c. 5 § 2 Untrue accusations..kept secret unrevealed. 1598 KYD Sp. Trag. III. ii. 9 If this incomparable murder..Shall vnreuealed and vnreuenged passe. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. III. xl. 250 The effect..of the unrevealed will, and of the power of God. 1697 DRYDEN Æneid VI. 574 Ye realms, yet unreveal'd to human sight. 1738 BERKELEY Alciphr. VI. § 27 Religion of any kind, either revealed or unrevealed. 1798 LAMB R. Gray iv, The secret, unrevealed, hung upon his conscience. 1850 TENNYSON In Mem. xxxi, The rest remaineth unreveal'd; Hereafter first. 1875 MANNING Mission H. Ghost i. 9 God in His unrevealed mercies will [etc.].

Unrevealing, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10, 5 d.)

1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. xxiv. 79 The Physician that hath a Soueraigne Receit, and dyeth vnreuealing it, robbes the world of many blessings. 1834 LYTTON Rienzi II. iii, The greater barons..preserved a strict and unrevealing silence. 1899 G. MATHESON Stud. Portr. Christ xv. 182 We have all our unrevealing moments—our moments when the spring of life seems dry.

Unrevenged, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1533 BELLENDEN Livy IV. xv. (S.T.S.) II. 105 Than tempaneus..drew pame all togid.der.., nocht vnrevengit of his inemyis. 1553 EDEN Treat. New Ind. (Arb.) 39 Hauinge thus sustayned so greuous iniuries vnrevenged. 1594 BEATTIE-WAIT Nat. Embassie (1877) 27 Her husbands death..effected, but not vnreuenged. 1669 SHADWELL Royal Shepherdess II, Neander. O Madam! your eyes will revenge your quarrels. Eradus. Or they must be unrevenge'd, for you. 1726 POPE Odyss. XVI. 277 With such a foe th'unequal fight to try, Were by false courage unreveng'd to die. 1795 Monthly Mag. II. 449 Ampanani never bled unrevenged. 1821 SHELLEY Adonais xxxi Keep holy this [shiline of unrevenged blood!

Unrevengeful, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1660 Nicholas Papers (Camden) IV. 220 The Kinge of Englands..unreuengefull disposition. a 1670 HACKET Abp. Williams I. (1693) 191 He was un-reuengefull, and so longer displeased with those he overcame. Unrevengefulness. (UN-[1] 12.) a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. ix, A Tyrant also, not thorow..unrevengefulnes..but..of a wanton cruelte. Unrevenging, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) a 1593 MARLOWE & NASHE Dido IV. i, Curse that vnreuenging land, Whose flinte dartes slept in Typhous den. 1711 POPE Lett. (1735) I. 169 The unrevenging Spirit of primitive Christianity. Unreveng'ingly, adv. (UN-[1] 11.) 1650 B. Discoliminium 15 A King.. that..Reign'd justly, peaceably, and unrevengingly after.

Unrevenue, v. (UN-[3] 4.) 1673 BP. S. PARKER Reproof Rch. Transp. 142 They had unrevenued the Clergy. Unrevenued, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1641 MILTON Reform. I. 22 He that will moulder a mitered Bishop into a prebendary, must yeeld him to be..undiocest, unrevenu'd, unlorded.

Unreverence, sb. [UN-[1] 12, 5 b.]

†1. Lack of reverence; irreverence. Obs.

1388 WYCLIF Ecclus. xxv. 29 The ire and vnreuerence of a womman is grete schenschipe. 1422 YONG tr. Secreta Secret. 135 Wreth engendreth vnreuerence, Vnreuerence engendryth enemyte. 1491 CAXTON Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) v. xiv. 343 b/2 Defaultes commyssed in the unreuerence of god. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 237 That is the most vnreuerence that may be done to god. 1597 BEARD Theatre God's Judgem. (1612) 317 The disobedience, vnreuerence, & contempt of children towards their parents. 1649 W. SCLATER Comm. Malachy (1650) 27 Vnreuerence more displeaseth, than outward obseruance can please. 1684 BAXTER Answ. Theph. Evid. 16 Praying with the Hatt on, is..a sign of unreverence.

2. Used as the negative of REVERENCE sb. 6.

1823 W. H. LYTTLETON in Corr. Lady Lyttleton (1912) 248 The sooner I see your Un-Reverence a-shooting the better I shall be pleased.

Unre'verence, v. (UN-[3] 3.) trans. To treat irreverently. 1553 BALE Vocacyon 11 This write I, not in vnreuerencinge the sacrament, but [etc.]. 1624 FULLER Holy & Prof. St. III. xxiv. 222 S. Paul thought their material Church..abused and unreverenced, by their lay meetings of Love-feasts therein. Unreverenced, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) a 1470 H. PARKER Dives & Pauper (1496) 35/2 Oftentyme that crosse that the preest holdeth..is full unreuerenced. 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 101 The sepulchre of our blessed Saviour..not vnreuerenced by the Turkes themselues. 1881 H. JAMES Portr. Lady III. She saw..the dry, staring fact that she had been a dull un-reverenced tool. † Unre'verency. (UN-[1] 12.) c 1680 Rosch. Bull. (1874) II. 195, I must not come in place where their friends merry be, Least I should my son disgrace with my unreverency.

Unre'verend, a. (UN-[1] 7, 5 b.)

†1. Irreverent. Obs. (Common c 1580–1660.)

1562 in Strype Ann. Ref. xxviii. (1709) 205 All unreverend speaking of God's holy predestination. 1584 R. DUDLEY Lett. 167 Inveying against their souerain with..vnreuerend tearmes, and insolent controlmentes. 1591 SHAKS. Two Gent. II. vi. 14 Fie, fie, vnreuerend tongue, to call her bad. 1613 DEKKER Lantern Birdes Noah's Arke Wks. (Grosart) V. 20 Cleanse my heart, from all foule, loose and vnreuerend languages. 1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharon. IV. i. 257 That it might unreverend gazers tell It once was sacred. 1820 KEATS Eliu I. Oxford in Vac., They rather hold such curiosities to be impertinent—unreverend.

2. Unworthy of reverence.

[1828–32 WEBSTER.] 1874 J. THOMSON City Dreadf. Nt. XVIII. iv, Long grey unreverend locks befouled with mire. 1876 GEO. ELIOT Dan. Der. lxii, The presence of this unreverend father..affected Mirah with..shame and grief.

Hence † Unre'verendly adv., irreverently. Obs.

1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 352 Thou hast vnreuerendly spoken. 1653 BOYLE Usef. Exp Nat. Philos. II. iv. 118 If..was worn (unreverendly enough) to compare our Physitians to Bishops. 1673 Vindication Duke of Buckingham 24 Whose person you shall not find me speak so unreverendly of.

Unre'verent, a. Now rare. (UN-[1] 7, 5 b.)

1. Irreverent: a. Of actions, conduct, etc.

In frequent use from c 1550 to c 1640.

1388 WYCLIF Ecclus. xxiii. 17 Thi mouth be not customable to vnreuerent speche. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 622/2 Such eyui fashion of vnreuerent railing vpon great personages. 1583 BABINGTON Commandm. (1590) 220 If we be inconstant, and greeued with vnreuerent regarde in our children of vs. 1608 WILLET Hexapla Exod. 62 The Corinthians were chastised..for vnreuerent receiuing of the Lords supper. a 1661 FULLER Worthies, Yorks. III. (1662) 06 Grossly guilty in his all humiliations, to any Author was uncivil, to a Bishop unreverent. 1898 H. BUSSELL Nat. & Supernat. x. (1864) 313 That unreverent feeble laxity, that lets the errors be as good as the truths.

b. Of persons.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 85 b, Se thou be not vnreuerent or stately of behauour to thy company. 1552 in Vicary's Anat. (1888) App. xvi. 373 A swearer, or an vnreuerent viser of his mouth. 1612 T. TAYLOR Comm. Titus ii. 12 They dust not shewe themselues..so vnreuerent and retchles in hearing, as most men doe. 1675 BAXTER Cath. Theol. I. i. 9 We must be very fearful and not unreverent and rash, in ascribing such a..lusus of notions to God.

transf. c 1590 Sir T. More II. iv. 124 Your vnreuerent knees, Make them your feet to kneele to be forgiuen! 1593 SHAKS. Rich. II, II. i. 123 Wert thou not Brother to great Edwards sonne, This tongue..Should run thy head from thy vnreuerent shoulders.

† 2. = UNREVERENDLY a. 2. Obs.—[1]

1576 LAMBARDE Peramb. Kent 256 Erasmus opinion and iudgment touching such vnreuerent Reliques. 1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharon. III. iv. 356 Their rage Neglected youth slights like unreverent age.

Hence † Unre'verentness, irreverence. Obs.

1579 NORTHBROOKE Dicing 32 [They] that do vse and handle vpon scaffolds Gods diuine mysteries with such vnreuerentnes. 1636 HEWSHAW Horse Succ. 294 That unreverentnesse..which they dreint not use to this or that Mr Gentleman, they use to God.

† Unre'verently, adv. Obs. [UN-[1] 11, 5 b.] Irreverently; without reverence. (Common c 1510–1660.)

c 1386 CHAUCER Pars. T. ¶ 582 When they treten vnreuerently the sacrement of the Auter. 1421 HOCCLEVE Yereslaus' Wife 40 Ha, haunteyd vnreuerently vnwarnedly. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. v. xv. 563 The lx° principal governaunce for which summe of the lay peple vnwijsly and vnreuerentli blamen the clergie. 1543 GRAFTON Contin. Harding 460 His corpse was brought vnreuerently from the toure, into Poules. 1576 FLEMING Panopl. Epist. 80 That is supposed a loose kinde of writing, to talke of any man vnreuerently. 1638 BP. MOUNTAGU Acts Eccl. Hist. A 4 b, Hath any of your parish unreverently spoke your Minister? a 1670 MANTON Serm. Ps. exix, cxxxi. Wks. 1725 I. 605/1 Will not God be as severe to me, if I behave my self unreverently?

Unre'versable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 141 The decision remaining unreversed, and, but for legislative authority, unreversable.

Unreversed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1591 SHAKS. Two Gent. III. i. 223 The doome (Which vnreuerst stands in effectuall force). 1648 PRYNNE Plea for the Lords 63 His sentence..remaines..unreversed. 1657 Decree Exchequ., Hatfield Chase While the said Decree stands in force, and unreversed. 1802–12 [see prec.]. 1855 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xiii. III. 271 A legal sentence, passed in due form, and still unreversed. 1878 ARNEY Treat. Phthisis xxxiv. 278 It is possible to obtain an unreversed impression of the thermal spectrum.

† Unreversed, -ve'sted, pa. pple. Obs. (UN-[2] 4, 8.) c 1450 Chron. London (Kingsford, 1905) 131 When the byshope hadde don the masse and was unreversed. 1463 CAXTON G. de la Tour c vij b, When he had songen and was vnreuested it was not known where he bicam.

Unreviewed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1819 BUSBY Hist. Music II. 255 There are particular..reasons why his Te Deum should not pass unreviewed. 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. I. vi. iii, After long unreviewed centuries.

Unrevised, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1470 HARDING Chron. Pref. p. x, As lyon fell he putte hym forth in prese, The werre mayntenyde and kepte hym vnrevylde.

Unrevised, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1845 Syd. Smith's Wks. (1859) II. 333/2 The following unrevised fragment. 1847 STANLEY Arnold Suppl. 22 The unblotted, unrevised manuscript. 1897 GOLDW. SMITH Guesses Riddle Exist. 83 Readers of the Bible who continue to use the unrevised version.

Unrevivable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1802–12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 171 When I say unrevivable, I mean by common law.

Unrevived, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1631 WEEVER Anc. Funeral Mon. 417 Old, moth-eaten, vnreuiued penall Lawes. 1680 H. MORE Apocal. Apoc. xi. 106 That..they may not seem to prophesie and be dead at the same time, nor lye too long unburied or unrevived. 1877 COUDER Basis Faith ii. 75 Those memories of the past, unrevived for years.

† Unrevocable, a. Obs. (UN-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1535 STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 581 Vnreuocabill, without fraude or gyle, At thair plesour sic pease for to compyle. 1589 GREENE Menaphon (Arb.) 43 The heauens..sent vnreuocable Fates to deprive me of her life. 1608 L. MACHIN Dumbe Knight III, My vow. is like fate still unrevocable. 1616 B. PARSONS Mag. charter 2 By an unrevocable patent.

Unre'vocably, adv. (UN-[1] 11.) 1472 in Ramsay Banff Charters (1915) 29 Assignit hym unrevocably to the said annualentt of sex markis.

Unrevo'ked, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Not revoked, recalled, or annulled.

1429 [see UNPREALED.] 1570 LEVINS Manip. 50 Vnrenoked, irrevocabilis. 1667 MILTON P. L. v. 602 Hear all ye Angels,..Hear my Decree, which unrevok't shall stand. 1740 CIBBER Apol. (1756) I. 310 This unrevoked order of silence. 1790 COWPER Mother's Pict. 112 Time, unrevok'd, has run His wonted course. 1835 Court Mag. VI. 35/1 The morrow arrived, and the Sultan's command remained unrevoked. 1898 LD. ST. LEONARDS Family-bk. Prop. Law xx. 157 The general gift in your will to your child..will belong to him if you leave it unrevoked.

† 2. Not called back. Obs.—[1]

1654 GAYTON Pleas. Notes II. vi. 59 As she unrevoked ran Shee thought each tree to be a man.

Unrevolutionized, pp. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1804 LARWOOD No Gun Boats 39 The old Lillies of unrevolutionized France.

Unrevolved, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8) [1775 ASH.] 1892 MEREDITH One of our Conq. xxxiii, That was the thought, unrevolved, unpursued, all but unconscious, in Nesta. Unrevolving, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1843 CARLYLE Past & Pr. III. xi, Of an idle unrevolving man the kindest Destiny..can bake and kneed nothing other than a botch. Unrewardable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) c 1445 PECOCK Donet 94 Not wiptstonding synne is..vncleene, vnrewardable, punyschable.

Unrewarded, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Not rewarded; unrequited.

c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Prince. 2890 No goode dede vnrewardid is, or quytte. c 1440 Alph. Tales lxxxi. 64 God will hate no gude dede vnrewardid. 1512 Helyas in Thoms Prose Rom. (1828) III. 75 A good deede is never nowrewarded ne an evyll unpunisshed. 1576 ABP. SANDYS Serm. (1585) 171 Their seruice was vnrewarded, because it was vncontinued. 1608 E. H. J. Queen's Epigr. v. 7 Verdict given for a Newyeares-gift, vnrewarded. 1646 SIR E. NICHOLAS in N. Papers (Camden) III. 270 None can..imagine that so glorious an act can possibly be unrewarded. 1712 BLACKMORE Creation VI. 7 While Heaven's adores..Their unrewarded innocence maintain. 1779 Mirror No. 35, My obsequious services in the drawing-room passed unrewarded. 1821 BYRON Sardanap. III. i, 357 Slain I unrewarded!..that's hard, poor slave. 1865 MOUAT Ascension Islanders 153 Our persevering search, and our repeated use of the line, were unrewarded with the success we desired.

2. Unpunished.

1621 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Unmat. Father Wks. (1630) 140/1 God did neuer suffer a sinner to goe vnrewarded. 1909 Jersey Mem. II. 128 Wickedness does not go for ever unrewarded.

Unrewardedly, adv. (UN-[1] 11.) 1888 Scribner's Mag. Dec. 757/2 He had transfused two months of her life with such a delicate tenderness, and unrewardedly. Unrewarding, vbl. sb. (UN-[1] 13.) c 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xiv, It was the unrewarding, & not the evil employing her service, which grieved her.

Unrewarding, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.)

1653 JER. TAYLOR Serm. for Year I. xix. 255 He findes it an unrewarding interest, to walk seven days in vain; to see a place from whence he must come back in an hour. 1854 LEVER Dodd Family Abroad lxx. 592 [It] is a very unrewarding process. 1882 MYERS Renewal of Youth 120 [To] come bootless back from the unrewarding quest.

Unrhetorical, a. (UN-[1] 7, 5 b.)

[1775 ASH.] 1822 DE QUINCEY Confess. 78 The literal and unrhetorical use of the word spiritual. 1859 G. WILSON Mem. R. Forbes II. 68 The style..is strikingly unrhetorical. 1872 E. WHYTE Life in Christ IV. xxiv. 405 Certain unrhetorical explicit statements of doctrine.

Unrhymed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8; cf. UNRIMED.)

1828 CARLYLE Misc. (1857) I. 219 The grand unrhymed Romance of his early existence. 1848 LONGF. Secret of Sea iv, With a soft, monotonous cadence, Flow its unrhymed lyric lines.

Unrhythmic, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1884 Athenæum 2 Aug. 142/2 No unrhythmic verse was ever yet remembered beyond the generation that produced it.

Unrhythmical, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

Also, in recent use (1904), unrhythmically.

1777 RICHARDSON Persian & Arab. Dict. 1935 Discordant, unrhythmical, wretchedly composed verse or prose. 1840 DE QUINCEY Style Wks. 1859 XI. 167 Excess of awkwardness, or of inelegance, or of unrhythmical cadence. 1872 Edin. Rev. Apr. 432 His lines are never unrhythmical.

Uni'bbed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1834 K. H. DIGBY Mores Cath. v. viii, 288 See, then to what a distance your unribbed bark is driven. 1851 RUSKIN Stones Ven. I. xxix. § 3 When the vaulting is unribbed, as in plain waggon vaults.

Unrich, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1875 MORRIS Æneid XII. 519 By fruitful fishy Lerna's flood was once his life and gain, And unrich house. † Uni'rd, ppl. a.[1] (UN-[1] 8 b.) Unridden. 1640 H. MILL Night's Search I. 194 Give me a jade unrid, that's plump and fat.

Uni'rd, ppl. a.[2] Sc. and dial. [UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. ON. úreiðr (Norw. urudd, urydd, Sw. oröad, Da. uryddet) uncleared.] Not put in order.

1637 RUTHERFORD Lett. (1664) 132 So marches he still unrid & counts unclewed, betwixt ... 1824 CARR Crowen Dialect 5 Awr house is varn unrid and grimy. 1856 CARLYLE Lett. (1904) II. 179 [More of] my Book.. lies in heaps ahead of me, in the unrid state.

Unri·dden, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.)
(a) 1574 Richmond. Wills (Surtees) 248 Horses at Burghe. Ridden horsses and mares, xv.. Stages and fillies unreden, xij. 1607 MARKHAM Cavel. IV. 5 Foales, unridden horses, or horses that are of any..sobrietie in iourneying. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus III. v, Questions, which have stood there unridden for months. 1857 DUFFERIN Lett. High Lat. (ed. 2) 83 Having caught, saddled and bridled the three unridden ponies.
(b) 1656 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1848) II. 323 Leaving the saidis merches unridden.

Unri·dde, sb. rare[1]. (UN-[2]; cf. next.) A solution of a riddle. 1756 Connoisseur No. 107 P 7 Reading over the Riddles, and Unriddles, the Questions, and the Answers.

Unri·ddle, v. (UN-[2] 3. Cf. G. enträtselnˈn.) trans. To solve, explain (a mystery, etc.). (Cf. RIDDLE v.[1] 2.)
a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. vii, But nowe Amphialus helped to unriddle his doubts; for he [etc.]. 1634 PEACHAM Compl. Gent. xii. 111, I will give you..examples of these, with which..you may easily unriddle the rest. 1648 PEYNNE Plea for Lords 63 Let him..unriddle and assoyle..his owne Dilemma. 1714 ADDISON Spect. No. 567 P 7 If any sagacious Person can fairly unriddle it, I will print his Explanation. 1785 REID Intell. Powers IV. ii. 37 Take this description altogether, and it would require an Œdipus to unriddle it. 1820 KEATS Hyperion II. 150 No, no-where can [I] unriddle.. why?e..Should cower beneath..untremendous might. 1898 MERIVALE Rom. Emp. III. VI. 218 To unriddle some of the perplexing questions. 1889 MISS BRADDON Wyllard's Weird I. 104 If we can unriddle the railway mystery, all may yet come right.
refl. 1653 R. C[ODRINGTON] Lloyd's Marrow of Hist. 1 This at first may seem a paradox; but upon a deliberate consideration it will easily unriddle itself.
absol. a 1642 SUCKLING Goblins I, Pray, unriddle. 1710 PARNELL Hermit 207 Confess th' Almighty just, And where you can't unriddle, learn to trust. 1768 H. WALPOLE Myst. Mother IV. vi, Unriddle, priest. My soul is too impatient To wait [etc.].
Hence Unri·ddling vbl. sb.
a 1680 BUTLER Char. Religion Wks. (1908) 306 They..are wonderfull acute at unriddling of Mysteries. 1821 BYRON Juan III. xxviii, The cause being past his guessing or unriddling.

Unri·ddleable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.)
1647 EVELYN Let. in Diary, etc. (1872) III. 6 Things were never more unriddleable than at this instant of time. a 1675 LIGHTFOOT Serm. Wks. 1684 II, 1246 These difficulties..in Scripture..are not unriddleable riddles, and tying-irons never to be untied, but [etc.].

Unri·ddled, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) Unsolved. 1823 BYRON Juan XI. iii, This unriddled wonder, The World.

Unri·ddler. [f. UNRIDDLE v.] One who, or that which, solves or explains.
1657 TRAPP Comm. Job xxxvii. 22 A Teacher of perplexed things, an unriddler of Riddles. 1663 BOYLE Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. I. iii. 64 If our posterity be not much happier unriddlers then..we have been. 1824 SCOTT St. Ronan's III, He was also a dreiver of charades and an unriddler of riddles. 1872 EARLE Philol. Eng. Tongue 365 That frequent unriddler of philological problems, the Hebrew language.

† Unri·de, a. Obs. Also 3 vnrude, 5 -ruyde; 4-5 vn-, 6 unryde, 4 oun-, 5 onride, vnrid; 4 vnrede. [OE. ungerýde (ME. unirude UN-[1] 3) rough, violent, f. gerýde (once), ? smooth, pleasant; of obscure origin. Cf. UNRUDE a.[1]]
1. Severe; causing much suffering.
c 1200 ORMIN 4779 All þæs wass unrude & þrjjbj unnhal þurrh swipe unnride unnhæle. Ibid. 4784 Her was unnseoll þe unnride inoh Till an mann forr to dreshenn. c 1300 Havelok 1981 He haues a wunde in the side, With a gleyue, ful unride,.. And he haues on boru his þe, Þe vnrideste þat men may se. c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 747 Wel mcj ys gutes þat sward him ran, & made hym a wounde onride. a 1400 St. Alexius (Laud 108) 542 Al þat folk þat stod be-syde Þat say þe sorwe so vn-ruyde, þey weye ful tendrelche. c 1450 Towneley Myst. 11. 40 Man..was put out, in that tyde, In wo & wandreth for to be, in paynes full vnrid To knawe.
2. Of large size; of great size and strength; so large as to be cumbersome or unwieldy.
c 1230 Bestiary 646 Þanne cumeð ðis elp unride. a 1240 Ancrene Wisseh in O. E. Hom. I. 249 Euch an [sc. devil] bereð..an unrude raketehe gled-read of fure. c 1300 Havelok 1795 Þe barre..was unride, and gret ynow. c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 3652 Þe dent of hat sper oun-ryde. a 1400 Sir Per. 1160 To morne..salle we togedir playe With wapyns unryde. ? a 1600 Merlina 1501 (Percy Folio), His tayle was great.. his bodye was unryde with-all.
b. Large in number; numerous.
c 1300 Havelok 2947 [All] it sawe..Hwon he it bar with miket pride For his barnes þat was vnride. c 1330 King of Tars 142 The soudan gederet an ost unride.
c. Large in extent. rare[−1].
13.. Metr. Hom. (MS. Ashm. 40) fol. 136, An vnridde spase es how Makid betwix vs and sow Þat none of vs male come sow nere Ne none of sow male come here.
3. Rough; violent.
a 1300 Cursor M. 24843 Þe wind ras gains þam vnride. 1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 174 Þe noyse was vnride, it lasted alle day. c 1350 Ipomedon 6492 Is knyght non, That dare fyghte wyth hym alonge, So is the fende vnryde. a 1400-50 Alexander 739 Reviles he his oþire renke with vnrid [v.r. vnrode] speche. c 1470 Golagros & Gaw. 630 [He] raught to the renk ane rout wes vnryde.

Unri·d(e)able, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.)
Common in recent use. Hence unriddleability.
1881 Daily News 5 Jan. 6/5 Over a fine open country, till the land became almost unrideable. 1883 C. HOWARD Roads Eng. & Wales (ed. 3) 94 Steepnundeable ascents and descents.

Unri·deably, adv. (UN-[1] 12. Cf. prec.) 1851 KINGSLEY Yeast I. Lancelot had bought him..for half his value, as unrideably vicious, when he had killed a groom.

† Unri·dely, adv. Obs. Forms: (see quots.). [OE. ungerýdelice (rare), f. ungerýde: see UNRIDE a.] Violently, roughly, harshly.
c 1200 ORMIN 15567 note, And oferwrarrp þær i þe flor Unnriddlij þeggr bordess. a 1122 Juliana 54 [Juliana] þeat him mitte unrædeþe unrudeliche swiþe. a 1300 Cursor M. 24391 It raght mi hert al thoru þe rote, Vnridelicn me rane. 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 1432 Þe ber þe rugh rocher vn-rydely was fallen. a 1400-50 Alexander 266 Þan reklis it vnryddly & rayned doune stanes. Ibid. 638 If any of his feris Reged with him vnridly. c 1400 Song Roland 990 He rent hym vnredly eynn to the sadill.

Unri·dge, v. (UN-[2] 4.) 1647 TRAPP Comm. Rev. i. 16 The word..illus open, and as it were, unridgeth the conscience.

Unri·culous, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. VII. xvi. 372 If an indifferent and unridiculous object could draw his habitual austereness unto a smile. Unri·ffa, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1599 T. M[OUFET] Silkewormes 4 His brother Linus first began The Flaxmans craft (a secret then vnrife).

Unri·fled, ppl. a.[1] (UN-[1] 8 + RIFLE v.[1])
1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 83 Nothing..left vnpolluted and defaced, no place vnsought, no corner vnrifled. 1653 JER. TAYLOR Serm. for Year I. xix. 246 The estate.. remains unrifled, and descends upon the heir. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes III. xxiv. 1 Though of th' unrifled hid possess Of gorgeous Ind. 1835 Court Mag. VI. 205 Sing Birds!.. Give thanks in song for your unrifled nest! 1854 I. TAYLOR Words & Places 171 The hope of capturing the rich and unrifled prize.
1. 1637 HEYWOOD Royall Kings Prol., No History We have left unrified.

Unri·fled, ppl. a.[2] (UN-[1] 8 + RIFLE v.[3])
1860 All Year Round No. 73. 546 The shot of the ordinary unrifled service gun is round.

Uni·g, v. (UN-[2] 4.)
1. trans. To divest (a ship) of its rigging (both standing and running).
1579-80 NORTH Plutarch (1595) 541 He vnrigged and bestowed his ships in docks. 1615 Britain's Buss in Arber Garner III. 632 That the other two weeks be also spent.. in unrigging and laying up the Buss. 1667 Lond. Gaz. No. 170/4 They were constrained to Unrigg her, and to take down her Topmast. 1720 DE FOE Capt. Singleton (ed. 18401) 240 We unrigged our top-masts. 1768 Ann. Reg., Chron. 106/6 Some sailors began to unrig the Ships. 1806 A. DUNCAN Nelson 121 A broadside..nearly unrigged the Foudroyant. 1820 SCORESBY Acc. Arct. Reg. II. 451 It would be necessary first to discharge the cargo, and to unrig the ship.
b. absol. To remove or take down rigging.
a 1647 PEYE in Archæologia (1796) XII. 297 Friday the 16th, we unrigged, and shot the bridge. 1799 NELSON in Nicolas Disp. (1845) III, 238 Malta then was half-starving, and the Ships had unrigged. 1897 tr. Nansen's Farthest North II. vii. 227 We..rigged up mast and sail. But..we were soon obliged to unrig, and take to paddling.
c. In pres. pple. = Being unrigged.
1673 Lond. Gaz. No. 773/4 The other, mounted with 24 Guns, is now unrigging. 1810 Naval Chron. XXIII. 121 A small frigate unrigging.
d. trans. (See quot.)
1769 FALCONER Dict. Marine (1780), Dégarnir le cabestan, to unrig the Capstern, by taking off the voyol, and unshipping the bars.
2. transf. To strip of clothes; to undress.
1591 LYLY Endym. III. iii, Unrigge mee. Hey ho! 1693 Dryden's Juvenal xiv. (1697) 367 The Shrine was..lin'd with a strong Guard of Souldiers, who had an Eye to their God ..lest he should be stolen, or unrigg'd. 1723 Pres. St. Russia I. 162 The French Gentlewoman,..whom they had almost unrigged, without telling the Men that they had stript first. 1793 WOLCOT (P. Pindar) Ep. to the Pope 132 Out with her ear-rings and the Dame drifting. 1820 SCOTT Monast. xvi, He seemed no spare dodkin,..—I was enforced to beat a retreat before I was altogether unrigged. 1880- in Shropshire and Yks. use (Eng. Dial. Dict.).
absol. 1693 CONGREVE Old Bach. v. i, Bell. I wou'd unrig. Setter. I attend you, Sir. 1885 Mrs. WHITNEY Gayworthys v, Gabriel..fibbed again when he said he 'didn't feel much like rigging up for a party;' which had been true but for the last five minutes since he unrigged.
b. To unharness.
1690 Lond. Gaz. No. 2552/3 The Sailors went ashore and unrigged his Horse. 1881 DUFFIELD Don Quixote II. 575 The express command of his master that..Rozinante should not be unrigged.

Unri·gged, ppl. a. [f. prec., or UN-[1] 8.] a. Divested of rigging. b. Not furnished with rigging.
c 1593 MARLOWE Edw. II, iv. II, While in the harbor ride thy ships vnrigd. — Dido III. i, Yet..are my ships vnrigd, My Sailes all rent. 1623 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. II. (1908) 215 The carricke..nowe lyeth altogeather unrigged. 1695 Lond. Gaz. No. 3088/3 The Ships that lay hard by unrigg'd. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. iv. 330 Our shrouds were loose, and our top-masts unrigged. 1799 Hull Advertiser 30 Mar. 1/4 She being totally unrigged, struck. 1830 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 7) II. 639/2 An unrigged boat. 1834 MARRYAT P. Simple II. 281 Our guns became..hot from quick firing. ..By this time we were almost..unrigged.

Unri·ght, sb. Obs. exc. arch. [OE. unriht (f. un- UN-[1] 12 + riht RIGHT sb.[1]), = OFris. on-, unrîucht (WFris. on-, ûnrjucht, NFris. ûnrocht), MDu. (Du.) onrecht, OS. unreht (MLG., LG. unrecht, LG. -regt), OHG. (MHG.) unreht (G. unrecht), Norw. urett, (M)Da. uret, (M)Sw. orätt.]
1. Wrong, wrong-doing, iniquity.
Beowulf 2264 Siþðan goldsele Grendel warode, unriht aræfnde. c 1122 O. E. Chron. (Laud MS.) an. 1100, He on middewardan his unrihte buten behreowsunge..sewat. c 1205 LAY. 6553 Vurihť him wes leof, and þihtwissesse him wes lab. c 1330 R. BRUNNE Chron. Wace (Rolls) 13123 Com, & amende þyn vnright, þat þou so slowe ffrolle oure knyght. c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. II. 91 þis is a trewe man, and unright is not in him. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. v. iii. 498 The oon [god] is maker of riht and of good thingis, and the other is maker of vnrist and of badde thingis. a 1547 SURREY in Early XVI Cent. Lyrics xiv. 46 Prowd people that drede no fall, clothed with falshed and vnright. 1598 PROCTOR Gorgeous Gallery Inventions B ij, Well mayst thou wayle thy want of troth; & rue thy great vnright. 1610 H. BROUGHTON Job xxvii. 4 My lippes shall not speak the vnright. [1876 FREEMAN Norm. Conq. V. xxiv. 394 It was because they still spake of right that right in the end outlived unright.]
b. In the phr. to do (or work) unright.
c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. xxxviii. § 3 Forþamðe ðu ne cwæde ðæt he unriht dyde þæt he lete unwitnod þa yflan. c 1000 ÆLFRIC Deut. xxxi. 29 Þonne ge unriht wircea ðeforan drihtene. a 1300 Cursor M. 24158 Ye Iuus,..Vn-reufulli yee wirc vnright. 13.. Ibid. 5084 (Gött.) I am sekinu i did vnriht. c 1412 HOCCLEVE De Reg. Princ. 5040 [God] may done non vnright. 1535 COVERDALE Zeph. iii. 5 But the iust Lorde that doth no vnright, was amonge them. a 1547 SURREY in Early XVI Cent. Lyrics xiv. 16 All such as do vnright. 1607 J. DAVIES Summa Totalis G 2, With neither Will, nor Pow'r to do vnright.
2. Unfairness, injustice (done or suffered).
c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. xxxix. § 9 Hwyle unriht mæg beon mare þonne se: ælfge [etc.]. c 1000 Ælf. Lawa (Thorpe) I. 388 We nellað ðeþolian þæt unriht. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 115 He scal wissian mid wisdome his folke and unriht aleggen. 1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 8625 More vnright þan he dede ne mijte nouon lies. c 1325 Spec. Cry Wards 613 Ne suffre wrong and vnriht For þe loue of god almiht. c 1400 Beryn 557 That were grete vnryste, To aventur oppon a man pat with hym did nat fiste. 1456 Coo. Lett Bk. 290 Boldly to fight, Yf any man of curage wold lid you vnright. 1530 TINDALE Proct. Prelates A v b, There was neuer creature that sofred so greate vnright so pacyentlye..as he. 1581 A. HALL Hind IX. 162 Suffice it him he hath me wronge, and that his own vnright Doth hel him like a man forlorne.
b. In phr. to do one unright, or variations of this.
c 1200 Vices & Virtues 113 Nis him idon non unriht. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1276 Þor ben he boðen feren pliht, þat here neiðer sal don o'er un-riht. 13.. K. Alis. 7491 (Laud MS.), And amendyng I bidde þee to Of vnright þat þu me do. 1340 Ayenb. 221 Hi ssolle loki hare bodi þe on to þe oþre..treweliche wyþ-oute do onriht þe on to þe oþren. c 1420 LYDG. Compl. Bl. Knt. 324 Notwithstonding his manhood..Love unto him did ful greet unright. 1538 TINDALE Expos. Matt. (1550) F vij b, Be patient.., what soeuer vnright be done the. 1599 DANIEL Lett. Octavia to M. Antonius xxii, Is it that loue doth take no true delight In what it hath.. Which drawes you on to doe vs this vnright?
3. With (also on) unright, wrongfully, unjustly.
Beowulf 2739 Ic..ne sohte searoniþas, ne me swor fela aða on unriht. c 1000 K. ÆLFRED Laws § 1 Ne wilna þu þines nehstan ierfes mid unryhte. c 1205 LAY. 7374 Þu ahtest me to gulden scoel of Engelonde, And þu hit halst on unriht. 1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 4040 He nom it verst mid vnrist, & broþe þat lond in wo. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 1142 He loses hit ille, As hit were rafte wyth vnryst & robbed wyth þewes. a 1445 Cursor M. 19012 (Trin.) þat thesus..þe dude on rode wiþ vnrist. 1565 FOXE A. & M. 984/1 To discerne in what wise ther iudgement passed, whether with right or vnright.
4. An instance of wrong or wrong-doing; a wrong or unjust act.
c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. xvi. § 4 Betwuh þyllecum unrihtum wes him [sc. Nero]..underþeod eall þesmiddangeard. a 1122 O. E. Chron. (Laud MS.) an. 1086, Manige oðre unriht hi dydan, þe sindon earfeþe to areccenne. c 1200 Vices & Virtues 79 Þa þat he hadde mid manige unrihtes bigeten. c 1300 Cursor M. 11812 þis heroldes, vn-rightes biginnes to ripe! c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 1031 Þe Sarasyns.. schullab abigge þys vunrijt. c 1400 tr. Secreta Secret., Gov. Lordsh. 59 Draw to þe þe good wylles of yv subgitz, and putte away hyre vnryghtes wyl fromme. a 1500 Chester Pl. 11. 142, 40 dayes and 40 nightes Rayne shall fall for ther vnrightes. 1528 LYNDESAY Dreme 262 Partycipant thay wer of thane vnrychis.

Unri·ght, a. [OE. unriht (f. un- UN-[1] 7 + riht RIGHT a.), = OFris. on-, unrîucht (WFris. on-, ûnrjucht, NFris. ûnrocht), MDu. and obs. Du. onrecht, OS. unreht (MLG. and LG. unrecht, LG. -regt), OHG. (MHG.) unreht (G. unrecht), ON. úrétr (Norw. urett, Da. uret, MSw. orätter, Sw. orätt).]
1. Not right, just, or equitable; improper, unfair, wrong. Now Sc. or arch. (common in 16th c.).
c 888 K. ÆLFRED Boeth. xxxviii. § 3 Ic..wundrie forhwy swa rihtwis dema ænige unrihte gife wille forgifan. c 1000 Ags. Ps. (Thorpe) cxviii. 104 Ic me betst oncnow, þæt ic unrihte weras ealle of-eode. c 1200 Vices & Virtues 121 Unriht domesmann. 1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 8726 He let grede þoru al þe lond þe vnriste lawes vnido. c 1375 Cursor M. 26721 (Fairf.) He saile..on domisday hane wreyers harde, þat is to say..þe wnide, þe deol, his didis vnrijt. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. III. xix. 412 Open is a chiln deed or gouernaunce in him silf is vnrist and wrong. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 545/2 [To] walke in the commaundementes of life, & do nothing that is vnright. 1609 J. DAVIES (Heref.) Microcosmus 157 These sensenesses of improbity Are full of pleasure, but it is vnright. 1627 BP. HALL Davids Ps. Metaphr. I, The man that wrongs, As chaffe... With every blast is cast on hie. 1896 W. H. GILLESPIE Truth Evang. Hist. vii. 129 Such unright and self-inconsistent deputation. 1880 G. MACDONALD Diary Old Soul 16 Feb., If I should slow diverge..Into some thought, feeling, or dream unright.
absol. 1612 H. BROUGHTON Job xxix. 17, I brake the tusches of the vnright.
† 2. Incorrect; inexact. Obs. rare.
1562 TURNER Herbal II. 32 Amatus gyueth an vnright duche name vnto Sion when he calleth it bauchbungen. 1591 WOTTON in Relig. (1688) 541, I..alleg'd further, that the Copy was unright. 1605 VERSTEGAN Doc. Intell. i. 17 So many haue alcaged so many vnright and vnlykely causes thereof.

†Unri·ght, adv. Obs. [OE. unrihte (f. un- Un-¹ 11 b + rihte Right adv.), = MDu. onrechte (Du. onrecht), OS. and OHG. unrehto (MHG. unrehte, G. unrecht), Da. uret, Sw. orätt.] Improperly; not in the right way; wrongly.

Beowulf 3059 þa wæs geomor þæs ðe sid ne ðah þam ðe unrihte inne gehydde wræte under wealle. a 1000 Ags. Ps. (Thorpe) cxviii. 78 Beon þa oferhydegan ealle gescende, þe me unrihte ahwær gretan. c 1374 Chaucer Troylus v. 661 Hym thonght .. þat he some wente hin saith [etc.]. 1693 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos 167 See how blinde a Guide is lothsome Lust, that leades men so wright.

† Unri·ght, *v.*¹ Obs. rare. [f. Unright sb. or a. Cf. MDu. onrechten, MHG. unrechten, to do injustice, treat unjustly.] trans. To wrong, injure.

1390 Gower Conf. I. 176, I wolde swiche tales sprede.. Thus I schulde al his love into hate. Ibid. II. 355 That he thingis eny sleihte myhte hire lusti maidenhod unrihte. 1647 in Rushworth Hist. Coll. iv. (1701) I. 555 Rather than they will be unrighted in the matter of their Honesty and Integrity,.. they will lose all.

†Unri·ght, *v.*² Un-² 4. Cf. OFris. on(t)riuhta, MDu. ontrechten (Du. -richten), MLG. entrihten, OHG. intrihtan (MHG. entrechten, G. -richten).] trans. To deprive of rights.

c 1449 Pecock Repr. iii. xvi. 386 This man mai not iustli be vnriztid and vnpossessid, that is to sele, be putt out of rist and out of possession of this seid ..good.

Unri·ghted, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] Not righted. [1775 Ash.] 1883 F. M. Peard Contrad. II. 269 If the wrong were unrighted,..then—what would become of her?

Unri·ghteous, a. Forms: (see Righteous a.). [OE. unrihtwis (Un-¹ 7 + Righteous). Cf. ON. óréttvís (MDa. uretvis, Sw. orättvis).]

1. Not righteous or upright; unjust, wicked: a. Of persons.

c 888 Ælfred Boeth. xxxvii. § 1 Geher nu an spell be .. þam unrihtwisum cyningum. c 1000 Ags. Gosp. Luke xvi. 10 Se þe ys on lytlum unrihtwis, se ys eac on maran unrihtwis. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 115 þe þinæðe unþeau is þet þe king beo unrihtwis. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 19 Alle þe unrihtwise men.. hersumiæð þe deuel. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 19 Alle unrijtwise men þat serven to him [sc. the devil] as hise trewe knyztis. 14.. Tyndale's Vit. 274 þou art not lele iustise, þou art fals and unryghtwyse. 1474 Caxton Chesse 28 Cambyses.. had an vnrightwis judge. 1526 Tindale Heb. vi. 10 God is not vnrighteous that he shulde forget youre worke. 1572 R. T. Discourse 48 The Sadducees..were most vnrighteous. 1651 Hobbes Leviathan iii. xlii. 306 There being nothing more vnciuill in men, than makes them righteous, or unrighteous. 1712 M. Henry Expos., Isaiah lv. 7 Here's a Call..to the Wicked, and the Unrighteous Man. 1791 Bentham Draught Code Wks. 1843 IV. 316 An unrighteous judge, or rather a judge who would otherwise be unrighteous. 1871 Jowett Plato I. 158 Many men are utterly unrighteous, unholy, intemperate.

absol. c 893 Vesp. Psalter v. 6 Ne ðorhwunað ða unrehtwisan biforan eyne ðinum. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 83 Ic wile tacho ðo unrihtwisen ðine weiseæ. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) App., 1 Pet. iii. 18 For onys Crist was for oure synnes deed, þe rightwyse for the vnrightwise. 1623 R. Carpenter Conscionable Christians 14 What then shall the vnrighteous be able to say .. for themselues? 1712 M. Henry Expos., Isaiah lv. 7 The Unrighteous that live in the neglect of plain Duties. 1835 Wilson's Tales Borders I. 58 'c The im sent have been left to perish among the unrighteous.

b. Of actions, etc.

971 Blickl. Hom. 33 Se awyrgda gast is heafod ealra unrihtwisra dæda. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2014 His wif wur'l wilde, and nam in ðast vn-rijt-wis lune. a 1300 Cursor M. 9507 O thrijn wijs Mal cunning bad unrightwis. c 1400 Destr. Troy 3539 The rape vnrightwis of his Riche qwene. 1481 Caxton Reynard xlii. (Percy Soc.) 160 Somme helpe them forth in theyr vnrygthtwys dedes. 1535 Coverdale 2 Macc. iv. 33 The vnrighteous death of so goddly a man. 1590 Spenser F. Q. II. x. 60 Octauius here lept into his roome, And it vsurped by vnrighteous doome. 1667 Milton P. L. iii. 292 Thir orb both righteous and unrighteous deeds. 1725 Pope Odyss. ix. 630 Angry Neptune, heard th' unrighteous prayer. 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. xxi. 365 Those who have dared to prostitute holy things to unrighteous purposes. 1853 'Ouida' Held in Bondage i. I. 17 He was..full of most unrighteous oaths.

† o. Incorrect, false. *Obs.*¹

1507 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 437 That the mettis and mesouris be assayt..and quhar thai be fundin unrichtuus be distroit.

2. Not rightly due or deserved.

1855 Singleton Virgil II. 100 Anchises' offspring .. from his soul Compassionate thus unrighteous lot.

Hence Unri·ghteous v., to make unrighteous.

1593 Nashe Christ's T. K ij b, Thou that ere this hast disparadiz'd our first Parent Adam, and vnrightiouzed the very Angels.

Unri·ghteously, adv. [OE. unrihtwislice (Un-¹ 11 + Righteously adv.). Cf. ON. óréttvísliga (MDa. uretvislige, MSw. orättvisliko.)] In an unrighteous manner; unjustly, wrongfully.

c 897 K. Ælfred Gregory's Past. C. liv. 425 Ic cwæð to þæm unryhtwisum, ne do ge unryhtwislice. a 1000 in Kemble Cod. Dipl. IV. 24 Butan he toforan ðam deaðe .. zebete þæt he unrihtwislice forgette. a 1300 Cursor M. 18274 Qui gif þou rede þis ile iesu to crucifi, Wit-vten skil, vn-rightwisli? 1382 Wyclif Wisdom xii. 13 For not vnrijtwisly thou demest dom. c 1425 Audelay XI Peines Hell 333 What chamful end þay haue þat leuyn here vnrygtwysly.

1599 Barclay Ship of Foolys (1570) 29 Remember Richarde .. In Englande reigning vnrightwisely a while. 1859 Mirr. Mag. 43 Was never prince that other dyd oppresse Unrighteously, but died in distresse. 1611 Beaum. & Fl. Philaster ii. i, Who unrighteously Holds wealth or state from others, shall be curst. 1689 Dryden Hind & P. iii. 1077 Their Foes a deadly Shibboleth devise: By which unrighteously it was decreed [etc.]. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1770) V. 422 Whether they do not, persecute most unrighteously..both Christian Faith, and natural piety. 1867 Foster Ess. (1844) I. 21 They have sometimes been most unrighteously accused. 1847 Prescott Peru iii. vii. 1. 428 The distribution of spoil so unrighteously acquired.

Unri·ghteousness. [f. Unrighteous a.] The quality of being unrighteous; an instance of this, an unrighteous action.

c 825 Vesp. Psalter v. 7 Ðu fedest..alle ða ðe wircað unrehtwisnisse. c 1055 Byrhferth's Handboc in Anglia VIII. 332 Iniquitas on lyden on englisc ys geeweden unrihtwisnys. c 1200 Vices & Virtues 57 Ðeoh his unrihtwisnesse he bringð his saule in to helle pine. a 1300 E. E. Psalter xxxvi. 7 In man.. Unrightwisnes þat es doand. c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 240 A greete vnrijtwisnesse regneþ among lordis whanne þei wolen not distroie pride. 1422 Yong tr. Secreta Secret. 132 Vnryghtuousnesse disherityth kynges and Pryncis. 1535 Coverdale 2 Esdras vii. 35 The righteousnesses shall watch, and the vnrighteousnesses shall beare no rule. 1590 Barnfield Espos. Commandm. 79, I am not worthie to beholde the height of Heauen, for the multitude of my vnrighteousnesse. 1611 Bible Rom. i. 18 The wrath of God is reuealed from heauen against all .. vnrighteousnesse of men. a 1697 Barow Serm. Wks. (1686) II. v. 80 The inherent unrighteousness consequent upon Adam's sin. a 1758 Witherspoon Ess. Sel. Wks. 1804 I. 36 He is a God..with whom unrighteousness can have no communion. 1833 S. Hogue Discourses xv. 200 The unrighteousness of living to himself alone. 1871 Jowett Plato II. 330 If only he can .. be pure from evil or unrighteousness.

Unri·ghtful, a. Now rare. [Un-¹ 7.] Unrighteous, unjust, wrong.

a 1340 Hali Meidenhad 2 3 Ye sett nouȝt to-fore myn eȝen þyng vnryȝtful. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xi. 215 A ryhaud þei engendrede and a gome vnryȝtful. c 1440 Jacob's Well 28 An Heremyte ȝaf hym to yddel & vnrȝytefull thoȝtys,.. for hym thouȝte þat god was vnrȝytfull. 1482 Monk of Evesham (Camd.) 85 The vnrightfull scheding of mennys blode. 1545 Bale Myst. Iniq. 15 Pylate the vnryghtfull iudge. a 1586 Sidney Astr. & Stella Sonn. v. x, A rightfull prince by unrightfull deeds a tyrant groweth. 1606 G. Woodcock? Hist. Iustine xxii. 84 Obiecting vnto them sometime their vnrightfull entrapping of Hanno. 1664 More Myst. Iniq. iv. 11 Malicious or inconsiderate spirits, that.. pass unrightfull censures upon what is at least allowable.

1880 M'Carthy Own Times I V. 356 The unrightful things that were sometimes done.

Unri·ghtfully, adv. Now rare. [Un-¹ 11.] Without right; unjustifiably, unfairly, wrongly.

a 1325 Prose Psalter cv. 6 We han wrȝst vnrȝstfullich. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. i. met. v. (1868) 23 Anoienge folk treden..vnrȝstfully the neckes of holy men. 1433 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 455/1 When they been often tymes unrightfully empeched. 1470-85 Malory Arthur viii. ii. 276 That is vnrȝystfully asked, said kyng Melyodas. 1532 Bradshaw St. Werburge (Camd.) 8 A kynge that is lately dede vnrȝstfully, now a martyr gloryous. c 1557 Abp. Parker Ps. xxxvi. 99 The wordes of hys mouth be vnrightfully wayed.

1793 Jefferson Writ. (1859) IV. 67 Between restraining it ourselves, and permitting our enemies to restrain it unrightfully, is no difference. 1866 Howells Venet. Life iv. 53 A great humbug and unrightfully in the guide-books.

Unri·ghtfulness. Now rare. [f. Unrightful a.] The quality of being unrightful.

a 1250 Owl & Night. 174 Ic nolde þat vnrihtfulnesse Me at þen soueraine, c 1325 Prose Psalter vii. 15 Lo, þe sinner doþ vnryȝt-fulnesse. 1382 Wyclif John vii. 18 This is sothfast, and vnrijtfulnesse is not in him. c 1450 in Roy Rede me, etc. (Arb.) 183 The wrathe of god is shewyd .. vpon cruelnes and vnrȝythfulnes of thees men. c 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) ii. xvii. 128/2 Periury is cause .. of all unrightfulnesse.

1821 Jefferson Autobiog. Writ. 1892 I. 62 The unrightfulness and inefficacy of the punishment of crimes by death.

† Unri·ghtly, a. Obs.—¹ [Un-¹ 7. Cf. next and OE. unrihtlic.] Wrong, erroneous.

1422 Yong tr. Secreta Secret. 161 Verite caste doune, whan any vnryghtly thynge is preferrid to trouthe.

Unri·ghtly, adv. Now rare. [OE. unrihtlice (Un-¹ 11 + Rightly adv.), = MDu. onrechtlike (obs. Du. -lijk), MLG. unrechtelîken, OHG. unrehtlîhho (MHG. unrehtliche, etc.), ON. óréttliga (MDa. and Da. urettelig, MSw. orätlika.)] Not rightfully; unfairly, wrongly.

a 900 O. E. Martyrol. 18 May 84 Fram þæm mannum .. þa he ne unrihtlice ofsloh on þyssum life. c 1000 Rule St. Benet (1888) 104 Unrihtlice he ne gedihte [nan þing]. c 1425 Eng. Cong. Ireland 128 To setten yn har londes, Thay that wyth strynth & vnrȝtghly weren out ledryue. 1544 Bale Chron. Sir J. Oldcastell 53 b, Not all vnrȝtghtlye ded saynct Augustyn speake yet. 1583 tr. Maison Neuve's Gerileon i. 29 b, Thereby to burden you with the fault, wherein not vnrightly you are culpable. 1643 Prynne Sov. Power Parl. 108 If any inferiour Officers .. unrightly governe the people, they may lawfully be resisted by them. 1878 Prodigal Son iv. in Simpson Sch. Shaks. 110 We are such honest folk that we covet nothing unrightly.

† Unri·ghtness. Obs. [Un-¹ 12.] Unfairness. c 1445 Pecock Donet 134 Þei ben..forbodis of oure vnrijtwisnesse, of oure vnrijtnes anentis oure neiȝboris. † Unri·ghty, a. Obs.—¹ [Un-¹ 7 + Right a. Cf. Du. onrechtich (Du. -ig), MLG. unrichtich, OHG. unrihtig (G. unrichtig), etc.] Devoid of right condition. c 1315 Shoreham 1. 1555 Þou wrebest god almyȝty, To holy cherche on-bouxam þart, Makest by value on-ryȝty. Unri·med, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 a.] = Unrhymed ppl. a. 1774 [W. Mitford] Ess. Harmony Lang. 142 Rimed verse..is far inferior to unrimed. 1866 Sweat Wars Alex. p. xx, Any other unrimed alliterative poem. Unri·mple, v. (Un-³ 4. Cf. Du. ontrimpelen.) 1800 Monthly Mag. X. 318 Fresh blossoms of diction [would] unrimple their roseate petals. Unri·mpled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] a 1839 Galt Demon Destiny iii. (1840) 21 The placid waters..Were all unrimpled by the gentle air.

Unri·nd, v. Also 6 vnrine. [Un-² 4. Cf. G. entrinden.] trans. To strip of rind or bark. Hence Unri·nded *ppl. a.*¹ 1382 Wyclif Gen. xxx. 37 Jacob takynge green popil gerdis..a parti vnryendide hem. 1598 Florio, Sbucciare,.. to pare..or vnbarke or vnrinde trees. 1611 Cotgr., Escorcée, ..the pilled, or vnrinded part of a Plant. 1648 Hexham II, Ontschoeyen, to Pill or Vnrinde a tree.

b. fig. To undress.

1872 T. Hardy Under Greenw. Tree iv. ii, I've been forced to go upstairs and unrind myself.

† Unri·nded, *ppl. a.*² Sc. Obs. [Un-¹ 8 + Rind *v.*²] Unruinored; not peeled down.

1581 Burgh Rec. Edinb. (1882) IV. 227 The talloun bocht be him als weill ryndet and vnryndet. 1702 in W. R. Mackintosh Glimpses of Kirkwall (1887) 42 That none of the fleshers exact any more than twentie pennies Scots for the merk of unryndeid tallow.

Unri·nged, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8. Cf. MDu. ongeringet, older Da. uringet.] Of swine: Not furnished with a nose-ring. (Cf. Unrung *ppl. a.*²) 1510 Burgh Rec. Prestwick (Maitl. Club) 42 For be wiangwis worttyne of þar swyne, & wnryngyt. 1576 Gascoigne Steele Gl. (Arb.) 70 Like rude vnringed swine. 1624 in H. Maclean Watervilleck Reg. (1906) 157 Sub poena for every swine so unringed iiij$^{d}$. 1664 Butler Hud. II. ii. 870 Is't fit [it] should .. He forc'd t' impeach a broken hedge, And Pigs uninrg'd. 1733 in Climenson Hist. Shipbks (1894) 307 No person shall suffer his pigs to go unringed.

Unri·nsed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1661 Feltham Resolves (ed. 8) ii. i. 174 Loose and unrins'd expressions are the .. spuriciious exhalations of a corrupted mind. 1847 Landor Hellenics, Thrasymedes & P. 6 Ve shall not .. taste From unrinsed barrel the diluted wine. 1860 Flor. Nightingale Nursing i. 14, I have actually seen .. the utensils..put back, unrinsed, under the bed.

Unri·oted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1627 May Lucan ix. 235 A chariot vnriotted house, and never stain'd With her Lords fortune.

Unri·p, v. [Un-² 9 + Rip *v.*²]

1. trans. To strip (a house or roof) of tiles, slates, etc. (Cf. Rip *v.*² 2 c.) Now dial.

a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vii. 424 [They] vnryppyd the howse in dyuers places that the rayne..myght entre. 1543 in Parker Doms. Archit. (1850) III. 61 Sercching, vnryppyng, new tylyng and poyntyng ouer the west syde of the Quenes pallet chambre. 1887 Parish & Shaw Kentish Glass. 129 To unrip the roof of a stable or outbuilding, is to take off the tiles, slates, &c.

2. To lay open, slit up, or detach, by ripping.

Stigmatized in 1708 as 'a barbarous, improper word' (British Apollo No. 75, 2/1; cf. quot. 1880). In 19th c. somewhat rare in literary use; but freq. in dialect.

1534 [see b]. 1594 Shaks. Rich. III. i. iv. 212 [Thou] Did'st breake thai Vow, and with thy treacherous blade, Vnrip't the Bowels of thy Sou'raigne Sonne. 1602 B. Jonson Poetaster iii. iv, You should ha' seene me vnrip their noses now, and haue sent them to the barbarians, to stitching. 1661 Walton Angler i. v. (ed. 3) 122 We heard as high a contention amongst the beggers, Whether it was easiest to rip a cloak, or to unrip a cloak? 1706 Swift Poems, Mrs. Harris' Petition 13 My smock was unrip't, And, instead of putting it [=a purse] into my pocket, down it slipt. 1743 Fielding Y. Wild iv. ix, He unrip't the lining of his waistcoat and pulled forth several jewels. 1837 Marryat Dog Fiend xi, They proceeded to unrip them [sc. bags]. 1853 Miss Braddon Aurora Floyd xxi, He took his clasp-knife .. [and] carefully unripped a part of one of the seams in the waistcoat. 1880 Plain Hints Needlework 106 To say un-rip, as is often heard, is at least manifestly wrong, to describe the act of tearing open.

b. In fig. contexts.

1534 R. Whitinton Cicero i. G vij, Amytes and loue that lesse delye vs .. wyse men ladge rather to become vs by lyyal and by lyyal to vnrippe them than sodaynly to cutte them awaye. 1586 Hooker Disc. Justification § 5, I cannot stand now to vnrip this building, and to sift it piece by piece. 1611 Beaum. & Fl. Philaster i. i, Though thy breath doth strike me dead .. I have unript my breast. c 1652 A. Wilson Incontinent Ladie iv. iii, Thy lookes are full of honestie; I dare vnrip my breast to thee. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. ii. 67 As Cato well observes, though in the Phrase of a Taylor, Friendship ought not to be Vnrip'd, but Vnstitch'd.

refl. 1614 J. Cooke Greene's Tu Quoque E 1, Had's thou not vnrip't thy selfe to me, I should neuer haue knowne thee.

† o. To break (a seal); to open (a sealed document). Obs.

1583 Greene Mamillia 26 b, His daughter..receiving the Letter, could scarcely stay to vnrip the seale, while she came in her closet. 1633 Ford 'Tis Pity v. i 2, Friar. Looke there, 'tis writt to thee. (Gives the letter.) Gio. From whom? Friar. Vnrip the seales and see. 1694 Heywood Maidenh. well lost i. 47 b, His seal'd Commission He had vnript.

† 3. fig. a. To rip up, bring to light or notice, expose to view. Obs.

1577 Sir W. Drury in Grosart Spenser's Wks. I. 66, I would not seem to unrip old matters. 1591 Troub. Reigne K. John i. 88 Before I once open my mouth to vnripp the shameful slaunder of my parents. 1615 Brathwait Strappado 211 For many Errors and fowle crimes I knowe.. Which I'le in part vnrip, and so make cleare. 1633 Ford 'Tis Pity iii. F 3 b, You haue vnript a soule, so foule and guilty,..I marualle how The earth hath borne you vp.

† b. To unfold, disclose, reveal, make known.

1579-80 North Plutarch (1595) 832 When he beganne to vnrip his whole intents and practises..he ..offended the Senate. 1598 Marston Pygmal., Sat. ii. 143 Delphick

Apollo, ayde me to vnrip These intricate deepe Oracles of wit. 1615 Brathwait Strappado, etc. (1878) 253 Her blush, her smile, her biting of her lip, did all the secrets of her hart vnripe. 1755 Smollett Quix. II. 296 You may unrip, and unload, all that lies upon your sorrowful heart.

†c. To undo, annul. Obs.

1622 Bacon Hen. VII, 176 Hee could not now with his Honour so vnripe, and (as a sort) put a Lye upon all that hee had said and done before.

Hence Unripped ppl. a.; Unri·pping vbl. sb.

1641 Milton Animadv. 8 Such an unripping, such an Anatomie of the shiest, and tenderest particular truths. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 144 Let down the Bag by unripping of the Hoop. 1890 Thackeray Pendennis xi, Milly..took an unripped satin garment off the only vacant seat.

Unri·pe, a. [OE. unripe (i. un- Un-1 7 + ripe Ripe a.), = WFris. on-, ûnryp, NFris. inripl, MDu. (Du.) onrijp, OHG. unrîfi (MHG. unrîf, G. unreif).]

†1. Of death: Untimely, premature. Obs.

c 1000 Ælfric Gloss. in Wr.-Wülcker 140 Immaturus [unripe], unripe dea'h. 1548 Udall Erasmn. Par. Luke vii, 6 b, The unripe death of the young striplyngs. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. vi, Dorilans, whose unripe death doth yet.. draw teares from vertuous eyes. 1633 P. Fletcher (title), Elisa, or An Elegie upon the Unripe Decease of Antonia Irby.

2. Immature; not arrived at full development.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter cxviii. 147, I ran in barthedie, bot is vnrype till perfeccioun. 1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke 141 b, That same stemme of the Judaicall figtree brought forth, vnsauoriie, & vnripe people. 1620 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1907) III. 382 The teachinge of a Stranger ..vnripe of yeres. a 1639 Waller Battle Summer-Isl. I. 59 So in this northern tract our hoarser throats Utter unripe and ill-constrained notes. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharamon, II. iii. 62 Yet Justice slumbers I' the prosecution of his unripe fate. 1700 Dryden Nigism. & Guisc. 254 Resolv'd his unripe Vengeance to defer, The Royal Spy.. Sought not the Garden. 1704 J. Tray Abra-Mid I. 13 Thy tender Innocence, and unripe Beauty. 1819 Shelley Peter Bell 3rd Prol. 15 The First Peter—he who was Like the shadow in the glass Of the second, yet unripe. 1847 Emerson Each & All 38 Beauty is unripe childhood's cheek. 1891 Spectator 98 Feb., To try unripe and ill-conceived schemes for improving their condition.

b. Of years or age.

1568 Grafton Chron. II. 120 The election beyng vnfree, and the yeres vnripe, sche of them almost of necessitie must hate the other. 1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. ii. 9, I whose vnryper yeares are yet vnfit For thing of weight. 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. Ep. Ded., These raw Essayes of my very unripe yeares. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharam. IV. v. 235 The old Experienced courtiers kneel; by which ..those of unripe age [etc.]. 1800 Wordsw. Brothers 297 The boy..of unripe years, a stripling only. 1814 Cary Dante, Purgat. xvii. 77 His unripe age Yet holds him from observance.

3. Of fruit, etc.: Not matured by growth.

a 1250 Owl & Night. 320 Mi stefne is hold .. & þin is illiche one pype Of one smale wrode unripe. 1382 Wyclif Rev. vi. 13 As a fige tree sendith his vnripe figes. 1532 Coverdale Wisd. x. 7 The vnripe and vntymely frutes that growe vpon the trees. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 67 While they be soure and vnripe, they are white. 1614 R. Taylor Fog hath lost Pearl II, Unripe Grapes will sake more shaking before they fall than those that are. 1732 Arbuthnot Rules of Diet in Aliments, etc. I. 247 Unripe, they are sour, and rather astringent. 1798 Coleridge Fears in Solitude 3 Fresh and delicate As the unripe flax. 1849 Clarridge Cold Water Cure 112 To eat plentifully of common unripe plums. 1888 Garden 4 Feb, 72/3 Unripe wood is liable to get injured by frosts.

transf. a 1445 tr. Arderne's Fistula, etc. 93 Rude [roset] is made of vnripe oile and of rosez. 1693 Sir T. Blount Nat. Hist. 250 Elastus affirms .. that .. there hath been Unripe and Unconcocted Silver found in Mines. 1751 Warburton Pope's Dun. III. 138 note, The image is taken from half-formed unripe lightning, which streams along the sky. 1799 Kirwan Geol. Ess. 279 No. 10. Red and yellow, unripe puzzolana. Ibid., Unripe black pumice. 1884 J. Phin Dict. Agriculture 73 Unripe Honey—Honey from which the water has not been sufficiently evaporated.

Unri·ped, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Unripened. 1423 Jas. I Kingis Q. xiv, Thou youth, of nature Indegest, Vnrypit fruyte with windis variable. Unri·pely, adv. (Un-1 11) 1597 Middleton Wisd. Solomon iv 3 Unripely withering in a flowery prime. 1755 Johnson, Crudely, .. unripely; without due preparation.

Unri·pened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1588 Kyd Soliman. & Perdita. Wks. (1901) 244 Mellons..that .. taste like Goords and Cowgoomers which also hang vpon the earth vnripened. 1589 [? Lyly] Pappe w. Hatchet Dij b, Vnripened youthes, whose wisedomes are yet in the blade. 1612 Brerewood Hist. Gt. Brit. ix. xii § 65 (title) They would not haue found that euer this Iland brought forth a Prince of such excellency at so vnripened yeares. 1675 Han. Woolley Gentlew. Comp. 181 Take of unripened Galls one dram. 1720 Pope Iliad xxiii. 691 The errors of unripen'd age. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 228 To..wade through the mud of indolence, with the slender staff of unripened reason. 1831 Scott Ct. Rob. ix, The vehemence of their own appetite for raw fruits and unripened wines. 1895 Cent. Mag. Aug. 542/2 All the unripened nymphs that played at hide-and-seek among the maples.

Unri·peness. (Un-1 8.)

a 1340 Hampole Psalter cxviii. 147, I bifore come in vnrypnes and I cried. 1548 Elyot, Immaturitas, vnrypeuesse, is muche haste in doynge a thyng before the space. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia v. (1922) II. 199 The unripeneesse of theyr age. 1625 Bacon Ess., Delays (Arb.) 325 The Ripeneesse, or Vnripeneesse, of the occasion (as we said) must euer be well weighed. 1678 Marvell Growth Popery 48, In this state of uncertainty and unripeness, the House Adjourned. 1783 Phil. Trans. LXXIII. 341 The unripeness of the barley. 1824 Poole in Stanley Fernwood I. iv. 106 The unripeness of England for a free and unfettered discussion. 1886 C. Scott Sheep-farming 46 Let the same conditions or unripeness be present in any kind of roots, and their effects will be much the same.

Unripening, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1864 Swinburne Atalanta 531 Death Crushes with sterile feet the unripening ear.

Unripped, -ripping: see Unrip v.

Unri·pplied, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1816 Byron Siege Cor. xix, The sea..was unrippled as glass may be. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. I. 248 The unity secured is but the stagnancy of the unrippled water. 1893 Congregationalist Nov. 902 The secret of our unrippled intercourse is that we have always acted on the principle of non-intrusion.

Uniripplingly, adv. (Un-1 11.) a 1861 T. Winthrop Life in Open Air viii. (1865) 63 Its current, unripplingly smooth,..bore on our bark.

Unri·sen, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.)

[1775 Ash.] a 1806 H. K. White To Morning ii, The lark..soars till the unrisen sun Gleams on her speckled breast. 1879 Miss Bird Lady's Life in Rocky Mount. 139 The moon, as yet unrisen here.

Unri·tual, a. (Un-1 7.) 1797 Anna Seward Lett. (1811) III. 80 The quiet dispassionate simplicity of unritual devotion. Unritualistic, a. (Un-1 7.) 1876 Alexander Bampton Lect. (1877) 6 A religion, tolerant, unritualistic, and unsectarian. Unri·valled, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1834 Southey Doctor I. 34 The present unique, unrivalled, and unrivalable production.

Unri·valled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1597 Shaks. Two Gent. v. iv. 144, I heere..Plead a new state in thy vn-rival'd merit, To which I thus subscribe. 1667 Milton P. L. III. 68 Uninterrupted joy, unrivald love In blissful solitude. 1693 Dryden Juvenal x. 492 But your Endymion,..Unrivall'd, shall a Beauteous Dame enjoy. 1708 J. Philips Cyder II. 7 Thou view'st..what Unrival'd Authors by their Presence made For ever venerable. 1771 Junius' Lett. lxvii. (1772) II. 295 note, In the memoirs of private treachery they stand first and unrivalled. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. iv. I. 445 Unrivalled powers of argument and eloquence. 1877 Mrs. Oliphant Makers Flor. xv. 363 [He] had shown himself unrivalled and above all competitors.

†Unri·ve, v. Obs. [Un-2 9 + Rive *v.*1] trans. To tear apart; to open up.

1592 Wyrley Armorie, Capitall de Buz 109 Such one as ..troubles makes him faster for to twind Fast gaged band of loue, to vnriue More rather then the same he will vnriue. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. vi. xciv, Thus, they ..Into each others knowledge dive; And, by consent, thoughts, else inscrutable, unrive.

Unrive, obs. var. of Unreave v.

Unri·ven, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b. Cf. MSw. orivin, Sw. oriven.)

c 1400 Sege Jerus. 607 3it wer þe Romayns as rest, as þey fram Rome come, Ronnen outer [v.r. vnreyn] eche a renk, & nogt a ryng broken. 1817 Moore Lalla R., Veiled Prophet III. 210 The last sole stubborn fragment, left unriv'n, Of the proud boat that late stood fronting Heav'n. 1845 Hirst Com. Mammoth, etc. 25 Mocking, as he rushed on unriven, The innocuous bolts of mighty heaven.

Unri·vet, v. [Un-2 3.]

1. trans. To undo, unfasten, or detach, by the removal of rivets.

1592 Harington Orl. Fur. xxiv. lxxii, No more the damsels force did now preuayle To pierce a plate, or to vnriuet nayle. 1627 Drayton Agincourt 46 Their Curates are unrivetted with blows. 1631 Celestina xviii. 181 Who knowes and unrivitts the finest mantle but it [sc. the sword]? 1755 T. H. Croker Orl. Fur. xxxii. xxii, While from their shields immense the sides they tear, Armour unrivetted, and mail unbound. 1758 Goldsm. Mem. Protestant (1895) II. 83 At nine o'Clock..our Chains were again unrivetted. 1863 Conington Hor. Odes iv. v. 28 Should aught but death the prisoner's chain Unrivet. 1885 Law Rep. 15 Q.B.D. 360 The bolts..could be removed from the shafting altogether by being unrivetted or unlaced.

2. fig. To undo, loosen, relax, detach, etc.

1620–51 I. Jones Stone-Henge (1725) 13 He..sought to be ..revenged on the British Nobility, who had wholly unrivetted his Designs. 1665 Brathwait Comment Two Tales (1901) 78 Thou..unrivetted the very Secrets of their own breasts, and told him what they most desired. 1706 Rowland in Floyer Hot & Cold Bath. II. 199 Nothing is harder than to unrivet a wrong Notion. 1803 Scott Let. in Lockhart (1837) I. xi. 372 We sincerely hope Mrs. Ellis and you will unrivet yourselves from your forest. 1853 Miss E. S. Sheppard Ch. Auchester III. 158 Before I had spoken or even unriveted my gaze.

Hence Unri·vetting vbl. sb.

1611 Cotgr., Dartivement, an vnriuetting. a 1662 Heylyn Laud (1668) 370 Sure enough By which the zeale of his Majesties good opinion, that whosoever undertook the unriveting of him, made him faster in it. 1885 W. Morris in Mackail Life (1899) II. 134 Only the complete unriveting of the chain will really free us.

†Unro. Obs. (See also Unruh.) [Un-1 4, 12. Cf. ON. úrá (Norw., MDa., and Da. uro, MSw. and Sw. oro), NFris. (Sylt) unruu, MLG. unro(u)we, MHG. unruowe, unruo (G. unruhe).] Unrest, disquiet.

a 1300 Cursor M. 7438 Ai quen he [sc. Saul] was trauaild mast Thorn a wreche vn-rofui gast. And he [sc. David] bigan to gleu or sing, Of his vn-ro to be tokling. Ibid. 26250 In kyrk i wroght oft syth vn-ro Quen goddis seruis was to do. 13.. Metr. Hom. in Archiv Stud. neu. Spr. LVII. 250/2 Wip pyne and vnreste and vn-Ro. a 1400 Sir Perc. 362 Thou wicked thistle mekille unro.

Hence † Unro·ful a., (See prec., quot. a 1300.)

† Unroast, obs. variant of next.

1665 Pepys Diary 22 Dec., A good chine of beef..; but, being all frost-bitten, was most of it unroast.

Unroa·sted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. v. 622 Tho Adam and Eue eten apples vnroested. 1600 Hakluyt Voy. III. 511 The worst in the ship thought scorne..of sodden lambe, which they disdained to eate vnroasted. 1622 Fletcher Sea-Voy. iii. i, Why should we consume thus, and starve,..And sive live there that bred all our miseries, Unrosted, or unsod? 1751 J. Hill Hist. Plants 281 A decoction of the raw or unroasted seeds is a powerful diuretic. 1839 Ure Dict. Arts 693, 19 hundred weight of limestone are employed; constituting nearly 1 of limestone for 3 of unroasted ore. 1882 U.S. Rep. Prec. Met. 600 Two parcels of pyrites of 20 tons each—one roasted, the other unroasted.

Unro·bbed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1392 Langl. P. Pl. C. xiv. 1 He may walke vnrobbed Among pilours in pess yf pacience hym folwe. c 1450 Alirk's Festial 39 A man myght goo wher he wold vnrobbet, wyth his gord yn his hande. c 1530 Ld. Berners Arth. Lyt. Bryt. (1814) 128 They leue no house vnrobbed. 1599 Hakluyt Voy. II. I. 238 Although you haue set so many eyes to looke there for your benefit, that you escape vnrobbed of the slaues. 1660 Evelyn The Late News 2 Those ready Jewels of honour (the only Treasure he is, or can be unrob'd of). 1791 H. Walpole in Miss Berry Yrnls., etc. (1865) I. 436 At night I went to Lady Onslow's,..and came back unrobbed. 1891 Pall Mall G. 24 Dec. 2/3 An amateur bushranger..'stuck up' a coach, which, however, got away unrobbed.

Unro·be, v. [Un-2 4.] To divest of a robe or robes: a. trans. or refl. Also const. of.

1598 Florio, Spogliare,..to disaray, to vnrobe. 1687 in Magd. Coll. & Jas. II (O.H.S.) 25 Several went into the outward Chapel to unrobe themselves. 1711 G. Hickes Two Treat. Chr. Priesth. (1847) II. 390 He ruled and unrobed himself in his throne. 1797 Coleridge Christabel i. xxvi, But now unrobe yourself; for I Must pray, ere yet in bed I lie. 1838 Eliza Cook Love's First Dream iii, It fades..; Leaving the spirit, unrobed of light, In darkness and tears behind. 1850 R. G. Cumming Hunter's Life S. Afr. xii. I. 263, I considered myself..fortunate in having secured so noble a specimen of the lion,..and I at once set men to work to unrobe him. 1874 Spurgeon Treas. Dav. lxxxii. 7 How quickly death unrobes the great!

b. absol. (for refl.).

1743 Young Nt. Th. iv. 44 When, on their exit, souls are bid unrobe,..And drop this mask of flesh behind the scene. 1765 Ednch Lundon II. 117 There is no very room for the minister to robe and unrobe. 1837 McCulloch Acc. Brit. Empire II. 240 The Lords also adjourn..to unrobe. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xv. III. 574 The King..unrobed, took his seat,..and listened to the debate.

Hence Unro·bing ppl. a.

1810 Montgomery West Indies, etc. 157 Still the unrobing spirit cast Diviner glories to the last.

Unro·bed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1861 H. Macmillan Footnotes fr. Page Nat. 180 Unrobed prophets that see no sold visions themselves. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 8 May 5/1 The two Archbishops entered unrobed.

Unrobu·st, a. (Un-1 7.) [1775 Ash.] 1891 Hannah Lynch G. Meredith 36 Deeming our taste questionable and unrobust.

Unro·cked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

With the Sc. quots in (a) cf. Rocked ppl. a. 1, quot. a 1500, and Rock *v.*1 1, quot. 1796.

(a) c 1480 Henryson Fables, Fox, Wolf & Husb. 116 Schilt, be the Rude, vnrokkit now ze raif. 1530 Lyndesay Test. Papyngo 969 Thow wynis vnrockit,..So to reproue ryches or propertie. a 1583 Polwart Flyting w. Montgomerie 802 (Tullib. MS.), Pfond slail, se rait vnrockit.

(b) 1648 Herrick II, Ongenight, vnrocked. [1775 Ash.] 1892 Daily News 4 Feb. 5/8 The absolute stillness of her tall masts, unrocked by any motion of the sea.

Unro·ll, v. [Un-2 3, 5, 7. Cf. Du. ont-, G. entrollen.]

1. trans. To open out from a rolled-up state; to uncoil.

1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy III. 171 Fulknygtyly hel han take her weye..with baneris..displaied, And her penouns vnrollid eueryoon. 1529 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. cxxii. 145/1 [He] rested on the felde, and caused his banerr to be vnrolled. 1611 Cotgr., Desrouler, to vnroule, vnfould, lay open. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 15 Jan. 1645, On which lay the 5 Bookes of Moses, and the Commandments in little unrolled. 1769 Mrs. Raffald Eng. Housekpr. (1778) 89 Then unroll the cloth, and roll it tight again. 1786 Abercrombie Gard. Assist. 267 Turf..when to be laid, unrolled, joining..close edge to edge. 1828 Dyer Vrsn. Virg., etc. 98 In this Museum [at Naples] is carried on the operation of unrolling the ancient papyri. 1873 J. Richards Wood-working Factories 122 By unrolling the blade on the floor, it can be tested as to straightness.

refl. 1825 Scott Guy M. xxxviii, Rolling up..the long lash of his horsewhip, and then by a jerk causing it to unroll itself into the middle of the floor. 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! xvii, Till not..an armadillo [dare] unroll himself.

b. In fig. contexts.

1678 Dryden All for Love v. i, Time has unrowl'd her Glories to the last, And now clos'd up the Volume. 1750 Gray Elegy 50 But Knowledge to their eyes her ample page ..did ne'er unroll. 1757 — Bard 106 But oh! what solemn scenes on Snowdon's height Descending still have glitt'ring skirts unroll? 1818 Byron Ch. Har. iv. clvii, Until thy mind..unroll In mighty graduations, part by part, The glory. 1896 Le Fanu All in the Dark xiii, One could see..that she was reading to herself the notes that was unrolled within her pretty girlish head. 1876–89 R. Bridges Growth of Love xlvii, The busy mind Will in one woeful moment more upwind Than lifelong years unroll of bitter or black.

c. To extend, spread out; to disperse.

1813 Scott Triarm. II. xii, And still, Were..that bastions dimly seen, And Gothic battlements between Their gloomy length unroll'd. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam I. xxxviii, Wisdom had unrolled The clouds which hide the gulf of mortal woe. 1831 Scott Quent. Durw. iii, The mist had settled upon the hills, and unrolled itself upon brook, glade, and tarn.

d. fig. To develop or expand fully.

1854 Emerson Lett. & Soc. Aims, Eloquence, Jenny Lind ..complained of concert-rooms and town-halls, that they did not give her room enough to unroll her voice. a 1871 GROTE Eth. Fragm. iv. (1876) 92 That all these elements are really present, is shewn most incontestably when the sentiment comes to be deliberately unrolled.

2. intr. To become unrolled. Also fig.

1588 SHAKS. Tit. A. II. iii. 35 Euen as an Adder when she doth vnrowle To do some fatall execution. † 1797 BLAKE Four Zoas IX. 20 The Books of Urizen unroll with dreadful noise! 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. v. 132 The venturous soul Bids greater powers and bolder thoughts unrol. 1816 J. WILSON Misc. Poems 194 As the clouds of the morning unroll. 1827 FARADAY Chem. Manip. xx. 522 To fold...this projecting part down, in such a manner as to...prevent the slip from unrolling.

† 3. trans. To remove from a roll or list. Obs.[-1]

1612 SHAKS. Wint. T. iv. iii. 130 If I make not this Cheat bring out another,...let me be vnrold, and my name put in the booke of Verses.

Hence Unro'lled ppl. a.[1]; Unro'ller; Unro'lling vbl. sb. and ppl. a.[1]

1805 LUCCOCK Nat. Wool 113 When we find a line of sand strewed along the *unrolled fleece. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 27 Passing the unrolled end [of the bandage] over the shoulder and down the back. 1843 For. Q. Rev. II. 364 A pale-faced 'unroller of dusty records. 1648 HEXHAM II, Een Ontrollinge, an *Vnroling, or an Vnfolding. 1856 STANLEY Sinai & Pal. i. 3 There is...no unrolling of a great drama, no beginning, middle and end of a moral progress. 1870 BURTON Hist. Scot. lxi. VI. 93 The unrolling of secrets. 1699 C. HOPKINS Cvt. Prosp., Peace iii, *Unrowling Waves steal softly to the Shore. a 1850 BRYANT To a Cloud 9, I would I were with thee...To rest on thy unrolling skirts.

Unro'lled, ppl. a.[2] [UN-1 8. Cf. G. ungerollt.] Not rolled; not subjected to rolling.

1573 TUSSER Husb. (1878) 100 See when ye rowle it, the weather be drie, or else it were better vnrowled to lie. 1600 [see STONE sb. 16 c] 1640 HOWELL Dodona's Gr. 114 Hee..left no stone vnrolled, no mighty wave to passe. 1839 DE LA BECHE Rep. Geol. Cornwall, etc. viii. 241 The prevalence of unrolled chalk flints above the green sand. 1851 Quart. Jrnl. Geol. Soc. VII. 259 The local and unrolled character of such surface-accumulations.

Unro'lling, ppl. a.[2] (UN-1 10.)

1647 CLARENDON Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 503 With downcast looks, and unrowling or fixt eyes.

Unro'llment. rare[-1]. [UNROLL v.] The action of unrolling. 1878 G. D. BOARDMAN Creative Week 124 You cannot unroll what was not rolled...and yet these Gentlemen...confound Unrollment with transmutation.

Un-Ro'man, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1682 Whitelocke's Mem. Pref., A more degenerate un-Roman generation. 1848 DENNIS Cities & Cem. Etruria iv I. 97 Its mode of construction is decidedly un-Roman. 1854 POSEY Lect. Daniel v. 284 The un-Roman retreat of Cestius Gallus.

Unro'manized, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 a c.)

1771 WHITAKER Hist. Manchester I. 322 Before the third century the fruit appears to have...stocked the...unromanized regions of Shetland with large plantations of the trees. 1847 WEBSTER, Unromanized,...not subjected to the principles or usages of the Roman Catholic Church. 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. xiv. vii. VI. 59 The kindred language enabled them to communicate...with the un-Romanised races. 1861 CRAIK Hist. Lit. I. 36 Evidence of the comparatively unromanized condition of the Early English church.

Uroma'ntic, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1731 SWIFT Let. to Gay & Duchess of Queensberry 28 Aug. I own it is a base, unromantic spirit in me. 1844 MISS L. M. HAWKINS Annaline I. 41 If I were a young man, I should not like such an unromantic proceeding. 1850 THACKERAY Pendennis lxxi, This unromantic conclusion to a rather sentimental scene.

Uroma'ntical, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1850 THACKERAY Pendennis xlvii, Mr. Pen was blushing whilst he made this reply to his unromantical friend. Uroma'ntically, adv. (UN-[1] 11.) 1846 WORCESTER (citing Allen). 1884 W. BLACK in Athenæum 11 Oct. 463/1 Her unromantically long spinsterhood. Uroma'nticized, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 a c.) 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. xiv. vii. VI. 525 Toulouse owns only her own undisciplined, unromanticised Counts.

Unroo'f, v. (UN-[2] 4.)

1598 FLORIO, Discuiniare,...to vnroofe, or vntile a house. 1607 SHAKS. Cor. I. i. 222 Sdeath, The rabble should haue first vnroof't the City Ere so prematly'd with me. 1779 HERVEY Nap. Hist. II. 457 Three hundred houses were unroofed by it. 1844 KINGLAKE Eothen viii, They actually unroofed a great part of the building. 1868 FREEMAN Norm. Conq. viii. II, 288 Houses were unroofed, and the timbers were thrown into the fosse.

trans.f. 1804 COLLINS Scriptscraft 59 Time had unroof'd all the thatch from his pate. 1862 JAS. GRANT Capt. of Guard xii, Servers, pages, and pantrymen...unroofed the huge pasties of pigeons and venison.

Hence Unroo'fed ppl. a.[1], stripped of the roof, made roofless; Unroo'fing vbl. sb.

a 1550 LRLAND Itin. (1768) II. 68 At the which tyme al the Chirch...lay to wast, and was *onrofid. 1779 Phil. Trans. LXX. 68 The sight of this town, unroofed, half buried under black scoriæ and ashes. 1824 SCOTT Wav. lxiii, Unroofed cottages, tree-felled for palisades, and bridges destroyed. 1876 BRYANT Flood of Years 79 Temples stand Unroofed, forsaken by the worshippers. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus I. xv, The *unroofing of the hovels.

Unroo'fed, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[1] 8.] Not furnished with a roof; not roofed in.

[1775 ASH.] 1805 EUGENIA DE ACTON Nuns of Desert II. 203 Miss Blenheim...had repaired to the un-roofed temple. 1851 RUSKIN Stones Ven. I. xiv. § 18 Walls surrounding unroofed courts.

transf. a 1854 H. RNED Lect. Eng. Lit. ii. (1855) 83 The rude places of the open and unroofed world.

Unroo'st, v. (UN-[2] 5 and 7.)

1. trans. To dislodge from a roost or perch. Also fig., to dislodge or force out of a place, to drive out or away.

1598 FLORIO, Disnidare, to vnroost, to vn-nest. 1611 SHAKS. Wint. T. II. iii. 74 Thou dotard, thou art woman-tyr'd: vnroosted By thy dame Partlet here. 1647 TRAPP Comm. Rev. xix. 20 The Pope being driven from Rome, shall flie and sit, till Christ shall unroost him. 1688 BUNYAN Holy War 236 He also saw...how he was unroosted and made to quit the Castle. 1780 JOHNSON Let. to Mrs. Thrale 12 June, Though I am sorry that you should be so outrageously unroosted, I think that Bath has had long enough. 1834 M. SCOTT Cruise Midge II. 12 Shoving the blade to the drowning man, with some danger of being unroosted myself in the attempt.

2. intr. To leave a roost; fig. to rise from bed.

1614 J. COOKE Greene's Tu Quoque L 3, [It is] time to goe to Church, and not a man vnroosted. 1821 CLARE Vill. Minstr. II. 24 The crows, unrousting as he comes in sight.

Hence Unroo'sted ppl. a.; Unroo'sting vbl. sb.

1612 [see UNRESTING vbl. sb.] 1691 DRYDEN K. Arthur iv. i, The pass is free; The unroosted fiends have quitted this abode.

Unroot, v. [UN-[2] 4 b and 7.]

1. trans. To tear, pluck, or dig up by the roots. Also in fig. context and transf.

1570 LEVINS Manip. 178 To vnroote, eradicare. 1593 G. HARVEY New Letter B 3, Riotous Vanilie was wont to roote so deeply, that it could hardly be vnrooted. 1601 SHAKS. All's Well v. i. 6 Be bold you do so grow in my requital, As nothing can vnroote you. 1635 SHIRLEY Coronat. iv, His love was firm to you, and cannot be Unrooted with one storme. 1687 DRYDEN Song St. Cecilia's Day vii, Trees unrooted left their place. 1740 PITT Æneid VI. 9 To feed the fires, [some] unroot the standing woods. 1774 GOLDSM. Nat. Hist. I. 133 There are sometimes whole plains unrooted from the main lands, by floods and tempests. 1852 TH. ROSS tr. Humboldt's Trav. I. iii. 130 The causes that unroot these weeds at depths where...the sea is but slightly agitated.

b. fig. To eradicate, clear away, remove or detach altogether. Also Unroo'ting vbl. sb.

c 1449 PECOCK Repr. I. ii. 8 Forto meete agens the firste biform spoken opinioun, and forto vnroote and vndrawe it. Ibid., This vnrooting of the first opinioun. 1574 HELLOWES Guevara's Fam. Ep. (1577) 181 Vices be so euill to be vnrooted where they once take place. 1603 G. OWEN Pembrokeshire iii. (1892) 36 The Conquerer...purposed to haue vnrooted the Saxon or Englishe tongue out of England. Ibid. iv. 38 He gaue diuerse of them theire ancient landes to hold of him, and did not viterlye vnroote them. 1738 WEBSTER Disc. Legend. I. 277 They unrooted and destroyed all that good to Society. 1856 DICKENS Lett. (1880) I. 419 My present idea, if nothing should arise to unroot me sooner, is to stay here until the middle of May.

2. intr. To lose root-hold; to withdraw the root from the soil.

a 1616 BEAUM. & FL. Bonduca III. i, Make their strengths totter, and their topless fortunes Unroot and reel to ruine. c 1800 W. BLAKE Four Zoas, Last Judgem. 39 The trees unroot; The rocks groan horrible and run about.

Unroo'ted, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8 c + ROOT v.[1] 6.] Not rooted out.

1550 BALE Image both Churches xiv. ii. N j, Nothinge shalbe vnrooted out that the heauenly father hath not planted. 1567 Satir. Poems Reform. vi. 108 Leif nathing that belangis to the Paip Unrutit out as it had neuer bene. 1649 MILTON Eikon. xvii. 155 So long as they remain'd in any of his three Kingdoms unrooted out. 1661 ARNWAY Tablet (ed. 3) 154 Can you imagine...The rooters up of Religion and Monarchy can be unrooted out; seeing the Loppers of the branches break their necks? 1859 SALA Twice round Clock 364 Gambling dens in Leicesterian slums, yet unrooted out by lynx-eyed policemen.

Unroo'ted, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[1] 8.] Not furnished with roots.

1648 HEXHAM II, Ongewortelt, Vnrooted. 1659 BAXTER Saints' R. iv. 588 What makes...the green blade of unrooted faith, to wither before the heat of persecution? 1849 Sk. Nat. Hist., Mammalia IV. 172 The molar teeth...are cylindrical, unrooted. 1893 Burrows' Pearl. Reilg. II. 154 Hinduism is not the idolatry and unrooted polytheism of savages.

Unro'pe, v. [UN-[2] 4 b.] trans. To detach by undoing a rope.

1883 Philadelphia Times 30 July (Cent.), The horse was unroped from the wagon and turned loose. 1883 Pall Mall G. 1 Sept. 4/1 They unroped themselves, and set them of their four guides to see what was the matter.

Unro'ped, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1881 BLACKMORE Christowell II, An avalanche of pots from the unroped crate fell...upon him. Unro'sined, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1714 E. WARD Hield-Spy 9 Where dejected Scrapers us'd to...Thrash their smooth Cats-guts with unroosin'd flows.

Unro'tted, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. x. 201 And thenne vnroted wol the grape abide. 1844 H. STEPHENS Bk. Farm II. 488 The unrotted stubble...may form obstacles under...the plough. 1876 ROCK Text. Fabr. i. 2 The few unrotted shreds still cleaving to its bones.

Unro'tten, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1574 R. SCOT Hop Garden 33 Rather vse no dung than vnrotten dunge about the dressing of your Hoppes. 1683 J. REID Gardiner ii. 11, Let not the root of any tree stand on...unrotten-manure. 1742 YOUNG Nt. Th. ii. 564 Since friends grow not thick on ev'ry bough, Nor ev'ry friend unrotten at the core. 1763 MILLS Pract. Husb. II. 20 The yet un-rotten straw might be apt to clog the shares of the drill.

Unrou'ged, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. III. ii. vii, Further shall reigns Mere Duchesse with her unrouged Amazons. 1887 RUSKIN Preterita II. 39 Unvenered, unrouged, and well finished things.

Unrou'gh, a. (UN-[1] 7; cf. OE. unrúh.] Not rough; spec. not rough-chinned; unbearded.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. VII. 186 And thus the kinges [of bees] may be fonde:...in colour shynyng pure, And smoothe, vnrough. 1609 SHAKS. Mach. v. ii. 10 There is Seywards Sonne, and mauy vnruffe youths, that euen now Protest their first of Manhood.

Unrou'ghened, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1865 CARLYLE Frerk. Cl. XIX. vii. V. 572 Cavalry, unroughened, make sad sliding.

Unrou'nd, a. (UN-[1] 7. Cf. WFris. on-, in-roun, Du. onrond.) 1588 LUCAR tr. Tartaglia's Colloq. Shooting App. 24 To make round pellettes of unround, yea pelletes by two waves. 1676 NEWTON in Rigaud Corr. Sci. Men (1841) II. 383 This [image]...will be...not much unround, unless the angles be very unequal. 1877 E. SANG (title), The Toothing of Unround Discs, which are intended to Roll upon each other.

Unrou'nd, v. (UN-[2] 6 a.)

Now spec. in phonetics: cf. ROUND v. 1 c. Also Unrou'nding vbl. sb.

1611 COTGR., Devoncliir, to vnround, vnbow, vncompasse. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ontronnen, to vnround, or take away the roundnesse of any thing. 1874 H. SWEET in Trans. Philol. Soc. 471 Rounded front vowels are often unrounded. Ibid. 475 Rounding of back [vowels]; unrounding of front. 1877 — Handbk. Phonetics 25 This vowel...is best obtained by unrounding (u).

Unrou'nded, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1519 HORMAN Vulg. 112 b, Rounded heave becometh men; and vnrounded women. a 1631 DONNE Elegies xi. 33 Unfil'd pistolets...Which, negligently left unrounded, looke Like many angled figures, in the booke Of some great Conjurer. 1694 DRYDEN To Sir G. Kneller 55 Flat Faces, such as wou'd disgrace a Screen,...Unrais'd, unrounded. 1815 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art I. 588 Three teeth rounded from point to point;...three full teeth, unrounded. 1852 LYELL Man. Elem. Geol. vii. (ed. 4) 82 Similar unrounded nodules of flint. 1877 SWEET Handbk. Phonetics 17 The narrow back unrounded vowels.

† Unrou'nged, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [UN-[1] 8 + ROUNGE v.?] Unclipped. 15.. Aberd. Reg. (Jam.), The bailyeis chargit him to take the Inglis grot vnrovngit for thre sous in pament.

Unrou'sable. a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1894 MRS. DYAN Man's Keeping xvi, Urquhart submitted to all [this]...with unrousable apathy.

Unrou'sed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1802 COLERIDGE Dejection 4 This night, so tranquil now, will not go hence Unroused by winds. 1839 Tait's Mag. I. 540/2 In that visionary world, Unroused by Pleasure's fierce extreme. 1882 FLOYER Unexpl. Baluchistan 214 Totally unroused reasoning powers.

Unrou'ted, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1622 FLETCHER Prophetess iv, Of all the Persian Forces, one strong Squadron...Stands firm, and yet unrouted. 1888 Leisure Hour Sept. 594/2 The ladies...did not leave him with so much as an unrouted doubt on this point.

Unrove, var. of UNRUFE Sc. Obs.

Unrow', v. (UN-[1] 14, or UN-[2] 3.) 1897 F. T. BULLEN Cruise 'Cachalot' xiv, My gloomy cogitations were abruptly terminated by the order to 'unrow'—we were alongside.

† Unrow'ed, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-[1] 8 + ROW v.?] Not having the nap raised.

1489 Act 3 Hen. VII, c. xci. § 1 The seid Clothes..arne.. conveyed out of this realme, unrowed and unshorne. 1535, 1541, 1643 [see UNBARBED 1].

Unroy'al, a. [UN-[1] 7.]

1. Unbefitting or inappropriate to a king or queen.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. ix, He...sent them with unroyall reproches to Musidorus. a 1680 CHARNOCK Attrib. God (1834) I. 71 A Roman king, who counted it the most unroyal thing to be religious. 1780 W. BECKFORD Italy (1834) I. 62, I scolded in an unroyal style. 1842 FR. A. KEMBLE Rec. Later Life (1882) II. 239 The unroyal indignity of being waited upon after her guests. 1880 F. G. LEE Ch. under Q. Eliz. II. 155 With unroyal discourtesy and unwomanly harshness.

b. Not associated with royal authority.

1867 BAGEHOT Eng. Constitution 99 The unroyal species of cabinet government.

2. Not of royal rank or birth.

a 1618 J. DAVIES Witte's Pilgr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 35/2 Then, Rimes how ere ye vnroiall run you on, You may, in time, perhaps come neer that Crowne. 1822 MOORE Mem. (1856) II. 21 A certain un-royal person in Derbyshire. 1861 TROLLOPE Framley P. III. 230 That none of the blood royal shall raise to royal honours those of the subjects who are by birth un-royal.

Hence Unroy'ally adv. Also Unroy'alist.

1777 POTTER Æschylus, Choephoræ 345 My royal father, who unroyally Wast murder'd! 1788 MME. D'ARBLAY Diary II Feb., He is so privileged a favourite with all the Royal Family, that he utters all his flights to them almost as easily as to unroyalists. 1829 MOORE Mem. (1854) VI. 38 Not quite liking to refuse him, as being always so unroyally good-humoured and good-natured.

Unru'bbed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 231 As a horce unrubbed, [at haves a sore back, wynses when...rubbed on his rugge. 1648 HEXHAM II, Onbestreken, Vnrubbed, or Vnsmeared. 1847 GEO. ELIOT in Cross Life (1885) I. 161 You are a bright golden sovereign to me, with edges all unrubbed. 1877 MEREDITH Lett. (1912) I. 282, I am consequently dull, unrubbed, no reflector.

Unru'bbish, v. (UN-[2] 4.) 1645 MILTON Colast. 26 This under-work of scowring and unrubbishing the low and sordid ignorance of such a presumptuous lozel. Unru'brical, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1843 LD. COLERIDGE in Life & Lett. (1904) I. 115 Commencing the service...with...a hymn is unrubrical, unchoirlick. Unrudd'ered, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 or UN-[2] 2) -ing, vbl. sb. (UN-[2] 8.) 1804 LARWOOD No Gun Boats 12 Better to give all than suffer their Gun Boats to remain in even an unruddered, unmasted, unordonanced existence. Ibid. 15 The inutility of dismasting, unruddering, or scuttling.

† Unru'de, a.[1] Obs. [PAT. of UNRIDE a., but prob. associated with RUDE a.]

1. Violent, rough, dreadful.

c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 17162 Ther were sit...of sqwyers gret multitude, And yaff thanne strokes wel vnrude. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid VI. II. 124 The laithlie fluide Cochitus, with his dreery bourn vnrude. Ibid. v. 3 Hellis fluide of Acheron; With hoil bisum, and hiduus sweih vnrude. 1825 JAMIESON s.v., This term is still used in Ayrs[hire], and expl. 'Base, vile, diabolical; detestable; † as, 'unrude bleeries,' abominable falsehoods.

2. Rude, unmannerly. uncouth.

1561-2 W. Fulkwood in Ballads, etc. (Percy Soc.) 57 For you may see he is in deed An unrude simple man. 1599 B. Jonson Ev. Man out of Hum. iv. i, The good Gentleman vouchsaft to make him his companion, .. and now see how the vnrude Rascall back-bites him! 1616 — Masque of Christmas 116 They have need o' mending: unrude people they are, your Courtiers. c 1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Wit & Mirth cii, Truly, said the fellow [sc. a countryman], I am no scholler, I am altogether vnrude, and very ingrum.

Hence † Unru·deness, rudeness. Obs.—†

1561-2 W. Fulkwood in Ballads, etc. (Percy Soc.) 57 A Supplication to Eldertonne for Leache's Unlewdnes, Desiring him to pardone his manifest vnrudenes.

Unru·de, a.[1] [Un-[1] 7.] Not rude; mannerly. 1648 Herrick Hesper., Panegerick to Pemberton 31 Manners knowes distance, and a man unrude Wo'd soon recoile, and not intrude His Stomach to a second Meale. † Unrue·fully, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 17.] Unmercifully, pitilessly. a 1300 Cursor M. 24023 Vn-reufull pai can him raipe. Ibid. 24138 Vn-reufulli (Edin. vnrewfullik) yee wire vnright.

† Unrufe (also unrove), Sc. var. Unro Obs.

c 1420 Gol. & Gaw. 499 May nane do thame na deir.. Yit sal I mak thame vnrufe. c 1550 Clariodus (Maitl. Cl.) 44 Sit gladlie for his sake I sould sow love, That this regioun hes brocht from sik unrove. c 1550 Rolland Crt. Venus ii. 446 Quhy sufferis thow ane creature mortall, For none defalt to incur sic vnrufe?

Unru·ffable, a. (Un-[1] b.) 1837 Dickens Pickw. xxxiii, Sam..obeyed all his master's behests with..unruffable composure. † Unru·ffled, a. (Un-[1] a.) 1872 Coues N. Amer. Birds 133 Bill moderate, unruffled, but with a little tuft of feathers at the base of the nictus.

Unru·ffle, v. [Un-[2] 7 and 3.]

1. intr. To become smooth or unruffled.

1697 Dryden Æneis i. 212 Where e're he guides His finny Coursers,..The Waves unruffle, and the Sea subsides. 1871 [see Unruffling pk. a.[1]].

2. trans. To restore from a ruffled state.

1827 Lamb Wife's Trial Wks. 1908 II. 805 A witch ..can by a backward charm Unruffle the foul storm she has just been raising. 1833 Landor Gebir (1894) II. 148 This does not seem to unruffle Dodi's plumes.

Unru·ffled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. a. Not affected by any violent feeling; not agitated or disturbed; calm, unmoved.

1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida Ded., I have, with an unruffled confidence, given these papers a capacity of being publicly viewed. 1712 Addison Spect. No. 381 ¶ 4 His Temper is even and unruffled. 1751 Smollett Per. Pic. xcv, † Why shouldn't I lend a hand?'..(answered the unruffled Pipes). 1754 Connoisseur No. 4 ¶ 9 Whose conversation flows with one even tenor, undisturbed by sentiment, and unruffled by passion. 1829 Lytton Devereux ii. ii, The most unruffled composure. 1874 Green Short Hist. vii. § 3, 369 Her mind was unruffled by the spiritual problems which were vexing the minds around her.

b. Not excited by drinking.

1709 Steele Tatler No. 27 ¶ 2 When he is himself, and unruffled with Intemperance. 1748 Anson's Voy. iii. vii. 363 Perceiving that after they had dispatched four or five bottles..the Mandarine still continued unruffled.

2. Not physically ruffled or made rough: a. Of water, etc. Also in fig. context.

1713 Addison Cato i. iv, Calm and unruffled as a summer-sea. 1757 W. Wilkie Epigon. v. 135 A lake.. Whose surface smooth, unruffled by the breeze, The hills inverted shows. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. ii. 365 Days unruffled by the gale Of public news or private. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annaline II. 229 Craigs mantled in unruffled snow. 1883 Tyndall in Knowledge 3 Aug. 73/2 Between the ferry and this bridge, the river Niagara flows unruffled.

b. Of feathers, leaves, the forehead, etc.

1816 Wilson City of Plague ii. iv, 106 Like an angel With hair unruffled in its radiance. 1821 Scott Kenilw. v, Now for..an open and unruffled brow! 1854 Poultry Chron. I. 208/2 A pen of birds .. unruffled in their plumes. a 1898 Sir G. Scott Lect. Archit. (1870) I. 320 Here the Byzantinesque foliage is nearly all of the plain unruffled form.

3. Not furnished with ruffles.

c 1825 Lo. Cockburn Mem. i. (1856) 13 A shirt fastened at the neck by a black ribbon, and except on dress days unruffled.

Hence Unru·ffledness.

1858 Hawthorne Fr. & It. Note-bks. (1881) II. 177 His propriety, his cleanliness and unruffledness. 1880 Ruskin Verrys Inclosure (1887) 9 The perfect cleanliness and unruffledness of white cap [in Chartres] is always a marvel.

Unru·fling, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 10.] Not ruffling; not becoming ruffled.

1762 Falconer Shipwr. ii. 307 Th' involving cloud, Swell'd by the wind, aloft unruffling flew. 1797 Southey Donica 12 The powerless storm unruffling swept Across the calm dead lake.

Unru·ffling, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unruffle v.] Becoming unruffled.

1871 Tennyson Last Tourn. 368 As, when a gust harb blows, Unruffling waters re-collect the shape Of one that in them sees himself.

Unru·inable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais iii. viii. (1708) I. 353 Nature, having a fervent desire.. to eternize, and continue them.. unruinable. 1706 Watts Horæ Lyricæ II. 163 The spirit.. flies upward, an undoubted guest Of the third heaven, th' unruinable sky. c 1740 — Remnants of Time ix. Wks. 1763 IV. 612 May the unruinable world be but my portion.

† Unru·inated, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8.] = next.

1706-9 Neg. Petty Criminal Court. I. 498 Of the hall hudgepine walles.. their is na thing left unruinated and doing in dioses. 1610 Bp. Hall Apol. Brownists § 30, 74 These you will prove vnruinated Towers of that Babell. 1658 Brome Queen Mother's Mystery II. 1 They should leave nothing unruinated and not pulled down.

Unru·ined, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1610 J. Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 4 So long the City should continue unruined. a 1649 Drumm. of Hawth. Hist. Jas. III, Wks. (1711) 58 He sent to all such of his Friends, whom his Disasters had left unruined, to take Arms for the King. 1820 Bentham Liberty of Press Wks. 1843 II. 283/2 Under whom it has hitherto been my good hap to live unhanged, .. unbanished and unruined. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. viii. § 46. 268 He can still see the strong sweep of the unruined traceries drawn on the deep serenity of the starry sky.

Unru·lable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1680 H. Dodwell Two Lett. (1691) 68 Preventing the occasion or increase of passion, which will be also so much easier if it be taken before it grow unrulable. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. II. 289 Rendring a Country-property..unattainable as well as unrulable even by an Hereditary Pretender. 1881 in J. Hatton New Ceylon vii. 185 People.. found to be unrulleable by other nations.

Unrulableness. rare.[1] (Un-[1] 12. Cf. prec.) c 1445 Pecock Donet 94 [ouis al pis lijf be foule..for wijldenes and vnreuleabnes, in tyme of 3oungbe.

Unru·le. [Un-[1] 12.] Absence of rule or government.

1422 Yong tr. Secretis Secret. 136 Whyle he regnyd in this vnrule.., into the land of Iritude he arryuete. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. v. xii. 3724 (Wemyss MS.), Forthy it nedis þat resoune Thyne vnreullis habandoun.

1828 Scott Rob Roy xxii, Now let's hear.. how, in the name of unrule, they got here at this time o' night. 1862 Set. Rev. II. 670 A very few years more of republican unrule.

Unru·led, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not ruled or governed; ungoverned, disorderly.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxx. (Theodora) 107 Certis, vnreulyt ware my wil gyf þe my-self I suld spil. a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. iii. 1 (W. de W. 1494), For charyth vnruled youreth somtyme in to vyce. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. v. xiii. 4717 (Cott. MS.), Our Lady..repruffit hym fast Off þis warewlitt wilfulnes. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. vii. 530 Theyse vnrulyd Company gathered vnto them great multitude of the commons. 1538 Starkey England ii. ii. 280 Man ys then myserabul..when reson ys ouer-run and vnrulyd affectys gouerne and reyne in hys ordur of lyfe. 1596 Spenser St. Irel. Wks. (Globe) 679/1 The realme was left, like a stonie, vnrulie, and vnbridled, and vndirected of any. 1615 Chapman Odyss. iv. 925 But their unrul'd acts show their minds' estate. 1655 Gentilis Servitis Inquis. xxxi. 136 Because the desire of gain is so vnruled, that.. it doth induce men to commit things against honesty. 1813 Hogg Queen's Wake Concl. xvii, To end this strife, unruled and vain, Let all the three be called again. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 29 Mar. 3/2 The same strong and unruled passions.

† 2. Not decided or decreed. Obs.—1

1456 Paston Lett. I. 387 The atteynte abidith unreuled til the next terme.

† 3. Irregular. Obs.—1

1551 Recorde Pathw. Knowl. i. Defin., They haue no syde equall to an other.., neither keepe they any rate in their corners, and therefore are they counted vnruled formes.

4. Not having ruled lines.

1888 E. M. Gallaudet Life T. M. Gallaudet 23 It is written on ruled paper.

Hence Unru·ledly adv. rare.

1580 Hollyband Treas. Fr. Tong, Desreiglement, vnruledly. 1587 [see Unrulily adv. 2, quot. 1561].

Unru·leful, a. Sc. and dial. (Un-[1] 7.)

1438 Sc. Acts, Jas. II (1814) II. 32/2 Quhare þar is ony rebellys or vnrewlful men within ony castellys or fortalicis resett or haldyn. 1598 in Wodrow Hist. Sch. Cat. Scot. (1722) I. App. 191 Calling the Country by unreasonable and unruleful men. 1898 in Eng. Dial. Dict. s.v.

† Unru·lely, obs. variant of Unruly a.

a 1581 in Marbeck Bk. of Notes 540 If our passions be so vnrulely,..then doth impatiencie ouer master vs. 1653 Holcroft Procopius, Arcan. Wars v. 153 He took order.. to be rid of his unruly Lombards, who were infinitely disorderly.

† Unru·lily, adv. Obs. [f. Unruly a.]

1. Immoderately.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 98 Listnessis,..whanne þei ben vnmesurably and vnreullil agens doom of resoun. c 1456 — Bk. Faith (1909) 109 Manye of the lay peple whiche.. attenden over unruleli to the Bible.

2. In an unruly or disorderly manner.

1549 Cheke Hurt Sedit. (1569) D ij, Ye..vnrullilye haue ruled, where ye listed to commaund. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. ii. ii. 12 b, Wylde horses whyche..dooe range vnruily [1587 vnruledly] and wythout measure. 1597 Golding Calvin on Ps. lvi. 8 The ungodly have unrulily royseted without let. 1690 C. Nesse O. & N. Test. I. 312 Evil concupiscence..groweth unruilily headstrong.

† Unru·lment. Obs.—1 [Unruly.] = next. 1596 Spenser F.Q. iv. ix. 23 They breaking forth with rude vnrulliment, From all foure parts of heauen doe rage full sore.

Unru·liness. [f. next.] The quality of being unruly. (Of persons, animals, etc.)

1547 Act 1 Edw. VI, c. 12 § 1 The Insolency and Unruliness of Men. 1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. iii. 150 You must keepe the Boare from them; for with his vnrulinesse, he maketh them to cast. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 301/1 Therein doth patience make proofe of it self,..that it neiter breaketh forthe to immoderate vnrulynesse. 1638 Rawlin tr. Bacon's Life & Death 210 For the Quieting of the vnruliness of the spirits. 1684 J. S. Profit & Pleas. United 14 For the better preservation of your Cattle, both from sickness and hurt, which may happen through their unruliness. 1695 J. Edwards Preapost. Script. 440 Excellent caveats..touching..unruliness of the tongue. 1704 Dict. Rust. s.v. Mare, His own unruliness being so great, the Cure [of the colt] may be very difficult. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 356 We describe the..unruliness of inordinate desires..to the fatal effects of original sin. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude vi. 392 Some vanquished in the unruliness of joy. 1858 Froude Hist. Eng. IV. xix. 170 The governments affected to regret the unruliness of their subjects.

Unru·ly, a. (and sb.). Forms: 5-6 wnruely, 6-7 vnrulye, -lie, 6- unruly; 5 onreuli, vnrewely, 6 vnrewly. [Un-[1] 7 + Rule a.[2]]

1. Not amenable to rule or discipline; ungovernable; disorderly, turbulent: a. Of persons.

1400 R. de Gray in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. II. 1. 4 Hitt woll be an unruely Cumyte within short tyme. 1422 Yong tr. Secreta Secret. 160 When they were full woxen, prowte, onreuli, fiers, and presumpteous. a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1539) U ij, Sith the worldlie, the chaungeable, and the people so vnruly. 1592 Greene Disput. 20 Ouer kind fathers make vnruly daughters. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reft., Disc. § iv. 1 53 That he should of all others prove the most unruly, who alone has been endowed with Reason to rule himself withal. a 1715 Burnet Own Time i. iv. (1897) I. 108 The dispersing of that little unruly army. 1781 Cowper Tiroc. 262, I blame not those who..O'erwatch the num'rous and unruly clan. 1835 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xvi. 111, 685 William had found it no easy matter to decide what course should be taken with that capricious and unruly body. 1896 W. K. Leask H. Miller 29 He seems rather to have become an unruly lad.

ab. and absol. 1621 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xxii. § 31. 807/1 These vnrulies presently chose him for their ringleader. 1684 Bunyan Pilgr. II. (1900) 265 All things must be managed here to the warning of the Unruly. 1782 Priestley Inst. Relig. (ed. 2) I. p. xii, We cannot possibly warn all the unruly.

transf. 1667 Dryden Ind. Emperor iv. iv, Th' unruly Sword will no distinction make. 1888 Ramme When a Man's Single xii, She softly pushed the invalid's unruly hair off his brow.

b. Of animals. Also in fig. context.

1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Bos, Restie or vnrulie oxen. 1577 Googe Heresbach's Husb. iii. 151 b, Hee keepe the wether (helpe)..from the stronge and vnruly. Ibid. 145 The horned, by reason of theyr weapons, are hurtful, and vnruely. 1627 J. Taylor (Water P.) Navy of Land Ships Wks. (1630) 91/1 A ship is an vnruly beast. 1682 Shipwreck (Dk. Buckhm.) Ess. Poetry 8 The Muses most unruly Horse. 1768-74 (see Unshaken 2). a 1821 V. Knox Serm. Wks. 1824 VI. 156 Like the spirited and unruly steed.

c. Of the heart, tongue, passions, etc.

1526 Tyndale Jas. iii. 8 The tonge can no man tame, Yt is an vnruely evyll full off deadly poyson. 1598 Barret Theor. Warres I. ii. 11 A generous minde, not subiect vnto passions and vnrulie fits. 1612 T. Taylor Comm. Titus i. 6 An vnruly heart will breake out one time or other. a 1674 Clarendon Life (1759) 239 When his vnruly inuention suggests to him an addition to the Text. 1712 Pope Spect. No. 408 ¶ 7 Young Men whose Passions are not a little unruly. 1729 Butler Serm. Wks. 1874 II. 40 To imagine he keeps that unruly faculty [sc. the tongue] in due subjection. 1800 Colquhoun Comm. Thames viii. 262 It is impracticable to control their unruly passions. 1846 Keble Lyra Inuoc. (ed. 3) 293 Nor time nor time nor time are there, Yet sounds the unruly joy.

d. Characterized by disorder or disquiet.

1439 Cases bef. King's Council (Selden) 105 Wawton..seid ..it is the unruliest session that I haue euer sey in Bedford. 1582 Stanyhurst Æneis i. (Arb.) 21 These vnrulye reuels ..thee sea king Neptun awaked. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude i. 136 The Poet, gentle creature as he is, Hath, like the Lover, his unruly times.

† 2. Of things: Unmanageable. Obs.

1577 Googe Heresbach's Husb. III. 158 When they sitte, with theyr vnruly spurres they breake theyr egges. 1598 Florio Dict. To Rdr. 9 A more vnruly..vessell then the biggest hulke on Thames. 1633 Herbert Temple, Ch. Porch xli, Wit's an unruly engine, wildly striking Sometimes a friend, sometimes the engineer. 1681 R. Knox Hist. Ceylon 9 These Floughs..if heavier..would sink and be unruly in the mud.

† 3. Violent; incurable. Obs.

1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. vi. 5 Their wounds..had festred priuily, And rankling inward with vnruly stounds, The inner parts now gan to putrify. 1606 G. Woodcocke Lives Emperors in Hist. Justine K k 6 Dying of an vnruly disease.

4. Stormy, tempestuous; impetuous.

1593 Shaks. Lucrece 869 Unruly blasts wait on the tender spring: Unwholesome weeds take root. — Mach. ii. iii, 59 The Night ha's been unruly; Where we lay, our Chimneys were blowne downe. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. v. § 449 The standard itself was blown down..by a very strong and unruly wind. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. iii. 396 He makes his way o'er Mountains, and contemns Unruly Torrents, and unfoorded Streams.

Unruminated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1735 Bolingbroke Study Hist. (1752) I. 4 Those who..store their minds with crude unruminated facts and sentences.

Unru·mmaged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

a. 1591 Ralegh Last Fight Revenge cij, The ships growne foule, vnrocmaged, and scarcely able to beare anie saile for want of balast.

b. 1775 Ash s.v., Unrummaged. 1910 Athenæum 29 Jan. 117/3 No relevant archives have remained unrummaged.

Unrumple, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1694 Addison Virg. Georg. iv. Wks. 1721 I. 29 Daffadils, that late from earth's slow womb Unrumple their swoln buds. 1728 Gardiner tr. Rapin Of Gardens (ed. 3) 36 Wide o'er the Garden now she sheds Perfumes, Unrumples her swol'n Buds, and gayly blooms.

Unru·mpled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1641 W. Cartwright Siege ii. ii, We cannot keep a pleat unrumpled..for them. 1692 Wood Life (O.H.S.) IV. 25, I shall put it into the hands of Dr Levet that he might convey it to you..unrumpled. 1776 Mrs. Delany Life & Corr. Ser. ii. (1862) II. 218, I leave the rest of her unpacking to your delicate fingers. I hope to hear she arrives unrumpled—feathers and all. 1821 Scott Kenilw. iv, You must..wear ..your falling band unrumpled and well starched. 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gaywortheys xxxii, Her bright hair was put back over her ears, but quite unrumpled.

Unru·n, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.] Not past or completed.

1474 Acta Dom. Audit. (1839) 37/2 Þe tak of þe said landis..for sa many termes now to cum as was vnrunnyn of þe xix yeris. 1591 Knaresb. Wills (Surtees) I. 176 The reste of the yeares I have to come unrun.

Unrung, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 b + Ring v.[2]] Not sounded by ringing.

1422–61 in Cal. Proc. in Chanc. Q. Eliz. (1827) I. Introd. 20 It wer better bell unrogne at pe sauntes tyme pan pe messe unsogne. 1742 Blair Grave 53 The Great Bell has toll'd, unrung, untouch'd.

Unru·ng, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8 b + Ring v.[1]] = Unringed ppl. a.

1548 Fen Lawe in Thompson Hist. Boston (1856) 643 No swine were to be put in the fens unrung. 1654 in Picton L'pool Munic. Rec. (1883) I. 191 Swyne that shalbee found unrung. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 530 He let his Hogs go into his Orchard unrung. 1727 E. Lawrence Duty of Steward 125 Paying Ten shillings for each Hog suffer'd to be unrung or unyoked. 1885 W. Rye Hist. Norfolk 114 Men were often prosecuted for..keeping unrung pigs, or savage dogs.

Unru·nkled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1721 Ramsay Keitha 43 Her..brow, smooth as th' unruinkled deep.

Unru·ptured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1862 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery vi. 1 211 Even if the membranes are unruptured, we shall generally be able to feel a small coil. 1875 Browning Aristoph. Apol. 118 Odusseus..Holding as surely on to Herakles, Who touched Zeus, link and link, the unruptured chain!

Unru·stled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8) a 1653 Binning Serm. (1845) 257 Take heed to walk suitably and preserve your seal of adoption unblotted, unrusted. 1797 Coleridge Osorio iv. iii. The point is bright, unrusted with the villain's blood! 1851 Mrs. Browning Casa Guidi Wind i. 1086 Bring thoughts and words, Unrusted by a tear of yesterday's. 1868 Lond. Rev. 19 Dec 670/1 The book.. has the quality of gold, and will keep unrusted for an age.

Unru·stling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10). 1749 Collins Superst. Highlanders vi, For watchful, lurking, 'mid the unrustling reed, At those mirk hours the wily monster lies.

Unru·th. Now arch. (Un-[1] 12.)

c 1440 Jacob's Well 204 To haue..vnrewthe of hem pat arn in peyne. 1888 W. Morris Dream of J. Ball iv. 32 All this hast thou lost for..a little winking of the eyes amidst murder and wrong and unruth. 1899 W. S. Blunt Satan Absolved 18 Thy Will Good counterpart Only in Man's unWill, Thy Truth in his un-Truth,..Ruth in his un-Ruth.

Unru·thfully, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] = Unruefully adv. c 1375 Cursor M. 24023 (Fairf.), Vnreuſfull þai con him raipe. Ibid. 24158 Vn-reuſfull þe wirk vn-rigt.

Uns, obs. Sc. form of Ounce sb.[1]

Unsabba·tical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1882 'Edna Lyall' Donovan x, A most unsabbatical..shooting-jacket. 1896 Daily News 6 April 2/3 For an altogether unsabbatical outburst of levity.

Unsa·bred, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1820 Bentham Liberty of Press Wks. (1843) II. 283/1 Under whom it has..been my good hap to live unhanged, unsabred, unimprisoned.

Unsacerdo·tal, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1847 Maurice Relig. World i. iii. 71 Such an utterly unsacerdotal people as the Mahometans. 1860 All Year Round No. 44, 412 Popes who have scandalised mankind by their unsacerdotal vices.

Unsacerdo·tally, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1834 H. O'Brien Round Towers Ireland. 502 They then very unsacerdotally make a serpent bite him.

Unsa·ck, v. [Un-[2] 5.] trans. To take out of a sack. Also fig.

14.. Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 582 Exsacco, to vnsacke. 1598 Florio, Dissaccare, to vnsacke, to emptie out of a sacke. 1646 Landor Inaug. Comm. Wks. II. 61 The state is founded on follies, the Church on sins. Come then, unsack them.

Unsa·cked, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not plundered.

1590 Marlowe 2nd Pt. Tamburlaine iv. iii. 59 This same Boy..must..Rifle the kingdomes I shall leave vnsackt. 1593 Daniel Civ. Wars v. lxxvi, Preans yonder turnes yet vnsackt, Your valiant fellowes stand your worth to see. 1791 Cowper Iliad xii. 14 The city yet Of royal Priam was unsack'd. c 1813 Southey Ad Santarem 4 Loth to leave Rich Lisbon yet unsacked, he kept his ground.

Unsacrament, v. [Un-[2] 6.] 1642 J. Fuller Holy & Prof. St. v. xi. 402 Whereas the profaneness of a bad man administring it, doth unsacrament baptisme itself. Unsacrame·ntally, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1840 G. S. Faber Christ's Disc. Capernaum 6 Under the phraseology of Eating the Flesh and Drinking the Blood of Christ, the same vital doctrine..is successively propounded..., first unsacramentally, next sacramentally. † Unsacred, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [Un-[1] 8.] Unconsecrated. 1382 Wyclif in Knighton Chron. (Rolls) II. 161 þe Sacrament of the Autere white and ronde and like tyl oure brede or ost unsacrede. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VII. 263 Thomas wolde sit nouȝt assent, but, were he wey unsacred. c 1440 Alph. Tales 112 Þai cowncеld þe preste to feche ane hoste þat was vnsacred & giff hym. Unsacred, a.[2] [Un-[3] 8.] Deprived of sacred character. 1652 Howell Giraldi's Rev. Naples ii. 35 A Jesuite also beheaded, but he was unsacred and degraded first of his function.

Unsa·cred, a. [Un-[1] 7 and 5 b.] Not sacred; profane.

1608 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. iv. iii. Schisme 188 Th' unsacred Altar sudden slent in twain. a 1641 Bp. Mountagu Acts & Mon. (1642) 204 No person, unclean, common, unsacred, must approach unto Gods altar. c 1712 W. King Case Consc. Wks. 1776 III. 249 If from a place unsacred you should take A sacred thing,..Or an unsacred thing from sacred place. 1793 Lavington Mormonism Compared 113 The Valentinians' unsacred Sacraments, and profane Initiations. 1872 Swinburne Under Microscope 28 The unsacred secrets of no Eleusinian initiation.

Unsacredly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1852 S. R. Maitland 8 Ess. 37 No doubt Orpheus sung Hę perso il caro ben, and the chorus followed him..naturally, and unsacredly, and operatically.

Unsacrifi·ceable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.)

1580 W. Fulke Stapleton Confut. ii. iv. 82 That great and vnsacrificable sacrifice (as I may call it). 1618 Ainsworth Annot. Lev. vii. 18 The Greek translateth it sundry wayes, a thing polluted, unsacrificeable, and profane. [1650 Trapp Comm. Lev. vii. 18 Kept beyond the time; and so uneatable, unsacrificeable.]

Unsacrificed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1849 Rock Ch. of Fathers i. ii. I. 91 The bread which is unsacrificed is then changed into what is sacrificed. 1855 Pusey Doctr. Real Presence 483 In Thy Temple, where thou art sacrificed unsacrificed.

† Unsa·d, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. OE. unsæd unsated (= obs. Du. onzat).]

1. Not firm or steadfast; unreliable.

1382 Wyclif Rom. xv. 2 Ȝe bleesseden of syke men, or vnsadde in feith. c 1386 Chaucer Clerk's T. 995 O stormy peple vnsad and euere vnstewe. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Prince. 905 O lord! þis world vnstabyl is, & vnsad. 1455 Rolls of Parls. V. 341/2 Blynded with unsad trust and promysse of mariage. 1495 Cov. Leet Bk. 564 þe vnsadde demeasnyng & dealyng þat he hath be of in tymes past.

2. Not firm, hard, or solid.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. vi. v. (Tollem. MS.), The childes fiesche, þat is more tendir, in tendir, nesche, more and unsad. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 491/2 Thoke, as onsadde fysche, humorosus.

3. Free from sadness.

a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 1208 Off sorow were they neuyr vnsad, Myght they neyther dryynke ne ete.

Hence † Unsa·dness. Obs.

1382 Wyclif Heb. vii. 18 Reprouyng of the maundement biforne goynge is maad, for the vnsadnesse and vnprofyt of it. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xviii. cl. (Bodl. MS.), pere it is ineide bat..it happiȝ & comȝ of vnfastenes & vnsadnes of be tre.

Unsa·d, v. (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1640 Quarles Sights xvii, We'l change our Scene, & we'l unsad our Stile; We'l teach your sighes to sing. Unsa·dden, v. (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1694 Whitlock Zootomia 483 It unsaddens the melancholy, quickens the dull, awaketh the drowsie. 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) IV. 355 The unsaddened heart..will not now, I hope, give the sadde tone to every address of the man she dislikes not. Ibid. V. 224 [He] began to untwist and unsadden his features.

Unsa·ddened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) † c 1840 Mrs. Browning Paraphr. Homer, Hector & A. 2 The nurse..Bore on her bosom the unsaddened child.

Unsa·ddle, v. [Un-[2] 4, 5. Cf. older Du. and Flem. ontzadelen (Du. ontzadelen), OHG. intsatalôn (MHG. entsatelen, G. entsatteln).

1. trans. To remove the saddle from (a horse, etc.). Also absol.

1382 Wyclif Gen. xxiv. 32 He ladde hym into the hows of herbergrye and unsadelynge dischargide the camelis. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/1 Onsadelyn hors, deterno. 1560 Bible (Geneva) Gen. xxiv. 32 He vnsaddled the camels and brought lytter & prouander. 1609 Armin Ital. Taylor B 3 b, When you shall see The bargaine full assignd, Vnsaddle me, and leaue me sold. 1716 B. Church Hist. Philip's War (1865) I. 43 The Horses that he and his company came on standing at the door (for they had not been unsaddled). 1798 Hull Advertiser 8 Sept. 1/4 After a march of ninety miles, without unsaddling our horses. 1837 W. Irving Capt. Bonneville II. 265 Their horses, too, were unsaddled, and turned loose to graze. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 185 His attendants proceeded to unsaddle the whole troop.

2. To dislodge from a saddle. Also fig.

a 1470 H. Parker Dirges & Pauper (Pynson, 1493) x. v, Therfore..kepe you wele in the sadyl of pacience, & let no angre,..no tribulacion, no seknesse unsadle you of pacience. 1564 Bullein Dial. agst. Pest. 42 b, Helpe me, my horse startedh, and had like to haue..vnsadled me. 1623 Donne Serm. 176 A Conscience and prompitory Refuter unsaddles me at first. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 22 March 1649, Another ..whose ambition..is resolved to neglect no tentative.. that may unsadle the General, and fairly hold him the stirrup. 1821 Hughes Life Geo. I (c), I 10/1 Magnus..engaged Otho personally, and unsaddled him. 1860 Adler Pers. Poet. xviii. 404, I expect to unsaddle many a knight on the fair centre of the bridge.

3. To free from spectacles.

1755 Johnson Ch. Fathers xi, The prince unsaddled his nose, and..our hero was introduced in form.

Hence Unsa·ddling vbl. sb. Also attrib.

[1775 Ash.] 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! ii, Sir Richard Grenville's house is like a very tavern, with eating and drinking, and unsaddling. 1891 Star 15 June 4/2 The small unsaddling paddock.

Unsa·ddled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. OE. unsadelod, ungesadelod, MDu. ongesadelt (Du. ongezadeld), G. ungesattelt; NFris. unsadeld, Du. usadlet, Sw. osadlad.] Not saddled. Also transf. (cf. prec. 3).

1623 Fletcher & Rowley Maid in Mill iv. ii, If thy spectacles be not easie, Keep thy nose unsadl'd, and ope thine eyes wide. 1681 Bloom. Mag. I. 57/1 There were at her wedding fifty saddled asses, and unsaddled asses without number. 1892 Daily News 28 Sept. 3/5 Each mounted soldier leading an unsaddled charger.

Unsadness: see Unsad a.

Unsafe, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1. Not enjoying safety; exposed to danger or risk.

1605 Shaks. Hamb. iii. iii. 32 Vnsafe the while, that we must laue Our Honors in these flattering streames. a 1618 Raleigh Rem. (1664) 151 People that were..un-safe, or unsure for their lives. 1676 Hale Contempl. i. 277 Which makes the man's estate unpitiful and unsafe, because he hath many competitors. 1892 Tennyson Foresters iv. i, I have let them know Their lives unsafe in..our woods.

2. Of actions, etc.: Involving, or not free from, danger or risk.

1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. xlii. § 2 Yet others should be taught how unsafe it was to continue his friends. 1604 Shaks. Oth. v. i. 43 Let's think't vnsafe To come into the cry. 1612 — Wint. T. ii. ii. 30 These dangerous, unsafe Lunes i' th' King. 1662 J. Davies tr. Olearius' Voy. Ambass. 84 This great number of slaves make it unsafe to walk the streets..unarm'd. 1722 Wodrow Corr. (1843) II. 665 Our Assembly..declared the unsafe tendency of several propositions advanced by them. 1798 S. & H. Lee Canterb. T. II. 168 [He] thought its appearance so unsafe, that..he took a private house. 1836 Thirlwall Greece xxii. III. 259 A small number whom it appeared unsafe to trust. 1884 E. A. Parkes Pract. Hygiene 427 Rain water may be unsafe, if the tanks are not clean.

b. Of ways or places: Dangerous from natural or other causes.

1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 274 The tyme of winter had made the wayes unsafe. 1650 in Verney Memoirs (1907) I. 464 The wayes are everywhere unsafe for travell. 1686 Hornecк Crucif. Jesus xxii. 66 Where the roads are unsafe, there men carry swords. 1748 Anson's Voy. iii. ii. 315 Full of sharp-pointed coral rocks, which.. renders it a very unsafe place to lie at. 1781 Cowper Retirement 33 Oh, bliss precarious, and unsafe retreats! 1830 Wordsw. Russian Fugitive ii. ii, And midway in the unsafe morass, A single Island rose Of firm dry ground. 1891 Farrar Memoirs (1907) I. 204 Dawn xx, While Nero..made the streets..unsafe with riot and assault.

3. Not to be trusted to; unreliable.

1601 Shaks. Twel. N. iii. iv. 88 No obstacle, no incredulous or vnsafe circumstance,..can come betweene me, and the full prospect of my hopes. 1615 G. Sandys Trav. 92 A number of wracks..did miserably testifie the unsafe protection of that harbour. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor ii. iii. rule 14 § 2 The topick of traditions..was..false in many things, and therefore unsafe in all questions. 1876 J. Stern Panorama Sci. & Art II. 635 Land..on which it is deemed unsafe to sow grain, on account of the worm. 1863 Smith's Dict. Bible II. s.v. Plant, Such mere similarity of sound is a most unsafe guide. 1894 A. Conrson Lucy Nugent 34 We say 'As unsaie as a bank', after what has occurred in Melbourne.

Unsa·fely, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] In an unsafe manner; without safety or surety.

1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. x. (1626) 209 Valour vnsafelie copes with valiant foes. 1692 Dryden Eleonora 268 Take it..before my rage Unsafely just, break loose on this bad Age. 1774 Beattie Minstr. ii. xl, Even there, if left without a guide, The young adventurer unsafely plays. 1870 Proctor Other Worlds ii. 45 It may not unsafely be asserted, that.. these elements..exist in..any single star.

Unsa·feness. [Un-[1] 12. The quality of being unsafe.

1673 S'too him Bayes 89 As for the unsafeness of it, if uncontroulable liberties prove safe, all's well. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. i. v. 794 Unevenness and Unsafeness of.. [Plotinus's] Tempe. 1884 Lancet 22 Nov. 64/1 The unsafeness and impropriety of the manner of removal.

Unsa·fety. [Un-[1] 12, 5 b.] Absence or want of safety.

1596 Bacon Max. Com. Law Ep. Ded. (1630) A 4, The great hollownesse and vnsafety in assurances of lands. 1614 — Charge touching Duels 9 It may cause suddaine stormes in Court, to the disturbance of his Majestie, and vnsafitie of his person. a 1684 Leighton Com. 1 Pet. iii. 15 Perceiving the unsafety and vanity of these..external things. 1844 J. Watson in Chuston Hero. (1861) II. 222 The unsafety of determining authorships by internal evidence. 1872 Howells Wedding Journ. ix, The unsafety of all bridges of that design.

Unsage, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1584 Hudson Du Bartas' Judith v. 302 And, with their wicked hands, and words vnsage, They did our sacred messengers outrage. Unsa·gely, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1801 Moore Morality 71 The plain good man.. Pursues his course, unsagely blest, His tutor whispering in his breast.

Unsai·d, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 8 b), = NFris. unsad, MDu. ongeseit, Du. ongezegd, MLG. ungeseggel, -gescht, MHG. ungesagel, -geseit (G. ungesagt), ON. usagðr (Sw. osagd, (M)Da. usagt, Norw. usagd.] Not said or uttered.

c 1000 Ælfric Hom. II. 466 Eac þæs dæges godspel is swiðe earfoðe ieswedum manum to understandenne..; i we hit iæta3 unsæd. c 1275 Sc. Leg. Cadoc (Thornton) 234 Theodera þane cane hyr pray þat scho wald tel hyr. & þef vnsad til hyr richt noȝht. c 1425 Cast. Persev. 693 in Macro Plays 98 Per-fore I am mad nassenger..borwe all pe world..vnsayd sawys for to seye. c 1440 Alph. Tales 324 I hafe lefte þe laste colett vnsaid. c 1450 Merlin x. 143 Merlyn..tolde hym alle these thynges, that nought he lefte vn-seide. 1532 More Confut. Tindale Wks. 345/2 He held, ..that al diuine mysteries may be reuealed without anii sinne. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia v. (1922) II. 192 Leaving nothing unsaide which a filthy minde can imagine. 1609 Donne Elegie Mrs. Boulstred 1 Death I recant, and say, unsaid by me Whatere hath slipt from me in my sadnesse. 1699 Bentley Phal. 46 This was..a thing unsaid before. 1730 Swift Poems, Traulus ii. 20 He..Talks whate'er comes into his head; Wishes it were all unsaid. 1865 Scott Lays Westmorland v. xxxiv, Yet his tale he left unsaid. 1848 Thackeray Van. Fair lxvi, You leave me under the weight of an accusation which, after all, is unsaid. 1889 Walpole Life Lord J. Russell II. 266 Forced, therefore, to leave unsaid the words..necessary for his own defence.

Unsai·lable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) a 1570 Levins Manip. 4/15 Vnsayiable, innauigabilis. 1587 Golding De Mornay vii. 102 Ye shall make the Sea for the most part vnsayleable. 1627 May Lucan v. H 8 b, Cæsar.. finds The sea vnsaileable for dangerous winds.

Unsai·led, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 a.)

a 1572 Knox Hist. Ref. Wks. 1846 I. 293 To bring this head to pass,..the Quein Regent left not one of the compas unsailed. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. i. 457 There sprends, belike, that other unsail'd main I sought so long. 1866 Swinburne Poems & Ballads, Laverna 86 Lo, what hath he seen or known Of..the wave Unbeholden, unsailed-on? 1870 Morris Earthly Par. II. iii. 272 'Twixt inaccessible cliffs and unsailed sea.

Unsai·lorlike, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.)

1841 Thackeray Yellowplush Papers Wks. 1898 III. 375 Nothing can be more unsailorlike than his namby-pamby starlit descriptions. 1865 J. Cameron Malayan India 41 The unsightly and unsailorlike aspect of the craft.

Unsai·lorly, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1883 Stevenson Treas. Isl. ii. ix, I think his conduct unsailorly.

Unsai·ned, ppl. a. Now arch. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. OE. ungesænod, MDu. ongesegent (Du. ongezegend), ## UNSAINT.

MLG. ungesegnet, MHG. ungeseȣgenet, -ent (G. ungesegnet).] Unblessed; esp. not formally blessed or protected by a blessing.

a 1275 Ancr R. 312 [A] wardein, bet wit & weres us euer wi ȝ þe unseiene [Cotton MS. unseinedę] gostes. 1513 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. IV. 417 To Thomas Drummond, alias Thom Unsaint,...vij li. 1691 R. KING Sacred Consecrat. I. (1875) 10 Those who are unseened or unsanctified (called Fey). 1881 W. GREGOR Folk-Lore N.-E. Scotl. xi. 62 To carry off unsained and unchurched mothers.

Unsai nt, v. [UN-7 6 b.] trans. To deprive of saintly character or status.

1572 R. T. Discourse 29 Thomas Becket, whom King Henry dyd vnsainte, and disgrade. 1594 Zepheria xiv, No neuer soall that face...Emblemi-ist be, defaced or unsainted, Till death shall blot it. 1626 T. JAMES Corruption Scripture iv. 51 The Master of the sacred Palace hath vnsainted him. 1655 GURNALL Chr. in Arm. i. 124 Satan's scope in accusing the Christian,...is to unsaint him, and perswade him he is but an hypocrite. 1791 HOWE Scott Consist. Pref. Empiricy 29 Power...to saint themselves, and unsaint all other men, at their own pleasure. 1766 ENFIELD London IV. 123 That saint's bones being...burnt, and unsainted, by the powers in being. 1824 SOUTHEY Doctor liv. (1848) 192 Most assuredly they ought to be unsainted! 1870 Temple-Bar Mag. XXIX. 186 Young women...mutter in tender tremulous voices, which...might unsaint an anchorite.

Hence Unsai'nted *ppl. a.*1

1851 MEDURE Adv. Hagiff Bach II. vi. 172, I marvelled how of a sudden I had become such an unsainted him.

Unsai'nted, *ppl. a.*2 [UN-1 8.] Unsanctified; not canonized.

a 1642 SUCKLING Acc. Relig. Ep., Wks. (1648) 100 The Fathers of the Church...had slept now un-Sainted in their Graves, unbaptized, unblessed. 1647 WARD Simple Cobbler Hyberni. 1 As John Booker prognosticated in his un-sainted state-lying-Kalender. 1768 [W. DONALDSON] Life Sir B. Sapskull I. vii. 90 St. Austin,...Chrysostom, and many other sainted and unsainted fathers. 1862 R. S. WOOLF Hymns of Priestess of Diana iii, O ear, that hears no word...unfit! O breast, which thought unsainted never felt! 1895 Outing April 67/1 Shame! shame! upon those unsainted ones!

Unsai'nt-like, a. (UN-7 5 c.) 1681 J. SCOTT Chr. Life iii. 225 Our wicked and unsaint-like Lives. 1891 Pall Mall G. 19 March 3/3 The saint's [i. e. John Wesley] very unsaint-like love affairs.

Unsai'ntly, a. (UN-1 7.)

Also, in recent use (1887), unsaintliness.

1659 GAUDEN Tears Ch. ii. xix. 209 What (I pray) can be more unsaintly, than to...delight and glory...in most unjust and uncharitable actions? 1809 FOSTER Ess. (1844) I. 272 There is something unsaintly spread over the character. 1837 GEN. P. THOMPSON Exerc. (1842) IV. 301 Bring up the most unsaintly cases you can find. 1899 B. HARRADEN Fowler I. ix, A most unsaintly-looking pair of shoes.

†Unsa'cked, a. Obs. [UN-7 5 c.] SAXED a.] Innocent. a 1300 Cursor M. 572 Alle virtus has saul i-wis, Pat vte o sin vnsaked is. Ibid. 17336, I am vn-saked of his blod.

Unsa'laried, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1836 DISRAELI Runnymede Lett. (1888) 28 Happy England, whose fortunes are slowly swelled by such an unsalaried steward! 1866 Ch. Times 1 Sept. 277/3 The cost...has been borne...chiefly by its founder, the unsalaried secretary. 1898 Dict. Nat. Biog. LVI. 247/1 A comfortable though unsalaried post as tutor.

Unsa'leable, a. and sb. (UN-1 7 b, 12.)

1565 COOPER Thesaurus s.v. Merx, Vnsaleable ware. 1644 MILTON Areop. (Arb.) 60 Sermons...vented in such numbers,...as have now wellnigh made all other books vnsaleable. 1692 RAY Dr. Wilkins (ed. 2) Adv., By publishing a Second Edition of a Book, with large Additions, to render the former worthless and unsaleable. 1762 STERNE Tr. Shandy IV. xxxiii, An unsaleable piece of cambrick. 1798 Hull Advertiser 23 June 4/4 Middling and ordinary qualities are quite unsaleable. 1817 COLERIDGE Biogr. Lit. I. 178 The unsaleable nature of my writings. 1860 RUSKIN Unto this Last (1862) 112 A horse is useless, and therefore unsaleable, if no one can ride it.

sb. 1811 BYRON Hints from Hor. 657 'Scott's thirty thousand copies sold,' which must sadly discomfit poor Southey's unsaleables. 1843 E. FITZGERALD Lett. (1889) I. 116 A desperate collection of pictures...; among them old unsaleables by Maclise.

Hence Unsaleabi'lity, -ableness.

1828 DR. MORGAN Rudiments of Paradoxes 123 A climax of unsaleability, unreadiness, and inutility. 1775 ASH, Unsaleableness. 1903 Saturday Rev. 10 Jan. 43/1 The unsaleableness of landscape.

Unsa'lt, a. (UN-1 7. Cf. OE. unsealt, Du. onsout, ON. ósaltr, Icel. ósaltur, older Sw. osalt.)

1435 MISYN Fire of Luve 85 Pis warld...has also salt vnsalt, swyr vnsayrd. 1598 FLORIO Worlde, fresh, new, vnsalt.

Unsa'lt, v. (UN-6 and 7. Cf. Du. ontzouten, G. entsalzen.) 1547 Bk. of Marchantes c ij, Of suche wares their store houses are full, and these be called, store hous masses, or salted masses. That ȝee...vyght soone vnsalte and water it. 1611 COTGR., Dessaler, to vnsalt; make fresh; become fresh. Unsa'litary, a. (UN-7 7.) 1846 FORD Gatherings from Spain xxiii. 334 Our immelodious labourers and unsaltatory operatives.

Unsa'lted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, Cf. NFris. unsalted, (M)Sw. osaltad, (M)Da. usalted.)

*c*1440 Promp. Parv. 366 ȝa Onpowderyd, on-saltyd, insaltus. 1541 R. COPLAND Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. Q i, A mutrunyte made with butter wel washed and vnsalted. 1579 LANGHAM Gardn. Health 173 Pease...whether they be gray or white vnsalted. 1600 SURFLET Country Farme v. xvi. 582 Sprinkled with neats blood mingled with ole olive vnsalted. 1725 Hain. Dict. s.v. Poulsilin, Good melted and vnsalted Butter. 1731 ARBUTHNOT Aliments (1735) 289 The Cure of this Distemper lies in a Diet of fresh unsalted things. 1820 SCORESBY Acc. Arctic Reg. I. 343 Unsalted mutton and beef. 1860 G. W. HOLMES Elate F. vii, Villages lying along the unsalted streams.

b. fig. (See quots.)

1608 MARSTON Antonio's Rev. IV. ii, Your unsalted fresh fools is your onely man. 1619 HIERON Wks. II. 489 It is impossible for a man of an vnsalted heart, so to counterfait the language of Canaan. 1649 MILTON Eikon. xiv. 139 Compiler of that unsalted and Simonical prater annex'd. 1879 ATCHERLEY Trip Boërland 208 'Unsalted' horses, i.e. those which have not passed through the ordeal [of the disease].

Unsalu'brious, a. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1781 J. MOORE View Soc. It. II. 97 Descending from that town...we traversed an unsalubrious plain to Sermonetta. Unsalu'brity. (UN-1 7, 5 b.) 1694 FALLE Jersey ii. 78 The Unsalubrity of any Country arising chiefly from a low Ground, and a stagnating Air and Water.

Unsa'lutary, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1770 LANGHORNE Plutarch V. 219 His unpeaceable and unsalutary conduct. 1798 Eng. Gentleman (ed. 2) s.v. Nor. pick, The air...is agreeable, and otherwise unsalutary. 1840 FORSTER Treat. Pop. Progr. Eng. Hist. p. xlviii, It is fearful, but not unsalutary, to cast a parting glance at it. 1846 LANDOR Imag. Conv. Wks. I. 544/1 It is just...to shake a salutary fear into...stupid despots, when they shake an unsalutary one into thousands.

Unsalu'ted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1542 BECON Pathw. Prayer xxxvi. O vil, He that leauethe God vnsaluted with his prayers, these dire tymes. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia iii. ii, Ay sleepes were inquired after, and my wakings never unsaluted. 1607 SHAKS. Cor. v. iii. 50 You Gods, I pray, And the most noble Mother of the world Leave vnsaluted. 1694 tr. Milton's Lett. State 26 We have given him in Command, not to pass by your Lordships Unsaluted in our Name. 1795 [see next]. 1805 WORDSW. Prelude iv. 47 The rooms, the court, the garden were not left Long unsaluted. 1821 SCOTT Pirate xxiii, He suffered them to pass away unsaluted.

Unsalu'ting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1795 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 144, I met you in Redcliff, and, unsaluted and unsaluting, passed by the man whom [etc.].

Unsa'lvable, a. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1624 T. SCOTT Vox Pop. ii. 14 He found the rootes of either discontent so deepe, and the sore so vnsaluable, that hee gaue it ouer. 1638 CHILLINGW. Relig. Prot. I. v. § 60 The words by them cited, and charged with vnsaluable contradiction. 1659 FULLER App. Inj. Innoc. ii. 102 Else we were all...in an unsalvable condition. 1895 SALMOND Chr. Doctr. Immort. vi. iv. 668 Neither to make the heathen unconditionally unsalvable, nor to represent salvation as possible apart from Christ.

Hence Unsalvabi'lity, -ableness.

1684 H. MORE Answer xiv. 105 Touching the Idolatrousness of the Church of Rome, and the Unsalvableness of those that live in it. 1821 Wesleyan Method. Mag. June 465/1 The unsalvability of any heathen.

Unsa'lvatory, a. (UN-1 7.) 1850 CARLYLE Latter-d. Pamph. iii. 6 Dalai-Lama pills, manufactured let not refined lips hint how, and quite unsalvatory to mankind.

Unsa'lved, ppl. a. (UN-1 8. Cf. MHG. ungesalbet, G. ungesalbt, Du. ongezalfd.)

a 1240 Ureisun in O. E. Hom. I. 202 Hwoa þerf beon unsalued þet hauede se mihti salue. 1641 MILTON Prel. Episc. 23 Nor caring how slightly they put off the verdit of holy Text unsaluted. 1827 YOUATT Sheep xvii. 549 The laid wool ...was...lower in price than the white or unsalved wool.

†Unsa'me, v. Obs. [UN-7 6 + SAME a.] trans. To alter, change. 1632 QUARLES Div. Fancies ii. xxxiii, What secret mischief can Vn-same thy peace? 'Twas not the selfe same Man.

†Unsa'men, adv. Obs. [UN-1 12 b.] Not in union or harmony. a 1400–50 Alexander 605 With grete glesenand ȝeen grymly he lokis, þat were...sett vn-samen of serelypp hewys.

Unsa'mpled, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

†1. Unexampled. Obs.

a 1638 MEDE Wks. (1672) 220 The unsampled irregularity of our whole nature. 1675 ALSOP Anti-sozzo 312 The Burning of Rome and his unsampled Butcheries.

2. Untried; not experienced.

1890 Pall Mall G. 28 Aug. 2/2 It is the unknown and the unsampled that bewilders us.

Unsanctifica'tion. (UN-1 12, UN-2 8.)

a 1684 LEIGHTON Comm. 1 Pet. i. 2 (1693) 28 From present unsanctification, a Man cannot inferre that he is not Elected. 1804 Evang. Mag. XLV. 567/2 Whether this uneven ground, from the time of its unsanctification, been always kept by Quakers, cannot now be ascertained.

Unsa'nctified, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1572 Homilies ii. Agst. Rebellion iii. (1859) 570 Rebels...have the Sabbath day of the Lord unsanctified. 1602 SHAKS. Ham. v. i. 252 She should in ground vnsanctified haue lodg'd. 1650 BULWER Anthropomet. 199 In the Indies, among barbarous and unsanctified Nations. 1747 DODSLEY Col. Gardiner 28 A Heart as yet quite unsanctified. 1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla V. 430 My own prayers may be too unsanctified to be heard. 1827 POLLOK Course T. x. 306 The others...stand unsanctified, unpardoned, sad. 1885 MUIRHEAD Lat. Chr. xiv. 598 To the Ecclesiastic belonged the chancel, not to be entered by unsanctified feet.

Hence Unsa'nctifiedly adv., -ness.

1634 LO. WARBISTON Diary (S.H.S.) 226, I most confesse ...the unsanctifiednes of my affections. 1650 HUBBERT Pill Formality 283 Thou liest...unholily, and unsanctifiedly.

Unsa'nctify, v. (UN-2 6 c.)

1594 Zepheria xxv, Let not disdayne thy soule vnsanctifie. 1633 PRYNNE Histriom. 648 If therefore Stage-playes unsanctifie or pollute the one,...needes must they defile the other too. 1691 SHADWELL Volunteers iv, Letice, You may see the most unhallow'd sight. Hackwell, Will it not unsanctifiy my eyes? 1831 WORDSW. Yarrow Revisited 91 Nor deem that spoiled Romance...Unsanctifies our tears. 1862 BURTON Sk. Hunter iv. 323 To imagine any process by which they could be unsanctified.

Hence Unsa'nctifying ppl. a.

a 1889 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. xxiv. (1861) V. 193 The sanctity of their priests has an unsanctifying influence on them.

Unsancti'monious, a. (UN-1 7.) a 1797 H. WALPOLE Geo. II (1847) III. vi. 158 A woman of so unsanctimonious a character. Unsancti'ous, a. (UN-1 4.) 1854 PALMER Advent. in Ho. Parliament 160 Love blubb'd is a great decline; A careless word unsanctions sense.

Unsa'nctioned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1784 COWPER Task II. 524 Their [sc. sages'] rules of life Defective and unsanctioned. 1833 J. H. NEWMAN Arians I. iii. 64 From a fear of using unsanctioned language on a sacred subject. 1866 C. J. VAUGHAN Plain Words vi. 92 'Society'...is a thing not unnoticed, not unsanctioned by Him who made us.

Unsa'nctity. (UN-1 12.) a 1639 W. WHATELEY Prototypes II. xxvi. (1640) 81 Those rules...doe discover rather the unsanctity of love in other respects, than the excesse. 1838 S. BELLAMY Betroyal 82 From whose Unsancity incense doth ev'n recoil. †Unsa'nctuary. (UN-1 12.) ?1615 SYLVESTER Tobacco Battered 709 In some Play-house, or some Ordinary, Or in som piece of som Vn-sanctuary.

Unsa'ndalled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1772 MASON Eng. Garden i. 16 Many a glade...where if Art E'er dar'd to tread, 'twas with unsandal'd foot. 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. III. i. 25 As ice wound unsandalled feet. 1887 BOWEN Æneid IV. 518 One foot all unsandalled, her robe ungirdled, she stands.

Unsa'nded, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1843 Farmer's Mag. Jan. 29/2 The unsanded spot is visible to this day..., being almost bare of grass.

Unsa'ne, a. [UN-1 7, 5 b.]

†1. Unsound, unhealthy. Obs.

c 1650 tr. Plutarch's Mor. (1718) IV. 177 A Man begotten by an unsane Body, does not therefore deserve Punishment.

2. Lacking sanity. rare.

1867 H. BUSHNELL Moral Uses Dark Th. 267 It results...not that we are insane, but short of perfect sanity, practically unsane.

Unsa'nguine, a. (UN-1 7.)

1728 YOUNG Ocean lxxi, Prophetic schemes, And golden dreams, May I, unsanguin, cast away! 1862 [ELIZ. JOHNSTON] Gifts & Graces xxiv. 238 To one of her unsanguine disposition such cheerfulness was very admirable. 1883 LYTTON Life & Lett. Ld. L. II. 25 The unsanguine nature of his disposition.

Hence Unsa'nguineness.

1841 LADY LYTTELTON Corr. (1912) 309 This, however, is ...only my usual unsanguineness.

Unsa'nitary, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1871 GEO. ELIOT Middlemarch xxiii, In any grim street of that unsanitary quarter. 1883 Century Mag. XXVI. 77 Unsanitary dwellings.

Unsa'nitated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1888 Daily Tel. 5 Mar. (Encycl. Dict.), Unsanitated workrooms, or...sweating dens.

Unsapo'nifiable, a. (UN-7 b.) 1885 W. L. CARPENTER Soap & Candles 51 Estimation of Unsaponifiable Oils in Cats.

Unsapo'nified, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1839 URE Dict. Arts 729 The unsaponified fat of the cocoacis insect. †Unsa'poury, a. Obs. [UN-1 7 and 5 b + SAPOUR.] Unsavoury. 1658 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. (ed. 2) 13 A meale...unsapory and offensive. Ibid. 241 The cheese is...of an unsaporie taste. Unsa'pped, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1768 STERNE Sent. Journ., Act of Charity, Two upright vestal sisters, unsap'd by caresses. 1896 Amer. Ann. Deaf Feb. 106 Sound and vigorous in body, unsapped in vitality. Unsa'ppy, a. (UN-7. Cf. OE. unsæpig.) a 1722 LISLE Husb. (1757) 218 A small, thin, unsappy leaf. Unsarra'ed, dial. var. UNSAVED ppl. a. Unsa'shed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1772 ASH.] 1842 DICKENS Barn. Rudge xii, A gleam of sun shining through the unsashed window. Unsa'table, a. (UN-1 7 b.) Insatiable. 1850 BROWNING Easter Day xxvi, His saints...knew He would not disallow Their spirit's hunger, ...Unsated,—not unsatable.

Unsa'ted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1693 DRYDEN Juvenal vi. 285 Tir'd with the Toyl, unsated with the Sin. 1744 YOUNG Nt. Th. vi. 69 Long life might hope, age unperceiv'd come on! And find the soul unsated with her theme. 1798 FERRIAR Illustr. Sterne, etc. i. 6 His imagination...unsated by a long acquaintance with literary folly. 1834 LYTTON Pompeii II. x, Now contracting, now lengthening, its folds, in pain and unsated anger. 1899 FARRAR St. Paul I. 177 To the High Priest therefore he went, unsated by all his previous cruelties.

Hence Unsa'tedness.

1845 BAILEY Festus (ed. 2) 258 Contrasting the pure joys of earlier years With the unsadness of the current sin.

Unsa'tiable, a. Now rare. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.] Of persons, desires, etc.: Insatiable. (Common c 1540–c 167 5.)

(a) 1382 WYCLIF Baruch iv. 15 He brouȝte vpon hem...a fole vnsatiable. c 1440 Alph. Tales 523 With mony we sall fyll þine vnsatiable harte. 1500–20 DUNBAR Poems xvii. 38 Item wald tak all his wardis breid,...Throw hairt vnsatiable. a 1540 BARNES Wks. (1573) 342/1 Beecause you bee...vnsaciable belly Gods. 1631 GOUGE God's Arrows III. § 70. 311 To them that are unsatiable in sin. 1684 BURNET tr. More's Utopia 21 When any unsatiable Wretch...resolves to inclose many thousand Acres of Ground.

(b) c 1440 J. SHIRLEY Dethe K. James 28 All mene saye that the unsaciable [sic] covetise was the...cause of the Kynges dethe. a 1512 FABYAN Chron. VII. ccxxiv. 251 The vnsaciable couetous [sic] of Ranulph. 1535 COVERDALE Judith Contents ii, The vnsaciable desyre that Nabuchodonosor had to raigne. 1579 W. WILKINSON Confut. Fam. Love To Rdr. p. iv, Vnsatiable greedines. 1642 SIR THOMAS BROWNE Relig. Med. I. § 47 That essence, whose infinite goodnesse is able to terminate the desires of it selfe, and the unsatiable wishes of ours. 1692 N. MATHER Pref. Owen's Disc. Holy Sp. (1693) A 5 b, An unsatiable Desire to do Service to Christ. 1810 Monthly Mag. XXIX. 321 His hate [is] unsatiable, where he mistrusts.

(c) 1598 ROY Rede me (Arb.) 102 They are the divels furnace, Oven infernall unsaciable. 1691 tr. Erasmus's Friuols Rom. Monks (ed. 3) 375 An unsatiable Gulf which swallows all, and gives up nothing again.

Unsa'tiableness. Now rare. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.] Insatiability.

1539 ELYOT Cast. Helthe (1541) 28 To content the unsaciablenes of vnarton appetites. 1549 RECORDE Judic. Ur. 1 Unsaciableness is never satisfied. 1596 RABL. MONM. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. 437 To satisfie the ravenous and dog-like unsatiableness of such a company of starvelings. a 1699 J. BEAUMONT Psyche XVI. CCXXX, O pardon my Unsatiableness, Since Thou thy self alone art cause of it. 1823 BOETHAM Not Paul 282 The unsatiableness of Paul's ambition.

† Unsa·tiably, adv. Obs. (UN-1 11 and 5 b.)
1540–2 ELYOT Image Gov. 154 b, They vnsaciably fedde therewith theym selues. 1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. xlix. 291 To haue crammed and glutted themselues after that fashion vnsatiably. 1615 J. STEPHENS Satyr. Ess. ii. ii. 236 The steame of a roasted loynt attracts his nosirils vnsatiably. a 1665 J. GOODWIN Filled w. the Spirit xix. (1670) 540 By following Lusts and Pleasures unsatiably.

Unsa·tiate, a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)
Frequent c 1540–1650; now rare.
1528 ROY Rede me (Arb.) 78 The dayly cravynge..Of the vnsaciate fryer beggers. 1594 SHAKS. Rich. III, III. v. 87 (Q.), When that my mother went with child Of that vnsatiate Edward. 1614 RALEIGH Hist. World III. xi. 51 The vnsatiate desire of man to obtaine more and more thereof. 1681 DRYDEN Abs. & Achit. I. 987 But save me most from my Petitioners, Unsatiate as the barren Womb or Grave. 1896 MORRIS Sigurd III. 283 Their eyes are all unsatiate of gazing on his face.

Unsa·tiated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 and 5 b.)
1701 NORRIS Ideal World I. viii. 436 To behold the bright Sun of truth with an unwearied, as well as unsatiated eye. 1745 H. WALPOLE Lett. (1846) II. 90 The Prince of Wales has had unsatiated curiosity about him. 1812 J. HENRY Camp. agst. Quebec 48 Though we gorged the enemy, the appetite was unsatiated. 1880 NICHOL Life Byron 143 The feeling of affronted or unsatisfied pride.
absol. 1890 SARAH J. DUNCAN Soc. Depart. 361 [We] looked at them with all the pleasure of the uncritical and the unsatiated.

Unsa·tiating, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1768 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 312 He might have excited sensations, permanent, unfading, and unsatiating. 1786 tr. Berkford's Vathek 2 The Eternal or unsatiating Banquet. Unsa·ting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1818 KEATS Endym. I. 816 So delicious is the unsating food. 1863 GILCHRIST Life Blake I. 73 There is something unsating about them, a perfume as of a growing violet. Unsa·tire, v. (UN-1 6 b.) 1638 N. WHITING Albino & Bellama To Ld. Lovelace 16 Some worthy peer, Whose very name unsatire can a jeer. Unsa·tirical, a. (UN-1 7.) 1592 G. HARVEY Four Lett. iii. 24 Those vnsatyrical Satyres, which M. Spencer long since embraced with an ouerlouning Sonnet.

Unsatisfa·ction. [UN-1 12 and 5 b.]
1. Absence of satisfaction.
1643 DIGBY Observ. Relig. Med. (1644) 36 Nor have [I] any unsatisfaction in believing there are Spirits. 1675 T. PLUME Life Hacket in Hacket Cath. Serm. p. xliii, He thought the permission of conventicles did shew great irresolution and unsatisfaction in the truth. 1865 MAS. WHITNEY Gaspereyhoe xxxi, An earnestness that searched through all things even to unsatisfaction and scepticism. 1880 CARPENTER in Mod. Review I. 49 The unsatisfaction (if I may revive an obsolete word) of resting in any inherent 'potency' of Matter as the ultima ratio of the existing Kosmos.
† 2. Unsatisfactoriness. Obs.
1645 BP. HALL Remedy Discontents 94 The mean valuation of all these earthly things, for their transitorinesse, unsatisfaction, danger. 1668 R. STEELE Husbandman's Calling vi. § 5 Thence he learns the unsatisfaction of the creature and that God and Heaven are the only rest of the soul.

Unsatisfa·ctorily, adv. (UN-1 11 and 5 b.)
1657 F. ROBERTS in Spurgeon Treas. Dav. III. 239 Augustine also exounds the words much to the same effect, but altogether as unsatisfactorily. 1685 BAXTER Paraphr. N. T. A 3, Many..are too large and costly for this use; some..are unsatisfactorily brief. c 1714 POPE Let. Wks. 1751 VII. 138 To shew you how very unsatisfactorily you write,..you've never told me how you do. 1794 R. J. SULIVAN View Nat. IV. 11 Materialism, as I have repeatedly said, and I hope not unsatisfactorily proved, is [etc.]. 1838 JAMES Louis XIV, III. 50 Completing that which had been thus imperfectly and unsatisfactorily begun. 1884 Law Rep. 12 Q. B. D. 583 The scope and effect of an Act so unsatisfactorily framed.

Unsatisfa·ctoriness. (UN-1 12.)
1643 PRYNNE Sov. Power Parl. (ed. 2) Pref. A 2 The insufficiency and unsatisfactoriness of all these Printed Pleas. 1679 J. GOODMAN Penit. Pard. I. iv. 113 The emptiness and unsatisfactoriness of all the Incomes of sin. 1807 G. CHALMERS Caledonia I. II. vi. 275 The unsatisfactoriness of the one, and the silence of the other, lead us to suppose [etc.]. 1876 LOWELL Among my Bks. Ser. II. 1 6 The unsatisfactoriness of science leads Faust to seek repose in worldly pleasure.

Unsatisfa·ctory, a. (UN-1 7.)
1650–80 ROW Hist. Kirk (Wodrow Soc.) 65 This answer wes judged..unsatisfactorie. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. Pref., All external splendours being unsatisfactory. 1714 R. FIDDES Pract. Disc. II. 212 The very enjoyments of life..are..in themselves unsatisfactory. 1777 J. RICHARDSON Discurs. East. Nations 9 [It] opens a wide field for unsatisfactory enquiry. 1818 COBBETT Pol. Reg. XXXIII. 592 To assert without stating particulars, would be unsatisfactory. 1843 BETHUNE Sc. Riverside Serv. 88 As his visit proved unsatisfactory, he determined to make his stay short. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 17 The treatment of this dangerous complication is most unsatisfactory.

Unsa·tisfiable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)
1 Incapable of being satisfied.
1539 TAVERNER Gard. Wyzd. II. 26 Onles thou haddest bene an euell man & with money unsatisfyable. 1593 G. HARVEY Pierce's Super. To Friends, Adiudgeth weigh the impossible satisfaction of vnsatisfiable expectation. 1648 GAGE West Ind. 76 An unsatisfiable minde and greedy covetousnesse. 1680 C. NESSE Church Hist. 60 Their envy and ambition are restless and unsatisfiable. 1802 PALEY Nat. Theol. xxvi. Wks. (1834) 545/1 Well-directed tastes and desires, compared with the dominion of..unsatisfied, and unsatisfiable passions. 1896 DK. ARGYLL Philos. Belief 544 The unsatisfied, and apparently unsatisfiable, desires of men.
† 2. For which no satisfaction can be made. Obs.
1593 G. HARVEY New. Let. B 3 b, The more notorious the offence, and the more vnsatisfiable the iniurie was. 1648 SYMMONS Vind. Chas. I, 161 Until we have quite destroyed him, whom we hate,..for those unsatisfiable wrongs, which ourselves have done him.

Hence Unsa·tisfiableness, -ably adv.
1647 TRAPP Comm. 1 John ii. 17 There is a curse of unsatisfiableness lies upon the creature. 1664 INGELO Bentiv. & Ur. VI. 350 [Appetites which] do gall the Soul by a ravenous unsatisfiableness. 1652 N. CULVERWEL Lt. Nature II. 70 The Hart pants unsatisfiably after the water-brooks.

Unsa·tisfied, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 and 5 b.)
1. Not satisfied in respect of something desired; not having obtained all that, or as much as, is wished for: a. Predicatively, also const. with, † of.
c 1430 LYDG. Min. Poems (Percy Soc.) 31 Thou tolde me, frende,..That thou kneuhest one..Unsatisfied a day in tymes twelfe. a 1585 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xviii. (1912) 457 So the more they strake, the more unsatisfied they were with striking. 1592 SHAKS. Rom. & Jul. II. iii. 125 Rom. O wilt thou leaue me so vnsatisfied? Iuli. What satisfaction can'st thou haue to night? 1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. V. lx. § 7 That the Church..should repell them and see them dye vnsatisfied of those their Ghostly Desires. 1613 SHAKS. Hen. VIII, IV. ii. 55 Though he were vnsatisfied in getting, ..yet in bestowing..He was most Princely. 1685 DRYDEN Lucretius III. 155 Unsatisfy'd with all that Nature brings: Loathing the present, liking absent things. 1763 GIBBON Misc. Wks. (1814) III. 41 His ambition was yet unsatisfied. 1808 MITFORD Hist. Greece IV. 457 They were unsatisfied with the composition of the appointed embassy. 1866 GEO. ELIOT F. Holt I. To feel a woman's hunger of the heart for ever unsatisfied. 1897 MARY KINGSLEY W. Africa 52 A warning to others of the dangers of being unsatisfied.
b. Attributively.
1611 SHAKS. Cymb. I. vi. 49 The Cloyed will: That satiate yet vnsatisfi'd desire. 1666 MANLEY Grotius' Law C. Wars 279 Casting their unsatisfied eyes upon his countenance, they gratefully reverenced that tender Age. a 1704 T. BROWN Sat. agst. Woman Wks. 1730 I. 57 Raging with unsatisfy'd desire. 1797 BURKE Letter I. You know the unsatisfied mind of man, no sooner is one object possessed, but another starts up. 1849 GROTE Greece II. I. V1. 355 Bitter and as yet unsatisfied hatred against Plataea. 1871 MORLEY Carlyle in Crit. Misc. Ser. I. (1878) 168 The deep unrest of unsatisfied souls.
2. Not satisfied in respect of information or knowledge; doubtful, dubious.
1575 CHURCHYARD Chippes 38 b, At whoes elloquence the heeares rather stoede astonyed than vnsatysfyed in any poynt or parcell. 1620 SHAKS. Haml. V. ii. 351 Report me and my causes right To the vnsatisfied. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. 187 In submission to future information, we are unsatisfied unto great dubitation. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. IX. ii. § 22 Others were unsatisfied in the Authenticalness of the instrument, who never did..see the original. 1736 BUTLER Anal. II. viii. 384 It will yet leave the mind in a very unsatisfied state.
† b. Not certain of something. Obs.
1666 MANLEY Grotius' Law C. Wars 505 They mistrusted their Borders, and were unsatisfied of their more inward Garrisons.
3. Not satisfied with some circumstance, result, etc.; dissatisfied, displeased.
Common in latter half of the 17th cent.; now rare.
a 1648 LORD BERNERY Hon. Wit (1683) 326 Both Princes remained unsatisfied of the others actions. 1652 J. WRIGHT tr. Camus' Nat. Paradox x. 253 Miestas [was] very unsatisfied with his Son's deportments. 1669 TEMPLE Let. to Trevor Wks. 1720 II. 200 It seemed a good deal unsatisfied that the Spanish Ambassador had received the Advice from England. 1731 Gentl. Mag. I. 436 Fortune..declar'd that whoever was unsatisfied with their Lot should complain to her. 1799 H. KNOX Oliv. V. 57 When he is observed, he is ashamed; and when he has done, he is unsatisfied. 1883 American VI. 250 Mr. Freeman is..unsatisfied with the review.
† b. Not satisfied by being paid. Obs.
1654 WHITLOCK Zootomia 139 The delay, and long is now no sight so unpleasant as the unsatisfied Doctor. 1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Camilla IX. viii. V. 174 If they [sc. gamesters] were left unsatisfied, the credit of the young man would fall a sacrifice of their ill treatment.
4. Not satisfied; dissatisfied, etc.
1588 SHAKS. L. L. L. II. i. 139 If then..your father will restore But that one half which is vnsatisfied, We will giue vp our right in Aquitaine. 1632 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 489 How the same debt was paid..and what is yet behinde and unsatisfied. 1668 SCARLETT Exchanges 114 Upon pain of forfeiture of twenty five Guilders, and the Bill to be accounted unsatisfied. 1763 Act 4 Geo. III, c. 1 29 The Monies so remaining unsatisfied, or not discharged. 1829 F. HITCHMAN Publ. Life Beaconsfield I. 182 He was deeply in debt, and had a number of unsatisfied judgments out against him.

Hence Unsa·tisfiedly adv.
1661 BOYLE Style of Script. 172 Some of them,..after having Unsatisfiedly Travell'd thorough all sorts of Human Volumes, have Rested..only in these Divine Ones.

Unsa·tisfiedness. [UN-1 12.] The condition of being unsatisfied. (Freq. in 17th cent.)
1646 LD. DIGBY in Carte Ormonde (1735) III. 476 Rather out of an unsatisfiedness of his safety..than [etc.]. 1653 GAUDEN Hieraspistes 4 Without that unsatisfiedness, which carries the soul of man..to this height of coveting after a blessed eternity. 1741 RICHARDSON Pamela II. 387, I may ..rejoice in that happy State, where is..no Unsatisfiedness. 1860 PUSEY Min. Proph. 13 The soul..seeks to distract herself from her unrest and unsatisfiedness. 1886 LINSKILL Haven under Hill xxii, He had seen her loneliness, her soul's dimness and unsatisfiedness.

† Unsa·tisfy, v. Obs. (UN-1 5.) 1652 SHIRLEY Doubtful Heir Ded., I have presumed thus rather to let you know I can still honour you than unsatisfy myself by neglecting the first opportunity of presenting my service.

Unsa·tisfying, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)
1656 JEANES Pain. Christ 234 Not resting therefore in this unsatisfying answere, we will in the next place shew [etc.]. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Reft. IV. xiii, Parting with unsatisfying Trifles. 1760–2 GOLDSM. Cit. W. xxxvii, In this also, enthusiastic confidence or unsatisfying doubts terminate all our inquiries. 1813 SHELLEY Q. Mab IV. 248 Days of unsatisfying listlessness. 1837 LYTTON Athens I. 469 With this unsatisfying reply the messenger returned. 1879 M'CARTHY Own Times xxviii. 11. 351 The political results of the war were to many minds equally unsatisfying.

Hence Unsa·tisfyingness.
1650 TRAPP Comm. Gen. XXV. 29 The curse of unsatisfyingness that lies upon them [sc. carnal pleasures]. 1883 H. DRUMMOND Nat. Law in Spir. W. 303 Its vagueness to the mere intellect,..its satisfying unsatisfyingness, its vast atmosphere.

Unsa·tisfyingly, adv. (UN-1 11.) 1653 JER. TAYLOR Serm. for Year iii. 41 They speak variously, and uncertainly, and unsatisfyingly. Unsa·turable, a. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.) 1535 STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) II. 426 Sleipand in sleuth, ..Vnsaturabill as of gulosite. 1816–30 BUCHNAN Ch. C. Apl. Maximizest, Extr. Const. Code 16 The perpetual saturation of appetites essentially unsaturable.

Unsa·turated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1758 REID tr. Macquer's Chym. I. 395 That portion of the Acid which remains unsaturated will dissolve the Mercury. 1791 Phil. Trans. LXXXI. 219 Any surplus of..air would only have remained unsaturated. 1832 Nat. Philos., Electr. ii. § 53 (L.U.K.), Its unsaturated matter would have exerted an attractive force on the fluid. 1879 ROON Cosmonotics xviii. 307 He must mainly use the pale unsaturated colours of nature.
Unsatura·tion. (UN-1 22.) 1885 REMSEN Org. Chem. 209 The condition of unsaturation is met with among carbon compounds in several forms.

Unsau, variant of ONSAW Obs.
† Unsau·ght, sb. Obs. [Late OE. unseht (f. un- UN-1 12 + seht SAUGHT sb.), unsaht*, = ON. and Icel. úsátt, úsátt, úsátt, MSw. osät, MDa. usæt.] Discord, dissension; hostile speech.
a 1122 O. E. Chron. (Laud MS.) an. 1052, Hi macodon mest þet unseht betweonan Godwine eorle & þam cynge. c 1205 LAY. 11456 Wullеð Konleode cumen to þissere þeode, ..& maken vnsaughte. a 1300 Cursor M. 28198 Wit flitt, wit brixil,..Myn euen-cristen haue i hurt, And oft vn-saght o him i said. 1770 RUDDIMAN Gloss. s.v. Saucht, To live in unsaucht, i.e. trouble. 1808 JAMIESON.
† Unsau·ght, a. Obs. [Late OE. unseht (f. un- UN-1 7 + seht SAUGHT a.), unsaht*, = ON. and Icel. úsáttr, MSw. osatt, osätt, MDa. usæt in sense 1.]
1. At variance or enmity; hostile.
c 1100 O. E. Chron. (MS. D.) an. 1067, Eadric cild & þa Brytias wurdon unsehte. c 1205 LAY. 3930 þas brehren weren swa wode..þat al heo weren vn-saghte. 1303 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 482 With holy chyrche þey ben vnsaght. c 1350 Lybeaus Disc. 1421 For þey were unsaugte (v.r. vnsyst] And eiber oþres fo. 13.. St. Erkenwald 8 In Hengyst dawes þat þe Saxones vnsaut hadene sende hyder. Te 1400 Morte Arth. 1306 That here are sembleds in sute, vn-saughte mott ȝe worthe! c 1475 Golagros & Gaw. 456 Than thai schupe for to assege segis vnsaught.
2. Dissatisfied, displeased.
Te 1300 Solomon & Sat. (1848) 275 Hit is mony gedelyng when me him seueþ a lutel ȝyng, þaken wol vnsaut. a 1300 in Wright Lyric P. xii. 42 Ant swore somme unsaht, 'That hem wes werk by-taht, longe er hit were lyht. 1350 GOWER Conf. III. 153 Of thilke folk that were unsaughte Toward here king for his pilage. c 1420 Dream Dryw 5097 Yf we be cause of þi kene yre, And þou swaght of þi sight sothely of vs two.
3. Not at ease; embarrassed; troubled, distressed.
a 1375 Joseph Arim. 64 Þe kyng..wolde haue red of his folk,..& þat forsaken his han, & he vnsaht sittes. a 1400 Sir Perc. 2152 Thenne was schо unsaughte. Scho gret and cried in hir mone. a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 3189 The kynge gan lowde cryse and calle, As marred man of wytte vnsaught. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid VII. v. 40 The Chyrtenes als so fast Ruschit on his fa, thus fyrefangit and onsaucht.
Hence † Unsau·ghtly adv.; † Unsau·ghtness. a 1000 in Vercelli MS. fol. 80 b, Þurh þæt þonne ariseð unsehtnesse betweoh twam cyningum & twam xebroðrum. c 1200 ORMIN 7187 Alle þe ȝeme þe lifenn noþ & woh & unsahhtnesse. Te 1400 Morte Arth. 1501 Vnsaughtely he saide hyme þese sittande wordes. Ibid. 1847 Vnsaughtyly þey sette thane appone oure sere knyghtter.
Unsau·veable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1647 TRAPP Marrow Gd. Authors in Comm. Eph. 153 One that is unsaveable, or one that is undone by himself. 1874 M. ARNOLD in Contemp. Rev. Oct. 816 All the devices to save those unsaveable things, the Bible-miracles.
Unsa·vored, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1648 HEXHAM II. Onthoofd, vnpreserved, or vnsaued. [1775 ASH.] 1818 BENTHAM Ch. Eng., Catech. Exam. 437 Why are these [souls] to be left unsaved..? 1838 S. BELLAMY The Betrayal 168 And there did answer these, unseen, but loud,..th' unsaved Of earth. 1866 B. NORTH Gurnether 36 A man..when he says he does not know the Lord..confesses that he is unsaved.
Unsa·ving, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. lxiii. 179 If thee takes policie, that is both endless & uncertaine;..What to day is good, is to morrow vnsaving. 1714 POPE Lett. (1737) VI. 46, I would no more make a judgment of an author's genius from a damning critick, than I would of a man's religion from an unsaving zealot. † Unsa·vourly, v. [UN-1 14.] Intr. To have no savour or agreeableness. a 1547 SURREY Poems, Eccl. iv. 58 In boast of owtward works he taketh no delight, Nor wast of wounds; suche sacryfice unsauereth in his sight.
Unsa·voured, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)
1435 [see UNSAUT a.]. 1562 J. HEYWOOD Prov. & Epigr. (1867) 139 As yl is this othing: Ill sauerd sumthing, as vnsauerd nothyng. 1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong s.v. Geguetu, A nice one, an vnsauoured one, a proud foole.

1897 Allbutt's Syst. Med. II. 820 Of what possible service are..blows unfelt, salts and feathers unsavoured?

Hence Unsa·vouredly adv.

1603 FLORIO Montaigne I. xxv. 84 He that meanes to speake vnsavouredly.

†Un·sa·vourest, obs. superl. of UNSAVOURY a. 1599 SANDYS Europæ Speculum 6 Lo, All which [sc. idols] are the vnsavorest dregs to the Iew in the world.

Unsa·vourily, adv. [UN- 11.]

†1. So as to savour ill. b. Without savour; insipidly. Obs.

14.. Langland's P. Pl. C. xvi. 49 (MS. Laud 656), Here sauce was vnesoured & vnsauerlikh yrgroude. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 36/1 Onsaveryly, insipide. c 1449 PECOCK Repr. v. xv. 564 It is no nede forto seie ther of eny thing vnsiedfili..and therfore vnsauorili here.

2. In an unpleasant or disagreeable manner.

1611 COTGR., Mauuaisement, harshly, vnsauorily. 1641 MILTON Animadv. 60 So often and so vnsauorily has it been repeated, that the Reader may well cry, Downe with it. 1647 TRAPP Marvels Gd. Authors in Comm. Ep. 646 Yea many times most unseasonably and unsavourily..they fell into those absurd disputes. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 21 Mar. 2/1 Tenanted by myriads of penguins, which nest unsavourily on the steep slopes.

Unsa·vouriness. [UN- 12.]

†1. Want of savouriness; insipidity. Obs.

1398 Trevisa's Barth. De P. R. XIX. iii. (1495) lk iiii, The nyrthe sauour hygit wysyhesse & vnsauerynesse. 1548 ELYOT, Insulsitas,.. foolysshenesse, vnsauourynesse, lacke of grace. 1721 BAILEY, Insipidity, Unsavouriness, Flatness.

2. The quality of being unsavoury or disagreeable. 1587 in Halliwell Pop. (1598) I. 296 Any anoyance, stinke, or other vnsauoriness..in the shippe. 1591 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xxxiii. 7 It is an unsaveriness not worthy the disproving. 1617 WOODALL Surg. Mate (1639) 256 If any person, for the unsauorinesse of a medicine, will refuse helpe [etc.]. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. v. x. 226 If we concede a nationall unsauorinesse in any people, yet shall we finde the Iewes lesse subject hereto then any. 1654 T. GOUGE Chr. Directions xx. 193 The unsauoriness of thy words and speeches. 1727 A. HAMILTON New Acc. E. Ind. I. iii. 44 The Sea affords Variety of Fish, but not savoury. I believe their unsavouriness proceeds from the extreme Saltness of the Sea-water. 1765 STERNE Tr. Shandy VII. xxxii. In the little petrifyed concretions of nature below is hunger and unsavouriness. 1864 R. KERR Gentleem. House 291 Flies..follow their noses, and their presence..is but an index of unsavouriness. 1884 Munch. Examr. 23 Sept. 5/2 Mudhaunt..in their unsightliness and unsavouriness when exposed.

†Unsa·vourly, adv. Obs. [UN- 11.] = UNSAVOURILY adv.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. XIII. 43 Her sauce was ouer soure & vnsauourely grounde. c 1325 HYLTON Scala Perf. II. xxxii. (W. de W. 1494) This seeth the soule..not..nakydly and vnsauourly as doeth a clerke that seeth hym by his clergye onely. 1540–54 CROKE B Ps. (Percy Soc.) 20 My flode doeth taste vnsauourly. 1598 GRENNE Greate's W. Will (1617) 8 Our fathers Precedents..were most vnsauorly to one of your yeeres applyed. 1660 HICKERINGILL Jamaica 38 Without it other things seem to want their taste, or relish out vnsauourly.

†Unsa·vourness, obs. var. UNSAVOURINESS. 1422 YONG tr. Secreta Secret. 98 Saltnesse, & vncrouoisite, Egrenesse & vnsauournesse.

Unsa·voury, a. [UN- 1 7.]

†1. Having no savour; not attractive to the taste; tasteless, insipid. Obs.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 262 Loke nu hwo grucche..of mistrum, other ane mel of unsaure metes, of poure mannes? 1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xvi. 425 Freshe flesshe other fisshe wthin it salt faileth, It is vnsauory. c 1400 LOVE Bonauent. Mirr. (1908) 108 Til thoru his mercy..the vnsaueory water and colde of aduersite..be turned in to wyne and conforte. 1477 NORTON Ord. Alch. v. in Ashm. (1652) 74 Also is Weerish tast called Unsauory. 1576 NEWTON Lemnie's Complex. I. 87 Choler is bitter:..Phlegme, vnsauery as water. 1601 DR. W. BARLOW Defence 89 The white of an egge, without salt, is flash, and vnsavery, sayth Job. 1610 BP. CARLETON Jurisd. 261 The Pope would hereby procure vnsauery salt good for nothing but to be troden vnderfoot of men. 1652 GAULE Magastrom. 282 Crying out ..,tread me under feet, as unsauoryr salt. 1784 COWPER Task I. 125 Hard fare! but such as boyish appetite Disdains not; nor the palate, undepraved By culinary arts, unsav'ry deems. transf. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 82 Pis vn-sauere hyne Louez no salt in her sauce. 1548 UDALL Erasm. Par. Luke xiv. 141 b, That same stemme of the Judaicall figtree brought foorth, ,vnsauoure, & vnripe peop'le. 1585 GREENE Planetomachia F 4 b, Philegme..doulce, vnsauory & natural.

b. fig.

c 1449 PECOCK Repr. I. xvi. 89 If such maner of arguyng.. schulde be sett in sermonyg, the sermon schulde be ful vnsauory. c 1450 tr. De Imitationes II. viii. 48 How dry & hov hardé bui art wiboute Ihesu! how unsauory, bop weyne, if bou coueite eny pinge wiboute Ihesu! 1534 MORE Treat. Passion Wks. 1291/1 The context of the story shuld..seme very farre vnsauery, by reason of the often interposicion of the Inicidall letters. 1540 MORWYNE Wind Infrnd. Wynd. G ij, Bodely workes be unsauery, excepte they have sauce from the hart. 1603 HOLLAND Plutarch's Mor. 1188 Some ..will say, that the oracles..be none of his [sc. Apollo's], because they are but rudely made and unsavery. 1634 MILTON Comus 742 The good thereof Consists in mutual and partak'n bliss, Unsavoury in th' injoyment of it self.

†c. Bot. (See quots.) Obs.

1548 TURNER Names Herbes (E.D.S.) 77 Symphytum petrum..; this herbe..may be called in english vnsauery Margerum. 1597 GERARDE Herbal II. 948 Acrobaxinum Ion. edorum, Vnsauorie Sotherwood, ..growes flat vpon the grounde with broade leaues. 1660 Catal. Plant. Canisab. Hortus 6 Unsavoury field Cranesbill, cicutæ folio inodorum. 1728 BRADLEY Diet. Bot., Thymum Indicum, Unsavory Thyme.

2. a. Unpleasant or disagreeable to the taste.

c 1380 WYCLIF Serm. Sel. Wks. II. 46 For scheep ben goode for to eete, and getis flesish is unsavery. c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton, 1483) IV. ii. 58 These fowle buskes and wylde moyght nought fructyfyen no..lusty fruyte, but byttor and vnsauoury. 1555 EDEN Decades (Arb. 222 The flesshe of this beaste is fythy and vnsauery. 1577 B. GOOGE Heresbach's Husb. II. 86 b, The geathered Olyue, if it lye to long in heapes, putrifieth by reason of heate, and makes vnsauery oyle. 1617 WOODALL Surg. Mate (1639) 256 An approved good Medicine, and not much unsavoury to bee taken. 1667 MILTON P. L. v. 401 Unsavourie food perhaps To spiritual Natures. 1812 J. HENRY Camp. agst. Quebec 97 Towards the north they became unsavoury, but in no way tainted. 1886 KANE Arct. Expl. II. iii. 42 As unsavory a dose of flax-seed and quinine as was ever honored by the name of beer.

b. Disagreeable or offensive to the sense of smell, or to refined feelings.

1539 ELYOT Cast. Helthe 55 These excrementes be none other, but matter superfluouse and vnsauery. 1582 STANYHURST Æneis III. (Arb.) 78 Thee victals..They do leaue hauif mangled with sent vnsauerye bepoudred. 1591 UNTON Corr. (Roxb.) 199 In his sickness none could endure to be with him, he was so unsavorie. a 1656 BP. HALL Rem. Wks. (1660) 108 Those..which scent an unsavory breath turne their heads aside. 1684 Contempl. St. Man II. vi. (1699) 196 Unsavoury Smells, so proper unto Prisons. 1725 POPE Odyss. IV. 598 Unsavoury stench of oil. 1784 COWPER Task IV. 196 The smoke of lamps, The pent-up breath of an unsav'ry throng. 1823 WATERTON Wand. S. Amer. II. 103 An unsavoury little beast, called bug.

fig. 1547 J. HARRISON Exhort. Scottes 213, I will stirre that vnsauery sinke of treson and trecherie.

Prov. 1546 J. HEYWOOD Prov. (1867) 30 Great bost and small roste, Maketh vnsauery mouthes.

3. Unpleasant, disagreeable, distasteful.

c 1380 WYCLIF Wks. (1880) 177 Pei sclaundren goddis lawe ..& maken it vnsauory to worldly men. c 1386 CHAUCER Pars. T. P. 510 Thurgh which bitternesse euery good dede of his neighbor semeth to hym bitter and vnsauoury. c 1440 Gesta Rom. xxiii. 80 This is an vnsavery question; this rebawde we saw never before. c 1456 PECOCK Bk. of Faith (1909) 116 Dold custom..wole make that these holds at first schulen be unsauery. 1573 TUSSER Husb. (1878) 17 To keepe no more bit needfulle, and count excesse vnsauerie. 1591 SAVILE Tacitus, Hist. III. xxvi. 130 All that tended to safety was vnsauory. 1637 GILLESPIE Eng. Pop. Cerem. IV. viii. p 7 Vnsauory, or vnsauory language, to many Arminianized Conformitans. 1657 STARROW Bk. Com. Prayer 256 Suppose some Preachers should be so careful, as not to vent any thing unsavoury. 1845 JAMES Arrah Neil V, You came hither upon an unsavory errand.

†b. Ill-natured. Obs.—

1568 T. HOWELL Arb. Amitie (1879) 45 Then pleasant speech suppresse, and faine a sowre unsauerie looke.

4. Objectionable on moral grounds; having an unpleasant or disagreeable character or association.

a. Of persons.

1401 Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 52 For Sathanas by sour sawes is sent into soulis, that ben ful unsauery. c 1450 tr. De Imitationes I. xxiv. 33 O þou most wrecchid and unsauery synner, what shalt þou answere god? 1552 HULOET, Vnsauery quaete, blitten meretrix. 1605 CAMDEN Rem. 229 That they be the salt of the earth, and if the salt once appall, the world must needes waxe vnsauerie. 1849 JAMES Woodman vi, They are very unsavoury fellows.

b. Of things, language, etc.

1536 ELYOT in Croft E.'s Gov. (1883) L. p. cxxvi, Unsauery gloses and vnconuenient. 1550 BALE Eng. Votaries II. iii, Professinge the vnsauery vse of Sarum. 1586 W. WEBBE Eng. Poetrie (Arb.) 54 The motion of some vnsauery loue, such as in the sixt Eglogue he seemeth to deale withall. 1615 DAY Peripatetics Ep. Ded., The Vnsauoure Pamphlets, that have passed the Presse as well as Sermons. 1657 TRAPP Comm. Ezra VI. 11 Those..who turne it into a..pest-house of noysome lusts by their unsavoury speeches. 1723 WODROW Corresp. II. 26, I heard some account of his unsavory carriage when a student..; and that he was stopped in his licentiatory trials for some immorality. 1882 Athenæum 23 Dec. 842/2 A number of grim anecdotes and unsavory details. 1894 SIR E. SULIVAN Woman 44 There are many unsavoury laws in our code.

Unsawed, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.] Not saw-edged. Also = next (Ash, 1775).

1786 ABERCROMBIE Gard. Assist., Arr. 42 Mock privet,.. Oval unsawed leaved. 1799 View Agric., Lincoln. 128 An unsawed sharp reaping hook.

Unsaxon, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8 b.)

1572 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees) I. 349 Wood tymber for buyylding, bords sawen and wnsawen. 1678 MOXON Mech. Exerc. v. 95 When he draws back his Saw, the Work-man bears it lightly off the unsawn Stuff. 1865 CAMERON Mallorca 4 Hedges of Hedge-rows of Cactus and unsaxon.

Un-Sa·xon, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1848 LYTTON Harold IV. iii, A lover of things un-Saxon. 1877 TENNYSON Harold II. ii, When that un-Saxon blast..drave and crack'd His boat on Pontkiel beach. 1894 SWEET O. E. Texts 177 Both texts show several un-Saxon forms.

Unsay, v. [UN- 2 3, 7. Cf. OE. ontseegan (once), to renounce, abjure, OHG. ant'sagen, MHG. (G.) entsagen, MDu. (Du.) ontseggen.]

†1. trans. To deny. Obs.

c 1460 Oseney Reg. 167 Fore þe saide Richard..may not vnsay but þat þe saide Hugh of Tywe yafe..the foresaide tenement.

2. To withdraw, retract, or revoke (something said or written).

1483 Vulgaria abs Terentio 29 I say & vnsay it. 1557 N. T. (Genev.) Acts xi. 18 note, That they were not ashamed to vnsay that wherof they had vnlustely blamed Peter. 1591 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. lxxiii. 1 They openly vnsaid that which they had sayd afore. 1613 T. MILLES tr. Mexia's Treas. Ancc. & Mod. T. II. 964/2 So shall you be sure, never to vnsay your owne words. 1689 Reflect. on Hist. of Nantes 7 His face enough to say or vnsay any thing. 1741 RICHARDSON Pamela III. 322 The less you said against her, the less you'd have to vnsay. 1819 SHELLEY Cenci IV. i. 137 For thine own sake unsay those dreadful words. 1884 W. C. SMITH Kilbrostan 53 Yet you can speak thus calmly of unsaying All we have said. transf. 1745 AKENSIDE Odes Sev. Subjects, On Love x, Even now, While thus I preach the Stoic strain, Unless I shun Olympia's view, An hour unsays it all again.

b. intr. (Freq. in 17th cent.)

1575–85 ABP. SANDYS Serm. vii. 111 That it is good Christendome to lie, sweare, and forsweare, to say and vnsay to any. 1646 EVANCE Noble Order 3 How can God be said to Say and unsay? 1692 WASHINGTON tr. Milton's Def. Pop. ii. 43 Who would trust him..that in things of so great concern says and unsays without any consideration? 1878 STURGEON Trans. Dav. Fs. cxvi. 11 It is so much easier to say than to unsay.

Hence Unsay·ing vbl. sb.; Unsay·er.

1589 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. clxxxix. 1177 Hee is no vnsayer as mortall men bee. 1647 HEXHAM I. s.v., An Vnsaying of that which one hath spoken or written. 1669 STILLINGFL. Serm. x. (1673) 190 As though the unsaying what we had done, were abundant compensation..for the affronts. 1710 STEELE Tatler No. 178 ¶ 2 A most happy art in saying and unsaying. 1856 R. A. VAUGHAN Mystics XIII. i. II. 302 Such saying and unsaying is not convenient merely, but in the highest degree artistic.

†Unsayed, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [UN- 1 8 + SAY *v.*²] Untried. a 1598 FERGUSON Scot. Prov. (1667) 7 All things are good unseyed.

Unsca·bbard, v. (UN- 2 5.)

1611 FLORIO, Sfoderare, to vn-sheathe, to vn-scabbard. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby II. xxi, A warlike form..steps 'twixt Wilfrid and his foe; Nor then unscabbarded his brand. 1848 STEINMETZ Hist. Jesuits I. 130 The fiend of religious persecution unsabbarded his sword.

Unsca·bbarded, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8, or f. prec.)

1562 in Stryde Stowe's Surv. (1720) II. 307/1 No Man shall go in the Streets..with Bow bent,..nor with Sword unscabber'd. 1804 LARWOOD No Gun Boats 37 The unscabbarded sword of the bombastic invader.

Unsca·lable, a. (UN- 1 7 b and 5 b.)

1579–80 NORTH Plutarch (1595) 1083 After he had measured the height of the wall, he reported that the place was not vnscalable. 1612 SHAKS. Cymb. III. i. 20 Your Isle, which stands As Neptunes Parke, ribb'd and paled In With Oaken vnskaleable. 1652 HEYLYN Cosmogr. III. 222 High and unscalable walls. 1751 R. PALTOCK P. Wilkins I. 91, I saw no Entrance into the Island,..nor any thing but the same unscalable Rock. 1818 KEATS Endym. III. 23 There are throned seats unscalable But by a palm or two wing. 1890 LYNCH Therph. Trinal xi. 211 The frowning unscalable rocks of worldly custom.

Unsca·bled, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.) 1615 J. STEPHENS Satyr. Ess. (ed. 2) vi. 189 That mountebank preparing oyle which kept his hands unscalded.

Unscale, *v.*¹ [UN- 2 4, 4 b + SCALE *sb.*²]

1. trans. To clean (fish, etc.) from scales.

a 1510 STANBRIDGE Vulgaria (W. de W.) A vj b, Desquamo, [1] vnscale fyshe. 1598 FLORIO, Scagliare, to skale or vnskale fish. 1655 MOUFFET & BENNET Health's Improm. 168 [Shrimps] are unscaled, to vent the windiness which is in them, being sodden with their scales. 1719 Glossogr. Angl.-Nova, Disquamation, is an unscaling a Fish, or the like.

2. fig. To free (the eyes or sight) from scales.

1633 QUARLES Emblt. III. xxiii. 4 Grieve not with vowes, and vowes made salt with teares, Vnscale his eyes. 1644 MILTON Areop. (Arb.) 72 Methinks I see her as an Eagle.. purging and unscaling her long abused sight at the fountain itself of heav'nly radiance. 1890 POLLOCK Tyrtæus T. i. 3 Thou who of old The prophet's eye unscaled. 1867 H. MACMILLAN Bible Teach. xiii. 265 The Spirit unscales our eyes, and unveils Christ before us.

Unsca·le, *v.*² [UN- 2 3.] intr. To climb down again. c 1470 HARDING Chron. CCXVIII. i, They shot their gounes, and with their ladders scaled, But nought availed, thei were so wel of bet, When they on huste sawe anone they vnscaled.

Unsca·led, a. [UN- 1 9 + SCALE *sb.*²] Not furnished with scales; smooth-skinned.

1562 BULLEIN Bulwarke, Bk. Simples 7 b, Vnscaled Fyshes, as Eeles, Tenches. 1647 HEXHAM I, Vnscaled, ongeschubt.

Unsca·led, *ppl. a.*¹ [UN- 1 8 + SCALE *v.*¹] Not having the scales removed.

1585 HOLINSHED Chron. II. Hist. Scot. 128/2 Now had the king appointed for exacte vnsaled chapines one man apparelled in garments precille deuised and made of fish skins vnskaled [L. haud desquammatis].

Unsca·led, *ppl. a.*² [UN- 1 8 or UN- 2 8 + SCALE *sb.*²] Not darkened by scales; free or freed from scales.

1827 POLLOK Course T. VII. 527 Messengers Of peace,.. whose eyes unscaled, Saw up the mount of immortality. 1844 IB. WILLIAMS Baptistery xxiv. 251 We learn to look with your unscaled eyes On all things here we prize.

Unsca·led, *ppl. a.*³ [UN- 1 8 + SCALE *v.*³] Unascended.

1812 J. WILSON Isle of Palms, etc. 373 The cliffs, In unscaled majesty, must frown no more. 1860 TENNYSON Glan. I. ii. 21 The Weisshorn, then..unscaled. 1886 Pall Mall G. 6 Aug. 5/2 Vast glaciers and unscaled snowfields.

Unsca·lped, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1814 SOUTHEY Lett. (1856) II. 388 Philip had waylaid and murdered a party of three Indians, and left them unscalped. 1884 NOURSE Early Rec. Lancaster, Mass. 229 Women and children, scalped or unscaped, were paid for at half price.

Unscar·ly, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1715 GAY Trivia II. 416 The joynted lobster and unscaly scale. Unsca·ndalize, v. (UN- 3 6 c.) 1781 CHARL. BURNEY in Early Diary F. Burney (1889) II. 294, I said a great deal to her to unscandalize her, but I don't know whether I did at last. Unsca·ndalized, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.) 1618 T. GAINSFORDE Hist. F. Warbeck 78 [He] may sit downe with a safe conscience, but not vnscandalized or maligned of some of his owne ranke. Unscandalous, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1614 R. HARRIS Samuel's Funerall (1616) To Rdr., He much respected..every learned and vnscandalous Preacher. a 1628 F. Greville Sidney (1652) 3 This representing of..actions of men unfeigned and unscandalous Images.

Unsca·nnable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1815 W. Taylor in Robberds Mem. (1843) II. 458 The lines..are unscannable. 1846 Bonham in Gantor. Ess. 291 Hopeless nonsense and unscannable verse. 1876 M. Collins Fr. Midn. to Midn. II. ii. 223 Analytic unscannable blank verse.

Unsca·nned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1577 Holinshed Chron. II. Descr. Irel. 5, I woulde haue beene easily perswaded..to rest as a lukewarme Neuter in omitting the one and the other vnskande. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars 1. xciii, What he had in hand Left it [sc. the vision] to his diuerted thoughts vnskand. 1607 Shaks. Cor. iii. 1. 313 This Tiger-footed-rage, when it shall find The harme of vnskan'd swiftnesse. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. viii. lxxxvi, O Light unscan'd! Of wisdom every glance Beams only to psalm. 1822 Shelley Q. Mab iii. 15 Turn thee, surpassing Spirit! Much yet remains unscanned. 1842 J. B. Fraser Ailee Menroo II. 283 Furtive sideloing glances ..which left nothing unobserved or unscanned. 1872 Calverley Fly Leaves, Boyhood 92 Where the sunbeams fall Unscanned upon the broken wall.

Unsca·nted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1599 Daniel Musoph. 846 Maiestie..with her full face,..with all her raies, Vnscanted of her parts, vnshadowed In any darkened poynt.

†Unsca·pable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b.] Unescapable.

1382 Wyclif Wisd. xvii. 16 Vnscapable, or that myst not be fled, nede he suffrede. c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. vi. 514 The synne is as it were vnscapeable and vnavoidable of him. c 1455 — Folewer 95 Pis vnscapable peruertid doom. 1554 Knox Faythfyl Admon. G 5 I heru sleep vs that iowfyl feyth..is able to carye vs thorowe such parelles as be vnscapable to nature.

Hence †Unsca·pably adv. Obs.

c 1449 Pecock Repr. III. v. 308 If eny man be in contrarie wise vndisposid vnscapably. Ibid. v. vii. 516. c 1455 — Folewer 95 Pe doom of resoun is derkid ful oft..vnscapabli bi passions of be louyer wittis.

Unsca·red, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1742 R. Blair Grave 242 The high-fed worm..Riots unscared. 1784 Cowper Task iv. 96 I here sleep was..unscar'd By drunken howlings. 1842 J. Wilson Chr. North I. 46 Birds..sung their best, unscared on hedge, bush, and tree. 1878 B. Taylor Deukalion iv. iv. 159 These simple lives may own contentment most unscared.

Unscarfed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8; cf. Scarf v.?) 1634 Sir T. Hawkins tr. Caussin's Holy Court III. 58 The great God..was vnscarfed in the crib..in such sort, that you need lift vp but simple clothes to know him. Unscarified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] a 1834 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 239 An unsullied, unscarified mirror!

Unsca·rred, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iv. iv. 209 So she may liue vnscar'd of bleeding slaughter. 1598 B. Jonson En. Man in Hum. i. iv, Is't like, that a factious beauty will preserue The soueraigne state of chastitie vnscard? 1607 Shaks. Timon iv. iii. 161 The vnscar'd Braggerts of the Warre. 1817 Byron Manfred xvii, Flanks unscar'd by spur or rod. 1856 Miss Mulock Noble Life xiv, A little time from which no woman ever comes out unwounded or unscarred. 1884 Harper's Mag. Mar. 524/2 Solid and defiant as it looks, the sea has not left it unscarred.

Unsca·thed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. ON. and Icel. á-skaðaðr, MSw. oskathad, Sw. oskadad.)

Before 10th cent. Sc. and somewhat rare.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints vii. (James min.) 608 Pat I and pai ..In gud fath sal vnschait be. 1425 Sc. Acts Parlt., Jas. I (1814) II. 11/2 Quilk it be knawin..at be cunire be vnscaithit of baim. 1461 Exchequ. Rolls (18 14) I. 22 That man.. sal..kepe the toun vnscathit..of all dettis and chargis acht be hym. 1567–8 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 613 To be unharmit, unskaythit, or unmolestit be ony of the liegis. 1787 Burns Tam o' Shanter xiii, Unskath'd by Death's glaiy gullie, Tam Samson's livin! 1827 Lytton Falkland 25, I passed through the ordeal unshrinking, yet not unscathed. a 1832 Buckle Misc. Wks. (1872) I. 103 That intellect which had conducted them safely through such..dangers. 1882 A. W. Ward Dickens i. 9 Whatever his experiences of this kind may have been, he passed unscathed through them.

†Unscathely, a. Obs.—[Un-1 7. Cf. ON. áskaðligr (MSw. oskadielikher.)] Harmless. 13.. St. Erkenwald 278 pe skilfulle & pe vnskathely skelton ay to me. Unscathing, prez. ppla. (Un-1 5d.) Unharming. 1437 Dunfermline Reg. (Bann. Cl.) 285 Pai sal keep be moteris lanchfully vnskathand vthir. Unscattered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1531 Elyot Gov. i. ii, Whiche..was wonderfully pacified, and the armie unscatered, by the maiestie of Agamemnon. 1814 Wordsw. Excurs. iv. 453 The cawing rooks, and seamews from afar, Hovering..By the rough wind unscattered. †Unscau·berked, ppl. a. Obs.—[Un-1 8.] Unscabbarded. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode i. cxxv. (1869) 66 That oother..hadde his sword vnshethed and vnscauberked.

Unscavenged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1846 Dickens Pict. Italy Lyons, etc., The undrained, unscavenged qualities of a foreign town. Unsce·nt, v. (Un-2 4.) 1632 Quarles Div. Fancies iv. xxxi, Weeds that fall Into thy Garden, Whose loathsome smell unscent thy sweeter Flow'rs. Unsce·nted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1784 Cowper Task i. 416 Who..Renounce the odours of the open field For the unscented fictions of the loom. Unsce·ptical, a. (Un-1 7.) 1831 Miss Bronwson Cross Guide Wint. ii. 92 Forgive, that I forgot the mind which runs Through absolute races, too unsceptical!

Unsce·ptre, v. (Un-2 4. Cf. Du. ontsc'h'epteren, G. entsceptern, -zepteren.) 1594 Zepheria xxxviii, Needes must I wish..That thou unsceptred be of natures royalte. 1628 Quarles Argalus & P. i. Wks. (Grosart) III. 247/1 If he had, with his victorious hand, Unsceptred half the Princes in the land. 1642 T. Case God's Rising (1644) 8 The Enemies of Gods truth and people would..not unsceptre him only, but un-essence him.

Unsce·ptred, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 and Un-2 8.] Having no sceptre; deprived of a sceptre.

1752 Young Brothers i. 1, How say's't, unsceptred boaster! This to me! 1798 Anti-Jacobin No. 24 So..the unsceptre'd Lear Heav'd the loud sigh. 1820 Keats Hyperion i. 19 Upon the sodden ground His old right hand lay..dead, unsceptred. 1834 J. Burnes Vis. Proph. 20 The idols fall unscepted from their thrones.

Unsche·duled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1889 Daily News 24 July 2/1 Consumers [of electric light] in the unscheduled districts. Unscho·lar, sb. (Un-1 22.) 1545 Ascham Toxoph. (Arb.) 38, I tell you plainlye, scholer or vnscholer, ..I wolde thinke it were my dutie..to set forwarde that thing. Unscho·lar, v. (Un-2 6 b.) 1823 Chalmers Serm. I. 351 You cannot unscholar demagogues down to the level of an untaught multitude.

Unscho·larlike, a. (Un-1 7 c.)

1616 Champney Voc. Ibps. 70 Hence likewise is solved that vnscholerlike question. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. III. 24 Dissenting Sermons,..full of such Unscholar-like Vulgarities. 1760 Sterne V. Shandy iii. xxxvi, 'Tis just as discreditable and unscholar-like a question, Sir. 1834 Gentl. Mag. CIV. i. 10 The Duke of Bedford he represented as coarse and unscholar-like. 1882 Athenæum 30 July 140/2 The execution of the work can only be described as essentially unscholarlike.

Unscho·larly, a. (Un-1 7.)

1784 Sir W. Jones Gods of Greece Wks. 1799 I. 269 The confusion of analogy in the names of the planets is inelegant, unscholarly, and unphilosophical. 1879 Miss Yonge Cameos iv. xviii. 206 The unscholarly way in which the debate had been conducted. 1884 Athenæum 16 Feb. 215/3 Strype.. states that the custom of ordaining unscholarly candidates speedily passed away.

Unscholastic, a. (Un-1 7.)

1690 Locke Hum. Und. iii. x. 242 It was to the unscholastick Statesman, that the Governments of the World owed their Liberties. 1791 Norris Ideal World ii. xii. 441 Which way of speaking is also not altogether unscholastick. 1826 J. Gilchrist Lect. 63 The understanding of every commonsense, unscholastic inquirer. 1843 Bethune St. Pirouli 10 This piece of mental philosophy..is perhaps new to the schoolmen, though by no means new to their unscholastick brethren.

Unschool, v. (Un-2 3.)

1820 Milman Fall Jerusalem 10 We must unschool our royal pupil, and shut him back to the nursery of his mind. 1862 Lowell Biglow P. Ser. II. ii. ¶ 3 [I] have heard those talk of England, who..could not unschool their lips from calling her the Mother-Country. 1862 Lytton Str. Story I. 159 If I unschool myself to believe that in what I have just experienced there is no mental illusion.

Unschooled, ppl. a. and a. [Un-1 8, 9.]

1. Uneducated, untaught.

1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. iv. xiv. § 2 They were..poore, simple, vnschooled altogether and vnlettered men. 1625 Sylvester 5th Triumphant Poem. 54 Mine vnschooled and vnskilfull Muse. 1762 Falconer Shipwr. i. 184 In art unschool'd, each veteran rule he prized. 1865 Grote Plato I. vi. 222 He especially warns Dionysius against talking about these matters to unschooled men. 1873 Blackie Lett. to Wife (1909) 222 The vulgar unschooled mind.

b. spec. Not educated at school; not made to attend school. Also absol.

1841 Emerson Ess., History ad fin., The Indian, the child, and unschooled farmer's boy. 1847 Eng. Rev. No. 11. 18 There were only 17,609 children unschooled. 1898 Daily News 14 Oct. 4/7 It is the unschooled that make the gaolbirds.

2. Untrained, undisciplined.

1589 Nashe Anat. Absurditie Ep., From such entercourse of excuse, let my vnschooled indignities conuert them selues to your contrarie. 1602 Shaks. Ham. i. iv. 27 Is shewes..a Minde impatient, An Vnderstanding simple, and vnschool'd. 1811 Miss L. M. Hawkins C'iess & Gertr. I. 69 Any power, that her..experience might give her over the errors of so unschooled a husband. 1838 Prescott Ferd. & Is. x. II. 8 A panic-struck mob, unschooled by discipline or experience. 1871 Miss Braddon Lovels of Arden iii. 41 A generous and somewhat lofty nature, perhaps, but unschooled and unchastened as yet.

b. Not affected or made artificial by education; natural, spontaneous.

1815 Moore Epist. to Lady Dacre's Inn 43 When lovely Woman, all unschool'd and wild, Blush'd without art. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma iii. 100 The artless, unschooled perceptions of a child. 1883 R. Bridges Prometheus 648 The unschooled promptings of his best desire.

3. Not provided with a school.

1872 M. Collins Princess Clarice II. ii. 28 A dingy village, undrained and unschooled.

Unsci·ence. (Un-1 12 and 5 b.)

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. pr. iii. (1868) 156 It nys nat oonly vnscience, but it is deceiuable oppinioun..fer fro pe sobe of science. 1603 Florio Montaigne iii. xii. 629 Purposely I treate of nothing, but of nothing; nor of any one science, but of vnscience. 1898 Pusey (Libr.), Unscience, not Science, Adverse to Faith. A Sermon preached before the University of Oxford. 1896 Trans. Victoria Inst. XXVIII. 200 This Method..has been influential both in the science and the unscience of all time.

Unsci·enced, a. (Un-1 9.) 1891 Harper's Mag. July 316/1 Whata work like Mr. James's..does for the unscienced reader is [etc.].

Unscientific, a. (Un-1 7.) Also absol.

[1775 Ash.] 1813 F. S. N. Douglas Ess. Greeks ii. 85 The admiration, with which the beautiful Caryatides.. inspire the most unscientific. 1827 Faraday Chem. Manip. vii. 204 This distinction is known to be very unscientific, but it is generally adopted. 1877 N. & Q. 5 ser. VIII. 498/1 In this matter of Latin pronunciation old fogies like myself are..on the side..of the unscientific.

Unscientifically, adv. (Un-1 11.)

[1775 Ash.] 1794 Hutton Philos. Light, etc. 107 A principle perhaps no less unscientifically conceived;..that of reflected heat. 1858 Greener Gunnery 278 Unscientifically formed projectiles. 1886 Contemp. Rev. Jan. 11 To talk then, in..[nature's] name, of the rights of conscience,..is to talk unscientifically.

Unscintillating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1807 J. Barlow Columb. v. 696 Prometheus like, to snatch a beam of day And homeward bear the unscintillating ray.

Unsci·ssored, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1608 Shaks. Per. iii. iii. 29 (Q 1), Till she be married, madam,..Vnsissored [read Vnsissored]..shall this hair of mine remain. c 1631 F. Cassey Elegy Death Downe 5 The unscisor'd Churchman. a 1633 Poems, To my Friend G. N. 64 Nor, on a Marble Tun, his face besmear'd With grapes, is cur'd unciizard Bacchus rear'd.

Unscoffed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1622 Wither Shepherd's Pipe B 4 b, What hopes have I to passe vnscoft I pray..? Unscolded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1855 E. Forbes Lit. Papers vi. 176 We like this book too well to permit us to pass over a fault unscolded. †Unscorified, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] Unconquered. c 1400 Sound. St. Bartholomew's 23 Pe vertu in her conceyuyd of vnskunfiid feith. Ibid. 34 The coronaciou of the most vnskunfitid kynge of Englonde, Henry the second. Unscorned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8+Scorn *sb.*1 or v.?) 1735 Savage Progr. Divine 17 Him, quite unscorn'd, the butt'ry book shall own.

Unscorched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1601 Shaks. Jul. C. I. iii. 28 His Hand, Not sensible of fire, remain'd vnscorch'd. 1612 Warner 4th Eng. M. lxviii. 385 Though thou could'st buzze about the flame, & keepe vnskorcht thy wings. 1651 Stanley Poems, Love Deposed iv, We..unscorch'd may Like atoms play, And wanton in the sunshine of your eyes. 1816 Scott Antiq. xviii, The moss and wild flowers were unscorched. 1843 Prescott Mexico ii. iv. I. 247 From all these fiery trials..he came out unscorched. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. ix. II. 345 If he threw them [sc. toads] into the fire, they hopped back to him unscorched.

Unscore, v. (Un-2 3. Cf. Score v. 6.)

1621 Br. Mountagu Diatribæ 184 Goe and unskore your margine with those many quotations,..ranged wel-nigh from the top to the bottome of that page.

Unscored, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1596 Nashe Saffron Walden Tij b, He hath..not left anie..Almain scribe..vncompared or vnscoard. 1818 Bussy Gram. Mus. 491 He..should ascertain his powers of invention, in unscored Composition. 1894 Westm. Gaz. 7 Mar. 2/1 He will leave no point unscored in favour of the people.

Unscorned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 4 He that skorneb other men shal not go away vnskorned. 1622 Wither Philarete M 4, I..yet, vnscorned, serue thy Nymph. 1721 Young Revenge i. i, Africk I quell'd, in hope by that to purchase Your leave to sigh unscorn'd. 1828 Wordsw. Power of Sound 51 Unscorned [be] the peasant's whistling breath.

Unscornful, a. (Un-1 7.) 1838 Tennyson in Ld. Tennyson Memoir (1897) I. 127 He is such a good fellow, so unscornful and genial. Unscorpionated, adv. (Un-1 12.) 1844 tr. Mem. Bedfordshire Yeomanry 11. 307 Hanging his majestic head, and unscornfully pacing to and fro in his narrow cage. Unscornfulness. (Un-1 12.) 1840 L. Hunt Leg. Florence ii. 4, Your look, madam, is wondrous logical!.. and cram'd with scorn, from pure unscornfulness. Unscotch, v. (Un-2 3.) 1839 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. 191 Unsling gun and carriage. Limber up. Hold on. Unscotch the wheels. Unscotted, ppl. a. local. [Un-1 8+Scot *sb.*2 3.] Not subject to a 'scot' or tax. 1865 Level of Hatfield Chase (Notice of Annual Meeting) 28 Oct., The Owners of Unscotted Lands affected by 'The Level of Hatfield Chase Act, 1862.' Unscottified, ppl. a. (Un-2 8.) 1773 Johnson 1 May in Boswell, You are the most unscottified of your countrymen. 1858 E. B. Ramsay Reminis. (ed. 2) v. 39 Numerous examples..might be taken from the works of Robert Burns, which lose their charm altogether when unscottified. Un-Scottish, a. (Un-1 7.) 1825 Monthly Rev. CVI. 14 The Un-Scottish name of Griffiths.

Unscoured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. Sw. oskurad.)

c 1460 Stans Puer ad Mensam 58 in Babees Bk. 30 Bryngge no knyves vnskoured to the table. 1567 Lisant Hon ace, Ep. iii. v 3, Thy wite is not of metyr vnscoure: it doth not lye vnskoured. 1592–3 Act 35 Eliz. c. 20 § 1 Beinge rawe vnscowred..as yt cometh from the Weavers Beame. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. i. iii. 171 Like vn-scow'd Armor. 1692 J. Taylor (Water P.) Scourge-A-Lot Wks. i. 115 Making the band of vnscowred Halberdiers retire. 1702 Guide for Constables 141 He that scours not his ditches..shall forfeit 12 pence for every rod so left unscoured. 1830 Carlyle Misc. (1840) II. 34 Kettles hung unscoured on the wall. 1894 Outing XXIV. 229/1 A handful of unscoured worms.

Unscourged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 1257 They bat swymmen in richesse..Vnscourgid ay of any aduersitee. 1648 Hexham II. Onggestaeyt, Vnwhipped, or Vnscourged. 1825 Campbell Hallowed Ground 5 Man..liveet and nee, Unscourged by superstition's rod.

Unscraped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. ON. áskrapaðr, (M)Sw. oskrapad, MDa. uskrabet.)

1725 Ramsay Gentle Sheph. iv. i, With vile, unscrapit tongue. 1881 Cornh. Magazine 395 They threw it [sc. a dead iguana] on the coals, unscraped and uncleaned. 1887 Moloney Forestry W. Africa 427 The coated or unscraped sort is similarly prepared, excepting that the rhizomes are unscraped; this is sometimes called Black Ginger.

†Unscrapen, ppl. a. Obs.[1 (Un-1 8 b.)]=prec. 1599 Garnet Let. to Parsons May (Stonyhurst MSS.), I was willing to let it go naturally, that you may rather mend it, if it be necessary, or deliver it unscrapen.

Unscra·tched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1595 Shaks. John ii. i. 225 To saue vnscratch'd your Cities threatned cheekes. a 1667 Jer. Taylor Lib. Proph. (1817) 334 They are his image undefiled, uncracked, unbroken by any act or consent of their own. 1853 Dickens Bleak Hse. xlvi, You must make up your mind to remain unscratched [sc. out of a will].

Unscrawled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1612 Brinsley Lud. Lit. 39 That the schollars keep their copies and books fair, vnblotted and vnscrawled.

Unscree·n, v. (Un-2 5.)

1628 Wither Brit. Remembr. v. N xi b, Secrets to unskreene, That cannot by our mortall eyes be seene. 1635 Quarles Emblems iii. xii. 48 Unskreen those Heavnly lamps, or cell me why Thou shad'st thy face. 1654 Gayton Pleas.

Notes IV. viii. 223 But he bustling still to unscreen her fully, she then shreekt out.

Unscree'ned, (ppl.) a. [UN-[1] 8, 9.]

1. Not protected or covered with screens.

1648 BOYLE Seraph. Love xxvi. (1659) 167 Their being expos'd (unskreen'd) to the Sun's refulgent beams. 1798 R. GRAVES Euphrosyne II. 113 Yet in those eyes we see... (More bright un-screen'd) the pow'r.. To make new conquests. 1802 Monthly Mag. XII. 224 If I sit unscreened, with my back to the fire. 1829 GEO. ELIOT Adam Bede xix. The little, grey, desolate-looking hamlet, unscreened by sheltering trees. 1831 Nature 20 Aug., Similar actions on cemetery matter, unscreened as it is by an absorptive atmosphere.

2. Not passed through a screen; unsifted.

1851 LAXTON Builder's Price Bk. 132 Gravel unscreened, 3s. od. Per cubic yard. 1888 Encycl. Dict. s.v., Unscreened coal. 1900 Daily News 21 May 2/1 Unscreened town's refuse.

Unscrew, v. [UN-[2] 3 and 7. Cf. WFris. ont-, ontskroeve, -je, Du. ontschroeven.]

1. trans. To slacken or detach by turning a screw (either separate or forming part of the thing turned).

1654 DAVENANT Gondibert I. vi. xiii, His Hilts round Pommel he did then unskrew. 1669 STURMY Mariner's Mag. v. i. 2 You may unscrew the perpendicular from the sight. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xxii. ¶ 4 He must unskrew the Skrew of his Composing-stick. 1722 DE FOE Plague (1754) 71 They found Ways to unscrew the Locks. 1739 LABELYE Piers Westm. Bridge 24 They were secured by proper Iron-work; which being unskrew'd, would permit the Sides..to part asunder. 1815 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art II. 41 Let the stop-cock and screw the springs. 1848 DICKENS Dombey xlix, He..unscrewed his hook, screwed his fork into its place, and did the honours of the table. 1900 HASLUCK Model Engin. Handybk. 118 This rod ..can be lengthened..by unscrewing one of the joints.

b. To remove the stopper from (a flask) by unscrewing.

1653 URQUHART Rabelais I. xxiv. 114 He unscrewed his borracho (which was a great Dutch leathern bottle).

c. intr. To undergo, or admit of, being unscrewed.

1822 T. MITCHELL Aristoph. II. 225 Like the tones of a lyre, When the pins and pegs are unscrewing. 1874 H. H. COLE Catal. Ind. Art S. Kens. Mus. 166 Amulet Case...It unscrews at one end. 1888 RUTLEY Rock-Forming Min. 21 Fitted on a separate stand with a set of which unscrews.

2. fig. (In various applications.)

1693 B. JONSON Volpone V. vii, To the Court..will I; and if't be possible, Vn-screw my Adoucate, vpon new hopes. ?a 1716 FLETCHER, etc. Q. Corinth. III, I should curse my fortune..to be made the image To unscrew a Mothers love unto her Son. 1697 N. BURLEY in Capt. Smith Seaman's Gram. a ij, What long travels..Haue made thee know, thou ..do's vnscrew To those that want like knowledge. 1864 H. MORE Myst. Iniq. 293 The Thirteenth Chapter would not fail to unscrue the meaning with the considerate and intelligent. 1761 CHURCHILL Rosciad 468 Courtiers will, like reasonable creatures, Suspend vain Fashion, and unscrew their features.

Unscrew'ed, ppl. a. [UN-[2] 8.] Not furnished with a screw. 1887 D. A. Low Machine Draw. 18 If the countersunk head be lengthened so as to take up the whole of the unscrewed part of the bolt. Unscribbled, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] 1648 BAILE Microcosm., Child (1662) 21 His Soale is yet a white paper unscribled with observations of the world. †Unscried, ppl. a. Obs.[1] [UN-[1] 8.] Undescried. 1560 ROLLAND Seven Sagis (S.T.S.) Thay. . Haw vn the Gold..and vnsaw it cone away. 1 Ed. V. 1 †Unscrip, v. [UN-[2] 7.] c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode II. xiii. (1869) 79 A cherl..wole bineme hem her bordouns and vnscrippe hem of here scrippes.

Unscriptural, a. [UN-[1] 7.]

1653 GLANVILL Hierosy. 14 (Inscription) Jerusalem..do they seem to many Christians? 1683 E. HOOPER Pref. Pordage's Mystic Div. 72 Unwritten Traditions, inhumane inventions, unscriptural Institutions. 1719 WATERLAND Eight Serm. Dis. Christ 103 That is so manifestly unscriptural, false, and groundless, as either Socinian or Arian. 1782 PRIESTLEY Corrupt. Chr. II. vii. 104 Wickliffe..saw nothing unscriptural in extreme unction. 1845 COLERIDGE Aids Reflect. 311 False Vicw or Scheme..I believe to be altogether unscriptural. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. II. 112 Prelacy was abhorred, both as an unscriptural and as a foreign institution.

Hence Unscripturally adv., -alness.

1697 W. HUGHES Mem of Ch. xiv. 111. 29 Besides the unscripturalness of such tenets. 1824 D. RUSSELL Covenants (1823) 182 Some have spoken very..unscripturally of the good works and holy tempers of believers. 1868 MIALL Congregationalism in Yorks. 13 Cartwright had openly proclaimed..the unscripturalness of the Anglican hierarchy.

Unscripturality. (UN-[1] 12.) 1733 Revolution Politicks vi. 28 The Unscripturality and Irregularity of the Doctrine. 1827 G. S. FABER Sort. Calend. Prophecy (1844) II. 19 The flagrant unscripturalities of that notoriously apostatising period. Unscripture, sb. [UN-[1] 12 b] attrib. Unscriptural. 1697 G. KEITH and Narr. Prov. Turner's Hall 9 They that find Fault with unscripture Language. Unscripture, a. (UN-[1] 4.) 1690 SPELLINGFL. Charge 11 Sept. 6 They who go about to Unbishop Timothy and Titus, may as well Unscripture the Epistles, that were written to them. †Unscripturely, a. Obs.[1] [UN-[1] 7.] Unscriptural. 1549 LATIMER and Serm. bef. Edw. VI, 70 Rdr. (Arb.) 48 This maintenance of so many vnscripturelye opinions. Unscrubbed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) [1775 ASH.] c 1900[1] In pedical use. Unscruple, v. (UN-[2] 4.) 1647 H. MORE Divin. Right Gov. II. ii. 75 To unscruple all vocabular doubts and difficulties, let us but look into the fourteenth Ch. of Gen. Unscrupled, a. (UN-[1] 9.) Unscrupulous. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby VI. vii, In their favour of wessee Unscrupled useful men like thee. Unscrupled, ppl. a. (UN-[2] 8) cf. SCRUPLE v. 4.) 1665 BOYLE Occas. Refl. VI. iii, 195 Either the same [practice], or little better, may be found Unscrupled..among our selves. Unscrupulosity. (UN-[1] 12 cf. next.) 1847 HARRIS Life Lad. Hervouvie III. 270 The unscrupulosity with which he ever gratified his passion. 1879 GEO. ELIOT Theo. Such XII. 192 The dirty work of unscrupulosity.

Unscru'pulous, a. (UN-[1] 7.)

1803 GODWIN Chaucer XII. 265 A person..boundless in ambition, and unscrupulous in his choice of means for gratifying it. 1829 SCOTT Anne of G. XIX, The priest took instant and unscrupulous possession of his seat of honour. 1875 JOWETT Plato II. 222 The worse he is the more unscrupulous he will be.

Hence Unscru'pulously adv., -ness.

1808 MITFORD Hist. Greece IV. 356 The unscrupulousness in using the authority powers of democratical government. 1833 J. H. NEWMAN Arians iv. § II, 315 This mere handful of divines unscrupulously pressing forward into the highest ecclesiastical stations. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul XXXVIII. II. 248 The unscrupulousness of a worldly ecclesiasticism. 1884 CHURCH Bacon III. 67 Lawyers..who unscrupulously pushed their way to preferment.

†Unscrutable, a. Obs. (UN-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1562 COOPER Answ. Priv. Masse 96 b, Is it not merueilous,..and to oure iudgement vnscrutable, that [etc.]? [1775 ASH.] Unscru'tableness. (UN-[1] 12; cf. prec.) 1657 J. SERGEANT Schism Disputed 449 The profound unscrutableness of those mysteries.

Unscru'tinized, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1728 MORGAN Hist. Algiers I. v. 167 Their Consciences be leaves wholly unscrutinized. 1795 BENTHAM Protest agst. Law Taxes 52 His unscrutinized notion of its supposed tendency to check litigation. 1802-12 — Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 478 Scrutinized or unscrutinized, evidence may speak. 1852 J. H. NEWMAN Scope Univ. Educ. 60 Every received but unscrutinized assertion.

Unscru'tinizing, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.)

1802-12 BENTHAM Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 123 Unreflecting and unscrutinizing caprice. 1872 MORLEY Voltaire I. 9 Unscrutinising acquiescence in half-thoughts and faint guesses.

Unscrutinizingly, adv. (UN-[1] 11; cf. prec.) 1891 HAN. LYNCH G. Meredith 136 He adores her unscrutinizingly.

Unscu'lptured, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1816 SHELLEY Mont Blanc 37 The aetherea waterfall, whose veil Robes some unsculptured image. 1891 Cornh. Dict., Unsculptured,..in zoology, smooth; without elevated or impressed marks on the surface. Unscu'mmed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8. Cf. SW. oskummad.) c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. VIII. 128 A sesse of vnscummed hony. 1562 Apol. Priv. Masse (1850) 40 If the servant would leave the pot unscummed. Unscu'rre, v. s. dial. [UN-[2] 3. Cf Isle of Wight skuee to secure.] trans. To untie, undo. 1749 MRS. ROBERT GOADBY Cookery 51 They were now all employed in unscuring the Children from his Back [Cf. ibid. 49 It was quickly resolved to tie two to his Back.] Unscutcheoned, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1829 POLLOK Course T. VIII. 89 No King, no subject was unscutcheoned all. Uncrowned, unplumed. Unscy'thed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) a 1818 in Scott Hrt. Midl., Skiddaw hears afar The rattling of the unscythed car.

Unsea'l, v. [UN-[2] 3, 4. Cf. MDu. ontsegelen, Du. -zegelen, OHG. intisigilan (MHG. entsigelen, G. -siegeln).]

1. trans. To remove a seal from, to break the seal of (a letter, etc.).

c 1425 Seven Sage (P.) 1054 His emys bokes he vnseldie. c 1425 AUDELAY XI Pains Hell 179 Je angel..lad him to be blak pit bo, With vil. seiys was seild treuly...Anon he vnseild be pit bore. 1596 Shakes. Merch. V. v. 275, I have better newes in store for you. Then yet expect vnseale this letter soone. 1666 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 23 He..resolved to unseale the bags. 1693 DRYDEN Persius VI. 37 Nor yet [will I] unseal the Dregs of Wine that stink Of Cask. 1748 FRANCIS tr. Horace, Epist. I. viii. 12 The long Lawyer's Ples unseals our Wills. 1791 COWPER Odyss. IV. 495 Charging high the cup With wine of richest sort, which she.. First broach'd, unsealing the delicious juice. 1818 COLERIDGE Biogr. Literaria (1847) I. Introd. 33 Henceforward the book is unsealed for him; the depth is opened. 1851 LONGF. Gold. Leg. I. Court-yard, Then was the family tomb unsealed. 1884 Cassell's Fam. Mag. Mar. 203/2 The oven is then unsealed, and the coke withdrawn.

fig. 1599 MARS. HEMANS Songs Affec., Spirit's Return I, This long-shut heart for thee shall be unseal'd.

2. fig. a. To free from some constraining influence; to allow free action to.

1589 GREENE Menaphon (Arb.) 59 She ought to shut vp her doores, and solemnize continual night, till her husband, her sunne, making a happie return, vnsealeth her silence. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. I. lxxxviii, Renew my heart, direct my tongue, unseal My hand. 1826 MRS. HEMANS Forest Sanctuary II. xxx, When stars..are shining, How their soft glance unseals each thought of thee! 1847 EMERSON Compensation II, And why when mirth unseals all tongues Should mine alone be dumb?

b. To free from the condition (or necessity) of remaining closed. (Cf. SEAL v.[1] 6 b.)

With reference to the eyes (b) probably in part replacing UNSEEL v.

(a) a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. II, Pray you (said Musidorus, then first unsealing his long silent lips) what countries be these? 1622 QUARLES Div. Poems, Esther III, Memucan.. Vnseal'd his serious lips, and thus bespake. 1815 SCOTT Guy M. xli, Speaking as if his utmost efforts were unable to unseal his lips beyond the width of a quarter of an inch. 1852 MERIVALE Rom. Emp. (ed. 2) III. I. 129 Cicero's mouth was unsealed. 1884 Athen. 8 Nov. 5/1 Mr. Gladstone ..is therefore extremely anxious that his lips should..be unsealed.

(b) 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. XI. XXX, Still to have toing waits unsealed thine eyes. 1700 DRYDEN Ovid's Met., Ceyx & Alcyone 303 The God disturb'd with this new Glare of Light ..unseal'd his Sight. 1725 POPE Odyss. XV. 8 In sleep profound the Son of Nestor lies; Not thine, Ulysses! Care unseal'd his eyes. 1855 SINGLETON Virgil I. 564 Others 'neath rueful Tartarus he sends; Grants slumbers, and withdraws [them], and the eyes At death unseals. 1863 COWDEN CLARKE Shakt. Char. xiii. 333 The discovery of that patron's baseness..acts like a talisman to unseal his eyes.

3. To disclose, reveal.

1640 FLETCHER, etc. Coronation II. i, If this preserve thee not, I must unseal Another mistery. 1672 B. TAYLOR Faust (1825) II. II. 147 He the future hath unsealed.

Hence Unsea'ler; Unsea'ling vbl. sb.

1683 JANE LEAD Revelation (title-p.), An Essay towards the Unseaing, Opening and Discovering The Seven Seals. 1824 LOWELL Lag. Brittany II. xxii, Remembering when he stood Not fallen yet, the unsealer of her heart. 1895 W. WATSON Hymn to Sea I, While, with throes, with raptures, with loosing of bonds, with unsealings,—Youth .. wakes like a wondering rose.

Unsea'lable, a. [UN-[1] 7 b.] Incapable of being sealed. 1831 E. IRVING Expos. Rev. I. 91 The apocalypse is..an unsealed and unsealable book.

Unsea'led, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. ongezegelt, Du. ongezegeld, G. ungesiegelt.]

1. Not stamped or marked with a seal.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. XIV. 292 Wynnyng he naught with weghtes fals ne with vnseled mesures. 1492 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1844) I. 419 Conuikit..for the wrangwiss haldin of a wrang pek of less mesour, and unseilt. 1550 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1905) 1. 9 We present that [Hugh] ..sell beere and wyne by vnlawful and vnsealed measures contrary to the statute. 1629 Leather 15 The Market is full of excellent Leather;..all this in the Morning lyes vnsealed. 1660 in J. Davidson Innerurie, etc. (1878) 362 Giv onie person have ane unseilit stoup they sall braik the same.

fig. 1680 C. NESSE Church Hist. 447 They could never kill the souls of any of Gods sealed ones, as they did of the unsealed.

2. Not having a seal imposed or attached; not closed by means of a seal.

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode I. xxxvi. (1869) 22 He bat holt his sword naked, and he keyes vnbownde, naked and vnseeled. 1523 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. CCCCXXV. 301/2 So he tole the letters vnsealed, and reioune in to Englande agayne. 1646 Bury Wills (Camden) 192 All my bookes, papers, and parchments vnsealed. 1665 BOYLE Exp. & Obs. Conc. Cold Pref. c 6, Judging it fit to make further Trial, with an unseal'd Weather-glass. 1726 BERKELEY in Fraser Life Wks. 1871 IV. 140 In case it be a bond in form, or..a promissory note unsealed. 1793 T. TWINING in Recreat. & Stud. (1882) 184 Sending the parcel unsealed that you might have read..the MS. 1848 W. H. KELLY tr. L. Blanc's Hist. Ten Y. II. 89 This letter..was..delivered, unsealed, to Mr. de Montalivet. fig. a 1649 CRASHAW Carmen Deo Nostro, Hymn St. Thomas 54 When this dry soul those eyes shall see, And drink the unseal'd source of thee. 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. IV. 115 The murmurings Of the unsealed springs. 1831 [see prec.].

transf. 1868 Rep. U. S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 278 Moisture, emanating in part from unsealed honey,..becomes condensed in the hive from external cold.

3. fig. Not formally confirmed or ratified.

1601 SHAKS. All's Well IV. ii. 30 Therefore your oathes Are words and poore conditions, but vnseal'd. 1665 J. SPENCER Vulg. Proph. 87 That very many of these Modern Prophecies have been very punctually accomplish'd, though unseal'd by any divine Sign attending the delivery of them. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus II. iii, My fate is yet an unsealed one.

Unsea'led, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[1] 8 + SEEL v.[2] Cf. UNSEAL v. 2 b.] Not closed.

1800 COLERIDGE Piccolom. I. xi, The unsealed eye Of Jupiter's glad children born in lustre.

Unsea'm, v. [UN-[2] 4.] trans. To undo the seam or seams of (a garment, etc.). Also fig., to rip up.

1592 GREENE Groat's W. Wit (1617) 28 In a thread-bare cloake, .his hose vnseamed. 1605 SHAKS. Rich. I. II. 22 Till he vnseam'd him from the Nauel to the Chaps, And left his Head vpon our Battlements. 1608 BEAUM. & FL. Four Plays in One I. iii, Nor a vein runs here From head to foot, but Sophocles would unseame, and..shoot his scornfull blood Into their eyes. 1631 in Ferrers Mem. (1907) I. 72 Our barke..had her bottome strucken out and was unseamed. 1812 BYRON Ch. Har. I. lxxvii, One gallant steed is stretch'd a mangled corse; Another, hideous sight! unseam'd appears. 1842 in Spirit Pub. Journ. (1842) 94 Giving Mr. Foster a thump on the eye, and unseaming his shirt from top to bottom! 1848 T. AIRD Chr. Bride I. xiii, The monster's.. tusks backward glance To gather fury for his onset dread, To unseam her lovely limb.

Unsea'manlike, a. (UN-[1] 7 c.) 1726 SHELVOCKE Voy. round World 7 His unseamanlike behaviour in the late storm. 1865 Sat. Rev. 2 Sept. 301/2 The idea of a French Sailor as a weedy, unseamanlike kind of lubber.

Unsea'med, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongezoomd, MLG. and MHG. ungesâmet, G. ungesäumt, Sw. osömmad.] Having no seam.

1592 SYLVESTER Tri. Faith II. xiii, The Schismatiks.. renting Christ's unseamed coat in twain. 1635 F. WHITE Sabbath 310 The unseamed coat of Christ.

Unsearchable, a. and sb. [UN-[1] 7 b, 12, and 5 b.]

1. That cannot be searched into, so as to be ascertained or exactly estimated; inscrutable.

1382 WYCLIF Rom. XI. 33 How comprehensyble ben his domes, and his weyis vnserchable. c 1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's 43 God, that makith grete and vnsercheable thyngis with-oute numbre. 1549 LATIMER 3rd Serm. bef. Edw. VI (Arb.) 100 Mans hart is vnsearchable. 1584 BEAUM. tr. Herodotus II. 77 They fell..to discourse..of Nilus, the head whereof was vnsearchable, and not to be knowne. 1622 PEACHAM Compl. Gent. viii. 69 To consider how Nature ..,by an vnsearchable and stupendious worke, sheweth vs [etc.]. 1667 MILTON P. L. VIII. 70 To relate Things else by me unsearchable, now heard With wonder. 1703 ROWE Ulysses IV. i, Tis all the mighty working of the gods, Unsearchable and dark to human Eyes. 1759 JOHNSON Rasselas XI, The unsearchable will of the Supreme Being. 1809-14 WORDSW. Excurs. III. 112 Lost in unsearchable eternity. 1835 THIRLWALL Greece I. vi. 193 As his might is irresistible, so is his wisdom unsearchable. 1896 K. BRIDGES Sonn. viii, The unsearchable and secret aims Of nature.

b. sb. An unsearchable thing.

1725 WATTS Logick I. vii. § 1 It is a vast Hindrance..if we spend too much of our Time and Pains among Infinites and Unsearchables. 1741 — Improv. Mind I. xviii, To busy yourselves..amongst unsearchables.

2. That cannot be sought for.

1878 B. TAYLOR Pr. Deukalion III. v. 128 A something lost, Because unsought, perchance unsearchable, Assails my sight.

Hence Unsea·rchableness, -ably adv.

1611 FLORIO, Inscrutabilitie, *vnsearchableness. a 1653 BINNING Serm. (1845) 58 God's unsearchableness, God's unchangeableness. 1682 BURNET tr. More's Utopia 107 Unless, according to the unsearchableness of his Mind, he is pleased with a variety of Religions. 1856 RUSKIN Mod. Painters IV. v. v. § 21 In an Italian twilight.. there is still unsearchableness, but an unsearchableness without cloud or concealment. 1873 SYMONDS Greek. Poets ix. 290 The unsearchableness of God's dealings. 1706 STEVENS Span. Dict. †, Inscrutablemente, inscrutably, *unsearchably. 1746 HERVEY Regd. Pioneer Garden 21 The various Expedients which Providence, unsearchably wise, uses. 1847 DE QUINCEY Sp. Mil. Nun Wks. 1862 III. 98 A female..who..perished by a fate so unsearchably mysterious.

Unsea·rched, ppl. a. [UN-1 8, 8 c.]

1. Not searched; unexamined, uninvestigated:

a. In predicative use, after leave, go, pass, etc.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (Wd. de W. 1531) 121 b, It shall leane no corner of out soules..vnsserched. a 1548 HALL Chron., Edw. V, 7 Watchyng, that no person..should passe vnserched. 1621 FLETCHER Thierry & Theod. v. i, Since you have your tricks..we will not leave a wrinkle of you unsearcht. 1691 T. HALES Acc. New Invent. 10 Suffering a Ship..to lye.. in Harbour unsearched. 1765 WILKES Corr. (1805) II. 138 The two trunks..were suffered to go out of Rome unsearched. 1832 G. DOWNES Lett. Cont. Countries I. 399 The custom-house officers..letting all pass [sc. luggage] pass unsearched. 1865 DICKINS Mus. Fr. III. vi, The chimney was not left unsearched.

b. In attributive use.

1568 Jacob & Esau I. iii. B j, Whatsoeuer mysterie the Lorde therein ment, Must be referred to his vnsearched iudgement. 1615 CHAPMAN Odyss. XXIV. 640 Pallas made Io loue..And askt of him, what his vnsearched mind Held vndiscouer'd. a 1649 CRASHAW Carmen Deo Nostro, To Chess Dendrick 36 The self-shut cabinet of an unsearcht soul. 1753 Chambers' Cycl. Suppl. s.v. Fossile Shells, Other yet unknown or unsearched seas and shores. 1821 BYRON Heaven & Earth iii. 912 The ocean..grasps each drowning hill, Nor leaves an unsearch'd cave. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul xxxi. II. 24 That unsearched borderland which lies between the natural and the supernatural.

2. Not searched for.

1730 A. GORDON Maffei's Amphith. p. x, All which..have been unsearch'd for, and unknown.

Unsea·rching, ppl. a. (UN-1 10). 1599 DANIEL Musoph. (1602) C iij b, Then would they only labour to extend Their now vnsearching spirits beyond these bounds Of others powres, wherein they must be pend. 1828–32 WEBSTER (citing J. Q. Adams).

Unsea·red, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not made sear; unwithered.

1599 THYNNE Animadv. (1875) 48 That is, (as some do expounde this worde vnserial!,) vnsered, vnsinged, vnwithered. 1829 J. L. KNAPP Trnl. Nat. 102 Preserving..a portion of its foliage unseared by frosts. a 1847 ELIZA COOK Like the Evergreen iii, It remaineth unseared in the deluge of light.

fig. 1840 POLLOK Course T. III. 153 The stripling youth of plump, unseared hope. 1863 LANCASTER Praeteritis 37 We'll keep a merry heart up still, Unsered, fresh, young, and callow.

2. Not made hard or callous.

1850 TRENCH Serm. Westm. Abbey vi. 59 Many things which he would have shrunk back from at first, while his conscience was yet unseared.

† Unsea·son, sb. Obs.[1] [UN-1 12.] In unseason, out of season.

a 1400–50 Alexander 4439 3oure sowping in vnseson, 3oure surfete of drinkis.

Unsea·son, v. [UN-2 4.] trans. To deprive of seasoning or relish. In quots. fig.

1590 SPENSER F. Q., To Sir W. Raleigh, Why doe I send this rustickie Madrigal, That may thy tuneful eare vnseason quite? a 1600 Nobody & Someb. in Simpson Sch. Shakes. (1878) I. 310 The remembrance that I was a king, Unseasons the content of poverte. 1728 THEOBALD Double Falsehood i. ii, What Fortune soever my Going shall encounter, cannot be good Fortune; What I part withal unseasons any other Goodness.

Unsea·sonable, a. [UN-1 7 b.]

1. Not suited to, not in accordance with, the time or occasion; untimely, inopportune.

c 1448 Ten Commandments of Love in Stow's Chaucer (1561) 341 b, Take mesure in langage, .. For mesure .. Thynges vnseasonable setteth in season. 1591 Acts Privy Council (1900) XXI. 123 The unordinate and unseasonable taking of the same [spawn] by the common fishers. 1607–12 BACON Ess., Dispatch (Arb.) 248/1 To chuse tyme is to save tyme, and an vnseasonable mocion is but beating the ayre. 1667 MILTON P. L. VIII. 201 Whence haply mention may arise Of something not unseasonable to ask. 1718 Freethinker No. 7. 42 A Notion prevails, that Marriage in Lent, is at least unseasonable. 1758 JOHNSON Rambler No. 207 P 9 Unseasonable importunity of discontent. 1817 JAS. MILL Brit. India II. v. v. 522 The English fleet.. dispersed by the weather, incurred considerable danger of a very unseasonable rencounter. 1839 W. C. TAYLOR Anc. Hist. xvii, § 2 (d. 2) 501 This rash conspiracy induced Galba to sully the commencement of his reign by unseasonable severities. 1844 H. H. WILSON Brit. India II. 491 The omission to inspect the accounts was unseasonable and injudicious.

transf. 1722 STEELE Conse. Lovers III. i, The familiar, learned, unseasonable Puppy!

b. Of time: Not suitable for the action specified or implied.

Freq. (with hour) implying an unusual time of the night.

1595 SHAKS. John IV. ii. 20 This acte..Being vrged at a time vnseasonable. 1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. I. (1906) 261 The said ship..at last at vnseasonable time made tryall to com for Petapolie. 1674 Jackson's Recaut. B 1, To let them out at unseasonable hours, and stay up for them, till it be early. 1715 DE FOE Fam. Instruct. I. iii. (1841) I. 62 Who knows but God may bless instruction, though begun at an unseasonable time. 1759 FRANKLIN Ess. Wks. 1840 III. 218 Neither did they conceive the time to be unseasonable for an application to the crown. 1800 MRS. HERVEY Mourtray Fam. II. 176 If I presume to intrude upon you at an unseasonable hour. 1838 LYTTON Leila I. vi, The alarm which might occasion..if he endeavoured at so unseasonable an hour, to force an entrance.

c. As adv. Unseasonably; out of season.

a 1634 CHAPMAN Bussy d'Ambois III. (1641) 42 How most unseasonable thou playest the Cucko, In this thy fall of friendship. 1680 R. L'ESTRANGE tr. Erasmus' Colloquies 174 This came very Unseasonable; Or if there had been any Errour, it might have been dissembled.

2. Of fish, etc.: Not in season.

c 1450 Cal. Letter-bks. London, D. (1902) IV. 198 Ye shalle not suffre no fyssh corrupt ne unseyshable to be solde. 1477 [see VICTUAL sb. 1 y]. 1488–9 Act 4 Hen. VII, c. 21 Aswell grete fishes unseasonable as the seid frie. 1533–4 Act 25 Hen. VIII, c. 7 Kyllyng of salmons when they be unseasonable and not holsome for manns body. 1569 in Liturg. Serv. Q. Eliz. (1847) 488 The same poor which either lack food, or else that which they have is unseasonable and cause of sickness. 1653 WALTON Angler vi. 133 The old Salmon..grow sick in fresh waters, and by degrees unseasonable. 1677 Quarter Sess. Rec. (N.N. Riding Rec. Soc) VII. 6 A Startforth yeoman for catching ten unseasonable fish called scurfes. 1842 Act 5–6 Vict. c. 106 § 74 If any Person shall..have in his Possession any..unclean or unseasonable Salmon or Trout.

† b. Not properly matured; unseasoned. Obs.[—1]

1515 Nottingham Rec. III. 344 We present Ser John Bagnola for makyng on seysnabulle tyle. 1548 Act 2 & 3 Edw. VI, c. 10 § 1 Sondrie persons..made myche Malte unpure and unseasonable.

3. Of weather: Not appropriate to the season of the year; esp. stormy, tempestuous. Also of days, seasons, etc., marked by such weather.

a 1513 FABYAN Chron. VII. 433 Great scarcete of corne and frute..by meane of vnseasonable wederynge. 1593 SHAKS. Rich. III, I. iii. 8 Now is winter vnseasonable stormie day. 1602 in Moryson Itin. (1617) II. 261 Their Harvest is very vnseasonable, and their Corne was so destroied by the weather, as numbers of subiects will vndoubtedly die of famine. 1610 HOLLAND Camden's Brit. 460 By reason of vnseasonable weather the corne..was choked and blasted in the eare. 1645 BOATE Ireland's Nat. Hist. xxi. (1652) 166 The ripeness of the fruits..is greatly retarded by the abundance of unseasonable rain. 1656 RAY in Lett. Lit. Men (Camden) 203 Heer hath been a very unseasonable Summer, for the most part very cold and wet. 1707 MORTIMER Husb. 212 A cold, dry, unseasonable Spring. 1820 SHELLEY Prometh. Unb. II. iv. 59 The unseasonable seasons drove With alternating shafts of frost and fire, Their..pale tribes to mountain caves. 1854 Poultry Chron. I. 578/1 Notwithstanding the cold, dark, unseasonable day. 1879 S. C. BARTLETT Egypt to Pal. xx. 442 Plucking lilies of the field from beneath the unseasonable snow.

Unsea·sonableness. [f. prec.] The quality or fact of being unseasonable: a. Of weather.

1523 FITZHERB. Husb. § 14 The vnseasonableness of the wether. 1577 B. GOOGE Heresbach's Husb. I. 2 b, Yf either the vnseasonablenesse of the weather, or sicknesse cause me to keepe my bed. 1600 SURFLET tr. Coresty Farmer v. x. 67, The Oxen..better indure the vnseasonableness of times, and ..draw a deeper draught. 1695 LUTTRELL Brief Rel. (1857) III. 515 The lords justices, considering the unseasonableness of the weather, have..prohibited the exportation of corn. 1796 Phil. Trans. LXXXVI. 280 During last January, nothing was more common than to hear expressions of the unseasonableness of the weather.

b. Of time.

1548 UDALL Erasm. Par. Luke iv. 49 b, He neuer did so muche as laie for his excuse the importunitee or vnseasonablenesse of tyme. 1628 in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 582 Our next Argument is drawn..from the unseasonableness of the time. 1662 EARL MONM. tr. Bacadier's Pol. Conclusions (1674) 273 About one a clock at night, forty Carts..were seen to enter the Royal Palace..; and because of the unseasonableness of the time..inquiry was made [etc.]. 1694 Phil. Trans. XVIII. 145 They were generally taken notice of,.. because of the unseasonableness of the time for Grasshoppers. a 1748 WATTS Disc. Educ. Childr. ix. (1795) 177 The unseasonableness of the midnight hour [for dancing].

c. Of actions, etc.

1610 HEALEY Theophrastus (1616) 49 Vnseasonablenesse is a troublesome..assaulting of those with whom we haue to doe. 1693 Mem. Ct. Teckely III. 28 The unseasonableness of the ill Policy of the Turks. 1741 RICHARDSON Pamela IV. 38 Forgive, dearest Sir, the Unseasonableness of your very impertinent..Pamela. 1799 HAN. MORE Fam. Educ. (ed. 4) I. 14 A sneer, not at the truth of religion,..but at its gravity, its unseasonableness. 1815 JANE AUSTEN Emma I, The suddenness and..the unseasonableness with which the affair burst out. 1884 Manch. Exam. 1 July 3/1 The unseasonableness of the proposed discussion.

Unsea·sonably, adv. [UN-1 11.] In an unseasonable manner; at an unfitting time; out of season.

1588 LAMBARDE Eiren. IV. xix. 603 It will fall out unseasonable. 1589 WARNER Alb. Eng. Prose Add. 264 Whilest he vnseasonably amongst blowes, deliuered vnregarded perswasions of Peace. 1610 HEALEY Theophrastus (1616) 12 A Pratler or Babler..vnseasonably setting vpon any stranger. 1687 WOOD Life (O.H.S.) III. 233 That night there should have been an illumination in the quadrangle, but by the folly of the procitor it was vnseasonably done the night before. 1719 DE FOE Crusoe II. (Globe) 332, I unhappily and unseasonably disturb'd him. 1780 Mirror No. 72, The thoughts of futurity, may surely sometimes, not unseasonably, press upon our imagination. 1819 SHELLEY Cenci iv. iv. 2 Lady, my duty to his Holiness Be my excuse that thus unseasonably I break upon your rest. 1868 Rep. U.S. Commissioner Agric. (1869) 21 Unseasonably cool and.. wet weather set in, followed by early frosts.

Unsea·soned, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not made palatable by seasoning.

1582 STANYHURST Æneis IV. (Arb.) 108 Caucasus haggish Bred the, with a tigers soure milck vnseasoned. 1601 Song of Mary D j b, If it may be, let this vnseasoned cup Of sorrow passe. 1611 FLORIO, Incondite niuande, vnseasoned meates.

2. Not appreciative of dainties.

1598 MARSTON Sco. Villanie, 169 For whose vnseasoned palate I wrote the first Satyre, in some places too obscure.

2. Not matured by growth or time. Also in fig. context.

1601 B. JONSON Poetaster v. iii, We haue no vacant eare, now, to receiue The vnseason'd fruits of his officious tongue. 1614 BEST Farm. Bks. (Surtees) 92 The best sticks..are made of droughy, unseasoned oake. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing iii, If they be made of unseason'd Stuff,.. as the Stuff dries it shrinks. 1832 Planting 74 (L.U.K.), Comparative trials of seasoned and unseasoned wood in the same building. 1833 LOUDON Encycl. Archit. § 243 Unseasoned timber, or other materials.

3. Not habituated by time or experience.

1601 SHAKS. All's Well I. i. 80 'Tis an vnseason'd Courtier, good my Lord, Aduise him. 1668 DRYDEN Evening Ticke III. ii, These words..Are but like Ignes Fatui, to delude Greene and vnseason'd wits. 1614 LATHAM Falconry I. ix. 33 These hawkes being vnseasoned in their bodies. 1658 SMILEY Mart. Soldier I. ii, Your unseasoned valour Had thrice ingag'd our fortunes and our men Beyond recovery. 1730 and Contin. Baker's Chron. 531/2 The unseason'd Orkney Men immediately yielded themselves. 1770 PITTMAN European Settlem. Mosquito. p. viii, The twenty-first regiment.. being..unseasoned to such a climate, suffered almost as much. 1840 E. E. NAPIER Scenes & Sports For. Lands II. App. 243 The exposure of his unseasoned person alternately to night damps and the burning heat of the sun. 1857 DICKENS Dorrit I. xxxii, The depressed unseasoned prisoner.

† 3. Unseasonable. Obs.

1589 COOPER Admon. 21 Their virulent and unseasoned speeches. 1597 SHAKS. 2 Hen. IV, III. i. 105 These vnseason'd howres perforce must adde Vnto your Sickneese. 1598 — Merry W. II. ii. 174 The which hath something embolned me to this vnseason'd intrusion. 1625 BRATHWAIT Strappado, etc. (1878) 282 Each..tun'd their odes with that vnseasoned time. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla I. 202 Camilla looked hastily away, and her whole set, abashed by so unseasoned an inquiry, cast down their eyes.

† 4. Rendered unhealthy. Obs.[—1]

1638 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. (ed. 2) 213 A great and lovely City,..over-topt by no hill, unseasoned by no marishes.

Unsea·soning, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) a 1617 HIERON Wks. (1619) II. 474 This miserie of hauing none among them but an vnseasoning and vnsufficient minister.

Unsea·t, v. [UN-2 5.]

1. trans. To dislodge from a seat (esp. on horseback).

1596 SPENSER F. Q. IV. x. 10 Whom boldly I encountred.. And by good fortune shortly him vnseated. 1784 COWPER Task VI. 553 His horse..Rush'd to the cliff, and..stood. At once the shock unseated him. 1835 W. IRVING Tour Prairies 177 Beatte was nearly unseated from his saddle. 1845 J. COULTER Adv. in Pacific xvi. 247 The boat plunged down..with so violent a shock, that nearly all were unseated. 1895 SCULLY Kafir Stories 170 My horse..wheeled sharply to the right, completely unseating me.

transf. 1609 HOLLAND Amm. Marcell. 84 But Constantine..displaced and unseated this huge masse. 1839 MARRYAT Phant. Ship ii, The probing of the wound would half unseat my reason. 1891 Cent. Dict. s.v., To unseat a boiler; to unseat a valve.

2. To dislodge from some place or position; to deprive of rank or office.

1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. Summary, In Germany by intrusion they vnseated the Sueuians. 1661 J. DAVIES Ctr. Warres 371 [They] resolved next morning to unseat the Parliament once more. 1826 HOOD Recipe for Civilis. 89 Whereas a cook would soon unseat him [sc. Apis], And make his own churchwardens eat him. 1870 EMERSON Soc. & Solit. iv. 67 A greater power of carrying the thing loftily, and with perfect assurance,..might..unseat any sovereign, and abrogate any constitution in Europe and America. 1878 TAYLOR Deukalion III. vi. 135 The Gods of races I unseat, as Time or Tyranny of old, Shall unseat me.

b. spec. To deprive of, or depose from, a seat in Parliament or other representative body.

1834 Tait's Mag. I. 541/1 Had one third of the exceptions held good, it was clear the Governor must be unseated. 1882 SERGT. BALLANTINE Exper. xxx. 204 The first case..was speedily disposed of by unseating the member.

Unsea·ted, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

† 1. U.S. Of land: Unsettled, unoccupied. Obs.

1662 Laws of Virginia lxxii. 43 [It] must in a short time leave the greatest part of the Countrey, unseated and unpeopled. 1689 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. I. 318 Where land is unseated. 1724 Acts Assembly Pennsylv. (1762) I. 102 Exempting..all unsettled Tracts or Parcels of Land, That is to say, such Tracts of Land as..are unseated. 1800 Farmer's Reg. 29 March (Thornton), The owners of unseated lands in Westmoreland. 1877 BURGOYNE Taxation 208.

2. Not seated; not provided with a seat.

[1775 ASH.] 1883 D. C. MURRAY Hearts ix, She was still unseated, and he approached her.

Unseaullich: see UNSEWLY a.

Unsea·worthiness. (UN-1 12. Cf. next.)

1824 Cowen's Rep. (N. Y. State Supreme Crt.) 206 Every vessel has a point of time at which it..arrives at a situation of unseaworthiness. 1832 MCCULLOCH Dict. Commerce 648 Unseaworthiness may be caused in various ways, such as want of repair, want of stores [etc.]. 1875 Economist 27 Feb. 246/1 Ought not the underwriters to have been able to plead 'unseaworthiness'?

Unsea·worthy, a. (UN-1 7.)

1820 TOMLINS Law Dict. (ed. 3) I. s.v. Insurance, A ship..

sailed on her voyage in an unseaworthy state. 1887 DICKENS Dorrit II. xxvi, Drowning men clinging to unseaworthy spars. 1896 H. S. MERRIMAN Vanners xxxiv, A sailor never believes that his own ship is unseaworthy.

†Unsecond, v. Obs.—1 (Un-1 14.) 1616 J. LANE Contin. Sir. T. x. 59 Wear't not as good to have betraid eure lord, as to vnsecond him, as twice wee did?

Unseconded, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not backed up or supported.

1597 SHAKS. 2 Hen. IV, II. iii. 34 O Miracle of Men! Him did you leaue (Second to none) vn-seconded by you. 1608 [TOFTE] Aristotle's Nat. III. (1621) 33 So that in rank of fauours I alone Stood still vnsecondred of any one. 1691 T. H[ALE] Acc. New Invent. 9 Nor lay this long unseconded by concurrent Advices from Portsmouth. 1734 THOMSON Liberty I. 166 Unseconded by art, the spinning race..idly toil. 1778 HAMILTON Wks. (1886) VII. 348 He attempted, single and unseconded, to possess himself of one of the enemy's field-pieces. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. VI. 221 He..Urged unremittingly the stubborn work, Unseconded, uncountenanced. 1884 Lancet Times 8 Nov. 27/2 [A] result..obtained by his own unseconded efforts.

b. spec. (See SECOND v.† 3.)

1816 Monthly Mag. XLI. 144 Applause revives. All cry, To France, To France! And Westmoreland unseconded remained. 1865 Reader 27 Mar. 594/3 His proposal was unseconded, and fell to the ground.

†2. Unparalleled, unique. Obs.—1

1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. III. vii. 120 Even as in the body of man from putred humours..there have succeeded strange and unseconded strange worms.

Unsecrecy. rare—1 (Un-1 12.) 159. H. WALPOLE in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. V. 225 By some mens unsecrecy, which I will not name, my iourney is much known.

Unsecreted, a. [Un-1 8.]

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xviii, Which hopes, Hate (as unsecrete as Loue) could not conceale. 1606 SHAKS. Tr. & Cr. III. ii. 133 Who shall be true to vs When we are so vnsecret to our selues? 1624 RALEIGH Hist. World iv. iv. § 8. 251 He was driuen by necessitie to feed first many of whom he stumbled vpon some, that were vnsecret. 1655 EARL OF NORWICH in Nicholas P. (Camden) II. 259 For what I heare of my being thought vnsecret (a hard censure after fifty yeares seruice in your Royall Family).

Unsecret, v. [Un-2 4.] trans. To disclose.

1607–12 BACON Ess., Counsel (Arb.) 318 But lett Princes beware that the vnsecreting of their affaires come not from themselves. 1654 WHITLOCK Zootomia 447 Things were done hee I weene; All be vnsecreted, and black Sheep beware. 1659 FULLER App. Inj. Innoc. III. 17 They say, It is..another thing, to look on Gods Secrets, in some sort unsecreted. 1666 BP. S. PARKER Disc. & Impart. Counsels 6 The Intimate Essence of any one Body is no more explain'd & unsecreted after all their Labour, then it was afore.

Unsecre·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1750 G. HUGHES Barbados 246 The more gross returns back unsecreted to the radical Vessels. Unsecretness, (Un-1 12.) 1646 Pulpit. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 110 Vnkyndnesse, Vntrustynesse or vnsecretnesse, Discorde or contencyon.

Unsecta·rian, a. and sb. (Un-1 7 and 12.)

adj. 1847 WEBSTER (citing Buckham). 1854 Edin. Rev. Oct. 173 Their devotion to the one God and his Prophet [is] unsectarian in its character. 1887 RUSKIN Præterita II. 295 A standard of the purest unsectarian Christianity.

sb. 1888 Pall Mall G. 20 Nov. 4/1 In Sheffield the victory was with the Unsectarians, in Manchester it was with the Sectarians.

Unsectarianism. (Un-1 12; cf. prec.) 1866 Spectator 1 Dec. 1325 Making such a fuss about unsectarianism in religion. Unsectarianize, v. (Un-1 6 c.) 1838 MILL Diss. & Disc. (1859) I. 200 The very first step..should be to unsectarianize them [sc. the Universities] wholly.

Unsecular, a. (Un-1 7.)

1846 WORCESTER (citing Ec. Rev.). 1849 A. BAKER in J. Alton Dennett. Econ. (1857) 8 All willage..that they [sic, buildings] should have..a humble unsecular air. 1899 DICKENS, etc. Haunted House vi, We were every Sunday advertising the establishment in an unsecular way.

Unsecularize, v. (Un-1 6 c 6.)

1816 A. KNOX Rem. (1844) I. 66 The humbled and unsecularized priesthood of the English Church. 1844 PUSEY Crisis Eng. Ch. 127 Our Church has been in part unCatholicized by those who helped..to unsecularize her. 1897 W. C. HAZLITT Ourselves 60 The clergy..more or less unsecularise them [sc. women].

†Unsecure, a. Obs. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)

1636 [DENHAM] Destr. Troy (1656) 2 Now but an unsecure and open Bay. 1685 LD. PERTH in Lomd. Gaz. No. 2031/7 They tender us unquiet and unsecure at home. 1700 BLACKMORE Job 67 He in his prosperous state is unsecure. 1726 LEONI Alberti's Archit. II. 100/1 It may be unsecure against sudden incursions of enemies. 1729 T. INNES Crit. Ess. (1875) 184 Looking upon their religion as unsecure as long as the queen's authority was acknowledged.

b. Const. of, or to with inf.

†a 1685 ROSCOMMON Virgil's Sixth Ecl. Poems (1749) 77 None who under that protection came Was ever ill receiv'd, or unsecure of fame. 1691 T. BAKER Reason. 13 Depending ..on Accidents in Nature, which are varying every Day, uncertain, unsecure to be relied upon.

Unsecured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1780 BURKE Econ. Reform Wks. 1906 II. 319 A supply of unsecured money..wholly at the discretion of ministers. 1821 SCOTT Kenilw. xii, He left, therefore, the Countess's door unsecured on the outside. 1866 Sat. Rev. 22 Sept. 361/1 All corn, therefore, unsecured, cut or uncut, is considerably discoloured. 1884 DE WINTON Equator 86 Their jet-black hair was unsecured and allowed to fall in profusion down their backs.

†Unsecurity. Obs.—1 (Un-1 12 and 5 b.). 1591 CONDICKY Trans. Siege Rouen in Camden Misc. I. 64 Lyde provision commeth to our markett, what for the unsecurytie of the passage for pore men. Unseda·te, a. (Un-1 7.) 1823 HONE Ancc. Mysteries 262 Their obsolete costume and bobbing walk are sport for the unsedate. Unsedentary, a. (Un-1 7.) 1821 WORDSW. Sonn. xx. 293 Meanwhile the unsedentary Master's hand Was busier with his rate.

Unsedu·ce, v. (Un-2 3.) 1664 N. INGELO Bentiv. & Urs. Index, Mixophanus, one that hates Cheaters, takes pains to discover their Frands and to unsedduce the deceiv'd.

Unsedu·ced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 and 5 c.)

1565 [see Un-1 5 c]. 1612 SHAKS. Cymb. I. iv. 173 If shee remaine vnsedu'd..you shall answer me with your Sword. 1667 MILTON P. L. v. 896 Unshak'n, unsedu'd, unterrifi'd His Loyalte he kept. 1721 SOUTHERNE Spartan Dame II. i, Among so many false one man yet true, Unshaken, unseduced. 1751 SMOLLETT Per. Pic. lxxxi, He remained unshaken, unseduced, preserving his attachment for me. 1820 MACINTOSH Progr. Eth. Philos. (1862) 200 Having been unseduced by the temptations either of scepticism, or of useless idealism. 1866 FULTON Anc. & Mod. Gr. I. xii. 195 Still unseduced, unstained by vice.

Unseducible, a. (Un-1 7.) 1869 Lyndesay's Wks. 436 marg., A judge, come from afar, unwavering, unseducible.

Unsee·, v. rare. [Un-1 14 and Un-2 3.] trans. To avoid seeing; to leave, or make, unseen.

a 1395 HYLTON Scala Perf. II. xii. (W. de W. 1494), Whan he sheweth him the soule may not vnsee hym, for he is lyghte. 1865 J. GROTE Explor. Philos. I. 243 We cannot unsee the prospect before us. 1871 KINGSLEY At Last xvii, At last we had seen it; and we could not unsee it.

Unseeable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) Invisible.

a 1400 in Hoccleve's Wks. (1892) I. 124 Our blyssed vnseable god may be perseyued alanle be inly vnderstandyng. Ibid. 165 It is..nerhan vnpossibull to a fleshle saule..for to ryse in knawyng of vnseabull [l]ignes. ?1431 TINDALE Exp. 1st Ep. John Wks. (1572) 427/2 Of the very Sacrament it selfe we know no other thyng then that we come thether to see an vnseable miracle. 1548 GRESTE Pr. Masse C ii, That the substance of ye bred, whche is vnseable, shuld be worshipped. 1719 DE FOE Wks. Angelic World 44 To see things unseeable, as St. Paul hears things unutterable. 1880 Boston Trnl. Chem. Dec. 134/2 It is assumed that spirit is unseeable.

Hence † Unsee·ably adv. Obs.

a 1395 HYLTON Scala Perf. II. xi. (MS. Bodl. 592), Pee forsjthnesse of synne is doon ghoeill and vnseabil forut grace of ye hoolynesse. Ibid. II. xxx, He was vnseabil feiid in pe mystes of her soulis.

Unsee·ded, a. (Un-1 9.) Not having or bearing seed. 1884–Indp. Dict., etc. Unseeded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Unsown. 1711 Spect. 277 Cowper Odyss. IX. 120 The unseeded and unfurrow'd soil, food for blatant goats supplies. 1828–32 WEBSTER, Unseeded, ..not sown. (Local.) N. England.

Unsee·ing, vbl. sb. (Un-1 12.) 1860 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. V. viii. § 14. 164 False seeing is unseeing,—on the negative side of blindness.

Unsee·ing, ppl. a. [Un-1 10, 5 d. Cf. OE. ungesēonde not yet seeing, MHG. unsehende (G. unsehend) in sense 2.]

†1. Unseen, invisible. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 25010 Wit þis word 'heuen' þou vnderstand Al gastli thing and vnseand.

2. Not seeing; lacking sight.

Freq. in recent use, esp. with eyes.

1591 SHAKS. Two Gent. IV. iv. 209 Else by Ioue, I vow, I should haue scratch'd out your vnseeing eyes. c 1600— Sonn. xliii, How would thy shadowes forme, forme happy show,.. When vnseeing eyes thy shade shines so? 1795 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc IV. 66 With a full eye, that of the circling throng And of the visible world unseeing, seem'd Fix'd upon objects seen by none beside. 1819 Monthly Mag. XLVIII. 33 As one who, pass'd from the real to the dreams, Rolls an unseeing eye on all beside. a 1830 LD. COCKBURN Mem. (1856) 27 Let the garden!..unseen and unseeing, it was a world of its own. 1873 MISS BRADDON Lucinda Donovan I. 57 He looked at the blind man's face with blank unseeing eyes. 1888 D. C. MURRAY Weaker Vessel ii, After an apparently unseeing glance at one of its pages.

3. With object: Without seeing.

1632 LITHGOW Trnv. X. 445, I haue gone eightesne lengues, ..vnseeing those of Ninies. 1798 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc (ed. 2) I. I. 124, I sat in silence,..unheeding and unseeing all Around me.

Hence Unsee·ingly adv.

1893 MARIE CORELLI Barabbas xxxiii, Barabbas went out, wandering almost unseeingly in the open street.

Unsee·king, ppl. a. (Un-1 5 d, 10.)

1583 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 386 Quhairintill his Hienes hes occupeit himself..unseiking the hurt and ruyne of quhatsumevir his subjectis. 1799 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 272 He might as well have been in England as a Poet, unseeking the situation which he chose and with his unseeking manners. 1878 MRS. STOWE Pogunuc P. xxiii. 207 Love faithful, devoted, unseeking of self, and asking only to bless.

†Unseel, v. Obs. [Un-2 3.]

1. trans. To unsew (the eyes of a hawk, etc.); fig., to open, unclose.

1530 PALSGR. 766/2, I unceyle a haukes eyes, or other bydes, I cut the stytches that closed his eyes togyther. a 1587 Q. ELIZ. in Puttenham Eng. Poesie III. xx. (Arb.) 255 Then dazeld eyes with pride, which great ambition blinds, Shalle vnseeld by myrthe vnfeynd. 1612 J. DAVIES (Heref.) Muse's Sacr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 37/1 Vnseele mine Eyes, that long thy Light to see. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. XI. XXX, Still to have toting waits unseel thine eyes In bed, at board.

2. To unsew or uncover the eyes of (a hawk, etc.). Also fig.

1530 PALSGR. 766/2 Unceyle your pigyon and..he wyll go from your hauke. 1575 TURBERV. Falconrie 91 Watche hir all that nighte that you unseale hir. 1612 WARNER Alb. Eng. xxix. 3[1]5 This Athiest and that Epicure grant thou whom they offend That I vncease, and of my Verse thy Glory be the end. 1618 LATHAM Falconry xxvii. 124 Let them haule the rest [sic doves] giues vnseild with some few feathers drawne from them. 1686 BLOME Gentl. Recr. II. 36 In the Evening by Candle-light unseel her, giving her something to tyre upon. 1748 CHAMBERS Cycl. Ver. Falcon, Give her a bit or two upon the Lure, and unseel her.

†Unseeled, obs. var. UNCEILED ppl. a.

1594 NASHE Unfort. Trav. I iij, Wiles I, thorough a cranne of any vpper chamber vnseeled, had beheld all this and spectacle.

†Unsee·liness. Obs. [Un-1 12. Cf. OE. ungesēlignes.] Unhappiness.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter xiii. 7 Forbreking and vnselines ai [are] in waies of þaim. c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. IV. pr. v. (1868) 131 þus see I wel..what biisfulnesse or ellys what vnselinesse is established in þe desertys of goode men and of theuys.

†Unsee·ly, a. Obs. [OE. unsēlig (un- Un-1 7 + sēlig SEELY a.), = MFris. on-, ünsēlich, NFris. unsaelig, MDu. onsēlich (Du. onzalig), MLG. unsalich, OHG. unsālig (MHG. unsālich, unselic, -ec, G. unselig).]

1. Of persons: a. Unfortunate, unhappy, miserable, wretched; deserving pity.

a 900 Juliana 450 Ic þec balsige..þæt þu miltsige me.. þæt [sic] unselig eall ne forweorþe. a 1023 WULFSTAN Hom. (1883) 52 Deofol..gedeð swa þuþ þæt, þæt unselig man wisdomes ne zymeð. c 1200 ORMIN 4812 Unnseliġ mann Amm icc cum eorþe þurrjenn. c 1275 St Patrick Hell 7 In O. E. Misc. 147 Vnsely gost hwat dostu here? c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. IV. pr. iv. (1868) 124 ȝit mot it nedes be þat shrewes ben more wrecches and vnsely. 1388 WYCLIF Rom. vii. 24 Y am an vncell man; who schal deliyver me fro the bodi of this synne? 14.. Seven Points Wisd. iii. (MS. Douce 114) fol. 108 Loo I vnselye..sowht abowte to gete me a wyfe. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid I. xi. 36 The ley vnsely Dido, For the mischief to come perceiuand, Ministrit nane. Ibid. V. viii. 86 Vnsilly wycht! quhow dit thi mynd inuaid Sic ane vnkyndness? 1595 PHILIPOT tr. Curio Exam. & Writ. (Parker Soc.) 418 Barbarous words by the which onto unsely [L. incauntis] and foolish folk they auaunt themselves to be marvelled at.

b. Bringing misfortune on oneself or others; unlucky; evil-doing, wicked.

a 900 Andreas 561 Þæt..Iudea cynn wiþ Godes bearne ahof hearmcwide, hæleþa unselīze. a 1200 St. Marher. 76 Sathanas the unseli, the..of þaiuais ilite so lahe. c 1205 LAY. 2531 Bi hire he bseide vnselimen ah beie weoren unseli. a 1300 Cursor M. 1223 Vnseli caym..Wit god and man þan was..hated. 1340–70 Alex. & Dind. 987 We ben ful wiþ no sinne for vnsely godus. c 1400 LOVE Bonaventr. Mirr. (1908) 225 How paciently..he receyueede that false feyned clippynge and traitoures cusse of that vnsely disciple. 1412–20 LYDG. Chron. Troy II. 4233 Vnhappy woman, cause of oure peyne, Hard & vnsely.

O. Animals: Miscellaneous, harmful.

13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 1562 Pe lorde..Swez his vncely swyn, þat swynges bi þe bonkkez, & bote þe best of his brachez þe bakkez in sunder. 1804 R. COUPER Poetry II. 84 My bacon ham..Th' unseely tyke has ta'en.

2. Of things, conditions, etc.: Causing or involving, accompanied by, misfortune or unhappiness.

a 900 Genesis 637 Sum hire æt heortan læȝ eeppel unsæliga. 13.. Metr. Hom. (MS. Ashm. 42) fol. 148 b, To þat ilk vncell lande þare he bees bonden fore and hand Full hard wiþ þe deuils band. 13.. Cursor M. 15842 (Gött.), 'Hi men,' he said, 'quat se er of ane vnseli roght'. c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. II. pr. iv. (1868) 39 þe most vnsely kynde of contrariouse fortune. 1412–20 LYDG. Chron. Troy II. 3249 A I Priam kyng! vnsely is þi chance! a 1450 Northern Passion (Lb.) 2024 We haue pleyd vnseli pawis. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid IV. Prol. 230 Lo! with quhat thocht, quhat bitternes and pane Luif vnsellyi bxidis in euery wycht! a 1868 Young Allan i, In Buchan's Ballads (1875) II. 11 There fell a crossing them among, On an unseelly time.

†Ui·see·m, a. Obs.[1] (Un-1 7 + SEEM a.) = UNSEEMLY a. 1, c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 139/11 Vnmesurabil laghter or vnsem and vnmanerly beryngne of body. Unsee·ming, pres. ppl. [Un-1 23.] Not seeming or appearing. 1588 SHAKS. L. L. L. II. i. 156 You..wrong the reputation of your name, In so vnseeming to confesse receyt Of that which hath so faithfully beene paid.

†Unsee·ming, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 10, 5 d.] Unbecoming, unseemly; = UNSEEMLYING a. 2.

a 1340 HAMPOLE Pauter lxxii. 25 Lo þis mannand þe vnsemand] þing folous. 1382 WYCLIF Prov. xxvi. 7 So vnsemende thing is the mouth of foolis a parable. 1535 STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 146 But quhois counsail nother prince nor Maist gif consent to sic vnsemand thing. 1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. 33 Cutte out of thy mynde superfluous and vnsemyng desyres. 1662 BAXTER Saint's R. III. xi. 473 Unsavoury, harsh, and unseeming [ed. 1650 unseemly] language.

b. In predicative use, sometimes with dependent clause.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 3891 He spake neuer displitiously,..Ne sagh, þat was vnsemond, slipped hym fro. c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 10029 Hit is foly and vnsemyng A man to leue on fals dremyng. c 1460 G. ASHBY Dicta & Dites 567 On erthe ther is no thing so vnsemyng As a kynge to fayle prediccion. 1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. 33 Cutte out of thy mynde superfluous and vnsemyng desyres. 1662 BAXTER Saint's R. III. xi. 473 Unsavoury, harsh, and unseeming [ed. 1650 unseemly] language.

Unseemly, adv. rare. [Un-1 11; cf. prec.] Unbecomingly.

†Unsee·mly, a.[1] (Un-1 7 + SEEMLY a.) = UNSEEMLY a. 1, c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 139/11 Vnmesurabil laghter or vnsem and vnmanerly beryngne of body. Unsee·ming, pres. ppl. [Un-1 23.] Not seeming or appearing. 1588 SHAKS. L. L. L. II. i. 156 You..wrong the reputation of your name, In so vnseeming to confesse receyt Of that which hath so faithfully beene paid.

†Unsee·mly, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 10, 5 d.] Unbecoming, unseemly; = UNSEEMLYING a. 2.

a 1340 HAMPOLE Pauter lxxii. 25 Lo þis mannand þe vnsemand] þing folous. 1382 WYCLIF Prov. xxvi. 7 So vnsemende thing is the mouth of foolis a parable. 1535 STEWART Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 146 But quhois counsail nother prince nor Maist gif consent to sic vnsemand thing. 1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. 33 Cutte out of thy mynde superfluous and vnsemyng desyres. 1662 BAXTER Saint's R. III. xi. 473 Unsavoury, harsh, and unseeming [ed. 1650 unseemly] language.

b. In predicative use, sometimes with dependent clause.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 3891 He spake neuer displitiously,..Ne sagh, þat was vnsemond, slipped hym fro. c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 10029 Hit is foly and vnsemyng A man to leue on fals dremyng. c 1460 G. ASHBY Dicta & Dites 567 On erthe ther is no thing so vnsemyng As a kynge to fayle prediccion. 1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. 27 Vnseamyng is it for loue of suche a meaue, to dispise the ende. 1556 BALE Eng. Votaries II. 29 Remembryngе..that nothynge was more vnseamyngе, than an olde doty ynge fole..so to rage.

c. Const. for or to.

1382 WYCLIF Prov. xxvi. 1 What maner snoȝ in somer... so vnsemende is to the fool glorie. c 1400 Destr. Troy 1846 Þat hynd..þat ye kepe in your company.. As suliiete vnto syn, vnsemyng for you. 1536 BELLENDEN Crom. Scot. (1821) I. 64 With thir, and sicliie inhumane cruelteis, unsemand to ane prince. 1592 WYRLEY Armorie 20 As these things are vnseeming for him to weare.

d. With direct object.

1592 GOLDING De Mornay (ed. 2) I. 12 He is tempted of his lustes, a thing altogether vnseeming the Godhead. 1620 MASON Newfoundland 5 Fishing is a beastly trade and unseeming a Gentleman. 1648 GAGE West Ind. 44 The beds only were unseeming this great state, very poor. 1901 Stanley's Hist. Philos. (ed. 3) 100, I think it most unseeming a Philosopher to sell his advice.

Hence † Unsee·mingness. Obs.

1540 WOART in Flügel Neuengl. Lesebuch I. 348 Here I allegid the vnseemingnes to gyve credence to his word.

Unsee·mingly, adv. rare. [Un-1 11; cf. prec.] Unbecomingly.

1619 A. Newman Pleas. Vir. (1840) 13 Euen some of.. tender age Vnseemingly can haue they wiil..carouse. 1656 Eirenikon 28 Love .. Vnseemingly doth not itself behave. 1829 Westm. Gaz. 23 Dec. 2/3 That ophthalmia is unseemingly rife still is proved by [etc.].

† Unsee·mily, adv. Obs. [UN-1 11.] = UNSEMELY adv.

1483 Cath. Angl. 320/2 Vn Semelily, indecenter, inconvenienter. a 1661 Holyday Juvenal (1673) 177 Such [gifts] as thou..dost unseemilye receive at the same times.

Unsee·mliness. [f. next, or UN-1 12.]

1. The quality of being unseemly in respect of action, conduct, etc.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 43 Unsemelynes schulde not hein Cristes Chirche. 1549 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. 2 Thess. iii. 11 b, Getting their liuynge with their owne handes, rather than to be greuous vnto other with shamles conuinges & vnsemelines. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 510/2 What vnseemelinesse soeuer is committed against God and his Church. 1678 Wanley Wond. Lit. World v. i. § 82. 466/2 The Emperour did expostulate the unseemliness of the deed with him. 1829 Lytton Devereux I. xiii, I saw the unseemliness of fighting with my preceptor, and a priest. 1871 Jowett Plato IV. 170 His virtue being such, that he never ..fell into any great unseemliness.

2. The quality of being unseemly in appearance; uncomeliness.

1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 23/1 The cleavinge in the lippes is such an vnseemlines and deformitye. 1603 G. Owen Pembrokeshire (1892) 44 Parchinge of the sunne, and starveinge with cold is a miserable case in vnseemlines of the comon people of the countrey. 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. I. 105 Johnson. It makes an unseemly appearance in the type. Tooke. The unseemliness is not equal to the absurdity.

Unsee·mly, a. [UN-1 7. Cf. ON. úsæmilig-r (Icel. ósæmilegur, Da. usømmelig, Norw. usømeleg, etc.).]

1. Unbecoming, unfitting; indecent.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. viii. 31 Often in song y have hem set. that is unsemly ther hit syt. 1338 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 171 Pei did a foule trespas, it was vnsemly ping. c 1400–50 Alexander 799 For soth it is vnsemelye sawes of a prynce. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/1 On-semely, indecens, inconveniens. 1542 Hen. VIII Declar. Scots Aiiv, With that vnsemely dissimulation, we were not a lytell moued. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. xlviii. § 4 Things in themselves vnholie or vnseemly we may not asker. 1645 Ussher Body Div. 218 That no unseemely behaviour proceed from us. 1692 E. Walker tr. Epictetus' Mor. I, Nor would they anything unseemly say. 1738 Wetenland Chr. Sacr. Expl. Appendix 1. 6 An unseemly Reflection upon.. The Sacrifices of God. 1791 Cowper Odyss. xvii. 213 A squalid beggar..in unseemly garb attir'd. 1844 Dibdin Libr. Comp. 616 Shall..all editions be passed over in a sort of unseemly silence? 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xvii. IV. 39 The news..threw him into a passion..which hurried him into many foolish and unseemly actions. 1871 Freeman Norm. Conq. xviii. IV. 155 To offer to William..an insult as unseemly as it was senseless.

absol. 1880 Sat. Rev. 7 Aug. 162/2 Partaking not a little of the unwise as well as of the unseemly.

b. Const. for († of, to) and with inf.

a 1300 Body & Soul in Mod's Poems (Camden) 335 Thous art unseemly for to see, uncomli for to cussen swete. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxii. (Clement) 659 Sayand, vnseemy ware to se cristine man begare to be. c 1445 Pecock Donet 139 Ful vnseemely and vntreuli it is to seie þat [etc.]. 1551 Recorde Pathw. to Knowl. i. Def, It shall not be vnsemely to call all suche shapes, formes and figures [etc.]. 1581 Mulcaster Positions ii. 5 It is a thing not vnseemely for me to deale in. 1583 Stubbes Anat. Abus. I. Pvij, How vnhonest seemer, or vnseemly of christian conuersation his argument be. a 1598 Rollock 1 Thess. (1606) 183 Any thing, that is vnsetting, or vnseemlie to this Christian calling. 1667 Milton P. L. x. 155 Unseemly to heare rule, which was thy part... had'st thou known thy self aright. 1843 Lytton Last Bar. VII. vii, Unseemly it may be for one of your quality..to quit this place with me.

c. sb. An unseemly thing.

1654 Whitlock Zootomia Pref. A ? The Candid Interpreter of modest Endeavours, not Exacter of Impossibles, or unseemlies.

2. Uncomely, unhandsome.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 5023 Þair bodys sal alle unsemely be, And foul, and ugly, opon to se. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 96 Which of alle kinde Of women is thinseimlieste. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. ii. 55 The dupe dale and durke vn-semely to see to. c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton) iv. xxxviii. (1859) 63 He found..an old vnsemely one. I ne can nought calle hyr ladye. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. iv. cciv. 198 The Erle..prayed his wyfe..ye shie wold..make her selfe as fowle and as vnsemely as she coude. 1581 Pettie Guazzo's Civ. Conv. ii. (1586) 114 A man of vnsemlie personage. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xvii. § 4 Their Faces stand closer or wider assunder, which is unseemly, when the Letter comes to be Printed. 1684 J. S. Profit & Pleas. United 138 If you buy your Bees, Observe they be..Smooth and Shining; Rejecting the Rough and unseemly Ones. 1898 Cruel Eng. & Arch. Trial. I. 304/2 Making the vessel frightfully crank and most unseemly to look at. 1843 James Forest Days ii, In other respects he was not an unseemly man. 1870 Dickens E. Drood i, He lies, dressed, across a large unseemly bed.

Unsee·mly, adv. [UN-1 11. Cf. ON. úsæmilega (Icel. ósæm-).] In an unseemly or unbecoming manner.

c 1375 Cursor M. 24501 (Fairf.), On him mi heued I shoke & saide, vn-semeli, leue sone, artow graide! a 1400 Morte Arth. 1044 Þe syghte had he rechide, How vn-semly that sott sat sowpaide hym one. c 1449 Pecock Repr. ii. x. 207 Ellis it wolde folewe that ther yn thei dilden vnaccordingli and vnsemeli. 1591 Drayton Harmonie of Ch., Song of Annah 8 Nor yet vnseemly speak such things, so proud and arrogant. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. 297 English women..rode very unseemely astride, like as men doe.

a 1641 Br. Mountagu Acts & Mon. (1642) 293 In which action hee..demeaned himself..unseemly for a King. 1725 Pope Odyss. I. 292 Von' jovial Troop..Unseemly flown with insolence and wine. 1871 B. Taylor Faust (1875) I. xii. 143 Ah, though I, in my conduct has he read it,—Something immodest or unseemly free?

Unsee·n, ppl. a. and sb. [UN-1 8 b, 12. Cf. OE. ungesewen, MDu. ongesien (Du. ongezien), OHG. ungesihan (MHG. ungesehen, G. -gesehen), NFris. unseen; ON. and Icel. úsénn, ósénn.]

1. Not seen; not apprehended by sight; unperceived, invisible.

a. c 1225 Leg. Kath. 1784 For he halt in his hond..alle ischepene þing, sehene & unsehene. a 1225 Ancr. R. 312 Þet wit & were'n us euer wid þe unseiene [v.r. unsehene] gostes. c 1375 Cursor M. 566 (Fairf.), Seule..has vnder-standynge clene of þinge sayde and vnseyne. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 217 If a man wol ben unsein, Withinne his hond hold clete the Dion, and be mai invisible gon. c 1440 Jacob's Well 263 No counseyl may be leyd in þe vnseyn & vnknowyn. B. a 1300 Cursor M. 566 Saul..has als vnderstanding clene O thing it seis and of vnsene. 1387-8 T. Usk Test Love i. Prol. (Skeat) I. 57 Wherthrough..arn the unsene privitees of god made to us sightful and knowing. c 1450 Henry Wallace x. 626 Off the out watch thus chapyt thai wnseyn. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems lxxxiv. 39 Haile, schene, vnseyne with carnane crowne! 1590 Spenser F. Q. II. i. 8 Himselfe he frees by secret meanes vnseene. 1644 Digby Nat. Bodies xiv. 148 When by meanes of an vnseene haire, they [sc. jugglers] draw light bodies to them. 1868 Cotton Wond. Peak 59 When a.. Ship..Suddenly strikes upon some unseen Rock. 1750 Gray Elegy 55 Full many a flower is born to blush unseen. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 27 [He] saw her there, and was not himself unseen. 1855 Tennyson Maud I. iv. v, Do we move ourselves, or are moved by an unseen hand ? 1867 H. Macmillan Bible Teach. Pref. p. xii, The work of the world is carried on by the unseen force of steam.

absol. 1829 Carlyle Misc. (1840) II. 226 The veil and mysterious Garment of the Unseen. 1842 Myers Cath. Th. iii. xxxiv. 125 Concerning the Unseen..no device..can preclude the possibility of Doubt.

b. Const. of (= by). Also absol.

a 1586 Sidney De Mornay Wks. 1323 III. 505 Looke up to the Unseen King..Who..unseene of any mortall wight, Beholdeth all things. 1829 Br. Hall Contemplat. N. xviii. iv, What an idleness it is for foolish hypocrites to hope they can dance in a net, unseen of heaven! c 1800 Cumberland John De Lancaster (1809) II. 161 Davis.. had entered the room unseen of young Owen. 1820 J. Baillie 1st Pt. Ethwald iv. iii, Through the dank and through the dry, Through th' unseen of mortal eye.

2. Not seen previously or hitherto; esp. † unfamiliar, strange, unknown.

a 1300 St. Marher. 10 Þa seh ha hwer set an unsehen unwiht.. blacere þen eose eri blamon. a 1300 Cursor M. 5946 Þe frosse deid all vp be-dene, þe hepes o þam war gret vnsene þat men gadird on þe grund. Ibid. 9091 Þat scrift was sorufull and vn-seuie, ..þat salamon yod vnder. a 1400–50 Alexander 2536 Be his set Philip son .. of fesiand folk Had sembild ane vnsene sowme. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love 69 Bot in treuth in me is to cume an vnsein loy. 1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. 25 If it be an vnsene and a hidden presumption, that the clay should with the potter pratle. 1592 R. D. Hypnerotomachia 55 A Diamond..of a huge and unseene bigness. 1604 E. G[rimstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies vii. xxiii. 565 A bird as bigge as a Crane,..but of a strange and vnseene form. 1669 Milton P. L. iii. 561 A Starr Unseen before in Heav'n. 1725 Berkeley Proposal, etc. Wks. 1871 III. 230 Unseen countries and after ages may feel the effects of his bounty.

† b. Of passages for translation: Not previously read. Hence sb., an unprepared passage.

1879 C. S. Jerram Anglice Reddenda Pref. An exercise book in 'unseen', that is, unprepared translations. 1888 Athenæum 30 Dec. 897/2 A proposal..to substitute 'unseens' for' set books' in..examinations. 1892 J. Engar (title), Latin Unseens. Ibid. 23 A specimen unseen from Livy. 1897 E. S. Smith (title), Greek Unseens in Prose and Verse.

† 3. Unskilled, inexperienced. Obs.

1606 Holland Sueton. 254 Neither was he unseene in Musick. 1663 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 279 Somewhat difficult to those who are as yet altogether unseen therein. 1682 T. Flatman Heraclitus Ridens No. 63 (1713) II. 142 For any Man now to wonder at it, would but shew him very much unseen in the English History.

† Unseenly, adv. Obs.—[Icel. ósénlegr] cf. unsegenlike s.v. Unsel 3.] Invisibly. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. viii. xxviii. (Bodl. MS.), þe vertu of liȝt worchep vnseynlich [L. invisibiliter] feling and meuynge in beestes.

Unse·gmented, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1848 Proc. Berw. Nat. Club II. 297 Body ovate, ventricose, ..even and unsegmented. 1873 Huxley & Martin Elem. Biol. 206 Its posterior unsegmented part..nearly as long as the segmented part.

Unsei·zable, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1862 R. H. Patterson Ess. Hist. & Art 44 Beauty,.. beaming forth like an essence, felt but unseizable, in the wide sunny landscape. 1885 Meredith Diana xiii, She swam above them in a cocoon of her spinning, sylphidine, unseizable.

† Unsei·ze, v. Obs. [UN-2 3.]

1. trans. To detach from something held or that holds; spec. in hawking.

1575 Turberv. Faulconrie 95 When she hath fedde, take it from hir and vniseaze hir. 1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Gusman d'Alf. I. To Vulgar, Who is hee that can be so happy as to..unseize himselfe from thy griping talons? 1635 Quarles Emblt. i. xii. 1 Be thy lips skrew'd so fast To th' earth's full breast? For shame, for shame unseize thee. Ibid. 3 Unseise thy lips. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Falcon, To which if she come well..and hastily seize it, let her cast two or three hits thereon. That done, unseize, take her off the Lure.

2. To let go, take one's hands off.

1663 Turk Adv. 5 Hours I. 8 He, at the stroke, unseas'd me, and gave back.

UNSELF.

Unsei·zed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

a 1400–50 Alexander 5334, I sall surely be saue vnseisid of þe herbrens. 1681 Dryden Ab. & Achit. I. 258 If unseiz'd, she glides away like wind; And leaves repenting Folly far behind. a 1700 Evelyn Diary 6 Sept. 1666, Watching at all places contiguous to unseized houses. 1818 Keats Endym. II. 464 He was..content to see his unseiz'd heaven dying at his feet. 1895 Nat. Counc. Congregat. Ch. (U. S.) 177 The unseized opportunities of this..mission field.

† Unsel, a. and sb. Sc. and north. Obs. Also 6 vnsall, -sale, -sell, 7 ouncel. [var. of Unsele a.]

1. adj. Unlucky, wretched; wicked.

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xv. 49 Gaile furth, I send 30u, I 30u tel, as lannyys amang wellis vnsel. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems xiv. 79 Off Sathanis senjie syne sic ane vnsall menjie ..was nevir hard nor sene. a 1583 Montgomerie Flyting 87 (Tullib. MS.), Arpit angrie Eitescolp, and auld vnsell alip. c 1614 J. Melville Diary (Wodrow Soc.) 49, I haiff dreamed an unsell dream.

b. As adv. Wickedly, vilely.

a 1583 Polwart Flyting w. Montgomerie 622 (Tullib. MS.), He was ane fals schismatik, notorlie namit; Baith burdone, & homecock, vnsell he vsit.

2. sb. A vile or worthless person; a wretch.

Kittie unsel (Sc.): see Kitty 1 2.

1551 Lyndesay Play 2038 (Bann. MS.), Quhat sayis thow, caitif, art thow Gud Counsale? Swyth, pass fra hence, vnhappy vnsale. a 1583 Montgomerie Flyting 282 There ane elf on ane ape ane vnsell begat. 1677 Nicolson in Trans. Royal Soc. Lit. IX. 321 Unsell, wretched fellow. 1691 Ray N. Co. Words (ed. 2) 150 Unsel, Nonien..opprobriosum. 1822 Jamieson s.v., In Dumfries-shire, Scenery unsell is a contemptuous designation applied to a child, by one who is in bad humour. 1894 Northumb. Gloss. 757.

b. The Evil One. rare.

c 1669 Colbatch One Some from Dead (1675) 27 He is right the Devils Child, the Cuncels Elfe. Ibid. 26.

† Unse·lde, adv. Obs. [OE. unseldan (*um-*Un-1 11 b + seldan: see Seld adv.), = Du. onselden, G. unselten, ON. úsjaldan.] = next.

Only in phr. with oft: cf. ON. oft úsjaldan.

a 950 Lacnu Eckw. & Guthrum Prol. in Thorpe Ags. Laws I. 166 þa witan eac, oft & unseldan þæt seolfe geniwodon. c 967 Canons of Edgar ibid. II. 278 Mislice men agyltaþ oft & unseldon þurh deofles scyfte. c 1320 Sir Tristr. 2313 Oft and vnselde Of triamour tok he pray.

Unse·ldom, adv. [UN-1 11 b. Cf. prec.] Not unseldom (unused for), not rarely, not infrequently.

Du. niet onselden is similarly used.

1658 W. Burton Itin. Anton. 204 It is a thing not unseldome seen. 1686 Parr Life of Usher 83 Gaming..too often administred to Passion,..and not unseldom to Duelling. a 1825 Miss. Sheridan Nun ii, They not unseldom spent the afternoon under the cedar-trees. 1860 Trench Deficiencies Eng. Dict. 64 Johnson..quotes, not altogether unseldom .., Hacket's Life of Archbp. Williams. 1882 Athenæum 23 Sept. 401/2 A style which was generally diffuse, and not unseldom obscure.

† Unse·le, sb. Obs. Forms: † unsel, 2-3 un-vnsel, 4-5 vnsell, -sele; 4 vncel(e, 5 vnceyll(e. [OE. unsél (un- Un-1 12 + sél Sele sb.) = ON. and Icel. úsæla, ósæla unhappiness.]

1. Unhappiness, misery; misfortune, ill luck.

c 1023 Wulfstan Hom. (1888) 236 þa deoflu..wæron on miclum unselum, and þa englas wæron on swiðe miclre blisse. c 1205 Lay. 3054 Uther wes on mode, a 1250 Owl & Night. 1263 Ich wolde per hi wel vnderstande scholde þat sum vnsel heom is ihende. c 1275 xi Pains Hell 50 in L. Misc. 149 Snaken..dreyeþ heom in-to a wel þer heo þolyeþ al vnsel. c 1298 R. Glouc. Chron. (1820) 278 þe Scottis I telle for sottis, & wrecchis vnwap, Vnseie dyntis to dele þam droun to Dunbar. 13.. Guy Warw. (A.) 1267 Of an vnsele y may 30u telle, & 3e wil a stounde duelle. a 1400 Hymns to Virgin (1892) 126 Þat þou..hep to sauen hem from vncele, So þat heore soules beo not schent. c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 5985 Ector thanne with mochel vnsele Graunted his askyng. c 1460 Towneley Myst. xii. 3 Here is mekyll vnceyll, and lyttyl has it last.

b. Unseemly matter. rare—.

a 1400 Minor Poems fr. Vernon MS. 503/377 Bi heore onswere þei wuste ful wel þat þei hedde spoken muchel vncel.

2. An improper time.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 13 3ef man haueð to done mid his rihte spuse on unsele oðer an untime þan man fiste sal.

† Unse·le, a. Obs. [OE. unsele (UN-1 7), = ON. and Icel. úʒ-, ósæll (Sw. osäll, Da. ussel), unhappy, wretched, Goth. unsēls evil, wicked. Cf. Sele sb.]

a. Unlucky, bad. b. Unfortunate, wretched.

c 1050 Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 421 Inprobus, unsele, þemah. a 1200 Moral Ode 199 Nere nanon elles ded ne sec ne nan vnsele. c 1275 Lay. 4868 þe king was onsaele þet he euere þoht wiþ Arthur to fihte. c 1300 Prov. Hendyng in Rel. Ant. I. 173 Holde ich no mon for vnsele Oþer whyle þah he sele Sum þyng þat him smerte. 13.. Cursor M. 6149 (Gött.), Þaim he did þair asking haue, Ilc to reue þat folk vn-sele.

Hence † Unse·le(d)ly adv. Obs.—

c 1275 Lay. 7022 Suþþen was his sone king, þat onselliche liuede.

Unsele·ct, a. (UN-1 7.)

1826 Miss Mitford Village Ser. II. 256 A prodigious bundle of autographs, particularly unselect. 1867 F. Fitzgerald 75 Brooke St. ix. xiii, Select, even in their unselect way. 1882 Athenæum 2 Sept. 299/1 The modern Jew as he lives and moves among the unselect.

Unsele·cting, ppl. a. (UN-1 10.) [1828–38 Webster.] 1895 Daily News 11 June 4/7 Reilists try to look at life with the unselecting eyes of the camera.

Unse·lf, sb. (UN-1 12.)

1822 Coleridge Lett., Conversa., etc. II. 116 There was neither self nor unself in the flesh..of pleasurable sensation. 1893 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ 11, 367 Let us examine ..whether His spirit of unself, or the spirit of self and of the world, be the more in us.

Unse·lf, v. (Un-² 6 b, 8.) Also Unse·lfed ppl. a., Unse·lfing vbl. sb.

1654 Whitlock Zootomia 265 Canst thou afford lying, Dissembling, ..and servile unselfing thy free born Minde, or Body? 1668 H. More Div. Dial. II. 28 God himself, who is that pure, free, and perfectly unselfed Love. 1765 J. Brown Chr. Jrnl. 286 O to be unearthed, unselfed, that I may be like him! 1806 Surr Winter in Lond. II. 121, I cannot unself or unsex myself sufficiently to write in the narrative form; it must be I—I—I, and all about me—me—me. 1898 Farrer Creator & Creature (1886) 55 Holiness is an unselfing of ourselves. 1868 Browning Ring & Bk. vii. 707 The grotesque intrigue To make me and my friend unself ourselves. 1890 J. Purshon Loyalty to Christ I. 39 His unutterable sympathy..and His utterly unselfed character.

Unselfcha·nging ppl. a., -deli·cious a., † -i·nteressed ppl. a., -know·ing ppl. a., -like a., -ness, -refle·cting, -va·luing ppl. adjs., -wi·lledness. (Un-¹ 7, † b, 8, 10, 12; cf. Self 1 e, 1 f.)

1591 Sylvester Du Bartas I. ii. 212 The World's owne Matter is the waxen Lump, which, un-self-changing, takes all kind of stamp. Ibid. iii. 1057 Such were not yeast Cincinnatus, Fabricius, Serranus, Curius, who vn-self-delicious,.. With ploughs triumphant plough'd the Roman lands. 1664 H. More Exp. 7 Epist. viii. 134 Thou art a lover of unity, un-self-interessed, a lover of no body. 1685 — Paraphr. Prophet. i. 465 That full, free, and absolute unself-interessed Good. 1649 Milton Eikon. ix. 78 He twitts them with his Acts of grace; proud, and unself-knowing words in the mouth of any King. 1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. ii. Columnes 195 All Solids dise (cast in the Aire) reflect Unself-like-forms: but in a Globe each tract seems still the same. 1886 G. Macdonald What's Mine's Mine xx. He would have attracted attention anywhere, if only from his look of quiet unselfness*. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. II. 69 Like an un-self-reflecting and an un-self-valuing* child. 1684 — Answer 242 The Wheels and living Creatures being ..acted by the spirit, does not signifie an Earthly state in them, but an Unselfledness*.

Unselfcon·scious, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1866 G. Macdonald Ann. O. Neighb. xxviii, Instances of quiet unselfconscious faith. 1884 Ruskin Fors Clav. xcvi. 286 One who has in some signal..unself-conscious way done her duty. 1899 S. Boone Rep. Lit. 146 This poem, belongs to the joyous, unself-conscious time.

So Unselfcon·sciousness.

Also, in recent use (1903–), unselfconsciously.

1838 J. Sterling Ess., etc. (1848) I. 199 One other great form of poetry, in which self-consciousness projects itself into external figures, and appears as unself-consciousness. 1894 Lucy H. M. Soulsby Home Rule 32 It may be urged that theatricals teach unself-consciousness, but this form of unself-consciousness is worth very little.

Unselfish, a. (Un-¹ 7. Cf. Da. uselvisk, Sw. osjälfvisk.)

1598 J. Norris Pract. Disc. IV. 289 That Noble and Generous, disinteressed and unselvish Kind of Love. 1714 H. Grove Spectator No. 588 P 2 Notwithstanding which, the Inclination is nevertheless unselfish. 1834 T. Keeles in Tracts for Times No. 43. 14 St. Paul, that most heroic, and (if there were such a word,) that most unselfish of men. 1852 Longf. Gold. Leg. Epil. 10 Rise up..And scatter with unselfish hands Thy freshness on the barren sands. 1882 McCarthy Own Times xi. III. 224 One of the most unselfish men that ever lived.

Hence Unselfishly adv., Unselfishness.

1812 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1836) I. 351 The unselfishness of self-love in the hopes and fears of ambition. 1850 Lynch Theoph. Trinal v. 77 A most womanly unselfishness. 1862 Shirley (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. v. 218 A cause, whose success demanded perfect union and unselfishness. Ibid. x. 435 Steady, sagacious, moderate, never unselfishly imprudent. 1863 Ouida' Held in Bondage I. 185 None will ever love you more unselfishly than I.

Unse·lfished, ppl. a. (Un-² 8.) Deprived of selfish qualities; rendered unselfish. 1643 W. Greenhill Ass at Knot A v, The Axe is at the root of our Tree, we hope your spirits are all unselfished, that none are now unpublique.

†Unse·lfly, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) 1609 Sylvester Du Bartas II. iii. III. Law 253 All Beings Be not (or else un-selfly be) But, from my Being, all their Being gather. Unse·lfing, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10; cf. Selfing ppl. a. 1.) a 1704 T. Brown Dial. Dead Wks. 1711 IV. 98 As a Bookseller hates an unselling Author. 1720 Humourist 124 As you may see in certain unselling Dialogues of the Art of Selling.

† Unse·lth. Obs. [OE. unsælþ (un- Un-¹ 12; also ungesælþ, see Un-¹ 3), = OHG. unsâlida, unsâlda, unsâlha (MHG. unsælde, MLG. unsâlde, etc.).] Unhappiness, infelicity, misery.

c 888 K. Ælfred Boeth. x, Þæt is seo mæste unsælþ on þys and weardan life. c 1000 Ags. Ps. (Thorpe) xiii. 7 Hie wilniaþ ealle mægne o þera manna unsælþa. a 1200 Moral Ode 374 Nis þer sorewe ne sor, ne mæne þan vn-sel'þ. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 3026 Þo wex vn-selþe on hem wel hard. c 1315 Shoreham i. 823 Na more ne greueþ hyt þesus..Þaȝ eny best denured hyt, O-er eny oþer onselþe. c 1425 Eng. Conq. Ireland 50 Enery selth hath vnselth at þe end.

Unsembly, obs. var. Unseemly a.

†Unse·minared, ppl. a. Obs.—[Un-² 8.] Deprived of virility. 1605 Shaks. Ant. & Cl. i. v. 11 Tis well for thee, That being vnseminar'd, thy freer thoughts May not fly forth of Egypt.

† Unse·ne, a. Obs. rare. [Un-¹ 7 + Sene a. Cf. OE. ungesène and ON. ósýnn.] Invisible; not obvious.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 47 On ure helenes lichame wiþuten sene, þe holie saule wiþinne unsene. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2878 Ic..swanc and michel sorwe dre; Þet ist vnsene bu ic it biteȝ?

† Unsensably, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) = Unsensibly adv. 1. a 1303 Hylton Scala Perf. ii. xxiv. (MS. Bodl. 592), Not in bodily likenesse but vnsensabili bi preuie hid presence of his goostly myst. † Unsensate, a. Obs.—[Un-¹ 7, † b.] Insensate. 1561 Eden Arte Navig. Pref., Yf they be lyuely members and not wythered or otherwyse vnsensate by reason of dead fleshe.

Unsensa·tional, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

Also, in recent use, unsensationalism, -ally adv.

1885 Pall Mall G. 8 Aug. 11 The name of a French novel, quiet and unsensational. 1881 'Rita' My Lady Coquette xxii, Altogether life is very drowsy and unsensational.

Unse·nse, v. [Un-² 6 b.] trans. To deprive of sense; esp. to render insensible.

1611 Florio, Disanaio, senseless, vnsensed, out of reason. 1793 Minstrel I. 185, I was a little unsensed by my sudden souse into the stream. a 1809 T. Paine Farmer's Dog Poems (1834) 163 And get such mischief by the hit As should unsense him of his wit. 1851 Borrow Lavengro I. 331 One blow given with the proper play of his athletic arm, will unsense a giant. 1895 Educat. Rev. Sept. 158 The mind has been unsensed or dematerialized.

Unse·nsed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1667 Jer. Taylor Disuasa. Popery ii. ii. § 2. 75 They tell you the Scripture is but a dead letter, Unsensed Characters, words without sense, or unsensed. 1675 R. Fleming Short Acc. Doctr. Rom. Ch. 6 They have no..authentick record to prove their Religion, but what is a Mass of dead unsensed Characters. 1734 Waterland Imp. Doct. Holy Trinity i. 18 We do not mean unsensed Characters, or empty Sounds. 1876 Mrs. Whitney Sights & Ins. vi, They were like apparitions shining out of the unsensed. 1897 F. Thompson New Poems 11 Incredible excess of unsensed sweet, And mystic wall of strange felicity.

† Unsensibility. (Un-¹ 12, 5 b. Cf. next.)

1551 Robinson tr. More's Utopia ii. (1895) 204 For to be wythowte greyfe, not hauinge health, that they call vnsensibylyte and not pleasure. a 1650 May Satyr. Poetry (1657) 13 A passionate Man is..nor Man nor Beast: for he wants the sence of the one, and in some kinde the vnsensibilitie of the other.

Unsensible, a. Obs. exc. dial. or as nonce-wd. [Un-¹ 7, 5 b.]

1. = Insensible a. 1.

c 1380 Wyclif Serm. Sel. Wks. II. 55 It was bigynnyng of tyme unsensible to mannis witt. Ibid. 148 Þei trowen to sensible wordis, and oþer signes þat men maken, but unsensible wordis of Goddis Sone..þei trowen litil or nouȝt. c 1400 Apol. Lolld. 70 To a-wo wrote is, a resonable creature to obey him to his souereyn, to kep sum hard þing þat is sensible, or vnsensible. 1534 More Treat. Passion Wks. 1335/2 Vnder auye of the twoo outwarde sensible Sacraments, and while inwarde vnsensyble Sacraments..is..fullye conteyned. 1581 E. Campion in Confer. iii. (1584) Q j b, That you say vnsensible, it is true, if you meane the spirituall grace, which is not subject to sense. 1587 Golding De Mornay xiii. 285 To extend reason from..things sensible to things vnsensible,..from bodily to spiritual. 1656 M. Casaubon Enthus. To Rdr., Neither do I think so meanly of any truth, that can be reduced to any reality, whether sensible or unsensible.

b. = Insensible a. 1 b.

1545 Raynald Byrth Mankynde V vj, The blud the whiche daylye and hourely, by vnsensyble swettinge euaporatith. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia i. xiii, It being set upon such an unsensible rising of the ground, as you are come to a prety height before almost you perceive that you ascend. 1614 Brerewood Lang. & Relig. 12 For which reason, the corruption of speech growing upon them, by little and little, the change hath been unsensible. 1633 Prynne Histrio-m. 957 Sin becomes extreamely vitious on a sudden, but by unsensible gradations.

c. Imperceptible by reason of minuteness.

1551 Recorde Pathw. Knowl. i. Def., A Poynt..is named of Geometricians that small and vnsensible shape, whiche hath in it no partes. 1577 Digges Pantom. i. xv. B ij, The angle..groweth so acute, and vnsensible, that great errour ensueth the least mistakyng. 1600 Fulbecke Pandectes 9 The present time is so small and unsensible, that it is almost of no continuance.

2. = Insensible a. 2.

1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 53 If the greefes of them bee to thee vnsensible by reason of thy..longe sickenes.

3. = Insensible a. 3 a.

c 1532 Tindale Answ. More Wks. (1572) 279/1 [Christ] dyed not to purchase such honour voto vnsensible thinges, that [etc.]. c 1555 Harpsfield Divorce Hen. VIII (Camden) 250 Unless he be as unsensible as a man that will put and hold his finger in the hot fire and say the fire burneth not. 1583 Melbancke Philotimus S ij, The two vnsensible pictures. 1612 Cotgr., Cal, a thicke, and vnsensible skin, or brawnie hardnesse of skin. 1627 Lisander & Cal. i. 11 The secret places of Calista's affection, which were not marble, nor of such unsensible matter. 1697 W. Hubbard Narrative Postscr. 10 This unsensible and hardhearted Monster answered, he liked it very well.

b. = Insensible a. 3 b, 3 c.

1568 Turner Herbal iii. 50 Rasis in his Simples writeth that the Mandrake hath num or vnsensible. a 1626 Bacon & Fl., Wit without M. ii. Yet Your Land has lain long bedrid, and unsensible. 1632 J. Hayward tr. Biondi's Eromena 191 Her often swounding kept her alive by making her become unsensible of the sharpenesse of the paine which shee felt. 1669 Worlidge Syst. Agric. 160 When the doors are shut..they [sc. bees] are dark, and unsensible of so small a heat. 1891 in G. L. Gower Surrey Words (1893) 44, I was unsensible for loss of blood.

4. = Insensible a. 4 a.

(a) 1610 Heywood Gold. Age iv. i, Vnsensible of loue, or amorous pitty. 1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. viii. (1626) 167 They the time beguile with speech: Vnsensible of stay. 1692 South Serm. (1697) I. 498, I mean not, that he is unsensible of the good it self, but that..he is wholly possess'd ..of the Benignity of him that does it. a 1804 in Miss Betham Biog. Dict. Celebrated Women 452 She thought herself..too unsensible of our Lord's love to her.

(b) 1603 Gerbier Counsel a ij, It would doubtlesse make me pass for uncensible, how your Majesty..inherited that same clemency. 1664 Ingelo Bentiv. & Ur. v. 39 One not altogether unsensible that he hath over-charg'd his Vocation with burthensome Cares. 1719 W. Wood Surv. Trade 224, I am not unsensible, how very disadvantagious it is for us [etc.]. 1735 J. Price Stone-Br. Thames 16, I am not unsensible that it may be suggested [etc.].

b. = Insensible a. 4 b.

1619 J. King Serm. 5, I thinke there is none so unsensible that is not moved hereat. 1650 O. Sedgwick Christ the Life 26 Dull and unsensible men; of such did one long since complain, That [etc.]. 1676 Etherredge Man of Mode II. 1 Team. Meninies you speak very dislingly, Brother. Old Bell. I am but Five and Fifty, Sister, you know, an Age not altogether unsensible! a 1699 J. Kirkton Hist. Ch. Scot. (1817) 65 Many a solber man was tempted to exceed, lest he should be condemned as unnatural, disloyal, unsensible.

5. = Insensible a. 5.

1560 Pilkington Expos. Aggeus Dd ij, Lyke vnreasonable beastes and vnsensyble. 1565 Stapleton Fortr. Faith 136* What is now more reuiled of vnsensible protestants then the shauen crowne of reuerent priesthood? a 1586 Sidney Arcadia i. iv, He found some of his answers..not unsensible. 1814 [Mary Brunton] Discipline xxii. III. 26 The poor lad was not so unsensible, but he knew to do his bidding. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. xiv, When the drink's out o' 'em, they aren't unsensible.

6. Not showing good or sound sense.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xix, For nothing can be more unsensible, then to thinke what one doth, & to forget the end why it is done. 1858 Bagehot Lit. Stud. (1879) II. 154 The strongest unsensible feeling in Scott was perhaps his Jacobitism.

† Unse·nsibleness. Obs. [Un-¹ 12 and 5 b. Cf. prec.] Insensibility.

a 1568 Coverdale Bk. Death xxxvii. (1579) 127 That is a very blockish vnsensibleness of wilde maddes furious people. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. xxviii. 5 Through stubbornnesse [they] harden themselues vntoo vnsensibleness. 1603 Florio Montaigne ii. xii, I commend not that vnsensibleness, which is neither possible nor to be desired. 1676 I. Mather K. Philip's War (1862) 94 Our great unsensibleness of the Displeasure of the Lord, in suffering these abominations to be perpetuated. 1736 Bailey (fol.), Indolency, unsensibleness of Pain or Grief.

† Unse·nsibly, adv. Obs. [Un-¹ 11, 5 b.]

1. = Insensibly adv. 1.

1627 Abp. Abbot in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 444 So being unsensibly hatched, it came flying into the World. 1679 C. Nesse Antichrist 213 It stole into the world..unsensibly, and at unawares.

b. Unknowingly, unconsciously.

1658 J. Jones Ovid's Ibis 127 Though unsensibly she shed bitter tears for her transgression.

2. = Insensibly adv. 2.

1565 Jewel Reply Harding 217 That after so many wordes ..ye should be founde so nakedly, and so vnsensibly to deceiue the people. 1596 Spenser State Ireel. Wks. (Globe) 622/2 The later [statute]..is soe vnsensibly contryved that it scarce carryeth any reason in it.

† Unse·nsical, a. Obs.—[Un-¹ 7.] Nonsensical. 1692 S. Johnson Argument 18 His Unsensical Apotheqm, 'No Bishop, no King'.

Unse·nsitive, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 7 and 5 b.)

Also, in recent use (1895–), unsensitiveness.

1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 283 One [soul] lining in all bodies vnsensitive, onely hauing life. 1816 Monthly Mag. XLI. 209 But figures never affect the feelings; numerical calculations go on in an unsensitive part of the mind. 1838 Mill Diss. & Disc. (1859) I. 223 In a world which, for any thing we know, is the place of contentment. 1881 P. Brooks Candle of Lord 273 Some knowledge which the life in its best health was too hard and unsensitive to take.

Unsensitized, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 a c.) 1889 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. II. 53 An unsensitized piece..will soon cause discoloration on any sensitized paper placed against it.

† Unse·nsive, a. Obs.—[Un-¹ 7.] Not perceptible by the senses. 1616 J. Lane Contn. Spr.'s T. x. 284 Feare bears it knowne, though (offen) we know how, Yea ofte b' vnsensive meanes (as clerkes avowe). Unse·nsual, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1850 Lynch Theoph. Trinal v. 76 Wisdom hath a pure unsensual love. 1866 Sat. Rev. 5 Mar. 255/2 It is true, that..Plato dwells prominently on the anti-sensual, or at least on the unsensual, side of love.

Unse·nsualize, v. (Un-² 6 c.)

1792 W. Roberts Looker-on No. 29 (1794) I. 410 Love is so unsensualized and sublimed above passion, that it has forgotten its old retreats. 1796 Coleridge Destiny of Nations 80 For Fancy is the power That first unsensualises the dark mind, Giving it new delights. a 1849 H. Coleridge Ess. (1851) II. 147 Certain divines who thought to unsensualize mankind by making the body as disgusting as possible. 1889 Spectator 7 Sept., An almost Pharisaic observance of the rites and ceremonies which unsensualised them.

Unse·nsuous, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1850 Mrs. Browning Sonn., H. S. Boyd 12 Till Sensuous and Unsensuous seemed one thing. Viewed from one level. 1862 R. A. Vaughan Mystics I. 270 The higher calm of unsensuous, imageless contemplation.

Unse·nt, ppl. a. Also 8 Sc. unsenn. [Un-¹ 8 b and 8 c. Cf. ON. ósent (Da. usendt).]

1. Not sent for, unsummoned. (Cf. b.)

c 1530 Crt. of Love 174 Of your free will ye should have come unsent. 1777 Ramsay Elegy Lucky Wood ii, Death, wha came unsenn To Lucky Wood.

b. With for expressed.

1501 Plumpton Corr. (Camden) 157 If I wold come up unsent for. 1598 Dallington Meth. Trav. X 3 b, They take one of a suddaine, comming vnlooked for and vnsent for. a 1641 Br. Mountagu Acts & Mon. (1642) 298 Herod, unsent for, went to visit him. 1673 Wycherley Gentl. Dancing-Master v, We Fiddlers, Sir, often come unsent for. 1717 De Foe Mem. Ch. Scot. ii. 36 But Mr. Andrew Melvin ..went unsent for. 1752 Richardson Grandison (1781) IV. xiv. 104 That no third person, unsent for, can be welcome.

2. Not sent or dispatched.

In recent use esp. of letters or telegrams.

c 1550 Crowley Inform. & Petit. iv b, The same Spirite..

wytnesseth wyth my conscience that I renne not vnsent. c 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia i. vi. He armed himselfe, and those few of his servants he had left unsent. 1608 DOD & CLEAVER Expos. Prov. xi-xii. 122 That we goe not unsent. 1647 JER. TAYLOR Lib. Proph. vi. 124 More able men may be unsent then sent. 1841 Phoenix Mag. Jan. 111/1 Ye come un here unsent, and ye maun perform your errand. 1855 KINGSLEY Westw. Ho! xxvii, Her strange affection for the English was not unsent by Heaven.

b. With adv. or preps.

1549 PAGET in Froude Hist. Eng. (1860) V. 782 Send for all the council that be remaining unsent abroad. 1606 BP. HALL Heaven upon Earth xiii. Wks. (1625) 83 Thy heauenly Physician...vnsent to, sends thee...a soueraigne remedie. 1653 in Picton J. Syal Munic. Rec. (1883) I. 176 Whyle they stay at home unsent away.

Unsentenced, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1526 Customs of Pale in Archæol. (1893) LIII. 373 The king's iudicate officers..shall suffer no accion to departe unsentenced before them. 1612 Two Noble K. v. i. 163, I could doouble neither; that which perish'd should Goe too't unsentenc'd. 1661 HEYLIN Hist. Ref. Q. Mary (1670) 6 The King..privately marryeth her within few days after his return, the divorce being yet unsentenced betwixt him and the Queen. 1822 BENTHAM Scotch Judicat. iv. ii, Some vengeance will fall on us in the night if he remain unsentenced. 1862 SHIRLEY (J. Skelt m) Nugæ Crit. 140 To leave them rather unsentenced and in hope to the mercy.. which alone can fully extenuate..their guilt. 1896 Harper's Mag. April 672/2 The secular judge..forgot his duty, and Joan went to her death unsentenced.

Unsententious, a. [1775 ASH.] 1846 WORCESTER (citing Qu. Rev.).

Unsentient, ppl. a. (UN-1 7 and 5 b.)

1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 315 We may admit a sentient composed of unsentient parts. Ibid. 533 An eternal First Cause, whether intelligent or unsentient. 1835 J. YOUNG Lect. Intell. Philos. xviii. 485 There could be no sensation in an unsentient being. 1864 BOWEN Logic xiii. 422 Only in the sentient mind, and not in the unsentient matter of the body.

Unsentimental, a. (UN-1 7.)

1810 SCOTT in Lockhart (1839) III. 228 The despair.. gave me a most unsentimental turn of mind. 1841 Literal letters. 1853 C. BRONTE Villette xxi, Never man had a more unsentimental mother than mine. 1898 HADDON Stud. Man xiv. 409 An unsentimental survival of this pretty custom.

Hence Unsentimentality; -mentally adv.

1824 HOOK Sayings & Doings III. 168 Gaieties..calculated ..to enliven and unsentimentalize the mind. Ibid. Ser. II. I. 28 The improprietry and unsentimentality of her behaviour. Ibid. xiv. III. 300 She was..most unsentimentally employed in swallowing a very hearty supper. 1837 Lewis Lett. (1870) 84 For the sake of..unsentimentalizing the cause of the Catholic clergy. 1847 L. HUNT Men, Women, & B. II. ii. 25 The unsentimentalizing effects of the gallantry of the court of Charles II.

Unsentinelled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1817 Edin. Rev. XXVIII. 87 The old castle..was ungarrisoned and unsentinelled. 1859 All Year Round No. 36. 219 A huge gateway, not unsentinelled.

†Unseparable, a. Obs. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1398 TREVISA Bartl. de P. R. XVII. v. (Bodl. MS.), ye onynge is vnseparable so pat pei mowe not afterward be parted atwynne. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 495/1 Was himself..companion to saynt Poule, & that so continuall and so vnseparable, yt..he neuer departed from him I 456/1. HARV. Castleftonial (1635) 1 pt. iv. X ii b, This is the beawtye vnseparable from the high bountye. 1587 GOLDING De Mornay v. 67 Fire..hath in it both heate and brightnesse vnseparable. 1645 MILTON Divorce (ed. 2) i. i. 7 The first institution will be objected to have ordain'd marriage unseperable. 1697 JEREMY COLLIER Ess. Mor. Subj. I. 5 Self-love..is an unseparable Passion of humane nature. 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 14/2 Placed between two Words joyned together in unseparable Concord.

Hence Unseparableness.

1587 FENNER Def. Ministers 116 Hee maketh the case of both alike in regarde of the propertie and vnseparableness of the bande.

†Unseparably, adv. Obs. (UN-1 11 and 5 b.)

1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 514/2 And with them the godhead vnseparably. 1586 W. WEBBE Eng. Poetrie (Arb.) 80 Thys verse is alwayes vnseperably adioyned vnto the Hexameter. 1626 CALLIS Stat. Sewers (1647) 14 A pretty difference, where the act to be done is unseparably tied to ones person, and where not. 1658 S. CLARKE Scripture Justif. iv. 18 That Pardon is unseparably join'd with Justification.

†Unseparate, ppl. a. Obs. (UN-1 8 b, 5 b; cf. next.) Hence †Unseparateness. Obs.[1] 1553 Short Catech. in Liturgies, etc. (Parker Soc.) 513 True faith and works bee vnseparate. 1563 FOXE A. & M. 420 As heat followeth euer with the fire vnseparate there from. 1591 JAS. I Lepanto, Chorus Angel. 11 Our onlie one vnseparate, And yet in persons three. 1668 H. MORE Div. Dial. I. 121 Then Rest and Unseparateness of parts are all one,..and *Unseparateness and Union all one.

Unseparated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1545 COVERDALE Def. Certain Chr. Man E iiij b, Therfore will we discerne these thre thinges,..but so that they remayne vnseparated. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades III. vi. 371/1 He being one and the same Christ vnseparated. 1620 QUARLES Medit. i, Three special Attributes of God ..., all Vnseparated From Gods pure Essence. a 1672 LD. FAIRFAX Hom. (1699) 99 The two Houses of Parliament.., so great an Authority which was then unseparated from the Royal interest. 1725 POPE Odyss. x. 585 To whom Persephone, entire and whole, Gave to retain th' unseparated soul. 1860 FARRAR Orig. Lang. ii. 44 The field and the snow were unseparated. 1893 TUCKER Amphioxus 104 The unseparated mesoblast fold.

†Unseparately, adv. Obs. rare. (UN-1 11, 5 b.) Inseparably. 1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong, Indissoluble-ment, vnseparately. 1593 NASHE Christ's T. A ij, She thought the Lord vnseparately tyde to his Temple. Unse·ptate, a. Bot. (UN-1 7.) 1900 JACKSON Gloss. Bot. Terms 283 Unseptate,...applied to a plant which has not partitioning divisions.

Unsepulted, a. Bot. (UN-1 8 a.) 1899 J. R. GREEN Soluble Ferments xx. 325 A fungus which developes a much-branched unseptated mycelium.

Unse·pulchre, v. (UN-1 5.) 1846 in Gosport Exp. 217 As his ploughshare unsepulchred the 'empty helmets and the mighty bones' of the buried foemen.

Unse·pulchred, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

c 1611 CHAPMAN Iliad XXII. 306 Dead, vndeplor'd, Vnsepulchred; for lies at fleete. 1624 QUARLES Sion's Elegies ii. 21 Unpityed and unburthred people lye. 1795 SOUTHEY Joan of Arc IX. 42 For hills of human slain, unsepulchred, Steam pestilence. 1816 BYRON Ch. Har. III. lxiii, The Stygian coast Unsepulchred they roam'd, and shriek'd each wandering ghost. 1862 GRATTAN Beaten Paths I. 129 To discover the unsepulchred, uncoffined, and uncerclothed tailor, standing stiff against the chapel wall.

Unsepulted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1847 WEBSTER.] 1862 R. H. PATTERSON Ess. Hist. & Art 269 Some unsepultured one, who had departed to join the troop of shivering ghosts. 1897 GOMME C. Macfarlane's Camp of Refuge Introd. p. lxv, The cause that so many men were slaughtered and lay unsepultured. †Unseq·ster, v. Obs. (UN-1 2.) 1564 KATH. PHILIPS Poems 140 By a flame from thy blest Genius lent.. Unsequester our Fancies, and create A Worth that may upon thy Glories wait. Unseq·stered, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1654 WHITLOCK Zootomia 149 Which if impartially considered, our Libraries might be reprieved, and our Colledges unsequestred. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. XI. iii. § 6 His unsequestred Spirit so supported him, that [etc.]. Unserene, a. (UN-1 7.) 1664 INGELO Bentin. & Or. v. 124 How unserene are all the Joyes..upon Earth! 1829 LAMB in The Gem 26 The sad orbs..blinded through unserene drops for her dead son.

Unse·rious, a. (UN-1 7.)

1655 EARL ORRERY Parthen. II. v. 493 To speake any thing unserious. 1673 ELAVEL Saint Indaret 199 Frothy, vain and unserious persons. 1755 WESLEY Wks. (1872) II. 326 Any one who behaved in a light or unserious manner. 1860 HAWTHORNE Fr. & It. Note-bks. (1872) II. 337 A plaything, a trifle, an unserious affair.

Hence Unse·riousness.

1680 H. DODWELL Two Lett. (1691) To Rdr. 8 9 The lives and unseriousness of some of our conformable Clergy.

Unserrated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1840 Cuvier's Anim. Kingd. 79 The edge of the long inferior incisors is unserrated.

Unse·rved, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not served or furnished with something; not attended to.

c 1350 Leg. Rood (1871) 85 Sen sekenes es sent to be þir men sull noght vnserued be, þat sall haue nayles or þai ga. 1433 Rolls of Parli. IV. 439/1 Yf I shuld paye hem, youre Household, Chambre and Warderope..shuld be unservid and unpaide. 1542 UDALL Erasm. Apoph. 302 Onely Phocion was remayning unserued by reason that the poison had been all consumed by the others. a 1585 MONTGOMERIE Cherry & Slae 1083 Who came uncald, unserv'd shuld sit. a 1600 DELONEY Jack of Newbrie iv, Well, looke there be not one hoop vnserued. 1624 Heresie 12 Some of his people I hope will turne your golden..Coates into Coates of Male, ..rather then your Soueraigne..shall bee vnserued. 1786 R. HEATHCOTE Sylva (1788) 256 His boy therefore sent away unserved to his master. 1802 R. ANDERSON Cumbld. Ballads 79 The witch weyte hegg'd in our back seyde, But went unsarra'd away. 1832 HT. MARTINEAU Hack & All iii. 33 Conscience awakes..to the cry of unserved humanity. 1899 Daily News 3 Nov. 7/6 Several of their unserved guns were shelled vigorously.

b. spec. Not attended to by a priest or incumbent. (See SERVE v. I 4.)

The app. early instance in Wyclif's De Ecclesia is prob. an error for 'unterned', the reading of MS. Bodl. 988.

1562 in Strype Ann. Ref. (1709) I. xxxi. 312 So that the people be not unserved or destitute of a reasonable minister. 1587 HOLINSHED Chron. (ed. 2) III. 1142/1 Where through died manie..priests, so that a great number of parishes were vnserued. 1643 BAKER Chron., Q. Mary 106 This year.. was great mortality, and specially in Yorkshire, so as many Churches were unserved. 1765 BLACKSTONE Comm. I. 466 It permits an infant to present a clerk..rather than..suffer the church to be unserved till he comes of age.

2. Not worshipped, regarded, or observed.

1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) II. 85 Þese feyned goddes.. beep i-serued in Chestre...þan is Pluto not vnserued, god of helle. 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 355 The cherche is brent, the priest is slain,..The law is lore and god unserved. c 1450 Merl. 1 Kelt 267 Mony seynyte-slayes we beuen yu þe gere vnserued; for þay ben so mony þat we ne mowe hem all. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 495/2 Nor saint Paule..meaneth not yet they shall leave the sacraments vnserued which God hath taught.

3. Law. = OF WRITS, SUMMONSES, etc.: Not served upon a person.

1465 Paston Lett. II. 201 The shyryf sayd playnly that he.. derst not serve it [sc. a writ],..and so it ys yet unservyd. 1476 Acta Auditorum (1839) 49/2 Þe persons of þe inquestes allegeit before þe lordis þat he said breve wes vnseruit. 1908 Daily Chron. 10 Jan. 5/5 The commissionary were withdrawn, and the processes remained unserved.

†b. Sc. Not returned as their. Obs.

1490 Acta Dom. Conc. (1839) 125/2 Patrik and William.. sall nocht fortifyr þe partij þat beis one seruit be that inquest.

4. Not served up.

1891 RUSKIN Pers Lanc. III, The waiter then and there packed his knapsack and departed,..leaving my dinner unserved.

5. With for: For which service has not been done.

1555 Inv. Ch. Goods (Surtees) 157, xij li bequeithed..to the finding of a prieste there for iij yeares..., whereof remayned unserved for at the tyme..., xiijs. iiijd.

†Unservisable, a. Obs.[1] (UN-1 7 b.) Unserviceable. 1544 BETHAM Precepts War I. xcii. E vj b, They [sc. gunners] be vnseruysable, and can do no good. †Unservice. Obs. (UN-1 4 b, 12.) 1611 FLORIO, Disservitu, vnseruice, disseruice. 1624 MASSINGER Parl. Love I. v, Where you tax us for unservice, lady, I never knew a soldier yet that could Arrive into your favour.

Unserviceable, a. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.]

1. Of things: Not capable of being employed for their proper purpose.

1535 Wardr. Kath. Arragon 33 in Camden Misc. III, The thurde (chair) is broken and unserveable. 1590 SPENSER F. Q. I. xi. 25 The beast..his late wounded wing vnseruiceable found. 1600 in St. Papers, Dom. (1869) 4/3 The chiefters [= signets] having become unserviceable from long use. 1663 BOYLE Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. App. 328 Besides a not despicable quantity of terrestrial and unserviceable matter. 1690 LOCKE Hum. Lind. III. iii. § 17 The supposition ..is so..unserviceable to any part of our knowledge. 1713 BERKELEY Guard. No. 35, His intellectuals, I observed, were grown unserviceable by too little use. 1737 tr. Le Comte's Mem. & Remarks (Dive Pref.), They might not be unserviceable to those who might..take up such a design. 1801 Farmer's Mag. Aug. 339 The horse I hire..may be in any degree serviceable or unserviceable. 1830 H. N. COLERIDGE Grk. Poets 2 A perusal of these introductions may not be unserviceable to merely well educated readers. 1857 DICKENS Dorrit I. xxxii, What with her flapping cap, and..her unserviceable eye.

b. spec. Of ships, guns, etc.

1610 HOLLAND Camden's Brit. 35 The ships..so shaken with the tempest, that they became altogether unserviceable. 1618 in Essex Rev. (1908) XVII. 102 The moderne use doth altogether exclude the caliver as unserviceable. 1707 Lond. Gaz. No. 4302/2, 10 Ships were destroyed..., and several others rendred wholly unserviceable. 1748 Anson's Voy. II. iv. 106 Three four pounders, which were altogether unserviceable. 1811 Regul. & Orders Army 91 The disposal of Unserviceable Arms. 1865 CAMERON Malayan India 246 It is not that the guns are unprincipled..but that they are unserviceable. 1876 VOYLE & STEVENSON Milit. Dict. 446/2 Unserviceable, the term is applied..to all stores which are no longer of use, being either obsolete or worn out.

2. Of persons: Unable to be of service; not rendering service or help; useless.

1598 HAKLUYT Voy. I. 240 We have too much living, and are unserviceable to your prince, lesse will serue you. 1614 W. B. Philosophers Banquet (ed. 2) 121 One that would be vnseruiceable to him, and vnprofitable to the Common wealth. 1655 Nicholas Papers (Camden) I. 1. 217, I think since tell you this poore man would be made onseruiceable to you. 1856 KANE Arct. Expl. II. i. 13 Our sick are about the same;..McGary and Riley unserviceable. 1865 DICKENS Mut. Fr. III. ii, I am an unserviceable friend of hers.

b. spec. Not capable of rendering military (or naval) service.

1596 SPENSER State Irel. Wks. (Globe) 653/2 The rebells.. will turne away all their rascall people, whom they thinke unserviceable. 1601 SHAKS. All's Well iv. iii. 152 Fine or sixe thousand, but very weake and vnseruiceable: the troopes are all scattered. 1681 LUTTRELL Brief Rel. (1857) I. 151 Poor soulsiers rendred unserviceable by age, wounds, &c. 1786 BURKE Art. agst W. Hastings Wks. 1842 II. 191 The country troops..would be ill-disciplined and unserviceable, if not worse. 1894 MASSYAT P. Simple I. 124 Some of them were retained, but most of them sent on shore as unserviceable. 1881 JOWETT Thucyd. I. 146 The Plataeans had already conveyed to Athens their wives,..with the rest of their unserviceable population.

trans. 1867 SMYTH Sailor's Word-bk. 707 Unserviceable ticket; this is made out in the same manner, and requires the same notations, as a sick-ticket.

3. Marked by disinclination to be of service.

1614 RALEIGH Hist. World v. vi. 657 Such men of mote.. as had any wayes discovered an vnseruiceable disposition towards the Romans.

4. Prejudicial, disadvantageous.

1698 NORRIS Pract. Disc. IV. 386 To reform his Temper, which I'm afraid is more unserviceable to Religion than any Hypothesis of Mine can be.

Hence Unserviceability.

1884 Cyclists' Tour. Cl. Gaz. Nov. 335/2 The unserviceability of the new substitute.

Unserviceableness. (UN-1 12; cf. prec.)

1612 COTGR., Inutilité,..vnseruiceableness. 1640 SANDERSON Serm. (1681) III. 172 The unserviceableness of any thing to edification. 1683 PEPYS Diary at Tangier in Life, etc. (1841) I. 452 The unserviceableness of the Mole by reason of those winds. a 1832 BENTHAM Draught of Code Wks. 1843 IV. 309 How many bad and unserviceable ones have, by this very unserviceableness, become popular! 1864 MISS YONGE Trial II. 20 The unserviceableness of his maimed arm.

Unserviceably, adv. (UN-1 11.)

1612 COTGR., Inutilement,..vnseruiceably. 1661 BEVERIDGE Priv. Th. (1709) 15 What is the reason, I have hitherto liv'd so unserviceably to God? 1711 WOODWARD Nat. Hist. Earth I. 48 It..does not enlarge the Dimensions of the Globe, or..lye idly and unserviceably there.

Unse·rvicelike, a. (UN-1 7 c.) 1614 ANDREWES Serm. on Easter Day 39 They are not unseruicelike our seruice is.

Unse·rvile, a. (UN-1 7.)

1701 COLLIER M. Aurel. iv. xliv. 6x Does the present Accident hinder your being Honest..and Unservile? 1773 MRS. GRANT Lett. fr. Mount. (1807) I. ii. 19 We are charmed with..unservile courtesy in the lower class. 1840 CARLYLE in Froude Life in Lond. (1884) I. 409 Reporters to the daily papers, whose industry is the humblest of all real or unservile kinds in literature. 1866 ELIZA METKYARD Wedgwood II. 278 Wedgwood's exquisite yet unservile copies of antique art.

Unset, v. (UN-2 3, 7. Cf. OE. unsettan (once), to take down.)

1. trans. To put out of place or position; to undo the setting of.

1602 MARSTON Ant. & Mel. III. Wks. 1856 I. 37 O, you spoyle my ruffe, unset my haire. 1611 COTGR., Desplanter, ..to vnplant, vnset, remoue. 1761 GRAY Lett. (1900) II. 204 The man was sent for: he unset it; it was a paste not worth 40 shillings. 1775 MRS. DELANY in Life & Corr. Ser. II. (1862) II. 105 There is some hazard in unsetting enamel for fear of chipping the edges. 1836 MARRYAT Midsh. Easy xxxii, How could he put the young men to fresh tortures by removing splints and unsetting limbs? 1884 Law Times 1 Nov. 8/1 On the occasion by question Dawson had unset the gun.

2. intr. To get out of place or position.

1703 Thoresby Let. to Ray, Spelb, a wooden splinter tied on, to keep a broken bone from bending or unsetting again.

Unset, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b, 8 c. Cf. Du. ongezet in sense I.]

†1. Of time or place: Not previously appointed or arranged. Obs.

Chiefly in phr. at unset steven: see Steven sb.[2] a.

*c*1386 [see Steven sb.[2] 2]. 1430-50 Lydg. Bochas ii. xxi. (1494) hiij/2 At the vnset houre their falsnesse he wyll quyte. 1476 Paston Lett. III. 162 The Duke toke grete corage to goo..to conquer them, butt the[y] berded hym att an onset place. 1543-6 1600 [see Steven sb.[2] 2]. a 1600 Montgomerie Misc. Poems v. 47 For man may meit at unset stevin, Thought montanis nevir meitis.

†b. Of events: Not predetermined; unfixed, uncertain. Obs.

1550 Baldwin Mor. Philos. P vi, But yf that the chaunce of thynges be vnset, It is folly to feare that we lowse we maye let. 1559 Mirr. Mag., O. Glendour xxvii, Of thinges to cum the haps be so vnset That none but fooles may warrant of them make.

†2. Not seated at table. Obs.—[1]

c 1475 Rauf Coilyear 148 'Gang begin the buird,' said the Coilyear. 'That war vnsemand, forsuth, and thy self vnset.'

3. Not assigned or allocated (to one); unlet.

1480 Acta Dom. Conc. (1839) 70/2 Land..baldin of our souueranin lorde and fre vnset for termes or for male. 1523 Lincoln Wills (L. Rec. Soc.) V. 120, I will that..all myne inward stuf that was myne owne unset to my wyf remayne to..my daughters. 1580-1 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 358 To warrand the same unsett, suald, assignit, or disposit to utheris. 1736 in Picton Liverpool Municip. Rec. (1880) II. 165 There are some few back seats yet unset. 1825-9 Mrs. Sherwood Lady of Manor I. viii. 334 During the absence of Lord T—, the family-mansion had remained untenanted, the houses of servants and dependents unset.

4. With advs. Not set down, forth, out, up, etc.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 138 Pese ij..forbodis of avoutrye.., whi ben not pei stillid and vnsett forp expressely? 1530 Palsgr. Introd. p. v, I have..assayde..that there shulde lewe wordes..worde for worde be vnsetforthe. 1547 Act 1 Edw. VI, c. 6 § 2 The same poore persons..be now unoccupied and unset aworke. 1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. iii. xi. § 8 They vrge that God left nothing in his word vndescribed, ..nothing vnset-downe. 1629 Humins Theopol. 75 The Atheniens..recriminated the Megarens, for hauing tilled holy ground, and vnset-out with bounds. 1639 Knaresb. Wills (Surtees) II. 168 One new stand bed unsett upp.

5. †a. Unset leek, a (young) leek not transplanted. Obs.

1530 Palsgr. 219/2 Onsetleke, porret. 1563 Hyll Art Garden. (1593) 128 If you desire only to haue vnset Leekes. 1601 Holland Pliny II. 424 Adam is to be drunke with the juice of unset leeks in cold water. 1611 Cotgr., Porrette, Maidens Leeke, bladed Leeke, vnset Leeke.

b. Not planted.

1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 75 Set..yoong bay and his berie. Or set their stone, vnset leaue out none. 1577 Harrison England iii. viii. (1878) ii. 57 Notwithstanding that they haue remained there vnset by the space of forte years and more; yet some [saffron heads]..haue brought fourth two or three floures a peece. 1597 Gerarde Herbal i. i. 2 Common Medow grasse growth of it selfe, vnset or vnsowen, euery where. 1653 Hilther Engl. Paresour Instr. 165 Shrubbs thou be occasioned..to keep thy sets longer unset, be thou sure thou get their Roots into the ground.

c. Not furnished with plants.

c 1600 Shaks. Sonn. xvi, Many maiden gardens yet vnset, With vertuous wish would beare your liuing flowers.

6. Not placed in a setting; unmounted.

1561 T. Hoby tr. Castiglione's Courtyer II. R i b, A iewell that vnsett seemeth faire. a 1592 Bacon Conf. Pleasure (1870) 25 If these rich peeces be so faire vnset, what are they set? 1684 Lond. Gaz. No. 1906/4 An Emerald unset, ..hanging a narrow Bizel. 1702 Ibid. No. 3811/4 Lost..a large Diamond-drop,..unset. 1884 West. Daily Press 20 June 7/5 Necklets of unset amethysts,..and other stones. 1891 Science-Gossip XXVII. 36/1 Lack of uniformity in unset specimens.

7. Not composed or arranged.

1631 Brathwait Whimsies, Traveller 93 Not an irregular haire about him, nor an unset looke to attend him, nor an uncomposed cringe to accompany him. 1821 Lamb Elia 1. Essays, These unconnected, unset sounds are nothing to the measured malice of music.

8. Not surgically set.

a 1661 Fuller Worthies, General 1. (1662) 6 An unset bone is better then a bone..ill set.

9. Of the sun: Not gone beneath the horizon.

1860 W. W. Reade Liberty Hall I. ix. 158 Though very pretty she was only a moon with the sun unset, for [etc.].

†Unset-e, a. Also unseete. Obs. [Un-1 7. Cf. Setb a. and Unsetty a.]

1. Unbecoming, improper; bad.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. viii. 31 For-thi on molde y waxe mot, that y sawes have seid un-sete. Ibid. xv. 49 Gabbes, ies, and lubere iore, sunnes buoth un-sete. c 1325 Body & Soul in Map's Poems (Camden) 342 A I thou foule flesch, unseete, Ful of falsnesse.

2. Unpleasant; painful.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. iv. 23 That i telle a povre play, that thirst is fair ant setithe un-sete. c 1320 Sir Tristr. 1238 His bon brast vnder skinne, His sorwe was vnsete.

3. Unwholesome. (Cf. Unsetty a.)

1311 in Archiv Stud. neu. Spr. LXXXI. 319 De watures bitter and vnseete were ymad bope gode and swete. 1387 Trevisa Higden IV. xi. 81 Hir frendes trowede hat unsete mete hat he hadde i-ete at soper was cause of his sikness.

4. Of persons: Ill-disposed; dissatisfied or discontented.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. xii. 43 This mon that Mathen 3ef A peny that wes so bref; this frely folk unsete, 3et he 3yrnden more.

Unsett, var. of Unset v. Obs.

Unse·ting, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.]

†1. Unbecoming, unfitting. Obs.

1567 Drant Horace, Ep. II ij, I will tell them..what doth becom, and what unsetting is. a 1598 Rollock 1 Thess. (1600) 183 Any thing that is vnsetting, or vnseemlie to this Christian calling.

2. Not going beneath the horizon.

1607 Merry Devil Edmonton III. ii. 102 Thou bright vnsetting star..! 1819 Crabbe T. of Hall xix. 543 Some spoke of wonders they before had seen, When on their travels..: How they beheld for months th' unsetting sun. 1844 Lowell Prometheus 230, I Shall be a power and a memory,..a light Unsetting as the pole-star. 1869 McLaren Serm. Ser. ii. viii. 132 The full light of the unsetting Sun.

Eg. 1838 Mss. Browning An Island xxvii, The undim Unsetting Godlight.

Unse·ttle, v. [Un-2 3 and 7.]

1. trans. To undo from a fixed position; to unfix, unfasten, loosen.

1598 Florio, Discasciare,..to make loose the teeth, to dismount artillerie, to vnsettle anything. [1755 Johnson, To Unsettle, v. a. to move with a place.] 1818 Keats Endymion iv. 414 He..strives in vain to unsettle and wield A Jovian thunderbolt.

2. To force out of a settled condition; to deprive of fixity or quiet: a. a state of things, institutions, etc.

1651 Hobbes Leviath. II. xxvii. 154 Such as..take upon them..to unsettle the Lawes with their publique discourse. 1679 Alsop Mellius Inq. 1. i. 9 To set Religion upon its proper Basis, and unsettle it from the feeble foundations upon which former Ages had erected it! a 1700 Evelyn Diary 21 April, 1695, Nineteen or twenty private Bills passed for unsettling estates. 1704 Atterbury On 1 Tim. ii. 7 Those Mighty Events, that fix, or unsettle the Peace of the World. 1803 Wordsw. 'England! the time is come' 4 Old things have been unsettled. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. I. ii 71 This theory, though intended to strengthen the foundations of government, altogether unsettles them. 1884 Leeds Merc. 15 Nov. 6/4 Such a struggle..must unsettle all the institutions of the country.

b. beliefs, thoughts, the mind, etc.

1644 Milton Divorce (ed. 2) I. viii. 19 They should but seek..to unsettle our constancie with timorous and softning suggestions. 1662 Stillingfl. Orig. Sacr. III. i. § 2 When men their wits to unsettle the Belief of such things as tended to Religion. 1671 in Verney Mem. (1907) II. 254 My thoughts are unsettled. 1759 Sarah Fielding C'tess of Dellwyn II. 261 His Father had unsettled his Resolution. 1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xlvii, The long struggle which Agnes suffered..at length unsettled her reason. 1816 Scott Bl. Dwarf xviii, The shock was even sufficient to unsettle his wits. 1839 Dickens Nickleby iv, None of those ill-judged comings home twice a year that unsettle children's minds so. 1884 Spectator 25 July 971/2 That his mind had been unsettled by his peril.

c. persons (in respect of beliefs, etc.).

1833 Coleridge Table Talk (1884) 225 What is the spirit which seems to move and unsettle every other man..at this time? 1852 Helps Comp. Soilt. xii. 236 Provided they do not, as they would say, unsettle their neighbours. 1880 R. G. White Every-Day Eng. 140 A phonetic printing of those two words would unsettle all these people.

3. intr. To become unsettled.

1605 Shaks. Lear III. iv. 67 His wits begin t' vnsettle. 1624 Sanderson Serm. I. 102 The house cannot but unsettle apace, and without speedy repairs fall to the ground. 1543 Milton Divorce 8 Their wild affections unsettling at will have been as many divorces to teach them experience. a 1859 De Quincey Postb. Wks. (1891) I. 14 He gazes, and slowly under the blazing scenery of his brain the scenery of his eye unsettles.

4. trans. To clear of settlers.

1895 Advance (Chicago) 11 Apr. 991/1 Probably no [other] section of our country has ever been un-settled so rapidly.

Hence Unse·ttling vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

Also, in recent use (1901), unsettler.

1665 Boyle Occas. Reft. I. vii, Troublesome and unsettling Employments. 1775 Ash, Discomcerting, p. a.,..unsettling, discomposing. 1848 Miss Mitford Village Ser. III. 70 The unsettling, and the journey, and the settling again,..fairly killed her. 1866 Cornh. Mag. XIII. 437 Christianity..must have raised among the believers in the Law very unsettling inquiries, such akin to these. 1894 H. Gardener Unoff. Patriot 10 The unsettling times which brought Methodism..into the ranks of established things.

Unsettleable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1864 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. XVI. III. I. 278 All details being, in the interim, either got settled, or got flung into corners as unsettleable.

Unsettled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, or f. Unsettle v.]

1. Not peaceful, tranquil, or orderly; disturbed; not (yet) quietly or firmly established.

1591 Sylvester Du Bartas I. ii. 424 Of winged Clouds the wide incomstant House, Th' unsettled Kingdome of swift Æolus. 1659 Nicholas Papers (Camden) IV. 265 The new and unsettled Government in England. 1697 Dryden Æneis I. 791 My cruel fate, And doubts attending an unsettled state, Force me to guard my coast from foreign foes. 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy I. xi, But the two extremes are more common, and in a greater degree in this unsettled island. 1800 Mrs. Hervey Mountray Fam. I. 47 The here and unsettled state which..had attended their first arrival in the country. 1826 Scott Woodst. v, The times were dangerous and unsettled. 1876 Bancroft Hist. U.S. I. vi. 177 A report of a committee concerning the unsettled government of Virginia.

b. Of weather, etc.: Changeable, variable.

1707 Mortimer Husb. 587 If unsettled or moist Weather happen at the time of its working. 1773 Coor Voy. (1777) I. 59 The wind continued unsettled. 1803 Mary Charlton Wife & Mistress IV. 214 His health, which was yet very unsettled. 1879 Froude Cæsar xvi. 255 The weather was too unsettled for his fleet..to join him.

Comb. 1788 J. White Trvld. Voy. N.S. Wales (1790) 105 Strong breezes, with unsettled-looking weather.

c. That has not yet settled down; still in a state of flux or motion.

1691 J. Harrington Introd. in Wood's Ath. Oxon. II. a 1b, The Graces of Measure and numbers..are not to be expected in a rude and unsettled Language. 1845 J. Phillips Geol. in Encycl. Metrop. VI. 552/1 [Remains of plants] might be long suspended in the unsettled water, and be transported along with the finer matter. 1894 Mrs. Dyan Man's Keeping (1899) 100 The dust flying in unsettled clouds about him.

2. Not settled in a particular place or position.

1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. II. vi. § 3 To set himselfe in an house of cedar trees, and to behold the arke of the Lord's couenant vnsettled. 1749 T. Innes Crit. Ess. (1879) 284 The Franks..appear in history as a people unsettled, roving up and down. 1761 Churchill Rosciad 988 Next follows Sheridan—a doubtful name, As yet unsettled in the rank of Fame. 1782 Martyn Georg. Mag. i. iii. 1. 202 A considerable encampment of these unsettled Arabs. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. II. 212 These tribes have forester'd the fruitful zone, Their seats unsettled, and their name unknown. 1863 Boyd Gravver Th. Country Parson vii. 266 They were a race of hunters; unsettled, cruel and deceitful. 1898 Harper's Mag. XXIII. 26/1, I am a single woman, unsettled as yet.

b. Path. Not confined to a definite part or spot.

1793 Abernethy Surg. Ess. 18 He was..teized with unsettled rheumatic pains. 1819 Lady Morgan Autobiog. (1859) 267 A severe illness, arising..from unsettled gout.

3. Not settled or staid in character; of a restless or turbulent disposition.

1594 Selimus 89 Resolue to venture it, Fortune doth fauour euery bold assay, And t'were a trick of an vnsetled wit Because [etc.]. 1595 Shaks. John II. i. 66 All th' vnsetled humors of the Land, Rash, inconsiderate, fiery voluntaries. 1607 Puritan I. iv, 31 Many desprate, vnsetled souldiours. 1675 Han. Woolley Gentlewom. Comp. 38 These unstaid dimensions argue unsetled dispositions. 1803 Cenzor 1 July 84, I am sorry you seem so unsettled; I now..advise you to settle in service. 1837 Hr. Martineau Soc. Amer. II. 63 Young people, who might be 'unsettled;' that is, not sufficiently subservient. Ibid. III. 136 Too many of them are unsettled, reckless, slovenly.

b. Marked by absence of regularity, uniformity, staidness, or tranquillity.

c 1714 Pope Lett. (1735) I. 130 What is commonly called an unsettled Life (and what you with too much unjust Severity call a Vagabond Life). 1787 Burns Let. to Jas. Smith 11 June, Should I stay, in an unsettled state, at home, I would only dissipate my little fortune. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annwitte I. 207 High commission called forth at her unsettled and forlorn condition. 1825 Lamb Mr. Liston Wks. 1908 I. 315 The orthography varying, according to the unsettled usage of the times. 1830 Forrester II. 270, I have already told you..of the unsettled life I led, after the loss of my mother.

c. Unsteady; unquiet.

1794 Mrs. Radcliffe Myst. Udolpho xxviii, She..then viewed the face with a long unsettled gaze. 1810 Southey Kehama xv. xii, How often did she..from unsettled slumber start, and hear The Winds that moan above!

4. Undetermined, unresolved.

1593 Marlowe Lucan I. 264 Now light had quite dissolu'd the mysty night, And Cæsars mind vnsetled musing stood. 1600 Holland Livy III. 667 The Spaniard is not so simple, vnsetled & vncertaine in his determinations, as..to make our papers his Bulwarks. 1618 Gainsford Hist. P. Warbeck P 27 Such humility..was the hearts of many as yet unsetled unto him. 1671 Milton P. R. IV. 326 Uncertain and unsettl'd [he] still remains, Deep versed in books and shallow in himself. a 1768 Secker Serm. (1770) IV. 2 What the prophet Elijah said to the Israelites belongs equally to all of this unsettled Character: How long halt ye between two Opinions? 1823 Mrs. Hemans Siege of Grenada iv, Are yet th' unsettled heart hath closed its long Impatient conflicts. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 360 The chiefs came in an unsettled state of mind, and showed at first much opposition to the conclusion of a treaty.

5. Of the mind: Unbalanced, disturbed.

1611 Shaks. Temp. v. i. 59 A solemne Ayre, and the best comforter To an vnsetled fancie. 1693 Dryden's Juvenal xiv. (1697) 353 It shews a manifest unsetled Brain. 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 141 P 2 A combination of circumstances acting when his imagination was unoccupied, and his judgment unsettled. 1779 Mirror No. 17, Such violent procedure might have effectuated too dreadful upon a brain which..is already much unsettled. 1809 Coleridge Pan. Rep. II. 180 Accounts perplexed, Minds unsettled, and my will unmade. 1825 Scott Betrothed xxvii, Is his brain unsettled,..or is there some dreadful mystery in these broken words?

6. Of persons: Mentally affected.

1611 Shaks. Wint. T. i. ii. 325 Do'st thinke I am so muddy, so vnsetled, To appoint my selfe in this vexation? 1768 Sterne Sent. Journ., Maria, She said, she was unsettl'd much at that time. 1823 S. Rogers Italy, Foscari 121 Unnerved, and now unsettled in his mind. 1899 Cassell's Techn. Educ. IV. 107/1 A failure so annoyed him, that he became unsettled,..and at length died by his own hand.

6. a. Not assigned by will.

1672 Shadwell. Humourists III, Your Estate, by being unsettled, may come to be divided among the Lawyers, after I have killed you. 1800 Mrs. Hervey Mountray Fam. II. 232 You shall not..command a sixpence of my fortune, which I shall keep unsettled, as a check upon you.

b. Undischarged, unpaid.

1811 Regul. & Orders Parliament 24 The Name of the Claims of any Man which remain unsettled. 1816 'Quiz' Grand Master II. 53 Here parcels of unsettl'd bills.

c. Not determined or fixed; not freed from doubt or uncertainty; undecided.

1844 J. S. Mill (title), Essays on Some Unsettled Questions of Political Economy. 1887 Ruskin Pol. Econ. Art ii. § 65, I haven't made up my mind about the number yet, and there are several other points in the system yet unsettled. 1884 Imp. Dict. s.v. An unsettled dispute.

7. Not occupied by settlers.

1724 [see UNSRATED] ppl. a. 1] 1788 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 3) I. 617/2 This immense extent of unappropriated western territory, or vacant unsettled land. 1859 CORNWALLIS Panoramic New World I. 151 Those occupying runs in the then 'unsettled' districts. 1859 FROUDE Short Stud., Educ. (1871) 328 A new and unsettled country.

Hence Unsettledly adv.

1599 JAS. I Basilikon Doron (1603) 115 Neither looking silly, like a stupide pedant, nor unsettledly. 1652 CULPEPER Astrol. Judgem. Dis. Ep. A 3 b, That so you may...not float unsettledly upon the waves of Errour. 1685 Case of Doubting Conscience 4 The Ballance no longer hangs in aequilibrio, or moves unsettledly this way or that. 1725 M. BAILEY Erasm. Colloq. (1898) I. 72 Wherever any one that is your Superior speaks to you,..look neither..saucily, malapertly, nor unsettledly. 1824 SCOTT Redgauntlet ch. xiv, If I thought you were unfortunate in former undertakings...which might conduce to it unsettledly.

Unsettledness. [f. prec.] The quality or condition of being unsettled.

1619 LD. HERBERT Corr. in Life (1886) 346 And for their unsettledness, it is such as..they know not whom to trust. 1682 FLAVELL Fear 81 The unsettledness and distraction of our own thoughts. 1798 HARTHAM Observ. Mass 1. iv. § 6. 205 Sceptical Unsettledness and fool-hardy Impiety. 1799 J. ROBERTSON Agric. Perth 427 The present unsettledness in the value of grain. 1832 Examiner 436/1 A sense of unsettledness pervades everything. 1873 MORLEY Rousseau II. 200 If the former is not acquired...a man grows up with a drifting unsettledness of will.

Unsettlement. [f. UNSETTLE v., or UN-[1] 12.]

1. The act or process of unsettling.

1648 FAIRFAX, etc., Remonstr. 8 To entertain motions tending to the unsettlement of what was resolved. 1691 T. H[ALE] Acc. New Invent. p. iv, Whoever attempts the settlement of any Question, which would be the unsettlement of any mens Interest [etc.]. 1844 LD. BROUGHAM A. Lamel III. xiv. 106 The universal unsettlement of all received Latin and ancient opinions. 1862 THOREAU W. Amer. I. 221 Delay in travelling..causes the unsettlement of a settled purpose.

2. Unsettled state or condition.

1650 BAXTER Saints' R. iv. 1. § 4 They have..lived in much trouble and unsettlement, and have just overcome them. 1652 Nicholas Papers (Camden Soc.) I. 28 The yet great unsettlement in England. 1682 Treat. E. India Trade 10 Our Neighbours are not now at leasure..to make their Advantage of our Unsettlement, during the Transition from one Stock to another. 1867 H. W. BEECHER in Mrs. Kellg. Lit. II. 342 A general spirit of unsettlement and presumption. 1878 E. WHITE Life in Christ xxviii. v. 492 A not uncommon feeling is that..'the faith' is of such a quality that reasoning upon it..is likely to lead to unsettlement.

Unsettling, vbl. sb. and ppl. a.: see UNSETTLE v.

†Unsety, a. OE= UNSEFE a. 3. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/1 On-sety, idem quod on-holsum, supra. [Ibid. 365/2 On-holsum, insalubris.] †Unseven, v. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 6 a.] trans. To divide from seven in number. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. xi. 7.17 He much decryed the necessity thereof, (though not so far as to un-seven the Sacraments of the Church of Rome). †Unsever, v. Obs.[1] (Un-[2] 7.) 1609 HEYWOOD Brit. Troy, x. ca. Both his lips unsever, His head bends backe, his paine. Unseverable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) 1579 TOMSON Calvin's Serm. Tim. 234/2 Here sheweth the things whiche are alwayes inseparable from faith, and are as it were vnseuerable:. 1644 DIGBY Nat. Soul xi. § 5. 48 They..yet were so vnseuerable from one another, as being comparates of the same substance. Unseverably, adv. (Un-[1] 11, 5 b.) c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 153 Whebere for bee, bat as vnseuerably was ioyned to god [etc.]. 1548 GEST Pr. Maxse (Camden Soc.) 30 Only sorth a presence of christes body in the bread wherwyth they both shuld be vnseuerably personed. 1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. II. 81 By whose knitting together they might perfectly and vnseuerably cleave vnto God. †Unsevere, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1646 CODRINGTON Life or Death Essex 11 If any unsevere houres of leisure offered themselves in his study. 1652 JER. TAYLOR Serm. for Year II. xviii. 284 Angry against servants for..easing their labours with a lese prudent and unsevere refreshment.

Unse·vered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1453 Rolls of Parl. V. 231/2 The said..Archers shall be.. kept hole, undepartid, undevided and unsevered. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneis IX. viii. 133 Sa lang as thai sammyn vnsyverit war. 1607 SHAKS. Cor. III. ii. 48, I haue heard you say, Honour and Policy, like vnseuer'd Friends, I th' Warre do grow together. 1657 H. KING Departure 28 'Tis only the Triumphant Church where we Shall in unseve'd neighbourhood agree. 1711 BLACKMORE Creation 6 45 The unsever'd parts the greatest pressure bear. a 1800 COWPER Odyss. (ed. 2) XIV. 530 He..honouring Ulysses most, On Him the long unsever'd chine bestow'd. 1849 M. ARNOLD Strayed Reveller, Sonnet 5 One lesson..Of Toil unsever'd from Tranquillity. 1885 Manch. Exam. 2 Feb. 6/2 How long this tie would remain unsevered..is open to doubt.

Hence Unse·veredly adv. rare[-1].

1661 BOYLE Style of Script. 209 The..Scripture was so Unsevered by his Study.

Unsew, v. [Un-[2] 3.]

1. trans. To undo the sewing of (a garment, etc.); to remove the stitches from.

1362 LANGL. P. Pl. A. v. 48 Heo wolde vn-sowen hire smok and setten per an here. 1382 WYCLIF Leo. xiii. 45 He shal haue his clothis vn-sewyd [L. dissuta], the heed nakid, the mouth couered with the cloothe. 1491 CAXTON Vitas Patr. (W. de W.) 1495) cxxxix. 54/1 He commanded hym to doo thynges agayns reason, as .. to unsowe his gowne, and after to sowe it agayne. 1552 HULOET, Vnsow... resuo. 1611 COTGR., Descoudre, to vn-sowe, vndoe stitches. 1711 De Maroilles' Mem. 104 A pair of Old-Shoes unsew'd on both Sides. 1728 CHAMBERS Cycl. s.v. Marroquin, The Skins..are taken out, drain'd on a Rack, unsewed, the Sumac taken out [etc.]. 1809 MALKIN Gil Blas x. x. P 14, I often observed the old man at work upon his pillow, unsewing and sewing it up again. 1848 THACKERAY Van. Fair xxxiv, When she unsewed herself, and let out of her dress all those..valuables which she had secreted in the wadding.

fig. 1340 Ayenb. 184 Salomon pus zayb: 'per no goud ne ys, þet wolk to-ualp and is al onzauued. 1620 SHELTON Quix. II. lx. 411 Sancho was amazed, and purposed not to vnsew his lips, as long as he was in that company. 1661 FELTHAM Resolves II. xliii, 268 Even to those [friendships] that have been ill contracted, Cato's advice is good, They are rather to be unsewed then cut. 1853 READE Chr. Johnstone 181 Time was he gave him to unsew a connection which he could not cut asunder.

2. To unwrap, uncover, set free, by the removal of stitches.

1390 GOWER Conf. III. 315 Thei founde A bodi ded, which was bewounde In cloth of gold..Unsowed was the bodi sone. 1692 C. WALKER Grk. & Rom. Hist. 270 Bacchus being born in Arabia, or rather unsowed from the Thigh of his Mother Semele. 1740 RICHARDSON Pamela (1824) I. 113 So I took off my undercoat, and..unsewed them [sc. papers] from it.

Hence Unsew·er; Unsew·ing vbl. sb.

1611 COTGR. s.vv. Descouseur, Descousure.

Unsewed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c.)

Also with adv., as together, up.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 344 Cloões unseowued bireined oðer unwaschen. c 1325 Pilate 169 in E. E. P. (1862) 115 Oure louerdes curtel he dude on..þat vnsewed was of bred. 1535 COVERDALE Joh. xix. 23 The cote..was vnsewed from aboue, wrought throw and thorow. 1550 BALE Image Both Ch. II. Pref. A iiij b, An heape of barbarous tearmes and vnsowed togither sentences. 1596 SPENSER F.Q. VI. iv. 14 But the bare ground..Must be their bed, their pillow was vnsowed. 1603 J. DAVIES (Heref.) Extasie Wks. (Grosart) I. 90/2 On either side from her Armes to her Wast, It was vnsow'd, and made with Buttons fast. 1765 STERNE Tr. Shandy VIII. i, If slits in petticoats are unsewed up.

Unsewered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1844 R. H. HORNE New Spirit of Age I. 113 The unsewered, undrained, and uncleansed localities. 1864 R. A. ARNOLD Cotton Farm. 440 The unsewered towns of the south. 1885 Athenæum Monthly Apr. 467/2 Roadways, ungraded, unsewered, and unlighted.

†Unsew·ly, a. Obs. Also 3 unseaulich. [Un-[1] 7, with obscure second element.] Uncomely.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 10 Ich am blac & tauh hwit, heo seiõ, unseaulich widuten, & sheine widinnen. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 81 In lykenes of a yong chyld wyth long herys, and hory, and vnsewly [Dowe MS. vnsweyly].

Unsew·n, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) = UNSEWED ppl. a.

1648 HEXHAM II, Ongenayt, Vnsowne, or not Sowne on. 1869 Athenæum 25 Sept. 396 Why, we ask, do they [German publishers] send our books unsewn?

Unsex, v. [Un-[2] 6 b.] trans. To deprive or divest of sex, or of the typical qualities of one or other (esp. the female) sex.

1605 SHAKS. Mach. I. v. 42 Come you Spirits, That tend on mortall thoughts, vnsex me here. 1793 MURPHY Tacitus I. 73 If a woman can thus unsex herself at the head of the eagles. 1844 MRS. BROWNING To G. Sand 13 Beat purer, heart,..Till God unsex thee on the heavenly shore. 1852 SMEDLEY L. Arundel XXXIII. 289 A foreign education, than which we know not a better receipt for unsexing the minds of the daughters of Albion.

Hence Unse·xing vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

[1793 Mass.] 1811 Examiner 13 May 302/2 Her unsexing ambition. 1851 Illustr. Lond. News 27 Sept. 395/2 In reply to the objection of unsexing.

Unse·xed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, or f. UNSEX v.)

1797 MATHIAS Pirs. Lit. iv. Adv. p. ii, Our unsexed female writers were instruct or confuse us and themselves in the labyrinth of politics. 1847 BOY Georg. Dan. xi, I doubt the propriety of your being under the charge of this unsexed woman. 1860 O. W. HOLMES Elsie V. xvi, To think that a woman is never to be a woman again, whatever she may come to as an unsexed angel. 1896 T. HARDY Ethelberta viii, To have an unsexed judgment is as precious as to be an unsexed being is deplorable.

Unse·xual, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

Also, in recent use (1905), unsexually.

1829 SHELLEY Prom. Unbd. 3rd pr. vi. xix, Turned to a formal puritan, A solemn and unsexual man. 1834 DE QUINCEY Autob. Sk. Wks. 1853 I. 353 An air of something unsexual, mannish, and..ludicrous. 1875 WHITNEY Life Lang. x. 207 The world of unreasoning social or of unsexual objects.

Unsha·ckle, v. [Un-[2] 4 b. Cf. Du. ontschakelen.]

1. trans. To free from a shackle or fetter. Also fig.

1611 COTGR., Destraver, to vnshackle, vngyue. 1650 GENTILIS Considerations 129 But to doe it [sc. overcome his enemy] when he is shackled and bound, without unshackling or unbinding is very much. 1699 SOUTH Serm. (1715) IV. 318 Unshackle his Nature, and turn his Desires loose, and then you shall see what he will choose. 1847 POLLOK Course T. VII. 464 The patriot bands that..unshackled nations. 1828–32 WEBSTER s.v., To unshackle the hands.

b. To untie, detach.

1694 EDWARD Plantus 195 Only t'unshackle your rope, that bangs at your heels.

2. Naut. To remove a shackle from (a chain, etc.).

1840 R. H. DANA Bef. Mast vii, We hove in upon our chain, and after stoppering and unshackling it again and again..we at length tipped our anchor. 1899 W. KIRBY Short E. C. Africa ix. 97 Unshackling the anchor, I put the shackle in my pocket.

Unsha·ckled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Not shackled or fettered. Also transf.

[1775 ASH.] 1816 BYRON Parisina xvii, These hands are chain'd, but let me die At least with an unshackled eye. 1821 SCOTT Pirate xii, Cleveland and Bunce..were permitted to walk unshackled.

2. Not restricted or impeded by something.

1776 BURNEY Hist. Mus. I. p. xiii, Freedom of thought, unshackled by the trammels of authority. 1782 MISS BURNEY Cecilia III. ii, Surrounded as you are by the opulent and the splendid, unshackled by dependance. 1853 HUXLEY in Life & Lett. (1900) I. 115 To be unshackled by anything that may prevent you taking the highest places. 1884 Law Times 17 May 42/2 The discretion of the court was unshackled by any obligation of hearing evidence.

b. Unrestricted, unimpeded, unhampered, free.

1796 MRS. D'ARBLAY Cecilia III. 21, I can desire no one to abstain from pursuing the dictates of their own sense of honour. I leave you, therefore, unshackled. 1820 BYRON Marr. Fal. iii. ii. 534 Ages of prosperity and freedom To this unshackled city. 1890 Gentleman's Mag. CCLXVIII. 450 The full and unshackled force of comedy.

Unsha·de, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.)

1611 COTGR., Desumbrer, to vnshade, or deprive of shadow. 1625 QUARLES Sion's Sonn. ii. 2 Vnshade thy Face, cast backe those golden Locks. 1632 P. FLETCHER Purple Isl. xii. 8, Ah how unshade thy face, uncloud thy sight.

Unsha·ded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. a. Not darkened or obscured by shade; not covered by a shade or blind.

a 1668 DAVENANT To Queen Wks. (1673) 218 Faire as unshaded Light; or as the Day In its first birth. 1792 WORDSW. Peter. Sk. 102 There, all unshaded, blazing forests throw Rich golden verdure on the lake below. 1843 Florist's Jrnl. (1846) IV. 78 A small uncovered and unshaded bed of prepared earth. 1880 MISS BIRD Japan II. 187 Buildings.. with..unshaded windows.

b. Not provided with shade; fully exposed to light (or heat).

1802 H. MARTIN Helen of Glenross III. 166 No nankeen monkey figures then frisked round a muslin-dressed dabbish, unshaded mamma. 1837 HR. MARTINEAU Soc. Amer. II. 49 We passed an unshaded meadow, where the grass had sought fire.

2. 'Not having shades in coloring' (Webster, 1828); not modified or toned down.

1823 MRS. HEMANS Vespers Palermo II. i, A very boy, on whose unshaded cheek The spring-time glow is lingering. 1892 W. H. HUDSON Patagonia 138 Nothing here surprised me more than the lack of the British green—a current of sharp high unshaded notes.

3. Not marked with shading lines.

1868 LYELL Princ. Geol. (ed. 10) II. 348 The annexed map, all the lands which are shaded belonging to the Au-tralian and those which are unshaded to the Indian region. 1880 C. R. MARKHAM Peruv. Bark 325 The identical plant figured in Plate X...(the unshaded branch with capsules).

Unsha·dow, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To free from shadow; fig. to disclose, reveal.

In quot. 1599 = SHADOW v. 7 1 perh. an error.

1556 THOMAS Tel. Dict., Sombrare, to vnshadowe or leave voide. 1595 R. BARNFIELD Cynthia To Rdrs. (Arb.) 44, I will vnshaddow my conceit; being nothing else, but an imitation of Virgill. 1599 R. LINCHE Anc. Fiction 1iv, This picture of Honor..was oftentimes set forth with two wings on the shoulders thereof, intending & vnshadowing thereby, that honour and glorie doe as it were lend wings vnto men of vertue and merit. 1818 BYRON Let. to Moore 2 June, The dawn gleams over the Grand Canal, and unshadows the Rialto. 1821 SOUTHEY Vis. Judgem. I. 51 To thy mortal sight shall the Grave unshadow its secrets.

Unsha·dowable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1640 BR. REYNOLDS Passions xxxiii. 402 There are indeed some Attributes of God..absolutely intimable, and unshadowable by any excellency in mans soule. 1885 TENNYSON Amc. Sage 238 The gain of such large life as match'd with ours Were Sun to spark—unshadowable in words.

Unsha·dowed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not covered or darkened by shadow.

1599 B. BARNES Parnass (Grosart) 10 Whose shadow trembling on her lonely face He left vnshadow'd. 1599 DANIEL Musophilus 846 Maiestie..Shining with all her beames, with all her raies,..vnshadowed In any darkened point. 1647 WITHER Speeches (1662) 18, 268 Nothing but a Rock..unshadowed by Trees. 1823 MRS. HEMANS Vespers Palermo III. i, The skies themselves..Unshadow'd by a cloud. 1855 [MISS COBBE] Ess. Intuitive Morals 111 The true splendour of the Sun..in a heaven of unshadowed light. 1870 MORRIS Earthly Paradise III. iv. 53 In the unshadowed noontide light.

fig. 1649 QUARLES Virgin Widow v. i, Thou before whose open eye All unshadow'd secrets lye. 1662 GLANVILL Van. Dogm. 98 He alone sees all things with an unshadowed comprehensive Vision, who eminently is All. 1828 LD. GRENVILLE Sinking Fund 85 The bare and unshadowed outline of the view..of these interesting topics. 1891 FARRAR Darkness & Dawn xxiv, A beauty as yet unshadowed by evil secrets and base desires.

Unsha·fted, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1883 R. BRIDGES Prometheus 798 The white unshafted darts of day.

Unsha·keable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1611 COTGR., Secouable, vnshakeable. 1621 S. WARD Happiness of Practice 16 The wise, that build on the Rocke of Doing, vnshakeable. a 1715 SOUTH Serm. IV. viii. 328 A Bottom so firm and sure for Christianity to rest upon, that it cannot be placed upon a surer and more unshakable. 1866 HARE Guesses 106 There is still one rock indeed, stout and bold and unshakable as can be desired. 1890 Times 6 Feb. 5/2 He is Stambouloff's brother-in-law, and consequently unshakeable in his post.

b. Of belief, conviction, etc.

a 1677 BARROW Serm. Wks. 1687 I. 471 To express..his unshakeable Faith in God..under so fierce a trial. 1711 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. V. 188 This fundation of unshakeable patience. 1805 SOUTHEY Madoc II. xxvii. 377 With..unshakeable resolve Thy soul maintains its purpose. 1891 FARRAR Darkn. & Dawn xviii, To these good Christians that doctrine was an unshakeable conviction.

Hence Unsha·keably adv.

1864 HAWTHORNE S. Felton (1872) 167 Desire nothing too fervently, not even life; yet keep thy hold upon it..unshakeably.

†Unsha·ked, obs. variant of next.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xii, The horses with smooth running, their staves with unshaked motion, obediently performed their cholerick commandements. 1593 Sidney's

Arcadia iv. (1922) II. 107 An unshaked magnanimity. 1601 SHAKS. Jul. C. III. 1. 70, I do know but One That unassayable holds on his Ranke, Vnshak'd of Motion. 1611 — Cymb. II. 1. 68 Keepe vnshak'd That Temple thy faire mind. 1642 H. MORE Song of Soul II. III. iv. xiv, Wherein we stedfast stand, unshak'd, unmov'd.

Unsha·ken, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b and 8 c.]

1. Not shaken or agitated.

*c*1460 (see UN-[1] 5 c). 1602 SHAKS. Ham. III. ii. 207 Which now like Fruite vnripe sticks on the Tree, But fall vnshaken, when they mellow bee. 1712 BLACKMORE Creation I. 343 These strong, unshaken mounds, resist the shocks Of tides. 1762 FALCONER Shipwr. II. 314 [The canvas] lies at length unshaken by the wind. 1798 W. L. BOWLES Poems, St. Michael's Mt. 75 Firm as stands the rock's unshaken base.

2. Not moved from a firm position or state; unweakened; steadfast, steady.

1548 UDALL, etc. Erasm. Par. John I. 12 Able to stand stable and vnshaken against the temptacions of the deuill. 1613 SHAKS. Hen. VIII, III. ii. 199 My Duty..Should the approach of this wilde Riuer breake, And stand vnshaken yours. 1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharon. I. iii. 384 With such unshaken confidence as we Pray on the expanded wings of faith. 1711 STEELE Spect. No. 75 ¶ 7 A firm and unshaken Expectation of another Life. 1768–74 TUCKER Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 361 He will never get an unshaken seat in the saddle, who never rides an unruly horse. 1823 SCOTT Quentin D. xxii, The Bishop cast a melancholy but unshaken look upon the grisly satellite. 1848 MRS. JAMESON Sacr. & Leg. Art II. 188 Her unshaken constancy. 1889 A. KINGLAKE Tr. Kerse. II. 29 The tradition..remains unshaken.

3. Not shivered or cracked. rare.

1573 TUSSER Husb. (1878) 42 Now sawe out thy timber.. to haue it vnshaken, and ready to sale. 1828 Craven Gloss. Unshacken, not cracked.

4. Not shaken out; unscattered.

1765 Museum Rust. IV. 134, I found a considerable quantity of the nameless grass, the seed unshaken.

Hence Unsha·kenly adv.

1882 MISS C. F. WOOLSON Anne 384 Feeling drearily, unshakenly sure.

†Unsha·kened, ppl. a. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 8.) 1659 FULLER App. Inj. Innoc. I. 49* My words stand an un-shakened truth. Unsha·king, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1818 MILMAN Samor VII. 956 A soft step approach'd Light as the wren shonge the unshaking spray. †Unsha·kingly, adv. (UN-[1] 11.) 1840 WORCESTER (citing Qu. Rev.) Un-Shaksperian, a. (UN-[1] 7.) *c*1834 COLERIDGE Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 115 One of the most un-Shakespearian speeches in all the genuine works of our poet. 1875 DOWDEN Shakspere 55 Even if it were a work of Shakspere, we should still call it un-Shakspearian.

†Unsha·le, v. Obs. [UN-[2] 5.]

1. trans. a. fig. To disclose, reveal, expound.

*c*1576 THYNNE Animadv., etc. (1875) 108 To vnshale this dowte, and laye abrode this clowdye hidden speache. 1606 MARSTON Parasit. IV. iv. 1 I will not vnshale the rest before it be ripe. 1621 in Coryat Crudities I. 2 marg., Those courteous Dames called cortesans (as M. Thomas himselfe hath elegantly vnshaled the word vnto vs). *a*1652 BROME Novella II. i, Nic. I could vnshale a plot. Pi. Ny noble Nicolo out with't I say.

b. To strip.

1604 MARSTON Malcontent I. iii. B 2 b, Pietro. Speake: vnshale him quick. Mal. With most tumbler-like nimbleness.

2. To unhusk.

1611 COTGR., Gousseiller,..to vnshale, or take pulse out of the swale. 1681 R. KNOX Hist. Ceylon II Their vnshale their Rice from its outward husk by beating it in a mortar.

Unsha·led, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not taken out of the pod or husk. *a*1661 HOLYDAY Juvenal (1673) 43 With whose vinegar And unshaled bean d'ye swell? 1793 TULL Horse-Hoeing Husb. xiii. 159 Beans..so large as to fill the Bushel almost as full when shal'd as unshal'd.

Unsha·med, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. MHG. ungeschamt, -scheint, MDa. uskæmmet.] a. Not put to shame. b. Unashamed.

1382 WYCLIF 2 Tim. II. 15 To ȝiue thi self prouable, or able, werk man to God, vnschamyd, or worthi not for to be schamed. 1450 Rolls of Parl. V. 176/2 If it ever shall like our Lord, that I dey otherwise than in my bedde, my blode vnshamed. *a*1470 HARDING Chron. CXX. xiv, Thus by wites she kept her selfe vnshamed. 1562 LEIGH Armory (1597) 62 To keepe his cote armour vnshamed in tryall. 1700 DRYDEN Pal. & Arc. III. 741 Unsham'd, though foil'd, he does the best he can. 1725 C. PITT Vida's Art of Poetry II. 76 Th' immortal Virgil..Shines unsham'd, and tow'rs above the rest. 1838 MRS. BROWNING Seraphim I. 289 Are ye unshamed that ye cannot dim Your alien brightness to be liker Him? 1897 H. N. HOWARD Footsteps Proserpine 97 Afraid to tell, This other love thou wouldst unshamed deny!

Unsha·mefaced, a. (UN-[1] 9 b.)

1533 FAITH Mirror A vii b, They..with vnshamefaced beggynge, polle them so nye, that in a maner they leue nothinge behinde. 1545 JOVE Exp. Dan. 145 The vnshamefaced arrogant boldenes and serpentine fraudes of anticryste. 1603 HOLLAND Plut. Mor. 23 This so bolde and unshamefaced iouane. 1647 LILLY Christian Astrology cviii. 540 Cruel men,..bloody minded, unshameface't, sumtuous.

Hence Unsha·mefacedness.

1596 BACON Let. in Birch Mem. (1754) II. 218 Both unchast and impudent, with an incorrigible unshamefacedness. 1611 COTGR., Impudence, impudence... vnshamefac'dness. 1632 HOLLAND Cyropædia I. It seemeth, that vnthankefulnesse is accompanied especially with unshamefacedness.

†Unsha·mefast, a. Obs. [UN-[1] 7.] Immodest: a. Of persons, the mind, heart, etc.

*a*1200 Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 337 Impudens, unscamfæst. *c*1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 469 Suche a bischop is raher an unschamefast dogge ben a bischop. 1382 — Dan. VIII. 23 There shal ryse a kynge vnshamfast in face. *a*1470 LITTOT Orat. G. Flaminius (Caxton, 1481) f iv/2 Peradventure thou hast be prodigal unto wantone & unshamefast creatures. 1535 COVERDALE Rectus. xxiii. 6 An vnshamefast and obstinate mynde. 1592 GERMIN Disput., etc. 26 Take heede of her that hath an vnshamefast eye. 1608 WILLET Hexapla Exod. 128 An hard heart..vnshamefast in euill things.

b. Of conduct, actions, etc.

*c*1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's (1923) 49 He was nat forgeitfull of the vnshamefaste boldnes wher that euer the mayde he sawh aloyne. 1407 Exam. Wm. of Thorpe Prol. (MS. Rawl. C208), Porus her olde & her newe vnschamefast synnes. 1436 Rolls of Parl. IV. 501/2 Ye grete dredeles and vnshamefast Perjurie, that orribely contynueth. *a*1533 LD. BERNERS Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. (1546) Nn j b, Thy shame is so shamefull, and thy malyce so vnshamefast, that I can not answere to it. 1586 FERNE Blas. Gentrie 63 This law.. would peradventure call some backe from vnshamelast lasciuiousnes.

†Unsha·mefastly, adv. Obs. [UN-[1] 11. Cf. prec.] Immodestly.

1382 WYCLIF Pref. Ep. St. Jerome i, More wilnyng other mennis thingis vnshamfastli & lernien, than his owne vnshamfastli to preze forth. *c*1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 Onschamefastly, impudenter. 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer Ee 2 Not to loue promotions so,..nor vnshamefastlye to begg suy office. 1580 T. LUPTON Strylie 65, I am sure a greate sorte would not..so vnshamefastly, and so commonly vse that filthy vice. 1632 SHERWOOD, Unshamefastly, effronément.

†Unsha·mefastness. Obs. (UN-[1] 12.) Commodity. 1590 SPENSER F. Q. III. ii. 7 Ta 1400 Wycliffite Bible Job xv. 27 (MS. Bodl. 277), Outward fatnesse, that is vnschamefastnesse, hangith doun of his sidis. *a*1470 TIPTOFT Orat. G. Flaminius (Caxton, 1481) f iv b/2 Supposest thou with thy..vnshamefastnes to get that worshyll fame which they gate? 1520 Wisdo & Melib. A iij b, Thyere enhawmyng & theyre vnshamfastnes. 1549 CHALONER Erasm. on Folly R j b, Whiche their sayd iugglyng they conceiph yet by so happie an vnshamefastnesse, as..Clullians hate cauteles, to emulate. 1608 WILLET Hexapla Exod. 403 Contrarie hereunto are immodestie and vnshamefastnes. 1653 W. RAMESEY Astrol. Restored 73 This is the face of boldness,..unshamefastness, resoluteness and confidence.

†Unsha·meful, a. [UN-[1] 7.] Shameless.

*c*1400 Apol. Loll. 104 ȝei are..vnschamful to axe, bolde to denay. *c*1430 Life St. Kath. (1884) 45 O thou most vnschameful doge! 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer IV. Q iij b, [it] maketh them desperate for ye wronges & vnshameful dealing that they receiue. 1566 PAINTER Pal. Plea. I. 192 b, Reforme thy vnshamefull and disordinate appetites. 1648 HEXHAM II, [Onschaenel], Vnshamefull, Impudent, or Brazen face.

†Unsha·mefully, adv. Obs. [UN-[1] 11.] Shamelessly.

*c*1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxxii. (Justin) 387 Ye feynde.. becuth vnschamefully to diffule hyre thru lychery. *c*1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's 48 It is no prudent mainys dede ..suche a conseyved desire yn herte so vnshamfully to vttyr. *c*1430 Wycliffite Bible (1850) I. 84 To preze forth his owne [studies] vnshamefully. 1561 T. HOBY tr. Castiglione's Courtyer Yy iv, Not to praise himself vnshamefully and out of reason. 1648 HEXHAM II, Onbeschaendelick, vnshamefully, or impudently. *a*1660 Contemp. Hist. Irel. (In Archæol. Soc.) II. 26, I will..prove you to be a lyer, in what you unshamfully formerly asserted.

†Unsha·mefulness. Obs. [UN-[1] 12.] Shamelessness.

*c*995 Lindisf. Gosp. Mark vii. 22 From innueard .. of mannes unwillnisse, esmennis, unscemfulnisse. 1387 Lay Folks Catech. 468 Of this syn [sc. pride] comes..Despite, and ypocrisie, and unshamefulnesse. *c*1440 Jacob's Well 77 ȝe seuenthe cornere of wose in pride is vnschamfulnes. 1534 BARNES Wks. Vitr. I. E 2, But oh lorde God, what an vnshamefulnes is this? thus to delude with wordes all the hole worlde? 1648 HEXHAM II, Onbeschaemtheyt, Vnshamefulness.

†Unsha·meless(ness. Obs. (UN-[1] 5 a.) 1555 H. PENDILTON in Bonner Homilies 21* The vnshameles breakynge of the deade mennes testamentes. 1565 COOPER Thesaurus, Impudentia, impudencie; vnshamelnesse. †Unshamely, adv. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 11. Cf. OE. unscæmlice.] Shamelessly. *c*1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xv. (Barnabas) 162 Ethnykis, bat cyslt sa nakit one-schamely to ga. †Unshamous, a. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 7.) Shameless. *a*1500 in Ashmo MS. fol. 274 Of thare syn sum schrewis are vnschamous.

Unsha·pe, v. [UN-[2] 3, 4. Cf. MHG. entschæpfen.] trans. To deform; to destroy. Also fig.

*a*1400 New Test. (Paues) App. 219 Vnschapynge her body wip newe manere of degyse. 1603 SHAKS. Meas. for M. IV. iv. 23 This deede vnshapes me quite. 1857 DE QUINCEY Wh-Eaters Wks. VI. 77 The sandy columns of the Great Desert, which the caprices of the wind build up and scatter, shape and unshape, within a minute.

Unshape, obs. var. UNSHAPEN a.

Unsha·peable, a. [UN-[1] 7 b.] Having no definite shape; shapeless.

Also unshapable (Worcester, 1846, citing Good).

1630 C. Tofteson's Kingd. & Commw. 115 The unshapeable and rough Mountaine Grampius. 1846 LOUISA S. COSTELLO Tour Venice 369 Like the back of some huge antediluvian monster, unshapeable and mysterious.

Unsha·ped, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. ON. óskapaðr, Sw. oskapad, Da. uskabt.] Not reduced or moulded into shape: imperfectly formed; left rude or rough. Freq. fig.

1572 BOSSEWELL Armorie II A sleue, vnshaped, and vnsowed. 1602 SHAKS. Ham. IV. v. 8 Her speech is nothing, Yet the vnshaped vse of it doth moue The hearers to Collection. *c*1680 P. AVERY Embl. Love (1906) 355 See how the bear industriously does frame, And bring in time to form her unshaped young. 1730 BAILEY (fol.), Mola Carnea.. is a spongy unshaped Substance, without Bones or Bowels. 1798 WORDSW. P. Bell 206 All the unshaped half-human thoughts Which solitary Nature feeds. 1821 BROWNING Pippa Passes II. Poems (1905) 179/1 Shall to produce form out of unshaped stuff Be Art? 1860 HAWTHORNE Marb. Faun II, He spoke..with the Tuscan rusticity of accent, and an unshaped sort of utterance.

Hence Unsha·pedness.

1587 GOLDING De Mornay x. 166 A certeine vnshapednesse; which is the cause of all vnshapenesse.

†Unsha·peful, a. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 7.) 1598 CHAPMAN Hero & Leander III. 298 Her right hand leand on her hart-bowing knee, Wrapt in vnshapeful folds. †Unsha·pefulness. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 12.) Shapelessness. 1535 Trevisa's Barth. De P. R. XIII. xxii. 181/1 It was called Abyssus, for vnshapfulnesse: for it was dystynguyed with no fourme nor shape. †Unsha·peless, a. Obs.[1] (UN-[1] 5 a.) 1640 J. COWER Ovid's Metam. I. 4 A rude unshapeless load.

†Unsha·peliness. (UN-[1] 12. cf. next.)

1741 RICHARDSON Pamela I. p. xxvi, What, in the Name of Unshapeliness, cou'd he find to complain of, in a beautiful Girl of Sixteen. *a*1834 COLERIDGE Constit. Ch. & State (1839) 118 note, Gold or silverings,..their unshapeliness and want of the mint impression. 1877 ALABASTER Wheel of Law 252 Its unshapeliness has not prevented Buddhists from claiming it as made by the foot of Buddha.

Unsha·pely, a. (UN-[1] 7. Cf. ON. óskapligr (Sw. oskapig, Norw. uskaplig) mishapen, etc.)

*c*1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 163 Ȝe meskaheple [sic] of medeme fustinu,..ȝe corporeals sole, and unshapliche. 13.. Guy Warw. (A.) 7160 His bodi..is michel,..Fram be pouel vpward vnschepliche. Ta 1400 Morte Arth. 1099 Schouelle fotede was that schalke..With schankez vnschaply. *c*1485 Digby Myst. (1882) iii. 1158 On-shaply pon art to see! 1589 PUTTENHAM Eng. Poesie (Arb.) 89 Our auncient rymers.. many times made their meetres..of such vnshaply wordes as would allow no comenient Cesure. 1615 CROOKE Body of Man 113 It is an vnshaply body, very loose, all glandulous. 1645 BOATE Ireland's Nat. Hist. (1652) 64 Things like Boats, but very unshaply, being nothing but square peeces of timber made hollow. 1752 HUME Ess. on Original Contract II. xii. (1777) I. 471 The people being commonly very rude builders, it is natural to imagine, that their workmanship must be a little unshapely. 1802 PLAYFAIR Illustr. Hutton. Th. 124 An immense mass of solid rock, naked and unshapely. 1894 J. PIERCE Cosmic Philos. I. ii. 1. 26 An apparently-solid edifice, which fell into unshapely ruin at the first rude blast of criticism.

Unsha·pen, a. [UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. OE. unscæpen, ungescæpen, MDu. ongescapen (Du. -schapen), MLG. ungeschapen, OHG. -scaffan (MHG. and G. -schaffen).] = UNSHAPED ppl. a.

13.. Cursor M. 367 (Gött.), ȝe mater of foure elementis, bat ȝeit was ban of forme vnschapin. 1350 Athanasian Creed in MS. Bodl. 92 fol. 69 b, Vnshapen fadir unshapen son is, Vnshapen heil gost in this. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) II. 163 Al be longage of be Northhumbres..is..scharp, slitting, and frotynge and vnschape [L. inconcinna]. *a*1560 PHAER Æneid IX. (1562) Ff iii, An vnshapen bunchy speare ..Sir Pandare whirling threw. 1594 SHAKS. Rich. III, I. ii. 251 (Q 1), Will she yet debase her eyes..On me that halt, and am vnshapen thus. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Eph. III. vi. 116 A Bear brings forth her young imperfect and unshapen. 1695 J. EDWARDS Perfect. Script. 322 This unshapen mass without form and void. 1728 R. MORRIS Ess. Anc. Archit. 42 Columns were originally made of unshapen Trees. 1747 CAREW Hist. Eng. I. 44 A rough unshapen stone, of an enormous size. *a*1814 Mermaid I. ii. in New Brit. Theatre II. 478 They ran to mock her hump'd unshapen form. 1872 MORLEY Voltaire 9 Pale unshapen embryos of social sympathy.

Hence Unsha·penness.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. XIII. xxii. (Tollem. MS.), It was clepid abbissus for unschapnesse,..for it was distinguded with no forme noper schape. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongeschapenheyt, Increatedness, or Vnshapennesse.

Unsha·ped, ppl. a. [UN-[2] 8.] Not shaved with, or by, another others.

*c*1616 W. BASSE Shakespeare Poet. Wks. (1893) 116 Thy unmoleted peace, vnshaved Caue, Possesse as Lord, not Tenant, of thy Graue. 1667 MILTON P. L. IX. 880 For bliss, as thou hast part, to me is bliss, Tedious, unshar'd with thee. *a*1774 W. WHITEHEAD Entheusiast xvi, Each bliss unshar'd is unenjoy'd. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. IX. 587 Merely from a wish To impart a joy, imperfect while unshared. 1886 GURNEY, etc. Phantasms of Living I. 458 Both sensory and non-sensory hallucinations are idiosyncratic and unshared.

Hence Unsha·redness.

1896 G. MATHESON Lady Ecclesia vii. 57 It was not the fault of my new fall, but of its unsharedness.

Unsha·rp, a. (UN-[1] 7. Cf OE. unscarp). unscherp). 1611 FLORIO, Inaspro, vnsowre, sweet, vnsharpe. 1889 Anthony's Theology. Bull. II. 204 People often call unsharp, fuzzy pictures 'artistic'. Unsha·rpened, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1600 E. BLOUNT Horse Swin. 385 The place where our thoughts cannot be perturbed, nor our senses vnsharpened. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby I. v, Though no human ear, Unsharpen'd by revenge and fear, Could e'er distinguish hor-e's clank.

Unshathiness, -shathy : see UN-[1] 3.

Unsha·tered, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1634 BP. HALL Serm. Wks. II. 427 Where brasse meets with clay, how can that brittle snaffle escape unshattered? 1657 THORNLEY tr. Longus' Daphnis & Chloe 191 How intire and unshattered'st their horns. 1809 COLERIDGE Friend 123 Their own good health and unshattered nerves. 1870 WEBSTER Hymns Hebrew Poet. 175 His casting down ..left their rising spirit unshattered.

Unsha·veable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1809 Q. Rev. I. 214 A harris, or [one] of any other unshaveable cast.

Unsha·ved, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8; cf. next.)

1648 HEXHAM II, Onbeschoven, Vnshaven, or Vnshaved. 1862 Lond. Rev. 30 Aug. 192 The sturdy philosophy of the unshaved Warrington. 1900 G. SWIFT Somerley 66, I found Dobson unshaved and in the tattered remnants of a dress-suit.

Unsha·ven, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. prec. and MDu. ongescaven.]

1. Not shaved.

1382 WYCLIF 2 Sam. xix. 24 The feet vnwaasshen, and the beerd vnshaueu. *c*1450 Mirk's Festial 125 Pis man..abode half schauen and half vnschauen tyll be Monday after. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 430/2 Though beefore those ceremonyes vsed, priestes mygthe consecrate vnshauen & vnannoynted, ..yet nowe can there none doce so, syth there is no priest made vnhaven and vnannoynted. 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. v. 269 The indicidious and unshaven locks of Apollo. 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy II. iv, My uncle began..to dismiss his barber unshaven. 1838 Dickens O. Twist xxi, The unwashed, unshaven, squalid, and dirty figures. 1863 Miss Braddon Aurora Floyd xxii, His unshaven chin, dark with the blue bristles of his budding beard. 1870 Black Kilmeny iii, He went about in a frightfully unshaven and ragged condition.

2. Not smoothed or planed.

a 1547 Surrey Æneid IV. 527 Their oares..from wood they bring, And mastes vnshaue, for hast to take their flight.

Hence Unsha·venness.

1667 Waterhouse Fire Lond. 62 What avails Sampson's strength, if God give a key to the secret of it which resides in its unshavenness.

Unshaw·l, v. (Un-[2] 7 and 4.)

1817 Lady Morgan Florence II. (1818) I. 238 While I was unshawling, I caught the first stanzas of the following song. 1838 Miss Mitford Village Ser. III. 62 [She] sate down on her dear sofa, and was forthwith unclogged, unshawled and unbonnetted. 1849 C. Brontë Shirley vii, And now Caroline had..to help them to unshawl.

Unshear, v. (Un-[1] 3.) a 1722 Lisle Husb. (1757) 182 [He] unsheared some of his wheat to dry it. †Unshea·f, obs. var. Unsheathe R. 1658 tr. Bergerac's Satyr. Chars. xvi. 67 I'le not unsheafe, to drive your enemy by death far from you.

Unshea·red, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] = Unshorn.

1707 Mortimer Husb. 481 The part [of the rose-tree] unsheared will spend their Strength and Sap. 1788 tr. Chanler's St. Morocco, etc. I. 283 Their household furniture consists in a mat, two sheep-skins, unsheard, to sit upon [etc.]. 1826 Hood Stag-eved Lady 27 A trail Of bristly hair—that, honour'd and unshear'd, Grew downward.

Unshea·the, v. (Un-[2] 4, 5.)

1. trans. To disloge.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus IV. 776 Than shal no mete or drynk come in me, Til I my soule out of my breste vnsheþe. 1593 Shaks. Lucr. 1724 She sheathed in her harmless breast A harmful knife, that thence her soul unsheathed.

2. To draw (a weapon) out of the sheath or scabbard. To unsheathe the sword, to begin hostilities or slaughter. (Cf. Sheathe v. 2.)

a 1542 Wyatt Ps. xxxvii. 41 They have unsheathed eke their bloudye brands. a 1547 Surrey Æneis IV. 774 Aeneas ..his glistering sword unsheathes,..[and] the cabels cut in twaine. 1600 1 Pt. Ch. 2 Oldcastle v. 2, 78 Wherefore were your sharpe edgde knives vnsheathde? 1749 Milton Eikon. ix. 78 Never was King less in danger of any violence from his Subjects, till he unsheath'd his Sword against them. 1683 Waller Invasion of Twoke 60 Unsheathing the destructive sword. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. VI. 686 Are these..the swords Thy hand unsheath'd and gave the savage hordes? 1884 A. R. Pennington Wiclif v. 176 The sword of the persecutor would be unsheathed against him.

fig. and transf. 1692 A. Pitcairne Rerell 287 He did his trustie tongue unsheathe..It was a blade that he could trust. 1774 Goldsm. Nat. Hist. VII. 335 Nature has furnished her [sc. the grasshopper] with an instrument at her tail...which she can sheathe and unsheathe at pleasure. 1810 Southey Kehama xvi. xiv, The Beast..; His mouth half-open, and his teeth unsheath'd. 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! xxvii, A tame leopard, whose claws might be unsheathed ..at any moment.

3. To take out of, strip of, a sheath or covering. Also fig. and refl.

1638 N. Whiting Albino & Bellama 2275 At time of rest her body she unsheathed, And housed within the linen walls her limbs. 1654 H. Power Exp. Philos. I. 30 If you unsheath her body, and take off her spatious short membraneous wings. 1875 Sears Serm. & Songs 6 When our spiritual senses are first unsheathed. 1893 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ II. 225 Sing for joy!..and others will be moved to unsheathe themselves of their wintry exhilirs.

4. intr. 'To come out from a sheath' (Cent. Dict.).

Hence Unsha·thing vbl. sb.

1611 Florio, Desguaine, an vnsheathing..of a weapon. 1823 Lamb Elia II. Old Margate Hoy, Whistling to the sheathing and unsheathing of their cutlasses. 1872 Macduff Mem. Patmos 132 The unsheathings of that terrible sword.

Unsha·thed, ppl. a. [f. prec. or Un-[1] 8.]

1. Of a weapon: Drawn from the sheath; not covered by a sheath.

c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode x. xxxv. (1869) 22 It is bettere the sword be shethed than vnshethed. a 1593 Marlowe Ovid's Eleg. II. ii. 64 My hands an vnsheath'd shyning weapon haue not. 1611 Cotgr. s.v. Blanc, A naked or vnsheathed..sword. 1638 Suckling Aglaura III. i, Blesse me, what means this unsheath'd minister of death [= a sword]? 1700 Dryden Pal. & Arc. II. 253 He..with his Sword unsheath'd..Commands both Combatants to cease their Strife. 1814 Scott Lord of Isles II. xxiii, Fitzjames strikes unsheathed suit bridal cheer? 1842 Bosworth Bible in Spain x, He held his unsheathed knife in his hands.

fig. 1830 Mrs. Hemans Songs Affec., Spirit's Return, Yet something..as that unsheathed spirit-glance I met, Made my soul faint.

2. Not protected by a sheath or sheathing; uncovered, exposed.

1691 T. H[ale] Acc. New Invent. 9 Any unsheathed or Wood-sheathed Ships. Ibid. 24 Not only in sheathed Ships ..but unsheathed too. 1790 Beatson Nav. & Mil. Mem. I. 126 An unsheathed fire ship, was left to act as an adviso-boat. 1884 Bower & Scott De Barry's Phaner. 393 The delicate unsheathed parts of the vascular bundles.

Unshed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.]

1. Not shed or poured out.

c 1450 Mirk's Festial 242 Foryo haue sayytte gyltes blode vnsched on hole parties. 1667 Milton P. L. XII. 176 To blood unshed the Rivers must be turnd. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 483 He..can make the same mass of blood exist at once unshed in the wafer, and shed in the cup. 1816 Byron Dream V, An unquiet drooping of the eye, As if its lid were charged with unshed tears. 1880 Miss Braddon Just as I am v, Dulcie's eyelids were heavy with unshed tears.

2. Unparted.

1596 Spenser F. Q. IV. vii. 40 His faire lockes..He let to grow..Vncomb'd, vncurl'd, and carelesly vnshed.

†Unshee·n, a. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 7.) a 1400 Sir Degrev. 1656 Some lokkes undur tres In slowes unsheene. Unshee·t, v. (Un-[2] 4.) a 1814 Sorceress III. i, in New Brit. Theatre III. 20, I saw Th' accursed robbers..With hideous burglary unsheet a corpse. 1888 Jacobi Printers' Vocab., Unsheet, to withdraw the interleaving sheets between printed work which have been placed there to prevent set-off. Unshe·ted, a. (Un-[1] 9.) [1775 Ash.] 1816 J. Wilson City of Plague I. iv. 52 Down the drunken wretch doth lie Unsheeted in the cemetery. Ibid. 53 The bodies Of the unsheeted dead.

Unshe·ll, v. [Un-[2] 5. Cf. Du. ontschillen, -schellen ] trans. To extract from, to strip of, the shell. (Chiefly fig.) 1599 Nashe Lenten Stuffe D iij, Of him and none but him, ..that euer Yarmoth vnshelled or ingendred. 1611 Cotgr., Challey, ..to shale, or vnshell, Nuts, &c. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. II. x. 90 Our Perkins brought the schools into the Pulpit, and unshelling their controversies out of their hard school-terms, made thereof..wholsome meat for his people. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. VI. xvii, Thou, Love,..did'st unshell My Spirit (fledg'd with Cracos) from that disorder'd cell. 1761 Murphy Citizen II, Sir! Turn out pray, turn out—you won't—Then I'll unshell you. 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose v, By this time he was unshelled, and stood before the fire. 1892 Sat. Rev. 17 Dec. 719/1 You have got but to unshell and unshell it, and there it is.

Hence Unshe·lled ppl. a.[1]; Unshe·lling vbl. sb. a 1668 Lassels Voy. Italy (1698) II. 277 Whose ingenious book gives light to many books by the unshelling of a world of ancient customs. 1799 Sheridan Pizarro IV. i, O'er her unshelled heart of the mourning ring-dove sits not more gently.

Unshe·lled, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8. Cf. NFris. unschelled, MDu. ongescelt (Du. ongescheld), MHG. ungeschelt (G. ungeschält).] Not taken out of the shell. Also (of husks), unremoved.

1594 Nashe Terrors of Night G iij b, Their naturall vnshelled shining mother pearle proportions might be more inprintingly apprehended. 1647 Wither (title), Amygdala Britannica, Almonds for Parrots. A Dish of Stone Fruit, partly shel'd and partly unshel'd. 1769 Phil. Trans. LIX. 322 Ten gallons of the pease, with the husks unshelled. 1802 Naval Chron. VIII. 28 Sweet almonds, unshelled.

Unshe·llerable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1841 Lyttoe Nt. & Morn. II. x, As if to protect him even from the wrath of the unsheltlerable flame.

Unshe·ltered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1599 Daniel Musoph. Wks. (1602) C i b, For this it practises to dissipate Th' vnsheltred troupes. 1665 Boyle Occas. Refl. IV. xx. Shunning all beaten Paths, and unsheltered Grounds. 1667 Decay Chr. Piety vi. 143 [To] leave him unsheltred to that scorching wrath of God. 1746 Leoni Alberti's Archit. I. 28 An open place, unsheltered either by Woods or Hills. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) II. 133, I did not dare to leave my child alone and unsheltered. 1815 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. iv. I. 85 We should soon be..unsheltered, except by eaves. 1895 (J. R. Lakpeth) Cornwall 164 A bleak and unsheltered country.

Unshe·ltering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1614 R. Tailor Hog hath lost Pearl I. i, Whilst dear Carracus Wanders..through th' unshelt'ring field, Seeking me. 1766 Goldsm. Vicar xxiii, My son, observe this bed of straw, and unsheltering roof. 1829 Pall Mall G. 2 Dec. 2/2 Mr. Mitchell still roams the unsheltering streets.

Unshe·lve, v. (Un-[2] 5.) a 1819 Edin. Rev. (Seager), To unshelve books. 1876 Nature 13 Jan. 206/2 He is not likely to unshelve works of travel of a past generation. †Unsne·ble, obs. var. Unshent. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. xii. 610 Al year Thy duc attende,..or laste Vnshende. †Unshe·nding, ppl. a. Obs.[1] [Un-[1] 10.] Not harming or injuring. c 1450 Mirour Salvacionis (Roxb.) 162 So was crist bone of the liv maydenhode vnheedyng.

Unshent, ppl. a. Now arch. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. OE. unscended, MDu. ongescendet, -scent, -scant (obs. Du. ongeschent, Du. ongeschend), OHG. ungeschendet (MHG. ungescant), etc.] Uninjured, unharmed, unspoiled, etc.

1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 2733 Vndyrstand..Þat.. wrong Ligemen Shul neuer more be vnshent. a 1400 Minor Poems fr. Vernon MS. 680/6 Per nis no mon fer ne nere Þat may him-selben sane vnshenti, But he Þat cardyn ..To kepe wel Cristes Comaundement. a 1400–50 Alexander 2143 If at se shap sow to shount vnschent of oure handis. c 1460 Towneley Myst. xv. 3 If thou wyll saue thy self vnshent. 1599 Bp. Hall Sat. iv. 1, Hoe! all ye Females that would liue vnshent. 1628 Wither Brit. Rememb. I. 975 In hope their number keep them shall unshent. 1653 J. Taylor (Water P.) Cert. Trav. Uncert. Journ. 20 Time never was, nor n'ere I thinke shall be, That Truth (unshent) might speake, in all things free. 1821 Keats Sleep & Poetry 379 The patient weeds, that now unshent by foam Feel all about their undulating home. 1868 Browning Ring & Bk. III. 1400 Let the priest retire, unshent, unshamed, Unpunished. 1898 T. Hardy Wessex Poems 62 Like one of those the Furnace held unshent.

Unshe·pherded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1850 Blackie Æschylus I. 104 Depart, ye sheep unshepherded. 1880 Blackw. Mag. CXVIII. 283 A strange flock, evidently unshepherded.

Unshe·riff, v. (Un-[2] 6.) a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Kent II. (1662) 95 But he was soon un-Sheriffed by the Kings death, and another of more true Integrity substituted in his room. Unshe·wed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) Unshown. c 1386 Chaucer Pars. T. 1090 Right so fareth synne þat longe tyme is in a man vnshewed. 1559 W. Bercher Nobil. Women Pref. (Roxb.) 90 That no parte shoulde be vnshewed vnto me, a gentleman, wolde nedes have me with hym in to the contreye. Unshewing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) † Secret. 1598 R. Markham in Harington's Nugæ Ant. (1804) I. 242 When a man hath so manie shewing friendes, and so manie unshewing enemies.

Unshi·ded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1700 Dryden Ovid's Met. XII. 235 Th' inviolable Body stood sincere; Though Cygnus..scornful offer'd his unshielded Side. c 1790 A. Wilson Poems, Tears of Britain, Soon will the tempest..This unshielded bosom most fatally wound. 1817 Scott Harold II. viii, Unshielded, mail-less, on he goes Simply against a host of foes. 1883 Hardwicke's Photogr. Chem. 390 Exposing a small slip of the sensitive paper, unshielded, to the sun's rays.

Unshiftable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

†1. Incapable of helping oneself. Obs.

1622 S. Ward Life of Faith in Death 118 These fooles.. neuer thinke of the shall day, and when away they see they must goe, how vnslyftable are they! 1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter ii. 9 How unshiftable otherwise shall we be in that houre, how unable to answer at the day of Iudgement!

2. Incapable of being shifted; immovable.

1890 W. J. Gordon Foundry 36 Secured so as to be unshiftable in a sea-way.

Unshifted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1643 Greaves Morbus Epidemicus 9 Filth, and nastinesse in Diet,..unshifted apparrell, &c. 1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 182 It never shall be, or at least never was it body unshifted. 1863 Hawthorne Our Old Home (1879) 208 Wearing the unrobshed coat, unshifted linen, and unwashed faces of yesterday.

Unshiftingness. (Un-[1] 12.) 1890 Sat. Rev. 23 April 538/2 A malicious man, too, insidiously ejected from his long-accustomed groove,..presents just as wretched a picture of helplessness and unshiftiness. Unshifting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1811 Wordsw. To Beaumont 18 An unsplitting weather-cock. 1817 Chalmers in Bibliot. Rev. Mar. 15 A small and unshifting population. Unshifty, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf Unshiftiness.) 1570 Levins Manip. 111 Vnshifty, improuidus. Unshi·mmering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1868 Geo. Eliot Span. Gipsy 50 All thought-searching form Utters itself in firm unshimmering hues. Unshi·ngled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1611 in Essex Rev. XV. 47 The church is unleaded and unshingled. c 1805 A. Wilson Foresters, The owner, indolent and poor, His house unshingled and with out a door. Unshi·ning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1682 Creech Lucretius v. 158 Else the Sun hath secret stores of Heat, Dark and unshining stores, but vastly great. 1867 E. F. Burr Ecce Cœlum iii. 63 [The earth] seemed..so different from them [sc. the heavenly bodies], so unshining.

Unship, v. [Un-[2] 5, 4, 7. Cf. Du. ontschepen, G. entschiffen.]

1. trans. To take out of, remove or discharge from, a ship; to put on shore (or into a boat, etc.) from a vessel.

a 1450 Contn. Brut 542 He..saylet toward Normaundy, and londit at Hoiges,..and vnshippit his pepill. 1497 Naval Acc. Hen. VII (1896) 3/4 Ladders for to Shep men and vnship men with. 1543 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. ccxvi. 113 b/2 The kynge of Ciper..arrived at Douer,..and refreshed hym tyll all his carlage was vnshipped. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 210 They vnshipped their horse and harneys, not knowing in what part of England they were. 1624 Capt. Smith Virginia v. 74 They vnshipped all their goods..into their Boats. 1641 W. Hakewil Libertie of Subject 102 Impositions are not paid upon the buying and selling of Merchandize, but when they are to ship or unship. 1719 D. Foe Crusoe II. (Globe) 426 In the voyage..he had had the Misfortune to be five Times ship'd and unship'd. 1726 Swift Gulliver II. i, We unshipped our goods. 1837 Hr. Martineau Soc. Amer. II. 6 All hands were busy in unshipping the cargo, to lighten the vessel. 1888 Law Rep. 18–19 Vic. c. 41 § 17 Any harbour..at which vessels can..ship or unship goods or passengers.

refl. a 1604 Hanmer Chron. Irel. (1809) 253 They forthwith landed, and unshipped themselves.

b. To deprive of, dismiss from, a ship.

1829 Marryat F. Mildmay XXI, I should have unshipped him next cruise.

2. Naut. To detach or remove (esp. a mast, rudder, or oar) from a fixed place or position.

1598 Hakluyt Voy. I. 235 We were not able to beare in, but by violence were constrained to take the sea agayne, our Pinnesse being vnship't. 1769 Falconer Dict. Marine (1776) Dégarnir le cabestan, to unrig the capstern, by taking off the voyol, and unshipping the bars. 1773 Cook S. Voy. (1777) II. 1. 205 He..divided under the boat, and..unshipped the rudder. 1806 Pike Sources Missis. (1810) 102 Obliged to unship our mast to prevent its rolling overboard. 1865 Dickens Mut. Fr. I. i, The speaker at the same time unshipping his scull on that side. 1874 Bedford Sailor's Pocket Bk. viii. 241 So that we should..may..be..unshipped and re-shipped again at pleasure.

fig. 1816 Sporting Mag. XLVII. 277 Crocken..beat a Knightsbridge wheelwright..by unshipping his jaw in the fourth round.

b. In general use.

1793 Smeaton Edystone L. § 140 Unshipping the tackle belonging to the lantern. 1832 Lincoln Herald 13 Jan. 2 John Page saw Clarke unship the flag on the top of the governor's house. 1839 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. 87 No 2 unships the handspike. 1882 Gala Amer. Revis. (1885) 384 Tell the porter not to unship the little one-legged flap table..fixed to the wall of the car.

3. intr. a. To admit of being detached or removed.

1824 Marryat P. Simple II. 30 Six large pieces of iron, ..with a gimblet at one end of each, and a square at the other, which fitted to a handle which unshipped. 1844 Stephens Bk. Farm III. 1169 The top-sides..are fitted to ship and unship as occasion may require. 1862 Catal. Internat. Exhibi., Brit. II. No. 2256, The upper ladders unship by means of shifting levers.

b. To become detached.

1867 Smyth Sailor's Word-bk. 161 Capstan-bar Pins, pins inserted through their ends to prevent their unshipping. 1883 Pall Mall G. 13 Mar. 10/2 The boat's rudder unshipped and caused the boat to capsize.

4. To undergo unloading from a vessel.

1860 Dickens Christmas Stories, Message fr. Sea I, Such other cargo as was..unshipping at the pier.

5. trans. a. Of a horse: To unseat, throw (the rider).

1832 SCOTT Let. in Westm. Gaz. 14 June (1904) 12/2 My forester walks by his [sc. the pony's] head for fear a start or sudden stumble should unship me altogether. 1853 R. S. SURTEES Sponge's Sp. Tour lxvii, One [horse] has still his muzzle on, lest he should unship his rider and eat him.

b. To unbalance, upset.

1827 CHALMERS in Hunt Life (1851) III. 163, I really fear lest his [sc. Irving's] prophecies may unship him altogether.

Hence Unshi·pped ppl. a., Unshi·pping vbl. sb.

1868 MORRIS Earthly Par. (1870) II. iii, 389 A ring of leanlanders, who sat Upon the bales of unshipped goods. 1497 Naval Acc. Hen. VII (1896) 237 Ladders for shippyng & vnshippyng of men. 1709 Act 8 Anne c. 7 § 17 The Persons..to whose Hands the same shall knowingly come, after the unshipping thereof. 1803 Act 43 Geo. III, c. 132 § 28 To prevent the fraudulent unshipping or re-landing of Goods.

Unshi·plike, a. (UN-[1] 7 c.) 1842 DICKENS Amer. Notes (1868) 46 A sullen, cumbrous, ungraceful, unshiplike leviathan. 1889 — Lett. (1880) II. 101, I thought her [sc. the Great Eastern] the ugliest and most unshiplike thing these eyes ever beheld.

Unshi·pment. (f. UNSHIP v.) 1846 WORCESTER (citing Penny Mag.). 1879 MISS BRADDON Vixen III. 273 Mr. Vawdrey..came round to assist in the unshipment of Violet's belongings.

Unshi·pped, a. [UN-[1] 9.] Not provided with a ship.

1720 DE FOE Capt. Singleton v. (1840) 82 We were..all upon a level, as to our travelling, being unshipped. 1725 — Voy. round World (1840) 200 We should be like a company of freebooters loose and unshipped. 1827 POLLOK Course T. ii. 241 Choosing, then unshipped, Unencumbered, improvisioned,..To swim a sea of breadth immeasurable.

Unshi·pshape, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1883 Harper's Mag. Jan. 198/2 Never was seen so unshipshape and disreputable a locomotive as that on dirty here. Unshi·pversed, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) c 1637 H. KING The Sovereign 14 That golden constellation..guides the seaman..Safe and unshipwrack'd through the troubled streams. Unshi·vered, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1597 BP. HALL Sat. v. iii, Theins, like annilles, bore the hairwyers head, Ou glasse can neuer touch vnshiuered. ? 1827 MRS. HEMANS Last Constantine x, So may thy helmet tower Unshiver'd through the storm. Unshivering, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1838 MILMAN Samor VIII. 55 On Werl Samor with unshivering naked foot.

Unsho·cked, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1712 TICKELL in Spect. No. 532, Thy spotless Thoughts unshock'd the Priest may hear. 1774 FOOTE Commers II, You must have the heart of a tiger to stand unshocked at such a horrible scene. 1816 BYRON Prisoner of Chillon vi, The very rock hath rock'd, And I have felt it shake, unshock'd. 1891 H. HEXMAN His Angel 57 Though her seasoned tar..remained unshocked by an occasional oath.

Unsho·d, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b, or 1. UNSHOE v. Cf. UNSHOED] ppl. a. and Sw. oskodd.]

1. Of persons, or the feet: Having a shoe or shoes not put on, or taken off; not wearing shoes, barefooted.

c 897 K. ÆLFRED Gregory's Past. C. v. 45 Donne biŏ us sniŏe fracoflice oŏer ŏe unsocd. c 1000 ÆLFRIC Deut. xxv. 10 Nemne hine seic man on Israhela folce unsceoda. a 1300 Cursor M. 15099 Tuelue er ma o men vnscod ban has he wit him broght. 1382 WYCLIF Isaiah xx. 3 As wente.. Isaie nakid and vnshod. Ibid. 4. 1596 SPENSER F.Q. II. xii. 23 There follow'd fast at hand two wicked Hags,..Their feet vnshod, their bodies wrapt in rags. 1647 DRAYTON Battle of Agincourt 26 Vnshod, and without stockings are the best. 1693 T. Emilianus's Hist. Monast. Ord. 156 The Order of the Unshod Carmelites. 1728 POPE Dunc. III. 114 Mere naked, bald, ..shod, unshod. 1982 COWPER Sk. Prost. Lady 16 With unshod feet they yet securely tread. 1849 C. BRONTE Shirley xxxiii, He left his shoes on the mat; mounted the stairs unshod. 1890 ROSSETTI Bowden Nineveh iv, Any god Before whose feet men knelt unshod.

absol. 1382 WYCLIF Deut. xxv. 10 The hows of the vnshod. 1847 F. PRANDI tr. Cantù's Ref. Europe I. 212 The Order of the Unshod.

transf. 1535 COVERDALE Deut. xxv. 10 And his name shalbe called in Israel, the vnshodd house.

2. Of horses: Having cast a shoe or shoes; not furnished with shoes.

1523 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. xviii. 9/2 Most part of their horses [were] hurt on their back, nor they had nat wherwith to shoe them, that were vnshod. 1530 PALSGR. 768/2 Your horse is unshod of bothe his hynder fete. 1612 ROLLAND Caméten's Brit. 549 They use their Horses unshod. 1680 Lond. Gaz. No. 1565/4 One dark bay Nag..lately rowelled, and trots all, and unshod. 1839 DARWIN Voy. Nat. x. 225 [It] would soon disable an unshod horse from taking part in the chase.

3. Not protected by an iron rim, toe-piece, etc.

1497 Naval Acc. Hen. VII (1896) 87 A pair wheles vnshodd. 1557 in Raine Richmond. Wills (1853) 102 One yron bound wayne and ij. unshode cowpes. 1601 in Morgan Hist. II. (1617) 204 Ten Culuerings..mounted vpon vnshod wheeles. 1660 Act 12 Chas. II, c. 4 Rates, Shovells, unshod, the dozen, ijs. iiijd. 1869 A. HUME Brit. Antiq. 27 The unshod wooden wheels of timber carriages.

Unsho·dden, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.) 1836 F. MAHONY Rel. Father Prout 176 It is far from my purpose..to tread on such solemn ground save with..feet duly unshodden. 1898 IVYMEY Coldstream iv, To place our unshodden feet upon the necks of kings.

Unshoe, v. [UN-[2] 4. Cf. OE. an-, on-, unscōgian, ME. ontscoeyen, -scoen (Du. -schoeien), MLG. entschoien, OHG. in(t)scuohōn (MHG. entschuohen, G. -schuhen).] trans. To remove a shoe or shoes from; to strip or deprive of shoes.

1485 CAXTON Reynard xix. (Arb.) 45 Whan Isegrym was vnshoed, The musie..his wyf lye doun in the grasse [etc.]. 1530 PALSGR. 768/2, I unshoe a horse, je desferre. 1591 SPENSER Du Bartas I. iii. 767 O Moon-wort! tell us where thou hid'st the Smith, Hammer, and Pincers, thou unshoo'st them with? 1618 tr. Mathieu's Powerfull Fear. 1 They are unshod of their high shoes that elevated them above others. 1653 CULPEPPER Eng. Phys. Enlarged (1656) 163 Moon-wort is an herb which they say wil..unshoe such Horses as tread upon it. 1677 GILPIN Demonol. I. xiii. 102 They were told..that this did unshoe their Foot, and afflicted them with Thirst and Want. 1887 Every-day Bk. II. 197 They were to unshoe themselves. 1868 HOLME LEE B. Godfrey xliii, Joan unshod her feet.

transf. 1852 BURN Naval & Mil. Techn. Dict. II. 302/1 To Unshoe a wheel, Mettre la bande de roue.

b. Unshoe-the-horse, the plant moonwort. ? Obs.

1635 SWAN Spec. M. vii. § 4 (1644) 251 The Italians call it Vnshoe-the-horse; because if they tread upon it, they lose their shoes. 1653 CULPEPPER Eng. Phys. Enlarged (1656) 163 Country people that I know, call it Unshoe the Horse. 1898 DICKINSON Cumbld. Gloss. 85 Unshoe the horse, I have heard the Botrychium Lunaria plant so called.

Hence Unshoe·ing vbl. sb.

1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong, Dechaussement, an vnshoing. 1653 UNQUHART Rabelais v. xxii. 95 Gargantua.. played..at [the game] the unshoing of the Asse.

Unshoe·d, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8, or f. UNSHOE v. Cf. MDu. ongescoeit, -scoet (Du. -schoied, † -schoed), MLG. ungeschoiet, MHG. -schuohet (G. -schuht), ON. úskóaðr (Da. uskoet).] = UNSHOD ppl. a. Also transf.

1388 WYCLIF Isaiah xx. 3 As my seruaunt Ysaie gede nakid and vnshood. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. I. 860 A menstruate vnqiet woman, vnshood, Vntressed. 1499 Cely Papers (Camden) 19 To bye for me a carthe at Caleys..unschude the wyllys [= wheels]. 1530 TINDALE Deut. xxv. 10 His name shalbe called in Israel, the vnshood house. a 1564 BECON Works. Pref. c iij b, The shoe, that is moulde with thee, is the shoe of him that is vnshood. 1805 H. H. DIXON Field & Fern, South 34 There are ponies, too,..fat and unshood.

† Unshoe·k, obs. var. UNSHAKEN ppl. a.

1633 BP. HALL Broken H. v. ii, Stretch out Thine arm with vigour, and unshook virtue. a 1644 QUARLES Sol. Recount. ix. ii. 42 They gain the Port..With Ribs unshook. 1736 THOMSON Liberty IV. 430 On the groaning mast With unshook sinew to know their duty way.

Unsho·p, v. (UN-[2] 5.) (See quot.) 1839 F. LIEBER Pol. Ethics II. iv § 38. 249 High rewards were paid for discovering any disobedience, or even for 'unshopping,' that is, throwing out of employment, highly skilful hands. Unshored, a. (UN-[1] 9.) Shoreless. 1881 MASSON De Quincey 63 Unshored astronomical abysses.

Unshorn, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b. Cf. OE. unscoren, MDu. ongescoren (Du. -schoren), OHG. ungescoran (MHG. ungeschorn, G. -schoren), ON. úskorinn (Sw. oskuren, Da. uskaaren).]

1. Not shorn, cut, or cropped: a. Of cloth.

1464 Rolls of Parl. V. 564/2 [No person shall buy] eny Wollen than unshorn, or take promesse of bargayn of eny Wolles than unshoren. 1486 Bk. St. Albans b v, A dagon or pece of Rough blanket vnshoron. 1535- [see UNBARBED 1]. 1597 SHAKS. Lover's Compl. 94 His phenix downe began but to appeare Like vnshorne veluet. 1675 HOBBES Odyssey (1677) 228 He wore a purple vest, Unshorn, and lin'd. 1700 DRYDEN Flower & Leaf 266 White Velvet, but unshorn, for Cloaks they wore. 1716 GAY Tritonia 1. 47 True Witney broad-cloth, with its nap.

b. Of persons or animals, hair, etc.

c 1449 PECOCK Repr. I. xx. 118 The heer of wommennys heed vnschorn. 1365 COOPER Thesaurus s.v. Intonsus, Sheepe vnshorne. 1577 B. GOOGE Heresbach's Husb. 138 Hys wooll which sheeps hae washed and vnshorne. 1596 W. SMITH Chloris xlviii, Those curled locks which thou wast wont to twist, Vnkempt, vnshorne, and out of order beene. 1628 MILTON Vac. Exerc. 27 Listening to what unshorn Apollo sings. 1693 DRYDEN tr. Ovid's Met. I. v. 76 As the Locks of Phœbus are unshorn. 1820 KEATS Eve St. Agnes viii, All amort, Save to St. Agnes and her lambs unshorn. 1848 THACKERAY Van. Fair xxxix, The caresses of the old gentleman, unshorn and perfumed with tobacco.

c. † Unshorn, sb. obs.

1573 TUSSER Husb. (1878) 105 Some mowe vp their hedlouds and plots among corne, and drinen to leaue nothing, vnmowne, or vnshorne. 1601 CAMPION Wks. (1909) 21 A Meadow yet vnshorne. 1612 QUARLES Sampson Wks. (Grosart) II. 155/2 His rip'ned Corne; Whereof, some part ..stood unshorne. 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Past. v. 98 The mountain-tops unshorn, the rocks, rejoice. 1757 AKENSIDE Plear. Imag. I. 316 The pathless woods unshorn That wave o'er huge Olympus. 1820 SCOTT Lady of L. I. xxvi, Of mountain fir, with bark unshorn. a 1850 BRYANT Prairies 2 These are..The unshorn fields, boundless and beautiful. 1873 SYMONDS Grk. Poets vii. 222 This garland..Of wilding flowers plucked from an unshorn meadow.

2. fig. Not reduced or diminished; not deprived of something.

1818 BYRON Ch. Har. IV. lxxii. An Iris sits..and..bears serene Its brilliant hues with all their beams unshorn. 1818 KEATS 'There is a charm' 12 One who was great through mortal days, and died of fame unshorn. 1821-2 SHELLEY Chas. I. iv. 142 To God Alone he must deliver up his trust, Unshorn of its permitted attributes.

Unshortened, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1744 YOUNG Nt. Th. vi. 542 Unshortened by progression Infinite! Futurity for ever future! 1805 Ann. Rev. III. 244 Every tax should be..leave unshortened to speculation his casting-net, and to industry his oar. 1855 Poultry Chron. III. 496/2 The bulls..may be left unshortened until the end of September. 1898 RUSKIN Notes 77 His full, final, unshortened strength is in these [drawings].

Unshot, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8 b.]

1. a. Not fired or let off.

1544 Exped. Scotl. in Fragm. Sc. Hist. (1798) 14 The Scottes fledde from theyr ordinances, leuyng them vnshot. 1686 WALLER Night Piece 34 He..With Cupid's pointed Arrows plays; They, with a touch, they are so keen, Wound us unshot, and She unseen. 1899 J. MILNE Romance of Pro-Consul vi. 52 For his own gun, he snatched an unshot one which the man was struggling to release from its cover.

b. Not struck by a shot; not shot at.

[1795 JOHNSON.] 1897 Outing XXIX. 568/1 The deer left suddenly and unshot. Ibid., We found them easily,..and as before they whirled away unshot at to the cover.

2. Of grain: Not come into ear; not sprouted.

1854 H. MILLER Sch. & Schm. xxv. 527 Fields..waving with the yet unshot corn. 1892 Times 8 June 10/4 Barley and oats had been lying in the soil for a long time unshot.

3. Not shot out or deposited.

1882 Pall Mall G. 7 Oct. 1 France is full of the unshot, unburned rubbish of her last financial orgie.

Unsho·t, v. (UN-[2] 5.) 1891 Amer. Hilth. Dict. (ed. 2), To unshot a gun, to take the ball out of a piece of ordnance.

Unsho·ted, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 9.] Not loaded with shot.

1802 Naval Chron. VII. 18 The Phœnix fired a gun..unshotted. 1856 FROUDE Hist. Eng. vii. II. 229 Mere idle sounds, like the bellow of unshotted cannon.

Unshou·lder, v. [UN-[2] 4.]

1. trans. (See quot.) rare—0.

1598 FLORIO, Spallare, to vnshoulder, to put ones shoulders out of joint.

2. To remove from the shoulder.

1625 MARKHAM Souldiers Accid. 11 The two Rankes next it must vnshoulder their Musquets. 1656 R. ELTON Military Art (1659) 192 Unshoulder your Musket and poyse. 1859 R. F. BURTON in Trnl. Geog. Soc. XXIX. 414 At a short distance they halt, unshoulder their burdens. 1882 EDWES in Fr. Bougeralla to Yacca I. xii. 346 The goods all unshouldered and dispersed.

Unshou·ldered, a. (UN-[1] 9.) 1790 SPEECHLY Culture Vine 6 The berries of this species..compose long unshouldered bunches. Unshoulder·ing, (UN-[2] 5.) 1607 SHAKS. Cor. v. v, 4 Vnshoot the noise that banish'd Martius; Repeale him, with the welcome of his Mother. Unshou·vel, v. (UN-[2] 4.) trans. To uncover by removing a shovel-hat. 1836 T. HOOK G. Gurney II. 228 Sir, you slimy clerical friend, unshovelling his head, 'I am extremely glad to see you'.

Unshou·velled, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1828 Craven Gloss., Unshoiled, not shovelled, uncleansed. 1855 WHITMAN Song of Myself xxii, Sea of the brine of life and of unshovell'd, yet always-ready graves.

Unshow·ered, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not moistened by showers.

1629 MILTON Hymn Nativ. xxiv, Nor is Osiris seen.. Trampling the unshowr'd Grasse with lowings loud. 1873 SYMONDS Grk. Poets vii. 196 Bringing Oedipus to die among the unshowered meadows of those Thessalian Ladies.

Unshown, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.)

1606 SHAKS. Ant. & Cl. III. vi. 52 You..haue preuented The ostentation of our loue; which left vnshewne, Is often left vnloo'd. 1614 SYLVESTER Bethulia's Rescue IV. 45 Though, as unknown, to pass unshown shee weep, Her Odors made her smelt, her Jewels seen. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongetoont, Vnshowne, or Vndemonstrated. 1832 L. HUNT Gentle Armour ii. 26 The stranger, with his face unshewn, Rides by. 1865 M. ARNOLD Ess. Crit. 286 Marcus Aurelius saw it [Christianity] with its future yet unshown.

Unshow·y, a. (UN-[1] 7.) 1838 LYTTON Alice III. vi, There was another, equally hard-favoured and unshowy,.. and that virtue was Justice.

Unshrine, v. [UN-[2] 5.] trans. To remove from, cast out of, a shrine. Also fig.

1599 Life Sir T. More in Wordsw. Eccl. Biog. (1853) II. 181 We have of late unshrined him [sc. Thomas of Canterbury]. 1609 HOLLAND Amm. Marcell. 230 The image of Apollo Chomeus being displaced, unshrined and brought to Rome. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. VII. xvii, Could's thou ..., from each golden cell, unshrine Those beams. 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. IX. 612 Descartes..Unshrines old errors and propounds his own. 1887 CARLYLE Corresp. Rem. I. 5 Musäus grasped his satirical hammer; and with lusty strokes, defaced and unshrined the false divinity.

Unshrined, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not enshrined; unburied.

1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 1066/ Sein tomas body..adde leye an ede vnsarined vifti yer. 1612 GORGES Lucan v. 142 If that she..doe finde A carkasse on the ground vn-shrinde. 1846 WORCESTER (citing Southey).

Unshri·nement. (f. UNSHRINE v.) 1891 Athenæum 21 March 364/3 Of the disposal of St. Thomas's skeleton at the unshrinement there are two stories.

Unshri·nkable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.)

1885 Army & Navy Co-op. Soc. Price List July 1300 Flannels..Unshrinkable so-called. 1897 Voice (N.Y.) 1 Apr. 3/4 The Methodist vote is one of the unshrinkable assets of that party.

Unshri·nking, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 10.] Not shrinking or drawing back; unyielding, firm.

1605 SHAKS. Mach. v. viii. 42 The which no sooner had his Prowesse confirm'd In the vnshrinking station where he fought, But like a man he dy'de. 1706 WAYTE Horæ Lyr. II. (1743) 169 He that unshrinking and without a Groan, Bears the first Wound. 1799 SHERIDAN Pizarro IV. ii, Thy unshrinking ears may at last be feasted with the music of my cries. 1845 M. PATTISON Ess. (1889) I. 15 A union of prudence, tact, firmness, and unshrinking principle. 1898 B. TAYLOR Deukalion I. iv. 34 The firm-set lips, And level glance of thine unshrinking eyes.

Hence Unshri·nkingly adv.

1846 MRS. HEMANS Forest Sanctuary I. xlv, There was one, with whom, Thou might'st purchase, unshrinkingly have died. 1857 SUSANNA WINKWORTH tr. Life Tauler 135 They ..unshrinkingly declared their adherence to all that they had hitherto taught.

Unshriven, variant of next.

[1775 ASH.] 1821 J. WILSON Isle of Palms, etc. 258 Had unshriven guilt for one moment been there, His heart had turn'd to stone! 1819 SHELLEY Cenci iv. 1. 89 As she shall die unshriven and unforgiven. 1820 SCOTT Monast. xxiii.

Unshriven, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8 b.)

a 1225 Ancr. R. 314 Me telleb..of on oŏer mon þet..deide unschriuen þerof. a 1300 Cursor M. 23122 Vn-scriuen war þai at pair end, Bot deied in dedli sin. c 1395 Plowman's Tale 121. vii, Thyself and hel her paryshe dye vnshriue. c 1440 Jacob's

Well 181 For on dedly synne vnschreuyn, þou schalt be dampnyd. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 100 He may do..mony venyall synnys vnshryuen. 1813 Hogg Queen's Wake 287 Sires, in dread of sins unshriven. 1890 S. Dobell Roman i. 9 Thoughts, which..would have gone..down to hell, unblest, unshriven. 1898 [see Unpriested].

Unshroud, v.[1] [Un-[2] 5, 3.]

1. trans. To strip of a shroud; fig. to uncover, lay bare, expose. Also Unshroud-ing vbl. sb.

1594 Southwell M. Magd. Funeral Teares 27 b, Yea, would he haue bin so venturous, as to haue stayed the vnshrowding of the corse? 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. xii. xxv, At length the piercing Sunne his team unshrouds, And with his arrows th' idle fogge doth chase. 1653 A. Wilson Inconstant Ladie v. iii. Vnshroud thyselfe thou night-rauen. a 1773 Ferguson Poems (1879) 177 Turn, fair Amanda! cheer your swain, Unshroud him from his veil of woe. 1791 E. Darwin Bot. Gard. ii. 133 Now the broad Sun his golden orb unshrouds. 1821 Scott Kenilw. viii, Unshrouding the dark lantern, which had hitherto only emitted an indistinct glimmer. 1824 Campbell Dream 26 Methought I beheld two hands a space Slow unshroud a spectre's face.

2. To open out.

1846 New Monthly Mag. Dec. 488 Without..unshrouding the folds of my mantle, I stalked towards the sofa.

Unshroud, v.[2] [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To strip (a vessel) of shrouds or ropes.

1584 Hudson Judith ii. (1608) 36 The quiet see..growes ... And lastly beates the banks, and ships vnshrouds.

Unshrouded, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not wrapped in, or covered with, a shroud. Also fig.

1410 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God 384 So be thy face unshrouded And thy pure hornes uncloded! 1742 Blair Grave 152 There's not a Dungeon-Slave, that's bury'd In the High-way, unshrouded and uncoffin'd, But..sleeps as sound as He. 1799 Sheridan Pizarro iii. ii, He will..open ..his unshrouded eyes, and bless me with his last look. 1823 Peard Troubadour i. 516 They walked upon the earth, Unshrouded, in a ghastly mirth. 1855 Singleton Virgil II. 266 Had Cytheiea not a token designed From the unshrouded Sky.

Unshrubbed, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1610 Shaks. Temp. iv. i. 81 Who..with each end of thy blew bowe do'st crowne My boskie acres, and my vnshrubbed downe, Vnstanched. Unshrunken, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1862 Lytton Str. Story II. 39 With enough of vigour for years to come..in the unshrunken muscle of his limbs. 1897 Allbutt's Syst. Med. IV. 475 When the skin is cut unshrunken and unscarred. 1898 Unshuffled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1775 Ash.] 1901 Munsey's Mag. XXIV. 871/2 Playing with unshuffled cards.

Unshunnable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1604 Shaks. Oth. iii. iii. 275 'Tis destiny vnshunnable, like death. 1839 F. Barham tr. Scribe's Adamas Exul v. 47 Deadly rage, And the black hurricane of thick despair Urge on the unshunnable doom. 1890 Furness Variorum Shakes. Wint. Pref. p. vii, It makes no difference whether the unshunnable outcry is in Sicilian, or Italian, or English.

Unshunned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. iii. ii. 63 An vnshun'd consequence, it must be so. 1648 Hexham II, Ongemijdt, Vnshunned, or Vn-auoided.

Unshunning, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) †Unavoidable. 1593 Q. Eliz. Boeth. v. pr. i. 50 Order it self that goes on with an vnshonning [L. inuitabili] turne. Unshunted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1873 F. Jenkin Electr. & Magn. xvi. § 3 The sensibility..of the unshunted galvanometer.

Unshut, v. [Un-[2] 3, 7. Cf. OE. unsceyttan.]

1. trans. To open or unlock (a door, etc.); †to undo (a lock). Now rare.

13.. Coer de L. 4212 On schal dwelle the clos withinne, Thè gate to unschette and unpynne, And stylly to unschette the lok. c 1325 Shoreham i. 2228 Nou, lord, pat coudest maky open þet no man coude unschette. 1380–80 Visions of St. Paul 198 in O. E. Misc. 228 He opened pe Mouþ of þat put, Hit stonk foule wȝon hit was vn-schut. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 679 My purs I wole vnschete. 1470–85 Malory Arthur xi. iii. 572 Anone as he had vnshet the wyndowe. c 1475 Mankind 52 in Macro Plays 3 On-schett yowr lokke, & take an halpenye. 1530 Palsgr. 768/2, I unshote, I open, je desferme. ibid., Unshote the doore. [Cf. 285/2 Unshutynge, desferment.] 1611 Cotgr., Desferrer, to open; to vnshut, or vndoe a thing shut. 1873 Browning Red Cott. Nt.-cap 274 Compare such paragon With any scarabæus of the brood That..keeps wing in wingcase;.. the couple yonder..never budes unshut from smash the gauze.

absol. c 1430 Lydg. Min. Poems 52 Off Abyssi this Aungel bar the keyes, Called Clauis Dauid to shettyn and vnshette.

fig. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 1573 Thre cruses ben, which I pe wole vnschete And open a-non, wil you schalt with hire dele. 1513 Douglas Æneid xii. Prol. 121 Gymp gerrafouris thar royn levys vnschet. 1589 Fleming Virg. Georg. ii. 24, I enter..on things of old and ancient praise,.. being bold t'vnshut or open holie springs.

2. intr. To become open.

1390 Gower Conf. II. 102 Ther is no dore, which mai charke, Wherof an yhe scholde unschette. a 1400 Stockholm Med. MS. ii. 390 in Anglia XVIII. 317 Ley hem on neuer so strong a lok, it schal onschetyn & onstrok. 1649 G. Daniel Trinarchia, Ev. Wives need not feare an Asse's Lond Of Solar Earth, can force the Gates vnshut.

2. dial. To unharness (a horse).

1877 in Burne Folk-Lore (1883) 611 His team's unshut, his whip's laid up. 1841 Harishonne Salop. Ant. Gloss., Unshut, to unlink, or unyear horses. 1879 Shropshire Word-bk. 310.

Unshut, ppl. a. [f. prec. or Un-[1] 8 b.]

1. Opened, unclosed; not closed or shut.

c 1384 Chaucer H. Fame iii. 1953 And be day..Been al the dores opened wide And be nyght echon vnshet. 1426 Lydg. De Guil. Pilgr. 23403 The glass..Of the castel stood vnshet. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) ii. 259/2 An hous the whiche byfore outwarde is moche ornate..but behynde all unshytte &..ruynous. †1606 Rowlands Terrible Battell (Huntterian Cl.) 36 From eare to eare thou haes a mouth vnshut. 1691 E. Taylor Behmen's Theos. Philos. 331 Whereby we ascend into his Arms, the unshut Light-World. 1849 M. Arnold Forsaken Merman 44 Where great whales come sailing by, Sail and sail, with unshut eye. a 1851 Moir Poems, Tombless Man iii, And, in the midst,.. An unshut gateway.

2. Not shut up.

1610 Bp. Hall Apol. agst. Brownists lv. 134 The plague.. of sinne vnshut vp and vncouered.

Unshutter, v. (Un-[2] 4.)

1861 Hughes Tom Brown at Oxf. xvii, He unshuttered the little latice-window of the room on the ground-floor. [Also in recent use (1901–).]

Unshuttered, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1845 James Arrah Neil II. iii. 39 From an open door, or unshuttered window, the lights..served also for the benefit of the passenger. 1883 'Ouida' Wanda I. 58 She seated herself here by the unshuttered casement.

Unshy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa II. 45 It would be doing Mr. Solmes a spight, to wish him such a shy, unshy girl. 1814 Lady Lyttelton Let. 29 July, I was thinking how totally unshy I was! Unshy-ly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1814 Lady Lyttelton Let. 12 Sept., Pretty [German school-] girls of all ages answering very unshyly.

Unsib, sb. : see Un-[1] 3 (s.v. unsibbe).

†Unsib, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. OE. ungesib, OG. unsibli, -sippi (MHG. unsippe), Goth. unsibjis.] Not related, not of kin. In quots. absol.

c 1200 Ormin 9464 And þioť [=she is] forthall wiþþ alle menn Wiþþ sibbe & wiþþ unnsibbe. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 1198 To holy land, ȝyf þou haue hyt hette; Syb, ne vnsyb, may hyt lette.

Unsick, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. older Du. onziek, ON. ósjúkr, MSw. osiuker, MDa. usyg.)

c 1300 Cleanness 1 Drouze 1209 And I..Vp rose.. Hole and vnsicke, right wele at ease. c 1540 Copland Hye Way to Spytlel Ho. 198 Bedrid folke, and suche as can not crave,.. But not every unseke stoborne knave. 1594 Daniel Cleopatra K. 4 b, What comfortlesse Eloquence can sound, And yet all fayles vs in the poynt of trying.

Unsicker, a. Obs. exc. Sc. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. N Fris. unseker, MDu. onseker (Du. onzeker), MLG. unseker, OHG. unsichere (MHG. and G. unsicher), MDa. usekker, Da. usikker, Sw. osäker.] Uncertain; unsafe; insecure.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 144 Deaȝ þet we beoð siker of & unsiker hwonne. c 1325 Metr. Hom. 83 Gode ensumpli may thai leve, Unsikir of thinge sell to be. c 1390 R. Rolle Chron. Wace (Rolls) 9636 Bot per hap was al vnsyker; For synne of Oca..Dide al his felawes & hym be lorn. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) VIII. 327 Pe buldyng vupon..vnsikergrounde bygynnip to slyde. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 41 Thus vnsikir of my smal lyfloode. 1470–85 Malory Arthur xvii. xxiii. 724 Galahad prayed yow to remembre of this vnsyker world. 1533 Bellenden Livy iv. v. (S.T.S.) II. 66 He had leyt returne to rome with sikkir victorie þan vnsikkir pece of wolchis. a 1578 Lindesay (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 33 It was wnsickir to comit his lyfe and honoure in the biuding wp of landis witht the Earle of Douglas. 1596 Dubois To Colonel de Pesyster (Du. Dame Life..Oh! flickering, feeble, and unsicker I've found her still. 1819 W. Tennant Papistry Storm'd (1827) 5 Thou.. flaft't thy wings, and in a crack Flew frae th' unsicker stance!

Hence Unsicker-ness, uncertainty. Also Unsicker-ly, unsafely, insecurely.

c 1340 Hampole Cons. 2009 Ale þe sykernes þat had Ennoc and Ely..War noght bot als unsykernes. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) III. 287 Pou schalt have..unsikerness..of py children ende. † a 1400 Morte Arth. 966 Thow sayynd the vnsekyly to sele to these mounte. c 1440 Jacob's Well 221 A-forn me I se vnsykernes to wyth-stonde feendys þat temptyn me. a 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunterian Cl.) 201/55 With wrechtiness wofull away thow wendis; The dirk certane, the hour vnsickirnes.

Unsickled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1820 Shelley Let. Mar. Gisborne 278 The surface of the unsickled corn Trembles not in the slumbering air. Unsie-ge, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.) 1592 Sylvester Tyr. Faith iii. xi, Hee.. Whom Heav'nly arms, from Assur did unsiege! Hee most religious, matchlesse Ezechias. 1594 Zepheria xxv, Let not disdayne thy soule vnsanctifie,..Vnsieging where it seekes to fortifie With deadly frownes the canons of the brow.

Unsifted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. Du. ongesift.]

1. Not passed through a sieve; unstrained.

1589 Cogan Haven Health (ed. 2) iv. 25 When meale wholly vnsifted..is made into Bread. 1628 May Virg. Georg. i. 5 The ground one yeare at rest; forget not than.. to hearten it againe..with unsifted ashes. 1784 Cowper Task vi. 108 Swallowing..The total grist unsifted, husks and all. 1870 Tyndall Fragm. Sci. (1871) 138 Pure unsifted solar light is white.

2. Unexamined, unscrutinized.

1620 Quarles Div. Poems, Feast for Worms ix. iv, No crime unsifted, no sinne unpressed, Can lurke unseene. 1826 Southey Lett. (1856) IV. 38 There must be abundant matter of unsifted information in our public collections. 1858 Gladstone Homer I. 219 A poet who, as to facts, was at the mercy of unsifted information. 1882 Pusey Parech. & Cathech. Serm. i. 5 The unsifted, unexamined conscience of a sinner.

3. Untested, inexperienced.

1602 Shaks. Ham. i. iii. 102 You speake like a greene Girl, Vnsifted in such perilious Circumstance.

Unsigned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c.)

1814 Wordsw. Laodamia 100 The past unsighed for, and the future sure. 1898 R. W. Seton Watson Scotland for Ever 38 Queen Elizabeth..sank, unsigned for, to a gilded grave.

Unsighing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) a 1743 Ld. Hervey Epist. i. 65 The change I cou'd unsighing see. 1822 Byron Juan VIII. lxvii, The solitudes Of this unsighing people of the woods. 1838 Mrs. Browning Vanities v, Those ye love are not unsighing.

Unsight, sb. [Un-[1] 12.] Lack of sight or seeing.

c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 5002 The ymages..Makeen folke þenke on god..Whan þe ymages bei be-holden & seen; Were oft vnsyght [e.r. vnsight] of hem causith restreynytes Of bookytes gode. 1898 Hardy Wessex Poems 263 In vain do I urge my unsight To conceive my lost prize.

Unsight, v. [Un-[2] 6 b.]

1. trans. To deprive of sight. rare.

1615 Chapman Odyss. IX. 595 Their full bags so sore, With being vnempted; but their shepheard more, With being vnsighted. 1638 N. Wurtzer Il Pastor Fuscomandato 468 His armed brow fell down; and lighting right His antlers did the marching god unsight.

2. In pa. ppl. Of a coursing dog: Deprived of a sight of the hare.

1825 Sporting Mag. XVI. 268/2 If one or both dogs be unsighted, owing to the hare running through bushes or a live hedge,..the course shall be deemed to end there. 1876 Coursing Calendar 124 Miss Alice on a strong inside led Handicraft, who threw her head up as though unsighted.

†Unsight, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [? var. of Unsighted ppl. a. 1.] Only in phr. unsight, unseen, without inspection or examination.

?1622 Middleton & Rowley Old Law iii. i, Take that at hazard, sir..Unsight, unseen, I take 3. to one. 1632 Brome North. Lasse ii. i, I would I had his Neece unsight and unseen I faith for her monies sake. 1710 Palmer Proverbs 352 A generous mind..gives unsight and unseen, and trusts the Divine Goodness for the return. 1764 Chesterf. Lett. (1774) II. 479 He tells you true as to Comtesse Cosel's diamonds, which certainly nobody will buy here unsight unseen, as they call it. 1790 Cowper Private Corr. (1824) II. 227 Mr. Hill's compliments attend Mrs. Hill, whom I love, unsight unseen, as they say. 1810 Splendid Follies I. 167 So you don't dance with me?.. Bernard, I find, is to enjoy that felicity, unsight unseen.

Unsight, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[1] 8 b.) Unsighted for. a 1618 Syrviser Elegiac Epistle 8 What Sea..Could..drown a Sidney's Name..so quickly,..So vn-bewayled, so vn-sigh't, vnsung? Unsightable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) a 1420 Wycliffite Bible 1 Tim. i. 17 To the kyng of worldis, vndecydi and vnsyyble [MS. Magd. Coll. Cambr. vnsightable]. 1893 Leveson-Gower Surrey Words 44 Trees..very unsightable from anywhere.

Unsighted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1. Unexamined; unperceived, unseen.

1584 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 68, To subscrive.. letters presentit be thame,..unsichtit first and fund ressonable be the officiaris of his estait. a 1642 Suckling 'When, Dearest' i, Beauties that from worth arise, Are like the grace of Deities, Still present with us, though unsighted. 1898 Meredith Poems, Pan's Dau. Hades ix, Sights that made the unsighted appear.

2. Not furnished with a sight.

1891 Cent. Dict. s.v., An unsighted gun.

†Unsightful, a., ·fully, adv. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 7, 11.) Invisible; invisibly. c 1325 Sc. Leg. Saints I. (Catharine) 369 A god..vnsichtifull and sichtfull bedene. Ibid. xxxvi. (John Baptist) 331 Þat quha hofine is..resawis þan þe haly gaste vnsichtifully. †Unsightly, adv. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 11.) Invisibly. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/1 On-syghtyly, invisibiliter.

Unsightliness. (Un-[1] 12; cf. next.)

1611 Florio, Sparutezza,..vnhandsomnesse, ill-fauoredness, vnsightlinesse. 1647 Trapp Comm. Matt. xiii. 54 The unsightliness of a Tabernacle. 1648 Milton Observ. Peace Ormond Wks. 1851 IV. 559 The unsightliness of such a Ceremony. 1676 Wiseman Surgery i. xiv. 66 If the unsightliness and pain be in the Legs. 1845 Ford Handbk. Spain 122 Time has healed the wounds of our ecclesiastical ruins, but in Spain they remain in all the unsightliness of recent onslaught. 1874 Micklethwaite Mod. Par. Churches 35 The argument from their unsightliness is of no value.

Unsightly, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. Mdu. onsichtl(e)-lijc, -lic (Du. † onsichtelijk), invisible, ugly, MLG. unsichtlik, MHG. unsichtlih, -lich invisible.] Unpleasing to the eye; unhandsome, ugly.

In first quot. perhaps = unable to see.

a 1425 Cursor M. 6706 (Trin.), Who so smite† out his þralles eye And makep him vnsiztilize [Göttt. vnsihti for to sie; Cott. vn-might for-to seie]. 1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke xviii. 19 Meeyng a slouenly felowe and vnsightly in his geare. 1594 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. ii. 59 The face woulde bee euill fauoured and vnsightly, if it were hairy. 1634 Milton Comus 629 A small unsightly root, But of diuine effect. 1672 [R. Leigh] Transp. Reh. 82 They..betray their breeding by..an unsightly bow. 1757 W. Wilkie Epigon. vi. 162 Now the place Unsightly shrubs o'erspread. 1784 Cowper Task ii. 588 There..it compresses hard The..most unsightly boles. 1895 Prescott Philip II ii. 1. 1 The unsightly trophies of the heads and limbs of numerous victims. 1892 Stevenson Across the Plains vi, Town has ever been dull and well-to-do in country more unsightly than that part of Caithness.

b. Applied to immoral conditions.

1605 Shaks. Lear ii. iv. 159 Good Sir, no more; these are vnsightly tricks. 1644 Milton Areop. (Arb.) 76 Truth,.. whose first appearance to our eyes..is more unsightly and unpluasible than many errors. 1787 Cowper Poet's N. Year's Gift 8 To wish this latter is no need,..or more freed From temper-flaws unsightly. 1810 Wordsw. Ess. Epitaphs † 6 The..unsightly manner in which our monuments are crowded together.

†Unsightly, adv. Obs.—[1] [Un-[1] 11.] In an unsightly manner.

1726 Leoni Alberti's Archit. I. 5/1 No Building..can be placed more unsightly or inconveniently, than in a Valley.

†Unsighty, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. MDu. onsichtich (obs. Du. onzichtig), MLG. unsichtich, MHG. unsihtic, -ec (older G. unsichtig) invisible.] a. Unsightly. b. Invisible.

13.. Cursor M. 6706 (Göttt.), Qua-so smytes vte his thrales eye, And mas him vnsihti for to sie. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/1 On-syghty, invisibilis.

Unsignable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1802 Canning Let. in Diaries Ld. Malmesbury (1844) IV. 96, I commit the paper to your discretion. If anybody speak should fall in your way, or if unsignable,..use it. Unsignalized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 a. c.) [1775 Ash.] 1810 Coleridge Friend 314 A newly-invested Knight appearing with his blank unsignalized Shield. Unsignalled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1868 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy 81 In haste He rushed unsignalled through the corridor. 1874 Blackie Self-Cult. 40 An unsignalled railway train. Unsignatured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1807 Bryndes Censura Lit. III. 342 Such notes..as appear unsignatured at the bottom of the page. 1877 Blackie Wise Men 338 Blind inorganic hindermost, mere man Unsignatured, unsanctioned.

Unsigned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1598 Chapman Hero & Leander III. 148 She..Tolds him how poore was substance without rites, Like bils vnsigned. 1694 Lond. Gaz. No. 3017/4 All such Adventurers that took out any Tickets..(either signed or unsigned). 1740 Col. Rec. Pennsylv. IV. 417 Bills..unsign'd by either [the Governor or the Secretary]. 1753 Scots Mag. Jan. 47/2 Three unsigned letters were..put into the post-office. 1812 Combe Syntax, Picturesque xxv. On the wing there towards sprung A flight of Dockets, who were join'd By dire Certificates unsign'd. 1885 Mrs. Alexander' At Bay viii, These lines were unsigned, and might be meant for any one, as there was no address.

Unsigneted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1585 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 15 Be verrew of the saidis letters nuncheat be him unsignetit. †Unsignificacy. Obs. [Un-1 12, 5 b. Cf. Unsignifying.] Not significant, unmeaning; insignificant. (Freq. c 1635–c 1665.)

1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 643 Yet will they..participate with them in a kinde of voice, not altogether inarticulate and unsignificant. 1630 R. Sydney's Kingd. & Commw. 82 The Duke..is but a voice unsignificant; for the Senate carrieth the sword. 1673 R. Allestree Ladies Calling 1. 123 She..is like..to give but an unsignificant attendance at it.

Hence †Unsignificantly adv. Obs.

1644 Milton Areop. (1806) 50 The Temple of Janus.. might now not unsignificantly be set open. a 1662 Heylin Laud (1668) 5 Which words had been impertinently, and unsignificantly used.

Unsignificative, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1654 H. More Myst. Iniq. 227 They are not unsignificative of that Wisdom that is said to be more quick and moving then any motion.

Unsignified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1809 Buckminster in Mass. Mem. (1859) 7 As to the..most important charge in the review, that of unsignified alterations.

Unsignifying, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1665 J. Sergeant Sure Footing Ep. Ded., They carry the war out of the bounds of Science..and transfer it to a kind of Spatium Imaginarium of Fancy and unsignifying sounds. a 1680 Glanvill in Disc., etc. (1681) 407 Such a Faith as this is that which St. James writes so earnestly against, as dead, and unsignifying (of it self alone) to the purpose of Justification. 1797 Dr Fox Syst. Magic 1. iii. (1840) 65 Muttering over them some unsignifying significations. 1884 Encycl. Brit. XVII. 86/1 A tune is named generally after some place, as 'York'..or by some other unsignifying word.

†Unsile, v. Sc. [Un-2 3 + Sile v.?] = Unseel v. 1568 Muns. Spirit. Hymns 229 Thou doth vnsyle the eyes alone Of soules sincere. 1620 — True Crucifixe 32 The Serpent offring..to vnsile his sight.

Unsileneable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1678 Lively Oracles iii. 8 70. 279 How sadly will conscience then reverse all its sullied commendations by an unsileneable clamor. 1875 M. Arnold God & Bible iii. 131 The great, standing, unsileneable, unshaken witness. 1884 Harper's Mag. Mar. 524/2 The winds moaned with unsileneable grief.

Unsilenced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1651 Chapman Odyss. Ep. Ded. xlvi, Singing their praises in unsilenced story. 1828 Miss Mitford Village Ser. iii. 294 One, however, of his adversaries..still remained unsilenced. 1865 Mas. Whitney Gayworthys xix, This unsilenced haunting 'If' of fruitless regret.

Unsilent, a. (Un-1 7.) ? Causing a noise, notorious. 1597 Q. Eliz. in Nichols Progr. (1823) III. B 7, More at this time we will not write of this unsilent subjecte. Unsilicified, pl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1877 Huxley Anat. Inv. Anim. iii. 117 Siliceous particles, the majority of which, contain a fine central canal filled with an unsilicified substance.

Unsilly, variant of Unseely a. Obs.

Unsilvered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1772 Phil. Trans. LXII. 100 The back-horizon-glass was silvered,..the upper part being left unsilvered. a 1853 Perrin Polarised Light (1874) 3 The unsilvered combination of Fresnel's rhomb and an unsilvered glass. 1895 Outing XXVI. 397/2 The mirror..has a small unsilvered spot in the centre.

Unsimiar, a. (Un-1 7.)

Rarely used without preceding negative.

1768 Tucker Lt. of Nat. (1834) I. 274 It is not unsimilar to a declaration of St. Paul's. 1804 Eugenia de Acton Tale without Title II. 162 This speech, which..was seriously made upon an occasion not unsimiar, excited a laugh. 1863 Mrs. Oliphant Salem Chapel ii, They..[were] much of an age, and not unsimiar in worldly means.

Unsimple, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. M Dn. onsimpel.)

1541 Copland Guydon's Tresp. A ij b, For to a symple dysease a symple healynge is dine, and to a composed dysease a healynge vnsymple. a 1750 A. Hill Wks. (1753) II. 274 Every thing is..unsimple, that has foreign and unnatural annexions. 1797 Lamb Let. to Coleridge 13 Feb., I wonder you do not speak..something unsimple and artificial in the expression, 'voiced a sad tale'. 1862 H. Aldé Carr of Carrl. II. 230 The very unsimple manners of the English lady (they could hardly be called affected, they were so much a part of herself).

Unsimplicity. (Un-1 12.) 1855 Kingsley Westw. Ho! iv, In his simple unsimplicity, and cunning foolishness.

Unsimulated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1840 De Quincey Style Wks. 1858 XI. 171 Ebullitions of absolute unsimulated feeling. 1894 A. K. H. Boyd St. Andrews 126 To which the driver replied, with unsimulated heartiness.

Unsin, v. [Un-2 4 b, 6 b.]

1. trans. To annul (a sin) by subsequent action.

1628 Feltham Resolves II. lxxxix. 257 When a sinne is past, grieife may lessen it, but not vnsinne it. 1670 Clarendon Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 593 They who..observe the other injunction of this prophet..have unsinned their former sins. 1705 J. Dunton Life & Errors 405, I can't Un-Sin the Errours of my past Life. 1868 Browning Ring & Bk. IV. 285 The proper process of unsinning sin is to begin well-doing somehow else.

2. To free (a person) from being a sinner.

c 1629 Donne Serm. (1640) 645 Expeccabis; and if in our language, that were a word in use, it might be translated, 'Thou shalt un-sin me', that is, look upon me as a man that had never sinned.

3. To maintain or prove to be no sin; to divest of the character of a sin.

1682 Southerne Loyal Brother v. i, Gifted Rogues, That ..zealously, upon a fit of Conscience, Sin or Unsin Rebellion to the Crown. a 1715 South Serm. IV. 129 He who defends it [sc. a sin], utterly denies its Guilt, and (as I may so speak) absolutely unsins it.

Unsincere, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. = Insincere a. 1: a. Of actions, etc.

1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 566/1 The consideration of the vnsincere feare of God. 1646 Hammond Death-bed Repent. 62 Sure there is such a thing as unsincere pollution. 1683 Temple Mem. Wks. 1720 I. 410 To act an unsincere Part either in Friendship or in Love. 1718 Freethinker No. 83, An affected, unsincere Humility towards God.

b. Of persons. Also absol.

1617 Hieron Wks. 1620 II. 155 Judas [was] an apostle, yet what careth God for him, being vnsincere? 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. xxii. 85, I cannot pronounce any thing in the behalf of the unsincere, but that Hell it self is their portion. 1700 Congreve Way of World I. ii, What, I warrant he's unsincere, or 'tis some such Trifle. c 1742 Shenstone Song, 'On ev'ry tree' v, My friends..Might well demand one tender tear; For when was Damon unsincere?

†2. = Insincere a. 2. Obs.

1664 Boyle Essper. touching Colours 107 The Light of a Candle..made unsincere, and..Ting'd with a Yellow Colour. 1666 Dryden Ann. Mirab. ccix, But ah! how unsincere are all our Joys! 1725 Pope Odyssey IV. 1060 O why, Penelope, this causeless fear, Lo render sleep's soft blessings unsincere?

Hence Unsincereness.

1683 Temple Mem. Wks. 1720 I. 435 When the Dutch should grow more impatient of the Slowness or Unsincereness of their Allies Proceedings in the General Treaty.

Unsincerely adv. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) c 1555 Harpsfield Divorce Hen. VIII (Camden) 65 The adversaries, that..have so unfaithfully and unsincerely demeaned themselves. 1684 Pennsylv. Arch. I. 91 As unsincerely all along as I have been dealt with.

†Unsincerity. Obs. [Un-1 12 and 5 b.]

1. Impurity; admixture. Cf. Insincerity 1.

1668 Boyle Physiol. Ess. 108 A Spirit of Sea-Salt may without any unsincerity be so prepar'd, as to dissolve the body of crude Gold.

2. Lack of sincerity; = Insincerity 2.

1646 Hammond Tracts 42 An argument of the unsincerity of that christian. 1692 Norris Two Treat. Div. Light I. 67 See the Inconsistency and Unsincerity of this Writer! 1707 Reflex. upon Ridicule (1717) II. 189 All this opens a prospect to the Bottom of their Hearts, and manifests their Unsincerity.

Unsinew, v. [Un-2 6 b and 4.]

1. trans. To weaken the sinews of; to render weak or feeble; to enervate.

1598 Florio, Snerurare, to vnsinew, to weaken ones bodie. 1639 Fuller Holy War v. xv. 255 It is not so much the climate, as bad and unwholesome diet,..which unsineweth those Northern nations when they come into the South. 1645 Wither Vox Pacif. 119 This imprudencie will..Your bones unsinew, and your joynts untie. 1693 Dryden Persius vi. 89 Now Toys and Trifles from their Athens come, And Dates and Pepper have unsinew'd Rome. 1845 Blackw. Mag. LVII. 782 Death unsinews the hand that held her against the world.

b. fig. To weaken, enfeeble.

1599 Daniel Musoph. Wks. (1602) B iiij b, This skill..Vnsinewes all your powers, vmans you quite. 1609 G. Benson Serm. 7 May 57 The want of this knowledge vnsinewes the powers of a man. 1697 Dryden Æneis Ded. P 84 The affected rusticity of the French has unsinewed their heroic verse. 1744 Berkeley Siris 170 Verio 160. What spirit unsinew'd my decrepit soul? 1866 Lytton Lost Tales Miletus, Secret Way 16 The hold Of a strong phantasy, which, night and day,..unsinews life.

2. (See quot.)

1753 Chambers' Cycl. Suppl. s.v. Sinew, To unsinew a horse..is to cut the two tendons on the side of the head, about five inches under the eyes.

Unsinewed, ppl. a. [f. prec. or Un-1 8.] Not furnished with sinews; not sinewy or strong; weakened in sinews, enfeebled.

1541 R. Copland Guydon's Form. S iij, The seconde intencyon is accomplysshed by hote yron in vnsynewed places..and by corosyves, in mesane places. 1615 Daniel Hymen's Tri. II. i, Those vnsinewed amorous heardsmen. 1673 Dryden All for Love I. i, Can any Roman see and know him now,..Unbent, unsinew'd, made a woman's toy? 1853 W. Lancaster Proteriha 116 Old brand, art shamed with my unsinew'd gripe? 1872 R. W. Buchanan St. Abe II. v, As each Saint sank unsinew'd, In his arm-chair he continued: 'Goodman Jones' (etc.).

b. fig. (Cf. prec. 1 b.)

1602 Shaks. Ham. IV. vii. 10 O for two special! Reasons, Which may to you (perhaps) seeme much vnsinnowed, And yet to me they are strong. 1643 Lanc. Tracts Civil War (Chetham Soc.) 169 From him I must expect an unsinewed and faithles agreement. 1683 Dryden (& Soame) tr. Bolleau's Art Poetry III. 189 Without these Ornaments before our Eyes, Th' unsinew'd Poem languishes. 1796 Francis tr. Horace, Sat. II. i. 3 My Lines are weak, unsinew'd, others say.

Unsinewy, a. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)

1622 J. Hayward David's Tears To Rdr. A 8 Some other form-lesse vnsinewie writings. 1641 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars Ep. Ded., I doe not praise the soft unsinnowy goodnesse of Henry the sixth. a 1658 Cleveland Poems, Agst. Ale iv, May Bards that drink thee, write a small, Unsubstanc'd Line pedantical, Unsinewy, enigmatical.

Unsinful, a. (Un-1 7.)

1598 Florio, Impeccabile, that cannot sin,..vnsinfull. 1681 Baxter Answ. Dodwell iii. 22 They may command any unsinful thing, and excommunicate him that doth not obey. 1767 Cowper Lett. (1869) 94 They who are his servants here, shall pay him an unsinful obedience for ever. 1693 A. Whyte Bunyan Char. Ser. I. i. 6 Our Lord made His own unselfish and unsinful will to bow to silence and to praise before the holy will of His Father.

Hence Unsinfulness.

1598 Florio, Impeccabilita, vnsinfulnes, puritie. 1681 Baxter Answ. Dodwell iii. 22 No cause that knoweth the unsinfulness of all things in the world that are such.

Unsinfully, adv. (Un-1 11. Cf. prec.)

c 1400 Apol. Lol. 15 No creature mai do iustli,..perfitly, vnsinfully,..ani thing, not but if God wirk pat bing bi him. 1627 Sanderson Serm. I. 265 He did it unwittingly, and therefore..unsinfully, as to that species of sin. 1862 T. A. Trollope Marietta I. ii. 30 No usance could be unsinfully received.

Unsing, v. (Un-2 3.) 1701 De Foe True born Eng. II. 242 They soon their New Deliverer Despise;..Unsing their Thanks, and pull their Trophies down. 1876 H. Gardner Sunflowers, Rose Garden 21 A thought once thought is never unthought, Or a melody sung unsung!

Unsingable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1882 Athenæum 4 Feb. 153/2 The lyrics throughout the volume are as unlike songs—as 'unsingable' and unlyrical—as ever.

Unsinged, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. Du. ongesengd.] Not singed; untouched by fire.

1599 [see Unseared]. 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. VII. x. 358 He was cast into a Cauldron of burning oyle, and came out against unsinged. 1697 Dryden Æneis xi. 1158 By thee protected, with our Country Gods Through flames unsinged we march. 1737 Earl Orrery Let. to Swift 15 Mar., Let the thunder burst where it will, so that you are safe, and unsinged. 1755 Doddridge Lett. Yscob! 7, Then let the fires Hither rage disposy,..Unsw'd, unsinged, He leads them through. 1834 T. Moore in Walpole Life Ld. Y. Russell (1889) I. 203 You at least come safe and unsinged out of the furnace. a 1850 Bryant Medit. Rhode Isl. Coal 54 That man right to thy inner caves retire, And there, unsinged, abide the day of fire.

Unsingled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1697 Dryden Æneis iv. 221 The Stags, a trembling Train In Herds unsingl'd, scour the dusty Plain. Unsingleness. (Un-1 12.) a 1658 Durham Comm. Rev. (1660) 189 Sinfull defects, and unsingleness and want of zeal.

Unsinkability. (Un-1 12. Cf. next.)

1865 Times 11 Mar. 8/6 He, too, puts speed first of all.., and armour-plating or 'unsinkability' nowhere. 1891 Nat. Mag. Mar. 236 The unsinkability of cargo-carrying vessels.

Unsinkable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

Also, in recent use (1912), unsinkableness.

1655 Mrq. Worcester Cent. Inv. Index p. ij, An unsinkable Ship. 1861 Times 10 July, Unsinkable Iron Ships. 1883 Fisheries Exhib. Catal. 62 Unsinkable Suits for Fishermen.

Unsinking, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

Also, in recent use (1920), unsinkingly.

1705 Addison Italy 191 All the dewy Strand Lyes cover'd with a smooth, unsinking Sand. 1816 J. Wilson City of Plague I. iii. 38 Let me walk the waves of this wild world Through faith unsinking. 1821 Byron Cain III. i. 529 Oh! thou..whose unsinking Blood darkens earth and heaven! 1823 Mrs. Hemans Siege Valencia II. 429 Enough of woe.. For man to bear, unsinking.

Unsinnable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1570 Foxe A. & M. (ed. 2) 2059/2 By that power or authority he is not become vnsinnable. 1612 R. Sheldon Serm. St. Martin's 57 It was impeccable, vnsinneable, and not capable of any the lest spot of sinne. Unsinning, vbl. n. (See Unsin v. 2.) c 1629 Donne Serm. (1640) 645 It is only this expeccation, this unsinning, this delay of sin from formerly committed, that restores me. 1681 J. Scott Chr. Life I. iv. 471 Till by an actual unsinning and Revocation of the Facts, we have totally cross'd and discharged them.

Unsinning, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xvii. (Magdalene) 34 Mare Ioy is With angelis, Of a synful, pennance dowand, Pane nyne & nynte vnsynnand. 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 23 To expell quite the unsinning predominance of his anger. a 1680 Charnock Attrib. God (1834) II. 65 Above the unsinning angels, and perfectly renewed spirits in glory. 1705 Stanhope Paraphr. II. 392 That First Covenant..promised Immortality to unsinning Obedience. 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 31 In compassion to Adam, and.. to his yet unsinning progeny. 1837 Lytton Athens II. 567 Great Jove! a grateful spectacle—if thus May it be said unsinning. 1872 Bushnell Serm. Living Subjects 419 He chooses this most passive, most unsinning, unoffending creature.

Unsi·phon, v. [Un-2 5, 7.] trans. To deprive of the function of a siphon. Hence Unsi·phoned ppl. a.

1878 J. A. Russell Sanitary Houses 19 Traps may be unsiphoned by a body of water coming down the soil pipe,.. making suction behind it. 1884 E. F. Willoughby Hygeine v. 194 As simple..preventative of unsyphoning is..little appreciated. 1894 Times 20 Feb. 3/6 The unsyphoned traps ..of the waterclosets.

Unsister, v. (Un-2 6 b.) 1878 Tennyson Q. Mary I. i, There will be plenty to sunder and unsister them again.

Unsistered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1738 G. Lillo Marina II. i, I vow'd..That all unsister'd shou'd this heir of mine Remain till she were marry'd. 1860 O. W. Holmes Prof. Breakf.-t. x, A lonely and unsistered creature. Unsisterliness. (Un-[1] 12.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa I. 296 Don't let me be surprized at your seeming unsisterliness. 1879 Stevenson Edinburgh iv. 16 Never did four walls look down upon an uglier spectacle than these sisters rivalling in unsisterliness.

Unsisterly, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. Du. onzusterlijk, Sw. osystterlig.) 1747 Richardson Clarissa (1811) I. 96 Your Bell's unsisterly behaviour. c 1815 Jane Austen Persuas. vi, Mary was not so repulsive and unsisterly as Elizabeth. 1860 W. S. Hayward Beautiful Demon 103 You wrong me, Regina. It is cruel, it is unsisterly of you.

† Unsistring, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 10.] Of doubtful meaning.) 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. iv. ii. 92 That spirit's possest with hast, That wounds th' vnsistring [Fol. 4 insisting] Posterne with these strokes.

† Unsitten, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 + Cf. Sit v. 31 b.) 1611 A. Spandi Commons Compl. 20 If they finde any [wild ducks'] egges therein that be vnsitten.

† Unsitting, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 10.] Unbecoming, unfitting. (Common c 1390–1550.)

Freq. in later eds. misread or mispointed as unsittling: cf. the note to Unpitting.

c 1390 Chaucer Troylus II. 307 Were it lyng pat me poughte vnsittynge To yow nold I no suche tales brynge. 1390 Gower Conf. III. 143 It were an unsittende thing. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 2361 Pat vn-to hygh degre, Vnsittynge is to swere in any wise. 1448 T. Beckington Corr. (Rolls) II. 144 The unsittyng, unleful, and unlawful quarell. 1533 More Apol. xii. Wks. 872/1 The priestes agaynste laye people.. haue vsed.. to speake vnsyttyng wordes. 1567 Turberv. Epit., etc. 91 Vlysses wiues renowne Unsitting is for hir whose loue endureth but a stowne. 1585 Holinshed Descr. Scotl. Ded., It is much vnsitting for him that professeth Diuinitie, to applie his time any otherwise.

Hence † Unsittingly adv. Obs.

c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 2349 As he bat custumably Clappith and langlith..Moot othir while speke vnsittyngly. Ibid. 3639 Freshe apparaile and herte leccherous Unsittynly ben in a Prince boyst. 1450 Paston Lett. III. 153 It was not thowght..that I dalt onkyndly or onsyttyngly, but that I was moor onresonably dalte with.

Unsizable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.] † 1. Unequal in size; not of the proper or exact size. Obs.

1653 Blithe Eng. Improver Impr. 197 Make your Horses and Oxen as equal as you can possibly; if they be unsizable, your highest draw up your low-st, and your lowest draw down the highest. 1678 Moxon Mech. Exerc. v. 78 [Do not let] the edge of your Hatchet cut too deep into the stuff, lest you..spoil your stuff by making it unsizeable. 1704 Lond. Gaz. No. 3888/3 The 32 Tun of unsizeable and crackt Brass Ordance. 1716 B. Church Hist. Philip's War (1867) ii. 26 Bullets..so unsizeable that some of them were forc'd to make slugs while they were ingag'd.

2. Of excessive size; too large or bulky. Obs.

1698 Fryer Acc. E. India & P. 9 An unsizeable Sword to their Backs. Ibid. 162, I was made at by an unsizable Snake. 1710 Tatler No. 241 ¶ 3, I am not without hopes, that by this method I shall bring some unsizable friends of mine into shape and breadth. 1736 T. Prince Chron. Hist. New Eng. I. 250 If I now proceed to the End of this Second Section, it will make the First Volume too unsizeable.

fig. 1755 Pitt in Annual (1810) I. xii. 200 This unsizable project, impracticable and desperate as it is, will..bring bankruptcy upon Great Britain. 1759 Franklin Ess. Wks. 1840 III. 529 And who or what are these proprietaries? In the province, unsizable subjects and unsufficient lords.

3. Not grown to a proper size; immature.

1746 R. Griffiths Ess. Conservacy Thames 52 [They] annually destroy infinite Numbers of unsizeable Smelts. 1759 Act 33 Geo. II, c. 27 § 13 Any Spawn, Fry, or Brood of Fish, or any unsizeable Fish, or any Fish out of Season. 1823 J. Cobbett Rep. Sel. Comm. Brit. Channel Fisheries 148 Millions of young and unsizeable fish. 1887 Field 24 Dec. 953/2 The keepers are..instructed to..prosecute the possessors of unsizeable pike.

Hence Unsizeablenesses.

1746 Lond. Mag. 324 Diversity of Weapons..Unsizeableness of the Men, and Want of..Discipline in their Officers.

Unsized, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 + Size v.[1]] † 1. = Unassized. Obs.[1]

1613 Southampton Court Leet Rec. (1907) iii. 469 Having made view of vnsissed bread in the markett [and] findinge.. bowshold Loaves of no assize.

2. Not made of an exact size or fit; not formed or sorted into sizes.

1700 Congreve Way of World iv. I 3, I must have been let out and piec'd in the sides like an unsiz'd Camlet. 1857 Local Act 20 & 21 Vict. c. 141 Sched. (C), Slates..Unsized Reg. Half Reg. Queen or sized Reg. 1877 Raymond Statist. Mines & Mining 426 Several tests made in concentrating unsized ore.

Unsized, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8 + Size v.[2]] Not treated with size.

1794 Kirwan Elem. Min. (ed. 2) I. 461 Filtres formed of unsized paper. 1847 Faraday Chem. Manip. ix. 235 The thinner varieties of unsized paper, or white blotting-paper. 1888 Jacobi Printers' Vocab., Unsized paper, paper made entirely without size, and consequently very absorbent and adapted for plate printing.

Unske·tchable, a. (Un-[1] b.) 1881 Curtis Nile Notes 213 Sundry veiled spectres were sketching the unsketchable.

Unskilful, a. [Un-[1] 7.] † 1. Unreasonable. Obs.

c 1370 Lay Folks' Catech. (L.) 1342 Glotony..is an vnskylful lykyng or loue in test or tastynge of mete or drynke. 1377 Langl. B. Pr. & B. xiii. 277 Of vnbaxome speche...of scoffyng and of vnskylful beryngе. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton) I. xxx. (1859) 34 They shold serue theyr creatour.. with resonable werkes doyng, and vnskylful werkes forbering. c 1450 Chast. Godtes Chyld. (Caxton) 25 Her rest was full short by cause it was unskilfull and also unlefull.

† b. Undiscerning; unwise, foolish. Obs. rare.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus I. 790, I may not endure þat þow dwelle In so vnskilful [v.r. vnskylful] an opynyoun. c 1449 Pecock Repr. iii. xix. 413 But þat this seyyng is vnskilful may be schewid thus. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 30 Robert Losaunge that..by the gift of a thousand pound to the King, was made Bishop of Thetforde, repented him after, and bewayled that vnskilfull deede.

† 2. Ignorant of proprietv. Obs.[1]

c 1475 Rauf Coilzear 159 Schir, thow art vnskilfull,..Thow byrd to haue nurtour aneuch, and thow hes nane.

† b. Ignorant of something. Also with inf. or dependent clause. Obs.

a 1547 Surrey Æneis II. 493 Striken with dred, vnskilfull of the place. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 106 Ill husswife vnskilful to make hir own chees. 1600 Holland Livy xxii. xxxi. 451 They fell unadvisedly into an ambush, and being unskilfull of the country..they were soon enclosed among many. 1667 Milton P. L. x. 32 Vnskilfull with what words to pray, let mee Interpret for him.

3. Lacking in skill; inexpert.

1565 Golding Cæsar 32 The whyche pollicie, though it hadde taken place agaynst sauage and vnskylfull people, yet was not Arioustus so foiysh to loke that it should prevaile against oure army too. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 15 The father an vnthrift, what hope to the sonne? The ruler vnskilfull, how quickly vndonne? 1617 Morrison Itin. II. 49 At his first entering the gouernment, when he was yet vnskilfull in the affaires of the State. 1639 in Verney Mem. (1907) I. 183 Ther was never soe Rawe, soe unskilfull and soe unwilling an Army brought to fight. 1709 Berkeley Th. Vision § 72 Those unskilful in optics. 1765 Museum Rust. IV. 56 Ploughing operations is nice, and may proved ugerous in unskilful hands. 1840 Thackeray Shabby-genteel Story vi, He was not unskilful at this kind of exercise. 1867 M. E. G. Duff in N. Brit. Rev. XLVII. 484 The attempts of the foreign evangelists may often be unskilful enough.

absol. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Imperitum vulgus, the ignorant, rude, or vnskilfull. c 1580 [see Void v. 11]. 1612 B. Jonson Alch. To Rdr., It is onely the disease of the vnskilful to admire new things greater than they beleiue. 1726 Leoni Alberti's Archit. III. 12 b, It hardly happens..that what delights the Judges, shou'd at the same time strike the Vnskilful. 1762 Falconer Shipwr. II. 251 The gallant boatswain..Prompt to direct the unskilful still appears.

transf. 1687 P. Ayres To Dryden 15 Could my unskilful pen augment his fame.

b. Displaying lack of skill; clumsy.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. ix, No more..then..the diligent Pilot in a dangerous tempest, attend the unskilful words of a passinger. 1614 Latham Falconry II. vii. 94 Such Hawkes haue beene euelly ordered, and continued in vncleane and vnskilfull keeping. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. iii. xxxii. 195 When it seemeth so, the fault is either in our vnskilfull Interpretation, or erroneous Ratiocination. 1737 Glover Leonidas III. 250 Assyria's sons Their brazen helms display, th' unskilful work Of rude Barbarians. 1798 Lamb R. Gray xiii, His wounds by unskilful treatment had been brought to a dangerous crisis. 1831 James Phil. Augustus I. vii, De Coucy..took the instrument, over the strings of which he threw his hand, in a bold but not unskilful manner.

Unskilfully, adv. [Un-[1] 11.] † 1. Unreasonably; without good reason; to an unreasonable extent. Obs.

1338 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 252 Pe kyng..said he was redy, pe testament to fulfille, pat kyng William, & pat he men fulle ille vnskilfully nam. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) IV. 432 ȝif it is good to lyve, it is sacrelegy to forsake it vnskilfullíche. c 1400 Love Bonaventr. Mirr. (1908) 147 We haue enuaunte that we schulle euer taste to do goode werkes for occasioun of sclaundre vnskilfully taken of othere. a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) iv. xxv. 192/2 We sholde loue all men..with drede to offende them unskyfully.

† 2. Without discernment; foolishly; ignorantly.

1340–70 Alex. & Dind. 871 For almus-dede do ȝe non as ȝe demen alle, But skarsete & skape vn-skilfully fonden. 1390 Gower Conf. III. 251 Tarquinus made unskilfully A were..A yein a fount with water stronge. c 1460 G. Ashby Dicta Philos. 1211 He wol..euery thinge determen wilfully, Ayenste Reason, & eke vnskilfully. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Inscienter, Thei sayde he did vnskilfully. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. iii. ii. 156 Therefore you speake vnskilfully; or, if your knowledge bee more, it is much darkned in your malice.

3. In an unskilful manner; inexpertly.

1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Imperite, vnexperty, vnskilfully, vnleanedly. 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. 496 Upon which Grotius doth fetch and not unskilfully commen after this manner. 1685 Boyle Eng. Notion Nat. vii. 266 To clear all those unskilfully framed axioms and phrases, I found to be so intricate..a task (etc.). 1735 Johnson Lobo's Abyssinia, Voy. v. 29 One [of the muskets] being unskilfully charged too high, flew out of the Soldier's Hand. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. of Nat. (1834) II. 381 That it is highly blasphemous..to imagine that God should have contrived His order of second causes so unskilfully. 1868 Miss Mitford in L'Estrange Life (1870) III. xii. 213 The story is very unskilfully told, with an entire want of dramatic power. 1885 Law Times Rep. LIII. 325/2 The defendant..negligently and unskilfully navigated..the said vessel.

Unskilfulness. [Un-[1] 12.] The quality of being unskilful; inexpertness, † ignorance.

c 1450 Lanterne Lit. 215 Godfrey forbedi þe vnskilfulnesse of opir mennes goodis & so..refreyneþ þe vnskilfulnes of mannes dede. 1544 Betham Precepts i. ccii, Theyr vnskylfulnesse is the great destruction of the whole hoste, when they know not howe for to keepe theyr arraye. 1576 Fleming Panopl. Epist. ¶ iiij, In consideration of the gatherers vnskilfulnesse. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 399 They double their numbers at foure, as we doe at ten, through vnskilfulnesse in numbring. 1692 Hawkesley Virtues 231 Hence we are obliged not to impose upon any Man's ignorance or unskilfulness. 1748 Anson's Voyage II. x. 242 The Indolence and unskilfulness of the Spanish sailors. 1776 Gibbon Decl. & F. vii. (1782) I. 293 The siege..was protracted to the tenth year..by the unskilfulness of the besiegers. 1828 Lytton Pelham III. xi, Tyrrell, who believed he should readily recruit himself by my unskilfulness in the game, fell easily into the snare. 1869 Dk. Argyle Primeval Man iii. 100 This..may be due to the unskilfulness of early art.

Unski·ll. [Un-[1] 12 and 4 b. Cf. ON. and Icel. óskíl, óskil (Norw. dial. uskil, etc., MSw. oskiäl, etc., Sw. oskäl, MDa. uskul, Da. usskel, in sense 1 or 1 b.)] c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 65 Lauerd forȝef us ure unskile, and alswa we alle oðre wile. c 1275 XI Pains Hell 58 in O. E. Misc. 148 [He] þat..nolde leten his fleysses wil, Ac folewede al þat wes vnskil. c 1300 Cursor M. 201 Hwi lust wit her gret vnskill Wend his vprisyng to dill. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 8798 ȝif þou dedyst euer þat vnlawe,..þou hast synned yn moche vnskyl. c 1420 Sir Amadace (Camden) lxvii, I wille do the no vnskille, Thou schalt dele hit atte tht wille, The godtus that here now is. a 1500 Ratis Raving 1. 1033 Bot always serf hyme elyk,..Bot gif he do the al wnskill.

† 1. Improper or foolish conduct; folly; wrongdoing; wrong. Obs.

† b. Want of reason; unreasonableness. Obs.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 415 If we taken hede to þingis þat touchen þis state, we moun fynde fulli unskil in ech of hem. a 1500 Ratis Raving 1. 1269 It louis weill to leif be wyll, And callis resone oft vnskill.

† 2. With unskill: a. Wrongly, wrongfully, improperly. (Also with at.) Obs.

c 1200 Ormin 427 Swa we don it wiþ unnskill þatt it mazzȝ amgrenn obre. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1506 Ne slu noȝ wiþ hond ne wil, Ne rend, ne beat noȝt wiþ vn-skil. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 12643 ȝif y ha lore hit at vnskyle, Y schal hit wynne eft when God wyle. c 1330 King of Tars 272 So long i wis hit is agon, I have lived in prison of sten, With wrong and muchel unskille.

† b. Unreasonably, excessively. (Also with till, to.) Obs.

c 1220 Bestiary 433 He bit us don ure bukes wille, eten and drinken wiþ unskil. a 1300 Cursor M. 26991 Hop es god a hall wil bone, But ill [Trinity to] vnskil noght worth a gloue. 13.. Guy Warw. 514 After þe hete me comeþ a chele, Þat me greneþ wiþ vn-skele.

3. Lack of skill; inexpertness; † ignorance (of something). Now arch.

1565 Martial in Harding Answ. to M. Jwelle's Challenge A 3 b, Where the faultes of the printers be infinite for the vnskill of the language. 1576 Lambarde Peramb. Kent 293 I..doe preferre plaine vnskill and ignorance, before vaine lying and presumptuous arrogance. 1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. i. 1. Eden 276 That euen light I trthon's wavering fantasies Reuye him the skill his unskill to agnize. 1612 Florio, Inarte, vnartnesse, ignorance, vnskill. 1905 J. Berkeley Eternal Relig. 100 Hence more and more the idea will prevail that ignorance, unskill in things,..is in itself a kind of lower morality.

Unski·lled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Not skilled or expert in something; ignorant of; untrained or unable to.

1582 T. Howell Devises Hiv, Thus harte to faine vnskilde, in being whole is broke. 1612 Drayton Poly-olb. iv. 174 In fing'ring some skilled, but only us'd to sing Unto his mother's harp. 1693 Dryden Persius iii. 54 Dowt goes the Wretch at once, unskill'd to swim. 1717 Pope Iliad ix. 568 Thy youth as then in sage debates unskill'd. 1725 — Odyss. iv. 1021 Thus he [spoke], unskill'd of what the Fates prepare! 1791 Cowper Iliad v. 7 Unskill'd to spell aright The oracles predictive of the woe. 1823 Mrs. Hemans Vespers of Palermo III. v, If in this unskill'd, you stand alone Amidst our court of pleasure. 1863 H. Cox Instit. i. viii. 123 The members of the committee are usually unskilled in the rules of evidence.

b. Without cond.

1693 Prior To C'iess of Exeter 3 Unskill'd and young, yet something still I writ, Of Ca'ndish Beauty join'd to Hazel's Wit. a 1749 A. Hill Epilogue 20 The world's wide stage..Sees some act nobly, others play unskill'd. 1818 Shelley Rosal. & Helen 1066 An unskilled hand..had the marble warmed With that pathetic life. 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. II. 94 Butter..melted from salt beef;..the unskilled might call it tallow. 1871 Lowell Plato I. 54 None of us unskilled individuals can..become physicians.

c. spec. Not skilled in some handicraft; devoid of technical training.

1851 Mayhew London Labour II. 323/2 With unskilled labourers it is otherwise. 1856 Froude Hist. Eng. I. 4 Any able-bodied unskilled labourer earns as soon as he has arrived at man's estate.

2. Not involving or requiring skill; displaying lack of skill.

1833 H. Martineau Tale of Tyne i. 8 All works of tillage have been mixed up together under the name of unskilled labour. 1849 G. Tickner Spam. Lit. 102 If their unskilled verses were preserved at all. 1869 Froude Short Stud. (1872) 337 Take the lowest and most unskilled labour of all, that of the peasant in the field.

† Unskilly, adv. [Unskill 11.] Unskilfully. 1648 Hexham II. Voetelen, to dice a thing unskilly,..to Bungle. 1658 tr. Ussher's Ann. 142 Which Artemon the Engineer, Ephorus the Historian doth unskilly confound with Artemon Periphrasus.

† Unski·lwise, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Irrational; not endowed with reason.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 166 þat man þat..lyves als an vnscylwys best, þat nother has skill, wit, ne mynde. ?a 1375 Relig. Pieces fr. Thornton MS. 63 For þou..gafe hym lordschipe and powere Abowen all oþer vnskillwise creatures sere.

2. Unreasonable, excessive.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter lxxxv. 10, I..loy in þe wibouten vnscilwis sikirnes. a 1350 St. Barthol. 56 In Horsten. Altengl. Leg. (1881) 123 Þal gaf him many unskilwis scorn. 1357 Lay Folks Catech. (T.) 453 Glotony..is ane unskilwise likyng, or loue, In taste, or in takyng of mete and of drynk.

So † Unskilwisely adv. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 19149 Es it..resun þat we Calanged for ur gode dede he? Vn-skilwisl þan can yee blam. a 1340 Hampole Pauter xxxv. 7 Men, þat lifis rightwisly, and..ill men, þat lifis vnscilwisly.

Unskimmed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1634 T. Johnson Parey's Chirurg. Whs. xxiv. vi. 89 A carcasse vnskimme..like unto that..over vnscimmed milke. 1689 Montague & Prior Hind & P. Transos. 12 He..could not on a sudden Knead up with unskim'd Milk this Rea's'ning Pudding. a 1722 Lisle Husb. (1757) 275 They wean them with unskimmed cow's-milk. 1898 Flint Hitch Cows 39 Sweet milk cheese is made of the unskimmed milk. 1894 Westm. Gaz. 20 April 8/1 The milk..is very often skimmed, and the skimmed milk mixed with unskimmed.

Unskin, v. [Un- 2 4.] trans. To divest of skin; to flay. Also fig.

1598 Florio, Discoiettare, to flea, to vnskin. a 1652 Brome New Acad. iv. ii, I'le..not only unmask, but unskin her face too. 1655 Moufet & Bennet Health's Improvo. xxx. 278 Playing and unskinning themselves as it were of reasons robe.

Unskinned, ppl. a.[1] [Un- 2 8, or f. prec.] Stripped of the skin.

1607 Markham Cavel. vii. 63 Then casting that powder vpon any vnskinde part, it will presently bring on the skinne againe. 1790 J. Williams Shrove Tues. 24 Deal out continually with dread.., Nor make that ulcerous that's scarce unskin'd.

Unskinned, ppl. a.[2] [Un- 1 8.] Not having the skin taken off.

[1775 Ash.] 1882 J. F. S. Gordon Prov. Moray I. 36 Unskinned peas boiled into a soup were also a favourite dish. 1899 Daily News 7 June 8/3 They threw the unskinned animal on the embers.

Unskirmished, ppl. a. (Un- 8 c.) 1627 Drayton Agincourt 24 And more then this, his lourneyes to foreslowe He scarce one day vnskirmish'd with doth goe. Unskirted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1836 Col. & Ind. Exhib., Catal. Exhibits N.S. Wales (ed. 2) 93 Wool..Six unskirted fleeces off prize ewes.

Unslack, a. (Un- 7. Cf. OE. unslæc, unslac.) 1622 Wither Philarete O 7 b, Thy toynts are yet nimble, thy sinnewes vnslacke.

Unslacked, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Unslackened, unrelaxed.

1593 Nashe Christ's T. 24 b, God is mooued and mollified ..with often, and vnslacked intercessions. 1848 Aird Herod. & Anstie 1. Still more the Jews..were racked With lust of blood, their forms were still unslacked.

2. Of lime: (see Slacked ppl. a. 2).

1665 Earl Monm. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. 1. xxi. (1674) 22 Tyrannies are laid with..the unslack't Lime of..injustice. 1902 Mech. Engineer. 286 Unslack'd or Quick Lime. 1760 Brown Compl. Farmer II. 17 Unslacked lime beat to powder. 1808 Phil. Trans. XCVIII. 346 They ..were in the highly caustic or unslacked state. c 1860 H. Stuart Seaman's Catech. 63 Neither should unslacked lime..be allowed below.

3. Of thirst, etc.: Not slacked.

1798 Coleridge Anc. Mar. iii. iv, With throat unslack'd (1885 unslaked), with black lips bak'd Ne could we laugh, ne wail.

Unslackened, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) vi. 418 They well may keep the field, Who with un-slaken'd [1772 unslacken'd] nerves endur'd that day. 1844 Mrs. Browning Sonn., Patience 7 Ocean girds Unslackened the dry land. 1870 Daily News 23 Apr., He drove down a narrow road..followed by the waggon and horses with unslackened speed. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Miner's Right xiii, Still the quartz-crushing machine..went thundering on..unchecked, unslackened.

Unslacking, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.)

1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) I. 628 To turn his steps into the way that..unslackening prudence would have led. 1793 W. Roberts Looker-on No. 85 (1794) III. 371 After an unslackening course of..fasting, mortification, and watchfulness. 1836 Keble in Lyra Apost. (1849) 18 Faster each hour, on Time's unslackening gale, The dreaming world drives on. 1848 Mill Pol. Econ. I. xii. § 2 There is no obstacle to an increase of production..of unslackening rapidity.

Unslain, ppl. a. [Un- 8 8 b. Cf. ON. and Icel. usleginn in sense 2, MSw. oslaghin in sense 1, Sw. oslagen in sense 3.]

1. Not yet to be killed.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 1332 Do wurd abraham fristi fasen, for ysaac bi-leaf un-slasen. 13 . . Gaw. & Gr. Kut. 1858 Mys[t] ie haf slypped to be vn-slayn, þe sleyt were noble. c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 18250 Prest, ne clerk,..Leffte the Gregais non vnslayn. c 1470–85 Malory Morte A. xv. 515, I shalle be with yow by that day yf I be vnslayne or vnmaymed. a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. ii. (1535) 101 b, They leaue no cattayle vnslayne, no gardeyne vnrobbed. 1555 Pilkr Aneid iii. (1558) F iiij, Saue of Troy this last remayne, The leauinges of Achilles wyld and Grekes abiectes onslayne. 1633 T. Stafford Pac. Hib. i. ix. (1821) 117 The rest which were unslaine, returned into the Castle. a 1661 Holyday Juvenal (1673) 187 To Ceres's son-in-law few kings descend Unslain. 1715 Tickell Iliad i. 112 Nor does the god complain Of vows withheld or hecatombs unslain.

fig. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 1970 O deth!..his ly vnslayn, sestatth Vnslayn fro þe. 1674 R. Godfrey Inf. & Ab. Physic 8 Spurious Mercurial [remedies], and ill-made Antimonial ones, that..have the Mercury unslain. 1779 Cowper Olney Hymns lvii, One sin, unslain, within my breast, Would make that heav'n as dark as hell.

† 2. Uncut, unmown. Obs.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. v. 239 Lupyne and ficchis slayn.. are as dongyng, loodis boote, And let hem drie vnslayn, and vp they drinke The loodis iuce.

† Unslake, obs. var. Unslaked ppl. a.

1666 Sharrock Pegetables 19 Into the ashes of every hill [in hedge] you must put a peck of unslake Lime.

Unslakeable, a. (Un- 7 b.) 1890 C. R. Maturin Melmoth xxviii. IV. 262 An unslakeable appetite for the restored splendours of her former state. 1872 C. King Mountain. Sierra Nev. i. 21 In a few miles, the unslakable desert has drunk it dry.

Unslaked, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1. Of lime: Unslacked.

1598 Florio, Calce vergine, vnslaked lyme. 1651 French Distill. I. 4 Take unslaked Lime, and Linseed Oil, mix them well together. 1669 Sturmy Mariner's Mag. v. xii. 67 Plaster ..four parts, of Unslak'd Lime one part. 1816 Scott Old Mort. xxi. Would you build a wall with unslaked mortar? 1837 J. T. Smith Vicat's Mortars 79 Those hydraulic mixtures, which are used unslaked, and ground previous to mixing. 1889 Science-Gossip XXV. 151/2 The leaves are..chewed with a little unslaked lime.

2. Unrelaxed.

a 1625 Fletcher Chances ii. ii, A likely man, a man Made up like Hercules, unslak'd with service.

3. Of thirst, etc. (See Slake v.[1] 10.)

1692 Dryden Don Sebastian iv. i, Her desires new rous'd, And yet unslak'd, will kindle in her fansy. 1805 [see Unslacked 3]. 1818 Byron Ch. Harr. iv. cxxiv, We gasp away ..; unfound the boon, unslaked the thirst. 1874 Farrar Christ 36 Stung by remorse, yet still unslaked with murder.

Unslandered, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1622 Sanderson Serm. I. 24 If seldom truth scape unslandered, marvel not; the reasons are evident. 1648 Hexham II, Ongelastert, Vnslaundered, or Vncalumniated.

Unslate, v. (Un- 2 4.) Also fig.

1598 Florio, Scoppare, to vntile, to vnslate. 1637 Saltonstall Eusebius' Constantine 70 Some of the Chappels by his command were unslated. 1648 Herrick Hesper., To the Detracter, A fellon take it, or some Whit-flaw come For to unslate, to untile the roome! 1795 Southey Joan of Arc Lines at Shurton Bars 39 Where stands one solitary pile Unslated by the blast. 1872 Brierley Cotters of Glosshorn xxiii, He's gone clean off his head. Unslated.

Unslaughtered, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1719 Young Par. Job 230 How ring o'er Th' unslaughter'd host, the mighty lys the promis'd gore. a 1800 Cowper Odyss. (ed. 2) xi. 463 The woful end Of other Greecians,.. Who 'scap'd, indeed, unslaughter'd from the field of Ilium. 1827 Southey Hist. Peninsu. War II. 553 The few mules and horses which remained unslaughtered. 1890 Eng. Gilds 354 margin, Having..goats, sheep, or swine, and selling them unslaughtered.

Unslave, v. (Un- 2 4 b. Cf. Dn. ontslaven.)

a 1618 Sylvester Maiden's Blush 1641 I'll give you all the golden good I have,..Unto Brother to unslave. 1633 P. Fletcher Poet. Misc., A vow 25 Thou freest Servant, from this yoke unslave me. 1719 D'Urfey Pills VI. 210 Suppose a Man does all he can, To unslave himself from a scolding Wife. 1729 Swift Let., 31 Oct., L—C—, who doth his duty of a good governor in unslaving this kingdom as much as he can.

† Unslaw(e, obs. varr. Unslain ppl. a.

a 1400 in Eng. Gilds (1870) 354 Pulke, þat..byggeth get, shep, swyn, & sæl-sely vn-shlawe [sic]. c 1430 Syr Gener. (Roxb.) 8159 Thei that gate in, and wer vnslaw, The gates thei shet.

† Unsleakable, a. Obs.[1] [Un- 1 7 b.] Unquenchable.

c 1400 Apol. Loll. 75, I schal brenne þe chaffe wiþ fire vnsleskable.

† Unsleaked, ppl. a. Obs. [Un- 1 8.] = next.

1525 Grete Herbal cxix. (1529) H j, Lyme, whan it is vnsleked. 1594 Plat Jewell-ho. 55 Fill a sheepes gut with mineral vnsleaked limestones. 1615 G. Sandys Trans. 69 A composition of Rusma..and vnsleaked lime.

Unsleeked, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8. Cf. MSw. oslikht, Sw. oslickt.] = Unslacked ppl. a. 2.

Frequent c 1370–c 1600.

c 1386 Chaucer Can. Yeom. Prol. & T. 806 Vnsleeked lym, Chalk, and glayre of an ey. 1563 T. Gale Antidot. ii. 53 Take vnsleeked Lime, and quench it in water. 1607 Topsell Fourf. Beasts 365 Take..so much vnsleet lime as will make that hony thicke like paast.

Unslee·k, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1889 Tennyson Elaine 811 Then the shut sast him lying unsleek, unshorn,..Utter'd a little tender dolorous cry. Unslee·p, v. (Un- 3 3.) 1555 Inst. Gentleman xiiib, Slepe once passed cannot be vnslept against. † Unslee·piness. Obs. (Un- 1 2.) Sleeplessness. 1540 R. Jonas Byrth Mankynde 70 b, Agaynste vnsleepynesse, that is, when the chylde..wanteth his due and naturall reste. † Unslee·ping, vbl. sb. Obs. [Un- 1 3.] Lack of sleep. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 56 Brennyng with grenous pricksynge, and smertyng, and vnsleepyng. Ibid. 72 If þat þe thenasmon last long, it bringeþ to..vnsleepyng and feblenes of verin.

Unslee·ping, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.)

1667 Milton P.L. v. 644 The unsleeping eyes of God. 1744 Thomson Autumn 415 She sits Conscious of all, with folded Arms Unsleeping Eyes. 1777 Potter Æschylus, Prom. Bd. 7 The joyless station of this rock Unsleeping, unreclining, shalt thou keep. 1805 Southey Madoc in Wales iii. 195 The unsleeping eye Of justice. 1863 Ld. Lytton King Amasis II. 203 Dear heart! Again you have passed a whole night long unsleeping.

fig. a 1613 Overbury A Wife, etc. (1614) H 2, Policie is the vnsleeping night of reason. 1796 Coleridge Destiny of Nations 107 Whose unheard name, Unsleeping Silence guards. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 428 Unerring and unsleeping steadiness. 1841 Elphinstone Hist. Ind. II. 520 The unsleeping suspicions of Aurangzib were stirred up.

Hence Unslee·pingly adv.

1877 Daily News 16 Jan. 4/5 Our pressure must be friendly, but very firm and unsleepingly watchful.

Unslee·ve, v. (Un- 2 4 b. 5.) 1598 Florio, Dimanicare, to vnhandle, to vnbast, to vnsleeue. Ibid., Smanicare, to unsleaue. a 1614 Gonzaga iv. vii. in New Brit. Theatre III. 143 Unsleave thy arm, that I may kiss a mark, stamped there indelible by nature's finger.

Unsleept, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8 b, c.]

1. Not having slept.

a 1300 Chaucer's Romaunt 1836 An aged knight..With visage ..pale, as man longe unslept. 1500–20 Dunbar Poems lxxviii. 9 The sentence lay full evill till find, Vnsleipit in my heid behind. 1876 J. Grant One of the '600' I. 10 My poor mother, pale, anxious, and unslept,..stole softly into my room. 1894 Froude Life & Lett. Erasmus 230, I hurry on board unsipped and unslept.

2. Not slept in; not slept off.

1821 Byron Sardanap. i. ii, Is this moment A fitting one for the resumption of Thy yet unslept-off revels? 1864 Miss Yonge Trial I. 289 She had..found..never before, Mr. Ward's bed unslept in. 1880 Mrs. Parr Adam & Eve xxxv. 476 The untasted food, the unslept-in bed.

† Unslickt, var. Unsleaked or Unsleeked ppl. adjs.

1573 Arte of Limning C iv, Vnslickt lyme. Poulder of white bones. 1605 Timme Quersit. iii. 180 Take unslickt lime; let it lye in spring water.

Unsliding, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.) 1806 O. Gregory Treat. Mechanics I. 101 Let E be the unsliding body, which acts in the direction EK.

Unsling, v. [Un- 2 3, 4 b.] trans. To detach from a sling; to free from being slung or suspended.

(a) 1692 Capt. J. Smith True Trav. xx. 40 Many of them were got to the top to unsling the maine saile. 1783 in Naval Chron. (1802) VIII. 364 [We] unslung our lower yards. 1815 Burney Falconer's Marine Dict. 603/2 To unsling is to take off the slings from boats, butts, buoys, yards, etc. 1839 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. 187, [No.] 7..slings, and unslings the gun, and lashes it to the pry rope.

(b) 1688 Holme Armoury iii. xix. (Roxb.) 153/2 Vnsling your musket. 1798 Naval Chron. XXV. 200 An Arab.. unslung his carbine. 1818 Scott Rob Roy xxx, He..commanded his soldiers to unsling their firelocks. 1838 James Robber iii, Lord Harold unslung his sword, and gave it to one of the servants. 1869 Visc. Milton & W. B. Cheadle N.-W. Passage by Land vii. 101 He unslings his pack, and sets to work to construct a..wooden trap.

Unslip, v. [Un- 2 3, 4 b.]

1. trans. To let slip, set free.

1612 Florio, Sgninnegliare, to vncouple, to vnslip, to let goe as Spaniels. 1801 Sure Splendid Mistery III. 215 'Tis not the sudden impulse of a fleeting passion that has unslipped from caution's trammel a rebellious tongue. 1846 Whittier To Southern Statesman 6 When thy eager hand With game afoot, unslipped the hungry pack To hunt down Freedom in her chosen land.

2. To slip back.

1892 Zangwill Bow Mystery 125 [He] went downstairs, [and] unslipped the bolt of the big lock.

Unslipping, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.)

1606 Shakes. Ant. & Cl. ii. ii. 129 To hold you in perpetuall amitie, To make you Brothers, and to knit your hearts With an vn-slipping knot. 1822 Ainslie Land of Burns 71 The unslipping beams o' matrimony.

† Unslissed, ppl. a. Obs. [Un- 1 8, after obs. Du. ongeslikt.] Unsolicited. 1592 A. M. tr. Guillemaine's Fr. Chirurg. 26 b/2 Like vnslissed lime. 1599 [see Sliss v.].

Unslit, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1679 Moxon Mech. Exerc. ix. 164 Bauk, a peece of Fir unslit, from four to ten Inches square.

Unslockenable, a. Sc. [Un- 1 7 b.] Unquenchable. c 1540 M. Nisbet Lukis iii. 77 The caffis lie sail birne with fire vnsloknabile. 1856 H. S. Riddell Matt. iii. 12 He will burn up the caff wi' unslockenable fire.

Unslocked, ppl. a. north. and Sc. [Un- 1 8.] Unextinguished.

1434 Misyn Mendyng Life 126 O mery lufe, stronge, rauisch and, bynnand,..vnslockyd, þat all my saull bryngge to þi seruis. 1435 — Fire of Love 97 þis lufe to fyre vnslokynd I lykyn. 1596 Dalrymple tr. Leslie's Hist. Scot. (S.T.S). II. 184 Not willing to leue ane spunk vnslocked, [he] receiuet in fauour the Erle of Angus. 1896 Crockett Grey Man xxxiii, There burned a still and unslockened fire in her eye.

Unslo·ken, pl. a. rare—[Cf. prec.] = Unslaked ppl. a. 3. 1871 Swinburne Songs bef. Sunrise, Tenebræ 23 A slow song beaten and broken, As it were from the dust and the dead, As of spirits athirst unsloken.

Unslot, v. north. and Sc. [Un- 2 3.] trans. To unfasten (a door).

1819 W. Tennant Papistry Storm'd (1827) 46 Thus said, Don Andrew..Unslot his yett, and out gaed whiddin'. 1855 [Robinson] Whitby Gloss. s.v., To Unslot or Unstock, to unlatch, to open.

Unslothful, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1648 Hexham II, Ontreagh, vnslothfull, vigilent. 1889 E. Johnson Antig. Mater. 251 Your unslothful love unto the glory of God. Unslothfulness. (Un- 1 12.) 1700 Ray Persuas. Holy Life Add., Unslothfulness in Labour, if I may make such a Word, is the means to preserve health.

† Unslow, a. Obs. [OE. unslāw (Un- 1 7).]

Not slow; active, quick, swift.

In Bestiary 264, this emendation unslaw has been suggested for the MS. reading unglaw.

c 1000 Ælfric Saints' Lives xxv. 375 Hi slogon þa togaedere unslawe mid wæpnum. a 1023 Wulfstan Hom. x. (1883) 72 Ne ware full slaw, wearðe se unslaw to cyrican. 1382 Wyclif Prov. vi. 11 If forsothe vnslo3 thou shul be, shal come as a weile thi rip. c 1400 Destr. Troy 908 The dragon ..gird him agayne with a gryen noyse: Mony sleeynges vnslogh throughe hys slote yode. 1483 Cath. Angl. 343/2 Vn Slawe, vns wyghte.

Unsluice, v. [Un- 1 4 b, 5.]

1. trans. To let out as from a sluice; to allow to flow.

1611 Florio, Schiuso,..vnslouch, vnsloucht, vnsluced. 1648 Herrick Hesper., Sailing fr. Julia, Forbeare (In my short absence) to unsluice a teare. a 1711 Ken Hymns Among. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 237 Unsluice his Blood, till not undrein'd. 1787 Generous Attachment I. 167 Enough to unsluice the water from any female eye. 1826 J. Montgomery Chron. Angels Wks. 1841 IV. 309 Angels, with healing virtue in their wings,..unsluice earth's bosom-springs.

2. To furnish with an outlet.

1652 Benlowes Theaph. iii. xcv, Here did she seal her lips, unsluice her eyes To flowing thet'ric. 1700 Dryden Ovid's Met., Mel. & Atalanta 365 Now lofty Caldon in Ruines lies; All Ages, all Degrees unsluice their Eyes. 1721 Young Revenge ii. ad fin., I must unsluice my overburthen'd heart And let it flow.

Unslu·mbering, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1718 G. Sewell Proclam. Cupid 17 High God,..Who pierces Nature with unslumb'ring Eyes. 1787 Generous Attachment IV. 184 So many hours, devoted to unslumbering nights. 1841 James Brigand xxix. There will be an unslumbering eye upon you which you cannot escape. 1862 Tyndall Mountaineer. xii. 95 We wound along the meadows, by the slumbering houses, and the unslumbering river. 1887 Bowen Eueid iv. 199 A hundred altars, on each an unslumbering fire.
absol. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. i. viii, But Him, the Unslumbering,..we see not.

Unslumbrous, a. (Un-1 7.) 1818 Keats Endym. i. 912 How dark the dreadful leisure Of weary days, made deeper exquisite, By a fore-knowledge of unslumbrous night!

† Unsly·, a. (adv.). Obs. (Un-1 7, 11 b. Cf. ON. óslœgr-r not sly or cunning.]
1. Of persons: Unskilful, unwise, foolish, careless.
c 1275 Sinners Beware 302 in O.E. Misc. 82 He gredep þanne heye, þe wrecches and þe vnsleye, þat luude þe wrecles. a 1300 Cursor M. 2631 Mani o treuth es sun vn-slei, þai trui noght bot þai þai se wit ei. c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 1938 Þarfor me thynk he es unsleghe þat mas hym noght here redy to deghe. 1382 Wyclif Prov. xxiii. 28 She waiteth in the wes, as a thief; and whom vnsleis [1388 vnwar] she seeth, she shal slen. c 1425 Cast. Persev. 278 In all hys werkis he is vnslye; mekyl of hys lyf he hath myspent. c 1450 Mirk's Festial 6 Vnsley old man, goo behen! for I se apon he mony mesaventyrs.
2. Unskilfully made or done; awkward.
a 1300 Cursor M. 1684 þou lok þi werk he noght vnslei. 13.. Northern Passion 1356 (Camb. MS. Gg. 1. 2), Als þei droth [= drew] þe tre on heie, þe werk waxed so vnsleie. c 1586 Dolwart Pleyting w. Montgomerie 159 To answere thee In sermon short I am content; And sayes thy similitudes vnslie Are na wayes verie pertinent.
b. As adv. Unskilfully, awkwardly.
a 1400 Northern Passion 144/277 (Camb. MS. Gg. 5. 32), þe tre, was wroght so vnsleigh þat it was schortir þan þe make lie four fute.

† Unsly·ly, adv. Obs.—1 (Un-1 11. Cf. prec.]
Unskilfully, clumsily.
? a 1400 Morte Arth. 979 He slewe hir un-sleiy, and slitt hir to be navylle.

Unsma·rt, a. (Un-1 7.)
a 1580 Henryson Fables, Prol. 23 Ane Bow that is ay bent Worthis vnsmart and dullis on the string. a 1817 Jane Austen Watsons (1879) 330 The convenient though very un-smart family equipage. 1861 G. F. Berkeley Eng. Sportsman i. 13 To tell an American, that you guess he's pitching it in considerable smart, and departing from unsmart fact, is no insult whatever.
Hence Unsma·rtness.
1802 Miss Berry Jrnl. (1865) II. 147 A general unsmartness of appearance pervaded them all.

Unsmeared, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1648 Hexham II, Onbestrichen, vnrubbed, or vnsmeared. 1805 Forsyth Beauties Scotl. II. 179 Some farmers keep a few sheep perfectly unsmeared for domestic uses. 1825 R. Wilson Hist. Hamick xxvi. 269 Wool..of the white or unsmeared sorts.

Unsme·lled, unsme·lt, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1812 Monthly Mag. XXXIV. 15 Odors may exhale unsmelt. 1856 G. Wilson Gateways Knowl. 83 Unsmelled or odourless incense. Unsme·lling, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. ix. 71 The smarl hath veynys [of water] thynne, vnsmellyng best [L. nec optimi saporis]. 1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 47 All tastless, nothing relishing; all unsmelling, nothing sweet-smelled. Unsmelt, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1824 MacTaggart Gallovid. Encycl. (1876) 470 While earth Unsmelted will around her axle fly. 1887 Daily News 11 July 3 Black or unsmelted tin.

Unsmethe·: see Un-1 3.

Unsmi·led, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 a, c.)
1841 Lady F. Hastings Poems 26 They pass'd me ever—all unsmiled on—by. 1860 S. Dowell Pilgrim. Mag. Aug. 328 In that pure face where woe grown bright Seems rapture chastened to the mild And equal light of smiles unsmiled. 1867 Jean Ingelow Story of Doom v. 161 Pale she was As lily yet unsmiled on by the sun.

Unsmi·ling, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1826 Miss Mitford Village Ser. II. 129 Her fixed, settled, unsmiling silence hung over the banquet like a cloud. 1847 C. Bronte J. Eyre xxxi. An unsmiling..gaze it was. 1873 Dixon Two Queens xix. v. IV. 26 Charles, with meek, unsmiling face, knelt in his chapel.
Hence Unsmi·lingly adv., Unsmi·lingness.
1873 Miss Broughton Nancy II. 65 The utter unsmilingness of his expression. 1879 Howell L. Arvostook xxvi, 'Is it something disagreeable?' asked Stainford lightly. 'It's right,' assured Lydia, unsmilingly.

Unsmi·rched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1602 Shaks. Ham. iv. v. 119 The chaste vnsmirched brow Of my true Mother. 1784 Cowper Task III. 73 Matrons.. of character unsmirch'd, And chaste themselves. 1813 Examiner 1 Feb. 73/2 He counts the applause of unsmirched artificers. 1884 Fortn. Rev. Mar. 321 [His] innocence is unsmirched by any electioneering experience.

Unsmi·rking, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1750 Chesterf. Lett. 18 Jan., An oven, cheerful, but unsmirking countenance.

Unsmi·tten, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.)
13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 732 Nay for fyftyi..I schal for-gyune alle þe gylt..& let hem smolt al unsmyten smolyely atonez. c 1445 in Anglia VIII. 177 Sche myghte byholde þe compas of be material sunne wib be sighte of hir eyen vnsmyten ageyn. c 1450 Wycliffite Bible Gen. xxxii. 8 (MS. Bodl. 277), þe oopir campanye whiche is left vnsmyten schal be saued. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love 34 With mynde vnsmyten to beuyns þe self itt raises & stirris to lufe. 1648 Hexham II, Ongemeten, vnsmitten, or vnstricken. 1743 Young Nt. Th. iv. 158 Too long I set at nought the swarm Of friendly warnings, which around me flew; And smil'd, unsmitten. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude vi. 50 Four years and thirty..Have I been now a sojourner on earth, By sorrow not unsmitten. 1868 Milman St. Paul's 41 The godless John alone remained unsmitten, untouched.

Unsmo·kable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1892 Nation (N.Y.) 15 Sept. 201/3 Cigars..to the cultivated taste unsmokable.

Unsmo·ked, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Not exposed to smoke.
1648 Hexham II, Onberoockt, Vnsmoaked. 1828–32 Webster, Unsmoked,..not dried in smoke. 1890 Spectator 31 May, Men and women who consciously exult in the fresh air, the unsmoked sky. 1894 Daily News 1 Mar. 5/3 Unsmoked bacon of a particular cut.
2. Not consumed by smoking.
1731 Swift Cassinus & P. 24 His ancient pipe in sable dy'd, And half unsmok'd, lay by his side. 1827 De Quincey Last Days of Kant Wks. 1854 III. 121 He smoked a pipe of tobacco..so rapidly, that a pile of reliques partially a-glow remained unsmoked. 1894 H. Nisbet Bush Girl's Rom. 20 Turning abruptly..and flinging away his unsmoked cigar.

Unsmo·kified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais III. xxxvii. 311 Having ravined his..Loaf, wherof no Morsel had been unsmoakified. Unsmo·king, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1559 Morwyng Evonym. 29ß Tiles made of red earth..must be..set on fire with unsmoking coles. Unsmo·ky, a. (Un-1 7.) 1679 Han. Woolley Gentleem. Comp. 122 Then broil it..over a temperate and unsmoaky fire.

Unsmoo·th, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. OE. unsmōðe (usually unsmōðe).] Not smooth; rough.
1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 9/2 A suture is vnsmoothe and rugged. 1621 Fletcher Thierry & Theod. II. i. Can thou in any way smooth, has end So fair? 1638 Mayne Lucian (1664) 356 May my limbes be for ever rough, and my chinne unsmooth. 1667 Milton P. L. iv. 631 Those dropping Gums, That lie bestrewne unsightly and unsmooth, Aslt ridiculous. 1786 Burns Lament v, Alas! Life's path now is unsmooth! 1856 Mrs. Browning Aur. Leigh vi. 165 A peasant's brow, Unsmooth, ignoble, save to me and God.
b. Of sounds, speech, etc.
1620 G. Fletcher Christ's Vict. xliii, How may weake mortall ever hope to file His unsmooth tongue, and his deaprostrate stile? 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. II. viii. 79 Yet his own Poems are harsh, and unsmooth. 1812 Coleridge in Lit. Rem. (1836) I. 366 Its unsmooth mixture of the vocal and the organic..of language. 1846 Mangan Poems (1903) 41 The things I sing of in some unsmoothness.
c. Of manners or conduct.
1648 Herrick Hesper., Hymn to Graces, Give me..Sweetnesse to allay my sowre And unsmooth behaviour. 1782 V. Knox Ess. cxcv. II. 328 A-propos, pray do you reconcile your unsmooth address to those rules of decorum?
Hence Unsmoo·thness.
1597 A. M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 9/2 We perceave noe vnsmoothnes; than [= but] all even and smothe.

Unsmoo·th, v. [Un-2 6 a.] trans. To deprive of smoothness; to ruffle.
1620 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. IX. (1626) 181 Yet Lupiters last words Vnsmooth her forehead with obseru'd distaste. 1654 W. Montagu Dev. Ess. II. viii. 155 Her forehead not unsmooth'd by any wrinkle. 1805 Minimiana No. 93 (1866) II. 166 Wine..which causes..the reverend churchman to unsmooth his episcopal sanctity. 1849 M. Arnold New Sirens 123 Storms unsmooth'd your folded valleys.

Unsmoo·thed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not made smooth; left rough, uneven, etc.
1614 Wither Sut. to King 30 Let it not therefore now be deemed unsmoothed Vnsmooth'd lines their rudenesse do not change. 1648 Hexham II, Ongevlackt, vnplained, or vnsmoothed. 1841 Lytton Nt. & Morn. I. i, The clothes..were thrown carelessly about, unsmoothed, and unbrushed. 1866 C. Stephens Rustic Mus. I. 229 A tolerably even slab, ..unsmoothed except by the hand of nature.

Unsmo·te, ppl.a. (Un-1 8 b.] Unsmitten. 1815 L. Hunt Feast Poets 147 Ye shall try..how well ye can bear What Dryden has witness'd, unsmote with despair. 1825 Byron Deform. Transformed vi, The might of the Gentile, unsmote by the sword.

Unsmo·therable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
c 1624 Donne Serm. Wks. 1839 V. 304 That unsmotherable, that unquenchable spirit of adoption. 1766 J. Adams Diary 13 Jan., The unsmotherable pride of his own heart. 1837 Dickens Pickw. xxviii, To the unsmotherable delight of all the porters.

Unsmo·thered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1840 Mangan Poems (1903) 136 The startled soul, upbounding From this mire of earthliness..Unsmothered by the lethargy of years. 1891 Sir W. M. Conway Guide E. Pennine Alps p. viii, I made way willingly..and, as was intended, overheard the unsmothered remark.

Unsmu·tched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1809 Malkin Gil Blas II. iv. 2 12 Purer than unsmutched snow. 1879 Tourgée Fool's Errr. viii. 37 [The estate] came into his hands a new toy, unsmutched by any suspicion that [etc.].

Unsnarly, a. (Un-1 7.) 1698 Collier Immor. Stage i. 54 The Expression of his Theodore was altogether unsmutty. 1764 Museum Rust. II. 225 If smutty seed be worse than unsmutty.

Unsnarled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 a.) [1775 Ash.] 1846 Landor Exam. Shakes. Wks. II. 280/2 There is not one of them that doth not sweat at some secret sin committed, or some inclination toward it unsnaffled. Unsna·ky, a. (Un-1 7.) 1851 De Quincey Pope Wks. 1858 IX. 26 [He] might, with advantage, have amputated this unsnaky chapter on snakes.

Unsna·p, v. [Un-2 3 and 7.]
1. trans. To reverse or undo the action of snapping; to release or detach by undoing a snap or catch.
1862 Dickens Somebody's Luggage ii, As if nothing should ever tempt her to unsnap that snap [of the fingers]. 1901 Munsey's Mag. XXV. 736/2 The colt..was led in, the tie strap was unsnapped from his halter, and he was allowed [etc.]. 1904 A. L. Artus Mere English 62 At dusk of the day we unsnapped our teeth, And spewed him out.
2. intr. To give way with a snap.
1866 Meredith Vittoria vii, After he had drawn the seal ..over the lamp, the green wax bubbled and unsnapped.

Unsna·pped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1864 Skeat Uncland's Poems 282 Round his limbs..Clings, unsnapped, the fetters' might. 1891 Dawson Evonmore 162 Each harp has yet an unsnapped string That waits the touch of God. Unsna·re, v. (Un-2 4 b.] 1550 Thomas Hist. Diet., Dislacciare, to vnsnare. 1611 Cotgr., Desprêté, vnsnared,..delivered out of a net. [In modern dicts.]

Unsna·rl, v. [Un-2 3 and 7.] trans. To disentangle.
1555 Watreman Fardle Facions I. i. 27 Some fel into errours whereout they could neuer vnsnarle themselues. 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. I. lvii, For ever had this Isle in that foul ditch..straid,..Had not the King..Unsnar'd that chain. a 1699 T. Beaumont Psyche III. cxc, How Shall I unsnarle my Promise, and contrive That..the Saint may live! 1879 H. Brooks Influence of Texas iv. 160 Material fact and impalpable vision shoot through each other and cannot be unsnarled. 1893 Kate D. Wiggin Cathedr. Courtship 53 It is Salemina who always unsnarls the weekly bill.
intr. 1876 Mrs. Whitney Sights & Ins. xxiii, Things do cool down. And snarls unsnarl just by putting quietly away.
Hence Unsna·rling vbl. sb.
1640 Fuller Joseph's Coat 189 Ones Excellency may consist in the unsnarling of a knowne controversie.

Unsnea·ped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Unchecked. 1647 H. More Song of Soul III. ii. 2 When central life its outgoine energie Doth spend unsneaped, and unsnaffled by foreen keen.

Unsne·ck, v. north. and Sc. [Un-2 5.] trans. To unlatch. 1785 W. Hutton Bran New Week (E.D.S.) 199 The girl unsneck'd the raddle heck. 1866 Jamieson Pop. Ballt. II. 330 She drew the bar, unsneck'd the door. 1825– in northern dial. glossaries, etc.

Unsne·cked, ppl. a. north. and Sc. [Un-1 8.] Unlatched; off the latch. 1796 R. Gall Tint Quey 67 [To] gang an' leave the door unsnecket. 1824 Carr Craven Glass., Unsnecket, unlatched. Unsne·ed, ppl. a. Sc. (Un-1 8 b.] Unsnaffled. 1819 Douglas Æneid IV. xi. 44 Unsned branchis wavand heyr and thayr. 1887 Stuppl. Jamieson 180 In the West of S. some thirty years ago a common street cry was, 'Birk besoms; heather besoms; sned an' unsned'.

Unsnu·bbable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
Also, in recent use (1898), unsnubbableness.
1847 Br. W. How in Mem. (1898) 31 It is a most unsnubbable cat. 1898 C'tess von Arnim Elis & Germ. Gard. 93 You can't snub that sort of people I call unsnubbable.

Unsnu·ffed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1825 L.D. Cockburn Mem. ii. (1856) 124 The smoky unsnuffed candles in greasy tin candlesticks. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. v. V. This latter, as nocturnal Vice-President,..sits sleepless, with lights unsnuffed. 1891 W. Collins Rogue's Life xiii, With one long unsnuffed candle lighting us smokily.

Unsoa·ked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vnsoked, insipitus. [1775 Ash.] Unsoa·ped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1837 Dickens Pickw. xxiv, The unsoaped of Ipswich brought up the rear. 1859 Geo. Eliot A. Bede ii, Bessy belonged unquestionably to that unsoaped, lazy class of feminine characters.

Unso·ber, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. MDu. onsober.]
† 1. Uncontrolled, immoderate. Obs.
c 1400 Destr. Troy 3800 Dyanede..vas..Vnsober with sermundes, [Dyomedes] in dole for dissuit þat he vsit. Ibid. 12507 The sea was vnsober, sondrit the mauy. 1535 Joye Apol. Tindale (title-p.), To..defende himself against so many sclaunderouse lyes fayned vpon him in Tindals vncharitable and vnsober Bible. 1548 Hall Chron. Henry vi. 35 He hath he seene (hard) yron laues nor pleadinges at the bar Vnsober, mad, and quarellous. 1648 Herrick Hesper., To J. Wingfield, For ordaining, that thy words not swell To any one unsober syllable. 1654 Gataker Chart. Mod. Man, He..takes Pleasure in nothing but his own un-sober Sadness.
2. Unregulated in conduct; not staid or grave.
1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 134 A young strepleyng must remedylesse from excessive and unsober revellyng come home lesse honest. 1579 Baile Engl. Votaries ii. 88 Her eyes, her talke, her pase, all were vnsober, wylde, and wanton. 1637 R. Clerke Serm. 485, I censure it [sc. drinking of healths] not simply, but for some unsober Ceremonies, that become not Christians. 1660 Gent. Recreat. 10 All that..are not convicted of Ill Fame, or unsober and dishonest Conversation. 1730 A. Pethie Rules Good Deportm. Ch.-Officers 121 [Deacons] must not be Drunkards, nor Unsober nor Covetous. 1812 W. Tennant Anster Fair v. iii, Thi unsober spirit of the fiddle. 1829 Landor Imag. Conv. II. 309 She is verily an unsober jade, who in her gravest humour will lead thee into quarrels, and in her gayest will pick thy pocket.
3. Affected by, addicted to, drinking.
1611 Florio Insobrio, vnsober, drunken. 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. II. 193/2 We must do all we have to do, while the nation is feasting and unsober. 1852 Mundy Antipodes I. 164 The loss or destruction of these fragile liabilities in the hands of rough, careless, and unsober characters.
Hence Unso·berness.
1548 Elyot, Immodestia, malapertnesse,..vnsobrenesse. 1682 Kettlewell Chr. Obed. v. ii. 605 Several instances of unsoberness, when there is no scandal to our Brethren joined with them.

Unso·ber, v. (Un-2 6 a.] trans. To make unstaid. 1856 Faber Creator & Creature iii. 1. (1858) 334 While we grow in merits we are getting hugely into debt to the greatness.. of God's mercies, and this at times unsobers us.

Unso·berly, adv. (Un-1 11.] Without sobriety or restraint; immoderately.
c 1400 Destr. Troy 2506 Leit it tyde after, þat ye be dreipit with dole,..Your sones vnsoberly slayne in the place. Ibid. 12494 Sodonly the softe winde vnsoberly blew. 1547 Homilies I. Contention i. S iij b, So vnsoberly to reason and dispute, that..they fal to chiding and contention. 1551 Cranmer Answ. Cavillation 8 Which counsell if you had..followed, you wolde not haue doone so vnsobrely in manny thynges, as you haue doone.

Unsobri·ety. (Un-1 12 and 5 b.) 1669 R. Fleming Fulfill. Script. (1726) 155, I think without any challenge of unsobriety such a remark very suitable.

Unsociabi·lity. (Un-1 12, 5 b. Cf. next.) 1798 Warburton Dis. Legat. Pref., Wks. 1788 II. 326 A Principle which subverted the whole system of their religion, namely, the unsociability of the Christian faith. a 1797 Burke Regic. Peace i. Wks. 1802 IV. 445 The systematick unsociability of this new-invented species of republick. 1837 Lytton E. Maltravers. i. v, He..had his fits of unsociability. 1885 C. E. Pascoe London of To-day xiii. 129 The Richmond Club members invited guests to their dinner-table, and thus escaped the charge of unsociability.

Unso·ciable, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1. Not sociable or companionable; not readily or pleasantly associating with others.

1600 Holland Livy 292 The Tyburts..had in times past joined armes with the Frenchmen, a savage and unsociable nation. 1646 H. Lawrence Comm. Angelis 188 Men were so form'd for Communion, as no doctrine can be avowed for good, which renders them unsociable. 1792 Rules Civility 274 [Baseness] rather makes them to be accounted base, vindictive, savage, and unsociable. 1841 Dickens Barn. Rudge i, He looked unsociable enough. 1871 Jowett Plato II. 319 Whether a man is righteous and gentle, or rude and unsociable. 1899 W. F. Greene Cage-Birds 32 At other times..he is unsociable with his kind.

b. Of disposition, conduct, etc.

1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Water-Cormorant Wks. III. 1 His sex seemeth is harsh and vnsociable. 1688 Savile Lady's New-Year's Gift 1 The Soul must not so place a great part of their Religion in Dejected and Ill-humour'd Looks, puttiug on an unsociable Face. 1710 Tatler No. 149 ¶ 5 A severe, distant, and unsociable temper. 1802 Mar. Edgworth Moral T., Forester vii, Surprised at his unsociable silence. 1861 Paley Æschylus (ed. 2) Agam. 1041/2 You would..reproach them for their unsociable behaviour.

2. Not readily or naturally going together; incompatible, incongruous.

1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. 770/1 This Ecclesiasticke text is handled elsewhere, and seemeth vnsociable to our begunne Subiect. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. i. 26 If Sense and Learning are such unsociable imperious things. 1779 Johnson L. P., Cowley xii fin., A boundless verse, a headlong verse,..seem to compriie sentiments and unsociable ideas. 1887 Pollok Course T. v. 558 Combining things Unseemly, things unsociable in nature, In most absurd communion.

b. Incapable of, averse to, uniting.

1676 Boyle in Phil. Trans. II. 785 The Vial..contain'd two unsociable Liquors. 1678 Newton Let. Boyle's Wks. 1772 I. p. cxiv, There is a certain secret principle in nature, by which liquors are sociable to some things, and unsociable to others.

3. Devoid of, interfering with, social intercourse.

1658 Sir T. Herbert Trav. (ed. 2) 164 An old rotten weather-beaten Inn..placed in part of an unsociable desart. 1842 Howell For. Trav. (Arb.) 45 Many Colonies..which lye squandered up and down in disadvantagious unsociable distances. 1861 Ld. Lytton & Fane Tannhäuser 105 As one..Sunder'd by savage seas unsociable From kin and country.

Hence Unso·ciableness; Unso·ciably adv.

1611 Florio, Insociabilita, *vnsociablenesse. 1644 Prynne Ch. Govt. xii. 7 An extraordinary strangnes, unsociablenesse, and coldnesse of brotherly affection. 1872 Smiles Charac. ix. 228 The comparative unsociableness of the Englishman. 1662 Bathwatt Comm. Cure Tales 2 None should be so unsociably retired, as to ingross his Conceits to himself. 1787 J. White Voy. N. S. Wales (1790) 58 The pavement.. is so very unsociably narrow, that two persons cannot walk with convenience together.

Unso·cial, a. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.) Not social; not inclined for, adapted to, or fond of society:

a. Of persons (or animals).

1731 A. Hill Adv. Poets Ep. p. vii, Even Tartary, uncultivated, and unsocial, as she is, has given the World a Tamerlane. 1798 L. Temple Sketches (ed. 2) 67 To be perpetually wise, is forbidding, unsocial, and something that does not become human Nature. 1817 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. xvi. II. 12 Neither of these motives can operate in causing unsocial insects to congregate. 1889 Gretton Memory's Hearth 398 My unsocial neighbour carried me..by gravely propounding that he [sc. Scott] was not a Christian.

transf. 1781 Cowper Charity 126 To give the pole the produce of the sun, And knit th' unsocial climates into one.

b. Of habits, conditions, etc.

1732 A. Hill On Death of Dennis 1 Adieu! unsocial excellence! at last Thy foes are vanquish'd. 1744 Harris Three Treat. (1765) 152 A solitary, unsocial State, can never supply tolerably the common Necessaries of Life. 1791 Boswell, Johnson 95 Life in the Country, made of dining..at such houses in London, is..particularly unsocial. 1846 Lamb Elia ii. Pop. Fallacies xv, What savage unsocial nights must our ancestors have spent..! 1884 Century Mag. XXVIII. 620 The unsocial effect of the drinking habit.

c. Of disposition, temper, etc.

1739 Glover London 212 Benignant peace With hospitality begin to sooth Unsocial rapine, and the thirst of blood. 1775 Sheridan Rivals v. i, Perhaps the recollection of a deed my conscience cannot justify may haunt me in such gloomy and unsocial fits, that I... 1816 Emmeka 129, Manu. 3 Our unsocial turn he ascribes to 'that independence Britons prize too high'. 1837 Hallam Hist. Lit. i. ii. § 15 The main himself was of too unsocial and forbidding a temper to conciliate them. 1885 Munch. Exam. 12 Feb. 4/7 The unsocial selfishness which excluded the toiling populations from their national health-giving scenes.

Hence Unso·cialness.

1849 Hanna Mem. Chalmers II. 422 Behind all his assumed unsociallness there lay a true warm heart.

Unsociality. (Un-1 12. Cf. prec.)

1858 Lever M. Tiernay xiv, All his habits were temperate, even to the extent of unsociality. 1873 Morley Rousseau I. 278 The bitter, irritable, and suspicious form which this unsociality now first assumed.

Unso·cially, adv. (Un-1 21.) 1656 J. Serjeant in Blount's Gloss. A 8, Nay homebred heads unsocially did strive T'estrange themselves. † Unso·cialed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1706 Watts Horæ Lyr. II. 230 O happy pair! Envy'd by yet unsociated souls Who seek their faithful twins!

Unso·cket, v. (Un-2 5.)

a 1721 Ken Hymns Evang. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 161 It racks his Joints, unsockets all his Bones. a 1745 Swift Night of Proc. Wks. 1841 II. 75/1 Not to oblige him [sc. an old parson] uncover in the cold, and unsocket his head with both hands. 1881 Tennyson Cup ii. II. 159 Great Goddess, whose storm-voice Unsockets the strong oak.

Unso·d, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) = next.

a 1250 Owl & Night. 1007 Hi etep fys & fleys vnsode, Suych wolues hit hadde tobroude. 1562 Whitehorne Orat. Soldiours xxxiv. 43 Addinge to the suyde mixture that is vnsod..hanile a parte of baye salte. 1577 B. Googe Heresbach's Husb. i. 32 b, A bushell of sodden meate, made of three quarters wet and vnsodde. 1622 Fletcher Sea-Voy. iii. i, Why should we consume thus..And she live there that bred all our miseries, Unrosted, or unsod? a 1634 Chapman Alphonsus iii. i. 142 A schinken of good raw bacon, And that's a common meat with us, unsod.

Unso·den, ppl. a. [OE. unsoden (Un-1 8 b), = MDu. ongesoden (Du. -soden), OHG. uncə-, unhisotan (MHG. ungesoten, G. ungesotten), MSw. osudhin, MDa. usoaden, Da. usoden in sense 1.]

1. Unboiled, uncooked.

c 1000 Sax. Leechd. II. 38 Sceapes holscancan unsodenne tobrec, gedo þæt mearh on þa eaxan. 1511 Fabyan Will in Chron. (1811) p. v, If my said monethes mynde fall in Lent, or upon a fysshe day, than I will that the said..xxiiij. peces of fiddes be alterd into saltfyche or stokfyshe, unwatered and unsodeyn. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. lviii. 10 Like unsodden flesh, and such as hathe scarce yit felt the first warmth of the fyre. 1608 Willet Hexapla Lev. 247 The manna..was raw and vnsodden.

2. Not sodden or soaked. Also fig.

1818 Shelley Eugan. Hills 205 The plains that silent lie Underneath; the leaves unsodden. 1889 Meredith R. Feverel xxii, A non-dancing, stout-dining congregation, in the middle of which the 1823 young guardsman..would not have obtruded his unsodden spirit.

† Unso·ft, a. Obs. [Un-1 7. Cf. MDu. onsoft, -safd(e, sacht(e, etc. (Du. onzacht), MLG. unsacht, OHG. (MHG.) unsamft (G. unsanft).] Not soft; hard, severe.

c 1275 Serving Christ 25 in O. E. Misc. 91 Per is þe suft vnsofte to leon. c 1386 Chaucer Merch. T. 1824 He kisseth him fel ofte With thilke brustles of his herd vnsofte. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 283 Mi wofull herte is so tobete, That all my wites ben unsofte And I am wroth. 1430–40 Lydg. Bochas v. vii. (1494) r f b/2 And Affricans felt full vnsoft Wham she to theym list be crowned. c 1470 Henry Wallace x. 332 Quham euir he hyt, thair sawchnyng was vnsoft. 1513 Douglas Æneid ii. ii. 96 The north wynd onsoft Held thaim abak.

† Unso·ft, adv. Obs. [OE. unsófte (f. un- Un-1 1 b + sófte Soft adv.), = WFris. on-, ünseaft, -sêft, -sacht, MDu. onsacht(e, -socht(e, etc. (Du. onzacht), MLG. unsachte, OHG. unsanftə (MHG. unsanfte, G. unsanft).] Not softly; severely.

a 900 Guthlac 858 (Gr.), Hu he monge..gehældde..þe hine unsofte adle gebundne..gesohtun. c 1000 Sax. Leechd. II. 260 Hwæt mon unsofte getilaõ on forewearde þa adle. a 1400 Lydg. Chorle & Birds (Rock) 50 And who desiteth to clymbe hygh a lofte Be sodeyn ruyne falleth dole sunsofte. 1430–40 — Bochas vi. (1494) t ii b/1 Another honde griped full vnsofte Which cast another in greate aduersite. 1509 Hawes Past. Pleas. xxxii. (Percy Soc.) 150 In holly bushes they did hang, Which, thereby, bendes downward for to fall unsofte. 1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. July 12 This reede is ryfe, that oftentime Great clymbers fall vnsoft.

Unso·ftened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1645 Hammond Death-bed Repent. 29 When the hard heart is unsoftened, unmoulded. 1725 Arbuthnot Serm. (1734) III. 121 Impatient of Delay, and unsoftned by all these Locutions. 1789 T. Twining Aristotle's Treat. Poetry 352 The unsoftened and unflattered character of Achilles. 1802 Noble Wanderers II. 143 The multitude of his sins were unsoftened by a single charity. 1855 [J. R. Leifchild] Cornwall 76 The same primitive rock..is still durable and unsoftened. 1857 N. Hawthorne Eng. Note-Bks. (1870) II. 291 Scenery..with very hard outlines, which are unsoftened..by any foliage.

Unso·ftening, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1857 Dickens Dorrit II. xxx, She..with an unsoftening face, looked at the worked letters within. 1872 Pater Stud. Hist. Renaiss. 74 This last passion would be the most unsoftening..of all. † Unso·lable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b + Soil. v.[2] 4.] Unanswerable, irrefutable. c 1449 Pecock Repr. II. v. 162 An other vnsilable proof for this..principal conclusioun is set bifore. † Unso·lably, adv. Obs. [Un-1 21; cf. prec.] Indisputably. c 1445 Pecock Donet 141 As it is bifore sufficiently and vnsoilably proved. † Unso·led, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [Un-1 8 + Soil. v.[1] 3.] Unsoiled, unanswered. 1533 More Answ. Poysoned Bk. Wks. 1081/2 That question Christ left vnsoyled. † Unso·led, ppl. a.[2] Obs. [Un-1 8 + Soil. v.[2] 8 or 9.] Not covered or treated with manure. 1616 Markham Cheap Husb. (ed. 2) 46 You shall remouе her into the best grasse you haue, which is fresh and unsoiled.

Unso·iled, ppl. a.[3] (Un-1 8.) Not soiled or dirtied. Also in fig. context.

c 1592 Marlowe Jew of Malta II. 419 Lod. This is thy Diamond, tell me, shall I haue it? Bar. Win it, and weare it, it is yet vnsoiled. 1649 Lovelace Poems 131 Which... Looke..Like Gold in Cannons, or with dirt Unsoyled Armins close begirt. 1686 Dryden To Mem. Mrs. Anne Killigrew iv, Her Arethusian Stream remains unsoil'd, and undefil'd. 1784 Cowper Task iv. 972 Time, as he passes us, has a dove's wing, Unsoil'd and swift. 1818 Scott Hrt. Midl. iii, A white handkerchief was thrust into the muzzle of the piece, and returned unsoiled or blackened. 1867 Morris Jason iv. 71 With unsoiled feet scarce touching the wet way.

Fig. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. II. iv. 155 My vnsoild name, th' austeerenesse of my life,..Will..your accusation ouerweigh. 1699 Ld. Tarbut in Pepys' Diary, etc. (1870) 691 That common opinion that young infants (unsoiled with many objects) do see apparitions which are not seen by those of older years. 1704 D'Urfey Abrad. & Panthea i. 9 Yet shall her honour be unsoil'd and clear. 1815 Chalmers Let. in Hanna Life (1850) II. 29 An unsoiled gracefulness and brilliancy of character. 1848 James Sir T. Broughton I. 159 Her spirit [was] unsoiled by the world.

Unsol·ing, vbl. sb. (Un-2 4.) 1895 Funk's Stand. Dict., Unsoiling, the act or process of removing soil, as for working a bed of brick-clay. Unso·laced, ppl. a. (Un-1 3.) [1775 Ash.] 1796 Coleridge Ode to Departing Year v, By the Earth's unsolaced groaning, Seize thy terrors, Arm of Might! 1862 [Eliz. Johnston] Gifts & Graces xxii. 215 Unsolaced by ministering hands of loved ones.

Unso·ld, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b. Cf. MSw. osalder, Sw. osåld.] Not disposed of by sale.

1362 Langl. P. Pl. A. v. 122 Bote nedde þe grace of gyle I-gon a-mong my ware, Hit hedde ben vn-solde þis seuen ȝer. 1388 Wyclif Acts v. 4 Whethir it vnseld was not thin; and whanne it was seld, it was in thi power? 1489 Paston Lett. III. 354 If Bayard be onsolde, I pray yow late hym be made fatte. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. (1811) 594 All suche marchaundyse, beyng than vnsolde, to be forfayted vnto the kyng. 1583 Melbancke Philotimus R iv b, Pertinax..did rather leaue his wood vnsould, then abate one blancke of his price. 1620 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. I. (1906) 207 The last yers corrall is unsold. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing 8 Some Trades are..sooner sold off, which renders the remainder of the un-sold Exercises imperfect. 1725 De Foe Roxana Wom. (1840) 246, I always reserved a small quantity of all goods unsold. 1809 Pinkney Trav. France 57 When the property of the emigrants is unsold. 1878 Jevons Prim. Pol. Econ. 100 She begins to fear that she may have to carry her income back unsold.

Unso·lder, v. (Un-2 3. Cf. F'lem. onsouderen (Kilian).] trans. To undo the soldering of. Also fig., to dissolve.

1538 Elyot, Replumbo, to vnsowlder. 1611 Cotgr., Dessoulder, to vnsolder, loose, dissolue. 1623 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter ii. 5 Who feares..that his marrying a wife should vnsoulder his conjunction with Christ? 1824 Examiner 12 Apr. 237/2 The leaden coffin being unsoldered, a body appeared. 1842 Tennyson Morte d'Arth. 14 The sequel of to-day unsolders all The goodliest fellowship of famous knights Whereof this world holds record. 1889 Anthony's Photogr. Bull. II. 171 The weak point of the lamp..is the danger of unsoldering its parts by this down rush of the flame.

Unso·ldered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.] Not fixed or closed with solder. Also fig.

1641 J. Taylor (Water P.) Reply (title p.), A Rusty, Rayl-ing,..Lying Libell, Intitled, An unimportunate order'd Ironmonger. 1876 Persch & Sivewright Telegraphy 303 The soldering iron, and fire-pot,..are more or less cumbersome, and lead to unsoldered joints remaining in the wire. 1891 Clark Russell Cornelia 104 If he is a plumber, he will not leave your pipes unsoldered.

Unso·ldier, v. (Un-2 6 b and 4.] trans. To divest of the character of a soldier or soldiers.

1611 Florio, Dissoldato, vnsoldiered. 1776 S. J. Pratt Pupil of Pleas. II. 53 A tender woman will..unsoldier the boldest of us. 1780 — Emma Corbett (ed. 4) II. 67 Death sometimes comes at the bottom of the account to unsoldier a man. 1791 Mackintosh Vind. Gallicæ 286 Two grand operations conduct to it—arming the people, and unsoldiering the army.

Unso·ldiered, ppl. a. [f. prec. or Un-1 8.] Free from, not attended by, soldiers. Also as adv., in an unsoldierly manner.

1609 Heywood Brit. Troy xx. xi, The people yssue free, Th' unsoldiered fields and deserts plaine to see. 1618 Fletcher Loyal Subj. i. 1, This young Prince..drew 'em up..so nearly, So raggedly and loosely, so unsoldiered, The good Duke blush'd. 1834 Disraeli Ven. Epick 35 Behold With eager homage..This mystical Omnipotence who breathes Unsoldiered edicts to a martial world.

Unso·ldierlike, a. (Un-1 7 c.)

1590 Sir J. Smythe Disc. Weapons 3 Their infinite vnsoldierlike proceedings and disorders. 1600 Dymmok Ireland (1843) 41 That advantage which was geven them by this unsoldier lyke encampinge. 1652 J. Wright tr. Camus' A at. Paradox III. 50 The unsoldier-like countenance of Philigenes. 1721 De Foe Mem. Cavalier (1840) 291 This was the most unsoldier-like action. 1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. II. 80 From their unsoldier-like impatience..their general permitted them to retire. 1810 Syd. Smith Wks. (1859) I. 193/1 Those skies have been abused in the meanest..and most unsoldier-like manner. 1861 G. Musgrave By Roads 300 An abnormal and most unsoldierlike condition of things, which involved all the elements of weakness, incompetency, and defeat.

Unso·ldierly, a. (Un-1 7.)

1598 Barret Theor. Warres II. i. 29 [An] vnsoldierly trick of a training captaine. 1644 Prynne & Walker Fiennes' Trial 33 The most absurd, irrational, if not unsoldierly distinction, that ever was heard of in the world. 1693 Kemes Short View of Tragedy 134 The General..should..have turn'd his Eyes away from so unsoldierly an Execution. 1721 De Foe Mem. Cavalier (1840) 299 Avoiding..the putting any unsoldierly extremities upon us. 1869 Kinglake Crimea II. 356 This movement..was scarcely wrong or unsoldierly. 1895 Eclectic Mag. Mar. 294 The unsoldierly appearance of a dandified subaltern.

† Unsoldiery, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] = prec. 1598 Barret Theor. Warres II i. 22 That the souldiers take not example from him of vnsoldiarie negligence. 1648 (title), An Elegie on the Most Barbarous, Vnparalled'd, Vnsouldiery Murder, committed at Colchester upon..Sir Charles Lucas and Sir George Lisle. Unso·lo, a. (Un-2 4. Cf. Unsolen.) 1598 Florio, Dissolare,..to part as the shoe from the sole, to vnsole. 1611 Cotgr., Dissemeler, to vnsole, or pull the soles of a shoe. 1805 J. Boardman Diet. Veterinary Art s.v. Sole, A horse that has been unsoled..will recover in a month's time.

Unso·lemn, a. (Un-1 7.)

† 1. Uncelebrated. Obs.

c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. i. pr. iii. (1868) 11 Of wyche folk þe renoun is neyber outer solemne ne vnsolempne [L. incelebris],

2. Not solemn; lacking in formal gravity.
c 1555 Harpsfield Divorce Hen. VIII (Camden) 124 The power..of that kind of vow is stronger than in a single unsolempe vow. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor i. ii. rule 8 § 30 Conscience can oblige a Judge to an unsolemn absolution. 1825 R. P. Ward Premaine II. 166 The not unsolemn rhythm of the regular tolling of the hours. 1885 Law Rep. 14 Q.B.D. 702 A thing..which by the rules of the House is disorderly and unsolemn.

b. Law. Of a will: Informal.
1590 Swinburne Testaments 18 Vnsolemne testamentes are so termed, wherein the solemnities of the Ciuill law.. are omitted. a 1661 Holyday Juvenal (1673) 50 Our lawiers therefore now call those ancient ones 'solemn testaments', as the latter sort unsolemn. 1746 Ayliffe Parergon 527 Such a perfect Will may either be a solemn or unsolemn will. 1774 S. Halliffax Rom. Law 34 The Privilege of Unsolemn Testaments granted to Soldiers. 1844 H. Tennant Notary's Man. ii. 32 The word 'Codicillus' or Codicil ..denotes any unsolemn last will, in which no heir is named.

Hence Unso·lemnly adv.
1821 J. Hodgson in J. Raine Mem. (1857) I. 367 He read the prayers very unsolemnly.

Unso·lemnized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1603 Tamworth in E. Lodge Illustr. (1791) III. 229 He is enferred by deathe-messe [sic]; and that made him unsolemnnized at the coronacion. Unsoli·citated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1807 Cogan in Treat. on Passions, etc. (1813) II. 470 The thoughts which suggest themselves to the mind, not only unsolicitated, but completely unexpected.

Unsoli·cited, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Of persons: Not approached with solicitation; unasked.
1588 Shaks. Tit. A. iv. iii. 60 Of my word, I haue written to effect, Ther's not a God left vnsollicited. 1613 — Hen. VIII, ii. iv. 129, I then..got your leaue To make this present Summons vnsolicited. 1682 C. Leslie Church Hist. 565 The devil..steps in..though unsolicited by those conspirators. 1756 Connoisseur No. 116 ¶ 2 The graduate in medicine, finding himself unsolicited for prescription or advice. 1813 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 604 A number of unsolicited, unknown yet predetermined plaudits for the theatre. 1881 Huxley in Life & Lett. (1900) I. 90 He had previously been civil enough to sign my certificate.., unsolicited. 1883 Meredith Metanphra x, Not unsolicited,..the pendulous flower of the plains of sloth..answered question and squeeze.

b. spec. Not asked in marriage.
1750 Johnson Rambler No. 73 ¶ 2 My aunts, being..neither young nor beautiful,..were suffered to live unsolicited.

2. Not asked for; given or done voluntarily.
1689 Savile Let. to Dissenter 30/2 Thanks must be voluntary, not only unconstrained, but unsolicited. 1878 Miss Burney Cecilia II. v, [He called] to bring her..fresh and unsolicited intelligence. 1818 Scott Br. Lamm. xxv, I am obliged to your lordship for your unsolicited intercession. 1847 Harris Lif. Hardwicke III. 107 This appointment was entirely the unsolicited act of His Majesty.

3. Not affected or influenced.
1857 Miller Elem. Chem., Org. 184 If thus, whilst unsolicited by any extraneous chemical forces, its molecular arrangement is so readily altered.

Hence Unsoli·citedly adv.
1815 W. H. Ireland Scribblomania 285 He..refused the first ecclesiastic dignities, which were unsolicitedly pressed upon him.

Unsoli·citous, a. (Un-1 7.)
(a) 1668 Clarendon Vind. Tracts (1727) 66 Which refusal, and many others, shew how unsollicitous I have always been in the way of getting. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 453, I could easily conceal this slip of memory, . . but I choose to let it stand, agreeably with the character of the Searches, unsolicitous to hide their defects. 1778 Sir J. Reynolds Disc. (1779) 21 That natural energy of men engaged in real action, unsolicitous of grace. 1817 Bentham Parl. Reform Introd. 120, I have never been unsolicitous in my endeavours to collect it. 1884 19th Cent. Feb. 198 Yet St. Matthew is admitted..to be unsolicitous as to order of time. 1891 Miss Dowie Girl in Kars. 259 With the fortune that attends the unsolicitous.

(b) 1758 Johnson Idler No. 9 ¶ 3 How many unsolicitous hours should I bask away, warmed in bed.., could I..tumble from thence in a moment.

Hence Unsoli·citousness. a 1683 Owen Gospel Grounds Wks. 1851 V. 449 An unsolicitousness about present affairs and future events.

Unso·lid, a. [Un-1 7, 5 b. Cf. G. unsolid.]
1. Not materially solid.
1611 Cotgr., Insolide, vnsolide, vnsound. 1615 Chapman Odyss. xi. 60, I..would not suffer any one to dip Within our offring, his vnsolide lip, Before Tiresias. 1646 Mayne Serm. Unity 38 A thin, unsolid, brittle, painted blast of wind. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. II. iv. § 5 The continuity of unsolid, inseparable, and immoveable Parts. 1733 Watts Philos. Ess. v. i. (1734) 116 'Tis not solid Extension, for that is Body or Matter. . 'Tis not empty or unsolid Extension, for that is pure Space. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) I. 298 Nor is it conceivable that any assortment of unsolid.. parts should form a solid..body. 1829 J. Phillips Geol. Works. 73 These unsolid materials fall and waste away into slopes. 1896 Daily News 2 Jan. 5 German manufacturers are advised..to forsake the making of unsolid or ugly furniture.

fig. 1845 Mill Disc. & Disc. (1859) II. 256 The breaking up of the great unsolid structure which Charlemagne had raised.

2. fig. Having no substance or sound basis.
1593 in Maitl. Club Misc. (1840) I. 58 The presbiterie debarris Connald Strutheris for his vnsolid speichis..fra the communioune at this present seasoun. 1639 W. Sclater Worthy Communion, 37 Its cleare, that this Consubstantiation of the Lutherans is unsolid. 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 45 Unsolid and corrupted judgements both in doctrine and life. 1730 Thomson Winter 753 Whither now are fled.. those unsolid hopes Of happiness? 1792 G. Wakefield Mem. (1804) I. 115 The generality of them [sc. criticisms] are triviall or unsolid. 1854 H. Miller Sch. & Schm. 204 To separate the solid from the unsolid thinking contained in my abstract. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma p. xxiv, To what is unsolid in the New Testament he applies a negative criticism ably enough.

3. Lacking solid worth or merit.
1731 A. Hill Advice to Poets 193 But ah! far short the unsolid tinklers rise, Nor soar, but flutter, in the muse's skies.

Hence Unso·lidly adv.; Unso·lidness.
1611 Cotgr., Insolidement, vnsoundly, vnsolidely. a 1684 Leighton Comm. 1 Peter ii. (1693) 261 Consider this as our happiness, and the unsolidness of other comforts, and privileges. 1755 Johnson, Loosely,..unsolidly; meanly; without dignity.

Unsoli·dity. (Un-1 12, 5 b; cf. prec.) 1736 Bailey (fol.) Addit., Unsolidity, unsolidness, unsoundness. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) V. 22 Wearing on the face of it a proof of its sooth, and of the proof of the unsolidity of the ground. 1889 Atlantic May 655/2 The pen that has indulged itself to an extent disproportionate.. to the apparent unsolidity of its topic.

Unso·lomonize, v. (Un-1 6 c.) 1755 J. Shebbeare Lydia (1769) I. 60 We should then..squeeze him to a confession of the truth, or unsolomonise him by superior wisdom. †Unsoli·bility. Obs.—1 (Un-1 12, 5 b.) 1789 J. Keir Dict. Chem. 29/2 The absolute unsolubility of bismuth.

†Unso·luble, a. Obs. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Insoluble; fig. unanswerable, irrefutable.
1559 Aylmer Harborowe K 3, I do not vrge this, as an vnsoluble reason. 1587 Golding De Mornay x. 170 Let us conclude..by vnsoluble reasons..that God..did in deede create the World of nothing. 1756 F. Home Exper. Bleaching 229 By the..influence of the air, it [sc. lime] becomes an unsoluble earth.

Unsolute, app. an error for unsolide Unsolid a. 1612 Speed Th. Gt. Britaiu I. xxxiii. 63/1 The Aire vpon the East and South parts is both thicke and foggie, by reason of the Fennes and vnsolute grounds.

Unso·lvable, a. [Un-1 7 b and 5 b.]
†1. Insolvent. Obs.—1
1656 Cowley Misc. Pref. ¶ 5, I have the real excuse of the honestest sort of Bankrupts, which is, to have been made Vnsolvable..by some notorious accidents and publike disasters.

2. Insoluble.
[1775 Ash.] 1821 J. Q. Adams Report Weights & Meas. 79 The problem, hitherto unsolvable to man, of squaring the circle. 1865 Reader 4 Feb. 130/1 He alone has produced paintings, before which we stand, as though they were unsolvable enigmas. 1894 S. Fiske Holiday Stories (1900) 155 Who had assumed the name..and hidden the receipt in our butler's pantry were unsolvable mysteries.

absol. 1894 H. Gardener Unoff. Patriot 6 Human longing to solve the unsolvable.

Hence Unso·lvableness.
1884 Nonconf. & Indep. 10 Jan. 30/2 The question is depressing to the spirits in its very unsolvableness.

†Unso·lve, v. Obs. [Un-2 9.] trans. To solve.
1651 Charles Sammon xii. 16 Perchance, my Fancy would have bin so kinde, T' unsolve the doubts of my perplexed minde. 1639 G. Daniel Eccius. Induct. 75 Ah! deare, I faint: can only this vnsolve The sentences which wisedome doth inuolve?

Unso·lved, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1665 Sir R. Howard Four New Plays Pref. A 4, If this were let pass, the Argument is yet unsolv'd in it self. 1697 Dryden Æneis Ded. ¶ 70 As Virgil propounds a riddle, which he leaves unsolved. 1741 Watts Improv. Mind i. i. (1786) 17 Those knots and perplexities which have hitherto been unsolved. 1827 Pollok Course T. v. 62 Vain question this,..and worthy to be left Unsolved. 1886 F. M. Crawford Tale Lonely Parish V, He nevertheless represented in the minds of all an unsolved enigma.

†Unso·lvible, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] = Unsolvable a. 2.
1664 H. More Exp. 7 Epist. x. 164 If unsolvible otherwise, there is still the more assurance of undeniable Demonstration. 1671 — Apocal. 380 Vnsolvible. Cf. unisome (Un-1 3.) At variance; hostile. c 1205 Lay. 3931 Al hes weren vn-sahte & a heo weren vn-some. 13.. R. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) App. G. 134 Hit bifel pat time..For defaute of weyes muche folc was vnsome.

Unson, v. [Un-2 6 b.] trans. To deprive of the character or status of a son.
1652 Br. Hall Rem. Wks. (1660) 144 He may so sin as to be frowned on,..not so as to be unsonned, or dis-herited. 1653 O. Sedgwick Doubting Believer 255 It is an unadvised folly in the suspension of Gods favour, to unsonne our selves, and unpossible to recover our sonship. 1752 Young Brothers III. i, Why heart, how dead to ev'ry call of nature! Unson'd! unbrother'd! nay, unhumaniz'd! 1882 G. Macdonald Weighed & Wanting III. 165 The father came back..determined..that his son, having unsonned himself, should no more be treated as a son.

Unson·like, a. and adv. (Un-1 7, c, 11 b.)
1657 Owen Communion, etc. III. v. 300 A Spirit of bondage ..casting them into an unsonlike frame of Spirit. 1687 R. L'Estrange Anson. Disc. 41 Not among the Persecutors of the Dissenters; which is the (most Un-son-like) Reflects upon in this Clause. 1690 C. Hesse O. & N. Test. I. 314 Their irreverent and unson-like repartee. 1879 Chr. G. Rossetti Seek & Find 315 An vnsonlike, unsympathetic, grudging spirit.

Unsono·rous, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1720-2 Lett. Mist's Jrnl. (1722) I. 62 Words harsh, and altogether unsonorous, and..incongruous in meaning. 1821 Monthly Mag. LI. 12 The harsh and unsonorous letters j and s.

Unso·nsy, a. Sc. and north. [Un-1 7.]
1. Luckless, unlucky, ill-omened, uncanny.
1560 Rolland Seven Sages 47 The Maiech [= marrow] beirof I sall declair, The quhilk pertenis to zour vnsonsie Air. Ibid. 82 That may serve weill sic ane vnsonsie Sanct. 1683 G. M[ertoun] Yorks. Dial. (1684) 71 You are unsawncy, I think by my life. 1728 Ramsay A nacreontic on Love 32 He leugh, and with unsonsy jest, Cry'd..Did not my arrow flie right smart? 1771 Foote Maid of B. II, My father was so unsaunsy as to gang out with Charley in the forty-five. 1814 Scott Waav. lxvii. At these unsonsy hours the glen has a bad name. 1897 W. Beatty Secretar xiv. 205 As unsonsy a place as I could have chanced on.

2. Unhandsome, plain.
1894 Crockett Raiders xxi, I'm nane so unsonsy yet, though I be auld enough to be the laddie's mither.

†Unsoo·t, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] = Unsweet a.
1420-2 Lydg. Thebes i. 574 Al be that some founde ful vnsoote Rather a pley of werre than of pees. 1430-40 — Isophas i. iv. 1628 This flood..Causid also scarsete off vetaile, That many a man felte ful vnsoote. 1579 Spenser Sheph. Cal. Dec. 118 And I..Sike follies nowe haue gathered as too ripe, And cast hem out, as rotten and vnsoote.

Unsoo·thed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1648 Herrick II, Dirgetopt, Vnflattered, or Vnsoothed. 1814 Byron Lara II. viii, Cheerful was his gate; For thence the wretched ne'er unsoothed withdrew. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. II. iii. § 10 The irritated pride of the antagonists remained unsoothed by the love-feast of St. Stephen's day.

Unsoo·thfast, a. [Un-1 7. Cf. OE. unsōþfæst.] Not truthful or true. a 1300 Cursor M. 26874 (of his scrift vnsothfast be, It sal him serue o thinges thre. 1570 Levins Manip. 36 Vnsoothfast, infidelis.

Unsophisti·cal, a. [Un-1 7.]
†1. Unsophisticated. Obs.—1
1742 Compl. Fam.-Piece i. i. 58 Take red and unsophistical Oil of Petre.

2. Not sophistical.
[1775 Ash.] 1836 Landor Peric. & Asp. xcv, Certainly these words are very unsophistical. 1886 J. Telfordin Pickd.'s Unpvbl. Dict. Genesis 3 With childlike unsophistical affections, let us love 'the Maker of Heaven and earth'.

Hence Unsophi·stically adv.
1794 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. II. 309 If..men would allow themselves the free exercise of their reason..when unsophistically established.

Unsophi·sticate, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b. Cf. next.) 1607 Markham Cavel. vi. Ded., Yet when I shall be tride, I hope I shall prove vnsophisticat. 1659 T. Pecke Parnassi Puer. p. 172 Few English men dare purchase an Estate; Unless your Wisdom's unsophisticate The Title vouch. 1688 Norris Lett. 165 The unsophisticate and genuine relish of the Soul. 1790 Wesley Prim. Physick Pref. ¶ 3 Medicines ..good in their Kind; pure, genuine, unsophisticate. 1781 Cowper Conversation 317 Simplicity, unsophisticate by man, Starts not aside from her Creator's plan. 1867 Lowell Fitz Adam's Story 605 Men unsophisticate, rude-nerved as bears.

Unsophi·sticated, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Unmixed, unadulterated.
1630 J. Taylor (Water P.) Beggar Wks. I. 98/1 Vnsophisticated drinke, That never makes mens tongues stagger. 1664 Boyle Exp. touching Colours 141 Take Blew, but Unsophisticated, Vitriol. 1706 E. Ward Wooden World Diss. (1708) 17 He never wants for two Sorts of Liquors, the Good and the Bad; the Bad to be mixt or unsophisticated with the other. 1861 in Daily Chron. 12 Sept., An infusion made from the unsophisticated [tea-] leaves. 1894 Cosmopolitan XVII. 228 Pure air and a sky unsophisticated with the lights and smokes of civilization.

2. Not tampered with, altered, or falsified; uncorrupted, genuine.
1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. 438 They shall use the Sword of the Spirit,..which is unsophisticated Reason and Scripture. 1690 D. Granville Lett. (Surtees) 234 This low ebb of pure unsophisticated devotion. 1790 Burke Fr. Rev. 128 We preserve the whole of our feelings still native and entire, unsophisticated by pedantry and infidelity. 1843 [Mrs. Maitland] Lett. fr. Madras p. v, To give the correspondence in its genuine unsophisticated state. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 380 It was difficult to get, which was the bottom of the cance and which was the unsophisticated log.

3. Not sophisticated in habits, manners, or mind; natural, ingenuous, inexperienced.
1665 Boyle Occas. Reft. iv. iii. 16 If some Ladies, were bound to change Dresses with this unsophisticated and undaorn'd Maid, 1668 H. More Div. Dial. II. 362 They shall be..untainted and unsophisticated by the unwholesome Converse of men. 1814 Jane Austen Mansf. Park xxiv, Her young, unsophisticated mind. 1854 T. Hackney Newcomes II. 118 What an unsophisticated little country creature you are! 1873 Tristram Moab xiii. 234 Trotter..drew out the unsophisticated fish as fast as he could bait his hook.

Hence Unsophisticatedness.
1898 Ann. Bensoir in Life (1899) I. 139 Some..footmen.. took away my umbrella, but amazed my unsophisticatedness in making me keep my hat on my head. 1866 Alger Solit. Nat. & Man iv. 336 To appreciate natural unsophisticatedness more highly, and conventionality more lowly.

Unsophistica·tion. (Un-1 12.)
1825 T. Hook Sayings Ser. II. 356 Affecting delight.. at their unsophistication and curiosity. 1846 Mrs. Gore Eng. Char. (1852) 29 The unsophistication which exposes the less wary classes..to be quacked to death by plausible doctors. 1887 T. Hardy Woodlanders III. 99 A proposal due rather to his unsophistication than to his prudence.

†Unso·pited, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-1 8.] Not put to rest. 1734 Keith Hist. Ch. & St. Scot. 186 To beget and maintain Friendship..after so late and as yet unsopited Jars. Unso·rtid, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1857 Smiles Stephenson xxxiv. 464 Though a thrifty and frugal man, [he] was essentially unsortid. Unso·rt, a. Cf. OE. unsodre, ON. óskirr, MSw. ossor, MDa. usorr.) 1500-20 Dunbar Poems lxxxiii. 23 Thane bad my dyt beine all in dull,..Quhair now I sing with heart onsair. Unso·rrowed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lxxii. § 13 What heapes of grieuous transgressions haue we committed..and yet cleane passe them ouer vnsorrowed for, and vnrepented of. 1619 Fletcher M. Thomas II. iv, Val. What shall I do? Cel. Dye like a fool unsorrow'd, A bankrupt fool, that flings away his Treasure. Unsortable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. II. 289 An Arian, Papist and Jacobit, dealing in their respective unsortable patch-work, make up to themselves unseizable Chymera's.

Unso·rted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1. Not arranged or put in order.
1533 More Apol. xlvii. Wks. 921/2 Good Tommie Truthe.. bringeth neuer a vynesse with hym, and all hys euydence vnsorted. 1741 Watts Improv. Mind xx. (1786) 408 Their Ideas..will lie in the brain unsoud, and thrown together without order. 1851 Wynter Soc. Bees 22 The last letters.. are, of course, unsorted, and have to go through that process as the rain proceeds. 1895 Educat. Rev. Nov. 352 A new science has been developed out of what were unsorted and uninterpreted fragments.

† 2. Unfitted, unsuitable. Obs.—1

1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, ii. iii. 13 The purpose you undertake is dangerous, the Friends you have named uncertaine, the Time it selfe vnsorted.

Unsought, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b, c. Cf. MDu. ongesocht (Du. ongezocht), MHG. ungesuochet (G. ungesucht), Da. usøgt, Sw. osökt.]

1. Not searched out or sought after; not sought or asked for.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 324 A wummon bet haues forloren hire nelde..seches hire anonriht.. and God forloren uuneth schal liggen unsoult fulle seone dawes. 1374 Chaucer Troylus i. 80 Vnknowe vnkyst and lost hat is vn-sought. a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. ii. xiv. (W. de W. 1494). Vnresonably he werkith hat leitith the soureyn gode..vnsought and vnloved. a 1470 Gregory Chron. in Hist. Coll. Cit. Lond. (Camden) 192 They lefte noo thynge unsoffethe, and they serchyd all that nyght. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 103 A thyng discended from heauen, a lofthein vnsought vnimagined and not deuised. 1596 Gascoigne Kenilworth Castle Wks. 1910 II. 92 Nothing shall rest unsought, That may bring pleasure to your mind. 1634 Milton Comus 730 His Sea o'erhaught would swell, and th' unsought diamonds Would so emblaze the forehead of the Deep, ..that fetc.]. 1688 T. Flatman Lines to Abp. Sancroft 1 When I Your unsought Glories view'd, ..some great thing to Write I meant. c 1708 Fenton First Pit of Gont 19 Whence comes this unsought honour, unto me? 1757 Warton Pope's Wks. IX. 247 To the issue of that unasked and unsought compliment these words allude. 1837 Lockhart Scott IV. i. 13 This novel seems to me to possess..a kind of simple unsought charm. 1846 Kane Arctic Expl. II. 91, 44 How often relief has come at the moment of extremity, in forms strangely unsought.

b. Not obtained by search or effort. Freq. in loose const.: Without being sought for; without search.

c 1350 Ignaudon 6519 Nowe I se vnsoughte, My travayle bedyr is all in vayne! c 1398 Chaucer Merch. Tale 102 What manner thinge may encrese my wo That haue I redy vnsoghte euyr where. c 1400 Ywaine & Gaw. 798 Bot the knight thar fand that noght; Than was thar mekil sorow unsoght. c 1460 Towneley Myst. II. 91, 44 How often relief has come at the moment of extremity, in forms strangely unsought.

b. Not obtained by search or effort. Freq. in loose const.: Without being sought for; without search.

c 1350 Ignaudon 6519 Nowe I se vnsoughte, My travayle bedyr is all in vayne! c 1398 Chaucer Merch. Tale 102 What manner thinge may encrese my wo That haue I redy vnsoghte euyr where. c 1400 Ywaine & Gaw. 798 Bot the knight thar fand that noght; Than was thar mekil sorow unsoght. c 1460 Towneley Myst. II. 91, 44 How often relief has come at the moment of extremity, in forms strangely unsought. Bot Oftsin yhat is vnsoght. ? a 1500 Chester Pl. (Shaks. Soc.) 206 Endles paine muste I haue vnsoughte To my reward. 1595 Spenser F. Q. vi. iv. 28 Offinces..sorrowes of the myend Dreadfull remedie vnsought, which seeking cannot fynd. 1601 Shaks. Twel. N. iii. 1. 168 Loue sought, is good: but giuen vnsought, is better. 1671 Milton P. R. ii. 59 Thus they out of their plaints new hope resume To find whom at the first they found unsought. 1725 Ramsay Gentl. Sheph. iii. ii, That's kind unsought. 1784 Cowper Task iii. 288 What pearl is it..which the poor..Seek and obtain, and often find unsought? 1817 Scott Harold Introd. 55 Oft at such seasons, to will rhymes unsought Arrange themselves in some romantic lay. 1895 Poultry Chron. III. 338/2 The greatest gain will often, unsought and unwished, attend the first-class.

c. With advs., esp. for.

1611 Florio, inopinately, unsought out. 1622 Wither Philarete M 3 b, Those sad Strainesi. Which you composd, when greatest discontent Vnsought-for helpes to your Intention lent. 1650 Cromwell Let. 12 Sept. (Carlyle), Which we earnestly desired, but did not serve thee were unsoute. 1727 [Dorrington] P. Quarll (1816) 26, I had him..by mere accident, unexpected, and unsought for. 1816 Wilson City of Plague ii. ii. 137 Unsought-for bliss Coming..from all the points of heaven. 1869 H. Cox Poetil. i. x. 249 This arrangement..at least was unsought for by him.

2. † a. Unassailed. Obs. rare.

a 1300 Cursor M. 2440 He lused hir wil mare pan are, For wirsiipp bat soo did him wip, And soo vnsoght aacles o sin. c 1400 Sowdone Bab. 2081 Ve been bisieged in this toure.. Charles wole not leve you vnsought.

b. Unasked; without being requested.

a 1500 Chaucer's Dreme in C's Wks. (1598) 350/2 So verily, ech thing vnsought, The lake he had knowne my thought. 1613 Hieron Bridegroome 18 Christ leadeth his Church with benedicts, and vnsought to vnsought. a 1704 T. Brown Sat. Quack Wks. 1730 I. 71 Death, tho' unsought, waits on thy murd'ring Quill. 1873 Symonds Grk. Poets xi. 392 Then on my lyre, unasked, unsought, there flew A grasshopper. 1898 B. Taylor Deukalion i. vi. 49 Ere ye approach me, I shine unsought.

3. Unexamined, unexplored.

c 1375 Cursor M. 26637 (Fairf.), Hit faris of shrift as dos of wound Pat lange vnsoot is to be grounde. 1400 tr. Secretis Secret. Gen. Lordsh. 46, I haue bought left vnsoght no stede no temple whare Philosophers syed to wryte. 1426 Lydg. De Guil. Pilgr. 4450 And ther ys no corner vnsought, But that I go to enery place. 1590 Shaks. Com. Err. i. 1. 136 Loth to leaue vnsought Or that, or any place that harbouns men. 1600 Fairfax Tasso xv. xxvii, So that this mighty sea is yet unsought, Where thousand isles and kingdoms lie unknown. 1685 Quarles Sion's Sonn. xv. 6 Thus, no place I left unsought, No earn vnsaid.

4. Not resorted to; untried.

1582 Stanyhurst Æneis iv. (Arb.) 109 No meane vntattempted, ne vnsought, leauing. 1626 Chas. I in Buccleuch M.S.S. (Hist. MSS. Comm.) I. 264 We..have left no means unsought that might only enable us to these great works. 1708 Rowe Royal Convert iii. 1, Is there a Remedy in human Wisdom, My Mind has left unsought, to help this Evil?

Unsoul, v. [Un-2 6 b and 4. Cf. Du. ontzielen, G. entseelen.]

1. trans. To deprive of spirit or courage.

a 1634 Chapman Rev. for Honour i. 1, 204 For shame, sir! ..Your sad appearance, should they thus behold you, Would half unsoul your army. 1641 Shirley Cardinal ii. 1, Such Another were enough to unsoul an Army: Ignobly talk of patience till they drink And reel to death?

2. To deprive of soul; to make soulless. Also const. of.

1652 Benlowes Theoph. i. xxi, Such are their ranting catches, to unsoul And out-law man. 1654 Corbaine Dianea iv. 336 But Cruelty..spoiles, unbowels, unsoules the world. a 1743 Ozell tr. Brantome's Sp. Rhodom. (1744) 123 Heaps of Bodies they had un-soul'd and deprived of vital air. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude xii. 83 Even so could I unsoul As readily by syllogistic words Those mysteries of being. 1898 Coleridge Lazarus Revived 46 There is a way of making truth plain and comprehensible by unsouling it of all that is ..most precious in it.

3. To deprive of the essential qualities of a soul.

1652 H. More Antid. of Ath. Wks. (1712) 13 You may as soon unsoul the Soul. a 1680 Charnock Attrib. God (1834) I. 88 [When] we seem to deny the being of God,..we seem also to unsoul our souls.

Unsou·led, ppl. a. [f. prec. or Un-1 8. Cf. G. entseelt; also MHG. ungesêlt (obs. G. ungeseelt), G. unbeseelt.] a. Deprived of soul. b. Not endowed with soul.

1596 Spenser F. Q. vii. vii. 46 Death..[is not] ought to see, but like a shade to weene, Vnbodied, vnsoul'd, vnheard, vnseene. 1620 Shelton Quix. i. iv. v. 336, I know not what vnsouled folke they be, and so without conscience. 1653 Fong Lord's Lord v. 1, Thus, bodies walke vnsoul. 1722 Hamilton Wallace v. (1816) 67 The chief retires,..While twenty foes unsoul'd, adorn the fatal scene. a 1750 A. Hill Ronald & Dorna v, Trembling, I wait, unsoul'd, till you inspire. 1800 Coleridge Fiesco, tr. i. iv. 127 The painful toil..Left me a heart unsoul'd and solitary. 1840 Mangan Poems (1903) 136 To be The world's applauded and degraded martyr, Unsouled, enthralled. 1885-94 Lindsay Lyrics & Legends Mar. xii, Her fair Hellenic empire..For which she had..left her wanton images unsoul'd In Babylon and Zidon.

Unsou·lish, a. (Un-1 7.) 1890 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ I. 228 He felt for the moment that he was living a miserably thin, unsoul-ish life.

† Unsound, sb. Obs. [Un-1 12. Cf. MHG. ungesunt (obs. G. ungesund) in sense 1.]

1. Physical unsoundness; malady or sickness; a wound or sore.

c 1205 Lay. 29315 Þe king him gon crepen an heonden and a futen, swulche hi unsunde al uorwunded weore. a 1300 Martyr. 20 in Hindm. Alangl. Leg. (1878) 173 Þer hes hi mid vnsunde Fourtenilt faste ybounde. c 1325 Shorrham 1. 82 Water wasschedþ þe feithe a-way, þer me wesschedþ liste þe on-sounde.

2. Harm, distress, annoyance.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. C. 58 Did not Jonas in Iude such Jape sum-whyle, To sette hym to sowte, vnsounde he hym feches? Ibid. 597 He þat is to rakel to renden his clopes, Mot efte sitte with more vn-sounde to sewe hem togeder. c 1470 Golagros & Gaw. 590 Was neuer sa vnsound set to my hert.

Unsound, a. [Un-1 7. Cf. NFris. tinsiin (-siinj), MLG. unsund (hence Sw. osund, Da. usund); also MDu. ongesont (Du. ongezond), MLG. ungesund, MHG. ungesunt (G. ungesund).]

1. Of persons, etc.: Not physically sound; unhealthy, diseased; † suffering from wounds or injuries.

c 1320 Sir Tristr. 1175 Men wounded him and band Vnsounde. Ibid. 3342. c 1330 King of Tars 522 Summe weore scolles sickeuul, Summe weore thei weore unsounde. c 1400 Destr. Troy 1255 Þai hurlet hym fro horse fete, & of hond toke, Set hym in his sadill þof he vnsound were. a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 2615 Oute of the felde was he drayne, For he was sekeand sore vnsounde. c 1470 Henry Wallace viii. 787 The wery ost..Wyschc woundis with wyn, off thaim that was wnsound. 1513 Douglas Æneid iv. i. 1 The Queyn, with bayy thochtis onsound, In euesy vane nurisis the geyn wound. 1601 B. Jonson Poetaster iii. v, Emuy, Shall find me solid, and her teeth vnsound. 1667 Decay Chr. Piety viii. 211 And like an unsound limb, the healing of one Sore is the breaking out of another. 1722 De Foe Plague (1896) 57 It brought abundance of unsound people to the markets. 1787 'G. Gambado' Acad. Horsemen (1800) 47 It seems as if one might work a lame horse thus, and have his unsound leg quiet. 1824 Byron Deff. Trafalg. i. i. 564 Merrily! merrily! never unsound, Shall our bonny black horses skim over the ground! 1879 Harlan Eyesight vi. 80 An eye with a high degree of short-sight is almost always an unsound one.

b. transf. Of wounds, ailments, etc.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 495 Medea the mylde..Wox pale for pyne ..With a Sykyng vnsounde, þat sonne to hir here. 1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. iv. 16 But that same Ladies hurts no herbe he found Which could redresse, for it was inwardly vnsound. 1613 Heywood Brasen Age H 2 b, I did neglect the smart: At length it rankled and it grew vnsound. 1823 J. Thomson Lect. Inflam. 425 The unsound appearances of the granulations show to what a stand the animal powers are put on such occasions.

† 2. Quasi-adv., in the phrase to sigh unsound.

? a 1400 Morte Arth. 3290 Otte he syghede vn-sownde, and said theis wordes. a 1440 Sir Degrev. 316 The eorl hovede and beheld..How they fayre in the feld, And syght unsound. c 1470 Gol. & Gaw. 638 For pure sorow of that sight thai sighit vnsound.

d. Of substances, plants, fruits, etc.: Not in sound or good condition.

1617 Morysin Itin. iii. 273 Officers..who oueresee the shambles, that no vnsound meate be sold. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 167 Some Lands will make unsound Cheese, notwithstanding all the Care the good Housewife can take. 1815 A. T. Thomson Lond. Disp. 402 In some places the grapes are..picked from the stalks, and freed from all the unsound ones with great care. 1855 Poultry Chron. III. 546/2 Shake the earth from the roots, cut off any unsound parts.

2. Morally corrupt or vitiated; wicked, evil.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 575 þe venym & þe vylanye & þe vycios fylþe, þat by-sulpez mannez saule in vnsounde hert. ? a 1400 Morte Arth. 3942 [He] ses theme alle in a soppe..With the Sarazenes vn-sownde enseiclede a-bowte. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. iv. § 1 That wherein vnsoundier times haue done amisse, the better ages ensuing must rectifie, as they may. 1602 Weever Mirr. Mart. A 7 b, Seeking how she might the more inhaunce me, Though lewd my hauiour was, vnsound my carriage. 1811 Lamb Hogarth Wks. 1908 I. 107 That he..took a pleasure in exposing the unsound and rotten parts of human nature. a 1862 Buckle Civilis. (1868) III. iii. 130 If the people are unsound,..the nation perishes.

b. Not sincere or true.

1714 Gay Sheph. Week iv. 104 Boobyclod soon drops upon the ground, A certain token that his love's unsound.

3. Unwholesome, unhealthy.

1598 Florio, Insanare,..to make vnsound, or vnholsome. 1660 F. Brooke tr. Le Blanc's Trav. 383 The Mine of Potto ..is..of little benefit for want of workmen, by reason of the unsound ayre. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 179 In unsound Pasture they reckon it the best for Lambs to run with the Ewes. c 1850 Glenc. Farm Rep. 18 (L.U.K.), In summer they depasture on the unsound grass land.

4. Not mentally sound or normal; not sane.

a 1547 Surrey Æneis ii. 308 But we goe on, vnsound of memorie. Ibid. iv. 11 When all unsound, her sister of like minde Thus spake she to. 1642 in Perkins' Prof. Bk. iv. 131 If a man of unsound memory..exchange the same land with a stranger. 1693 Humours Town 32 A debilitated Body, and unsound Mind. 1746 Francis tr. Hor., Sat. ii. iii. 400 His Master sure..Must have confess'd the Slave unsound of Brain. 1818 Cruise Digest (ed. 2) V. 538 Finding that Nicholas Hume..was not an idiot or person of unsound mind. 1898 Daily News 9 Nov. 4/3 The jury found..that he was occasionally unsound in mind.

5. Not soundly based in reasoning or fact.

1595 Spenser Epithal. 237 Modesty, That suffers not one looke to glance awry, Which may let in a little thought vnsound. 1631 Gouge God's Arrowes 210 The ground of the objection is unsound. 1648 Milton Ch. Govt. ii. 6 Therefore it is unsound to say that God [etc.]. 1746 Dunkin tr. Horace, Epist. i. ii. 22 When doating Monarchs urge Unsound Resolves, their Subjects feel the Scourge. 1818 Byron Ch. Har. iv. vii, Waking Reason deems Such overweening phantasies unsound. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. x. II. 614 Their old theory, sound or unsound, was at least complete and coherent. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma vi. 180 When they are unsound by denying the difference.

b. Of persons in respect of opinion or belief.

1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lii. § 4 So Eutyches, of sound beliefe..became vnsound by denying the difference. a 1658 Durham Comm. Rev. (1660) 187 If an unsound hypocritical man may be sent Minister of Christ? 1680 C. Nesse Church-Hist. 136 God sent Nestorius, an heretick, which he would not do for unsound Jehu. 1891 Lb. Acton in Westm. Gaz. 10 Oct. (1906) 2/3 St. John, I have even heard, was unsound about Old Testament dates and authorships.

6. Lacking in solidity or firmness.

1590 Spenser F. Q. xii. xc Of such subtile substance and vnsound, That like a ghost he seem'd, whose graue-clothes were vnbound. 1760 Beattie The Hares 170 Some new phenomenon..Which..From its proud summit to the ground Proves the whole edifice unsound. 1800 Southey St. Gualberto viii, The pile was ruinous, the base unsound. 1844 Act 7 & 8 Vict. c. 84 § 46 If an unsound Party Wall..be pulled down and rebuilt. 1856 Kane Arct. Expl. I. 126 The ice is too unsound for the sledge with a large team.

7. Of sleep: Broken or disturbed.

1584 C. Robinson, etc. Handef. Pleas. Delights (Arb.) 44 My sleepe vnsound hath dreadfull dreams.

Unsound, adv. [Un-1 11 b.] Not soundly. 1595 Daniel Civil Wars iii. 1, The now sad king, still musing, sleepes vnsound. † Unsound, v. Obs. [Un-2 6 b.] a. trans. To tear or rend. b. To make unsound. c 1450 Mirour Saluacions (Roxb.) 97 Jacob sonnes thaire broithere cote with thaire hands vnsoundid. 1560 W. Baldwin Funerailes K. Edw. Sixt A iv b, Where hee had his..person found, I will thou shalt his helthy body vnsound. † Unsoundable, a.[1] Obs.[1] [Un-1 7 b.] Not sounding well; improper. c 1440 Alph. Tales 408 It wer ane vnsoundabyll thyng to do, if it sulde be lete & I tarryd with þe.

Unsoundable, a.[2] [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Incapable of being sounded; unfathomable.

1627 Jackson Creed vi. v. § 1 Some Schoole-braines have beene so puzled in passing this unsoundable gulfe, as to suspect [etc.]. 1660 F. Brooke tr. Le Blanc's Trav. 216 The so famous Nile..sallying out of a great and unsoundable lake. a 1684 Leighton Comm. 1 Pet. ii. (1693) 295 The thoughts of God are..deep, and unsoundable by us. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iii. xi, There shall be a depth of Silence in thee..; a Silence unsoundable. 1882 Graphic 4 Oct. 358/2 His eyes will be large, black, with long lashes and unsoundable. 1897 Baring-Gould Guavas vii, One track..betwixt unsoundable bogs.

† Unsounded, ppl. a.[1] Obs.—1 [Un-1 8: cf. Sound v.[3]] Not healed. 1420-2 Lydg. Thebes ii. 2438 Wherto shuld I write..of the sorowe that Polymytes Mad in hym-self to sen hym so forwounded, His greuous hurtes, his soorys, ek vnsounded.

Unsounded, ppl. a.[2] Also 6 unsounde. [Un-1 8.] Not sounded, uttered, or pronounced; not made to sound.

1530 Palsgr. Introd. 16 No vowell is left unsounded..in a frenche worde. c 1532 Du Wes Introd. Fr. in Palsgr. 899 If the next worde..be a consonant, than shall the said s remayne unsounde. 1897 J. Barlow Columb. v. 766 Every honest Muse with horror flings The name unsounded from her sacred strings. 1865 Trans. Philol. Soc. 15 The unsounded syllable of the third person plural of the French verb. 1884 H. R. Haweis Musical Life 119, I keep my Strad. in a cabinet behind glass. There he rests unsounded and unstrung.

Unsounded, ppl. a.[3] [Un-1 8.] 1. Not sounded or plummeted; unfathomed.

1592 Shaks. Two Gent. iii. ii. 81 Orpheus Lute,..Whose golden touch could make Tygers tame, and huge Leuiathans Forsake vnsounded deepes, to dance on Sands. 1616 W. Browne Brit. Past. II. i. 130 The tyde..whereon his carre should sweepe, Deckt with the riches of th' unsounded deepe. 1651 T. Stanley Poems, Venus Virgilis 27 Pierces through the unsounded sea. 1861 L. Noble Icebergs 243 Where with the surf around its shoulders..it stood far up from the unsounded valleys of ocean.

b. fig. or in fig. contexts.

1599 Shaks. Hen. V, iii. 1 57 Gloucster is a man Vnsounded yet, and full of deepe deceit. 1607 Chapman Bussy D'Ambois III. F 1, O the vnsounded Sea of women bloods, That when its calmest, is most dangerous. 1634 Jackson Creed VII. xix. § 6, I would request every ingenuous sober reader..not adventure to saile in a narrow..and unsounded sea only with the help of a generall carde. a 1750 A. Hill The Muse to the Writer xxxiii. This is a subject, that, outstretching thought, Through depths unsounded, wi's long plummet draws. 1826 Mrs. Hemans Forest Sanctuary lxxi, Th' unsounded gulfs of human woe! 1876 Swinburne Erechtheus 939 Mine unknown children of unsounded years. 1898 Emerson in N. Amer. Rev. CXXVI. 409 To good men, as we call good men, this doctrine of Trust is an unsounded secret.

2. Unprobed, unexamined.

c 1640 Robinson Mary Magd. 534 Vaine woman!..shall thy heart vnsounded, still remaine vnsound?

Unsoundly, adv. [Un-[1] 1, 1.]

†1. So as to do hurt or harm; injuriously. Obs.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 201 Ne neuer so sodenly sost [God] vn-soundely to weng, As for fylpe of þe flesch þat foles han vsed. 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 1438 Penne þay beten on þe buskez, & bede hym vp ryse, & he vnsoundyly out sozt segges ouer-pwert.

2. In an unsound manner.

1594 Hooker Eccl. Pol. Pref. viii. § 1 All such partes of the word of God..no lesse unsoundly taught and interpreted by all authorized English pastors, then by antichristes factors themselves. 1611 Cotgr., Insoldiencest, vnsoundly, vnsolidely,..feebly. 1668 H. More Div. Dial. II. v. 195 If it were notable to bear such small Fillips, it would be a sign that things hung very crazily and unsoundly together. 1828-32 Webster s. v., He sleeps unsoundly. 1851 Mansel Prolegs. Log. i. 2 That it is possible to transgress those [mental] laws, or to think unsoundly.

Unsoundness. [Un-[1] 12.]

1. The quality of being physically or materially unsound. Also fig.

1599 Sandys Europæ Spec. (1605) V 2 b, The bond of common feare, is the strongest indeed of all others,..and the danger once past fallen in sunder of his owne vnsoundnesse. 1614 Latham Falconry II. i. 79 When through our disorder..we haue wrought their sore (sc. hawks') vnsoundnes, we forget to looke backe. 1763 Mills Hist. Hush. III. xxxvii. 17 Some [livers] were livid or corrupted, they offered others, as the vnsoundness of the first might be owing to some casual distemper. 1820 Starkie Rep. Cases N. P. II. 81 If a horse be affected by any malady which renders him less serviceable for a pernancy, I have no doubt that it is an unsoundness. 1860 Tyndall Glac. II. xix. 333 The unsoundness of ice at and near its melting point. 1880 Encycl. Brit. XII. 180/2 A pimple on the body where the saddle would cover it is an unsoundness in a hunter while it lasts. Ibid., A temporary cough is also an unsoundness.

b. Unwholesomeness.

1660 F. Brooke tr. Le Blanc's Trav. 370 A Colony..displanted for the unsoundnesse of the aynr.

2. The quality of being unsound in belief, opinion, principles, etc.

1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. lxii. § 6 By reason of vnsoundnes in the highest articles of christian faith. 1641 Milton Animadv. 20 They need not carry such an unworthy suspicion over the Presences of Gods word, as to tutor their unsoundnesse with the Abcie of a Liturgy. 1680 S. Mather Iren. 3 Fundamental unsoundness and Corruption of Judgment. 1769 J. Gill Body Pract. Divinity ii. ii. 302 They..agree to differ, and not charge one another with unsoundness and heterodoxy. 1794 G. Adams Nat. & Exp. Philos. II. xviii. 259 It was not uncommon formerly to suspect every one who professed to pursue the light of nature, of unsoundness of principles. 1841 [Mrs. Mozley] Lost Brooch II. 71 Every sermon of his betrays his unsoundness. 1877 Smith & Wace's Dict. Chr. Bing. I. 11/2 The breach was widened by mutual accusations of unsoundness in the faith.

b. Of doctrine, principles, etc.

1586 Hooker Answ. Travers § 6 Any thing that shalbe spoken concerning the vnsoundnes of my Doctrine. 1697 Stat. in Hist. Wakefield Gram. Sch. (1892) 61 The unsoundness of his or their religion. 1712 Addison Spect. No. 507 P 6 The Unsoundness of this Principle..is..universally acknowledged. 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. India I. 551 The unsoundness of the principle might induce a reasonable distrust of the correctness of the persuasions. 1881 Westcott & Hort Grk. Test. Introd. § 93 The presumed unsoundness of the text.

3. The quality of being mentally unsound.

1845 Macaulay Ess., Milton P 14 Perhaps no person can be a poet..without a certain unsoundness of mind. 1856 J. W. H. Williams (title), On Unsoundness of Mind, in its medical and legal considerations. 1884 Law Rep. 27 Ch. Div. 119 The soundness or unsoundness of mind of the alleged lunatic.

†Unsoundy, a. Obs.[-1] Irreg. var. Unsound a.

a 1529 Skelton E. Rummyng 35 Her eyen gowndy Are full vnsoundy, For they are blered.

Unsouped, obs. variant of Unsupped.

Unsour, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. OE. unsúr, ON. úsúr.)

1611 Florio, Inaspro, vnsowre, sweet. 17.. Ramsay To D. M'Ewen ii, Health, T' enjoy life hour a saul unsow'r.

Unsoured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. NFris. unsüürred, MSw. osyrdh (Sw. osyrad), older Da. usuret (Da. usyret); Du. ongezuurd, MHG. ungesiuret (G. ungesäuert) chiefly of bread, = unleavened.)

1626 Bacon Sylva § 341 Wee see that Meat and Drinke will last longer, Vnputrified, or Vnsowred, in Winter, than in Summer. 1685 Dryden Horace I. ix. 26 Secure those golden early joyes, That Youth unsow'r'd with sorrow bears. c 1791 Burns To Mr. Maxwell i, Health, ay unsour'd by care or grief. 1853 C. Bronte in Mrs. Gaskell Life (1858) 4 A serene spirit and an unsoured disposition!

Unsow'ed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. ongesaeit (Du. ongezaaid), G. ungesäet, Da. usaaet, Sw. osådd.] = next. 1648 Hexham II, Onbezaeyt landt, an vnsowed land, or a Fallowe field. 1791 Cowper Odyss. IX. 125 Earth unsow'd, untill'd, brings forth for them All fruits, wheat, barley, and the vinous grape.

Unsow'n, ppl. a. Also 4 unswoe, -sawe. (Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. OE. unsáwen (of land), ON. úsáinn, and prec.]

1. Of seed: Not sown; left without being sown. Also of vegetation: Growing without having been sown.

c 1374 Chaucer Former Age 10 Corn vp-sprong vnsowe of manne kynd. ?15.. in Thynne Animadv. etc. (1875) 88 Wher the seyd of god is vnsawn. 1539-40 N. C. Wills (Surtees) 169 All my corne sowen and unsowen. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 85 Sowe lintels ye may, and pease gray. Keepe white vnsowne, till stone be knowne. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 546 Mushromes..come vp so hastily; As in a Night; And yet they are Vnsowne. 1693 Dryden Ovid's Met. I. 138 The Flow'rs un-sown, in Fields and Meadows reign'd. 1882 R. W. Dixon Mano I. iv. 10 The crops remained unsown this year.

2. Of land: Not supplied with seed.

c 1400 Gamelyn 83 He bought on his landes þat lay vnsawe. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. IV. lxxv. 53 The grounde was vntylled and vnsowen, Wherof ensued great scarsyte. 1599 Shaks. 2 Hen. VIII, c. 5 Duryng all suche time as the same landes shalbe and remayne vnsowen. 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme I. xxiv. 147 The trampling which they keepe about trees, meadows, and vnsowne places. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 482 If the ground lie fallow, and vnsowne. 1725 Pope Odyssey IX. 143 Nor knows the soil to feed the fleecy care,..But uninhabited, untill'd, unsown It lies. 1730 Lyttelton Epist. in Prose 28 Unhappy Italy!..Her cities [are] deserted and her fields unsown. 1842 Tennyson Dora 71 Dora..went her way Across the wheat, and sat upon a mound That was unsown.

Unspa'n, v. rare. (Un-[2] 3 + Span v.[2] Cf. OE. un-, onspannan, Du. ontspannen.)

1648 Hexham II, Outspanney,..to Vnspan, or to Vnyoake. Ibid., Een Outspanninge,..an Vnbending, or an Vnspanning. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. III. v. 92 The grave sad man, Whose counsel could conspiracies unspan When ready to give fire.

Unspared, ppl. a. Sc. [Un-[1] 8.] Unweaned. 1500-20 Dunbar Poems lxxv. 36 My clype, my vnspaynyit gayne With moders milk sit in sour mychane. †Unspa'ng, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To detach (horses) from a car. 1580 Holyband Treas. Fr. Tongue, Desatacher, se desatacher, to lose horses, or vnspang them from the carte. 1611 Cotgr. s. v. Desteler. Unspa'ngled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1628 Quarles Argalus & P. i. Wks. (Grosart) III. 251/2 Whenas the universall shade Of the unspangled heaven..had made An utter darkenesse.

Unspar, v. [Un-[2] 3. Cf. Du. ontsparren, OHG. intsperran, -en (MHG. ent-, ensperren).] trans. To unbar (a door, etc.); to open.

c 1200 Ormin 12158 Cristess þohht wass sperrd swa wel.. Þatt naness kinness sinnfull luss Ne mihhte it næfre unn-sperenn. a 1225 Ancr. 70 Heo schal habben leaue to openen [MS. B. unsperren] hire þurl enes oðer twies. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xxi. 89 The blood sprang doun by þe sper, and vnsperrede þe knyghtes eyen. Ibid. 272 A spirit ..bit vnsperre þe sarcoe. a 1400 Wyntt in Pitbl's Hist. (Arb.) 225 Lyke as the birde within the cage enclosed, The dore vnsparred, for fee the hawke without. 1599 T. [Moufet] Silkwormes 12 How easely then vnsparred she the doore. 1611 Cotgr., Deserroüiller un huis, to..vnsparre a doore. 1808 Scott Marm. I. iv, Forty women.. The lofty palisade unspar'd And let the drawbridge fall.

Unsparable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. vii. 519 Sithen it is profitable..and unsparable that such a meyr and such a bisshop shulde be in tyme comyng.

Unspared, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. MDu. ongespaert (Du. ongespaard), MLG. ungesparet, MHG. (and G.) ungespart; ON. úsparðr (Sw. ospard, Da. usparet, ubsparet).]

1. Not spared or reserved. † Also in loose const., without sparing, unsparingly.

13.. St. Erkenwolde 335 in Horstm. Allengl. Leg. (1881) 273 With vnspared murthe. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) I. 124 Kierdie man, baith ill and gude vnspared, As he had revoch, sall get ane lyst rewaird. 1667 Milton P. L. x. 606 Thou therefore..whatever thing The Sithe of Time mowes down, devour unspar'd. 1881 Ruskin Love's Meinie iii. § 87 Unspared labour, and attentive skill.

†2. Indispensable. Obs.[-1]

1614 T. Adams Physicke fy. Heaven Wks. (1629) 291 No Physitian then cures of himselfe; no more then the hen feedes the mouth;..though the Physitian and the hand be vnspared instruments to their seuerall purposes.

†Unspa'relig, adv. Obs. [Un-[1] 1.] Cf. ON. úsparligr (MSw. osparlikh.) Unsparingly.

a 1225 Juliana 59 Heo as þe deouel spurede ham to donne, dude hit unsparliche. 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 979 Chefly þay asken Spyecez, þat vn-sparely men speded hom to bryng. †a 1400 Morte Arth. 235 Thane spyces vn-sparyly þay spendyde there-attyme. Ibid. 3160 Thus they..Spendis vn-sparely, þat sparede was lange.

Unspa'ring, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.]

1. Showing no forbearance or mercy.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. vii, The pittilesse lance.. (angry with being broken)..full of unsparing splinters, lighted upon that face. 1599 Daniel Musophi. 323 No, no, vnsparing Time will prowdly send A warrant unto Wrath. 1649 Milton Eikon. Pref. C, The unsparing Sword of Justice. 1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) vi. 166 Unsparing Mars lleap'd carnage round thee. 1781 Cowper Lett. 2 Apr., Men of a rough and unsparing address. 1818 Mitford Hist. Greece V. 155 Unsparing of himself, he seems however to have been strongly disposed to be considerate of others.

2. Unsparingly.

1844 Kinglake Eothen viii, Cool, decisive in manner, unsparing of enemies. 1869 Tozer Highl. Turkey II. 244 His unsparing, merciless character,..never diverted from its fell purpose.

2. Not niggardly; liberal, lavish.

1667 Milton P. L. v. 344 Fruit of all kindes..She gathers, ..and on the floore Recumbent sweet Plants unsparing hand. 1736 Thomson Liberty v. 584 Unsparing love Their endless treasure, and their deeds their praise. 1787 Cowper Expost. 677 Gratitude and temp'rance in our use Of what he gives, unsparing and profuse. 1819 Shelley Cyclops 167 See, here are sheep,..Here are unsparing cheeses of pressed milk. 1856 N. Brit. Rev. XXVI. 23 The four or five ideas..are..turned over and over again with so unsparing a profuseness, that [etc.].

Hence Unspa'ringness.

1818 Mitford Hist. Greece V. 426 His extraordinary..successes, but especially his profuse unsparingness of himself,..had [etc.].

Unspa'ringly, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec.)

a 1500 Berwardus de cura rei fam. (1870) 2 þe man þat spendis Vnsparandly mar þan his rent extendis. a 1631 Donne Lament. Jeremy ii, ii, The Lord unsparingly hath swallowed All Jacobs dwellings. 1805 Southey in Robberts Mem. W. Taylor (1843) II. 85, I am squeezing out the whey, and shall cut out unsparingly. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. i. I. 98 On the chief ministers..the vengeance of the nation was unsparingly wreaked.

Unspa'rklling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1816 Wilson Misc. Poems 293 Unsparkling eyes where smiles appear More mournful far than many a tear. 1895 W. M. Rossetti D. G. Rossetti I. 171 Tall, finely formed, with..greenish-blue unsparkling eyes. †Unspa'rpled, ppl. a. Sc. [Un-[1] 8.] Undivided. 1508 Reg. Privy Seal Scotl. I. 253/1 For keping of his heretage..unsparpalit and unanalyt in favouris of his sone. Unspa'rtial, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1865 J. Grote Moral Ideals (1876) 370 Concurrently..there is going on thought in our spiritually unspatial, being. 1884 tr. Lotze's Metaph. 185 Every real Thing..would have to be itself infinitely divisible into unspatial multiplicities.

Unspawned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1814 Monthly Mag. XXXVII. 335 She instant resolv'd such a gain to give, As thro' ages unspawn'd should continue to live. 1847 Stoddart Angler's Comp. 214 The female parr..retaining..the unspawned ova. 1884 St. James' Gaz. 11 Jan. 4 The death of..many unspawned fish.

Unspeak, v. (Un-[2] 3) 1695 Shaks. Mach. IV. iii. 123 Euen now I put my selfe to thy Direction, and Vnspeake mine owne detraction. 1615 G. Wither Fidelia 122a, I will vnspeake againe what is mis-spoken. Unspeakability. (Un-[1] 1.) 1851 Carlyle Life of Sterling (1871) II. 93 No modern reader can conceive the..unspeakability of this fact.

Unspea'kable, a., sb., and adv. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being expressed in words; inexpressible, indescribable, ineffable.

a 1400 Hampole's W. Kr. (1895) I. 199 þe vnspekabill & þe vnmeasurabill charite, bothe of þe Fadire and of þe sone. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 37 It may neuer be cured..but if it plese god..for to help wip his vnspekeable vertu. c 1445 Pecock Donet 84 A bing..fer aboue alle creaturis speche vnspekable. 1534 More Treat. Passion Wks. 1346/1 It is changed by an vnspeakable woorking, although it seme bread to vs that be weake. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. i, The flocke of unspeakable vertues laid up.. In that beautiful fold. 1597 W. Lawson Country Housew. Gard. (1626) 6 It is vnspeakable, what fatnesse is brought to low grounds by Inundations of waters. 1675 Traherne Chr. Ethics 204 Those bodies are superadded, certainly for unspeakable and most glorious ends. 1754 Connoisseur No. 131 The unspeakable mortification to see my favours sometimes not inserted. 1842 W. Spalding Italy & It. Isl. II. 57 The laws and the system of society conspired together to work unspeakable evils. 1671 Morney Corrupt in Crit. Rhet. 1. 1. 1 Ye had the unspeakable advantage of being..respectable.

absol. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. ix, In what words.. [can we] speak even afar-off of the unspeakable?

b. spec. Indescribably or inexpressibly bad or objectionable.

Freq. of the Turk, after quot. 1876. Also absol.

1831 Carlyle in Westm. Rev. July 6 How they sailed.. into Paynim land; fought with that unspeakable Turk, King Machabol. 1843 — Past & Pr. ii. 11, How ye came among us, in your grand unspeakable, yet unspeakable County Yeomanry! 1876 — Let. in Mem. (1881) II. 311 The unspeakable Turk should be immediately struck out of the question, and the country left to honest European guidance. 1896 Advance (Chicago) 30 Jan. 153/4 We were more guilty than the Unspeakable himself. 1902 Crosland (title), The Unspeakable Scot.

c. sb. An ineffable being.

1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. iii. xv, Through all thy.. melancholy Business and Cant, there does shine the presence of a Primeval Unspeakable.

2. Incapable of being spoken or uttered; that may not be spoken.

1568 H. B. tr. P. Martyr, Ep. Rom. 224 They are called vnspeakeable sighes, for that we speake not expressedlye what the spirite asketh. 1612 Bible 2 Cor. xii. 4 He..heard vnspeakable wordes, which it is not lawfull for a man to vtter. 1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) x. 574 Leonidas, whose looks Declar'd unspeakable applause.

3. U.S. Unwilling or unable to speak.

1888 Advance (Chicago) 29 Nov., The distinguished but unspeakable witness. 1890 Lowell Lett. (1894) II. 265 My dog..looks up at me as who should say, 'You are become unspeakable as one of us, poor old fellow!'

4. adv. Unspeakably, indescribably.

1635 Pagitt Christianogr. 34 Beyond the Land of Cathaie, which they prayse to be civill, and unspeakable rich. 1657 Baxter Call to Unconverted (1660) 59 How certainly and unspeakable happy you may be if you will.

Hence Unspea'kableness.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. xi, The unspeakeablenes of his griefe. 1657 J. Smith Myst. Rhet. 54 That we may rather conceive the unspeakablenesse then the untruth of the relation. 1691 Bunyan (title), The Greatness of the Soul, and unspeakableness of the loss thereof.

Unspea·kably, adv. [f. prec.] Unutterably, indescribably.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 154 The clere syght of fayth..gyueth more loye vnspeykably to the contemplatyue seruantes of god, than [etc.]. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. liv. § 8 God hath in Christ vnspeakablie glorified the nobler ..part of our nature. 1647 H. More Song of Soul Notes 258 Some inhabit God himself, who is unspeakably infinite. 1681 Flavel Meth. Grace x. 214 It is unspeakably delightful. 1705 Phil. Trans. XXV. 1910 A Confluence..of unspeakably small Salt Particles. 1754 Edwards Freed. Will iv. v. 226 Man is..unspeakably different from a meer Machine. 1842 Dickens Amer. Notes (1850) 150 The effect is said to be unspeakably absurd. 1871 Le Fanu Rose & Key II. 298 It was unspeakably provoking.

Unspea·king, vbl. sb. (Un-1 13.) 1860 Ruskin Mod. Paint. V. 164 False speaking [is] unspeaking,—on the negative side of silence.

Unspea·king, pp.a. [Un-1 10. Cf. OE. unsprecende, OFris. unsprehand, MDu. onsprekende (obs. Du. onsprehend), OHG. unsprechende (MHG. unsprechende) in sense 2 (chiefly of children).]

† 1. Unspeakable, ineffable. Obs.—1

1340 Ayenb. 266 Ich yzey be ilke onspekynde an[d] ontodelinde magestet of be holy trinyte.

2. Not speaking; unable to speak. Also fig.

1382 Wyclif Job xxxviii. 9 With clothis of vnspeeende childhed. — Ps. viii. 3 Of the mouth of vnspeekende childer.. thou perfiondest preising. 1611 Shaks. Cymb. v. v. 178 His description Prou'd vs vnspeaking sotes. 1795 Eliza Hamilton Lett. Hindoo (1796) II. 82 All was placid uniformity, and unspeaking regularity of feature. 1811 Shelley Mother & Son iii, The proofs of an unspeaking sorrow dwelt Within her ghastly hollowness of eye.

† Unspea·r, v.[1] Obs. [Un-2 4 + Spear v.[1] trans. To unbar; to open.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 25 Quhu luciifer..held hem sperd in helles male til god .. unspered al de fendes sped. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. xviii. 259 I here..How a spirit speketh to helle & bit vnspere be satis. c 1400 Laud Troy bk. 1039 When it was with-inne thise lippes, Paste to-gedur hit hem grippes, That thei myst not her mouth vn-spere. c 1430 Lydg. Min. Poems (Percy Soc.) 54 Late at eve thou wolt unspere the gate. c 1450 Capgrave Life St. Ang. 20 Poncian vnsperd be hok and leet hit a way. Longing to cristen feith.

Unspear, v.[2] [Un-2 4 + Spear v.[1]] trans. To free from being transfixed. 1859 Geo. Eliot Adam Bede xxxii, Mrs. Poyser,..unspearing her knitting, began to knit again with her usual rapidity.

Unspe·cialized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1874 E. D. Cope Orig. Fittest xviii. (1887) 398 The Doctrine of the Unspecialized. 1886 G. Allen Maimie's Sake xv, A vague flood of unspecialized emotion. 1902 S. & B. Webb Hist. Trade Unionism (ed. 5) Introd. p. x, The general mass of unskilled and unspecialised labour.

Unspe·cie. (Un-1 12 b.) 1711 Lond. Gaz. No. 4822/4 13 unspecie Exchequer Bills, of 100 l. each. Ibid. No. 4825.

Unspeci·fic, a. (Un-1 7.)

1807 W. Coxe Hist. House of Austria II. 713 It is no wonder so unspecific a declaration..should not be followed by any important consequence. 1822–7 Good Study Med. (1829) III. 417 An incidental and unspecific irritation of the prepuce. 1884 Solicitors' Jrnl. 8 Nov. 26/2 A contract for the sale of unspecific goods.

† Unspeci·ficate, a. and sb. Obs. [Un-1 7, 12.]

1. adj. (See quot.)

1674 Phil. Trans. IX. 70 This Aerial Salt,..whilst in the Air, is altogether un-specificate, I mean, freed from all Union with any Seminal principle.

2. spec. Unsexed. Also as sb.

1734 Prompter 19 Nov. 2/1 It is a Prodigy to see an Actor, General, Plastick, and unspecificate. Ibid. 4 Dec. 2/1 One of these Vocal Unspecificates.

† Unspeci·ficated, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8.] = prec. 1.

1651 French Distill. v. 162 Whether this primum ens salium be so unspecificated.., or no, it matters not much. 1675 E. W[ilson] Spadacrene Dunelm. 65 There are unspecificated acids in the humours of our Body.

Unspe·cified, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1624 Heywood Gunaik. IX. 427, I desire to leave nothing unspecified, or not remembered in this worke. a 1661 Fuller Worthies. London II. (1662) 204 The laxity of so populous a place leaving them as unspecified as it found them. 1883 Specif. Patent 6 Deshkill Railway 14 Facilitating the construction of any unspecified works.

Unspe·cked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1781 Cowper Truth 281 A demeanour holy and unspecked. 1868 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy 234 Gazing from his narrow school of sand On the unspecked round of blue and blue.

Unspe·ckled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1570 Levins Manip. 30 Vnspeckled, immaculatus. [1775 Ash.] 1887 Morris Odyss. x. 525 A sheep of black unspeckled, of all thy flock most fair. † Unspe·ctable, a. Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.] Incapable of being regarded. 1502 Atkynson tr. De Imitatione III. iii. (1893) 197 The vnspectable & inestymable Ioy in heuen. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 16 We be not worthy to come to that vnspectable glory.

Unspe·ctacled, (ppl.) a. (Un-1 8, 9.)

1791 Huddesford Salmag. 140 Why did your will the Pylian chief decree Three centuries unspectacled to see. 1824 Scott St. Ronan's xiv, Many a nose, spectacled and unspectacled, was popped out of the adjoining windows. 1893 Atlantic Monthly Feb. 146/2 She pored over them with unspectacled eyes.

Unspe·culating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1828 Pusey Hist. Eccl. I. 109 A recurrence to practical and unspeculating Christianity.

Unspe·culative, a. (Un-1 7.)

1659 Gentl. Calling 40 Their whole time..to be taken up in other unspeculative Exercises. 1674 Godt. Tongue 160 Some unspeculative men may not have the skill to examine their assertions. 1894 J. Donaldson Apost. Fathers 51 This unspeculative character of the apostolic teaching. 1891 T. Hardy Tess xii, She obeyed the signal to wait for him with unspeculative repose.

Unspe·d, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b.] a. Not having succeeded in an errand or effort. b. Not accomplished or discharged; not brought to a successful result or issue.

a 1300 Cursor M. 17596 For-bi þaa Iuus war full medd, þair sandes come again vnspedd. 1390 Gower Conf. III. 293 So was he come ayein unsped. c 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 82 That prayer..is neuer leffe vnspedde. a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. xxxviii. (1556) 67 b, Nor for all the affaires of his house, he wolde not leaue one of thempire vnsped. a 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunter. Cl.) 617/8 Unsped speche bestir vnspokin be. 1624 Quarles Job xiii. xxiv, To Athens gown'd, he goes, and..Returnes unsped. 1717 Garth Ovid's Met. xiv. (1732) 477 Thus Diomedes Venulus withdraws; Unsped the Service of the common Cause. 1895 R. Bridges Ode to Music iv. iii, When the winds fatigued..Have left the drooping banks unsped.

Unspee·chful, a. (Un-1 7.) 1853 Faber All for Jesus (1854) 365 Lighting up their land of pain and unspeechful expectation.

† Unspee·d, Obs. [OE. unspēd (Un-1 12), = WFris. onsper, unspoed, MDu. onspoet (Du. onspoed), OS. unspōd (MLG. unspōt), OHG. unspuot, -spuet, chiefly in sense 2. Cf. Wanspeed.]

1. Poverty. (OE. only.)

c 950 Lindisf. Gosp. Mark xii. 44 Þios..of unspoed hire alle þa de hafde sende. c 1000 Ags. Ps. (Spelman) lxxxvii. 9 Eazan mine sargodon for unspeda [L. inopia].

2. Lack of good speed or success; misfortune, detriment, harm.

a 1300 Cursor M. 10468 If þou mai na barns brede, Quam wites þou þin aune vnspede? Ibid. 15400 Bot to þaim þat þe cheping did, it fel to mikel vnspede. 14.. Northern Passion (MS. I.) 1214 Þet þei maden at vnspede in his rihte hand to halde a rode. c 1440 Lay Folks Mass Bk. (MS. C.) 88 To þe priest herken þan Hys office.., And answere þere-to.., Or on a boke þy-selfe it rede, I wate þerfore nane unspede.

3. Unprofitable labour.

a 1300 Cursor M. 15430 Bot al his quainning for to rede Or fur to spek, it war vn-spede.

† Unspee·dful, a. Obs. [Un-1 7.] Unprofitable; of no avail.

a 1340 Hampole Psalter cxxviii. 4 When þei..seme vnspedfull in all þat þei did here. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. v. pr. vi. (1868) 198 Preyeres, but ne mowen nat ben vnspedful..when þei ben rystful. c 1440 Jacob's Well 184 Sif þis handyl be wrong, it is vnspedefull to werke wyth. 1482 Monk of Evesham (Arb.) 29 Thy contynual prayer..may not be unspedeful before the presence and goodnes of god. 1570 Levins Manip. 186 Vnspeedful, inexpeditus.

Unspee·dy, a. [OE. unspēdig (Un-1 7), = MDu. onspoedich (Du. -spoedig), OHG. unspuotig. Cf. Wanspeedy a.]

† 1. Poor, indigent. (OE. only.) Obs.

c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. I. i. § 23 þa ricostan men drincaþ myran meolc, & þa unspedigan & þa þeowan drincaþ medo. c 1000 Ælfric Gram. I. 178 Se geendebyrde þone unspedigan fiscere astoran ðam rican casere.

† b. Of land: Barren, unproductive. Obs.—1 a 1000 Genesis 962 Seseaton þa æfter synne sorgfulre land, eard & eðyl unspedigran.

† 2. Unprofitable; unsuccessful.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter lxxxvii. 34 Ne wemme mi witewonde, and þat forthga Of mi lippes, vnspedy noght make þa. a 1340 Hampole Psalter xvi. 14 Make þaim vnspedy and kast þaim down. c 1449 Pecock Repr. I. xvi. 89 The werk ther of schulde be thanauentur and the vnspedier.

3. Slow, sluggish. rare.

1615 G. Sandys Trav. 117 The water..passing along with a mute and vnspeedy current.

Unspee·red, ppl. a. Latterly Sc. [Un-1 8.] Unasked; without inquiry. Also with at.

13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 918 Wich spede is in speche, vnspurd may we lerne. a 1568 in Bannatyne MS. (Hunter. Club) 641/44 Than suld I..cum to you, I ken the gait onsperd. 1599 Jas. I Basil. Δωρον Ep. Ded., It will not come vncalled, neither speake vnspeered at.

Unspe·ll, v. (Un-2 3.)

1. trans. To undo or dissolve (a spell).

1631 Corbet, Descriptions, To vnchaunt, vnspell, frustrate a charme. 1671 Tuke Adv. 5 Hours v. (ed. 3) 94 Her. Sure w'are enchanted, and all we see's illusion. Cam. Allow me, Henrique, to unspell these Charms.

2. To free from a spell.

1635 Quarles Emblt. iv. xv. Ah, if my voyce could, Orpheus-like, unspell My poore Eurydice, my soul, from hell. 1681 Dryden (Tate) Abs. & Achit. II. 117 Such Practices as These, too gross to lye Long unobserv'd,..The more judicious Israelites Unspell'd, The snaring art of Charm the giddy Rabble held. 1777 Johnson Let. to Mrs. Thrale 6 Oct., I am glad Master unspelled you, and run you all on rocks. 1890 Handbk. Folklore (ed. Gomme) 132 A prince is transformed into a loathsome beast;..he is unspelled and they marry.

† 3. To decipher, read. Obs.—1

1665 Sergeant in Digby Nat. Bodies *4 Even that great Soule, which fathomes th' Universe, Unspells the Heaven's broad volume.

4. (See quot.)

1846 Pyrotechnic Apparatus for Amateurs 34 In the process of distributing [the type] the word is unspell, beginning with the first letter of the word.

Hence Unspe·lling vbl. sb. Also attrib.

1897 A. Nutt in K. Meyer Voy. Bran II. 16 Manawydan obtains..the unspelling of the land. 1902 — Leg. Holy Grail 52 The unspelling theme. Ibid. 53 In Cretien..it is subordinated to the unspelling quest.

Unspe·llable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1852 Mundy Antipodes II. 97 Unspellable intonations ..supply the place of the letters. 1872 'Mark Twain' Roughing it xxiv, A Spanish saddle,..furnished with the ungainly sole-leather covering with the unspellable name.

Unspe·lled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not put under a spell.

1684 Tate Medea to Jason 12 No doubt but he..., with the fierce Bulls, unspell'd had fought. 1806 M. A. Shee Rhymes Art 27 While yet unspell'd, unbridled you remain, Pause, ere you join the art-enamour'd train.

Unspe·lt, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) 1892 Meredith Sage Enamoured i, Her eyes were the sweet world desired of souls, With something of a wavering line unspelt. † Unspen, v. Obs.[1] [Un-2 3 + Spen v.] trans. To release. a 1225 Ancr. R. 258 Seint Johan baptiste..ine his iborenesse unspende [orr. unspenned] his feder tunge into prophecie.

Unspendable, a. (Un-1 9 b.) 1876 Mrs. Whitney Sights & Ins. III. xiv. 263 Every day a large piece of unspendable delight in the anticipation,..to last us [etc.].

† Unspe·nded, obs. var. Unspent ppl. a.

c 1440 York Myst. xxv. 450 Haue [= half] my gud I have vnspendid Poure folke to geue it till. 1523 Bellenden Livy III. xxv. (S.T.S.) II. 48 He was fer rvn in seris, and few dayis vnspendit of his live. 1564 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1835) I. 225 So mutch hay vnspended as is vnld to ij*.

Unspe·nt, ppl. a. [Un-2 8 b.]

1. Not expended; not employed or used.

1466 Manns. & Household. Exp. (Roxb.) 326 He sd of myn onspente in is and, vj.s. viij.d. 1483 in Somerset Med. Wills (1901) 239 As moch as than shal..remayne unspent of the seid xij torches. 1550 Crowley Last Trumpe 265 If ought remayne vnspent Upon thyne owne necessity. 1692 Lathcow Trav. VII. 313 The French men had only left unspent..threescore and nine Chickens of Gold. 1674 Hobbes Odyssey (ed. 2) 9 We had Wine enough as yet unspent. 1745 in Picton Lpool Munic. Rec. (1886) II. 110 A proportionable part of what remains unspent. 1895 Westm. Gaz. 24 May 5/2 The revolver..contained one spent and five unspent cartridges. 1899 Parlt. Debates LXVII. 554/2 What [he]..pressed was the use of the unspent balance for that purpose.

2. Unexhausted; not used up.

c 1621 Chapman Iliad xiv. 344 For fervour of his unspent strength. 1663 Dryden Ep. to Charleton 36 Whose Fame.. Flies like the nimble journeys of the Light; And is, like that, unspent too in its flight. 1732 Dove Man ii. 274 All are but parts of one stupendous whole,..That, extended thro' all extent, Spreads undivided, operates unspent. 1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) xii. 355 He impell'd His spear, The point with violence unspent..reach'd the Persian's throat. 1799 Cowper Castaway 30 So long he with unspent pow'r, His destiny repell'd. 1857 Emerson Poems, 'Give all to Love' ii, High and more high It dives into noon, With wing unspent.

Unspha·re, v. (Un-2 5.) trans. To remove (a star, etc.) from its sphere. Also in fig. contract.

1611 Shaks. Wint. T. I. ii. 48 Though you would seek t'vnsphere the Stars with Oaths. 1643 Howell Parab. reflect. Times 5 Touching the malignant Planets..I put them over to you, that..they may be unsphe'r'd or extinguished. 1796 C. Anstey Headers' Guide (1803) 124 Th' adventrous Engineer Who swore he would the Earth unsphere,..Give him but where to set his foot. 1820 Milman Fall Jerus. 117 If ye have seen the moon unsphered, And the stars fall. 1857 P. Freeman Princ. Div. Serm. II. 57 Thus too did it supply..a new centre or centres for the gravitation of its mighty forces..in lieu of that which had been, so to speak, unsphered.

fig. 1632 Milton Penseroso 88 Where I may..unsphear The spirit of Plato. 1806 H. K. White Fragments vi, Mine ear Longs for some sure of peace,..That may the spirit from its cell unsphere. 1882 J. Brown Horæ Subs. 3rd Ser. 4 Many have been the attempts to unsphere the spirit of a joke and make it tell its secret.

Hence Unsphe·red ppl. a.

1598 Chapman Hero & Leander III. 186 Thou..That..with the wings Of thy unsphered flame visitst the springs Of spirits immortall. 1823 H. Coleridge Poems I. 41 Like a spectre of an age departed, Or unsphered Angel woefully astray—She glides along. 1849 M. Arnold New Sirens 251 The sunk eyes, the wailing tone, Of unspher'd, discovered creatures.

Unspri·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1615 Sylvester Job Triumph. I. 367 Him would I seek..Whose works are great,.. Unspiable, Unspeakable by Man. Unspi·ced, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1655 Moufet & Bennet Health's Improvem. vi. 48 A great difference..betwixt fri'd meats and brik't meats, spiced and unspiced, salt and fresh. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 11 Aug. 8/1 There are English firms which export the genuine unspiced article in tins.

Unspi·ed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

14.. Chaucer's Troylus IV. 1457 (Harl. MS.), It is ful hard to halten vnspied Bifor a crepul. a 1542 Wyatt 'Take heed thy time' v, To love unspied is but a hap; Therefore, take heed! 1561 Norton & Sackv. Gorboduc I. ii. 317 Traiterous corrupters of their palant youthe Shall have unspied a mouche more free accesse. 1624 Quarles Sion's Elegies I. xxii, Thinke you to flourish euer? and (vnspide) To shoot the flowers of your fruitlesse pride. 1667 Milton P. L. IV. 529 Thence walk round This Garden, and no corner leave unspi'd. a 1740 Tickell Misc., Fatal Curiosity 5, I..went prepared to pry,..Resolv'd to find some fault before unspy'd. 1798 in A. D. Coleridge Eton in Fourties (1896) 14 When waving fresh such woolly wing, That..serv'd..to hold unknown, unspied, A loaf or pudding in.

Uspi·ke, v. [Un-2 3, 4 b.]

1. trans. To extract a spike from (a cannon).

1680 Exact Jrnl. Siege Tangier 6 The Moors took our Guns..; and unspik'd them, & clear'd them. 1842 R. Burn Naval & Mil. Dict. (1852) 118/2 Disenclouer, to unspike a piece of ordnance. c 1850 H. Stuart Seamen's Catech. 24 Suppose your gun is spiked..., how will you unspike it?

2. To release by the removal of a spike.

1846 Edin. Rev. Oct. 504 In this case the iron bar [sc. rail], worn thin and unspiked, gets detached from the plank.

Unspiked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1902 Daily Chron. 16 July 8/6 Six [rail-] chairs..had been left unspiked.

1904 Westm. Gaz. 8 Sept. 7/1 They..[captured 97] cannon, mostly unspiked. Unspillable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.) 1889 Chamb. Jrnl. 560 Our readers will be acquainted with the unspillable ink-bottle.

Unspi·lled, -spi·lt, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8, 8 b. Cf. M(D)a. and Da. uspildt.)

1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 35 Then haue of thine owne, without lending vnspilt, what followeth meetfull, here learne if thou wilt. 1641 in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1692) I. 217 The very Blood that runs unspilt in our Veins. 1643 Denham Cooper's H (1668) 7 That blood, which thou and thy great Grandsire shed...Had been unspilt. 1837 Dickens Pickwick v. The first care of the two unspilt friends was to extricate their unfortunate companions from their bed of quickset. 1877 Browning La Saisiaz 369 Only grant my soul may carry high through death her cup unspilled.

Unspi·n, v. (Un-² 3. Cf. Du. ontspinnen.)

a 1585 in Holinshed Chron. II. 476/2 Oh cruel fates! the which so soone, his vitall thred vnspoune. 1638 Mayne Lucian (1664) 304 I's not in your power to change, and unspinne their decrees? 1658 N. Whiting Albino & Bellama 1196 My teeming fancy strives...to...make those gardens minutes see the sun Entombed in darkness, and the earth unspun Ere they expire. a 1703 J. Pomfret Last Epiphany vi, Whilst backward all the Threads shall haste to be unspun. 1845 Mozley Ess. (1892) II. 102 The web was respun, that it might be unspun again.

Unspi·rit, v. [Un-² 4.] trans. To deprive of spirit.

1607 B. Jonson Volpone III. v, I am unmask'd, unspirited, undone. 1647 Trapp Marrow Gd. Authors in Comm. Eph. 6 We may not neglect the body...mazerate and unspirit our selves overmuch. 1687 Norris Coll. Misc. (1699) 367 Nor did I ever think it could be in the Power of any Temporal loss, so much to discompose and unsmirit my Soul.

Unspi·rited, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] Destitute of spirit; spiritless.

1621 Fletcher Thierry & Theod. II. i, A poor, cold, unspirited, unmanner'd...fool. 1649 Arnway Tablet 74 Leave no stone unmoov'd, to cousen an unspirited (and so apt to be unchristen'd) Nation into the way..of the Alcoran. 1751 Scoblett Per. Pick. lxxvi, The new productions of the stage...generally unspirited and insipid.

Hence Unspi·ritedness.

1669 Owen Exp. Ps. cx.xx. 15 Vnspiritedness and disability unto Duty, in doing or suffering.

Unspi·ritual, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1643 Milton Divorce 2, I see it the hope of good men, that those irregular and unspiritual Courts have spun their utmost date in this Land. 1679 Puller Moder. Ch. Eng. 494 These Divisions (the Character of a Carnal and Unspiritual Temper)...dishonour the Protestant Cause. 1818 Byron Ch. Harr. iv. cxxv, Circumstance, that unspiritual god and miscreator. 1872 Liddon Elem. Relig. v. 175 Prayer ceases to be itself, by degenerating...into a mechanical and unspiritual routine.

Hence Unspi·ritually adv.; -ness.

1642 D. Rogers Nnaman 476 Through that unspiritualnesse of our heart. 1669 Owen Expos. Ps. cx.xx. 352 The more spiritual any man is, the more he sees of his unspiritualness in his spiritual Duties. 1865 H. Allon Mem. Y. Stirman Coll. Life 1. 53 Unspiritualness, and hard sceptticism. 1871 Tylor Prim. Cult. II. 325 Those..may say..that I have written..unspiritually of spiritual things.

Unspiritu·lity. (Un-¹ 12, or 1 prec.) 1848 Sara Coleridge in Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1849) II. 384 Calvin..missed this truth..neither from natural inability, nor from unspirituality, nor from a tendency to rationalism, but [etc.]. 1863 Grosart Small Sins 27 Despondent..through..coldness, deadness, unrealness, unspirituality.

Unspi·ritualize, v. [Un-² 6 c.] trans. To divest of spiritual qualities.

a 1716 South Serm. (1727) VI. 243 Enjoyments..such as..will by Degrees certainly indispose, and unspiritualize the Mind. 1846 Hawthorne Old Manse ii. 115 Those evil habits..which unspiritualize man's nature. 1881 Ruskin Mod. Paint. II. iii. ii. v. § 17, I recollect no single instance of a naked angel that does look..unspiritualized. 1881 H. Drummond Ideal Life (1897) 133 God would never unspiritualize three-fourths of man's active life by work, if work were work, and nothing more.

Unspiritualized, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) Not made spiritual. 1826 Coleridge Lay Serm. (1839) 201 The idolism of the unspiritualized understanding. 1898 T. Sinclair Manual v. 100 The unspiritualised 'man of land,' when left to his instincts, is sufficiently marked in history the slave-maker of his fellows.

Unspit, v. [Un-² 4 b.] trans. To remove from a spit.

1594 T. Newton Health Mag. I iij b, Rosted fleshe is then best to be vnspitted and taken from the broche. 1621 Cotgr., Desembrocher, to ..vnspit; pull off the broach. 1648 Hexham, Ontspeten, to Vnspit, or to Vnbroach a peece of meate. 1798 in Spirit Public Jrnls. (1799) II. 290 The pigs and geese were all unspitted. 1820 T. Mitchell Aristoph. I. 116 The science which he displays in boiling, roasting, spitting, and unspitting.

Unspitted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1633 Ford 'Tis Pity I. ii, Yet the villainie of words..may be such, As would make any vnspleen'd Doue, Choller ick. † Unspite·ted, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8. Cf. Spleet *v.*¹) 1609 C. Butler Fem. Mon. F 8 Lay the vnspleeted blue along hard by. Unsple·ndid, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1899 Spectator 25 Sept. 11, 307 In the tumult of life the man, who can please for the passing hour, is..greater than him who has difficult, and unsplendid virtues. Unspli·nt, v. (Un-² 4 b.) 1615 Markham Country Contentm. I. i. 24 Let it so rest nine dales at least, before you vnsplint it.

Unspli·t, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 b. Cf. Du. ongesplit. MSw. osplitad, older Da. usplit.) 1656 Earl Monm. tr. Boccalini's Advts. fr. Parnass. 262 To repair those his Gallies, which were yet unsplit. 1802-12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 195 The man is split into two persons..; he, remaining unsplit, an ideal person is fabricated to speak of the real one. 1893 Bennett & Dyer tr. Sachs' Bot. 72 The originally unsplit fragments of cell-wall.

†Unspoi·l, v.[1] Obs. [Un-² 9.] trans. To despoil.

Sir Ferv. 742 Now es Percyvelle lyghte To unspoile the rede knyghte. Unspoi·l, v.[2] [Un-² 3.] trans. To restore from being spoiled. 1778 Miss Burney Evelina xxxiv, And what good will that do now?—that won't unspoil all my clothes. 1834 Mar. Edgeworth Helen xiii, 'I am quite spoiled, I believe,' said Helen; 'you must unspoil me'.

Unspoi·lable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.)

1836 E. Howard R. Reefer iv, He contrived..to spoil our almost unspoilable meals. 1888 Marzials Life V. Hugo 204 One trusts that Master Georges and Miss Jeanne were unspoilable.

Hence Unspoi·lableness.

1881 Daily News 1 Oct. (Encycl. Dict.), A prevalent style of furniture and decoration should have this character of what may be called unspoilableness.

Unspoi·led, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

1. Not despoiled or plundered; not taken as plunder.

c 1500 Melusine xxxvi. 256 None passed by the said Fortresse vnspoyled. 1513 Life Hen. I[1] (1911) 34 All Churches..shoulde be kepte inviolat, vnspoyled and vnharmed. 1577 Der General & Rare Mem. 4 Their Marchandlike Ships..may..pass quietly vnpilled, vnspoyled, and vntaken by Pyrates. 1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 268 The Rassa..began..with fire and sword to waste that part of the countrey which yet remained vnspoiled. 1697 Dryden Æneis xi. 890 Unspoil'd shall be her Arms, and unpropfan'd Her holy Limbs with any Human Hand. 1802 J. Baillie and Pt. Ethwald I. ii, A land of peace! Where yellow fields unspoil'd..smile gladly. 1870 Bryant Iliad v. l. 177 He left the corpse of Pedichus unspoiled where he had fallen.

2. Not spoiled or deteriorated.

1732 Pope Ep. Bathurst 226 O teach us, Bathurst! yet unspoil'd by wealth! That secret rare. 1746 Collins Ode to Pity iv, He sung the female heart, With youth's soft notes unspoil'd by art. 1821 W. Knox Grammar Schools 17 An unspoiled boy,..possessing talent and sensibility. 1860 H. Marryat Resid. Jutland I. xiv. 209 The Castle of Rosenborg..is a fine specimen of the period, and is unspoiled by modern improvements. 1888 Child Ballads III. 1/1 This precious specimen..of the unspoiled traditional ballad.

Unspoi·lt, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 b.] = prec. 2.

1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 180 An original feeling, unspoilt by the apathy of satiety. Ibid. IV. 353 Having brought with her whatever was unspoilt of her Tunbridge apparel. 1884 World 21 Aug. 20/1 An unspoilt English girl.

Unspo·ke, arch. variant of next.

1605 Shaks. Lear I. i. 239 A tardinesse in nature, Which often leaues the history vnspoke That it intends to do.

Unspo·ken, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 b, 8 c, 5 d. Cf. (M)Du. ongesproken, MLG. ungesproken, MHG. ungesprochen.]

1. Not spoken of. † Also with to.

1375 Barbour Bruce xv. 268 Till king Robert will we gang, That we haf left vnspokyn of lang. c 1530 J. Cox Hacth. (1899) 62, I can nat let passe his diuine wysdome vnspoken of. 1588 Kyd Howsch. Philos. Wks. (1901) 284 Albeit somethings vnspoken of might be reuiued and produced. 1607 S. Collins Serm. (1608) 35, I am faine to passe by some things of moment, vnspoken-to here. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 147 The [Persian] women as vnseene may passe vnspoken of.

2. Not spoken, unsaid, unuttered; not expressed in speech.

c 1440 Babcock Repr. iii, xiv. 373 The oon premisse is expressid..; and the other premysse is stille vnspokun for schortnes. 1461 Paston Lett. II. 76 Desyreng the said schrewe if ony thyng of the Kyngs comaunded were be hynd unspoken, he hym sell that [etc.]. 1548 W. Patten Exped. Scott. L v, Cassines..that..ar better vnspoken then vttered. 1577 Grange Golden Aphrod. K iij, No doubte but I.I. wished his wordes vnspoken. 1621 Shaks. Cymb. v. v. 139 Thou'lt torture me to leave vnspoken, that Which to be spoke, wou'ld torture me. 1650 Quarles Enchyrid. III. xxxii, A word vnspoken is like the Sword in thy Scabbard, thine. 1773 Goldsm. 1st Epil. to Stoops to Cong., And that our friendship may remain unbroken, What it we leave the Epilogue unspoken? 1818 Coleridge in Encycl. Metrop. I. Introd. 13 The unspoken alphabet of nature. 1862 Shirley (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. v. 210 Rigorous edicts..which punished the unspoken thought as well as the visible act.

3. Not spoken to; unaddressed.

1616 Bullokar Eng. Exp. 253 I shall also teach that which shall be for the best behoofe of euery one in this assembly, that so none may goe away vnspoken to. 1721 Kelly Scot. Prov. 249 When People out of Bashfulness leave..a Person unspoken to. 1855 Tholloe Wordes vi, She had sat the whole evening through...not speaking, and unspoken to.

4. Sc. Without having spoken. rare—[1].

1599 in Spalding Cl. Misc. (1841) I. 9x Jonet Wischert..commandit..Katherine Ewyn to ryss airlie befoir the sone, on betechit hir self to God, and on spokin.

b. (See quot.)

1825 Jamieson, Unspoken water, water..brought..to the house of a sick person, without the bearer's speaking either in going or returning.

Unspo·ngy, a. (Un-¹ 7.) a 1774 Goldsm. Surv. Exp. Philos. (1776) 566 When an unspongy or solid body sinks in a vessel of water.

Unsponta·neous, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1791 Cowper Odyssey xx. 410 While they stretch'd Their jaws with unspontaneous laughter loud. 1885 Wesleyan Method. Mag. Dec. 955/2 Cases of unspontaneous Scripture-study. 1896 Westm. Gaz. 15 Dec. 2/1 His acting..is so mechanical,..so painfully unspontaneous.

Unsponta·neously, adv. (Un-¹ 12.) 1640 Reynolds Treat. Passions xiii. 545 Whereby the Will of man is..inforced or unspontaneously determined to the producing of such Effects. Unspo·rted, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 + Sport v. 11 b.] Open. 1872 M. Legrand[1] Cambr. Freshm. xi. 200 Come on, Golightly, your door is unsported. Unspo·rtful, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. iv. iv, 'A Republic!' said the Seagreen, with one of his dry, husky, unsportful laughs, 'what is that?'

Unspo·rting, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1889 W. H. Gregory Egypt II. 288 Then we beat the bed of the river, but in a most unsporting manner. 1894 Spth Cent. July 130 A most pernicious and unsporting custom.

Unspo·rtsmanlike, a., adv. (Un-¹ 7 c, 11 b.)

1754 Connoisseur No. 31 P 12 It is unsportsman-like to admit dunghill cocks into the Pit. 1789 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Subj. for Painters Wks. 1812 II. 34 Oh which he..cry'd, 'See, ho!' Then jump'd (unsportsman like) upon his hare. 1803 in Spirit Pub. Jrnls. VII. 298 We stayed till it was dark, that we might not be seen returning in such an unsportsmanlike manner. 1845 Ford Handbk. Spain 107 They use nets, spears, night lines, and every unsportsmanlike abomination. 1873 G. C. Davies Mount. & Mere ii. 8 It was all very well once in a way, but too unsportsmanlike to be repeated often.

Unspo·rtsmanly, a. and adv. (Un-¹ 7, 11.) 1778 [W. H. Marshal] Minutes Agric. 9 Sept. 1776, To behave in this churlish, unsportsmanly manner! Ibid., I will not suffer any man to trample unsportsmanly upon me with impunity.

Unspo·t, v. (Un-² 4.) 1598 Florio, Dimacchiare, to unspot, to take away spots. a 1712 Ken Hymnodeo Poet. Wks. 1721 III. 115 It seem'd an easier labour at first Sight, T' unspot Leopards, or wash Ethiops white. Unspo·ttable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.) a 1721 Ken Christophil Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 516 Robes unspottable and bright.

Unspo·tted, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

1. Not marked with spots; free from any spot or stain.

1382 Wyclif 1 Pet. i. 19 Bi the precious blood of the lomb vndefouliid and vnspottid. 1446 Lydg. Nightingale Poems i. 185 The lombe vnspotted, the grounde of Innocence. ? 1567 Sroves in Three 15th C. Comedies (Camden) 143 About that tyme [1567] were many congregations of the Anabaptysts in London, who cawlyd themselvs Puritans or Unspottyd Lambs of the Lord. 1626 Bosworth Arcadius & Sophia ii. 219 The tables did unspotted carpets hold Of Tyrian dyes. 1643 (title), The Parliaments Unspotted-Bitch: in answer to Prince Roberts Dog. 1709 Addison Tatler No. 97 P 2 Her beauty was natural and easy, her Person clean and unspotted. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes iv. v. 24 Like the Moon's unspotted Light, O'er the Waves. 1804 Shaw Gen. Zool. V. 73 Unspotted Salmon, Salmo Immaculatus..Salmon with unspotted body. 1835 J. Duncan Beetles (Nat. Libr.) 220 The head, thorax, and scutellum are velvet black, and unspotted. 1870 Hooker Stud. Flora 353 Leaves lanceolate acute unspotted.

2. Not morally stained; unblemished, pure: a. Of persons, the mind, etc.

c 1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's (1923) 48 Shee..myghtly troid them vndir foit, vnspottid eturnore abidyng. c 1450 Hymn. our Ladye 140 Some of the clene and vnspotted vyrgyn. 1526 Tindale Jas. i. 27 To kepe hym sille vnspotted from the worlde. 1576 Gascoigne Kenelw. Castle Wks. 1910 II. 108 The stately tower of your unspotted myndes. 1629 Feynne Antichrist 4 Being thus rescued from the power of sinne, may they keepe themselues vnspotted from it. 1709 Addison Tatler No. 75 P 4 My Sister Jenny..is as unspotted a Spinster as any in Great Britain. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes iv. xxiv. 9 Modesty, unspotted Maid, And Truth in artless Guise array'd. 1812 Crabbe Tales vi. 346 A heart unspotted, and a life unblamed. 1863 Conington Horace, Odes I. x. 17 Thou lay'st unspotted souls to rest.

b. Of character, qualities, etc.

1455 Rolls of Parlt. V. 280/2 Alwey kepyng oure trouthe to his said Highnesse unspotted and unbrused. a 1568 Ascham Scholem. II. (Arb.) 87 The vnspotted proprietie of the Latin tong,..when it was in the hiest pitch of all perfitenesse. 1579 Spenser Tw. Commend. 1. i. ad fin., The..inuiolable Memorie of our vnspotted friendshippe. 1638 M. Griffith in Hearne Collect. (O.H.S.) I. 160 Christendome cannot shew in one person..a more Angelical Life, vnspotted of y^e World & the Flesh. 1665 Bunyan Holy City 73 The twelve Apostles, in their own pure, primitive, and unspotted Doctrine. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 276 P 2, I am a Woman of an unspotted Reputation. 1772 Priestley Inst. Relig. (1782) II. 10 A being of unspotted purity. 1841 Browning Pippa Passes II. 236 Never to overtake the rest of me, All that, unspotted, reaches up to you.

Hence Unspo·ttedly adv.; Unspo·ttedness.

1598 Florio, Puramente, purely, cleanlie, *vnspottedlie. 1602 F. Herring Aunt. 6 He may religiously, vnspottedly, and charily, preserue the precious health and life of man. 1598 Florio, Purità, puritie, cleanlines, neatenes, *vnspottednes. 1624 Donne Devotions, etc. (ed. 2) 303 Doeth the Son dwell bodily in this flesh, that thou should looke for an vnspottednes here? 1682 Ingelo Bentiv. & Ur. (ed. 4) IV. 156 The unspottedness of our Virgin-life. 1706 tr. Liger's Compl. Florist 273 A violation of the candor and unspottedness of her Manners. 1828 T. Brown Serm. 86 Valens spared Paulinus out of respect to the unspottedness of his life.

Unspou·sed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1587 Fleming Contn. Holinshed III. 1299 Unspoused Pallas present is, O Phebus bright retire. Unspou·selike, a. (Un-¹ 7 c.) 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. VIII. vi. 401/2 All white vnpitcelie and vn-Spouslike vsage..was, because shee onely should not liue in comfort.

† Unspray·ed, ppl. a.[1] Obs. [Un-¹ 8 + Spray sb.[1]] Not furnished with sprays or branches. 1486 Bk. St. Albans, Her. a j b, Adam the leprynyng of mai wynde was as a stokke vnspraude and vnfloreshed. Unspray·ed, ppl. a.[2] [Un-¹ 8 + Spray v.[1]] Not sprayed with a chemical. 1894 Times 19 Nov. 4/4 Neither Puritan nor The Bruce yielded any diseased tubers on the unsprayed portions of the crop.

Unspread, ppl. a. Also 7 unspreaden. [Un-¹ 8 b.] Not spread (out).

1589 Fleming Virg. Georg. iii. 44 Lodging all night long he lies..Vpon a couch vmade (vnspread). 1642 H. More Song of Soul II. iii. 21 Remember that some things unspreaden be, How shall it find them out? 1644 G. Fletcher in Hartlib's Legacy (1655) 188 Where doing hath..layen unspread for a moneth or six weeks. 1776 C. Keith Farmer's Ha' lxi, The dishes set on unspread table. 1827 Pollok Course T. vi. 613 Bounding immensity, unspread, unbound! 1838 Mrs. Browning Young Queen I. The Bruce is yet unspread. 1844 — Confessions iii, Unquickened, unspread My fire drop down.

Unspread, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1661 K. W. Conf. Charne. (1860) 69 He's so used to spread cloaths, that he's ne're well but when he's unspreading of aprons. †Unspri'ghty, a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 7.) Not sprightly or lively. 1607 Markham Cavel. VIII. 14 Anie of these constant and vnspirit carriages are signes of dulnes.

Unspring, v. [Un-[2] 7, 4 b. Cf. OE. onspringen, OS. antspringan, Du. ontspringen, OHG. intspringan (MHG., G. entspringen).]

†1. intr. To burst open. Obs.—

13.. K. Alis. (W.) 2902 Mury hic is in sonne-risyng! The rose openith and unspryng (Laud MS. wile vnspringe].

2. trans. To release or detach by pressing a spring.

1802 James Milit. Dict., To unspring, a word of command formerly used in the exercise of cavalry. Ibid. Unspring your carbine. 1833 Reg. Instr. Cavalry i. 56 'Unspring' by disengaging the swivel from the carbine. 1859 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. (ed. 8) 48 Unspring arms.

Unspringing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1821 Murray Judicum Regnle 140 The red havoc of unspringing fire. Un-springy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1672 Phil. Trans. VII. 5167 An Un-springy Fluid (which presseth but as a Weight not as a Spring).

Unsprinkled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not sprinkled with water, etc.; spec. not baptized by sprinkling.

1648 Hexham II, Ongewaterd, vnwatered, or vnsprinckled. 1735 Savage Progr. Divine Wks. 1775 II. 112 Let babes of poverty convulsive lie; No bottle waits, tho' babes unsprinkl'd die. 1802-12 Bentham Rationale. Punish. Reward. (1830) II. 69 If the child remains unsprinkled,.. no registration is to take place. 1843 Tizard Brewing 62 Unsprinkled malt.

Unsprung, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.] Not having sprung up or sprouted.

1600 Fairfax Tasso I. xlix, His hones Vnsprong, his cares were fit to mee. 1684 J. S. Profit & Pleas. United 106 To prevent the Crows or daws falling on the Corne unsprung.

†Unspulyied, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8.] = Unspoiled ppl. a. 1.

1513 Douglas Æneid XI. xi. 134 My self..the reuthfull corps..sall cary away, Unspulyeit of hir armour or array. 1559 Rerb. Alexd. Reg. (1844) I. 316 The skloytis, tymmis, and stanis..that are in place onspoilyet. a 1578 Lindesay (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) II. 285 That nane mycht travell onspuilyeit on bayth the sydes. a 1670 Spalding Troub. Chas. I (1792) I. 150 Ane ship, his bonsais on spoilyeit, and his freindis and seruandis on plunderit.

Unspun, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. OHG. ungispunnan (MHG. ungespunnen, G. -sponnen), ON. uispunninn (older Da. uspunden, Sw. ospunnen).)

1545 Rates of Customs vi, Cotton vnspounde..xxvi.s. viii.d. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Linum infectum, flaxe vnspunne. 1572 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1835) 252, I haine in the howse spunn and vnspounne vj ston of lynt. 1586 in Kyd Wks. (1901) 340 Her thred still holds, thine perisht though vnspun. 1827 Faraday Chem. Manip. ii. 49 A filament of unspun silk.

Unspurd, obs. var. Unspurred ppl. a.

†Unspurn, v. Obs.—[1] (Un-[2] 9.) trans. To force open. a 1300 K. Horn 1074 (Camb. MS.), Horn gan to þe gate turne, And þar wiket vnspurne [v.r. op spurne].

Unspurred, (ppl.) a. [Un-[1] 8, 9.]

1. Not urged on by a spur. Also fig.

a 1635 Corbet Iter Bor. Poems (1647) 12 His Mare went truer then his Chronicle; And.. unspurr'd, unbeaten, Brought us sixe miles. 1865 Meredith R. Fleming xviii, The repienished glass enabled Stephen to add the picturesque bits of the sitting, unspurred by a surcoutling eagerness of his listeners. 1886 Pall Mall G. 31 July 2/2 Not altogether unspurred by hints from home.

2. Not furnished with a spur.

1852 C. W. Hoskyns Talpa xvi. 133 Grazing Mr. Greening's unspurred foot with the point of the leader's stretcher.

Unspurnedness, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1799 J. Robertson Agric. Perth 416 The public have a right to any effects he left unsquandered away. 1812 Crabbe Tales xx. 175 His pension, with what sums remain, Pure or unspurned'd.

†Unspure, v. [Un-[2] 3, 6 b, 7.] a. trans. To divest of squareness; to undo the squaring of. b. intr. To lose squareness of form or structure.

1611 Florio, Disquadrare, to vnspoure. 1790 Trans. Soc. Arts VIII. 168 [The loom] is not liable to unspure; and yet..may be more easily removed from the old loom. 1896 De Morgan Budget of Paradoxes 470 Montucla charges Clavier with unsquaring the parabola, which Archimedes had squared as tight as a glove.

Unspured, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not made square; not reduced to a square form or section.

1549 Coverdale, etc. Erasm. Par. 1 Cor. viii. 23 b, An idole..hathe no more Godhead in it, than an other vnspured piece of tymber. 1598 Grenewey Tacitus, Germanie II. (1622) 262 They..yse to all buildings vnspured and vnwrought timber. 1623 T. Adams Exph. 1 Peter ii. 5 An unspured stone..must not be put into the building of Christ. 1664 Evelyn Sylva xxix. 90 Such Trees as one would leave round, and unspur'd. 1798 Hutton Course Math. II. 95 To find the Solidity of Rubber Unspured Timber. 1883 Stevenson Treas. Isl. iv. xix, The log-house was made of unspured trunks of pine.

Sp. 1592 Kyd SA. Trag. III. xi. 23 The more he growes in stature..The more vnspured, vnbenilled he appears. 1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. I. iii. 159 With tearmes vnspoun'd, Which from the tongue of roaring Typhon dropt, Would seeme Hyperboles. 1607 Marston What you will Induct., Were I to passe Thorough publick verdit, I should feare my forme, Least ought I offerd were vnspured or warp'd.

Unspu'amish, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1893 Athenæum 4 Feb. 157/3 This pushing, unsqueamish age.

Unsque'zed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing xi. P 1 The natural Spring that all these Joynts have, when they are unsqueez'd. 1736 Thomson Liberty v. 198 Rich, as unsqueez'd favourite, to them, Is he who near was Virtue boast alone! 1757 Garrick Lilliput Prol. 8 Gently you'll ride, as in a Fairy Dream, Your Hoops unsqueez'd.. 1824 Macaggart Gallowid. Encycl. (1876) 29 The primrose..and the crawtae grow unsqueez'd and unlooked at.

Unsqueezed, a. (Un-[2] 8 b.) 1721 Swift Let. to King at Arms Wks. 1841 II. 70/2 If this should be the test of squirehood, it will go hard with a great number of my fraternity,..who must all be unsquired because a greyhound will not be allowed to keep us company. †Unsqui'ssed, ppl. a. Obs.—[1] (Un-[1] 8.) Unsqueezed. 1648 Hexham II, Ongeëpinden honigh, Vnpressed, or Vnsquissed hony.

Unstability. Now rare. (Un-[1] 12, 5 b.)

a 1470 Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) VI. x. 247/2 Eue synned more by feeble and vnstability..than by wyll or malyce. 1572 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1835) 386 Perceivynge..the vnstabilitie and soden changes of the worlde, ..and the vncertenye of deathe. 1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 79 Some have forthwith stricke off from this miserable carkasse (the mirrour of honours vnstabilitie). 1646 P. Bulkeley Gospel Covt. v. 363 When you see uncertainty and unstability of all things. 1886 Science 5 Nov. 405/2 The instability of such an association is..beginning to be understood.

Unsta'ble, a. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b. Cf. obs. Du. onstabel, MHG. unstabel.]

1. Not remaining steadily in the same place; apt to move or be moved about.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 122 Ne scheawes heo þet heo is dust, & vnstable þinc, þet mid a luttel wind of a word is aon to blowen. a 1340 Hampole Pr. Conc. x. 1 If i doe i sall be like a sparou, hat is vnstable and lyght. 1388 Wyclif Gen. iv. 14 V schal be vnstable of dwellyng and fleynge aboute in erthe. 1483 Cath. Angel. 257/2 Vn Stabylle, argus, vagus. 1597 R. Rutter, Antonio's Revenge i. xviii, If Sea no other thing doth shew to bee Than most vnstable waters mooning oft. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 91 Sands..in great drifts..so light and vnstable, that the high wayes are neuer certaine. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored 179 Aries,..though it be a sign fiery, yet is it moveable and unstable.

b. Not steady in position; readily swaying or shaking; liable to swing or fall.

1390 Gower Conf. I. 200 Now herke how thilke unstable wheel, Which evere tormeth, wente aboute. 1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. xx. 37 Stonde he neuere so styfliche hygh steryngе of he boes, Ne hymselfe bendeth and boweth, ye body is vnstable. c 1480 Henryson Fables, Cock & Fox 109 Thy strenth is nocht, thy stule standis vnstabill. a 1542 Wyatt in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 38 So foloweth me remembrance of that face: That with my teares syn, sowdne and vnstable, My destiny to beholde her doth me lead. 1567 Gude & Godlie B. (S.T.S.) 106 As quheill vnstabill and caffe befoir the wind. 1600 Fairfax Tasso xix. xiii, When the still winde stire not th' vnstable mobile. 1736 Thomson Liberty iv. 290 On each hand Amazing seen amid unstable waves, The splendid palace shines. 1760 Goldsm. Cit. W. ii, A strange people.. who have founded an empire on this unstable element [sc. the ocean]. 1839 Buckle Civilis. vii. 347 The sailor is naturally more superstitious than the soldier, because he has to deal with a more unstable element. 1873 Maxwell Electr. & Magn. I. 141 The body therefore is unstable even when constrained to move parallel to itself, a fortiori it is unstable when altogether free.

c. Of movement: Unsteady; irregular.

1549 Compl. Scot. vi. 54 It makkis ane onstabil reuolution in thre hundreth xlviij dais. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe xlii, Down he came, with an unstable step and a strong flavour of wine.

d. Mech. Of equilibrium (q. v.).

1839 G. Bird Nat. Philos. 31 The body will be in a state of unstable equilibrium. 1860 All Year Round No. 60. 450 An acrobat balances a ladder on his shoulder; on the ladder, perhaps will mount a child...The whole are in unstable equilibrium.

2. Not stable in purpose; vacillating, fickle, changeable.

c 1290 S. Eng. Leg. I. 319/685 Wrathþe he berth luytel swyþe: ..Glad and bliþe, and onstable of hat he hath to done. 1297 R. Glouc. 1090 He made of þe dede lawe þe charte atte laste,..& aseleede is vaste inou, Ac suþþe as vnstable man wiþ sede & wiþ drou. c 1305 Pilate 183 in E. E. P. (1862) 116 Alle hat þiuide his cas Wondrede moche of pempereur, hat he vnstable was. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 10 þis Emperour..was unstable as watir. c 1400 Destr. Troy 8057 Hit is a propertie apreuit..To all wemen..To be vnstable & not stidfast. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. I. 122 Euery man is a fyer, slyk, unstable, and slydyng. c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) III. 588 Woman, why art pou so onstabyll?..why art pou a-sens god so veryabyll? 1509-10 Act 1 Hen. VIII, c. 11 Many lyght and unstable Persons. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. V, 38 The Cambers, otherwise called the vnstable Welshemen. 1607 Shaks. Cor. III. i. 148 It must omit Real Necessities, and giue way the while To vnstable Slightnesse. 1653 Milton Pr. v. 25 In his faltring mouth unstable Wo word is firm. 1661 Scott Serm. (1773) III. 192 Such Pretenders may beguile Factious and Unstable Minds. 1791 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Lonsdad III. ix, [A deed] Which Cain perform'd, in godliness unstable. 1855 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xv. II. 16 To nature, lamentably unstable, was not ignoble. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xxv, Onesimus was too unstable to withstand the combined temptations by which he was surrounded.

absol. 1582 N. T. (Rheim.) 2 Pet. iii. 16 Certaine things hard to be vnderstoode, which the vnlearned and vnstable depraue. 1630 H. Lynde (title), Via Devia: The By-Way: Mis-leading the weake and vnstable into dangerous paths of Error. 1650 Baxter Saints' R. III. xi. § 18. 497 Drawing off the unstable from the doctrine and way of life.

3. Not fixed in character or condition; exposed to vicissitude or chance; apt to change or alter; variable.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Consc. 1420 Pe worlde is swa unstable, Alle þat men sese þar-in es chaungeable. c 1375 Lay Folks Mass-Bk. (MS. B.) 390 þo weders grete & vnstable, Lord make gode. 1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) I. 139 Hap was vnstable and vnstedefast; ones wiþ þat con side, and eft wiþ þat oher. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 705 O lord I þis world vnstabyl is. c 1450 tr. De Imitatione III. lxiv. 149, I finde al vnferme & vnstable, what euere I beholde oute of pe. 1513 Douglas Æneid XI. viii. 118 The variant chance Of our unstabill lyfe. a 1542 Wyatt in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 35 Vnstable dreame,..Be stedfast ones, or els at least be true. a 1642 Kynaston Leoline & Syntanis 141 O wretched state Unstable Of mortal men! 1657 in Verney Mem. (1907) 360 These giddy and unstable times. 1768 Boswell Corsica ii. 73 The Genoese..were..in an unstable, and perilous condition. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla III. 75 We must allow to our unstable virtues all the encouragement that can prop them. Ibid. V. 540 The perpetual vicissitudes of our unstable condition. 1829 Hood Eugene Aram 46 Or is it some historic page Of kings and crowns unstable? 1863 H. Cox Instit. III. iii. 628 That all oligarchies and democracies are unstable. 1884 Church Bacon ix. 223 English seemed to him too homely to express the hopes of the world, too unstable to be trusted with them.

b. spec. in Chem.

1829 D. Campbell Inorg. Chem. 216 Its [sc. suboxide of copper] salts are very unstable. 1857 Miller Elem. Chem., Org. 59 Grape sugar forms definite but unstable combinations with the alkaline bases. 1890 Retrospect Med. CII. 2 The chloral hydrate is, comparatively, an unstable compound.

4. Not firm or solid; insecure.

1565 Jewel Repl. Harding (title-p.), The Weake and vnstable Groundes of the Romaine Religion. 1613 Purchas Pilgrimage (1614) 507 The Earth was couered with sand, which yeelded an vnstable footing.

Unsta'ble, v. (Un-[2] 5.) †trans. To free of. 1612 T. Adams Gallant's Burden 32 If our harts be vnstabled of these beastiall lusts. Unsta'bled, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8.) Not established or made stable. 1622 Bulrington's Wks. 9 Complaints of wauering weakenesse and vnstabled [ed. 1596 vnstayned (read vnstayed)] mutability..brought against vs. 1681 Rycaut tr. Gracian's Critick 120 A tottering Cottage, founded on an unstabled Sand. Unsta'bled, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[2] 8.) Not put into a stable. 1893 C. Bronte Villette xxxix, Behold the branchless tree, the unstabled Rosinante!

Unsta'bleness. [f. Unstable a.] The condition of being unstable; instability: a. Of persons, the mind, etc.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 58 Medling of freris clopis telli unstablenesse [in vitus] of pes clopis. 1387 Trevisa Higden II. 175 pe vnstablinesse of pountes schal be bytokened by many manere dyuersite of clopinge. c 1425 Eng. Conq. Jrel. 136 Þegh thay, throgh kynd falsnesse & vnstablenesse þat yn ham ys, lytyl tel of ethes. 1539 Bayne Castl. Helthe 73 Vnstablenesse of wytte and slipper remembrance. 1590 Greenwood Answ. Gifford 13 Your vnstablenes in denying and affirming with one breath. 1646 P. Bulkeley Gospel Covt. v. 361 By reason of our unstablenesse of spirit, we are apt to make many a breach. 1676 Hale Contempl. II. 49 Unstableness, Vanity, Love of Pleasures, Easiness to be corrupted in Youth. 1825 W. H. Ireland Scribblemania 124 His natural unstableness debars him from adopting any fixed mode of action.

b. Of conditions, life, etc.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Consc. 353 [e unstablenes of þis werld. c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. II. pr. iv. (1868) 43 þe vnstablenesse of fortune. c 1430 Lydg. Compl. Bl. Knt. 457 Thy stormy wilful variance I-meyn with chauncis and grete vnstablenesse. c 1440 Gesta Rom. lxxxix. 411 A woman..that sawe..the synnes, and the vnstablenesse, that was in the worlde. a 1589 Palfreyman Ialousie's Disc. Philos. (1600) 52 O world thou hast so many countenances in thy variable, that thou leadest all wandering in vnstablenesse. 1601 Sir W. Cornwallis Ess. II. xxxvi, The frailty and vnstablenes of wealth. 1670 in Somers Tracts I. 97 To shew unto those insolent Commanders of the Army, the Instability of their Condition. 1807 G. Chalmers Caledonia I. iii. vii. 421 A weaker prince would have lost his crown, considering its unstableness.

Unsta'bly, adv. [Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec.] In an unstable manner; unsteadily.

a 1380 Eufrosyne 390 in Horstm. Altengl. Leg. (1878) 178 I stunte, I stonde, vnstabli I stalke. 14.. Wyclif's De Ecclesia (1851) p. xiii, But her þenken þrewe men þat þe fend falih her, & goiþ vnstably [v.r. un-table] bi two weies. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 Vnstablyly, instabiliter. 1500 Atkynson tr. De Imitatione III. xix. 212 He standeth casually and vnstably that castith nat all his busynes in the. 1611 Cotgr., Instablement, vnstably, vnsteadily. 1654 Ellistone & Sparrow tr. Boehme's Myst. Magnum lxxvi. 579 As Adam suddenly and unstablely therein, departed from his Glory. 1830 Pusey Hist. Eng. II. 109 Others, who are unstably 'halting between the two opinions'. 1879 Thomson & Tait Nat. Phil. I. § 351 A particle placed on the inner circle..would move perpetually in that circle, but unstably.

Unsta·ck, v. (Un-[2] 3.) trans. To remove, take down, from being stacked or piled up.

1859 R. F. Burton Centr. Afr. in Trans. Geog. Soc. XXIX. 414 The porters..unstack the loads propped against the trees. 1869 W. Thornbury Tour on Shes III. 59 The enemy..already were beating the alarm, unstacking their weapons, and gathering outside their tents. 1888 Pall Mall G. 18 Feb. 6/2 In unstacking some timber,..the men came across a newly-made sparrow's nest.

Unsta·cked, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1846 Worc. (citing More). 1884 Spectator 4 Oct. 1326/1 She has left some wood unstacked at home. Unsta·gnant, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1822-7 Good Stdy Med. (1829) III. 45 A pure and unstagnant air. Unsta·gy, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1882 Macm. Mag. XLVI. 332/2 A room altogether natural and unstagey. [Freq. in recent use.]

Unstaid, a. Also 6–7 unstaied, -stayed, etc. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Of persons: Not staid or regulated in deportment or conduct.

c 1550 Chess Matt. xxiii. 25 Thel be called in greek apostes,..which we mai cal rightli vnstaid. 1621 Burton Anat. Mel. III. ii. ii. iii. 567 When they are so new fangled, so vnstaide, so prodigious in their attires. 1636 HEYWOOD Love's Mistr. v. L 4, Now Psiche, you must see your sisters judg'd, Vnstaid Petrea, and unkind Astioche.

transf. 1591 SHAKS. Two Gent. II. vii. 60 How will the world repute me For vndertaking so vnstaid a iourney?

† b. Of a hawk: Not properly trained. Obs.—1614 LATHAM Falconry I. v. 21 With the first of these three orders, I haue reclaimed an outragious vnstaid hawke.

2. Of the mind, etc.: Not subjected to restraint or control; unrestrained, unregulated.

(a) 1579 E. K. Ded. to Spenser's Sheph. Cal. § 5 His vnstayed youth had long wandred in the common Labyrinth of Loue. 1593 SHAKS. Rich. II, iv. 1. 2 Will the King come, that I may breath my last In wholsome counsell to his vnstaid youth? 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 158 All those vaine delights which vnstaied youth most desireth.

(b) 1589 HOLINSHED Chron. III. 488/2 To lash out whatsoever his vnstaied mind afforded. 1609 ROWLANDS Hell's Broke Loose (Huntarian Club) 23 The easier to beguile The simple sort, which haue vnstayed mindes. a 1678 H. SCOUGAL Disc. Imp. Subj. (1735) 136 Our blood is hot, and our spirits unstayed and giddy. 1685 BAXTER Paraphr. N. T. 1 Tim. iii. 11 Women..in danger..of unstayed Levity. 1812 CARY Dante, Purg. x. 112 O poor and wretched ones! That ..lean your trust Upon unstaid perverseness. 1832 L. HUNT Sir R. Esther I. 38 Unripe and unstaid thoughts, the vanities of youth. 1849 LOWELL The Moon 3 My soul is the tide sea,..Moaning in vague immensity,..Unrestful and unstaid.

(c) 1592 LYLY Gallathea III. i, I feele my thoughts vnknit, mine eyes vnstaide. 1638 BRAYTHWAIT Spirit. Spiners, etc. 398 Those poore objects which wherewithal my unstayed eyes were fed.

(d) 1590 SPENSER Mviopot. 161 To the gay gardins his vnstaid desire Him wholly carried, to refresh his sprights. 1612 DRAYTON Poly-olb. xi. 348 Ethelbald..by the wise reproofe of godly Bishops brought From those vnstayd delights by which his youth was caught.

3. Not settled or stable in opinion or resolve; not clearly determined or decided.

1561 T. NORTON Calvin's Inst. I. 5 That vnstayed and wandring opinion of the maiestie of God. 1603 HARSNET Pop. Impost. 121 If they had bouched the old vnstayned Reliques from Rome, some unstayed body would haue made question whether they had been Saints bones indeed. 1613 BR. HALL Serm. v. 93 A private man unsettled in opinion, a troublesome and vnstaid; but a public person vnstayed is dangerous. 1631 WEEVER Ancc. Funeral Mon. 515 King Henry,..vnstayed in religious resolutions, did cut them off vpon false suggestions. a 1750 A. HILL Muse to Writer viii, While roving times, unconter'd and unstaid, I Ill'd by turns, and did by turns relide.

4. Liable to change or alter; uncertain.

1586 DAY Eng. Secretary I. (1595) 116 Is there anie thing on earth so assured, that by vnstaied incertaintie is not continuallie guided? 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. xlvi. 135 Change is the great Lord of the World; Time is his Agent, that brings in all things to suffer his vnstaid Dominion. 1642 H. MORE Song of Soul III. iii. 15 They frisque about in circulings unstay'd.

Hence Unstai·dly adv.

1556 GRIMALDE Cicero's Offices III. 123 Nothing..vniustly, nothing wantonly, nothing vnstayedly is meete to be done. 1577 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xxxvii, 9 If wee were not shifted hither and thither unstayedly. 1611 COTGR., Incontinemment,..disorderedly, vnstayedly, intemperately.

Unstai·dness. [f. prec.]

1. Absence of staidness in conduct or opinion.

c 1550 CHEKE Matt. xxiii. 25 For le clense y⁰ outward part of y⁰ cup..but y⁰ insijd is ful of robri and vnstaidnes. 1583 GOLDING Calvin on Deut. xxxviii. 227 That we must not delite our selues with any vnciuilitie or vnstaiedyednesse. 1650 HOLYDAY Persius' Sat. v. 41 Nothing hinders thee.. But Luxurie. That doth seduce thy weake Unstayednesse. 1675 BARCLAY Apol. Quakers xi § 8. 358 The unstayedness of their Minds. 1828 E. IRVING Last Days 326 The former [trait] expressing haste, precipitancy, and unstayedness.

†2. Physical unsteadiness. Obs.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. ix, With a kind of shaking unstayednes over all his body. 1607 MARKHAM Cavel. VII. 59 When..the orifice by the vnstaidnes of the Farriers hand, is made too great.

Unstai·n, v. [UN- 2 3.] trans. To free from stain or stains.

1639 N. WHITING Albino & Bellama, etc. II 10, What other errours thou findest, let thy pen amend, excusing the presse, and vn-staining the Author. a 1659 FULLER Holy War II. ix. 55 They sought to unstain their credits by going again. 1687 J. REYNOLDS Death's Vis. vii, How Blooming Trees ..Unstain Dy'd Cloaths, and call their Atoms forth.

Unstai·nable, a. (UN- 1 7 b.)

1584 LODGE Hist. Forbonius & Prisc. (Shaks. Soc.) 96 Alas, unfortunate Ægyptian! whose faithful affections are so inmutable, as thy naturall colour is unstainable. 1864 CARLYLE Fredk. Gt. XVII. i. IV. 502 The unstainable fidelity of Weingarten Senior. 1878 GROSART H. More's Poems Mem. Introd. p. xxii/1 A pure white life unstained and unstainable as the light.

Unstai·ned, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.]

1. Not stained or (dis)coloured; spotless, clean, pure.

1555 in Feuillerat Revels Q. Mary (1914) 182 The same white cloth of syiver vnstayned. 1597 SHAKS. 2 Hen. IV, v. ii. 124 Th' vnstained Sword that you haue vs'd to beare. 1629 MILTON Hymn Nativ. iv, The hooked Chariot stood Unstain'd with hostile blood. 1736 THOMSON Liberty v. 556 Languedocian skies, That, unstain'd ether all, diffusive smile. 1809 CRABBE Par. Reg. I. 24 By sighs unruffled or unstain'd by tears. 1860 TYNDALL Glac. I. xiv. 97 The unstained blue of heaven. 1899 Allbutt's Syst. Med. VIII. 903 An unstained or faintly stained zone..across the bacillus.

2. Not morally stained or sullied; unblemished, untarnished.

1573 DAUS tr. Bullinger on Apoc. (ed. 2) 84 The Byshops began to defile the Lordes supper and other vnstained doctrines of fayth. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia II. x, Any sparkes of unstained duety lefte in them towardes me. 1624 QUARLES Job xv. 19 Preserue he then, vnstained in his brest, A milke-white Conscience. 1689 D. GRANVILLE Lett. (Surtees) 81 The consideration whereof hath kept me unstained and unstained. 1744 THOMSON Spring 761 The towering Seat.. of his Empire; which, in Peace, Unstain'd he holds. 1746 FRANCIS tr. Horace, Epist. II. ii. 196 A Person, who maintain'd A due Decorum, and a Life unstain'd. 1813 SHELLEY Q. Mab VII. 236 No year of my eventful being Has passed unstained by crime and misery. 1863 MRS. H. WOOD Verner's Pride xviii, He was proud of his independence, his unstained name.

Hence Unstai·nedness.

1685 H. MORE Paralip. Prophet. 327 Sacerdotal,..because of the unstainedness of their condition as to Externals. 1727 BAILEY (vol. II), Pureness,..Unspottedness, Unstainedness.

Unsta·ied, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.) 1883 LD. R. GOWER Reminisc. I. 1. 5 A source of intense pleasure, ever fresh and unstaled. Unsta·ked, a. (UN- 9.) 1875 HUXLEY & MARTIN Elem. Biol. 93 Free swimming unstalked bells. 1884 ELLACOMBE Plant-Lore Shakes. 115 Female blossoms ..completely sessile or unstalked. Unsta·led, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1829 LYTTON Devereux IV. i, My horse stood unstalled at the gate.

Unsta·mped, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8. Cf. MDa. ustampet.]

1. Not crushed by stamping.

1594 PLAT Jewell-ho. ii. 46 Malaghie reasons..either stampt or unstampt. 1595 R. SOUTHWELL Mæonia, Christ's Bloody Sweat 3 Sweete olive, grape of blisse,..vnstampt, vntouchit of presse. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongestooten Peper, Vnstamped Pepper.

2. Not marked by stamping; not stamped with a device or official mark: a. Of metals.

1622 Strange Accid. in Harl. Misc. (1808) I. 26/2 Silver of three sorts, all unstamped. a 1643 GODOLPHIN Sonn. fr. Harl. MS. 25 Like unstamped gold I weigh each grate. 1767 Curiosities of London 71 Putting in the unstamped piece with his forefinger and thumb. 1801 Farmer's Mag. 396 A bit of unstamped bullion. 1853 TRENCH Proverbs 15 The same advantage..which..has the recognised coin of the realm over the rude unstamped ore.

b. Of paper or publications.

1809 R. LONGFORD Introd. Trade 13 Country Bankers can..issue bills of exchange on unstamped paper. 1855 Instructions to Postmasters June, Unstamped Publications ..can be forwarded..under the regulations of the Book Post. 1861 Ann. Reg. 25 Nov. 292 So all the benefits of a free press, unstamped, unexcised, may be altogether thrown away.

3. Not having a stamp affixed.

1892 'H. S. MERRIMAN' Slave of Lamp xxi, Posting an unstamped letter addressed to England.

† Unsta·nchable, a. [UN- 1 7 b.]

1. Incapable of being stopped or ended.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. II. pr. vii. (1868) 58 By he regard of eternite, hat is vnstaunchable [L. inexhausta] and infinit. 1430-40 LYDG. Bochas VIII. xvii. (1558) 12 With heed enclyned no word he spake again, Fyll in wepinge, with subbyng vnstaunchable. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xxxiii. 6 Gods goodnesse is unstaunchable. 1670 SWAN Spec. M. 440 The wounds of the Hæmorrhois procure unstanchable bleeding. 1837 CARLYLE Necklace, Misc. Ess. (1840) V. 104 He burst into unstaunchable libations of tears. 1880 SWINBURNE Stud. Shaks. (ed. 2) I. 52 That perpetual source of debate unstanchable and inexhaustible dispute.

2. Unquenchable, insatiable.

1426 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 13053 Evere ther glotons appetyt Ys so ful of this delyt, So gredy and so vnstaunchable. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhod III. xiv. (1869) 142 Vnstaunchable is my wile;..my affecciouu may hane no fulfillinge. 1440 J. SHIRLEY Dethe K. James (1818) 25 Coueitesynge his unstanchable coueitise. 1590 Serpent of Divis. A iij b/2 His greedy unstancheable thirste of covetousnes. 1625 JACKSON Creed v. xxxii. § 3. 307 The flames of..illkindled lone..hath caused his stomic heart to boyle over with vnstaunchable bloudie malice.

Unsta·nched, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.]

1. a. Not satisfied; unsated.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. II. pr. vi. (1868) 54 Ryvcchesse may nat restreyne auarice vnstaunched. 1591 LYLY Endym. II. ii, I will..teare the flesh with my teeth, so mortall is my hate, and so eger my unstanched stomacke. 1596 SHAKS. 3 Hen. VI, I. v. 83 Stille the Villaine, whose vnstanched thirst Yorke, and yong Rutland could not satisfie. 1613 HEYWOOD Silver Age III. i, His maw Vnstaunch't, He still the thicke Nemean groues doth stray.

b. Unrestrained; not stopped.

1622 N. Riding Rec. (1894) 34 Being unstaunchte they [sc. deer] raunge over all the adjacent fieldes. 1826 SCOTT Woodst. xiv, I conjure thee by the unstanch'd wound. 1850 BLACKIE Æeschylus II. 263 Fresh and unstaunched woes.

2. Not made staunch or water-tight.

1607 J. CARPENTER Plaine Mans Plough 220 Slugging on the waves of this ocean with an unstanch ship. 1760–72 H. BROOKE Fool of Qual. (1809) II. 126 The elements..came pouring from unstanched roofs.

Fig. 1610 SHAKS. Temp. I. i. 51 Though the Ship were..as leaky as an vnstanched wench.

†Unsta·nged, ppl. a. Obs.—[UN- 1 8.] Not stung. 1[3]. Metr. Hom. (MS. Ashm. 42) fol. 126 b, Nedders vnstangid sall bai bere; Poysonous drink sall þaim noȝt dere.

Unsta·rch, v. [UN- 2 4.] trans. To free from stiffness.

1600 B. JONSON Cynthia's Rev. III. ii. [He] dares not smile Beyond a point, for fear t'unstarch his look. 1642 J. TRAPP Theol. Theol. iv. 174 [Paul] unstarcht the Oratours speech (as one phrases it) afore Felix. 1683 KENNETT Erasm. on Folly 19 To cashier and unstarch his gravity.

Hence Unsta·rching vbl. sb.

1647 TRAPP Comm. I Cor. i. 17 Witness his [i.e. Paul's] artificiall unstarching of the Oratours speech, Act. 26.

Unsta·rched, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.] Not starched; fig. free from stiffness.

[1775 ASH.] 1827 Archaologia XXI. 254 An unstarched or unpinited pocket. 1861 T. A. TROLLOPE La Beata I. vi. 124 The unstarched ease of her own undisguised character.

1894 MRS. DYAN Man's Keeping II. 137 You look..as limp as an unstarched collar.

Unsta·rred, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.] Not marked with a star or asterisk; not decorated with a star. Also fig.

[1775 ASH.] a 1849 J. C. MANGAN Poems (1859) 65 Perfect bliss, unstarred with woe. 1854 S. DOBELL Balder III. 12 The keeper of the palace-gate..although he come In fashion as a commoner, unstarred. Lets the prince pass. 1890 HESSELS Latin-A. S. Glossary p. xli, I trust that..no A. S. words [are] left unstarred.

Unsta·rted, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.]

1. Unstartled.

1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharonnida I. iv. 215 Sound sleeps, unstarted innocence, Softn'd their Beds.

2. Not started or begun.

[1775 ASH.] 1898 Daily News 14 Nov. 5/1 Three blocks are now approaching completion,..and only two remain unstarted.

Unsta·rting, ppl. a. (UN- 1 10.) 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa (1811) VI. 118 Unbroken, unstarting slumbers.

Unsta·rtled, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.)

1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharonnida I. i. 56 Desp'rate men, Unstartled with those dangers. Ibid. III. v. 474 Unstartl'd at The Riven depth. 1736 COLLINGE Destiny of Nations 346 The plough-man..Turned up fresh sculls unstartled. 1823 MRS. HEMANS Siege of Valencia I, Train'd to hear The trumpet's blast unstartled. 1833 M. SCOTT Tom Cringle xix, [The snake], the only unstartled thing in the neighborhood, continued steadily..on its course.

Unsta·rtling, ppl. a. (UN- 1 10.) 1729 SAVAGE Wanderer II. 230 Calm thoughts the deed revolve, And now, unstartling, fix the dire resolve. 1891 J. C. ATHERSON Moorland Ver. 38, I have been accustomed to regard the sheep as a quiet unimpressive sort of creature, with unstartling habits.

Unsta·te, v. [UN- 2 6 b.]

1. trans. To deprive of state, rank, or estate.

c 1586 C'TESS PEMBROKE Ps. LXXXIX. xiv, Takes he his weapon? thou the edge rebatest..Would stay with kingly pomp? thou him unstatest. 1605 SHAKS. Lear I. ii. 108, I would vnstate my selfe, to be in a due resolution. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. viii. 490/2 [They] proceeded to vnstate him of that goodliest portion of France. 1644 F. WHITE Regd. Fisher 30 The Romane Pope hath a direct power to depose and vnstate them [sc. kings]. 1879 J. TODHUNTER Alcestis 30 Alack I the best of us May Zeus unstate.

2. To deprive of the character of a state.

1647 WARD Simp. Cobler 22 States are unstated, Rulers growne Over-rulers, Churches destroyed.

Unsta·ted, ppl. a. [UN- 1 8.] Not stated or declared.

[1775 ASH.] 1864 PUSEY Lect. Daniel I. 14 Daniel..left unstated the grounds of his non-participation in their stead-fastness. 1900 Westm. Gaz. 19 June 9/3 The assertions he makes, and especially the points he leaves unstated.

Unsta·tely, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1860 RUSKIN Mod. Painters V. 296 Within certain black and unstately iron railings.

Unsta·tesmanlike, a. (UN- 1 7 c.)

1796 LD. SHEFFIELD in Ld. Auckland's Corr. (1862) III. 357 The miserable unstatesmanlike mode of taxation which has prevailed. 1837 LYTTON Athens I. 456 A daring, but no unstatesmanlike stroke of policy. 1880 MCCARTHY Own Times IV. 397 Mr. Gladstone's sudden resolve was openly condemned as peevish and unstatesmanlike.

Hence Unsta·tesmanlikely adv.

1846 MRS. GORE Eng. Char. I. 326 There are moments.. when the strongest ministerial mind becomes unstatesmanlikely enfeebled.

Unstathelfast, a.: see UN- 1 3.

Unsta·tion, n. (UN- 1 3.) 1820 BROWNING Sordello v. 603 The men and women stationed hitherto Will I unstation.

Unstationary, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1832 WHEWELL in Life (1881) 149, I shall be very unstationary (if there be such a word) for the next three weeks. Unsta·tioned, a. (UN- 1 9.) 1760 C. JOHNSTON Chrysal I. 23 Though I could give their ships information how to avoid our squadrons, yet they fell into the hands of unstationed privateers. Unsta·tistic, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1839 CARLYLE Chartism iv. (1858) 21 So much can observation altogether unstatistic..ascertain for itself. Unstati·stical, a. (UN- 1 7.) 1868 VISCT. STRANGFORD Select. (1869) II. 304 That unstatistical city [Constantinople].

Unsta·tutable, a. [UN- 1 7 b.] Not in accordance with, contrary to, a statute or statutes.

1634 LAUD Wks. (1857) VI. 368 That they use not long, undecent hair,..nor any other like unstatutable novelty. 1691 Case of Exeter Coll. 22 These severe and unstatutable proceedings. 1723 SWIFT Arguts. agst. Power Bps. Wks. 1841 II. 218/2 In the present bishop of Meath's case that plea did not avail, although it seem more notoriously unstatutable. 1794 BURKE Corr. IV. 237 A deputation to remonstrate against an unstatutable arrangement proposed for the succession to the provostship. 1851 J. H. MOZLEY Lett. 208 The President has summarily seque-hed the whole scheme, on the ground of being unstatutable.

Hence Unsta·tutably adv.

1688 in Magd. Coll. & Jas. II (O.H.S.) 224 The one being unstatutably admitted. 1721 N. AMHERST Terræ Fil. No. 27 (1726) 147 That he governs his college arbitrarily, unjustly, and unstatutably. 1826 Encycl. Brit. V. 228/2 The establishment of 'vicars', or, as they are now more usually but unstatutably called, 'minor canons'.

Unstau·nch, a. Also unstanch. [UN- 1 7.] Not sound, firm, watertight, etc.

1606 WARNER Alb. Eng. XVI. ci. 400 Who can lesse than smile that sees vnstanch and truistie Ships To shelter coyle vnderneath Fannes. a 1674 MILTON Hist. Mosc. v. Wks. 1851 VIII. 505 The Ships being unstaunch,..sunk by the way. 1896 E. A. KING Hist. Highways 223 Not one [column] has proved unstanch through..the storms of these long.. centuries.

Unstaunchable,-ed,: see UNSTANCHABLE, etc.

Unsta·ved, ppl. a. (UN- 1 8.) Not furnished with staves 1481–90 Howard Househ. Bks. (Roxb.) 393 My Lord paied to J. Gravele uppon vj. bylles staved, and v. un-taved, iij. s. iiij. d. Unstay·able, a. (UN- 7 b.) 1633 T. ADAMS

Exp. 2 Peter ii. 2 There is...in these a desperate and unstayable precipitancy.

Unstay'ed, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 + Stay v.[1]] Not stayed or stopped; unhindered, unimpeded.

1600 Fairfax Tasso xx. xciii. 382 A thunderbolt he was.. that.. of his coming swift, and flight unstaid. Eternall signes in hardest rockes hath wrought. 1638 Junius Paint. Ancients 314 His vast and unstayed understanding. 1820 Prard Poems (1864) II. 40 Unchecked, unstayed, he hurries on. 1851 Mrs. Browning Casa Guidi Wind. i. 730 To strike electric influence through a race, Uplying by city-wall and bartizan.

Unstay'ed, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8 + Stay v.[2]] Unsupported, † unstable.

1594 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. ii. 184 For one kinde thereof [sc. consent] is firme and stayed, and another weake and unstayed. 1596 Spenser F. Q. vi. i. 20 He..layd On hideous strokes. That oft he made him staggar as unstaid. a 1649 Drumm. of Hawth. Poems Wks. (1711) 55 Some young Phaeton, Whose skilless and unstayed Hand May prove the Ruin of the Land. 1881 Chrn. Rossetti Pageant, etc., Late Life iii. Bear Thou in mind..our feebleness unstayed Except Thou stay us.

Unstay'ed, ppl. a.[3] [Un-[1] 8 + Stay sb.[2] 3.] Not furnished with, or confined by, stays.

1820 Prard Bachelor 97 My waist, unvexed, unstayed, By fetters of the tailor's trade. 1894 Idler Sept. 240 In hygienic clothing, A waist and heels deep-loathing, Thy unstayed figure freely flounders.

Unstayed, obs. var. Unstaid a.

Unstay'edness. [f. Unstayed ppl. a.[2]] Lack of support. 1874 Pusey Lent. Sermons 326 He clad Himself with our fear, that He might array our unstayedness with the solidity of His virtue.

Unstay'ing, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.] Not stopping or pausing.

1616 W. Browne Brit. Past. ii. iv. ad fin., I feare,..Ere I have ended my sad history, Unstaying Time may bring on his last horse. 1682 Dryden Religio Laici 1 Preface 1 v. If I not revenge, With..unstaying fury, Thy sufferings. 1845 E. Jones Studies (1879) 186 Laughing maids, unstaying,.. O'er the lights shall dart. 1883 B. Smith Life I.d. Lawrence II. 449 His unstaying and pitiless advance across the wilds of Central Asia.

Unstea'dfast, a. [Un-[1] 8 and 5 b. Cf. ON. ústaðfast-r (older Da. ustadfast).]

1. Of persons, the mind, etc.: Not steadfast in conduct or opinion; inconstant, fickle.

a 1200 Moral Ode 241 in O. E. Hom. I. 175 þo boð þa þe weren her a þanks unstedefeste. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 61 We turnen ofte to him and fro him, for we beð unstedefaste. a 1300 Cursor M. 6516 þi folk..has don a suik; Sin þat þou com fra þam last, þou sal þam find ful vn-stedfast. 1340–70 Alex. & Dind. 944 Hud wolde wene þat a weih woxen on elde Were wist for vnstedefast of word or of dede? c 1450 Mankind 209 in Macro Plays 8, I am onstedfast in lywynge; my name ys 'Mankynde'. 1502 Atkynson tr. De Imitatione III. xxii. 214, I am ryghte feble and vnstedfaste. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 193 This king was..vnstedfast of maners and disposed to lightnesse. 1601 Camden Bk. Ayres xiv. 4 My heart..is dismaid by thee, Who art so cruell and vnstedafast growne. 1647 H. More Song of Soul, etc. 313 When my weakened soul Unstedfast, into this Outworld doth reel. a 1850 Rossetti Dante & Circle i. (1874) 123 He answers Dante, confessing his unstedfast heart. 1850–1 Longf. Golid. Leg. ii. Village Church, Pardon in me the condition of a Unstedfast.

absol. 1885 Coleridge Aids Refl. 370 In the perfect foreknowledge that they would confirm the disbelieving, alienate the unsteadfast.

2. Not remaining in the same state; liable to change or alteration: a. Of the world, life, etc.

c 1200 Moral Ode 300 in O. E. Hom. I. 229 Wo is wilnie þ after weredles wele þe longe ne mai ilaste. And leget þ mast al ure swinc on þing unstedefaste. 1456 Sir G. Have Law Arms (S.T.S.) 33 Be caus of this divisioun, all the world is in a wylde thocht, unstedefast. 1475 Bk. Noblesse (Roxb.) 3 Thorough sodein and variable chaunces of unstedfast fortune. a 1500 in Ratis Raving, etc. 22 Leid thi lyf with thaim that the louis for the day of the vnstedfast lyf. 1574 Hyll, Conject. Weather i, Then shall follow an unstedfast Winter. 1591 Spenser Daphn. 178 For all mens states alike vnstedfast be. 1600 Tournour Transf. Metam. iv, Subiect unto th' unstedfast moone's controle.

b. Of persons, qualities, etc.

1483 Caxton Gold. Leg. 388 b/2 Whome ought I better to chese of thy two, or le kyng puysaunt pardurable..or one seek unstedfast. 1513 More Rich. III (1883) 6 With large gifftes he get hym unstedfaste frendeshippe. 1535 Coverdale Prov. v. 6 She regardeth not the path of life, so vnstedfast are hir ways, that thou canst not knowe them. 1600 Holland Livy 671 The assured loialtie of the captaines..was but vaine, fickle, and unstedfast.

3. Not firmly established or fixed; readily moving or changing place; not firm or steady.

1534 Proph. Sanct. 158 in Archiv Stud. neu. Spr. LXXXI. 93 He made Nettes to bee caste in to the sea vnstedefast. 1598 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xii. xxxii. (Bodl. MS.), pe peacock hab an vnstedefaste and an yuel schape heede. 1563 Mirr. Mag., Induct. xxxiii, Her eyes vnstedfast rolling here and there. 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, i. iii. 193 As full of perill..As to o're-walke a Current, roaring loud, On the vnstedfast footing of a Speare. 1657 Austen Fruit Trees ii. 28 The farther off the Branches are from the Roote, the more loose, and unstedfast they are. 1793 Wordsw. Descr. Sk. 252 Bare steeps, where Desolation stalks, afraid, Unsteadfast, by a blasted yew upstay'd. 1864 Dora Greenhill Lyra Myst., Soul Garden. xii, These Lilies..That quiver with unstedfast light.

fig. 1817 Jas. Mill Brit. India II. v. vii. 621 The unsteadfast basis on which the power of the leaders at Poonah was placed.

Hence Unstea'dfastly adv.

1559 Guest Let. to Cecil in Strype Ann. Ref. (1709) I. App. xiv. 38, I have neither ungoaly allowed anything against the Scripture, neither unstedfastly done anything contrary to my writing. 1600 Cotgr., Inconstamment,.. vnstedfastly, mutably, waueringly.

Unstea'dfastness. [f. prec.] The quality of being unsteadfast; a. of persons or conduct.

a 1300 Cursor M. 27793 O suernes cums..vnstedfastnes, o wil wandring. 1384 Chaucer L. G. W. Prol. 526 A fulgret negligence Was it to the to write onstedefast-nesse Of women. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 Onstedefastnesse, instabilitas. a 1500 Chaucer's Dream 200 Wherefore I doubt ..Her variance and vnstedafastnes. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VIII, f. 144 b. There was reherced to the Frenchemen their doubleness [and] their vnstedfastnes. 1649 Bp. Reynolds Hosea ii. 91 The falsenesse and unstedfastnesse of our Hearts. 1694 Kettlewell Comp. Persecuted 58 Let not any other Persons unstedfastness in thy ways..cause me to waver. a 1850 Rossetti Dante & Circle i. (1874) 99 Many times I cursed the unsteadfastness of my eyes. 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 90 God, in answer, promises to heal.. their fickleness and unsteadfastness.

b. Of life, fortune, etc.

1508 Dunbar's Poems (S.T.S.) 321/79 Sen in this world thare is no sekernes,..I tak my leve at all vnstedfastnes. 1561 Bacon Sick Man's Salve (1572) 5 O the vnstedfastnesse of mans life! 1585 T. Washington tr. Nicholay's Voy. iv. xxix. 150 b, By chaunge of time and vnstedfastnesse of fortune this so flourishing a citie is brought to..ruine.

Unstea'dled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. VII. 1 A Priest he was by function..By books unstealed, by his pastoral care Too little checked. 1865 Sat. Rev. 19 Aug. 240/1 It is not the drunkenness of the unsteadied hand, the rolling gait, and stammering tongue.

Unstea'dily, adv. [Un-[1] 11. Cf. Unsteady a.] In an unsteady manner.

1556 J. Heywood Spider & Flie Bb iij b, To se these flies now! so vnstedily stagger, So late so redie. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. III. x. § 31 He that uses his Words loosely and unsteadily, will either be not minded, or not understood. c 1700 Congreve Doctr. Christ's Act of Love Wks. 1773 III. 276 This way and that unsteadily they rove, And, never fixed, are fugitives in Love. 1738 Bolingbroke Idea Patriot King (1749) 71 Considering how unsteadily and unsystematically the best of men are apt often to proceed. 1817 Coleridge Lay Serm., 'Blessed are ye' 37 The cup of sorrow overflows by being held unsteadily. 1847 De Quincey Sp. Mil. Nun Wks. 1853 III. 60 As idle as the flapping sail that fills unsteadily with the breeze upon a stranded ship. 1897 Mrs. E. L. Voynich Gadfly i. vii, The man approached unsteadily along the water side.

Unstea'diness. [f. next.] The quality of being unsteady.

1611 Cotgr., Volubilité,..vnstaedinesse, or an inconstant mouing. 1646 H. Lawrence Comm. Angels 120 The cause of loosenes, and lazeness, and unsteadiness in our course. 1698 Fryer Acc. E. India & P. 2 The unsteadiness of the Weather. 1722 Wollaston Relig. Nat. v. (1724) 85 If things are now and then mis-shaped, this infers no unsteadiness or mistake in nature. 1796 Mrs. D'Arblay Camilla v. 7 The unsteadiness of the boat. 1808 Mitford Hist. Greece III. 88 The gross evils inherent in the Athenian constitution: its irremediable unsteadiness, its gross tyranny. 1869 Tayler Cdn. Med. (ed. 2) 289 'The insidious form begins by numbness,..unsteadiness on the legs,..till the loss of power is complete. 1875 Economist 16 Jan. 68/1 The unsteadiness of the [stock-] markets.

Unstea'dly, a. [Un-[1] 7. Cf. OFris. un-, onstedich, MLG. unstedich, MHG. unstetec (G. unstätig); MDu. onstodich, LG. unstadig; etc.]

1. Not steady in position; not firm or secure; not held or kept steady.

1598 Florio, Insollora, to make loose or vnsteadie. 1601 Holland Pliny II. 440 Some there bee, who..advise their patients to wash their unsteedie teeth with the said infusion. 1612 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. i. 238 Walking to and fro on the unsteadie Leggs of a Guest. 1703 In Boe Hymn to the Pillory viii, The Statesmen..Who guide us with unsteady hand. 1743 R. Blair Grave 205 The busto moulders, and the deep-cut marble, Unsteady to the steel, gives up its trust. 1862 Coleridge Christmas 50 Christabel in dizzy trance Stumbling on the unsteady ground. 1815 Scott Guy M. ii, He glanced at some passages of the letters with an unsteady eye and an agitated mind. 1867 Morris Jason iii. 89 On their quest [they]..began to plough The unsteady plain.

transf. 1885 'Mrs. Alexander' At Bay v, Her voice was unsteady, and Glynn noticed that she was trembling.

2. Not steady or constant in respect of conduct or purpose; fluctuating, fickle, wavering.

1598 Dallington Method Travel. X 2 b, Men of light and vnsteadie brains, haue commonly sudden and sharpe conceites. 16.. Middleton, etc. Old Law v. i, Our unsteady fancies Would question whether we yet lived or no. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. i. § 49 So fluctuating and unsteady a testimony is the Applause of Popular Councils. 1677 Yarranton Eng. Improv. a 3 b, I could not imagine which way what I lay down in my Book..should in this unsteady Age ever come to be put into Practice. 1712 Berkeley Pass. Obed. Wks. 1871 III. 121 The violent humours and unsteady opposite wills of a multitude of savages. a 1770 Jortin Serm. (1774) III. 16 The tyranny of evil habits, and the easy deviations from an unsteady virtue to those habits. 1819 Keats Otho i. i, You have intrigued with them unsteady times To admiration. 1849 Froude Nemesis of Faith 136 Unsteady minds began to grow uneasy. 1871 B. Taylor Faust II. i. v. 6 Let naught how'er it sound make thee unsteady.

absol. 1828 Moir Mansie Wauch Prelim., The unsteady may take a hint concerning what it is possible for one of..a stout heart to go through with. 1872 [see Unsteady v.].

3. Marked or characterized by absence of steadiness or regularity; not regular, even, or uniform.

1690 Locke Hum. Und. ii. xiv. § 22 If the Motion of the Sun were as unequal as that of a Ship driven by unsteady Winds. 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy ii. ii, The unsteady uses of words, which have perplexed the clearest and most exalted understandings. 1798 Southey Henry the Hermit 58 The lamp that stream'd a long unsteady light. ?1820 Bryant Winter Piece 4 When the unsteady pulse Beat with strange flutterings. 1862 A. Meadows Man. Midwifery 186 Unsteady gait; when the woman walks the chest is held back. 1884 Youth 12 Mar. 372 The badness of the road is aggravated by unsteady driving, and a defective type of rolling stock.

Unstea'dy, v. [Un-[2] 6 a.] trans. To deprive of steadiness; to render unsteady.

1532 W. Walter Guystarde & S. A ij, The wretched lyfe of osyoysye..Unstedyeth the wyt. 1646 H. Lawrence Comm. Angels 122 How doth hee unstedy our steps, and intimidate us, by putting scruples in our wayes. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. xliv. 176 Unless the shock..(by unsteadying my hand) shall divert my aim from his head. 1821 Examiner 22 Aug. 540/1 Shot, shells, grape,..could not unsteady the step..of the..infantry. 1872 H. Bushnell Serm. Living Subj. 245 Wailing always on the unsteady, unsteadies even the sense of principle. 1883 Stevenson Treas. Isl. ii, I was quite unsteadied by all that had fallen out.

Hence Unstea'dying ppl. a.

1865 Masson Rec. Brit. Philos. 174 A point whence the appearance of an unusual amount of unsteadying thought may be dated.

Unstee'k, v. Now dial. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To undo, unfasten, open. Also fig.

c 1250 Hymn to Trin. Coll. Hom. Ap. 258 He mai binde & to breke..He mai luke & unsteke michte of al þinge. c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2828 Aaron..can wel speken; ðu salt him meten and unsteken Him bodeword min. a 1300 in Horstmann Allengl. Leg. (1875) 96 He getheþ he Dore to unsteke. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 128 Thus whanne he hath his coffe loken, It schal noght after ben unsteken. c 1400 Laud Troy Bk. 8239 Many a coffre was vnstoken, To drawe out robes that were y-loken. 1855, 1868 in Vks. glossaries (unsteek).

b. In pp. ppla. adj. clearly distinguishable from 'not closed, left open' (Un-[1] 8). Cf. Unstoken.

13.. Sir Beues (A.) 1663 þe chaumber dore a fond vnsteke. c 1350 Lybeaus Disc. 1450 At a posterne unsteke Lybeaus gan out-breke. c 1470 Henry Wallace IX. 1655 Gat nane, bot anis, with lyff out off that sted, For that the get so lang unsteke was.

Unstee·t, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa V. 215 Why then should this enervating pity unsteel my foolish heart? 1825 C. L. Smith tr. Casse iii. xxv, Her strokes on one descend Already trembling, supplicant and unsteeled. Unstee·led, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1744 W. Whitehead Alys & Adraustus 409 Why was I sing'd to perform the Part, Unsteel'd my Soul, unpertified my Heart? 1760–72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) III. 75 My conscience was yet unsteeled. 1899 R. Bridges Pater Filio 2 Sense with keenest edge unused, Yet unsteel'd by scathing fire.

Unstee·p, v. (Un-[2] 3 + Steep v.[1])

1598 Florio, Dimollare, to vnsteepe. 1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. vi. xvii, Anon the rattling hail On earth pours down his shot..; His powder spent, the Sunne puts off his vail, And fair his flaming beauties now unsteeps.

Unstee·ped, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1626 Bacon Sylva § 402 Next the wheat simple of itself, unsteeped and unwatered. Ibid. There was also other wheat sown unsteeped. 1766 Compl. Farmer s.v. Seed, The ground had been prepared exactly in the same manner for the steeped and the un-steeped grain. 1853 Nicholson's Operat. Mechanic (ed. 4) 407 For the purpose of discharging the colour out of the unsteeped flax or hemp.

Unstee·red, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8. Cf. MSw. ostyrad, Sw. ostyrad.) 1729 Savage Wanderer iii. (1761) 49 Like a frail Bark thy weaken'd Mind is tossed! Unsteered, unbalance'd, till its Wealth is lost. 1886 Pall Mall G. 23 Feb. 4/2 The unsteered, storm-driven voyage of the crazy craft. Unstemmed, ppl. a.[1] (Un-[1] 8 + Stem v.[2] Cf. MDu. onstemmend.) Not stemmed or stopped. 1732 Berkeley Serm. to S.P.G. 25 This unstemmed Torrent of Profaneness. Unstemmed, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[1] 8 + Stem v.[4] 3 a.) Not having the stalk and midrib removed. 1883 J. R. Dodge Manuf. Tobacco iii. 24 The unstemmed leaf, the rate at 5 cents per pound for unstemmed smoking, with 2 cents for stemmed. 1894 Times 16 Aug. 6/5 (U.S. tariff), Wrapped tobacco, unstemmed. Unstenched, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1822 Cobbett Rur. Rides (1885) I. 203 It is one of those pretty, clean, unstenched, unconfined places that [etc.]. † Unsten·ted, ppl. a. Sc. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 + Stent v.[2]] Not assessed. 1605 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1848) II. 272 To disburding thame of the taxatioun of fyue hundreth pundis,.. quilk sowme of fyue hundreth pundis lyis yit unsuentit.

Unste·p, v. (Un-[2] 5, 7 + Step v. II, 7.)

1853 Reade Christie Johnstone xiii. 202 Flucker..unstepped his mast in two fathom water. 1883 Man. Seamanship for Boys 243 If there is anything wrong at the mast-head,..unstep the mast and rectify it. 1887 Pall Mall G. 9 May 2/1 The novelty consists in the mast being made to unstep in rough weather.

Unste·rcorated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1821 Scott Pirate iv, A man's mind always grovelling in mould, stercorated or unstercorated.

† Unste·rn, a. Obs. Also 4 vnsterne, -sterin, -sturen. [App. an alteration of austern Austern a., by association with Stern a.] Severe, stern.

a 1300 Cursor M. 464 Bot he was merred of hys mint, Falson he fand vnsterne stint. Ibid. 3461 þair strut it was vnstern stilt. Ibid. 21590 (Edinb.).

† Unste·rnly, adv. Obs. Also 4 vnsturne-, vnsturen-, vnsterly. [f. prec + -ly.[2]] Severely, sternly; grimly.

a 1300 Cursor M. 7450 O bodi gret, o granis lang, Vnsternli [Göttingen, vnsterly] semed he be strang. Ibid. 16031 þai stert pam forth vnsterli [Gött. vnsternli], Wit a ful bald bere.

Unstick, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1708 Stevens, Decameron,..to unstick, unglew. 1748 Richardson Clarissa VII. 125 The other [foot] riveted to its native earth, bemired..beyond the possibility of unsticking itself.

Unstiffen, v. (Un-[2] 6.)

1611 Florio, Distirsuare, to vnstiffen, to vnbenum. 1855 Mrs. Gaskell North & S. xxvi, Then her rigid face unstiffened from its gray frostbound expression. 1894 A. Robertson Nuggets, etc. 20 The prospect of a fee unstiffened his rheumatic joints.

Unstiffened, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1648 Hexham II, Ongestijft, Vnstiffed, or Loose. 1889 Swinburne Study B. Jonson 96 The poem..would be worthy of very high praise if the texture..were unstiffened and undisfigured by..awkward inversions. 1893 Daily News 17 Apr. 6/3 Some..have determined to abide by the unstiffened dresses of last year. Unstiffening, vbl. sb. (Un-1 13.) 1832 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 761 A sort of unstiffening of my long dormant joints and muscles.

Unstifled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1742 Young Nt. Th. II. 121 Art, brainless art! our furious charioteer (For nature's voice unstiffled would recall) Drives headlong. 1842 Browning Christina iv, Just this or that poor impulse Which for once had play unstifled, Seems the sole work of a life-time. 1863 Pilgr. over Prairies I. 156 A profusion of nut-brown hair..fell unstiffled by cap, untortured by steel or curl paper.

Unstigmatized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 a.)

[1775 Ash.] 1778 [W. H. Marshall] Minutes Agric., Digest 6 Should this Impostor be suffered to stroll abroad unstigmatized. 1866-7 J. Berkeley Miseries Hum. Life viii. lxxi, Who..manage their inuendos so adroitly, that you are obliged to let them pass unstigmatized. 1874 Wordsw. Excurs. vii. 798 Nor left unstigmatized those fatal fields On which the sons of mighty Germany Were taught a base submission.

Unstill, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. OE. unstille, OHG. unstilli, MLG. unstil, obs. Du. onstil.)

[1648 Hexham II, Onstil, Vnstill, or Disquiet.] 1743 C. Wesley in Jrnl. (1809) I. 247 Some very unstil sisters, who always..tried who could cry loudest. 1842 E. Moore Suffolk Words 184 A maid undressing an unstil child. 1903 Kipling in Windsor Mag. Sept. 363/1 She never kept still. She kept very unstill.

Hence Unstillness. (In quots. after OE. unstillnes, -nyss.)

1846 Thorpe tr. Ælfric's Hom. II. 375 He..tries these five senses, wo through curiosity and unstillness wastes them uselessly. 1875 Anderida I. vii. 121 When some..attendants discovered the unstillness to Osgod's companions.

Unstilled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. Sw. ostillad.) 1648 Hexham II, Ongestilt, Vnstilled, or Vn-appeased. 1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. I. 141 Unstilled yearning, and an original ebullience of spirit. 1874 Pusey Lent. Serm. 43 To hear the cries of their unstilled hunger.

Unstimulated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] a 1800 Cowper Iliad (ed. 2) xxiii. 469 He..wept to see..his own Unstimulated counsels thrown Wide. 1825 Scott Talism. xxii, The future..glittered with such hues, as..his unstimulated imagination had not been able to produce. 1882 Vines tr. Sachs' Bot. 893 The elasticity of the stimulated and of the unstimulated filament is the same.

Unstimulating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

[1828-32 Webster.] 1844 J. Epps Dom. Homœop. 147 Plain, nutritious, unstimulating food. 1899 Fr. H. Burnett De Willoughby Claim xiii, A lifetime of narrow, unstimulating years.

Unsting, v. [Un-2 4] trans. To deprive of a sting.

1612 J. Davies (Heref.) Muse's Sacr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 79/1 God unstings such angry Waspes and Bees. 1656 Trapp Comm. 1 Cor. xv. 56 Christ having unstinged death, and as it were disarmed it. 1692 South Serm. (1697) II. 54 He has disarmed his Afflictions, unsting his Miseries. 1827 Pollok Course T. II. 341 For temporal death, although unstinged, remained. 1850 R. Simpson Meun. Worth vi. 83 [Death] was unstinged when it encountered him.

Hence Unstinged ppl. a. (Cf. Unstung 2.)

1782 J. Brown Nat. & Rev. Relig. iii. ii, An unstinged and sweetened death.

Unstinted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8: see Stint v.)

1480 Cov. Leet Bk. 438 [e seid Maire & Recordor mayntyn the..Frankleyns of pe Forreins..contynually to go vnstynted, and the Commyns of the Cite to be stynted, yf man to passe his rate. 1599 Sandys Europæ Spec. (1632) 41 To all such..as should oppose against his Soveraignticie and unstinted power. 1622 Callis Stat. Sewers (1647) 24 A general Law unstinted and unbarred. a 1711 Ken Hymn Pentin. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 410 Saints..crop unstinted Shares In the twelve pleasant Fruits it bears. 1740 Somerville Hobbinolia iii. 29 With unstinted Joy His Heart o'erflows. 1811 Scott Don Roderick i. ix, Lands, where the near Sun Gives with unstinted boon ethereal flame. 1877 'H. A. Page' De Quincey II. xvi. 20 His unstinted, if not reckless liberality.

Hence Unstintedly adv.

1849 Rock Ch. of Fathers I. i. 8 Both these prelates borrowed unstintedly from the book of St. Osmund. 1883 Standard 13 April 6/4 General Angus..condemns the management unstintedly.

Unstinting, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.]

†1. Unceasing. Obs.[-1]

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 52 Alle angels.., and alle powers in his world,..crien bi vois and unstyntinge to pee.

2. Ungrudging, lavish.

1845 Herschel Ess. (1857) 644 The spirit in which the demands of science have been met..has been..munificent and unstinting. 1883 W. E. Norris No New Thing xi, With so unstinting a hand had he ministered to the necessities of the poor.

Hence Unstintingly adv.

1857 Ruskin Pol. Econ. Art 200 All of these should be completely and unstintingly given. 1888 Agnes Clerke Pop. Hist. Astron. 147 He poured his earnings unstintingly into his crucibles.

Unstirrable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) a 1340 Hampole Psalter, etc. (1884) 506 Made be þai vnstirabil as a stane til þat þi folke pas.

Unstirred, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 706 At a stylle stolleu steuen, vnstered wyth syȝt, Luf lowe hem bytwene lasched so hote. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xlix. (Lucy) 255 Vnsterit scho stud stil as a crug. 1513 Douglas Æneid vii. xi. 53 Vnsterit lang tyme and vnmovit, Itale Now birnis into fury bellicale. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) I.I. 61 Neuir ane ox wes ȝokkit into bow, Bot lay full still into thair stall vnsteird.

β. a 1340 Hampole Psalter xxv. 12 Mi fote..departid not fro þi tystwysynes bot stod vnstird ogeyne alle sclaunders. 1490-1 Rolls of Parl. VI. 223/1 Uncompelled, unstirred or undesired soo to doo. 1551 Recorde Pathw. Knowl. I. xiv, Set the one foote of the same compasse vnstured, in the eande of the other line. 1589 Fleming Virg. Georg. II. 28 Vnstird it doth remaine, And conquereth..by lasting many yeares. 1624 Gataker Transubst. 55 The selfe same body..sitting there still unstirred and untouched. 1628 Feltham Resolves 221 Like the Wind..It disperses Exhalations from the muddy Earth, which would, unstirr'd, infect it. 1699 Bentley Phal. 306 It was immortal Vellum, that could last for ten Ages, though untouch'd and unstirr'd. 1830 Mrs. Hemans Lady of Provence II Many a Chatillon..,Unstirr'd by the ringing trumpet's breath, His shroud of armour wore. 1843 Ruskin Mod. Painters I. ii. v. III. § 27 Glassy pools, upon which the drinking cattle cast an unstirred image. 1882 'Ouida' Maremma I. 192 The ilex leaves..drooping above their heads, unstirred by any breeze.

Unstirring, ppl. a. (Un-1 5 d, 10.)

1. Not causing to stir or give way. rare.[-1]

c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints vii. (Jas. minor) 785 Al vnsteryngе þe stekyne Of þe presone & þe selyngе.

2. Not stirring or moving; inactive.

a 1684 Leighton Comm. 1 Peter iv. (1849) II. 323 A slothful, unstirring life, will make a sickly, unhealthy life. 1818 Milman Samor 1. 210 The dead unstirring ocean bears them on. a 1851 Moir Night-Hawk i, The midnight moon Looks sombred o'er the forest depths, that sleep Unstirring.

Unstitch, v. (Un-2 3.) trans. To remove stitches from; to detach or separate in this way.

1538 Elyot, Resuta..to vnstytche. 1639 T. de Gray Expert Paynter 331 Stop both your hoise eares;..stitch them up, and..[later] unstitch them. 1648 Hexham II, Ontnaeyt, vnsownе, or vnstitcht. 1688 R. L'Estrange Tully's Offices 79 As Wise men say of..Ill Grounded Friendships; 'tis better to unstitch than to tear them all to pieces on a suddain. a 1774 Goldsm. tr. Scarron's Com. Romance (1775) II. 25 When he scuffled with anybody,..he ever tore or unstitched the cloaths of his adversary. 1860 Ure's Dict. Arts (ed. 4) I. 547 After washing, the pieces [of calico] are unstitched, and put in the hydro-extractor.

Unstitched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Not stitched; unsewed.

1599 A. M. tr. Gabelhouer's Bk. Physicke 304/1 Nether doth the sinewe water so greate harme in an vnstitched wounde as it doth in a stitched. 1630 Eliot Ess. (1874) 86 To the typical German. it is indifferent..whether or not his book have every other leaf unstitched.

†Unstithe, a. Obs.[-1] (Un-1 7.) Not strong; feeble, weak. c 1400 Destr. Troy 117 Till it fell hym by fortune, falueyng of ede, Unstithe for to stire, or stightill the Realme.

Unstock, v. (Un-2 5 and 4.)

1. trans. a. To remove (a ship) from the stocks. a 1547 Surrey Æneis iv. 524 Where the Troyans fast Fell to their worke, from the shore to unstock High rigged ships.

b. To dismount (a gun).

1598 Florio, Scalcagnare,..to vnstock, or dismount any kinde of great ordinance or artillerie.

c. To remove the stock from (a gun, etc.).

1706 Phillips (ed. Kersey), To Unstock a Gun, is to take off its Stock. 1726 Shelvocke Voy. round World 70 After we had got well to sea, we unstock'd our anchors and brought them aln. 1849 W. S. Mayo Kalooloh viii, Unstocking my rifle-barrel.

2. To deprive of stock.

1647 Diggs Unlawf. Taking Armes 169 The husbandmans store being consumed, the pastures unstocked,..we shall be devoured by famine. 1669 Waterhouse Fire Lond. 169 Turned out of their callings, and unstocked by the loss of that ruffle.

3. To empty of occupants.

1655 G. S. in Hartlib Refl. Commonw. Bees 28, I am confident, that the Country digestions any considerable time, I had soon unstock[ed] nigh a dozen of Hives. 1855 W. G. Palgrave Arabia II. 328 The conflict of the Roses did not unstock the England of a few years later.

Unstocked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not furnished with a stock.

1388 in Nicolas Hist. Royal Navy (1847) II. 475 La hulk..ove lapparail..v. ankers dont un de eux est unstocked. 1497 Naval Acc. Hen. VII (1896) 290 Serpentynes..stokked cxvj, vnstokked xxv. 1513 N. West in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. I. I. 70 A greate piece of ordenaunce of iij. yerds longe and more, unstocked. 1582 Hakluyt Voy. II. ii. 107 We had nowe but two ankers left vs, which were vnstocked and in hold. 1681 Cal. Treas. Bks., 1681-5, 4 The value of 200 barrels of guns or muskets unstocked. 1805 W. Hunter in Naval Chron. XIII. 8 Our anchors being unstocked, as is the custom in Indiamen,..we found great difficulty in ..steadying them, in order to get the anchors in the stocks.

2. Not provided with a stock of goods.

1633 D. Rogers] Treatise Sacr. i. 161 A poore unstocket man is easily perceived in his wares, the small store and choice thereof.

3. Not stocked with animals, etc.

1697 Walsh Life V. 87 in Dryden Virgil, Wars had laid Italy almost waste; the Ground was Uncultivated and Unstock'd. 1750 T. Carte History of Eng. II. 719 The lands lay uncultivated and the farms unstocked, by reason of..continual depredations. a 1787 G. White Selborne vii, This chase remains un-stocked to this day. 1794 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. I. 24 One bold and inartificial whole, unstocked with animation.

4. (See Stock *sb.*1 44.)

1825 T. Hook Sayings Ser. II. II. 94 While sleepy lacqueys, their hose ungartered, and themselves unstocked, are crawling down the second staircase to breakfast.

Unstockinged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1812 W. Tennant Anster F. II. xxvii, Her roguish boys with bare unstocking'd feet. 1845 Talfoud Vac. Rambles I. 232 They were clad in brown serge, unstockinged.

†Unstoic, v. Obs.[-1] (Un-2 6 b.) 1735 Swift Let. in Maggs Cat. No. 445 (1923) 238, I long apprehended you would have the power to corrupt me. I shall therefore unstoick myself to attend you.

Unstoken, ppl. a. Obs. or dial. (Cf. Unspeken 2.) Opened; not closed or shut. 1421 Hoccleve Min. Poems 151/333 On a nyght..Left was the Erles Chambre dore vnstoken. 1828 Carr Craven Glossa, Unstoken, unshut. Unstolen, ppl. a. (Un-1 8b. Cf. MDu. ongestolen.) 1533 J. Hewood Johan & Tib (Brandl) 246 Yet it may lye safe ynough vnstolen. 1837 Carlyle Misc. Ess. (1840) V. 19 The world would let us keep it unstolen for Fourteen whole years.

Unstone, v. (Un-2 3 and 4.)

1. trans. To convert from a stony state.

1594 Carew Tasso (1881) 49 But let his hand that hardest hurts gently Doth pierce, them both vnstone and mollifie. Ibid. 92 This fained sorrow drew from many a freake True teares, and hards vnstoand most hardened.

2. To castrate.

1611 Cotgr., Escouiller, to geld, lib, vnstone, cut away the stones of. a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais III. xxxi. 255 He had unstoned Friar Caulderiel.

†Unstone'nd, ppl. a. Obs.[-1] (Un-1 8.) Unastonished. c 1475 Golagros & Gaw. 642 Thair wes na stakant vnstonait, so sterne wes the stound! Unstoniness. (Un-1 12. Cf. next.) 1661 J. Childrey Brit. Baconica 49 The unstoniness of the Country. Unsto'ny, a. (Un-1 7.) 1611 Florio, Insassoso, vnstonie, without stones. 1675 Evelyn Terra (1676) 132 The cities of unstony high-ways, where the drift of Cattle, and much passage is.

Unstoo'ping, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1593 Shaks. Rich. II, I. I. 122 The vn-stooping firmenesse of my vpright soule. 1826 Byron Ch. Har. III. xlvii, As stands a lofty mind, Worn, but unstooping to the baser crowd. 1848 Milman Gibbon II. 272 The crash Of branches rent by his unstooping helm. 1869 Ruskin Q. of Air (1874) 17 She wears the crested and unstooping helmet.

Unsto'p, v. [Un-2 3 and 7. Cf. (M)Du. ontstoppen.]

1. trans. To free from being stopped up or closed.

(a) 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. xiii. (Bodl. MS.), Comyn merche vnstoppeþ and openeþ þe spleneand brekeþ þe stone. c 1489 Caxton Sonnes of Aymon xii. 306 He..vnhoundе hym and vnstopped his eyen. c 1561 Veron Free-will 57 b, Except the Lorde did..unstop their eares, and cleare the eyes of theyr myndes. 1584 Cogan Haven Health ix. 32 It maketh ..the bellie laxative, and vnstoppeth the veines. 1611 Bible Isaiah xxxv. 5 Then..the eares of the deafe shalbe vnstopped. 1637 N. Whiting Albino & Bellama 1963 Who will not..Galen try, To weaken humours, and unstop the pores? 1690 Mortimer Quiz. (1723) II. 186 The first thing we did was to unty the Hands of Zoradia's Father, and to unstop his Mouth. 1809 Malkin Gil Blas vii. vii. 7 9 My heart was softened, and my ears unstopped. 1872 Spurgeon Treas. Dav. Ps. ii. 5 He..fears to speak till the Lord unstops his shame-silenced mouth.

(b) 1530 Palsgr. 768/2 Unstoppe nat the bottell tyll we shall drinke on it. 1584 B. R. tr. Heriodotus II. 102 Priuily vnstopping one or two of hys bottles, the wyne flowed out. 1604 E. G[rimstone] D'Acosta's Hist. Indies iv. xii. 241 When the melting is finished, they vnstoppe the pottes and draw forth the mettall. 1645-50 Boate Ireland's Nat. Hist. xvii. § 7 (1652) 138 The Iron it self descendeth to the lowest part of the furnace, called the Hearth; the which being filled,..they unstop the Hearth, and open the mouth thereof. 1660 Boyle New Exp. Phys. Mech. i. 21 To unstop the Valve to let out any Air. 1742 Lond. & Country Brew. i. (ed. 4) 73 In the Spring you must unstop your Vent-hole, and thereby see whether your Drink doth ferment or not. 1758 Reid tr. Macquer's Chym. I. 265 Unstop all the registers of the reverberatory. 1823 J. Badcock Dom. Amusem. 45 If the bottle be stopped, the colour will presently disappear; but when it is unstopped, the colour soon returns again. 1854 Hull Improv. Act 32 [10] make, rebuild, clear out, unstop, or in anywise alter any sewer. 1866 Furnivall Bk. Quinte Essence Amorys, After many days unstop your distiller. transf. 1664 Boyle Exper. Colours 35 Such White Fumes I have seen afforded by unstopping a Liquor.

b. intr. To become opened.

c 1440 Ipomydon 1261 Ipomydon was sore travailed...Hys arme vnstoppid; þe blode gan falle.

2. To pull or draw out (an organ-stop).

1885 Browning Master Hugues 139 Say the word, straight I unstop the Full-Organ, Blare out the mode Palestrina.

3. (See Stop v. 28.)

1840 R. H. Dana Bef. Mast xxv, They were heave-ho-ing, stopping and unstopping, pawling, catting, and fishing for three hours.

Hence Unsto'ping vbl. sb.

1611 Cotgr., Desbouchement, an vnstopping. 1660 Boyle New Exp. Phys. Mech. xxxvii. 314 Upon the unstopping of the Glass. 1676 More Remarks 83 Upon the unstopping of the lower end, all the water..will run down.

Unsto'ppable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

1836 T. Hook G. Gurney v, 'And,' said I, 'you carried home your spoils'. 'Not I,' exclaimed my unstoppable companion. 1899 W. Platt Women 15 A cattle-train—a blind, rolling, unstoppable force.

Unsto'pped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. Sw. ostopad in sense 2.)

1. Not stopped up or closed.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. vii. x. (Bodl. MS.), Þe weies of þe braynе be vnstopped of þat humoure. c 1440 Jacob's Well 216 ȝif ȝoure pyt in his entrees be stylle opyn & vnstoppyd. 1513 Sir E. Howard to Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. I. 149 He hath bored an C agore hoolis in her and left unstopte, that the water cam in. 1599 T. M[ouffet] Silkwormes 58 If also carelessnesse haue left a rift, or chincke vnstopped in thine aged wall. a 1668 Dee Relat. Spir. I. (1659) 419 The hole which was not greater then the thickness of a brick unstopped. 1683 Boyle in Phil. Trans. XVII. 636, I have kept the Bottle of prepar'd Water..in the same unstop'd Vessel. 1738 Ann. Reg., Chron. 96/2 Suffocated.. by the steam of 40 buts of unstopped beer. 1885 J. Nicholson Operat Mechanic 719 Gilding the unstopped parts with the proper amalgam. 1889 Field 24 Dec. 952/2 Our fox ran within short distance of main earths in a wholly unstopped country.

†2. Untroubled. Obs.—
1434 E. E. Wills (1882) 102, iij quisshonus of the same colour vn-stopped.

3. Not stopped or hindered.
1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. iii. (1626) 60 So haue I seene an unstopt torrent glide With quiet waters. Ibid. xv. 319 He mighst, vnstopt, haue entred without feare; But I withstood. 1796 Ann. Reg. 168 Let the frequent wain, unstopp'd by rains, Clear the dry hayfield of its dusky piles! 1803 Edwin I. x. 132 That Edwin is no more, the voice of rumour, unstopped by doubtings, Has long declared. 1816 J. Scott Paris Revisit. (ed. 3) 20 We passed on with our trunks unopened and unstopped.

4. Phonetics. (See Stopped ppl. a. 7.)
1874 H. Sweet in Trans. Philol. Soc. 471 Relaxation: a) stopped consonants to unstopped; . b) unstopped to diphthongal vowel. 1877 — Handbk. Phonetics 78, 79.

5. spec. Of verse-lines: Not ending with a stop.
1874 Furnivall in Trans. New Shakes. Soc. I. 73 Shakspere's often use of the unstopt line.

Unstopper, v. (Un-² 3, 4.)
1839 F. A. Griffiths Artill. Man. 285 [He] runs the carriage up and back, assists to hold on the fall, stoppers and unstoppers it. 1860 Family Economist 7 Jan. 15/2 Unstoppering.—This operation is..likely to be required.., for the stoppers of decanters, smelling-bottles, &c.., frequently become fixed. 1879 Man. Artill. Exerc. 473 Stopper and shift the fall. Unstopper.

Unstopped, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1861 Wynter Soc. Bees 455 An unstopped bottle of ipecachuana. Unstopple, v. (Un-² 3, 4.) 1612 Cotgr., Destouph, vnstoppled, vnstopped. a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais iii. Prol. 6 There did he..unbung it..unstopple it [F. desstoupfort].

Unstore, v. [Un-² 4 and 5.]
1. trans. To deprive of stock.
1618 Bruton Court. & Countryman A 4 b, Your state is weakened and your Land wasted, your woods vntimbered, your Pastures vnstored.

2. To take out of store.
1883 Daily News 18 Sept. 3/3 Until the furniture and other articles ..stored hastily ..have been unstored and examined.

Unstored, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]
1. Not supplied with a store or stores; unfurnished. Const. of, with.
1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 1209 The fields at length lay now untilled, the pastures unstored. 1636 Pagitt Christianogr. (ed. 2) 111 Neither have our Country unstored of reliques. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. ix. 92 And mark thy native orb!..Tho' still unstored with light her silver horn. 1864 Lever Dodd Family Abroad lxxiii. 611 My ungifted and unstored intellect.

2. Not stored up; unhoarded.
a 1770 Akenside Inscriptions, 'Ye powers unseen' 27 Nor shall a passion move Across my bosom unobserv'd, unstor'd By faithful memory.

Unstoried, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1880 Contemp. Rev. Mar. 425 He laid his 'Prentice-hand upon the fair Unstoried smoothness of the column. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 224 Farewell they of the unstoried herd!

Unstormed, pl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1695 Addison To Somers Wks. 1721 I. 7 To you the Hero of my verse reveals His great Designs,..determining the doom Of Towns Unstorm'd, and Battels yet to come. Unstormy, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1823 Byron Age & Bower ii, A calm, unstormy wave, Which oversweeps the world. Unstout, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1545 Ascham Toxoph. 1. (Arb.) 75 Make moche of those shafteſ of youres, for they know neyther stoute nor vnstoute. 1746 D. Graham Written (1883) I. 190 Lam. Lady to resist they seem'd unstout. Unstoved, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1863 Act 26 Vict. c. 22 Refined Sugar unstoved, pounded, crushed, or broken.

Unstow, v. [Un-² 3.] trans. To take out of stowage; to clear (a hold, etc.) of the articles stowed in it.
1726 Shelvocke Voy. round World 75 Half the hold must have been unstow'd to get at them. 1745 P. Thomas Jrnl. Anson's Voy. 106 We..unstow'd the Anchor, to be in Readiness. 1800 Colquhoun Comm. Thames ii. 59 The Lumpers unstowed the casks in the hold. 1836 Kane Arct. Expl. I. x. 122 We have to unstow the hold, and deposit its contents in the store-house. 1891 Labour Commission Gloss., Unstowing or Breaking out, the act of conveying the goods packed in a ship from the place occupied whilst travelling to the squares immediately under the hatchway.

fig. 1748 Smollett Rod. Rand. xii, When they found my hold unstowed, they went all hands to shooling and begging.

Unstowed, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] Not stowed. [1775 Ash.] 1882 Amph. Dict. IV. 519/3 Unstowed cargo or cables.

Unstraight, a. (Un-¹ 7.)
1650 J. Nicoll Diary (Bann Cl.) 39 The unstraight Royall airmy, or these quha foght for the King. 1671 [R. MacWard] True Non-conf. 122 The Church-policie..only holdeth out indirect, unstraight and ambiguous rules, applicable to any forme. 1860 H. Marryat Rest. Jutland I. 8 On the opposite side..rise the tall unstraight church spires.

Unstrainted, ppl. a. rare—. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1846 Worcester (citing Taylor). Unstraightforward, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1887 A. C. Yate Eng. & Russia 443 Blame attaches solely to the Liberal Government then in power, for its tortuous and unstraightforward policy. Unstrait'ening. (Un-¹ 12.) a 1693 Urquhart's Rabelais iii. xliv. 363 The unstraightness is so irregular, or the Corruption so evident.

Unstrain, v. [Un-² 2.] trans. To free from strain; to relax. Chiefly fig.
1616 B. Jonson Masques, Love freed fr. Ignorance, 'Lesse they could the knot vn-straine Of a riddle, which she put. 1650 Fuller Pisgah ii. xi. 236 Since which time the Levites had unstrained their credit by their exemplary zeale against the Idolaters. 1843 E. Jones Sens. & Event 120 Omnipotent sleep shall thy life unstrain. 1883 R. Haldane Workshop Receipts Ser. ii. 198/1 To clean morocco leather, strain well over a board; when dong, unstrain the leathers and dry.

†Unstrainable, a. Sc. Obs. [Un-¹ 7 b + Strain v.?] Not distrainable. 1609 Skene Reg. Maj. Table 62 The Lord of ane vnstrenzeabill tenement, may saise the samine in his awin hands, for the arrierages, and bryunne fermes.

Unstrained, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8, 8 c.]
1. Not subjected to straining or stretching; free from strain. Also fig.
13.. E. E. Allit. P. A. 228 Pensyf, payred, I am for-payned, & þou in a lyf of lykyng lyzte In paradys erde, of syryt vnstrayned. 1612 Dhayton Poly-olb. ix. 418 Taking a milk-white Bull, vnstrained with the yoke. 1690 Child Disc. Trade (ed. 3) 15 The Dutch..could buy our unstrained Cloth, and carry it into Holland, and there strain it. 1882 Minchin Unipl. Kinemat. 126 The ratio of the strained to the unstrained area. 1894 Westm. Gaz. 1 June 1/1 Their loyalty to the Cabinet would be unstrained by the work and worry of an Autumn Session.
transf. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharonnida v. ii. 158 That usurped diadem; which he..beheld without His unstrained reach.

b. With for: Not strained after.
1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) VI. 177 The blush..was a deep-dyed crimson, unstrained for.

2. Not forced or produced by effort.
1580 Stanyhurst Æneis, etc. (Arb.) 152 Heere percase carpers wyl straight his lollityye youthful. Strong reason vnstrayned that weake obiection answeres. 1687 Hakewill Apology Power & Providence of God i. ii. 13 Which [Greek word] by an easie and vnstrained derivation, implies the breath of God. a 1639 T. Carew Poems (1651) 130 The true honest Action, Without some keep naturall unstrain'd Action in her throne. 1776 Mickle Camoens' Lusiad Introd. 140 The most natural unstrained harmony, is the just characteristic of the style of Camoens. 1802 Lamb G. F. Cook Wks. 1908 I. 4 The quality of unstrained mirth ..is a prime feature in his character. 1871 Mrs. Whitney Real Folks xii, The pure, clear spaces where such things seemed to be fit and unstrained. 1898 Contemp. Rev. Aug. 188 Honours, like the gentle rain from heaven, fell upon him unstrained.

3. Not passed through a strainer; not cleared or purified by straining.
1828-32 Webster s.v., Unstrained oil. 1853 Royle Mat. Med. (ed. 2) 477 Press out the juice, and evaporate it, unstrained, to a proper consistence.

Unstraitened, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1665 Glanvill Scepsis Sci. (ed. 2) i. 2 All those enoblements that were suitable to the measures of an unstraightened Goodness. [1755 Johnson, Unstraitened, not contracted.] 1855 Singleton Virgil II. 473 On their lovely shoulders bear they off Their bows unstraitened. Unstrange, a. (Un-¹ 7.) a 1391 Chaucer Astrol. ii. § 17 To knowe the verrey degree of any maner sterre straunge or vnstraunge after his longitude. Unstrangulable, a. (Un-¹ 3 b.) 1824 Lamb Lett. (1886) II. 190 Are we unstrangulable, I ask you?

Unstrap, v. (Un-² 4 b.)
1828 Spearman Brit. Gunner (ed. 2) 278, [No.] 2 unstraps the rammer-head,..and [no.] 4 unstraps the sponge. 1836 Dickens Sk. Boz, Ct. Wrightsbury Dined, Up started the ostlers,..unstrapping, and unchaining, and unbuckling. 1862 Cornhill Mag. V. 34, I had a large cape folded up with my valise; so unstrapping this [etc.].
Hence Unstrapping vbl. sb.
1891 Daily Household Words I. 209/2 She..busies herself with the unstrapping of my knapsack.

Unstrategic, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. iii. iii, The most undiplomatic and unstrategic of these [men].

Unstratified, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1860 Playfair Illustr. Histor. Th. 57 The unstratified minerals exist..in veins intersecting the stratified. 1873 Dawson Earth & Man xi. 269 Boulder clay..is usually destitute of any lamination or subordinate stratification; whence it is often called Unstratified Drift.

Unstretched, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1862 Whyte Melville Good for Nothing I. 101 Her black hair was as yet unstreaked with a line of grey. 1871 Geo. Eliot Middlem. xxxvi, Mrs. Vincy's openness and simplicity were quite unstretched by the occasion.

† Unstrenge, v. Obs. rare. [Un-² 6 a, † + strenge Strengh v.] a. trans. To unstrengthen. b. intr. To lose strength.
a 1225 Leg. Kath. 1260 Is nu se storliche unstrenget ower strengðe..swa þet [etc.] a 1225 Juliana 44 Heo unstrengeð þerwið ant we strengeð on ham.

† Unstrength, sb. Obs. [Un-¹ 12.] Lack of strength; weakness, feebleness.
c 1200 Ormin 1695 Þatt tolle þatt..nohht ne darr 3ot stiþenn upp To follþenn heþe mahhtess.. Forr his flæsshess unnstrennche. a 1225 Ancr. R. 232 We iknowen ure owne febleace & ure owune muchele unstrenceðe. a 1250 Owl & Night. 1 Ich wilnie mi mynre vnstrenþe? 1382 Wyclif 2 Macc. iii. 24 Alle that weren hardye to o þeye to hym..weren togidre turnyd in to vnþynyngye, or vnstrenghe, and inward dreed.

†Unstrengthen, v. Obs. [Un-² 6 b.] trans. To weaken, enfeeble. a 1225 Ancr. R. 138 þis fette kelf haueð þe ueondes strencðe to unstrencðen, & forte makien huwen touward sunne. Ibid. 274 Heo unstrencðeð þe unwhit [v.r. unwichil] & deð him aliuen o fluhte anonrihte.

Unstrengthen, v. [Un-² 6.] trans. To deprive of strength; to weaken.
1598 Florio, Seggliardare,..to enfeeble, to vnstrengthen. 1604 Marston Malcontent ii. iii. D j, If griefe that .. Bedulls the eye, vnstrengthens all the blood, Chance to remoue me to another world. 1890 Talmage From Manger to Throne 44 Encrvated by his long fasting, and doubly unstrengthened by a sudden relaxation.
Hence Unstrengthening vbl. sb.
1623 Sir J. Eliot in J. Forster Life (1864) I. 166 Reason affected not the cries..of the people, nor policy the unstrengthening of the state.

Unstrengthened, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)
1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. viii. § 4 Surely the Church..is neither of capacity..so weak, nor so unstrengthened, I know, with authority from above. 1806-20 Wordsw. Resting-place 3 If we advance unstrengthened by repose. 1836 Going to Service xviii. 233 The thin places left unstrengthened, and broken loops untaken up.

Unstressed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1883 H. Sweet in Trans. Philol. Soc. 212 Not only in most unstrest syllable of polysyllabic words, but also in the unstrest monosyllabic words. Unstressedness. (Un-¹ 12. Cf. prec.) 1894 F. J. Curtis Rimes Curiosus 48 In its unstressedness it was not long t.

Unstretch, v. [Un-² 3, 7.] trans. and intr. To relax, slacken.
1611 Cotgr., Destendre, to vnbend, slacken, vnstretch. 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 75 The mechanism by which the strings of a violin are stretched or unstretch'd. 1888 Philos. Mag. Feb. 109 An annealed iron wire which is being heated when..it is stretched by a slight weight.. suddenly unstretches.
Hence Unstretching vbl. sb.
1611 Cotgr., Destenture, an vnbending, vnstretching, slackening. 1844 Civil Eng. & Arch. Jrnl. VII. 365 The consequent stretching and unstretching [of the rope].

Unstretched, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8, 8 c.) 1648 Hexham II, Ongerecht, Vnstretched, ..or Vneextended. 1698 Dugworth Intell. Syst. 781 A Substance whose Duration is Vnextended or Vnstretched out in Time. Unstrewed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1791 Cowper Iliad viii. 569 On the river's brink..space he found unstrew'd With carcases. Ibid. x. 235 A vacant space..Unstrew'd with bodies of the slain. Unstriated, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1877 Huxley Anat. Inv. Anim. viii. 480 Bundles of muscular fibres, usually unstriated. 1894 Naturalist 239 Numerous small unstriated pebbles.

Unstrick'en, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 b.)
1548 Elyot, Imperciussus, vnstryken. [Also in Baret, Florio, and Hexham.] 1848 T. Aird Nebuchadnezzar i. II, He..lies through night unstricken by the winds. 1863 Kingslake Crimea (ed. 4) II. vi. 137 Those who remained unstricken [by cholera].

Unstridden, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 b.) 1570 Levins Manip. 61 Vnstriden horse, incons[c]ensus. Unstride, v. (Un-² 3.) 1635 Quarles Embl. iii. iii. 2 If the fool untride His prancing Stallion, thou mayst up and ride. Unstridulo'sity. (Un-¹ 12.) 1872 Browning Pr. Hohenst. 1363 Dumb menace in that mouth, Malice in that unstridulosity!

Unstrike, v. [Un-² 9.] (See quot. 1678.)
1614 Latham Falconry i. iii. 10 Then vnstrike her hood, and lure her..with a bitte or two of meate. [1678 Phillips (ed. 4), To Unstrike the hood, in Faulconry, to draw the strings that it may be in a readiness to pull off.] 1852 R. P. Burton Falconry Valley India iii. 26 After slipping the knot that held the jesses to the perch, I gently 'unstruck' my Shikrah's hood, [and] pulled it off.

Unstriking, vbl. sb. (Un-² 3, 8.) 1567 S. P. Dom. Eliz. XLIV. 17 (P.R.O.), The vnstrikinge shavinge Blackinge newe nailinge buckinge and letteringe of..dozeine of corselettes..sore cankered and Rustie. Unstrizing, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 36 The mental eye..will see it ob-cure, unstriking, and no better than common objects. 1885 Mark Twain' Tramp Abroad II. 223 A monotonous variety of unstriking dishes.

Unstring, v. [Un-² 4 and 4 b.]
1. trans. To relax or remove the string(s) of (a lyre, bow, etc.).
(a) 1611 Florio, Discordare,..to vnstring, to vntune. 1621 Burton Anat. Mel. 1. ii. iii. xv, A musitian wil string and vnstring his lute. 1725 Pope Odyssey viii. 107 His golden lyre Demodocus unstrung. a 1774 W. Hamilton Enthusiast xv, Enthusiast, go, unstring thy lyre; In vain thou sing'st. 1869 Spurgeon Treas. Dav. Ps. xxi. 1 Our weakness unstrings our harps, but his strength tunes them anew.
(b) 1707 E. Smith Theatre & Hippodrome 4 His idle Horn on fragrant Mirtles hung, His Arrows scatter'd, and his Bow unstrung. 1833 J. Rennie Alph. Angling 52 Let us suppose that a bow..be bent and unstrung in the water. 1866 Stonehenge' Brit. Rural Sports 507/1 To Unstring the Bow. [Directions follow.]

b. To undo the strings of (a purse). Also absol.
1681 Swearing Master 1 Come Wil, unstring, and pay your Groat. 1689 Roxb. Ball. (1888) IV. 285 Now unstring your purse, and be kind to the poor. 1771 Colman Prose Sev. Occas. (1787) III. 188 To swathe and dress it [he] first unstrings his purse. 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. ix, My father wasn't quite so ready to unstring as some other fathers I know of. 1884 Munch. Exam. 11 June 5/2 They would have to unstring the national purse, and find the money.

2. To detach from a string. Also fig.
1697 Dryden Virg. Past. vi. 29 For want of better Bands His Garland they unstring, and bind his Hands. 1763 Gibbon Misc. Wks. (1814) V. 387 Unstringing the beads from the rosary of antiquity. 1890 R. G. Cunning Hunter's Life S. Africa xvi. I. 367 Having unstrung the dice,..they rattle them between their hands, and drop them on the ground.

b. To detach from union; to separate, sever.
1654 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selfr. 46 So do but unstring my soul and body,..the thing is gone.

3. To render lax or weak; to disorder (the nerves, etc.).
1700 Dryden Ovid's Met. xii. 748 Light was the Wound; but in the Sinew hung The Point; and his disabled Wing unstrung. 1768-74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 273 Terror and trepidation would unstring our nerves. Ibid. 498 So far as to unstring the very sinews of government. 1800 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. IV. 51 The very apprehension..might unstring her nerves. 1817 Shelley Ken. Iteam xi. xx, That voice unstrung his sinews, and he threw His dagger on the ground. 1845 M. Pattison Ess. (1889) I. 26 His conscience must have been unstrung by the..engagement he had made.

b. To unnerve, upset (a person).
1897 Miss F. F. Montresor At Cross Roads ii, I could not live with so much sympathy, it would unstring me.

Hence Unstringing vbl. sb. and ppl. a.
1824 Lady Granville Lett. (1894) I. 256 The fatigue and worry..have been very unstringing. 1833 Ht. Martineau Cinnamon & Pearls ii. 28 It gave more time for the unstringing of his nerves.

Unstringed, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] Not furnished with a string or strings; not arranged on a string. Also transf., not accompanied by music.

1593 Shaks. Rich. II, I. iii. 162 An vnstringed Vyall, or a Harpe. 1599 Nashe Lenten Stuffe D iij b, Or thou wilt commend thy muse to sempiternity, and haue images.. erected to her after the vnstringed silent interment and obsequies. 1655 Spurstowe Wels Salvation 73 Like loose and vnstringed pearles.

Unstri·p, v. Now dial. and rare. [Un-2 9.] trans. To strip.

1596 Warner Alb. Eng. xii. lxxvii. 313 The Oste and Ostlers..Came in where he, almost vnstript, but wholly skar'de, did stand. 1637 R. Ashley tr. Maitresse's David Persecuted 250 Any, to whom he may unstrip himselfe, and discover the secrets of his heart. 1654 Gayton Pleas. Notes iv. xxiv. 287 The Villaine..charg'd Leandra to unstrip her. 1691 T. H[ale] Acc. New Invent. 27 The..continuance of these Ships..in their sheathing, without their being in all that time unstripp'd, for the necessary searching of their bottoms. 1764 Goldsm. Hist. Eng. in Lett. (1772) II. 182 Pretended patriotism unstripped of its mask. 1823 E. Moor Suffolk Words 60a. 1905 Eng. Dial. Dict.

Unstri·ped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

a 1842 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VII. 493 The unstriped variety of muscular fibre. 1859 Todd's Cyclo. Anat. V. 262/1 In man and mammalia the tracheal muscles belong to the unstriped variety. 1888 Garden 28 Jan. 69/2 The unstriped form produces seed resembling in colour.

Unstri·ped, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not stripped; not removed by stripping.

1676 Hobbes Iliad 158 Upon the field unstript they left these two. 1822 J. H. Allan Bridal of Caolchairn 278 An unsafe footway formed of the trunk of trees..unstripped of their bark, and destitute of either plank or rail. 1822 Cobbett Rur. Rides (1830) 19 Here are farmers unable to pay men for working for them...There lie the hop-poles unstripped. 1888 Field 7 Jan. 9/1 Those growers whose crop [of tobacco] is still unstripped from stalks.

Unstri·ving, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1868 W. R. Greg Lit. & Soc. Judgm. 62 Unambitious and unstriving,..he finds that everything conspires to teach him the same lesson.

Unstro·ng, a. Obs. or dial. [OE. unstrang, f. un- Un-1 7 + strang Strong a.] Not strong; feeble, weak. Also absol.

a 900 O. E. Martyrol. 13 Aug. 146 His þrowung wes le lengre..þy þe hyra handa waeron unstrange hine to acwellanne. c 960 Rule St. Benedict (1885) lxiv. 121 Þæt þa strangan forþor wilnien, and þa unstrangan..heora þeowdom ne forfheon. c 1200 Ormin 7911 Mæggdenn child is all unstrang Affter wilmannes kinde. a 1250 Owl & Night. 161 Þu art lutel and vnstrong. 13.. R. Gloucester's Chron. (Rolls) App. G. 49 Her was hunger & þeste; wo was þe vnstronge. 1382 Wyclif 1 Cor. xi. 30 Therfore among 30u manye syke, and vnstronge fele. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xviii. xiii. (Bodl. MS.), Breste plates and oper armure bi þe whiche vnstronge places of mannes bodie beþ warded. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. i. 1110 The chumbures in the bathis may be wrought Ayeyls fele..al though they be vnstronger [v.r. unstronger]. 1868 Atkinson Cleveland Gloss. 551 He's varrey unstrong, puir chap.

Unstru·ck, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b, 8 c.)

1615 J. Taylor (Water P.) Faire & fowle Weather B 3, As a measure full with Oates or Rye Vnstrooke and heap'd, doth lye confusedly. 1705 J. Phillips Blenheim 40 Over dank, and dry, They journey..unstruck with Horror at the sight Of Alpine Ridges bleak. 1728 Young Ocean lv, Who can gaze On restless seas, Unstruck with life's more restless state? 1790 Beaston Nav. & Mil. Mem. I. 251 General Hawley..sent orders to set fire to the tents, which were still unstruck in the camp. 1838 J. Hildyard in Life & Lett. S. Butler (1896) II. 321 Could bring myself to cut-off sheets with me, and insert the few remarks..in them? 1897 Westm. Gaz. 29 July 7/2 The lake seen 'unstruck' matches lying on the shop floor.

Unstrucken, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) c 1620 Fletcher False One ii. 1, If this inhumane stroke be yet unstrucken. Unstrugging, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1822 Milman Martyr of Antioch 65 Bounteous God! That..leaves you..To feed unstrugging the fierce beast of raptine..! 1888 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy 241, I should..rest for ever from the thought of bliss, And wear my weight of life's great chain unstrugging.

Unstrung, ppl. a. [f. Unstring v., or Un-1 8 b.]

1. Having the string(s) relaxed or removed: a. Of a harp, etc.

1598 Florio, Scordato,..put out of tune, vnstrung. 1633 [T. F. Davison] Pa. 137 iii, Our mute harpes, untun'd, unstrung, Up wee hung On greene Willowes. 1694 Prior Hymn to Sun viii, 'Till Nature's Musick lyes unstrung 1738 Wesley Ps. cxxxvii. ii, Our Harps..We cast aside, untun'd, unstrung. 1820 Byron Juan v. xxxvi. (MS.), As silent as an unstrung drum. 1821 Shelley Adonais xxxvi, The song, Whose master's hand is cold, whose silver lyre unstrung. 1871 Macduff Mem. Patmos 333 The unstrung tuneless harp.

trans. 1613 Camden Deser. Lands Moske Wks. (1906) 99 The good old Sage is silence, her free tongue That made such melodie, is now vnstrung. 1646 Crashaw Steps Temple, Ps. 137 21 O may at once my tongue Lose this same busie speaking art, Unpearch't, her vocall Arteries unstrung. 1784 Cowper Task ii. 728 His voice, unstrung, Grew tremulous, and mov'd derision more Than rev'rence.

b. Of a bow. Also = not strung.

1744 W. Whitehead Atys & Adrastus 259 Behind him hung His rat'ling Quiver, and his Bow unstrung. 1797 Encycl. Brit. (ed. 3) II. 209/2 Now the long-bow (when unstrung) may be most conveniently covered. 1831 James Phil. Augustus I. iv, His features..had expanded like an unstrung bow. 1856 FitzGerald Salámán (1879) 69 Salsmán Calls'd for an unstrung Bow—himself the cord Fitted unhelpt.

2. Weakened, relaxed; unnerved.

1692 Dryden Don Sebastian v. iii, These Sinews are not yet so much unstrung, To fail me. 1746 Hervey Medit. Among Tombs 57 The Nervous Arm is unstrung; the brawny Sinews are relaxed. 1794 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. II. 49 In the Sirocco wind at Naples,..the whole system is unstrung, and the nerves seem to lose..their tension. 1847 C. Bronte Y. Eyre xxix, It gave new tone to my unstrung nerves. 1866 Le Fanu All in Dark v, Their entertainer remained behind unstrung and melancholic.

Unstrubbing, vbl. sb. (Un-2 9.) 1778 (W. H. Marshall) Minutes Agric., Digest 85 General reflections on Unstubbing. Unstruccoed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1889 Cent. Dict. XXIII. 645 The houses are built in long low lines of gray, unstuccoed adobe.

Unstu·died, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not meditated on; neglected as a subject of study or research.

c 1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 192 Þus bi þis nouelrie of song is goddis lawe vnstudied & not kepte. † 1608 Reynard's Delin. Fr. Turks in Hart. Misc. (1744) I. 183 There is.. no language, he it never so barbarous, or hard to learn, left unstudied. 1614 in Overbury A Wife, etc. A 4 b, For that word, 'A goodly woman,' Prints it selfe in such a letter That it leaues vnstudied no man.

2. Not having studied; unversed (in something).

1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 15, I..was not unstudied in those authors which are most commended. 1650 Baxter Saints' R. I. vii. 104 Men void of Learning, and strength of parts, unstudied and untaught. 1685 B. Bohun Life Jewell in Apol. 30 That Learned Prelate..was not so unstudied in the nature of Councils, as [etc.]. 1817 Coleridge Lay Serm. 77 The strict, but unstudied and unimpairing, Religious sense of every denomination. 1846 Hawthorne Mosses 85 The young stranger..was not unstudied in the great poem of his country.

† b. Not spent in or devoted to study. Obs.[-1]

1645 Milton Tetrach. Int. A 3 b, To cloak the defects of their unstudied yeers.

3. Not elaborated by study or care; not laboured or artificial.

1657 H. King Poems 122 They bring Course and unstudy'd stuffs for offering. 1674 Hickman Quinquart. Hist. (ed. 2) Ep. A 3 Had I thought so unstudied a scribble meet to be exposed to publick view. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. Ded., A clearness of Notion, express'd in ready and unstudied Words. 1730 Thomson Winter 458 With sense refin'd,..Unstudy'd wit, and humour ever gay. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 57 This scheme was not quite so unstudied as it appeared. 1817 W. Godwin Mandeville I. 207 She expressed herself with the greatest ease, her sentiments were unparrotted and unstudied. 1856 N. Brit. Rev. XXVI. 233 He had a homely,—apparently unstudied mode of expression. 1884 Church Bacon ix. 220 Easy and unstudied as his writing seems.

Unstu·dious, a. (Un-1 7.) Also absol.

1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. i. 9 To live ignorant or unstudious of the laws and constitutions of that great Commonwealth. 1841 Myers Cath. Th. iii. 8/7 64 The boundary line between them is really more indistinct than the unstudious would suppose. 1859 Helps Friends in C. Ser. II. I. 228 Besides, how encrusted their names are with the curses of unstudious boys.

Unstuff, v. (Un-2 3, 4.)

1. trans. To empty (of people).

c 1450 Merlin xx. 358 Moo [men] he myght haue hadde yef he wolde, but he seide he wolde not lete the reame be vnstuffed of peple.

2. To free from being stuffed.

1611 Cotgr., Desestouffer, to emptie, euacuate, vnstuffe. 1675 Han. Woolley Gentlew. Comp. 163 Saffron is a great Cordial, and unstuffs the pipes of the Lungs. 1852 Meanderings of Mem. I. 56 The brain [is] will scavage and the breast unstuff.

Unstuffed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not stuffed; †unfurnished.

1480 Wardr. Acc. Edw. IV, (1830) 131 Pilowe beres off fustian unstuffed, iiij. 1573 Arte of Limning A iij, A little borde..coured with a calues skin raysed or vnderstuffed with wolle or cotte or else vnstuffed. 1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. ii. iii. 37 Where vnbrused youth with vnstuft brains Doth couch his limes, there golden sleepe doth raigne. 1647 H. More Song of Soul ii. To Rdr., If any space be left out unstuff'd with Atoms.

Unstumbled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1399 Langl. Rich. Redeles ii. 82 Ho so had kunnynge and conscience bothe, To stonde vnstombled and stronge in his wittis.

Unstung, ppl. a.[1] [Un-1 8 b.] Not stung.

1615 Goddard Neaste of Waspes F iij, Why howe howe Waspes, are you returned again? I know nothing remaines a worlde of men And therefore once more out. 1807 Crabbe Birth of Flattery 147 Such was the fiend, and so secure of prey, That only Misery pass'd unstung away. 1826 Kirby & Sp. Entomol. xx. I. 203 Some of them flew after me; I escaped however unstung. 1864 Annie Thomas D. Dene III. 135 He knew too that the Bishop knew it also, and was unstung by the knowledge.

Unstung, ppl. a.[2] [f. Unsting v.] Having the sting removed; deprived of the sting.

1671 Janeway (title), Death Unsting; A Sermon [on Rev. xiv. 13] at the funeral of T. Mowsley. 1687 Keswick Serm., etc. (1776) 333 To the believing soul death is unsting.

Unstunned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1797 Coleridge Osorio iii. 1. 11 What ear unstun'd..might bear up against The rushing of your congregated wings? † Unsturted, ppl. a. Sc. [Un-1 8.] Undisturbed. 1535 Stewart Cron. Scot. (Rolls) III. 265 To the third day the parteis baith did ly Into thair tentis wnsurtit richt still. Unsty, v. (Un-2 5.) 1614 Markham Cheap Husb. i. i. 90 The orderliest feeding of Swine is..in the Morning early when you vnstie them [sic.]. Unsty·lish, a. (Un-1 7.) 1863 Mrs. Whitney F. Gartney's Girlh. vi, Her respectable but somewhat unstylish figure and dress.

Unsubdu·able, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1611 Cotgr., Insuiuicible,..vnsubduable, vnconquerable. 1622 W. Whately God's Husb. II. 108 The most mischieuous, ..and but by his strength vnsubduable corruptions of their nature. 1810 Southey Kehama xviii. v, Her Father's eye.. spake.. Stern patience unsubduable by pain. 1840 Carlyle Heroes iv. (1858) 291 Unsubduable granite, piercing for and wide into the Heavens! 1878 P. Bayne Purit. Rev. xi. 499 An unsubduable capacity to make the best of things.

Unsubdued, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1590 Spenser F. Q. III. iii. 38 Tafflict the other Saxons vnsubdued. a 1628 F. Grevil Sidney (1652) 99 The yet unsubdued Princes of Germany. c 1630 Sanderson Serm. II. 312 There may link in our hearts some secret noysome lust undiscovered, and so unsubdued. 1712 Blackmore Creation iv. 1, If dread of death still unsubdued remains. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 170 His passions unsubdued, unpacified. 1831 James Phil. Augustus II. iv, The still unsubdued rage of the bishop. 1823 Cornelius Horace, Odes iv. xiv. 8 They know thee now, thy strength in war, Those unsubdued Vindelici.

absol. 1835 Milman Nala & Damayanti 32 In his wicked thought the dastard—her yet powerless to subdue, Or the unsubdued stood gazing.

Hence Unsubdu·edness.

a 1655 Goodwin Filled w. the Spirit vi. (1670) 141 Weakness in Faith,..unsubdudness of the Flesh. a 1732 T. Boston Crook in Lot (1860) 165 Unsubduedness of spirit. 1839 Pusey in Liddon Life (1893) II. 142 Vanity, unsubduedness, self in some form, has been the source of all heresy. 1878 Abp. Benson Let. in Life (1901) 176 It is, I am afraid, inferior unsubduedness.

Unsu·bject, a. (Un-1 7.)

1382 Wyclif Heb. ii. 8 In that thing that he sugetide alle thingis to him, he lefte no thing vnsuget [v.r. vnsugetted] to him. 1583 Golding Calvin on Deut. xxviii. 281 Not any of vs..can excuse himselfe to bee vnsubject to such naughtinesse. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. I. xx. § 4. 204 Above the highest moueable sphere there is nothing which feeleth alteration,..but all things immutable, vnsubject to passion. 1652 Benlowes Theaph. v. lxiii. 75 'Tis but a Creature, though its Essence be To change unsubject. 1692 Penn Spir. Truth Vind. 36 Perhaps he hath followed an Erronious Judgment, or Unsubject Affection. 1754 Miss Boothby in Life Johnson (1805) 75 Thus is whirled about this little machine [= Miss Boothby], which...contains a mind unsubject to rotation. 1788 D. Gilson Serm. Pract. Subj. xiii. 368 Were the residence of man unsubject to mutation. 1842 Tennyson Will Waterproof 85 My head, Which bears a season'd brain about, Unsubject to confusion. 1881 Clelland Epch. Express. & Sens. x, No doubt spirit seems a vague and intangible entity because unsubject to those methods.

Unsubject, v. (Un-2 6 b.) 1647 Digges Unlawf. Taking Arms 114 Women cannot vnmarry, nor the people unsubject themselves. Unsubjectable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1829 Bentham Corr. Wks. 1843 X1. 29 Statements unsubjected and unsubjectable to the test of cross-examination.

Unsubjected, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

138. [see Unsubject a.] 1513 Douglas Æneid VII. vii. 67 All cuttie wmbeklyt wonnis our vnsubjected. 1692 Musick U. Teckely III. 83 There remain'd nothing but Mongats unsubjected to the Emperor. 1697 C. Leslie Snake in Grass (ed. 2) 252 This shews them..the utter Inconsistency of that Principle (to use their own Word) of an Unsubjected Light within, to all Rule, Order, or Good Government. 1798 Akenside Ode to Gentlemen Eng. x, Shall war's heroic arts no more engage The unbought hand, the unsubjected mind? 1800 Coleridge Piccolom. i. xii, A new army Unsubjected to my control. 1823 Scott Quentin D. i, Wild beasts.. who, if unsubjected by his arts, would..have torn him [sc. the keeper] to pieces. 1829 Southey Sir T. More I. 269 The unsubjected natives..recovered the greater part of their country.

Hence Unsubjectedness.

1682 Penn Salut. Faithful. Friends 5 Such as these,..by a loose Conversation, or Highmindedness and Unsubjectedness cause grief.

Unsubjection. (Un-1 12 and 5 b.) a 1633 Bining Sinner's Sench. xx. Wks. (1735) 271 His Unsubjection and unsubmissive Disposition towards the good Pleasure of the Lord. 1658 Manton Exp. Jude iv. 227 Which argueth much unsubjection of heart to Christ. Unsubjectlike, a. and adv. (Un-1 7 e, 11 b.) 1590 Acts Priv. Counc. (1899) XIX. 406 Lady Broome lyveth soe disorderly and unsubjectlyke. 1606 Br. J. King Serm. Sept. 21 A forrest of the most..vnchristian, vnsubject-like practises, that ever were heard of. Unsubjugate, v. (Un-1 3.) 1824 Sir H. Taylor Artevelde ii. v. ii, Those powers by this nocturnal inroad wild Surprised.., vainly I essayed To rally and unsubjugate. Unsubjugated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1829 Lytton Athens I. 216 Babylon alone remained unsubjugated by the Mede. Unsubli·mable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1753 Chambers' Cycl. Suppl. s.v. Sublimable, Those things, which render unsublimable bodies sublimable. 1803 Phil. Trans. XCIII. 28 An apparent sublimation of the common flowers of zinc at the instant of their production, though totally unsublimable afterwards.

Unsubli·med, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1694 Salmon Bate's Dispens. 416/2 Some prepare it..with the crude Sulphur and unsublimed Salt. Ibid. 670/1 The unsublimed Sal-Ammoniac. 1711 Phil. Trans. IXI. 195 Any solution or combination of tin, unsublimed or undistilled. 1814 Scott Waav. xxiii, A simple and unsublimed taste now, like my own, would perfer a jet d'eau at Versailles to this cascade.

Unsubmerged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1883 Century Mag. XXVII. 188 Only a thin scattered fringe of bluffs was unsubmerged. Unsubmersible, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1891 W. K. Brooks Oyster 58 Two beautiful unsubmersible claires [= oyster-tanks].

Unsubmi·ssion. (Un-1 12.)

1845 Jane Robinson Whitehall II. 252 After this evidence of unsubmission, he was detained..a close prisoner. 1865 Pusey Eirenicon 1. 1 A spiritual disease, which is part of man's unsubmission to his God.

Unsubmi·ssive, a. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)

a 1653 [see Unsubjection]. a 1716 South Serm. (1744) X. v. 154 A stubborn unsubmissive frame of spirit in men. 1849 Eastwick Dry Leaves 55 [He] would hardly brook a band of unsubmissive strangers so near his own throne. 1868 Lynch Rivulet cxxv. ii, The lord of quarrel..And unsubmissive will.

Hence Unsubmi·ssiveness.

Also unsubmissively adv. (Webster, 1847).

1868 Pusey Serm. Pharisaism 7 Heresy, unbelief, misbelief, unsubmissiveness,..spring from pride.

Unsubmi·tting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1730 Thomson Autumn 840 A generous race Of unsubmit-

ting spirit. 1783 W. F. Martyn Geog. Mag. II. 366 Those unsubmitting heroes. a 1796 Burns All Saints as I am 5 The honest man.., Whose unsubmitting heart was all his crime. a 1835 Mrs. Hemans Abencerrage III. viii, Heroic spirits, unsubmitting yet. Ibid. xviii, A sterner tone of unsubmitting pride.

† Unsubordinate, a. Obs. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.)

1641 Milton Reform. II. 66 A certaine unquestionable Patriarchat, independant and unsubordinate to the Crowne. 1678 Cudworth Intell. Syst. I. 5 b, An Absolute, Independent, and Unsubordinate Co-quality. 1709 Steffens Crosby Sermons (1711) II. 335 Perpetual Strifes..shew either no Controul, or several uncontroul'd and unsubordinate Powers in Nature.

Unsubordinated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1658 Br. Reynolds Lord's Supper xii. Wks. 600 There was no Schism in the Body, no part unsubordinated, no part separated from the rest. † Unsubordinately, adv. Obs. (Un-1 11, 5 b. Cf. Unsubordinate a.) 1634 Br. Reynolds Shieldes of Earth (1656) 19 This belongeth only unto Princes (and that independently, and unsubordinately to any higher power or person, save God). † Unsubordination. Obs. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) 1656 Jeanes Mixt. Schol. Div. 43 This is a sufficient argument, that in the manner of the soules being there is an unsubordination unto all second causes.

Unsubornednessness, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1656 Osborne Observ. Turks 3 Such marks of Worship.., as he was pleased to impresse upon their yet unsubverted imaginations. 1689 Hickeringill Ceremony-Monger Concl. ii, The Legislative Power Unsubornd by Priestcraft). 1754 Hume Hist. Eng. I. 467 The very heretics were bribed with unsubverted taxes. 1797 Burke Regic. Peace iii. 30 Such a tone .. is the true, unsubverted, unsophisticated language of genuine natural feeling.

† Unsubs-presbytery. Obs. (Un-1 12.) 1659 Gauden Tears Ch. 449 Factions, confusions are the genuine fruites of an un-sub-Presbytery.

Unsubscribed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1571 Be. Lesley in Bercher Nobility Women (Roxb.) 26 Those Letters .. were unsubscribd. 1639 Fuller Holy War III. viii. 122 A concealed Christian, with letters unsubscribed with any name, gave them .. intelligence. 1682 Scarlett Exchanges 358 Bills unsubscribed are like Bonds without Seals, and are not obligatory at all. 1754 Richardson Grandison V. 356 A call for supper makes me leave my paper unsubscribed. 1791 Cowper Let. to W. Bagot 21 Sept., He had sold..a hundred of the unsubscribed-for copies.

Unsubscribing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1790 Cowper Let. to Y. Hill 17 Sept., The sum subscribed..will defray the expense of printing; which is as much as, in the unsubscribing days, I had any reason to promise myself. 1837 Westm. Rev. July 73 As far as the unsubscribing public were concerned. 1851 H. B. Wolff Hadriania 50 Three rows of benches, where the bourgeoisie and unsubscribing portion of the aristocracy can take places.

Unsubservient, a. (Un-1 8.) 1656 Bramhall Replic. II. 84 These observations..are so innocent, so indifferent, and so unsubservient to either party, that I hoped they might pass without any censure. Unsubsided, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1804 Eugenia de Acton Tale without Title III. 192 Their joy was mixed with a still unsubsided surprise. 1815 Scott Guy M. xxxix, The froth of the last draught of twopenny yet unsubsided on his upper lip.

Unsubsidized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1756 World No. 204 P 2 Certain unsubsidized pamphleteers. 1807 Sydn. Smith Lett. Catholics iv, The winds, those ancient and unsubsidized allies of England. 1875 N. Amer. Rev. CXX. 125 The criticism and denunciation of the unsubsidized press.

Unsubsistence. (Un-1 12, 5 b.) 1642 D. Rogers Naaman 180 From the old yrkesomenesse, vanity, bondage and unsubsistence. Unsubstantial, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1658 [see Unsinewy]. 1838 S. Bellamy Betrayal 162 A vasty world of form Unsubstanc'd.

Unsubstantial, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.]

1. Having no real basis or foundation in fact.

c 1455 Pecock Folower 214 Pe dyversite..was not but in worldi cord and in fame of pe peple, wiboute pe troub, which ful oft is founde fui vntrewe, vnsubstancial and perilose. 1715 Rowe Lady Jane Gray iv. 48 The vain Dream Of Empire, and a Crown, .. With all those unsubstantial empty Forms. 1776 Gibbon Decl. & F. xiii. I. 399 These deep but unsubstantial meditations. 1810 Southey Kehama VII. xi, Nor build on unsubstantial hope thy trust. 1833–4 J. Phillips Geol. in Encycl. Metrop. (1845) VI. 688/2 Every new, fanciful, and unsubstantial theory. 1883 Sir H. Cotton in Law Rep. 11 Q. B. Div. 532 If the counter-claim is frivolous and unsubstantial.

2. Having no bodily or material substance.

1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. v. iii. 103 Shall I beleeue that vnsubstantiall death is amorous? 1605 — Lear IV. i. 7 Welcome then, Thou vnsubstantiall aire that I embrace. 1671 Milton P. R. IV. 399 Darkness..brought in lowring night Her shadowy off-spring, unsubstantial both. 1742 Young Nt. Th. IX. 118 What lengths of far-fam'd ages.. roll along In unsubstantial images of air! 1794 G. Adams Nat. & Exp. Philos. III. xxix. 198 Time and space, which in themselves are unsubstantial, inanimate, and destitute of intelligence. 1827 Pollok Course T. III. 412 Of all the phantoms, .. Most unsubstantial, unessential shade, Was earthly Fame. 1871 L. Stephen Playgr. Eur. ii. 82 Hill and plain, apparently unsubstantial as a mountain mist. 1885 R. Bridges Eros & Psyche I. vi, To man's purer unsubstantial part The brightness of her presence was addressed.

b. Lacking in substance or solidity. Also Comb.

1617 Hieron Wks. II. xxvi. 363 If you shall pill it (sc. a rush), what is vnder it but a kind of spongious, vnsubstantiall substance? 1773 Cook's Voy. III. xi. III. 690 They taste not unlike a green cocoa-nut, and, like them, probably they yield a nutriment that is watry and unsubstantial. 1825 J. Neal Bro. Jonathan II. 195 Wasted away, in her unsubstantial proportions. 1864 Dickens Aetner Notes (1850) 18/1 The suburbs are ..even more unsubstantial-looking than the city. 1848 Mill Pol. Econ. I. xii § 3. 203 We can scarcely conceive more unsubstantial or temporary fabrics.

Hence Unsubstantialness.

1869 Pusey Min. Proph. 165 The unsubstantialness of it all; the unsubstantiality of his idea.

Unsubstantiality. [f. prec.] The quality of being unsubstantial; insubstantiality.

1838 A. Cussold Pract. Nature 182 If we allow this doctrine of unsubstantiality to prevail. 1847 C. Bronte J. Eyre xxiv, Something of unsubstantiality and uncertainty had beset my hopes. 1860 [see prec.]. 1883 Fortn. Rev. Apr. 569, I have no consciousness of what happened, after this feeling of unsubstantiality came upon me.

Unsubstantialize, v. (Un-2 6 c.) 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. IX. 66 While the gross and visible frame of things.. seems All unsubstantialized. 1869 S. Brooke Tempsin 148 The sudden unsubstantialising of the outward world.. was Wordsworth's frequent feeling. Unsubstantially, adv. (Un-2 11.) 1529 Act at Hen. VIII, c. 16 § 1 Wares whiche they untruely, subtely, unsubstancially, and dyscyeffully have made. [1847 Webster.] Unsubstantiate, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1890 Cath. News 3 May 4/3 A second glance ..is enough to expose the unsubstantiate fraud.

Unsubstantiate, v. [Un-1 6.] trans. To divest of substance; to render unsubstantial.

1799 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 284 Death!—that..so unsubstantiates the living things that one has grasped. 1819 Chalmers Congregat. Serm. (1836) I. 345 You unsubstantiate all the solemnity of his proclaimed sayings. 1881 Fraser Berkeley 91 The premises that unsubstantiate matter, they would argue, unsubstantiate everything.

Unsubstantiated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1837 Ht. Martineau Soc. Amer. II. 139 An unsubstantiated rumour of his having been seen conversing with slaves. 1880 Froude Hist. Eng. II. 46 Wolsey..set aside these unsubstantiated rumours.

Unsubstantiation. (Un-1 12.) 1881 Fraser Berkeley 201 [Berkeley] would probably have been satisfied with this acknowledgment, as a sufficient unsubstantiation of matter.

Unsubtle, a. (Un-1 7.) a 1500 Ratis Raving 1. 877 For sen [?read few] vnsubtill that are fals Eschapis vnhyngyt be the hals.

Unsubverted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. III. 149 Pyramid Of Egypt, unsubverted, undissolved. 1835 Kirby Hab. & Inst. Anim. I. v. 186 The reefs of coral that were left unsubverted. 1872 Berkeley Cottery of Mossthorn xxiv. 245 Invested with much of the feeling and understanding of unsubverted human nature.

Unsuccedable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. I. ii. 6 Whereof had he remained assured, he had continued silent, nor would his discretion attempt so unsuccedable a resolution. Unsucceded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1667 Milton P. L. v. 821 To binde with Laws the free, And equal over equals to let Reigne, One over all with unsucceeded power. 1831 T. Hope Ess. Origin Man III. 292 To many a man the storms of life they remain unsucceeded by a serene sunset. Unsucceding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1639 Fuller Holy War IV. xxix. 220 None will willingly father unsuccedding villany. 1661 Boyle Certain Physiol. Ess. (1669) 75 The Second Essay Of Un-succeeding Experiments.

Unsuccess. [Un-1 12 and 5 b.] Lack of success, failure; an instance of this.

a 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. viii, He deemed his unsuccesse [1590 unsucceeding] proceeded of their unwillingnes to have him prosper. 1607 Nicholas Bacon (Camden) II. 292 The late busines, whose vnsuccess, as hee thought, wolde proone of aduantage to Cromwell. 1710 Strype Life & Acts of E. Grindal vii. 70 These Unsuccesses were justly looked upon to proceed from the punishing Hand of Heaven. 1797 J. Pinkerton Hist. Scotland I. 86 Fortune preserved his government from any signal unsuccess. 1837 Miss Mitford Country Stories (1850) 129 Chilled by so much unsuccess, the colour of my pursuit began to abate. 1873 Swinburne Misc. (1886) 128 The definitions he gives us of his object and the tests which these offer of his success and unsuccess.

Unsuccessful, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.] Not attended by, not meeting or attaining, success. a. Of actions, endeavours, etc.

1617 Morwyn Hist. 11. 48 Griefe of vnsuccessefull loue. 1651 Baxter Infant Baptism 161 They are cited by Concadus Bergius in his most excellent Pacificatory (though hitherto much unsuccessfull) Treatise. 1689 Dryden Spiritual & P. I. 6 These..seem to have taken with them, which I hope have not been unsuccessful, or unworthy of my author. 1744 Berkeley Siris § 6 Which trials I never knew unsuccessful. 1809 Coleridge Friend 37 An unsuccessful attempt to deceive him. 1837 Lockhart Scott II. xii. 407 Mr. Southey's application was unsuccessful. 1863 W. C. Baldwin Afr. Hunting vii. 300, I have shot nothing; two hard unsuccessful days.

b. Of persons.

1669 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. II. 1. 309 The unsuccessful rebel thus secured By speedy flight. 1714 Addison Spect. No. 592 P 1 Which, as I am informed, are the Plays of many unsuccessful Poets artificially cut and shreaded for that Use. 1790 Burke Rev. & Mil. Mem. I. 100 To be unsuccessful or unfortunate, is generally to be criminal in the opinion of mankind. 1828 Lytton Pelham II. x, My unsuccessful opponent..preferred a petition against me, for what he called unfair means. 1890 R. Boldrewood Col. Reformer (1891) 154 If a man doesn't make money..he is regarded only as an unpractical, unsuccessful enthusiast.

absol. 1759 Johnson Rambler No. 87 P 9 The unsuccessful vent their discontent upon those that excel them. 1898 H. S. Merriman Roden's Corner IV, So many sail to those distant havens of the unsuccessful.

Unsuccessfully, adv. [Un-1 11. Cf. prec.] Without success.

1649 J. H. Motion to Parl. Adv. Learn. 35 Propensions.. which if disobeyed succeeded untowardly and unsuccessfully. 1664 Dryden Rival Ladies Ep. Ded. P 2 Fortune.. with which wisdom does often unsuccessfully struggle in the world. a 1674 Milton Free Commw. Wks. 1851 V. 425 Nor was the heroic Cause unsuccessfully defended to all Christendom, against the Tongue of a famous and thought invincible Adversary. a 1721 Sheffield (Dk. Buckhm.) Wks. (1753) II. 177 Several letters shew his punctual performance of it, tho' unsuccessfully. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe xxv, Thus your suit, then, been unsuccessfully paid to the Saxon heiress? 1873 Proctor Expanse Heav. 287 Our short-lived race..has..not unsuccessfully carried out the daring scheme [etc.].

Unsuccessfulness. (Un-1 12 and 5 b.)

c 1630 Sanderson Serm. (1681) 307 The weakness, frailty, and unsuccessfulness of mens devices. 1687 Boyle Martyr. Theodora ix. 171 The unsuccessfulness he had hitherto met with in his attempt. 1742 Johnson's Debates (1787) II. 107 The unsuccessfulness of their endeavours. 1761 Sterne Tr. Shandy IV. vi, When recollecting the unsuccessfulness of his first effort in that attitude. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. III. iv. vi, Custine was..found guilty..of one thing, unsuccessfulness.

† Unsuccessible, a. Obs.—1 (Un-1 7.) Not admitting of succession. 1579 Fulke Refut. Rastel 736 So great blasphemie, as none can lightly be greater,..because it taketh away the eternall and vnsuccessible priesthood of Christ.

† Unsuccessing, obl. ch. (See Unsuccess, quot. a. 1586.)

† Unsuccessive, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.]

† 1. Unsuccessful. Obs.—1

1617 Woodall Surg. Mate Pref. (1639) B 6 b, To keepe a lour nall in writing..as well of the unsuccessive applications, as of the successive.

2. Not exhibiting succession.

1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. 245 Although we be measured by the Zone of time,..yet can we not thus..summe up the unsuccessive and stable duration of God. a 1676 Hale Prim. Orig. Man. I. iii. 90 Such parts of the visible Creature as are incorruptible, and unalterable, and unsuccessive. 1737 A. Baxter Enq. Nat. Human Soul 375 If this necessary Being hath no change or succession in his nature, his existence must of course be successive. 1811 A. M'Lean Comm. Heb. Wks. 1847 I. 281 He hath an unsuccessive priesthood, which passeth not from him to any other.

Hence Unsuccessively adv., † unsuccessfully.

1707 Lond. Gaz. No. 4333/4 The Union with Scotland,.. so often..unsuccessively attempted,..is the Joy..of all Your Subjects.

Unsuccessiveness. (Un-1 12. Cf. prec.) 1737 A. Baxter Eng. Nature Human Soul 375 On the other hand, it is, I think, scarce intelligible, to apply this successiveness or unsuccessiveness (so to speak) to time itself, or to eternity, abstractedly taken. Unsuccourable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1593 Sidney's Arcadia (1598) IV. 414 That in the ende some one or other might hap to do an vnsuccourable mischiefe. 1599 Sandys Europæ Spec. (1605) 4 A an vnexplicable & vnsuccourable calamitie. 1611 Florio, Insoccorevole, vnsuccourable.

Unsuccoured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1422 Yong tr. Secreta Secret. 183 He shal be vnsoccorid whan he moste nede hath. 1596 Spenser F. Q. IV. viii. 51 Him wretched Dyall vnto his death brought, Where he remaines, of all vnsuccour'd and vnsought. 1616 W. Browne Brit. Past. II. v. 342, I have beheld A widow vine stand..Unprop't, unsuccoured, by stake or tree. 1660 Gentl. Calling v. 78 The many unsuccour'd extremities of the Poor. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. VII. 225 He..Hems on all sides the long unsuccour'd place. 1864 Realm 17 Feb. 5 Is Germany to leave her kindred unsuccoured, because they cannot be counted by millions?

Unsuccumbing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) a 1833 Mrs. Browning Tempest ad fin., High-seeming Death, I..have hope.. of showing to thy face An unsuccumbing spirit. Unsucked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1652 Brome City Wit IV. i, Were's not a sin to let such a foole passe unsuckt? 1667 Milton P. L. IX. 583 The Teats Of Ewe or Goat dropping with Milk at Even, Unsuckt of Lamb or Kid.

Unsued, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1594 W. West and Ct. Symbolography, Chancerie § 139 It can not be intended, that..he would have left the elder bond and debt, being of a greater summe, unsued for. 1616 T. Adams Soules Sicknesse 27 Gilianus..rewarded deserts wisdom to. 1629 Massinger Picture I. 1, I will not leave a saint unsued to For your protection. 1842 Wordsw. Poems p. x, Such is the grace Which, though unsued for, fails not to descend With heavenly inspiration.

† Unsufferability. (Un-1 12.) Incapacity of suffering.

c 1425 A. Rary of Vigniee I. v. 38 in Anglia VIII. 137 Sihe lafte pe manhede of Cristie, and helde vp hir mynde to pe godhede & magesteſ, þat she myghte fynde comforte in his vnsufferabilite.

Unsufferable, a. and adv. Now rare or Obs. [Un-1 7 b, 11 b, 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being suffered with patience or equanimity; not to be tolerated or endured; going beyond all natural limits: a. Of injuries, wrongs, etc.

a 1325 MS. Rawl. B. 520 fol. 31 b, We undoinde so muche vnsufferable luere of oure poeple, stabblissez ant ordeinez [etc.]. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 On-sufferabyl, or ontollerable, intolerabilis, insufferabilis. c 1449 Pecock Repr. III. xvii. 305 Ellis vnsufferable mysceiuys of hasty domes wolde ofte falle. 1533 Bellenden Livy I. xviii. (S.T.S.) I. 100 Pe haterent and vnsufferabil tyrannye of kingis. 1597 Hooker Eccl. Pol. v. xxx. § 3 We know no reason wherefore any man should yet imagine it an vnsufferable euill. 1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 301 To call them to accompt..for these vnsufferable wrongs. 1660 Jer. Taylor Doctor I. ii. rule 8 § 50 The injustice may be frequent and unsufferable. 1725 Pope Odyssey iv. 69 Unsufferable wrong Cries to the Gods, and vengeance sleeps too long. 1763 Lo. Halifax in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 361 The Outrages..are most abominable and unsufferable.

b. Of actions, conduct, qualities, etc.

1548 Gest Pr. Masse D ij, What an vnsufferable mockedge is this..of God. 1582–3 Reg. Privy Council Scot. III. 541 A power strange and unsufferabill to be in the persoun of ony inferior subject. 1608 Machin Dumb Knt. V. I 3, Thine adulterat, lust, Shamefull and grosse and most vnsufferable. 1651 Biggs New Disp. P 250 Unsufferable fallacies..are couched under these four. 1711 Steele Spect. No. 38 P 10 The unsufferable Affectation you are guilty of in all you say and do. 1720 Swift Let. to Yng. Clergyman Wks. 1755 II. 12 The common unsufferable cant of taking all occasions to disparage the heathen philosophers. a 1774 Goldsm. tr. Scarron's Com. Romance (1775) I. 27 Upon these vast accomplishments, he had built an unsufferable degree of pride.

c. Of persons. Also absol.

1382 WYCLIF 2 Macc. viii. 5 Machabeus..was maad vnsufferable to heithen men; forsothe the wrath of the Lord is conuertid in to mercye. c 1450 HOLLAND Houlate 926 Thir birdis ilkane Besocht Natur to cess that vnsufferable. c 1470 HENRY Wallace I. 267 Vnsouerable are thir pepille of Ingland. 1586 T. B. La Primaudaye Fr. Acad. I. 112 The more that an ignorant man is lift up unto some excellencie of dignitie..., the more unsufferable he is. 1619 A. NEWMAN Pleas. Vis. (1840) 49 All know (vnsufferable Man) they [sc. women] are..beyond compare. 1798 Mrs. BEHN Sir F. Fancy I. i, The pertest unsufferable fool he ever saw.

2. Too distressing, severe, or painful to be borne; going beyond the limits of physical endurance: a. Of outward things.

a 1340 HAMPOLE Psalter cxlvii. 6 As wha say, vnsufferabil ware pat kald, if he lesid it noght. 1382 WYCLIF Num. xi. 10 Thanne Moyses herde the puple weyynge li meynes,.. and to Moyses it was seen a thing vnsufrable [L. intolerandu]. 1395 PURVEY Remonstr. (1851) 22 Thei wolen putten to a man confessid to hein, greuouse chargis and vnsuffirable. 1544 BETHAM Precepts Wary. cxciii. G i] b, They were ashamed, that they dydde not abyde suche lyke labours, yea and moche more vnsufferable. 1562 TURNER Baths 8 An unsufferable rayniye, windye, or colde weather. 1613 PURCHAS Pilgrimage (1614) 720 The high ridges..are vnsufferable for cold. 1658 T. WALL Charact. Enemies Ch. 53 [To] lie under the..dreadful apprehensions, or unsufferable strokes of divine wrath. 1729 SAVAGE Wanderer II. 90 Like noon-tide summer-suns the rays appear, Unsuff'rable, magnificent and near! 1742 Lond. & Country Brew. III. (1743) 202 An unsufferable, ill paled oily Juice, that will spoil all the Liquor. 1869 SPURGEON Types. David Ps. xviii. 6 The king heard it in his palace of light unsufferable.

b. Of pain, grief, fear, etc.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. III. pr. vii. 79 Grete sekenesse and ..grete sorwes vnsufrable. 1388 WYCLIF Judith xiv. 17 Vnsufrable drede and tremblyng felde doun on hem. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 40 Pe sorowe is feld as it war vnsufferable ychyng. c 1425 St. Christina xvi. in Anglia VIII. 125 She was stired of god vnto an vnsufferabil priste. c 1445 PECOCK Donet 71 For easing of his vnsufrable felschil treedie. a 1589 FALKESWAM Baldwin's Mor. Philos. (1600) 140 b, Conscience..worketh..vnsufferable torments,..to the condempnation of the vngodly. 1595 CLERKE Polimanteia S j b, To my vnsufferable and vnpitied griefe. 1639 S. DU VERDUS tr. Camus' Admir. Events 301 A torture vnsufferable unto this young gentlewoman. 1700 BLACKMORE Job 138 My fullness gives unsufferable pain. 1721 DE FOE Hist. Plague (1754) 261 The unsufferable Torment of the Swellings.

† 3. Incapable of self-restraint. Obs.—1

1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) V. 61 þis was a swiþe evil man,..and he was unsufferable of leccherie [L. libidinis impatientissimus].

† 4. Not involving suffering. Obs.—1

1548 GEST Pr. Masse C vj, They greuously erre, who hold opinion yᵉ our faulies ar pardoned through theyr vnsufferable & vnbloudy sacrificing of christes bodi.

† 5. Incompatible. Obs.—

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. x, Eternity, and Chaunce are things unsufferable together.

† 6. As adv. = UNSUFFERABLY adv. 1. Obs.

c 1420 Prose Life Alex. 76 Than commanded Alexander þat þay schuld make many fyres. For it began for to be vnsufferable calde. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xi. ¶ 23 Sometimes the Inck proves so unsufferable Pale, that [etc.].

Hence Unsufferableness.

1611 FLORIO, Inpatibilita, vnsufferablenesse. 1677 HORNECK Gt. Law Consid. iv. 175 His passions..represent to his mind..the unsufferableness of the disgrace. 1679 KID in Hickes Spirit of Popery (1680) 2 There is something in a Christians condition, that can never put him without the reach of unsufferableness.

Unsufferably, adv. [UN-¹ 11 and 5 b.]

1. Intolerably; unendurably.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 On-suffrably..,intollerabiliter. 1644 PEYNNE & WALLER Firmus's Trial App. 20 Captain Bagnall..was baffled unsufferably by the Defendant..before the Councell. 1662 PEPYS Diary 31 May, [His mother] being so unsufferably foolish and simple. 1702 ECHARD Eccl. Hist. I. vi 138 Finding his Soul unsufferably oppress'd. 1797 DR FOE Hist. Appar. iv. (1840) 28 Saturn and Jupiter are uncomfortably dark, unsufferably cold.

† 2. Without suffering. Obs.—1

1548 GEST Pr. Masse C vj b, We ar already redemed..by yᵉ ones offe.ing of christ neiuer to be vnsufferably & euer yethier sufferablye or vnsufferably, bloudely or vnbloudely.

† Unsufferance. Obs. [UN-¹ 12.]

1. Impatience.

a 1400 Spec. Vitæ (MS. Bodl. 2685) f. 1. 79 þe syns of þe hert bene þese :..vnconable gladnes, Vnsufrance & werldly drerines.

2. Impassiveness.

1611 FLORIO, Inpassibilità, vnsufferance. 1625 GILL Sacr. Philos. iv. 32 That Stoicall vnsufferance of His mind, which Clemens Alex[andrinus]..thought not to bee subject either to joy or sorrow.

Unsuffered, ppl. a. [UN-¹ 8.]

1. Not suffered; unendured.

1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasmus' Par. 2 Cor. 52 b, For your welth I leaue nothyng vndone and vnsuffered. [1775 ASH.]

† 2. Unsufferable. Obs.

c 1611 CHAPMAN Iliad III. 6 Eschuing the vnsufferd stormes, shot from the winters starre. Ibid. VIII. 108 O Father Ioue, hath euer yet thy most vn-suffred hand Afflicted, with such spoile of soules, the king of any land? Ibid. XI. 530, XIX. 357.

† Unsuffering, vbl. sb. Obs.—1 [UN-¹ 13.] Impossibility of enduring. 1382 WYCLIF 2 Macc. ix. 10 No man miste beere hym, for vnsuffryng [L. intolerantiam] of stynke.

Unsuffering, ppl. a. [UN-¹ 10, 5 d.]

1. Not permitting or enduring. rare.

1568 Reg. Privy Council Scot. I. 626 Vnsufferand the said Johnne..to be supportit..be the said hous. 1570 LEVINS Manip. 137 Vnsuffering, impatiens.

2. Not undergoing suffering.

1717 ATTERBURY Serm. (1737) III. 153 Can a man so treated ..be said to be in an vnsuffering state? 1736 THOMSON Hymn Seasons 73 For Great Jehovah's Delights! And His unsuffering kingdom yet will come. 1838 H. BLUNT Sev. Ch. Asia 24 To an extent, to which the fairest mansion of the unsuffering Christian is utterly a stranger.

Unsufficed, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.)

1586 L. LLOYD Pilgr. Perfection 13 Yet vnsufficed here with hee sitte the Queenes owne sonne. a 1644 QUARLES Sol. Recant. vi. 3 Who multiply their loynes and years, yet have Souls unsuffic'd and cloyd. c 1850 NEALE Hymns East. Ch. (1866) 102 Hell fire fierce and unsufficed.

† Unsufficience. Obs. (UN-¹ 12, 5 b.) 1445 in Wars Eng. in France (1861) I. 467 Letters..deliverede for paiement into the Staple, and for unsufficience..refusede. c 1455 PECOCK Folewer 121 Vnsufficience of kunnyng longyng to enyʒ etie. † Unsufficiences. pl. a. (UN-¹ 4, 8.) Obs. a 1661 FULLER Life Smith (1675) b 2, Allowing dispensation to such who were unsufficienced by weakness.

† Unsufficiency. Obs. (UN-¹ 12 and 5 b.)

1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong, Incompetence, not meete or fitte for, vnsufficiencie. 1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. II. viii. § 3 The vnsufficiencie of the light of Nature. 1597 Ibid. v. lxxxi. § 14 There are Clulll as well as Ecclesiastical Vnsufficiencies, Non-residences, and Pluralities. 1625 T. GOODWIN Moses & Aaron iv. 177 The Arabians perceiuing the vnsufficiency of their knowne gods, dedicated their altars, Ignoto Deo. 1661 K. W. Conf. Charac., [Empirick] (1860) 65 The weakness and unsufficiency of other doctors.

† Unsufficient, a. Obs. [UN-¹ 7 and 5 b.]

1. = INSUFFICIENT a. 1.

1395 PURVEY Remonstr. (1851) 82 It is not declarid..that the clerk was vnsufficient, neither vnable. c 1445 PECOCK Donet 145 And panne, wherto schulde þe sufficient be lefte, and þe vnsufficient be taken,..in a purpos so necessarye? c 1450 Myrr. of Ladye 237 We ought to knowe oure selfe vnsuffycyente & therfore pray for helpe. a 1513 FABYAN Chron. vi. cxlix. 136 Consyderynge the vnablenesse of Hilderich the kynge, that he was vnsufficient to rule so greate a Cyrcumpasse. a 1548 CAPGRAVE Chron. 160 Pe commendacyon of Gods holy scripture..I am farre vnsufficient therto. a 1617 HIERON Wks. (1619) II. 474 This miserie of hauing none among them but an vnseasoning and vnsufficient minister. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Eph. I. iii. 9 Being unprovided, or unsufficient for higher speculations.

2. = INSUFFICIENT a. 2.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. XVII. i. (Bodl. MS.) fol. 185 b, Also in some trene þe [humoure] is vnsufficiaunte and vnperfect. 1484 CAXTON (Arb.) 109 Wyne of olde woman euer may be seyde of hyt by mannys mowthe, ful lytyl hyt ys, and onsufficient to expresse the loy of myne herte. 1551 ROBINSON tr. More's Utopia I. (1895) 96 He perceiued the same stocke of money to be to lite, and vnsufficient. 1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. v. lx. § 7 When vnder vnsufficient pretences wee defraude them of such ordinarie outward helpes as wee should exhibit. 1625 GILL Sacr. Philos. Pref., You say that reason is an vnsufficient meane, and vnable to bring vs to the knowledge of those things. 1693 DRAKE Mist. Schol. Div. 5 Our Saviour's discourse sheweth, that these were weak and unsufficient grounds.

Hence † Unsufficiently adv.; -ness. Obs.

1398 TREVISA Barth. De P. R. VII. xxxi. (Bodl. MS.), Wiannne þe spittes be ipressed with a boccoun, þe spittes be hert *vnsufficiantlich of aier. c 1440 Alph. Tales 143 One of þe cardynals when he hard þis, began to gruche agayn þe pope, & said he demyd vnsufficienlie. c 1455 PECOCK Folewer 204 Wilis y wolde graunte hat y vnsufficienli nombrid þe poyntis of goddis lawe in þe..tablis. a 1600 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. VI. vi. § 13 Absolving of unsufficiently disposed penitents. 1685 PETTY Will p. v, The admeasurement of the lands..was most unsufficiently and absurdly managed. 1533 Reg. Mag. Sig. Scot. 286/2 Sua that oure soverane lord and his liegis be nocht begylit tharewith anent the *vnsufficiencies of the samyn.

† Unsufficiance. Obs. (UN-¹ 12, 5 b.) = INSUFFISANCE. c 1400 Pilgr. Sowle (Caxton) I. xviii. 19 Yf I personely shold not be herde..for myn vnsuffysaunce. † Unsufficient, sb. Obs. [Cf. next.] Insufficiency. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) VII. 381 Pe seide iuge Iryng William, wolde have depreved hym for vnsufficient [tr. unsuffysant; L. insufficientiam] of letture. 1425 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 267 Ye grete unabilte and unsufficiante, that the same Wauter felte in hymself. † Unsufficisant, a. Obs. [UN-¹ 7, 5 b.] = INSUFFISANT a. c 1400 26 Pol. Poems 136 Though I be, lorde, vnsuffisaunte, Any helpe to gete of the, Yet..Parce michi, domine! 1423 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 255 Thoo werkes of Brouderie there founden unsufficisant. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. v. 196 Oryuys grete ease of þat lond wol ysaw. With drasty, watry fruyt. Onsufficisant the costis forto acquyte.

Unsu·ffocate, v. (UN-¹ 3.) 1818 BYRON Juan I. CXXX, Like the apparatus Of the Humane Society's beginning, By which men are unsuffocated gratis. Unsu·ffocative, a. (UN-¹ 7.) 1822 GOOD Study Med. I. 536 When this difficulty [of breathing] is moderate and unsuffocative.

Unsu·gared, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.)

1592 NASHE Four Lett. Confut. B iij, Your vnsugred pilles ..would not haue beene so harsh in the swallowing. 1626 BACON Sylva § 883 Trie it with Sugar put into Water, formerly Sugred; And into other Water Vnsugred. 1872 Daily News 11 Feb., They may hereafter have an unsugared pill to swallow.

Unsugge·stive, a. (UN-¹ 7).

1797 LAMB Let. to Coleridge 10 Jan., My eyes are heavy and sleepy, and my brain unsuggestive. 1866 MARK LEMON F. Lyle II. 198 A single cup and saucer,..a diminutive teapot!—so unsuggestive of the pleasant gossip with which 'taking tea' is generally associated. 1900 Daily News 23 Feb. 5/2 The design was unsuggestive of date.

Hence Unsugge·stiveness.

1858 Household Words XIX. 181/2 An expression of countenance which..was a combination of aggression and pronounced patience, with a dogged unsuggestiveness.

† Unsu·ing, vbl. sb. Obs.—1 [UN-¹ 13.] Lack of agreement. c 1425 Saints' Lives in Anglia VIII. 195/25 Vnsuynge of englyshe, as vinwhile soperen, opere-while norpen.

† Unsui·t, a. Obs.—1 [UN-¹ 7. Unfitting. 1704 J. BLAIR in W. S. Perry Hist. Coll. Amer. Col. Ch. (1870) I. 135 Aspersed with the most unsuitest imputations as it had been raising sedition or rebellion.

Unsui·t, v. [UN-¹ 14.]

1. trans. To be at variance with.

1635 QUARLES Embl. IV. xv. 241 The sprightly Twang of the melodious Lute Agrees not with my voice; and both unsuit My untuo'd fortunes.

2. To render unsuitable.

1869 Pall Mall G. 8 July 3/2 The health of the former cripple unsuiting her for convent life. 1902 Daily Chron. 8 Dec. 8/5 Their training..completely unsuits them for the proper performance of the duties.

Unsuitabi·lity. (UN-¹ 12, 5 b. Cf. next.)

1814 MRS. J. WEST Alicia de Lacy III. 220 The unsuitability of her white glittering dress for such a purpose. 1866 DICKENS Lett. (1880) II. 249 A limited reference to its unsuitability to these pages [of All the Year Round]. 1880 A. R. WALLACE Isl. Life 102 Anomalies of distribution other than such as may be connected with unsuitability of climate.

Unsui·table, a. (UN-¹ 7 b and 5 b.)

1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. v. xxxviii. § 3 Wanton, or light or vnsuiteable harmonie, such as only pleaseth the eare. 1601 SHAKS. All's Well I. i. 170 Virginitie like an olde Courtier, weares her cap out of fashion, richly suited, but vnsuitable. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Reft. I. iii, I make him but very unsuitable Returns for the Blessings..I have receiv'd. 1671 MILTON P. R. III. 132 Hard recompence, unsuitable return For so much good, so much beneficence. 1831 JAMES Phil. Augustus II. iv, At so unsuitable an hour. 1869 TOZER Highl. Turkey II. 346 The expression..would hardly appear unsuitable. 1890 'R. BOLDERWOOD' Col. Reformer (1891) 216 He thought him nothing unsuitable as a companion.

b. Const. to or for.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xxiii, An unkinde answere,.. but not unsuitable to the rest of your behaviour. 1601 SHAKS. Twel. N. II. v. 222 Hee will smile vpon her, which will now be as vnsuitable to her disposition,..that [etc.]. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. III. xlii. 293 Their ordinary maintenance was not unsuitable to their employment. 1768–74 TUCKER Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 547 If our devotion be overstrained it becomes unsuitable for practice. 1780 Mirror No. 94, A train of thinking..neither unpleasing nor unsuitable to the character of a rational being. a 1834 COLERIDGE Lit. Rem. (1838) III. 382 Never did so wise a man adopt means so unsuitable to his end. 1879 HARLAN Eyesight ix. 131 Ground-glass globes are condemned..as unsuitable for school purposes.

Unsui·tableness. (UN-¹ 12.)

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. vii, The unsuitableness of a weake broken voice to high brave wordes. 1644 MILTON Areop. (Arch.) 73 To suppresse opinions for the newness, or the unsutablenes to a customary acceptance. a 1697 SOUTH Serm. (1715) II. 167 The real Unsuitableness, that every thing sinful, or dishonest, bears to the Nature of Man. 1754 EDWARDS Freed. Will VIII. 1. 1776 THE Unsuitableness of such a Necessity to the Liberty..of the divine Being. 1845 LD. CAMPBELL Chancellors lxxxiii. (1857) IV. 135 From the unsuitableness of his manner and style he is not..entertaining. 1886 Leeds Mercury Tinor LXXXII. 173/4 Those who allege my unsuitableness for the high position I now hold.

Unsui·tably, adv. (UN-¹ 11.)

1624 GATAKER Transubst. 198 Their religion indeed being ..patched together out of olde condemned heresies and unsuitably composed. 1674 SOUTH Serm. IV. 120 That natural..Sensibility of Mind, which renders them apprehensive of any Thing done unsuitably to their Nature. 1774 WARTON Hist. Eng. Poetry I. 396 The modern monuments unsuitably placed in Westminster Abbey. 1859 Habits of Gt. Society iii. 143 He has never attempted to dress..unsuitably to his station. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 27 Aug. 2/1 When a girl marries unsuitably.

Unsui·ted, ppl. a. [UN-¹ 8, 8 d.]

† 1. Not sued for. Obs. rare—1.

1599 Exer. Aberd. Reg. (1871) 38 Sindrie our subjectis ..suspening gryt loss..in thair persones and gudes, be the piracie of Ingland, quhilkis..hes lyin ouer vnsuted for.

2. Not suited or adapted; unfitted, unfit.

1598 Sidney's Astr. & Stella II, My heart..is euen irkt that so sweet a Comedie, By such vnsuted speech should hindred be. 1657 AUSTEN Fruit Trees II. 74 I beseech you his waies often so unsuited to the apprehension of men. 1677 GILPIN Demonol. III. ix. 55 A work..such as had neither bee unsuited to the power of Christ, nor unlawful in it self. 1819 SCOTT Ivanhoe xliv, Like a garment unsuited to the climate in which I seek to dwell. 1847 SMEATON Builder's Man. 142 It is unsuited for the purpose to which it is applied. 1861 BUCKLE Civilis. II. i. 136 The municipal privileges..being unsuited to the habits of the people.

b. Not accommodated or supplied.

1796 BURKE Let. Noble Lord Wks. VIII. 59 So that no constitution-fancier may go unsuited from his shop.

Unsui·ting, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 10.)

1596 HARINGTON Metam. Ajax I 2 b, Yet I will end with this good counsel, not vnsuiting to the text I haue thus long talked of. 1604 SHAKS. Oth. IV. i. 78 (Q. 1), A passion most vnsuiting such a man. 1639 FULLER Holy War v. xix. 261 The armie will be very heterogeneous, patched up of different people vnsuiting in their manners. 1668 DRYDEN Lucretius III. 161 Leave those joys, unsuiting to thy age, To a fresh Comer. 1852 M. ARNOLD Human Life 16 Winds from our side the unsuiting consort rive.

Unsu·llen, a. (UN-¹ 7.) 1605 MARSTON Dutch Courtezan II. i, What liarty gratefulnes, Unsulleine silence, unffected modesty. Unsu·lliable, a. (UN-¹ 7 b.) 1766 J. MACGOWAN Death (1814) 360 Blessed afflictions, which..have fitted me for those unsulliable mansions of uninterrupted felicity! 1881 Contemph. Rev. 568 One block of long white light unsullyable Glows in deep azure.

Unsu·llied, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.)

1588 SHAKS. L. L. L. V. ii. 352 By my maiden honor, yet as pure As the vnsullied Lilly. 1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. III. (1626) 56 The linked Deities their Graces fix! Where Roses with vnsullied Lillyes mix! 1727 LADY M. W. MONTAGU Let. to C'tess of Mar 18 April, That lovely bloom of complexion, unsullied by art. 1755 J. G. COOPER Tomb Shakes. 26 Here

Fancy sat, (her dewy fingers cold Decking with flow'rets fresh th'unsullied sod). Lytton Pelham I. xiv, Gloves of most unsullied doe-skin. 1863 M. J. BERKELEY Brit. Mosses I. 3 Stems, of a clear unsullied green.

b. In fig. use.

1659 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Pharon. Ded., My more yonthful labours..passed the public view unsullied by the cloudy aspect of the most critic spectator. 1665 MANLEY Grotius' Law C. Wars 123 His Mind, that never was greedy after Wealth, and, in that respect, unsullied and upright. 1743 FRANCIS tr. Hor., Odes IV. v. 29 Nobly conscious of unsullied Fame. 1774 W. WHITEHEAD Poems II. 172 The pure unsullied thoughts, and sallies of our souls. 1849 MACAULAY Hist. Eng. II. 247 In the midst of a corrupt court he had kept his personal integrity unsullied. 1879 FARRAR St. Paul I. 256 The unsullied sanctity of Jehovah's Temple.

Hence Unsullidness.

1863 MRS. WHITNEY F. Gartney's Girlh. xx, Her sweet look and fair unsulliedness of attire. 1865 W. H. GILLESPIE Arg. Being & Attrib. God IV. ii. (1871) 142 Holiness is moral stainlessness, spotlessness, unsulliedness.

Unsu·lphurated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 a.) 1825 J. NICHOLSON Operat. Mechanic 768 About as much [gold] as was reserved unsulphurated from the mass. Unsulphu·reous, a. (UN-1 7) 1781 Philosophical Brit. x. 493/1 To separate Mercury out of an unsulphureous Ore by distillation. Unsulphurized, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 a.) 1846 Mechanic's Mag. 4 July 4/2 Gutta percha either sulphurised or unsulphurised. Unsunny, a. (UN-1 7) 1823 J. WILSON Noctes Ambr. (1855) I. 170 On a chosen day of cloudless sunshine, yet unsultry air. Unsu·mmable, a. (UN-1 7 b.) 1667 WATERHOUSE Fire Lond. 112 A Mart of Trade and a Mine of Wealth, (of which I mention not one of his last twenty-six years by Sums unsummable, would be incredible).

Unsu·mmed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not summed up; uncounted.

a 1400–50 Alexander 1991 For na pis sede þat I send vnsoumed [var. vnsowmyd] is euer, So ben we..vnnowmyd. 1579 Richmond Wills (Surtees) XXVI. 208 Some of these gold and money above written. By those unsomed iij c. iijli. vjs. viijd. 1649 G. DANIEL Trinarch., Hen. IV, cclxiv, The wise Man has an vnsumm'd Library; Himselfe and Man, and Books, are all his Bodies. 1771 MASON Eng. Garden I. 18 Engrossing madness; yet pursu'd With pains unwearied, with expense unsumm'd. 1791 COWPER Iliad II. 568 So the Grecians swarm'd An unsumm'd multitude o'er all the plain. 1857 H. MILLER Test. Rocks VI. 299 Armed with the experience in one of unsummed ages. 1869 M'LAREN Serm. Sect. II. xi. 194 After unsummed eternities of advance.

†2. (See quot. and cf. SUMMED 1.) Obs. rare.

1615 LATHAM Falconry ¶ 3 b, Vnsumm'd is when a Hawkes feathers are not come forth, or els not com'd home to their full length.

Unsu·mmered, a. (UN-1 9.) 1879 TENNYSON Pref. Poem to Brother's Sonn. III. Poems (1894) 574/1 And, now to these unsummer'd skies The summer bird is still. Unsu·mmer-like, adj. (UN-1 7 c.) 1865 Chamb. Jrnl. Oct. 615/2 The unsumm'erly summer of eighteen sixty-nine. 1880 Cassell's Mag. 440 Another unsummer-like fashion. 1883 MISS BOUGHTON Belinda IV. ii, A chill and unsummerlike night.

†Unsu·mmoned, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1474 Acta Dominii. (1839) 38/2 Henry..protestit þat þe decrete..suld turne him to na preiudice because he was vnsummond. 1480 Acta Dom. Conc. (1839) 55/2 The lordis.. ordanis him to hafe lettres to summond his pruifis þat is vnsummond gifis be oys hais. 1652 Trans. Purple Island x. xli, The lazie sense still sleeps, vnsummon'd with his drum. 1673 DRYDEN Marr. à la Mode IV. v, Like an unsummon'd guest. 1763 MALLET Elvira III. iii, She [is]..unsummon'd too To this high task. a 1800 COWPER Odyss. (ed. 2) XXII. 551 Then bid Penelope with her attendants down, Nor leave unsummon'd one of all the train. 1839 MRS. JAMESON Visits & Sk. II. 74 Those whom the rules of etiquette allowed to approach unsummoned and pay their respects. 1860 FORSTER Gr. Remonstr. 31 An unsummoned tenant.. could not take his place in the Council.

Unsu·mmoning, vbl. sb. (UN-1 8.) 1692 in Nichols Hist. Leics. (1804) IV. 386 Paid a gratuity for summoning and unsummoning. Unsumptuary, a. (UN-1 7.) 1792-1 Lett. fr. Miss's Jrnl. (1792) I. 83 Should rigid unsumptuary Laws pass the House (etc.).

Unsundered, ppl. a. [UN-1 8. Cf. MDu. ongesondert, MLG., MHG. ungesundert (G. ungesondert).] Not parted or separated.

1594 NASHE Unfort. Trav. H iij b, Those silver pipes, .by many edged vnsundred writhings.., strayed from bough to bough. 1609 HEYWOOD Brit. Troy v, xxiv, The stout Centaures came..They seemd at first halfe horse halfe man vnsundred. [Also in Mundus, Sherwood, and Hexham, a.]

†Unsunderly, adv. Obs. (UN-1 12.) Inseparably. c 1440 Gesta Rom. xliv. 174 Late vs in this wordle be so vnsundirlye couplid to the holye trenitee, that (etc.).

Unsung, ppl. a. [UN-1 8 b. Cf. MHG. and G. ungesungen, Sw. osjungen.]

1. Not sung; not uttered by singing.

1424–6 in Cal. Pres. to Chanc. Eliz. (1827) I. Introd. 20 It wer better bell unrogne at pe saunties tyme þan pe messe unsogne. 1539 Abst. Protocols Town Clerks Glasgow (1897) IV. 118 Geif it faillies to be left on-sung þne nychtis togidder. 1623 W. BROME Brit. Poet. I. i, 8 Drawne by time..To sing those layes as yet unsung of any. 1843 CARLYLE Past & Pr. III. v, Thy Epic, unsung in words, is written in huge characters on the face of this Planet. 1860 FARRR Bethlehem 100 Numbers were unlanguaged and unsung Magnificats. 1889 STEVENSON South Seas III. vi. (1900) 265 [They] gave up the unsung remainder of their ballet.

2. Not celebrated in or by song.

1667 MILTON P. L. VII. 253 Thus was the first Day..: Nor past uncelebrated, nor unsung By the Celestial Quires. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis VII. 1014 Nor Cibalus, shalt thou be left unsung. 1701 ADDISON Let. from Italy 14 Here, not a mountain rears its head unsung. 1743 YOUNG Nt. Th. IX. 533 Why doubt we, then, the glorious truth to sing, Tho' yet unsung, as deem'd perhaps, too bold? 1865 [see UNSHONOURED]. 1868 CARLYLE Misc. (1840) I. 343 A thousand battle-fields remain unsung. 1875 F. L. SCUDAMORE Day-Dreams 10 It is one of the unsung beauties of the earth.

Unsu·nk, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.)

a 1300 Cursor M. 2847 Es noþer leued, ne tre, ne gress, Ne nathing of batland vn-sonken [var. vn-sunkyn, vnsunke]. c 1386 CHAUCER Prologue Pr. LXIX. vi, Keepe me safe vnsunck, unmyred. 1611 SPEED Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xii. § 56 Not halfe of their Shippes escaped vntaken or vnsuncke. a 1687 H. MORE Conject. Cabbal. (1713) 77 The Angels and the Souls of Men vnsunk into generation. [Ibid. All Souls as they descend εἰς γένεσιν.] c 1740 A. HILL To Author of 'Pamela' 28 What..Though taste like thine each void of time can fill, Unsunk by spleen. 1824 BYRON Juan XVI. xciv, The Sinking Church unfathomable sea..leaves The debt unsunk, yet sinks all it receives. 1837 CARLYLE Fr. Rev. I. II. iv, Nimble old man, who..in the worst confusion will emerge, cork-like, unsunk.

Unsu·nned, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not penetrated or reached by sunlight; not exposed or accessible to the sun.

1607 TOURNEUR Rev. Trag. III. F 2, [I] did wish his impudent grace To meete her here in this vn-sunned-lodge. 1634 MILTON Comus 398 The unsun'd heaps Of Misers treasure. 1652 BENLOWES Theoph. x. lxxvi, Why start ye? Unlock thy unsun'd hoard. 1759 MASON Caractacus 22 The unsun'd silver of the mine. 1797 COLERIDGE Limetree Bower 14 That branchless ash, Unsun'd and damp. 1866 R. MANT Poems, Country Gent. I. 32 Where..horror shagges the unsun'd precipice. 1866 PLOR. NIGHTINGALE Nursing IX. 49 The unsunned sides of narrow streets. 1889 JEAN INGELOW Sleep of Sigismund XXXVIII, With name unsaid and fame unsunned He walks that was King Sigismund.

b. fig. Not made patent or public.

1899–2 WORDSW. Excurs. VII. 281 With his cheerful throng Of open projects, and his inward hoard Of unsunned griefs. 1821 J. HODGSON in J. Raine Mem. (1857) I. 347 He has promised to communicate to our Society some very curious and unsunned letters of Lord Dacre's. 1862 Athenæum 30 Aug. 278 The unsunned historical treasures in the possession of the London Corporation.

2. Not touched or affected by the light or heat of the sun. Also fig.

1611 SHAKS. Cymb. II. v. 13, I thought her As Chaste, as unsun'd Snowe. 1795 SOUTHEY Pis. Hand of Orleans I. 31 As white as unsun'd snow, Or as the spotless lily of the vale. 1820 Ellen Fitzarthur 54 Crystal drops of unsunned dew. 1843 F. E. PAGET Warden of Berkinghold 119 The unsunned purity..of the Master of Berkinghold Union.

b. Not coloured or tanned by the sun.

1821 CRAIG Lect. Drawing, etc. vi. 344 The dark, yet clear, complexion of the Italians, which would ill suit an unsunned English faces. 1829 WILLIS Pencillings I. xlix, 80 They venture to drop their jealous veils and ramble about in their unsunned beauty. 1882 Century Mag. XXV. 103 A lady..[with] pure, unsunned complexion.

fig. 1830 TENNYSON Confess. Sensit. Mind 140 In my morn of youth, The unsun'd freshness of my strength.

3. Not lighted up by the sun. Also fig.

1840 LADY C. BURY Hist. of Flirtrxvi, Her still countenance unsunned by a smile. a 1864 HAWTHORNE Amer. Note-Bks. (1879) I. 56 All the near landscape lay unsunned. 1874 FARRAR Christ II. lix. 350 The unsunned outer darkness of miserable self-condemnation.

Unsu·nny, a. (UN-1 7.) 1859 TENNYSON Pelleas & Etarre 178 We marvel at thee much, O damsel, wearing this unsunny face To him who won thee glory. 1860 FARR Bethlehem ii. (1865) 87 The warm air of the noon has heated the unsunny forest. †Un-su·n-seen, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 d.) 1654 BLOUNT Acad. Elog. 48 An un-Sun-seen cave. †Unsu·nshine, v. (UN-1 6 b.) 1659 FULLER Ch. Inf. Tract III. 31 Military preparations..must needs give our Nation great troubles, and (for the time) un-Sunshine England.

†Unsuperable, a. Obs. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 241 The vnsuperable loss & goodnes of god. 1637 MINSHEW Ex. (fetters in Sherwood). 1544 DIGBY Nat. Bodies I. § 4. 3 It..is the occasion of exceeding great errours, and entangleth one in vnsuperable difficulties. 1777 POTTER Æschylus, Agamemnon 293 To wear The form of friendship, and with circling wiles Inclose him in th' unsuperable net.

Unsupe·rfluous, a. (UN-1 7.)

1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. lxii. 11 How unsuperfluous this warning is, wee learne by daylye experience. 1634 MILTON Comus 723 Natures full blessings would be well dispenc't In unsuperfluous even proportion. 1832 L. HUNT Poems 197 Swans..which..glide With unsuperfluous lift of their proud wings. 1842 J. WILSON Chr. North (1857) I. 141 Not another but unsuperfluous fare is theirs.

Unsuperscri·bed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) a 1711 KEN Sion Poet. Wks. 1721 IV. 390 A silken Cord around his Neck was hung, At which unsuperscrib'd a Letter hung. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa I. 163 [A] letter..from my mother, unsealed, and unsuperscribed also. Unsupersede·d, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1857 TOULMIN SMITH Parish 133 The anomalies that have hence arisen leave the action of the Parish unsuperseded. 1890 R. BOLDREWOOD' Col. Reformer (1892) 162 That much-abused but as yet unsuperseded garb. Unsuperstitious, a. (UN-1 7.) 1652 SPARKE 1 rim. Devot. (1660) 469 This kinde of Sortilegium was usual with Antiquity, such an undeceitful, and unsuperstitious Lottery. 1663 Diocesan Mag. Sept. 291 If we consult history in an unprejudiced, un-superstitious spirit. Unsupervised, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1899 Educat. Rev. Dec. 470 He is, unsupervised, irresponsible. [Common in recent use.]

Unsu·pped, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Without having supped; supperless.

1382 WYCLIF Dan. vi. 18 The kyng..slepte vnsoupid [L. incenatus], and metis be not brouȝt to byfore hym. 1483 Cath. Angl. 350/2 Vn Soupped, incenatus. 1508 KENNEDIE Flyting m. Dunbar 382 Sic reule gerris the..sill vnsoupit oft besond the sey. c 1563 Jack Jugler in Four Old Plays (1848) 42, I wolde gladly byne vnsupped, soo you had your fyll. 1609 BIBLE (DOUAY) Dan. vi. 18 The king went to his house, and slept unsupped. 1824 [see UNSLEEP 1].

Unsupplanted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1708 J. PHILIPS Cyder II. 384 Gladsome they quaff,..[and] well bedew'd repair Each to his Home with unsupplanted Feet. Unsupple, a. (UN-1 7.) G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. II. (1626) 43 Against shee struggl'd to have stood on end; But, those vnsupple sinewes would not bend. Unsup pled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1762 EARL PEMBROKE Milit. Equitation (1762) 8 A raw, unsupplied, and unprepared lad, who is put at once upon a rough horse.

Unsuppli·able, a. (UN-1 7 b.)

1638 CHILLINGW. Relig. Prot. I. ii. § 67. 77 The unsupplicable defect of any necessary Antecedent. 1793 HOLCROFT tr. Lavater's Physiog. VI. 42 Are they not equally indispensable, equally unsupplicable? 1820–22 BARRINGTON Action. Judic. Evid. (1827) III. 413 Why admit it, under the danger of incorrigible incorrectness and unsupplyable incompleteness?

Unsupplicated, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1634 BP. HALL Contempl., N. T. IV. xii, Saul himself would..offer a burnt-offering to the Lord, rather than the Philistines should fight with him unsupplicated.

Unsuppli·ed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8, 8 c.]

1. Not supplied or provided with something.

1599 Q. ELIZ. in Meryson Hist. (1617) II. 56 Therefore we command you, not onely to raise no more [men], when these shall be decaled, but to keepe them vnsupplied [sc. with money] that are already. 1618 HALES Let. fr. Synod of Dort Gold. Rem. (1673) 38 When the Church was unsupplied, either by the death, or absence, or sickness of their Pastor. 1709 STRYPE Ann. Ref. VII. 106 Forced to keep them [sc. divines] in the Church, lest otherwise it should be wholly unsupplied. 1718 TATLER Spect. No. 294 ¶ 2 Every Man who..is unmindful of the unsupplied Distress of other Men. 1784 COWPER Task V. 31 The cattle..wait Their wonted fodder; not like hung'ring man, Fretful if unsupply'd.

b. Const. with (also † for, of).

1616 HIERON Wks. II. 37 They..shall not be left unsupplyed of earthly things. 1652 DAVENANT Verses to Author in Benlowes Theoph., Her Pow'r,..which unsupply'd By what wise Art would carefully provide, Is but love's lightning. 1740 JOHNSON Rasselas Wks. 1787 IV. 360 The town was.. unsupplied with almost every thing necessary for supporting a siege. 1844 STOCQUELER Handbk. Brit. India 254 Its principal defect, as a place besieged, would consist in its being..unsupplied with drinkable water.

2. Not met or satisfied; not made up or replaced.

1616 BRETON Good & Bad 2 A Worthy King:..his bosome must not be searched, his will not disobeyed, his wants not unsupplied, nor his place vnregarded. 1700 DRYDEN Sigism. & Guiscard. 38 But, prodigal in ev'ry other Charm, Her Sire left unsupplyd her one Wants. 1768 BLACKSTONE Comm. III. 385 These defects, .should they, after all, continue unremedied and unsupplied, still [etc.]. 1788 V. KNOX Winter Even. III. (1790) I. 453 Nor is the loss of a Goldsmith's assistance strain unsupplied by a Cowper.

3. Not provided or furnished.

1808 G. EDWARDS Pract. Plan IV. 59 In fine, nothing need be left unsupplied in any respect.

Unsupportable, a. [UN-1 7 b and 5 b.]

1. Too objectionable or annoying to be endured with equanimity or patience.

1586 SIDNEY Let. to Walsingham 14 Aug., We are now four monethes belayed [with pay], a thing unsupportable in this place. 1654 Nicholas Papers (Camden) II. 91 Indeed D. Gloucesters carriage to all persons is unsupportable. 1679 SOUTH Serm. (1697) I. 130 A disgrace put upon a man in company is unsupportable. 1770 ADDISON Tatler No. 221 ¶ 4 A passionate Woman..is one of the most unsupportable Creatures in the World. 1792 BURKE Let. to Langrishe Wks. 1842 I. 558 The unsupportable mortification of asking his wife's leave for their visits.

b. Too oppressive or distressing to be endured; unendurable, intolerable.

1602 SIR R. WILBRAHAM Jrnl. (1902) 50 Tyme and treasure, the wast whereof is unsupportable. 1644 MILTON Divorce (ed. 2) A 3 b, As well may he..redeem himself from unsupportable disturbance, to best peace. 1679 CRUDEN Barbados 17 This hardship is not so unsupportable to them. 1788 CLARA REEVE Exiles II. 215 This thought was unsupportable; it led to de-pair. 1801 CHARLOTTE SMITH Lett. Solit. Wand. II. 243 The most unsupportable of all her distresses. 1832 BREWSTER Nat. Magic xii. 309 A heat.. unsupportable by the spectators. 1885 FARGUS Slings & Arrows 140 Had he by word or gesture shown that the constant presence of the man who had done his best to kill him was unsupportable.

2. That cannot be supported by physical strength.

1688 HOLME Armoury III. 312/2 Goalers..when they meet with sturdy and unruly Prisoners, to Lock and Chain them to some strong Post, or unsupportable Block.

3. Not admitting of support or defence; indefensible.

1710 SIR J. ST. LEGER Managers Pro & Con. 21 To support that unsupportable Sense of the Homilies, the Doctor produces the contrary Opinions of many Learned Fathers. 1777 Burke's Corr. (1844) II. 191 The unsupportable claim of this country to the right of taxing America without reserve.

Hence Unsupportableness; -ably adv.

1664 H. MORE Myst. Iniq. Pref. 4 To be affected, nay deeply and unsupportably afflicted. 1672 WILKINS Nat. Relig. II. vii, 381 'Tis the unsupportableness of this, that many times it does not only cause..death rather than life. a 1697 SOUTH Serm. (1715) II. 177 His Conscience.. assures him, that he shall be infinitely, unsupportably miserable, if he does it.

Unsupported, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.]

1. Not supported by aid or assent; not backed up or corroborated.

1420–2 LYDG. Siege Thebes III. 2985 Farwel wisdam..For lakke only of supportacion. For vnsupported..Amphiorax sighen gan ful sore. 1609 DANIEL Civ. Wars III. lxxix, He ..will not anouch thy fact, But let the weight of thine owne infamie Fall on thee, vnsupported, and vnback't. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. Pref., To despaire the favourable looke of learning upon our single and unsupported endeavours. 1753 Stevens's Trial 270 Deposing to a long romantic story, in which he is altogether unsupported. 1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. II. 393 An idle..unsupported assertion. 1812 WELLINGTON in Gurw. Desp. (1837) IX.

340 Leaving behind them unprotected and unsupported the guns of Captain M'Donald's troop. 1882 Greenwood Hedge & Mishaps 54 Yet thus far have I taken not one lonely and unsupported step.

b. Const. by.

1694 Atterbury Serm. (1726) I. iii. 103 How utterly unsupported either by the Secular Arm, or Secular Wisdom! 1752 Johnson Rambler No. 104 ¶ 12 What can be expected from reason unsupported by fashion, splendour, or authority? 1831 T. Hope Ess. Orig. Man II. 233 This doctrine is..too unsupported by anything we see, to have had many adherents. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 618 This statement is utterly unsupported by facts.

†c. Not bold or confident. Obs.

1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. I. 220 Whereas a diffident and unsupported Behaviour in a Clergyman, is often supposed to proceed from ignoble Qualities.

2. Not physically supported or sustained.

1635 Person Varieties I. 33 The false-Prophet Mahomet, his Chest of Iron,..doth hang miraculously unsupported of any thing. 1681 Stair Instit. II. xxvi. 97 Whether Convalescence can be proven otherways, then by going unsupported to Kirk and Mercat, I have seen no decision. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 106 [Peas] run upon the ground unsupported with sticks. 1813 Scott Rokeby II. xiv, Now, like the wild-goat, must he dare an unsupported leap in air. 1862 Ansted Channel Isl. II. xi. 288 The falling in of the unsupported roof.

fig. 1667 Milton P. L. IX. 432 Her self, though fairest unsupported Flour, From her best prop so far, and storm so nigh. 1776 Gibbon Decl. & F. I. 328 On the slightest touch, the unsupported fabric of their pride and power fell to the ground.

Hence Unsuppo·rtedly adv.; -ness.

1825 Q. Rev. XXXII. 286 Mr. Bowles tells us (as insidiously, and as unsupportedly as usual) Pope was much more explicit. 1890 J. H. Stirling Philos. & Theol. xvi. 307 Contingency in the sense of unsupportedness, the powerlessness of things in themselves.

Unsuppo·rting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars v. cv, For loosing war abroad, at home lost peace; Being with our unsupporting selues close pent. 1653 Taylor Serm. for Year I. xiii. 165 People whose arme is all flesh, whose foot is all leather, and an unsupporting stick.

Unsuppo·sable, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1650 Fuller Pisgah 373 Such sacrilledge being unsupposable in that age. 1701 Beverley Apoc. Quest. 44 It is utterly Unsupposable, That All the little Turns of History ..should have Place in it. 1814 Scott Waav. lvii, Were such an unsupposable case to happen.

Unsuppo·sed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

†1. As adv. Unexpectedly. Obs.—1

c 1425 St. Christina xxiv. in Anglia VIII. 128/34 Sodenyly and vnsupposid alle hir body was taken of spirite, & turnyd in to a whitylye abuse.

2. Not supposed or imagined.

[1775 Ash.] 1821 Coleridge Lett., Convers., etc. II. 38 If that judgment were given avowedly, on the mere unbelieved possibility, on an unsupposed supposition of the worst.

Unsuppre·ssable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1781 Moore View Soc. & Manw. Italy I. 220 How many of our acquaintance.. have we seen doing painful penance at the Hay-market; and, in the midst of unsuppressable yawnings, calling out, Charming! exquisite! bravissimo, etc.

Unsuppre·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1621 G. Sandys Ovid's Met. x. (1626) 212 Their feet, unwet, the sea might well haue borne: Or vnsuppressed stalks of standing corne. 1649 Milton Eikon. xxvi. 208 Driv'n away by unsuppressed Tumults. a 1691 Dr. Barlow Rem. (1693) 277 The unsuppressed Abby Lands are a fourth of the whole. 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. v. 128 Ignorance, feelings unsuppress'd And undisguised. 1855 Milman Lat. Chr. xiv. vi. VI. 557 The secret influence of these teachers, unsuppressed by years of persecution. 1881 Miss Braddon Asphodel II. 145 That suppressed gout..was only another name for unsuppressed ill-temper.

Unsuppre·ssible, a. (Un-7 5 b.) 1669 Earl Orrery Parthen. III. vi. 184 If some unsuppressible spean force it selfe from me. Unsuppurative, a. (Un-1 3). 1822 Good Study Med. II. 271 A multitude of tumours or tubercles of different degrees of inflammation, some suppurative, some unsuppurative. Unsurburge, v. (Un-2 3.) 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. II. xxii. 144 Our Herald knows also to cure the surfet of Coats, and unsurcharge them, and how to wash out stained colours.

Unsure (ʌnʃiu·r), a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Not safe against attack or mishap; liable to danger or risk; exposed to hazard or peril; insecure.

a 1400–50 Alexander 2136 Bot, for pe cite was vnsure, he seegis within Mist wyth pe braiznes a chide of hernes enarmed. c 1520 in Yorks. Archæol. Jrnl. (1892) XII. 208 Who that puttith his trust in them I call hym most unsure. a 1542 Wyatt Poems (1913) I. 350 There is a rok..of suche nature, That drawithe the yron from the woode, And leveth the ship unsure. 1586 J. Hooker Hist. Irel. in Holinshed II. 73/2 In Wales..he found his defense so weake, and vnsure, that [etc.]. 1600 Holland Livy IX. 345 [They] had seene by experience..how vnsure a citie they inhabited and not impregnable. 1649 G. Daniel Trimarch., Hen. IV, celii, Hee knew his Claime, and how vnsure he sate Midst many enimies.

b. Not affording or conducive to safety; lacking in security; unsafe, liable to yield or give way.

1426 Lydg. De Guil. Pilgr. 13355 Placys that be most peryllous, ..Most dereffull and vnsure, The I logge, off nature. c 1530 More Answ. Frith Wks. 842/2 If ye will.. deale surely for your self, ye should rather leane your vnsure ways whiche ye believe, and come..to beleue as we doe. a 1547 Surrey Æneid II. 31 Now but a bay, and rode vnsure for ship. 1588 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 299 Throw the multitude of deidlie feidis and unsure passage. 1609 Holland Amm. Marcell. 201 Neither is it possible.. to set firme footing upon the ground, so unsure it is and slipperie. a 1661 Holyday Juvenal (1673) 232 The ship.. made but of unsure or dangerous planks. 1727 P. Walker Biogr. Presbyt. (1827) I. 225 A very loose unsure Foundation. 1774 Burke Sp. Amer. Tax. Wks. II. 420 It was indeed a very curious show, but utterly unsafe to touch, and unsure to stand on. 1830 Cunningham Brit. Paint. II. 200 It seems they make unsure work at that church. 1866 G. Macdonald Ann. Q. Neighb. vi, Down the oak staircase.. [I] came very deliberately, feeling the unsure contact of sole and wax.

2. Marked or characterized by uncertainty or unsteadfastness; dependent on chance or accident; liable to fail; uncertain, precarious.

c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 16 Bysily in my mynde I gan reviise The weihe onsure of everye creatnre. c 1430 Lydg. Min. Poems (Percy Soc.) 197 The world vnsuyr, fortune transmutable. c 1449 Pecock Repr. v. xiv. 560 Vnperfit men..ouster chese ful ofte the sikerer and surer good to hem bifore the visurer good. 1509 Barclay Ship Folys 17 b, He that is symple, and on the grounde doth lye, ..Is surer by mochie than he that lyeth on lye: Nowe vp, nowe downe vnsure as a Balaunce. 1559 Mirr. Mag. B3, Ryches and promocion be vaine thynges and vnsure. 1584 C. Robinson, etc. Hunof. Pleas. Delights D 3 b, Such bitter fruit thy louesuth possesde,..still houe vnsure. 1612 T. Adams White Devil 37 Their dwelling, like Cains, [is] very vnsure. 1629 Maxwell tr. Herodian 108 Holding it a sufficient guerdon of an vnsure Souranigty. 1642 Baker Chron., Edw. II. 84 Edward the Second in his state was vnsure, safe when indeed it was most unsure. 1711 Pope Temple Fame 508 Unsure the tenure, but how vast the fine! 1755 J. Duncombe in Connoisseur No. 50. 296 Whose houses are as unsure a possession, as if they were built with cards. 1848 T. Aird Chr. Bride II. xvi, Old dragon Erc must we secure!..our scheme were else unsure. 1873 M. Arnold Lit. & Dogma 138 The moral is, what an unsure stay, then, must miracles be!

3. a. Of persons, etc.: Not to be trusted or relied upon; unreliable, untrustworthy.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 208 Þou schalt considre..how broyl, vnsure a wreche þou art. a 1470 Harding Chron. Ded. v, That people..Hath..been so vntowardc, So vnstedfast, inconstant, and vnsure, That [etc.]. Hist. xxxix. cliii, [Kins] Tenne yere reigned,..And dyed so vnder his vnsure dieté. a 1589 Palfreyman Baldwin's Mor. Philos. (1600) 70 Hee is deceiptfull, of his promise vnsure. 1610 Healey St. Aug. City of God (1620) 409 The senses are weake, dull and vnsure teachers. 1635 Heywood Hierarchy vi. 331 Than th' Heart of man..There's nothing more inconstant and vnsure. 1653 Holcroft Procopius, Goth. Wars iv. 145 If prove vnsure to them, we shall not be happy in them. 1790 Burke Fr. Rev. 94 They are always bad citizens, and perfectly unsure connexions. 1807 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 573 Which sures are such very unsure tolks that [etc.]. 1897 Swinburne Songs bef. Sunrise (1871) 38 Though she slay them, yet shall I trust in her; For unsure there is nought nor unjust in her. 1888 Stevenson Black Arrow 21 Keep an eye on Sir Daniel; he is unsure.

†b. Weak, feeble. Obs. rare—1.

1432–50 tr. Higden (Rolls) V. 51 Grawntynge to theyme a lyetle wyne..into the whiche the unsure flesche [L. caro infirma] scholde be noryschede.

4. Subject to doubt or uncertainty; not fixed, sure, or certain; doubtful.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 107 If in dyuynite were no stronger groundis..dyuynite were a symple and an vnsure faculte. 1534 More Treat. Passion Wks. 1229/2 Sure study thinkinge for the visure time of deathe. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia I. iv, A thing no more unpleasant, then unsure, for the preserving of vertue. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars II. iv, That, in the mondes of immutable strange Heaven, huge uncertaine pilots of vnsure pride. 1612 R. Carpenter Soule's Sent. 90 The speedy approach of death, and in the end, vnsure in the time. 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. II. vi. 100 It will be unsure to rely on any preservative. 1692 Wesdale 10 Conquest unsure most, you refuse before. 1824 Cupples Green Hand xiv, In the unsure dusky sight I had of it, certainly, it [sc. a landmark] were somewhat of that look.

5. Of persons, etc.: Lacking certainty, assurance, or confidence; not sure, assured, or certainly knowing; uncertain. Const. of, for, to, or with clause.

c 1400 Destr. Troy 11540 And now is nedfull for noye.. All my gold for to geue,..Kepid in hurd, holdyn fall long ..And I vnsure of my-self, my sorow is the more. 1412–20 Lydg. Chron. Troy IV. 2144 She wolde for no ping be vnsure Of purvayance, nor with-oute stoor. a 1461 Pol. Poems (Rolls) II. 224 Full unsewyr ware the hedes pay be To sette hys herte in swyche abundaunce. a 1500 Chaucer's Dreme 1732 Wild beastes..ran as of their lives unsure. 1534 More Comf. agst. Trib. I. vi. (1573) 14 b, So blind is our mortalitie..vs vnsure what manner mater we will haue to morow. 1564 Feckenham Let. to Cecil in Strype Ann. Ref. xiv. (1709) 460 Being always after vnsure, how, or by what means, he might be..knit thereunto again. 1579 Fenton Guicciard. I. 15 He is..of nothing more vnsure then to find remedy in his perils. 1595 Daniel Civ. Wars II. xlvii, And here my soul'raigne to make longer stay T' attend for what you are vnsure will fall May slipe th' occasion and incense their will. a 1618 Raleigh Observ. (1651) 56 Numbers of people that were..thrust out of their habitations, or unsafe, or unsure for their lives. 1628 Br. Hall Old Relig. 147 That God euer heares vs, wee are as sure, as wee are vnsure to be heard of Saints. 1679 in Wodrow Hist. Suff. Ch. Scotl. (1722) II. App. xviii. 18 Not finding it fit to vninge himself of the one Party, while he was yet vnsure of the other. a 1850 Rossetti Dante & Circle (1874) 49 Thus, being all unsure which path to take. 1855 Sir J. Paget In Mem. of Lord (1901) 1 Unsure whether I could ever again have time. 1884 A. Vambéry Life & Advent. vii. (1889) 77 Unsure of my discovery, I did not address him.

b. Without cont.

a 1500 Chaucer's Dreme 804 Thus was I in a joyous dout, Sure and unsuresé of that rout. a 1536 Tindale in Marbeck Bk. of Notes (1581) 366 For then shall the conscience be vnsure, doubting [etc.]. a 1555 Latimer Lett. in Foxe A. & M. (1563) 1327/1 If they say they bee vnsure, when shall you bee sure that haube so doubtefull teachers and vnsure? 1624 Heywood Gunaik. iv. 193 A man within himselfe unsure. 1896 Mrs. Caffyn Quaker Grandmother 155 His mother looked as meek and unsure as a grocer's widow.

6. Marked or characterized by lack of sureness, assurance, or certainty.

1633 P. Fletcher Purple Isl. viii. xiii, With him went Doubt, stagg'ring with steps unsure, That every way, and neither way enclin'd. 1829 Cunningham Brit. Paint. I. 207 His touch was unsure and he painted somewhat coarsely. 1867 M. Arnold New Poems 132 Light ignorance, and hurrying, unsure thoughts. 1883 R. W. Dixon Mano II. i. 66 Never would he..His friend forsake, or make his faith unsure.

Unsured, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1595 Shaks. John II. i. 471 For by this knot, thou shalt so surely tye Thy now vnsur'd assurance to the Crowne, That [etc.].

Unsurely, adv. rare. [Un-1 11.] Uncertainly; insecurely.

1595 Daniel Civ. Wars II. cxix, The vanity of greatness he hadride, And how vnsurely standes the foote of pride. 1645 Hammond View Apollib. 38 Scripture when seurely sensed..is a different medium from the same Scripture sensed unsurely.

Unsu·reness. [Un-1 12.]

1. Uncertainty; insecurity.

1430–40 Lydg. Bochas I. i. (1494) A vib/1 Where theystode first in sykernesse Of loye..Vnte a tyme of their rest they fyll in vnsuiteresse In sorowe and sighynge. c 1440 Eng. Cong. Ireland 51 And euery Surnesse hath vnsurnies at the ende. 1530 Palsgr. 285 2 Unsurenesse, asseurete. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus s.v. Infirmities, What vnsureness doe you see in the marriage hetherto? 1573 Satir. Poems Reform. I. 275 The greit fraitlie and vnsureness of all strenthis erthly. 1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit. vi. xxii. 226 The state of man..doth shew..with what vnsureuesse the seat of mayesty is posset. 1863 Holme Lee A. Warileigh III. 133 Herhints to Rachel ..touching the unsureness of the future.

†2. Unsteadfastness, fickleness. Obs.—1 a 1470 Tiptoft Tulle on Friendsh. (Caxton, 1481) C ii, Thee hen two thynges, which prove in many men lightnesse and unsureness.

†Unsu·rety. Obs. [Un-1 12.] Insecurity, uncertainty.

c 1460 Fortescue Abs. & Lim. Mon. v. (1885) 119 What dishonour is this, and abatynge of the glorie of a kynge. But yet it is more to the vnsurete. 1482 Act 1 Rich. III, c. 1 § 1 By privey and unknown feofinentes greate unsuertie..and grevous vexacions daily growen among the King's Subgiettis. 1534 More Comf. agst. Trib. III. Wks. 1219/1 Of the vnsuretie of this world. 1563 Mirr. Mag. (ed. 2) 3, To shewe thereby the vnsuerty in this life, Marke wel my fal. 1609 J. Davies (Heref.) Humours Heaven i. lxxiii, Where's vnsuretie, feare must needs be there. 1625 R. Hume Vshell of Righteous 86 Earthly Princes are subiect to..great vnsuretie of life and estate.

Unsurfeiting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1653 Gauden Hierasp. 70 To follow him with all obediential loye;..unsatiably satisfied with his unsurfeiting sweetness. 1772 Jas. Usher Clio (ed. 3) 140 The engaging image..of easy unsurfeiting joys. Unsurgical, a. (Un-1 7) 1807 S. Cooper First Lines Surg. 201 To increase these evils by rough handling of the part is..unsurgical. 1884 C. B. Kelsey Dis. Rectum & A. xi. 297 The operation is rough, uncertain, and unsurgical. 1897 Allbutt's Syst. Med. II. 1057 The harpoon designed..for this purpose produces an unsurgical wound. Unsurging, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1619 Drayton Poems, Moselle 344 As a Ship, in a quiet Calme Floats vp and downe on the vnsurging Seas. Unsurmi·sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1818 Keats Isabella xiiii, She had devised..How her short absence might be unsurmised. 1882 Longfel. Bowl. XV. 68 Michelangelo..was sweeping men's eyes..to possibilities of achievement as yet unsurmised.

Unsurmountable, a. [Un-1 7 b and 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being surpassed or exceeded. rare.

1611 Cotgr., Insurmontable, vnsurmountable, vnexceedable. 1745 Young Nt. Th. viii. 328 That unsurmountable extreme of guilt!

2. Incapable of being surmounted or overcome; insurmountable: a. Of difficulties, etc. (Common in 18th c.)

1701 Lond. Gaz. No. 3713/1 We passed the Mountains.. Which were thought unsurmountable. 1757 Foote Author I. Wks. 1799 I. 141 The obscurity..of your birth, will prove an unsurmountable bar. 1788 Pryder No. 11. 134 The Prolixity of six and thirty Separation in a Pastoral Tale, proves an unsurmountable Exception. 1911 Riker Henry Fox II. 126 The obstacle was not unsurmountable.

b. Of feelings.

a 1749 Mrs Delany Life & Corr. (1861) I. 29 The courtship ..was reviewed by Gronno (who saw too well my unsurmountable dislike). 1771 Goldsm. Hist. Eng. II. 85 An unsurmountable aversion to the English government. 1791 Burke Let. to Memb. Nat. Assemb. 50 If disgust, if unsurmountable nausea, drive them away from such speciacles,.. I cannot blame them.

3. Inextinguishable, unquenchable.

1725 Fam. Dict. s.v. Fever, It causes a violent Heat and unsurmountable Thirst.

Hence Unsurmoun·tableness.

1894 Chamber VI. 76 Superstitious faith in nature's unsurmountableness.

Unsurmounted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1787 T. Monro, etc. Olla Podrida No. 25 ¶ 1 Difficulties unsurmounted in biography.

Unsurpa·ssable, a. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1611 Cotgr., Insurmontable,..vnsurpassable, vnvanquishable. 1799 W. Taylor in Robberds Mem. (1843) I. 243 The descriptive parts of this idyll are capital—are unsurpassable. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. iii. III, For freshness of style,.. that opening Harangue of his was unsurpassable. 1896 Contemp. Rev. June 36 A sea-board..capable of producing ..fruits, in quantities unsurpassable.

Hence Unsurpa·ssably adv.

1869 Ruskin Two Paths App. I. 254 Entirely, admirably, unsurpassably right, under the conditions. 1872 Carlyle's Schiller Wks. 1899 XXV. 226 Dannecker..has unsurpassably cut this head in marble for us.

Unsurpa·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1818 Byron Ch. Har. iv. xxxix, Oh, victor unsurpass'd in modern song! 1840 Thackeray Barber Cox Nov. A speech...unsurpassed for eloquence. 1881a Nature XXV. 499 On such a topic he is entitled to speak with at least an unsurpassed authority.

Unsurpri·sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1591 Florio and Frutes 77 A pawn that could passe the pikes of seuen places vnsurprised. 1593 Marlowe Edw. II, ii. v, Though deuorsed from king Edwards eyes, Yet lineth Pierce of Gaueston vnsurprizd. 1649 H. Burton Truth's Triumph 250 They may be certain of keeping their weak fort of vncertainty vnsurprised. 1662 Fuller Wounded Conse., etc. (1867) 314 Nor was there any Herb or Flower in the whole Garden left unsurprised with fear. 1841 Emerson Eng. Traits xiv. Literature, The unique fact in literary history, the unsurprised reception of Shakespeare. 1896 T. Hardy Ethelberta xxxv, She...gave him an unsurprised gesture of recognition. 1882 Chr. Rossetti Resurgam Poems (1904) 412 Strenuous thro'day and unsurprised by night He runs a race with Time and wins the race.

Unsurpri·sing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1671 Woodhead St. Teresa i. Pref. 34 Purity from committing any, foreknown, and unsurprising, venial sin. 1688 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. 1. III, 351 It was no unsurprising spectacle. 1740 Cibber Apol. 69 Without this, the Performance will come out...somewhere defectively, unsurprizing to the Hearer.

Unsurre·ndered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] a 1800 Cowper Iliad (ed. 2) viii. 376 Helen is mine, an unsurrender'd prize For ever. 1827 Jarman Powell's Devises II. 123 None of this reasoning is now applicable to a devise of unsurrendered copyholds. 1848 J. Martineau in Life (1902) I. 285 Military parties were told off to...search every house for his unsurrendered arms. a 1850 J. C. Calhoun Wks. (1869) I. 17 It must...remain unsurrendered and unimpaired in the people of the several States.

Unsurre·ndering, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1840 Carlyle Heroes iii. 173 The face of one wholly in protest, and lifelong unsurrendering battle, against the world.

Unsurrou·nded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
[1775 Ash.] 1813 T. Busby Lucretius I. i. Comm. p. xxix, We cannot imagine an unsurrounded convex. 1859 Cornwallis Panoramas New World I. 242 There she lay...unsurrounded by the comforts that were most needful. 1863 Tyndall Heat ix. 283 The lamp is naked, unsurrounded by its camera.

Unsurve·yable, a. (Un-1 7b.) 1833 Carlyle Misc. (1840) IV. 236 Every Man...reaches downwards and upwards unsurveyable, fading into the regions of Immensity and of Eternity. 1847 Hare Guesses (ed. 3) 383 The field of operation is so vast and unsurveyable.

Unsurve·yed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1546 in Vict Co. Hist., Warwick. II. (1908) 303/1 Divers Chantries unsurveyed and no rentalls thereof delyvered. 1758 Johnson Idler No. 3 ¶ 3 My predecessors..had the whole field of life before them, untrodden and unsurveyed. 1841 Penny Cycl. XXV. 241/2 In 1831, more than three-fifths of the island [was] unappropriated and unsurveyed. 1879 Miss Bird Lady's Life in Rocky Mount. 120 Such as it is, Estes Park is mine. It is unsurveyed, 'no man's land'.

Unsuscepti·bility. (Un-1 19. a. Cf. next.) [1775 Ash.] 1805 Monthly Mag. XX. 231 Proofs of the permanency of the state of Unsusceptibility of the Small Pox. 1850 Robertson Serm. Ser. III. ix. (1857) 133 That which ought to be men's greatest pleasure their boast—unsusceptibility of any fresh emotion.

Unsusce·ptible, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.]
† 1. Unable to receive and retain. Obs.—1
1692 Dryden Clemenes iv. 43 Some Men are made of such a leaky Mould, That their fill'd Vessels can no fortune hold: ..Of those unsusceptible Mind am I.
2. Not susceptible of some operation, influence, etc.; = Insusceptible a. 2.
(a) 1731 Swift Strephon & Chloe 86 While she a Goddess dy'd in Grain Was unsusceptible of Stain. 1799 Kirwan Geol. Ess. 5 What then should render these facts and the circumstances attending them unsusceptible of testimony? 1816 Bentham Chrestom. 99 Although not perhaps completely susceptible, it is however not altogether unsusceptible, of a remedy. 1868 M. Patrison Academ. Org. iv. 69 Statements...entirely unsusceptible of proof. 1890 Reinsphed Med. CII. 237 Cases where the sugar...is unsusceptible of entire removal from the system by dietetic treatment alone.
(b) 1751 Johnson Rambler No. 153 ¶ 16 An old friend, who professes himself unsusceptible of any impressions from prosperity or misfortune. 1784 Cook's 3rd Voy. iv. ii. II. 310 They are certainly not wholly unsusceptible of the tender passions. 1814 Southey Let. to F. King 27 Feb., My skin ..may very possibly be unsusceptible of this particular irritation. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. ix. II. 519 His serene intellect, singularly unsusceptible of enthusiasm, and singularly averse to extremes.
b. Const. to. = Insusceptible a. b.
1872 Sanford Estimates Eng. Kings 400 They rendered him comparatively unsusceptible to the feelings of resentment and implacability.
3. Not readily liable to impressions; = Insusceptible a. c.
1779 Mirror No. 14, Men unfeeling and unsusceptible, commonly beat the beaten track, with activity and resolution. 1850 Froude Hist. Eng. VI. 92 She was susceptible; she had no experience to love. 1893 F. F. Moore I Forbid Banns xxvii, Surely the ivory ..that most unsusceptible of materials—was warm from her hand.

Unsusce·ptive, a. (Un-1 7 and 5 b.) 1845 Good Study Med. (ed. 2) II. 373 The habit, or idiosyncracy of most anatomists fortunately renders them altogether unsusceptive of its impression.

† Unsuspe·ct, (ppl.) a. Obs. Chiefly Sc. [Un-1 7, 8 b, and 5 b.] Not subject to suspicion.
*c*1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. III. 107 Pe dedis bat Crist dide, ben unsuspect evydence bat Crist is bope God and man. 1388 — Eccles. xxv. 9, I magnefiede nyne thingis vnsuspect of pe herte. 1409 in Exch. Rolls Scotl. IV. p. cxxi, Askand thaim to be submitted to thaim and to their counselis unsuspect apon sic complaintis. c 1482 Henryson Fables, Wolf & Lamb 74, I oblis me rycht heir, That I sall bydie ane vnsuspect Assyis. 1512 Reg. Privy Seal Scotl. I. 369/2 Befor the lordis of counsale or utheris unsuspect jugis. 1583 Leg. Ep. St Androis 130 Gif oathes be sweirs,..And bad thame hald him vnsuspect. 1606 Sylvester Du Bartas II. iv. 1. Tropheis 1055 David's foule defect Was yet un-seen, uncensur'd, un-suspect. 1665 Glanvill Dof. Van. Dogm. 85 Though his writings were before so unsuspect and certain in the main. 1678 Sir G. Mackenzie Crim. Laws Scot. I. xxvi. § 6 (1699) 134 Proved by most unsuspect Witnesses.

Unsuspe·ctable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1660 H. More Myst. Godl. vii. x. 323 That vigorous passion and elevation of spirit, and yet all so unsuspectable of any humane artifice. 1748 Richardson Clarissa III. 108 Shall the man be guilty, yet expect the woman to be guiltless, and even unsuspectable? Unsuspe·ctably, adv. (Un-1 1b. Cf. prec.) 1748 Richardson Clarissa III. 50 Grief so unsuspectably sincere.

Unsuspe·cted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 and 5 b.]
1. Without being suspected.
c 1530 More Answ. Frith Wks. 833/1 Our english heretikes..might there imprynt theyr heresies amonge other matters, & so sende them hither vnsuspected. 1660 Nicholas Papers (Camden) IV. 251 To have occasion thereby to act unsuspected something..contrary vnto his professions. 1725 De Foe Voy. round World (1840) 57 The governor putting so much confidence in us, that we might go on shore in the very fort unsuspected. 1738 S. & H. Lee Canterb. T. II. 123 [He was] enabled, unsuspected, to trace..the emotions of the heart he best loved. 1813 Coleridge Remorse ii. i. 57 But I had traced her, stolen unnotic'd on them, And unsuspected..heard the whole.
2. Not regarded with suspicion; not considered to be suspicious or doubtful.
a 1586 Sidney Arcadia i. xiv, Hoping that (going for a woman) my lookes would serue, either unmarked, or unsuspected. 1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iii. v. 23 That ignoble Tyrrel, The dangerous and vnsuspected Hastings. 1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 147 For his too profuse bountie he could not be vnsuspected of his brother. 1670 Clarendon Hist. Reb. XII. § 129 Those principal heads of the Clans who ..were of known, or unsuspected Affection to the King. 1747 J. Lind Lett. Navy (1757) I. 16 The courage of our common seamen is hitherto generally unsuspected. 1750 Ann. Reg., Hist. 39/2 They will find, both in his fortune and his virtue, abundant matter for just and unsuspected panegyric. 1827 Scott Chron. Canongate vi, Well judging that he would observe more wholesome caution if he conceived his character unsuspected, than if he were detected. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. xxvii. IV. 234 Russell, as far as can now be discovered, was still unsuspected. absol. 1800 Asiat. Ann. Reg., Proc. E. Ind. Ho. 115 It was not justice to confound the unsuspected with the suspected.
b. Const. to with inf., or of.
1649 Clarendon Hist. Reb. I. § 202 Those Infusions proceeded from those unsuspected to have any inclinations to Change. 1800 Asiat. Ann. Reg., Proc. E. Ind. Ho. 137/2 The director..was quite unsuspected of being concerned in the sale of it.
3. Not suspected to exist, or to bear a certain character; not thought of.
1620 J. Taylor (Water P.) Sach a Lent B 3 b, Some againe..doe scout into..diuers secret vnsuspected places. 1654 Fuller Two Serm. 23 Many a close, secret and unsuspected Christian. 1693 Congreve in Dryden's Juvenal xi. (1697) 282 Hills, Day..thou dark perceive Whether, my self I keep those Rules I give, Or else, an unsuspected Glutton live. 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy ii. xvii, An unsuspected fissure in his master's pocket. 1798 Cowper Task vi. 545 A storm was near, An unsuspected storm. 1820 Scott Lady of L. i. xxv, The mountain-maiden show'd A clambering unsuspected road. 1874 J. Geikie Gt. Ice Age iii. 26 It..opens up new channels of discovery which otherwise might have remained unsuspected and unknown.
Hence Unsuspe·ctedness.
1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. x. ii. § 27 They hoped..(by the strangeness of the act, and unsuspectedness of the actors) to amuze all men. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 43 In proportion, the unsuspectedness, is not purchased, but at the expense of appropriate experience.

Unsuspe·ctedly, adv. [Un-1 11.]
1. Without being suspected.
1645 W. Jenkyn Stil-Destroyer 44 Poyson is..given.. under the notion of good food..., and so it is taken unsuspectedly. 1663 Boyle Disp. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. 267 The subtle murtherers do as unsuspectedly as fatally, execute their malice or revenge. 1695 D. Turner Apol. Chyrurg. 24 That he the more unsuspectedly may carry on his Cheats. 1720 Mrs. M. Manley Power of Love 156 Catos understood no Geography but what had been taught her..in the Country of Love, whence Fauxgarde might unsuspectedly betray her to his wish. 1808 Han. More Calebs xiii. I. 172 Till he has unsuspectedly landed his opponent in the pure ethics of the gospel.
b. Beyond suspicion; evidently.
1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) III. 2 Grief so unsuspectedly sincere, for an escape so critical.
2. Unsuspectingly.
1826 P. Pounden France & Italy 177 The Jews..unsuspectedly bear in their hands the prophetic records.

Unsuspe·ctful, a. [Un-1 7.] Unsuspicious. 1782 Gibbon Decl. & F. xxxiii. (1787) III. 334 The credulous and unsuspectful court had arrived at the province. Unsuspe·ctfulness. (Un-1 12. Cf. prec.) 1828 Lever M. Tierney xlii, 'What a glorious gift is unsuspectfulness' said he, feelingly. Unsuspe·ctible, a. (Un-1 7.) 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) II. 105 Of all conceivable sources the most trustworthy and unsuspectible.

Unsuspe·cting, ppl. a. [Un-1 10, 5 d.] Not suspecting; not harbouring any suspicion.
1595 Daniel Civil Wars iv. lxxiii, He such deepe aduise applide..To circumuent an vnsuspecting wight, Before he could discerne of their despight. 1703 Rowe Fair Penit. ii. ii. 594 My unsuspecting, valiant, honest Friend. 1703 — Ulysses i. i, Temper..open as the Day and unsuspecting. 1776 Gibbon Decl. & F. xii. I. 339 They..indulged their appetite for revenge and plunder, by frequent descents on the unsuspecting shores of Asia, Greece, and Africa. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel iii. 160 [His] simple unsuspecting trust ..in the Romans. 1891 Farrar Darkn. & Dawn xxxiii, He..ventured to make her an unsuspecting agent in his little plot.
b. Const. of, or with direct object.
1654 R. Codrington tr. Justine XIII. 221 The Traytors..unsuspecting their adversaries..were assaulted themselves. 1725 Pope Odyssey IX. 522 He felt their fleeces..and let them safely go, All unsuspecting of their freight below. 1798 Goldsm. Mem. Protestant (1803) II. 208, I had the Pleasure of seeing them, unsuspecting my Design, and greedily catching at the seeming Victory. 1838 Foster Ess. (1844) I. 265 To take this step..unsuspecting of the advantage that would be taken of a needy youth. 1889 Prince Singer & Arrows 114 The moment when, utterly unsuspecting of our contiguity, Eustace Grant would find himself confronted by me.
Hence Unsuspe·ctingness.
1883 H. James Portraits of Places xii. 253 Her quiet-eyed unsuspectingness only makes her the more a part of his delicate entertainment.

Unsuspe·ctingly, adv. [Un-1 11.] Without suspicion.
1656 Jer. Taylor Dem Justif. Pref. 3 It became almost a crime to examine what the world believed so unsuspectingly. 1787 A. Hildyth Rosa II. 44 He waited patiently and unsuspectingly her return. 1798 Lit. Mem. Living Authors II. 162 Those talents which he had unsuspectingly cultivated in the groves of his academy. 1819 Lady Morgan Autobiog. (1859) 94 One of those charming causeries with the general, to which he unsuspectingly lent himself. 1883 D. C. Murray Hearts viii, For a moment she felt as a swimmer feels when he floats unsuspectingly into a sudden, powerful eddy.

Unsuspe·nded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)
1701 Norris Ideal World i. iii. 111 If an ideal proposition be an actual unsuspended truth. 1792 Wordsw. Descr. 38 While unsuspended wheels the village dance. 1891 T. Hardy Tess xxxvi, His thought had been unsuspended; he was becoming ill with thinking.

Unsuspi·cion. [Un-1 12.] Lack of suspicion or suspiciousness.
1792 W. Roberts Lookers-on No. 10 (1794) I. 134 In such case..the vanquished has nothing to shunne him, unless truth and unsuspicion can do it. a 1849 H. Coleridge Ess. (1851) I. 315 A calm unsuspicion, a grave taking of the matter for granted. 1876 'Annie Thomas' Blotted out xxv, I fear that Sydney, in his unsuspicion, will be readily won.

Unuspi·cious, a. (Un-1 8.)
1595 Daniel Civil Wars iv. xxxv, But vnsuspicious magnanimitie Shames such effects of feare, and force to show. 1671 Milton Samson 1635 His guide ..unsuspicious led him. 1727 Thomson Britannia 120 Like brothers live, in amity combin'd, And unsuspicious faith. 1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. III. I. 211 The unsuspicious confidence of a man conscious of no crime. 1825 Scott Talism. xx, The unsuspicious object of the dark treachery. 1871 B. Taylor Faust (1890) II. 111, 165 This place all unsuspicious I forsook For Cytherea's fane.
b. Const. of or with clause.
1589 Warner Alb. Eng. 158 Her Sister,..simply unsuspitious of the sequell, prouided..a pyle of dry Faggots. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Cecilia III. 279 Unsuspicious of his remarks..[she] was gay. Ibid. V. 7 Edgar [was] not wholly unsuspicious such an accident might happen. 1825 Scott Betrothed iii, He was not unsuspicious, though altogether fearless, of the result.
Hence Unsuspi·ciously adv.; Unsuspi·ciousness. a 1812 Buckminster Serm. (1827) 94 Epistles..*unsuspiciously authentic. 1854 Thackeray Newcomes i, Little lambkin was lying unsuspiciously at the side of the wolf. 1809 Mar. Edgeworth Manœuvring iv, A fluent panegyric upon the hereditary *unsuspiciousness of his temper. a 1834 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 267 Her absolute unsuspiciousness, and holy entireness of love.

Unsustai·nable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)
a 1677 Barrow Serm. Wks. 1687 I. 255 A weapon..whose impression is altogether inevitable and unsustainable. 1716 M. Davies Athen. Brit. III. 61 [To] revive an unsustainable Cause, so often sunk, and so often irretrievably baffled. 1740 Phil. Trans. XLI, 414 This Notion is certainly as unsustainable as the First. 1897 Toulmin Smith Parish 297 It was unanimously held that these pleas were unsustainable. 1885 Sir J. Bacon in Law Times' Rep. LII. 210/2 The application is wholly unsustainable.

Unsustai·ned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]
1. Not maternally sustained or supported.
1630 Drumm. or Hawth. Flowers Sion, Hymn Passion 9 Seeing..How vnsustain'd the Earth still steadfast stands. 1667 Milton P. L. IX. 430 Each Flour..whose head..Hung drooping unsustained. 1725 Pope Odyssey XII. 517 All unsustain'd between the wave and sky, Beneath my feet the whirling billows fly.
2. Not supported by assistance, etc.
1697 Dryden Æneis XI. 1238 The Volscians quit the Field; And, unsustain'd, the Chiefs of Turnus yield. 1719 Young Pan. Job 236 Hale are their young, from human frailties freed; Walk unsustain'd, and unassisted feed. 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. vi. 767 With a sigh She spake, yet, I believe, not unsustained By faith in glory [etc.] 1866 Kane Arct. Expl. II. xii. 129 A penalty is denounced against..the accuser for his unsustained prosecution. 1876 Bancroft Hist. U. S. I. i. 17 Unsustained by Cartier, Roberval accomplished no more than a verification of previous discoveries.
3. Not maintained at a uniform level of excellence; flagging in interest.
1817 Coleridge Biog. Lit. xiv. II. 9 An unsustained composition, from which the reader collects rapidly the general result unattracted by the component parts.

Unsustai·ning, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)
1818 Shelley Julian 538 One unsustaining reed. 1820 — Sensit. Pl. 78 The light winds which from unsustaining wings Shed the music of many murmurings. 1880 Miss Bird Japan II. 206 Rice and eggs were...unsustaining food.

† Unswac, a.: see Swac a.

Unswaddle, v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To free from, take out of, swaddling bands or clothes.

1580 North Plutarch (1595) 389 His wife did vnswaddle the young boy to wash and dresse him. 1633 B. Jonson Tale Tub I. iv, Puppy ha' scarce unswaddled my legges yet. 1662 Greenhalgh in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. II. IV. 16 When they had brought it to the altar, four or five were busied in uncovering and unswaddling vnswaddl. 1823 G. J. Cayley Last Alforjas I. 184 Standing at the foot of the mattress, we fell back like tragic heroes, so as not to unswaddle our feet in lying down.

fig. 1600 Nashe Summer's Last Will Prol., Their consures we wey not, whose sences are not yet vnswaddled. 1631 Fuller David's Punishm. vii, As when a tender rose begins to blow, Yet scarce unswaddled is.

Unswaddlowed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c.)

13.. K. Alit. P. B. 1235 Alle þet swyppyd vnswoldled of þe sworde kene, þay wer, brobely brost to babylopn. 1653 Waterhouse Fortescutus Illustr. 398 Thinking his unswallowed-down carcase happine s...enough for him. 1760 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1859) I. 7 The guests...sat some time with open mouth, and unswallowed victuals. 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. II. iii. iv, A man may moderate its paroxysms,...and keep himself unswallowed on the top of it [sc.a 'whirlpool of Babylonish confusions']. 1859 Tennyson Geraint & Enid 1479 The brawny spaniel nor his cheek Bulge with the unswallow'd piece, and turning, stared.

Uiswan, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1864 Browning Worst of it 6 Not you, the pride Of the day, my swan, that a first fleck's fall On her wonder of white, must unswan, undo! Unswan-like, a. (Un-[1] 7 c.) 1837 Dickens Pickw. xxx, Mr. Winkle...was being assisted over the ice by Mr. Weller, in a very singular and un-swan-like manner.

Unswar(e, obs. ff. Answer sb. and v.

Unswa·thable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. I. 78/1 There not being bone nor muscle nor blood enough..., he collapses into unswathable flabbiness.

Unswa·the, v. [Un-[2] 4.] trans. To free from swathings; to unswaddle.

a 1400 Octovian 302 Her chylderen sche donste ber to bade; Sche sat alone & wyp teres to vnswade. 1598 Florio, Sfasciare, to vnswathe, to vnbind. 1604 Drayton Moses Magd Miracle 13 This most sweete princesse..Soone on her knee vnswathes it as her owne. 1771 Addison Spect. No. 50 ¶ 7 About Nine a Clock, my Mother came to unswadle me. 1788 Mrs. Hughes Henry & Isabella I. 115 Sir George ..insisted upon the nurse's immediately unpinning and unswathing him. a 1822 Shelley Fragm. Unf. Drama 207 Spirit, indeed Came to unswathe her infants. 1839 P. Keith Bot. Lex. s.v. Bulb, An Egyptian mummy that was lately unswathed in this country. 1895 Allbut's Syst. Med. I. 419 At the end of every three hours the child is unswathed.

fig. 1593 Nashe Christ's T. I. b, I will vnswathe thy breast with my sharpe knyfe. 1827 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1839) IV. 319 Spinoza himself describes his own philosophy as in substance the same with that of..the Cabalists—only unswathed from the Biblical dress. 1833 Tennyson Mem. (1897) I. 115 The clouds unswathe them from the height. 1873 H. Rogers Orig. Bible I. 42 How came any of them to unswathe themselves from all these lifelong notions.

Unswaya·ble, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1607 Shaks. Cor. v. vi. 26 To this end, He bow'd his Nature, neuer knowne before, But to be rough, vnswayable, and free.

Unswaye·d, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

1. Unwielded; uncontrolled.

1594 Shaks. Rich. III v. iii. 170 Is the Chayre emptie? is the Sword vnsway'd? Is the King dead? c 1600 — Sonn. cxli, Nor my five sences can Disuade one foolish heart from serving thee, Who leaues vnswa'd the likeuesse of a man, My proud hearts slaue...to be.

2. Uninfluenced, unaffected.

1615 Sandys Trav. III. 154, I will declare what I haue obserued, vnsway ed with either of their vices. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. II. II, Make haste Lest you into despair be cast: The Judge unsway'd. 1718 J. Hughes Patriot 14 Where's the patriot, by these virtues known, Unsway'd by others' passions, or his own? 1803 Wellington in Gurw. Desp. (1835) IV. 249 It was my opinion (unswayed, I trust, by any unworthy motives) that [etc.]. 1847 Harris Life Ld. Hardwicke II. 297 Perseverance in the strict line of honesty and duty, unsway ed by any considerations of this nature.

3. Unmoved, unstirred.

1851 Hawthorne Snow Image, etc. (1883) 200 The drops of rain that came down in monotonous succession, unsway ed by a breath of wind.

Hence Unsway·edness.

a 1656 Hales Gold. Rem. 1. (1673) 246 That constancy and unswayedness in our lives and actions.

Unswea·r, v. [Un-[2] 3, 7. Cf. OFris. unswera, und-, untswera, MDu. ontsweren (Du. ontzweren), MLG. entsweren, MHG. untswern.] trans. To retract (something sworn or asserted) 1595 Shaks. John III. i. 245 [To] Vn-sweare faith sworne. 1596 Edward II, II. i. 32 Thinkst thou that I can nor sweare thy oth against? c 1640 J. Smyth Lives Berkeleys (1883) I. 94 The kinge repents and purposeth to undoe and vnsweare what to his Barons hee had done. 1690 Dryden Amphitryon iv. 1, I think what thou wert, and who cou'd swear too much? Think what thou art, and that unswears it all. 1706 De Foe Pure Div. iv. 79 Their vow'd Allegiance early they withheld,...And unsware all Allegiance to his Line. 1829 Landor Imag. Conv. II. 147 What you propose to swear to-morrow you will unswear the day after. 1874 Swinburne Bothwell II. xvii, He...shall oversay the word he said In your own ear, or else unswear it.

absol. 1591 Spenser M. Hubberd 1058 Who would not oft sweare, And oft vnsweare, a Diademe to beare? 1681 Hickeringill Sin Man-catching Wks. 1716 I. 175 False Witnesses, whose Tongues can swear and unswear. a 1734 North Lives (1826) I. 88 Her adversary defamed her for swearing and unsweaving. 1872 Tennyson Last Tourn. 637 Unsay it, unswear!

Hence Unswea·ring vbl. sb.

[1775 Ash.] 1822 Shelley Chas. I, II. 321 Thou wilt prepside Over a knot of censurers, To the unswearing of thy best resolves.

Unsweat, v. (Un-[2] 3) 1644 Milton Educ. 7 The interim of unsweating themselves..may..be taken up in recreating and composing their travail'd spirits. Unsweated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1774 W. Mason Heroic Postscript to Chambers 12 Each glittering orb the sacred features bore Of George..: Unfil'd, unsweated, all of sterling weight. 1891 Daily News 5 Oct. 2/3 Matches, the produce of unsweated match makers.

Unsweating, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1693 Dryden Juvenal iii. 178 In Front and Sweat, if you complain of Heat, They rub th' unsweating Brow, and swear they sweat. Unswe·pable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1865 Ruskin Crown Wild Olive (1873) 4 The little piece of dead ground within..was three left, unsweepable by any ordinary methods. Unsweer, a. Sc. rare. [Un-[1] 7.] Not lazy or unwilling; not heavy or sad. a 1500 Rattis Raving I. 102 Be lel... Honest, wyseree, & answer fare. Ibid. 1264 This eild is thowles and unsweere, And yarnis play, and al blycht chere.

Unsweet, a., [OE. unswete (Un-[1] 7), = WFris. on-, ûnswiet, OS. unswôti, MLG. unsote, MDu. onsoete (Du. onzoet), OHG. unsuozi (MHG. unsüezec, G. unsüss). Cf. Unsoot a.]

1. Unpleasant, disagreeable, distasteful.

c 890 Wærferth tr. Gregory's Dial. iv. xxxvii. 318 Þæt.. of þære ea wære reccende se mist..unswetes stences. c 1000 Saxon Leechd. II. 48/14 Þonne ne bip he to unsweete to gestinne. c 1320 Sir Tryam. 968 Tristrem, ȝe telle it þe, A þing, is me vnswete. c 1384 Chaucer H. Fame I. 72 A floode of helle vnswete. 1412-20 Lyd. Chron. Troy II. 895 Þe mescheef of her vnhappy fyne, And how Fortune was to hem vnswete—All his was tolde..of þe poete. Ibid. III. 3978, I hope..so mortally to greue þe Grekis alle,..Þat þei & þou shul fele ful vnswete. 1509 Fisher Wks. I. 279 Worldly pleasures were to hym vnswete. 1590 Spenser F. Q. II. vii. 14 The troublous stormes, that cause The priuate state, and make the life vnsweet. 1603 J. Davies (Heref.) Microcosmos Wks. (Grosart) I. 34 Wakfull thoughts..That make their sleepes vnsweet, and yet as short. 1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter II. 8 We how vnsweet were our sacrifice, the brimm and dregs of our dotage. 1848 L. Hunt Jar Honey I. 7 Provided the result..be not un-sweet to the reader. 1876 Meredith Beauch. Career III. i. 2 Certain terms in the letters..,unsweet to ladies, began to trouble his mind.

b. Of a person. rare.

? a 1600 in Percy Folio (1867) I. 214 Alle the contraye had wonder greatt Fro whens she com, that foule vnsweete; They sawe neuer of so fowle a thyng.

2. Not sweet or pleasant to the taste.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 514/1 Vnswete, or sleme, sonde [yields water] lymous and lene, vnswete & depe. 1530 Palsgr. 328/2 Unswete, mal sauoured. 1547 Homilies I. Falling fr. God II. p. 3 We..bring forth wild grapes, that is to say, sour works, unsweet, unsavoury, and unfruitful. a 1643 J. Smith Prudgem. & Mere. (1649) 204 God will poure him out of his brouth as a man doth that that is unsavory and unsweet that troubles his tongue. 1661 Lovell Hist. Anim. & Min. 202 But the flesh is soft, unsweet, ferine, mucous.

3. Not smelling sweetly.

1605 Breton Olde Man's Lesson Wks. (Grosart) II. 17/1 Which is the sweetest Beast in the world? A Civit Cat. And which is the moste vnsweet? A dogge when he hath eaten carrion. 1607 Topsell Four-f. Beasts 110 Same Conies which are kept in a close and vnsweet ayre. 1825 Q. Rev. XXXI. 381 Edinburgh has been (to use a gentle term) unsweet in former times. 1860 Thackeray in Cornh. Mag. II. 635 The canals not unsweet, and busy and picturesque with flowing life. 1879 Pall Mall Bud. 9 Oct. 22 That damp, chill, and unsweet little cluster of rooms.

fig. 1811 Lamb Hogarth Wks. 1908 I. 107 That his imagination was naturally unsweet, and that he delighted in raking into every species of moral filth.

4. Unpleasant to the ear.

1579 G. Harvey Commend. Let. in Spenser's Wks. (1912) 641/1 The sweetest Farewell..that so vnsweete a Tong, and so sowre a paire of Lippes can affoorde. a 1586 Sidney Astr. & Stella (1591) xxxiv, My Muse, to some eares not vnsweet, Tempers her words [etc.]. 1589 Fleming Virg. Georg. To Rdr., How vnsweete a sound so euer they seeme to make in the eare. a 1616 B. Jonson Epigr., On Famous Voy. Wks. 877 Then the mouse doth beate Your ears with discords so vn-sweet. 1875 Cloud Childh. Relig. i. 2 If you wish to open..your ears to the sounds that give forth no unsweet notes. 1894 Mrs. H. Ward Marcella I. 312 A little laugh, which..was not unsweet.

5. Not sweetly attractive.

1866 Miss Mulock Noble Life xiv, Nor was her face unsweet now; but it bore tokens of what she had gone through.

Hence Unswee·tly adv.; Unswee·tness.

1596 Barrough Meth. Physick (ed. 3) 425 Which deceit..you may easilie find out by the vnsweetnes of smelling. 1842 Mrs. Browning Grk. Chr. Poets x. ¶ 2 The voice..sang not unsweetly, if more faintly than before.

Unswe·ten, v. (Un-[2] 6 a.) 1612 Florio, Disadolcire, to vnsweeten. a 1634 Chapman & Shirley Chabot v. iii 14 Were all my joys essential, and so mighty As the affected world believes I taste, This object were enough to unsweeten all. Unswe·tened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1827 Peacock Melincourt I. 53 Sir Telegraph poured some cream into his Unsweetened tea. 1842 Mrs. Browning Dead Rose ii, The breeze...—If breathing now,—unsweetened would forgo thee. 1880 Act 43 & 44 Vict. c. 24 § 123 Unsweetened foreign spirits.

Unswe·ll, v. [Un-[2] 7.] intr. To recover from a swollen state.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus IV. 1146 Ebben gan þe welle Of here teris, and þe herte vnswelle. Ibid. v. 214 But þo bygan a lytel his herte vnswelle, Thorugh teris, which hat gonnen vp to welle. 1530 Palsgr. 328/2 Unswolne, desgouerdy. 1580 Holyband Treas. Fr. Tong. Se desenfler, to vnswel, to aswage. 1658 A. Fox Wurts' Surg. II. xxviii. 195 When the Fracture is opened the Member unswels, if the matter runs out. 1663 Boyle Usef. Exp. Nat. Philos. II. v. xi. 229 Her whole hand, which was before tumid, unswelled again. 1753 N. Torriano Gangr. Sore Throat 26 On Friday Morning..the Throat appeared unswelled, and there was a greater Freedom in swallowing. 1778 Earl Pembroke Illiit. Exploitation (ed. 2) 117, I have been by repeated experiments kept swell, and unswell, by leaving litter, or taking it away.

Unswe·pt, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.)

1597 Middleton Wisd. Solomon xii. 3 A house-room long unsweept will gather dust. 1607 Shaks. Cor. II. iii. 126 The Dust on antique Time would lye vnswept. 1698 R. L'Estrange Seneca's Morals, Of Anger vii. 11. 73 A spot upon a Dish..., or an unsweept Hearth. 1683 Dryden Life Plutarch in P.'s Lives (1700) I. 24 To these he added a curious collection..., that he might leave nothing unswept behind him. 1760 Sterne Tr. Shandy iii. xix, His head [was] like a smoke-jack;—the funnel unsweept, and the ideas whirling round and round about in it. 1821 Lamb Wks. (1908) I. 311 The intolerable crash of the unsweept cinder, between your foot and the marble. 1852 James Pequinillo II. 63, I have left nothing unsweept for want of a broom.

transf. 1851 Carlyle in Froude Life (1884) II. 84 The town had a dirty unsweept look still.

Unswerve, obs. f. Answer sb.

Unswerved, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, 8 c.) 1849 M. Arnold Fragm. of 'Antigone' I, Justice not infring'd, Makes his own welfare his unswerv'd-from law. 1869 Lowell Under the Willows 295 Simple souls Unswerved by culture from their native bent.

Unswe·rving, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.] Not turning aside; steady, constant.

1694 Kettlewell Comp. Penitent 136 Keep up clear knowledge and unswerving righteousness in my Soul. 1797 Coleridge Osorio v. 1 ¶ She moved steadily on Unswerving from the path of her resolve. 1828 Monthly Mag. XXIX. 211 That unswerving loyalty To thee. 1898 Month. a. Wheels XIX. 165/1 The same unswerving face at the wheel. 1898 Bosw. Smith Carthage 317 But Fortune..was unswerving in her devotion to the son.

Unswe·rvingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec.)

1805 in A. Duncan Nelson (1806) 339 The unswervingly patriotic Nelson. 1834 L. Ritchie W and. by Seine 65 The Seine..flows calmly and unswervingly on. 1896 Tourr. Educ. I, iv, 81 Henry Lacy..remained unswervingly faithful to Edward.

Unswi·lled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1645 Milton Colast. 25 His farewell..is to be a concluding taste to his jabberment in law, the fishtost and the fustiest that ever corrupted in such an unswill'd hogshead. Unswi·ng, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1835 James Gipsy ii, The pot was unswung from the cross-bars that sustained it. 1856 J. Strang Glasgow & Clyde 305 To unswing a golden fence was a common trick. Unswi·nged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1538 Inv. W. Gibon of Sutterton, Linc. (MS.), Hempe vnpillid and flaxe vnswyngled. Unswo·llen, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1648 Hexham II, Ongeswollen, vnswollen, or vnpuffed. 1812 Colman Br. Grimes, Reckoning w. Time x, My link purse unswoln by fees. † Unswo·rt, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.] ? = next. a 1400 Gloss in Ret. Ant. I. 7 Fugiferandum, a othe unswore.

Unswo·rn, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b. Cf. MHG. ungesworn, MSw. os(u)o·rin, Sw. osvuren, MDa. us(v)oren, not having sworn.]

1. Of persons: Not subjected to, or bound by, an oath.

1529 More Dialoge Wks. 133/2 For none of them can tel what was said to an other, & yet they be vnsworn e also. 1533 — Debell. Salem Wks. 973/1 Yet are there many that dare secretely detecte,..and wyll not vncalled and vnsworen, tel no tale at all. 1581 Lambarde Eiren. I. x. 1 (1588) 38 Alleiet that it be the first Oath that I find to have bene ministred to Iustices of the Peace, yet I thinke they were neither unsworne before, nor at any time after. 1602 Segar Hon. Mil. & Civ. I. v. 7 That no Citizen unsworne, should remaine out of Iaile more then three dayes. 1698 Dryden All for Love v. i, Is there one God unsworn to my Destruction? 1702 Prideaux Direct. Ch.-wardens 11 Whatever they do..., while unsworn, is all to their own wrong. 1710 J. Chamberlayne St. Gk. Brit. I. xv. 128 There are in this Court 'I hree Officers unsworn. 1852 Fraser's Mag. March 246/1 He may consequently be supposed, to use the language of the law, 'to stand unindifferent as he stands unsworn'. 1884 Crutch Bacon iii. 75 An unsworn and unpaid member of the Learned Counsel.

2. Not confirmed by, or sworn as, an oath.

a 1623 Swinburne Spousals (1686) 11 Of Spousals, some be sworn and some unsworn; that is to say, some Spousals be confirmed by an Oath and some contracted without an Oath. a 1820 Cowper Odyssey (ed. 2) x. 419 When, therefore, nought of all her solemn oath Unswoon remained, I climb'd her stately bed. 1843 Act 6–7 Vict. c. 22 (title), The Admission, in certain Cases, of unsworn Testimony in Civil and Criminal Proceedings. 1889 Pall Mall G. 9 July 9/2 Granting summonses..on unsworn information.

Unsyght, -syker, var. Unsaught a., Unsicker.

Unsylla·ble, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1864 Jean Ingelow Poems 69 What work so high as mine,..Nature's..unsyllable voices to combine.

Unsy·llabled, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not formed into, not expressed in, syllables.

1594 Southwell M. Magd. Funeral Teares 69 b, The heart pressing out the vnsillabled breath at once. 1594 Zepheria xl, If she shall attend what fortunes sequeld The nauyfrage of my poore affection to darke, Then tell, but tell in words unsillabled. 1832 Motherwell Jeanie Morrison ix, When freely gushed all feelings forth, Unsyllabled—unsung. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. ii. xvii, With gaspings, gesturings, with unsyllabled cries. 1893 Mrs. Whitney Other Girls xxxiii, She was..trying to put something clearly into syllables that said itself, unsyllabled, to her.

Unsyllogi·stical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1638 Chillingw. Relig. Prot. vi. § 14. 334 To the first proposition of this unsyllogistical syllogisme, I answer [etc.]. Unsymbo·lic, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1871 Earle Phil. Eng. Tongue 211 Infantine speech is unsymbolic. 1878 H. G. Guinness End of Age 120 The Apocalypse..translated into unsymbolic language. Unsymbolicalness. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. prec.) 1681 H. More Exp. Dan. v. 149 Which Writing..is called Scripture, and for its plainness and unsymbolicalness, as I may so speak,..the Scripture of Truth. Unsymbolized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 a. c.) [1775 Ash.] 1881 H. Sweet in Trans. Philol. Soc.

106 Bell's providing a sign..for the very rare (ɜ), while leaving the frequently occurring (ə), (ʃ), (ʒ), (ŋ), unsymbolized.

Unsymme'trical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1755 Johnson, Disproportionate, unsymmetrical. 1816 R. Jameson Char. Min. (ed. 2) 207 A Crystal is said to be.. Unsymmetrical, when two sides are alike situated one above another, on each extremity, exhibit a want of symmetry. 1830 Lindley Nat. Syst. Bot. 141 An imbricated calyx with .. unsymmetrical flowers, definite pendulous ovules. 1893 Tucey Amphibians 129 This is an unsymmetrical movement of the mesoblastic somites.

Hence Unsymme'trically adv.

1755 Johnson, Disproportionately, unsuitably, unsymmetrically. 1839-47 Todd's Cyclopædia Anat. III. 603/1 These ganglia are disposed unsymmetrically throughout the body. 1879 Spencer Data of Ethics § 1. 4 The unsymmetrically-pierced disk of an eccentric.

Unsymmetrical, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 a c.) 1825 Lamb Last Ess. Elia, Wedding, Vivacious huddled up in corners; chairs unsymmetrised; candles disposed by chance. Unsymmetry. (Un-[1] 12.) 1867 Spencer Principles of Biol. II. 129 Each member of a plant will display..unsymmetry or asymmetry where there is partial or entire departure from a balance of surrounding actions. 1867 J. M. Wilson in Farrar Ess. Lib. Educ. 274 The pelargonium, and its more visible unsymmetry.

Unsympathe'tic, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1812 Byron Island iv. xiii, But calm and careless heaved the wave below, Eternal with unsympathetic flow. 1857 Mrs. Gaskell C. Bronte II. 327 The critical, unsympathetic public. 1867 H. Macmillan Bible Teach. ii. 36 We are not left in the power of blind unsympathetic nature.

Hence Unsympathe'tically adv.

1861 Dickens Gt. Expect. vii, The ridgy effect of a wedding-ring, passing unsympathetically over the human countenance.

Unsympathizabi'lity. (Un-[1] 12.) 1828 Coleridge in Lit. Rem. (1836) I. 144 A craving for sympathy in exact proportion to the oddity and unsympathizability of what he proposes. Unsympathized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 a c, 8 c.) 1818 Mrs. Shelley Frankenst. xv, Finding myself unsympathized with, [I] wished to tear up the tree.

Unsympathizing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1735-6 Savage Volunteer Laureat iv. 7, I, jocund Spring, unsympathizing, see. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 628 When they come out into the world they..become partial, unsociable, and unsympathizing. 1848 Lytton Pelham II. xix, The same stern, cold, unsympathising reserve, which made him..an object of universal conversation and dislike. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. I. 89 Jews..by whom the name and work of the Apostle of the Gentiles were regarded..with unsympathising coldness.

Hence Unsympathizingly adv.

1856 R. A. Vaughan Mystics i. ii. 1. 16 Unless, indeed, the enquiry were conducted unsympathizingly.

Unsympathy. (Un-[1] 12.) 1868 Blackmore in Life (1881) II. 305 How true the unsympathy as well as the sympathy of nature. 1871 Palgrave Lyrical Poems 19 The mountains in their gray unsympathy..Mock'd her.

Unsyntactical, a. (Un-[1] 9, adv. (Un-[1] 12.) 1865 Farrar Chap. Lang. 93 The fact..shows that their unsyntactical character is merely an accident of language. 1879 — St. Paul II. 258 This general exhortation is then carried into details, unsystematically indeed, and even unsyntactically, but [etc.].

Unsystematic, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1770 Burke Pres. Discont. 71 His single, unsupported, desultory, unsystematic endeavours. 1780— Œcon. Reform. Wks. III. 285 A blind unsystematick observance of every trifle. 1836 J. Gilbert Chr. Ethics 5 The Bible..is, in general, an unsystematic, miscellaneous communication. 1862 Shirley (J. Skelton) Nugæ Crit. x. 430 We miss the spontaneous and unsystematic music..of the true ballad. 1872 H. W. Richardson Dr. Mede's Apocal. 1 The meaning of these groups..has been unsystematic and fanciful.

Unsystematical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1780 Burke Œcon. Reform. Wks. III. 235 Thus, between the resistance of power, and the unsystematical process of popularity, the undertaker and the undertaking are both exposed. 1791 Paine Rights of Man 58 A wild unsystematical display of paradoxical rhapsodies. a 1812 Buckminster Serm. (1827) 208 The occasional, and unsystematical addresses of your ministers.

Unsystematically, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec. and Unsystematic a.) 1738 [see Unstreadily]. 1865 Trans. Philol. Soc. 15 One is systematically and the other unsystematically wrong. 1879 [see Unsystematically adv.].

Unsystematizable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1799 Southey in Sir H. Davy's Rem. (1858) 42 The unconnected and unsystematizable fables of Hindoo absurdity. 1858 H. Bushnell Nat. & Supernat. ii. (1864) 41 Some desultory, unsystematizable action.

Unsystematized, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

[1847 Webster.] 1849 Edin. Rev. April 290 Fragments of uncertain, inaccurate, ill-remembered, unsystematised information. 1863 Austin's Jurisprr. III. 277 The bulk and uncognoscibility of unsystematized law. 1870 Athenæum 17 Sept. 359/3 The last stage of what we may term unsystematized volunteer aid in a campaign.

Unt: see Unot v. Obs. (to anoint).

†Unta'che, v. Obs. [Un-[2] 9 + Tache v.[2] 1.] trans. To carve (a beaver or curlew).

14.. in Portington MS. 10 fol. 288 A Byttere untachyd. 1486 Bk. St. Albans F viij, A Beyure untaichd. 1508 Bk. of Kerving (W. de W.) A j b, Untache that curlewe. [Hence in later lists.]

Unta'ck, v. [Un-[2] 3 + Tack v.[1]]

1. trans. To take apart, break up.

1641 Milton Reform. ii. 54 The little adoe, which me thinks I find in untacking these pleasant Sophisms. a 1715 Burnet Own Time vii. (1734) II. 402 If they [sc. the Lords] should untack the Bill, and separate one from the other. [Cf. Tack v.[1] 5.]

b. To detach (from something); to set free.

1657 Marvell Instr. Dutch Wars Poems (1870) 153 Ruyter forthwith a squadron doth untack: a 1677 Barrow Serm. (1683) II. 49 It alone can untack our minds and affections from this world. 1741 Richardson Pamela II. 21 Besides, I must all undress me in a manner to untack [the papers].

2. To detach by the withdrawal of tacks. Also absol.

1693 Evelyn De la Quint. Compl. Gard. II. 41 We must never begin to Prune an Espalier..until it be quite untack'd. 1707 Mortimer Husb. 138 When the Blanket..is full, they untack it and carry it away, and empty it. 1718 J. Laurence Frnit. Gard. Calendar 43 [In Exercise his Knife..in correcting the great Disorders of his..Peach-trees; first untacking them from the Wall.

Unta'ckle, v. [Un-[2] 4, 4 b. Cf. Du. ontakelen.]

1. trans. To strip (a vessel) of tackle. Hence untackled ppl. a.

1552 Huloet, Vntakle a shyppe, exerruare nauem. 1598 Greenway Tacitus, Ann. iv. v. 40 At length the sea growing lower, and the wind more favourable, the lame and untackled shippes..returned. 1626 Laud Fast Serm. 15 That no Tempest may untackle them,..or hewe down their Masts. 1668 Davenant Siege of Rhodes i, I'le to our Gallies haste, Untackle ev'ry Mast.

2. To unharness (a horse).

1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 62 But vse to vntackle them once in a day. 1885 Even. News 25 July 2/6, I then untackled the horse from the cart.

3. To free from tackling or fastenings.

1905 'Q' (Quiller Couch) Shining Ferry iv, Groping for the rod, [she] drew the float ashore and untackled it.

Unta'ctful, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1860 E. Eden Semi-attached Couple xx. I. 181 When her vanity was in a state of mortification, she became unusually untactful. 1900 Daily News 20 Oct. 3/1 The untactful conduct of a few of his friends.

Unta'gged, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.] Not furnished with a tag or tags.

1557 North Guevara's Dial Pr. iv. viii. (1568) 129 The courtier..that is content to tye his hose with vntagged poynts. a 1625 Fletcher Woman's Prize iv. iii, And your Money..If I forfeit, Make me a Jack o' Lent, and break my shins For untag'd Points and Compters. 1705 E. Ward Hud. Redivi. II. 27 Or else those Points we slew our Art In Must often go untag'd. 1714 Welsh Monster 26 Tag'd or untag'd, his biting Satyrs..Were spun..exquisitly fine.

Unta'iled, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8 and Un-[2] 8.] a. Not furnished with a tail. b. Deprived of a tail.

1612 Florio, Discodato, vntailed, curtailed. 1648 Herrick H. Oberon 17 Vntailed, or a Hippes nile cut off as our English horses are. 1807 in Spirit Pub. Trnls. XI. 79 He acknowledged that the os coccygis in untailed animals was indeed no tail. 1836 Fonblanque Eng. under 7 Administr. (1837) III. 285 The old story of the untail'd fox's quarrel with tails.

†Unta'iled, ppl. a.[2] Obs. rare. Also Sc. wntailliied. [Un-[1] 8.] Unentailed.

1461 Paston Lett. II. 80 Bothe the foresyd manerys were ontayled. a 1578 Lindesay (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 47 The landis that was wntailliied.

Untai'lorly, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1775 S. J. Pratt Liberal Opin. (1783) III. 82 That you may be permitted to go by so genteel and untailorly a conveyance to the place of execution.

Unta'int, v. (Un-[2] 6 b.) 1855 Bailey Mystic, etc. 80 That heart-soothing herb..Held to untaint from sin the savage soul. †Untai'nt, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.] Untainted. 1638 W. Lisle Heliodorus IX. 159 Let him passe Along with them, to keepe vntaint the Lasse.

Unta'intable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) a 1610 Hickey Epictetus, Life (1616) A 5, His life was spotlesse and vntaintable. a 1670 Hacket Cent. Serm. (1675) 238 His integrity was untaintable. 1895 Cent. Mag. July 339 One like himself should praise him! Soul of grace, untaintable white brightness!

Unta'inted, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]

†1. Not attained. Obs.—[1]

1594 Shaks. Rich. III, iii. vii. 9 And yet within these fue houres Hastings liu'd, Vntainted, vnexamin'd, free, at liberlie.

b. Not dishonoured. rare—[1].

1627 Drayton Agincourt cxxlvi, Now Excester with his vntainted Rose Gaue Cam on, which long had inherit'd to come in.

2. Not affected by any physical taint.

c 1600 Shaks. Sonn. xix, Him in thy course vntainted doe allow, For beauties pattern to succeeding men. 1652 Vaughan Benefit by Enemies Wks. 1914 I. 99 Vultures..flock to them, but passe by the sound and untainted bodies. 1725 Bolingbroke Let. to Swift 24 July, But the attainder is kept..prudently in force, lest..his bad leaven should sour that sweet, untainted mass. 1760-72 H. Brooke Fool of Qual. (1809) IV. 127 Her..flesh remained..pure and untainted. 1820 Southey Kehama x. iv, The stream..delights to lie..at rest beneath the untainted sky. 1861 Ld. Lytton & Fane Tannhäuser 8 Till came the crack of that tremendous Doom..and on the lurid world Let in the effulgence of untainted light.

3. Of qualities, etc.: Unsullied, unblemished, perfectly pure.

1590 Greene Never too late (1600) 41 Isabel, whose beauty is deuine,..whose constancy vntainted. 1625 B. Jonson Staple of N. ii. iv, A Gentleman..Of an vntainted credit. 1673 Temple Obs. United Prov. Wks. 1720 I. 53 A Man of..deep Understanding, with untainted Integrity. 1750 Collins Superstit. Highlands 1, Let us wish him..joy untainted, with his destined bride. 1786 Mme. D'Arblay Diary 28 Nov., There was an evidence of her untainted worth in her very countenance. 1809-14 Wordsw. Excurs. viii. 241 Where is ..The character of peace,..And honest dealing, and untainted speech? 1831 Scott Ct. Rob. x, The knight passed on, not unmoved with wonder, though untainted by fear. 1879 R. K. Douglas Confucianism iv. 93 No virtue can remain untainted without learning.

4. Of persons, etc.: Free from moral taint.

c 1590 Sir T. More iv. v. 103 Living thus vntainted, you are well. 1593 Shaks. 2 Hen. VI, iii. ii. 232 What stronger Breast-plate then a heart vntainted? 1652 W. Dugdale Warwickshire (1656) 24 The Judge of Israel..is..untainted in point of Judicature. 1689 D. Granville Lett. (Surtees) 81 The consideration whereof hath..kept me untainted and unstained. 1709 Addison Tatler No. 75 ¶ 9 From such an untainted Couple, we can hope to have our Family rise to its ancient Splendour of Face. 1763 Churchill Poems I. 86, I her snares defy, And look on riches with untainted eye. 1814 Byron Lara i. xxiii, He will not that untainted line belie. 1825 Scott Guy M. xvi, Persons..untainted perhaps in morals, and fair in character. 1890 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ I. 170 Very few ever come forth untainted, from scenes and circumstances of temptation.

b. Const. by, with, or † of.

1612 T. Taylor Comm. Titus i. 6 The goodnes of God in keeping them altogether..vnreproueable, that is vntainted of greiuous crimes. 1649 Alcoran p. iv, To keep thy selfe untainted of their follies. 1710 Addison Spect. No. 9 ¶ 3 This Sir-name of King, which..declared the Owners of it to be altogether untainted with Republican..Principles. 1757 Foote Author II. (1777) 10/2 If George remains as untainted by affluence, as he has been untempted by distress. 1802 G. Canning Poet. Wks. (1827) 36 A statesman..Be power uncorrupted, untainted by gold. 1850 Kingsley A. Locke ii, He alone was untainted with the sin around him.

Hence Unta'intedly adv., Unta'intedness.

1612 Cotgr., Pudiquement, chastly, purely, vntaintedly, modestly. 1640 Bp. Hall Rem. Wks. (1660) 37 The light hath a quality..Of purity and untaintedness in respect of any mixture of corruption. 1686 tr. Chardin's Trav. Persia 30 A Person untaintedly faithful to the Grand Visier. 1817 Chalmers Astron. Disc. iv. 139 The untaintedness of his glory.

Untainting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1813 Shelley Q. Mab iv. 132 The untainting light of day. Unta'k(e)able, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1652 Earl Monm. Tr. Bentivoglio's Hist. Relat. 11 A place which is thought almost untakable. 1882 Paxton Hood Cromwell iii. 65 Nutt..was an untakable man, and he had several private ships.

Unta'ken, ppl. a.[1] Also 4 untak(e, 5-6 Sc. untane, 5 wntayne, etc. [Un-[1] 8 b, c, and 5 c. Cf. ON. ifiekinn, MSw. otakin.]

1. Not taken by force; not made prisoner; uncaptured.

c 1300 Will. Palerne 1280 Rist fewe wente-weys vn-wounded or take. c 1400 Song of Roland 89 He left vntak the toun, and to his tent rides. c 1470 Henry Wallace v. 853 Lest he in strenth wntayne, This laithly kynryk he wyll wyn. 1523 Ld. Berners Froiss. I. xciii. 115 Sir Robert Dartoyes was sore hurte, and scapedde hardely vntaken. 1597 Dee General & Rare Mem. 4 Their Marchantlike Ships..may..pas quietly vnpilled, vnspoyled, and vntaken by Pyrates. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. 499 Albeit the foulers doe.. catch great store of young wateron Coots, nevertheless.. remaineth vntaken. 1697 Dryden Æneis x. 1173 Untouch'd thy Arms, untaken be thy Sword. 1722 De Foe Col. Jack (1840) 88 The most prosperous untaken thief. 1768-74 Tucker Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 562 A wise general will ..leave no little stronghold untaken behind him. 1847 Mrs. A. Kerr tr. Ranke's Hist. Servia 317 Whilst that [fort] remained untaken. 1870 Morris Earthly Par. III. iv. 108 That he..scarce had trod Thirlaze on its floor.

2. Not taken, in other senses of the verb. Also const. from.

1456 Sir G. Haye Law Arms (S.T.S.) 204 He levis it [sc. the consecrated wafer] untane for despising of the sacrament. 1474 Conc. Lect. Dk. 420 In case the oportunite of this yere shuld nowe..be wntaken or ouer-slaine by the Ryme. VIII, c 6 § 3 The Jurie is like to remayne untaken for defaulte of Jurors. 1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. i. 159 It is expedient sometime to leave untaken that which a man may lawfully take. 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme ii. lxv. 412 The fine honetie..which is left vntaken from them. 1613 Sherley Trav. Persia 4, I left no paines untaken to accelerat it [sc. a journey]. 1725 Bolingbroke Study Hist. i. (1752) 7 That they might leave no liberty untaken. 1880 'Ouida' Moths xvii, Resolute to leave no pains untaken.

b. With advs., as away, down, off, up.

1483 Acta Audit. in Acta Dom. Conc. II. Introd. 120 The malis and fermes..to be untakin up be oup party. 1526 Tindale 2 Cor. iii. 14 Vntill this daye remyneth the same coverynge vntaken away. 1539-40 Coverdale in Money Parish Goods Berks. (1879) p. vi, All the beams..remain still untaken down. 1562 Turner Herbal ii. 33 If they [sc. lentils] be sodden with honey shilles vntaken of. 1610 J. Dove Advt. Seminaries 3 That veile..untill this time hath continued untaken away. 1683 J. Reid Scots Gard'ner (1907) 77 Bark..untaken off at the upper end. 1701 Col. Rec. Pennsylva. II. 43 All other lands that are mine untaken up. 1822 A. Cunningham Tradth. T. (1887) 136 My supper shall be the untaken-down spirit. 1836 [see Unstrengthened].

c. With other constructions.

1583 A. Melville in J. Melvill's Autob. & Diary (Wodrow Soc.) 75 Is obstinat in..hes it sufferit lang to converse amongs us, untean ordour wtha. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. III. § 105 The King and Queen sate untaken notice of. 1694 E. Nesbit Phœnix & Carpet viii. 127 The four children found themselves at Waterloo Station quite untaken-care-of.

Unta'ken, ppl. a.[2] (Un-[2] 3, 8.) 1893 Baring-Gould Cheap Jack Zita II. 150 Whether taken and confiscated I cannot say..But I have paid ten pounds to have it untaken and set at liberty. Unta'king, vbl. sb. (Un-[2] 3, 8.) 1656 O. Sedgwick Humble Sinner Resolved vii. 3..47 If I take a servant, I take him so, that..I can put him off again; but if I take a wife, there can be no untaking on my part.

Unta'king, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10, 5 d.] a. Sc. Without taking. b. Not receptive; not attractive.

1587 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 168 Gilf the Quene of England culd not persuaie hir awin securitie untaking his Majesteis moderis lyff. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing 377 When the Balls do not Take, the Un-taking part of the Balls that touches the Form will be left White. 1885 O. Crawfurd Woman's Reput. i, She has a harsh voice or an untaking manner.

Untalelich: see Un-[1] 3.

Unta'lented, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1723 Richardson Grandison (1754) VI. i. 6 This is the sort of stuff you must be satisfied with from a poor untalented girl. 1848 Zeitnoc III. 141 The means the untalented have of filling up their time. 1831 Carlyle Sart. Res. II. viii, Your numerous talented men, and your innumerable untalented men.

Untalkative, a. (Un-1 7.) 1739 J. Spence in Academy 20 Feb. (1875) 191/3 He's..untalkative, tolerably read and a great dealer in Relicks. 1856 Standard 29 June 5/3 Government is extremely untalkative, while the..telegraph communication with Australia is almost completely interrupted. Unta·tked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 c.) 1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. III. ii. 7 That run-aways eyes may wincke, and Romeo Leape to these armes, untaltkt of and vnseene. 1669 Dryden Tyrannick Love I. i. 1 Thy..Lorenza lies there, in a sleep is only blest. Unta·ll, a. (Un-1 7. Cf. Tall. a. 1 c.) c 1395 Plowman's Tale I. iii, The other side ben poore and pale..And seeme caitives sore a-cale..; Who toteth on hem, they ben untall.

Unta·me, a. [Un-1 7. Cf. Du. ontam, OHG. (MHG.) unzam (G. unzahm), MDa. utam, (M)Sw. otam.] Not tame or gentle; wild.

1382 Wyclif Ecclus. xxx. 8 The vntame hors shal scapen hard. 1390 Gower Conf I. 287 Whanne al his resoun was untame. 14.. Voc. in Wr.-Wülcker 589 Indomitus, vntame, wylde. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 316 If the vntame brayne of Wyndam had..gyuen eare to the counsayle. 1584 R. Scot Discov. Witchcr. xii. xv. 204 How untame by nature these vipers..are. 1609 Bp. Hall David's Pt. Metaphr. viii, Thou hast..stretcht his reigne Vnto the beards, and beasts vntame. 1655 W. Hammond Death 54 The whole world obeys Creation's law; only untame man strays.

Hence Unta·meness.

1727 Bailey (vol. II), Ungentleness, Untameness, Rudeness. 1871 Kingsley At Last viii, In curious contrast to the natural tameness of the Kinkajou was the natural untameness of a beautiful little Night-Monkey.

Unta·me, v. (Un-2 3.) 1646 Shirley Upon Death of C. Daiby Wks. (1833) I. 449 Nor did his courage know to make a pause, When honour call'd so loud, and such a cause As would untame a hermit.

Unta·m(e)able, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

(a) 1576 Fleming tr. Caius' Dogs D 2, Be the bull neuer so monstrous...neuer so vntameable. 1577 Hellowes Guevara's Chron. 58 The Parthians were a people so vntameable to be subdued, that [etc.]. 1607 Topsell Four-f. Beasts 112 The Indian little Pig-Conyes..is more tractable in hand; howbeit vntameable. 1692 Dryden Don Sebastian I. i, Still untameable! In what a state Has thy head-strong Pride..plung'd thy People. 1764 Harmer Observ. viii. § 11. 326 The Arabs have been always looked upon as an untameable people. 1774 Goldsm. Nat. Hist. III. 343 This animal..[is] more savage and untameable than any other quadrupede. 1818 Milman Samor VII, 172, I know thee now, majestic Rebel! thee The untraceable, untameable! 1833 J. Kennie Alph. Angling 25 The pike is held to be a more wild, untameable fish than the carp. 1890 N. F. Hele Aldeburgh vii. 77 They [sc. short-horned owls] are very untameable. 1890 Spectator 11 Jan., Cruel and untameable though they [sc. the Masai] seem.

(b) 1896 F. Mahony Rel. Father Prout 274 A genuine poet..enjoys the mental chase in proportion to the wild and untameable nature of the game.

(b) 1567 R. Mulcaster Portescue's De Laud. Leg. 92 The lustes of the flesh are vntameable. Kalendar vntameable. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. ix. 21 He subdeweth their untamable wilfulnesse by force. a 1677 Barrow Serm. Wks. 1687 I. 33 His own unstiable desires,..and untameable passions, will disquiet him. 1798 Young N. Th. v. 1. Pomp untameable of Weed prevails. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 380 This vigour and untamable violence of the sensitive faculties. 1818 Shelley Lett. Pr. Wks. 1888 II. 204 The untameable profusion and loveliness of nature. 1860 Hawthorne Marb. Faun xviii, It was a delight to behold this untamable water.

Hence Unta·m(e)ably adv.

1807 Trans. Linn. Soc. (1808) IX. 177 In a state of confinement, they appear to be untamably savage.

Unta·m(e)ableness. (Un-1 7 b. cf. f. prec.)

1662 T. Brooks Crown & Glory of Christianity 404 The Greeks call it an Adamant from its untameableness. 1790 Bewick Hist. Quadrup. 144 The Rhinoceros..possesses all the properties ascribed to that animal,—rage, untameableness, and immense strength. 1837 O. Wolle Misc. Diamond Necklace xiv, Her grand quality is rather to be reckoned negative: the 'untameableness' as of a fly. 1865 M. Arnold Ess. Crit. 170 By his intensity, by his untameableness,..[Heine] is Hebraic.

Unta·med, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. ON. útamdr, Sw. otamd, Norw. utamd; also OHG. ungizamot, MHG. ungezamt, and Untemed ppl. a.] Not tamed (in various senses); wild; unsubdued.

(a) a 1340 Hampole Psalter xxiv. 17 He leris..sothfastnes thurgh pe wilhe he is vntamed. 1382 Wyclif Jer. xxxi. 18 I am eened as a yungling vntamed. 1495 Glanvil Bartth. De P. R. xviii. 1 Vnto the sace he is grete, and vntamyd. 1535 Coverdale Ecclus. xxx. 8 An vntamed horse wylbe harde. 1596 Spenser F. Q. v. i. 2 Bacchus, that with furious might All th' East, before vntam'd, did ouerrunne. 1623 Bingham Xenophon p. ii, Of vntamed beasts, the most were wilde Asses. 1659 Chamberlayne Pharon. iv. iii. 248 Base Amarus,..more beastly rude Than untamed Indians. 1718 Prior Solomon I. 199 Untam'd and fierce the Tiger still remains. 1762 Falconer Shipwr. ii. 518 Like some strong watch-tower nodding o'er the deep, Untamed he stood. 1817 Moore Lalla R., Veiled Prophet iii. 226 He..there, untam'd, the approaching cong'ror waits. 1868 Rep. Ch. Commissioners Agric. (1869) 254 A door for the inroads of untamed swine.

(b) 1585 Abp. Sandys Serm. xii. 205 Which thing rightly..weied, would bridle those vntamed affections of ours. 1600 1st Pt. Sir J. Oldcastle v. viii. 8 Where dwell vntamed thoughts that hardly stoope To such abasement. 1653 W. Ramesey Astrol. Restored To Rdr. 12 His wilde untamed accustomary life. 1746 Francis tr. Horace, Art of Poetry 177 With untam'd Fury let Medea glow. 1781 Gibbon Decl. & F. xxvii. (1787) III. 58 Their native fierceness was yet untamed. 1840 Dickens Old C. Shop xiv, Monsters, whose like they almost seemed to be in their wildness and their untamed air. 1859 F. Mahony Rel. Father Prout 385 The human breast..Throbs thus unawed, Untamed and unquiescent.

(c) 1600 Surflet Countrie Farme III. xlix. 539 The perries which are pressed out of wilde peares, and all such as are vnhusbanded, vntamed. 1623 J. Taylor (Water P.) Discov. by Sea A 6 b, The windes and seas continued still their course,..vntam'd [seemed] their force. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes iv. xiv. 23 The Winds arise And work the Seas untam'd. a 1799 Coleridge Death Chatterton 150 Where Susquehannah pours his untamed stream. 1818 Milman Samor VIII. 130 The strong freedom of thy untam'd locks. 1841 Carlyle Heroes I. (1904) 33 The untamed Forests and dark brute Powers of Nature. 1865 F. Parkman Pioneers of France New World (1876) p. x, An untamed continent; vast wastes of forest verdure.

Hence Unta·medly adv., Unta·medness.

1592 Lyly Gallathea II. v, Curse..the vntamednes of thy affections. 1612 Ainsworth Annot. Ps. xl. 2 The untamedness of the tongue. 1633 Bluter Eng. Improver Impr. xxviii. 156 If the horse be kindly used, and taken of his untamedness by degrees,..he is made a horse for ever. 1706 Stevens Span. Dict. I, Sencramente,..wildly, untam'dly, outrageously. 1727 Bailey (vol. II), Wildness, Untamedness, Furiousness.

†Unta·meful, a. Obs.[1] (Un-1 7.) Untameable. 1607 Topsell Four-f. Beasts 745 Their Epithites..are most cleare demonstrations of their disposition; as sowre,..vnhonest, vntameful, harmeful.

Unta·mpered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 8 c.)

1682 Lenten Prol. 52 If it dare speak th' untamper'd Nations sence. 1827 Pollok Course T. VIII. 25 The true untampered witness of the heart. 1856 Avytoun Bothwell II. xviii, The juice Of the untampered vine. 1858 Froude Hist. Eng. IV. 290 The Bible, as edited by Cranmer, was left untampered with.

Untangle, a. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1816–30 Bentham Offic. Apt. Maximized, Evict. Const. Code 6 The special good will,..tangible or untangible, naturally flowing from these sentiments. 1818 T. L. Peacock Nightmare Abbey xii, No, sir, genuine untangible ghosts.

Untangle, v. [Un-2 3 and 7.]

1. trans. To free from a tangled state.

1550 Thomas Ital. Dict., Disbrigare, to vntangle any thyng encombred, tangled, or carefull. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 135 See then..ech pole ye out get. Which being vntangled above in the tops, Co'ye to stare pitching of hops. 1592 Shaks. Rom. & Jul. I. iv. 91 This is that very Mab that..bakes the Elf-locks in foule sluttish hires, which once vntangled, much misfortune bodes. 1596 Fenton Lone Disarmed 35 Untangle but this cruel knot, And freely let Me fly against Disdain. J. Taylor Feast (1875) II. 32 Useless webs she long untangled, Dragging them to air and light.

intr. a 1668 Lassels Voy. Italy (1670) II. 415 Sometimes meeting too thick in the arches of the wooden bridge,..they..are stopt, and cannot recover together without being able to untangle.

b. In fig. uses. Also refl.

1601 Shaks. Twel. N. II. ii. 41 O time, thou must untangle this, not I, a 1625 Fletcher Fair Maid Inn II. i, My care now Must be to untangle this division, That our most equal themes may be untroubled. 1697 Virgil tr. Dryden Georg. I. 1 He's the best in England at untangling a flourish, Madam. 1702 Vanbrugh False Friend III. iii, If Leonora's innocent, she may untangle all. 1883 D. C. Murray Hearts xx, The letter was unwritten. She would leave it to events to untangle themselves. 1894 Advance (Chicago) 19 Apr., They must untangle their own fate.

2. To set free, to release, from entanglement.

1576 Turbervy Venerie 36 Vntangle him out of the net and let him go. 1588 Dee in Halliwell Dee's Diary Lib. Mem (Camden) 46 [We will] endeauour our selues..diligently to ryd and vntangle our selues from hence. 1648 Fanshawe Il Pastor Fido 83 Come, fumbler, let me see; I can myself untangle mine alone. 1692 Wright tr. Plutarch's Ant. Paradox v. 000 Like..Fowlers, who glad to see the innocent Creatures fall into their Gins, instead of untangling them doe ingage them further in their Snares. 1828 Howells Opened Grave 173 The young..have not had our experience in getting untangled, and think they are never going to get out alive.

Untangled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Free from entanglement. 1539 Everbie Erasm. Proes. (1545) 27 Meanyng that it is exceedyng made for suer as flowes in woolly goodes to haue a mynde vntangled with the same. 1598 Florio, Sciolto, loose, free,..vnsnared,..vntide, vntangled.

Untanned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. Du. ongetand.] Not subjected to tanning.

1535 Act 27 Hen. VIII, c. 8 § 5 Any manner of Lether tanned or untanned. 1555 Eden Decades (Arb.) 361 Sackes made of raw or vntande hydes. 1639 T. de Gray Expert Farrier 320 Take the shreds of white leather untanned. 1683 Moxon Mech. Exerc., Printing 386 Sheep-Skins untan'd, used for Ball Leathers. 1790 Bewick Quadrupeds II. 194 A small Buckler compos'd of untann'd Hides. 1821 Campbell Song of Hybrias 2 A rough good shield of hides untanned. 1844 H. Stephens Bk. Farm II. 400 Untanned sheep-skin is employed to sew on the capes of the collars. 1883 Burton & Cameron Gold Coast I. 137 Long leather gaiters..and untanned shoes.

Unta·p, v. (Un-2 9, 7.) 1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. II. 229 If I should suffer her still to vntap my vessel, shee would suck me dry at last. 1689 N. Lee Princ. Cleve II. iii, Does not your Politician,..after all his Plotting, Drudging and Sweating at Lying, retire to some little Punk and untap at Night? Untaprated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1851 Ruskin Stones Ven. I. viii. § 9 The Egyptian shaft is often untapered, like the Northern.

Unta·pestried, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1849 James Woodman II, The fourth side of the room was untapestried. 1851 Sir F. Palgrave Norm. & Engl. I. 206 It was an untapestried Hall; the bowing walls freshly built with untempered mortar.

†Unta·pis, v. Obs. [Un-2 7 + Tapis v.!] intr. To come out of cover or hiding.

1602 and Pt. Return Parnass. II. v. 830 At the vnkennelling, vntapezing, or earthing of the Fox. 1634 Massinger Very Woman III. v, Now I'll untappice. (Comes forward with the bottle.)

Unta·pped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8. Cf. Da. utappet.)

In frequent use (esp. fig.) from c 1890.

[1775 Ash.] 1779 Warner in Lesse Sethyn (1844) IV. 254 An untapped barrel of ale. 1863 Bates Nat. Amazons I. 143 Untapped [india-rubber] trees still growing in the wilds. 1889 C. Edwardes Sardinia 104 What a fund of mirth..lay untapped within him!

Unta·rnishable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1888 Microcosm (N. Y.) Dec. 1 The same..untarnishable metal [sc. aluminium] wrought into every variety of cooking utensils.

Unta·rnished, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1732 Greek Grotto 185 Come, nymph,..With charms untarnish'd, innocence Display, and skilen shall commence. 1798 S. & Hr. Lee Canterb. T. II. 286 The yet untarnished bridal sentiments she..saw packed. 1818 Milman Samor VII. 256 Von flag,..shook Untarnish'd in the sun its blazon broad. 1859 Tennyson Enid 501 If I fall her name will yet remain Untarnish'd. 1876 E. Jenkins Blot on Queen's Head 14 Its glorious and wondrous colours remained fresh and untarnished.

†Untarpaper. Obs.[1] [Un-2 5. Cf. Untapis v.] An instance of unharbouring an animal. c 1700 Fox-chace 88 in Roxb. Ballads (1871) I. 363 Then to Skipland Wood he goes,..An untarpage there we had, Which made our Huntsmen full glad.

Untarred, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. Sw. otjärad, Du. ongeteerd.] Not smeared, etc., with tar.

1579 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Lowe 24 Least that M. Rogers should scape vntarred with their opprobrious Eloquence. c 1610 Rules of Marchandizes B 3 b, Cordage Tard or vntarred hundred weight. 1769 Falconer Dict. Marine (1780), Cordage blanc, White, or untarred cordage. a 1844 Campbell Napoleon & Brit. Sailor 35 A wherry.. Untar'd, uncompass'd, and unkeel'd. 1875 Knight Dict. Mech. 2732/2 An untarred cord or rope.

Untar·red, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1438 in Wars Eng. in France (1861) II. 438 We have disposed oure cousin..to passe in al haste, for whoos passage untarried we pray you that ye doo to hym your devoir. Unta·rtarized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 c.) 1797 Bailey (vol. III) Aida, Untartarized (in Chymistry) not mixed with tartar. Unta·sked, ppl. a. (Un-1 8) [1775 Ash.] 1802 Wordsw. Excurs. I. 384 To pass the remnant of his days, untasked With needless services. 1890 Dickens & D. Coleridge Memoirs Dr. Mistletoe never could endure to see me untasked.

Unta·ste, v. (Un-2 4.) 1609 Daniel Civ. Wars VIII. lxxxiii, Whil'st he himself, deceiu'd, suffers with them: And could not..Vntaste them of this violent disorder. Untastable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1656 Blount, Ingustable,..untasteable. 1674 Grew Disc. Mixture iii. § 16 In any fixed unodorable, or untastable Body.

Unta·sted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1598 Bilton, Aldebar, vntouched, vntasted. 1593 Extr. Aberd. Reg. (1848) II. 89 The aill being untaistit nor yit price maid thairupoun. 1665 Boyle Occas. Refl. IV. v, [He] pour'd it untasted on the Ground. 1725 Pope Odyss. XXII. 100 Th' untasted wineskin, the fragrant bowl. 1890 Mar. Edgeworth Moral T. II. 11 With a yet untasted pinch of Snuff between her fingers. 1823 Scott Quentin D. vii, The old Lord..placed the untasted wine-cup before him. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. vi. II. 71 The dishes were removed untasted from the table.

b. In fig. uses.

1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. II. iii. 130 All his vertues,..like faire Fruit in an vnholesome dish, Are like to rot vntasted. 1692 Dryden Don Sebastian II. i, A new Scene of yet untasted Joys. 1742 R. Blair Grave 76, Humble of sorrow gush from either eye, Fast falling down her now untasted cheek. 1818 [S. Weston] La Sauva, etc. 44 A garbled essay of his abilities, for the most part misunderstood and untasted. a 1865 Mrs. Gaskell Sylvia's Lovers (1866) I. 69 The squire withdrew into his study to read the untasted newspapers.

Unta·steful, a. (Un-1 7) 1618 Wither Juvenilia, Abuses Stripit II. i, He marres the bounty of his loving feast By his ill chusing some untasteifull guest. 1884 A. Vambéry Life & Adv. VII. 60 Very tasteless and untasteful occupation. Untastefully, adv. (Un-1 11.) 1828–32 Webster (citing Br. Rev.). 1863 Pilgr. over Prairies II. 157 A tunic..profusely and untastefully ornamented with red beads. Untasting, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1707 E. Smith Phædra & H. III. 31 Cydonian Oyl, Whose balmy Juice glides o'er th' untasting Tongue. Unta·sty, a. (Un-1 7.) 1566 Drant Horace, Sat. III. G j b, If one..drinke nothing but vinaigre, untasteful and unfyne. a 1733 Ld. Binning Lady's Complaint v, In Maidment Ball. (1844) 62 But camblet's an untasty thing. Untattered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1856 N. Hawthorne Eng. Note-bks. (1879) I. 363 Bassano..so untattered, that I think they must be modern. Untattoo·ed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1884 G. Turner Samoa vii. 89 Variegated..with neat regular stripes of the untattooed skin.

Untaught, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 b.]

1. Not enlightened or trained by teaching; uninstructed, ignorant.

c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conc. 5872 Maysters [shall give account] at pair disciples..Pat pai lete te unthewed, and untaught ga. 1382 Wyclif Ecclus. v. 5 Comune thou not to a man vntaught. c 1460 Play Sacrum. 558 [636] Syr, thu art ontawght to come in thus henly [sic]. 1567 Drant Horace, Ep. I. I. G vj, The greater companye, in vertue few, and base, Vntaught blockheads, braineles. 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, I. iii. 43 He call'd them vntaught Knaues, Vnmannerly. 1602 and Pt. Return Parnass. v. 1. 1986 With vntaught hand, and with vntuned hart. 1649 Davenant Love & Hon. III. ii. 3 Fit only to perswade the easiness Of untaught babes. 1709 Steele Tatler No. 167 P 1 The rude and untaught Multitude. 1784 Cowper Task II. 359 He teaches those to read, whose parents dwell Profane, careless, untaught. 1847 C. Brontë J. Eyre xxxii, Wholly untaught, with faculties quite torpid, they seemed to me hopelessly dull. 1882 Besant All Sorts xxviii, The crude theories of untaught, if generous, youth.

absol. 1382 Wyclif 1 Chron. xxv. 8 Thei leyden lotis by their whilis euenly,..the taught and vntaught to gyder. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Substantive, The Taught have the Advantage of the Untaught. a 1832 Crabbe Posth. Tales II. 165 He knew not how For the untaught and ill-taught to allow. Prov. c 1530 in Songs, Carols, etc. (E. E. T. S.) 129 Better it is to be wiborne than wntawght. 1557 F. [Seager] School Virtue C iii, The common prouerbe remember ye oughte, †Better vnfedde then vn-taughte.

b. Const. with inf., in, or objective complement.

1581 Howell Devises M ij, Like a childe agayne, vntaught the sleyghtes of deynte mindes. a 1593 Marlowe Hero & Leander I. 392 Her mind pure, and her toong vntaught to glose. 1642 H. More Song of Soul II. iii. III. 42 Untought In subtilties they shew themselves in jangling strife. 1683 Dryden Ovid's Ep., Helen to Paris 129 My hand is yet untaught to write to Men. 1762 Sir W. Jones Arcadia Poems, etc. (1772) 135 Daphne, yet untaught in amrous lore, Relt...pains unknown before. 1784 Cowper Task 379 Untaught The knowledge of the world, and dull of thought! 1794 Wordsw. Guilt & Sorrow iii, We gazed with terror on their gloomy sleep, Untaught that soon such anguish must ensue. 1827 Keble Chr. Y., Convers. St. Paul vi, His strain'd eye... Still gazing, though untaught to bear Th' insufferable light.

6. Of animals, etc.

1697 Dryden Æneis VI. 348 Pour sable bullocks, In the yoke untaught. 1725 Pope Odyss. VII. 153 The balmy spirit of the western gale Eternal breathes on fruits untaught to fail. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Epodes II. 57 Where Goats untaught forsake the flowery Vale. 1817 Byron Mazeppa ix, A noble steed... Wild as the wild deer, and untaught. 1863 Conington Horace, Odes III. iii. 14 For this...tigers drew Thy glorious car, untaught to slave in harness.

2. Not imparted or acquired by teaching; hence, natural, spontaneous.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 6 Bettir it is...han foro leye alle suche bingis vnwritun and vntaught. c 1449 — Repr. I. xx. 127 This other manner of [...] witnessing hi Holi Scripture, which is left here vnseid and vntaught. 1533 More Answ. Supper of Lord I. xvii. Wks. 1064/1 Leaning that untaught vil ye time of his mandy supper. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. xxiv, Delivering from his heart ore or three (untaught) sighes. 1611 Shaks. Cymb. IV. ii. 178 'Tis wonder That an inuisible instinct should frame them To Royalty vnlearn'd, Honor vntaught. 1656 Cowley Davideis I. 82 Flocks of Birds...Teaching their Maker in their untaught lays. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 276 ¶ 3. I have a natural Voice, and a pretty untaught Step in Dancing. 1742 Gray Spring 7 The untaught harmony of spring. 1836 Cpl. Wiseman Lect. Cath. Ch. (1837) 3 Many doctrines untaught by Him. 1865 Tylor Early Hist. Mankind. ii. 19 The untaught signs made by born deaf-mutes.

Hence Untau·ghtness.

1840 S. Clark in Mem. Yrnls. & Lett. (1878) 131, I have to suffer from my untaughtness.

Untawed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 + Taw v.[1] 2.)

1545 Rates of Customs b iv, Graye vntawed the timber, iiis. iiiid. Ibid. b vii, Lettuis vntawed the timber, iis. vid. 1617 Bk. Rates Marchandise G 2, Furres:..Budge, blacke vntawed. 1642 Ibid. D 2 b, Letwis..Vntawed. 1662 Stat. Ireld. (1786) II. 466 Furres..Calabar, untawed the timber, containing forty skins, 6s. 8d.

Unta·x, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To exempt from a tax; to remove a tax from.

c 1832 E. Elliott Corn-Law-Rhymes (1833) 102 Who will unlax our bread? 1834 Hr. Martineau Moral III. 119 To untax the prime necessary of life.

Unta·xable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b and 5 b.]

†1. That cannot be taxed or charged with wrongdoing. Also const. of. Obs.

a 1610 Healey Cebes (1616) 137 Behold there a faire and florishing matrone, enthroned in state,..yet vntaxable of profuseness. 1642 Br. Mountagu Gagg 130 It is not said, that I kept the Commandements of God...But they walked in them...untaxable, unblameable. a 1688 W. Claggett 17 Serm. (1699) 289 His untaxable justice in bringing upon them that punishment.

2. Not liable to taxation.

1648 Hexham II, Onschatbaer, Vntaxable, or Free and Franck. 1818 Bentham Ch. Eng. p. x, The Lower House was indeed untaxable. But the Upper House..taxed themselves.

Unta·xed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. G. untaxirt, older Da. utaxeret in sense 2.]

†1. Unassailed; unchallenged. Obs.

c 1460 Oseney Reg. 17 Ordeynyng pat all maner possessions ..sure to yow..vntaxid abyde. 1605 Bacon Adv. Learn. I. vii. § 7 In common speech (which leaves no virtue untaxed) he was called ..a divider of cummin seed. 1645 G. Daniel Poems Wks. (Grosart) II. 201 May not I, ..To my best Child, Vtter a Truth vntaxt'd? a 1691 Boyle Hist. Air (1692) 76 A mistake that must not pass untaxed amongst learned men.

2. Not required to pay taxes.

1464-5 in Acta Parlt. Scott. (1875) XII. 31/2 Any persons ..within be boundis of thare office vntaxt. 1746 Warton Progr. Discontent 119, I..din'd untax'd, untroubled, under The portrait of our pious founder. 1776 Adam Smith W. N. v. ii. (1904) II. 323 Those who exercise the untaxed employments. 1826 Lamb Wks. (1008) I. 389 The Readle..looks like a whole parish, full, important—but untaxed. 1835 Lytton Rienzi iv. IV, To live unbutchered by the Barons, and untaxed by their governors.

Unta·xing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 5 d.) 1851 Lytton Not so bad 134 A College; Where teacher and student alike the subscriber, Untaxing the Patron...The State,..Or the briber.

Unte· see Unot v. Unte- (to anoint).

Unte·ach, v. [Un-[2] 3.]

1. trans. To cause (a person) to forget or discard previous knowledge. Occas. const. to with inf.

1532 Tindale Expos. Matt. v-viii, 36 b, Thou hast vntaught hir to feare God. 1650 Baxter Saints' R. III. 535 We have a double task; first to unteach them, and then to teach them better. 1802-12 Bentham Rationale Judic. Evid. (1827) I. 8 The peasant wants only to be taught, the lawyer to be untaught. 1833 Q. Rev. XLIX. 72 Much of their time was employed in unteaching them to read. 1848 Keble in A. Mozley Lett. Newman (1891) II. 473 You have taught me so, and I scarce think you can unteach me. 1879 Emerson Soc. & Solit. vii, 135 Every new step in improving the engine restricts one more art of the engineer,—unteaches him.

b. With double object. (Also in passive.)

1620 Sir T. Matthew tr. St. Augustine's Confessions III. xii. 121 To teach me that which was good, and to vnteach me that which was otherwise. 1661 Boyle Style of Script. 128 The Complaint was ordinary, That the Reading of the Bible untaught them the Purity of the Roman Language. 1732 Berkeley Alciphr. v. § 22 Gentlemen are untaught by the world what they have been taught at the college. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes II. ii. 19 But Virtue can the Proud unteach Their false, mistaken Forms of Speech. 1814 Byron Lara I. iv, His faults..Might be untaught him by his varied lot.

2. absol. To undo previous knowledge or teaching.

1531 Elyot Gov. I. xv, It is difficulte to put out of the mynde that whiche is ones settilled,..and verily moche more to unteache than to teache. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 63 To teach and vnteach in a schoole is vnneete. a 1589 Pulfreyman Baldwin's Mor. Philos. (1600) 74 The..burthen beeing..verily much more to vnteach then to teach. 1839 Bailey Festus 317 Once—teach and unteach—nay, to use more strong Than word could do the Devil of his throne.

3. To remove from the mind (something known or taught) by different teaching.

1562 Turner Herbal II. 57, I will be content..to vnteach my error, whiche I haue taught before. 1633 T. Adams Exp. 2 Peter II. 22 That the holy Ghost should sit in the Chaire, to crosse and vnteach their principles. 1643 Sir T. Browne Relig. Med. II. § 8 Wee doe but learne to day, what our better advanced judgements will unteach to morrow. 1709 Dennis Rel. Prov. (ed. 2) 92 Over-grown Habits many times are not by dilligence to be vnteach'd. 1820 Monthly Mag. XII. 590 Must not the Anti-gallicans seek fresh sophists to unteach all their lessons of the last decennium? 1887 Ellis & Blackburn Rep. Cases Q. Bench VII. 190 Reasons..unlettled into her in the process of unteaching those prayers.

Hence Untea·ching vbl. sb.

1876 W. Cory Lett. & Yrnls. (1897) 414 The inevitable unteaching of young men, the purging from delusion.

Untea·chable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]

1. Incapable of being instructed.

c 1475 Cath. Angl. 378/2 (Ash.), Vn[illegible]chyable, indocilibilis. 1582 Hollyband, Indocile, vntractable, vnteachable. 1594 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. I. 188 The ignorant person that knoweth not himselfe..is as vnteachable a beast as can be. 1645 Milton Tetrach. 42 Our Saviour at no time expressed any great desire to teach the obstinate and unteachable Pharisees. 1707 Reflex. upon Ridicule 387 They are more unteachable, more heady, more interested. 1797 Coleridge Ciceronis iv. 126 And so the babe grew up, a pretty boy, but most unteachable. 1871 Meredith H. Richmond xlvii, I chafed at his unteachable spirit.

absol. and as sb. 1819 Shelley Cyclops 492 Let us with some comic spell Teach the yet unteachable. 1850 Carlyle Latter-day Pamph. ii. 14 If I had schoolmasters,..do you imagine I would set them on teaching a set of unteachables..?

2. Incapable of being imparted by teaching.

a 1667 Petty in Sprat Hist. R. Soc. 306 This being infinite and almost unteachable by words. 1812 Scott Rokeby I. xxvi, His was minstrel's skill, he taught The art unteachable, untaught. 1850 Emerson Cond. Life v. (1861) 116 We are continually surprised with graces..not only unteachable, but unidentifiable. 1867 Lewes Hist. Philos. (ed. 3) I. 215 Opinions..which in other dialogues Socrates is made to exhibit as untaught, perhaps unteachable.

Hence Untea·chableness.

1607 Higgon Wks. I. 462 Doe not ignorant persons continue in Ignorance and vnteachableness? 1702 Eyre Pract. Scrift. II. § 241 The worst part of this Vanity is its Unteachableness. 1850 L. Hunt Autobiog. II. 79 When kings themselves tried hard to make honest men republicans by their apparent unteachableness.

Untea·ching, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.)

1587 Fenner Def. Ministers 137 The Senate of teaching and unteaching Elders. 1610 Br. Hall Apol. Brownists xxvii. 70 What Congregation of Christendome..afforded you the necessary paiths of an vnteaching Pastor, or an vnfeeding Teacher? 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 56 The Prelats..after their preferment most usually change the teaching labour of the word, into the unteaching ease of lordship over consciences, and pipes.

Untea·m, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.] trans. To unyoke.

1548 Elyot, Interiungo, to vnteeme the horses, that they maie reste. 1592 Warner Alb. Eng. VIII. xlii. 258 Our Cattell vnto stronger draughts we..would vnteame. 1667 Jer. Taylor Gt. Exemp. (ed. 2) II. 310 Since Justice and Authority are the Rods and Axes as soon as the Sun vnteamed his chariot. 1675 Cotton Scoffer Scoff 81 Let the Hours untream thy Horses.

absol. 1662 J. Davies tr. Olearius' Voy. Ambass. 413 The Muscovian ambassador having undigell'd some of the Waggoners, all the rest would unteam and return homewards.

Untea·rable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

1648 Hexham II, Onverscheurlick, Vntearable. 1889 F. Francis Newton Dogmans iv, The pudding appeared,..an indigestible mass, composed of untearable steak. 1900 Pollok & Thom Sports Burma 252 Shooting-suits..of some strong untearable material.

Untea·sed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1843 E. Jones Sens. & Events II These multitudinous varying boughs, Unteased with leaves slept still. Untea·seled, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1877 C. Geikie Christ II. 38 A piece of raw unteazled cloth.

Unte·chnical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1845 Encycl. Metrop. II. 751/1 These authorities are of two kinds, unechnical and technical. 1860 Geo. Eliot Mill on Fl. III. vii, Tom's unteclnical mind. 1882 Farrar Early Chr. I. 149 The word occurs but once in his letter, and that in its purely general and unteclnical signification.

Unte·chnically, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec.) 1818 Cruise Digest (ed. 2) IV. 382 The intention of the parties, however unteclnically expressed. Unte·ded, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 + Ted v.[1]) a 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 301 pes lympis fallen here, as mowen gras pat were unteddid. Unte·em, v. [Un-[2] 3 + Teem v.[1]] trans. To unburden, discharge. 1635 [Glapthorne] Lady Mother III. i, Lest the full clouds..unteeme their big wombd laps And raise a sudden deluge. 1683 in J. Russell Hearn (1882) 314 It seems to me that Europe is unteaming herself to plant these Western parts of the world. Unteemed, ppl. a. dial. [Un-[1] 8 + Teem v.[2]] Unemptied. 1641 H. Best Farm. Bks. (Surtees) 53 Wee sette (att night) the..two last waines to the mowe brest, and leave them unteamed till the morninge. Unteinded, ppl. a. Sc. [Un-[1] 8.] Untithed. 1597 Burgh Rec. Prestwick (Maitl. Club) 52 For the wrangus takin in of peis onteindyt. 1663 Min. Baron Court of Stitchill (S.H.S.) 25 For hydeing and concealing of his carnes in the haird unteinded. †Unteinted, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 8. Cf. F. teinté.] Untinted, uncoloured. 1745 Phil. Trans. XLIII. 525 [He] produced several Samples of the Apples; an unteinted Russetting; a Russetting changed in Complexion. †Unte·id, v. Obs.[1] [Un-[2] 4+Teid sb. b.] trans. To clear of tents or awnings. a 1400 Morte Arth. 737 Qwen all was schyppede that scholde, they schounte no lengere, Rot vnteide [MS. ventelde] them tyte. †Unteil, v. Obs. (Un-[2] 3.) ? 1603 Heywood Woman killed w. Kindness (1617) G 2, That time could turne vp his swift sandy glasse, To vntell the dayes, and to redeeme these hours.

Unte·llable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.] Unspeakable, unutterable; indescribable.

In earlier use somewhat rare. Freq. from c 1880. The absence of evidence from 16th to 19th c. is remarkable.

1382 Wyclif Ecclus. xxxvi. 16 Fulfil Syon with thin vntellable vertues, and thi puple with thi glorie. c 1410 Lantern Lijt 136 Feer intollerable, drede vntellable. c 1425 St. Edm. of Pyatlock in Anglia VIII. 123 With vbiquytyes & weymentynges vntelabil. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 Ontelleable, inenarrabilis. 1513 Douglas Æneid I. xii. 6 Thi desyir, lady, is Renewing of ontellable sorow. 1552 Abp. Hamilton Catech. (1884) 16 The glore of the saule quhilk is untelabil.

1830 Mrs. Opie in Brightwell Mem. (1864) 246 It fills me with untellable wonder and admiration of him. 1865 Trench Gustavus Adolphus ii. 76 Which, though not absolutely untellable, had yet better remain untold. 1886 Ruskin Praeterita I. 422 The joy of approved love, and the untellable, incalculable motive of its sympathy.

Hence Unte·llably adv.

c 1425 St. Edm. of Pyatlock in Anglia VIII. 109/21 Whanne þese and obere lyke are doon often and vntelably. 1513 Douglas Æneid VIII. ix. 38 The fader than..full tenderly Apone him hingis, wepand ontellably. 1829 Missionary Herald (Bo.) 50 [The] charmer of the people[!] is terribly bad, ..untellably bloodthirsty, cruel, and lascivious.

Unte·lling, ppl. a. north. and Sc. [Un-[1] 10.]

†1. Innumerable, countless. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 2107 Inde, and pers, and arabi,..And mani oper vntelland contre. Ibid. 6441 þis ilk folk was vntelland, Pat moyses had vnder hand. 1816 G. Muir Clydesdale Hinstrelsy 7 The land lamented that had spilt Down Its annual course for ages past untellin'. 1825 Jamieson, Untelling, adj.,..denoting what cannot be counted. Roxb.

2. = Untellable a.

1823 Hogg Shepherd's Cal. i, It was untelling what land that man possessed. 1888 [J. Top] More Bite fr. Blinkbonny i, It was untellin' what Tibbie did for poor Mrs. Gemmell.

†Unte·med, ppl. a. Obs. [OE. untemed (Un-[1] 8), = MLG. untem(m)et, MDa. utæm(me)t, Da. utæmmet. Cf. OE. ungetemed, MDu. ongetemmet, -temt (Du. ongetemd), MLG. ungetemet, G. ungezähmt.] Untamed.

a 1000 Gloss. in Wr.-Wülcker 226 Edomitius [sic], untemed, wilde. a 1200 Cambridge Ps. xxxii. 17 Leas wel untemed hors. 1388 Wyclif Eccles. xxx. 8 Pus horse vntemyd..schal escape hard. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. XVIII. lxxvii. (Bodl. MS.), Onager is a wilde asse..and suche asses been grete..& vntemed. c 1420 Prose Life Alex. 8 A pryuce of Macedoyne broghte þe kyng a horse vn-temed, a grete and a faire.

Unte·mper, v. (Un-[2] 3.) 1685 Cotton tr. Montaigne I. 233 Examples have demonstrated to us that..the study of sciences does more soften and untemper the courages of men than any way fortifie and incite them. 1798 Ker tr. Macquer's Chem. I. 65 By the same operation Steel may be untempered. †Unte·mperable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b, 5 b.) = Intemperable a. 1571 tr. Buchanan's Detect. Mary (1572) H iij, A woman..in..corrupte affectionnis vnbridelit, vntemperable by her estayt, raging by hyr power.

†Unte·mperance. Obs. (Un-[1] 12 and 5 b.)

1541 R. Copland Galyen's Terap. 2 A. iv, The fyrste maner [of ulcers] habundeth by the vntemperaunce of the flesshe subiecte. 1587 Fleming Contin. Holinshed III. 1268 The successors may be taught by their predecessors,..sobrietie by their vntemperance. 1614 Gorges Lucan IV. 124 The hazards that ensue,..From the vncertaine motions grew, When then the aires vntemperance drew.

†Unte·mperant, a. = Intemperate a. 2 (quot. 1388).

†Unte·mperate, a. Obs. [Un-[1] 7, 5 b.]

1. a. Of weather, etc.: = Intemperate a. 1.

1545 Ld. Berners Froiss. II. cxxiv. 353 In Castyle there is no thynge but harde rockes and Mountaynes,..and an vntemperate ayre. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 137 Of these vntemperate stormes rose such a scurcity, that wheat was sold at iiiis. iiiid. the busshell. 1614 Archidaconcry of Essex (MS.) Minutes fol. 101 [The weather] was wett and vntemperate.

b. Distempered, disordered. rare[−1].

1539 Elyot Cast. Helthe (1541) 17 b, [To] the bodyes untemperate, suche meates or dryukes are to be gyven, which be in power contrary to the distemperance.

2. = Intemperate a. 2.

1388 Wyclif Ecclus. xxxi. 23 Colre..and gnawyng to an vndiscreet eiher vntemperat (Gr. C. Coll. Camb. MS. vntemperaunt) man. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. I. xiii. 43 b, [They] that do delite in an vntemperate desyre of speculacion. 1589 Cooper Admon. 2 A lamentable state of time it is, wherin such vntemperat boldenes is permitted. 1607 Markham Cavel. II. 101 If the Ryder haue an vntemperate hand, which euer pulleth..vpon the horses mouth. a 1633 Cary Relw. H (1680) 16 The King, by his temperance and vndiscreet actions, had lost the hearts of his People.

3. = Intemperate a. 3.

a 1589 Palfreyman Baldwin's Mor. Philos. (1600) 116 Youth vntemperate, and full of carnall affections, quickly turneth the bodye into age. 1592 Nashe P. Penilesse G ij b, Vntemperate venerie, and that hatefull sinne of selfe-loue. 1613 Shirley Trav. Persia 53 Hee that can restraine himselfe from being transported by vntemperate appetites. 1625 Shirley Love Tricks II. ii, I would not leaue Rufaldo for a world Of rash, vntemperate youth.

Hence † Unte·mperately adv. Obs.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. clxxxviii. (Bodl. MS.), Wyne drinkinge vntemperatly is to man kinde..venym. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John ii. 14 b, When their geastes..haue their mouthes out of taste, & powre in drinke vntemperately. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidan's Comm. 237 b, They heardc also howe vntemperately the Freers that were collcoutours handled the matter. 1602 Segar Hon., Mil. & Civ. iv. i, 209 He that immoderately and vntemperately pampereth his own body.

† Unte·mperateness. Obs. [Un-1 12, 5 b.]

1. Distempered physical condition.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. xvii. ii. (Bodl. MS.), pe temporal place bringeb oute of vntemporatenes and makeb it gode to ete. 1542 R. Copland Galyen's Terap. C iv, Some dysease of the lynen, or the weykenes of the party greued, the which is none other thynge but a clere and notable vntemperatnes. 1580 Blundeville Horsemanship iv. 36 b, To learne at the Physicians handes, which ..as touching the weakenesse of the Liuer, proceeding of the vntemperatenesse thereof, will bid you to heele euerie such vntemperatenesse by his contrarie. 1597 A. M. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 35 b/1 The glowinge Cautery ..amendeth the vntemperatnes of that parte. 1621 Burton Anat. Mel. I. ii. v. iii. An inuate burning vntemperateuesse, turning blood and cholor into melancholy.

2. = Intemperateness 1.

1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 238/a A dwelling place conueniently situated against the vntemperatenesse of the ayre. 1594 R. Asheley tr. Lipsius' Pol. v. 96 The vntemperatenesse of Winter, and Summer. a 1656 Ussher Ann. (1658) 723 The work..being hindred by no vntemperatenesse of the weather. 1665 Manley Grotius' Law C. War 405 Many of his men, ..by the vntemperatenesse of the Air..dyed. 1798 J. S. Le Dran's Observ. Surg. (1771) Dict., Intemperies, an Unseasonableness, Vntemperateness.

3. = Intemperateness 2.

1578 Timme Calvin on Gen. 213 By reason of vntemperatenesse they doe degenerate from their nature. 1599 Minshiu Span. Gram. To Students, Vntemperatenes, Vnshamefastnes, Vnfaithfulnes, and Vnthankefulnes. 1637 Saltonstall Eusebius' Constantine 137 Vntemperatenesse of life, coueteousnesse, murder.

† Unte·mperature. Obs.[1 [Un-1 12, 5 b.] Distempered state. a 1604 Hanmer Chron. Irel. (1809) 396 [After the] Earthquake..there followed..a continuall vntemperature of the ayre, with a filthy skurfe.

Unte·mpered, ppl. a. [Un-1 8. Cf. MDu. ongetempert, Du. ongetemperd, MHG. ungetempert.]

1. Unregulated; not moderated or controlled.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. ix. 102 Wolde neuere be faithful fader his fithel were vntempred. a 1547 Surrey Eccl. v. 52 What lyef leede testeye men that consume their dayes In inwarde frets, untempred passes, 1561 Norton & Sackv. Gorboduc III. i, Your eldest sonne, misleid By traitours framde of young vntempered wittes Assembleth force against your yonger sonne. 1631 A. Wilson Swisser III. ii, I willbee your Sticklet, You too vntempered d'Veltiny of the Wm. Mittron Hist. Greece I. 584 Every untempered government must be jealous. Ibid. III. 72 The spirit of party will pervade a state with..untempered and..lasting violence.

2. Unmodified, unqualified. Freq. const. by.

1768–74 Tucker Lit. Mol. (1834) II. 603 The utmost rigour of legal justice unmixed with mercy. 1794 S. Williams Vermont 203 The spirit of monarchy, untempered by representation. 1847 H. Rogers Ess. (1860) I. 240 His eyes ache with that too untempered brilliance. 1868 Freeman Norm. Conq. v. II. 481 Rigid justice, untempered by mercy.

2. Of lime or mortar: Not properly mixed and prepared. Also in fig. context.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. III. 305 Vntemped lime yf wth the graffes be Putte in the plages. 1535 Coverdale Ezech. xiii. 11 Ye wall, that ye haue dawbed with vntempered matter. 1637 Gillespie Eng. Pop Ceremo. III. i. 7 He labouredth to plaister vp his Superstition with the vntempered morter of this quidditative distinction. 1661 Cowley Crom-well Wks. 1906 II. 362 That none of these untempered Mortars can hold out against the next blast of Wind. 1755 Young Centaur v. 311 This castle was built out of the various ruins of many demolish'd forts of infidelity,..and cemented with untemper'd mortar. 1826 Southey Vind. Eccl. Angl. 44 I have not been labouring in the quarries for thirty years, that I should build with untempered mortar. 1896 A. D. Coleridge Eton in Forties 8 His gloves..[being] bedaubed..with untempered mortar.

transf. 1781 Cowper Hope 607 To storm the citadels they build in air, And smite th' untemper'd wall, 'tis death to spare.

b. Not properly digested or concocted.

1822 Good Study Med. II. 757 The untempered fluid contained in the tubercles. Ibid. IV. 695 A defective secretion of the rete mucosum, which..seems to be..untempered or imperfectly elaborated.

c. Unhardened.

1820 Good Syst. Nosology 427 Bones untempered in their substance, and incapable of affording their proper support. 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 220 A screw of untempered steel. 1839 Noad Electricity 239 A disc of untempered steel.

Unte·mpering, ppl. a. (Un-1 2.) 1599 Shakes. Hen. V, v. ii. 241 My blood begins to flatter me, that thou doo'st love me], notwithstanding the poore and vntempering effect of my Visage. Unte·mpered, a. (Un-1 9.) 1846 Worcester (citing Millman). 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 244 The serene untempered heavens of the isles of the blest. Untempe·stuous, a. (Un-1 7, 5 c.) 1864 Swinburne Atalanta 400 Like kindled lights in untempestuous heaven. Unte·mpled, a. (Un-1 9.) 1850 S. Dobell Roman v. 61 A bare Untempled spot, unblest, unconsecrate. 1855 Bailey Mystic 16 He, the untempled God, above man's thought. Unte·mporary, a. (Un-1 7.) 1984 R. Bage Barham Downs I. 235 Oh, for the actual, undisturbed, untemporary enjoyment of two such friends! Unte·mptable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1819 Monthly Mag. XLVIII. 306 With this second marriage, the untemptable Adam is extremely delighted. 1837 Sir F. Palgrave Merch. & Friar iv. 243 They wish to earn the character of the most untemptable and rigid justice.

Unte·mpted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not tempted; unassailed by temptation.

1607 Beaum. & Fl. Woman-hater iv. i, Can you imagine A Maid, whose beauty could not suffer her To live thus long untempted? 1652 Bp. Hall Invis. World III. xii, Those objects of dread, and horror,..not so confined to their hell, as to leave us untempted. 1716 Gay Trivia II. 287 Careful observers,..Untempted,..contemn the jugler's feats, Pass by the Mouse, nor try the thimble's cheats. 1757 [see Untainted ppl. a. 4 b]. 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. VIII. 259 Those..yet untempted to forsake The simple occupations of their sires. 1865 Grosart Mem. H. Palmer 44 The issue of profound meditation,..not untempted of doubt. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Col. Reformer (1891) 366 An unworn, untempted nature.

b. Not due to or resulting from temptation or enticement.

1744 Akenside Pleas. Imag. I. 573 Let the breath of thy extended praise Inspire my kindling bosom to the height Of this untempted theme.

† Unte·mptet. Obs. rare. (Un-1 12.) 1382 Wyclif Jas. i. 13 Sothelil God is vntempter [L. intentator] of yuel thingis, forsoothe he temptith no man. Unte·mptible, a., -ibly, adv. (Un-1 7, 12.) 1888 E. Irving Serm. I. p. lxvii, Infallibility and holiness untemptible..in that which heretofore had been human, fallible and temptible flesh. 1858 Bushnell New Life xiii, Absolute purity is untemptible, as in God. Ibid. God..is untemptible. Ibid. He can make us untemptibly pure.

Unte·mpting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1824 Lytton in Life & Lett. (1883) I. 294 The poor animal ..hent his hand lungidly over the untempting food. 1899 J. E. Page Cicero Cunningham 323 A schoolboy repugnance to go back to my smoky lodgings, and Mrs. Ferrall's untempting fare.

Hence Unte·mptingly adv.

[1847 Webster.] a 1856 H. Miller Rambles Geologist (1858) 357 The day was still unfavorable, and the [geological] sections seemed untemptingly indifferent.

Unte·mptingness. (Un-1 12. Cf. prec.) 1646 Hammond Sermons 12 The naturall intrinsecall untemptingnesse of that sinne. Unte·nsed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Unsifted. 1641 Best Farm. Bks. (Surtees) 105 Wee have received a pecke and a halfe more of tempsed meale from the one, than wee have had of the other, of untempsed meale.

Untenability. (Un-1 12, 5 c. Cf. next.)

1642 Perkins & Sacky. Rivenet Trial 76 The weaknesse and untenability of it was no ground of its surrender. 1841 Herschel Ess. (1857) 188 The complete untenability of a simple aqueous doctrine. 1884 Lane Times 1 Nov. 7/2 The untenability of the modern American contention.

Unte·nable, a. [Un-1 b and 5 b.]

1. Incapable of being held against attack.

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. VIII. § 60 Having lain so long with such a strength before so vile and untenable a place, without reducing it. a 1671 Ld. Fairfax Mem. (1699) 9 In a council of war the Town was judged untenable. 1769 Robertson Chas. V, iv. Wks. 1833 V. 418 That ill-provided and untenable fort. 1796 Campaigns 1793–4, I. i. ix. 91 The post..was abandoned as untenable. 1844 H. H. Wilson Brit. Empire II. 54 Measures were taken to render the position of the besiegers untenable. 1879 Cassell's Techn. Educ. I. 287 The fire of the Prussian artillery rendered the interior of the works..untenable.

b. fig. (Cf. sense 2.)

1692 Dryden Juvenal (1697) p. lii, Cassubon..thinks it time to abandon a Post that was untenable. He acknowledges that Persius is obscure in some places. 1765 Sterne Tr. Shandy VIII. xxxiv, If there was any one post more untenable than the rest, he would be sure to throw himself into it. 1828 Hare Vind. Ecclesia 534 An impartial retrospect ..will..convince Mr. Dawson, that he has occupied untenable ground. 1880 M'Carthy Own Times lxiii. IV. 429 He withdrew from what he felt to be an untenable position.

c. Incapable of being occupied or retained.

1699 Bovey Dict. Regal 21, His new Lodgings were made in a Moment as untenable as the others. 1721 Amherst Terræ Fil. No. 40 (1726) 211 Not content with..college-offices, they have lately found out a method of augmenting them with good livings, which, according to statutes and prescription, are untenable together. 1860 Merc. Marine Mag. VII. 291 A ship could lay there in safety when Table bay would be untenable. 1883 Stevenson Silverado Sq. 5 The site has proved untenable.

2. Incapable of being maintained or supported.

1650 Fuller Pisgah II. xiii. 268 A Tenet untenable with truth. 1664 H. More Apol. 507, I am..far from rejecting or condemning the Opinion of the Schools from being altogether untenable. 1724 Waterland Further Vindic. Christ's Divin. Introd., Their main Scheme appearing so gross, and so untenable, that they..are..ashamed to own it. 1835 Thirlwall Greece iii. I, 78 A not untenable hypothesis. 1886 Law Rep. 31 Chanc. Div. 365 The claim is of the most untenable description.

Hence Unte·nableness.

1833 G. S. Faber Recapit. Apostasy 40 The untenableness of the various names..crudely propounded by the wantonness of expositorial licence. 1846 Lewes Hist. Philos. IV. 92 The untenableness of the theory of innate ideas.

Unte·nant, v. [Un-2 4, 5.]

1. trans. To dislodge from a dwelling.

1614 T. Adams Devils Banquet 104 Hee gets possession of their affections, whence all the power of man cannot vntenant him.

2. To deprive of a tenant or tenants.

1640 Shirley St. Patrick for Irel. i. i, You know I can Untenant hell, dispeople the wide air. 1796 Coleridge Destiny of Nations 35 All Those blind Omniscients, those Almighty Slaves Untenanting creation of its God. 1799 Monthly Rev. XXVIII. 528 It is only wonderful that the official cadastres should not wholly have untenanted the soil. 1832 R. Chambers Eminent Scotsmen I. 46 The Reformation untenanted its walls. 1846 M'Gee Irish Writers 30 Dempster..began to untenant every niche in the national temple of Ireland. 1861 Ld. Lytton & Fane Tannhäuser 67, I, whose heart of all that lived in it He hath untenanted.

3. To depart from, to quit.

1795 Coleridge Lines at Shurton Bars iv, Untenanting its beauteous clay My Sara's soul has wing'd its way.

Unte·nantable, a. (Un-1 7 b.)

a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Essex I. (1662) 347 Winchester Castle was..ordered to be made Untenable; but the over-officious malice of such who executed the Order (wilfully mistaking the word) made it Untenantable. 1772 Ann. Reg., Chron. 141/1, 400 houses..destroyed, or rendered untenantable. 1774 Phil. Trans. LXIV. 274 They may so abound with fleas as to become untenantable. 1833 Whewell Astron. vii. 64 The apparently frozen and untenantable regions in the neighborhood of the pole. 1862 Galton Vac. Tour. 208 Beds untenantable, charges unconscionable, is the state of things now.

Unte·nanted, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not occupied by a tenant or tenants.

1673 Temple Ess. Ind. Wks. 1720 I. 117 The Country seems to be full stock'd, no Ground that I hear of being untenanted. 1677 Yarranton Eng. Improv. 26 There needed not one House to stand empty and untenanted. 1741 Richardson Pamela II. 203 A pretty little farm and House, untenanted. 1868 Scott Prom. II. Introd., All silent now —for now are birds of bowers, untenanted Bowhill. 1887 Spectator 22 Oct. 1413 There are not now so many untenanted spaces on the globe suitable for human habitation fig. 1890 Carlyle Misc. (1892) III. 53 In that hour thou wilt look back on thy untenanted life.

Unte·nded, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1598 Florio, Incustodite, not kept, not looked vnto, vntended. 1732 Lyttelton Pyger. Love i. 17 His flock..untended lay, To ev'ry savage, untenedness prey. 1736 Thomson Liberty v. 10 Let Asia's woods, Untended, yield the vegetable fleece. 1794 Wordsw. Guilt & Sorrow lxiii, Nor shall she perish there, untended and alone! 1807 J. Barlow Columb. vi. 160 His flocks, untended by his usual train. 1854 H. Miller Sch. & Schm. xi, The hedges [were] gapped by the almost untended cattle. 1861 Peaks, Passes & Glac. Ser. II. I. 163 The same fitful glare from the pine-log fire, as the untended embers crumble together!

Unte·nder, a. [Un-1 7.]

1. Not tender in dealing with others; ungentle, unkind. Also const. of.

1605 Shakes. Lear I. i. 108 So young, and so vntender? 1621 — Cymb. III. iv. 12 Why tender's thot than Paper to me, with A looke vntender? c 1678 J. B. in Spirit of Popery (1680) 75 Is it reasonable..to be thus tender of a few men, and untender of the grand Concerns of..our Master? Ie 9 20 Congreve Lament. Helen over Hector 9 In all which time ..Not one untender Word or look of Scorn, Which I too often have from others born. 1774 Beattie Minstrel II. xxxi, Let untender thoughts be a dream. 1898 Lang Elia II, Wedding, Is there not something untender..in the hurry which a beloved child is sometimes in to tear herself from the paternal stock. 1898 G. W. E. Russell Collect. & Recall. ii. 14 In those untender days he was considered too delicate to remain at a Public School.

† 2. Not having a tender conscience; lacking in religious susceptibility. Also transf. Obs.

a 1658 Durham Comm. Rev. (1660) 287 We will find, that many who have been untender, have had haid at this work. 1680 in Proc. Soc. Antiq. Scot. XLV. 235 (This woful dreadfull detection in these two emenent men is to be lamented. ..Among them Mr. Castairs elder is the most unsound and untender. 1730 T. Boston Mem. (1899) 37 He, being both a weak and untender man, was unacceptable to the parish. Ibid. 136 The untender carriage of some ministers in Nithsdale. 1765 J. Brown Chr. Synl. 262 Untender professors loudly hawl against the sins of others. a 1812 Maclean Disc. Wks. 1848 VII. 199 By an untender walk guilt has accumulated upon the conscience.

3. Not immature.

1879 Bain Educ. as Science xii. 416 The effect produced on tender years will be submerged in the un-tender years that follow.

Hence Unte·nderness.

a 1658 Durham Comm. Rev. (1660) 181 There was much..unwatchfulnesse and untendernesse in both these respects before God. 1620 in Proc. Soc. Antiq. Scot. XLV. 248 An untenderness and sinfull love of life. 1724 E. Erskine Serm. Wks. (1991) 122 If through untenderness ye provoke him to withdraw. 1883 Century Mag. 55 This education..he had never got.—Hence his untenderness.

Unte·ndered, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.] Not offered. 1607 Middleton Michaelmas Term III. iv. 45 Is not the day past, the money untendered? 1611 Shakes. Cymb. III. i. 10 Cassibulan..granted Rome a Tribute, Yeerely three thousand pounds; which (by thee) lately Is left vntender'd.

Unte·nderly, adv. (Un-1 11.)

? a 1400 Morte Arth. 1144 Vn-tenderly fro be toppe bai tilting to-gedere. c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. VII. ii. 128 (Cott. MS.), He sendis hame in to Normondy, Par tretyt bai war wntendyrly. 1665 Warriston Diary (S.H.S.) II. 143, I heard of Suynton's..leaving of all family exercises..and walking untenderly on the Lords Day. a 1698 Durham Comm. Rev. (1660) 188 A Minister..prone to foster their security, or rifle their wounds untenderly. 1780 S. J. Pratt Emma Corbett (ed. 4) III. 154, I have too much contributed to her happiness for her to treat me untenderly. 1856 Mrs. Browning Aurr. Leigh II. 823 If I spoke untenderly This morning,..pardon it. 1868 Browning Ring & Bk. vi. 196 The snow-white soul that angels fear to take Untenderly.

Untenible, a. [Un-¹ 7.] Untenable. 1783 Hailes Antiq. Chr. ch. 135 A conclusion most illogical and untenible.

†Untennanted, ppl. a. Obs.-¹ [Un-² 8.] Not furnished with a tenon. 1678 Moxon Mech. Exerc. v. 84 Make also a Tennant on each un-Tennanted end of the Stiles.

Untent, v. [Un-² 4, 4 b.] 1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. ii. 178 Why, will he not vpon our faire request, Vntent his person, and share the ayre with vs? 1611 Florio, Stendare, to remoue the tents of a camp, to vntent. Untentaculated, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] a 1820 McCulloch Attributes (1843) III. 394 The untentaculated Medusæ.

Unte·nted, *ppl. a.*¹ [Un-¹ 8 + Tent *v.*⁴] Unprobed, undressed.

1605 Shaks. Lear i. iv. 322 Th' vntented woundings of a Father's curse Pierce every sense about thee. 1822 Mitman Martyr of Antioch 65 Wounded unto death, untented. 1828 Scott Aunt Margaret's Mirror xii fin., The wounds of an untented conscience.

†Unte·nted, *ppl. a.*² Obs. [Un-² 8 + Tent *v.*⁵] Not tempted. 1725 in Peterkin Orcb. & Zetl. (1822) I. 223 The straight pathes of virtue and untented honesty.

Unte·nted, *ppl. a.*³ Sc. or arch. [Un-¹ 8 + Tent *v.*¹] Unheeded, unregarded.

1791 J. Learmont Poems 61 The least untentit, lowsepoke word, Gars them draw the duellin' sword. c 1800 R. Gill Elegy Dudbridge Lintz (1818) While busy time still jogged on, Unmark'd, untented. 1867 Morris Jason x. 300 Great herds of deer and neat,..Seeming all wild.., For quite untented here and there they ran.

Unte·nted, *ppl. a.*⁴ [Un-² 8 + Tented ppl. a.] Not furnished with a tent or tents. 1891 Cent. Dict. s.v., An untented army;..an untented field.

Unte·nty, a. Sc. [Un-¹ 7.] Careless, heedless. 1819 Scott Legend Montrose x, What is to become of me, if Gustavus should be lamed among their untenty hands! 1893 Stevenson Catriona vii, I would never be so untenty as to commit myself.

†Unte·rmed, ppl. a. [Un-² 8.] Unbounded, unlimited. c 1386 Chaucer Prioresses Pr. cv. ii, He seemeth that treaty mindeth, While him is vntermed ages bindeth. 1633 Ford Love's Sacr. III. iii, Thy reward..Shall be our special thanks, and loue vn-term'd.

†Unte·rminable, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 7, b.] a 1697 Blanton Serm. (c. ccix. (1725) 436) Eternal punishments implies an immutable and unterminable abode in Being. Unte·rminably, adv. [Un-¹ 11, 5 b.] 1632 R. Skeene in A. Craig Pilgr. & Hermit 3 For the singular and ever bound duetie, wherevnto..I ever acknowledge my selfe to be vnterminably tied, to loue, serue, and honour, You, You and Yours. Unte·rminated, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] [1775 Ash.] 1853 Kane Grinnell Exp. xxvii. (1856) 225 The broad, unterminated expanse of ice. 1892 E. T. Dixon Peasant Country 9 A very unterminated straight line.

Unte·rminating, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.) 1821 Scott Blogr. Mem. (1834) I. 368 The unterminating succession of misfortunes. Unterraced, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] [1775 Ash.] 1899 Stevenson Trans. Cevennes 166 The ground, where it was unterraced, was usually too steep. †Unte·rred, ppl. a. Obs.-¹ [Un-¹ 8.] Uninterred. 1633 Marmion Fine Companion i. 1, Those That lye unterr'd, wanting their funerall rites. Unterre·strial, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1746 Young Nt. Th. ix. 1752 The natives of this world sublime, Of this so foreign, un-terrestrial sphere. 1813 Shelley Q. Mab vii. 175 No pain assailed His unterrestrial sense. Unterrifiable, a. (Un-¹ 9 b.) 1875 Helps Soc. Pressure xviii. 352 There remain no unterrifiable witnesses but children.

Unterri·fic, a. (Un-¹ 7.)

1788 H. Downman Infancy vi. 637 The stream Of lightning,..safe convey'd, In unterrific silence, to the ground. 1829 Southey Sacr. Rec. ii. iii, Not unterrific was the aspect; but we looked on it like brave youths. 1887 Ruskin Præterita II. 393 A majestic, but unterrific fortalice of cliff.

Unterrified, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

Also U.S. 'derisively applied to the Democratic party': 1872-63 in Thornton Amer. Gloss. s.v.

1609 Daniel Cto. Wars vi. lxxviii, Yet standes he stiffe, vndash't, vnterrifi'd. 1670 Flatman Death of Albemarle v, Ever unterrified his valour stood Like some tall rock amidst a sea of blood. 1753 Smollett Cl. Fathom xlii, The chevalier, unterrified by this dreadful salutation, desired he would accompany him to a more convenient place. 1764 Ann. Reg., Chron. 87/1 The robin..comes in..unterrified by the number of people. 1768 Adventures of a Bank-note, unterrified, Into the gulf of death. 1856 Olmsted Slave States 178 The attempt to suppress discussion has given every advantage to the unterrified partisans on both sides.

Unterrifying, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 10.)

1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 149 What a mild and unterrifying thing is Death to such a Man as this! 1821 Lamb Elia ii. Chapter on Ears, The genuine unterrifying aspects of my pleasant-countenanced host and hostess. 1877 Swinburne C. Brontë 9 Lips already whitened..by the present shadow of unterrifying death.

†Unte·state, a. [Un-¹ 7, 5 b.] Intestate.

c 1440 Jacob's Well 20 Pe godys of here tenauntys þat deyen vntestate. 1559 Richmond. Wills (Surtees) 138 Not willinge to dye untestate,..I provide..this my last will. 1591 Savile Tacitus, Hist. ii. 89 If they dyed vntestate the ordinary course of the law..was obserued. 1600 Rowlands Lett. Humours Blood iv. 65 It was his fathers lucke of late to die Vntestate. 1627 Middleton (title in Heckam.)

Unte·sted, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

†1. Intestate. Obs. (Cf. prec.)

1570 Foxe A. & M. (ed. 2) I. 409/1 The courte [of Rome] ..aspired how to vsurpe the goods of them that die vntested. 1586 Spenser Will Wks. 1882 I. p. xvii, Suche as dye vntestyd. 1608 in T. Pont's Acc. Cunningham (Maitl. Cl.) 183 Johne Blair..deceist vntestit in the monyed Lanrie, 1604 zeirs.

2. Not tested or proved.

[1775 Ash.] 1828-32 Webster (citing Adams' Lect.). 1881 Tyrch Lect. Teach. 179 To leave him unquestioned and untested. 1884 Church Bacon viii. 197 His whole doctrine of 'Forms'..is an example of loose and slovenly use of unexamined and untested ideas.

Untesticled, ppl. a. (Un-³ 8, 4.) 1668 Wilkins Real Char. 297 So Ox is untesticled or gelt Bull. †Unte·the, Obs.-¹ [Un-¹ 4 b + tethe Tache 58.¹] Wrongful act; fault. c 1350 Will. Palerne 509 His maners were so menskful, a-mende hem mist none, & sebþe forsoþe til þis time non vntethe he nr wrouht. Untether, v. (Un-² 4 b.) [1775 Ash.] 1888 W. G. Black Heliotland 9 The herd-girl who comes to untether the patient sheep. Untethered, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1826 Scott A. Milas D. Barrow 5 (These evidences, etc.) give a free untethered flight to the imagination. 1907 Daily Chron. 6 June 5/5 Old untethered horses and donkeys..browsing on the slopes. Untewed, ppl. a. (Un-² 8 + Tewe *v.*¹] Untrimmed. 1591 Lyly Endym. ii. ii, That..cruell enemie that bereth rough and untewed lockes vpon his bodie.

Untha·ck, v. [Un-² 4.] = Unthatch v.

c 1400 Pepysian Gospel Harmony 22 Hig coumben on þat hous and vnþakkeden it.

†Unthank, sb. Obs. [OE. unþanc masc. (f. un- Un-¹ 12 + þanc Thank sb.), = OFris. unthonk (WFris. ontank, NFris. untoonk), MDu. ondanc (Du. ondank), MLG. undank, (OHG. undanch, unthank (MHG. undanc, G. undank) ingratitude, displeasure, etc.; ON. óþökk fem., a reproach, censure, etc. (MSw. othak, Sw. otack, MDa. and Da. utak ingratitude, etc.).]

I. 1. Absence of gratitude or good-will; unfavourable thought or feeling; ill-will, disfavour; displeasure expressed in actions or words.

c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. iv. x. § 11 Þa wæs Hannibale seðer hiera heðeniscum gewunan þæt andwyrde swiþe laðˌ & him unþanc sæde þæs andwyrdes. a 1000 Sal. & Sat 98 Þonne hiene on unþanc.. R. leorneng geseceð. c 1205 Lay. 22370 Mid ælcunne þe wan mineȝ þat hiri wes mucheles unþonc. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. C. 55 þenne þrat moste I þole, & vnþonk to mede. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. I. 256 And in travaile aboute þese goodis..stondiȝ al be mede in þis lifˌ and al unþank in ȝeldyng of helle. c 1386 Chaucer Knew's T. 38 Vnthank come on his hand that boond hym so. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love 92 Prenschyp..has also a grete likynge with it knyȝt in gwhik it adyls no meyde ne vnþanke. 1483 Cath. Angl. 401/1 Vn thanke, ingratitudo. 1597 Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 203 Vnthanke to our desert be geuen, Which merite not a heauens gift to keep.

b. In the phrase to have unthank.

c 1325 in Wright Pol. Songs (Camden) 227 But unthank have ye þat sen me so long. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 183 For þeft, & for prepyng, vnþonk may mon haue. c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 3061 'Wel depardieux,' quaþ þis baroun, 'ounþank habbe þat spare'.

2. An act or circumstance causing displeasure or annoyance; an offence or injury.

c 893 K. Ælfred Gregory's Past. C. xlix. 379 And ʼa forðyðe he forwandode ðæt he swa ne dyde, ðaþ aȝeaf he hit [sc. ðæt feoh] to unþances. c 1000 Apollonius of Tyre 26 Cweðe þæt ic..eow dide eafre ænigne unþanc? c 1050 O. E. Chron. (MS. C) an. 1049, Eac fela oðre unþancs þe he him dyde. c 1205 Lay. 17769 Þe eorl Caredoc..set hit mai ilimpe; hit is þe an vnþonke. a 1225 Ancr. R. 202 ور lure of eie worldliche þinge, oðer of freond, oðer uor eni vnþonc. 13.. Gy of Warw. 5311 His brond..þrac into his hond. 'Alias,' quaþ Gij, 'þis vnþanq! Were no may y me nouȝt lang'.

II. In uses denoting disinclination, reluctance, or involuntariness.

3. In genitive, used adverbially, = Unwillingly; compulsorily; against a person's wish or will; without one's consent; also, involuntarily.

The genitive is similarly used in OFris., MDu., OHG., etc.

c 960 Lacnunga in Thorpe Leges I. 262 Niman [hi] unþances þone teoðan dæl to þam mynstre. † 1066 O.E. Chron. (MS. C) an. 1066, Tostiȝ..nam of þam butse karlon sume mid him, sume þances, sume unþances. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 17 Gif þu sigisteri wiþ þine efen-nexta unþonkes, þet hit þin þonkes þu se þu miht wiþ him. a 1300 Cursor M. 27192 [It] sceuis quat nede Was man at drau him to þis dede,.. Quar vnthankes [Fairf. quether vnþankis] or wit will, And quatkin strength him drat per-till.

b. More freq. with poss. adj. (or sb. in poss. case).

c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. II. ii. § 7 Hiswaþeah heora unþances mid swiedome hie begeaton. c 1100 O.E. Chron. (MS. D) an. 900, Þa ȝerad Æþelwold aðeling..þone ham set Winburnan & set Twexonam þæs cynges unþances. c 1200 Ormin 7192 Mincle betre þes to þe mann..Þæn don all þisse mannnesskes god Þan ifell hise þannkess. c 1205 Lay. 4502 Brennes.. hauede heo biwedded, & þiaued heo to bedde, a þire vnþonkes. a 1240 Sawles Warde in O. E. Hom. I. 247 Strengþe stont nest hire, 13ȝif si wele iu, warschipes vn þonkes, wanti strengþe fore, þat is hire suster, ant heo hit ut warie. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 14172 Wyþ hym to fighte leuere he wylde Pan, his vnþankes, to þem ȝelde. 13.. Cœur de L. 208 Rabbesmen many he cleaved, And their vnþankes ther bylived. c 1450 St. Cuthbert (Surtees) 201 Þis virgyne þus hir vnthankes fyled perceyued þat sho was with chiled. a 1470 Harding Chron. l. liv, Kyng Edward with longshankes Brought it away-ȝeate again, the Scottes vnthankes. Ibid. lxxviii. ii, Vpon the north sea bankes, He faught with them in battaill their vnthankes.

c. Without inflection in absolute use.

a 1225 Juliana 36 He schal unþonc in his teð cuðen þe þat tu wilnest. Cf. Ioofte sb. 5.] c 1230 Reuel Rid. 47 Þurh þis weorre, he þarkeð þe, unþonc hise (v.r. in his) teð, þe blisse..of cristes icorene. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 6093 Walwes bey tok, al his vnthank, & leddym to Aryngal. 1338 — Chron. (1810) 241 Pe Walsch com þam agegn, did our men alle arere, Þat turnyng per vnthank, as heuy was he charge, Vnder þam alle sank.

4. At one's unthanks, against one's will.

a 1400-50 Alexander 4098 Forþi enhabete ȝe in angwysch at ȝoure vnthankis. c 1440 Antury of Arth. 424 (Th.) Or he weldene my landes, at myne vn-thankes, By alle þe welthe of this werlde, he salle þame neuer welde.

Unthank. v. [Un-² 3.] trans. To unsay or recall one's thanks to. 1640 Shirley Love's Cruelty III. iii, Duke. We are not pleased, she should depart. Sel. Then I'le vnthanke your Goodnesse.

UNTHATCH.

Unthanked, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1562 Leigh Armory Pref., Suche they are, as be gone from the world, of whome I am sure to be vnthanked. 1634 Milton Comus 723 If all the world Should in a pet of temperance feed on Pulse,..Th'all-giver would be unthank'd, would be unprais'd. 1666 Dryden Ann. Mirab. cxcii, Their batter'd Admiral too soon withdrew, Unthank'd by ours for his unfinish'd Fight. 1700 — Pal. & Arc. i. 388 Unwelcom Freedom and unthank'd Reprieve. 1814 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 630 Unthanked, and left worse than defenceless, by the friends of the Government. 1897 H. N. Howard Footsteps Proserpine 95 Though unthanked he fall Midway..., His soul shall mount to Heav'n.

Unthankful, a. [Un-¹ 7. Cf. OE. unþancful, OHG. undancfol.]

1. Not earning thanks or gratitude; unacceptable, unappreciated, thankless; disagreeable.

c 1400 Apol. Loll. 45 What þing þat þu werkyst is vnþankful to þe Holi Goost. 1539 Bellenden Livy i. x. (S.T.S.) I. 56 Baith þe pepil[s]..beheld þis vnthankful sicht. Ibid. I. 60. 1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. i. III. Furies 626 Those that (broken with unthankfull toyl) Seek others' Health. 1623 J. Taylor (Water P.) Discurs. by Sea B 7, Which make thousandes sicke with drinking such vnthankfull healths. 1759 Goldsm. Bee No. 8 P 14 It is, therefore, one of the most unthankful offices in the world. 1815 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 642 To be a prophet is..an unthankful office. 1895 Fowler's Chron. II. 363 It must be an unthankful task for judges to award prizes to inferior birds.

†b. Inadequate, insufficient. Obs.-¹

1491 Reg. Aberdon. (Maitl. Cl.) I. 328 Gyf it beis fundin onthankful payment be þe said Jhone to þe said vicar.

2. Not rendering thanks; not feeling or exhibiting gratitude.

1499 Contempl. Sinners Prol. A vb, Vnthankfull mannes mynde. 1526 Tindale 2 Tim. iii. 2 Men shalbe..vnthankfull, vnholy, churlishe. 1565 Cooper Thesaurus, Animus ingratus, an vnthankfull harte. 1602 2nd Pt. Return fr. Parnass. III. ii. 1199 An vnthankefull Viper that will stinge the man that reuiued him. 1647 N. Bacon Disc. Govt. Eng. i. lvii. 168 These concurring with unnatural troubles from most unthankfull sonnes. 1702 Eng. Theophrastus 91 He that in silence suppresses a favour receiued is an vnthankfull Fellow. 1722 De Foe Relig. Courtsh. i. ii. (1840) 77, I do not think you will ever be unthankful. 1768 Ross Helenore 60 I'm seeking after two unthankfu' men. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude VII. 53 Could a youth..Sit, see, and hear, unthankful, uninspired?

absol. 1535 Coverdale Luke vi. 35 The Hyest..is kynde, euen to the vnthankfull. 1893 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ II. 367 The good Shepherd giveth Himself to the unthankful and the evil.

transf. 1614 B. Jonson Barth. Fair iii. i, The husbandman ought not, for one vnthankful year, to forsake the plough. 1615 Chapman Strappado, etc. (1896) 326 But time vnthankfull time, too soone forgot the Gem she had. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reft. v. vii, The Thorns and Thistles that are the unthankful Earths wonted productions.

b. Coust. for or †of (a thing), to (a person).

c 1300 Kennedie Passion of Christ 173 As seik vnthankfull to pe medicinar. 1542 Brinklow Compl. iii. 26, I pray God, that we be not vnthankfull for that delyuerance. 1580 J. Hayn Cath. Tract. (S.T.S.) 33 That I swild nocht appear to be vnthankfull of the said benefeit. 1610 Donne Pseudo-martyr 289 When Otho..became vnthankfull to the Pope. 1721 Steele Spect. No. 82 P 5 Your Ingratitude..shall not make my unthankful for the Good you have done me. 1729 Law Serious C. xi. 171 Quarrelsome with others, and unthankful to God. 1865 Singleton Gypsy II. 304 He looks back, Unconscious of events, and for escape Unthankful.

3. Characterized by ingratitude.

1614 B. Hall Contempl., O. T. v. vi. 107 If yee had said, Choose vs another gouernour, it had been a wicked and vnthankfull motion. 1643 Secrets Government (title-p.), Their perfidious, deceitful, and unthankful proceedings against the welfare of this Kingdom. 1665 Boyle Occas. Reft., etc. (1848) 54 It were..unthankful towards the Father of Lights, not to make use of this great Light we receive by the Moon. 1721 Kelly Scot. Prov. 188 When they whom we have supported make unhandsome, and unthankful Returns.

Unthankfully, adv. [Un-¹ 11.] Ungratefully.

a 1470 Harding Chron. cxxxiii. I, He answered hym full vnthankfully. 1531 Elyot Gov. III. ii, The bodes hath he hym selfe gaue hym, whiche the other unthankefully dothe attribute to his owne fortune. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 285/2 Such as do vnthankfully abuse the benefites..of their good God. c 1620 Mornson Hes. iv. v. iii. (1903) 475 This all experienced strangers doe confesse, but they vnthankfully misconceaue the cause. 1697 Verdicts conc. Virgil & Homer v. 21 If these shipwracks Banditti came sneakingly to Cottage, they go from it as unthankfully. 1814 Woodsw. Excursion iv. 479 You judge unthankfully; distempered nerves Infect the thoughts. 1848 Dickens Dombey xlvii, A stubborn disposition..unthankfully indulged in.

Unthankfulness, [Un-¹ 12.] Ingratitude. Very frequent from c 1550 to c 1650.

c 1500 in Ashmol MS. (S.T.S.) II. 220 Vnthankfulness of man thrillit his [sc. Christ's] hart. 1553 T. Wilson Rhet. 102 b, Suche should suffer death as felons, whiche were found faultie with vnthankfulnesse. 1617 Morison Itin. ii. 89 Without great vnthankefulnesse..he could not have beene questioned vpon this mistake ground. c 1665 J. Goodwin Filled w. the Spirit ii. (1670) 28 The Spirits withdrawing of himself from men..proportionably to mens unthankfulnes, neglect, and opposition to him. 1728 Young Love Fame v. 173 When surfeit or unthankfulness destroys ..our solid joys. 1803 Malthus Popul. iv. ix. 563 If the proposed relief be given, it is of course received with unthankfulness. 1850 Lynch Theoph. Trinal viii. 125 For pride will in thy dotings lurk, And in thine heart unthankfulness.

Untha·tch, v. [Un-² 4. Cf. OE. unþeccan and Unthack v.] trans. To strip of thatch.

1699-1700 Laws Nevis xxx. § 4 (1740) 25 That the Constables..may the better know what Houses to unthatch. 1771 Ann. Reg., Chron. 104/1 Many peasants were under the necessity of unthatching their houses to maintain their cattle. 1894 Daily News 23 May 6/5 They think the landlords are wrong to unthatch a tenant's house.

Unthatched, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not covered with thatch.

1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vnthatched, intectus. 1629 [see Untrellised]. 1633 Hall Occas. Medit. 279 An old unthached Cottage. 1664 Inscr. Benthr. & Ov. v. 33 Streight Cottages, unthatch'd above, full of Smoak and Rain within. a 1860 Alb. Smith Med. Student (1861) 58 An unthatched cottage on a common. 1897 Daily News 1 Oct. 2/6 The storm was accompanied by drenching rain, and...a large number of unthatched corn stacks were completely saturated.

Unthaw, v. Now dial. [UN-[2] 9 and 7.] trans. and intr. To thaw. Also fig.

1598 Florio, Disguagliato, melted, vnthawed, liquified. 1633 T. James Voy. 77 In the woods, wee found the Snow partly wasted away...The ponds were almost vnthawed: but thesea...[was]all thereunto frozen. 1699 T. Brown (Cent. Holland Wks. 1711 IV. 316 The Men...are cold to such a degree, that neither Love nor Wine can unthaw them. 1764 J. G. Cooper Power Harmony 1, The flood of life, Loos'd at its source,...Flows like some frozen silver stream unthaw'd, At a warm Zephyr of the genial Spring. 1847–in southern dial. glossaries. 1895 Times 23 Jan. 9/3 Harcourt...would not or could not unthaw.

Unthawed, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not thawed; remaining frozen.

1611 Florio, Indilegnato, vnthawed, vnuanished. 1657 H. King Tell me, you stars' 10 Or give her my flame to melt that snow Which yet unthaw'd does on her bosom grow. 1665-6 Phil. Trans. I. 260 Solid Ice, that continued a considerable while unthaw'd. 1734 Pope Hor. Sat. ii. ii. 74 Your wine lock'd up, your fire unlighted, Your fish dony'd (the river yet unthaw'd). 1774 Phil. Trans. LXV. 122 Whilst that [snow]...continues so many hours unthawed. 1825 Hook Sayings & Doings II. 283 His maiden aunt, whose heart had remained unthawed for upwards of sixty winters. 1856 Mrs. Browning Aur. Leigh VII. 243 [She bore] A babe upon her breast,...Unseasonable outcast on such snow Unthawed to this time.

Unthea·trical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1898 Lytton What will He do I. 169 The cobbler yielded to the impulse of an unthematic man. Unthea·trical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1745 Ayre Mem. Pope I. 92 His Opera called Rosamond...did not succeed on the Stage, being wholly un-theatrical. 1898 Westm. Gaz. 12 Dec. 2/1 The piece...is unmistakably unhistrionical in style. †Unthee·, v. Obs. [UN-[1] 14+Thee v.[1] intr. To fail to thrive; to be unsuccessful. c 1470 Ashby Active Policy 330 Who that is without...pite,...he shall unthe. — Dicta Philos. 784 So shal he thrise or unthe. Unthe·rd, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1888 Kennedy Revised Lat. Primer 94 Personal Endings in Unthematic and Thematic Verbs.

†Unthe·nde, a. Obs. [ME. unthende, f. un- Un-[1] 10+thende, pres. pple. of Thew v.[1]]

1. Not in good condition; bad or poor in quality or kind.

1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. v. 177, I ete there vnthende fisshe and fieble ale drynke. a 1390 Portoraje 6650 He was so megere and so vnthende,...So hugely wasted a-wey is he. 1447 Bokenham Seyntys (Roxb) 97 My penne also..ful ny is waxyn unthende. a 1470 H. Parker Dives & Pauper (W. de W. 1496) i. iv. 35/2 Oftetymes that crosse that the preest holdeth in his honde is full unreuerenced & unthende.

b. Unwholesome.

c 1425 Cast. Persev. 2262 in Macro Plays 145 Þi metis & drynkys arn vnthende, whanne þei are out of mesure take.

2. Unthriving; unprosperous.

c 1400 Pety Job 654 in 26 Pol. Poems 142 The worldes wyles ryght nat to me payen, For they ben false and full vnthende. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 2464 Rightwisnesse..out of this ile Purposeth fully for to fare & wende, So is our reule vnthrifty & vnthende. c 1425 Cast. Persev. 910 in Macro Plays 90 Who-so wyl alway foly fle, In pis werld schal ben vnthende.

b. Weak, feeble.

c 1425 Cast. Persev. 287 in Macro Plays 85 Nakyd I am, as ze may se. a! Lord God in trinite! Wlow Mankende is vnthende! c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 On-thende, invalidus.

Hence †Unthe·ndely adv. Obs.

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 On-thendly, invalide.

Untheolo·gical, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1641 Milton Animadv. 16 This untheological Remonstrant. a 1656 Br. Hall Let. in Rem. Wks. (1660) 300 To argue from Scripture negatively in things of this nature is somewhat untheological. 1862 Trollope Orley Farm (Oct. 400/2 The untheological or secularist philologist. 1893 Liddon, etc. Life Pusey I. 365 The dull untheological temper of the time.

Untheore·tic, a. (Un-[1] 7). 1809 Coleridge Friend 87 Did those, who opposed the theories of Innovators, conduct their untheoretic Opposition...to be a happier Result? 1862 Geo. Eliot Romola III. vi, The untheoretic virtues of her godfather. Untheore·tical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 227 The basis...is no where untheoretical. Unthe·orizing, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1820 Lamb Elia I. Two Races of Men, I would put it to the most untheorizing reader...whether [etc.]. 1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. IV. v. App. ii. I...set myself...to see the Alps in a simple, thoughtless, and untheorizing manner.

†Unthew·. Obs. [OE. unþeaw : see Un-[1] 4 b and Thew sb.[1]] A bad habit or custom; a vice.

c 897 K. Ælfred Gregory's Past. C. 23 Feorðe [Þara deelaj is hu he his agene unðeawas ongietan wille. c 1175 Lamb. Hom. 107 Twelf unþeawes beo'ð on þissere weorlde to hermen alle monnen. a 1200 Moral Ode 246 þat buð ła þe heom sculdeð seorne wid elche un-þeaws. a 1250 Owl & Night. 194 He is of worde swyþe gleu, And him is lob eurich vnþeu. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 4850 A chyldе þat wyþ vnþeywys wexyþ wykke, þat wyl bope mysse and do. 13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 190 Man may mysse be myrbe, þat much is to prayse; For such vnþewez as þise & þole much payne. a 1400 Relig. Pieces fr. Thornton MS. 54 þe conscience, þat chases owte alle vnthewes, and calles in alle gud vertus.

†Unthew·ed, ppl. a. Obs. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Ill-mannered; unruly, wanton.

c 1200 Ormin 2186 Forr son se maggdenn wurrþeþþ bald, þho wurþeþþ sone unnþæwedd. Ibid. 6371. c 1250 Ten Abuses 9 in O. E. Misc. 185 Child un-þeaud [w.r. unþewed]. c 1325 Metr. Hom. 112 That like childe Was sa unthewed and sa wilde, That alle the schathe that he moht do, He did. c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conse. 5873 Maysters of bair disciples alswa, þat þai lete be unthewed, and untaghtga, And chastid bam noght. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 144 Thus is schewed What is bo ver of Pride unthewed.

2. Unrefined, coarse.

c 1250 Gen. & Ex. 2555 Summe he deden in vn-ðewed swinc,..Muc and fen ut of burges beren.

†Unthew·ful, a. Obs. [UN-[1] 7.] Unmannerly; unseemly.

c 1050 Fox. in Wr.-Wülcker 425 Indiscretinatorum, unþeawfulra. a 1200 Ormin 2191 Full wel birrþ ure maggdenn þen Forrshamedd, ȝiff mann brinneþ Biforenn hire unnþæwfull word. c 1320 in Wright Pol. Songs (Camden) 159 Suche chaffinr chepe at the chapitre, That maketh moni thrywe-mon un-theuful to be.

Unthi·ck, a. (Un-[1] 7. Cf. ON. þykkbr.) 1587 W. Fowler Wks. (S.T.S.) I. 65/196 The passage owt and going furthe wes high and nyr vnthik. Unthi·ckened, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1775 Ash.] 1879 Rolleston Anim. Life 129 The thickened glandular three-fourths of these segments are separated off from the ventrally placed and unthickened fourth. 1884 Bower & Scott De Bary's Phaner. 160 The unthickened portion of the membrane. Unthi·ckness, n. (Un-[1] 7.) 1858 Gen. P. Thompson Auti Alt. II. lxxxi. 39 The unthiekness of portion of mankind. Unthi·mble, v. Cant. [Un-[1] 4] trans. (See quot.) 1812 J. H. Vaux Flash Dict. s.v., To unthimble a man, is to rob, or otherwise deprive him of his watch.

Unthi·nk, v. [Un-[2] 3.] trans. To remove from thought; to annul or reverse by a mental effort. Also absol.

c 1600 Chalkhill Thealma & Cl. 537 Still the king burns, and still his working brain Plots and displots, thinks and unthinks again. 1653 Shaks. Merch. of V. iv. 104, I do beseech You (gracious Madam) to vnthinke your speaking, And to say so no more. 1640 C. Harvey Confusion i, One while I think, and then I am in pain To think how to unthink that which I again. 1695 J. Howe Living Temple i. iii. 109 That the same thing is not thought and unthought, resolved and unresolved a thousand times in a day. 1709 O. Dykes Eng. Prov. & Refl. (ed. 2) 6 There's no unthinking a Mistake, when it has taken us for wrong. 1748 Protestation or Foresight. 1811 Henry & Isabella I. 6 They knew not how to think, and unthink so often that this world is, and is not a good place. 1818 Cobbett Pol. Reg. XXXIII. 297 To imagine that gags...will induce the people to unthink their present thoughts and unfeel their present feelings! 1849 D'Israeli's Cur. Lit. II. 428 Bayle stands among those masters of the human intellect who taught us to think, and also to unthink! 1894 Illingworth Personality iv. 91 There is no question of the inevitableness of this conclusion; we cannot avoid it, we cannot unthink it.

Unthinkabi·lity. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. next.) 1865 Mill Essays, Hamilton 134 An endeavour to think what cannot be thought...is the test by which we ascertain its unthinkability. 1897 F. H. Balfour Unthinkables 11 This involves unthinkabilities just as unthinkable as either of the other two.

Unthi·nkable, a. and sb. [UN-[1] 7 b.]

1. Too great, numerous, etc., to be conceived or apprehended by thought; unimaginable.

c 1420 Life St. Cath. (1884) 48 þey suwe al þe prison ful of vnthencable and vnspeculable swetnesse of sauour. a 1450 Myrr. our Ladye 183 Wherfore the nombre of crownes is to be beleued vnthyncable. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 28 b, He hath gyuen...treasour spirituall whiche be in valour vnthynkable. 1622 Leslie Æthiop an C. & N. Test. p. xxiv, The losse whereof is vnspeakeable, vnthinkable, vnsufferable misery. 1674 N. Fairfax Bulk & Selv. 193 The unthinkable care and forecast in all its evennesses and entwinings. 1890 M. Pattison Milton 122 The bathos is unthinkable. 1897 Westm. Gaz. 6 July 2/1 You wander...in cool glades of unthinkable beauty.

2. Incapable of being framed or grasped by thought; incogitable.

c 1445 Pecock Donet 84 A ping fer aboue alle creaturis þoust vnþenkable. c 1530 Erasmus' Serm. Ch. Yesus (1901) 7 Jesus, whiche by an vnspeakable, nay, with an vnthynkable reason, is borne God of God. 1830 W. Taylor Hist. Surv. Germ. Poetry I. 453 Separate from her To live is quite unthinkable—is death. 1884 H. Spencer in Contemp. Rev. July 53 From whatever point of view we consider it, Bentham's proposition proves to be unthinkable.

absol. and sb. 1871 Jowett Plato III. 134 The negative of measure or limit; the unthinkable, the unknowable, of which nothing can be affirmed. 1897 F. H. Balfour (title), Unthinkables.

Hence Unthi·nkably adv.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 244 b, The paynes yt he suffred...exceedeth vnthynkably all the paynes that ony creature myght suffre. 1895 Young England XVI. 307/2 Our hearths are warmed by the stored-up sunshine of unthinkably distant ages.

Unthi·nker. (Un-[1] 12.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. iv. i, Thinkers and unthinkers...are spontaneously at their post.

Unthi·nking, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 10.]

1. Not exercising the faculty of thought; thoughtless; unreflecting, undiscriminating.

1676 Glanvill Ess. Philos. & Relig. I. 29 The shallow, unthinking Vulgar, are sure of all things. 1683 D. A. Art Conversa 14 Women are generally an unthinking sort of Creatures. 1748 Smollett R. Random vii, I was no longer a pert unthinking coxcomb. 1780 Mirror No. 72, The effect of scenes like that he described, on minds neither frigid nor unthinking. 1849 Macaulay Hist. Eng. iii. I. 393 Even the unthinking King showed some signs of concern. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. I. I. 311 Then swelled his vain unthinking heart with pride.

absol. 1697 C. Leslie Snake in Grass (ed. 2) p. ii, Atheism takes none But the Un-thinking and Debauch'd. 1769 Robertson Chas. V, ii. Wks. 1813 V. 238 Even the most unthinking were shocked. 1873 Proctor Expanse Heav. 298 That steadfastness which, to the unthinking, would have had no significance.

2. Characterized by absence of thought.

1688 R. Pepys Let. in S. Pepys' Life (1841) II. 127 The unthinking conduct of a violent passion. 1693 T. Creech in Dryden's Juvenal xiii. (1697) 324 All laugh to find Unthinking Plainness so o'er-spread thy Mind. 1709 Addison Tatler No. 75 P 8 You see a deep Attention and a certain unthinking Sharpness in every Countenance. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla I. 25 Even in the unthinking period of earliest youth. 1892 Lytton Engelbert A. 1, When I see the unthinking and lavish idolatry you manifest. 1873 Black Pr. Thule xiv, She walked on, in a blind and unthinking fashion.

3. Not possessing the faculty of thought.

a 1688 Cudworth Immut. Mor. (1731) 235 If all Being...may..arise out of the dark Womb of unthinking Matter. 1710 Berkeley Princ. Hum. Knowl. § 10 They who assert that figure, motion,...do exist without the mind in unthinking substances. 1791 R. J. Sullivan View Nat. IV. 8, I can never conceive, that a capacity of thinking can be the effect of the combination and motion of unthinking elements.

Unthi·nkingly, adv. [UN-[1] 11.] Without thought; unreflectingly.

1717 Mrs. Centlivre Cruel Gift iv, Cardono's Love unthinkingly obey'd me. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 97 Yet are we still liable unthinkingly to fall into little artifices for working upon the divine affections. 1829 Arnold in Stanley Life (1844) I. 235 The part which you object to, was not put in unthinkingly. 1884 J. Gilmour Mongols 222 These phrases are often uttered unthinkingly.

Unthi·nkingness. (Un-[1] 12.)

a 1695 Ld. Halifax Char. Chas. II (1750) 4 In this kind of Indifference or Unthinkingness,...I will suppose he might pass some considerable part of his Youth. 1744 Lond. Mag. 27 Men begin to be convinced that Indolence and Unthinkingness, are the greatest Blessings upon Earth. 1798 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla I. 229 [He will] never go astray again, in wicked unthinkingness of this great mercy. 1857 Bagehot Biog. Stud. 53 The unfeeling unthinkingness of our Home administration. a 1866 J. Frost Eccles. Hist. II. xviii. (1870) 297 To make a state of unthinkingness desirable for the human mind.

Unthi·nned, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1648 Hexham, Ongedunt, Vnthinned. 1816 Byron Siege Cor. xxix, Fast they fill The ranks unthinn'd, though slaughter'd daily. 1848 Aird Poems Sylvan ii, With ear Patient attend his [sc. the gardener's] manifold complaints Of birds unthinned. Unthi·nned, a. north. Obs. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1483 Cath. Angl. 383 Vn'Thyrlebyde, impenetrabilis. †Unthirled, ppl. a. north. Obs. (Un-[1] 8.) Unpierced, unopened. 1435 Misyn Fire of Love 74 To qwhome herefore so sal be opynd þe wyndow vnpirlyd of all. †Unthirled, ppl. a.[2] Sc. Obs. (Un-[1] 8.) Unsubjugated. 1533 Bellenden Livy III. xxv. (S.T.S.) II. 48 Sa lang as Coriolo stude fre and vnthirlit to romanis. 1536 — Cron. Scot. (1821) I. 148 We, as maist valyeant pupil,..hes kept us eyir unthirlit to Romane dominion. Unthi·rsty, a. (Un-[1] 7.) [1775 Ash.] 1882 J. Parker Apost. Life I. 74 To the unthirsty man the Bible spring is without attraction. †Unthole·ful, a. Obs.[1] (Un-[1] 7.) Intolerable. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 39 Som hauyng a ful gret brennyng..and vntholeful smertyng.

†Untho·ndod, a. and sb. Obs. [Un-[1] 7, 12a. Cf. next and ON. þolinmóðr a., -mæði sb.]

1. adj. Impatient.

c 1200 Vices & Virtues 13 Ac sif..godd me wolde swingen mid ani swinge,..ic was ðar ȝeaan unþolemod.

2. sb. Impatience.

a 1400 Spec. Vitæ (MS. Bodl. 188s) 139 b, Vnboxsomnesse and vnholemode, Gruochyng also and dreryness.

†Untholemoodness. Obs. [OE. unþolemôdness (Un-[1] 12). Cf. prec.] Impatience.

c 1000 Confess. Peccat. (Toller) 48 Þurh unþolemodnesse. c 1200 Vices & Virtues 13 Inpaciencia hatte an oðer senne, þat is, unþolemodnesse. a 1340 Hampole Psalter i. 2 Whaim ..na tribulacioun brynges in till gruchynge or vntholemodnes. a 1400 Spec. Vitæ (MS. Bodl. 188s) fol. 2 Vnholemodnesse wrong wol lere A man þat wil nozt bledly here [etc.]. a 1400 in Hampole's Wks. (1896) II. 289 Vntholemodnes oure soueraines to. a 1500 in Ratis Raving, etc. 4 The prid temptacioune is in-paciens or vnholemodnes.

†Untho·ling, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-[1] 10. Cf. ON. þolandi, MSw. otholande, in sense 1.]

1. Intolerable.

a 1300 Cursor M. 28892 þe paine of hell, How had it es, and vutholand. a 1300 E. E. Psalter cxxiii. 4 (E.), Purgh hap hade ouerfaren ouer saule water vnþoland [v.r. vnholandilk]. 1340 Ayenb. 265 þer me geb uram chele in to greate hete of cure, and boule unþolynde.

2. Impatient.

a 1300 Cursor M. 28208 Ic ha ben wrath and vn-tholand Quen i was bunden in godds band.

Untho·ng, v. (Un-[2] 3, 4 b.) 1829 Landor Imag. Conv. II. 308, I would...unthong the dressinghorn from my stable-door. 1843 E. Jones Sens. & Event 4 His muscles glisteningly unthonged As burst each ringing peal [of laughter]. Untho·rned, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1803 Moore Ep. to Miss Moore 5 When every night my weary head Sunk on its own unthorned bed. Untho·rny, a. (Un-[1] 7) 1646 Sir T. Browne Pseud. Ep. I. v. 18 It were some extenuation of the curse, if..there still remained a Paradise or unthorny place of knowledge. Untho·rough, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1868 W. R. Greg Lit. & Soc. Judgm. 27 Some singular inconsistencies, which..showed how imperfect and unthorough was his political philosophy. 1891 Atkinson Moorland Par. 142 Knowing..how utterly unscientific and unthoroughly all such investigations then were. Untho·ughfaresome, a., -ness, sb. (1868 Trench Engl. Past & Pres. 74.) = Unthoroughfareness, -some. Untho·ught, sb. (Un-[1] 12.) 1866 Mrs. Whitney L. Gold. Hawaii xii, Something different in thought and purpose from the apparent unthought about her. 1892 P. W. Clayden Eng. under Coalition xv, 315 To show to which side the charge of creativity, of rashness and of unthought belonged.

Unthou·ght, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 b, 8 c. Cf. MHG. ungedaht (G. ungedacht), Du. ongedacht.]

1. Not thought of, unexpected.

a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 120 b, While kyng Charles did politicqly consider..what a sodain and vnthought chance of a smal thyng, might do in a battail. 1653 J. Taylor (Water P.) Cert. Troun. Uncert. Yours. 16 Vnderserv'd, unlook'd for, and unthought On them my purse and person both were fraught. 1738 G. Lillo Marina ii. i, The hot salt tears this unthought loss drew from me. 1745 Young Nt. Th. viii. 114 As they spin our hours On Fortune's wheel, where accident unthought Oft, in a moment, snaps life's strongest thread. 1903 Kipling 5 Nations, Wage-Slaves 61 They that have wrought the end unthought Be neither saint nor sage.

b. With on, of. (Cf. Think *v.*² 5 c, 7 b.)

1538 Elyot, Inopinatus, vnthought on or vnloked for. a 1585 Sidney Arcadia i. iv, It may be, his pen with more leasure doth polish the rudenesse of an unthought-on songe. 1596 Shaks. 1 Hen. IV, iii. ii. 141 The day...That..This gallant Hotspur...And you vnthought-of Harry chance to meet. 1621 Lady M. Wroth Urania 451 One night he came vnlook'd for to our house, but not vnthought on by me. 1666 Boyle Orig. Forms & Qual. 218 By a way unthought on (that I know of) by any Body. 1696 Hale Contempl. i. 52 A little..accident..may put a period to all those pleasures..in an unthought of moment. 1713 Berkeley Hylas & Phil. ii. Wks. 1871 I. 356 What security can I have..that no unthought-of infection or difficulty will occur hereafter? 1748 Richardson Clarissa (1811) III. xxxvi. 216 Consequences, unthought of by you or me. 1860 Froude Hist. Eng. V. 490 A return to communion with the See of Rome was unthought of. 1890 R. Bosanquet Col. Reformer (1892) 449 This distant, long-dry, unthought-of reservoir.

†2. (With complement or ellipt.) Not regarded in a certain (specified or implied) way. Unthought long, without feeling time long. Obs.

1595 Spenser Epithal. 378 Thou likewise didst loue, though now vnthought. a 1637 B. Jonson Underwoods, Eupheme ix. 44 As spirits had stolne her spirit in a kisse,.. And left her lovely body unthought dead! a 1806 in R. Jamieson Pop. Ballads I. 94 He harpit to the king, To haud him unthought lang.

3. Unimagined; not devised in thought.

1639 Orange Masque Dram. Wks. (1874) to Forsake the woods, fond Satyr, and but try The unthought difference twixt them and us! 1672 Marvell Reh. Transp. II. (1674) 46, I wish it unsaid as it was unthought. 1743 Young Nt. Th. v. 147 Death salutiferous may shake a sin Unthought, before. 1815 Milman Fazio 67 Is't to be mad..To speak with..continuous flow, Yet know not how the unthought words start from me? 1850 Thackeray Pendennis lxxii, If you knew..how I lie awake and think of those hard sentences,..and wish them unspoken, unthought!

†4. Unheeded, disregarded. Obs.

1640 Yorke Union Hon. 185 [He] returned from his unthought banishment, [and] tooke King Richard prisoner.

†5. Unpremeditated. Obs.

1648 Pol. Ballads (1860) I. 74, With speech unthought, quick revelation,..See a new teacher of the Town.

Unthought·ed, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.] Not contemplated; not formed in thought.

1598 Rowlands Betraying of Christ (Hunterian Cl.) 9 What furies guided this misguided swarme? To bend their force against vnthoughted harme. 1860 O. W. Holmes Elsie 1, There are states of mind..which remain not only unworded, but unthoughted, if such a word may be coined for our special need.

Unthou·ghtful, a. [Un-¹ 7.]

1. Not taking thought, unmindful or regardless, of something.

1456 Sir G. Haye Govt. Princes Wks. (S.T.S.) II. 141 Wyne..makis man to be vnthoughtfull of his honour. 1762 C. Mather Magn. Chr. vi. a. 200/2 He was not unthoughtful of the Time when publick Ones [sc. sermons] might be expected from him. 1728 R. Morris Ess. Anc. Archit. 106 How unthoughtful of the Affair in hand? 1887 R. F. Burton Arab. Nts. (abr. ed.) III. 72 We have foes who are not unthoughtful of us.

2. Unthinking, thoughtless.

a 1533 Ld. Berners Gold. Bk. M. Aurel. xxxviii. (1536) 67 They as vnthoughtfull..leaue the lust trauayle, and take vnlust idlenesse. a 1657 Cowley Ess. in Verse & Prose, Solitude iv, Here let me, careless and unthoughtful lying, Hear the soft winds above me flying. 1658 Norris Pract. Disc. IV. 62 People that have..a lazy, unthoughtful, listless, wavering way of talking of Religion. 1715 Jam. Banker Exilius i. 72 The vulgar Part of the Africans are extremely unthoughtful and unpolished. a 1834 Coleridge Lit. Rem. (1836) II. 10 Without which poetry becomes..evaporated into a hazy, unthoughtful, daydreaming. 1858 C. Scott Apple Orchards 131 The reckless, unthoughtful, but ill-directed youth of to-day.

Hence Unthou·ghtfully adv.; Unthou·ghtfulness.

1661 J. Fell Hammond 205 During the current of that Tyranny..he kept a constant equable serenity and unthoughtfulness in outward accidents. 1701 Norris Ideal World i. vii. 322 Never was any question..more ignorantly and unthoughtfully moved. 1709 Mrs. Manley Secret Mem. (1736) IV. 185 Should he begin by this unthoughtfulness of enterprize, it would have been..formidable. 1884 E. W. Benson in Life (1899) II. 29 A ceaseless reproach to the unthoughtfulness of this busy existence.

Unthra·ll, v. [Un-² 4 b.] trans. To emancipate, set free.

c 1586 Countess Pembroke Ps. cxviii. v, God answere gave me when I called, And me inlarging, me unthralled. 1690 H. B. To Vaughan in Vaughan Anima Magica, But who from envies sordid mire Is washt,..a light shall see, (Untrail'd from errors Sophistry). 1852 Howell Giraffe's Rev. Naples ii. 28 Thou chopst his neck, who thy head did unthrall.

Unthra·ll·ed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1865 W. G. Palgrave Arabia I. 136 A sort of chivalresque knight-errants and representatives of unthralled freedom.

Unthra·shed, -thre·shed, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8. Cf. Sw. otröskad.]

1. Of corn, etc.: Not thrashed.

a 1561 Wits & Iuv. N. C. (Shortes, 1835) 193, xx threives of wheat unthreshed. 1573 Tusser Husb. (1878) 56 Such wheat..vnthreshed till March in the sheafe let it lie. 1660 in Sadler St. Papers (1809) III. 360 Barley, threshed and unthreshed. 1766 Compl. Farmer s.v. Harvest, When keeps better when stacked in the ear unthreshed. 1798 Hull Advertiser 24 Mar. 2/3 Insurance upon..outhouses, and upon unthreshed stock therein. 1889 Athenæum 5 Sept. 298/1 A wooden stage on which unthreshed corn is placed. 1891 T. Hardy Tess xlviii, The unthreshed sheaves remaining untouched.

β. 1702 Guide for Constables 136 Carts carrying..corn unthrashed. 1799 I. Robertson Agric. Perth 303 Others throw hay or unthrashed corn in handfuls upon the snow to feed them. 1844 H. Stephens Bk. Farm II. 286 The unthrashed corn..is delivered into the machine.

fig. 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. III. ii. § 27 It is to be remembered that knowledge in this form may be kept..in such unthreshed disorder that it is of no use.

2. Unbeaten, unflogged.

1892 Daily News 5 Oct. 3/1 A couple of youths..tore the lower part of it, but they ran off unthrashed.

†Unthra·shen, ppl. a. Obs. Sc. and north. [Un-¹ 8 b. Cf. MHG. (G.) ungedroschen.] = prec. 1.

1482 Acta Dominorum (1839) 100/1, xij thrafe vnthreschin corne. 1537 Simlowe Cell Inv. (P.R.O.), vj thrayf of vnthrashen Barlycorne. 1578 Reg. Privy Council Scot. II. 680 The said unthreschin corne. 1601 in T. Pont's Acc. Cunninghames (Maitl. Cl.) 220 Are mow of vnthresh Wheir. 1629 Orkney Witch Trial in County Folk-Lore III. (1903) 77 Ye said ye may give me ane lock..out of the cassie under the unthreshin corne.

Unthread, v. (Un-² 3.)

Chiefly in literative uses.

1595 Shaks. John v. iv. 11 Vnthred the rude eye of Rebellion, And welcome home againe discarded faith. 1634 Milton Comus 616 He with his bare wand can unthread thy joynts, And crumble all thy sinews. 1699 Bonnycastle Rev. Dial. i, Desenfiler, to unthread a Needle. 1861 Lane Lett. (1900) II. 40 Who can di-entangle and unthread the rich texture of Nature and Poetry!..without spoiling both lace and coat? 1868 Keats Endymion xxxvii, The while it did unthread the horrid woof of the lace darkend time. 1847 De Quincey Sp. Mil. Nun Wks. 1854 III. 43 Under Kate's guidance..they soon unthreaded the labyrinth of rocks. 1862 Mrs. Braddon Doctor's Wife x. 93 Threading and unthreading her needle very often.

Unthread·ed, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1895 K. Graham Golden Age 109 A signal for retreat..into unthreaded copses.

Unthrea·tened, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. ii. § 86 The Arch Bishop..lodged..in Whitehall; which place was likewise not unthreatned in their seditious meetings. 1648 [see Unreproached]. 1813 Wordsw. 'Stay, bold Adventurer' 25 All around Had deserted fallen—unthreatened, unproclaimed. 1818 Colebrooke Import Colonial Corn 108 Yet are his productions not unthreatened..by dangerous rivalship of less skilful..artists.

Unthri·dden, ppl. adjs. [Un-¹ 8 b + Thread v. 4.] Unthreaded. 1843 E. Jones Sensation & Event 125 He stands again before the unthridden gloom. 1866 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys iv, Pliny forests, untouched, unthrid.

Unthrift, sb. (and a.). [Un-¹ 4 a, 12. Cf. Wanthrift.]

†1. A malpractice; a defect or fault in conduct.

1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 12339 Per ys an vnbryfte Pat dob moche skabe yn shryfte. c 1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode ii. cxxii. (1869) 121 pis mantelle..was maad for to..mantelle with my defautes, and consele myne vnthrifites.

2. Want of thrift or economy; neglect of thriving or doing well; †dissolute conduct, loose behaviour, improprietv.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 516 Hit is sothe, bat alle mannez wyttez To vn-pryfte arn alle prawen with þoȝt of her herttez. c 1374 Chaucer Troylus iv. 431 To don his wo to falle, He rought nought what vnthrift hat he seyde. c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton, 1483) iii. viii. 55 These ben the children of tristesse,..þat ydelnes and al maner vnthrifte. 1429 G. Ashby Dicta Philos. 469 That the myddyl of your life be not spent In ydelnesse, ne in vnthrifte myswent. 1483 Cath. Angl. 385/1 Vn Trypte, denigencia.

1721 Kelly Sc. Proverbs 250 Many one blames their Wife, for their own unthrift. 1830 Carlyle Misc. (1840) II. 320 The Hof public openly finding her guilty of Unthrift. 1860 All Year Round No. 53. 62 No idleness was allowed in her house; no unthrift, no useless dawdlings. 1887 American XIV. 23 Both fell an easy prey to every adverse circumstance which poverty and unthrift can offer.

3. An unthrifty (†unthriving), shiftless, or dissolute person; a spendthrift, prodigal.

Freq. c 1520–1650. Occas. to play the unthrift.

c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 7231 Go we now, & sic þat vnbrift. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xi (Nicholas) 661 Pai..treityt wele bat vnthrifte, til eld had it brocht fra schrifte. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) i. cxl. 150 b/a At theyr metynge togyder this Unthryft gaaf hym a buffeth. 1500 Barclay Ship of Folys 142 b, A folyashe man rurall If he a churle, a fole and vnthrift be, The more he loketh to come to hye degree. 1556 Chron. Grey Friars (Camden) 73 Vacobonds that wold not labor, but play the unthryftes. a 1608 W. Perkins Cases Consc. (1619) 74 The young vnthrift in the Gospell, called the Prodigall child. 1639 Fuller Holy War 124 If he played the unthrift with this golden occasion. 1693 Dryden Persius iv. 237 Shall I ..My Friends disgrace, And be the first lewd Unthrift of my Race? 1765 Blackstone Comm. I. 295 When a man on an inquest of idiocy hath been returned an unthrift and not an idiot, no further proceedings have been had. 1821 Scott Kenilw. xxxi, The Earl of Oxford, a young unthrift, whom Foster had more than once accommodated with loans. 1862 Sir H. Cairns in Times 2 Jan., The Roman law made no distinction between unthrifts and idiots.

fig. 1521 E. Wollay Pl. Pathway 14 Wee know what thankes wee owe to God for all his gifts; Yet contrary we showe to him ourselves unthrifties. 1654 Gataker Disc. Apol. 18 As we count him a bad Husband, that foloweth game on the Market-day, so may we as wel count him a spiritual unthrift, that spends the Sabbath in that sort.

†b. One who is prodigal of something. Obs.

1640 Quarles Enchyrid. i. xciii, Fury, being an unthrift of its owne strength. a 1659 in Bann. Club Miisc. (1827) 324, It is confess thou 'rt sweet, yet find Thee such an unthrift of thy sweets. 1666 Spurstow Spir. Chym. lix. 175 The most of men are such unthrifts of time.

4. attrib. or as adj. Prodigal, spendthrift.

a 1562 G. Cavendish Wolsey (1893) 45 Thow hast allwayes byn a prowd, presumptious, disdayniffull, and a very onthryft waster. 1592 Nashe P. Penilesse A ij b, Sir Rowland Russet-coat..hath much adoo..to keepe his vnthrift elbowes in reparations. 1596 Shaks. Merch. V. v. i. 16 In such a night Did Jessica steale from the wealthy Iewe, And with an Vnthrift Loue did runne from Venice. 1650 Vaughan Silex Scint., Regeneration vi, The unthrift Sunne shot vitall gold A thousand peeces. 1865 A. Carr Ballads, etc. 66 When I met a man, unthrift and lorn. 1879 Lowell Cathedral 142 This unrift housekeeping that will not brook A dish warmed-over at the feast of life.

Hence Unthrift-like a. or adv.

1603 Heywood Wom. Killed w. Kindn. (1617) D 4 b, Now Nichlas you want money: And vnthrift-like would sete into your wages.

†Unthrift·ily, adv. Obs. (Un-¹ 11.) 1549 Cheke Hurt Sedit. (1569) G i b, That such plentie of vittayle, as was aboundantly in euery quarter,..is nowe all wastfully and vnthriftilye spent. †Unthrifthead. Obs. [Un-¹ 12.] Thriftlessness. 1590 Spenser F. Q. ii. xii. 18 The quicksand of Vnthriftyhed. Ibid. iii. xii. 25 Emongst them was sterne Strife,..Vnquiet Care, and fond Vnthrifthead.

Unthrift·ily, adv. (Un-¹ 11.) In an unthrifty manner; prodigally; † dissolutely.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 267 þay..controeued agayn kynde contrare werkez, & vsed hem vn-pryfuly vchon on oper. c 1386 Chaucer Can. Yeom. Prol. & T. 893 If a man wole aske hem pryuely, Why they been clothed so vnthriftily, 1492 Festivall 54 b Truly to laboure & not to slomber & slepe slewfully & vnthryftely. 1509 Barclay Shyp of Folys b ij b, Some thynkinge them self moch wyse & commendable Thoughe al theyr dayes they lyue vnthryftyly. 1571 Golding Calvin on Ps. xxxvi. 8 The ungodly shall perish miserably in their cune wickednes. 1605 Willet Hexapla Gen. 436 All such as spend their time vnthriftily. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. ii. Pref., Our Attainments cannot be over-large; and yet we manage a narrow Fortune, very vnthriftily. 1909 Firth Last Years Protectorate I. 8 The government had not managed the treasury unthriftily.

Unthri·ftiness. [Un-¹ 12.]

1. The quality of being unthrifty; thriftlessness, prodigality, wastefulness; † dissoluteness.

c 1430 How the Good Wyf 154 in Babees Bk. (1868) 43 Pride, reste, & ydlines, maky-pryftines. a 1429 G. Ashby Dicta Philos. 116 Wele manered people bene of goode lif,..Euel named bene often in striff, And men fle them for thair vnthriftynesse. 1509 Barclay Shyp of Folys 142 b, Sawynge in hym sede of moche vnthryftynes And than to stonde hym a and leue hym pore and bare. c 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VIII, 149 b, Some fell to drinkyng,..and stealyng of Dere in Parkes, and other unthriftines. 1609 Dekker Gull's Horn-bk. 35 You are vnherish the vnthriftinesse of such yong tame pigeons, if you be a right gentleman. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. i. xiv. 46 Neither wasting his paternall estate by his unthriftinesse, nor marring it by parcelling his ancient mannours, among his younger children. 1688 R. Holme Armoury III. 266/2 Unthriftiness, Slothfulness, Carelessness, and Rashness in Business. 1710, 1802–74 in Sc. glossaries (defining Wanthrift).

†2. Lack of thriving in growth. Obs. rare.

1707 Mortimer Husb. 394 When any of its Roots happen to perish,..the unthriftiness of its Branches will quickly discover it. Ibid. 418 The grubbing up of Woods and Trees may be needful upon the account of their Unthriftiness.

Unthrifty, a. [Un-¹ 7. Cf. Wanthrifty a.]

1. Producing or bringing about no advantage, profit, or gain; tending to, resulting in, or marked by thriftlessness, waste, or extravagance; unprofitable, wasteful; harmful.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus iv. 1530, I-wys my dere herte trewe We may wel stele a-way as ye deuyne And fynde swyche vnthryfty weyes newe. c 1412 Hoccleve De Reg. Princ. 2464 Rightwisnesse..out of this lle Purposeth fully for to fare & wende, So is our reule vnthrifty & vntrende. a 1429 G. Ashby Active Pol. 1 Come nat for vnthrifty Cowardise, whiche is in al Realmes abhominable. 1513 Douglas Æneid xiv. x. 25 Quhat onthrifty God in sic foly Hes 3ou bywayvyt heyr till Italy? 1529 Supplic. to King (E.E.T.S.) 40 Common players at all vnthryftye games. 1579 Northbrooke Dicing 60 b, Venerous people haue all their whole pleasance, Their vice to nourishe by this vnthriftie daunce. 1590 Spenser F. Q. i. iv. 35 Full many mischiefes follow cruell Wrath;..Vnmanly murder, and vnthrifty scath. 1627 Sir R. Cotton in Hist. Colls. (1659) I. 471 The spending of much Munition, Victuals and Money,..is counted an unthrifty error. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. i. § 147 The Subject might be taught how unthrifty a thing it was, to too strict a detaining of what was His, to put the King as strictly to enquire what was his Own. 1652 Benlowes Theaph. iii. lxvii, Unthrifty death has spread where thriving peace did range. 1697 Dryden Virg. Georg. i. 206 Tough Thistles..kill the Corn, And an unthrifty Crop of Weeds was born. 1776 Adam Smith W. N. v. ii. II. 473 They are all more or less unthrifty taxes that increase the revenue of the sovereign..at the expence of the capital of the people. 1809 Malkin Gil Blas ix. vi. p 3 The commerce of the eyes being so unthrifty, I had recourse to different agents. 1829 Scott Leg. Montrose ii, Having by unthrifty courses reduced a fair patrimony to a nonentity. 1869 Freeman Norm. Conq. III. xii. 101 The rebuilding..

had been possibly interrupted during the unthrifty reign of Malger.

† b. Of a language: Unprofitable, idle. Obs.

c 1440 Alph. Tales 215 Oft sithes, with þer vnthrifti language, hym at had rewle of þaim þai provoked .. to be angrie. 1467 Mann. & Househ. Exp. (Roxb.) 244 I wolde avysse 3owe to sese..of 3ower onthreffety langwage.

2. Not thriving or flourishing; lacking vigour or promise in growth. (Cf. THRIFTLESS a. 1.)

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 Onthryfty, idem quod unthende [Ibid., Onthende, invalidus]. 1484 CAXTON Fables of Esop III. iii. Thynke now, how thow are lese and vnthryfty. 1486 Bk. St. Albans b vij b, Euell meetis to make her vnthrefti. 1674 N. FAIRFAX Bulk & Selv. Ep. Ded., Such an underly Shrub in Knowledge, and unthrifty Sucker in Philosophy as I am. 1799 Phil. Trans. XXVI. 450 The Cow was very unthrifty, for which they gave her Cow Physick. 1795 C. MARSHALL Gardening xii. (1813) 145 Consider the soil about an unthrifty tree. 1831 YOUATT Horse viii. 122 The horse will lose flesh; ..his coat will be unthrifty, and readily come off. 1846 LANDOR Imag. Conv. Wks II. 224/1 That ..we should think it expedient to plant unthrifty thorns over bitter wells of blood.

transf. 1812 Examiner 11 May 292/2 Poor, ill-cultivated .. soils, the early appearance of which was unthrifty, show.. very thin.

b. Characterized by absence of well-being; indicative of unprosperousness.

c 1400 Three Kings Cologne 94 Per was nothyng left bote.. a litel cave vndir er þe sand a litil vnthrifti bowsfore þe cave. c 1425 MS. Sloane 75 fol. 201 Whanne þi bagge chaunglyd clene out of þe rede colour..in to a manere of an vnþryfty wan colour. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour 9 Atte the yongest doughtres houis it was turned up-so-doun, and alle unthrifti. c 1529 LATIMER in Foxe A. & M. (1563) 1298/2 Whiche vnthriftye state that we be borne vnto, is come vnto vs for oure owne deserites.

3. Loose or lax in respect of conduct, morals, or virtue; unchaste, wanton, profligate.

1388 Pol. Poems (Rolls) I. 299 Ne ne were haldyayys ar noght, non observantur honeste; For onthryfty pleye ys worght. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour 30 The good women..þat hathe not take the state of the unthrifti women þat hene euelle women of her body. c 1485 Digby Myst. (1882) ii. 578 Non shall in heuyn posess that be so vnthryfty. 1523 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. ccclxxxvi. 660 Suche rybaudes and vnthriftye people, as desyred nothynge but yuell and noyse. 1530 in W. H. Turner Select. Rec. Oxford (1880) 80 Certen unthrifty persons breking of the Kynge peise. a 1571 JEWEL On Thess. (1585) 219 Withdrawe thy selfe from the companie, of such vnthriftie, and light, and suspected persons.

transf. c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton, 1483) II. lvii. 55 Thou maiest me to lede a ful vnthrifty lyf. 1476 Stonor Papers (Camden) II. 7 Comaunde me to the Cloke [= cloak], and pray hym to amend his unthryffte maners: for he strykes euer in vndew tyme. 1535-6 Act 27 Hen. VIII, c. 28 ¶ 1 Reformacion of suche unthrifty carnall and abhomynable lyvyng.

4. Not thrifty, economical, or frugal; careless or improvident of one's means or substance; wasteful, extravagant, prodigal. (Cf. THRIFTLESS a. 3.)

1532 HERVET Xenophon's Househ. 59 The grounde doth best exaynye, which be good, and whiche be vnthryfty husbandes. 1551 ROBINSON tr. More's Utopia II. (Arb.) 87 The vnthrifty heire suffereth ye houses that his father buylded..to fall in decay. 1596 BACON Max. & Use Com. Law II. (1632) 49 Or to be in hazard of undoing his house by unthrifty posterity. 1639 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Part thie Summers Treas. 18 Such an unthrifty Rascall as thou will never be worth such a halter, it cost me two pence. 1662 HIBBERT Body Divinity I. 197 The wormes shall have his carkass, and unthrifty heires his estate. 1684 J. GOODMAN Old Relig. 336 A querulous, uneasy, lean, hungry and unthrifty sort of people. 1780 S. J. PRATT Emma Corbett (ed. 4) II. 108, I am one of those whom the world calls an unthrifty fellow. 1849 HAWTHORNE Twice-told T. 212 Next comes a sledge, laden with wood for some unthrifty housekeeper. 1904 Verney Mem. II. 215 Before the wine arrives, this unthrifty host discovers that he does not require it.

fig. c 1600 SHAKS. Sonn. xcv. Vnthrifty loueliness why dost thou spend, Vpon thy selfe thy beauties legacy? 1659 O. WALKER Oratory 109 This ingrafting .. parenthesis, if it argues a good wit, it shews a weak and unthrifty Orator. 1682 MRS. BEHN False Count II. i, Should we be unthrifty in our loves, And for one moment's joy give all away? 1703 ROWE Fair Penit. II. i, Oh wherefore did I play th' unthrifty Fool, And wasting all on others, leave myself Without one thought of Joy to give me comfort?

absol. 1896 BANCROFT Hist. U. S. II. xlii. 567 To insure an estate even to the sons of the unthrifty.

b. Prodigal or lavish of something; unsparing.

1620 DONNE Serm. (1640) 418 God is content to be told, that he is unthrifty, and prodigall of his servants lives. 1670 CORTON Expersion II. 282 He was not altogether so unthrifty of his own Interest. 1713 BLACKMORE Creation v. 243 Of light unthrifty, and profuse of day, The ruin'd globe has spent his latest ray.

Unthrifted. ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] a 1861 MRS. BROWNING Ragged Schools London xxii, Calm, unthrilled in Our heart's pulses.

† Unthri·ve, v. Obs. [UN-2 7.]

1. intr. To fail to thrive; to be unprosperous.

c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. II. 411 In Cristis tyme and long aftir þroof be Chirche, þat sip it has unþriven. 1390 GOWER Conf. II. 211 For that a man schulde al unwyse Ther oghte no wisman coveite. 1426 LYDG. De Guil. Pilgr. 23767 God wil, ..to chastice hem, his hond with-drawe, suffre her goodes to vnthryve. 1465 Paston Lett. II. 237 Upon trust of Calles promise, we may soon onthrive. 1497 NORTON Ord. Alch. Proem, in Ashm. (1652) 7 Whereby they were pore and made to vnthrive. 1618 LITHGOW Pilgrim's Farew. E 1, If hee vnthrives, hee hates anothers weele. a 1706 EVELYN Sylva II. viii. (1776) 419 Shade and dripping..are certainly causes of their [sc. trees'] unthriving till removed.

2. trans. To make unprosperous.

a 1550 Image Hypoc. II. 345 in Skelton Wks. (1843) II. 427/1 His expectatyves Many a man vnthrive.

Unthri·ven, ppl. a. Now Sc. (UN-1 8 b. Cf. WANTHRIVEN.) 1680 W. ALLEN Peace & Unity 136 Such as were but Babes still, and unthriven in the Life and Spirit of Christianity. 1895 JAMIESON, Crile, ..a child not least that is unthriven. 1875 W. ALEXANDER Ain Folk 187 Willikie had assumed an unthriven look.

Unthri·ving, ppl. a. [UN-1 10.]

† 1. Not doing well; lacking merit or excellence; unworthy. Obs.

c 1325 Metr. Hom. 130 Als did unthriuand (v.r. unthrewand) Giezye, Þat wes unhale þorn his gilte. 1513 Gawy & Gr. Knt. 1499 Good is your speche, Bot brete is vn-pryuande in þede per I lende. c 1400 Destr. Troy 4893 And we.. Answarth hym..with angur & skorne, With thretyng vnthriuand. c 1460 Wisdom 784 in Macro Plays 784 Here was a meny on-thryuande.

2. Not growing vigorously or thriving; not prospering or flourishing.

1600 SURFLET Countrie Farme III. xlvi. 577 After you haue thus cut it you may take the vnthriuing grafts [etc.]. 1628 QUARLES Argalus & P. III. Wks. (Grosart) III. 296/2 My quill would wast Th' unthriving stock of my bespoken time. 1673 Lady's Call. II. ii. § 49 They will often find temtation enough here to discard their honesty, as the most unthriving trade. 1793 Residence in France (1797) I. 121 An unthriving tree of liberty, which seems to wither under the baneful influence of the bonnet rouge. 1848 ARD Mother's Blessing II. ii, Filling up With stakes the gaps of the unthriving hedges. 1875 W. ALEXANDER Ain Folk 59 The poor wan bairnie..looked even more shrivelled and unthriving than before.

3. Bringing no gain or profit; unprosperous.

1617 BP. HALL Quo Vadis? § 5 Whiles in the meane season, their vnthriuing intermission is assailed with a thousand suggestions. a 1656 in Ralegh's Remains 11 It is now more than a seasonable time to alter the course of so unthriving a husbandry. 1624 HEYWOOD Gunaik. IX. 442 Hee was compelled..to prostitute his owne bodye to vnnaturall lusts, for this vnkind and unthriving gaine. a 1720 LISLE Husb. (1757) 107 The vetches continued in an unthriving way till the first of February. 1723 MRS. HOWARD in Lett. C'tess Suffolk (1824) I. 111 Sincerity is so very unthriving, that I can never give consent that you should practise it.

Hence unthri·vingness, sb. Unthri·vingness.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 135 A þral þryst in þe þrong vnþryuandely cloped. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) IV. 397 þe childe was i-bore to fore his tyme, and þerfore it was so unþryvingeliche and so evel i-schape. 1704 Dict. Rust. s.v. Engrafting, Unthrivingness of Trees.

Unthrone, v. [UN-2 4. Cf. Du. ontthronen, G. entthronen.] trans. To dethrone.

1611 COTGR., Destitroner, to dethronize, or vnthrone. 1637 EARL MONM. tr. Malvezzi's Romulus & Turquin 9 Amulius is not content to have unthrond his brother. 1658 W. CHAMBERLAYNE Love Pict. I. 23 DONOT..Unthrone thy soul with this unmanly passion. 1665 DRYDEN Indian Queen v. i, Think, what pride, unthroned, must undergo. 1721 SOUTHERNE Spartan Dame III. i, She means to bring her Father in again, And to unthrone her Husband. 1838 TUPPER Proverb. Philos. 167 The shock that splitteth the globe, shall not unthrone thy self-possession. 1883 WHITELAW Sophocles, Oedipus King 386 Creon..Seeks to unthrone me, springing unawares.

Hence Unthro·ning vbl. sb. (also attrib.).

1653 W. RAMESEY Astrol. Restored 324 An un-throning of some King. 1661 J. DAVIES Civil Warres 216 They resolved to send him four (as one called them) un-throning bills.

Unthronged, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1648 HEXHAM Ongestongen atten, to Sit unpressed or unthronged. [1775 ASH. 1847 WEBSTER.] † Unthrou·ghfareness. [UN-1 12.] Impenetrability. 1674 N. FAIRFAX Bulk & Selv. 112 The soul not agreeing with body, so much as in that one bolonger of unthroughfareness. † Unthrou·ghfaresome, a. [UN-1 7.] Impenetrable. 1674 N. FAIRFAX Bulk & Selv. 138 Body being a stour unweildsom thing, or at least a boaky unthroughfaresom thing.

Unthrown, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b, 8 c.)

a 1547 SURREY Poets II. 605 No stone unthrown, nor yet no dart vncast. 1642 T. WILSON Jerichoes Down-fall (1643) 86 Wherefore downe must the house, leave not one stone upon another unthrowne downe. 1651-7 T. BARKER Art of Angling (1820) 6 If any of the Lines fallest into the water before the Flie, it is better unthrown then thrown. a 1716 SOUTH Serm. (1842) III. 522 As long as the old ferment remains unthrown out, a man cannot be safe.

Unthrust. ppl. a. (UN-1 8 b.) [1775 ASH.] 1842 MRS. BROWNING Geb. Poets 19, Wks. (1904) 623 Objurgation vain To soulless nature, powerless to contain One ill unthrust upon it! Unthrumbed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH] 1797 COLERIDGE Lett. (1895) 7 His various works, uncut, unthrumbed, have been preserved free from all pollution. 1846 MRS. GORE Engl. Chez (1852) 99 In his time, newspapers..were unthumbed in the pantry.

Unthwarted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1805 WORDSW. Prelude IX. 523, I with him believed..that we should see the earth Unthwarted in her wish. 1823 WHITTIER Tract 18 Resting upon His will Who moves to His great ends unthwarted by the ill. 1872 RUSKIN Fors Clav. xvi. 12 Such as the unthwarted sun in his season brings.

† Unthwyndnd, pres. pple. Obs. (Origin and meaning obscure; the alliteration requires tw.)

c 1400 Destr. Troy 6360 The sij [= twelfth] vnthwyuond, þat twyet not in fight, Was..mighthyl Henex. Ibid. 6378 With xxij [= two and twenty] vnthwyuond twyet to fide.

Untickeled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) [1775 ASH.] 1865 TYLOR Early Hist. Man. viii. 203 An unticketed collection. 1899 Westm. Gaz. 20 Apr. 7/1 The unticketed crowd..was..perfect in its quiet behaviour. Untickled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1736 CHESTERFIELD Fogg's Jrnl. No. 377 ¶ 5 There is not an ear in the whole country untickled.

Untidily, adv. (UN-1 11.)

c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 On-tydely. 1530 PALSGR. 472/2, I bungyll, or do a thyng untydyly, or lyke an yvell workeman. [1775 ASH.] 1825 JAMIESON s.v., She was very untidily dressed. 1847 C. BRONTE J. Eyre viii, Unidily folded articles pinned to her shoulder. 1885 Manch. Exam. 12 Jan. 6/3 The table over which the remains of a fish dinner were untidily scattered.

Unti·dy, a. [ME. untidi (UN-1 7), = WFris. on-, üntidich, MDu. ontidich (Du. ontijdig), MLG. untidich, OHG. unzitich (MHG. unzitec, -aitic, G. unzeitig), MSw. otidig, (M)Da., Norw. utidig untimely, unseasonable, unfavourable, etc.]

† 1. Untimely; unseasonable; unsuitable, unseemly.

a 1225 Leg. Kath. 2400 After from hate to hate and to weane baðe, & untidi wederes! 1377 LANGL P. Pl. B. xx. 118 With his vntydy tales he tened ful ofte Conscience and his compaignye. 1393 Ibid. C. x. 262 The tarre is vntydy þat to þynne sheep by-longeþ. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 367/2 On-tydy, interoptatus (P. intempestivus). 1661 J. ANSWAY Tablet 91 Hitherto ye are come by an untidy Parliament, wherein..many..made grievous..shiprack of the Faith.

2. Of poor, mean, or uncared-for appearance; not kept in good order; not neat or orderly.

For the break in the evidence (as in the adv. above), cf. the history of TIDY a. (esp. sense 4).

c 1350 Will. Paterne 1455 Sche schal..haue mo solempne cites and semliche casteles, þan ȝe treuly han smale tounes or vntydyl houses. a 1529 SKELTON E. Rummyng 151 Theyr lookes about theyr face, Theyr tresses vntruss, ..Full vntydye tegges, Lyke rotten egges. 1545 BALE Image Both Ch. I. ix. (1550) K ij, Bishoppes, preestes, monkes..were poore, abiecte, and vntydye. 1570 FOXE A. & M. (ed. 2) I. 116 Therefore this vntydie ground of ours, bringeth forth so many weedes.

[1775 ASH.] 1824 CARR Craven Gloss. 119 Unheppen,..indecent, untidy. a 1825 FORBY Voc. E. Anglia, Untidy, unclean; sluttish. 1855 Pentley Chron. II. 541 The untidy one [sc. bee-keeper] permits cobwebs to cover the cottages of the bee-shed. 1884 F. M. CRAWFORD Rom. Singer I. 4 There can be nothing so untidy about a house as children and chickens.

Hence Unti·diness.

[1775 ASH.] 1845 E. B. BARRETT Lett. Browning (1899) I. 115, I rather like blots than otherwise—being a sort of patron-saint of all manner of untidyness. 1875 W. S. HAYWARD Love agst. World 13, I must be in a dreadful state of untidiness.

Unti·dy, v. [UN-2 3, or f. UNTIDY a.] trans. To make untidy.

1891 R. DOWLING Isle of Surrey 112 He was busy tidying, or rather untidying, his room all one day. 1893 BARING-GOULD Cheap Jack Zita I. 192 The wildness of her appearance thus untidied by the wind.

Untie·, v. [OE. untīgan (UN-2 3, 7).]

1. trans. To release, set free, detach, by undoing a cord or similar fastening.

c 1000 Ags. Gosp. Matt. xxi. 2 Þonne sona finde ȝyt ane assene getiȝede.. : untiȝeaþ hiȝ, and lædaþ to me. Ibid. Mark xi. 5 Hwæt do ȝyt þone folan untiȝende? ȝ.. K. Alis. 781 (Laud MS.), He it [sc. Bucephalus] vntyed & lete gon. 1388 WYCLIF Mark xi. 5 Thei..found a colt tied bifor the gate,..and thei vntieden hym. 1530 PALSGR. 768/2, I untey, ..je desite. Untey my hosen. 1581 A. HALL Iliad VIII. 147 His goodly steedes the Marine god..vnties. c 1586 C'TESS PEMBROKE Ps. XCI. 8, From snare..He shall thee sure vnty. 1639 T. DE GRAY Expert Farrier 236 Untye him, and giive him meat. 1659 HAMMOND On Ps. IX. 6 As when the master reaches out his shooe to his meanest servant, to be untyed and taken off by him. 1729 DE FOE Crusoe II. (Globe) 494 They said, if they untied her [sc. cow], Friday should see which Way she went. 1725 POPE Odyss. IX. 208, I climbed my vessel's lofty side; My train obeyed me, and the ship untyed. 1794 WORDSW. Guilt & Sorrow lxiv, They..busily ..unties Her garments. 1847 TENNYSON Princess I. 148 Therefore comes an hour from Jove Which his ruthless will defies, And the dogs of Fate unties.

absol. 1638 JUNIUS Paint. Ancients 193 The unleasned.. use to think it a matter of greater strength..to teare asunder, than to unty.

b. To free from a confining or encircling cord, bond, etc.

c 1450 Cov. Myst. (1922) 224 Goo forthe,..and lazare ȝe vntey, And all his bondys losyth hem asundyr. a 1533 LD. BERNERS Huon ci. 333 Huon came to ȝye fote of ȝye leder, where as he founde Gerames as then not vntyed. 1596 SHAKS. Tam. Shr. II. i. 21, I prethee sister Kate, vntie my hands. 1683 MOXON Mech. Exerc., Printing xxii. ¶ 7 He unties all the Pages of that Quarter. 1824 MRS. GLASSE Cookery ii. 38 Untye your Cucumbers, but take care the Meat don't come out. 1781 COWPER Charity 471 With slow deliberation he unties His glitt'ring purse. 1819 SHELLEY Peter Bell 3rd vi. vii, All these Reviews the Devil made Up in a parcel.. Peter..Untied them—read them. 1840 FARRAR Darkn. & Dawn iv, The executioner has untied your hands.

c. In various fig. uses.

13.. Cast. Lowe (H.) 1603 Hevyn and erthe shall bynaleyde, And the foure elementes shull be unteyede. 1390 GOWER Conf. III. 21 If thou be forto wyte in eny point, Whereof thi wittes ben untied. 1505 COOPER, Linguam resolutre,.. to vntie his tongue. 1586 DAY Eng. Secretary I. (1625) 87 Before this time the like breach..was neuer seene betweene vs: but what (mischiefe) shall I now terme it? that..hath in this vilde sort, gluen meanes to vntie vs. 1605 SHAKS. Mach. IV. i. 52 Though you untye the Winds, and let them fight Against the Churches. a 1654 SELDEN Table-T. (Arb.) 66, I cannot bind my self, for I may untye my self again. 1655 EARL ORRERY Parthen. I. vi. 13 I will untye my Soule from that Cley which invirons it. a 1845 WORDSW. Eccl. Sonn., Crusaders xo When Heaven unties Her inmost,.. tenderest harmonies. 1847 DISRAELI Tancred iv. iv, We shall be at Hebron before they untie their eyelids.

2. To undo, unfasten (a cord, knot, etc.); also transf. to relax (a hold).

1390 SPENSER F. Q. I. xi. 42 He forst him to vnty One of his grasping feete. 1602 and Pt. Return Parnass. III. iv. 1378 If he will not vnty the purse stringes of his liberality. 1639 J. TAYLOR Summers Tram. (Hindley, III) 17 You might have untied it [sc. a halter], that it might have serv'd another time. a 1718 PRIOR Love Disarmed 39 The Chain I'll in Return unty? And freely Thou again shalt fly. 1791 Cowper Odyssey VIII. 339 A snare Of bands indissoluble, by no art To be untied. 1858 Trollope Dr. Thorne III, The old squire of Greshamsbury, whose shoe ribbons Dr. Fillgrave would not have objected to untie. 1885 Mrs. Alexander Valerie's Fate I, She untied and removed the veil.

fig. 1582 G. Elliot in Arber Garner VIII. 208 Even then (by God's great goodness...) all their..devilish devices and practises were so broken and untied in me that [etc.].

D. fig. To solve or clear away (a difficulty). Freq. with knot in fig. sense (cf. Knot *sb.*1 10).

(a) c 1586 Sidney Arcadia II. xiii, The love of him commaundid him to preserve his life: which knot might well be cut, but untied it could not be. 1601 Shaks. Twel. N. II. ii. 42 O time, thou must untangle this, not I; It is too hard a knot for me t'vnty. 1643 R. Baker Chron., Stephen 65 A Gordian knot, which no Writer helpes me to unty. 1732 Berkeley Alciphr. VI. § 32 He will endeavour to untie knots as easily as the them. 1746 Francis tr. Hor., Sat. II. v. 56, I know the Doubles of timeny Lawyers, Unty their Knots, and plead with vast Applause. 1761 Sterne Tr. Shandy IV. vii, That is cutting the knot, said my father, instead of untying it. 1828 Corbett Pol. Reg. XXXII. 714 We cannot cut the knot: we must, therefore, take time to untie it. 1889 S. Walpole Life Ld. J. Russell II. 374 The new King tried to cut instead of untying the Gordian knot.

(b) 1612 Shaks. Cymb. V. iv. 149 This still a Dreame..Or senselesse speaking, or a speaking such As sense cannot vntye. 1649 Davenant Love & Hon. IV. iv. 80 We must to Delphos sure t'untie these doubts..with an oracle. 1654 Jer. Taylor Real Pres. 65 The whole party wanders in eternal intricacies, and inextricable riddles; which..themselves cannot untie.

c. fig. To dissolve (a bond, esp. of union).

(a) 1634 B. Jonson Love's Welcome Wks. (1641) 282 A true-love Knot will hardly be untid'd. 1652 Hobbes Leviath. IV. xlvii. 385 First, the Power of the Popes was dissolved... And so was untyed the first knot. 1671 R. MacWard True Non-conf. 166 Unless the error be of greater importance...it ought not to unty the bond of the unity of the Catholick Church. 1784 Cowper Task II. 1 Expedients, unless the knot Of union. 1805 Scott Last Minstrel VI. iii, Land of my sires! what mortal hand Can e'er untie the filial band, That knits me to thy rugged strand! 1895 Daily News 15 Nov. 5/1 A husband may desert his wife..; the State winked at a collusive suit by which the knot was untied.

(b) 1605 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. II. iii, 111 The amitie that wisedome knits, not folly may easily vntie. 1620 — Temp. V. i. 253 Some bitter Spirit, Set Calibans and his companions free: Vntye the Spell. a 1683 Sidney Disc. Govt. iii. § 15 (1698) 316 But if these obligations were untied, we may easily guess [etc.].

3. intr. To become loosened or untied.

1590 Twelfth Night Pasqual. 30 He threwe his armes about him with such violence, that his wide sleeue untyed. 1651 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year II. v. 59 Then their resolution unties like the cords of vanity or the gossamere against the violence of the Northern winds. 1 M. xxiii. 290 Their promises are but fair language,..and disband and unty like the air that beat upon their teeth, when [etc.].

Hence Untie·d *ppl. a.*1

1565 Cooper s.v. Recincitus, Zone recincta, a girdle untied. 1619 Fletcher Knt. Malta V. i, I am..a vessel crack'd, A Zone untid. 1891 T. Hardy Tess xlvii, She..had to supply the man with untied sheaves.

Untie·d, *ppl. a.*2 [Un-1 8.]

1. Not tied, in various senses.

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus II. 752, I am myn owene woman wel at ease...Right yong and stond vntyd in lusty lese. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 307 Medicine ne helpe he nov fele..That lete here tunges gon unteid. Ibid. II. 117 Mi sorwe is everemore unteid, And secheth overal my veines. 1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. v. xxiii. (Bodl. MS.), Pat parcie of pe tunge pat is wyse pe skyle of pe tunges is vntied. 1509 Hawes Past. Pleas. XVII. (Percy Soc.) 86 Myne owne I am, what that I lyste to do I stand untyed. a 1529 Skelton Agst. Venemous Tongues 4, I care muche the lesse what euer they say, For tunges vntayde be wrongy astray. 1617 Daniel Coll. Hist. Eng. 114 There were Excesses to many committed in a time so vntied as this was. 1652 Hobbes Leviath. II. xviii. 89 The untyed hands of that Man..that hath the Soveraignty. 1725 Pope Odyss. IX. 158 A port there is, inclos'd on either side, Where ships may rest, unanchored, and unty'd. c 1730 Ramsay Bonny Tweedside iv, Unty'd to a man..We never can thrive. 1888 Stamford Mercury 27 Apr., An untied bonehouse, cottages and land.

2. Wrongly used for 'unloosed'.

1608 Shaks. Per. IV. ii. 160 If fires be hot, knives sharp, or waters deep, Untied I still my virgin knot will keep.

†Untiffed, ppl. a. [Un-3: see Tiff *v.*1] Unadorned. a 1225 Ancr. R. 420 To Godes eien heo is iufsumere, pet is, more pe luttel of him, untiffed wimmen.

†Uni·ght, sb. Obs.—1 [Un-1 + Tight *sb.*1] Cf. Du. ontucht, OHG., MHG. unuht (G. unzucht).] An immoral act or practice.

a 1300 Body & Soul in Map's Poems (Camden) 336 Swanne thouz me tauztist on untigth, an me gan ther offe mone. [Ibid. 341 (Vernon MS.), Whon I dude an untiht.]

Untight, a. (Un-1 p.)

1622 F. Markham Bk. War I. vi. 27 However crazie or untight my pore Vessell may be, it must stil put forth into the Sea. 1632 Malynes Anc. Law-Merch. 142 If the owerloope of the Ship be vntyth, or the Pumpe be faultie. 1825 W. Finlayson Seas & Rhymes 27 Like some poor bodie, in his mind untight. 1823 P. Nicholson Pract. Build. 336 When lime has been long kept in..untight casks.

Untighten, v. (Un-3 3.) [1775 Ash.] 1836 Browning Paracelsus Lover 46, I untightened next the tress About her neck.

Until (un·tiˈl), prep. and conj. Forms: a. 3 Orm. unntill, 4–7 vn-, 4–9 untill (7 untell), 4, 6 vn-, 5–6 untyll (5 unetyll); 4–5 vn-, 5 (9 arch.) untille, 5 un-, vntylle (vn-); 4–7 vntil, 5–6 vntyl, 4– until. β. 4 (9 dial.) ontil, Sc. 5 ontyll, onetil; 5–6 ontill. [ME. (originally northern) untill, f. ON. und (retained only in una, unds = und es), = Goth. und (and untē), OS. und (usually unt), OFris. ond (ont), prep. to, as far as +till Till prep. and conj.] A. prep.

In poetry occasionally put after the sb. (or pron.).

I. Local (and derived senses), dative, etc. Latterly Sc. and north.

1. To, unto (denoting motion to and reaching a person or place); = Till prep. I. 1.

c 1200 Ormin 1399 Forr whatt teȝȝ fellenn sone dun Off heoffne unntill hatte. a 1300 Cursor M. 5123 Pan he went vntil his in. c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 13086 Wip hym vntil wode bey fled. c 1380 Sir Ferumb. 231 Pe Amerel vn-til a wyndow ran. a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 3858 Streyght vnto hys bed he yode, And clenyd the bysshope hym vytylle. 1498 Eng. Misc. (Spertess Soc. 84) 37 Unto all thois untill whome this presentes shal com. 1568 Lindale Blatt. iv. 3 Then came vntyll hym the tempter. 1561 Godly Q. Hester (1879) 12 Then shall I bryngge her in vnto thy vtyll. 1590 Spenser F. Q. I. xi. 4 He round himselfe full blith, and hastned them vntill. a 1800 Sock o' the Side xiii. in Scott Min., When they cam the gate until. 1824 J. Telfer Border Ballads. 43 It dirlit upthrow the twinklinge holes, The second lifte untille.

b. Up to (a point or limit); as far as; so as to reach; = Till prep. I b.

c 1330 R. Brunne Chron. Wace (Rolls) 10554 Fro be Weste or Est vntil Mounpow He was told of non honour. 1338 — Chron. (1810) 42 Pe folk untille Humber to Suane gan pei louie. c 1440 York Mysst. xxxvii. 52 I prechid in Nepalym, bat iande, And Zabulon even vn-till ende. 1535 Coverdale Judg. xx. 1 Then wente the children of Israel out and gathered a congregacion,..from Dan vntill Berseba. 1552 Bk. Com. Prayer, Communion, Upon the holy dayes, shall be made in the place appointed.., vntyl the ende of the Homelie. 1599 Hakluyt Voy. II. i. 211 Staires of yron ascending up vntil the midst of the pillers. 1616 J. Lane Contin. Spr.'s T. xi. 312 A woman..Which art her neckes vntill her dependeth, Wages the pitch rolle. a 1766 Ld. Thomas & Fair A. xxviii. in Child Ballads, Lord Thomas..strake the dagger until his heart.

c. In contact with; against.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. III. 1238 Sarmentes..Vntil a reed Pat iuwing bowiede. 1785 R. Forbes Upiness 38 He shook the blade, an'..Set the heft to the ground, Tho nib until his breast. a 1803 Cruel Mother iii. in Child Ball. I. 221/1 She's set her back untill an oak. Ibid. iv.

2. To, towards; unto; = Till prep. 2.

a 1300 Cursor M. 12386 Pai..Ne wald noȝte here bot bair delices, Pat drogh pam vntil oper vices. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 6484 Pogh non we ȝaue alle ȝy gode vntyl pore mannes fode. 1338 — Chron. (1810) 237 Sit auanced he pat file vntille a faire ping. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. I. 448 Myngе hit yurne Tyl eauery part vntyl on body turne. c 1535 Fisher Wks. II. (E.E.T.S.) 429 Howe terribly shall he lay this vntyll our charge, whan we shal be called vntyll a rekenynge for this matter! 1566 Spenshold & H. Ps. cxxxix. 6 It is so hye that I ame sore Can not attayne vntill. 1587 M. Grove Pelops & Hipp. (1898) 77 Perchance ye gods have you preserv'd vntil some better end. c 1675 in Skirburn Bull. (1907) 171 Good or euill, which his minde was bent vntill. c 1800 in Chambers Pop. Poems Scotl. (1862) 64 Ge—en—demen o' the Jury, Ye'll answer until a' your names. 1814 Scott Waav. x, The Laird..had devoted his leisure until tillage and agriculture.

†b. Like until, like; resembling. Obs.-rare.

c 1375 Leg. Rood (1871) 123 It was lite untill a heuyn. c 1400 Maundev. (Roxb.) vii. 26 Pe fruyt..es lyke vntill hostez.

3. Indicating the person towards whom an action, feeling, statement, etc., is directed. Freq. after verbs of telling, teaching, calling, doing, giving, making, listening, etc. = Till prep. 3.

a 1250 Lorsen 1065 Vntil his broher nith he bare. 1357 Lay Folks' Catech. (1.) 56 Seven deeds of mercy unto euen-cristen. 1377 Langl. P. Pl. B. Prol. 227 Tauerners vn-til hem tolde pe same. c 1400 Rule St. Benet (Verse) 378 Al pat scho sal tech oper vntill. 1417 York Memo. Bk. (Surtees) 183 He desires pe obeiant until serchouns and till his craftes. c 1450 Lovelich Greail lvi. 77 What is that pe vntylle? 1470–85 Malory Arthur XVIII. xv. 752 She cryed on loude vnto myll. a 1500 Coventry Corpus Chr. Pl. 56 Thus seyd vnto vs, Pyche Moses dyd rede vs vntill. 1521 Fisher Serm. agst. Luther iv. D v, He shal be a comforter vntyl vs. 1565 J. Hall Crt. Virtue 31 The rounde earth he hath forth lente The sonnes of mortall men vntyll. 1587 Gude & Godlie B. (S.T.S.) 82 Than ȝe present ane peirlis sing, Of lyfe serene, the warld vntill. a 1780 Archie o' Cawfield xxxv. in Child Ball., The lieutenant Until a bonny lad said..'Who is the man..?' Ibid. xxxvi.

†4. Up to (a given number); amounting or extending to. Obs. rare.

c 1440 Maundev. (Roxb.) xxii. 102 Diuerse bestez, as marmusetes, apes and oper many vntil iiim or iiiim. 1539 Bible (Great) Matt. xviii. 22 Lorde howe oft shall I forgeue my brother..? Tyll seuen tymes? Iesus sayeth vnto him: I sayy not vnto the vntil seuen tymes: but seuenty times seuen tymes. 1582 N. T. (Rhem.) Luke ii. 37 And she was a widow until eightie and foure yeres.

II. With reference to time.

5. Onward till (a time specified or indicated); up to the time of (an action, occurrence, etc.); = Till prep. 5.

a 1300 Cursor M. 1424 Stil ai stod pai wandes thre Fra adam tim unntil noe. c 1320 Hampole Pr. Conz. 555 Pe wilk reches fra be bygynnyng Of mans lyfe vn-til be ending. a 1352 Minot Poems (ed. Hall) iii. 39 All pat land vntill bis day Fars be better for bat lorinay. c 1440 Anturs of Arth. (U.) 702 Pay made hymе..a knyghts of pe tabylle rownde, Vn-tille his lynes ende. a 1466 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 105, I pray zow that hyt may be repryyd un tyll the tyme that I speke with zow. 1539 Bible (Great) Luke xvi. 16 The lawe and the Prophetes raygned vntyll Iohn. 1554 in Feuillerat Revels Ch. Mary (1914) 154 From the laste days of Maye..vntill the vjt daye of June. 1592 Arden of Feversham III. vi. 36, I doo but slip it vntil better time. 1652 J. Wright tr. Cannus' Nat. Paradox x. 229 Intreating him to stay there untill further intelligence from him. 1682 Sir T. Browne Tracts (1683) 138 With little action with foreign Nations untill the union of the Heptarchy under Egbert. 1721 Mortimer Husb. (ed. 2) II. 233 (To) hang them up until the end of February. 1754 in Natural Vernage Evid. (1871) 55 Taking upon himself to be stile or title of lord Nairn..until pay[ment]. 1853 Thackeray Eng. Hum. I. 70 He waits and waits until nightfall. 1889 Science-Gossip XXV. 255/2 Brooks's comet..may be visible..until the end of the year.

b. With (usu. after) a negative, = Till prep. 5 b.

1543 Star Chamber Cases (Selden) II. 267 Straungers.. will not vtter their wares..vntill the Faire. 1590 Shaks. Mids. N. II. ii. 117 Things growing are not ripe vntill their season. 1628 tr. Mathieu's Powerfull Favorite 103 Tiberius ceased not vntill such time as the Senate did consent him. 1671 tr. Freijus' Voy. Mauritania 21 Although this be a countrey where, untill this very day, we see no man so venterous as to hazard himself, but by Hostages. 1764 H. Walpole Otranto v, Until this hour I never set eyes on this damsel. 1872 J. L. Sanford Estimates Eng. Kings, Chas. I. 333 He did not become a person of real importance..until the death of his elder brother. 1893 W. O. Morris Napoleon (1894) 158 Nelson had not left Europe until the second week of May.

c. Followed by an adv. (or advb. phrase) of time. = Till prep. 5 c.

1338 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 58 Godwyn..fro London went away, He stode vntille no more, defaute he mad pat day. 1598 Elyot, Eliumnum, vntyll than. 1539 Hunt (Grafton) Rhim. xiv. 19 As thou hast forgeuen this people from Egipte euen vntyll now. 1582 N. T. (Rhem.) Matt. xi. 12 From the dayes of Iohn the Baptist vntil nouw. a 1631 Donne Paradoxes (1652) 81 A vertue which,..until then, is kept with a modest chastitie. 1648 Herrick H. Noble Numbers 7 Until when? 1721 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. VIII. 301 From the end of Compline until after Prime the next day. 1764 H. Walpole Otranto v, It was not until after frequent discourses with Isabella..that he was persuaded. 1826 Art Brewing (ed. 2) 126 [It] has, until lately, been a question among chemists. 1838 Encycl. Metrop. (1845) XXV. 175/2 The results..cannot be appreciated until after the lapse of years. 1849 Rock Ch. of Fathers I. v. 382 Until late in the thirteenth century. 1873 F. Hall Mod. Eng. p. xv, Until four years ago.

6. Before (a specified time).

1887 Lady Brassey Last Voy. 201 Having quite abandoned all hope of our appearing until the morning.

B. conj. (See Till conj.)

Not common during 18th c.; in freq. use from c 1820.

a. Up to the time that; till the point or degree when; = Till conj. I. Also with that.

c 1300 Harrowing of Hell (Auch.) 29 [They were in woe] Vntil Crist toked þaim vnto. 1338 R. Brunne Chron. (1810) 56 Pei..duelled per for drede, Vntille þe kyng turned, & his wrak ouer-sede. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. I. 619 The cok..his briddis haeth Vntil the crest uppon theire hedis growe. 1526 Tindale Luke xxiv. 49 Tary ye in..Jerusalem vntill ye be endewed with power. 1556 Lauder Tractate 48 The Maledictione of pure Gold sal ȝow and your seid Indure, Vntyll that ȝe be rutit oute. 1580 in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. IV. 426 [The jury] shall contynue together..untill they be fullie agreed upon their verdicte. 1602 Ld. Cromwell iv. 3, Now get you in, vntill I call for you. 1684 Bunyan Pilgr. II. (1900) 228 He..did them all abuse; Until that I..arose. 1729 T. Innes Crit. Essays (1879) 267 In the meantime, until exact copies be published, a curiousness of antiquaries may be shown [etc.]. 1764 H. Walpole Otranto v, Manfred..pushed on the least until it waxed late. 1802 Lockmaben Harper xvi. in Scott Min., The fiend thought they do but listen him to, Until that the day began to daw. 1890 M. Arnold St. Paul & Prot. 9 Man is altogether passive in this call, until the Holy Spirit enables him to answer it.

elliptical. 1596 Shaks. Merch. V. III. iii. 149 As doubtful whether what I see be true, Until confirm'd, sign'd, ratified by you. 1855 Poultry Chron. III. 296/2 After this, until feathered, they should be fed on rich food.

b. With negative (expressed or implied) in the principal clause, = Till conj. I b. Also with that.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter xciii. 15 For lauerd sal noght his folke schouue awai,..Vntil þat rightwisnes Be turned in Dome. c 1340 Hampole Pr. Conz. 3213 Na man may..Out of þat hard payn þam wyn, Until þe fire haf wasted bair bandes of syn. Ibid. 3271 Til þat sight þai may never wyn, Until þai be cleised þar of al syn. c 1477 Stonor Papers (Camden) II. 29 Ffor I may nat go yn-tylle ȝe comme. 1535 Coverdale Job xix. 12 But when man sleepeth, he ryseth not agayne, vntill the heauen perish. 1590 Shaks. Com. Errs. v. 1. 115, I will fall prostrate at his feete, And neuer rise vntill my teares..Haue won his grace to come in person hither. 1662 Devonr To Lat. Chancellor 32 In open Prospect nothing bounds our Eye Until the Earth seems join'd unto the Sky. 1692 E. Walker tr. Epictetus' Mor., On Dychotiction, That Truth they could not find Until the Morning-Star..foretold the Gospel Day. 1766 Sholmary Trav. iv, It will not freeze at all, until it has deposited all its salt. 1798 Wordsw. Peter Bell Prol. 4 Through the clouds I'll never float Until I have a little Boat. 1868 Morris Earthly Paradise I. 187 No man knew what could see this Until that thou..Hast given it to the senescbal. 1893 Spectator 29 July 101 The answer..will probably not be published until these pages are in our readers' hands.

elliptical. 1895 C. J. Cornish Wild Englandof to-day 248 Often they will..not move until almost trodden on.

c. In similar sense without a negative: Before the time that; before. Cf. Till conj. I c.

1601 J. Weever Mirr. Martyrs A 3 b, One tale is good vntill another's told. 1621 Elsing Debates Ho. Lords (Camden) 51 He refused to yield..untill the fees..were payed him. c 1645 Howell Lett. (1655) II. 90 'Tis held a great part of incivility for maidens to drink wine untill they are married. 1841 J. R. Hope-Scott in R. Ornsby Mem. (1884) I. 205 There will probably be an interval of six months, at least, until they can meet. 1852 Rock Ch. of Fathers

III. 76 The unfitness of man's soul to go to heaven until cleansed from every smallest speck of sin.

d. = TILL conj. 1 d.

1609 HOLLAND Amm. Marcell. 417 Mallobantes .. was much troubled, thinking it long untill he might advance his standard against the enemie. 1611 R. FENTON Treat. Usury 97 The time is not long, untill thou must trust him with a far greater matter. 1804 LADY HUNTER in Jrnl. Sir M. Hunter (1894) 202 We had not sat long until one roll of the ship brought such a sea on deck as [etc.].

e. So long or so far that; = TILL conj. 1 e.

c1440 Pallad. on Husb. II. 1143 Water first this opium relent, Of sape vntil hit ha similitude. 1535 COVERDALE Jer. xliv. 27 All the men of Iuda..shal perish with the swearde,..vntill they be vtterly destroyed. 1567 JEWEL Def. Apol. vi. vii. 62 They earn, vntil they be faine to perbreake. 1598 Epulario E iij, Heat it vntill the Cheese curd. 1652 CULPEPPER Eng. Physic. 5 If the decoction stand..for two or three dayes untill the yellow colour be changed black. 1748 Anson's Voy. I. viii. 82 We were obliged to bear away until they had made all fast. 1764 H. WALPOLE Otranto v, A silly wench, who has heard stories of apparitions until she believes them. 1836 THIRLWALL Greece III. 247 The flames were spread by the wind, until almost the whole island was left bare. 1901 Scribner's Mag. XXIX. 511/2 It was comparatively easy to repeat the drawing until the whole design was accurately copied.

ellipt. 1847 FARADAY Chem. Manip. xviii. 476 A mixture made by rubbing down very poor cheese with water..; until of the consistency of cream.

†f. So long (. . . ) until, = TILL conj. 1 f. Obs.

1470-85 MALORY Arthur VIII. xxxi. 263 So this syr Gareth rode soo longe in that forest vntyl the nyghte came. 1568 COOPER Thesaurus s.v. Estimo, Thou shoulden so longe beare vnthil he had..neglected those lawes. 1595 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. V. 346 The Universitie of Oxford, where he continued so longe untill he was thought fitt for the degree of Bacheler of Artes. 1597 BEAUM. & FL. Knight of Coal's Pedigree, (1612) 129 Eating grasse like oxen, even so long untill his haire was growne stiffe. 1651 WITTIE tr. Primrose's Pop. Err. 226 Wee must persist so long in the use of remedies, untill..we perceive [etc.].

Until(), erron. varr. (now dial.) of INTIL prep.

a 1300 Cursor M. 2501 Pai fled and fell vntill a sogh. c 1375 Ibid. 2692 (Fairf.), Our lorde went vp vn-til [Cott. in til] his blis. 1858 in N. W. Line. Gloss. (1877) 264 Chuck some more stolins until her [sic. i. cart].

Until, v. [UN-² 4.] trans. To strip (a roof, etc.) of tiles. (Common c 1590–1760.)

c 1400 Destr. Troy 9114 The taburnacle titly vntild was abone. 1468–9 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 123 Ye shall have doubyll cost for to untylle your howsys ayen. 1536 MS. Rawl. D. 780 fol. 94 b, Yong men..Untilling the hoo ouffes. 1589 Whip for Ape A iij, Cathedrall Churches he would faine vntile. 1604 T. WRIGHT Passions v. § 3. 182 Pull down this rafter, cut that beame, vntile the house. 1633 HEYWOOD Eng. Traveller I. iii, Enough tempests rise, Vntile the roofe, which..Left vnrepaired, the stormy showres beat in. 1690 LUTTRELL Brief Rel. (1857) II. 5 [The wind] untiled the tops of most houses more or lesse. 1713 Lond. Gaz. No. 5103/2 The Houses have been..Untiled by the Wind. 1774 G. WHITE Selborne lxi, I untiled the eaves of a house where many pairs build.

fig. 1648 HERRICK Hesper., To the Detractor 4 A fellon take it, or some Whitlow come, To untile, or to untile the that thumb! 1699 T. BROWN Sev. New Coll. 60 What, is your House until'd already, and is it come to a Rupture between you?

Untiled, ppl. a. [UN-¹ 8.] Not covered with tiles.

1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xiv. 252 Had þei no þyng but of pore men her houses were vntyled! 1600 BERTON Pasquil's Passe Wks. (Grosart) I. 8/1 From dwelling in a house that is untilde..good Lord deliuer me. 1649 J. H. Motion to Parl. Learn. 20 Houses have..untiled and obvious to..injuries of the weather. a 1721 PRIOR Down-Hall xxxvii, A low ruin'd white Shed..Untyl'd and unglaz'd.

Untill, v. (UN-² 3.) 1733 TULL Horse-Hoeing Husb. vi. 52 It rather Untills the Land, and Anticipates the subsiding of the Ground.

Untilable, a. (UN-¹ 7 b.)

1714 Welsh Monster 26 In a wild Corner of the World,..Worthless, untillable, and barren. 1791 COWPER Iliad I. 598 On the shore..Of the untillable and barren deep. 1812 BRACKENRIDGE Views Louisiana (1814) 27 An extensive region of open plains and meadows, interspersed with bare untillable hills. 1889 Times 20 Apr. 5/1 A considerable portion of the district being untillable.

Untilled, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.)

1297 R. GLOUC. (Rolls) 7667 Moche land þer is As al wast & vntuled [v.rr. vntyled, -teled]. 1377 LANGL. P. Pl. B. xv. 451 Heth and vntiled erthe. 1382 WYCLIF Ezek. xxxvi. 36, I the Lord haue..planttid vntilled [1388 untilid] thingis. 1445 in Anglia XXVIII. 277 Londys which were untilled. 1469 Paston Lett. Suppl. (1901) 128 Thei byd them lete there land lye on tilled. 1538 STARKEY England 12 The erth..els schold have leyne..rude and vntylyd. 1598 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. i. Eden 598 There lives the Sea-Oak in a little shell; There growes untill'd the ruddy Cochenel. 1638 JUNIUS Paint. Ancients 245 An unbroken or untilled ground. 1674 IRAHENNE Poems Felicity (1910) 86 A Globe of Gold must Barren be, Untill'd & Sterile. 1766 Comp. Farmer s.v. Hoeing, The tilled earth receives an advantage from these dews, which the untilled does not. 1819 SHELLEY England 7 A people starved and stabbed in the untilled field. 1874 STUBBS Const. Hist. I. ix. 179 The wide forests and untilled plains are common property.

fig. 1592 R. D. Hypnerotomachia 95 Fearing to offend hir ..with my rude and vntilled toong. 1651 JER. TAYLOR Holy Dying ii. § 4 His treasures, and desart and untilled manners. 1803 WORDSW. Poems Nat. Indep. I. xx. 6 Men unto whom..minds not stinted or untilled are given.

†Untilthed, ppl. a. Obs. rare. [UN-¹ 8.] = prec. 1495 GLANVIL Barth. De P. R. xiv. xlviii. F 1 b/2 That londe þat is tilthyd hyghte Ager and þat londe that is vntylthyd [Bodl. MS. vntilled] highte Rus. †Until'ward, prep. Obs.—[f. UNTIL prep.+-WARD. Cf. TILWARD.] Toward.

a 1300 Cursor M. 15739 Iesus went him forberward..Vntilward a litel yard ó cedron oure he strand.

Untimbered, ppl. a.[UN-¹ 8.]

1. Not furnished with timbers; frail.

1606 SHAKS. Tr. & Cr. I. iii. 43 Where's then the sawcy Boate, Whose weake vntimber'd sides but euen now Coriual'd Greatnesse? 1824 SIR R. WILSON Priv. Diary (1861) II. 92 The vessel of state is yet too weak and untimbered to buffet the waves.

2. Unprovided with timber; not wooded.

1808 PIKE Sources Mississs. II. App. (1810) 8 The vast tract of untimbered country..between the..Missouri, Mississippi, and the western Ocean. 1828–32 WEBSTER s.v., Untimbered land.

Untimbered, ppl. a.[UN-² 4, 8.] Stripped of timber; deforested.

1618 BRETON Court. & Countryman A 4 b, Your state is weakened and your Land wasted, your Woods vntimbered, your Pastures vnstocked.

†Untime, sb. Obs. [OE. untima (UN-¹ 12, 4 b), = ON. and Icel. útími, útimi (MSw., Norw. dial. otime).]

1. In (earlier on) untime, at an unsuitable, improper, or wrong time. Also in pl.

Cf. ON. í útima, MSw. i útime, i otimom, in same sense.

c 897 K. ÆLFRED Gregory's Past. C. xxi. 153 Swa se lece, þonne he on unriman lacnaþ wunde, þio wyrmes& & rotaþ. c 1000 ÆLFRIC Saints' Lives xii. 76 Ælic þæra manna þe yt oððe drincð on untiman on þam halgan lenctene. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 207 He habbe ofte agilt on gollicke dedes, on untime oðer on unluueie stede. c 1225 Ancr. R. 344 Of wrie missedde wiðuten zeme of heorte oðer in untime. 1303 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 2962 3yf þou þys foly haunte.. Vn vntyme,..For sobe þou synnest þer dedy. c 1386 CHAUCER Pars. T. P 1051 A man shal nat ete in vntyme, ne sitte the longer his table to ete for to fasteth. c 1440 Jacob's Well 105 To pleyin at þe tablys,..& at swyche opere vayn pleyis, in vntyme & out of mesure. 1486 Dk. St. Albans, Hawking c vii b, A lombe that was borne in vntime. a 1500 Kyng Robert of Cicyle, 22 Off fore thocht of his riches he walkis in wntymis.

b. Untimes (gen. sing.), untimely, untimeous.

a 1300 Cursor M. 27799 O suernes cums.. Vntimes spech or to be still. c 1470 HENRY Wallace IX. 1630 This hour.. thow wrycht haist þeyn away; Wntymys thow art, for it is scantly day.

2. a. A bad time, inclement season. (OE. only.)

a 1023 WULFSTAN Hom. 297 Ic asende oðer eower land ælcne untiman, þæt hit ðæ eselice great hæfde..and unasegendlice þinurs. c 1130 D. Chron. an. 1124, Þes ilces yeares weron fæla untime on Englelande, on corne & on eale weatre.

b. An unsuitable time for action.

14.. Northern Passion (MS. I) 601 Thys is vn tyme of þe nyghte, In thys thankenesse to preise 3oure mygthe.

†Untime, a. Obs. [OE. untíme (UN- 4 b).]

Untimely; ill-timed.

c 1000 ÆLFRIC Saints' Lives xii. 74 Se dysiga dranc butan bletsunge..He his feorh forlet and gebohte swa done untiman drenc. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 13 Continencia:..Dat feorðe is, þat man þe spuse haueð, his golliche deden wiðˈteo, swo hit be untime. 1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 227 Whan he com to lond Tiping com him vntime, Sir Lowys dede he fond. 1414 26 Polit. Poems 56 Sloupe vn-tyme eft mon swete When it is hot, and glowe þa glede.

†Untimeable, a. Obs.—[UN-¹ 7 b.] Untimely. 1570 LEVINS Manip. 4 Vntymeable, intempestiuus. Untimed, ppl. a. (UN-¹ 8.) [1775 ASH, Untimed, not timed, not regulated as to time.] 1888 MEREDITH Poems (1898) II. 168 With time, Great of the Untimed I to lead. †Untimeless, a. Obs. [UN-¹ 5 a.] Untimely. 1602 CHETTLE Hoffman v. (1631) I 2, In memory of his vntimelesse fall.

Untimeliness. [f. next.] The quality of being untimely.

1580 HOLLYBAND Treas. Fr. Tong, Importunité, vntimelinesse. 1658 TAYLOR Let. to Sp. Rochester 87 The solemnities..and untimeliness of temporal death. 1670 G. H. Hist. Cardinals II. ii. 169 Had not the untimeliness of his death prevented it. 1846 TRENCH Miracs. xxxi. 438 Putting out of sight the untimeliness of those leaves and of that pretence of fruit. 1850 L. HUNT Autobiog. II. xi. 54 The latter calamity, by a most unfortunate climax of untimeliness, took place a little before his enemy's reverses.

Untimely, a. [UN-¹ 7. Cf. MDa. utimelig of weather, etc.]

1. Coming before the proper or natural time; premature: a. Of fruit. Also, not fully or properly ripened; immature.

1535 COVERDALE Isaiah xxviii. 4 It shal happen vnto him, as to an vntymely fruite before the haruest come. 1562 DAUS tr. Bullinger on Apoc. 209 That ye vntimely figges fal downe in great plentie. 1568 BIBLE (Bishops') Rev. vi. 13 Euen as a figge tree casteth her vntimely figges. 1644 MILTON Educ. 1 These are not matters to be wrung from poor stripplings, like ..the plucking of untimely fruit. 1825 A. L. BARBAULD 'Praise to God' vi, Should the fig-tree's blasted shoot Prop her green untimely fruit.

b. Of birth(s).

1538 ELYOT Abortus, an untymely byrthe. 1634 T. JOHNSON tr. Parey's Chirurg. Wks. xxiv. xxx. 921 The causes of abortion or untimely birth, whereof the child is called an abortive, are many. 1710 BERKELEY Princ. Hum. Knowl. § 151 Monsters, untimely births, fruits blasted in the blossom. 1755 JOHNSON, Abortment, an untimely birth.

c. Of death, fate, etc.

1548 ELYOT, Praematura mors, vntymely death. 1596 DRAYTON Leg. Matilda 548 Some say, the King repentant for this Deed,..Offered His Teares on my vntimely Grave. 1599 B. JONSON Cynthia's Revs. i. 1, Th' untimely fate of that too beauteous boy. 1651 HOBBES Leviath. ii. xxix. 167 The bodies of children, gotten by diseased parents, are subject.. to untimely death. 1709 ADDISON Tatler No. 154 P 5 Souls of Infants:..snatched away by untimely Ends. 1776 GIBBON Decl. & F. xii. I. 322 A life of pleasure or virtue,..of indolence or glory, alike led to an untimely grave. 1819 SCOTT Ivanhoe xlii, Their guide pointed with solemn air to the untimely bier of Athelstane. 1847 PRESCOTT Peru I. 452 Heaven..bringing them all to an untimely and miserable end.

d. In other contexts.

1565 COOPER Thesaurus s.v. Praecox, Vntimely laughter & that happeneth very seldom, as before the child is forte dayes olde. c 1586 C'TESS PEMBROKE Ps. LVIII. iv, O let their brood..of springing thornes Be by untymely rooting overthrowne. 1634 SIR T. HERBERT Trav. 157 Few of them attending patiently the death of their Predecessors, but by impious meanes labour their vntimely establishment. 1746 BERKELEY Sec. Let. Tar-water § 9 Unhappy drinkers ..bringing on the untimely symptoms of old age.

e. Perishing before due time. rare—1.

1605 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II, III. Lam 669 Sun, thrill'd with..shafts, through hundred holes Shall ghastly gasp out our untimely soules.

2. Unseasonable (in respect of the time of year).

a. Of frost, blight, etc.

1576 GASCOIGNE Steele Gl. 455 So those Imps..Are..nipt, with such untimely frosts. 1591 SPENSER Daphn. 938 O that so faire a flower so soone should fade, And through vntimely tempest fall away. 1730 THOMSON Spring 115 If brush'd from Russian wilds a cutting gale Rise not, and.. breathe Untimely frost. 1751 W. WHITEHEAD Hymn to Nymph 46 Life's latter fruits..at last fall off Shook by no boist'rous, or untimely blasts. 1797 GODWIN Enquirer I. v. 35 [It] may..suffer an untimely blight. 1847 LONGF. Ev. I. ii. 98 The harvests in England By untimely rains or untimelier heat have been blighted. 1852 C. BRONTË Villette xxxii, I have read of those who sowed in tears, and whose harvest.. perished by untimely blight.

b. In other contexts.

1593 DRAYTON Shepherd's Garl. iv. 33 O dismall day,.. O stormy winter,..I must vnlimely part my tipsed inbrow. 1627 ABP. ABBOT in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 448 It is an unseasonable time to brew now, and as untimely to cut Wood. 1772 Spect. No. 401 P 3 By the Assistance of Art and an hot Bed, we may possibly extract an unwilling Plant, or an untimely Sallad. 1879 STEVENSON Trav. Cevennes 40 They were cutting aftermath,..which gave the neighbourhood..an untimely smell of hay.

3. Unseasonable, ill-timed, inopportune.

1581 J. FELTON (title), A Caveat for Papists Howlet, concerning his vntimely flighte, and scriblinge in the cleare day lighte of the Gospell. 1590 SPENSER F. Q. II. x. 68 So vntimely breach The Prince him selfe haile seemeth to offend. 1607–12 BACON Ess., Of Empire (Arb.) 98 The vnequall and vntimely interchange of Honour and power. 1617 WOODALL Surg. Mate (1639) 3 Many dangers attending the unskilfull or untimely use thereof. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Reff., etc. (1848) 68 Men's overeager and untimely pursuits of several desirable things. 1756 C. LUCAS Ess. Waters III. 240 [It is] wise and just in general; but often..untimely; that is, too late. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla II. 370 [She] felt so much hurt by this untimely sight, that..she bent her eyes another way. 1830 PRAED Poems (1864) I. 234 All untimely question Ruffles the temper. 1867 FREEMAN Norm. Conq. I. v. 328 The cause of all this untimely activity.

b. Of hours: Unusually late (or early).

1827 SCOTT Highl. Widow v. ad fin., There are many who are still unwilling, at untimely hours, to pass the oak-tree.

Untimely, adv. [UN-¹ 11. Cf. MSw. otimelika in sense 1.]

1. At an unsuitable or improper time; unseasonably, inopportunely.

Not in common use before the end of the 16th cent.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 11 Swilche oðre [sins]..alse ben ouersteo and untimeliche eten alehuse. 1382 WYCLIF Ps. civ. 28 He sente decrouesis, and prede dere; and vntymely he fullfilde not [L. non exacerbavit] his woordis.

1596 SPENSER F. Q. v. v. 29 Now is the time, that I vntimely must Thereof make tryall, in my greatest need. 1596 Edward III, iii. 1 182 Thus my tale is done: We hate vntimly lost, and they haue woone. 1618 ROWLANDS Night Raven (1620) D 2 b, I blushed abusses..By such as doe vntimely haunt the street. 1667 KATH. PHILIPS Poems 111 He only dies untimely who dies late. 1702 ROWE Tamerl. III. ii, If I not press untimely on his leisure, You would [etc.]. 1743 W. WHITEHEAD Ann Boleyn to Hen. VIII, 74, I fell untimely, and lament my Fall. 1828 SCOTT F. M. Perth xxii, To avenge the deed expelling Them untimely from thy dwelling. 1882–3 Schaff's Encycl. Relig. Knowl. II. 851/2 The moment for this controversy was very untimely chosen by the Pope.

2. Before the proper or natural time; prematurely.

a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. x, O sweet youth,..how untimely subject it is to devotion? 1621 BURTON Anatomy II. iv. 46, I haue inserted the same (although vntimely) in this place, which otherwise I would haue reserued to some other. 1660 Trial Regic. 56 When that Blessed King was untimely taken away. 1721 POPE Sk. to Lord Oxford 4 'Till Death untimely stopp'd his tuneful tongue. 1766 Museum Rust. VI. 74 Trees..untimely taken off, before they arrive at any valuable maturity. 1833 HT. MARTINEAU Loom & Lugger I. ii. 17 Legs bowed from having been made untimely to bear the weight of the swollen body. 1887 PUSEY Real Presence i. 64 Melanchton..prolonged the conference, only lest he should seem to break it off untimely.

Untimeous, a. Chiefly Sc. Forms: 5 wn-, 6–7 vn-, untymous, 6 untimus, 7–8 untimous; 6 untymeus, 7 -tymeous, 9 -timeous. [Alteration of earlier untimes, untymys (see UNTIME sb. 1 b), by assimilation to adjs. in -(E)OUS. For this change of ending cf. UNDEMEOUS a.]

1. Unseasonable; = UNTIMELY a. 2, 3.

a 1500 Ratis Raving 95 Tak not delyt in morne slepinge, Wntymous eting na drynkynge. a 1584 MONTGOMERIE Cherrie & Slae 397 Vntymous spurring spillis the steid. 1586 Reg. Privy Council Scot. IV. 74 The inopportune and unsymous sutes of divers persons. 1640 R. BAILLIE Canterb. Self-convict. Pref., We could not leave..to you..the legacie of an untimeous repentance. 1670 RAY Prov. 280 Of untymous persons:..He is as welcome as snaw in harvest 1823 SCOTT Quentin D. xvi, It required all the authority.. which Quentin could exert over him, to restrain his irreverent and untimeous jocularity. 1883 Contemp. Rev. Oct. 612 You do not find yourself oppressed by untimeous volunteered frankness.

b. Of times (esp. of the night).

1728 RAMSAY Monk & Miller's Wife 60 Wha's that gi'es fowk a fright At sic untimous time of night? 1829 M. SCOTT Cruise Midge I. 349 Who makes such indecent uproar.. at such an untimeous season? 1837 BARHAM Ingol. Leg. Ser. I. Grey Dolphin, To inquire who sought admittance at that untimeous hour. 1894 CROCKETT Raiders iii, It was this that related me at such untimeous hours.

2. Premature; = UNTIMELY a. 1.

1536 BELLENDEN Cron. Scot. (1821) II. 408 He..was preventit be untimus deith. 1603 JAS. I. Βασιλ. δωρον To Rdr. A 8 b, So as this their great concurrence in curiositie..hath inforced the vnstimeous diuulging of this booke. 1634 CANNE Necess. Separ. 88 If his death was vntimous, it was rather for his secret intentions crossing his fathers courses. 1646 R. BAILLIE Anabaptisme (1647) 66 The change..ere long..brought upon him an untimous and cruell death. 1898 MOIR Mansie Wauch xiii, I believe he came to some untimeous end.

Untimeously, adv. Chiefly Sc. [UN-[1] 11, or f. prec.] = UNTIMELY adv.

1513 DOUGLAS Æneid vii. vii. 11 Synne babbels..From the swelt [yf twynnit vntymously. 1533 BELLENDEN Livy II. xv. (S.T.S.) I. 188 The romanis..had bene vntymylie invadit be be wolchis. c 1598 LINDESAY (Pitscottie) Chron. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 56 Scho paririt vntymouslie witht ane deid bairne. 1610 BAILLIE Lett. (1841) I. 262 The cold[ness] of the good old Generall..did shortlie cast water on this spunk, beginning most untymouslie to reek. a 1670 SPALDING Troub. Chas. I (1851) II. 273 This commvnion was thocht to be vntymouslie givin heir. 1821 SCOTT Kenilw. xv, It must be some perilous cause puts her Grace in motion thus untimeously. 1821 BORROW Lavengro lxxi, My husband..came to his death untimeously. 1894 HALL CAINE Manxman i. x, Dreaming that the poor lad has come to his end untimeously.

†Untiming, ppl. a. Obs.—[UN-[1] 10.] Careless, regardless. c 1350 Comment. Jesus. Christ. Leg. (1881) 146 If pe preste, bat schryues pe, Vn-timand or so rekles be bat be gif pe noght penance right [etc.].

Untimorous, a. (UN-[1] 7.) a 1548 HALL Chron., Edw. IV, 196 b, A man of suche haute corage,..vnd vnmorous indacte, as few or no wise sense in hym lyuing. Ibid., Rich. III, 56 b, Let us..set on our enemies like vntimorous Tigers.

Untinct, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Untinged. 1642 H. MORE Song of Soul II. 68 A reall infinite matter, distinct And yet proceeding from the Deitie, Although with different form and then untinct.

Untinctured, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.]

1. fig. Untinged, uncoloured, unaffected. Const. by or with.

1760–2 GOLDSM. Cit. W. lxvi, Simple gratitude, untinctured with love. 1769 E. BANCROFT Guiana 309 They are not untinctured with vanity. 1774 JOHNSON Nat. Hist. II. 397 [Zebras] caught sufficiently young, so as to be untinctured by their original state of wildness. 1801 Lusiguan I. 113 A degree of awe..not untinctured with [fear]. 1866 Q. Rev. Apr. 327 Oracles of the common law, but untinctured by scholarship. 1874 H. ROGERS Orig. Bible i. 43 Virtue..untinctured with..austerity.

2. In literal use; spec. in Her.

1882 WARREN Book-plates ii. 10 The arms are..at that period untinctured.

Untine, v. Obs. exc. dial. Forms: 1 untynan, 2 untinen, 3 untunen (ontune), 5 vntynde, 9 dial. untine. [OE. untýnan (var. of an-, ontýnan), f. un- UN-[2] 3 + týnan TINE v.[1], = OHG. antúnnen, inzúnen (G. entdünnen).]

1. trans. To open.

c 950 Lindisf. Gosp. Matt. ii. 11 [Hia] untyndon striona hiora. Ibid. ix. 30 Untynde weron ego hiora. c 1000 ÆLFRIC Gen. xii. 56 Iosep untynde eaðe þa berru. c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 115 Openeð þiure gates, and ech gate untinden þiu seluen to-þenes þe king of blisse. c 1205 LAY. 9781 Amarjen þa hit dæi wes duren heo vntunden. Ibid. 18949 Nis nan cniht..þe þe 3eten mihten un-tunen [v.r. ontune]. 1888 JOHNSTONE Tahiti In New Year in 8 (E.D.D.), Hoo told me hoo'd untined th' door.

2. To separate, sever.

c 1495 Epitaphs, etc. in Shelton's Wks. (1843) II. 392 Howe durst thou [sc. Death] his fleshly and spryyte vntynde?

† Untinge, v. Obs.[1] [UN-[2] 4 b. Cf. TINGER [2] and s.w. dial. tinge to bind, fasten together.] trans. To loosen (a cart-body) so as to prepare it for tipping. So † Untinger. Obs. rare.

1587 FLEMING Contin. Holinshed III. 1544/2 There appeared ..eight men called vntingers, to loose and vndoo the tackle of euerie court immediatlie before the vnloding or sheluing thereof [at Dover harbour]. Ibid. 1545/1 When the first court came nigh to the place where he should vnlode, one vntinged it, and the driuer proceeded with his court..into the ouze or water.

Untinged (-ˈtinʒd), ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

1664 BOYLE Exp. Hist. Colours iii. 191 In a Darken'd Room..where it may appear what Rooms [of light] are Untinge'd. 1732 SWIFT Let. to Gay 10 July, Pope has the same defect..: neither is my lord Bolingbroke untinged with it. 1744 W. WHITEHEAD Atys & Adrastus 283 The foaming Boar['s]..horny Sides repel Untinge'd the plumy Shaft, and blunted Steel. †1813 LAMB Christ's Hosp. Wks. 1908 I. 180 This religious character in him is not always untinged with superstition. 1817 COLERIDGE Lay Serm. p. xxiii, Not a ray of light could enter, untinged by the medium through which it passed. 1888 FLOYER Unexpl. Baluchistan 61 Copper gives green, and the untinged limestone snowy white.

Untinned, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1825 J. NICHOLSON Operat. Mechanic 400 A little sea-water is..put into..an untinned copper kettle. 1859 F. S. COOPER Ironmonger's Guide, 88 Saucepans..Tinned, ..Untinned. 1898 Daily News 6 Sept. 4/6 Frequent detections of unsound food, tinned and untinned.

Untint, ppl. a. Sc. [UN-[1] 8 b.] Not lost. 1513 DOUGLAS Æneid i. x. 43 The auld Troiane geir..fra the storme of see is left untynt. Untinted, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 8.) 1849 C. BRONTE Shirley xxix, There she is, a lily of the valley, untinted, needing no tint. 1866 R. M. FERGUSON Electr. 29 The space included between those two lines..is left untinted.

Untipped, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8 + TIPPED ppl. a.] Not furnished with a tip. 1679 Lond. Gaz. No. 1373/4 A Case of seven Tip Razors,..with eight other Razors, &c. some Tipt, some Untipt. 1775 ASH, Untipped,..Untipt. Untipped, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[1] 8 + TIP v.[1]] Not presented with a gratuity. 1860 W. W. READE Liberty Hall I. xi. 203 The untipped ostler scowling from the yard. Untirability. (UN-[1] 12. Cf. next.) 1855 Household Words X. 31/2 Hence..a rapidity of hæmatosis, which explains the untirability of the wings of birds.

Untirable, a. Also untireable. (UN-[1] 7 b.)

1607 TOPSELL Four-f. Beasts 31 They are..of hardest hoofe, a leane body, but of a generous and vntierable stomack. 1607 SHAKS. Timon i. i. 11 A most incomparable man, breath'd as it were, To an vntyreable and continuate goodnesse. 1836 T. ALLSOP Lett. & Recol. Coleridge II. 226 The sympathy and untireable kindness of my revered friend. 1846 MRS. GORE Eng. Char. (1850) 98 The Chaperon has, constitutionally, an untirable voracity. 1875 M. COLLINS Sweet & Twenty ii. xix, It might have gone on for ever, if everyone had been as untireable as Charlie Hawker.

† Untire, v.[1] Obs. [UN-[2] 4.] trans. To undress. Also refl. and fig.

1597 BEARD Theatre God's Judgements 342 Who being inspected, was in the presence of many vntired, and found to be a man. 1613 PURCHAS Pilgrimage (1614) 536 Then doe they vntire themselues, and..eate the cheere in the Platters. 1651 Life Disains in Fuller Abel Rediv. 143 Diasius..is wishfull daves and cloth'd His heart with Popery...When he was inspir'd By Heaven, he searcht for truth, and soon untyr'd Himselfe.

Untire, v.[2] [UN-[2] 3.] trans. To free from being tired; to rest.

In quot. 1845 after Sp. descansar (as in quot. 1853).

1697 Phil. Trans. XIX. 919 A way of untiring a Soldier after a long march, viz. by making a Decoction of Mugwort, and washing the feet therewith. 1845 FORD Handbk. Spain I. 162 Let [him] remember..to invite his friend to walk in and untire himself. 1853 G. J. CAYLEY Law Afforjas I. 170 He..pressed us to bait our horses and descansar (untire) ourselves at his farm.

Untired, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8.] Not tired or exhausted; unwearied.

1594 SHAKS. Rich. III, iv. iii. 44 Hath he so long held out with me, untyr'd, And stops he now for breath? 1616 W. BROWNE Brit. Past. ii. ii. 20 The great effects of vntirde industry. a 1660 Contemp. Hist. Irel. (Ir. Archæol. Soc.) II. 21 Great is the preparation, by thunderinge proclamations and untyred poastes to and fro. 1793 HANWAY Trav. iii. xxxvii. (1762) I. 175 With..untired attention he applied himself to business. 1799 WORDSW. Influence Nat. Obj. 32 Exulting like an untired horse That cares not for his home. 1839 T. MITCHELL Progr. of Antiqu. 651 note, The canary, with its untired throat and labyrinth of sounds. 1889 A. LANG Lett. Lit. iii. (ed. 2) 37 The poor have..in him an untired advocate and friend.

b. Const. by, with, and † of.

1600 FAIRFAX Tasso i. lii, Vnfeed'd in fight, vntir'd with hurt or wound. 1624 HEYWOOD Gunaik. v. 226 Most patient of labour, untyred with travell. 1698 ATTERBURY Serm. (1734) IV. 235 When the Mind is fresh and vigorous, untired with the Toils of the Day. 1802 H. MARTIN Helen of Glenross III. 130, I am still untired of sight or visits. 1813 BYRON Corsair i. xii, Unmoved by absence,..And yet..untired by time. 1839 ARNOLD in Stanley Life (1844) II. 175 I was so perfectly untired by my past work.

Hence Untiredly adv.

1855 FABER Growth in Holiness xxvi. 481 Fervour..thus immediately and untiredly..works at present duties.

Untiring, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.)

Common from c 1850.

1822 B. W. PROCTER Girl of Provence xxiv, The untiring seasons bring, for aye, To night rich slumber, and fresh life to day. 1859 JEPHSON Brittany xix. 312 The passengers were chiefly English, those untiring travellers. 1871 WHYTE MELVILLE Sarchedon I. 20 Yet a few more furlongs of those smooth untiring strides.

Hence Untiringly adv.

[1847 WEBSTER.] 1860 RUSKIN Unto this Last iv. § 82 No scene is continually and untiringly loved, but one rich by joyful human labour.

Un-Tit'ained, a. (UN-[1] 9.) Sunless. 1635 QUARLES Embl. II. i. 3 Thy Torch will burn more clear In night's untitan'd Hemisphere. Untitheable-ity. (UN-[1] 12. Cf. next.) 1885 A. N. PALMER Anc. Tenures Marches N. Wales 28 The untitheability of the common fields of Erbistock. Untitheable, a. (UN-[1] 7 b.) 1775 Ann. Reg., Chron. 133/2 This gentleman..filed a bill for..the tythe of lands before held untytheable. 1885 A. N. PALMER Anc. Tenures Marches N. Wales 28 The existing untitheable tract of arable and hay land.

Untithed, ppl. a. [UN-[1] 8. Cf. OE. untiðbod, and UNTEINDED ppl. a.]

1. On which no tithe is levied.

1621 BP. MOUNTAGU Diatribæ 540, I will complaine vpon thee vnto the Pryttanes, because thou detainest..to thine owne vses, the consecrated inuards..that belong vnto the gods, vntithed. 1801 HELEN M. WILLIAMS Sk. Pr. Rep. I. vi. 57 The lavish produce of the earth unfeudalized, and untythed. 1845 MCCULLOCH Taxation II. iv. 176 It then encourages cultivation as much as possible, and it discourages it on the tithed lands. 1871 LONGF. Div. Trag. II. i. 35 In thy court-yard grows the untithed rue.

2. Not receiving tithes.

1827 FOLLOK Course T. VIII. 81 Not from him Could be distinguished then the priest untithed.

Untitle, v. (UN-[2] 4.) 1824 HOOK Sayings II. 48 His Lordship untitled himself with the greatest safety.

Untitled, ppl. a.[1] [UN-[1] 8.]

1. Having no title or right (to rule).

1605 SHAKS. Mach. iv. iii. 104 O Nation miserable! With an untitled Tyrant, bloody Sceptred.

2. Unnamed, undesignated.

1612 W. PARKES Curtaine-Dr. (1876) 11 When these things were thus vnknowne, and vntitled, a good and happy world was I then.

3. Not distinguished by a title.

1798 S. & HT. LEE Canterb. T. III. 425 There, untitled and unknown, may we fix our home. 1825 J. NEAL Bro. Jonathan I. 71 What have we to do with the blazonry of an old people any more than..he, the untitled Adam? 1856 EMERSON Eng. Traits, Aristocr., An untitled nobility possess all the power without the inconvenience that belong to rank. 1870 BURTON Hist. Scot. lvi. V. 400 They have precedence over the untitled clergy.

absol. 1829 Habits of Gd. Society 26 My Lady A—..can scarcely appreciate the wide diffusion of wit and intelligence among the untitled.

Untitled, ppl. a.[2] [UN-[2] 8. Cf. UNTITLE v.] Deprived of the title of.

1596 SPENSER F. Q. v. ix. 42 But false Duessa, now untitled Queene, Was brought to her sad doome.

Untittering, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1749 in A. Dobson Fielding (1883) 137 Girls of an untittering Disposition. Untittle-tattling, ppl. a. (UN-[1] 10.) 1779 H. WALPOLE in Tovey Gray's Lett. (1900) II. 92 There is not so untittle-tattling a village as Twickenham in the island. † Untitled, ppl. a. Obs.—[UN-[1] 8.] = UNTITLED ppl. a.[1] 2. 1610 HEALEY St. Aug. Citie of God XVII. xiv. 640 Hee made all the 150, entitling them sometimes with other names,..and leaving some others vntitled at all.

Unto (ˈʌntu), prep. and conj. Forms: a. 4– unto (5 untoo), 4–7 vnto (5 north. vntew), 5, 6 Sc. wnto. β. 5–6, 9 Sc., 9 dial. onto (5 onne-to, Sc. one-to). [= on the analogy of UNTIL prep., by substitution of To prep. in place of the northern equivalent til TILL prep. Cf. the independent OS. untō.]

Since the end of the 17th c. less frequent, and employed chiefly in poetry, or in formal, dignified, or archaic style, or after Biblical use. Very rare in standard writers of the 18th c., and hence noted by Johnson as 'now obsolete'.

A. prep. (Ordinarily governing a sb. or pron.)

In poetry often placed after the sb. or pronoun.

I. Indicating spatial or local relationship.

1. Expressing or denoting motion directed towards and reaching (a place, point, or goal); = To prep. 1.

a 1300 Cursor M. 17547 Helias..Was taken up als vnto heuen. c 1300 Havelok 2399 Cum nu swiþe un-to him. 1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 104 Vnto he se side chaced þei Sir Lowys. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) II. 123 And the seete of Welles was chaungede vn to Bathe. c 1420 Anturs of Arth. (T.) 111 Vn-to þat grysely gaste Sir Gaweayne es gane. c 1440 Alph. Tales 218 He tuke bread & kaste vnto it [sc. a swine]. c 1475 Rauf Coilsear 5 Thay past vnto Paris. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 4 They iourney out of Egypte vnto the countre of Jerusalem. a 1548 HALL Chron., Hen. VIII, 85 He called unto him a servaunt of the kynges. 1587 HOLINSHED Chron. (ed. 2) III. 1187/2 The campe remooued from Linton brigs vnto salt Preston. 1590 SHAKS. Mids. N. III. ii. 370, I told him of your stealth vnto this wood. 1633 G. HERBERT Temple, The Bag iv, He did repaire unto an inne. 1654 H. DUNSTER in Quincy Hist. Harvard Univ. (1840) I. 19 The place unto which I go, is unknown to me. 17.. Took o' the Side xiii. in Caw Poet. Museum, When they cam' o' the gate unto. 1768 ROSS Helenore 8 We came unto a gentle place. 1801 WORDSW. Prioress' T. 52 A little scholar..Who day by day unto this school hath gone. 1866 EMERSON Daemonic & Celest. Love 48 So shall the lights ye pour amain Go.. Through from the empyrean walls Unto the same again. 1887 MORRIS Odyssey I. 90 Then speed we..Hermes the Flitter, to go Unto the isle Ogygia.

b. In various fig. uses. (Cf. To prep. 1 b.)

c 1440 Alph. Tales 218 With þat aftir come agayn vnto hur selfe, & thankid God. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 448 When he come vnto his spyrittis agayn. 1546 TINDALE Heb. viii. 29 By which hope we drawe nye vnto god. 1555 COVERDALE Psalm xxiii. 4 Which lifteth not vp his mynde vnto vanite. 1538 STARKEY England II. i Though..I dowryd no thyng of thys mater, that you so ernystely moue me vnto. 1598 GRAFTON Chron. II. 263 They put all their goodes vnto the Englishmens pleasures. 1600 HOLLAND Livy 1123 In this last speech he came neere unto the L.L. of the Senat, and touched them to the quick. 1606 G. WOODCOCK Hist. Jacob 27 It was secretly come vnto their eare, that [etc.]. 1639 LD. DIGBY Lett. conc. Relig. (1651) iv. 87 It is a farre more evident impossibility, then what you drive unto. 1683 Pennsylv. Archives I. 60, I cannot but believe you will take my grevances, unto your serious consideration. 1801 WORDSW. Troitus 63 In that very place My Lady first me took unto her grace. 1838 MRS. BROWNING The Sleep i, Of all the thoughts of God that are Borne inward unto souls afar.

c. With ellipsis of verb of motion. (Cf. To prep. 1 c.)

a 1593 MARLOWE & NASHE Dido II. i, Let vs vnto our ships, ..why stay we here? 1596 SHAKS. Tam. Shr. II. i. 316, I will vnto Venice To buy apparell. 1768 ROSS To the Begg'ar iv, I'll then unto the cobler, An' cause him sole my shoon.

2. In the direction of; directed towards; = To prep. 2.

a 1300 Cursor M. 10479 Sco lift hir hend vn-to þe lift, And þus to prai sco gaf a scift. 1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 217 Unto þe kinges partie Edward turned tite. 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 8 Unto him which the heved is The membres buxom scholden bowe. Ibid. 45 Whanne I..caste up many a pitous lok Unto the hevene. 1535 COVERDALE Gen. xiv. 22, I lift vp my hande vnto the Lorde. Ibid. xlix. 8 Thy fathers children shall stoupe vnto the. Ib. 1600 Gentle heardsman's, in Percy Folio (1868) III. 526 Vnto the towne of Walsingham which is the right and ready way? 1611 [see LIFT v. 5]. 1796 BURNS When Jamie gaed awa' iii, I bow'd fa' low unto this maid. 1858 WHITTIER Table Hymns i, Lean down unto the white-lipped sea The voice of God to hear!

fig. 1535 COVERDALE Prov. ii. 18 Hir house is enclyned vnto death, and hir pathes vnto hell. — Dan. ix. 3, I turned me vnto God...for to prayd. 1826 SCOTT Woodst. i, There is no light in England that shall come nigh unto it.

b. At, (Esp. after look, †smell. Cf. To prep. 2 b.)

a 1300– [see LOOK v. 23]. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts iii. 4 Peter wip Ioon bihelde vnto hym. c 1430 Pol., Rel. & L. Poems (1903) 180 A semeli man to be a king, A gracious face to loken vnto. 1535 COVERDALE Bel. & Dr. 18 The kinge loked vnto ye altare. 1579 TOMSON Calvin's Serm. Tim. 222/2 Ministers...must marke why this office is given them;...it is not because a few should be sene vnto [=looked up to]. 1594 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. ii. v. § 1 God made flowers sweet and beautiful, that being seen and smelt unto they might so delight. 1670 J. SMITH Eng. Improv. Revivd 213 The Root smelled vnto is good for the same purpose. 1848 AIRD Chr Bride II. vii, Majestic men who looked unto the skies.

c. In (a specified course or direction, lit. or fig.). Cf. To prep. 2 c, e.

a 1300 Cursor M. 2117 Pis land lies mast vnto be south. Ibid. 2120 Pe third part...lies mast vnto be west. c 1386 CHAUCER Miller's T. 58 [To break] an hole an heigh vp on the gable Vnto the gardynward. c 1400 Melayne 135 He sawe a bryghtenes of a beme Vp vn-to heuenwarde glyde. 1549 COVERDALE, etc. Erasm. Par. Rom. Prol. + v, Such a newe herte and lusty corage vnto the lawe warde, caste thou neuer come by.

†d. Indicating a means of access. (OE. tō and intō.) Obs.—1

1535 COVERDALE 2 Kings iv. 5 She wente, and shut the dore vnto her wir hin sonnes.

3. Indicating the limit or dimension of a movement, extension, or continuance in space: As far as; even to; not short of; = To prep. 3.

Occas. correlative to from (the remoter of two limits).

a 1300 Cursor M. 24386 Quen we sis hele nought se on him, Fra hefd vnto pe fote. a 1325 Prose Psalter cvi. 3 Fram þe rysyng of þe sunne vnto þe goynge adoune. c 1330 R. BRUNNE Chron. Wace (Rolls) 181 Mayster Wace..rymed this romance]..vnto pe Cadwaladres. c 1400 Destr. Troy 95 All the ferlies pat fell vnto the ferre ende. c 1470 Gol. & Gaw. 1313 All thi braid landis, Or all the rentis fra thyne vnto Ronsiwall. c 1500 Melusine xxxvii. 297 He...sawe inclusyne within the bataile vnto hir nauell. 1535 COVERDALE Exod. xxxviii. 4 A brasen gredyron of net worke rounde aboute, from vnder vp vnto the myddest of the altare. 1548-9 (Mar.) Bk. Com. Prayer, Communion of Sick, With the firste parte of the exhortacion and all other thynges unto the Psalme. 1597 LYLY Wom. in Moon i. 1, The rundle of this Massiue earth, From vtmost face vnto the Centers point. 1768 ROSS Helenore 32 Ye see her rigs run just unto our ain. a 1794 GOLDSM. Hist. Greece I. 223 A strong haven, with walls reaching into the city. 1801 WORDSW. Prioress' T. 198 My throat is cut unto the bone. 1812 CARY Dante, Parad. xxii. 149 This petty area...from the havens stretched unto the hills.

b. In figurative uses.

1508 DUNBAR Ballad Ld. Stewart 5 Onto the sterris vpheyt is thyne honour. 1535 COVERDALE Ps. xxxv. 5 Thy mercy (O Lorde) reacheth vnto the heuen. 1591 DRAYTON Harmonie of Church, Song Jonah 6 My voice I did extend Vnto the Lord. 1609 DR. HAM. David's Penitn Metaphr. viii, Thou hast...stretcht his raigne Vnto the heards, and beasts vntame.

4. Upon (and in contact with); on, against; = To prep. 5 a.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter cxvii. 26 Settes miri dale in thickenesse, Vnto horn þat of weued esse. c 1386 CHAUCER Wife's T. 973 She leyde hir mouth vn-to the water doun. c 1440 Alph. Tales 368 þe ymage..fell down vnto þe hard erth. 1480 Cov. Lect Bk. 447 The pepull...carryen their Dongeʒ..& leyen hit vnto the walles & yate. 1535 COVERDALE Exod. xxii. 8 He hath not put his hande vnto his neghbours good. 1550 T. LEVER Serm. (Arb.) 135 Beware therefore that ye stayre not your selfe vnto a brytlell staffe. 1559 Q. ELIZ. in Strype Ann. Ref. (1709) I. ii. App. x. 40 We have but a weake staff to leane unto. 1602 MARSTON Antonio's Rev. iv. iii, Thou bur, that only sticks Unto the nappe of greatnesse. 1607, 1624 [see LEAN v. 2, 2 c]. 1768 ROSS Helenore 21 She...lean'd her head unto the kindly tree. 1836 R. ALLAN Evening Hours 98 The hope thus to press thee Unto my fond bosom.

fig. c 1386, c 1400 [see STAND v. 76 f, g].

b. In contiguity or proximity to; in front of; by, close beside. Cf. To prep. 5 b.

1590 SHAKS. Com. Errs. i. ii. 91 Wilt thou flout me thus vnto my face? 1606 — Ant. & Cl. iv. xiv. 29 What thou would'st do Is done vnto thy hand. 1677 W. HUGHES Man of Sin iii. 79 Which...plainly gives them the lye unto their feetes.

5. Expressing relative location (esp. with nigh or near).

1526 TINDALE Mark v. 21 Iesus..was nye vnto the see. 1558 Child. Marr. 145 Neither in his house..,neither within iiij myle compas vnto the same Citie. 1600 J. PORY tr. Leo's Africa iii. 271 Neere vnto the said plaine are diuers woods. Ibid. v. 262 The citie of Tunis..hath no mountaines nigh vnto it. 1768 ROSS Helenore 89 They began to speer Gin they were unto Flaviana near.

fig. 1526 TINDALE Heb. vi. 8 But that groundeis reproved, and is nye vnto cursynge. 1539 BIBLE (Great) Lev. xxv. 49 Any that is nye of kynne vnto hym. 1548 UDALL, etc. Erasm. Par. Matt. xii. 75 b, He is moste nere and moste dere vnto me. 1785 BURNS Letter to Y. Goudie, Auld Orthodoxy [is]..high time death. 1870 MORRIS Earthly Par. III. 390 Death had need be near Unto such men.

II. Indicating a temporal relationship.

6. Until (a final limit in time); till as late as; = To prep. 6 and 6 c.

a 1300 Cursor M. 24739 All mi liue vn-to min end, In hir loueword þof i moght spend. a 1325 Prose Psalter lxxxix. 15 Lord, be þou turned vnto now. Ibid. cxii. 2 Be he name of our Lord blisced, nou of þis & vnto heuen. 1382 WYCLIF Ps. cxii. 2 Be the name of the Lord blissid; fro this now and vnto the world. c 1386 CHAUCER Man of Law's T. 765 Kepeth this child .. vn to myn hoom comynge. c 1440 Alph. Tales 439 þer deviceiile he servid our Ladie vnto his lyfis ende. 1480 Cov. Leet Bk. 436 Certain Common pastures belongyng to the seid Cite vnto nowe. 1484 CAXTON Fables of Alfonce ix, The wulf..hyd hym self nyghe them vnto the nyght. 1523 LD. BERNERS Froiss. I. lxvii. 89 The byshoppe..toke hym as his lorde, vnto suche season as somme other shulde come. 1539 BIBLE (Great) Rom. v. 13 For euen vnto the lawe was synne in the worlde. 1582 N. T. (Rhem.) Luke xvi. 16 The law and the prophets, vnto Iohn. 1623 Acts Privy Council x 70 We shall..keepe the same until suche tyme as..publication shall [be] moved thereof. 1691 in E. Walker Epictetus (1692) A 2 b, All good and perfect Gifts..Which Mortals have from th' Womb unto the Tomb. 1801 WORDSW. Twaddle 56 She..there so graciously did me behold, That hers unto the death my heart I hold. 1896 'IAN MACLAREN' K. Carnegie 356 Doctor Manley..praises Kate unto this day.

7. After a negative, = UNTIL prep. 5 b.

c 1400 Brut 322 The clergye..wolde not graunte hit vnto Ester next tymyg. 1450–80 tr. Secreta Secret. lviii. 34 Shewe not thi thought vnto tyme thou performe thi wille. 1485 CAXTON Paris & V. (1868) 11 Never I shal have playsyr ne lyore unto the tyme that I shall have..1515 in Leadam Star Chamber Cases (Selden) II. 88 He neuer unto this last yere knew eny man occupye a nothur mans Craft without Interrupcion. 1559 W. CUNNINGHAM Cosmogr. Glasse 105 Before the sonne be vnder th' Earth, which is not vnto .6. of the clocke.

III. Expressing the relation of aim, design, destination, result, consequent status or condition.

8. In order to begin, perform, accomplish, or obtain. Cf. To prep. 8 b.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter ciii. 24 Oute sal man go vnto his werke. 1303 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 9098 Vn-to þe karolle asswyþe he 3ede. c 1400 Destr. Troy 10734 The sun in his sercle set vnto rest. c 1440 Alph. Tales 414 In mornyng he went vnto his prayers. 1470–85 MALORY Arthur viii. xxvi. 271 Many bold knyghtes wente vnto mete. 1587 TURBERV. Trag. T. (1837) 134 The Lady, somewhat hungrie, fell unto the Cakes. 1596 R. LINCHE Diella, etc. D 7, They all sat doune vnto a soone-made feast. 1768 ROSS Helenore 68 Unto their supper they right yaply fa'.

b. With a view to; for the purpose of; for. Cf. To prep. 8 c.

c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. III. 1166 This wyne al medicine is take vnto. 1488 Wynd. of Hen. VII (1858) 18 Diners cabilles of hym bought vnto the Kyngs use. 1487 in Nichols Illustr. Manners & Exp. (1797) 83 For hokes and hengles unto the skolehouse dore,..and for nailes to the same dore, 1484. 1539 CHAUNCEL Let. in Misc. Wr. (Parker Soc.) 356, I pray you that the same may be delivered unto the said Whitchurche unto printing. 1549 THOMAS Hist. Italye (1561) 74 b, Vpon a very smal warnyng they [sc. galleys] may be furnyshed out vnto the sea. 1582 N. T. (Rhem.) Mark i. 4 Preaching the baptisme of penance vnto remission of sinnes. 1592 WARNER Alb. Eng. VIII. xlii. 258 Our Cattell vnto stronger draughts we..would vnteame.

9. Indicating a condition, state, or situation, conferred or imposed upon a person. Cf. To prep. 9.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter xviii. 26 Mi helper al he isse, And mi ber vnto bliscse. c 1400 Destr. Troy 428 Wyfes & wale children vnto wo put. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula 34 Vnto a louseable ende wip goddes help aboute half a 3ere I cured hym. c 1440 York Myst. xxxviii. 319 Vnto my dome I schall hane drawn, And iuge hane wonn þe pannne any Jewe. c 1529 Latimer in Foxe A. & M. (1563) 229b/2 Which vnthriftye state that wee be borne vnto. 1548 in Starkey England (1878) p. xciii, If vnto Office they after bee electe. 1591 DRAYTON Prayer of Mardochaeus iv. Do destroy and bring us unto nought. 1603 KNOLLES Hist. Turks (1621) 1119 Some [traitors] they roasted, and some they put vnto the Tenalia. 1648 WILKINS Math. Magic I. xi. 75 That slavery, which those..Nations were subjected unto. 1710 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum v. 103 The Decree of Divine Reprobation..necessarily inferred Man's Fall, Sin and Damnation violenting him (as it were) unto the same. 1807 WORDSW. 'Mens fret not' 8 The prison, unto which we doomed ourselves.

10. Indicating result, effect, or consequence: So as to result in, bring about, cause, or produce; = To prep. 10.

a 1300 Cursor M. 24746 Þof mans wijt be neuer sa strait, Sco mai well bring it vnto nait. 1430–40 LYDG. Bochas II. 28/2 Senacherib..Leffte his siege & took hym onto flyht. c 1440 Alph. Tales 442 He wyse feel a þai or þer fadurs shulde desyre hym to be maryd or to fall vnto synne. 1526 TINDALE 1 Cor. xv. 34, I speake this vnto youre rebuke. 1591 DRAYTON Harmonie of Church x, They..by their sin provoke Him unto ire. 1601 BRETON Longing Blessed Heaven xxii, Th' Artificer..bringes his hand vnto his heade deuise, Longes till he see, what it will come vnto. 1660 Nicholas Papers (Camden) IV. 250 The unexpected..admitting to audience and afterwards vnto treatie of the Portugal ambassador.

11. Indicating a resultant condition, status, or capacity: In or into the character, nature, or quality of; = To prep. 11, 11 b.

23.. E. E. Allit. P. A. 772 Quat-kyn þyng may be þat lambe, þat þe wolde wedde vnto hys vyf? 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 114 This lord a worthi ladi hadde Unto his wif. c 1400 Rule St. Benet (Verse) 1374 If þat þe priores wor dede, þo same..Wold ches me vnto priores. 1470–85 MALORY Arthur I. viii. 43 We wille hane thyne vnto our kyng. 1556 Chron. Gr. Friars (Camden) 28 The grayy freeres chaungyd their habhetts from London rossette unto whyt gray. 1590 SHAKS. Mids. N. i. 1. 207 (Q.), Else hath turned a heauen vnto a hell! 1599 DRAYTON Idea xlvi, I meruaile not thou feelst not my delight..Whose stomack vnto gaude hath turn'd thy foode. 1609 BIBLE (Douay) 2 Kings xxi. 14 And they shal be unto waste, and unto spoile to al their adversaries. 1749 C. WESLEY Hymns I. 57 Turn unto Flesh my Heart of Stone.

12. Indicating the object of desire, right, or claim. Cf. To prep. 12, 12 b.

†1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 57 He hat bad gode right vnto þe regalte. 1530 PALSGR. 538/1 By what meanes is he entyteled unto these landes. 1535 COVERDALE Ps. cxviii. 20 The very feruent desyre that I haue allwaye vnto thy iudgmentes. 1593 NASHE Christ's T. 29 b, There is no better clayme vnto wealth. 1738 in Nairne Peerage Evid. (1874) 42 Such personal estate as he..shall become..invitled unto.

IV. Followed by an expression denoting or indicating a limit in extent, number, amount, or degree.

13. As up to as many, as much, or as often as. Cf. To prep. 13.

a 1300 Cursor M. 12648 Ai to iesu was cummen neir Vn-to þe eild of thritte yeir. a 1325 Prose Psalter lii. 4 Per nys non þat dop god, þer nys non vn-to on. c 1400 Brut 295 Shippes & barges were take, vnto þe noumbre of .CC. & xxx. c 1500 Melusine xxxii. 156 There nys thing..that I sould refluse you vnto myn owne deth. 1526 TINDALE Mark vi. 23, I will geve it the, even vnto the one halfe of my kyngdom. 1530 in Leadam Star Chamber Cases (Selden) II. 46 It was..unknowne what the charges..would drawe vnto. 1596 SHAKS. 1 Hen. IV, iv. i. 129 What may the Kings whole battaile reach unto? Vernon. To thirty thousand. 1610 HEALEY St. Aug. Citie of God xix. i. 752 Thus doth the number arise vnto twelve. 1663 BP. PATRICK Parab. Pilgr. xiv, There cannot be so much interruption given to them, as the scratch of a pin among us amounts unto. 1812 CARY Dante, Paradise xviii. 57 Not..Unto the thousandth parcel of the truth, My song might shadow forth that saintly smile. 1895 PETRIE Egypt. Tales Ser. I. 70 He came again unto him, even unto six times. 1896 'IAN MACLAREN' K. Carnegie 328 There is nothing unto life itself I would not give for your good.

b. Down to (an ultimate grade, point, or number).

a 1325 Prose Psalter cxxxiv. 8 þe which..smote þe first borne of Egipt fram man vnto beste. 1515 St. Papers Hen. VIII, II. 11 The King..dyd conquyere all the lande, unto lyyd. 1535 COVERDALE Exod. xxii. 4 Yf ye shet he foude vnto the slyme (from the oxe vnto the Asse or shepe). 1592 SHAKS. Rom. & Jul. I. iii. 11 Faith I can tell her age vnto an houre. a 1623 FLETCHER Love's Cure v. iii, No Town in Spain, from our Metropolis Unto the meanest hovel. 1646 Sir T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. 274 The whole world perished unto eight persons before the deluge.

c. So as to be equivalent or equal to. Cf. To prep. 14.

1568 GRAFTON Chron. II. 308 Three Millions of Scutes of Gold,..the which do come into sterlyng money, fye hundreth thousand pounds. 1660 WILKINSON Scales Commerce I. 108 How much comes 100. a day unto by the year?

14. To such an extent or degree, so far, as to cause; so much as to bring about or result in; = To prep. 14 b.

1382 WYCLIF 2 Kings xx. 1 In tho dayes sijknede Ezechias vnto [1388 til to] the deeth. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 73 Be þai brissed and boled in wolne vntio mene pikkenez. c 1425 St. Christina xvi. in Anglia VIII. 125 She was stired of god vnto an vnsufferabil priste. c 1440 Alph. Tales 154 þe Emperour tuke it vnto so grete wrath, þat he gaue smyte of his head. Ibid. 408 He fell into a disparsyn, vnto so mekull þat he myght not lift with-owten venyall syn. 1542–3 BRINKLOW Lament. 3 To persecute vnto dethe all and euery godly person. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xxviii. 5 Through stubbornesse [they] harden themselves vntoo vnsensibleness. 1611 COTGR., Escoller,..to eat vnto sacietie. 1640 BP. REYNOLDS Passions xv. 141 Those vanities what hee seeth doe provoke others unto loathing. 1652 SCLATER Chr. Magnificency (1654) Ep. Ded. 3 His singular Learning, accompanyed with Temperance unto Admiration. 1812 CARY Dante, Purg. xxiv. 22 That face beyond him, pierced Unto a leaner fineness than the church. 1896 'IAN MACLAREN' K. Carnegie 153 Yellow fields, now yellow unto harvest, shone in the moonlight.

V. Expressing addition or accumulation, attachment, appurtenance, or possession.

15. a. Denoting attachment, union, adherence, or kinship to a person. Cf. To prep. 16.

1338 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 65 Felawes vnto þefes, to robbours of lik cuntre. Ibid. 90 With scrite vnto William Sir Dunkan him lawd. 1423 J. JS. I Kingis Q. xxxiii. Lat wisedom ay vnto thy will be lunyt. c 1440 Alph. Tales 219 [She] wold not be wed vnto a wurthi man þat wold hafe had hur. 1470–85 MALORY Arthur x. liii. 501 A ful noble Knyghte nyghe kynne vnto sire Launcelot. 1535 COVERDALE Gen. ii. 24 For this cause shal a man..cleue vnto his wife. 1544 in Leadam Star Chamber Cases (Selden) II. 279 Factoures vnto one Jacob vanganspole merchaunt of Andwerpe. 1591 DRAYTON Harmonie of Church, Song Sol. vii. 25, I am unto my Love a faithful friendly fere. 1601 Important Consid. Priests 21 Some of his own subiects were ..drawne, rather to adhere vnto them then to himselfe. 1649 LOVELACE Lucasta, Paradox iv, The God that constant keepes Unto his Dieties. a 1658 Ibid., Gunnaze 190, I was ally'd dear Uncle unto thee In blood, but thou alas not unto me.

b. Denoting fastening, securing, or junction to something.

1470–85 MALORY Arthur VIII. xxxiv. 326 He loked vpon bothe his handes that were fast bounde vnto two knyghtes. 1535 COVERDALE Gen. xlix. 11 He shalt bynde his foale vnto the vyne. 1585 T. WASHINGTON tr. Nicholay's Voy. II. 47 Two sides are washed by the sea, and the thyrd loyneth vnto the firme land. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. 239 The use of the Navell is to continue the infant unto the Mother. 1662 DRYDEN To Ld. Chancellor 32 Nothing bounds our Eye Until the Earth seems join'd unto the Sky. a 1881 ROSSETTI House of Life i, Still some golden hair Unto his shoulder clinging, since the last Summer.

16. Denoting appurtenance or possession. Freq. after verbs, as appertain, behove, belong, long, pertain, q.v. Cf. To prep. 17, 17 b.

1390 GOWER Conf. I. 6 The vice Which longeth unto this office. 1445 in Anglia XXVIII. 273 He pat knowith the fadirlaw vnto thempeirous sone. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour cxvii. 159 Suche an instrument as longithe vnto a mynstralle. 1513 BRADSHAW St. Werburge I. 452 Elfiede..Doughtet vnto Oswy. 1568 GRAFTON Chron. I. 144 He was Cosyn germaine unto him on the fathers syde. 1594 DRAYTON Sonn. viii, Vnto the World, to Learning, and to Heauen, Three mines there are, to enerie one a mine. 1634 BP. REYNOLDS Stilettos of Rarch (1636) 19. This belonged only unto Princes. 1682 SIR T. BROWNE Chr. Mor. iii. § 8 So may'st thou be..a Father unto thy contemporaries. 1768 ROSS Helenore 60 Ye maun, I ween, unto the kards belang. 1845 BAILEY Festus (ed. 2) 194 From this highest orb, the crown of space And footstool unto Heaven.

17. By way of increase to; in addition to; with, besides; = To prep. 15.

1526 TINDALE Acts ii. 41 The same daye there were added vnto them about a thre thousande soules. 1535 COVERDALE Ecclus. xlviii. 6 There was nothinge be taken from them, nothinge maye be put vnto them. 1595 SHAKS. John iv. iii. 46 This is the very top, The heighth, the Crest: or Crest vnto the Crest Of murthers Armes. 1600 — A. Y. L. ii. ii. 250, I should haue given him tears vnto entreaties. 1642 DENHAM Sophy ii. i. 18 Wisedome he ha's, and to his wisedome courage; Temper to that, and vnto all, successe. 1660 SHARROCK Vegetables 19 Vnto the ashes of e very hill[sic. hemp] you must put a peck of unslake lime. 1898 'IAN MACLAREN' K. Carnegie 329 You have many friends, and may God add unto them good men and faithful.

VI. Expressing comparison or correspondence, relation to a standard, etc.

18. After words denoting correspondence, agreement, comparison, proportion, etc. = To prep. 21.

See also LIKE a. 1, RESEMBLE v.[1] 2, 6, RESEMBLING † b.

c 1325 Metr. Hom. 37 For unnai man bisend be Vnto the rede, als thinc me. c 1386 CHAUCER Prol. 243 Vn to swich a worthy man as he Acorded nat..To haue with sike lazars Aquaynntance. 1443 Jas. I Kingis Q. clv, The pantere, like vnto the mnangdyna. c 1460 Townesley Myst. iii. 306 Like vnto the turtill. 1553 EDEN Treat. New Ind. (Arb.) 5 Which..he thought to be muche inferiour vnto his. 1591 DRAYTON Harmonie of Church, Song Sol. ii. 6 No more the sons unto my Love mine mother resembled. 1611 CotGR. s.v. Descharged, [A colour] neere vnto a light blew, or of a light blew; light. 1634 T. JOHNSON Parey's Chirurg. Wks. xxiv. vi. 891 A certaine thinne skinne..like vnto that..ouer vnscirhous tumifies. 1660 BARROW Treat. Pr. ii. (1645) 67 When a thing is identifyed vnto the soule [etc.]. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. ix. 56 A throne that may be likened unto his. 1875 JOWETT Plato (ed. 2) III. 30 The second principle is like unto it.

19. With regard to; in respect of; as to, concerning; = To prep. 22.

c 1400 Cursor M. 25119 (Cott. Gabba), Seuin askinges er parin to rede..both vnto lifing here a space, and whare oure sawl more mister hase. 1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) 1. iii. C iiij, And this is vnto the synyyfycacyon of the sakre. 1520 Chron. Calais (Camden) 40 Sir Robert Willoughbie, ther were..the duches of Norfolk, with her iij doughters. 1591 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1860) 199 For engrossing his will, twice vnto paipar, after vnto parchment xl xs. 1612 BIBLE Rom. vi. 11 Likewise reckon ye also your selues to be dead indeed vnto sinne. 1641 J. JACKSON True Evang. T. i. 3 A Commentator unto the Text askes the question. 1669 N. MORTON New Eng. Memorial (1920) 46 They also brought a full intelligence in reference unto the particulars. 1799 LAW Serious C. x. 147 We are to live wholly unto God. 1778 ROSS Helenore 22, I ken nought unto his dispraise. 1885–94 R. BRIDGES Eros & Psyche Jan. xxi, Shut thy soft ear unto his clamour idle.

20. In comparison or as compared with; in relation to; = To prep. 18.

c 1400 Rom. Rose 5600 [He] never shal make his richesse Asseth unto his gredinesse. a 1500 in Ratis Raving, etc. 4 Al his sekines [is] lytyll, in comparisone one-to the luf at god schawyt till wa. 1539 BIBLE (Great) Matt. vi. 34 Sufficient vnto the dayes, is the trauayle thereof. a 1556 R. EDWARDS Damon & Pithias (1571) H ij b, But now I see there is no garde vnto a faithfull friend. 1682 SIR T. BROWNE Chr. Mor. iii. § 8 So may'st thou be contemporaries unto thy elders. 1778 ROSS Helenore 93 But a' their cushel-mushel was but jest, Unto the coal that brunt in Lindy's breast. 1842 TENNYSON Locksley Hall 152 All thy passions, match'd with mine, Are as moonlight unto sunlight. — Talk. Oak 107 As cowslip unto oxlip is, So seems she to the boy. 1844–5 LONGF. Hiawatha's Wooing 1 As unto the bow the cord is, So unto the man is woman.

21. In accordance, agreement, or correspondence with; according to; after; = To prep. 20.

c 1440 Gesta. Rom. 340 So oure Kyng .. graunted hem trewes; certyn yeres vnto her cosyng. 1439–40 LYDG. Bochas 1. 492 Whan he us made onto his likenesse, He putte vs bothe into Paradis. 1515 Festivall (W. de W.) 117 We preye you of a place to bury his body onto his worshyp. 1598 SPENSER State Irel. Wks. (Globe) 613/2 Lawes ought to be fashioned unto the manners..of the people to whom they are ment. a 1600 in Percy Folio (1867) I. 63 Shooes of gold the poter had on, And all his other rayment was vnto the same. 1602 SHAKS. Ham. i. iii. 23 Therefore must his choyce be circumscrib'd Vnto the voyce and yeelding of that Body, Whereof he is the Head. 1710 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum viii. 152 Disposing of Angels..suitably unto the Tenor of their own Actings. 1803–6 WORDSW. Odd Action. Humour. 56 And this hath now his heart, And unto this he frames his song. 1842 TENNYSON Lad. of Burleigh 80 A trouble..perplex'd her ..With the burthen of an honour Unto which she was not born. 1870 MORRIS Earthly Par. III. 418 Meanwhile to Kiarton,..Unto all seeming, life went merrily.

b. As far as; to the extent of. Cf. To prep. 20 b.

1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) II. ix. I viii, To socour our neyghbour in kepynge hym vnto our power in place and in tyme that he..falle not. 1642 tr. Perkins' Pref. Bib. III. § 205. 92 Unto divers respects a man shall take by a liverie of selsin which he made in his owne right.

VII. Expressing relations in which the idea of course or direction tends to blend with the dative use.

22. After words denoting attention, care, trust, etc.; = To prep. 24.

Freq. after verbs, as apply, attend, betake, hearken, intend, listen, look: see these words.

a 1300 Cursor M. 255 To laud and Inglis man i spell.. Sumquat vnto þat thing to tent. c 1386 CHAUCER Sqr's T. 67 Vn to my firste I wole haue my recours. c 1440 I. Bk. Tales 416 He fell vnto his prayers. 1455 Paston Lett. I. 326 Not to plese to geve trust or confidence unto the sinistrez ..rapportes of our sayd enemyes. c 1477 CAXTON Jason 20 My herte lugeth that ye shall haue grete Regard vnto my good wil. 1535 COVERDALE Ps. xvi. 1 Herken vnto my prayer. 1585 T. WASHINGTON tr. Nicholoy's Voy. I. xviii. 21 The castle..hath been so ill looked vnto..it is againe fallen into the hands of the Barbarians. 1619 ACTON Cryst 1. § iv. i. 219 Whose beleefe vnto diuine Oracles hath beene confirmed. 1642 Remonstr. Ch. Irel. 5 He wanted powder, having no more..than his Bandeleers to trust unto. 1656 EARL MONM. tr. Montaigne's Advis. fr. Parnass. i. xviii. 95 Flocks..grow lean..through the meer carelessness of him that looks unto them. 1710 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum v. 102 It was..Man alone, voluntarily hearkening unto Satan. 1812 CARY Dante, Purgat. v. 119 Say on; and trust As unto gods.

23. Against, in respect of opposition or hostility. Cf. To prep. 25 b.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter lxxi. 5 Torne iuels vnto mi faas. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts iv. 1 As þei stoden..þer kome fallandes þeron presteis..and Sadduceys. 1420–30 LYDG. Chron. Troy iv. 2452 Archilogus A mortal cours ran vn-to Brumys. 1439 Rolls of Parlt. V. 17/2 Phelip..hath contynuelly..made werre unto the saide John. a 1450 Rob. de la Tour 50 Se bi befell he had do a feyr vnto the kinge Dauid. 1585 T. WASHINGTON tr. Nicholoy's Voy. I. xvii. 19 b. [They]dyd daily make warre vnto his highnesse. 1591 SHAKS. 1 Hen. VI, iv. i. 73 Then gather strength, and march vnto him straight.

24. Indicating the person addressed, etc.; = To prep. 26. Usu. after verbs, as cry, say, speak, tell.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter xxvi. 6 (E.), I sall synge and salm sai Un-to Loverd. Ibid. xc. 15 He cried vnto me witerli. 1398 R. BRUNNE Chron. (1810) 99 Lowys wrote his letter vnto þe kyng Henry. 1390 GOWER Conf. I. 28 Ne speak a goodli word unto me. c 1440 Alph. Tales 122 þis suster said vnto hur brother. c 1450 CARGRAVE Life St. Aug. 5 The book of Seynt Augustin..on-to his sistir, a widow. 1477 Stonyr Papers (Camden) II. 28, I spake vnto my lady, and she wold sumtyme oppyn hir mouthe vnto me. 1512 in W. H. Turner Select. Rec. Oxford (1880) 2 The mayer answered agen onto the forsayd John. 1535 COVERDALE Deut. xxxii. 46 Vnto you, which I testifye vnto you this daye. 1596 Southampton Crt. Leet Rec. (1905) I. 56 Be yt commanded vnto all those..that they make chimnes. 1610 J. HEALEY St. Aug. Citie of God XVII. v. 628 These words of the Prophet vnto Hell. 1643 CARYL Expos. Job I. 635 Would you know what he was visiting of God is? It is praying unto him. 1790 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum vi. 112 Some special One of their Number intimateth the great News unto the Shepherds. 1768 ROSS Helenore 101 The squire well saw', an' unto Lindy says (tr.). 1844 WHITTIER Texas 32 Let the North unto the South Speak the word befitting both. 1896 'IAN MACLAREN' K. Carnegie 328 John,..is this all you have in your heart to say unto me?

b. To or for the worship of; in honour, adoration, or salutation of; = To prep. 26 b.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter lxv. 15 Offrand merybed, gode þat be, Sal I offre unto pe. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts xxi. 25 Demande þat þei abstene hem fro þinge þat es sacrified vnto idoles. 1430–40 LYDG. Bochas VIII. 552 Egipciens dide.. Ther sacrifyce vnto Mahoun & Isis. c 1440 Tale of Beryn 1. 1178 Laude, ymne,..& songe vnto The flour of lesse sprouge in Betheem. 1526 TINDALE Acts xvii. 23, I founde an aulire wher in was written: vnto the vnknowen god. 1598 BARRET Loderg. Gl. Lond. & Bonr. II 8 b, William Walkinskinck you not vnto this fellow? 1599 SHAKS. Much Ado v. iii. 22 Now onto thy bones good night. 1615 W. BEDWELL Arab. Trudg. L i, Aba' Ibibla, was an idoll..which..the Arabians..offer sacrifice vnto. 1842 MACAULAY L. Kegdiluz ii, Unto the Great Turk Twin Brethren We keep this solemn feast. 1882 BIBLE (R. V.) Exod. xxxii. 8 They have made them a molten calf,..and have sacrificed unto it.

25. Expressing or denoting response, responsive action, or reaction. = To prep. 27, 27 b.

Freq. with assent, consent, obey, etc. (q.v.).

c 1440 Alph. Tales 448 He wolde not consent vnto hur to ly by hur. 1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) I. ii. 12 Whan Adam & eue..dysobeyed unto God. 1518 in Leadam Star Chamber Cases (Selden) I. 148 The said bille is vncerteyn and insufficient to be answerd vnto. 1576 GASCOIGNE Steel Glas (Arb.) 59 To yeld good smacke vnto their dainte tongues. 1597 HOOKER Eccl. Pol. v. lxii. § 13 Nature as much as is possible inclineth unto validities and preservations. 1612 DRAYTON Poly-olb. iv. 175 Some..only us'd to sing Unto the other's harp. 1710 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum vii. 140 To say Amen, unto Isaiahs Description of our Lord. 1768 ROSS Helenore 88 Afore mishap had forc'd him to comply Unto a match. 1881 N. T. (Revised) Luke xiv. 6 They could not answer again unto these things.

VIII. Supplying the place of, assuming or taking over the functions of, the dative.

26. Denoting the recipient of a gift or the like, or the person affected by an event, etc. = To prep. 29.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter cliii. 22 Lyonn whelpes..seke fra god mete vnto þa. c 1380 Antecrist in Todd y Treat. Purg. 134 Yel putten grete penauunce unto men, bere Cristis charge is lijt. 1426 in Surtees Misc. (1890) 10 Pe charge..þat is put vnto me. c 1440 Alphabet of Tales 207 He putt hym [ac. his goods] vnto hur husbond. c 1470 HENRY Wallace I. 447 Sylvir and gold he gert on to him geyff. 1532 HARVET Xenoph. Housek. 32 b, As for suche thynges,..we deliuered them vnto a woman. 1582 in Lanc. & Cheshire Wills (1893) 3 I geue and bequeath vnto Richard..tenne sheepe. 1600 HOLLAND Camden's Brit. I. 726 Deliuering vnto him a verge of gold. 1678 BUNYAN Pilgr. I. 168 This could not but be a great grief unto him. 1695 in Jrnl. Friends' Hist. Soc. Oct. (1915) 175 She hath borne unto mee three sonnes. c 1708 FENTON First Fit of Gent 19 Whence comes this unsought honour unto me? 1768 ROSS Helenore 9 Nory..a giack of bread an' cheese..unto Lindy gees. 1814 CARY Dante, Inf. xxiii. 5 He told What fate unto the mouse and frog befel. 1829 in Nairne Peerage Evid. (1874) 56 We are graciously pleased to give and allow unto Caroline bronness Nairn an annuity. a 1865 EMERSON Woodnotes II. 342 Unto every race and age He emptieth the beverage.

b. Indicating the recipient of an impression, the holder of an opinion or the like; used esp. after verbs, as appear, seem, † think, etc. Cf. To prep. 29 b.

a 1470 HARDING Chron. (MS. Lansd.) Pref. vij, If it lyke vn to your owne ayyes..To Conforte now..your pore knyghte. 1596 TINDALE Luke xxiv. 11 Their words seemed vnto them fayned things. 1599 SHAKS. Much Ado III. v. 55, I am now in great haste, as may appeare vnto you. 1612 SPERO Hist. Gt. Brit. IX. xviii. § 29 It was thought unto the Protector, and vnto the whole Counsell, that [etc.]. a 1623 BACON Case Post-nati Scot. Wks. 1826 V. 116 For it seemeth admirable unto me, to consider [etc.]. 1710 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum viii. 147 One Attribute seemeth more Dear unto him than another.

27. For the advantage, benefit, convenience, use, or disposal of; for. Cf. To prep. 30.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter lxx. 8 In þe ai alle mi singinge. Made am i als fortakenge Vnto mani. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts ii. 41 Ande þat day weren wonnen vnto God ande turned abowe þrce þowsande. 1539 BIBLE (Great) Gen. iii. 21 Vnto the same Adam also and to his wife dyd the Lorde God made leithren garmentes. 1591 DRAYTON Harmonie of Church, Song Sol. v. 15 Then opened I the door unto my Love at last. 1623 FLEMWOOD Sitheer 4 yr i. B 3, Expoze thy selfe Vnto that monstrous beast of Cicily, Cal'd the Chimera. 1664 BUTLER Hud. II. i. 616 By which Astrologers..can tell What strange Events they do foreshow Unto her Under-world below. a 1698 H. SCOGAL Disc. Imp. Sabb. (1732) 179 A happiness we can never secure unto our selves. 1702 C. MATHER Magn. Chr. III. 178 An opportunity..to Vindicate another great Man, unto the Churches of our Lord Jesus Christ. a 1714 in Ledwich Antiq. Sarisb. 6 Therein you may find many pretty things, that shall unto your Wives you may teach. a 1784 Hobie Noble I. in Child Ballads, For in it there was baith meat and drink, And corn unto our geldings gay. 1816 WORDSW. Odes, Intim. 51 Those inlands and amaranthine weeds Unto their mortal Countrymen decreed. 1891 Cornh. Mag. Dec. 664 He took unto himself a village maid, and settled in Lyndhurst.

b. Indicating the person or thing towards which an action, feeling, etc., is directed; = To prep. 30 b.

Freq. with beholden, † holden (HOLD v. 10 b), recommend, etc.

a 1300 E. E. Psalter xviii. 13 And fra outen..Forbere vnto þi hine ai. 13.. Cursor M. 1069 (Gött.), Vnto his broþer ire he bare. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts xxvi. 27 And þo kenge Agrippa trowes vnto þo prophetes. c 1440 Alph. Tales 103 He askid hym wh þi wull not rye vnto hym. c 1465 Stonor Papers (Camden) I. 70 Y wer be-hold unto yow. 1508 KENNEDIE Flyting w. Dunbar 482 Lat newir this synfull sot Do schame..vnto your nacion! 1555 in Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. Var. Coll. IV. (1907) 283 The leke paines..shall ronne and be unto all those free Burgesses. 1587 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. V. 137 Goulde..referred me over unto Mr. Baylye to be payed upon youre head. 1623 in Kingz. Hist. Rev. July (1919) 208 Delivered to St. Raby .. as a present .. without any fees or charge unto him. 1654–66 EARL ORRERY Parthen. (1676) 378 More from a desire of being alone, than from any aversion she seem'd to have unto him. 1710 BLACKWELL Schema Sacrum vii. 130 Lord..having all their Iniquities..imputed unto him. 1763 C. SMART Song to David lxxiv, Sweeter [is]..The glory of thy gratitude, Respired unto the Lord. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla IV. 169 The Lord be unto thee! 1803 C. K. SHARPE Lett. (1888) I. 165 If Jane hath done this fault, woe be unto her! 1887 E. JOHNSON Antig. Mater. 251 Your unslothful love unto the glory of God.

28. Denoting the relation of an adj. (or derived sb. or adv.) to a sb. indicating a person or thing to which its application is directed or restricted. = To prep. 33.

Used in construction with many adjs.; cf. To prep. 33, and see MERRIFUL a., OPEN a. 15, SUBJECT a., TRUE a. 1 c, UNKINDFULLY a., UNTOLERABLE a., etc.

1390 GOWER Conf. II. 285 Hast thou be scars or large of yifte Onto thi love? c 1497 LYDG. Reson & Sens. 948 The which..were..vnto many wyght vayllable. c 1450 Crt. of Love 14, I can-not write Unto the princes..No termes digne unto her excellence. 1485 Digby Myst. III. 8, I am soveren of al soverens subjugal On-to myn empere. 1526 TINDALE Acts xxvi. 19, I was not disobedient vnto the heuenly vysion. 1593 in J. Morris Transb. Cath. Forefathers Ser. III. (1877) 124 Yet their life-labour is..costly unto us. 1639 S. DU VERGER tr. Camus' Admir. Events 301 A torture unsufferable unto this young gentlewoman. 1669 OWEN Exp. Ps. cxxx. 15 Vnspiritedness and disability unto Duty, in doing or suffering. a 1687 PETTY Pol. Arith. (1690) 72 It will be dangerous unto England, that Ireland should be in the Hands of any other Nation. 1795–6 WORDSW. Borderers 268, I (so filled With horror is this world) am unto thee The thing most precious that it now contains. 1801 — Troilus & Cressida 83 So cruel do not be Unto the blood of Troy, .. As Juno was unto the Theban blood.

b. After known, unknown, † uncouth, † unwist, unwitting, etc.; = To prep. 33 b.

In later use (esp. in or after Biblical usage) with known.

a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts xix. 17 þis made knowne vnto alle þe Iewes. 1423 Jas. I Kingis Q. lxiii, Quhen sall sum merci rew vpon 3our man, Quhois seruice is sit vncouth vnto 3ow? 14.. HOCCLEVE Minor P. 231/418 How [we] thidir come, vn-to vs vnwist. c 1440 Gesta Romanorum 3396 Yppe thy rose, .. And chaungyd horses onto them bothe vn-knowyng. 1514 BARCLAY Cyt. & Uplondyshman (Percy Soc.) 32 Seth God wyll be unknown unto us. 1556 Chron. Grey Friars (Camden) 17 The othe that he made un to the kynge of Ynglonde unwyttynge unto the pope. 1600 SHAKS. Lear I. iv. 224 By making this well knowne vnto you. 1795–6 WORDSW. Borderers 628 If compassion..Be known unto you. 1843 — G. Darling 7 One..Known unto few but prized as far as known.

IX. + 29. = To with the infinitive. Obs.

c 1352 MINOT Poems (ed. Hall) v. 25 King Edward vnto sail was ful sune dight. a 1400 Northern Passion 461 (Camb. MS. Dg 5, 41), pare come downe a aungell.. Vnto comforthe theau well still. ?1481 Cely Papers (Camden) 203 Any thing that I canc do unto ples ye.

B. conj. †a. = UNTIL conj. a. Also (a) with that.

(a) a 1300 E. E. Psalter xciii. 15 (H.), For Laverd sal noght his folke schionne awai, Ne his heritage for-lete never a dai; Unto þair rihtnes be turned in dome with quert. a 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 61 Pe pacient ow to abide still in þe water, vnto þat þe blode..chaunge into fairer colour. c 1425 Partenay 1132 In thys place abide yeto that ye See Ho bering hym best and ho better haue. 1556 Chron. Gr. Friars (Camden) 19 A gret multytude.. there abode seven dayes contynually unto that the kynge.. came..toward Grenewich.

(b) 1393 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 9055 Pys songe sunge þey yn þe cherchegerd..Vn-to þe matynes were alle done. c 1381 CHAUCER Parl. Foules 647 Almyghty queen vnto this ser be gon I ase respit. 1412 E. E. Wills (1882) 20 Also y wille..þat lucie my wyf have gouernauns þer-of.. vn-to þe forseyd william be of age xviij. yere. c 1489 CAXTON Sonnes of Aymon ix. 223 They wente to bed, & slepte vnto the daye appeared. 1548 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) ah, It is & euer shall be unquiet, vnto I come to the. 1549 Wills & Inv. N. C. (Surtees, 1860) 132, I give vnto my wife my house vnto my boy be of xxiiij yeirs of age. 1572 MASCALL Plant. & Graff. (1592) 52 The which may also keepe vnto the new come againe.

†b. = UNTIL conj. b. Also with that. Obs.

1303 R. BRUNNE Handl. Synne 5994 Here synne shal noper be forgyuen ne slakyn Vn-to þey ȝelde þat þey haue takyn. c 1400 Northern Passion (H.) 958 Pe men þan letted for no thing Vnto hai come to herod. c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 139/46 She..hadde no reste in spirite, vnto she hadde made a-seth. c 1457 Stonor Papers (Camden) I. 53. I can..not gefe hym no comfort onto that I have wurd fro yowr maistership. 1502 Ord. Crysten Men (W. de W. 1506) v. ii. None were happyed vn-to that yᵗ he were suffyynetlye cathecysed. 1535 BP. TUNSTALL in Strype Eccl. Mem. (1721) I. App. lix. 147 The commissioners..occupied the said auditors so long, that unto they were dispatched we could not have them (etc.). 1591 TYNDALE Prov. Reformation Pref. 6 Wnto he prouue that he defendes that same caus,..he will neuer caus me to beleue nor graunt that [etc.].

†c. So that at length; = UNTIL conj. e. Obs.

a 1395 HYLTON Scala Perf. I. xcii. (W. de W. 1494), My dere chyldern whyche I here..vnto you be ayenshapen in you. c 1400 tr. Secreta Secret., Gov. Lordsh. 84 Alle þes pinges shal be vpon þe fyr all a nyght and a day, vnto all þayre strynghe be out passyd. c 1425 tr. Arderne's Treat. Fistula, etc. 73 Bolle it agayne vnto it be ane vntement haldyng fast ynog. 1590 ARMYNSON tr. De Imitatione III. xii. (1893) 207 This sensuall appetite is to be subdued..vnto it haue lerned to be content with fewe thynges. 1541 R. COPLAND Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. Q j b, Apply vpon it a maturatife..vnto the scar be fallen.

†d. = UNTIL conj. d. Obs.

1490 Plumpton Corr. (Camden) 100, I thinke long unto I here word from you.

Untoa·sted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

1769 Mrs. RAYNALD Eng. Housekpr. (1778) 261 Lay untoasted sippets round the inside of the dish. 1865 DICKENS Mut. Fr. i. vii, Mr. Venus dives, and produces another muffin, yet untoasted.

Unto·dnered, ppl. a. Chiefly Sc. (UN-1 8.)

1823 BYRON Juan xi. xlix. note, 'Untoothed' but 'pretty virginities'..of the then day. 1850 A. M'GILVRAY Poems 65 His sons..marry poor Untochered lasses. 1866 FREEMAN Hist. Exe. i. (1871) 12 Whom his father had left unmarried and untochered.

† Unto·come, v. Obs.⁻¹ [f. UNTO + COME v. Cf. TO-COME v.] intr. To arrive, come to a place.

c 1440 Alph. Tales 210 On a tyme Petur & Clemett vntocome þer þis Matidiana begid hur meatt.

† Untofore, prep. Obs.⁻¹ [f. UNTO, after TOFORE prep.] = TOFORE prep. 1 c.

c 1430 LYDG. Min. Poems (Percy Soc.) 86 Theyr labour.. They..remembred by writyng ful notable, Unto-fore God a thyng ful commendable.

Unto·ggle, v. (UN-1 4 c.) 1859 F. A. GRIFFITHS Artill. Man. (ed. 8) 213, [Nos.] 5 and 6..shift side-tackles, untoggle breeching, and span it when the gun is in. 1883 Man. Seamanship for Boys 129 The first reef-buckets must be untoggled when taking in third reef.

Untoi·led, ppl. a. (UN-1 8, 8 c.)

†1. Untilled, uncultivated. Obs.

1578 LYTE Dodoens i. ii. 4 The common wormwood groweth naturally in..dry, rude, and untoyled places. 1601 HOLLAND Pliny II. 224 It commeth up..in untoiled and neglected places, and namely, common high wayes. a 1633 G. HERBERT tr. Cornarus on Temp. (1634) 40 The reducing of many rude and untoiled places..to cultivation. 1683 J. REID Scots Gard'ner (1907) 80 Trenching doth well prepare..untoil'd ground.

2. Not subjected to, or overcome by, toil.

1598 SYLVESTER Du Bartas II. ii. Babylon 262 Un-toyld, un-tutor'd, sucking tender food, We learn'd a language all men understood. 1649 G. DANIEL Trinnarch., Hen. V, coli, A Iollitie Sprung from vntoyled Limbes. 1744 ELIZA HEYWOOD Female Spect. No. 9 (1748) II. 143 He who preserves it [sc. hope]..is untoiled with disappointment, and never loses the prospect of his wish.

3. Not toiled for; got without toil.

1651 H. VAUGHAN Olor Iscanus, To best Comple 20 Like the clayes Warmth may all your Comforts be, Untoil'd for, and Serene as he.

Unoi·leted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1819 MOORE Mem. (1853) II. 325 Obliged to fly from bed and home, unshaved, untoiletted.

Unoi·ling, pr. pple. and ppl. a. (UN-1 10.)

1748 THOMSON Cast. Indol. i. xix. It is of vanities most vain, To toil for what you here untoiling may obtain. 1821 BYRON Cain II. ii, It is not with the earth..I feel at war, but that I may not profit By what it bears of beautiful, untoiling. 1839 CARLYLE Chartism vii, The Toiling Classes of mankind declare..to the Untoiling, that they will be governed.

Unto·ld, ppl. a. [OE. unteald (UN-1 8 b), = MDu. ongetellet, -telt (Du. ongeteld), MLG. ungezelt (LG. -tald), MHG. ungezalt, -selt (G. ungezählt, -zählt), ON. útalðr, útaldr, (M)Da. utalt.]

†1. a. Not counted or reckoned; not counted out or paid. Obs.

c 1000 Sax. Leechd., etc. III. 264 Þe ȝam dæȝe spræc se wisa Augustinus,..ȝif he byð forlæten unteald, þær þiðe ȝwæn eall Seos ȝeaȝre ȝeaȝrenes. c 1386 CHAUCER Miller's T. 594 Certes were it gold Or in a poke nobles all vntold, Thou sholdest have. a 1400 Octavian 821 He tok the floryns all vntold. 14.. Tundale's Vis. 64 He went.. To a mon to secon his pay For thre horsis that he had sold For the whyche the pennys wer untold. c 1600 SHAKS. Sonn. cxxxvi, Among a number one is reckon'd none. Then in the number let me passe untold.

† b. Not enumerated or reckoned up; unspecified. Obs.

a 1300 Cursor M. 28549 þau Iuus sau þis ilk man do signes sere—Þe blind to se, þe dumb at here,..And oder takens fele vn-teld. c 1340 HAMPOLE Pr. Consc. 7447 Wha couth þan telle..Alle þe syns..And leve nane untald, gret ne smale, þe whilk a man has here done. In. c 1425 Cursor M. 23159 (Trin.), In gate & kirchey..And in vntolde synnes lele. a 1450 Le Morte Arth. 3239 Forthie went they..To syr mordred and hys lordis,..And an C knyghtis all vn-tolde. 1697 TOURNEUR Rev. Trag. iii. i, Fair trees..Are out to maintain head-tires—much untold—All thrives at chastity, she lies a cold.

2. Uncounted, unreckoned, because of amount or numbers; immense, vast.

Untold gold (= any amount of gold), prob. originally in sense 1 a (= not carefully or exactly counted).

a 1400-50 Alexander 2677 Pare fand he tresour vntald. c 1440 Gesta Rom. viii. 22 Þe kyngdom of hevene, in þe which is tresour vntold. 1672 W. WALKER Parem. 24 You may trust him in the dark; with untold gold. 1754 Connoisseur No. 132 He..knows that you may safely trust him with untold gold. 1782 COWPER Alex. Selkirk 25 Religion! what treasure untold Resides in that heavenly word! 1849 GROTE Greece II. iv. VI. 605 The untold number of these barbarians was reported as overwhelming. 1853 J. H. NEWMAN Hist. Sk. (1873) I. i. ii. 83 All the untold riches of his treasury.

b. With plural sbs.: In large numbers; numberless, countless.

1*a* 1500 Pelis to the Play 46 The bagpyp blew, and that out threw out of a vnkouth vntold. 1659 W. CHAMBERLAIN Pharon. I. III. 4 A fruitful pasture..Where in untold droves did feed His bellowing herds. 1819 SHELLEY Mask of Anarchy lxxii, Ye who suffer woes untold. 1868 HEINE Reisebilder viii. I. 208 Untold ages have passed since the day when [etc.]. 1874 GEIKIE Gt. Ice Age xxvii. 376 The genial climate..lasted for untold centuries.

c. With abstract sbs. Unmeasured, unlimited.

In early ME. untald fultum occurs (Cott. Hom. 233).

1581 COWPER Table-t. 330 Incomparable gem I thy worth untold. 1825 J. NEAL Brz. Jonathan I. 60 His mouth was agitated..with untold sorrow. 1858 MORRIS Earthly Par. I. 147 He seemed to see the ancient sage Shrivelled yet more with untold age. 1875 T. W. HIGGINSON Hist. U. S. xxi. 212 It had also cost the Americans untold suffering.

3. Not related or recounted.

c 1386 CHAUCER Pars. T. P 1070 Lat no blotte be bihynde, lat no synne been vntold as ferras thow hast remembrance. c 1400 Destr. Troy 265 The truthe of the tale [is] vntold to your ere. a 1450 Knt. de la Tour (1868) 72 Whanne a man is shreue, he shulde leue no thinge vntolde. 1533 MORE Debell. Salem Wks. 1009/1, I haue..proued afore that he that sweareth so lies must haue left his tale vnto hym untold. 1656 STAPLETON tr. Stephyhus' Apol. 175 b, Rather then to suffer a..heresy vncomprtolled, or the truthe vntolde. 1623 MIDDLETON & ROWLEY Sp. Gipsy I. v, The cause..shall be to all the world untold. a 1645 MILTON Arcades 41 Where ye may more wear beheld What shallow-searching Fame hath left untold. 1700 DRYDEN Pref. to Fables P 13 Such tales shall be left untold by me. 1796 MME. D'ARBLAY Camilla x. xiii, A reciprocal confidence that left nothing untold, not an action unrelated. 1887 MRS. HEMANS Last Constantine xxv, In their mien..Things by the brave untold may fearfully be read! 1875 J. P. HOPPS Princ. Relig. xvii. 53 Until a thought or a disclosure is comprehended, it is as though it were untold.—It is not revealed.

4. Not informed (of a fact).

1590 SPENSER F. Q. I. iii. 38 For the old man well knew he, though vntold, In..magicke to haue wondrous might.

† Unto·lerable, a. Obs. (UN-1 7 b and 5 b.)

1382 WYCLIF Judith xiv. 17 Vntolerable drede and trembling fel vp on hem. 1412 YONGE tr. Secrets Secret. 182 He was..a crowel Tyrraunt ontollerabill. c 1440 Alph. Tales 147 The bitter payn of hell..is vntollerable vnto me. 1535 COVERDALE Bible Deu., The vntollerable iniuries..done vnto God. 1597 MORLEY Introd. Mus. 154 Which is a thing vntolerable except [etc.]. 1612 T. TAYLOR Comm. Titus iii. 1 Those in authority, who may..returne our frowardnes with vntolerable displeasure.

Untolled, ppl. a. (UN-1 8 + TOLL *v.*²) 1592 GREENE Conny Catch. II. 5 That no man may buy a horse vntould, nor the toule be taken without lawful witnesses. [See TOLL *v.*² 3.] 1775 ASH, Untolled, not tolled; not diminished by the toll.

Unto·mb, v. (UN-2 5.] trans. To disentomb. Also fig.

1594 Zepheria 1, All in the humble accent of my Muse, ..My grieues I here vntoombe. Sweete, them perase. 1614 GORGES Lucan VI. 243 The babe within the mothers wombe With gashing wound she will vntombe. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. VII. xviii. 382 The wonderfull corps of Antæus untombed a thousand years after his death by Sertorius. 1712 T. STAVELEY Hist. Churches 271 Being advised once to untomb the bones of an enemy. 1840 THACKERAY Paris Sk.-bk. (ed. 2) II. 229 The fair Rachel has been trying to revive this genre and to untomb Racine.

Unto·mbed, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Not provided with, or placed in, a tomb. Also transf.

1560 J. HEYWOOD Thyestes Di, That whiche the worste was wont to be, were beere a wisshed thyng, That thoses theyr father sawe vntombde [L. insepultos]. 1582 STANYHURST Æneis I. (Arb.) 29 But loa, the proper image of corps vntumbed apeered In dreane vnto Dido. 1818 MILMAN Samor iv. 50 The burial on the battle field, unhymn'd, unmourn'd, untomb'd. Ibid. XII. 234 Th' untomb'd slumbers of far battle vales. 1835 TALFOURD Ion iv. i, Spirits that have left..their plague-tormented flesh To rot untomb'd.

Unto·ne, v. [UN-2 6 b.] trans. To deprive of tone. Hence Unto·ned *ppl. a.*¹ 1803 C. W. ETHELSTON Suicide 9 Is there a hope that o'er this untom'd frame Awakened Health her wonted glow shall spread? 1847 H. BUSHNELL Chr. Nurt. II. ii. (1861) 266 Nothing..untones more completely the divine affinities of the childish nature.

Unto·ned, *ppl. a.*² (UN-1 8 + TONED ppl. a.) 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. IX. 104 But frail at first his frame, with nerves ill strung, Unform'd his footsteps, long untoned his tongue. 1856 A. H. KEANE Ethnol. xii. 326 A distinctly polysyllabic group of untoned languages. 1897 Daily News 22 Jan. 6/5 Its dominant black and blue, its almost sullenest red, its untoned white.

Unto·ngue, v. [UN-2 4. Cf. older Du. ontongen.] trans. To deprive of (the use of) the tongue; to render speechless.

1598 FLORIO, Disliniguare, to vntoong. c 1600 CHALKHILL Theatina x Cl. 3736 Speake he could not,..they had him quite untongued. 1628 FELTHAM Resolves II. lix. 290 It hath vntongued some on the sudden; and from some hath snatcht their natturall abilities. 1655 FULLER Ch. Hist. XI. 218 Such ..condemn him in keeping such a Diary about him in so dangerous days. Especially he ought to untongue it from talking to his prejudice.

Unto·ngued, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Destitute of a tongue; tongueless.

a 1600 M. COSOWARTH Ps. xxxx. in Farr S. P. Eliz. (1845) II. 407 The mute and the untongued dust. 1623 MIDDLETON & ROWLEY Sp. Gipsy i. iii, If every orator of lolly plead In silence, like this untongu'd piece of violence. 1648 HEXHAM II, Ontongich,..Vntongued, or without a tongue. 1891 C. DAWSON Avonmore 28 Untongued voices whispered.. comfort to the troubled breast.

Unto·ngue-tied, a. (UN-1 8 d.) 1640 BROME Sparagus Gard. II. iv, Ide give another hundred Peeces now..that I might be untongue ty'd, And triumph o're my adversary.

Unto·nsed, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) Unlopped. 1819 J. HODSON in J. J. RAINE Mem. Jos. Jackson 1. 'Abundance o' untonsed trees..give a richness..to all the suburban villages.

Unto·nsured, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1855 MILMAN Lat. Chr. VI. 359 Schools of medicine..freely admitted untonsured.. students. 1862 ROBERT Rome xxiii, There came the train of untonsured secular priests. Untoo·led, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.) 1862 BURTON Bk. Hunter 381 Whatever sort of work..went on around these untooled fragments of the living rock. Untoo·mly, adv. [UN-1 11.] Hastily; hurriedly. c 1400 Destr. Troy 1822 Antenor vntomly turnes his way Withoutyn lowtyng. Unto·th, v. (UN-2 4. Cf. Du. ontanden, G. entzahnen.) 1791 COWPER Odyssey xviii. 37 As men untooth a pig pil'fring the corn. 1820 Blackw. Mag. VII. 658 We called to untooth them your friend the gay dentist.

Unto·thed, (ppl.) a. [UN-1 9, UN-2 8. Cf. G. ungezähnt.] Not having, deprived of, teeth.

1513 MORE Rich. III (1883) 6 Hee came into the warde with the feete forwarde,..and (as the fame runneth) also untoothed. 1550 HOLLYBUSH Ladies Valentine, untoothed, or without teethe. 1603 S. HARSNET Pop. Impost. 136 An olde weather-beaten Croane,..hollow eyed, vntoothed. 1611 FLORIO, Disdentato, vntoothed, toothlesse.

Unto·thsome, a. [UN-1 7.]

1. fig. Unpalatable, disagreeable.

1548 UDALL Erasm. Par. Luke Pref. vi, Suche thynges as these, so ferre contrarie to all mennes..thynkyng, and thynges so vntoothsome for menne to be fond on. 1583 BABINGTON Commandm. (1590) 354 Vntoothsome is that trueth euer, that treadeth downe my liking. 1652 SHIRLEY Hyde Park II. iv, You shall not ask me..How old I am—a question most untoothsome. a 1680 CHARNOCK Attrib. God (1834) II. 89 Their doctrine was..untoothsome to the world.

2. Unpleasant or unattractive to the taste.

1576 R. PETERSON G. della Casa's Galateo 99 The selly sickman, to whom all cates neuer so..sweete, seeme vntoothsome. 1601 HOLLAND Pliny I. 407 Their grapes..be very harsh and in tast untoothsome. 1630 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Wks. I. 60/2 The drugs, the drenches, and vntoothsome drinks. 1655 FUGITIVE & Pedlar's Lamp. 145 Nay ..is not untoothsome, heavy and untoothsome without Salt? Comb. 1900 Morning Post 3 March 5/7 A sparse, dried, untoothsome-looking herbage, which man and beast accepted as fodder.

Hence Unto·thsomeness.

1623 BP. HALL Contempl., O. T. XIX. x, The asse was (besides the untoothsomenese) an impure creature.

Unto·p, v. [UN-2 4. Cf. TOP *v.*1] trans. To deprive of a top. Also fig.

1598 FLORIO, Disculminare, to vntop, to vnroofe, or vntile a house. 1630 J. TAYLOR (Water P.) Bk. Martyrs Wks. III. 141/2 So our Eliza stoutly did begin Untopping and breaking Romish sin. [1775 ASH.]

Unto·pped, ppl. a. [UN-1 8.] Not deprived of the top. 1864 R. L. DE COIN Cotton & Tobacco 273 You will leave (tobacco) plant untopped enough to produce a little seed you may want.

Unto·rme·nted, ppl. a. (UN-1 8.)

c 1374 CHAUCER Troylus I. 1004 Troylus..wex of his wo as who seyth vntormentid But hotter weex his loue. 1648 [See UNTORTURED]. 1744 YOUNG Nt. Th. VII. 774 Was it then.. Too much for chaos to permit my mass A longer stay with essences unwrought, Unfashion'd, untormented into man? 1868 MORRIS Earthly Par. I. i. 303 If thou couldst forget, And live unholpen, lonely, loveless yet, But untormented. 1869 RUSKIN Q. of Air iii. § 145 With perfect, untormented serenity of ease.

Untorn, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8 b.]
1. Not torn or lacerated.
c 1547 GARDINER in Foxe A. & M. (1563) 751 We shoulde not..mangle them or cut them, but suffer them to stand vntorne. 1599 T. MOFFETT Silkewormes 18 They..Leaue yet no leaues vntorne that may be seene. 1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. I. (1626) 3 The yet-free Earth..(Vntorne with ploughs). 1649 F. ROBERTS Clavis Bibl. 513 Preserving them vn-torn in the Lyons Den. 1791 COWPER Iliad XXIV. 26 Apollo, with compassion touch'd Ev'n of the lifeless Hector,..preserved him, although dragg'd, untorn. 1855 BROWNING Saul v, Our sheep..are white and untorn by the bushes. 1890 Retrospect Medit. CII. 246 The..tissue is usually torn through in front,..but remains untorn behind.
2. Not taken away by force.
c 1651 SOUTH Serm. (1717) V. 443 As long as that small remainder of Land, belonging to the Church, shall continue yet untorn from her.
Untorrified, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1829 TOGNO & DURAND Mat. Med. 130 The untorrefied coffee seems to possess very energetic tonic properties. Untorture, v. (Un-[2] 4 b.) 1650 FULLER Pisgah 58 To rectify his mistake, and to untorture him from the apprehension of Gaius's supposed death. Untortured, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1648 HEXHAM II, Ongefijnt, Vnpained,..Vntortered, or Vntormented. 1833 SCOTT Robeby VI. xiii, Thy racks could give thee but to know The proofs, which I untortured, show. † Untormitten, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1382 WYCLIF Rom. Prol., The Tessalonycensis..kepten the feith of treuthe, vntomyten. Untossed, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1611 FLORIO, Inagitato, vntossed, vnmoised. 1819 BYRON Siege of Corinth xxxiii, The sands untumbled, the blue waves untoss'd. Untottering, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1637 C. DOW Answ. to H. Burton 203 The only way to have constant and untottering comfort. 1672 CLARENDON Diat. Tracts (1727) 324 That they may keep the ship steady and untottering in that troublesome and unruly sea.
Untouchable, a. [Un-[1] 7 b.]
1. Incapable of being touched; immaterial.
1567 JEWELL Def. Apol. 239 Theophylacte saithe, The Body of Christe is Eaten; but the Godheade is not Eaten: bicause it is vntouchable, and comprehensible vnto our sense. 1611 COTGR., Immateriel,..impalpable, vntouchable, absol. 1833 S. AUSTIN Char. Goethe I. 185 Differentializing the Unchangeable and Untouchable.
b. Beyond the reach of.
1622 G. G. Great Prayeing God 33 The Prayeing Mouth height of his [sic. God's] glory. 1885 J. PARKER Apost. Life II. 260 With the heavens above it, hell below it, an untouchable horizon round about it. 1890 HALL CAINE Bondman III. i, Seas beneath of an untouchable depth.
c. fig. Unapproachable, unrivalled.
1867 E. YATES Forlorn Hope xv, A worthy woman, untouchable in Mangnall, devoted to the backboard. 1884 Recoil. I. 189 In his day untouchable as a romantic actor.
2. Exempt from touch; that one may not touch.
1607 S. COLLINS Serm. (1608) 46 Every mans conscience is as free and as vntouchable as anothers before God, one price was paid for all. 1647 TRAPP Comm. Zac. iii. 7 Sons of Belial, untamable, untractable, untouchable. 1661 FELTHAM Resolves II. lxvi. 327 Were not their Persons Sacred, that is, by the Laws of God and Man, untouchable as to prejudice. 1737 Gentl. Mag. VII. 35/1 Her Majesty's Foot hitch'd in the Stirrup, and the Horse dragg'd her along... but the untouchable Foot remain'd the grave Spaniards from intermedling in so delicate an Affair. 1879 J. HINGSTON Austral. Abroad ix. 101 The graves..are held as sacred and untouchable by the present owners.
b. spec. That cannot legally be interfered with or made use of.
1734 SWIFT in Mrs. Delany Life & Corr. (1861) I. 524, I hope the young lady has an untouchable settlement. 1815 Zeluca I. 263 Your own untouchable property. 1874 W. R. GREG Rocks Ahead 45 Declaring this peasant's farm inalienable,..untouchable for any debts.
3. Too bad or unpleasant to touch.
Also, in recent use, as sb.: a Hindoo outcast.
1873 MRS. WHITNEY Other Girls x, Fried potatoes, or whatever else was economical and untouchable.
Untouched, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8.]
1. Not touched with the hand (finger, foot, etc.): not handled or treated by hand, etc.
1382 WYCLIF 2 Kings xxiii. 18 The citeseyns..vntouchid laften the boonys of hym. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. VI. 4 Now euery grayne almeest hath floures swete; Vntouched now the tilman let hem growe. 1520 ARKYNSON tr. De Imitatione I. xiii. (1893) 60 Thou vntouchyd in not perfytely knowen whether it be hole..or dyscrased. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia III. xvi, I pray you..to let my maides take my body untouched by you. 1673 [R. LEIGH] Transp. Reh. 43 Romances are thumb'd more than Scripture, or Dogs-ears'd, while the Rabbies are untouched. 1697 DRYDEN Æneis x. 1173 Untouched thy arms, untaken be thy sword. 1725 POPE Odyssey II. 396 Untouch'd and sacred may these vessels stand 'Till great Ulysses shall his native land. 1801 SCOTT Glenfinlas xxxviii, Untouch'd, the harp began to ring. 1816 J. WILSON City of Plague I. ii. 26 Buy poison, and twill lie for years untouch'd Beneath thy pillow. 1877 HUXLEY Physiogr. p. viii, The manuscript remained untouched until last year.
b. Not touched by another body, etc.; † spec. (quot. 1730) unmagnetized.
a 1595 SOUTHWELL Mæonia, Christ's Bloody Sweat 3 Fat soile, full spring, sweete olive, grape of blisse, Vntil'd, vn-drawn, vnstampt, vnsqueicht of presse. 1730 Phil. Trans. XXXVI. 205 Of Touched Iron or Steel (or of Untouched, so long as it remains in a Posture which gives it Polarity). 1736 THOMSON Liberty IV. 416 Even yet untouch'd by daring keel, be theirs The vast Pacific.
c. Not approached, crossed, or traversed.
1628 MAY Virg. Georg. III. 75 Let us follow the Woods, and Lands Vntouch'd. 1729 T. INNES Crit. Essay I. 28 The northern wall..was of no use at all to keep off the enemies, who leaving it untouch'd, passed easily over the narrow Friths. 1882 H. S. HOLLAND Logic & Life 50 We are carried forward to explore new regions of our souls as yet untouched and untrodden.
2. Not affected physically, esp. in an injurious manner; not damaged, harmed, or meddled with; unhurt, uninjured; intact. Const. by, † of.
c 1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's 62 Of an howse vntouchid yn myddyl of the fyer. c 1440 Jacob's Well 183 His sustynance..be yn vertu of schryfte, was vntowchyd of þe fyri. 1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 136 b, Whiche came out safe & vntouched of ye fyre. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. xvi. 10 No one [of the faithful] becommeth partaker of incorruptible lyfe, vntouched of mortalitie. 1602 KIDDER Hist. Turks (1621) 70 The Sultan..polluted the sepulchre of our blessed Saiiour,..of all nations vntouched & reuerenced. 1666 BOYLE Orig. Forms & Qual. 112 The Rudiments of the Chick..is nourish'd..only by the White of the Egg. In effect you may see the Chick furnish'd not onely with all the necessary, but divers other parts,..whilst the Yolk seems yet as it were untouch'd. 1690 DRYDEN Don Sebastian v. ii, Untouch'd, and Seal'd, as when introduced with me, Such I restore it [sc. a paper]. 1736 THOMSON Liberty II. 246 Then stood untouch'd the solid base Of Liberty, the Liberty of Mind. 1749 JOHNSON Van. Hum. Wishes 35 Untouch'd his Cottage, and his Slumbers sound, The Confiscation's Vultures clang around. 1820 SHELLEY Hope, Fear, & Doubt 9 Nor did I hope to pass Untouched by suffering, through the rugged glen. 1856 KANE Arct. Expl. I. 317 We landed at the point where we left our life-boat a year ago, and to our great joy found it untouched! 1890 OMAN Hist. Greece 303 The plague had left the rest of Greece almost untouched.
† b. Not having had sexual connexions; immaculate, chaste, undefiled. Obs.
c 1400 Found. St. Bartholomew's 49 She skapid vntowchid. c 1452-4 Paston Lett. I. 176 Vntowchyd mother of the kynge of peace. Ibid. 296 Yet that maydes wombe is alway vntowched. 1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 62/2 The vntouched Virgine Marie. 1621 LADY M. WROTH Urania 343 She loues the Prince of Iambolly much better then the King;..yet on my conscience shee is vntouched, and iust to her Husband. a 1649 DRUMM. OF HAWTH. Hist. Jas. II, Wks. (1711) 31 The earl..sought..to have her in marriage, alledging her untouched of his brother. 1690 DRYDEN tr. Ovid, Heloe to Paris 50 Rude force might some unwilling Kisses gain, But that was all he ever could obtain...Untouch'd the Youth restor'd me to my friends.
c. Not used at all, left intact; esp. not partaken of, untasted.
1538 ELYOT, Illibatus, vntouched, vntasted. 1577 B. GOOGE Heresbach's Husb. 36 Lupines,..for the bitternesse thereof whyle it is greene, they [sc. cattle] leaue vntouched. a 1589 MASCALL Govt. Cattle (1596) 69 Cattell..leaue many tufts of grasse here and there vntouched. 1610 HOLLAND Camden's Britain 93 Choosing rather..to send away whole dishes vntouched, than other commers vnbidden to call for more viands. 1666 EARL ORRERY St. Lett. (1742) 184 The 10,000 L. stock..I humbly beg your grace will keep..untouched to answer a deaf lift with. 1679 PEPYS Mem. Royal Navy (1906) 5 A further Reserve [of Supplies] remain'd untouch't in Magazine. 1725 POPE Odyssey x. 447 Untouch'd before these stand the cates divine. 1798 J. NAISMITH Agric. Cyclopædia 93 The pastures are allowed to grow untouched, from..May to..August. a 1828 Arab. Nts. (1853) 328 A great quantity of provisions left untouched. 1839 THACKERAY Batal Boots Dec., That famous rum-punch..which she and Sarah sisters left untouched. 1863 Miss BRADDON Aurora Floyd ii, He had sent his dinner away untouched.
3. Not worked upon or at; not touched or treated by way of improvement, alteration, operation, etc.
1726 LEONI Alberti's Archit. I. 39/1, I am..for preserving the old Structures untouch't. 1736 T. PUDNICK N. Eng. Chronol. I. 231 The several Years of Lord Cornbury's Episcopacy had no doubt remain'd untouched. 1825 J. SMITH Panorama Sci. & Art II. 778 In engraving upon copper, every part which is to be white must be left untouched. 1834-4 Penny Cycl. Metrop. (1845) VI. 306/1 The mighty forests of America, untouched by human industry. 1862 Catal. Internat. Exhib., Brit. II. No. 3168, Untouched and coloured photographs. 1884 THOMPSON Tumours of Bladder 41 [He] found a large tumour, which, after consultation, was left untouched.
II. 4. Not dealt with in discourse, etc.; not treated, written about, or spoken of; unmentioned. Also with upon.
c 1380 WYCLIF Sel. Wks. III. 362 þus no þing untouchid in his lawe shulde be dun or auid to do. 1382 — Joshua viii. 35 No thing, that Moyses comandide, he left vntowchyd; but alle thingis he openyde (1388 declaride) before al the multitude. 1532 MORE Confut. Tindale Wks. 609/2 Wherein whoso consider what I haue answered hym, shal..perceiue that it had been better for him to have left that matter vntouched. 1594 SHAKS. Rich. III, iii. vii. 19, I..left nothing..Vntouch'd, or sleightly handled in discourse. 1667 BOYLE Orig. Forms & Qual. (ed. 2) 203 The nature of our present discourse forbids me to leave it altogether untouch'd. 1697 [C. LESLIE] Snake in Grass (ed. 2) 307 In his Answer..he passes this Section of their Diabolical Possessions, wholly untouch'd. 1793 WORDSW. Descrip. Sketches Ded. P 4, I might have inscribed to you a description of some of the features..But the Alpine steeps of the Conway..remain yet untouched. 1841 SPALDING Italy & It. Isl. I. 150 The earliest progress of Grecian art..must here be left untouched. 1866 G. STEPHENS Runic Mon. I. p. vi, The comparatively few hitherto almost untouch'd and unredd older or Old-Northern Runic pieces. 1900 Handbk. Austral. Assoc., Melbourne 74 The aquatic worms are an untouched group.
(6) 1746 ELIZA HEYWOOD Female Spect. No. 24 (1748) IV. 310 They will needs have us take up the pen again, and promise to furnish us with a variety of topics yet untouched upon. 1896 CARLYLE Lett. Emerson (1883) II. 258, I must end, in mid-course; so much still untouched upon.
5. Not affected, modified, or influenced, esp. in a prejudicial or adverse manner.
a 1586 SIDNEY Def. Earl Leicester Wks. 1923 III. 67 If awncient undouted and untouched nobility bee worthi to match with the most noble hows that can bee. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia v. (1622) 475 How can any lawes..be observed, if the law-giuers, and law-ruiers bee not held in an vntouched admiration? 1696 PRIOR Presented to King 32 Be William's Life untouch'd, as is his Fame. 1699 BENTLEY Phal. 232 In the third Verse..Mr. Stanley corrected it..as appears by his Translation, utile; the other word he leaves untouch'd. 1732 BERKELEY Alciphr. ii § 9, I will shew you..That whatever was sound and good we leave untouched, and encourage it to grow in the Mind of Man. 1762 STERNE Tr. Shandy IV. xxix, In the case cited,..where patrias is put for patris, Hiis for filii, and so on—as it is a fault only in the declension, and the roots of the words continue untouched. a 1763 W. KING Anecd. (1828) 163 Clodia..was descended from an old Patrician family...Her behaviour was modest, and her reputation untouched. 1894 H. DRUMMOND Ascent Man 182 [In North Queensland you] will find the child of Nature still untouched, and neither by intercourse nor imitation removed by one degree from the lowest savage state.
b. Not affected or prejudiced in mind or feeling; not biassed or moved by excitement or emotion; unmoved, undisturbed, calm.
1616 T. ADAMS Div. Herball 89 Some Sage, honest policie;..such as may stand with an vntouched conscience. 1697 VANBRUGH Æsop I. i, Is it possible any thing that I am Father of, can be untouch'd with so much Merit? 1709 STEELE & SWIFT Tatler No. 71 P 4 If a Man could be untouched at so warm an Accusation. 1748 RICHARDSON Clarissa VII. i. 3 The roughest and most untouched creature that ever entered a sick man's chamber. 1768-74 TUCKER Lit. Nat. (1834) II. 678 Every one proceeding by a softness and milkiness of temper, untouched by injuries, unmoved at offences. 1805 WORDSW. Prelude v. 182 Think not that I could pass along untouched By these remembrances. 1838 LYTTON Alice v, Her heart is as yet untouched;—if she can love you, may you deserve her affection. 1876 MISS BRADDON Y. Haggard's Daur. II. 60 The young people were ..untouched by the blighting influence of this aggrieved spinster.
6. Not equalled in respect of excellence or high character; unexampled, unparalleled.
1736 THOMSON Liberty II. 194 Greece in their view, and glory yet untouch'd, Their steady column..held its way Triumphant. 1878 GROSART H. More's Poems p. xxxiii, I have been struck with the untouched perfection of all that arrests you in reading.
7. Not entered upon; not begun.
1876 Coursing Cal. 21 The day finished at dusk, with only twenty-seven trials, leaving the all-aged stake untouched.
Untou·ching, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 5 b.]
1. Not touching (something).
1602 W. BASSE Three Past. Elegies i. (1893) 46 My flocks ..saw their maisters eie Perus'd in things vntuching their estate. 1632 LITHGOW Trav. VII. 327 Their flight will bee the length of a Cables Rope, vntouching Water. 1846 MANGAN Poems (1903) 6 Untouching the earth I then sped forth To Inver-lough.
b. Not having contact.
a 1811 J. GRAHAME Poems (1827) 88 Like that untouching cincture which enzones The globe of Saturn.
2. Having no effect upon the feelings; unaffecting.
1749 ELIZA HEYWOOD Female Spect. No. 20. II. 204 All the Protestations they made..were..unfelt by themselves, and equally untouching to those they were address'd.
Untouchingly, adv. (Un-[1] 11. Cf. prec. a.) 1861 MISS YONGE Young Stepmother iii. 26 Albinia had been strongly interested by the touching facts so untouchingly narrated.
Untoward, a. [Un-[1] 7.]
† 1. Not having or showing inclination, disposition, or readiness to or for something; disinclined.
1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 42 b, Syth of our selfe we be insufficient & all vntowarde to all goostly thynges. 1575 VAUTHOLLIER Luther on Ep. Gal. Satan did not vexe vs inwardly with spirituall tentations,..we should become vtterly careless, negligent, and vntoward to all good workes. 1594 CAREW Huarte's Exam. Wits i. (1596) 5 Those who are vntoward for one science, are very apt to another. 1628 WITHER Brit. Remembr. Pref. 713 Yea, so untoward was I to conforme My Will,..That [etc.]. 1665 MANLEY Grotius' Law C. Wars 73 The Captains were yet not skilled in managing their Men, and the Men were untoward to be commanded.
† b. Showing lack of proficiency or aptitude; inept, slow. Obs. rare.
1557 NORTH Guevara's Diall Pr. Prol. A iij, Greate travayle taketh a scole maister in teaching an untowarde scholler. 1599 NASHE Pierce Penil. Confut. F 4 Lamentable, that an indifferent vntowardly Lawyer, should be no more set by but..thrust aside.
2. Of persons (or animals), their disposition, etc.: Difficult to manage, restrain, or control; intractable, unruly, perverse.
In frequent use from c 1580 to c 1700.
1526 TINDALE Acts ii. 40 Save youre selves from this vntowarde generacion. 1548 UDALL, etc. Erasm. Par. Luke i. 16 b, If the same commyng of ye Lorde shoulde fynde the hertes of men slouthfully slugging, & vtterly vntowarde. 1587 Norton's Calvin's Inst. III. xxiv. 326 b, The vnchangeable decree of God concerning the destruction of the wicked is the ground of their vntoward disposition. 1624 GATAKER Good Wife 3 It is no small vexation for a man to find vntoward and vnfaithful carriage toward him in those..that feed at his board. a 1654 — Antid. Errour (1670) 54 The verie prohibitions..of the Law..ar to mans untoward spirit, but as water to qick lime. 1656 EARL MONM. tr. Boccalini's Pol. Touchstone (1674) 257 The very untoward Spanish Mules, who are so..given to lay about them with their heels. 1714 GAY Sheph. Week v. 53 Th' untoward creatures to the stye I drove. 1777 MACKENZIE Man Feel. vii, The young man was so untoward in his disposition. 1789 BELSHAM Ess. I. iii. 55 This..answer..mollified the untoward and uncourtly disposition of the House. 1814 JANE AUSTEN Mansf. Park ii, A most untoward gravity of deportment. 1817 BYRON Mazeppa viii, The devil I—I'm loth to do him wrong, It might be some untoward saint. 1865 M. ARNOLD Ess. Crit. ix. (1875) 379 The untoward generation of metaphysical Article-makers.
transf. 1809 W. IRVING Knickerb. i. i, The untoward planet pertinaciously continued her course, notwithstanding that she had..a whole university of learned professors opposed to her conduct.

b. Of things: Difficult to manipulate, work, deal with, or perform; stubborn, stiff.

1566 Drant Sat. I. x. E vij, Why maye not we inquyre..if the matter to vntoward, hath made his style to harde. 1601 B. Jonson Poetaster I. i, Nay looke, what a rascally vntoward thing this poetrie is. 1620 Sanderson Serm. (1632) 101 God..out of mankinde, as out of an vntoward lumpe of clay,..maketh vp vessels for the vse of his Sanctuary. 1664 Butler Hud. II. ii. 293 A Vow Which afterward he found untoward, And stubborn to be kept. 1693 Congreve Old Bach. III. viii, Pish! This is the untowardest lock [of hair]. 1799 J. Robertson Agric. Perth 178 A piece of untoward ground..cannot be improved with equal success in any other way. 1831 Carlyle in Froude Life (1882) II. 203 A noisy, untoward lodging-house. 1833–5 J. H. Newman Hist. Sk. Ser. III. (1873) 49 Basil had to deal on all hands with most untoward materials. 1878 Tait & Stewart Unseen Universe ii. (1878) 81 There is a periodicity even in such untoward phenomena.

†c. Awkward, clumsy; ungainly, ungraceful. 1590 Spenser F. Q. I. viii. 31 But very vncouth sight was to behold, How he did fashion his vntoward pace. 1592 Lyly Gallathea II. i, I neither like my gaie, nor my garments; the one vntoward, the other vnfit. 1628 Ford Lover's Mel. v. i, I am..so poor and feeble, That my untoward joints can scarcely creep Unto the grave. 1632 Lithgow Trav. x. 433 Their..Ploughes..are only fastned with Straw..to their bare Rumps, marching..three or foure in a Ranke, and as many men hanging by the ends of that vntoward Labour. 1698 A. Fox World Surp. II. xviii. 125 I will write now of Knees that are much pained..and grow untoward and unshaped. 1762 H. Walpole Vertue's Anecd. Paint. (1765) III. 65 His drawing even of the neck and shoulders..[was] incorrect and untoward. 1791 Sir J. Reynolds in Boswell Johnson an. 1739, Accompanying his thoughts with certain untoward actions [anle ¹improperly called convulsions ¹].

3. Characterized or attended by misfortune, calamity, vexation, or annoyance; unlucky, unfortunate, ill-starred: a. Of conditions, times, etc.

1579 T. Wilson tr. Demosth. Orat. vii. 95 Thoowe the Lacedemonians vntoward lucke. 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 238 The diseases, the debts, the hard usage of men to their owne wives, and the untoward life betweene them. 1982 Wotton (T. Pindar) Lyric Odes xi, The sweetest Abington's untoward Star Wanted her reputation much to mar. 1805–6 Wordsw. Char. Happy Warrior 68 Who, with a toward or untoward lot,..Plays, in the many games of life, that one [etc.]. 1868 Rogers Pol. Econ. ii. (1896) 10 A man..should have a..reserve from which he can draw when the times are untoward. 1878 Stubbs Const. Hist. III. xviii. 88 No untoward omen..threw a shadow over the second epoch of the war. 1898 ¹ H. S. Merriman ¹ Roden's Corner xxx, Percy ..looked back later on this as one of his most untoward hours.

b. Of occurrences, enterprises, etc.

Esp. with accident, circumstance, event, and in very frequent use from c 1800.

1632 Lithgow Trav. x. 482 When Charles the fift returned from that vntoward voyage of Algier. 1638 Sir T. Herbert Trav. (ed. 2) 92 The report of this vntoward massacre is soone knowne. 1647 Clarendon Hist. Reb. III. §1 An untoward, and in truth an unheard of accident, which brake many of the King's measures. 1708 Swift Tale of a Tub xxiv, The foulmouth'd trumpet of Fame carried it from ear to ear, with this untoward circumstance along with it. 1798 W. Hutton Autobiog. 115 An untoward trade is a dreadful sink for money. 1814 Jane Austen Mansf. Park i, Sir could hardly have made a more untoward choice. 1833 Ht. Martineau Berkeley II. ii, There were no untoward delays. 1893 Liddon Life Pusey I. viii. 176 He felt anxious as to the untoward influence..of these books.

absol. 1887 Ruskin Preterita II. 120 Every soul of us has to do its fight with the Untoward, and for itself discover the Unseen.

4. Unfavourable or adverse to progress; unpropitious, unprosperous.

1621 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1906) I. 283 The wayes soe untoward that in the best season..they are unpassable for carts. 1662 J. Davies tr. Olearius' Voy. Ambass. 391 Bridges, raised very high..so untoward to pass over, that they put a man into a fright. 1790 Stuart Papers (Hist. MSS. Comm.) VI. 120 We came down by a very steep, untoward descent. 1731 Capt. W. Wriglesworth MS. Log. bk. of the ¹Lyell¹ 4 Mar., Wee have had a very untoward ugly Sea all these 24 Houres. 1791 Smeaton Eddystone L. 145 The weather being untoward, the short sea..occasioned ..a motion of the yawls. 1833 Ht. Martineau Three Ages II. 35 The present had been an untoward season, as regarded the nation's prosperity. 1849 Grote Hist. Greece II. xliv. V. 382 An untoward storm drove the vessel to the island. 1886 C. Scott Sheep-farming 83 In untoward seasons..the lambs often do not exceed 100 per cent. of the ewes.

5. a. At variance with good conduct or propriety; indecorous, unseemly, improper; foolish.

1626–9 Digby Voy. Medit. (Camden) 57 Because idlenesse should not fire their minds vpon any vntoward fancies. 1658 T. White in Spurgeon Treas. Dav. Ps. lxxiii. 17 They came to a very wicked man's house, where they had very untoward entertainment. 1695 Woodward Nat. Hist. Earth iii. (1723) 179 Some Men there were who have made a very untoward Use of this. 1709 Steyne Ann. Ref. I. i. 44 The popish priests..took frequent occasion..to speak very untoward words against the Queen. 1802 Wordsw. Resolution & Indep. 53 When I with these untoward thoughts had striven.

†b. Marked by lack of reason or fitness. Obs.

1682 H. More Annot. Glanvill's Lux O. 95 If you paraphrase (me) thus, My Hypostasis consisting of my Humane and Divine Nature, it will be as untoward sence. 1701 Norris Ideal World I. v. 225 It seems..untoward, to inquire whether a thing be,..before we know what it is we inquire about. 1733 Berkeley Th. Vision Vind. §6 Such is the ill effect of untoward defences and explanations of our faith.

†6. Of taste: Disagreeable; unpleasant. Obs.—¹

1668 J. Davies tr. Mandelslo's Trav. 245 It had so untoward a taste, that the Sea-men who had not take it for their..drink.

†Unto·ward, prep. Obs. [f. Unto prep.+-ward. Cf. Untilward.] Toward; in the direction of. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 20 Whanne I am mi ladi fro And thenke untoward hire drawe. Ibid. 215 Neven for no wordes good Min herte untoward hire stod. Ibid. III. 227.

Unto·wardness. (Un-¹ 12. Cf. next.)

1598 Barckley Felic. Man v. 427 The fathers felicitie is deminished by the childrens vntowardlinesse. 1603 Florio Montaigne II. xxv. 86 Who..would..winke at..my vntowardlinesse, and such other faults that were in mee. 1707 Pennsylv. Hist. Soc. Mem. X. 235 The more privileges the more presumption and untowardness.

Unto·wardly, a. Now rare. [Un-¹ 7.]

1. Unbecoming, improper.

1483 Cov. Leet Bk. 311 Not beyng content with such answer [he] desired a copy of hir Evidence,..&..other vntowardly wordes there vttered. 1598 Grenewey Tacitus, Ann. I. ii. 3 Little doubt but Augustus, complaining of the yong mans vntowardly behaulor, caused his exile to be confirmed. 1693 Locke Educ. §60 [Children] frequently learn from unbred or debauched Servants..untowardly Tricks and Vices.

b. Froward, perverse, ill-disposed.

1561 T. Hoby tr. Castiglione's Courtyer iv. Z z iii, Not to be haughtie, enuious,..contentious nor vntowardlye. 1598 Barckley Felic. Man v. 427 If they [sc. children] prououe vntowardly and giuen to lewdnesse, what greater griefe can happen to a man? a 1678 H. Scougal Disc. Impt. Subj. (1735) 193 Sad and heavy looks, morose and untowardly deportment. 1712 Steele Spect. No. 442 ¶ 3 The Serene or Cloudy, Jovial or Melancholy, Untowardly or Easy [Temper]. 1791 Washington Let. Writ. 1892 XII. 85 If you are disobliging, self-willed, and untowardly, it is hardly to be expected that they will engage themselves in unpleasant disputes with you. 1887 S. Cheshire Gloss. 320 Ay, he's..an unto'ardly youth, is Joe.

2. Awkward, clumsy.

1621 Cotgr., Faire le pied de veyne, to make an vntowardlie, or clownish leg; or, to vse a foolish lifting vp of the leg in dauncing, &c. a 1642 Sir W. Monson Naval Tracts II. (1704) 270/2 They went the most untowardly way I ever saw. 1668 Etherege She wou'd if she cou'd III. ii, Well, thou hast seduc'd me; But I shall look so untowardly.

3. Ill-disposed; adverse; unfavorable.

1756 C. Lucas Ess. Waters II. 257, I have observed at Spa..one most untowardly effect. 1856 Carlyle Let. 22 Feb. (Encycl. Dict.), Travelling is at all times very untowardly to me. 1864 Pref. Cl. xv. iii. IV. 32 The Expedition does not improve in promise;..the march one of the most untowardly.

Unto·wardly, adv. [Un-¹ 11.]

1. Unskilfully, awkwardly, clumsily, badly.

1550 Bale Apol. 146 b, That brave and ragged clause whych ye haue vntowardly torne out of hys xxi. homely. 1561 T. Norton Calvin's Inst. III. 155 No man shal go so vntowardly, but he shal enery day get some ground, though it be but little. 1576 R. Peterson G. della Casa's Galateo 109 Their cloaths doe sit vppon them so vntowardly. 1642 Fuller Holy & Prof. St. IV. ix. 281 Generally the most dexterous in spiritual matters are left-handed in temporall businesse, and go but untowardly about them. 1667 Dryden Sir Martin Mar-all v. i, He played well, and yet methinks he held his lute not untowardly. 1697 Dampier Voy. I. 190 They rig their Ships but untowardly,..and are as meanly furnished with Warlike Provisions. 1762 Sterne Tr. Shandy vi. xxxiii, A large uneven thread..running along the whole length of the web, and so untowardly, you cannot so much as cut out..a fillet. 1764 Harmer Observ. ix. 23 There is no scripture from whence he attempts to deduce it, as he doth the time of the latter rain, though very untowardly.

b. Unsuitably (for use).

1686 Plot Staffordsh. 352 If there be any such land that lyes so untowardly.

2. Unluckily; unpropitiously; with likelihood or suggestion of misfortune or mishap.

1568 Grafton Chron. II. 262 As he lept out of his ship,..he fell so vntowardly, that the blood brast out of his nose. 1572 Golding Calvin on Ps. ii. 8 Least this Prophecie should bee spoken in vayne, yea and untowardly concerning the largenesse of dominion. 1599 Shaks. Much Ado III. ii. 134 O day vntowardly turned! 1603 Holland Plutarch's Mor. 108 Which as many as use, worke their own..destruction, dauncing..a daunce untowardly about a pits brinke. 1699 Bentley Phal. Introd. 2 Mr. B. here seems to enter upon his work a little untowardly and ominously.

b. Unsuccessfully; unfortunately.

1649 J. H. Motives to Peace, A. Govt. Corrn. 25 There were sundry propensions and aversions,..which if disobeyed succeeded untowardly and unsuccessefully. 1679 Hist. Jetzer 26 The Prior swore things went very untowardly against them. a 1722 Lisle Husb. (1752) 180 Such barley..will come away very untowardly and ill malting. 1818 Jane Austen Emma xxxvi, If things are going untowardly one month, they are sure to mend the next. 1889 Greton Memory's Hawks. 269 On his death-bed he..sent urgently for the clergyman, who untowardly happened to be from home.

3. Rudely, roughly; frowardly.

1682 Bunyan Holy War 223, I charge you, therefore,..that you carry it not ruggedly, or untowardly to my Captains, or their men. 1693 Southerne Maid's Last Prayer II. ii, Give me my Hand dear Bully; Faith, I'm sorry you provok'd me to use you so untowardly. 1868–9 Browning Ring & Bk. IX. 259 Let the heifer bear the yoke!..What if..all untowardly she pursue her way With groan and grunt?

Unto·wardness. [Un-¹ 12.]

1. Disinclination to be accommodating or pleasant; perversity, obstinacy.

1481 Cov. Leet Bk. 500 We fynde them therunto in no wyse towardly disposed,..which their vntowardnesse seemeth not to oure pleasure. 1538–9 Henry VIII in Wyatt's Wks. (1816) II. 501 Continuing our good mind and affection to join with him (his said untowardness and coldness in that behalf notwithstanding.) 1569 in Bolton Stat. Ireh. (1621) 339 Which is occasioned by the sluggardy, idlenesse and vntowardnes of the Marchants. 1607 Hieron Wks. I. 129 Gods first work in them is..to remoouе their naturall vntowardnesse, and to make their hearts more..pliable vnto good. 1658 Whole Duty Man 120 Complain not of the vntowardnesse of your Children, but of the untowardness of thy own heart. 1723 Pres. St. Russia I. 16 The Untowardness of these People made me astonished. 1765 Mas. Macaulay Hist. Eng. II. 232 Finding him not at so entire leisure to discipline their untowardness as in time of peace. 1873 Hamerton Intell. Life II. ii. 54 Our untowardness was a hopeful sign.

b. Const. to (esp. with inf.).

c 1547 Latimer in Foxe A. & M. (1563) 1352/1 So should I haue bene without this inwarde sorrow of my harte, to see suche vntowardnes of you bothe to godlines. 1557 Earl Westmorld. in Lodge Illustr. (1791) I. 287, I ame sory to see suche an untowardnes to serve in the Bushopriche men as ys now. 1579 J. Stubbes Gaping Gulf E j b, If ther be..a generall vntowardnes to desire that state of lyfe.

†2. Lack of good progress or promise, esp. in respect of physical condition. Obs.

1538 Audley in St. Papers Henry VIII, I. 588 Besechyng you to travayle therin [sc. the suit] and to advertise me.. of the towardnes or ontowardnes therof. 1555 Waterman Fardle Facions II. viii. 181 If thei spie vntowardnes in the infante, deformitie, or lacke of lymmes, [they] commaunde it to be slayne. 1601 Holland Pliny I. 359 Even in trees as well as in other living creatures, there is a certaine infelicite, which may be well tearmed, A dwarfish untowardnesse.

†3. Lack of aptitude; awkwardness. Obs.

1598 Florio, Inettitudine, vnaptnesse, vntowardnesse, grossenes. 1604 T. Wright Passions v. iii. 176 Some..eloquent [men],..for lack of action or rather vntowardnesse,..were accounted infantes. 1620 F. Markham Bk. War v. ii. 168 There will be such disparity and untowardnesse in his actions, that all his labour will be to little or no purpose.

4. Unpropitiousness; adverseness.

1778 [W. H. Marshall] Minutes Agric., Observ. 101 The untowardness of circumstances prevented my Experiment ..from being made. 1803 Wordsw. Rob Roy's Grave 62 Through untowardness of fate..He came an age too late. 1847 Helps Friends in C. I. iii. 44 The untowardness of things present, the miseries of the past. 1891 Morley Vauvenargues in Crit. Misc. 7 His nature had such..quality that the perpetual untowardness of circumstances left no evil print upon him.

†Unto·wards, a. Obs. [Cf. Towards prep. and adv.] =Untoward a. 1 and 2.

1525 in Ellis Orig. Lett. Ser. III. I. 360 Ther is no wise man but wool thinke..that it apperith, seing they be thus vntowards, that they be lincked together, for commonlye they aggreid in oon aunswer. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John 40 The lustes of this worlde maketh many one vntowardes to bee bashfye.

†Untow·e(n, pl. adv. Obs. Forms: (see quots.). [OE. ungetogen (Un-¹ 8 b), = OHG. ungizogan, unkanogan, etc. (MHG. and G. ungezogen, obs. G. unzogen), MLG. un(ge)togen uneducated, undisciplined, ill-bred, etc., MSw. otughin improper, disreputable, etc. Cf. Wanton a.] Untaught, untrained; unmannered, wanton.

c 1000 Ælfric Hom. I. 576 Fisceras and ungetogene menn geceas Drihten him to leorning-cnihtum. a 1225 Ancr. R. 102 Eni totilde ancre..þet bekeð euer utward ase untowe hind. Ine cuge. Ibid. 370 So teneire of he bodies þet hit iwurðe untowen. a 1240 Sawles Warde in O. E. Hom. I. 245 For alle hit beoð untohene ant rechelese hinen. Ibid. 267 To..leaden him..nawt efter wil, þe untohe lefðj,..ah efter þat wit wile, þat is husbonde. a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. viii. 32 Thah told beon tales untoun in toun. 13.. Metr. Hom. in Archiv Stud. neu. Spr. LVIII. 259/1 Þis like childe was so vntoun and so wylde. c 1425 in Anglia VIII. 145 Wif hir vntoune & lacches songes [she] kyndelip þe fyre of lecchery.

Hence †Untow·e(n)ly adv., wantonly; Untow·e(n)ship, wantonness. Obs.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 170 Schomeleas is þe mon oðer þeo wunnon þet deð eni untoweschipe, oðer seiðð hluoren ancren. a 1250 Hali Meidh. 21 Ze þe þeune hondliðð ow in ei stude untuliche [v.r. untoheliche]. a 1240 Sawles Warde in O. E. Hom. I. 247 Nis hare nan þe ne feareð ofte untoheliche ant gulteð ilome. c 1450 Cursor M. 10135 (Laud MS.), I rede of hem ye here That may you help in your mystere And leve your vntouship a-while.

Unto·wn, v. (Un-² 6 b.) 1783 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Odes R. A. x. 11, Find me in Sodom out..Ten gentlemen, the place shan't be untown'd.

Untra·ce, v. [Un-² 4 b.] trans. To free (horses) from the traces.

1604 Middleton Father Hubburd's T. B 2, The fiery Horses of the Sun Were from their golden-flaming Car vntrac'de. 1829 W. S. Rose Lett. N. Italy I. 87 We again put to the horses, necessarily untraced during the preceding operation.

Untra·ceable, a. (Un-¹ 7 b.)

1661 Boyle Style of Script. 20 Who can alone..fathom the depths of Satan, and track him through all his windings and (otherwise untraceable) Labyrinths. a 1684 Leighton Comm. 1 Pet. i. (1693) 199 If the wayes of Gods universall providence be untraceable. 1758 Monthly Rev. 507 A proper and salutary quantity of this untraceable fluid. 1782–3 W. F. Martyn Geog. Mag. I. 335 The untraceable way by which Divine Wisdom issues from the infinite ocean of God. 1820 Med. Jrnl. XVII. 293 The..hooping-cough..was untraceable to any apparent source. 1883 J. Parker Apost. Life II. 167 Physical circumstances..operate in a subtle and often untraceable manner upon our..spiritual constitution.

absol. 1818 Milman Samor VII. 172 I know thee now, majestic Rebel! thee The untraceable, untameable!

Hence Untra·ceableness; Untra·ceably adv.

1856 Ruskin Mod. Paint. III. iv. xvii. § 4 This comparative Dimness and Untraceableness of the thoughts which are the sources of our admiration. 1875 Whitney Life Language x. 207 The world of untraceably sexual or of unsexual objects.

Untra·ced, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8.)

1641 G. Sandys Paraphr. Song Sol. III. i, No Angle my unweayed Feet Vntraced left. 1643 Denham Cooper's H. 11 Through untrac'd ways, and azry paths I flye. 1773 C'ress Winchelsea Misc. Poems 63 More wakeful Trundle

..Follows the scent untraced. Nowhere. Excurs. vi. 662 There are..good reasons why we should not leave Wholy untraced a more forbidding way. 1826 Milman Anne Boleyn 51 That vast body That shall bespread the world, uncheck'd, untrac'd—Like God's own presence. 1900 Daily News 20 Sept. 5/3 It is needless for me to say that a number of these [removals] remain untraced.

Untra·ced, (ppl.) a. Also 6–7 untract. [Un- 1 8 and g. The spelling untract is due to Tract *sb.*3 8–11 and *v.*2 4–5. Cf. Untracted.]

1. Through which no way has been found or made; not furnished with a track or path.

a. 1603 Knolles Hist. Turks (1621) 309 The rest..hauing on horseback all alone by vncouth and vntract waies, trauailed three dayes without meat. 1684 Otway Atheist III. 32 Drawn by wing'd Horses through the untract Air. 1706 Rowe Ulysses III. 40 So the Eagle..beholds his hardy Youthful Offspring Forsake the Nest, to try his tender Pinions, In the wide untract Air.

β. 1612 Br. Hall Contempl. iv. 353 That they might not erre in that sandy and vntracked wilderness. 1659 T. Pecke Parnassi Puerp. 172 The untrack'd path to Bliss. 1750 Carte Hist. Eng. II. 391 After a long day's march through untracked ways. 1872 A. Plumtre Lichtenstein's S. Africa I. 350 The road was untracked and fatiguing. 1890 New Monthly Mag. Hist. Reg., Jan. 8/1 Regions yet untracked by any Europeans. 1894 Outing XXIII. 347/2 A long, dark object lying..on the untracked snow beneath the trees.

2. Not tracked or traced; not followed up.

1680 Otway Orphan III. 504 At midnight thus the us'ver steals untract [1755 untraced'd] To make a visit to his hoarded gold. 1872 Ruskin Fors Clav. xiv. 12 Just persons..untracked by the hounds of war. 1890 'R. Boldrewood' Miner's Right (1899) 216/2 A reflection of the deed still untracked and unavenged.

Untractabi·lity. (Un-1 12. Cf. next.) 1791 Burke Th. French Aff. Wks. VII. 58 His untractability to these leaders ..alone prevented that part of the arrangement.

Untra·ctable, a. Now rare. [Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.]

1. = Intractable a. 1. (Common c 1550–1800.)

1538 Elyot, Insanus, mouldable, vntractable. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. Matt. xviii. 75 Yf he be so vntractable that he wyll not be moued neyther wyth shame, nor wyth feare of iudgemente. 1586 T. B. La Primaud. Fr. Acad. i. 300 His horses..are both hungry, furious, and untractable. a 1619 Fotherby Atheom. i. xii. § 4 (1622) 130 Pharaoh..was as stiffe, and as vntractable, as a rocke. 1670 Cotton Epithemata II. viii. 409 Birds..of those kinds which with us are the most wild, and untractable. 1714 R. Thomas Pract. Disc. ii. 300 Persons of a base and untractable temper. 1777 Robertson Hist. Amer. v. II. 78 The untractable arrogance of Nawhaez. 1818 [see Untameable a.]. 1824 Miss L. M. Hawkins Annaline III. 32 His followers..[were] more furious and untractable from the dreadful excesses they had committed.

2. = Intractable a. 2.

1601 Holland Pliny II. 118 Other hearbs, hideous to the eye, and untractable in hand. 1650 Rugson Serm. Devon (1820) 5 Hills are untractable to tillage. 1667 Milton P. L. x. 476 But I Toild out my uncouth passage, forc't to ride Th' untractable Abysse. 1743 W. Emerson Illustions 85 If you have an untractable Illusion Answer to none of the Forms. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xxiv, He..wrung bitterly the hands, which his mail-gloves rendered untractable. 1837 Whewell Hist. Ind. Sci. II. 177 There was room, among these hitherto untractable irregularities, for the additional results of the theory.

Hence Untra·ctableness.

1599 Sandys Europe Spec. (1605) T3, The vntractablenesse of Papacy to it. a 1600 Hooker Serm. on Pride 1. § 9 Disobedience of children, stubborne of seruants, vntractablenesse in them, who..should..bee also subiect. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. iv. xx. § 5 In the Dulness or Untractableness of those Faculties for want of Use. 1752 H. Walpole Lett. (1846) II. 132 Will they ever expect a peaceable prelate, if untractableness is thus punished? 1817 Jas. Mill Brit. India II. iv. ii. 70 The untractableness of his own disposition.

Untractarian, a. (Un-1 7.) 1846 Caroline Fox Journ. (1882) II. 64 His untractarian and unsectarian convictions, and his broad charity.

†Untracted, ppl. a. Obs. rare. [Un- 1 8.] = Untracted ppl. a. 1.

1610 Healey St. Aug. Citie of God xviii. 1 654 My way lying through deserts, and vntracted woods. 1649 Quilles Virgil, Georgics III. 40 Some wind let no Sheep Graze, and search untracted woods. 1680 Tides (MS. Bodl. Add. A. 202) 14 By what tedious, crooked, and untracted Journeys through that world of variety it passes.

Untrade·d, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) = Untractable a. 2. 1670 G. H. tr. Hist. Cardinals II. 226 Who were 18 in number, all obstinate and untractible. †Untra·ctibleness. Obs. (Un- 12. Cf. prec.) 1576 Hubbard Happiness of a People 23 When false Generation..manifested such untractibleness and impatience.

Untra·ed, (ppl.) a. [Un- 1 8 and g.]

†1. a. Unskilled, inexperienced, unfamiliar. Obs. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 172 No manne beeyng vntraed in philosophie is an apte..persone to bee a kyng. 1548 — Erasm. Par. Luke i. 7 A people not vtterly vntraded or vnentred in his discipline. 1570 Levins Manip. 50 Vntraded, insolens.

†b. Not customary; unhackneyed. Obs.

1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. iv. v. 178 By Mars his gauntlet thanks, Mocke not, that I affect th' vntraded Oath.

†2. Not frequented, spec. for trade. Obs.

1600 Hakluyt Voy. III. 682 Our English that to seale the first blessing of an vntraded place, will perhaps secretly hasten thither. 1603 H. Crosse Vertues Commw. (1878) 44 Two wales are proposed,..the first is combersome, intricate, vntraded, outgrowne.

Untra·demanlike, a. (Un- 1 7 c.) 1863 Sat. Rev. XV. 175/1 If any manufacturer did more than this, he would certainly be behaving in a very untradesmanlike manner.

Untra·ding, ppl. a. (Un- 1 10.) 1691 Locke Lower. Interest (1696) 60 Men..leave Estates to their Children in Land, as..not so liable to Casualties as Money, in untrading or unskilful Hands. 1828–32 Webster s.v., An untrading country or city. Untra·fficked, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1596 Nashe Saffron-Walden K iv, When I record (as I doo often) strange vntrafficqu'd phrases, my him new vented and vnpacke, as of incendarie for fire. Untra·gic(al, adj. (Un- 1 7.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. I. v. vi, The nodus of a drama, not untragical, crowding towards solution. Ibid. II. v. xii, Entirely most few..of the tragic and the untragic sort. Untrai·nable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1864 Eliz. Murray E. Normani I. 276 She was as untamable as a young savage, and apparently untrainable.

Untrai·ned, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

Hence, 1. untrained ness, untrainedness.

1. Not trained by instruction or experience.

1548 Udall Erasm. Par. Luke xxiv. 180 b, Yet these shadowes of thynges visible wer geuen for a tyme to the grosse and vntrained people. 1592 Shaks. 1 Hen. VI, I. ii. 73, I am by birth a Shepherds Daughter. My wit vntrayn'd in any kind of Art. 1633 G. Herbert Temple, Content ii, Gad not abroad at e'ry quest and call Of an untrained hope or passion. 1642 Milton Apol. Smect. 55 I cannot say that I am vtterly untrain'd in those rules. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude x. 197 Men who, to business of the world untrained, Lived in the shade. 1823 Scott Quentin D. xv, The low size, and wild, shaggy, untrained state of the animal. 1894 Times 27 Jan. (1897) I. xxii. 325 Nothing is done effectually through untrained human nature. 1864 [see prec.].

2. spec. Not trained in military exercises.

1591 Smith Instr. Military (1595) Ep. Ded. 6 That the people of kingdomes, should bee disarmed, vntrayned, and vnexercised, for feare of reuolte. 1608 tr. J. de Gheyn's Exercise of Arms 1 b, To instruct the vntrained souldiers. 1667 Milton P. L. xi. 222 For life To noble and ignoble is more sweet Untrained in arms. 1746 Pope Odyssey xix. 212 Untrained to martial toil I lived inglorious in my native isle. 1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) VII. 570 The unabating fortitude of Greece Maintains her line, th' untrain'd Barbarians charge In savage fury.

3. Not trained in figure.

1877 Figure Training 17 The untrained form of the dairymaid.

†Untrai·st, a. Sc. Obs. [Un- 1 7.] Unreliable. Also †Untrai·sted ppl. a., unexpected, unlooked for; †Untrai·stful a., unbelieving; †Untrai·sty a., untrustworthy.

1456 Sir G. Hayy Law Arms (S.T.S.) 170 Peple..flowand and vntraist in all thair deds. 1530 Lyndesay Test. Papyngo 367 Sen liyer cure bene vntraist and transitorie, Cheangyng as oft as woddercok in wynd. 1533 Bellenden Livy III. ix. (S.T.S.) II. 304 Na thing mycht happin less [sic] vntraist nor less belevit nan he samyn. c 1578 Sc. Leg. Saints viii. (Philip) 93 v Vntrastefull folk of bat land fore gret inwy tuk hym & band. 1567 Gude & Godlie B. (S.T.S.) 214 Traist the v vntraistie quha that will.

Untrained, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1840 Clough Dipsychus II. viii. 23 Yet I could deem it better too to starve And die untraitored.

Untrammelled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

In common use from c 1850.

[1775 Ash.] 1795 R. Anderson Life Johnson 201 He..has adapted to the good sense of Aristotle, untrammelled by his forms. 1867 Lewes Hist. Philos. (ed. 3) I. 2 Through the history of thought, how difficult it has been to keep the scientific attitude untrammelled. 1888 Oman Hist. Greece xvi. (1902) 50 No previous constitution..had given the..citizens such untrammelled power to sway the state.

Untra·mpled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1648 Herham in Ongelreden, Vntrodden, or Vntrampled. 1817 Moore Lalla R., Fire-worshippers 320 To die upon that Mount Of Fire! untramp'd before but at unusual Shrine! 1861 Gladstone Iliad I. 329 They reluctant paced the margin of the free untrampled main. 1900 S. Phillips Paolo & Fr. I. 4 Still have we foes untrampled, wavering friends.

Untranquil, a. (Un-1 7.)

1817 Keats Sleep & Poetry 263 Nought more untranquil than the grassy slopes Between two hills. 1850 J. H. Newman Diffic. Anglic. 76 Fanatical doctrine and untranquil devotion. 1869 Tyndall Notes Lect. Light 3 188 A tranquil pellucid portion, and a turbid or untranquil portion.

Untra·nquillize, v. (Un- 1 6 c.) 1874 M. Collins Transmigr. II. viii. 153 Why should mere physical ideas trouble and untranquillize the brain? Untra·nquilized, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8 a.) 1846 Worcester (citing Goode). 1859 De Quincey Whiggism Wks. VI. 145 Unwilling to leave us with..the agitations of sympathy in the reader as yet untranquilized. Untransa·cted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) c 1825 Hogg Pilgrims of St. Clair (1839) V. 1. 8 Business that..remain untransacted. Untransce·nded, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1846 Mangan Poems (1903) 39, I also found..Fasting as Christ hath recommended, And noble councillors untranscended. 1892 Ruskin Fors Clav. (ed. 2) 171 A spirit..Who..sojourns In untranscended light. Untranscendental, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys xxi, I think Wealthy felt it so, in her untranscendental way. Untranscri·bable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1874 in Folklore (1909) XXX. 149 An untranscribable baboon song. 1883 [see Un- 1 7 b].

Untra·nsferable, a. (Un- 1 7 b and 5 b.)

1649 Howell Pre-em. Parlt. 6 Though the Soverainty remaine still entire, and untransferable in the person of the Prince. 1794 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 72 The Demetrius is dry, and scarcely untranslatable to modern use. 1898 in Martineau Stud. Christianity 80 The personal character and untransferable nature of Sin. 1881 P. Brooks Candle of Lord 306 The habits are rigid, uniform and untransferable.

Untransferrable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1846 C. Anderson Gen. Dom. Constitution 378 That department of parental training, which is at once unpurchasable and untransferrable. Untransferred, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1748 Earl Nugent To Mankind xviii, For unreclaim'd, and untransfer'd, Her pow'rs and rights remain.

Untransformable, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.)

1570 Dee Math. Pref. 2 The generall Formes..are constant, vnchangeable, vntransformable. 1885 Sylvester Coll. Math. Papers (1904) I. 230 All the distinct systems of ..conjugate forms that have been, and will be given, are mutually untransformable.

Untransformed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

[1775 Ash.] 1890 Restrospect Med. CII. 218 It..leaves masses of starchy food untransformed in the stomach. [Freq. from c 1900.]

Untransgre·ssed, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1621 Quarles Div. Poems, Esther iii, Let him proclayme (which vntransgressed be) His royall Edict. a 1866 J. Grote Exam. Utilit. Phil. i. (1870) 93 A general and untransgressed Rule. †Untransible, a. Obs.[1] [ad. L. intransibilis: see Un- 1 7, 5 b.] That cannot be crossed. 1644 Digby Nat. Soul x. § 7. 428 There is..no vntransible gappe, or Chaos to seuer them. Untransitory, a. (Un- 1 7.) 1632 Quarles Div. Fancies iii. xiv, That Time untransitory. 1644 — Sheph. Oracc. v, Whose Kingdome's endlesse and untransitory. Untranslatability. (Un- 1 12. Cf. next.) 1860 G. P. Marsh Lect. Eng. Lang. xxvii. 612 Of this untranslatability of single words..Germany offers us many examples.

Untransla·table, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.)

Very common from the beginning of the 19th c.

1655 Fuller Ch. Hist. v. v. § 36 Some few [words] untranslatable, without losse of life or lustre. 1694 Gracian's Courtier's Oracle A 3 b, The French Author..counts him unintelligible, and by consequence untranslatable. 1742 Gray Lett. II. 28 Pray put me the following lines into the tongue of our modern Dramatics:..To me they appear untranslatable. 1811 Coleridge Table t. (1835) I. 335 The excellence of verse, he said, was to be untranslatable into any other words. 1880 T. Hodgkin Italy & Inv. i. ii. I. 193 The untranslatable grandeur of Claudian's epithet.

Hence Untransla·tableness; -la·tably adv.

1829 Coleridge Biogr. Lit. II. 160 The infallible test of a blameless style; namely, its untranslatableness in words of the same language without injury to the meaning. 1895 Smedley Occult Sciences 250 Concerning dreams—mit de accentibus somni—as he untranslatably styles them. 1889 Athenæum 26 Nov. (Pepys) 1 The ugly proceedings untranslatably known as brigue.

Untransla·ted, ppl. a. [Un- 1 8.]

1. Not turned into another language.

1530 Palsgr. 34 [Those writers] have left none auctours written in the latyn tonge untranslated. 1540 Morysine Vives' Introd. Wysd. A 5, No one bookes translated..hath halfe soo many holsome documents as this hathe. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. iii. xxxviii. 244 Which ought to have been left untranslated..in the Latine. 1768 Tucker Lt. Nat. II. iii. xxx. 458 The term transitive Verb Even being, ought to be preserved untranslated, as a kind of technical term. a 1778 Pegge Anonym. (1809) 472 We have in English now, several untranslated French words. 1852 Lewis Meth. Obs. & Reason. in Fol. I. 105 Others may resort to periphrasis, or may use the original word untranslated. 1889 A. Roberts O. T. Revis. iv. 83 'Bethel' is rendered..'the house of God', but should have been left untranslated.

2. Not transferred to another sphere.

1746 Young Nt. Th. IX. 1753 This world sublime,..Where mortal, untranslated, never may'd. 1891 J. Harte Man on Beach 58 Of course, he will be there to see his untranslated Goddess.

Untransmigrated, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1821 Scott Kenilw. xxii, Thus, Lasco will leave your pewter artillery untransmigrated. Untransmi·ssible, a. (Un- 1 7, 5 b.) 1590 Swinburne Testaments 173 Because the testator maie if he will, make that transmissible, which otherwise is vntransmissible. 1682–3 Schefft's Epicure, Reliq. Kwand. I. 472 The apostolic office was..unique and untransmissible. Untransmitted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) III. 447 The nature of original untransmitted evidence. 1824 Shelley Prometh. Unb. III. iii. 177 Those Who bear the untransmitted torch of hope Into the grave. Untransmu·table, a. (Un- 1 7 b, 5 b.) 1611 Florio, Intrasmutabile, untransmutable. 1682 tr. More Annot. Glanvill's Lux 52 Spirits specifically different, are untransmutable one into another. a 1776 Hume Ess. (1777) II. 351 Each character..appears to me, in practice, pretty durable and untransmutable. Untransmuted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) 1668 Boyle Orig. Formes & Qual. 409 The untransmuted Rain water. 1808 Wordsw. Prelude VI. 464 The untransmuted shapes of many worlds. †Untransparable, a. Obs.[1] (Un- 1 7 b.) = next. a 1618 Raleigh Rem. (1644) 210 The unpiust Magistrate that fancieth to himself a solid and untransparable body of Gold, every ordinary wit can vitrifie, and make transparent.

Untrans·parent, a. (Un- 1 7 and 5 b.) Not transparent; opaque.

1591 Sylvester Du Bartas 1. i. 290 Suppose an Earth.. without Hill or Plaine, A Heav'n un-hanged, un-turning, untransparent. 1675 Sevelyn (1906) 35 An impalpable whitish Sand, untransparent. 1754 Phil. Trans. XLVIII. 659 The matter appeared of a dark blackish colour, untransparent. 1862 Tyndall Mountaineer. v. 58 The water resolves itself to transparent vapour, and the vapour to untransparent cloud. 1888 O. Crawfurd Sybeia Arden 361 So dark and untransparent was the flood water.

Untranspa·ssable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1594 Daniel Cleopatra N 8, Are these the bounds y' haue giuen Th' vntranspassable barres, That limit pride so short..? Untransplanted, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1832 Planting 3 (L.U.K.), Equal, if not superior to untransplanted seedlings. Untrasportable, a. (Un- 1 7 b.) 1611 Florio, Intransportauile, vntransportable. 1838 Emerson Addr., Lit. Ethics, Truth is..so untransportable and unbarreilable a commodity.

Untrasported, ppl. a. (Un- 1 8.)

1. Not conveyed or carried.

1549 Acc. Ld. High Treas. Scot. IX. 357 Chargeing him to keip Schir Robert Bowis, Inglisman, untransportit haue in his awin cuntre.

2. Not carried away by feeling.

1641 Earl Monm. tr. Biondi's Civil Wars II. 72 Hee received all these injuries not onely untransported, but with a setled judgement. 1701 Collier M. Aurel. p. xxiii, He..was Religious without Affectation, untransported and free from Eagerness upon all occasion. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1834) II. 586 To preserve an even steady temper,..untransported by allurements.

Untranspo·sed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1751 JOHNSON Rambler No. 86 P 10 To preserve the series of sounds untransposed in a long composition, is..very difficult. 1810 BENTHAM Offic. App. Maximized, Def. Econ. (1830) 21 The thread of his argument is delivered unbroken, and the parts of it untransposed.

Untransubstantiated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1672 H. MORE Brief Reply 325 The said Individual matter untransubstantiated and remaining Bread still. 1830 G. S. FABER Diffic. Romanism (ed. 2) 143 The unconsecrated, and therefore (in latin phrase) the untransubstantiated, bread and wine. 1854 MILMAN Lat. Chr. III. vii. 1, 467 The Redeemer's spiritual presence, yet undefined and untransubstantiated.

†Untransumed, ppl. a. Obs.[1] (Un-1 8. Cf. TRANSUME v. 1.) 1596 Sc. Acts, Jas. V (1814) II. 313 Pe sall bring pe writingis laitlie maid be our souerane lorde..vntransumyt auctentily. Untra·pped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1648 HEXHAM II, Onbehlicht, ..Vnsurprised, or Vntrapt. Ibid., Onbetrapt, Vntrapped, or Vnsnared. [1775 ASH.]

Untra·pped, a. [Un-1 9.] Of a sink or drain: Not fitted with a trap.

1860 FLOR. NIGHTINGALE Nursing 15 An untrapped sink may..spread fever..among the inmates of a palace. 1877 TEALE Dangers to Health 7 A rain water tank, which had an untrapped overflow into the drain. 1884 19th Cent. May 847 Untrapped drains.

Untra·vellable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1652 HEVLYN Cosmogr. III. 113 Full of untravellable Desarts. 1846 Chr. Watchman 395, Fearful precipices and rocky passes..abound in this almost untravellable district.

Untra·velled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. That has not travelled.

1588 T. WASHINGTON tr. Nicholay's Voy. Ep. Ded., They are among men untravelled as Hesperus among the smaller Beares. 1611 BEAUM. & FL. Philaster i. 1, If they should, I say, they were never abroad:..it writes them directly untravel'd. 1667 SPRAT Hist. R. Soc. 73 Untravell'd Gentlemen,..and Generals, that had scarce ever before seen a Battel. 1772 ADDISON Spect. No. 407 P 1 That an untravelled Englishman cannot relish all the Beauties of Italian Pictures. 1812 SCOTT Let. in Lockhart (1837) III. 19 Sophia and Walter hold their heads very high among their untravelled companions. a 1862 BUCKLE Mis. W'ks. (1872) I. 52, We rarely find an untravelled man who is not full of prejudice.

transf. and fig. 1606 Sir G. Goosecappe i. ii. Bi, Fo. Why this is the untravailed rudnes of our grose English ladies now. 1764 GOLDSM. Traveller 8 Where I roam, My heart untravell'd fondly turns to thee. 1805 Ann. Rev. III. 199 The author is apparently untravelled in continental literature. 1861 GEO. ELIOT Silas M. i, To their untravelled thought a state of wandering was a conception as dim as the winter life of the swallows.

2. Not travelled over or through.

1661 FELTHAM Resolves II. xlix. 281 He..that is illiterate, and unactively lives hamletted in some untravail'd village, a 1720 J. HUGHES Ode to Creator 31 Beyond the untravell'd limits of the sky. 1762 FALCONER Shipwr. 335 Pilots, unsur'd to divine Th' unknown course by geometric line. 1809–14 WORDSW. Excurs. vi. 455 To the deep shade of those untravelled Wilds. 1864 K. S. HAWKER Quest Sangreal 41 Neither landmarks, nor fences, bounded..the bold, free, and untravelled Cornish domain.

fig. 1646 SIR T. BROWNE Pseud. Ep. To Rdr. A 5, Wee.. are oft-times faine to wander in America and untravelled parts of truth. 1692 BENTLEY Ser. on Ep. Wilkins 27 He shewed it in whatsoever Argument he undertook; sometimes beating out new untravel'd ways, sometimes repairing those that had been beaten already.

Untra·versable, a. (Un-1 7 b, 5 b.)

1856 RUSKIN Mod. Painr. III. 200 The endless undulation of the untraversable hills. 1890 Spectator 3 May, The Southern desert..is practically untraversable and uninhabitable.

Untra·versed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

[1775 ASH.] 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. I. 57, I..Tamed all the dangers of untraversed waves. Ibid. IX. 97 To thee is given To..inquire of heaven, To mark untraversed ages. 1843 RUSKIN Mod. Paint. I. ii. iv. iv. § 6 Few, if any, of the rocks of nature are untraversed by delicate and slender fissures. 1876 A. S. MURRAY Hist. III. 37 A personification of the untraversed regions of the sea.

Untrea·d, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To retrace.

1592 SHAKS. Ven. & Ad. 908 She treads the path that she untreads again. 1596 — Merch. V. II. vi. 10. 1615 G. SANDYS Trav. 169 Untreading a good part of the fore-said alley, we entered the Ile. a 1659 OSBORNE Ess. iii. 36 Who onely knew the Way to untread the Maze, in which Man had lost Himself. 1710 NORRIS Chr. Pruud. viii. 398 He has made abundance of false steps..which..he would willingly untread. 1837 DE QUINCEY Revolt of Tartars Wks. 1854 IV. 153 The question was formally debated..whether, even at this point, they should untread their steps.

Untreatable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1897 LIVINGSTONE Trav. xxiii. 461 Impassable forests and untreatable bogs.

Untrea·sure, v. [Un-1 4, 3.] trans. To rob, or empty, of a treasure. Also const. of.

1600 SHAKS. A. Y. L. II. iii. 7 In the morning early, They found the bed untreasur'd of their Mistris. 1819 MOORE Mem. (1853) III. 64 Niches untreasured of their busts, and rooms depopulated of their statues. a 1899 J. MITFORD (Webster), The quaintness with which he untreasured, as by rote, the stores of his memory.

Untrea·table, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

†1. Intractable; incapable of being treated or dealt with; unmanageable. Obs.

c 1374 CHAUCER Boeth. II. pr. viii. (1868) 61 For-as-mochel as thow shalt nat weenen, pat I bere untreatable batayne ayenis fortune. 1430–40 LYDG. Bochas I. xv. 5638 For Narcisus was nat merciable Toward Echcho,..But in his port was founden untreatable. c 1450 BURGH Secrees 2176 Yif he be wood and vntreatable, Tok their rest thereto. 1509 BARCLAY Ship of Folys 68 If that deth vntreatable Arrest the with his mace. 1571 GOLDING Calvin on Ps. ii. 9 The greater part avanceth itselfe against him with untreatable fiercenesse. 1604–5 in Trans. Rop. Hist. Soc. Ser. iv. IV. 137 Parishioners doe fynde mutch fault with his untreatable reading in the tyme of public prayer. 1675 G. R. tr. Le Grand's Man without Passion 137 Anger that wild and untreatable Passion. a 1745 SWIFT Serm. Wks. 1765 XVI. 21 [It] caused many of them..to be..supercilious and untreatable.

2. Not admitting of medical treatment.

1865 Q. Rev. July 33 Untreatable by any known remedy, this malady would seem now to have nearly worn itself out.

Hence Untrea·tableness.

1653 C. MATHER Wonders Invisible World Def. A 2, The unaccountable Frowardness, Asperity, Untreatableness, and Inconsistency of many persons.

Untrea·ted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 and 8 c.)

c 1456 PECOCK Bk. of Faith (1909) 120 The Article which ben spoken in the Repressez, and left there untretid. 1665 BOYLE Occas. Refl. a 6 b, Themes..untreated of by others. 1666 — Orig. Forms & Qual. B 2 b, He has left most of the other Qualities Untreated of. 1883 Pall Mall G. 20 Nov. 4/1 The untreated sewage of London. 1890 Retrospect Med. CLI. 292 The risk of leaving untreated a clot [etc.]

†Untree·, v. (Un-2 4.) 1611 FLORIO, Disarborare, to vntree, to cut downe trees. 1624 Trag. Nero III. (1633) D 4, The sacred bullet leaves no forrests now untreed. Untre·llised, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1629 GAULE Holy Madn. 340 He keepes an open House: but..it is the Roofe vntheatch, or Windowes vntrellessed; for the Doore is neuer vnbolted.

Untre·mbling, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1570 LEVINS Manip. 139 Vntremblinge, intrepidus. 1708 J. PHILIPS Cyder I. 109 Nor untrembling can'st thou see, How from a scraggy rock..hardy men..Cut sanphire. 1742 BLAIR Grave 286 Then might the Debauchee Untrembling mouth the Elements. 1846 KEBLE Lyra Innoc. 129 Not to the quick untrembling gaze..Loves He to say, Go higher. 1881 A. AUSTIN in Macm. Mag. XLIII. 403 The roll of that untrembling diapason that makes all things tremble.

Hence Untre·mblingly adv.

a 1832 BENTHAM Deontol. (1834) II. 12 Stand up untremblingly, then, and say what [etc.].

Untreme·ndous, a. (Un-1 7.) 1820 KEATS Hyperion II. 155 Why ye, Divinities,..Should cower beneath what, in comparison, is untremendous might.

Untre·ndous, a. (Un-1 7.)

1826 MRS. HEMANS Forest Sanctuary I. lxx, I heard a sweet ..strain Piercing the flames, untremulous and clear. 1832 MISS MITFORD Village V. 348 Thy cheek unflush'd; Thy lip untremulous. 1883 C. BROWN Villette xxi, Here was the sea..deftly dropped by untremulous fingers.

Untre·nched, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 and 8 c.) a. Not entrenched. b. Not trenched by digging. c. Not encroached upon.

[1775 ASH.] 1807 J. BARLOW Columb. v. 759 Untrench'd before the town, they dare oppose Their fielded cohorts to the forted foes. 1849 JOHNSTON Exp. Agric. 9 Whether oats are after lea trenched or untrenched, or after turnips. 1887 BROWNING Parleyings, 4. de Lairesse xi, Yonder space extends Untrenched upon by any vagrant tree.

†Untre·nd, v. Obs.[1] (Un-1 3.) trans. To unroll. a 1272 Luue Ron. 195 in E. Misc. (1862) 101 Ich sende open and wib-vte sel; Bidde ic pat pu hit vntrende. Untre·nded, †trend, ppl. a. (Un-1 8: see TREND v. 2 b.) c 1395 Plowman's Tale 11. 594 He culleth the sheep as doth the crook; Of hem pat they taken vntrended. 1809 LUCCOCK Nat. Wool 301 That the quality of the untrended wool is not so good as the other. Untre·spassed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1854 S. DOBELL Balder iii. 14 The untrespassed rest Of immortal Immunities. Untrespassing, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1642 MILTON Apol. Smect. 22 Others were sent.. as it were at large, in the midst of an untrespassing honesty.

Untre·ss, v. (Un-2 4.) 1587 A. DAY Daphnis & Chloe (1890) 18 Chloe..vntressed quickly her golden white locks.

Untre·ssed, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) Not arranged in tresses; loose, dishevelled.

c 1386 CHAUCER Pard. Prologue 268 Her gylt heares with a gold threde Ybounde were, vntressyd [Camb. Univ. MS. vntrussede] as she lay. c 1386 — Knt.'s T. 1431 Hir brighte heer was kempd vntressed [MSS. Camb. & Lansd. vntrussed] bi. 1412–20 LYDG. Chron. Troy III. 4124 Vntressid hir her abrod gan spreide, Like to gold wyr, for-rent & al to-torn. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. I. 861 A..womman, vnshood, Vntressed, al aboute to goon is good. 1582 STANYHURST Aeneis I. (Arb. 33) Troy dames..with long vntressed al hanging. 1621 G. SANDYS Ovid's Met. VII. (1626) 131 Her haire Vntrest, her garments loose. a 1849 H. COLERIDGE Poems (1851) II. 387 She..with her untressd hair Still wiped the feet.

†Untre·st. [Un-1 12.] Mistrust. c 1400 Lanfranc's Cirurg. 17 Great drede, pair vtterest [MS. vntrest; v. vntryst] of helpe of his wounde. c 1450 Mirour Saluacioun (Roxb.) 132 Be vntrest and incredulitee he dos some grete disese. Untri·able, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1612 S. STURTEVANT Metallica 8 An vntryable invention is a new project or discouery, whose worth and goodnesse requireth no tryals.

†Untri·al, a. Obs. [Of obscure origin.] Gentleman untrial: (see quot. 1486).

1486 Bk. St. Albans, Heraldry Bii b, Ther be ij dyuerse Gentylmen made of gromys that be nott gentilmen of cotearmure nother of blode.. Oon is calde in armys a gentylman vntriall, that is to say made vp emong religyous men as priorys, Abbottis, or Byschoppis. 1562 LEIGH Armorie 27 b, The eight is called a gentleman vntrial, and such is he, as being brought vp in an Abbey, or with a bishop [etc.]. 1600 W. WATSON Decacordum (1602) 257 This vntriall gentleman was one of that nobleman father Parsons spies. Ibid. 270 Our Frankelings, Gentlemen vntriall, or substantiall Yeomen.

Untrista·ry, a. (Un-1 7.) [1775 ASH.] 1796 COLERIDGE Watchman 27 April, The probable Loss and Gain of unprotected and untributary Independence. †Untri·ck, a. Obs.—[0 (Un-1 7. Cf. TRICK a. 2.) 1570 LEVINS Manip. 121 Vntricke, inconcinnus.

Untrie·d, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not tried, proved, or tested.

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 132 That no worde passe out vntryed & nothynge entre vnexamyned. a 1586 SIDNEY Arcadia I. iii, Her skin like burnisht gold, her hands like silver ure untryde. 1591 SPENSER F. Q. I. iii. 34 Loth was that other..To taste th' vntryed dint of deadly steele. 1647 COWLEY Mistr., Encrease iii, So the new-made, and untride Spheres above, Took their first turn from th' hand of Love. 1697 DRYDEN Virg. Georg. IV. 782 Four fair Heifars yet in Yoke untry'd. 1739 LABELYE Piers Westm. Bridge 28 Not to leave one single square Foot in the whole Surface of the Foundation untried. 1783 CRABBE Village II. 246 When smit with Glory's charms, The untried youth first quits a father's arms. 1833 HT. MARTINEAU Cinnamon & Pearls v. 95 Can anything equal the presumption of human decisions on untried matters! 1872 DIXON Tower III. i. 1 A man of untried power.

absol. 1829 CARLYLE Chartism ix, The New, Untried ascertains how it will fit itself into the arrangements of the Old. 1887 MEREDITH Ballads & P. 112 She marched toward the gloomy gate Of earth's Untried.

2. Not tried by a judge.

a 1618 SYLVESTER Job iv. 12 Against Job began his wrath to flame,..And..his Foe-friends, for so strict Condemning Job, untry'd and unconvict. 1784 COWPER Task v. 398 Condemn'd untried, Cruelly spar'd, and hopeless of escape! 1824 S. SMITH Wks. (1850) II. 32 Cruel Treatment of Untried Prisoners. 1842 DICKENS Amer. Notes v, The best jail for untried offenders in the world.

Untri·fling, a. (Un-1 10.) a 1743 SAVAGE Epitaph Young Lady 7 Modest knowledge, fair untrifling youth.

Untri·g, a. Sc. [Un-1 7.] Not neat or trim. 1821 GALT Ann. Parish xvii. 160 His wife kept an untrig house. 1890 MCGILVRAY Poems 197 She is so big, and so untrig.

Untri·lled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1869 ELLIS E. E. Pron. II. 602/1 The peculiar English untrilled r. 1874 SWEET in Trans. Philol. Soc. 471 Untrilled consonants.

Untri·lling, vbl. sb. (Un-2 3.8.) 1874 SWEET in Trans. Philol. Soc. 471 Untrilling [is] a common phenomenon in.. English, in which the trilled r is quite lost. Untrim, a. (Un-1 7.) 1570 LEVINS Manip. 131 Vntrym, inconcinnus. 1898 N. MUNRO Y. Splendid xv, His hair was untrim.

Untri·m, v. [Un-2 3.]

1. trans. To deprive of trimness or elegance; to strip of ornament.

c 1600 SHAKS. Sonn. xviii, Every faire from faire some-time declines, By chance, or natures changing course vntrim'd. 1612 J. DAVIES (Hereof) Scot. Folly (ed. 2), Their hairlesse scalpes..Barely affirme they were vntrimm'd by trulls. 1832 HOOD Ode to Y. Hume 40 Don't trim though, but untrim their [c. soldiers'] jackets.

2. To unbalance.

1884 HARROP Bolingbroke I. 21 The success of the French King's intrigues at Madrid had threatened..to untrim the balance of power.

Untrimmable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1863 HAWTHORNE Our Old Home (1879) 361 Shovelling the untrimmed and untrimmable ideas out of his mind.

Untri·mmed, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not put in good order or condition; not carefully or neatly arranged or attired.

In quot. 1595 the word has been variously explained, and may be formed on UNTRIM v.

1532 HERVET Xenophon's Housek. 18 b, The horse beareth hym..that wyll se the grounde be nat let alone vntyrlled and vntrymmed. 1540 HYRDE tr. Vives' Instr. Chr. Wom. (1541) I ii, A mayde nat pyked, and fayre, and wanton..; but sad, pale, and vntrimmed. 1592 R. WI[LSON] Tancred & Gism. v. ii, So let thy tresses..Vntrimmed hang about thy bared necke. 1595 SHAKS. John III. i. 209 The deuill tempts thee here, In likenesse of a new vntrimmed Bride. 1648 J. QUARLES Poem 2 Archpriest 71 Man's life a house..; If we survay The inward rooms, there we may find enough Of untrim'd natures sluttish houshold-stuff. 1813 SCOTT Rokeby I. xxxii, Von untrimm'd lamp, whose yellow gleam Is mingling with the cold moonbeam. 1827 BYRON Beppo xlvi. note, Without the aid of our sonnets Would seem unfinish'd, like their untrimm'd bonnets.

2. Not made trim by cutting, pruning, or otherwise reducing to shape.

1625 K. LONG tr. Barclay's Argenis v. xi. 367 The pleasing young Groves..with their deepe silence and untrimmed simplicity. 1633 FORD Love's Sacrifice v. i, A crooked leg, a scambling face, such an untrimm'd beard As yours. 1687 Lond. Gaz. No. 2307/4 The said Nag is..rough Coated and untrim'd. 1808 SCOTT Marm. III. Introd., Prune the vine, But..leave untrimm'd the sylvan tree. 1848 ASHMAN Introd. Study Coins iv. 56 A grim bearded untrimmed head. 1892 OLDFIELD Man. Typog. v, A demy 8vo. page measures, untrimmed, about 8¾″ × 5¾″.

fig. 1849 M. ARNOLD New Stanzas 138 Germs, your untrimm'd passion overgrew. 1863 [see UNTRIMMABLE a.].

3. Not properly balanced.

a 1732 GAY Fables (1738) II. v. 44 The boat untrimm'd admits the tide.

Hence Untri·mmedness.

1883 H. JAMES Portr. Places viii. 167 [The old castle's] quiet untrimmedness and untrimmedness only help it to be castle.

Untri·pe, v. (Un-2 4.) 1611 COTGR., Estripé, vntriped, vnbowelled, with his..bowels about his heeles. 1653 URQUHART Rabelais I. xliii. 190 The broile and defeat, wherein Tripet was untriped [F. estripé]. 1808 E. S. BARRETT Miss'ld General 69 We must either embowel them, or they will untripe us.

†Untrist, sb. Obs. [Un-1 12 + TRIST sb.[1]] Distrust. Also †Untri·st a. [Un-1 7 + TRIST a.[1]], unfaithful; unbelieving. †Untri·sted ppl. a. [Un-1 8 + TRIST v.], unhoped for. †Untri·sty a. [Un-1 7], faithless; unreliable.

1390 GOWER Conf. II. 151 Jelousie of his *untrist Makth that fill many an harm arist. c 1400 Comm. Luke I. 19 (MS. Bodl. 143), In pe beginnynge he suffiib be peynes of vntrist disseruyd. c 1374 CHAUCER Troylus III. 839 Whi hastow mad Troylus to me *vntriste? c 1460 Towneley Myst. xxvii. 210 Me thynk you all vntrist to trow,.. All that the prophetys told to you before, it is no trane. 1387 TREVISA Higden (Rolls) VIII. 115 A Goddes man seide..bat pere was to comen and *untristed [L. insperatum] a lordschipe fro Frauance. Ibid. III. 265 Pe firste twelie artes beeb untrusty [Cotton MS. *vntrysti.] c 1400 Destr. Troy 11973 Pan haplyt hom to mete The trayytor with tene, vntristy Eneas. c 1460 Promp. Parv. (Winch. MS.), On-trysty, idem quod on thende.

Untrite, a. (Un-¹ 7.) 1781 T. Twining in Recreat. & Stud. (1882) 110 There is very little pleasing or untrite in his melody or harmony. Untriumphable, a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1663 Butler Hud. i. ii. 502 This blood..Which now y' are bent to throw away In vain, untriumphable fray. 1768 Woman of Honor I. 161. Untriumphant, a. (Un-¹, ³) 1659 Gauden Serm., etc. (1660) 72 A civil intestine War, where victory itself is sad and untriumphant. 1858 Carlyle Frederk. Gt. IX. xi. II. 536 The French Ambassador..did much intriguing,..first in a signally triumphant way, and then in a signally untriumphant. Untrivialable, pl. a. (Un-¹ 8.) 1627 May Lucan VIII. O 6, I..Suffer'd you only, when I conquer'd all, To goe untriumph'd.

Untro'd, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 b, 8 c. Cf. older Da. utraadd, Sw. otrådd.] = next.

1593 Marlowe Lucan I. 567 Clashing of armes was heard in untroed woods. 1601 Shaks. Jul. C. III. i. 236 Dark antong ..will follow..Thorough the hazards this untroed State, With all true Faith. 1633 Ford Broken H. III. v, That remedy Must be a winding-sheet,..And some untroed-on corner in the earth. 1667 Milton P. L. III. 497 The Paradise of Fools,..now unpeopl'd, and untrod. 1737 Glover Leonidas II. 157 The secret paths, Which..through the forests wind, Untroed by human feet. 1771 Hunter's Georgian Ex. II. 20 Sheep..are never found in countries untrod by man. 1864 J. Brown Minchmoor 6 We..looked down its grassy and untroed avenue to the pallid, forlorn mansion. 1879 Browning Halbert & Hob 49 Untroed Leave this last step we reach.

Untro'dden, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8 b.] Not trodden or stepped on; untraversed. Also in fig. context. a 1300 E. E. Psalter xvii. 31 Mi God un-filed [L. inpolutus E., H. un-troden] es his wai.

1535 Coverdale Ps. cvi[i]. 4 They wente astraye.. in an vntroden waye. 1593 Sidney's Arcadia IV. (1922) II. 119 Vagabonding in those untroden places. 1616 Marston Parasitaster IV. G 4, Vntrodden snow is not so spotless. 1656 Cowley Davideis I. 28 Guid my bold steps..In these untrodden paths to Sacred Fame. 1735 Berkeley Querist § 423 So many roads untrodden, fields untilled, houses desolate. 1760–2 Goldsm. Cit. W. lxxxvii, Those untrodden forests..which formerly covered the face of the country. 1826 Mrs. Hemans Forest Sanctuary I. xiii, The red grapes untrodden strew'd the ground. 1849 Greeks Greece II. xxxviii. V. 57 A wild, woody, and untrodden country.

Hence Untro'ddenness.

1644 Digby Nat. Bodies xxiii. § x. 203 The ruggednesse, and vntrodenesse of the paths he wave walked in. 1681 R. Fleming Fulfilling Script. II., Pref. (1726) 249 The untroddenness of this path, weighed..of the truths, with some study..to believe what I wrote.

Untro'bled, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 8 + Troble v. 2.) 1693 S. Harvey Juvenal IX. 12 Hard Fate I untroll'd is now the Charming Dye. Untro'phied, a. (Un-¹ 9.) 1756 W. Whitehead Elegy iv. 61 O why, Britannia, why untrophied piss The patriot deeds thy godlike Sons display? a 1861 T. Winthrop Life in Open Air x. (1863) 81, I entered sukkilyng, as a gameless hunter may, and hid my untrophied head beneath a mound of sandhills.

†Untro'th. Obs. [Un-¹ 12. Cf. Troth sb., Untruth, and Wantroth.]

1. Unfaithfulness, treachery; = Untruth 1. (Common c 1385–c 1450.)

c 1374 Chaucer Troylus v. 1448 He bought ay wel he hadde his lady iorn, And bat Ioues..Hym shewed hadde in sleep be signylyaunce Of hire vntrope. c 1384 — H. Fame I. 384 But weleawy the harme the routhe That hath betyd for suche vntrouthe. c 1425 Eng. Conc. Feat. 8 Bot Robert ..for no [h]lynge wold do thynge wher-of he myght be herafter i-wryted of wntrowth. 1483 Caxton G. de la Tour E viii b, He slewe his broder Amon that suche desloyalte and untrowth had done vnto his Buster. 1523 Ln. Berners Froiss. I. ccxxxi. 313 The kyng..pitiously complayned hym of yᵉ untrouthe of his men, shewyng howe they had all forsaken him. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. VI, 154 b, The capitaines perceyuing their vntrouight & traytorous deamnour, retrayted themselves into the Castell or Palaice, where.. they sore molested and vexed the vntrew citizenes. 1606 G. W[oodcock] Hist. Iustine xi. 45 Which deed .might rather be imputed to the oreight of light credit, then to any vntroth or infidelity.

b. Wickedness, mischief. rare.

1470–85 Malory Arthur XVIII. viii. 702 Thenne dyd they grete vntrouthe; they sleewe clerkes and preestes. 1484 Caxton Fables of Æsop I. v, The euyll hongry peple..by theyr grete vntrouthe and malyce robben..the poure folke.

2. Unbelief; = Untruth 2.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 204 [e fadir..seide, Sire, Y bileve; helpe mynn untrouthe. a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. II. vi. (Bodl. MS.), Pei sculden streiht flee to heuene,..hadde bei do neuer so mychel synne bifore in time of her vntrouthe. c 1400 Apol. Loll. 28 Crist..mijt not do ani vertu per, for be vntrouth.

3. Falsehood; = Untruth 3.

c 1386 Chaucer Man of Law's T. 687 This false knyght was slayn for his vntrouthe. c 1449 Pecock Repr. II. xv. 294 Thei worschipiden God bi ydolatrie, and therfore by vntrouthe. a 1592 Greene Alphonsus II. ii, If you find my words to be vntroth, Then let me die to recompence the wrong.

b. = Untruth 3 b.

1581 T. Howell Deutes I ij, A false vntroth to me the same doth seeme. 1598 R. Bernard tr. Terence, Phormio II. ii, If then I had spoken an vntroath. 1623 Fletcher & Rowley Maid in Mill IV. i, There will be a yard of dissimulation At least (City measure) and cut upon an untroth or two.

†4. A company (of summoners). Obs.—o

1485 Bk. St. Albans f vi b, An vntrouth of sompneris.

†Untro'thful, a. Obs.[Un-¹ 7.] Unbelieving. a 1400 New Test. (Paues) Acts xiv. 2 Po Iewes bat were vnrowheful stired persecucyone. Untrou'ble, v. (Un-¹ 4 b.) a 1682 Leighton Comm. 1 Pet. v. (1869) II. 468 Art thou troubled with fears, enemies, and snares? untrouble thyself of that, for He is with thee.

Untrou'bled, ppl. a. [Un-¹ 8.]

1. Not subjected to trouble or disquiet.

1484 Acta Auditorum (1839) *146/2 Þe said venerable fader ..salbe vntrubilit for bat rome. 1532 Reg. Privy Seal Scot. II. 134/2 The saidis personis..to be..unmolestit, and untrublit, for quhatsumever action or cryme. 1590 Spenser F. Q. I. i. 33 Vntroubled night they gave their goates counsell best. Ibid. II. vii. 15 With how small allowance Vntroubled Nature doth her selfe suffise. a 1625 Fletcher Love's Pilgrimage IV. ii, Make your spirit an untrobled way To pass to what it ought. 1648 Boyle Seraphick Love (1659) 24 A sight, whose glory made them look on fading Beauties, with..untrobled eyes. 1671 Milton P. R. IV. 401 Our Saviour meek and with untroubl'd mind..betook him to his rest. 1743 Francis tr. Hor., Odes II. x. 17 He who enjoys th' untroubled breast, Of Virtue's awful Lore possest. 1816 Wilson Misc. Poems 268 Thou with that untroubled voice. 1846 Mrs. A. Marsh Father Darcy II. ii. 62 The priest preserved all the usual untroubled gravity and dignity of his demeanour. 1890 R. Goldenwood Cut Reformer (1891) 246 Untroubled by care or consuming anxiety.

2. Not rendered turbid. Also fig.

c 1614 Sir W. Mure Dido & Æneas II. 776 Whose vertew's streame vntroubled still runnes pure. 1662 Charleton Hyst. Vintners (1675) 191 The equal disturbation of the Spirits of the liquor, which always rendreth bodies clear and untroubled. 1810 Southey Kehama x. iv, The stream..there delights to lie, Untroubled and at rest Beneath the untainted sky. 1828 Mrs. Hemans Downing Prospect iv, Fresh within your breasts th' untroubled springs Of hope make melody.

Hence Untrou'bledness.

a 1660 Hammond Wks. (1683) IV. 479 He hath..robb'd.. the Sceptick of his indifference and untroubledness.

Untrou'blesome, a. [Un-¹ 7.]

1757 Mrs. Griffith Lett. Henry & Frances (1767) IV. 208 My Companion is a cheerful, civil, untroublesome Person. 1848 Mill Pol. Econ. v. vii. § 3. II. 436 The progress of industry is gradually affording other modes of investment almost as safe and untroublesome. 1894 Blackw. Mag. Mar. 393 Things which make cricket easy and untroublesome.

Hence Untrou'blesomeness.

1874 Micklethwaite Mod. Par. Churches xxiv. 185 Above all, its [sc. gas's] exceeding untroublesomeness.

†Untrow', v. Obs. [Un-¹ 14.]

1. intr. To lack faith.

c 1200 Trin. Coll. Hom. 197 On alle þese limpes ne untrowede neure Iob to-þenes ure drihten.

2. trans. To have no belief in; to disbelieve.

c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 400 But who shulde untrowe Petris word? a 1387 Trevisa, Higden (Rolls) I. 17 Wondres beþ not al to be untrowed [L. dissredenda]. a 1395 Hylton Scala Perf. II. xxxii. (Bodl. MS.), He seeþ it so soopfastli þorus grace þat he may not vntrowe it.

†Untrowable, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 7 b.] Unbelievable, incredible.

1382 Wyclif Judg. xx. 5 My wijf trauevlynge with vntrowable woudes of lust. — Esther ii. 13 She was ful semeli, and with vntrouable fairnesse. c 1475 Cath. Angl. 394/1 (A.), Vn Trowabylle, incredibilis, incredulus. 1533 Hellyngbot Expy IV. xxiv. (Sci. T.S.) II. 99 þe sumyn is na ies difficill..þan vntrowabill. 1552 Lyndesay Monarche 2194 Nynus..rasit vp one gret arme.., Quhose nummer bene.. vntrowabyll.

Untrow'ed, ppl. a. Obs. exc. arch. [Un-¹ 8.] Unbelieved, uncredited.

1434–50 Rolls of Parlt. IV. 405/2 For..unreasonable excesse of suche lyes, or sum other untrowed mescheyvng. 1434 Misyn Mending Life 126 More tolleraboyl it wer to þe a vntrowyd gretie to suffyr þen ons syn deadly. a 1583 Montgomerie Poetry 376 (Tullis. MS.), Vntrowit be thy tounge, sit trattling all tymes. a 1597 Sir W. Mure Somn. Vile Priest 11 Quhose..tounge vntrou'd Hath oft intrappit many a wanton wench.

†Untrowful, a. Obs. [Un-¹ 7.] Unbelieving. c 1375 Sc. Leg. Saints (John) 360 Sancte Iohne tuk of þan his kirtill, and to þe vntreufull gawe it till. Ibid. xiii. (Mark) 35. c 1380 Wyclif Sel. Wks. II. 204 O kynrede untrowyful, how longe shal I be wiþ you! † Untrowing, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-¹ 10.] Faithless. c 1390 Sir Tristr. 1731 Her wening was al wou3 Vntroweand til hem to. † Untrowness: see Untrueness. Untru'ced, a. (Un-¹ 9.) c 1613 Middleton No Wit like Woman's III. i, All those four Matrimonies a natural opposition And untru'ced war the one against the other. Untru'ckling, ppl. a. (Un-¹ 20.) 1850 Mrs. Browning Prometh. Bound 89 But revile not me For the firm will and the untruckling hate.

Untrue, a. and adv. [OE. untrēowe, untrēowe(a, etc. (Un-¹ 7, 11 b), = NFris. untrauw, WFris. on-, untrou, MDu. on(ge)trouwe (Du. ongetrouw), Icel. ontreyn), MLG. un(ge)trowe, OHG. unt(gi)triuwi, -gitrûwi, -gitrouw (MHG. un-(ge)triuwe, G. un(ge)treu), ON. ótryggr (MSw. otrygger, (M)Da. utrygg), Goth. untriggwus.]

A. adj. 1. Of persons, etc.: Unfaithful, faithless.

c 1040 Laws Cnut in Liebermann I. 330 Syf hwyle man sy swa untrywe ðam hundrede. c 1290 St. Edmund 100 in S. Eng. Leg. I. 434 Ich wot wel, þuyt men mishten finde.. Summan..untreowore to is wise. c 1300 K. Horn 645 þe kyng was on hontynge, ant Fykenulf is is syde, þat fals wes ant untrewe. a 1340 Hampole Psalter xxx. 9 To..hal il susspeccioun of a trew frend, or goed of an vntrew. 1390 Gower Conf. I. 21 The world as of his propre kynde Was evere untrewe. a 1. Hoccleve Of Pride (MS. Laud Misc. 735) fol. 69, Fy yp on tonges vntrew, They displeasance in lordis courtes brew. 1446 Lydg. Two Nightingale Poems ii. 17 To take vengeaunce On false lovers whiche that bien vntrewe. c 1489 Caxton Sonnes of Aymon xii. 285 Yᵉ greetest traytour & the vntruest kyng of the worlde. a 1547 Surrey in Tottel's Misc. (Arb.) 219 For my vaunt I dare well say my blood is not vntrue. a 1548 (see Untruth 1). 1612 Shaks. Cymb. I. v. 86 When to my good Lord I prove vntrue, He choake my selfe. 1700 Dryden Flower & Leaf 564 The Men inglorious Knights, the Ladies all untrue. 1738 Wesley Ps. v. iii, The Hearts unkind and Hearts untrue Are both abhor'd by Thee. 1802 Leyden Mermaid vi, Know that thy favourite fair is dead, Or proves to thee and love untrue. 1818 Wordsw. 'Not seldom' 6 The smoothest seas will sometimes prove, To the confiding Bark, untrue. 1899 Froude Cæsar xx. 341 He had refused to believe that Labienus could be untrue to him.

absol. a 1400 Pauline Ep. (Powell) Titus I. 15 To þe fuylyd ..and to þe vntrewe no thyng is clene. 1866 Morris Ayenb. 270 margin, The untrue, the evil, thieves, &c., are dark.

2. Contrary to fact; false; erroneous.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. A. 897 Neuer lesyng ne tale vn-trwe, Ne towched her tonge for no dysstresse. c 1370 Hymns Virg. (1867) 108 And sif þei talke of tales vn-trewe, þou torn hem out of þat entent. c 1400 Custer M. 2800 (Cott. Galba), 3e traist ouer mekill in thing vntrew. 1446 Lydg. Two Nightingale Poems ii. 80 Feynt and vntriew thyne exposiciouns. 1531 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W.) 287 b, Sooner shall heuen and erth be dissolued, than one..lettre of yᵉ lawe of god sholde be vnfulfylled or founde vntrue. 1577 B. Googᵉ Heresbach's Husb. I. 43 Others thinke it an assured remedie..; but Columella thinkes it vntrue. 1612 Sir J. Digbye Let. in 10th Rep. Hist. MSS. Comm. App. I. 609 But for myne owne parte, I holde this like the reste, to bee altogeather untrue. 1644 Milton Areop. 38 When God shakes a Kingdome..'tis not untrue that many..false teachers are then busiest in seducing. 1765 Museum Rust. IV. 400, I do not apprehend that it any ways tends to prove my assertion untrue. 1802–12 Bentham Ration. Judic. Evid. (1827) III. 360 The motives by which a man may be urged to give credit to untrue facts. 1875 Jowett Plato (ed. 2) IV. 156 There is nothing true which is not from some point of view untrue.

absol. 1807 Wordsw. White Doe 836 Less would not..be due To us, who war against the Untrue. 1882 N. & Q. 6th Ser. VI. 499/2 Belief in the untrue. 1891 Science-Gossip XXVII. 1/1 It has all the fascination of the untrue for the popular taste.

3. Dishonest; unfair, unjust; wrong.

1393 Langl. P. Pl. C. 1. 98 And boxes ben broght forþ.. To vnderstake be tol of vntrewe sacrifice. 1399 — Rich. Redeles I. 11 By drede, or be dyntis or domes vntrewe. 1444 Rolls of Parlt. V. 105/2 Be cause it was of untrue makyng, and untru stuff, no man sette therby. 1495 Act 12 Hen. VII, c. 24 § 1 Every untrue merchandyse shall be seyzed. 1542–3 Act 34–35 Hen. VIII, c. 20 Untrue and fained recoveries to be had against them. Ibid., To thentent by fraude, covyne, and untrue meanes..to bynde and defeate theyre heyres. 1596 Dalrymple tr. Leslie's Hist. Scot. (S.T.S.) I. 199 To..craue the succour..of God and man against the Romane vntrue tyrannie. 1622 in Foster Eng. Factories Ind. (1908) II. 44 We shall fynde it deficulte to.. cleare their demaunds, which what they are or howe untrewe wee are not justly poseed. 1865 Pusey Truth Eng. Ch. 5 Nothing..so dispels untrue prejudice as personal intercourse.

4. Not straight or direct; inexact; not agreeing with a standard.

c 1220 Bestiary 77 in O. E. Misc. 3 Ber he wurdeþ heil & sund,..Ne were his bec untrewe. Ibid. 111 His muþ is þet untrewe. 1503–4 Act 19 Hen. VI, c. 6 § 1 Deceivable and untrewe Beames and Scales. a 1523 Fabyan Chron. ccxxvi. (1516) 147 b/1 This Henry chastysed the olde untrewe measure, and made a yerde of the length of his myne Lame. 1780 Cowper Progr. Error 571 None sends his arrow to the mark in view, Whose hand is feeble, or his aim untrue. 1844 H. Stephens Bk. Farm III. 891 Thereby producing wool of unequal size, and therefore untrue. 1887 A. Barry Sir C. Barry ii. 57 The perspective gives an untrue figure.

b. Improper, imperfect.

1541 R. Copland Guydon's Quest. Chirurg. C i, There is ii. maners of consolydacyon, one is trewe,..and yᵉ other is vntrue consolydacyon. 1884 Lancet's Metoph. I. 23 One of the oldest thoughts in Philosophy is that of the opposition between true being and untrue being.

B. adv. = Untruly adv.

a 1310 in Wright Lyric P. xiii. 114 Whose loveth untrewe, his trewe is selde seen. c 1386 Chaucer Prol. 735 Or ellis he moot telle his tale vntrewe Or feynye thyng or fynde wordes newe. c 1600 Shaks. Sonn. lxxii, Least your true love may seeme false in this, That you for love speake well of me vntrue. 1622 J. Taylor (Water P.) Merry-Pery-Wherry Pey. Wks. (1630) 23/1 Some fooles would say I flatter'd, spake untrue.

†Untru'ef, a. Obs. rare. [Un-¹ 7.] Untruthful, false. c 1380 Wyclif Serm. Sel. Wks. I. 137 Wole þou not be untreuful but trewe in bileve. 1491 Caxton Vitas Patr. (W. de W. 1495) I. lxxviii. 120/1 Orygenes by his false doctryne hadd gyuen many untreufull techynges contrary to the holy scrypture.

Untru'eness. [Un-¹ 12. Cf. OE. ungetrēowness.] s. Unfaithfulness. b. Absence of trueness or truth; falsity; inexactness.

a 1200 Moral Ode 265 (Lamb. MS.), þa þe untrowenesse [v.r. untrewnesse] duden þon þe ho sculden bon holde. 1727 Bailey (vol. II), Falsness, falshood, untrueness. 1862 F. Hall Hindu Philos. Syst. 161 This untrueness does not belong to the universe, for the causes of that universe..are free from all defect. 1886 Huxley in Fortn. Rev. Dec. 789 If there be gradations in untrueness.

Untru'ism. [f. Untrue a., after Truism.]

1. An untruth.

1845 Q. Rev. LXXV. 115 This continual repetition of amiable untruisms. 1857 Trollope Barchester Towers I. vi, No one but a preaching clergyman can revel in platitudes, truisms, and untruisms; and yet receive..the same respectful demeanour.

2. That which is untrue.

1868 Visct. Strangford Select. (1869) I. 188 This tiresome literary trick of making an appeal..to the genius of Untruism.

Untru'ly, adv. [OE. untrēowlice (Un-¹ 11), = MDu. ontrouwelijke (obs. Du. ontrouwelijk), MHG. untriuwelîche, ON. útrúlliga (MSw. otroliha, older Da. utrolig).]

†1. Unfaithfully, dishonestly; guilefully, treacherously. Obs.

c893 K. Ælfred Oros. IV. v. § 5 Agothocles gedyde untreowlice wiδ hiene. 1303 R. Brunne Handl. Synne 1834 She..here wedlak Ful falsiy an on-truly brak. 1340 Ayenδ. 44 Huanne me heδ rijtuolie wyztes and rijtuolie mesures and zelleþ onwreiδliche. c1400 Destr. Troy 12074 Achilles ..with treson in þe temple vntruly was slayn. 1444 Rolls of Parl. V. 105/2 The Slayes and Yern therto belangyng, untruly were..wrought. 1495 Act 11 Hen. VII, c. 24 § 1 Iurrours untruly geuyng their verdite. 1532–3 Act 24 Hen. VIII, c. 1 § 1 Great multitude of Hydes..is vntruely insufficiently and deceyvably tanned. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. V, 78 b, Ye..ought to haue kept your faith and promise, whiche you haue vntruely and vnhonestly broken.

2. Incorrectly, falsely.

c1380 Wyclif Wks. (1880) 410 For þanne..goddis lawe shulde be vntreweliere knowun bope bi clerkis & bi comyns. c 1394 P. Pl. Crede 312 Þeire we lengeden full longe..For-to all þis freren folke weren founded in townes, And taugen vntrulie. 1425 Paston Lett. I. 19 Johne Wortes, that.. affermith hym untrewely to be my cousyn. c 1449 Pecock Repr. Prol. 4 Whiche summe of the conuun peple vnwijsly and vntreuili lugen and seiden to be vnsele. ?a 1533 Frith Another Bk. agst. Rastell C viij b, Now are we come to the fourth erroure where Rastel vntruluye reporteth on me [etc.]. 1579 Fulke Heskins' Parl. 438 He would get credite to that whiche is vntruely ascribed to Saint James. 1645 Donne Serm. (1640) 26 It is..dangerously said,..that it is not absurd to say..that God does sometimes speake untruly. 1839 Hallam Hist. Lit. II. cvi. § 8 It was said foolishly.. of Shakspeare, and we may be sure untruly, that he never blotted a line. 1864 Pusey Lect. Daniel 122 They allege, even untruly, that he copied the prayer of Nehemiah.

3. Inexactly; not in a true course.

1844 Mardon Billiards 107, I cannot recollect a single instance of the balls having run untruly.

†Untrum, v.: see Un-[1] 14.

†Untrum, a. Obs. Also 4 ontrom. [OE., f. un- Un-[1] 7 + trum strong.] a. Weak, ailing, ill.

c 825 Vesp. Ps. civ. 37 [God] utaladde his in seylfre & golde & ne wes in cyn heara untrum. c900 tr. Bæde's Hist. iv. xxiv. 346 Wæs þær in neaweste untrumra monna hus. 971 Blickl. Hom. 217 þa wearδ he untrum on seforadie. c1200 St. Marher. 30 þa..tulde alle to hire bodi þe untrume weren, and hefden hare heale.

b. Diffident, hesitating.

c 1315 Shoreham Poems 1. 595 Þanne auste we wel aryst to be To fange hym on-tromme.

†Untrumness. Obs. [OE., f. prec. Cf. Un-[1] 12.] Weakness, infirmity; ill-health.

c893 K. Ælfred Gregory's Past. C. liii. 499 Forδæm wes sanctus Paulus gecosted mid his modes untrumnesse. c1000 Ags. Gosp. Matt. viii. 17 He onfeng ure untrumnessa. a 1122 O. E. Chron. (Laud MS.) an. 1043, Be þes cynges geleafan.. for his mycelre untrumnysse. c1200 Ormin 3379 Forr to takenn hele att himm Off iwhlic unntrumnesse. Ibid. 18339 Icc amm i me seliffenn wac & full off unntrumnnesse.

Untrumpeted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash.] 1861 Reade Cloister & Hearth I, The strange history of a pair, who lived untrumpeted, and died unsung. 1864 B. Sargent Peculiar III. 298 The important and hazardous though untrumpeted labours of a scout. Untrunked, ppl. a. (Un-[2] 5 8.) 1582 Stanyhurst Æneid II. (Arb.) 63 At leingth with rousefal, from stock vntruncked, yt harasheth.

Untruss, v. [Un-[2] 4 b.]

1. trans. To free from a pack or burden. rare.

1390 Gower Conf. II. 294 With this worde his Asse anon He let untrusse. c1430 Pilgr. Lyf Manhode II. xlvii. (1869) 94 Whan vntrussed thus j was, j was rauished in to the ayr mt hygh. c 1530 Lo. Berners Arthur cxlvi. (1814) 484 There he saw the goodly yong squyers vntrussing of their somers & cariages. 1598 Florio, Sfardellare, ..to vntrusse, or disburthen.

2. To unfasten or undo (a pack, etc.); to remove or free from some fastening.

c 1400 Pilgr. Soule (Caxton, 1483) II. xlv. 51 He vntrussed my fardel, and soone was I taught that sooth was that he seyde. 1570 Googe Pop. Kingd. iv. 56 The Pedler doth his packe vntrusse, the Host his pots doth fill. 1600 in Swayne Sarum Church. Acc. (1896) 148 Laborer to vntrusse the bels, 6d. 1777 Sheridan Trip Scarb. v. ii, Now ..that I am untrussed (=set free), give me leave to thank thee for the very extraordinary reception I have met with.

b. fig. To put off, discard.

1608 Chapman Byron's Consp. I. iii, Be free, all worthy spirits, And stretch yourselves for greatness.., Untruss your slaveries.

3. To undo, unfasten (a 'point' of a garment). In later use chiefly allusively (see quot. 1721). Obs. exc. Hist.

1597 Holinshed Hist. Eng. I. 8/2 He was slain..by one of his own soldiers, as he was about to vntrusse his poinles. 1614 Sylvester Bethulia's Rescue II. 78 For..while hee plyes T' untrusse his Points, [he] them (fumbling) faster tyes. 1622 Mabbe tr. Aleman's Guzman d'Alf. II. 356 One of the Souldiers was going to vntrusse a point. 1721 Bailey, To untruss a Point, i.e. to unbutton one's Breeches in order to ease his Body. 1727 Somerville Fables, Welshman & Fly, A noisy fly..perch'd upon his worship's crown;..his skin he tore, And stuff'd himself with human gore. At last, in mauvais to excel, Untruss'd a point, some authors tell. 1739 [see Point sb.[1] B. 5]. 1796 Grose's Dict. Vulgar T. s.v. 1837 Barham Ingol. Leg. I. Grey Dolphin, The Clerk of Chatham was untrussing his points preparatory to seeking his truckle-bed.

b. In fig. contexts.

1591 Lyly Endym. III. iii, Loue..kept such a tumbling in his bodie, that he was glad to vntrusse the poynts of his hart. 1622 Dekker Virg. Martir II. i, Vntrusse the Codpeece point of your reward. 1891 Meredith One of our Conq. xiii, Lawyers can be brought to untruss a point over a cup of claret.

c. absol. To unfasten one's points; to undo one's dress (spec. one's lower garments).

1592 Nashe P. Penilesse D iv b, Off with thy gowne and vntrusse, for I meane to lash thee mightily. 1604 E. Grimstone Siege Ostend 67 Making a shewe as if hee went to vntrusse. 1648 Herrick Hesper., Upon Paggett, Untrusse, his Master bade him; and that word Made him take up his shirt. a 1683 Oldham Rem. (1684) 123, I must beg my Reader's Distance; as if I were going to Untruss. 1705 Hickeringill Priest-cr. ii. vi. 57 To do which Business, they untrussed, and stript themselves. 1837 Barham Ingol. Leg. I. Leech (1903) 84 Now strip thee, Master Marsh, and that quickly; untruss, I say!

trans.f. 1649 W. M. Wandering Jew 19 His breeches if hee takes wide strides, will untrusse of themselves.

4. To undo or unfasten the garments of (a person); to assist in undressing. Also refl.

a 1632 Fletcher Elder Brother iv. iv, Well done, give me my night-cap. So. Quick, quick, untruss me. 1786 tr. Beckford's Vathek 99 [He] had untrussed himself to eat with greater advantage. 1809 Malkin Gil Blas x. ix. P 11 They also undressed Beatrice and Scipio, who..gravely allowed themselves to be untrussed. 1862 Reade Cloister & H. IV, Soon he bade me untruss him, for he felt sadly.

†5. fig. a. To expose, disclose, reveal. Obs.

1600 Rowlands Lett. Humours Blood iv. 63 Who nominates his Bread and Cheese a name, (That doth vntrusse the nature of the same). 1601 B. Jonson Poetaster v. iii, Our Muse is in mind for th'vntrussing a poet. 1651 Cleveland Poems 20 Yet here's not all, I cannot half untruss &c. it's so abominous.

†b. To take apart, dissect, disintegrate. Obs.

a 1618 J. Davies (Heref.) Witte's Pilgr. Wks. (Grosart) II. 37/1 Then, to vntrusse him..Whose Muse hath power to vntrusse what not? Was a vaine cast. 1645 Milton Colenst. 16 But hee goes on to untruss my Arguments, imagining them his Maisters points. 1651 Cleveland Poems 20 Scatter th' accumulative King; untruss That five-fold fiend.

Untrussed, ppl. a. [Un-[1] 8, or f. prec.]

†1. Unburdened. Obs.—[1] a 1225 Ancr. R. 350 Þeo men þet..goδ untrussed lihte ase pilegrimes touward heouene.

†2. Untressed; loose. Obs.

c1400 [see Untresser ppl. a.]. 1494 Lydgate's Bochas vi. Prol. 32 Hir here vnrussyd [MS. vntressid, -ed] harde sharpe and horryble. a 1529 Skelton E. Rummyng 147 Theyr lockes about theyr face, Theyr tresses vntrust. 1587 Turbervy Trag. T. (1837) 30 Untrust her haire hoong rounde about her head. 1600 Fairfax Tasso xxvii. xxvii. 320 The Dryads..Whose armes, halfe naked; lockes vntrussed bee.

3. Having the garments unfastened or undone.

1544 Phaer Regim. Lyfe (1553) I iiij, Ye ought..to lette your backe be vntrussed in the sommer. 1596 Lodge Wits Miserie (1841) 37 Vntrussed, I say, his common course is to sip alwaies vntrust, except when his shirt is a washing. 1607, 1647 [see Ungartered 1]. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. xi. iv, All his clothes so loosely spread, He's so untrust, as if it were not long to bed. 1822 Scott Nigel v, Three or four pages in the royal livery, but untrussed, unbuttoned. 1829 Q. Rev. XXXIX. 106 The poor boy who..has stood untrussed and trembling before him.

†b. Of points: Unfastened. Obs.

1589 Greene Menaphon, Maugeruerie Wks. (Grosart) V. 244 His cappe pulde ouer his eies, and his poinles vntrust. 1626 R. C. Times' Whistle v. 2135 Old Monsier Grey-beard with your poynts vntrust.

4. Not trussed for cooking.

1846 Soyer Cookery 217 Have four spring chickens untrussed.

Untrusser. [f. Untruss v. 5.] †a severe critic. 1599 B. Jonson Ev. Man out of Hum. ii. i. E iij b, Welcome gentlemen: and how doest thou, thou Grand Scourge, or Second Vntrusser [Cri of the time? 1601 — Poetaster v. iii, Authoritatively affecting the title of the vntrussers, or whippers of the age. Ibid. To Rdr. 141 Pol. Will you not answere then the libels? Aut. No. Pol. Nor the vntrussers?

Untrussing, vbl. sb. [f. Untruss v.] The action of the vb., chiefly in fig. senses.

1597 Return fr. Parnass. ii. i. 1970 One that will give his scholler leave to prove as verie a dunce as his father and nere emmaunde the untrussinge of his points. 1601 B. Jonson Poetaster iv. vii, Come, we'll goe see how forward our iourney-man is toward the vntrussing of him. 1602 Dekker (title), Satiro-Mastix, or, the Untrussing of the Humorous Poet. 1603 Shaks. Meas. for M. iii. ii. 190 Marrie this Claudio is condemned for vntrussing.

Untrust, sb. [Un-[1] 12. Cf. Wantrust.]

1. Unbelief, distrust. Now rare.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 332 Þeos two unbeawes, untrust and ouertrust, beoδ þes deofles tristren. 1382 Wyclif Rom. iv. 20 In the þyheeste of God he doutide not with vntrust. 1390 Gower Conf. II. 147 This fiewere of Jelousie Somdel..growth of sotle, Of love, and somdel of untrust. 1421–2 Hoccleve Dialog 336 Frendshipes lawe nat worth wer a myte, If þat vntrust vn-to it wer annexid; Vntrust hath many a wight ful sore vexid. c 1450 Cov. Myst. (Shaks. Soc.) 153 Alas!..For my grete dowth and fals beleve,..My fals vntrust hath wrought myschieve! 1582 Howell Devices M j, Condemde thou art for thine vntruste. 1890 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ I. 152 We should linger over the words 'Our Father', till nothing of doubt, or untrust, remains.

†2. Untrustworthiness. Obs.

1430–40 Lydg. Bochas Prologue 429 To shewe thurtrust off al worldli thyng. 1563 Mirr. Mag. X ii, Of my death let..princes wete The worldes untrust, that they thereby be taught. 1579 Hake Newes out of Powles (1872) H iij, Suche is the vntrust of this age, more men can speake plausibly in time of good happe,..then [etc.].

†Untrust, v. Obs.—[1] [Un-[1] 14.] intr. To have no confidence; to be in despair.

a 1225 Ancr. R. 332 Dred wiδuten hope makeδ mon untrusten, and hope wiδute dred makeδ ouertrusten.

Untrustable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1863 Kingsley Water-Bab. iii. 118 Dennis will look up at you with his..good-natured untrustable Irish grey eye.

Untrusted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.)

1552 Huloet, Vntrusted, perfidus. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia III. xix, I could wish my faith untried, and my counsell untrusted. c 1710 Congreve Of Pleasing 13 The untrusted wretch to secresy pretends, Whispering his nothing round to all as friends. a 1750 A. Hill Picture of Love 41 Curb your untrusted hearts while yet they're free. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla IV, 389 Even her beloved sister..is untrusted.

Untrustful, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1569 Preston Cambyses C j b, Untrustfull traitor and corrupt Judge, how likest thou this complaint? 1829 Scott Anne of G. xxviii, The untried and untrustful services of those, whom we have only known as ..malignant neighbours.

† Untrustiness. Obs. [f. Untrusty a.] Unfaithfulness. (Common c 1515–1625.)

1526 Pilgr. Perf. (W. de W. 1531) 110 These be yē vices, ..Sleyghtnesse or deceyte, Vntrustynesse or Vnfeythnesse. a 1548 Hall Chron., Hen. IV, 232 Such is the end of vntrustynes & promisbrekyng. 1614 R. Harris Samuels Funerall (1618) 16 Ah our idlenesse and vntrustines! and all. 1685 Baxter Paraphr. N.T. Rom. iii. 4 All [shall] be silenced that dare accuse of untrustiness or lying.

†Untrusting, vbl. sb. (Un-[1] 13.) c 1440 Jacob's Well 204 þe synnes of þe herte arn þise:..vntrustynge, wrong wenyng, foly loue [etc.]. Untrusting, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1861 [H. S. Cunningham] Wheat & Tares 364 She had been suspicious, untrusting, ungenerous. †Untrusty, adv. Obs.—[0] [Un-[1] 11.] Unfaithfully, unreliably. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 368/2 On-trostly (P. untruly, or untrustly, infideliter, insecure).

Untrustworthiness. (Un-[1] 12. Cf. next.) 1808 Bentham Sc. Reform 91 The mass of evidence,..the comparative untrustworthiness of which is thus recognised. 1867 Freeman Norm. Conq. I. ii. 10 To show the untrustworthiness of the traditional account.

Untrustworthy, a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1846 Worcester (citing Ec. Rev.). 1853 Ruskin Stones Ven. III. ii. § 20 Knowledge is not only very often unnecessary, but it is often untrustworthy. 1878 Bosw. Smith Carthage 314 The Gauls, untrustworthy as ever—except when led by Hannibal—were drawing up on a hill to the left.

Untrusty, a. [Un-[1] 7.]

1. Untrustworthy, not to be trusted (to), unreliable: a. Of things.

1387 Trevisa Higden (Rolls) III. 265 þe firste twele artes beeþ untrusty [L. erroneæ]. 1430–40 Lydg. Bochas I. 3026 So variable she [sc. Fortune] is in hir delites, Hir wheel vn-trusti & freweskill meynynge. 1591 Lodge Phillis H 3 b, Tongue vntrusticie, subtil sighted, Wanton will, with change delighted. 1609 Holland Amm. Marcell. 67 The residue ..abandoning the Islands as an untrustie place of defence. 1639 Fuller Holy War II. xxiii. 67 Relying on their own strength, which never is more untrusty then when most trusted. 1677 Gilpin Demonol. 58 Others..make them the Effects of our untrusty and deceitful Senses. 1842 Manning Serm. xvii. (1848) 253 It is a dishonest and untrusty faith,.. which is reconcilleable with an ambitious life. 1870 Morris Earthly Par. III. iv. 8 To bid them come aboard, and take such rest As they might have of the untrusty sea.

b. Of persons.

1430–40 Lydg. Bochas VIII. xxv. 3000 His cosyn Modred, vntrusti & vnstable. c 1440 Promp. Parv. 148/1 False, and vntrosty, perfidus. a 1513 Fabyan Chron. (1516) 20 b/1 Edricus was..vntrusty and false of thought and promyse. 1542 Udall Erasm. Apoph. 294 To mistruste an untrustie personne, is a poincte of wysedome. 1597 J. Payne Royal Exch. 14 The vntrustie that borrow moche, and repay.. little. 1642 D. Rogers Naaman 435 Faithfull in the cheefe treasure, and yet untrusty in the smaller. 1692 R. Taylor Behnen's Thes. Philos. 41 In Adam all Men became untrusty. 1846 W. Cross Disruption xxix, The untrusty domineering laun'-steward. 1876 Morris Sigurd iv. 327 She dwells with a folk untrusty and a king that knows not truth.

†2. Unfaithful to another. Obs.

1553 Grimalde Cicero's Offices III. (1556) 142 How manye mo, thinke ye, were vntrue, and vntrusty to that king. 1575 Gascoigne Glasse of Govt. v, v, I was never yet untrusty to any of you both. 1600 R. Taylor Comm. Titus ii. 10 A strong theefe is he, that is vntrusty to him that trusteth him.

Untruth. [OE. untrēowþ, untriewþ (Un-[1] 12). Cf. ON. ótrúnaðr, also Untroth, Wantruth.]

1. Unfaithfulness; lack of fidelity, loyalty, or honesty. Now arch. and rare.

c 893 K. Ælfred Oros. III. xi. § 5 He..him wende from Antigones hamfærelte miceliu untreowδa. Ibid. iv. v. § 5. a 1122 O. E. Chron. (Laud MS.) an. 1086, þa Denescan.. wurdon awende to þæmestene untriewþe. 1340 Ayenδ. 17 þe uerste boϑ of prede þet is ontreuþe. 1400 tr. Secreta Secret., Gov. Lordsh. 62 Hold trewly þy fayth hyght, flor euer moor to all vntreuthe folowys euyl ende. c 1489 Caxton Sonnes of Aymon xvi. 97 Be my sureetee, I praye you,..Ye knowe that I dyde never vntrewth. 1559 Mirr. Mag. C ij, I through flattery abused his wanton youth, And his fonde trust augmented my vntruth. 1593 Shaks. Rich. II, II. ii. 103, I would to heaven (So my untruth had not prouok'd him to it) The King had cut off my head.

1859 Tennyson Elaine 126 He never spake word of reproach to me, He never had a glimpse of mine untruth. — Guinevere 537 Too wholly true to dream untruth in thee.

† 2. Unbelief; lack of faith. Obs.

a 1380 Wyclif Serm. Sel. Wks. I. 45 He shal reprove þe worlde of þe synne of untreuþe. Ibid. II. 20 Crist woundride of his kyn, for þe untreuþe þat þei hadden.

3. Falsehood, falsity.

1439 Cases bef. King's Council (Selden) 105 To sey the playn truth and nowt to melle it with eny untruth. 1482 in Surtees Misc. (1890) 40 To put down all falsset and untrewit. 1559 Bp. Scot in Strype Ann. Ref. (1709) I. App. x. 32 Bringinge..others from the truthe unto untruthe. 1577–82 Breton Toyes Idle Head Wks. (Grosart) I. 29/2 Such youthes there are..As with untruth their Ladies fancies feede. 1587 Golding De Mornay Pref., But yet cannot any vntruth preuayle..against truth.. For vntruth is contrary to nature. 1632 Lithgow Trav. i. 2 This stinging censure of absurd vntruth. 1748 Richardson Clarissa III. 299 For his boldness in hoping to make me..testify to his great untruth. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. i, A poor braggart; fast hastening to be a falsity and speaker of the Untruth.

1873 Spencer Stud. Sociol. xi. (1877) 265 Everyone discovers the untruth of this assumption.

b. A falsehood; a false or incorrect statement.

*c*1440 Pecock Repr. III. xvii. 396 It is open that tho ‖ opinions, conclusions, and boldingis . ben errouris and vntreuthis. 1595 Jewel Reply Harding 554 Therefore M. Harding concludeth this maier with twoo vntruethes bothe togeather. 1785 in Cath. Rec. Soc. Publ. V. 109 He saythe it is a great mistake, but cannot be proved. 1634 Sir T. Herbert Trav. 2 All Travellers are subject to imputations of vntruthis. 1651 Hobbes Leviath. I. viii. 36 So singular a truth (as they think it, though it be many times an untruth they light on). a 1716 Blackall Wks. (1736) I. 23 A very strange Paradox, or rather a most palpable Untruth. 1756 Gentl. Mag. XXVI. 144 The author of three letters . . is taken into custody for the virulent abuse, and notorious untruths they contain. 1819 Scott Leg. Montrose ii, I would be loath to reply to you with an untruth. 1863 P. Barry Dockyard Econ. 215 He..asserts either an impudent or an ignorant untruth.

Comb. 1799 Southey Devil's Walk liii, He is an untruth-telling whoreson.

4. Inexactness.

1869 Rankine Machine & Hand-tools Pl. H 9, The washers have sufficient play . . to allow them to accommodate themselves to any untruth . . on the surface of the nut.

Hence Untru'ther, one who utters untruths.

1889 Jerome Three Men in Boat vii, 'You are an untruther,' I replied, getting roused.

Untru'thful, a. [Un-1 7. Cf. Untrothful.]

†1. Unbelieving, infidel. Obs.

*c*1375 Sc. Leg. Saints xxvii. (Michor) 816 Dewenik can to outrep pas, to folk bot jan untruthful was. 1456 Sir G. Hayk Law Arms (S.T.S.) 108 The traytouris untreuthfull sais that the grete Cane is lord of all the warld.

2. Not truthful; untrue.

[1847 Webster.] 1854 Patmore Angel in Ho. v. viii. 5 The candid skies At our untruthful strangeness laugh'd. 1871 Jowett Plato II. 20 As men become better such theories appear more and more untruthful to them.

Hence Untru'thfully adv., Untru'thfulness.

[1847 Webster, Untruthfully.] 1879 Temple Bar Mag. Sept. 15 'I am sorry', says Wilmanton, untruthfully. 1890 Carlyle Misc. Ess. (1872) III. 53 But it always is our duty ..not to avoid unweddedness by untruthfulness. 1853 Mansel Lett., Lect., etc. (1873) 239 The glaring untruthfulness and incongruity of the story.

Untu'ck, v. [Un-2 3.] trans. To undo or free from being tucked up.

1611 Cotgr., Destrousser, to vntrusse, vntucke. 1765 Sterne Tr. Shandy viii. ix, When Bridget untucked the feet of the bed. 1857 J. G. Wood Com. Obj. Seashore 67 In due time it unticks itself, and loosens the indigestible portions of its food. 1882 Blackw. Mag. July 15/1 With a dignified gesture he untucked his legs from under him.

Untu'cked, ppl. a. [Un-1 8 + Tuck v.†] a. Of cloth: Not stretched or tentered. b. Not tucked up; loose.

1467 Rolls of Parlt. V. 621 To bie rawe Clothes, untoked and unfulled. 1592-3 Act 35 Eliz. c. 9 § 1 Eyche Kersey ..beinge rawe, unscowred, untucked, and unwett. 1597 Shaks. Lover's Compl. 31 Her hairs no lesse nor ti'd in formall plait... For some vntuck'd, descended her sheu'd hat. 1797 Monthly Mag. III. 416 Rather, ungirded, or untucked, called Orthostades, or streight robes.

Untu'ckered, a. (Un-1 9.) 1713 Addison Guardian No. 109 ¶ 5 One of those Untuckered Ladies whom you were so sharp upon on Monday was sensight. Ibid. No. 149 ¶ 1 The attacks he has made on the untuckered stays and short petticoat. Untu'fted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 9.) 1872 Couse N. Amer. Birds 206 Very small; head untufted.

Untu'mbled, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1675 Wycherley Country Wife v. 91 Women of quality, like the richest Stuffs, lie untumbled and unask'd for. 1781 Gentl. Mag. LI. 616 The ocean [was] left in an easy untumbled bed. 1829 Byron Juan ii. clxxxi, The sands untumbled, like the waves unroll'd.

Untumu'ltuated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1659 Gauden Tears Ch. 107 They were left to their free votes and untumultuated suffrages.

Untumu'ltuous, a. (Un-1 7.)

1741 Lady Hartford Lett. (1805) III. 193 Necessitated to see nothing but what offers itself to me in the most easy and untumultuous manner. 1786 Francis the Philanthropist I. 23 Tasting the untumultuous enjoyments of rational society. 1818 Keats Eff. to Reynolds 91 An untumultuous fringe of silver foam. 1837 P. Thomson New Poems 16 In skies that no man sees to move Lurk untumultuous vortices of power.

Untu'nable, a. [Un-1 7 b.]

1. Not tuneful; unmelodious, inharmonious, harsh-sounding.

1545 Elyot, Absonus voce, he that hath an vntunable voyce. 1569 Sanford Agrippa 185 b, The vnpleasaunte and vntunable roringe of Asses. 1595 Spenser Col. Clout 374 Or be the shepheards which do serue her laesie,..Or be their pipes vntunable and crassie. 1655 tr. Sorel's Com. Hist. Francion iv. 11 The most untunable musick in the world. 1688 in Wood Life (O.H.S.) III. 274 A boy..with a cat under his coat..made her make..an untunable noise. 1748 Mallmoth Pitscottorie Lett. lix. (1749) II. 200 [It] might probably give music to those lines in Horace, which now seem so untuneable. 1796 Burney Mem. Metastasio III. 307 Constructed in measures wholly untuneable. 1841 D'Israeli Amen. Lit. I. 100 The Normans could not endure the Saxons' untuneable consonants. 1887 W. G. Palgrave Ulysses 34 The four church bells..have been ringing a very hospitable, though untuneable, peal.

b. fig. or in fig. context.

1591 Shaks. Two Gent. III. i. 208 In dumbe silence will I burry mine [sc. teares], For they are harsh, vntuneable, and bad. 1599 Sandys Europæ Spec. (1605) B 2 b, I will not heere warble long vpon this vntuneable harsh string. 1610 P. Holland Camden's Brit. I. 8 It is wholly patched up of untuneable discords and jarring absurdities. 1645 [see Unatonable ‖]. 1667 J. Stephens Procurations 129 That which..in him..seemeth..untunable and out of square and friendly compass.

2. Incapable of being tuned.

1802 Busby Dict. Mus. s.v.

3. Not appreciative of music.

1851 Keble Occas. Papers & Rev. (1877) 251 The colours are spread before the blind; the music falls on untunable ears.

Hence Untu'nableness.

1611 Cotgr., Desaccord, a iarre, discord, vntuneableness. 1659 H. More Immort. Soul III. ix. 420 The tenderer Ear cannot but feel..some harshness and untunableness or other, in the best consorts of Musical Instruments and Voices. 1691 Norris Pract. Disc. 217 As the untuneableness of one or two Instruments disecommends the whole Musical Consort. 1756 J. Warton Ess. on Pope I. ii. 65 The harshness and untuneableness of modern languages. 1832 Westm. Rev. Oct. 357 An age which finds beauties in untuneableness, and believes exact intonation would be an evil and a loss.

Untu'nably, adv. [Un-1 11.] Unmelodiously, inharmoniously.

1504 in Archiv Stud. neu. Spr. CXX. 423 A harpe gewythe sownd as yt ys set: The harper may wreste vntynably. 1564 J. Rastell Confut. Jewell's Serm. 111 b, This world sound ..vntuneable. 1610 Holland Camden's Brit. I. 131 A Poet ..sung not untunably in this maner. 1653 H. Cogan tr. Pinto's Trav. lxxiii. 301 They fell to playing on divers instruments.., though very barbarously and untunably.

†Untune, sb. Obs.[1] [Un-1 12.] The state of being out of sorts. 1603 Florio Montaigne III. xiii. 646 Men..much troubled and vexed with their bellies untune and disorder.

Untu'ne, v. [Un-2 4.]

1. trans. To put out of tune; to render inharmonious. Freq. in fig. context.

1598 Florio, Disdonare, to untune. 1602 and Pt. Return Parnassus v. i. 1996 The cold of two hath quite vntun'd my voyce. 1643 Heble Answ. Ferne 15 There would be a discontinuity in the whole, enough to..unsine the Organ of the Creation. 1711 Addison Spect. No. 135 ¶ 9 We have drawn two Words into one, which has likewise very much untuned our Language. 1743 in Mem. Eliz. Carter (1808) II. 55 When..The last dread thunders..Untune the concord of the spheres. 1807 J. Barlow Columb. VIII. 45 The drum's rude clang, the war wolf's hideous howl,..Untuned the harp for all but misery's pains. 1856 C. Reade Never too late III. 106 The quail[ˈs]..Crake ‖—crake ‖—crake ‖ untuning the night. 1876 Swinburne Erechtheus 1741 Never tear Shall sight or sound Untune the song.

refl. a. 1661 Holyday Juvenal (1673) To Rdr., Certainly I believe he [sc. Horace] injuriously untun'd himself in his fall from the ode to the satyre.

b. fig. To disorder; to discompose; to render unapt or averse to (something).

1598 N. Whiting Albino & Bellama 343 Madam, what passion does untune your mind? a 1657 R. Loveday Lett. (1659) 199 The continuance of my trouble..does often untune and discompose my soul. 1697 Dryden Virg. Past. ix. 71 Cares and Time Change all things, and untune my Soul to Rhyme. 1753 Hogarth Anal. Beauty xiv. 119 Do we not see in most collections that much time disunites, untunes, blackens, and by degrees destroys even the best preserved pictures. 1798 Bloomfield Farmer's Boy, Autumn 228 Disappointed hope untunes the Soul. 1822 Scott Halidon Hill ii, Gordon. If music touch thee— Swinton. It did, before disasters had untuned me. 1860 Emerson Cond. Life 1 29 Despair is no music, and untunes the active powers.

2. intr. To go out of tune. rare—[0].

1598 Florio, Discordare, to disagree, to vntune, to contend, to iarre.

†3. absol. ? To relax, unbend. Obs.

1609 Everie Wom. in her Humor A 2 b, Come thou hast bene a sinner: vnloade, discharge, vntune, confesse, is venus dominatrix? art not in loue?

Untu'ned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, or f. Untune v.]

1. Not tuned; not made tuneful or melodious; also, rendered untuneful.

1592 Daniel Delia xxi, Vexing with vntun'd moane her dainty eares. 1594 Shaks. Rich. II, I. iii. 134 Rouz'd vp with boystrous vntun'd drumms. 1612 Chapman tr. Busny d'Ambois I. i, The cities' bells Jangling together in untun'd confusion. 1630 Drayton David & Goliah 294 The harmony of the vntuned's string Torments the spirit which so torments the King. 1703 Pope Sappho 229 Untun'd my lute, and silent is my lyre. 1733 Satirist 9 For Sat'rists write in so untun'd a Strain, Thy claim no Title to th' harmonious Train. 1773 J. Herries Elem. Speech 53 A string in an instrument broken or untuned.

transf. 1590 Shaks. Com. Err. v. i. 310 That heere my onely sonne Knowes not my feeble key of vntun'd cares. c 1626 Bosworth To Faiirest Lady 5 O that it might have been While she had liv'd, and had my verses seen, Before sad cries dear'd my untuned ears. 1684 Earl Roscom Ess. Transl. Verse 337, I lose my Patience, when, with Sawcy Pride, By untun'd Ears I hear His Numbers try'd.

b. Not furnished with a tune.

1823 Reade Chr. Johnstone 69 The Newhaven men..are agreed that this song lifts them through more work than untuned fishermen can manage.

2. fig. Not brought into, put out of, a state of harmony or concord; disordered.

1602 and Pt. Ret. fr. Parnass. v. i. 1986 With vntaught hand, and with vntuned hart. 1648 J. Beaumont Psyche xvii. V, At the first,..when in t' untuned Deep Each Thing was wroth and snarled with his brother. 1687 Death's Vision v, The Intellective, Vital Flame..Is Thoughtless struck, and Dies By the Untun'd Contexture of the Unthinking Frame! 1794 Godwin Caleb Williams 65 Mr. Tyrrel would have gone also; his mind was untuned. 1805 Wordsw. Prelude iv. 145 For cold and raw the air was, and untuned. 1834 Macaulay Ess. Pitt ¶ 27 When his mind was untuned.

Untu'neful, a. (Un-1 7.)

1709 Brit. Apollo No. 9. 3/2 My Voice is so Hoarse and Untuneful. 1760 Sterne Tr. Shandy iv. Slawkenb. T., Harsh and untuneful are the notes of love, Unless my Julia strikes the key. 1803 Monthly Mag. XVI. 25 He had a voice rough and untuneful. 1830 Tennyson The Owl ii. 6 Her voice untuneful grown, Wears all day a fainter tone. 1890 Pall Mall G. 24 June 2/3 Lizzt's ambitious but untuneful..Symphony.

Hence Untu'nefully adv., Untu'nefulness.

1881 Athenæum 25 June 840/2 So does he demonstrate Byron's innate untunefulness. 1884 Manch. Examn. 19 Feb. 5/2 A cold which causes a man to sing untunefully.

Untu'rbaned, a. (Un-1 9.) 1801 Southey Thalaba II. xxvii, Unturban'd and unsandal'd there, Abdaldar stood before the Flame. 1887 W. G. Palgrave Ulysses 14 Visited by turbaned and unturbaned pilgrims. Untu'rbid, a. (Un-1 7.) 1820 Scott Monast. II. The little brook..danced carelessly on from stream to pool, light and unturbid.

Untu'rf, v. (Un-2 4.) 1890 Nature 27 Nov. 80/2 A wild hill-top..had been unturfed, the turves and gorse being piled in heaps. Untu'rn, v. (Un-2 9.) 1816 Keats Sonn. when L. Hunt left Prison, Think you he naught but prison walls did see, Till, so unwilling, thou unturn'dst the key? 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 320 Then, unturning the finger-screw,..I released the screw from the wheel. Ibid. 322 Screws..which are prevented from unturning by tightening the finger-nuts. Untu'rnable, a. (Un-1 7 b.) 1847 Tennyson Princ. ii. 186 That iron will, That axelike edge unturnable. 1891 H. Herman His Angel 14 Honesty, sterling and unturnable, was emblazoned there.

Untu'rned, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not turned over, round, away, etc.

c 1550 [see Stone sb. 36 c]. 1575 Gamm. Gurton I. iv. 12 So see in all the heaps of dust thou leave no straw vnturned. 1665 R. Oliver in Earl Orrery St. Let. (1742) 120, I will leave no stone unturned, till I find out the root, from whence those wicked branches grow. 1670 [see Stone sb. 16 c]. 1760 Law Spir. Prayer ii. 79 Whilst nian stood in his first perfection, unturned from God. 1814 Monthly Mag. XXXVIII. 438 Oft I took, and oft returned This key, and left the lock unturn'd. 1822 Byron Vis. Judgment. lxxii, Behold a candidate with unturn'd coat! 1904 E. Rickert Reaper 303 He wanted to see how much ground was unturned.

2. Not shaped by turning.

1816 J. Smith Panorama Sci. & Art I, 61 The part thus left unturned may be cut off either in the lathe or afterwards. 1875 Carpentry & Join. 88 The head..of the bed..may be made of unturned posts.

Untu'rning, ppl. a. [Un-1 10.]

1. Not turning round; not revolving.

1891 [see Untransparent a.].

2. Not turning back or aside; continuing in a straight course; undeviating.

1593 Q. Eliz. Boeth. iv. pr. vi. 93 Yf the euerlasting purenes of Godes mynde doth prescribe an vnturning order of causes. c 1612 Chapman Iliad xx. 234 The clamorous fray Calls out a lion,..and his abhorred view Turns headlong in unturning flight (though vent'rous) all the crew. 1862 T. A. Trollope Marietta iv, The long unturning path.

Untu'rnsked, a. (Un-1 9.) 1899 All Year Round No. 32. 129 The untusked elephants of Ceylon have 'tushes'.

Untu'telar, a. (Un-1 7.) 1667 Waterhouse Fire Lond. 2 Men may see the dreadful effects of providence, untutelar to their acquisitions.

Untu'tored, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Uneducated, untaught; simple, unsophisticated; † rude, boorish: a. Of persons.

1593 Shaks. 3 Hen. VI, v. v. 32 Vntutor'd Lad, thou art too malapert. 1598 Sylvester Du Bartas II. ii. Babylon 262 Un-toyld, un-tutord,..We learn'd a language all men understood. 1618 Fletcher Loyal Ord. iv. iii, We are two simple maids, untutor'd here Sir. 1663 J. Spencer Prodigies 15 Those Secretaries of Nature..fell under the hatred of the untutor'd rabble. 1725 Pope Odyss. I. 491 What God to your untutor'd youth affords This headlong torrent of amazing words? 1780 Bentham Princ. Legisl. xviii. § 17 note, It is not for this that the untutored many could have originally submitted themselves to the dominion of the few. 1809–14 Wordsw. Excurs. v. 840 The untutored bird may..so construct..her nest..That the young brood her cot. 1868 Merivale Rom. Emp. iii. VI. 66 [These] women..were exceptions to the mass of the untutored matrons of Rome. 1878 H. S. Palmer Sinai iv. 75 The superstitious and untutored inhabitants of the Desert.

b. Of the mind, intellect, etc.

1597 Pilgr. to Parnassus I. 9 Urge mee to advise youre younge untutord thoughts. 1619 A. Newman Pleas. Vis. (1840) 7 Vaine vnto vntutor'd, vntutored, Left Reasons rule. 1693 Prior To Dr. Sherlock 29 Thy even Thoughts with so much Plainness flow; Their Sense untutor'd Infancy may know. 1732 Pope Ess. Man i. 99 The poor Indian! whose untutor'd mind Sees God in clouds, or hears him in the wind. 1784 Cowper Task ii. 570 A relaxation of labour bold Upon the roving and untutor'd heart Soon follows. 1837 Disraeli Venetia III. vii, Her unsophisticated and untutored spirit. 1867 Pearson Hist. Eng. I. 15 Their wants were still undeveloped, their taste untutored.

c. fig. (esp. pen or pencil).

1612 Rich Honest. Age (Percy Soc.) 7, I come not to implore a Lawrell Crowne, Wherewith to decke my rude untutred quill. 1623 J. Taylor (Water P.) Discov. by Sea C 2 b, What my vntutor'd Pen cannot sufficiently commend, I am forced with silence to observe. 1706 E. Ward Wooden World Diss. (1708) A 6 b, This rough Draught of my untutor'd Pencil. 1748 Anson's Voy. iii. viii, 380 Of so little consequence are the most destructive arms in untutored and unpractised hands. 1865 F. Farnham Champlain's iv. (1875) 240 A scene oddly portrayed by the untutored pencil of Champlain.

d. Of places or conditions.

1751 W. Whitehead Hymn to Nymph 212 Ev'n then, the scene We now behold to such perfection wrought, Charm'd with untutor'd wildness. 1760 W. Smith Dict. Public Occas. (1762) 119 The Propagation of Christ's religion through the untutored parts of the earth. 1796 Mme. D'Arblay Camilla V. 204 The children of untutored nature. 1809 Wordsw. Poems Nat. Indep. & Liberty ii. xiii, Is it among rude, untutored Dales..only, that the heart is true? 1887 Cornh. Mag. Jan. 39 A camping-out expedition in the untutored woodlands.

2. Not produced or formed as the result of education or training; not improved by instruction.

1593 Shaks. Lucr. Deed., The worth of my untuted Lines. 1644 Milton Educ. 2 Besides the ill habit which they get of wretched barbarizing..with their untutor'd Anglicisms. 1744 Akenside Pleas. Imag. i. 422 The gracious Power Who first awakened my untutored song. 1768 Boswell Corsica iii (ed. 2) 196 Those heroes whose untutored patriotism had shone with such lustre. 1788 Gibbon Decl. & F. xliv. IV. 334 The laws of marriage,..the authority of parents,..are ascribed to the untutored wisdom of Romulus. 1810 Crabbe Borough i. 122 We prune our hedges, prime our slender trees, And nothing looks untutor'd and at ease. 1859 Jephson Brittany v. 61 The rough untutored vocal expression of worship offered by a whole congregation. 1873 Symonds Gr. Poets viii. 251 The peculiar glories of Aristophanes style are its untutored beauties.

3. Not subject to a tutor or tutors.

1641 Milton Reform. ii. 72 Where under a free, and untutor'd Monarch, the..most prudent men..have in their power the supreme..determination of highest Affairs.

†Untwi·ght, pa. pple. Obs. [Un-[1] 8 b. Phaer also uses twight for 'touched'.] Untouched : intact.

1558 Phaer Æneid i. B ij, For her to him her father gaue a virgyn yet untwight. Ibid. ii. C iv b, Whiles yet hys kingdom stood untwight.

† Untwi·nd, v. Obs. rare. [Un-[2] 3.] = next. Hence Untwi·nd vbl. sb.

c 1460 Promp. Parv. (Winch) 323 On-wyyndyn or untwyndyn, destorquo. a 1542 Wyatt Penit. Ps. xxxvii. 104 All wicked folk reversed shall untwind. 1592 Wyrley Armorie 34 Their linked chaines do binde Bigge ships so fast, they cannot soone untwinde. 1597 Shaks. 2 Hen. IV. iv. 223 Why then let..gaping Wounds untwin'd the Sisters three. 1608 Machin Dumb Knt. ii. D 2 b, Euen with ease, and gentle tangled knots, Thou shalt vntwind thy clew of miseries. 1642 R. Carpenter Experience iii. v. 47 The untwinding of my heart from all idle affection to these low base things of earth.

Untwine, v. [Un-[2] 3. Cf. WFris. ont-, untwine, Du. ontwijnen.]

1. trans. To untwist; to undo by untwisting or disentangling. Freq. in fig. context.

c 1407 Lydg. Reson & Sens. 1252 To shewen..How the threde shal be vntwyned Of hir lyf. 1447 Bokenham Seyntys (Cloth.) 42 Orthian death shal vnwynde hir fatal web. 1551 T. Wilson Logike B ij b, Knitting together true Arguments, and vntwinding alknotty Subtiltees. 1577 Holinshed Chron. I. Hist. Irel. 14/1 This knotte (saith our Authour) might be vntwynded with more facilitie. 1601 Campion Bk. of Ayres ii. ix. 6 The sprites..Affect for pastime to vntwine her tressed haire. a 1656 Hales Gold. Rem. iii. (1673) 24 Idleness, Fulness, and Lust, they are a three-fold cord, twisted by the devil, and hardly untwined and severed by any man. a 1687 Waller Thyrsis, Galatea 41 Since the Sisters did so soon untwine So fair a thread, I'll strive to piece the line. 1793 Burns 'O Poortith cauld' i, O why should Fate sic pleasure have, Life's dearest bands untwining? 1813 Scott Rokeby iii. xxii. On his sad brow nor mirth nor wine Could e'er one wrinkled knot untwine. 1847 J. Martineau Chr. Life 347 Philosophy..endeavours to untwine the finished web of thought.

b. fig. To dissolve, undo, destroy.

13.. E. E. Allit. P. B. 757 'What for twenty,' quoth he tolke, 'vntwynez bot hem penne?' a 1470 Harding Chron. lxxiii. v, With hoost full great of Britons..On Douglas water the Saxons he did vntwine. 1532 Shaks. Cori. Lucr. 1145 This goodly flowre with stormis was vntwynde. a 1592 Sparowe 22 O cat..Thefynde was in thy mynde Whan thou my byrde untwynde. 1560 Daus tr. Sleidane's Comm. 274 b, So did also the friendship you..not a litle greue you, and full ofte hause assayed that the same might be vntwyned. 1594 Carew Huarte's Exam. Wits 322 At the instant when he beginneth to be shaped, he likewise beginneth to be vntwined. 1625 Quarles Sion's Sonn. ix. 1 The world cannot vntwine The joyfull twist of His heart and Mine. 1718 Pope Iliad xvi. 950 There ends thy glory! there the fates untwine The last, black remnant of so bright a line.

2. To detach, remove, release, extract, by untwisting. Also fig.

a 1568 Ascham Scholem. i. (Arb.) 75 Whom all the Siren songes of Italie could neuer vntwyne from the maste of Gods word. 1582 Stanyhurst Æneis iv. (Arb.) 108 When death hath vntwined my soule from carcas his holding. 1600 Fairfax Tasso xx. cxxx, His strong arme..She would haue thrust away, loos'd, and vntwisted. 1611 Shaks. Cymb. iv. ii. 59 Let the stinking-Elder (Greefe) vntwine His perishing roote with the encreasing Vine. 1799 Sheridan Pizarro i. i, He sued to..untwine the sword from my determined grasp. 1841 Browning Pippa Passes iii. 79 Untwine him the mass Of deeds which make up life. 1846 Landor Imag. Conv. Wks. II. 46/2 Some privy councillor..come to untwine and wheedle your secrets out of you.

3. intr. To become untwisted or undone.

1592 Arden of Feversham iv. v, So What, so familiare?.. Vntwyne those armes. Ales. I, with a sugred kisse let them vntwine. 1644 Milton Divorce (ed. 2) vi. 74 For strait..his silk'n breades untwine, and slip their knots. 1871 B. Taylor Faust II. iii. 266 Soon shall, I fear me, The sweet bond untwine!

Hence Untwi·ning vbl. sb.

1577 Holinshed Chron. I. Hist. Irel. 1 b, And that our Irishe hystorie..yeeldeth al these commodities, I trust the indifferent reader, vpon the vntwyning thereof, will not denie. 1626 Bacon Sylva § 404 Which is caused by the untwining of the Beard by the Moisture. 1664 Power Exp. Philos. iii. 177 Our thread by often untwining broke it self.

Untwineable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1609 J. Melton Sixteffold Politician v. 73 That damnable and vntwineable traine and owsell of perdition. 1617 J. Moore Mappe Mans Mort. iii. viii. 234 The most strong and vntwineable cable.

Untwined, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8, or f. Untwine v.) 1649 Lovelace Lucasta, A Forsaken Lady v, Must we..Be drag'd on still By the weake Cordage of your untwin'd will? Untwinkling, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10.) 1880 Agnes Giberne Sun, Moon & Stars 175 A brilliant untwinkling star-like form.

†Untwinod, ppl. a.[1] Obs.[1] [Un-[1] 8.] Unparted, undivided. c 1450 Mirour Saluacioun (Roxb.) v Ye blyssed Trinitee In o substance vntwynned. Untwinned, ppl. a.[2] [Un-[1] 8.] Cryst. Not furnished with a twin. 1879 Rutley Stud. Rocks x. 97 Untwinned crystals [of albite] are rare. 1888 — Rock-forming Min. 227. Untwi·ll, v. (Un-[2] 3.) a 1703 Wallis in Greenwood Eng. Gram. (1711) 283 Untwirling the twine that intwisteth between. Untwi·st, sb. (Un-[2] 3, 8.) A reversive twist. 1889 Telegr. Jrnl. 26 April, 2 Each coil of the cable..is then opens out receives a twist in the opposite direction, or 'untwist'.

Untwi·st, v. (Un-[2] 3 and 7.)

1. trans. To restore from a twisted state; to untwine. Also in fig. context.

1538 Elyot, Retexo, to vntwyste. 1587 Greene Penelope's Web Wks. (Grosart) V. 251 A shift to make her work endlesse, by vntwisting as much in the night as she wone in the day. c 1590 L. Bryskett Mourning Muse 128 Which made them eftsoones feare the dales of Pirrha shold..their fatall threds vntwist. 1626 Jackson Creed viii. x, § 1 The Some of God..began to untwist that triple cord, wherewith our first parents were bound by Satan. 1652 Milton Hippo 143 Untwisting all the chains that ty The hidden soul of harmony. 1700 Dryden Ovid, Pythagoreas Philos. 38 Restless they soon untwist the Web they spun. 1731 Swift Nymph going to Bed 19 She..Untwists a wire, till all her curious gums a set of teeth completely comes. 1760 R. Brown Compl. Farmer ii. 68 Hempen ropes cut small and untwisted, are beneficial [as manure] for lands. 1823 J. Badcock Dom. Amusem. 54 Hop plants, growing round a pole ..; if you untwist any, and confine them in the contrary direction, they die. a 1834 Coleridge Friend (1837) III. 213 Cutting the knot which it cannot untwist. 1860 Geo. Eliot Mill on Fl. iii. vi, Bob had drawn out..[and began] to untwist his pocket-handkerchief.

transf. 1834 Coleridge Table-t. (1835) II. 295 A serpent ..makes a fulcrum of its own body, and seems for ever twisting and untwisting its own strength.

b. fig. and in fig. context. To dissolve, break up, decompose.

1611 Speed Hist. Gt. Brit viii. vii. § 39. 408 The English supposing the Normans to have fled,..began in eager pursuit carelessly to vntwist and display their rankes. 1640 Sir J. Wray Speech in Rushworth Hist. Coll. (1692) I. 40 The Divisions of Great Britain have half untwisted our Long Union. a 1644 Quarles Hieroglyphikes i. 21 Whose errour-chasing beams..untwist The clouds of ignorance. 1663 Jer. Taylor Serm. Year i. xiii. 168 The faith of very many may so wretch..ly be untwisted, or else dissolved by violence, or ravel'd and intangled in weak discourses. 1727 Thomson To Mem. Newton 95 Ev'n light itself..Shone undiscover'd, till his brighter mind Untwisted all the shining robe of day. 1798 Wordsworth Prel. Wks. I. 14 Thy prismatic glass..untwisting, by its obliquities, those threads of light. 1896 A. Austin England's Darling i. i, The outlandish dogs..Untwisting what he bound, and to their will Enserfing all.

†2. To disentangle by explanation or exposition; to expound, make plain. Obs.

1577 tr. Bullinger's Decades 5/2 This is the brief summe of the holy fathers tradition, whiche it is best to vntwist more largely. 1606 Sylvester Du Bartas ii. iv. Magnif. 1324 Hes..at pleasure fresh such doubts, as..might have taskt, t'untwist, The Brachman, Druide, and Gymnosophist. a 1625 Fletcher Woman Pleas'd v. i, Tis a Witch sure, And by her means he came to untwist this Riddle. 1660 Jer. Taylor Worthy Communic. Introd. 8 The Holy Communion, is too much untwisted and nicely handled by the writings of the Doctors. 1773 Toplady in Boswell Johnson 7 May, You have untwisted this difficult subject with great dexterity.

3. intr. To loosen, detach, or set free, by untwining. Also fig.

1637 S. Marmion Cupid & Psyche i. iii. 394 He took her wrist, And wrung it hard, and did her hands untwist. 1658 Sir T. Herbert Trav. (ed. 2) 167 A raging storme..separated us; insomuch as we had hardly recovered our companies, had not the..jingling of the Cammels bells revoked, yea untwisted us out of these Caspian or Zagrian straits. a 1652 J. Smith Sel. Disc. iv. 86 Our souls,..untwisting themselves from all corporeal complications. 1692 Dryden Don Sebastian iii. i. fin. How much more than close embrac'd, Sucking each others Souls while we expire?..Emp. No I'll untwist you; I have occasion for your stay on Earth.

4. intr. To pass out of a twisted condition; to become untwined.

1589 Puttenham Eng. Poesie iii. xvii. 156, I will well that ye wise, The thred is spun, that never shall vntwist. a 1703 Wallis in Greenwood Eng. Gram. (1711) 282 If one of the twines of the twist do untwist, The twine that untwisteth, untwisteth the twist. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s. v. Hypermeter, The Cord or Gut twisting and untwisting.. will indicate the Change of Weather. 1786 Bonnycastle Astronomy xi. 184 As the thread untwists, the globe..will turn round its axis. 1825 J. Nicholson Operat. Mechanic 435 Either of the two pails x and y may..prevent the strands from untwisting. 1897 Grant Allen Type-writer Girl i, There..you shall see spring buds untwisting.

fig. 1653 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year i. ii. 22 His purposes untwist as easily as the rude conjuncture of uncombining cables. 1670 Eachard Cont. Clergy 67 Sometimes the words naturally fall asunder; ..sometimes they untwist.

Hence Untwi·st ppl. a., = Untwisted ppl. a.[2]

1607 Marston What you will ii. i, My spirit is untwist; My heart is raveld out in discontents. 1647 N. Ward Simple Cobler 30 When States disheld'd [= disheveled] are, and laws untwist, Wise men keep their tongues. 1652 Jer. Taylor Serm. for Year ii. xv. 190 By little and little our strongest resolutions be untwist, and crack in sunder.

Untwistable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.) 1876 Monthly Mag. XLII. 522 The origin of the profoundest mysteries, and the most untwistable associations. 1879 Thomson & Tait Nat. Phil. I. § 109 A perfectly flexible, untwistable cord.

Untwisted, ppl. a.[1] [Un-[1] 8.] Not twisted or twined.

1575 Turberv. Faulconrie 97 Threade it with untwisted threade. 1825 J. Neal Bro. Jonathan III. 323 Have you forgotten..how you broke away from us like the Philistine from the untwisted flax? 1865 Taylor Early Hist. Man. vii. 188 The warp consists of strands of un-twisted fibre. 1866 R. M. Ferguson Electr. 21 A magnetic bar, suspended by.. a few untwisted filaments of cocoon silk.

Untwisted, ppl. a.[2] [f. Untwist v.] Taken out of a twisted state.

1611 Florio, Sfilaccio, okame of vntwisted ropes. 1629 Ford Lover's Melancholy iv. 59 If the Fates Haue spun my thred and my spent clue of life Be now vntwisted. ? 1738 Warburton Div. Leg. ix. 1. (ed. 3) The single flaxen is not less real in the rainbow where it's rays become thus untwisted. 1848 Buckley Iliad 26 The ropes have become untwisted.

fig. a 1700 B. E. Dict. Cant. Crew, Untwisted, Undone, Ruin'd. 1756 Monitor No. 35. I. 329 Mrs. Bull..cries out, ..Lord, Doctor! we are all untwisted, all undone. 1785 Grose Dict. Vulgar T. s.v.

Untwisting, vbl. sb. [f. Untwist v.] The action or result of taking out of twist; also pl., untwisted fibres or threads.

1590 Percival, Dethlachra, vntwisting. 1611 Florio, Sfaccij, vntwistings, raueliings, lint for Chirurgions. 1651 Baxter Inf. Bapt. 92 There should be no difficulty in the untwisting of all this whole Mr. T. hath so ravelled. 1728 Chambers Cycl. s.v. Hypermeter, The Cord or Gut twisting and Untwisting in a Cord. 1875 R. F. Martin tr. Heures' Winding Mach. 27 Without any untwisting of the eight strands.

Untwitted, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1651 H. Vaughan Of the Benefit by our Enemies ad fin., Neither must wee leave them untwitted with that [saying] of Solon. † Untwi·tten, ppl. a. Obs.[2] (Meaning obscure.) 1613 R. C. Times' Whistle (1872) 332 When every gull may see his booke's vntwitten, And Epigrams as hot as fire, e're were written.

Unty·ing, vbl. sb. [f. Untie v.] The action of the vb.

1597 A.M. tr. Guillemeau's Fr. Chirurg. 45 b/2 Concerninge the vntyinge [of a bandage]. a 1637 B. Jonson Horace's Art Poetrie 274 Nor must the fable..have a god come in; except a knot Worth this vntying happen there. 1644 Hunton Vind. Trent. Monarchy vii. 55 The non observance of it by the King did not amount to an untying of the bond of subjection in the people. 1668 Dryden Ess. (ed. Ker) I. 86 For the contrivance of the plot, 'tis a vitiat essay; for the ..untying of it, 'tis so admirable, that [etc.]. a 1844 Campbell Song, 'How delicious' i, When two mutual hearts are sighing For the knot there's no untying. 1892 T. Hardy Tess xlv. 'Tess was the one person whose best combined strength with quickness in untying.

Unty·pical, a. (Un-[1] 7.) 1848 Mozley Ess. (1878) I. 345 It is not untypical of Luther's temper. 1884 Harper's Mag. Apr. 771/2 An instance, not untypical of London. † Untystel, adv. Obs.[1] (Obscure; perh. an error for unstyztel: see Stightle v.) 13.. Gaw. & Gr. Knt. 1114 Pay dronken & daylyeden, & dalten vntystel.

† Unu·cerate, ppl. a. Obs. (Un-[1] 8 b.) 1590 Barrough Meth. Physick v. xxxii. (1596) 356 Of an vnulcerate cancre, there often proceedeth an vlcerate tumor. 1634 Lowe's Chirurg. (ed. 3) iv. xvi. 115 The vnulcerate [cancer], is called the hidden Cancer. Unu·lcerated, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) [1775 Ash] 1879 St. George's Hosp. Rep. IX. 431 The ileum presented several as yet unulcerated swellings. Unu·llaged, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1646 in Picton L'pool Munic. Rec. (1883) I. 189, 65 tunnes of un-ulleged Wynes. Un-u·rita, a. (Un-[1] 7) 1817 Lady Granville Lett. (1894) I. 97 He says there is ultra men here whether the petit maître or grand polished manner of vieille cour Frenchmen.

Unundersta·ndable, a. (Un-[1] 7 b.)

a 1631 Donne Serm. i. (1634) 8 Let him have known..unundersta·ndable things, unreveiled decrees of God. a 1849 Southey Commonpl. Bk. Ser. iv. (1849) 40 The vile and ununderstandable Machabeo he ranks with Homer and Virgil! 1872 Brierley Cotters of Mossburn xxiv. 252 There is something very 'ununderstandable' going on between Lake Brundore and Louisa Gerrard. 1891 H. Heiman His Angel 46 He stammered a few un-understandable words.

Ununderstanding, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 10, 5 b.)

1611 Florio, Inintelligente, ununderstanding. a 1658 Lovelace Lucasta, Feinting, Let's walk hand in hand, And smile at this un-understanding land. 1880 Mrs. N. Crosland Mrs. Blake II. 219, I know that the most crystalline phrases ..have been dragged through the mud of common un-'understanding' usage. 1891 H. Heiman His Angel 77 The thoughtless ununderstanding girl was gone, and a blushing..woman stood there in her stead.

Ununderstood, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8 b.)

1639 Fuller Holy War iv. v. 174 With us they consent in ..the overplus of Merits, Services ununderstood, Indulgences. 1655 — Church Hist. i. § 50 English being..in the most Parishes of Wales utterly ununderstood. 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 537 The deep saying, ununderstood even by Joseph and Mary. 1880 Baring-Gould Mehalah vii, Some such vague sea of ununderstood, unestimated elements.

Ununrified, ppl. a. (Un-[1] 8.) 1862 H. Spencer First Princ. § 37 Knowledge of the lowest kind is ununified.

Ununiform (ynyə·nifɔ:m), a. (Un-[1] 7.)

1659 Allestree Gentl. Calling v, § 25. 85 Nor will they be so Ununiform, as not to have their Drink bear a full proportion with their Meat. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. i. 101 How unlatched and ununiform does it..make the Figure of some Families? 1749 Hurd Hor. Ars Poet. 54 Let the manners be uniform, or, if ununiform, yet consistently so, or uniformly ununiform. 1842 Gwilt Archit. Gloss. s.v. Capital The ununiform nature of the plan.

Ununiformed, a. (Un-[1] 9.) 1867 Motley Corr. (1887) II. 263, I, of course, was ununiformed, having left my official finery at Vienna. 1898 D. C. Murray Tales 140 Uniformed and ununiformed men were chaffing each other. Ununiformity. (Un-[1] 12.) 1749 Hurd Hor. Ars Poet. 54 Here is a manifest ununiformity. 1803 Monthly Mag. XV. 3 We now reserve only enough of the diphthongal spelling to add to the un-uniformity of our very anomalous language. Ununiformly, adv. (Un-[1] 11.) 1656 [? J. Serjeant] tr. T. White's Peripat. Inst. 171 It must always be mov'd ununiformly. 1891 C. Chapman Prerogativ Evol. 166 Any one familiar with the action of physical laws in masses of matter ununiformly composed and related unsymmetrically to forces external to it'. Ununiformness. (Un-1 12. Cf. Uniformism a.) 1716 S. Clarke Sermons Lett. 2 The different Attributes of which One Uniform Being are not a Variety of Parts, or an un-Uniformness (if I may so speak) of the Necessity by which it exists; but [etc.]. Ununitable, a. (Un-1 † b.) 1698 Cudworth Intell. Syst. 564 Minds or Intellects..who also are absolutely Ununitable to any Bodies. 1881 P. Brooks Camille of Lord 183 To us they seem to stand opposite, over against each other, ununited, ununitable. Ununitableness. (Un-1 12.) 1664 H. More Myst. Iniq. 336 The Ununitableness of the Kings of the Age into one Head. † Ununite, v. Obs. [Un-1 14.] trans. To abstain from uniting. 1596 R. L[incke] Diella, etc. F 1 b, You ruthlesse Fates.., Why toy you so in ununiting yes?

Ununited (ənyuːnəˈitɪd), ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1587 Golding De Mornay ii. 19 In vnvnited diuersitie wee finde waste. 1626 Sir D. Digges Sp. in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 302 Scotland..ununited, Ireland not settled in peace. 1658 Cudworth Intell. System 564 Minds or Intellects, they should..continue Pure Souls, Ununited to any Body. 1736 Butler Anal. i. iii. 59 Ten Men united, might be able to accomplish, what ten thousand..wholly ununited, could not. 1738 Warburton Div. Legat. I. 251 Ununited by, and ununited with the State. 1852 M. Arnold Tristr. & Iseult ii. 89 But, since living we were ununited, Go not far..from my grave. 1872 Ruskin Surg. (ed. 6) I. 301 Ununited Fractures and False Joints.

Ununiversitied, ppl. a. (Un-2 4 and 8.) 1655 Fuller Hist. Cambr. 14 On the Kings letters Patents Northampton was un-universitied, the Scholars therein returning to the place from whence they came.

Unupbraid'ded, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1682 Mrs. Behn City-Heiress ii. ii, Knowest thou not he has abus'd my fame, And does he think to pass thus unupbraided? 1683 — Ovid's Ep. Oenone to Paris 239 Then unupbraided with my wrongs thou'dst been. 1746 Young Nt. Th. ix. 695 Nor stands thy wrath deprive'd of its reproof, Or un-upbraided by this radiant choir. 1854 Swinburne Atalanta 1668 Each unupbraided, each without rebuke Convicted.

Unupbrai'ding, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1780 Mirror No. 109, The quiet and unupbraiding sorrows of Louisa. 1816 L. Richmond Let. in Grimshawe Mem. (1828) 362 Your affectionate unupbraiding, and liberal conduct. 1831 W. Sewell Clergyman. Recreat. (1835) 89 Friends whom we lov'd in anguish hide Their unupbraiding look.

Unupbrai'dingly, adv. (Un-1 11.) a 1721 Ken Hymns Evang. Poet. Wks. 1721 I. 96 A Conscience unupbraidingly sincere. Unuphe'ld, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 b.) 1897 Pollok Course T. vi. 692 God of truth..Thyself unmade, ungoverned, unpheld! 1850 Nichol Archit. Heav. 241 Shall aught that it contains be unpheld by the same preserving law? Unuplifted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1802 Wordsw. Excurs. ii. 575 Resting on its lid in silent grief their unuplifted heads. 1833 — Most sweet it is 1 With unuplifted eyes To pace the ground. 1891 J. L. Allen Sister Dolorosa x, She passed him with unuplifted eyes. Unupright, a. (Un-1 † 7.) 1585 Rep. Petyo Consult. Scot. III. 758 Throw sik craftis and unupricht dealing. [1775 Ash.] Unuprightness. (Un-1 12.) a 1680 T. Goodwin Work Holy Ghost iii. v, That sense of his sin and own Un-uprightness. Unurbana, a. (Un-1 7.) 1759 Sterne Tr. Shandy ii. ii, So, Sir Critic, I could have replied; but I scorn it. This language unurbane. † Unu'red, a. Obs.-1 [Un-1 9 + ure Eure sb.] Unfortunate, unhappy. c 1510 Songs (MS. Royal, App. 58) in Anglia XII. 268 But kepe hyt styll yn remembrance With my vnvrid desteny.

† Unu'red, ppl. a. Obs. [Un-1 8 + Ure v.] Unaccustomed, unused.

1567 Drant Hor., Sat. I. x, A Greek poeme I dreamed to indite, (A Romaine I dislyonde by sea, vnured so to write). 1610 Histrio-mast. iii. 241 This toung's unuir'd to carpe or contrary.

Unu'rged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.)

1. Not urged or incited to some course of action.

1590 Shaks. Com. Err. ii. ii. 115 The time was once, when thou vn-vrg'd wouldst vow, That neuer words were musicke to thine eare. 1648 Feltham Resolves i. xxxv. 33 If hee reuenles ought vn urged, my adiuice is..free. 1648 Herrick Hesper., Twelfe Night iii, Let not a man then be seen here, Who unurg'd will not drinke. 1838 Fr. A. Kemble Rec. Later Life I. 189 [The] teeming soil produced, unurged, the means of life. 1866 Geo. Eliot Sp. Gipsy 243 You..are brave, unurged by aught Save the sweet overflow of your good will.

2. Not thrust or pressed upon one.

1594 Kyd Cornelia iv. I. 260 Shall we then..Submit vs to vnurged slauerie? 1596 Shaks. Merch. v. ii. 10 Albee we sweare..an vn-urg'd Faith, To your proceedings. a 1614 Donne Biathanatos (1644) 37 Augustine, Anselm, and Hierome, betray themselves by unurged confessions. a 1689 Mas. Bent Fair Pyt. (1889) 9 She knew nothing urged that might debauch and invite him. 1728 Eliza Heywood tr. Mme. de Gomes's Belle A. (1732) II. 128 Being one day alone with his Son, he..left unurg'd those Arguments which he had prepar'd in his Mind.

Unu'rn, v. (Un-1 5.) 1837 A. Tennent Vis. Glencoe 48 Foul human relics grisly shown.. From the dark grave unurn'd. Unu'rned, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1830 Mangan (1903) 184 What time may unurned Ashes lie trodden in the churchyard dell. 1834 Ln. Houton Mem. Tour in Greece 95 Let him not be deeply mourned, As dead inglorious, or cast out unurned.

Unusable, a. (Un-1 † b.) 1825 Syd. Smith Wks. (1859) 428 All seems doubly dear in proportion as it is antiquated, worthless, and unusable. 1884 Engr. Illustr. Mag. May 494 [The cave] is now inaccessible and unusable. † Unu'sage, Obs.-1 (Un-1 12.) c 1374 Chaucer Boeth. ii. pr. vii. (1868) 57 What for difficulte of weyes and..what for defaute of vnusage [and] entergomounynge of marchaundise [L. commercii insolentia]. Unu'se. (Un-1 12.) 1611 Florio, Indisuevoius, vnuse, disuse. 1835 Wilson's Tales Border I. 280 Allowing..the heel o' a kelbuck to gain to unuse [= waste]. 1861 Dutton Cook P. Foster's Diss. III. 126 He spoke with that heavy breathing and unuse of the nose peculiar to Jews.

Unused (ənyuːˈzd), ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Unaccustomed (esp. to something, or with inf.).

1297 R. Glouc. (Rolls) 4367 Vor per ze abbeb nou vif ger of batayle vn-vsed be. c 1449 Pecock Repr. iv. iii. 431 Suche persoones as ben vnkunynge and vnvsid in vertuis. 1538 Elyot, Incuetus, vnvsed to be cutte. a 1586 Sidney Arcadia iii. xxvi, So that, vnused to a way of courtesie,..he hastily went away. 1604 Shaks. Oth. v. ii. 349 One, whose subdu'd Eyes, Albeit vnvsed to the melting moode, Drops teares. 1697 Dryden Æneid x. 815 Æneas couch'd his Spear, Unus'd to Threats, and more unus'd to Fear. 1741–2 Gray Agrippina 17 A thousand haughty hearts, unus'd to shake When a boy frowns. 1796 Mrs. D'Arblay Cecilia v. 138 [She was] unused to transact any sort of business for herself. 1827 Faraday Chem. Manip. ix. 235 The student who is unused to the examination of papers. 1868 Morris Earthly Par. I. 1. 412 Her gaoler's torches filled with light The dreary place, blinking her unused eyes. 1870 Ibid. III. iv. 362 He..felt the golden circle of the crown..upon his unused head.

transf. 1617 Campion Third Bk. of Ayres xxviii. 8 Hils [would prove] too high for my vnused pace.

2. Not made use of; unemployed.

1398 Trevisa Barth. De P. R. vi. xxix. (Bodl. MS.), Yren ..rosteb if it is to longe vnne vsed. c 1480 Henryson Fables, Fox. Wolf & H. ii, I hir oxin wes vnwsit, young and licht. 1546 Sc. Acts, Mary (1814) II. 472 he said remissione blank & obligationne..one vsit. 1590 Spenser F. Q. i. viii. 30 A bounch of keyes.., The which vnused rust did outergrow. 1604 Shaks. Ham. iv. iv. 39 (Q. 2), Sure, he..giue vs not That capabilitie.. To fist it vs vnused. 1819 Shelley Cenci v. iii. 125 Some dull old thing, Some outworn and unused monotony. 1860 Forster Gr. Remonstr. 37 A maxim not unused by even Norman kings. 1887 Spectator 22 Oct. 1415 One of the clerks, unused to being considered dangerous.

3. Not in use; unusual; unwonted. Now arch.

1513 Douglas Æneid vi. i. 33 By a quent vnvsit [L. insuetum] way to knaw, Towart the frosty poll artik he flaw. 1568 Grafton Chron. II. 390 Inuentyng flatteryng wordes and vnvsed termes. 1570 T. Norton Lowell's Catech. 32 b, Neither is it vnused among men,..to be suretie..for an other. 1637 G. Daniel Genius of Isle 417 My frozen wits,.. Enlivened by a Splendor far more great, Have vnvsed Raptures. 1670 R. McEwan? Tryst Non-conf. 127 Yet I wish you had..forborn the hard and unused expression of an Inward Crown. 1835 Browning Paracelsus i. 767 In unused conjuncture, When sickness breaks the body. 1867 Morris Jason vi. 497 Strange dainty things they ate, Of unused savour.

Hence Unu'sedness.

1593 Sidney's Arcadia (1598) v. 466 Comparing the vnvsedenesse of this act with the vnripenesse of their age. 1865 Mrs. Whitney Gayworthys i. (1879) 10 That air of unused-ness which a black silk dress..may keep.

Unuseful (ənyuːˈsful), a. [Un-1 7.] Unprofitable, useless. (Very common in 17th c.)

In later use chiefly with negatives.

1598 Dallington Meth. Trav. V 3, Bowling, carding, dicing, and other vnlawful and vnvseful games. 1624 Heywood Gunaik. v. 210 Gold and silver they despise, ..esteeming it rather an unusefull burden than a profitable merchandize. 1675 Grew Nature of Mixture 6 Which Definition..is both Vninteelligible, and Vnuseful. 1726 Leoni Alberti's Archit. I. 57 b, A new, and unuseful Invention. 1788 Priestley Lect. Hist. i. iii. 32 It is no unseasonable sentiment that we collect from reading [etc.]. 1817–8 Cobbett Resid. U. S. (1822) 216 This may be no unuseful hint for the English Boroughmongers. 1847 J. Mackintosh Pelham Ld. n. 160 Still-life was theirs, well pleasing to themselves, Nor yet unuseful.

b. Const. to; also for, towards.

1625 K. Long tr. Barclay's Argenis i. xx. 133 The streames vnuseful to the valleis, and only giuing fuel for bravery. 1653 H. More Antid. Ath. ii. x. § 3 Birds that will flutter with their wings when..as yet [they are] utterly unuseful for flying. 1733 W. Crawford Infidelity xvi, The Law of Nature, became unuseful to the End it was made for. 1756 Burke Subl. & B. iv. i, Something not unuseful towards a distinct knowledge of our passions. 1793 Residence in France (1797) II. 10 My ideas..may not be unuseful to..my country.

Unu'sefully, adv. [Un-1 11. Cf. prec.] Uselessly, unprofitably.

1626 Ld. Conway in Rushw. Hist. Coll. (1659) I. 231 Whereas divers jealousies have been raised in the House, that the Moneys have been expended unusefully. a 1680 (Manyan) Antidotum Lactis (1681) 1. 180 Such as will not unusefully nor unseasonably conclude this First Part. 1747 Phil. Trans. XLIV. 588, I thought it might not unusefully be joined with Alum. 1799 E. Du Bois Piece Family Bieg. I. 122, He is not usefully occupied. 1885 Manch. Exam. 12 Jan. 5/1 Prudent men..might discharge such functions not unusefully.

Unu'sefulness. [Un-1 12.] Uselessness.

1694 R. Burthogge Reason ix. 268 His notion of a Person, the unusefulness of it to the salving of the Holy Trinity shewed. c 1850 Jas. Skinner in Life (1883) 120 The notion of —'s usefulness to the Church and of —'s so called unusefulness is a purely human..notion. 1886 N. Amer. Rev. Sept. 304 Privolous unusefulness, or passion for diversion and excitement.

Unu'shered, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 c.) 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. Introd. A 5 Wonder not, that I appear un-usher'd in with a Train of Encomiums. 1865 W. G. Palgrave Arabia II. 28 Death unshrouded in by any direct mortal change. † Unu'sing, vbl. sb. Obs. (Un-1 13.) c 1550 Chekk Matt. xxv. 26 Neglecting and vnusing of his commandmentes. 1598 Florio, Disuiauza, disuse, an vnusing. † Unu'sing, ppl. a. Obs.-1 (Un-1 10.) Not usually receiving. 1608 Daniel Philotas 267 My brother..I left behinde, lest the conspirators Seeing him here vnusing to this place,..might shift away.

Unu'sual, a. [Un-1 7 and 5 b.] Not usual; uncommon; exceptional.

In common use from c 1630.

1582 Stanyhurst Æneis ii. (Arb.) 60 Priamus..On rusty shoulders sloa clapt his vnusual armoure. 1596 Shaks. Tam. Shr. iii. ii. 98 Some Commet, or vnusual prodigie. 1628 Wither Brit. Remeuth. 284 God will..Put some vnusual Plague in execution. 1682 Lister Godartius Of Insects 28 This is a Rare and unusuall Catterpillar. 1724 Swift Drapier's Lett. iv. A new governor, coming at an unusual time, must portend some unusual business. 1773 Life N. Prunelle 56, I returned to my Book.. in a Situation quite unusual to what I had ever before experienced. 1821 Scott Kenilw. xii, Varney received his profligate servant with a rebuke of unusual bitterness. 1877 Huxley Physiogr. 196 A cloud of unusual size and shape was seen hanging over the mountain.

Hence Unusua'lity.

1799 W. Taylor in Robberds Mem. (1843) I. 229 They have ..an unusuality which startles. 1807 Southey Let. to Y. May 97 Jan., From this unusuality it would have a better chance of being read. a 1849 Poe Marginalia lvi, It is to be said of Sallust..that his obscurity, his unusuality of expression,..bore the impress of his genius.

Unu'sually, adv. [Un-1 11.] In an unusual manner; to an unusual extent; uncommonly, exceptionally.

1614 Chooke Body of Man 263 If her monthly courses do stop vnvsually. 1620 T. Granger Div. Logike 246 More obscurely, and vnusually when the negative particle is set before the conjunction discretive. 1796 Mrs. D'Arblay Cecilia I. 355 Camilla, unusually thoughtful, walked alone into the garden. 1818 Scott Hrt. Midl. x, She was unusually cross and fretful. 1871 Le Fanu Rose & Key II. 123 Very unusually for him, he was first to speak.

Unu'sualness. [Un-1 12.] The quality of being unusual or exceptional.

1559 W. Wilkinson Confut. Fam. Love To Rdr., The vnusualnesse of their Methode. 1626 C. Potter tr. Sorpi's Hist. Quarrels 399 Beleeuing it an indignity (besides the vnusualnesse of the matter) which would diminish his Reputation. 1668 Wilkins Real Char. 9 Variety, the way of pronunciation, according to the unusualness and difficulty of several sounds to several Countries. 1728 Entertainer No. 43. 306 Some Persons..wondered at the Unusualness of his Running in that Place. a 1754 Lord Hervey Hist. Engl. (1752) IV. 402 The unusualness of the thing served to countenance the unreasonable oureties. 1836 M. Scott Cruise Midge I. 120 Totally unconscious of the unusualness of her costume. 1876 Geo. Eliot Dan. Der. iv, The answer may seem to be..in..a certain unusualness about her, a declination of will.

† Unu'suring, ppl. a. Obs.-1 (Un-1 10.) 1622 Middleton Hon. & Virt. in Bullen O. Pl. VII. 361 All the wealth Which thou with an unusuring hand hath got.

† Unu'tile, a. Obs. Also Sc. 5 wnwtyle, 6 onutil. [Un-1 5 b.] Useless; = Inutile a.

c 1425 Wyntoun Cron. ii. viii. 900 (Cott. MS.), Jai þat duelt in to þai lie Wnhonest was and wnwtyle. 1541 R. Copland Galyen's Terap. B iv, But after ye the present dysease is all togyther knowen, than the cause prymytyfe is totally vnutile. 1549 Compl. Scot. 28 The bile..is vorme ande cassin auaye as ane thing onutil to serue to do ony gude verk.

Unu'tilized, ppl. a. (Un-1 8, 5 b.) 1868 W. R. Greg Lit. & Soc. Judgm. 466 It is too probable that the negro race..is doomed..to pass away neglected and unutilized. Unutterabi'lity. (Un-1 12. Cf. next.) 1837 Carlyle Fr. Rev. ii. i. iii, They come; with hot unutterabilities in their heart.

Unu'tterable, a. and sb. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

A. adj. 1. Transcending utterance; inexpressible, ineffable; = Unspeakable a. 1.

a 1586 Sidney De Mornay (1587) 33 The vnutterable cause which Plato teacheth vs vnder two names. 1621 Burton Thierry & Theod. ii. i, He is, Sir, The most unutterable coward that e'er nature Blest with hard shoulders. 1652 Benlowes Theoph. v. lxxviii, That most unutterable blaze Of Heaven's all-luminating rays. 1748 Hervey Gr. Flower Garden 115 One transient Glimpse of those unutterable Beatitudes would captivate our souls. 1771 Beattie Minstrel i. xliv, Rings, that suckle an infernal brood, And pyn in caves the unutterable train. 1806 J. Beresford Miseries Human Life iv. xxxii, A barrow of cat's meat, the unutterable contents of which employ your eyes and nose. 1831 James Phil. Augustus I. vi, The unutterable multitude of weathercocks, with which every pinnacle of the castle was adorned. 1873 Proctor Expanse Heav. 304 By unutterable pace the light swept to them.

absol. 1896 Edin. Rev. Oct. 302 The vision of the unterable passes into the vision of the unutterable.

b. Of sorrow, anger, or other emotion.

1658 T. Wall Charact. Enemies Ch. 9 The carnal delights which he has promised you will turn to unutterable dolours of soul. 1697 Congreve Mourn. Bride iv. vii, What means these Tears, but Grief unutterable? 1707 E. Smith Phaedra & Hipp. iv. 50 Wounds my Soul! To wounds my Soul! To wounds of your unutterable Sorrows! 1766 Goldsm. Vicar xxix, Our bliss shall be unutterable. 1832 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 762 Yours, with unutterable and unuttered love and regard. 1880 'Ouida' Moths II. vi. 185 She turned her face with unutterable scorn..on it.

c. In the phr. unutterable things.

a 1711 Ken Psyche Poet. Wks. 1721 IV. 299 Bless'd Paul.. was..heav'nly things unutterable taught. [Cf. 2 Cor. xii. 4] 1797 Thomson Seasons 848 They..talked the flowing Heart, Or sigh'd and look'd unutterable Things! 1791 W. Maxwell in Boswell Johnson (1831) I. 381 Jacob Behmen, whom Law alleged..to have seen unutterable things. 1818 Byron Juan i. xcv, Juan wander'd by the glassy brooks, Thinking unutterable things. 1873 Black Pr. Thule ii, Sheila..rarely speaks, but looks unutterable things with her soft..eyes.

2. a. That may not be uttered or spoken.

1656 Cowley Davideis iv. 260 Witness th' unutterable Name, there's nought Of private ends into this question brought. 1708 Watts Horæ Lyricæ (1761 My Tongue ..with a noble Aim Attempts th' unutterable Name, But faints. 1883 Whitelaw Sophocles, Ajax 773 Dread words, unutterable, back he flung.

b. Incapable of being uttered; unpronounceable.

1852 Trnl. Ethnol. Soc. (1854) III. 271 The peculiarly harsh, deep-toned guttural, unknown and unutterable to the European. 1867 Whitney Lang. iii. 95 Sounds..in the alphabet of one tongue which are unutterable by the speakers of another.

B. sb. 1. An unutterable thing.

1788 J. Newton in W. Roberts H. More (1835) II. 126 The Apostle Paul..was rapt into the third heavens, saw invisibles, and heard unutterables. 1797 Mrs. A. M. Bennett Beggar Girl II. 51 Rosa did not faint or betray any of the unutterables some of our young readers may expect.

2. pl. Trousers. (Cf. Unmentionable sb.)

1843 Mrs. Romer Rome, Doro, etc. I. 52 His..short unutterables, garnished down the seams with silver buttons.

1860 Slang Dict. 242.

Hence Unu·tterableness.

1681 H. More Exp. Dan. iii. 75 The ineffableness and unutterableness of the admirable Union of the Humane nature with the Divine. 1890 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ I. 162 With what unutterableness of meaning, we breathe the prayer!

Unu·tterably, adv. [f. prec.] Inexpressibly, indescribably; unspeakably.

1746 Hervey Reft. Hieron Garden iii At that awful, that unutterably important Juncture. 1801 Coleridge Lett. (1895) 352, I need not observe..how unutterably silly and contemptible these opinions would be. 1866 Mrs. Whitney Leslie Goldthwaite xi. 111 ..thank you unutterably, if you'll only let me have my way in this. 1883 ‘Mrs. Alexander’ At Bay viii, The sweet eyes were unutterably sad.

Unu·ttered, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. Not given out in trade. rare.

1463 Cases bef. King's Council (Selden) xiv For which cause the seid wolles hen yet as by youre seid suppliaunt unuttered. 1618 Gaunton Glory Eng. i. ix. 77 That the countrey commodities might be vnuttered.

2. Not uttered or expressed.

1631 J. Reading Guide Holy City 347 Hee cannot know the vnuttered secrets of the heart. 1696 Tate & Brady Ps. cxxxix. 4 Thou know'st..My yet unutter'd Words intent. a 1771 Gray Dante 5 Anguish, that unutter'd wrings My inmost Heart. 1798 Southey St. Patrick's Purgatory xxvi, How should he pass that molten flood?.. A Fiend, as in a dream, Thus!' answer'd the unutter'd thought. 1844 A. B. Welby Poems (1867) 72 As..meeting glances tell The unuttered tale of love. 1883 J. Parker Tyne Ch. 277 Self-control..begins upon the subtle and unuttered thought.

absol. 1843 Carlyle Past & Pr. III. v, The cloudy-browed, Practicality..has in him what transcends all logic-utterance: a Congruity with the Unuttered.

Unuxo·rial, a. (Un-1 7.) 1877 Blackmore Cripps xxi, Unconjugal, perhaps, is what I mean; unuxorial, or what it may be.

Unva·ccinated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1871 Daily News 28 Jan., We need..somebody to look after unvaccinated children. 1883 Lyon Playfair in Scotsman 25 June 7/1 In this way nearly half..of the unvaccinated die. Unva·cillating, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1821 Scott Kenilw. xvii, Like one..whose only safety consists in moving onwards, by firm and unvacillating steps. 1825 Beddoes Lef. in Poems (1851) 166 In the unvacillating soar of song. †Unva·dable, *a. Obs. (Un-1 7 b. See Vade v.) 1611 Cotgr., Immarcessible, incorruptible, vnadeable, vnwitherable.

Unvail, obs. f. Unveil v.

†Unvai·lable, a. Obs. Also 5 Sc. wnwalable, 6 vnuaylable, etc. [Un-1 7 b.] Of no avail; unavailing; useless.

a 1500 in Rattis Raving, etc. 24 Al that is bot vanite and lycht, transitoure lythine, wnwalable. 1550 Atkynson tr. De Imitatione III. l. (1893) 236 Mannes helpe is but vayne & vnuaylable in such nedis. 1612 T. Taylor Comm. Titus iii. 5 Without which..it would be vnuailable to regeneration. 1679 C. Nesse Antichrist 228 Julian the ad. who threw Peters keys into Tyber as unvaileable.

Unvai·n, a. (Un-1 7.) 1863 Cowden Clarke Shaks. Char. xvi. 396 Her habit of speech is perceptibly un-vain. 1897 Harper's Mag. Apr. 748 A tyrant may be unvain.

Unvalei·nglorious, a. (Un-1 7, 8 b) 1650 Bulwer Anthropomet. i. 11 This ought not to be accounted among the non-natural or unvaletudinary figures. †Unva·lid, a. Obs. (Un-1 7, 5 b.) 1658 W. Burton Itin. Anton. 172 Where I found not sufficient proof for what I met with..I rejected it as invalid. a 1660 Contemp. Hist. Irel. (Ir. Archæol. Soc.) I. 133 Why did you..embrace such a groundless and unvalid a peace?

Unva·luable, a. [Un-1 7 b, 5 b.]

†1. Of inestimable value; =Invaluable a. 1. Obs. (Common in 17th c.)

1569 T. Norton Warning agst. Papists A ij, Thinke vpon the..miseries that we all shalbe like to susteine by losse of her vnualuable presence. 1591 Horsey Trav. (Hakl. Soc.) 160 The riches..carried owt of these cities..was unvaluable. a 1616 Beaum. & Fl. Lit. Pr. Lawyer iii. 1, That Jewel, Because it had no flaw, you held unvaluable. 1691 W. Nicholls Answ. Naked Gospel 21 When he hath sent his only begotten Son..to purchase our Redemption by such an unvaluable price. 1691 Ray Creation II. (1692) 4 The use of our Hand, that unvaluable Instrument. 1712 Lond. Gaz. No. 5037/6 The Blessings of Peace are unvaluable.

†b. Incalculable; = Invaluable a. 1 b. Obs.

1638 Rous Heav. Acad. 132 It is an unvaluable losse, that men doe so much cleave toward Teacher from the inward. a 1661 Fuller Worthies, Yorks. III. (1662) 225 Debasing the Forraign estimation of our Cloth to the unvaluable damage of our Nation. a 1683 Oldham Rem. Wks. (1686) 6 Her Dowry..Which..we never gain But with unvaluable Cost.

2. Of no value, worthless; = Invaluable a. 2. Now rare.

1615 T. Adams England's Sickness 57 If nature..deny health, how vnualuable are their riches. a 1674 Clarendon Surv. Leviath. (1676) 55 To render those precious words unvaluable and of no signification. 1748 R. Morris Ess. Anc. Archit. 89 The unvaluable Deformities of Singleness and Novelty. 1766 Museum Rust. VI. 15, I think the burnet so unvaluable, as to design to root it out of my ground. 1869 Ruskin Unto this Last (1862) 118 in proportion as it leads away from life it is unvaluable or malignant.

Hence Unva·luableness.

1665 Dr. Ormonde in Earl Orrery St. Lett. (1742) 133 The cry was so great, upon the unvaluableness of the clothes given to the soldiery, that [etc.].

†Unva·lue, *v. Obs. [Un-1 6 b.] trans. To deprive of value. 1550 Balf Eng. Votaries II. 33 Peruersely alleging Malachyes prophecye, as though [it]..in hys mouthe myght vnualue or dyssable their masses.

Unva·lued, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, 5 b.]

1. Not estimated or fixed in value; extremely great or valuable. Now rare.

1586 Marlowe 1st Pt. Tamburl. I. ii, Whatsoeuer you esteeme of this successe, and losse vnvalued, Both may inuest you Empresse of the East. 1594 Spenser Amoretti lxxvii, There in a siluer dish did ly twoo golden apples of vnualued price. 1607 Middleton Fum. Lect. i. ii, Art or nature never yet could set A valued price to her vnualued worth. 1638 Alevn Hen. VII, 73 He..drew him clad In furniture of an vnvalued worth. 1662 H. Hibbert Body of Divinity II. 30 The saving benefits of his vnvalued passion. 1713 Johnson Guard. No. 4 ¶ 3, I have been so happy in my searches..that I have found unvalued repositories of learning. 1736 Thomson Liberty v. 503 The kind Arts, that of unvalu'd price, The fam'd and only picture, easy, gives. 1820 Shelley Arethusa 60 Through the weltering floods, Over heaps of unvalued stones [=jewels].

b. Not subjected to formal valuation.

1807 Ann. Rev. V. 176 If real property, instead of passing entire and unvalued to the heir at law, were put up to the highest bidder.

2. Not regarded as of value.

1602 Shaks. Ham. I. iii. 19 Hee may not, as vnualued persons doe, Carue for himselfe. 1615 G. Wither Fidelia 70 Though my faith must now despised be, Vnprizd, vnualued at the lowest rate. 1670 Clarendon Contempl. Ps. Tracts (1727) 740 The inestimable, tho' unvalued benefit of health, we seldom thank God for. 1823 Mrs. Hemans Siege Valencia, I, 1 Poor unvalued life! fair honour, in my wild despair, As an unvalued gem upon the waves. 1852 Mrs. Stowe Uncle Tom's C. xxxv, A hard-tempered sire, on whom that gentle woman had wasted a world of unvalued love. 1879 Longfellow Masque of Pandora Ser. I. (1879) 203 Recalling and confirming our own unvalued sensations and perceptions.

Unva·mped, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1658 Ford Lady's Trial I. i, The newest news, unvampt. [1775 Ash.] 1880 E. Cornwall Glos. 105 Unvamped, not added to or embellished.

Unva·nquishable, a. Also 4 unuenkus-, 5 Sc. unvencusable. [Un-1 7 b.] Incapable of being vanquished or overcome.

1382 Wyclif Wisd. v. 20 Ot shal take the sheeld vnuenkusable. 1456 Sir G. Haye Bk. Knychtheie vii. (S.T.S.) 56 Man has..stark curage unvencusable. 1561 T. N(orton) tr. Calvin's Inst. iii. xxi. 239 The vpholdyng stay of sounde sthance..is make vnvanquishable amongst many dangers. 1613 Jackson Creed I. xv. § 3 Ouid faines Nisus his vnuanquishable fortune, to have been seated in one haire. 1657 Earl Monm. tr. Parnia's Pol. Disc. 162 He waged War with people..who were till then thought unvanquishable. 1728 Eliza Heywood tr. Mme. de Gomez's Belle A. (1732) II. 76 Able to make some little Incroachments on that Liberty which seem'd unvanquishable. 1872 Shelley Q. Mab III. 120 Toil and unvanquishable penury. 1864 Dickens Mut. Fr. I. ii, He is only stunned by the unvanquishable difficulty of his existence.

Unva·nquished, ppl. a. Also 4 vnuenkushid, 5 vnuenquisce, 6 Sc. unvencust, wnwencust, etc. [Un-1 8.] Not vanquished or overcome; unsubdued.

1382 Wyclif Eccliis. xviii. 7 God alone..dwelleth vnuenkushid kingis vttiteste ende. †a 1400 Morte Arth. 2049 The vassalage of Viterbe to daye schalle be reuengede! Vnuenquiste for pis place voyde schalle I neuer! c 1510 More Picus Wks. 23 Enforce thy self..to stande, Unvainquished against the assaults might. 1548 Udall, etc. Erasm. Par. John xvi. 97 b, Ye shalbe strongly my spirite strong and vnuanquished. 1614 Gorges Lucan vi. 221 Deare mates we yet vnquishd stand. 1692 Dryden Æneis v. 290 Unvanquish'd Scylla now alone remains. 1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) II. 49 The gods conceal, lest long our strength May stand unvanquish'd. 1820 Shelley Prometh. Unb. I. 315 Tis but some passing spasm, The Titan is unvanquished still. 1883 J. Parker Apost. Life II. 273 Such an unvanquished devil mocks the impotent exorcist.

Unva·ntaged, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1791 Cowper Iliad XI. 868 Yet, even thus, unvantag'd and on foot, Superiour honours I that day acquir'd To theirs who rode.

Unva·riable, a. Now rare. (Un-1 7 b and 5 b.)

c 1425 Mary of Oignies II. viii. in Anglia VIII. 169/40 Pe most soueryn sympyl and vnvarybil magestes. c 1440 Pallad. on Husb. I. 354 Grauellis dolue in ij naturis vary: In red, & hoor, & blak vnvariable. a 1586 Spenser De Mornay (1587) 1. 5 Wee must imagine..of all these so constant diuersities, one (vnuariable) alwaies like it selfe. 1622 Wotton Elem. Archit. 8 A steadie and vnuariable light. 1697 Collier Ess. Mor. Subj. II. 189 It becomes the Greatness of the Deity, to work by the most comprehensive, unvariable Methods. 1738 Warburton Div. Legat. II. 213 In the fullest and most unvariable Manner. 1759 Johnson Rasselas xlviii, She..would gladly be fixed in some unvariable state. 1896 W. M. Thomson Leaders of Chr. & Anti-Chr. 74, ? To impeach a fixed and unvariable creed is to build prison walls round the soul.

Hence Unva·riableness; Unva·riably adv.

1612 Florio, Inuariabilita, vnuariablenesse. 1644 Featly Roma Ruens 7 The immutability of our faith, or unvariableness of the doctrine..of the church. 1734 Kames Princ. Crit. Sens. (1799) 13 The real right..continues unvariably the same till the last farthing be recovered.

Unva·riant, a. [Un-1 7, 5 b.] Unchanging. 1582 Stanyhurst Æneis IV. (Arb.) 111 His mynd vnuariant [L. immota] doth stand, tears vanyeize doe gutter.

Unva·ried, ppl. a. (Un-1 8 and 5 b.)

1570 Levins Manip. 51 Vnuaried, inuariatus. 1690 Locke Hum. Und. II. xiv. § 13, 87 Whether he can keep one unvaried single Idea in his Mind without any other. 1748 Anson's Voy. III. iii. 328 The equable and unvaried character which he had hitherto preserved. 1791 Newte Tour Eng. & Scot. 2 The unvaried and uninteresting voids of life. 1840 Thirlwall Greece lvii. VII. 241 He seasoned the plain unvaried meal by his cheerful..conversation. 1879 G. Allen Colour Sense iv. 38 The unvaried panorama of green overhead and brown beneath.

Hence Unva·riedly adv.

1780 M. Madan Thelyphthora II. 242 The word..which we have as uniformly and unvariedly translated adulterys.

Unva·riegated, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) a 1763 Shenstone Ess. Men Wks. 1768 II. 130 Large, unvariegated, simple objects have the best pretensions to sublimity. 1846 Worcester (citing Edin. Rev.).

Unva·rnished, ppl. a. [Un-1 8.]

1. fig. Of statements, etc.: Not embellished or rendered specious; plain, direct.

1604 Shaks. Oth. I. iii. 90, I will a round vn-varnish'd Tale deliuer, Of my whole course of Loue. 1780 Burke Sp. at Bristol Wks. III. 367 This is a true, unvarnished, undisguised state of the affair. 1790 Wolcot (P. Pindar) Adv. Future Laureat II. i, Were I monarch of this mighty isle! By verse unvarnish'd should my merits smile. 1806 Surr Winter in Lond. II. 238 State to this company, without exaggeration, and without palliation, your own unvarnished story! 1883 Miss M. Betham-Edwards Disorners xxxi, Valerian..had set out with the intention of adhering to the unvarnished truth, but finally ended in romancing.

b. Of persons, etc.: Unsophisticated, unpolished; plain and simple.

1827 Pollok Course T. viii. 107 A congregation..Of unappendaged and unvarnished men; Of plain, unceremonious human beings. 1831 [Mary Berry] Soc. Life Eng. & France 192 Strong appeals to all the unvarnished feelings of human nature. 1864 Mrs. H. Wood Verner's Pride xii, Lady Verner liked Lord Garle..ten times better than she liked unvarnished Jan.

2. Not covered with, or as with, varnish.

1758 Reid tr. Macquer's Chym. I. 372 Into an unvarnished earthen dish put the quantity of Tin you intend to calcine. 1784 Cowper Task vi. 174 The deep dark green of whose unvarnish'd leaf, illumines now The bright profusion of her scatter'd stars. 1875 Sir T. Seaton Fret-Cutting 33 The mortification of ultimately finding some place left unvarnished or unfinished.

Hence Unva·rnishedly adv.

1824 Hogg Tales & Sk. V. 68, I had kept by the naked truth too unvarnishedly.

Unva·rying, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.)

1690 Locke Hum. Und. II. xiv. § 18 We cannot keep by us any standing unvarying measure of Duration. 1757 Akenside Pleas. Imag. III. 418 With contempt I passed On that tame garb, and those unvarying paths. a 1763 Shenstone Elegies iii. 52 The generous rustics mourn'd the friendly swain, But Pow'r and Wealth's unvarying cheek was dry! 1809 Mathias Purs. Lit. (ed. 10) 320 note, At Ackermann's Boarding houses, the expences of which are liberal, unvarying, and regulated. 1825 Southey Tale of Paraguay iv. xxx, All was verdant there throughout the unvarying year. 1897 Mary Kingsley W. Africa 56 Apparently endless walls of mangrove, unvarying in colour, unvarying in form, unvarying in height.

Hence Unva·rying·ly adv.; Unva·ryingness.

1814 Shelley Est. & Lett. (1882) 151 Mediocrity alone seems unvaryingly to escape rebuke. 1852 Spencer Soc. Stat. 40 An unvaryingness which renders the eclipse of a hundred years hence predicable to a moment! 1861 Geo. Eliot Silas M. xvii, His..more wavering nature, too averse to facing difficulty to be unvaryingly simple and truthful.

Unva·scular, a. (Un-1 7.) 1849 Owen Comp. Anat. Invert. 224 In the Diodon the dental plates consist wholly of hard or unvascular dentine. Unva·lted, ppl. a. (Un-1 8.) 1589 Ive Fortiffic. 25 As for the passage from one flanke vnto another, that may be left vnuaulted. 1777 T. Warton Ode Vale-Royal Abbey 51 Beneath yon tower's unvaulted gate, Forlorn she sits. Unva·lting, ppl. a. (Un-1 10.) 1797 Mathias Purs. Lit. iv. 338 Yet with unvaulting sober wishes blest, Ambition fled with envy from my breast.

Unvei·l, v. [Un-2 4 and 4 b.]

1. trans. To free (the eyes, etc.) from a veil so as to give clearer sight. Also in fig. context.

1599 Warn. Faire Wom. II. 872 Now she unvailes their sight, and lets them see The horror of their foule immanity. 1640 Hubbert Pill Immodesty 109 Hereby shamefastnesse is unvailed. 1678 Butler Hud. III. ii. 1165 Truth no more unvail'd your Eyes, Than Maggots are convinc'd to Flies.

2. To disclose, display, allow to appear, by removing a veil or covering.

1657 Thornley tr. Longus' Daphnis & Chloe 43 Daphnis ..could not be merry, because he had seen..her beauty which before was not unveiled. 1692 Dryden Don Sebastian I. i, Unveil the Woman; I wou'd view the Face That warm'd our Mufti's Zeal. 1754 Gray Progr. Poesy 86 What time..To him the mighty Mother did unveil Her awful face. 1797 Mrs. Radcliffe Italian xxvii, I claim the privilege..unaverred me, and bid you unveil your countenance. 1817 Shelley Rev. Islam I. xx, She unveiled her bosom. 1820 — Witch Atlas Ded. vi, If you unveil my Witch, no priest nor primate Can shrive you of that sin.

fig. 1667 Milton P. L. iv. 608 Till the Moon Rising in clouded Majestie, at length Apparent Queen unvaild her peerless light. 1725 Pope Odyssey vi. 56 When the gay morn unveils her smiling ray. 1747 Hervey Contempl. Night (1748) II. 81 She unveils her peerless Light, and becomes 'the Beauty of Heaven'.

b. absol. and refl. Also fig.

1770 Glover Leonidas (ed. 5) x. 170 She unveils, Then with a voice, as countenance compos'd, Go, Medon [etc.]. 1819 Scott Ivanhoe xxxvii, The Grand Master commanded Rebecca to unveil herself. 1852 J. H. Newman Two Worlds i, Unveil, O Lord, and on us shine In glory and in grace.

c. spec. To remove the covering from (a statue, etc.) so as to display it for the first time in public.

1865 Punch 23 Sept. 77 Paulina (Britannia) unveils the Statue. 1884 American VII. 218 The statue..was unveiled recently at Utrecht.

3. fig. To uncover, disclose, display, reveal.

1606 Shaks. Tr. & Cr. III. iii. 200 The prouidence..Keepes place with thought; and almost like the gods, Doe thoughts vnuaile in their dumbe cradles. 1638 Chillingw. Relig. Prot. 1. Ded. § 3 The lustre of this blessed Doctrine I have here endeavored to unclood and unveile. 1700 Dryden tr. Ovid, Pythagoras Philosophy. 212 For I will..Dark Oracles unveil, and open all the Skies. 1796 Kirwan Elem. Min. (ed. 2) I. p. ix, Hitherto its treasures have been unveiled only to my eyes. 1860 Pusey Min. Proph. 421 Man veils foul deeds under fair words; God, in His word, unveils the foulness. 1885 Mrs. Alexander At Bay viii, What secrets would that meeting unveil?

2. To display to the sight; to make visible.

1656 Cowley Davideis v. 804 When the new Day of Night Did the moist world unvail to humane sight. 1740 Dyer Ruins Rome 36 While the vine-mantled brows The pendent gouts unveil. 1791 Mrs. Radcliffe Rom. Forest ii, Unveiling the whole face of Nature. 1821 Shelley Hellas 604 The splendour of the moon, When as the wandering clouds unveiled or hid Her boundless light. 1872 Jenkinson Guide Eng. Lakes (1879) 115 The summit is gained, and an exquisite prospect is unveiled.

4. intr. To become free from a veil or covering.

1685 H. Vaughan Silex Scintl. i. 73 When first thy Eies unveil, give thy Soul leave To do the like. 1849 Longf. Lighthouse vii, Eager faces, as the light unveils, Gaze at the tower.

Hence Unveiler; Unveiling vbl. sb. and ppl. a.

1674 Boyle Excell. Theol. i. i. 44 Much better encomiasts of the Divine mysteries..than * unvailers. 1611 Florio, Disuelamento, an vnveiling. 1768–74 Tucker Lt. Nat. (1852) II. 421 Lest they should esteem the very unveiling of mystery indiscreet. 1854 Gosse (title), The Aquarium: an Unveiling of the Wonders of the Deep Sea. 1885 Harper's Mag. March 644/2 The unveiling of Fielding's bust at Taunton. 1890 J. Baillie tr. H. Zschokke I. ii, Th' unveiling moon Which calls the adventurer forth.

Unveiled, ppl. a. [Un-1 8, or f. Unveil v.] Not covered with, free or freed from, a veil.

1606 N. [Baxter] Sydney's Ourania E 3 b, Leauing faire Tellus with vnuailed face, Diue and vmanniled. 1659 W. Chamberlayne Pharon. ii. 256 The unveiled face of War Looks big with horror. Ibid. ii. v. 326 Ere daves Affront unveiled report. 1717 Laud M. W. Montagu Let. to Pope 1 April, Their wives and daughters..go unveiled. 1801 Southey Thalaba vii. xxviii, Unveiled women bade the advancing youth Come merry-make with them! 1882 Scott Talism. vi, Richard's unveiled contempt for his brother sovereigns. 1890 J. Pulsford Loyalty to Christ I. 213 His higher and unveiled teaching belongs only to His disciples.

Hence Unveiledly adv.; Unveiledness.

